

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

Google's mission is to organize the world's information and to make it universally accessible and useful. Google Book Search helps readers discover the world's books while helping authors and publishers reach new audiences. You can search through the full text of this book on the web at http://books.google.com/

SNAVS AVS

A

GENERAL ABRIDGMENT

o f

TABLE

OF THE

Several TITLES, with their Divisions and Subdivisions.

Leadings as to Bailiff.	D.	Page
Production to banding.		•
Bailment.
Bailee. Answerable in what Cases	A.	3
Bailee. Who; and his Power and Interest.	B.	3
The several Sorts of Bailment	C.	11
Revocable. Or Property altered. In what Cases.	D.	12
Actions and Pleadings	E.	13
Bar.
Action. One Action where a Bar of another Action.
Of the like Nature	A.	16
Of another Nature	A. 2.	. 19
Where the Heir may bring a Writ for the same Thin	g
for which the Ancestor had brought a Writ.	A. 3.	. 23
Judgment in one Action, where a Bar in another	er
Action by the same Person.	B.	24
By or against another Person, it being for the san	16
Thing.	B. 2.	. 29
Action upon the Case, Bar to another Action on the Case		30
Discharge pro Tempore. In what Case, it shall be	-
Bar. And how.	D.	31
Restored to his Action.	12
In what Cases a Man may be.	E.	31
Bar. Good, to a common Intent.	F.	3 3
Baron and Feme.	_
Who shall be said to be Baron.	A.	35
In respect of their Age	C.	38
What of the Feme shall vest by the Marriage in the Husband;	•
• Freehold Lands. How	C. 2.	. 38
Chartels in Action.	D.	39
Real	E.	40
·

Separate

A TABLE of the several TITLES,

daron and Feme.
Separate Estate.	What f	all be sai	d the W	life's se	pa-	Page rate Estate.	•	•	-	-	E. 2.
Disposition by Ba		_		_		-
Of what I'hin		ven by In	itermart	iage Ba may dispose		-	-	-	F.	42
Things vest			• •	-	F. 2.	•
What shall be	iaid a D	npontion.	•	•	G.	48
Survive. To the Baron.	What
Things.	vv itæt.	•	•	_	H.	r a
Actions.	_	_	_	_	H. a.	5 2
To the Feme.	What.	_			22. 4.	144
Things.						•
Real.	•	·		C. a. I	). a. 116	, 117
Personal.			•	-	B. a.	•
Actions.	-	•		•	A. a.	108
Charged.	_	_	_	-
What Things t		do to c	harge 1	feme	aftér_	_
Baron's Deatl	h	•	-	•	L.	60
Feme bound.		n .1!		,	₹ -	6.
By her own A			به اد سمماک	•	L. 2.	61
By Ats done	by her a	na ner fri	Goto f.		P. ·	65
Incumbrances Wife.	by them	or the E	itate, &	c. or	P. 2.	68
By Charge of	F Baron.	-	_	-	1.	55
By her Agree	_	er his Dez	th.	•	Ż.	97
By Forfeiture				erture.
By Crimes of	either.	-	•	•	Z. 3.	•
What Thing	s the may	y make g	good afte	er Baro	n's	•
Death.	-	•	•	•	Y.
Baron bound.
By Act of Fe	me during	Coverto	re.	-	M. E. a.	119
Chargeable	for what	Debts of	the Per	ne con-	_	• • •
tracted bef			•		E. a. 2.
Though she					E. a. 3.
Second Baror	Wher	e charges	hie	_	E. a. 4. E. a. 5.
Survivor charged	or benefit	ed.	- -	_	E. a. 6.	_
Where the refer	ves Powe	r of her o	wn Estat	· .	E a. 7.
Pin-Money. Cas	ses relatin	g thereto.		-	E. a. 8.	_
Feme relieved aga	ainst the A	icts of the	Baron.		E. a. 9.
Leales made of th	e Wife's	Estate.	-	-	E. a. 10.
What Things Fer		o. ·	-	-	K.	_
Without her Ba		•	•		N.	62
With her Baror				•.•	N. 2.	63
What Things the	reme m	lay be lai	d to do	with he		6.
Husband.	Solo Fin	ether Ca	Con abon	- - V	O.	65
Acting as a Feme fole Merchant]		omer Ca	ies chan	as rem		64
Actions by Baron		nel Conv	- erlation :	with the	N. 3.	64
Feme, and Ple	adinos.	mar Conv.		AICH CIR	O. 2.	65
Actions by them,		f them.		_	- 1 -1	-7
What Baron m	ay have	alone. an	d yet in	Right o	of his Wife.	3	9	,	•	_	70
Where they m	ust join.	•	•	-	Q. R. S.	70 76, 79 May
-	-					Mare
						May

With their Divisions and Subdivisions.

Waron and Fente.			Page
May join,	T.		82
Commenced by or against Feme Sole, who after marries		2.	90
By Baron and Feme de Facto, or one of them.	T.		92
Judgment confessed to or by Feme Sole who marries		• before Entry	T.	4.	92
Actions against them.		•
Where they must be joined.	X.		95
May be joined.	U.		93
What. Against the Baron, because of the Feme.	-
During the Coverture.		a .	141
After her Death.	G.		142
Default of the Baron where the Default of the Feme.  Arrest, &c. of Feme.	I. K.		145
Where the Baron is banished, or an Alien, or be-		4.	147
yond Sea.	L.	a .	152
Where they are said to be one Person in Law.	$\widetilde{\mathbf{M}}$ .		153
Acts by one to the other	N.		154
Acts and Agreement of the Wife (with Strangers) be-	477		-74 fore Marriage, in Fraud of the Husband. Avoided,	,
in what Cases		a,	159
Agreements extinguished by the Marriage	Q.	a.	161
Will by Feme.	R.	a.	164
Grant to Feme. Good in what Cases. Where she	•
	M.		0
Disputes. Inter se		a.	158
As to ill Usage.		a.	172
Where they live separate Cases of Alimony or separate Maintenance.	W.	a. a.	. •
Executrix.	A.	a,	175
What the may do without the Husband.	Y.	1.	179
What Power the Husband of Executrix has.	Ž.		180
What Ast of the Baron of Executrix alters the Property of the Goods to himself	A.	b.	181
In what Cases the Husband must take Administration.	B.	b.	182
Actions. Pleadings.	_	_	_
Writ and Declaration.	C.	b.	183
Pleadings and Judgment where Baron and Feme are		L	• • •
Defendants	D.		193
Damages and Costs where Judgment is for or against both, Equity.	, C.	υ.	198
	F.	b.	199
Where on a Bill, &c. by Baron for the Wife's Por-			• 77
	G.	b.	201
In what Cases Equity will order the Baron to inforce	I or procure the Feme to do an Act.	H.	b.	203 Crimes and Offences by the Feme. What and how	_ punishable	I.	b.	203
Divorce.	T T
	K.	_	-
What Alteration it makes in the Estate.	L.	D.	207
Actions by or against the Baron or Feme after Divorce.	M.	h.	207
	NVA 6	~.	207
Barretors.	Α.		200
In general, and their Punishment	A.	7 -	208
Pleadings and Proceedings	B .		209
A 2			ard.

Machael		Daga
Baltard.	A	Page
Who, in respect of the Time of his Birth.	A. A. 2.	213
Born in Marriage, and in respect thereof.	B.	215 216
Who a Bastard, and who a Mulier  How considered in Law	Č.	219
By our Law, and Mulier by the Civil Law.	D.	219
By the Spiritual Law, and Mulier by our Law.	Ĕ.	220
By both Laws.	F.	220
What Divorce Bastardizes the Issue.	G.	221
Divorce made. When it shall bastardize the Issu	_ and what the Ecclesiastical Court may enquire ast	- the Death of them, or either of them.	H.	222
Pleadings	H. 2.	225
Trial	I.	228
How, and by whom.	K.	228
In what Actions, and how certified.	L.	230
Who shall take Advantage of the Trial of Bastar and of what Trial, and e contra	M.	230
At what Time the Trial shall bind.	N.	232
Bastardy proved. When.	Ο.	232
Where Bastard shall take by Grant or Devise.	P.	233
Bermick.	A.	234
Bezond Sea.
What is. And the Effect of Persons beyond Sea.	A.	235
Of Things done beyond Sea. And Pleadings.	B .	236
Bills of Erchange, Notes, ac.
What are Bills of Exchange	A.	238
Demandable and payable. When. How. And	of	• whom	B.	241
Payable to whom. In respect of the Words	C.	243
Where there is a Cesty que Use.	D .	243
Of Bills payable to Bearer.	E.	243
Where the Words are imperfect.	F.	244
Drawer chargeable. In what Cases	G.	245
Indorsor. In what Cases liable. What Indorsee m		6
do and prove	H.	246
Acceptance. What is good.  Acceptor. Liable in what Cases.	I. - K.	249
Where the Acceptance is for the Honour of	•	251
Drawer or Indorfer	L.	251
Time of Demand and Protesting	M.	253
Actions. What Actions lie.	N.	255
Pleadings	0.	256
Evidence	P.	264
Recovered. What. Damages, &c	Q.	266
Remedy for Bills loft.	R.	267
Equity	s.	267
Planks.	A.	268
Blood Corrupted.
In what Cases.	A,	268
Barred, Who.	В.	270
Restored. And Restitution of what on Reversal of	_	-,- tainders	- C.	274
Blunderg.	A.	277
Books and Authors.	A.	278
		•
•	Potts	atter ha

		Page
Pottomry-Bonds.	A.	279
Bridges.		, ,
Repaired. How	A.	282
Actions, Indictments, and Informations	•
In what Cases. And Pleadings	В.	284
Bringing Ponep into Court.	•
In what Cases; and when; and Pleadings.	A.	291
Delivered to the Plaintiff, or re-delivered to the De fendant. In what Cases.	В.	298
Allowed. Upon what Plea	č.	299
The Effect of accepting the Money brought into Court	. D.	300
Burrough.	A.	301
Bp-Laws.
Made. By whom they may be.	A.	301
Good, or not.	A. 2	_
		3.] 309
Of what Things By-laws may be made. And who
How made for Recovery of the Penalty.	В. С.	309 316
Pleadings	D.	317
Canons.		J-1
Good. And the Force of them.	A.	319
Certainty in Pleadings.		5 )
Requisite. In what Cases	A.	325
Intendment and Implication. What shall be intended, &c	. B.	329
Certiorari.		•
Out of what Court it ought to issue, and to whom.	A.	330
To what Court it may be granted.	В.	332
What Records shall be removed by it.	B. 2
Directed. To what Persons Certified how. In what Cases the Tenor, and in what	B. 3	3. 339
the Record itself.	C.	340
Lies. In what Cases	D.	342
Necessary. In what Cases	E.	346
At what Time	F.	347
One or more Writs	G.	349
Obtained or granted. How. And by whom.  In what Cases. And for what	H.	250
Removed by it. What is, or should be. And how.	44.	350
And what is a good Removal	I.	353
Returned or certified. By whom, and how. And fall
Return punished; how.	K.	355
Variance, and the Effect thereof, and of false Returns.  Return. What is a bad Return, and what no Return.		356
Procedendo. In what Cases	N.	357 358
The Effect of a Certiorari; and Proceedings, &c. after		359
Costs. In what Cases	P.	361
Of the Proceedings of the Superior or Inferior Cour	_	_
after Certiorari issued.	Q.	361
In Chancery, and Proceedings thereon.	R.	362
By Statute. And of one where it shall be of another.	A.	363
Lies.	-
Of what.	B.	364
		For

A. TABLE of the several TITLES,

Cellabit.	P	age
For whom.		365
Against whom	D.	366
Brought. How. And Abatement of Writ and Count.		367
Plea.	F.	369
Judgment. And of the Tender of Arrears, and finding	g
Surety for the Arrears	~~	37 I
Cession.	A	73
Chancellor of a Church.		_
• • • • • • • • • • • • • • • • • • • •	11.	73
Chancellor of England.	_
His Antiquity, &c.	A.	374
Chancellor. Keeper. Writs Original.	B.	375
Chancellor. Keeper	C.	376
Chanterp.
Chancery, &c A.—A. 2	-B. 278.	370
Chancellor. What Things he may do, and what not. D	. E.	380
Mispleading. The Effect thereof		381
Of what Chancery may have Conusance. The ordinar		J
Power	·	382
Of what Things Chancery may hold Plea.		381
Of what Actions Chancery may hold Plea.		38 2
Of what Cases Chancery may hold Plea		388
What Power the Chancery hath.	K.	383
Relieved in Chancery.		3°3
What Persons may be	L.	385
Where they have Remedy at Common Law.	v	_
Such as have deprived themselves of their Remed		399
at Common Law by their own Act.		3 88
	4 •	400
Against a Literating appropriate the Agreement of	ب	•
Against a Deed not being against the Agreement of	ν £
the Parties	T.	396
the Parties	r T. N.	39 6 386
the Parties	of T. N. R. 390,	39 6 386 391
the Parties.  What Things.  Not against a Maxim in Law.  Not against a Statute.	T. N. R. 390, S.	396 386 391
the Parties.  What Things.  Not against a Maxim in Law.  Not against a Statute.  At what Time after Judgment, &c.	T. N. R. 390, S. Y.	396 386 391 395
the Parties.  What Things.  Not against a Maxim in Law.  Not against a Statute.  At what Time after Judgment, &c.  Review of Decree. In what Cases.	T. N. R. 390, S. Y.	396 386 391
the Parties.  What Things.  Not against a Maxim in Law.  Not against a Statute.  At what Time after Judgment, &c.  Review of Decree. In what Cases.  Bill of Review.	T. N. R. 390, S. Y. Z.	396 386 391 395 402 407
the Parties.  What Things.  Not against a Maxim in Law.  Not against a Statute.  At what Time after Judgment, &c.  Review of Decree. In what Cases.  Bill of Review.  By and against whom.	T. N. R. 390, S. Y. Z.	396 386 391 395 402 407
the Parties.  What Things.  Not against a Maxim in Law.  Not against a Statute.  At what Time after Judgment, &c.  Review of Decree. In what Cases.  Bill of Review.  By and against whom.  On what Terms.	T. N. R. 390, S. Y. Z. Z. 2.	396 386 391 395 402 407
the Parties.  What Things.  Not against a Maxim in Law.  Not against a Statute.  At what Time after Judgment, &c.  Review of Decree. In what Cases.  Bill of Review.  By and against whom.  On what Terms.  At what Time.	T. N. R. 390, S. Y. Z. Z. 2. Z. 3. Z. 4.	396 386 391 395 407 410 410
the Parties.  What Things.  Not against a Maxim in Law.  Not against a Statute.  At what Time after Judgment, &c.  Review of Decree. In what Cases.  Bill of Review.  By and against whom.  On what Terms.  At what Time.  Pleas. And what may be affigured for Error.	T. N. R. 390, S. Y. Z. Z. 2. Z. 3. Z. 4. Z. 5.	396 386 391 395 407 410 412 413
the Parties.  What Things.  Not against a Maxim in Law.  Not against a Statute.  At what Time after Judgment, &c.  Review of Decree. In what Cases.  Bill of Review.  By and against whom.  On what Terms.  At what Time.  Pleas. And what may be assigned for Error.  Costs and Damages. On Bills of Review.	T. N. R. 390, S. Y. Z. Z. 2. Z. 3. Z. 4. Z. 5. Z. 6.	396 386 391 395 407 410 412 413 414
the Parties.  What Things.  Not against a Maxim in Law.  Not against a Statute.  At what Time after Judgment, &c.  Review of Decree. In what Cases.  Bill of Review.  By and against whom.  On what Terms.  At what Time.  Pleas. And what may be assigned for Error.  Costs and Damages. On Bills of Review.  Costs. In what Cases in general. And how.	T. N. R. 390, S. Y. Z. Z. Z. A. A. a.	396 386 391 395 407 410 412 413
the Parties.  What Things.  Not against a Maxim in Law.  Not against a Statute.  At what Time after Judgment, &c.  Review of Decree. In what Cases.  Bill of Review.  By and against whom.  On what Terms.  At what Time.  Pleas. And what may be assigned for Error.  Costs and Damages. On Bills of Review.  Costs. In what Cases in general. And how.  Suit. Prosecuted. How; or in what Cases inferior	T. N. R. 390, S. Y. Z. Z. 2. Z. 3. Z. 4. Z. 5. Z. 6. A. a.	396 386 391 395 407 410 412 413 414
the Parties.  What Things.  Not against a Maxim in Law.  Not against a Statute.  At what Time after Judgment, &c.  Review of Decree. In what Cases.  Bill of Review.  By and against whom.  On what Terms.  At what Time.  Pleas. And what may be assigned for Error.  Costs and Damages. On Bills of Review.  Costs. In what Cases in general. And how.  Suit. Prosecuted. How; or in what Cases inferior Courts of Equity, exceeding their Authority, sha	T. N. R. 390, S. Y. Z. Z. 3. Z. 4. Z. 6. A. a. or	396 386 391 395 407 410 412 413 414
the Parties.  What Things.  Not against a Maxim in Law.  Not against a Statute.  At what Time after Judgment, &c.  Review of Decree. In what Cases.  Bill of Review.  By and against whom.  On what Terms.  At what Time.  Pleas. And what may be affigned for Error.  Costs and Damages. On Bills of Review.  Costs. In what Cases in general. And how.  Suit. Prosecuted. How; or in what Cases inferior Courts of Equity, exceeding their Authority, sha be prohibited.	T. N. R. 390, S. Y. Z. Z. 3. Z. 4. Z. 5. Z. 6. A. a. or	396 386 395 407 410 413 414 415
the Parties.  What Things.  Not against a Maxim in Law.  Not against a Statute.  At what Time after Judgment, &c.  Review of Decree. In what Cases.  Bill of Review.  By and against whom.  On what Terms.  At what Time.  Pleas. And what may be assigned for Error.  Costs and Damages. On Bills of Review.  Costs. In what Cases in general. And how.  Suit. Prosecuted. How; or in what Cases inferior Courts of Equity, exceeding their Authority, sha be prohibited.  Examination of Witnesses in Perpetuam Rei Memoriam	T. N. R. 390, S. Y. Z. Z. 2. Z. 3. Z. 4. Z. 6. A. a. B. a. C. a.	396 386 395 407 410 413 414 415
What Things.  Not against a Maxim in Law.  Not against a Statute.  At what Time after Judgment, &c.  Review of Decree. In what Cases.  Bill of Review.  By and against whom.  On what Terms.  At what Time.  Pleas. And what may be assigned for Error.  Costs and Damages. On Bills of Review.  Costs. In what Cases in general. And how.  Suit. Prosecuted. How; or in what Cases inferior Courts of Equity, exceeding their Authority, shat be prohibited.  Examination of Witnesses in Perpetuam Rei Memoriam Bills in Chancery. For what in general.	T. N. 390, S. Y. Z. 2. 3. Z. 4. Z. 6. A. a. P. B. a. D. a.	396 396 397 407 410 413 414 415 419 421
the Parties.  What Things.  Not against a Maxim in Law.  Not against a Statute.  At what Time after Judgment, &c.  Review of Decree. In what Cases.  Bill of Review.  By and against whom.  On what Terms.  At what Time.  Pleas. And what may be affigned for Error.  Costs and Damages. On Bills of Review.  Costs. In what Cases in general. And how.  Suit. Prosecuted. How; or in what Cases inferior Courts of Equity, exceeding their Authority, sha be prohibited.  Examination of Witnesses in Perpetuam Rei Memoriam Bills in Chancery. For what in general.  Relief. Against what Persons. The King.	T. N. 390, S. Y. Z. 2. 3. 4. Z. 6. A. a. B. a. E. a. E. a.	386 387 387 387 387 387 387 387 387 387 387
the Parties.  What Things.  Not against a Maxim in Law.  Not against a Statute.  At what Time after Judgment, &c.  Review of Decree. In what Cases.  Bill of Review.  By and against whom.  On what Terms.  At what Time.  Pleas. And what may be affigned for Error.  Costs and Damages. On Bills of Review.  Costs. In what Cases in general. And how.  Suit. Prosecuted. How; or in what Cases inferior Courts of Equity, exceeding their Authority, shat be prohibited.  Examination of Witnesses in Perpetuam Rei Memoriam Bills in Chancery. For what in general.  Relief. Against what Persons. The King.  Who may join, or be joined, in a Bill.	T. N. 390, S. Y. Z. 2. 3. 4. 5. A. a. B. a. a. a. F. a. a. a.	386 387 387 387 387 387 387 387 387 387 387
the Parties.  What Things.  Not against a Maxim in Law.  Not against a Statute.  At what Time after Judgment, &c.  Review of Decree. In what Cases.  Bill of Review.  By and against whom.  On what Terms.  At what Time.  Pleas. And what may be affigned for Error.  Costs and Damages. On Bills of Review.  Costs. In what Cases in general. And how.  Suit. Prosecuted. How; or in what Cases inferior.  Courts of Equity, exceeding their Authority, shat be prohibited.  Examination of Witnesses in Perpetuam Rei Memoriam Bills in Chancery. For what in general.  Relief. Against what Persons. The King.  Who may join, or be joined, in a Bill.  Abatement of Suits. In what Cases, and by what.	T. N. 390, S. Y. Z. 2. 3. 4. 5. A. a. B. a. A. B. a. G. a. G	386 387 387 387 387 387 387 413 413 413 414 414 414 414 414 414 414
What Things.  Not against a Maxim in Law.  Not against a Statute.  At what Time after Judgment, &c.  Review of Decree. In what Cases.  Bill of Review.  By and against whom.  On what Terms.  At what Time.  Pleas. And what may be affigned for Error.  Costs and Damages. On Bills of Review.  Costs. In what Cases in general. And how.  Suit. Prosecuted. How; or in what Cases inferior.  Courts of Equity, exceeding their Authority, shat be prohibited.  Examination of Witnesses in Perpetuam Rei Memoriam Bills in Chancery. For what in general.  Relief. Against what Persons. The King.  Who may join, or be joined, in a Bill.  Abatement of Suits. In what Cases, and by what.  Revivor. Bill of. Who may have it.	T. N. 390, S. Y. Z. 3. 4. 5. 6. a. B. a. a. a. A. a. H. a.	386 387 395 40 413 415 417 417 417 417 417 417 417 417 417 417
the Parties.  What Things.  Not against a Maxim in Law.  Not against a Statute.  At what Time after Judgment, &c.  Review of Decree. In what Cases.  Bill of Review.  By and against whom.  On what Terms.  At what Time.  Pleas. And what may be affigned for Error.  Costs and Damages. On Bills of Review.  Costs. In what Cases in general. And how.  Suit. Prosecuted. How; or in what Cases inferior Courts of Equity, exceeding their Authority, shat be prohibited.  Examination of Witnesses in Perpetuam Rei Memoriam Bills in Chancery. For what in general.  Relief. Against what Persons. The King.  Who may join, or be joined, in a Bill.  Abatement of Suits. In what Cases, and by what.  Revivor. Bill of. Who may have it.  Against whom.	T. N. 390, S. Y. Z. 3. 4. 5. 6. a. B. C. D. a.	386 387 395 40 413 414 415 419 427 429 433
the Parties.  What Things.  Not against a Maxim in Law.  Not against a Statute.  At what Time after Judgment, &c.  Review of Decree. In what Cases.  Bill of Review.  By and against whom.  On what Terms.  At what Time.  Pleas. And what may be assigned for Error.  Costs and Damages. On Bills of Review.  Costs. In what Cases in general. And how.  Suit. Prosecuted. How; or in what Cases inferior.  Courts of Equity, exceeding their Authority, shat be prohibited.  Examination of Witnesses in Perpetuam Rei Memoriam Bills in Chancery. For what in general.  Relief. Against what Persons. The King.  Who may join, or be joined, in a Bill.  Abatement of Suits. In what Cases, and by what.  Revivor. Bill of. Who may have it.  Against whom.  How.	T. N. 390, R. 390, S. Y. Z. Z. Z. Z. A.	386 387 387 387 387 387 387 387 387 387 387
the Parties.  What Things.  Not against a Maxim in Law.  Not against a Statute.  At what Time after Judgment, &c.  Review of Decree. In what Cases.  Bill of Review.  By and against whom.  On what Terms.  At what Time.  Pleas. And what may be assigned for Error.  Costs and Damages. On Bills of Review.  Costs. In what Cases in general. And how.  Suit. Prosecuted. How; or in what Cases inferior.  Courts of Equity, exceeding their Authority, shat be prohibited.  Examination of Witnesses in Perpetuam Rei Memoriam Bills in Chancery. For what in general.  Relief. Against what Persons. The King.  Who may join, or be joined, in a Bill.  Abatement of Suits. In what Cases, and by what.  Revivor. Bill of. Who may have it.  Against whom.  How.  In what Cases.	T. N. 390, N. S. Y.Z. Z. Z. Z. Z. Z. A.	3833900 41141 4191 78 90 344 4141 4191 78 90 344 434
the Parties.  What Things.  Not against a Maxim in Law.  Not against a Statute.  At what Time after Judgment, &c.  Review of Decree. In what Cases.  Bill of Review.  By and against whom.  On what Terms.  At what Time.  Pleas. And what may be assigned for Error.  Costs and Damages. On Bills of Review.  Costs. In what Cases in general. And how.  Suit. Prosecuted. How; or in what Cases inferior.  Courts of Equity, exceeding their Authority, shat be prohibited.  Examination of Witnesses in Perpetuam Rei Memoriam Bills in Chancery. For what in general.  Relief. Against what Persons. The King.  Who may join, or be joined, in a Bill.  Abatement of Suits. In what Cases, and by what.  Revivor. Bill of. Who may have it.  Against whom.  How.	T. N. 390, N. S. Y.Z. Z. Z. Z. Z. Z. A.	3833900 411415 419178 903446 41415 99178 903446

With their Divisions and Subdivisions.

Chanterp.		Page
Necessary. In what Cases	N. a	436
Done on Bill of Revivor, what must or may be.	О. а
Pleas and Demurrers to Bills of Revivor.	P. 2
Costs. In what Cases on Bills of Revivor.	Q. a
Of fecond Supplemental Bills.	R. a Answer. What is a full and perfect Answer. Where it must be fully and directly, or where to his Re-	_ membrance, &c. is sufficient.	S. a
By whom, and in what Cases it must be upon Oath.	T . a	448
Where it shall conclude, or charge or discharge the	-
Defendant.	U. 2
Where there is a Plea or Demurrer.	W. 2	V - 1
In what Cases the Answer of one shall affect the other.  How to be made and sworn, where a Corporation is		l. 443
Desendant
Taken how. And at what Time.	Y. 2 Z. 2
Of putting in Answers where there is a Cross Bill.
Of the Traverse.	B. b	• 444
Referring Bills or Answers for Scandal, Impertinence,		444
Insufficiency, &c.	C. 1	. 445
In what Cases a Bill shall be taken pro Consesso, after	,	כדד יי
a full Answer.	D. }	. 446
· Amendment. In what Cases in Proceedings in Equity.	E. I Relief without a Bill, or not prayed.	F. t	• • •
Charge.		••
Made by one. In what Cases it shall bind another.	A.	449
On Land What is, and on what Land	B.	453
Where on the Personal Estate	C.	455
Where on the Real Estate.	D.	458
Where on the Personal Estate, and where on the Real	,	••• and on which first.	E.	467
Apportioned. In what Cases.	F.	47,1
Discharged. When	G.	471
By Perception of Profits.	H.	475
Good or not. In respect of the Possession, &c. of	_
Want of Possession, &c. in the Person charging it.	I.	47,5
Charitable Ales.		_
By the Statute 43 Eliz.	A.	476
Established, though the Conveyance was defective.	B.	479
Grant or Devise to Charitable Uses. Good in respect o	_	. ^
the Words of the Gift, and the Persons to whom.	C.	483
Altered	D. E.	486
Trustees, &c. favoured; or punished for Misbeha		488
viour, &c. In what Cases	F.	402
Commissioners. Their Power. And Decrees made by		493 them confirmed, or set aside	G.	496
Proceedings. And Exceptions to Decrees	H.	498
Chaunterp.		7,5
By whom it may be made.	A.	501
In what Place.	B.	502
Chimin Common.		7-4
What shall be said a common Highway.	Δ
Who ought to repair it.	B.	502
Privileged from Duty. Who	Č.	503 505
		Offences

A TABLE of the several TITLES,

.*

Chimin Common.		Page
Offences in Highways punished. How.	D.	505
Proceedings, Pleadings, and Judgment.	E.	506
Chimin Private.
Intitled to a Way. How Persons may be.	A.	513
Soil and Things thereupon belong to whom.	B.	515
Interruption. What is. And Remedy for the same.	Ċ.	516
Made unpassable, &c. Remedy. And of setting ou		,,,, new Ways.	D.	517
Extinguished by Unity	E.	517
Pass. By what Words or Conveyance	F.	518
Actions	G.	518
Pleadings	H.	519
Church-wardens.
- Their Capacity	A.	525
The Power of them, and of the Parish.	A. 2.	525
Election	B.	5 <sup>2</sup> 7
Favoured or relieved, or not	Č.	528
Actions by or against them; and what Remedy they		3-0 have when their Time is expired.	D.	530
Circuity of Acion.		33~
What is a Bar to it.	A
	Λ.	532
Circumbention	A.	534
Citation out of the Diocels.
By Statute Hen. 8.	A.	535
Clerk of the Parket.
His Power	A.	539
Clerk of a Parish	A.	540
		340
Clerk of the Peace.
His Office. And appointed, and discharged by whom	• and for what.	A.	541
Client and Attornep.
Disputes between them as to Deeds, &c. in the Hands	3 of the Attorney	A.	543
Other Matter in General.	B.	544
Collateral.
What. And the Effect thereof.	A.	546
Promise. The Effect thereof	B.	546
Security	C.	548
Collation.	'
What is. In what Cases it may be, and the Effect	t thereof	A.	549
Colleges.		J.,
How confidered, &c.	A .	551
	444	551
Colour in Pleadings.
What is, and the Reason thereof.	A. D	552
In what Actions Colour may, or must be given.	B. C.	554
Good. What		559
In a Writ of Trespass of Goods taken, and what not.		561
Where given by an Estate which is void or determin-	_	-K-ed where nothing naffes	E.	565
By claiming in by Deed, &c. where nothing passes.		566
•	W	thout

Colour in Pleadings. Without alledging or confessing Possession or Property	Page in the Plaintiff G.	567
Where given, and after destroyed by pleading, or	34/given by a Stranger, or one whose Estate appears to be defeated and avoided.	568
	500
In what Actions without an immediate Entry upon the Plaintiff I.	-60 569
Commissions and Commissioners.	570
Good, and what may or must be done by Commission, and what by Writ A.	571
Who may be Commissioners, and their Power. B.	572
Misbehaviour. What. Punished. How C.	572
Commissions granted. In what Cases, and how to be executed D.	574
New Commissioners granted. In what Cases, and how E.	574
Commission of Rebellion A.	576
Commitment.	37
— · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·
Form of Commitments. How. In Cases not criminal.	576
Common.
As Lord A.	577
Of the Lord. Who shall have it B.	578
Appendant. What; and how C.	579
The several Sorts of Common Appendant D.	580 Appendant.
To what it shall be E.	581
For what Cattle F.	582
For how many Cattle G.	583
By whose Cattle it may be used H.	585
Sans Number. How it may be, and how used. I.	586
By reason of Vicinage, and Pleadings, - K.	587 Appurtenant.
What is L.	589
How it may be, and for what Cattle M.	591
How it shall be used. With what Cattle N.	593
Pleadings N. 2.	593
In Gross.
How it may begin / O.	594
For what Cattle : - P.	595
By the Cattle of whom Q.	595
What shall be said Common in Gross R.	596
What shall be a good Grant S.	596
In what Place it shall be taken T.	597
In what Time it is to be taken U.	598
Seifin X.	599
Of one, where shall serve for others. Y.	600

Bailiff.

Pleadings.

I. TN trespass the defendant justified as bailiff of J. S. to dif- Br. Traverse L train for rent arrear, and the plaintiff said, that riens arrear, 147. Cites . and a good iffue against the bailiff; contra against the lord S. C. and . bimself; note the diversity. Br. Trespass, pl. 206. cites 44 H. there the plaintiff re-6. 5. plied, that he is not bailiff; prift; and there see this held to be a good plea.——But contra if he says that be as baiiff, and by bis command took the diffrest; for command suffices though he be not bailiff. Br. Tra-Verke per &cc. pl. 147. cites 14 H. 6. 5.

2. Bailiff shall have every challenge to the array and polls as his master shall have. Br. Baillie, pl. 29. cites 9 H. 7. 24, per tot. cur.

3. And may say, that the tenements are in another vill, but bailiff sball net disclaim in the land, contra of attorney, and bailiff may plead misnosmer of his master, and the other pleas triable by the assisse. Ibid.

If there are two coparceners of a rent, and the one distrains and avows for himself, and justifies as bailiff of his companion, it is not traversable that he is not bailiff. Br. Traverse per, &c. pl.

118. cites 15 H. 7. 17. 5. In affise, if J. S. appears as bailist of the tenant, it is not traversable if he be bailiff or not. Br. Traverse per, &c. pl. 345.

cites 15 H. 7. 17.

- Replevin, the defendant made cognizance as bailiff to the E. S. C. eited of Bedford, whereas in truth he was not his bailiff, but took the Ch. J. but diftress against his will. It was held, that the plaintiff cannot denied by traverse, that he was not his bailiff, for it is not iffuable; nor him in delican the earl disavow it, for he is not party; nor can the earl have an action upon the case, because he is not damnified; but the court. the party whose cattle are taken, may bring an action of trespass for taking his cattle; and if the defendant justifies as bailiff, he may say, de son tort demesne absque tali causa, and so Ann. C. B. Cro. E. 14. pl. 3. Pasch. 25 Eliz. C. B. the Earl in case of punish him. of Bedford's case.
- In trespass the defendant justified as bailiff to J. S. The Not his baiplaintiff replied, that he took his cattle of his own wrong, and traversed his being bailiff. Anderson Ch. J. said, that if one has cause to distrain my goods, and a stranger of his own wrong takes my goods not as bailiff or servant to the other, and I bring trespais vering the opinion of 112. pl. 8. Pasch. 6 Trevillian v. Pinc.

liff is not a good traverie in trepols; Arg. Roll. Rep. 46. pl. 13. in Let's ŧ ease, cites

gy, H. 6. 3.
and the reporter says, that the reason given in that case is, because if the franktenement be in a stranger, the plaintiff
has no colour to have

país against him, he cannot excuse himself by fathering his misdemeanors upon me; for once he was a trespassor, and his intent was manisest. But if one distreins as bailiss, tho in truth he is not bailiss, if he, in whose right he does it, does afterwards assent to it, he shall not be punished as a trespassor; for the assent shall have relation to the time of the distress taken, and so is the book of 7 Hen. 4. and to all this Periam agreed. And Anderson held clearly, that the taking in this case is not good, to which Rhodes agreed. Godb. 109, 110. pl. 129. Mich. 28 & 29 Eliz. C. B. Anon.

trespass, be the desendant bailiss or not; but there it is held, that in avorwry for rent as bailiss to is stranger such traverse is good, because there was no trespass done if he was not his bailiss. And so the reporter says it is in the principal case of Lee v. . . . The taking the beasts of the plaintiss in the franktenement of a stranger is a tort to the plaintiss, unless he had good authority from the stranger to take them; for it may be, the stranger may bring trespass for the damage done by the beasts, and then which way can the plaintiss aid himself against the desendant, unless by this traverse; ideo quarre.

In replevin the defendant made conusance as bailiff to J. S. S. C. cited for damage feasant; the plaintiff replied, that one A. did pretend Arg. Ld. right to the land where, &c. and that the defendant took them Raym. Rep. 310. in case in right of the said A. absque hoc that he took them as bailiss to J. S. and upon demurrer all the justices held clearly, that the of Britton v. Cale.—S.P. traverse is good. And as to a matter which was objected, that 1 Saik. 107. if this traverse should be allowed, the meaning of the desendant pl. 1. Tre-Viljan v. will be drawn in question, they said, that the same is not any Pyne, and mischief; for so it is in other cases, as in the case of rethe traverse caption. 2 Le. 215, 216. pl. 274. Pasch. 29 Ehz. C. B. Fulheld to be well taken; ler v. Trimwell. and a difference observed between an action of tresposs quare clausum fregit, and an action of trespass for taking cattle er replevin; in the first case, if the defendant justifies an entry to the tluse by command, or as bajliff to one in whom he alledges the freehold to be, the plaintiff shall not in his replication traverse the command; because it would admit the truth of the rest of the plea, viz. that the freehold was in J. S. and not in the plaintiff, which would be sufficient to bar his action, whether the defendant was impowered by J. S. to enter, or not impowered; for it is not material that the defendant has done a wrong to a stranger, if it be none to the plaintiff; but in the other two cases, if the desendant justifies taking my cattle as bailiff to J. S. in whom he lays a title to take them, as for distress or other cause, there it may be material to traverse the command or authority; for tho' J. S. had right to take the cattle, yet a fifanger who had no authority from him will be liable; so that both parts of the demodant's plea in this case must be true, and therefore an answer to any part is sufficient; so in trespals for taking goods. ——— 1! Mod. 112. pl. 8. Palch. 6 Ann. C. B. the S. C. adjudged accordingly, that in replevin or avowry the being bailiff is traverfable; for otherwise a man might be twice charged; for suppose the lord brought trespass, and the tenant pleaded the recovery in the replevin, this shall not conclude the lord; for it would be very mischievous that the lord should be concluded, and not be able to say that he was not his bailiff, and had no authority express or implied. An agreement or consent subsequent will amount to an authority, &c. and the whole court agreed that it is traversable.

The bailiff 9. In an avorury for an amerciament in a court leet upon a without spevill, for not making a tumbrel and stocks, he must alledge, that the cial warrant pain is unpaid to the lord, because if any other of the vill has paid from the the pain, the plaintiff is not distrainable; also he must plead the fleward, cannot ditrain for an precept of the steward for taking the distress, or levying the pain. and the extract of the court, which the bailiff ought to have for amerciament Mo. 574. pl. 789. Trin. 40 Eliz. Scroggs v. Stein a leet. his warrant. Mo. 607. venson. pl. 839.

Tein. 40 & 41 Eliz. in case of Stevenson v. Scroggs. Cro. E. 698. pl. 11. Mich. 41 & 42

- Ella, B. R. Steventon v. Scropps, S. C. and Popharn faid, that the defendant as bailiff of the manor cannot diffrain for an amerciament by realen of his office, without an especial warrant from the Seward or lord, no more than a sheriff may levy amerciaments of this court without warrant; but Gawdy e contra; that he may referain for lawful anterciaments, by reason of the office; but he cannot enter for a condition broken.
- In replevin the defendant justified, for that the place S. C. cited where is the freehold of the dean of P. and that he as his bailiff took the cattle damage feasant; the plaintiff replied, de injuria sua 310. in case propria, absque boc that he is his bailiff. It was objected, that the of Britton plaintiff could not traverse that the defendant was bailiff, because he bad confessed the franktenement in the dean, in whose right he justified. And judgment was given per cur. viz. Croke, Doderidge, and Haughton, that the plea [replication] is not good, and so against the plaintiff. Roll. Rep. 46. Trin. 12 Jac. B. R.

Raym. Rep.

In replevin, the defendant made conusance as bailiff of 7. S. for a rent-charge; plaintiff pleaded in bar, that he took the distress without the privity or command of J. S. and that such a day after J. S. had first notice of it, and then disavowed the taking aforefaid. Defendant demurred generally; and per cur. the bar is for rent, &c. ill; for he ought to have traversed the being bailiff, and was ruled to replead so, and to amend his bar, paying costs, and to go to trial traverses, whethet bailiff or not. 3 Lev. 20. Pasch. 33 Car. 2. C. B. Dob- that the defon v. Douglas.

In replevin, the defendant made conusance as bailiff to B. the plaints replies, and fendant was bailiff to B.

and iffue thereupon, and after verdict a motion was made for a repleader, but denied a per cur. for tho this is not traversable, and it had been ill upon demurrer, yet after verdict it is good, and is not such an immaterial issue as to cause the granting of a repleader. Ld. Raym. Rep. 405. Mich. 10 W. 3. Redding v. Lion.

A. swowed as a bailiff for rent, his being bailiff is not traversable; per Holt Ch. J. 12 Mod. 321.

Mich. 11 W. 3. B. R. ... v. Goudier.

*[3]

For more of Bailiss in general, see Attount, Water and Serbant, Replebin, and other proper titles.

23 ailment.

(A) Bailment. [In what Cases the Bailee is answerable.]

Foi. 338.

[1. ] F a man pawns goods to me for money, and I put them Br. Bail among my other goods, and all are stole before any tender of ment, pl. 7. the money, I shall not answer to him for the goods, for I had a cites S. C. but S. P. property in the goods for the time. 29 Ass. 28. adjudged.] does not appear. — Co.

Litte 89. a. S. P. accordingly. _____4 Rep. 83. b. S. P. resolved in Southente's case. -Desinue de Biens, pl 35. cites S. C.——If I bail goeds to you, and you are robbed of them, this [2. But it had been otherwise, if the tender of the money taken upon the tender. was before the stealing, (for by the tender the property was retender. Br. Detinue vested in the mortgagor) and I but a bailee. 29 Ass. adde Biens, pl. judged.]

35. C. & S. P:———Br. Bailment, &c. pl. 7. cites S. C. but S. P. does not appear.———S. C. and same diversity cited by Doderidge J. Roll. Rep. 129.———Co. Litt. 89. a. same diversity taken accordingly.———S. P. resolved accordingly. 4 Rep. 83. b. Pasch. 43 Eliz. B. R. in South-cote's case.———2 Ld. Raym. Rep. 917. in case of Coggs v. Barnard, says, that the bailee's having a special property in the pawn is not the reason of the case, and there is another reason given for it in the Book of Assis, and which is indeed the true reason of all these cases, viz. that the law requires nothing extraordinary of the pawnee, but only that he shall use an ordinary care for the restoring the goods; but indeed, if the money for which the goods were pawned be tendered to the pawnee before they are lost, then the pawnee shall be answerable for them, because by detaining them after the tender he is a wrong doer, and it is a wrongful detainer of the goods, and the special property of the pawnee is determined. And he that keeps goods by wrong, must be answerable for them at all events, because his detaining them is the reason of the loss.

Br. Bail- [3. But a general bailee of goods shall answer for them, if ment, pl. 7. they are fole with his own goods; for when he accepts them accordingly, generally, it is with a warranty in law. Contra 29 Ass. per ln such Thorp.]

bailee is discharged, per Thorp. Br. Detinue de Biens, pl. 35. cites S. C.—As where * they are delivered to him to be safely kept, and after they are stolen, this will not excuse him, because by the acceptance he undertook to keep them safely, and therefore he must keep them at his peril. And so it is if goods are delivered to him to be kept; for to be kept, and to be safely kept, is all one in law. Co. Litt. 89. a. — S. P. adjudged, 4 Rep. 83. b. Pasch. 43 Eliz. B. R. Southcote's case.

*[4]

4. If I lend you my borse, and he dies suddenly without your default, you are discharged, per Kirton. Br. Charge, pl. 2. cites 40 E. 3. 6.

2 Ld. Raym. 5. In detinue, goods were bailed at the jeopardy of the plaintiff, Rep. 914. and the defendant shewed bow W. had tuken the goods. Per Rede, Holt Ch. I. this is no plea, for the defendant might have action against the cites this case, and Per Keble, the bailor shall have the action, for he has the fays it was but a sudden property; and it was touched, that if goods are robbed from the bailee, he shall not be charged over, but if they are taken by a opinion, and that but by trespassor of whom he may have conusance, he shall be charged, half the for he has his remedy over. But per Brian, this is of a general court, and bailment, but otherwise it is of a bailment at the peril of the yet this is the only bailor, for the bailee shall recover no damages, for he is not ground for charged over to the bailor. Br. Bailment, pl. 8. cites 3 H. the opinion of my Ld. 7. 4. Coke in Southcore's case, which besides he has improved. But says that the practice has been always at Guildhall, to disallow that to be a sufficient evidence to charge the bailes, and that it was practised sall Ch. J. Pemberton's time and ever fince, against the opinion of that case. And from several authors cited by Holt, he infers, ibid. 915. that a bailee is not chargeable without an apparent gross neglect; and if such there be, it is looked upon as an evidence of traud; may, suppose the bailee undertakes to keep them safely and securely, in express words, yet even that will not charge him with all forts of neglect; for were such a promise put into writing, it would not even then charge him to far.

If on bailment of goods for safe custody, the goods for want And robbery of good custody are lost or destroyed, case or detinue lies, and is no plea. bailee shall be charged by super se assumpsit; per Frowike Ch. J. to keep as Kelw. 77. b. Mich. 21 H. 7.

But if it was bis own goods it would be otherwise, Cro. E. 815. Southcot v. Bennet. — 8 E. 2. tit. Detinue 59. — S. P. accordingly Went. Off. Ex. 113. feems of the same opinion; because bailor, as well as the bailes may have action for damages against the trespassor.

7. If the bailee of certain plate will not deliver it, detinue lies; D. 22. b. but if he changes it, a trover & conversion lies. Arg. Roll. Rep. 59, 60. cites 28 H. 8. D.

Pl- 137-Trin. 28 H. 3. is that for altering the plate, either action upon the case, or action of detinue lie, and cites Tempore E. 4.

8. If A. leaves a cheft locked with B. to be kept, and takes the key away with him, and acquainteth not B. what is in the chest, and the chest together with the goods of B. are stolen away; B. shall not be charged therewith, because A. did not trust B. with them as this case is; and that which hath been said before of stealing, is to be understood also of other like accidents, as shipwrecks by sea, fire by lightning, and other like inevitable accidents. And all these cases were resolved and adjudged in B. R. And by these diversities, are all the books concerning this point S. C. ched reconciled. Co. Litt. 89. a. b.

S. P. refolved accordingly, 4 Rep. 83. b. in Southcote's cale, and cites it as adjudged, 8 E. 2. tit. Detinue 59.--by Holt Ch. 1. 2 Ld.

Raym. Rep. 914. Trin. 2 Ann. in case of Coggs v. Barnard, and says that he cannot see the reason of this difference, nor why the bailee should not be charged with goods in a chest, as well as with goods out of a cheft, for the bailee has as little power over them when they are out of a cheft, as to any benefit he might have by them, as when they are in a cheft; and has as great a power to defend them in the one case as in the other.

9. A. delivers money to B. to dispatch his business in the exchequer; B. does not do it, action of debt lies for it. Noy Arg. 72. cites it as the case of Dowse v. Cawley.

10.. If beasts are bailed to feed the land, and the bailee kills S. P. by the beasts, a general action of trespass lies. 11 Rep. 82. Pasch. 13 Jac. in Lewis Bowles's case.

Rhodes J. Le. 88. in pl. 103. --S. P. agreed

[5]

accordingly by the justices, Goldsb. 67. pl. 10. Mich. 29 & 30 Eliz. in case of Bloss v. Halman. If bailee deftroys the thing delivered trespass lies, per Gawdy J. Cro. E. 784. pl. 22. Mich. 42 & 47 Eliz.——Litt. S. 71. & Co. Litt. 57. a. (k)

If I deliver 1001. to A. to buy cattle, and he bestows 501. of it in cattle, and I bring an action of debt for all, I shall be harred in that action for the money bestowed and charges, &c. but for the rest I shall recover. Hob. 207. Trin. 15 Jac. in the case of Speak v. Richards.

12. If

Bailment.

If money is delivered to A. to keep generally without any The fact was; there consideration or reward for so doing, if A. is robbed, he is disbeing an charged, and the owner shall bear the loss. Ruled upon evidence execution per Ld. Pemberton. 2 Show. pl. 166. Mich. 33 Car. 2. B. R. against the plaintiff, he the King v. the Sheriff of Hertford. brings 901.

to the defendant, part of the condemnation money, which he refused to take, faying the plaintist in the action would not accept it, and he had nothing to do with it, he must go to him; and the party said he would be in town next Friday, pray do you keep it till then, and I will come again to you when the plaintiff will be here, and accordingly went away; and before the Friday the defendant's chamber was robbed. And now held no action lies against him. 2 Show. 172, 173. pl. 166. M.ch. 33 Car. 2. B. R. The King v. Viscount [Sheriff] of Hertford.

Holt Ch. J. 13. If a man has goods upon a naked bailment, he is not faid that chargeable if they are lost, &c. neither is he chargeable for a Southcot's common neglect, and therefore Southcote's case is not good cale as relaw, which fays that a man shall be charged in an action on a geported in 4 Rep. is not neral bailment, and it has been the general practice for twenty all law, but years last past. If a man hath goods to keep, and they we stowhere there 18 a Special len, although there be a neglect in him, as if he omits to shut the undertaking. door, &c. he shall not be charged with them, if he keeps them For if there with the same care as he does his own. So if a man makes bailbe but a general bailment to another, and he makes an express promise to keep the ment, and a things safely, yet he is not chargeable without his wilful default, for general acfuch promise shall not charge him further than he was chargeable reptance, and before; it would not do if it was in writing, and for the same reaso the matter left to a fon it shall not do, if it is by parol. Resolved per tot. cur. construc-Comyns's Rep. 134, 135. pl. 90. Pasch. 2 Ann. B. R. in case of tion of law thereupon Cogs v. Barnard. how the goods shall be kept, the law will make construction, that you should keep them as you do your own; but where there is a special acceptance to keep them safely, there, at your peril you are bound by your special acceptance to keep them safe though you have no reward, and that you are not compeliable by law to take them; per Holt Ch. J. 12 Mod. 487. Pasch. 13 W. 3. in case of Lane v. Sir Robert Cotton.

In the case of Coggs v. Bernard, 2 Ld. Raym. 909, &c. the Judges delivering their opinions seriatim, found great fault with Southcote's case; Gould said it was a hard case indeed, and observes that in Cro. E. 815. it was adjudged by two judges only, viz. Gaudy and Clench, and ibid. 912. Powel J. that all the foundation of Southcote's case is that in 9 E. 4. 40. b. there is such an opinion by Danby. The case in 3 M. 7. 4. was of a special vailment, so that that case cannot go very far in the matter. 6 H. 7. 12. there is such an opinion by the by. But there are cases there cited. which are stronger against it, as 10 H. 7. 26. 29 Ast. 28. the case of a pawn. My lord Coke would diffinguish that case of a pawn from a bailment, because the pawnee has a special property in the pawn; but that will make no difference, because he has a special property in the thing bailed to him to keep. 8 E. 2. Fitzh. Detinue 59. the case of goods bailed to a man, locked up in a chest and stolen; and for the reason of that case, sure it would be hard, that a man that takes goods into his custody to keep for a friend, purely out of kindness to his friend, should be chargeable at all events. But then it is answered to that, that the bailes might take them specially. There are many lawyers don't know that difference, or however it may be with them, half mankind never heard of it, So for these reasons, I think a general bailment is not, nor cannot be taken to be a special undertaking to keep the goods bailed safely against all events. But if a man does undertake specially to keep fafely, that is a warranty, and will oblige the bailee to keep them tafely against perils, where he has his semedy over, but not against such where he has no remedy over.

14. Some hogsheads of brandy were bailed to carry and deli-[6] 2 Ld.Raym. ver them safely, but in the carriage one of the casks was slaved and to 920. S.C. several gallons of the brandy were lost. The bailee had no premium adjudged for for what he undertook; notwithstanding which, in an action on the plaintiff. the case against the bailee, judgment was given for the plaintiff. If the defendant had only offered himself to carry, there he would not be chargeable, for it would only have been nudum pactum, but here it being super se assumpsit, the word assumpfit imports an undertaking; and when a man undertakes to do thing and misdoes it, an action lies against him for it, though nobody could have compelled him to do the thing. Comyns's Rep. 133. pl. 90. Pasch. 2 Ann. B. R. Coggs v. Barnard.

15. If A, bail goods to C. and after gives his whole right in them to B. B. can't maintain detinue for them against C. because the special property that C. acquires by the bailment, is not thereby transferred to B. Per Holt Ch. J. 6 Mod. 216. Trin. 3 Ann. B.

A. Rich. v. Aldred.

Bailee. Who; and his Power and Interest.

I. TF I bail goods to deliver on request, yet I may seise them Per Dodewithout request. Arg. Godb. 403. cites 26 H. 6. ridge J. in fuch case there needs precise request, because it is part of the contract, and the request in pleading ought to be alledged. But if I deliver goods to re-deliver, without saying on request, there needs not a precise mquest. Ibid.

- 2. By Manwood. If goods be delivered to A. to pay to B. 2 Le. 31. A may sell them. 2 Le. 90. pl. 113. Mich. 29 Eliz. in the S. C. in toexchequer in Clark's case. tidemverbis.
- 3. A. lent B. an horse to ride from G. to N. at 4s. for two Cro. J. days; B. goes out of the road from G. to N. yet A. cannot take the horse from B. For, for those two days B. has a special judged for property against all the world; and A.'s remedy for riding out the plaintiff of the road, is by action on the case, but not to seize the horse. Yelv. 172. Hill. 7 Jac. B. R. Lee v. Atkinson.

him, &c. and endeavouring to take the horse from him. ---- Brownl, 217. S. C. adjudged for the plaintiff.

4. Snow, Mr. Warner's partner, a goldsmith, having lost 21 lottery-tickets, and a lottery-order for 501. immediately upon the loss of them fends to the goldsmiths company, and gets a number of printed tickets of the loss, with the number and description of the several lottery-tickets and order, which the beadle and fervants of the company, according to the usage in such cases, delivered at all the goldsmiths shops in London, and several cof-Re-houses in and about the royal-exchange, and at the exchequer, &c. and the next day he put advertisements in several public, prints, Gazette, &c. Some few days after these tickets and order were lost, one Samuel Snow, a broker, but of bad credit and reputation in his business, brings these tickets and the order to the defendants shop, being a goldsmith in Lombard-street, where the faid Samuel Snow did usually take up money, upon pawning or leaving lottery-tickets, or other government securities as a pledge for the money so received; but the defendant did never give him credit for any funt of money, without having some pledge in his hands

M. S. Rep. Trin. 4 Geo. in Canc. Warner & al' v. Jenkins & al'-

236. pl. 8. S. C. adin action of

battery, for

affaulting

hands for his security; and in this way of dealing, they had paid and re-paid 20,000/. in three months time. *The defendant Jenkins advances to Samuel upon the delivery of these tickets and order, a sum of money near to the value of them. A bill being brought by the plaintiffs for a satisfaction for these tickets and order, the defendant inlifts upon the property, they being payable to bearer, and that he is a fair purchaser, and denies express notice that they were lost by the plaintiff Snow, and says that he took the tickets and order without examining the number, and only cast up the sums and value of them, being left in his hands only as a pledge and by a broker, and that is the usual way of transacting between goldsmiths and brokers, where money is taken up upon fuch public fecurities, which are left with the goldsmith only as a pledge till the money is re-paid. Per Parker C. if a person will buy lottery-tickets, or any other public fecurities payable to bearer or indorsee, with notice that they were loft or flolen, and that the vendor came to them without a fair consideration; this will not vest a right or property in the buyer. In this case, though here is not proof of express notice to the buyer, yet the printed notice left at his shop, and the several advertisements in the printed papers, will amount to sufficient notice so as to avoid the purchase; and though there is no direct proof of fraud in the defendants, yet here is a very gross neglect in not examining the tickets and order, and fince the plaintiff did every thing in his power to retrieve the tickets and order, and it was the defendant's fault and carelessness not to examine them before he bought them, and Samuel Snow being broke and run away, the defendant Jenkins ought to make satisfaction to the plaintiff, and decreed accordingly, but without costs.

MS. Rep. Paich. 8 Geo. in v. Nichols & al'.

5. The plaintiff, living in the country, leaves with the defendant, his banker in town, some lottery-tickets and lottery-orders, for Canc. Bluck which the defendant gives him a note, promising to be accountable for them on demand. There was no letter of attorney, or any express authority given to the defendant about them. The defendant continues to receive the interest, and once received 501. of the principal, which the plaintiff approved of; but whether this 50 l. was by sale of any of them, or was paid in the course of discharge by the government, or whether the defendant had any particular authority concerning this 50 l. did not appear. The defendants, without any express authority, subscribed these into the S. S. Company in the name of the plaintiff, and flock for them was made out in the books in the plaintiff's name also. The plaintiff brings his bill for an account and satisfaction, &c. For the plaintiff the arguments turned upon the defendant's being only a depository to receive the interest; that this was the only power that a banker is understood to have in such cases which are common; that in regard to the 50l. principal, he must be supposed to have had a particular order for that, as it appeared to be a particular transaction. to the lottery-tickets, that he had admitted himself to be accountable for the loss that accrued upon them, by an offer he made topay fuch loss or difference; that this was within the old rules of a lofs a loss arising from the unauthorized act of a depository, and therefore, if it was a new case, it was only so on the defendant's side, and the consequences would be too extensive to make a precedent in his favour. For the defendant it was insisted, that he had the legal interest in these things as bearer, was the plaintiff's trustee, and therefore is fully indemnified by the S. S. act, which impowers all trustees to subscribe; that his being possessed of these things, implied a power to discharge or dispose of them. The law infers such a power from the leaving a bond in the hands of a scrivener, who was agent in the lending money: he may receive it, and on payment deliver up the bond, without any express authority. The case of PARRY AND STOKES, lately decreed, was much stronger: the defendant there gave a note to transfer 1501. bank annuities to the plaintiff on demand; but when the plaintiff demands them, he fays he has subscribed them. There the only question was, whether they were indeed subscribed, being in the defendant's own name; but if they were subscribed, it was agreed the plaintiff would be bound by it. Here the subscription is in the name of the plaintiff. The last act defigned to give validity, and cure all defects in the subscriptions. In this case the company don't want its assistance, in regard to them; the subscription is certainly valid, and therefore, if privatepersons are bound as to the company, the act has certainly concluded all questions between themselves; for the same subscription cannot be valid in regard to one, and void as to another. But if this case is not within any of the acts, if the defendant is not a trustee, but only an agent or factor, or any thing else; yet he is unattended with any of those circumstances which should induce a court of equity to charge him with the loss. He he has been guilty of no fraud, and had good reason to justify his mistake. The legislature recommended these subscriptions; it was the opinion of most men that they would be advantageous. The court should take notice of the hurry people were then in. The defendant acted as well for the plaintiff as he did for himself; he could have no advantage from this subscription, because it was in the plaintiff's name. The plaintiff might have received benefit from it, fince it is proved it bore a premium. There was therefore no reason to charge the defendant. Per master of the rolls, this case arises upon the construction of several acts of parliament; the S. S. act, and the two subscription acts, that were made to confirm and supply what was done upon it. He feemed to express some doubts concerning the equity of those acts, and enlarged much upon the construction of some parts of them out of this case; but he said, that every one that sits in this court should act according to law; that he sat there jus dicere, non dare. This was agreeable to the rule of judging secundum discretionem boni viri; for vir bonus est quis? qui confulta patrum, qui leges juraq; fervat: that this case is not at all accompanied with any imposition or fraud, or design of profit to the defendant. The two forts of security deposited, should repeive a distinct consideration; as to the lottery-tickets, the defendants fendants are plainly trustees; but I don't think in all cases, where a thing is payable to bearer, the bearer will have the legal property; as where a ticket is stolen. And yet in such case, if such ticket was fubscribed, the company would have good right from the bearer. Here plainly the defendants were trustees by being bearers, because, by having the securities, they had a power to receive the principal, which also the owner must know. I think this is a stronger case than that of a scrivener; for if he is enabled to discharge the debt by only having the custody of the bond, without any legal property, a fortiori here, where the defendant is trusted with the legal property: but if the scrivener does deliver up the bond without payment of the money, that will not discharge even the debtor, but he will continue still liable for the debt. The defendant's offer shall not bind him; for he would always stick to Ld. Cowper's rule, that no offer should prejudice the person offering. As to the case Mr. Lutwich put of a person intrusted to deliver over a thing to another, he is in no fense a trustee, but a meer porter or carrier; he can receive nothing, and yet even this person would be a trustee in regard to the S. S. company, but not so as to be himself indemnified for a subscription; but he thought there was no case of a real trustee that was not within the act. Tis plain the legislature intended to take in all fort of trusts whatsoever. If a man was any ways intrusted, though not-a formal trustee, he had a power to subscribe: even creditors are bound by the subscription of executors, which is the hardest case. And yet, though the defendants are trustees, if there had been any fraud, any advantage to them-· selves, I would charge them, tho' their fubscriptions would be valid as to the company. The course of dealing in these cases is very well known; the hurry was very great, the defendants thought they were acting for the benefit of the plaintiff, and for a small time it was for his benefit; he might have fold [contracted for] them at a premium. The second point concerning the lottery-orders is not so clear to be a trust, nor do I think I need declare any opinion whether it was a trust or not; so far it resembles a trust, because the defendants plainly had a power over the principal and interest, and that by the delivery of the party himself. He has made use of that power, as to the principal, by receiving the 501. The assignment of these orders is with a blank. The bearer has a power to fill up that blank. The defendants had a power to make themselves trustees, by filling it up to themselves, and then they would have been good' trustees in the sense of the act. But tho' he had the power to make himself a trustee, he has not made himself one; but the form of a trustee seems not to be considered by the act, but whether the person was in any sense intrusted. Upon the late act, I will not fay how it will be where the company have got possession of orders without the act of the proprietor, or any authority from him, express or implied, that is a question of right. But suppose here this subscription is a void subscription, and not: within the provise of the late act, can the plaintiff make the defendants fland in the place of the S. S. company, and make that fatisfaction which the company ought to make, without making the company parties? I think the defendant should not be charged. If he has done wrong, it is without any ingredient of fraud to bring it into this court, and therefore, as a tort, should be prosecuted at law. What can this court decree for a tort? Can they decree that the defendant shall pay to the plaintiff the interest of these annuities, till the government would have redeemed them? And should we decree the payment of a certain sum, this would be directly to decree damages for a tort, and fuch an invalion upon the common law, as I hope never to see in this court. If this act has authenticated this subscription as to the company, it has also as to the proprietor. Bill dismissed per Jekyll, master of the rolls.

[8]

[9]

6. Securities were delivered by A. to B. in order that B. should MS. Rep. advance a fum of money upon them the next day; but no money Geo. in was then advanced. The question was whether B. can keep Canc. Fothese securities, so delivered to him for this particular purpose, in theringhill order to have a satisfaction for a precedent debt due to him from Front. A. Per Ld. C. Macclesfield; B. ought not to retain these securities in satisfaction of a precedent debt due to him from A. since they were delivered to him for another purpose, viz. as a pledge or fecurity for another fum of money, intended and proposed to be advanced and lent to him; and fince B. did not advance the money according to the agreement, he ought to return the pledge upon demand; and fince he has not complied with his part of the agreement, he shall not retain the securities which he got into his hands by fuch a pretence and artifice, to secure to himself a fatisfaction for a precedent debt; and gave costs against the defendant.

7. Plaintiff brought trover against defendant for a diamond MS. Rep. ear-ring, and other jewels, to which defendant pleaded not guilty. Easter 1743. Upon a special verdict the case was, that plaintiff being owner Hartop v. of the goods mentioned in the declaration on the 12th of January, House, 1729, lodged them, for safe custody only, in the hands of Seymour the goldsmith, inclosed in a paper and bag, and took the receipt following: 4 12th of Jan. Received of Sir John Hartop the jewels following, (mentioning them all) which are sealed up in a bag; which bag, fealed up, I promise to take care of for him." That afterwards Stymour broke open the seals, and carried the jewels to defendant's shop, which is an open shop in London, as a banker; that Seymour borrowed of defendant 3001. upon the pledge of the jewels, and gave his note for that fum. No authority is found from the plaintiff to fell them; but he demanded them of the defendant, who, not being paid his money, refused to deliver them. was in possession of these jewels till he pledged them as aforesaid, which was in the year 1736. Seymour afterwards became a bankrupt; (but that is not material to the present question.) The value of the jewels is found to be 7501. After several arguments the Ch. J. pronounced the resolution of the court. The general question upon this special verdict is, whether, by any facts found, the plaintiff is barred from having the goods delivered to him, or from from having satisfaction; and 1st, it is to be considered in what relation Seymour stands with respect to the plaintiff. 2dly, whether any thing that is found divests the property of these diamonds from the plaintiff. As to the first delivery to Seymour, it was nothing more than a naked bailment for the use of the bailor, lodged there for fafe custody only. Holt Ch. J. calls it a depositing, Southcote's case, 4. Co. In some respect the bailee has a property to keep, for the use of the bailor only. That upon Seymour's breaking the seal, he was a trespassor to the plaintiff, and that trespass would lie against him; cites Moor 248. and Salk. 655. the opinion of Trevor Ch. J. The second consideration is, how far the plaintiff is affected by any thing done by Seymour; whether his property is divested by any thing that is found. Seymour had the possession originally by right, but by breaking the seal he became a trespassor, and from thence a posfessor of the goods by wrong. It is objected, that the plaintisf was not privy to Seymour's wrong; that he lent his money innocently, and therefore, as is objected, more reasonable the loss should fall on the plaintiff than defendant; and for this was cited Salk. 289. But that is not this case; the jewels here were sealed up with the plaintiff's own seal, which resembles the locking a box, and taking away the key, 1 Inst. 19. There is no fault in the plaintiff. Then to consider what is the law touching sales in open shops; that sales in open shops does not alter the property of a stranger, as sales in market-overt or fairs, Moor 625. That a custom of London pleaded, that every freeman might buy all manner of wares in every shop in London, is too general; for then a scrivener might buy plate in his shop, and the like, which is unreasonable, Cro. Jac. 69. Bacon's Use of the Law, 80. 5 H. 7. 15. By these cases it appears, that the true owner never lost the property of his goods by fale, unless in a market-overt. For the defendant it was insisted, that if a person who lost money with the plaintiff at play, and gave him for payment a goldsmith's note, the goldsmith shall not be obliged to pay this note, the plaintiff being a person within the meaning of the gaming act. This is true; but if the plaintiff had negotiated this note to a 3d person, then the case would have been between two persons itrangers to the provisions of the gaming acts, and so those acts would not take place, as between acceptor and assignee of the note, Carth. 357. Salk. 344. So where bank-bill, payable to A. or bearer, and A. loses the note, and the stranger who found it transfers it, for valuable consideration, to C. the money being paid to bearer, discharges the drawer; for 'tis the very terms of the note, and by course of trade these notes are looked upon as change of money for money; but there is no such course of trade with respect to goods: the property does not follow the possession, unless in cases where the owner has no mark to know his own again, as in money, Cro. Eliz. 746. HIGGS v. HOLLIDAY. Salk. 283. FORD v. Hopkins. In the present case the owner never gave any power to sell or dispose of them, and possession merely does not change the ownership of goods, tho' it does of money.

[ 10 ]

· note

note is made payable to A. or bearer, if no indorsement, the vendee is without remedy against vendor; for these notes are looked upon as lodging money for money. The next matter for confideration is, whether the place where the pawn is made will intitle the defendant to retain these jewels. On the finding, it is infilted that fales in open shops are the same as sales in marketsovert: but by this special verdict no custom is found, and, unless it was found, the court cannot take notice of such a custom; as was determined in the case of ARGYLE v. HUNT, in this court, Trin. 5 Geo. 1. where a libel in the spiritual court, for calling a woman a whore, and after sentence applied for a prohibition, yet denied; for that the court would not take notice of the custom of London; where 'tis actionable to call a woman a whore. Carth. 75. Then 'tis objected, that upon the finding of the jury, the custom is to be certified. Hob. 86. Cro. Car. 516. Cro. Jac. 69. But this case is not within the custom, as to fales in market-overt; for pawns, as this is, and fales are quite different; and a custom whick extends to sales in market-overt, will not include pawns or pledges; and for that purpose 35 H. 6. Fo. 25. is in point, where 'tis expressly said, that the custom extends to a sale, and not to a pawn. There is no instance where this case has been allowed, with respect to pawns.

(C) The several Sorts of Bailments.

1. THERE are fix forts of bailments. The first fort of bail- Comyns's ment is a bare naked bailment of goods, delivered by one man to another, to keep for the use of the bailor, and this I call a depo- and same fitum; and it is that fort of bailment which is mentioned in Southcote's case. The 2d sort is, when goods or chattels, that are useful, are lent to a friend gratis, to be used by him; and this is called commodatum, because the thing is to be restored in specie. The third fort is, when goods are left with the bailee, to be used by him for bire: this is called locatio & conductio, and the lender is called locator, and the borrower conductor. The 4th fort is, when goods or chattels are delivered to another as a parun to be a security to him for money borrowed of him by the bailor; and this is called in latin vadium, and in English a pawn or a pledge. The 5th fort is, when goods or chattels are delivered to be carried, or fomething is to be done about them for a reward, to he paid by the person who delivers them to the bailee, who is to do the thing about them. The 6th fort is, when there is a delivery of goods or chattels to somebody, who is to carry them, or do something about them gratis, without any reward for such his work or carriage; per Holt Ch. J. 2 Ld. Raym. Rep. 912, 913. Trin. 2 Ann. in case of Coggs v. Barnard.

Rep. 134pl. 90. S. C. division.

(D) Revocable. Or Property altered. In what Cases.

1. DEtinue against baron and seme, and counted of bailment of sheep, to the seme before the coverture, by which the desendant said, that after he took the seme to wise, and the sheep were bailed to him to compesser the land, by which he commanded him to take his cattle, and he would not, wherefore the desendant took the cattle in his land, damage seasant; and demanded judgment if of such taking, &c. And the opinion of Thorpe was, that it is a good discharge of the bailment, without other possession in the plaintist again, by which the plaintist traversed the commandment. Quod nota. Br. Detinue de Biens, pl. 13. cites 43 E. 3. 21.

2. Where I bail 101. to J. N. to deliver to P. and J. N. offers it, and P. refuses, I shall have debt against J. N. For he shall not retain the 101. for the refusal of P. where there is no default in me. Br. Conditions, pl. 53. cites 19 H. 6. 34.

3. If a feme covert bails goods to a man, and after she takes bim to baron, and he dies, the seme shall not have action of bailment; for the bailment was discharged by the inter-marriage; but she may declare upon a trover. Quod nota, per Fineux. Br. Bailment, pl. 6. cites 21 H. 7. 29.

D.49. 2. pl.
7. Paich.
13 H. 8.
Lyte v.
Penny.

4. A delivers 201. to B. to the use of C. a woman, to be delivered her the day of her marriage. Before her marriage A. countermands it, and calls home the money. C. shall not be aided in chancery, because there is no consideration why she should have it. Cary's Rep. 12. cites D. 49.

2 Le. 89. pl.

3. If goods be bailed, to bail over on a consideration precedent, 213. Mich.
29 Eliz.

S. C. in termand it; otherwise where 'tis voluntary and without consideratoridem vertion. But where 'tis in consideration of a debt, it is not countermand.

D. 49. 2.
Marg. pl.
Egerton. Le. 30. pl. 36. Mich. 31 Eliz. Clerk's case.

6. If A. bails goods to B. at such a day to rebail, and before the day B. sells the goods in market-overt, yet at the day bailor may seise the goods, because the property of the goods was always in him, and not altered by the sale in market-overt. Godb. 160. pl. 224. Mich. 7 Jac. B. R. Anon.

7. A. indebted in 1001. to B. delivers goods to C. amounting to the value of the debt, to satisfy B. the said 100%. with the goods in bis bands. B. has an interest and property in the goods. Yelv. 164. Mich. 7 Jac. B. R. Brand v. Lisley.

* (E) Actions and Pleadings.

1. DEtinue in London upon bailment made by the plaintiff to the desendant, &c. He said that he bailed it to him in another county, in pledge, &c. and no plea, per Finch, if he does not traverse the bailment in the first county; and after they were at issue, if it was bailed in pledge or not, and the vitne was where the receipt in pledge is supposed. Br. Traverse per, &c. pl. 41. cites

46 E. 3. 30.

Detinue of certain charters. The plaintiff counted of bailment by him to the defendant, who said that he found the deeds by fortune in his bouse, and J. N. bad brought the like writ against him to return them now, and prayed that they interplead, absque hoc that has right. the plaintiff bailed to the defendant as here; and a good plea, per Martin, and the bailment traversable as here: for if he confesses bailment, then he charges himself to the plaintiff, and to the faid J. N. also. Quod nota: for it was not contradicted. Br. Traverse per, &c. pl. 60. cites 7 H. 6. 22.

Detinue supposing the bailment to the defendant at B. in the county of N. to rebail, &cc. The defendant said, that the same day and year, at B. in the county of B. the plaintiff bought the goods of the defendant for 101. upon condition, that if he did not pay the 101. Inch a day, that the sale shall be woid, and that he did not pay at the day, absque boe that the plaintiff bailed them in the county of N. to rebail, prout, &c. and admitted for a good plea. Br. Traverse per, &c. pl. 65: cites 8 H. 6. 10.

4. Trespass of taking his bowl. The defendant said that the plaintiff delivered it to W. E. in pledge, who bailed it to the defendant, who rebailed it to W. E. and the plaintiff said, that R. C. gave to him, and the defendant took it, absque hoc that he bailed it to W. E. in pledge, and did not traverse the bailment by W. E. to the defendant, and well; for the bailment of the plaintiff to W. E. the effect of the bar, which binds the plaintiff. Br. Traverse per, &c. pl. 373. (bis) cites 10 H. 6. 25.

5. Detinue by feme upon bailment made by herself of a chest of charters; the defendant said, that they came to him as executor of the executor of the father of the plaintiff, whose heir she is, and that he bad delivered them to the baron of the plaintiff who is dead, absque hoc that the plaintiff bailed them prout, &c. and a good plea; for the bailment of the baron without the traverse, nor the traverse without the plea precedent, is not good. Br. Traverse per, &c. pl. 374. cites 11 H. 6. 9.

6. In detinue, the plaintiff counts upon simple bailment, the garnisbee may say that it was upon condition, without traversing the fimple bailment, and if the plaintiff says that it was bailed upon other condition, then he ought to traverse the condition alledged by the garnishee, and so he did, and well; per cur. Br. Confess and Avoid, pl. 62. cites 11 H. 6. 50.

S. P. bat now he shall be charged to him who Br. Bailment, pl. 5. cites 5. C.

S. P. per Newton, in a note. Br. Bailment, pl. 3. cites S. C.

- 7. If the plaintiff brings detinue in the county of C. and counts upon simple bailment, it is a good plea that it was delivered in another county upon condition, &c. absque hoc that it was delivered in the place, &c. by reason of the double charge, if action be brought of this again in the county; quod non negatur. Br. Traverse per, &c. pl. 22. cites 33 H. 6. 25.
- 8. Detinue of a box of charters, and one charter specially bailed to the defendant, and he pleaded to the bar non detinet, and to the charter special made title to the land, of which, &c. absque boc that the plaintiff bailed to him to re-bail, &c. and no plea, because the defendant did not confess any livery made by the plaintiff, quod fuit concessum. Br. Traverse per, &c. pl. 29. cites 34 H. 6. 42.

o. Contra where he confesses delivery by the plaintiff, to him to bail over, which he has done, absque hoc that he bailed to re-bail to him, this is a good traverse. Br. Ibid.

30. And per Moil, he may intitle himself to the land and deed, and give colour of possession to the plaintiff, and nevertheless well, but not to traverse the bailment as above. Br. Ibid.

11. Trespass against H. G. of a box of evidences taken, the defendant said, that J. G. his father was possessed thereof, and gave it to the defendant, by which he was possessed, and after delivered it to A. B. to keep to the use of the desendant, who after delivered it to the plaintiff to keep to the use of the desendant, and the desendant required him to deliver it, and he resuled, by which the desendant took it; the plaintiff said, that J. G. gave them to him, absque hoc that he gave them to the desendant prout, &c. and so to issue, and sound for the plaintiff, who prayed judgment, and the desendant pleaded in arrest of judgment, that the bar is not answered, for the substance of the bar is, that the desendant bailed them to his use, which ought to be traversed, and not the gift, but after long argument tota curia e contra. Br. Traverse per, &c. 200. cites 5 E. 4. 133.

12. In detinue of charters, the defendant may traverse the bailment, because he cannot wage his law. Br. Traverse per, &c. pl. 228. cites 8 E. 4. 3.

13. But rubere he may wage his law, there he cannot traverse the bailment, by all the justices. Br. Ibid.

14. If bailee brings trespass, he shall say, ad damnum to himfelf; for he shall be charged over. Br. Damages, pl. 124. cites 8 E. 4. 6.

15. Detinue of charters against J. N. son and beir of J. N. and counted of bailment made by the plaintiff to the defendant, who said, that he is son and heir of W. and not son and heir of J. N. Per Moyle, this is no plea, because it is of his possession, and not brought against him as heir, and so it is surplusage, as in trespass de son tort demesne is no plea. Br. Traverse per, &c. pl. 235. cites to E. 4. 12.

Br. Replication, pl. 39. cites S. C.—And where the plaintiff and defendant claims by one and the same person, there the traverse of the gift is good, and fo here; per tot. cur. Br. Traverseper, &c. pl. 200. cites 5 E.

4- 133-

16. Contra

×

اد

Ü

, KO

:11

• 4

- ř

127

. TR

RC

4:1

7.7

3

1

为世

- 4

T

. [4

41

- 16. Contra in debt against him as heir; or in detinue against him as beir. Br. Ibid.
- 17. In detinue of bailment of the plaintiff to the defendant, to rebail to bim, it is a good plea that he bailed to him to bail to J. N. which he has done, without that that he bailed to him to re-bail to the plaintiff, prout, &c. and a good plea, though the defendant may wage his law. Br. Traverse per, &c. pl. 243. cites 12 E. 4. II. 21.

18. So of bailment upon condition in another county, there he fball traverse the bailment in the first county. Br. Ibid.

19. Detinue of goods, and counted of bailment, the defendant said, that the same day, &c. and at another time the plaintiff gave to the defendant the same goods, absque hoc that he bailed them to the defendant prout, &c. and per tot. cur. except Bryan, it is no plea; for it is only argument. Br. Traverse per, &c. pl. 275, cites 22 E. 4. 29.

20. If A. delivers B. cloth to keep, and B. keeps it negligently, A. may have either detinue or action on the case; per Gawdy J.

Goldsb. 152. pl. 79. cites 2 H. 7.

21. Debt was brought against T. because N. was indebted to the plaintiff, and delivered the money to the said T. to deliver to the plaintiff, which he did not do; quod nota. Br. Dette, pl. 6. cites Lib. Intrat.

22. Whether, in case of bailment of goods to a testator, the executor in detinue against him must be named executor? See Kelw. 118. b. pl. 62. Casus incerti temporis. 23. If money is delivered to a man to buy cattle, or to merchandize, with, though the money be fealed up in a bag, yet the property of the money is in the bailee, and the bailor cannot have action ther to buy for the money, but only an account, though he never buys or mer-chandizes. 3 Le. 38. pl. 62. Mich. 15 Eliz. B. R. Anon.

[15]Per Powel J. if I give money to anogoods for me, and he negiccts to buy them, Kelw. 77. b. per Frawike S. P.

are either lost or destroyed.

if the goods

for this breach of trust I shall have election to bring debt or account, and cited 4 or 5 cases; but per Holt Ch. J. contra if the party did not take it as a debt, but ad computandum, or ad merchandizandum, It must be an account, and he shall have the benefit of an accountant, which is, he may plead being robbed, which shall be a good plea in the last case, and not in the sirst. Adjourned. 11 Mod. 92. pl. 16. cites 2 Lev. 5.

- 24. If A. lends money to B. and B. delivers a thing of the value to A. in pawn, now the conversion is traversable, though generally conversion is not traversable but upon special matter; per Wray and Fenner J. and so in the principal case, which was, a bag of money was delivered to C. by A. and B. to keep till A. and B. were agreed. Le. 247. pl. 335. Trin. 33 Eliz. B. R. Anon.
- 25. Debt upon bill sealed, whereby defendant acknowledged s. C. cited that he had received 71. ad emend' fuch and fuch things, and Noy 72. in avers, that he had not bought the things, or paid the money. It ton v. Barwas held, that plaintiff might bring either debt or account at his wn. Cro. E. 644. pl. 48. Mich. 40 & 41 Eliz. B. R. Linelection. coln (Earl) v. Topcliff.

26. If

Vol. IV..

Noy 72.

8. C. accordingly.

- 26. If money is delivered to be re-delivered, it cannot be known, and therefore the property is altered, and debt lies for it; but if Portugal, or other money which may be known, be delivered to be re-delivered, detinue lies. Ow. 86. Mich. 41 & 42 Eliz. Bretton v. Barnett.
- 27. Action on the case, supposing that he had delivered to defendant certain wools to keep, and the desendant had converted them to his own use; per 2 justices the action well lies; (though it was urged, that the conversion doth not take away the property from the plaintist, but that he may always have detinue) for they held, that the conversion did take away the property, and was an offence, for which this action lies, and adjudged accordingly, exteris justiciariis absentibus. Cro. E. 781. pl. 17. Mich. 42 &c 43 Eliz. B. R. Gumbleton v. Graston.
- 28. Bailee in case of robbery, where he accepted the goods to keep safely, is chargeable in detinue for them, because he has his remedy over by trespass or appeal to have them again. Cro. E. 815. pl. 4. Pasch. 43 Eliz. B. R. Southcott v. Bennet.
- 29. A. delivers to B. a bag of money sealed, B. promises to deliver it on request, no assumptit lies on this, for B. has no benefit by it; for the money being in a bag sealed, B. cannot have any use or employment of the money at all, and so has only a charge imposed for the keeping. Yelv. 50. Mich. 2 Jac. B. R. in the ease of Game v. Harvy.

30. A. delivered money to B. to the use of C. In such case C. may have debt on account against B. for the same at his election. Godb. 210. pl. 299. Mich. 11 Jac. C. B. Clerk's case.

31. In case the plaintiff declared, that he delivered a bond to the defendant, to keep and re-deliver it upon request; and afterwards the desendant tore it. The desendant pleaded, that the plaintiff delivered it to him to be cancelled, and which he did; and upon demurrer Doderidge and Crooke held, that delivery to be redelivered ought to have been traversed; but Coke and Haughton e contra; for they held, that the delivery is only an inducement, but that the tearing is the point of the action, and therefore the delivery need not to be traversed. Roll. Rep. 394. pl. 16. Trin. 14 Jac. B. R. Pope v. Butler.

32. If A. bail the goods of C. to B. and C. the owner brings detinue against bailee for them, B. may plead the bailment by A. to him to be re-delivered by A. and so bring in A. as garnisbee to interplead with C. per Holt Ch. J. 6 Mod. 216. Trin. 3 Ann. B. R. at a trial of Rich v. Aldred.

33. If A. bails goods to C. and after gives his whole right in them to B. B. cannot maintain detinue for them against C. because the special property that C. acquires by the bailment is not thereby transferred to B. per Holt Ch. J. 6 Mod. 216. Trin. 3 Ann. B. R. Rich v. Aldred.

For more of Bailment in general, see Attount, Detinue, Enterpleader, and other proper Titles.

[16]

Bar.

(A) Action. [One Action where Bar of another Action of the like Nature.]

[1. ] N an action upon the case, upon an assumpsit to pay a certain Roll. Rep. fum upon request for such a thing bought, if the plaintiff be 391. pl. 12. barred by verdict upon non assumpsit modo & forma pleaded, judged for yet in a new action for the same sum, for the same thing, if the the plaintiff. count be upon an affumplit to pay the sum at several days, the first verdict and judgment shall not be any bar thereof, though it be averred to be the same contract, for it cannot be the same contract, this being to be paid at feveral days. My Reports, 14 Jac. PAYNE AGAINST SELLE.

[2. But etherways it had been if he had recovered in the first Roll. Rep. action. My Reports, 14 Jac. (but QUERE, for it seems that this 392. pl. 12. cannot be the same promise.]

said, that preadven-ture, if the plaintiff had recovered in the first action, it should be a bar in this action, quod suit concession, per Doderidge. But the reporter says, quiere, because it cannot be intended the same contract.

[3. If a man grants a rent to another, payable at a certain day, and covenants to pay the rent accordingly; if the grantee after recovers in an action of covenant for the non-payment of the rent, this will be a bar of any action after for the rent; for in the action of covenant, he shall recover all the rent in damages. Mich. 7 Jac. B. between Strong and Watts, per curiam.]

[4. If A. demises lands to B. for life with warranty, and after a Hob. 3. pl. warrantia charte is brought upon this warranty by B. against A. and after B. brings an action of covenant against A. upon the same S. C. adwarranty, and assigns for breach, that the said A. before the lease to judged; and B. demised it for years to I. S. who hath entered and evicted him: it is no bar of this action of covenant, that B. hath a warrantia chartæ depending upon the same warranty, because *this action is quer chamgrounded upon the eviction of a chattle, scilicit, a lease for , years, in which there cannot be any voucher, rebutter, or warrantia chartæ. Hobart's Reports 5. between Rudge and Pin-COMB.]

"[17] 6. Pincomb v. Rudge upon error brought in the excheber, all the judges agreed that this action lics. - Yelv. 139. Mich. 6 Jac. B. R.

S. C adjudged. Roll. Rep. 25. Pasch. 12 Jac. S. C. and judgment affirmed in the exchequer chamber. --- Noy 131. Pinkard v. Ridge, S. C. and the court held that covenant well lies, notwithstanding the warrantia charter pending. - Jenk. 291. pl. 31. S. C.

[5. If an informer exhibits an information against B. sepon the statute Hob. 128. pl. 161. for taking farms, and the same day C. exhibits an information for the S. C. in much the fame case against B. In this case the desendant may plead the truth of the case to both, and bar them; for inasmuch as there is same words. - Mo. not any precedency of suit to attach it in either of them; the court 864. pl. cannot give judgment for either of them. Hobart's Reports 171. 1193. between Pie and Cook, per cur.] Mich. 14 Jac. S. C.

and the court adjudged that he should answer neither of them, and says it is like two replevins by two persons at one time for the same taking, the desendant shall answer neither of them. ———— See tit.

Information (D) pl. 4.

6. After the bringing of assise of mortdancestor, the same demandant brought writ of admeasurement of dower against the same tenant of the same land. Thel. Dig. 151. lib. 11. cap. 38. s. 9. cites 13 E. 1. It. North. Estoppel 272.

7. A feme, after the bringing the affife, may maintain writ of dower ex affensu patris, of the same land. Thel. Dig. 151. lib.

11. cap. 38. s. 10. cites Tempore E. 1. Estoppel 271.

8. A man was disseised, and afterwards he brought dum fuit infra atatem, against the disseisor, in which he was nonsuited, and afterwards was received to maintain surit of entry sur disseism against the disseisor well enough. Thel. Dig. 151. lib. 11. cap. 38. s. 6. cites Mich. 5 E. 2. Estoppel 257.

9. In formedon of a gift made to his mother and her baron in frank-marriage, notwithstanding that the demandant be nonsuited after the view, yet he may maintain a new writ of the same land, supposing the gift be made to his mother and the heirs of her body, &c. Thel. Dig. 152. lib. 11. cap. 38. s. 14. cites 3 E. 3. Iter' Not'

Estoppel 134.

10. Another diversity there is in actions real and personal, between plea to the action of the writ, and plea to the writ; as formedon in remainder, where it should be formedon in reverter; such action without judgment upon verdict or demurrer, &c. does not bar the demandant of his rightful action; and therefore if demandant in such cases be nonsuited, or the plea be discontinued, he may bring his rightful action, and with this accords 27 E. 3. 84. 6 H. 4. 4. 2 R. 2. Estoppel 210. 4 E. 3. 54. But if the plea is only to the writ, so that the same nature of the writ remains, there though the plea to the writ be adjudged against the demandant upon demurrer or verdict, &c. yet he shall maintain the same writ again; for the judgment extends only to the writ. 6 Rep. 7. b. 8. a. in Ferrar's case cites 3 E. 3. Estoppel 134. & 30 Ass. 8. accordingly.

11. If a man brings writ of mesne, supposing the desendant to be mesne between him and one A. yet afterwards he may have writ, supposing another to be mesne between him and the desendant of the same land. Thel. Dig. 152. lib. 11. cap. 38. s. 30. cites Pasch. 29 E. 3. 44.

12. If one bring writ of ward against one, of the heir of one Jo. and the defendant dies, the plaintist may have writ of ward against his executors of the same infant, supposing him to be heir to another.

Thel.

Thel. Dig. 153. lib. 11. cap. 38. s. 37. cites Hill. 31 E. 3. Brief 332.

* 13. A man shall only have one appeal of the death of the same person, and such plea to the writ was adjudged good. Thel. Dig. 153. lib. 11. cap. 38. s. 40. cites Mich. 9 H. 4. I.

14. Writ of trespass against 3 was discontinued, and the plaintiff brought another writ against two of them of the same trespass, and was maintained. Thel. Dig. 153. lib. 11. cap. 38. s. 41. cites Mich. 11 H. 6. 10.

15. In debt upon an obligation supposed to be made to B. the plaintiff was nonfuited, and brought another writ upon the same obligation, and counted that it was made to C. and held a good writ per Juyn. Thel. Dig. 153. lib. 11. cap. 38. s. 42. cites 14 H. 6. 9. and that so agrees 6 H. 4. 4. and says, see 21 H. 7. 24.

16. Where writ of repleviu is abated, and the defendant has Where one return, yet the plaintiff shall have another replevin of the same taking, for such return is not irreplegiable. Thel. Dig. 153. fuited, and lib. 11. cap. 38. s. 43. cites Pasch. 34 H. 6. 37. and that so the defendagrees Wood, Mich. 12 H. 7. 5.

lucs replevin and it nonant has return, the plaintiff shall not have another replevin, but second deliverance by the statute. Thel. Dig. 153. lib. 11. cap. 38. 5. 45. cites Mich. 19 E. 2. Replevia 25.

17. A bar in one formedon in descender, is a good bar in any other formedon in descender, to be brought afterwards, of the same gift. Co. Litt. 393. b.

18. In ejectment, the defendant pleaded in bar a recovery had in B. R. against the lessor of the plaintiff. This was held by Anderson, Perlam, and Rhodes, to be a good bar. Goldsb. 43. pl. 22.

Mich. 29 Eliz. Clayton. v. Lawson.

19. A bar in any action real or personal, by judgment upon S. C. & demurrer, confession, verdict, &c. is a bar as to this or like action Skin. 58. of the same nature, for the same thing for ever. Resolved. pl. 1. Mich. 6 Rep. 7. a. Mich. 40 & 41 Eliz. C. B. in Ferrer's case.

S. P. cited 34 Car. 2. B. R. in case of Foot v. Rastall, and the court held it to be good law; but Pemberton Ch. J. said it was to be understood when it appears judicially to the court, that the evidence in the one action would maintain the other; but otherwise, he said, the court shall intend that he has mistaken his action.

20. But there is a diversity between real and personal actions; for in personal actions, as in debt, account, &c. the bar is perpetual, because the plaintiff cannot have an action of a more high nature, and therefore in fuch case he has no remedy, but by error or attaint; but if the demandant be barred in a real action by judgment upon verdict, demurrer, confession, &c. yet he may have an action of a higher nature, and try the same right again, because it concerns his freehold and inheritance. Resolved. 6 Rep. 7. a. b. Mich. 40 & 41 Eliz. C. B. Ferrer's case.

21. Another diversity there is in real actions between persons that bave not the mere right, but only a qualified right; though such are barred in real actions, without making such as have interest pare ties, it shall not bind the successor, as parson, prebendary, &c. For in such case, if a new action of the same nature be brought against the successor, he may falsify; and the recovery does not make any discontinuance, but that the successor may enter. But otherwise it is of abbots, bishops, &c. who bave the entire fee in them; for in such cases the successor, at the common law, shall not falsify in sci. fa. or in a new action of the same nature, and the law is the same when a recovery is had against them. 6 Rep. 8. a. in Ferrer's case.

22. In trover and conversion brought of an ox, the defendant pleaded that at another time the plaintiff, and another person, now dead, brought an action against J. S. and two others for the same ex, [19] who justified as for a heriot; and upon demurrer, adjudged against the then plaintiffs, and averred that the taking was the same, &c. and that the trover, &c. in this act, supposed to be by this defendant only, was committed by the other defendants with him, and that the omitting them in this action, and the omitting this defendant in the former action, was covenously done, et hoc paratus, &c. Judgment if the plaintiffs to this action, of the same matter, shall be received, &c. Walmesley and Kingsmill held the bar good; but Anderson and Glanvill e contra. Et adjornatur; and afterwards it was ended by arbitrement. Cro. E. 667, pl. 24. Pasch. 41 Eliz. C. B. Ferrers v. Arden.

> 23. Motion made, that plaintiff may file his original, and enter up the issue on record; for he hath since arrested the defenda ant 3 times for the same cause of action; and the desendant doubted whether he might plead in bar another action pending, with a prout patet per record', before it was entered. Per cur. he may; if they do not enter it, you may without any motion in court, give a rule to enter it. 12 Mod. 91. Pasch. 8 W. 3. Armitage v.

Row.

(A. 2) Where bringing an Action of one Nature shall be a Bar to the bringing an Action of another Nature.

TWO executors with another named executor in the testament, and afterwards removed by the testator, brought writ of debt, which took final iffue without challenge of the party; and afterwards the two executors, without naving the 3d, being alive, brought writ of debt against the same defendant, and adjudged good, Thel. Deg. 151. lib. 11. cap. 38. f. 11, cites Hill & E. 2. Estoppel 267,

2. In quod permittat of common appurtenant, &c., the tenant said that the demandant at another time brought writ of right of the same common, of the seisin of the same ancestor, against the predecessor of the tenant, who demanded the view, &c. in which writ the demandant was nonfuited, judgment of this writ brought of a more base nature, &c. Adjudged a good plea, and the demandant took nothing by his writ. Thel. Dig. 151. lib. 11. cap. 38.

1. 7. cites Hill. 12 E. 2. Estoppel 261.

3. After one is barred in affife, he may have affife of mortdan- If a man be cestor. Thel. Dig. 151. lib. 11. cap. 38. s. 12. cites 4 E. 3. It. Derby Estoppel 133. But adds, quære; for it is said that he shall vel disseifin. not have it without special remonstrance [matter shewn;] as where yet upon the heir enters upon the discontinuee, or descent, and he re-enters, &c. Per Littleton and Jenny. Mich. 12 E. 4. 13. quære.

barred in affile of nothewing of a descent or other special mat-

per, he may have affele of mortdancestor, ayel, besaiel, entre sur difficisin to his ancestor. Resolved. 6 Rep. 7. b. Mich. 40 & 41 Eliz. C. B. in Ferrer's case.

4. Where one is nonsuited after appearance in writ of besuil, he may well have writ of cosinage against the same tenant of the same land, of the same dying seised of the same ancestor. Thel. Dig. 152. lib. 11. cap. 38. f. 16. cites Mich. 4 E. 3. 168. and writ of siel, 29 E. 3. 21. And a man may vary from the descent made by the anceftor of the demandant in another writ. Ibid. cites Mich. 13 H. 4. appearance, 14. in scire facias.

And notwithftanding that a man brings -nen si bas suited after yet he may have writ of formedon in the descender, of the same land against the same tenant, upon gift in tail made to the same grandsather. Thel. Dig. 152. lib. 11. cap. 38. (. 20. cites Pasch. 9 E. 3. 454. and 6 H. 4. 2.

accordingly in mortdancestor.

And where in affife of stagno exaltato ad nocumentum liberi tenementi, sec. after issue taken upon the enhancement, the plaintiff was nonjuited, yet he was received to maintain affife of nusance quare levawit, the same flagnum ad nocumentum of the same frank-tenement. Thel. Dig. 152. lib. 11. cap. 38. f. 19. cites Pasch. 8 E. 3. 389.

5. In assis, it is no plea in bar of the assis, that the plaintiff And conhad brought against him writ of formedon of the same land in which the view is made; for it feems to be a plea to the writ, and bringing not in bar. Br. Barre, pl. 60. cites 14 Ass. 6.

~ [ 20 ] cordat 4 E. 3. thatof writ of entry is no bat in formedon. Ibid.

6. In affife against tenant for life, and bim in reversion, who was received in default of the tenant for life, and pleaded the bringing of a writ of a more high nature against the tenant for life, &c. And it was held a good plea, in his mouth in bar of assise, without shewing record thereof sub pede sigilli. Thel. Dig. 152. lib. 11. cap. 38. f. 22. cites 16 Aff. 17.

7. In quare impedit by the king against a bishop, the bishop faid, that the king at another time had brought quare non admift against him of the same church, supposing that the defendant had nothing, but only as ordinary, &c. Judgment of this writ, in which the defendant may claim the advowson, and adjudged no plea. Thel. Dig. 153. lib. 11. cap. 38. f. 46. cites Pasch. 16 E. 3. Quare Impedit 145.

8. After the bringing of affife, the feme had cui in vita of the same land of her own seisin, not with standing that it was found by the affife that she was never seised. Thel. Dig. 152. lib. 11. cap. 38. L 23. cites Mich. 17 E. 3. 65. But adds quære, the tenant in the cui in vita durst not demur.

g. After

But it was adjudged, where he formedon in tail by the remainder, and the writ abated by ley gager of non-summons, that he should maintain formedon in descender against the same tenant of the same land well enough. Thel. Dig. 152. lib. 11. cap. 38, s. 25. cites 18 E. 3.

9. After the bringing of dum non fuit compas of the seisin of his ancestor demanding fee simple, to which suit he appeared, he had brought cannot maintain formedon in descender against the same tenant of the same land, making his descent by the same ancestor; by c'aiming fee- judgment. Thel. Dig. 152. lib. 11. cap. 38. s. 25. cites Mich. 18 E. 3. 31.

54. 28 E. 3. 98.

10. In dower the tenant said, that the demandant had brought cui in vita against him of all the land of which, &c. of the demise of the same baron, to which writ she appeared, &c. and adjudged a good plea. Thel. Dig. 152. lib. 11. cap. 38. s. 24. cites Trin. 18 E. 3. Estoppel 221. & 33 Ass. 18. agreeing.

11. In formedon, if iffue be taken upon the gift, and found against the demandant that he ne dona pas, &c. yet the demandant may afterwards have assign of mortdancestor upon the dying seised of the same ancestor to whom the gift was supposed to be made. Thel. Dig. 152. lib. 11. cap. 38. s. 26. cites Pasch. 19 E. 3.

Estoppel 227.

12. In writ upon the statute of his servant and apprentice taken and esloigned; the defendant said, that the plaintiff, pending this writ, brought writ of ravishment of ward against the same defendant, supposing the ravishment out of his ward of the same person whom he supposes to be his servant, and held a good plea to the writ. Thel. Dig. 152. lib. 11. cap. 38. f. 29. cites 27 Aff. 21.

S. C. cited per cur. 6 Rep. 7. b. 8. 2. Mich. 40 & 41 Eliz. C. B.

13. In formedon in remainder, if the demandant be nonfuited, he may well sue scire facias out of a fine for the same land against the same tenant, supposing that the land ought to revert to bim. Thel. Dig. 152. lib. 11. cap. 38 f. 27. cites Mich. 27 E. 3. 84.

[21]. 14. Upon a deed by which a man is obliged in a debt, and to render account, if the plaintiff brings writ of account, to which he appears, he may afterwards maintain writ of debt. Thel. Dig. 152. lib. 11. cap. 38. f. 28. cites 27 E. 3. 89. 28 E. 3. 98.

15. Feme, tenant for life, took baron, and was diffeised, and after the death of the baron she brought cui in vita upon the demise of her baron against one A. who came and said, that he entered by another, and not by the baron, which was not denied by the feme, by which she took nothing by her writ, and afterwards the brought affife against the heir of A. and others, disseifers, who continued their estate by the first disseisin till she entered, and was seised till at another time disseised, and adjudged that the affise lay well. Thel. Dig. 153. lib. 11. cap. 38. s. 31. cites Mich. 30 E. 3. 24. 30 Ast. 48.

16. Where 3 join in affife, and afterwards are nonfuited, two of them, leaving out the one, may have a new offife of the same land in the life of him who is left out, well enough. Thel. Dig. 153.

lib. 11. cap. 38. s. 32. cites 31 Aff. 14.

17. If a feme brings cui in vita against one, she cannot afterwards maintain assign against the feoffee of the first tenant in the cui in vita; but if the tenant in the cui in vita, disclaims, and she enters, and afterwards is ousted by his feoffee, then she shall have assise. Thel. Dig. 153. lib. 11. cap. 38. f 34. cites 33 Aff. 18.

18. After nonfuit in appeal of maihem a man shall not have another appeal against the same defendants, supposing those who were principals in the one to be accessories in the other, & e contra.

Thel. Dig. 153. lib. 11. cap. 38. f. 35. cites 40 Ass. 1.

19. The demandant brought formedon in remainder, and counted Br. Brief, of the gift of S. and afterwards he brought formedon in descender, Pl. 503. and counted of the gift of E. and therefore well, by Finch. J. but 3. 21. S. C. he held, that it would have been otherwise had it been of the & S. P. by gift of one and the same person. Quære. Br. Estoppel, pl. 225. clearly, and cites 40 E. 3. 14. 21.

yet by the one the demand was of a fee simple, and by the other of a fee tail. ---- Br. Formedon, pl. 77. cites S. C. & S. P. by Fincham J. Quere. But Belk. held, that the formedon in remainder is not more high than the writ of descender; for the formedon in descender is a writ of right in its nature. - Thele Dig. 153. lib. 11. cap. 38, f. 38. cites S. C.

If the heir brings fermedon in descender, yet he may have formedon in remainder or reverter. 5 Rep. 33. Pasch. 1 Jac. C. B. in Robinson's case. S. C. cited, and S. P. resolved, though the heir is barred in formedon in descender; because formedon in remainder or reverter is an action of an higher mature, because in this a see simple is to be recovered. 6 Rep. 7. b.

20. After bringing of formedon, the demandant cannot maintain affife of the same land, against the heir of the first tenant in formedon, without shewing title how, &c. Thel. Dig. 153. lib. 11. cap. 38. f. 36. cites Pasch. 43 E. 3. 17. and 43 Ass. 42.

21. After nonsuit, in appeal of maihem a man cannot have But after action of trespals of battery, and of this same maibem. Thel. Dig. 153. lib. 11. cap. 38. s. 35. cites 43 Ass. 39. 12 R. 2. Co-maihem has rope 110.

the plaintiff in appeal of recovered damages for the mailiem, he may bring writ of trespass of that battery, and recover damages for the battery. Br. Trespals, pl. 241, cites 22 Ass. 82-Br. Appeal, pl. 60. cites S. C. -- In trespals of assault and battery the plaintiff recovered, and had execution, and afterwards brought an appeal of maihem against the same person upon the same matter; the said recovery and execution was a good bar; cited Le. 19. pl. 24. by Ayliff J. as one Cobham's case.

22. If a man sues replevin of his beast taken, and has deliverance, he cannot have action of trespass vi & armis of the same taking. Thel. Dig. 153. lib. 11. cap. 38. f. 39. cites Hill. 5 H. 4. 2. and fays, that fuch plea to the writ was held good. 41. 46 E. 3. 26. and 17 E. 3. 58.

23. After the bringing of writ of debt by one as administrator, he may have another writ as executor to the same deceased person against the same desendant. Thel. Dig. 151. lib. 11. cap. 38. s. 13. debt upon a cites Pasch. 17 H. 6. Estoppel 273.

[22] A. B. and C. executors of R. bring bond, and the defendant fleads, shar before the purchase of this writ, the said A. one of the plaintiffs, as administrator of R. brought debt upon the same bond against the defendant, who then pleaded, that R. made executors, who admisiftered, and traversed that be died intestate; and the plaintiff then replied, that administration was commit-

Agreed by

#Numpet

gnay be a

But unless he bring a writ of a more high

wil, that damages tecovered in an

committed to him pendente lite between the executors of the fuld will, whereupon defendant demurred; and it was adjudged for him, and pleads this matter by way of estoppel, and demands judgment, if, as executor, he shall have an action upon the same bond against the same defendant; but judgment was now given for the plaintiff; for by the first judgment the plaintiff was only barred as to the action of the writ, viz. to have any action as administrator, but this mistake of bis action is no bar not estopped to his bringing his true action. 5 Co. 32, 33. Pasch. 1 Jac. C. B. Robinson's case --- Cro. J. 15. pl. 20. Robinson v. Robinson, S. C. states it, that A. had taken out administration, he not knowing at the time of taking it, or bringing the action, that there was any evill; and adjudged, the bringing the action as administrator is no bar to his bringing action as executor; [in which he was fole plaintiff, the other executor being dead] for though once a bar in a personal action is a bar perpetual, that is to be understood, when it is a bar to the right; but here it was not any bar, but by the misconceiving his action it abated, and so no bar to a new action.————S. C. and same distinction eited Arg. 2 Mod. 319.

> 24. In rescous, supposing that the defendant held of the plaintiff one bouse and three acres of land, by 10 marks rent. The desendant faid, that the plaintiff at another time brought affife against him of the same rent, and made title that the defendant held the said house and three acres of land and a mill, of the plaintiff by this rent, in which affife be was nonfuited: judgment, if he shall be received now to fay, that the rent is now iffuing out of the house and the three acres of land only, &c. sed non adjudicatur; for the justiees were in divers opinions. Thel. Dig. 153. lib. 11. cap. 38. 1. 44. cites Brief 5 E. 4. 9. Mich. 7 E. 4. 19, 20.

> 25. In debt against executor, who said that the plaintiff had sued against the ordinary for the same debt, supposing that the testator bad died intestate, and had judgment to recover; judgment of this writ fued against him as executor, &c. and adjudged no plea. Thel,

Dig. 153. lib. 11. cap. 38. f. 47. cites 18 E. 4. 1.

26. Trespass quare clausum fregit, &c. the desendant pleaded, that before this time he had brought an ejectment against the now plaintiff; and recovered and bad execution, &c. judgment si actio, &c. and this was adjudged a good bar, and the conclusion of the plea good. Leon. 313. pl. 437. Mich. 31 & 32 Eliz. C. B. Kempton v. Cooper.

27. If one be bound in an obligation, and afterwards promises to pay the money, affumplit lies upon this promise; and if he recovers all in damages, this shall be a bar in debt upon the obligation; agreed by all the justices. Cro. E. 240. pl. 112. Trin 33 Eliz.

barofadebe, B, R. Ashbroke v. Snape.

yet it is not so by law where the consideration is collateral. Cro. J. 119. pl. 7. Hill. 3 Jac. B. R. in case of Lee v. Mynne.——Yelv. 48. S. C.

> 28. In assumpte to pay 100 l. the defendant pleaded that the plaintiff had brought action of account against him for the same money; judgment si actio pending the action of account, adjudged and affirmed in error, that this is no plea in bar; because damages are recoverable in action on the case, but not in action of account. Mo. 458, pl. 633, Mich. 38 & 39 Eliz, Barkby v. Foster.

29. If any be barred by judgment in any real action of the seiun of his ancestor, or of his own possession; he may have writ of right, in which the matter shall be tried and determined again ? nature than resolved. 6 Rep. 7. b. in Ferrer's case, that in which he was barred, he and his heirs are not only barred of the same action, but also, so long as the Locord  record of the judgment flands in force; he and his heirs are barred of their entry. 6 Rep. 8, a, refollowed in S. C.

30. But recovery or bar in affife, is a bar in every other affife, Regularly a and in writ of entry of eithie; for both are of his own possession and of one and the same parties. 6 Rep. 7. b, in Ferrer's case.

bar in affise is a bar in an action of the fame nature. But this rule hath three exceptions, 1st, In case of a parson, prebend, or tenant in tail, as the book of 8 Ed. 3. 28. is. 2dly, If he be in from any title, as 10 H. 7. 5. 22 H. 6. 18. 3dly, If he be an infant, as 5 Edw. 3. 32. For an affile is not so strong an estoppel as other actions; per Mountague Ch. J. Cro. J. 467. pl. 13. Hill. 15 Jac. B. R. in case of Holsord v. Platt.

31. Bar in a wrong action brought is not any bar where the As where right action is brought. Cro. E. 668. pl. 24. Pasch, 41 Eliz. one delivers C. B. in case of Ferrers v. Arden, keep, and brings trej-

pass against the bailee for those goods, and be barred by verdict or demutrer, that shall not be a bar in detimue or account, per Anderson and Glanville. But per Walmsley ]. where a siele is pleaded in bar to a thing demanded, and by reason thereof, the plaintiff is barred upon demurrer or werdict, the interest thereby is bound, and the plaintiff shall be barred from bringing a new action, per Anderson and Glanvil. Cro. E. 668. pl. 24. Palch. 41 Eliz. C. B. in case of Ferrers v. Arden.

- 32. S. fold all bis corn standing and growing in such a close for so much, and afterwards brought an affumpfut for the money. It was objected, that debt lay, but not this action; but it was held that a recovery or bar in this action, shall be a good bar in debt brought upon the same contract, and so vice versa, a recovery or bar in action of debt, is a good bar in action on the case upon assumpsit, 4 Rep. 92, b. 94. b. Trin. 44 Eliz. Slade's case.
- (A. 3) Where the Heir may bring a Writ for the fame Thing, for which the Ancestor had brought a Writ.

1. NOtwithstanding the ancestor brought formedon in remainder. and died pending this plea, yet his fon and heir may maintain writ of entry sur disseisen made to the same ancestor of the same land; because the one writ is not of a higher nature than the other. Thel. Dig. 152. lib. 11. cap. 38. f. 15. cites Pasch. # E. 3. 130, & 14 Aff. 6.

2. Where the ancestor has brought writ of right, in which But ibid. s. view and voucher have been had, &c. yet his heir may maintain writ of the same land, against one who was not party to the the conwrit of right, nor beir to the party, per opinionem. Thel. Dig. 152. fib, 11, cap, 38, s. 17. cites Trin, 6 E. 3. 272.

18. fays Herle held trary, Paich. 7 E. 3. 321. where the demandant himself brought the one writ and the other, and the sirst tenant had inseoffed the second tenant with monthrans of record sub pede figilli, &c. and that such bringing of writ of a more high nature, shall abute writ of a more base nature, and cites 33 Aft. 18. agreeing.

3. Notwithstanding that the father has had quod permittat of common of pasture, yet his son and beir may have assign of the same common. Thel. Dig. 152. lib. 11. cap. 38. s. 21. cites

15 Ast. 3.

4. If demandant be barred in writ of error, on release of bis ancestor, yet his issue in tail shall have a new writ of error; for he claims not only as heir, but per formam doni, and by the statute he shall not be barred by feint pleading or false pleading of his ancestor, so long as the right of the entail remains; resolved. * 6 Rep. 7. b. in Ferrer's case, and says that with this agrees 10 H. 6. 5. & Dyer 188. pl. 8. 3 Eliz. Sir Ralph Rowlet's cafe.

5. In formedon in descender, if the demandant be barred by verdict or demurrer, yet the issue in tail shall have a new formedon in descender, upon the construction of the stat. of W. 2. cap. 2. Resolved. 6 Rep. 7. b. Mich. 40 & 41 Eliz. C. B. in Ferrer's case.

(B) Action. [Judgment in one Action, where a Bar in another Action by the same Person.]

S. C. cited Arg. 2 Mod. 42, 43. by Leach v. Thompson.

[1. ] N an action upon the case, if A. the plaintiff declares, whereas he magnam curam de negotiis in lege of B. the defendant, the name of habuisset & a permultis periculis ipsum preservasset; and whereas the plaintiff at the request of the defendant, eidem defendenti promififfet to take to wife the daughter of the defendant, the defendant did af-Fol. 354. Jume to pay to the plaintiff 1000 l. and upon non affumpfit pleaded, the jury find for the defendant, and judgment is given accordingly; and after A. brings another action, and declares, that in consideration that the plaintiff, ante tunc, at the request of the defendant, magnam curam de negotiis in lege of the defendant habuisset & ipsum defendentem a multis periculis preservasset, and to the defendant ad tunc, at his request promisisset ducere in uxorem suam filiam defendentis, the defendant did assume to pay to the plaintiff 10001. cum inde requifitus effet. The judgment in the first action is not any bar of this action, because the promise is a collateral promise and the defendant promised to pay the 1000% generally without any request, which is to be paid within a convenient time; but in the last promise it is to be paid upon request, which request is part of the promise, and a special request ought to be alledged, with the time and place of request, this being a collateral promise; but this is not to be alledged in the first promise, because no request is mentioned to be parcel of the promise, and therefore these two promifes differ materially, and therefore the judgment in the first action is not any bar of this last action. Mich. 22 Car. B. R. between Leach and Bromfill, adjudged upon demurrer.]

2. Trespass in bank. The defendant pleaded that the plaintiff at another time recovered against him for the same trespass in London 401. which he has been at all times ready to pay, and yet is; judgment, &c. and because the plaintiff could not deny it, but demurred because he had not taken execution, it was awarded that g P. 4. 51. a. in pl. 10. cites 40 E. 3. that it was held a good plea, and cites the plaintiff should take nothing by his writ, &c. Br. Trespass, also 20 H. pl. 39. cites 40 E. 3. 27. & 20 H. 6. 11.

6. the like matter.

3. Though the statute gives writ of quare ejecit infra terminum for the leffee who is oufted, yet he may have writ of covenant against his lessor, which is given by the common law; therefore quære in this case, if he brings quare ejecit infra terminum against the feoffee also, if he shall not recover again. Br. Parliament, pl. 8. cites 46 E. 3. 4.

4. For he may recover twice in two quare impedits against several disturbers, by several writs of quare impedit. Br. Parliament, pl. 8.

cites 46 E. 3.4.

5. Notwithstanding a recovery be had in affife against one, yet 6 Rep. 8. he shall be restored to his first action to demand his right; as in the ker's case, case * of a formedon, cui in vita, and the like. 6 H. 4. 2. a. in a note of pl. 12. per Markham.

[25] b. in Ferthe reporter, cites S. C.

and in Marg. cites Doct. Placitandia 65.

6. In debt, if the defendant pleads a former recovery by the Br. Barre, pl. 11. cites plaintiff in plea real or personal, without execution, it is no bar; 43 E. 3. 2. because he that recovered may, at his pleasure, bring a new & 20 H. 6. writ. Heath's Max. 63. cites Br. Bar. 12. 20 H. 6. and 43 12. S. P. per Thorpe. Ed. 3.

7. In trespass, judgment in another writ of trespass of the same S. P. and trespass is no plea, without execution. Br. Execution, pl. 5. cites 20 H. 6, 11, 12.

fo in account, debt, and the like. Br. Barre, pl. 43. cites 9 E. 4. 50. by Danby and Moile; but Littleton and Choke e contra. — --- Br. Judgment, pl. 47. S. P. accordingly, but the year and page is misprinted. — Br. Account, pl. 57. cites S. C. & S. P. accordingly, as to account.

8. A recovery upon bailment in one county cannot be intended a recovery upon bailment in another county, nor it shall not serve for bar there. Br. Judgment, pl. 32. cites 21 H. 6. 35.

9. If a man recovers in debt upon contract, and does not take execution, yet he cannot have a new action of debt on the contract; for the contract is determined by the judgment on upon an ebrecord. Br. Contract, pl. 39. cites 9 E. 4. 51.

But if a' man recowers debt ligation, and does not take execution, he may † have a new action of debt upon the obligation; for record shall not determine specialty without execution; per Danby and Needham. 9 E. 4. 50. b. 51. a. pl. 10. ____Br. Barre, pl. 43. cites S. C. that it is no plea, that the plaintiff at another time recovered in account, debt, trespais, &c. if he does not say that he had execution; per Danby and Moyle; but Littleton and Choke contra----- Br. Judgment, pl. 47. cites 4 E. 4. 54. S. P. [but it should be 4 E. 4. 51. and there are not so many pages as 54. And there it is said by Littleton, that they were all agreed that if a man recovers upon a fimple contract, he shall not have a new action upon this contract, while the judgment is in force; for by the recovery the nature of the duty is changed. 9 E. 4. 51. 2.

If a man bring's debt on an obligation, and is barred by judgment, he cannot have a new action so long as this judgment stands in force; and by the like reason, when he has had judgment in an action upon the same obligation, so long as this judgment stands in force he shall not have a new action. 6 Rep. 46. a. Mich. 3 Jac. C. B. in Higgins's case.

† Br. Contract, pl. 39. S. C. has the word (not.)

10. To plead a recovery of the land in question against the plaintiff, or one whose estate he hath, in the same or higher nature of action, it is a good bar by many books. Heath's Max. 62.

Br. Joinder in Action, pl. 70. cites S. C. & S. P. per

[26]

11. In trespass upon the stat. of 5 R. 2. by 3 persons, 2 recovery of a 3d part of a moiety against one of them, and execution thereupon is a good bar. Heath's Max. 62. cites 18 E. 4. 28. Bro. 70i cur. ----Br. Barre, pl. 83. cites S. C.

> 12. Debt upon an obligation with condition, and the obligee fues the obligation where the condition is not broken, by which he is barred. He shall never sue this obligation again; for once a bar is for ever. Br. Dette, pl. 174. cites 29 H. 8.

13. A. recovered an ejectment against B. Afterwards B. made a new lease for years to J. S. and A. ousted him. J. S. brought an ejectment, and A. pleaded the former recovery. This was held a good bar by all the justices except Windham and Periam, who held it no estopple; for the conclusion shall be judgment si actio, and not judgment if he shall be answered; and though it be an action personal, and in nature of trespass, yet the judgment is quod habeat possessionem termini sui, during which time the judgment is in force; and it is not reasonable that he, against whom he recovered, should oust him. 4 Le. 77. pl. 163. Pasch. 28 Eliz.

C. B. Spring v. Lawson.

14. Damages recovered in trespass of battery is a good plea in 4 Rep. 43. pl. 7. S. C. bar of appeal of maihem for the same battery. Mo. 268. pl. 419. resolved ac-

Mich. 30 & 31 Eliz. Hudson v. Lee. cordingly.

-Le. 318. pl. 447. S. C. adjudged against the plaintiff, and cites it as adjudged accordingly, Pasch. 19 Eliz. in case of Rider v. Cobham; and says that the book which deceived the plaintiss was 22 E. 3.82. where it was faid by Thorpe, that notwithstanding recovery in appeal of maihem, yet he may after recover in trespass; but non dicit e contra. ____ S. C. cited 2 Mod. 319. and the court said that there can be no maihem without an affault? and though the appeal of maihem be of a higher nature than the affault, because it supposes quod selonice may hemavit, yet the plaintiff can only recover damages in both. See tit. Judgment (Q) pl. 3. in the notes there.

- 15. A recovery in assumpsit against the father, upon a collateral promise, is a good bar in debt on bond against the son, who was the obligor. Cro. E. 283. pl. 5. Trin. 34 Eliz. B. R. Pyers v. Turner.
- 16. In account for malt, the desendant pleaded that the plaintiff bad formerly brought trover and conversion for this and other malt against him, and that he was found guilty as to part, and not guilty as to other part, and damages offessed. Adjudged that this was no bar; for it might well be that he did not convert the malt, as the first action supposed, and yet he ought to account as this action supposes. Mo. 463. pl. 653. Hill. 36 Eliz. Mortimer v. Wingate.

17. After action brought plaintiff attaches in London a debt Cro. E. 342. pl. 21. due by another to defendant, and has judgment to recover; May v. adjudged that this shall be pleaded in bar of the action for so Middleton, S. C. & much of the money. Mo. 598. pl. 820. Pasch. 36 Eliz. Moy v. S. P. ad-

Middleton. judged accordingly against the opinion of Popham; because the plaintist by his own act satisfies his own writ; but it was faid, that a recovery is by act in law, which may help the case; but otherwise of a base agceptance.

18. In debt against the desendant as administrator, he pleaded a In debc against 2 recovery against him as executor, and that he has not assets ultra; as executors, and adjudged a good plea. Cro. E. 646. pl. 57. Mich. 40 & 41 they pleaded Eliz. C. B. Smalpiece v. Smalpiece. a judgment against one as administrator; resolved, that it was well pleadable in bar. Lev. 261. Hill: 20 & 21 Car. 2. B. R. Parker v. Amys, &c .- Sid. 404. pl. 11. Parker v. Maiters, & al S. C. adjudged accordingly.

19. In debt on a bond, the defendant pleaded, that the plain- Cro. J. 284. tiff brought a former action in London upon the same bond; and upon non est factum pleaded, it was found not his deed, and court held the entry was, that the defendant recovered dumages against the the plea inplaintiff, and should go sine die, but no judgment that the plaintiff ufficient. should take nothing by his writ; therefore there was no judgment cited per to bar him in another suit, for this was only a trial, and no judg- cur- 2 ment, and so the plea was held naught by the whole court. Brownl. 81. Pasch. 9 Jac. Level v. Hall.

pt. 5. S. C. and the Mod. 295. Hill. 29 Car. 2.

C. B. in case of Rose v. Standen.

20. In trespass for taking and driving away 100 sheep, judgment Hutt 81. was given for the plaintiff and 2d. damages. Afterwards the plaintiff brought trover and conversion for the same 100 sheep. The defendant pleaded the former recovery in bar; but all the judges except Yelverton held, that the 2d. damages could not be intended to be given for the value of the sheep, but for the taking and driving only, and therefore that the trover and conversion well lay; and judgment was given for the plaintiff. Cro. C. 35. pl. 91 Pasch. 2 Car. C. B. Lacon v. Barnard.

Laicon v. Barnard, S. C. says, Yelverton at first hæsitavit, but afterwards agreed, and judgment for the plaintiff.—

See tit. Actions (L. 5) pl. 30.

21. In case for falsely and maliciously procuring a commission of [27] bankruptcy to iffue out against the plaintiff, &c. by virtue whereof the defendant broke his shop, and took away his goods and shop-books, whereby he was discredited, and lost his trade, to his damage, &c. and the defendant pleads, that the plaintiff had before brought an action of trespass for breaking his shop, taking his goods, &c. and recovered damages against him in that action, this is no good plea; for this action is not brought for the same thing as the former was, that being for the trespass, and this for the loss of his credit, and consequently his trade, and in the action of trespass no damage could be recovered for the scandal upon which this action is grounded, and held that the action well lies. Sty. 3. 201. Hill. 21 Car. and Hill. 1649. Watson v. Norbury.

22. Assumplit against executor, he pleads a judgment in debt Sid. 332. against him upon simple contract; though debt lies not in the pl. 17. case, the judgment is a bar of the assumptit till it be re- 19 Car. 2. versed. 3 Lev. 181. cited per cur. as the case of Patmer v. B. R. the Lawfon

S. C. & S. P. re·Sec tit. Judgment (M. a) pl. I,

23. A judgment in an inferior court is pleadable in bat in a superior court; per Wilde J. of assise at Lancaster upon adjournment to his chambers at Serjeant's-Inn. 2 Lev. 93. Mich.

25 Car. 2. Atkinson v. Woodbarn.

24. The plaintiff brought an indebitatus assumplit, and an insimul computasset for wares, whereas at that time no account was stated, and verdict for the defendant. Afterwards the plaintiff brought action of account, and the defendant pleaded the former action. But the court held the plea not good, and that if the plaintiff had recovered, it could not have been pleaded in bar to him; for if he misconceives his action, and a verdict is against him, and then brings a proper action, the defendant cannot plead that he was barred to bring such action by a former verdict; because where it is insufficient it shall not be pleaded in 2 Mod. 294. Hill. 29 & 30 Car. 2. C. B. Rose v. Standen.

And Saunders faid, that a recovery in tresin detinue, account, or the plaintiff

25. Where the party being barred in one action shall be barred in another, is intended in an action of the same concernment, as a bar to one trespass is a bar in another for the same taking; pass is a bar but a bar in trespass is not a bar in detinue, or a bar in trover is not a bar in account. Arg. Skin. 48. in case of Foot v.

srover; for Rastall.

bath damages given to the value of the thing taken, and thereby the property is gone; but if damages are given not for the value, but for a collateral respect, as for milusing, &c. there bar in trespass is no bar in trover; and for this he cited 1 Car. 35. but in this case the jury find for the defendant, and so no property is altered; for the party may, notwithstanding he is barred in the action, seize the goods if he can come at them, quod suit concessum per totam curiam. Skin. 57. S. C.

R2ym. 472. 3. C. Mich. 34 Car. 2. B. R. and the S, P. by Pemberton,

- 26. A difference was taken, per Pemberton Ch. J. that where the same evidence will maintain the one or the other action, there a bar in the one will be so in the other, as in Ferrar's case; but where it will not, it is otherwise. 2 Show. 213. Trin. 34 Car. 2. B. R. in case of Putt v. Rawstern.
- 27. Bar for want of averment of a life in one action is no bar in another, in which the continuance of the life is averred, it not being upon the matter, but upon the manner of the plea, arg. and to this the court inclined. 2 Lev. 210. Mich. 29 Car. 2. B. R. in case of Ingram v. Bray.

Raym. 472. Put v. Rawsterne, S. C. adjudged for the plaintiff in trover, because trover

and trespass

28. Trover of goods; the defendant pleads in bar, that trespass was formerly brought against him for the same goods, and upon not guilty pleaded, a verdict for bim; the plaintiff demurred; and by Pemberton * Ch. J. Jones, and Raymond, (Dolben hæsitante) judgment was given for the plaintiff. 2 Show. 211. pl. 219.

Trin. 34 Car. 2. B. R. Putt v. Royston.

are sometimes actions of different natures; for trover will lie where trespass vi & armis will not; as if I deliver my goods to one to keep for me, and I afterwards demand them, and they are not delivered; here trover will lie, but not trespass: because here was no tortious taking; but where there is a wrongful taking and detaining the good, the plaintiff may have either trespass or trover, and in such case judgment in one action is a bar to the other, and the rule is, vis. wheresoever the same evidence will maintain both the actions, there the recovery or judgment in the one, may be pleaded in har to the other, and this will not clash with Ferrer's case; for here it is to be presumed that the plaintiff, in the first action, had mutaken his action, by bringing trespass vi & armis, whereas he had no evidence to prove a wrongful taking, but only a demand and refusal, and for that reason the verdict passed exainst him in the action of trespass, and therefore he was obliged to begin again in trover. ---2 Mod. 3:8. S. C and the court were of opinion, that trover will lie where a trespass will not, and if the plaintiff has mistaken his action, that will be no bar to him. ---- 3 Mod. 1. S. C. adjudged by 3 judges, for the plaintiff. ---- Pollexf. 634. to 645. S. C argued by the reporter, and fays, judgment was given for the plaintiff in the action; but a writ of error intended. -Skin. 48. pl. 2. Foot v. Reffal, S. C. adjornatur; but ibid. 57. pl. 1. adjudged, nifi. -But in the case of Lechmere v. Toplady, Show. 146. Hill. 1 W. & M. it was held, that judgment in trespass on a special verdict is a good plea in bar-to trover brought for the same goods. -Sec tit. Actions (L. 5) pl. 35, 36,

29. T. brought trespass of assault and battery in B. R. against 8. to which S. pleaded son affault demesne, and found for the plaintiff. Afterwards 8. brought trespals of assault and battery against T. in C. B. and T. pleaded this verdict and judgment in bar; and the court would not suffer this action to proceed. Cited Skin. 58. Mich: 34 Car. 2. by Pollexfen, Arg. as the case of Turbervill v. Savage.

30. If there be two obligees, and debt is brought against ene, and he pleads non eft factum, and found for the defendant, an action may be brought against the other; but if he pleads conditions performed, and found for him, it is otherwise. Skin. 58. Arg. pl. 1. Mich. 34 Car. 2. B. R. in case of Foot

v. Rastall.

31. The plaintiff declared in an action of covenant, that Thereason whereas the defendant had covenanted and agreed with the plaintiff not to release to J. S. without the plaintiff's consent, that not with flanding be bad released to bim, and this declaration being ill, judgment was for the defendant; and after the plaintiff brought another action, and the defendant pleaded this in bar; and upon a released to demurrer, the counsel for the defendant urged 6 Rep. 7. and J. S. and Dyer, and the counsel for the other fide cited Mod. Rep. 207. The court took a difference between a bar and demurrer to the decla- plaintiff's ration, and a judgment upon a demurrer to the plea, or upon a ver- consent, and dict or confession; for in the case of a demurrer to the declaration, the right was never tried. Skin. 120. pl. 15. Trin. 35 Car. 2. was with B. R. Coppin and Steymaker.

why the first declaration is naught, is, because he fays the defendant saith not without the So for aught appears it ir, and then it is no breach of covenant. Skin. 120. Coppin v. Steymakers

32. In replevin the defendant avowed, and there was a dedemurrer to the avoury, &c. and after a new replevin was brought, and this judgment pleaded in bar, and they could never get over Cited by Pollexfen, as a case wherein he was of counsel; and yet he said an avowry is like to a declaration. Skin. 120. Coppin and Stermaker.

33. Recovery in a former action by A. and B. for throwing down their house, and spoiling goods; upon which was a verdict, and 1401. damages, is a good bar to an action of trespass brought after by A. alone for damages, little varying from what was alledged in the former action, as loss of trade, &c. 3 Lev. 179.

Trin. 36 Car. 2. C. B. Barwell v. Kensey.

34. Recovery in trover, or battery against an insolvent person, is a bar Vel. IV.

529

a bar to sue any other of the parties. Arg. Show. 168. Trin. 2 W. & M.

* 35. Debt was brought upon a bond for performance of covenants. The desendant pleaded in bar, that for all the breaches, till such a time, he had brought covenant and recovered damages, and that there was no breach fince that time; and demurrer, and judgment for the plaintiff; for by the very plea the bond was forfeited. 12 Mod. 321. Mich. 11 W. 3. Pierce v. Hutchinson.

$ 5alle. 11. pl. 5. Fetter

 ★. Beal, S.C.

 cordingly.

36. After recovery of damages in affault, battery; &c. no action will lie for consequential damages; as where, after such reedjudged ac- covery, a piece of the man's ikuil came out. 12 Mod. 542. Trin. 13 W. 3. Fitter v. Veal.

37. Recovery in trespass and battery is a good bar in maihem; per cur. 12 Mod. 543. Trin. 13 W. 3. Fitter v. Veal.

38. If A. wound B. and he thereof die within the year, through the unskilfulness of surgeons, yet it is felony in A. per Holt Ch. J. 12 Mod. 544. Trin. 13 W. 3. in case of Fitter v. Veal.

39. And if A. brings an action for words actionable in themselves, and recover damages: and after, by reason of the words, the loses a husband, yet no action will lie after for the special damage; per Holt Ch. J. 12 Mod. 544. Trin. 13 W. 3.

40. So if the words be actionable for special damage, which the party has suffered by reason of them, and for that damages are recovered, and after the party has another special damage; per

Holt Ch. J. 12 Mod. 544. Trin. 13 W. 3.

' $ 54K. T1. 41. An action of trespass for battery and wounding is not pl. 5. S. P. like the case of a nusance in erecting a pent-bouse, whereby the and by Holt rain falls in upon my house or garden; or stopping my lights, wherein I shall recover damages for every new burt infinitum; for, grievoulnels first, the battery is a transitory act, and the nusance is a continued one as long as it lasts; therefore damages cannot be recovered for it at once: 2dly, Every new rain that falls, or every light that is stopt, is a new nusance; but every new ill consequence of the battery is not any new wrong of the defendant. Et per tot. he action, cur. jud' pro defendant. 12 Mod. 544. Trin. 13 W. 3. Fitter v. Veal. the damages, which the jury must be supposed to have considered at the trial; and judgment for the de-

> (B. 2) Judgment in one Action, where a Bar in another Action, though brought by or against another Person, it being for the same Thing.

And though 1. TWO are bound, conjunction & division, and the obligee rehe has that covers against one of them, and does not sue execution, eution, he yet he may have a new action against the other if he will, so the

Ch. J. in trespass the or confequence of the battery is not the ground of but the measure of mature of the deed is not changed by this recovery, &c. 9 E. 4. may implead 51. a. pl. 10. per Pigot.

fendant.

the other. and take him in execution also, because execution is not a satisfaction; but if the one satisfies the plaintiff, he shall not have execution after. Br. Executions, pl. 132. cites'29 H. 8. per tot. cur. in C. B.

In case of an obligation against two, each of them is chargeable and liable to the intire cebt, and Therefore a recovery against the one is no bar against the other till satisfaction; per cur. Cro. J. 74. in pl. 3. Trin. 3 J.c. B. R. -- Yelv. 67. S. P. obiter, cites 4 H. 7. 22. - See 5 Rep. 86. b. Blumfield's case. ——— As to him against whom the judgment is, it is become a record; but as to the other, it continues a writing as it was before; per cur. 6 Rep. 4c. b. --- The nature of the obligation is not changed against the other, but that the obligee may have action of debt upon the same ubligation against the other obligor, and he may plead non est factum, notwith landing the judgment egainst the other. 6 Rep. 45. a. 46. a. Mich. 3 Jac. C. B. in Higgins's cafe.

2. If goods of the bailor are taken, and he recovers damages, the So if the tailee stall not have action after. Br. Trespass, pl. 442. cites 20 H. 7. 5.

30] bailee recowers firft. Br. 1bid.

3. In trespass for battery of his servant, the master may recover for the services, and the servant for the battery. Br. Trespass, pl. 442. cites 20 H. 7. 5.

4. It seems that if termor recovers in ejectment, and re-enters, the leffer sball not have assis. Br. Trespais, pl. 442. cites 20 H.

5. So of tenant by flatute-merchant, tenant by elegit, &c. Br.

Trespass, pl. 442. cites 20 H. 7. 5.

6. In trover and conversion of certain plate, the desendant Mo. 762. pleaded that at another time the plaintiff had brought his action against pl. 1060. 7. S. for the same plate, supposing the conversion to have been the plea by him, and in that action he had recovered 201. demages, and adjudged bad J. S. in execution for those damages. Resolved a good bar; and it was faid, if one have cause of action against two, and Broome v. obtains a judgment against one of them, he shall not have any Wootton, remedy against the other; and judgment per tot. cur. for the defendant. Cro. J. 73, 74. pl. 3. Trin. 3 Jac. B. R. Brown v. was taken Wootton.

S. C. and good. Yelv. 67. by the court between a thing certain and uncertain; as where two are bound in 1001. to J. S. jointly and severally, a recovery and execution against one is no bar against the other; for execution is no satisfaction of the 100 l. demanded. But where trespass is dine by two, which rests only in damages, and the plaintist recovers against the one, and has execution, there it is a good har against the other. And it was further agreed, that the very judgment was a sufficient bar, quia transit in rem judicatam; and the thing uncertain is now by the judgment made certain, and thereby altered and changed into a thing of another nature than it was at first, and thesefore he cannot refort to demand the uncertainty again, the first judgment being a bar to it. - The same law of a battery against several, and recovery had against one. Ibid. 69. cites it as agreed the same term, in case of Hickman v. Poypes.

Action upon the Case, Bar [to another Action on the Case.]

[1. ]F the defendant be found not guilty in an action upon the 2 Brown! case for words, yet this verdict, if no judgment be given 122. S. C. thereupon, shall be no bar of another action upon the case for the agreed by D 2 iame all, that fame words. Mich. 9 Jac. B. between JACOB AND SOWGATE, should be per curiam.]

given for the defendant, nifi.——But Brownl. 11. Jacob v. Songate, Trin. 9 Jac. S. C. agrees with Roll supra, that it was adjudged no bar, because no judgment was given in the first action, and so judgment entered for the plaintiff.

[2. In an action upon the case, upon a promise, if the plaintiss declares, that in consideration that he demised to the desendant a house for a year for certain rent, and delivered the key thereof to him, the desendant did assume, at the end of the year, either to deliver the possible of the possible of the plaintiss, and for the non-delivery of the possible of this action for the desendant to say, that the plaintiss had nothing in the house at the time of the demise, for if it should be admitted, yet the delivery of the key and possible in a sufficient consideration to hind the desendant, either to re-deliver the possible on, or give 51. Mich. 13 Car. B. R. between Page and Lownes, adjudged upon demurrer.]

[31] (D) In what Cases a Discharge pro Tempore shall be a Bar. And how.

S. P. and shall not have scire facias; for by the judgment the record

1. IN debt against executors who plead plene administravit, and it is found for them, the plaintiff shall be barred, and after goods came to their hands by recovery or otherwise, the plaintiff shall have another action of debt de novo. Br. Dette, pl. 92. cites 19 H. 6. 37. per Markham.

'is determined per Martin; quod tot. cur. concessit. But Brooke says quære inde; for it seems that debt does not lie after the plaintiss is once barred. Br. Executor, pl. 85. cites 4 H. 6. 4.—S. P. Br. Dette, pl. 105. cites S. C.

- 2. So in debt against the beir, who pleads riens per descent, and after assets comes to him, in a new action he shall be charged, and the sirst matter no bar. Br. Dette, pl. 92. cites 19 H. 6. 37. per Markham.
- 3. Where a man grants to his debtor that he shall not be sued before Michaelmas, this is a good bar for ever. Br. Grants, pl. 58. cites 21 H. 7. 23.
- 4. Grant that a man shall not be distrained for three years, or that he shall not be impeached of waste; these are good bars, and the party shall not be put to his action of covenant. Br. Grants, pl. 58. cites 21 H. 7. 23.

(E) In what Cases a Man may be restored to his Action.

I. IF a man who has title of action of assise of mortdancestor disseifes the tenant, and the tenant recovers by assign, the other is restored to bis assise of mortdancestor; for the estate and last seisin is now deseated. Br. Restore, pl. 3. cites 5 Ast. 1.

2. A man died seised, and the land descended to W. N. and af- Br. Mortter J. S. abated and died seised, and bis beir entered, and the beir dancestor, of W. N. entered upon bim, against whom the beir of J. S. brought S. C. assisse and recovered; there the beir of W. N. may have assis of mortdancestor, and confess and avoid the recovery in assign of novel disseisen: for he is restored to the first action. Br. Restore, pl. 4. cites 10 Aff. 16.

3. In affise the plaintiff was outlawed in action of trespass after the diffeisin, and after obtained charter of pardon, and brought assiste, and the defendant pleaded the outlawry in trespess in bar, and the plaintiff shewed the charter of pardon; and by this the assise lies well of the first diffeisin, without title after the outlawry; for by the charter of pardon the plaintiff is restored to his first action, viz. the assise, without other seisin or entry after. Br. Restore, pl. 7. cites 13 Ass. 5.

4. A man recovered by scire facias upon a fine, and made foeff- Br. Sci. Fs. ment upon condition, and re-entered for the condition broken, and the pl. 88. tenant reversed the first jndgment, and execution thereupon by writ of disceit, and entered; and the first plaintiff brought another scire facias to execute the same fine, and the issue taken if the feoffment was fingle, or upon condition. Br. Restore,

pl. 2. cites 38 E. 3. 16.

5. Dower of the possession of the baron of the demandant. The tenant came and said that fine was levied between J. & E. and the tenant, and that the same tenant brought scire facias upon the same fine against the same feme now demandant; and she said as to parcel, that she held of the downent of the same baron, and of whose downent she now holds of the assignment of W. C. and prayed aid of him; and to the rest, that she held for term of life of the demise of this same W. C. and prayed aid of him; upon which came the prayee, and they pleaded feoffment of the baron, to whom the remainder of the fee-simple by the same fine was intailed, to whom the now tenant and then plaintiff in the scire facias said that riens passa by the deed; and after the prayee made default, and the now demandant, then tenant, maintained the same plea which was found against the seme now demandant; by which the now tenant, then plaintiff in the scire facias, had execution; judgment if against this recovery, against berself, she shall be received to demand donver, and the demandant demurred, inasmuch as this recovery affirms the possession of the baron; for by his pretence the feme, by such recovery, is restored to her first action; but the best opinion was e contra, and that when she is lawfully in, in dower, and loses by recovery, that in this case she has no remedy but by writ of error or attaint, or writ of right, and she upon this estate cannot have writ of right; and it was faid, that it was folly in the feme that the had not said that she was in dower, ready to be attendant to whom the court should award, and upon such plea she shall hold the possession, and the reversion shall go to him who has right to it. Per Belk. but when one is in by tort, as by diffeifin upon a descent to the heir of the disseisor, or by entry upon a discontinuance, and the heir of the disseifee or the discontinuee recovers, there the disseisor, or the feme, or his heir, shall have in the one case writ of entry, and in the other cui in vita; contra where he who is in by rightful title loses by recovery, he has no remedy but by attaint, write of error, or writ of right. But per Clopton, this is where the issue is upon the entry; but if the issue be upon a release, or other point which goes to the tenancy or to the right, there, if this be found against him, he shall not be restored to the sirst Note the diversity by him; but quære of his opinion thereof. And per Wich. where land is recovered against the baron upon dilatory, as nontenure, misnosmer of the vill, &c. there the feme shall have dower, and may falsify the recovery; for this does not falsify the possession of the baron; but contra it seems upon recovery upon dilatory against the feme herself, being in in dower. Note the diversity. Br. Restore, pl. 1. cites 50 E. 3. 7.

[ 32 ]

Br. Sci. Fa. pl. 60. cites S. C.

[33]

o. An infant had title by fine, executory and entry, and he upon whom he entered outled him, and the infant brought affife, and the defendant pleaded to the affife, and the jury found for the defendant in the affife; so that the infant plaintiff was barred, by reason that there was a divorce which was not pleaded by the infant, by which the plaintiff was barred of the affife; and yet he after brought scire facias to execute the fine, and the tenant in the affife pleaded record of the affife, by which the now plaintiff was barred in the affife, and yet the plaintiff recovered, and was not barred by the first judgment, by reason that he was an infant at the time of the judgment, and this notwithstanding the fine was executed in the infant by his first entry. Quod mirum. Br. Restore, pl. 6. cites 7 H. 4. 22.

7. In some case the original may be revived by writ of error, and in some case the action; as where an exception to the write is awarded good, by which the writ abates, and after the other reverses it by error, the original is revived, and he shall have writ of resummons; but if an ill bar be adjudged good, and the demandant reverses it by writ of error, he is restored to his action. Brooke says, see elsewhere if in such case the court will not award that the demandant recover; and says it seems they will.

Br. Error, pl. 7. cites 9 H. 6. 38.

8. If a man intrudes after the death of my tenant for life, and I bring writ of intrusion, and recover, and after make feoffment to a stranger, and after the intruder reverses the first judgment by writ of deceit, error, or attaint, there I am without remedy, and am not restored to my first action, and writ of right does not lie; for my feossment gives my right to the feossee, who cannot revest revest it in me by the reversal of the recovery. Contra, it he had not made feoffment. Br. Restore, pl. 8. cites

9 H. 7. 24.

9. If a man enters where his entry is not lawful, as the heir in tail after his discontinuance, or the heir of a feme, or the feme lerfelf after discontinuance, and the other upon whom he enters recovers against him: there he, his heir in tail, or the seme, or her heir, is restored to their ark action of formedon, or cui in vita. Br. Restore, pl. 5. cites 23 H. 8.

10. But if fuch who enters where his entry is not lawful, makes feoffment, and the other upon whom he enters recovers; now the first action is not restored to the issue in tail, or to the feme, or to her heirs, by reason of the feoffment, which extinguishes right and action. Ibid.

11. But if such who so enters, makes feoffment upon condition, and for the condition broken re-enters, before that he upon whom he enters has recovered, and he recovers after the re-entry made by the condition; there he who made the feofiment upon condition, is restored to his first action; for the entry by condition extinguishes his feoffment. Ibid.

Bar. Good to a common Intent.

pl. 41. cites 9 Ed. 4. 12. by Moyle.

1. IF a bar be good to common intent, it sufficeth. Br. Barre, Heath's Max. 53 cites S. cites S. C. -Br. Barre pl. $7. cites 21 E. 4. 83. that a plea in bar by matter of fact, is good to a common intent.-The defendant in maintenance did plead, that the party was his lervant, and that he did retain A. to be his counsel; and for the reason aforesaid it shall be intended, that he retained him with hi: fervant's money, and not with his own money; quod nota. Heath's Max. 54. cites 21 H.

A bar may be good to a common intent, though not to every intent, as if debt be brought against five executors, and three of them make default, and two appear and pleud in har a recovery had against them true of 3001, and that they have nothing in their hands on er and above that sum. If this bat should be taken strongest against them, it should be intended that they might have abated the first suit. because the other three were not named, and so the recovery not duly had against them; but according to the rule, the bar is good. For that by common intendment it will be fup; ojed that the two others did ealy administer, and so the action well considered, rather than to imagine that they would have lost the benefit and advantage of abating the first writ. Heath 8 Max. 54. cites Touchstone of Precedents, tit. Pleas and Pleadings, fol. 192. reg. 7.

So if a bar bave matter of substance in it, and be good to common intent, it is sufficient, albeit it he not good to every special intert; as where one sues as executor, and the defendant saith, that the testator made the plaintiff and one J. S. executors, and does not say after this, that he did not make the plaintiff executor, yet this may be sussicient. Heath's Max. 55. cites 3 H. 7. 2. Plowd. 26. by Cooke Serj. Arg. Pl. C. 26. a. cites 33 H. 6. [but I do not observe S. P. as e H. 7. 2.

٠,

So in trepass where the defendant pleads that the place is his freehold, this is good, yet the plaintiss may have a particular estate. Heath's Max. 55.--Pl. C. 26. a. cites Trin. 10 H. 7.

25. S. P. So upon an obligation to perform convenants, the defendant alledgeth two covenants, and faith he hath performed them, and doth not say there are no more covenants in the deed to be by him performed, yet it is good; for it shall be intended there are no more for him to perform. Heath's Maz. 55.-Pl. C. 26. a. cites 6 E. 4. 1. S. P. and Fitzh. Barre 89. and Br. Condition, PL 144. S. C.

So if one faith be

2. But if the defendant pleads in bar a record or * estoppel, that S. P. Br. Barre, pi. must be certain and good to every intent. Heath's Max. 54. 87. cites cites 22 E. 4. 83. 21 E. 4. 33. that an estopped ought to be good to every intent, per Briggs.

3. If a leafe be made to A. and B. for life, the remainder to C. and if C. shall die during the life of A. or B. then that it shall remain to E. for life, si ipse vellet esse residens, &c. and E. (being defendant) pleads his entry after the death of A. and B. and C. and . doth not say when they died, yet held to be good in a plea in bar: for if it be a condition, it shall be intended that the defendant did enter as foon as his title accrued; and if the case be otherwife in truth, than by common intendment it is taken to be, the plaintiff must set it forth in his pleading, as in a formedon in descender, if the tenant pleads in bar a release of the demandant without warranty, it is good; and yet the release might be made by the demandant in the life of his father, and then it is no bar to the issue. Heath's Max. 56, 57. cites Plowd. 32, 33. [Pasch. 4 E. 6. Colthirst v. Bejushin.]

4. But no substantial part of a bar may be omitted. As where one is bound to do a thing between such and such a time, and the desendant saith that he did it, or did it before the day, this is not sufficient, but he must show that he did it such a day within those was lord of a manor, and entered for an alientimes. Heath's Max. 55. acton in mortmain, and do not show that he did it within the year, this shall not be intended unless it be showed.

Heath's Max. 55. ——— Pl. C. 27. b. cites Hill. 3 H. 7. a. b. ——— S. P. by Doderidge J. Lat. 171. & ibid. 172. Jones J. agreed. — Yet per Plowden 28. if one pleads a feeffment in bar, it shall be allowed as good, albeit it might be an infant, or per durest, &c. unless it be shewed on the other fide. Heath's Max. 55 .- Pl. C. 27. b. S. P. - And if the leffer covenants with the leffer, that if he be ousted within the term, that he shall have as much other land, he must show that he was oussed on such a day in certain within the term. Heath's Max. 55.—Pl. C. 27. b. S. P. Arg.— So to plead in bar, that J. S. died seised, and R. S. entered as son and beir to bim; this is good, though he fay not that he was his beir, for that shall be intended, and the best shall be taken for the desendant. Heath's Max. 56. ——— Pl. C.-28. a. —— So in an affife, if the tenant pleads in bar a de-Icent to the plaintiff and two others, and that he hath the effate of one of them; it is good, yet he might have it by disseisin; but it shall be taken in the best sense, that he had it lawfully. Heath's Max. 56. - Fl. C. 28. b. S. P. So where the ancestor is tenest pur outer vie, and the beir pleads that be entered as beir to bim, and fays not that he entered first after his death, for occupanti conceditur. Heath's Max. 56. ——— Pl. C. 28. b. cites Fitzh. Barre 73. & Br. Affile 271. in 27 Ast. 31.

> 5. Debt against an executor upon a bond of the testator. The defendant pleaded a statute acknowledged by the testator, &c. and averred that he has not, nor at the day of the bill brought, he had not any goods which were the testator's tempore mortis sue, in his hands to be administered, unless to satisfy the said statute; and upon demurrer to this plea, it was objected that it was ill, because the defendant might have goods liable to debts, though they were not the testator's goods tempore mortis suz; but all the court except Williams J. held it well, the bar being good to a ... common intent, and it shall not be intended that he had such affets, being special affets, unless it was specially shewed; and denied the 7 H. 4. 39. which was cited to be good law in that point, and judgment for the plaintiff. Qro. J. 131. pl. 4. Mich. 4 Jac. B. R. Gewen v. Roll.

6. Though a bar shall be taken good by a common intent, yet when the bar depends upon circumstance, there in pleading the matter he must shew it to be within the circumstance. Per Dode-ridge J. Lat. 171. Trin. 2 Car.

7. Debt upon bond for quiet enjoyment from the time, &c. The defendant pleaded, that after the making the faid bond to the day of the bill the plaintiff had enjoyed the lands; and upon demurrer to this plea it was objected, that the defendant does not say, a die confectionis scripti obligatorii & semper post confectionem, &c. sed non allocatur; for the bar is good to a common intent, and it shall be intended that he always enjoyed it, unless the contrary is shewn. Cro. C. 141. pl. 6. Trin. 6 Car. B. R. Harlow v. Wright.

8. The reason why a bar is good to a common intent, is be- Heath's cause it is to excuse from a charge. But a replication must have a Max. 57. general certainty, because it is to destroy the excuse of the defendant, which is always received favourably. Per Holt Ch. J.

12 Mod. 665. Hill. 13 W. 3.

For more of Bar in general, see Abatement, Actions, Judgment, and the pleadings under the several other titles.

Waron and Feme.

Who shall be said to be Baron and Feme.

[1. ] F a man espouses his mother, they are baron and seme till it For when the banes be defeated. 9 H. 6. 34.] and elpoufals are made in facie ecclesize, this is sufficient to us, and whether it be lawful matrimony or not, is nothing to us, per Paston; but per Cavendish, notwithstanding the celebration, the court shall take notice whether the espousals are lawful or not. Ibid.

[2. If a woman takes a 2d busband, living the first husband, this See tit. Basis void marriage by our law, as by the spiritual law. Contra tard (A. 2) (F) pl. 1. 9 H. 6. 34.] S. P. –

S. P. Arg. Mo. 226. - Adjudged that where the husband took a second wife, the marriage was woid ab initio, and she was always sole, and there needed no sentence of divorce, and such divorce is only declaratory. Cro. E. S. 857. pl. 25. Mich. 43 & 44 Eliz. C. B. Riddlesden v. Wogan.

[3. If a man baptizes the cousin of A. S. and after marries with Br. Bastardy, pl 23. A. S. they are baron and feme till a divorce. 39 Ed. 3. 31. b.] cites S. C. This it feems was looked upon as a spiritual affinity, so as their intermarriage was prohibited, and as I think, I remember Sir Paul Rycaut mentions it to be still observed in the eastern churches. ] - See tit. Baf-tardy, (A. 2) pl. 4. and the notes there.

[4. So if a man takes his fifter to wife, they are baron and Br. Pastat. dy, pl. 23. feme till a divorce. 39 Ed. 3. 31. b.] cites S. C. -See tit. Bastard, (A, 2) pl. 3. S. C.

[5. If a man takes A. S. to wife by durefs, though the marriage Fitzh. Corone, pla be folemnized in facie ecclesiæ, yet it is merely void, and they are 36. cites Mich 11 H. not baron and feme; because there is not any consent, and can-4.13. S. C. not be a marriage without a consent. Dubitatur * 11 H. 4. 14. † Kelw. 52. + 19 H. 7.] b. pl. 7.

Trin 19 H. 7. Keble v. Vernon. —— D. 13 a. Marg. pl. 61 fays, that Noy attorney general held, I that marriage by durels was good, contrary to the opinion of Frowike, Cro. [Kelw ] 52. because otherwise upon such allegation, divorces will be frequent to satisfy men's lusts, and cites Fitzh. Attachment fur Prohibition 8. and 11 H 4. 13. and Swinb. 241. — Marriage by force and duress of the feme is void, and trespass thereof we!! lies; per Windham J. and cites it as by Babington, in L. 5 E. 4. 61. b. --- 2 Inst. 687. S. P. cites 11 H. 4. 14 Rot. Parl. 17 H. 6. Numb. 15. Isabel (Lady) Butler's case. See 7 Mod. 102. Mich. 1 Ann. B. R. the Queen v. Swansen & al' ---- See tit. Marriage (H. a) per totum.

‡[36]

[6. If a woman, after carnal knowledge of her husband, enters into religion without the consent of her husband, and the husband after es another wife, this is void; because he may deraign his wife. 18 H. 6. 33.]

[7. So the second marriage would be void, though the wife had entered into religion by the assent of the baron; because the baron, by his affent, had in a manner vowed chaftity.]

[8. If an idiot a nativitate takes a wife, they are baron and Baftard (A. 2) pl. 8. feme in law, and their issue legitimate, for he may consent to a $. C. marriage. Trin. 3 Jac. B. R. between Still and West, ad-5. C. cited Sid. 112.

judged upon a special verdict.]

19. If a man takes the order of a deacon, and after takes wife, Br. Verdict, pl. 21. this marriage is not void; for the issue is no bastard. * 21 H. 7. cites S. C. 39. 19 H. 7. Bastardy 33. adjudged by advice in the exchequer -Br. Baschamber. tardy, pl.

25. cites [10. So if a priest takes a wife, this not void, but they are ba-S. C. quod ron and seme. *21 H. 7. 39. 19 H. 7. Bastardy 33. per nota bene, Frowike.] guia nemo

negavit. [11. So if a nun takes kuspand, it is not void, but voidable, —Fitzh. contra ibidem, per Vavisor.] Bastardy, Pl. 33. cites S. C. _____ 2 Inst. 687. Ld. Coke says, that it appears in our books, that if a deacon or secular priest had taken wife, the marriage was not void, but voidable causa professionis; and if either party had died before divorce, their issue had been legitimate, and should have inherited; for that deacons and priests within England were not votaries, that is, had not vowed chastity; but if a monk or a nun had married before the tlatute of 32 H. S. cap. 38. and of 2 E. 6. cap. 21. and this act of 5 E. 6. the marriage had been (as it was then holden) merely void; for that they had taken a vow of chastity, as it appeareth by our books in 5 E. 2. tit. Non Hability 26. 19 H. 7. tit. Bastard' 33. 21 H. 7. 39. b. for avoiding of which scruple, the said acts of 32 H. 8. 2 E. 6. and 5 E. 6. were made,

[12, If

[12. If a man within the age of 14, takes a wife above the The age of age of 12, this is a marriage, and they are baron and feme de a teme for facto, so that the baron may have trespass de muliere abducta marriage is cum bonis viri. Trin. 12 Jac. B. between Bradshaw and 12 years. FLATCHER, per curiam.]

consent to Br. Age,

pl. 73. cites lib. B. fol. 117. - Brr Gard, pl. 7. cites 35 H. 6. 40. S. P. - Mo. 741. Arg. cites S. C. & S. P. by Wankford. - 2 Inst 90. S. I'. - Co. Litt. 79. a. S. P. Br. Age, pl. 41. cites 8 E. 4. 7. but says, that those of the spiritual law say, that it was not so then, unless et that time fibe be apta viro.

[13. If a man marries a woman that is within the age of 12, Mo. 575. and after the woman at the age of 11 years disagrees to the marriage, this disagreement is void, it being within the age of Babington, consent, and so they continue baron and feme notwithstand- S. C. the ing the disagreement. Tr. 24 Eliz. .... adjudged, cited M. 41 & 42 El. B. R. by Coke. Co. Litt. 79. M. 41, 42 ought to Eliz. B. R. per curiam, between Babington and Warner.]

Pl. 794. Warner v. question was, if the agree or difagree ante annos nubiles, or what time the law has appointed for it; Popham faid, that if the marries and ther baron infra annos nubiles, this shall be a disagreement; to which Fenner agreed; & adjornature

[14. If a man marries a woman that is within the age of 12 years, and after the woman at 11 years of age dijagrees to the Fol. 3450 marriage, and after the husband takes another wife, and has issue by ber, this is a bastard; for the sirst marriage continues, notwithstanding the disagreement of the woman, for she cannot disagree within the age of 12 years, and so her disagreement void. Trin. 35 Eliz. B. R. adjudged, cited M. 41, 42 Eliz. B. R. by Coke. Quære.]

[15. If a man of the age of 14 takes a woman of the age of 10, the baron, when the feme comes to the age of 12, may difagree as well as the feme; because in contracts of matrimony each ought to be bound, and equal election given to both. Co. Litt. 79. [b.]

[16. If a man marries a woman that is within the age of Mo. 575. 32 years, and after the feme, within the age of consent, dif- pl. 794agrees to the marriage, and after the age of 12 years marries ano- Babington, ther, now the first marriage is absolutely dissolved, so that he s. c. in may take another wife; for though the disagreement within debt upon the age of consent was not sufficient, yet her taking another defendant husband after the age of consent, affirms the disagreement, and pleaded, that fo the marriage avoided ab initio. M. 41, 42 El. B. R. between Babington and Warner, adjudged in a writ of error baron in full upon a judgment given in banco, where the same point was also life; the adjudged.]

plaintiffs replied, that the feme ad annos nubiles disagreed; and upon demurrer it was adjudged for the plaintiffs, because after the age of consent she always cohabited with the second baron; and so a judgment in C. B. was affirmed in B. R. -- D. 13. a. Marg. pl. 61. cites S. C. and the second marriage adjudged good, though the feme disagreed within age, and says, that so was the opinion of Noy attorney-general, and Harrison reader of Lincoln's-Inn, 1632; and Noy's reason was, that the church, providing against change of lust, had prohibited divorces, but in this case, under the age of 12 years, there was no luch mischief,

[17. If an infant within the age of consent, as of the age of 10 years, takes A. S. to wife, and after, when he comes to the age of 14, they both being present together, severally disagree to the said marriage, which disagreement is put in writing, and the said in-fant puts his hand thereto, and after they agree again, and live together as man and wife, this is a good agreement, and so the marriage continues; for the said disagreement by parol is not fuch a binding disagreement, but that they may well after agree to the first marriage without any new marriage, for affections may increase. P. 7 Jac. B. between Lee and Ashton., 'adjudged per curiam.]

[18. But otherwise it had been if the disagreement had been before the ordinary; for there they could not ever agree again to make it a good marriage. Tr. 12 Jac. B. per Warbur-

ton.]

[19. If a man within the age of 14 takes a wife of full age, and after brings a writ de muliere abducta cum bonis viri, and after comes to the age of 14, if after he makes any continuation of the action, this shall be an agreement to the marriage, so that it cannot after be deseated. Trin. 12 Jac. B. per curiam.]

= 3 Built. 264. Motmine v. Motteram, 3. C. & 5. P. admitted.— Roll-Rep. 426. pl. 19. S. C. 2 S. P.

[20. If baron and feme are divorced causa adulterii, yet they continue baron and feme; for the divorce is but a mensa & thoro, & matrimonii obsequiis. My Reports, 14 Jac. * Mo-TAM AND MOTAM, 44 El. + STEVENS AGAINST TOTTE, Trin. # Jac. B. Rot. 1815. between ‡ STOWEL AND WIKES, adjudged; and that she shall not lose her dower by this divorce. Quod wide Co. Litt. 33. b.]

admitted. + See (F) pl. 8. S. C. - S. C. cited by Doderidge J. 3. Bulft. 264. ____ S. C. cited Arg. Roll. Rep. 426. 1 Noy 108. Powell v. Weeks, S. C. & S. P. resolved. Godb. 145. pl. 182. Lady Stowell's case, S. C. adjudged. S. C. cited Cro. C. 463. S. P. declared per tot. cur. in the star-chamber accordingly; and archbishop Whitgift said, that he had called to him at Lambeth the most sage divines and civilians, who all agreed to the same. 'Mo. 683. pl. 942. Hill. 44 Eliz. Rye v. Fuliambe. ----- Noy 100. Rye v. Fullcumbe, S. C. & S. P. accordingly. ----- S. P. Mar. 101. pl. 173. Trin. 17 Car. B. R. Williams's case; resolved, without argument by Bramston Ch. J. and Heath J. absentibus aliis, that it is within the statute of 1 Jac. cap. 11. and Heath said that, by the Now of holy church, the parties divorced causa adulterii, might marry; but pars rea not without Ecence.

[38]See Baftard (B) pl. 18. See tit. Marriage (E. 2) (F)

(F. 2)

[21. If a man and a woman are married by a priest in a place which is not a church or chapel, and without any solemnity of the celebration of mass, yet it is a good marriage, and they are baron and feme. Contra * 10 E. 4. B. Rot. 23. adjudged; for their iffue adjudged a bastard.]

22. Marriage by a meer layman, minister of a separate congregation, will not intitle the man to be administrator to the woman, notwithstanding cohabitation for several years as man and wife. Affirmed on appeal to the delegates. I Salk. 119. 9 Ann.

Haydon & Ux v. Gould.

(C) What Persons shall be said Baron and Feme. Fel. 342-In respect of their Age. N. B. Roll. has no letter (B)

[1. RY the law of England the age of confent to a marriage, See (A) pl. for a male, is the age of 14, so that he cannot marry him-12. and the notes there. felf before this age, to make a compleat and perfect marriage, Br. Garde but then he may, Lit. 22. b. * 35 H. 6. 41. b. For then he is pl. 7. cites 35 H. 6. 40. puber, and fuch that he may engender.] S. C. but - IS. P. does not appear. Fitz. tit. Garde, pl. 59. cites S. C. but I do not observe S. P.

[2. With this agrees the waw of Scotland. Skene Regiam Majestatem, 43. b. against 2 .... and so is the civil law, Justin. Infitutiones.]

13. The age of consent by our law to a marriage, for a female, Fitzh. is the age of 12 years; is that she may marry herself at such age, Garde, pl. and this be a perfect marriage, but not before this age. 35 H. 6. Hill. 35 H. 41. b. 53. 8 Ed. 4. 7.]

6. 40. S. C. but I do not observe S. P.—Br. Garde, pl. 7. cites S. C. & S. P. by Wangford. —See (A) ph 12.

[4. With this agrees the civil law, Justin. Instit.]

[5. But by the law of Scotland, the age of consent for a female is 14, as well as for a male. Skene Regiam Majestatem, 43. b. 2.

[6. A woman cannot contrabere sponsalia before 7 years of age, Before the by the law of Scotland, but she may after this age. Skene Régiam Majestatem, 43. b. 2.]

age of 7 years they shall not be faid to be sponsalia; but at that age they are said to be nuptize inchoates, and at 12 shall be said to be nuptize persoche & confummatæ. D. 13. a. Marg. pl. 61. cites it as the opinion of Harrison reader of Lincoln's-Inn in Lent 1632. and of Noy attorney-general.

- (C. 2) What of the Feme shall vest by the Marriage in the Baron. Freehold Land. How.
- IF a man takes to wife a woman seised in see, he gains by the intermarriage an estate of freebold in her right, which estate is sufficient to work a remitter; and yet the estate which the husband gaineth dependeth upon uncertainty, and consisteth in privity. Co. Litt. 351. 2.
- (D) What Things of the Feme the Baron shall have [ 39 ] by the Inter-marriage or Coverture. What not. Chattels in Action.
- [1. ]F a statute be acknowledged to baron and seme, they are join- But the batenants of this, and the feme shall have all by survivor. may make 48 Ed. 3. 12. b.] defeafance, and it shall serve for both. Br. Baron and Feme, pl. 24. cites S. C. per opinionem. -See tit. Execution (Q. 3) pl. 1, $, C, [2. The same law, if an obligation be made to baron and semen Peradventure the Contra 48 E. 3. 12. b.] Lame law shall be of an obligation; per Finch. Br. Baron and Feme, pl. 24. cites S. C.

[2. The

[3: If baron and feme recover land and damages, the feme shall Br. Baron , and Feme, have execution of the damages, and not the executor of the bapl. 24. cites 48 E. 3. 12. ron. * 48 Ed. 3. 13. + 28 Aff. 45.] per Finch.

but the saying is 48 E. 3. 13. a. and gives for season, that the thing is proved to them?

true by matter of record.]

[ 40 ]

Dai. 30. pl.

$. C. ac-

prdingly.

Br. Executions, pl. 83. tites S. C. accordingly. ____ After the year they fued sci. fa. against the ter-tenants to have execution of the damages, and one came and said that the baron is dead; judgment of the writ, and upon nient dedire the writ abated. Br. Brief, pl. 293. cites S. C. -- Fitch. Execution pl. 112. cites S. C. accordingly.

Fitzh. Exe-[4. If baron and feme recover damages in a real action, they ention, pl. may fue execution jointly. 28 Aff. 45.] 112. cites S. C. & S. P. admitted. Br. Execution, pl. 83. cites S. C. & S. P. admitted.

Mo. 452. [5. If a feme fole obligee takes baron, and the baron makes a pl 618. letter of attorney to J. S. to receive the money, who receives it ac-Huntley v. cordingly, and after the feme dies, the baron shall have an action Griffith, S. P. and of account for the money; for by the receipt this was become a seems to be thing in possession. Trin. 39 Elis. B. R. per Popham.] $.C.___ Goldsb. 160. in pl. 91. S. P. by Popham and Fenner accordingly.

Coldfb. 159. [6. [80] If a legacy be devised to a feme who takes husband, pl. 91. S. C. and the baron makes a letter of attorney to J. S. to receive the le-& S. P. held ency, and he receives it accordingly, this, by his receipt, meordingly, by Popham, is become the chattel of the husband. Trin. 39 El. B. R. Gawdy, and agreed.] Feaner.

[7. So if the baron and feme had made a letter of attorney to Mo. 452.pl. J. S. to receive the legacy, and he had received it accordingly, 618. Pasch. by this receipt this ceases to be a thing in action, and is become 38 Eliz. a thing in possession, and the husband, or his executor, after the Huntley v. Griffith, death of the feme, may have an account upon this receipt S. C. adagainst J. S. Trin. 39 El. B. R. between Huntly and Griffith, judged, where after adjudged.]

the death of the feme the baron died intessive, and his administrator brought account for the money, and held maintainable. Goldin. 159. pl. 91. S. C. adjudged accordingly.

> 8. Feme executor takes baron, he shall not have the goods by the inter-marriage; for they are the goods of the testator. Roll. Rep. 140. cites 9 H. 6.

9. In detinue by the plaintiff, the defendant pleaded, that after 9. Anon. but the bailment she took busband, who after his inter-marriage released all actions to the bailer; all the justices held, that the plea was not double; for he could not plead the release without pleading that it was after the marriage; and by the marriage the property of the goods was in the husband. Mo. 25. pl. 85. Pasch. 3 Eliza Lady Audley's cafe.

10. Baron surrenders a copyhold of inheritance to himself for life, then to his wife till his son is 21, remainder to his son in tail, remainder to his wife for life, and dies; the ld. admits accordingly; the wife takes baron and dies, another takes administration,

tion, and is admitted by the ld. yet resolved the entry of the baron lawful, unless there is a special custom to the contrary; but otherwise it would be if the seme had been only guardian or prochein amy of this land, &c. and judgment for the baron. D. 251. a. pl. 90. Hill. 8 Eliz. Hauchett's cafe.

11. 300 l. portion was charged on lands to a feme, who after- But the rewards married W. R. who settled a jointure on her, and had no other portion but the 300 %. W. R. died, the 300 % not paid. the rent be-The executor of W.R. fued the widow and the heir for the longing to a 3001. The Ld. Keeper declared, that this 3001, being to go out of the rent of the lands, and charged upon lands, is not in the survive the nature of a thing in action, but of a rent, and given to the Hufband by the marriage; and decreed accordingly. Chan. Cases 189. Mich. 22 Car. 2. Withers v. Kelfea.

porter fays quære; for feme does in cale the heefband, belong to the wife, and le do the arrears that incur during the coverture. Ibid. cites Co. Litt. 351. _____ Salk. 65. pl. 8. S. C. Bill for a discovery of affets, and to have a satisfaction for a debt due by bond brought against the widow and executrix of the obligar. Defendant infifts by answer, that she has not assets to satisfy the debt. The case upon the proofs was, that the defendant had lands to the value of 7001. and #15 500 l. due to ber upon bond, which remained in her brother's hands. Het husband before marriage makes a marriage settlement, and in consideration of a considerable fortune and portion with his intended wife, he does grant, &c. But the farticulars wherein her portion did confift did not appear by the deed; and the question was, if this bend to the defendant for 500 l. part of her portion, (being a chose en action, and not called in by the bushand) should be assets in equity to satisfy a debt of the bushand, the wife having enjoyed the benefit of the settlement made to her out of her husband's estate, which would have been liable to the debt? It was argued for the plaintiff, that if this bond of 500 l. had been mentioned in particular as part of the confideration of the fettlement, there would be no doubt but it would be affets of the hutband; for in equity the hulband is a purchaser of it by making the settlement, and that there was no difference where the consideration is general of the wife's portion, especially in this case, where the wife had nothing but lands besides this bond of 500 l. so that this bond must be taken as the consideration of the settlement, there being no other, and the rather in fawour of a fair creditor, who otherwise must lose his debt, and if there had not been such a settlement made, might have had a satisfaction out of those very lands. Parker C. said the case was so very clear, that the defendant's council need not to argue it. Creditors in this case cannot be in a better condition than the executor of the debtor, and can it be imagined, that if another perfon had been made executor to the husband, and such executor had brought a bill against the wife to comiel her to affign this bond, that the court would have decreed for the executor? What the law gives the husband by the inter-marriage, is a good confideration for making a settlement, but the husband's making a settlement does not vest in the husband the choses en action of the wife, unless it be expressly so agreed between the parties, and that appears to be part of the consideration of the settlement; for then the hutband is a purchaser, and well intitled to them in a court of equity. An account was decreed to be taken of the affects of the hulband, but not of this bond of 500 L to the wife. MS. Rep. Mich. 6 Geo. in Canc. Heaton v. Haffell.

Chattels real.

[1. IF a feme termor takes busband, yet the term continues in her. 7 H. 6. 2. + 9 H. 6. 52. b.] * If the baron charges the land and dies, yet by the best opinion she shall hold it discharged; for though the baron may give or forfeit & it, yet he cannot charge it. Br. Charge, pl. 41. cites S. C.——Fitzh. Charge, pl. 1. cites S. C. that the thall be adjudged in as of her better right, which is before the charge, and that to was the opi-+ Br. Charge, pl. 1. cites S. C. for if he dies without altering the propermion of the court. ty of it, there it remains to the feme in statu ut ante. ——Fitzh. Charge, pl. 2. cites S. C.

[2. Baron and seme may be jointenants for years. * 47 Ed. 3. + 48 Ed. 3. 13. ‡ 2 H. 4. 19. b. || 3 H. 4. 1. b. ¶ 14 H. 4. 24. b.] * Br. Covenant, pl. 10. cites S. C. Br. Baron and Feme, pl. 23. cites S. C. Fitzh. Joinder en Action, pl. 25. cites S. C. and S. P. implied; for by these books they may join in action of covenant. because the land shall survive to the wife. † Br. Baron and Feme, pl. 24. cites S. C. but S. P.

> הו לטבו סמושי ישחאים א מיציים אבי

esob

does not appear. ---- Br. Brief, pl. 80. cites S. C. but S. P. does not appear. 1 See (X) -Br. Baron and pl. 1. and the notes there. || See (X) pl. 2, 3. and the notes there.-Feme, pl. 29. cites S. C. T See infra, pl. 3.

[3. The same law of a ward. * 48 Ed. 3. 13. † 14 H. 4. 24. † Br. Baron b. they may be joint-grantees thereof.]

and Feme, pl. 42- cites S. C. for if the baron dies the feme shall have it, and not the executor of the baron, because it is a chattle real; contra of a chattle personal vested; note the diversity.————Br-Mavishment de Garde, pl. 15. cites S. C......Fits. Joinder en Action, pl. 20. cites S. C. & S. P. admitted.

Co. Litt. [4. If a feme guardian in foccage takes hufband, yet the leme. 351. a. S.P. continues guardian. Com. 293. b. [Mich. 7 & 8 Eliz. Osborne V. GARDEN AND JOYE.]

5. If a feme has goods, and takes baron, and the baron dies, the I Co. Like 251. b. S.P. executors of the baron shall have the goods, and not the seme; Co. Litt. 351. a. S.P. for the property was changed by the espousals; contra of goods which The has as || executrix. Br. Property, pl. 22. cites 21 H. 7. 29.

(E. 2) Separate Estate. What shall be said the Wife's separate Estate.

I. LANDS were devised to trustees and their heirs, to pay and dispose the rents and profits to a seme covert, or to such person as Joseph writing should appoint, whether sole or covert, and the husband not to intermeddle, or have any benefit thereof; and as to the inheritance of the premisses in trust for such person or persons, and for such estate and estates as she by any writing purporting her will, or other writing, should appoint, and for want of such appointment, in trust for her and her heirs; this is only a trust, and not an use executed by the statute. Vern. 415. Mich. 1686. Nevil v. Sanders.

§[42] But this point was decreed contra in the ease following, vis. A. devised

2. If a real estate be devised to a feme covert for her separate use, and a declaration that the husband should not intermeddle with the profits, but that she should enjoy them separately, Ld. C. Cowper faid, that he doubted this would be a repugnant clause, and that the husband would enjoy them. Wms.'s Rep. 126. Trin. 1710. lands to M. in case of Harvey v. Harvey.

his daughter, the wife of B. for her separate and peculiar use, exclusive of her husband, to hold the same to her and her heirs, and that the husband should not be tenant by the curtesy, nor have these lands for his life, in case he survived his wife, but that upon her death they should go to her heirs. The commissioners assign the lands in trust for the B. the husband becomes bankrupt. greditors. The wife by her next friend brought a bill against the assignee and the husband, to compel them to assign over this estate to her separate use. The master of the rolls took it to be a clear case, that it was a trust in the husband, and that there was no difference where the trust was created by the act of law, and where by act of the party. As in case of a devise charging lands with debts and legacies, the heir taking fuch lands by descent is but a trustee, and no remedy for these debts or legacies but in equity; so in the principal case there being an apparent intention, and express declaration that he wrife should enjoy these lands to her separate use, by that means the husband, who would otherwife be intitled to take the profits to his own use, is now debarred, and made a trustee for his wife; and had he been a trustee for J. S. his bankruptcy should not in equity affect the trust estate; and that though in the present case the bankrupt might be tenant by the custesy, yet he should be but trustee for the heirs of the wife; and the testator having power to have devised the premisses to trustees for the separate use of the wife, this court, in compliance with his declared intention, will supply the want of trustees, and make the husband trustee, and the affiguees, who, claiming under the husband, can have no better right than the kushaud, must join in a conveyance for the separate use of the wife, and decreed accordingly; per Sir Jos. Jeykl at the Rolls. 2 Wms.'s Rep. 316. to 319. Mich. 1725. Bennet v. Davis.

The wife cannot have a separate property in a personal thing evirbout a trustee; per I.d. C. Maccles- a field, in case of dowry money plaimed by the widow, which was given to berself. 2 Wms.'s Kep. 79. Trin. 1722. in case of Burton v. Pierpoint.

- (F) Of what Things which are not given by the Intermarriage, the Husband hath Power to dispose.
- [1. ]F. baron and seme are jointenants for years of land, the baron may dispose of the whole. * 47 Ed. 3. 12. b. ad-* Br. Baron and Feme, pl. 23. sites mitted. † 48 Ed. 3. 13. 2 H. 4. 19. b. 14 H. 4. 24. b.] S.C. & 3.P. advaitted .--† Br. Baron and Feme, pl. 24. cites S. C. but S. P. does not appear.
- [2. So if the baron hath a term in the right of his feme, he may Fitsh. Charge, pl. grant over the whole. 7 H. 6. 1. b.] 1. cites S.C. but S. P. does not appear. Br. Charge, pl. 12. cites S. C. but S. P. does not appear. But ibid. pl. 41. cites S. C. & S. P. obiter. Co. Litt, 351. 2.
- [3. If a feme guardian in socage takes husband, the baron by his grant of the ward, cannot bind the feme, after the death of the baron. Com. 293. Osbourn against Carden and Joye, b. adjudged.]

[4. If a baron be guardian in chivalry in right of his feme, he may dispose and alien the ward of the body to another, and this shall bind the seme after his death. 34 Ed. 1. Aid. 184.]

[5. If a baron possessed of a term for years, grants it over in trust, and for the benefit of his feme, he may after dispose or forseit this trust and bar the seme. Pasch. 8 Jac. in camera scaccarii Case S. C. WICHE'S CASE; for he hath as great power of the use which he hath in the right of the feme, as he hath of a term in the right of his feme.]

Lanc 54. Trin. 7 Jac. Wilkes's Tanfield Ch. B. Snigg and Altham thought the 'trust might be forfeited; but because there was no bill before the court, demanding any thing for the king, therefore the court gave no resolution, if by equity, the husband shall forfeit a wast which he had for years in the right of his wife.

[6. If the baron makes a lease for years to another, to the use S. P. by Brock, and of his feme if she lives so long, for the jointure of the feme, the not denied. baron cannot dispose of this trust. Pasch. 8 Jac. in camera Lane 55. Trin. 7 Jac. in cam.

scace. in Wikes's case, S. C.

[7. [So] If the baron grants over a term in trust, and for Lane 54. the benefit of his wife and children; it seems he cannot dispose Wikes's + of the trust of the children. Dubitatur, Pasch. 8 Jac. in camera ease, S. C. fcaccarii.]

Trin. 7 ]2C. and Tanfield Ch. B. and Snigg and Akham thought the baron might dispose of it being only a chattel, as he might have done of a chattel whereof the wife was possessed, and that he might have wholly released this trust; but by Bromley, his release shall bind only during his life; but the attorney general said he might release ail.——Sec pl. 5. †[43]

[8. If VOL. IV. E

Cro. E. 908. [8. If baron and feme are divorced causa adulterii in one of pl. 19. S.C. them, yet the baron may after release a legacy due to the seme, and S. C. and S. P. af- for the divorce does not dissolve vinculum matrimonii, but & mensa & thoro. 44 Eliz. Stevens and Totte, adjudged, my firmed by the doctors Reports, 14 Jac.] of the civil law; and admitted by all the justices. Noy 45. S. C. and S. P. admitted per cur. Mo. 665. pl. 910. S. C. and S. P. seems admitted. _____S. C. cited, Arg. Roll. Rep. 426. in pl. 19. __

S. C. cited by Doderidge J. 3 Bulft. 264.

[9. But if after such a divorce the feme sues without her bus-3 Buift.264. Motteram v. band, as the may for a defamation in the spiritual court, and te-Motteram covers, and penance enjoined, & expense litis taxed, the baron S. and S. connot discharge it; for the penance is but to restore her to her P. Tield accordingly, credit, and the costs are but depending thereupon. My Reports, and there-14 Jac. MOTAM AGAINST MOTAM, resolved, per curiam.] fore by the whole court a prohibition was denied. ———— Roll. Rep. 426. pl. 19. S. C. and the court inclined accordingly, but advisare vult; and it was said that this case is not like the case of Stevens and Totte, because there the thing for which the fuit was viz. the legacy was originally due to the baron and feme, and therefore the release of the baron was a good discharge, but here there was no duty in the barous eriginally. ——— See tit. Prohibition, (Q) pl. 10. and the notes there.

*Yelv 256. [10. If A. promises B. a seme sole, that in consideration that she Trin. 7 Jac. will marry C. his brother, that he will give B. 101. if she sur-B. R. the S. vives C. and after B. takes C. to husband accordingly; C. C. the recannot after discharge A. of this promise, by his release to lease was of all actions, bind B. after his death, because the promise stood in a continquarrels, gency during the life of C. the husband. Hill. 6 El. [Jac.] controverfies, claims B. R. BETWEEN * BELCHER AND HUDSON, Rot. 132. adjudged, and demands where the karon released all demands; and adjudged, that it did Whatever, not bar the seme. This is cited pl. 16. Jac. 6. in SMITH AND which he had or might STAFFORD's CASE, and this is cited, Hobart's Reports, case 279have against But there it is faid, that the words will not extend to release the the faid C. promise, without express words of promise.] adjudged no discharge; for though the promife was present, yet the execution was future, and such as the releasor could have mo action upon; but if he had released by express words all promises, or all actions and quarrels which he or his wife had or might have, then it was held that the promise had been released; for the promise being a special cause of action, cannot be released till it comes in esse. ——— Browns. 15. S. C. adjudged the release no bar. Cro. J. 222. pl. 2. S. C. and the plea of the release adjudged ill. S. C. cited Hob. 216. pl. 280. Hill. 15 Jac. in case of Smith v. Stafford by Hobart Ch. J. as adjudged for the plaintiff, because none of the words would reach it, but says the case was compounded, and so no judgment was entered. - S. C. cited by Warburton J. Noy 16. in case of Smith v. Stafford, as adjudged no bar; but Serj. Altham faid that it might well be released by apt and special words, though it was to take effect by contingency in future, and so Winch J. also thought. --- S. C. cited Hut. 17. as adjudged accordingly; but that lord Hobart said that if he had released all promises it would have discharged the desendant. -------- S. C. cited Arg. Palm. 99.

†[44] [11. If a leafe be made to baron and feme for their lives, the ___ remainder to the executors of the survivor of them, and the baron Fol. 344. grants the term, and dies; this will not bar the feme surviving, S.P. cited by because the seme had but a possibility and no interest. Co. Litt. 46. Popham to b. cites Hill. 17 El. B. R.], have lappened upon a special verdict in the county of Somerset, about the 20 Eliz. and afterwards adjudged, that the remainder † being limited in the case to the survivor, the wife surviving should have it, because there was nothing in either to grant over until there was a survivor. Poph. 5. - S. P. held accordingly by Popham Ch. J. and faid by him to have been resolved as above. 4 Le. 185. pl. 285. Mich. 29 Eliz. C. B. Anon. - S. C. cited Hutt. 17. The baron after marriage purchased a term for your to himself and wife and the survivor, und the executors, acministrators and assignees of such survivor for the residue of the term. Atterwards he merigaged the term without her joining, provide to be void on payment by the husband or wife, or the executors or administrators of either, and that until default of payment, the husband, his executors or administrators, should quietly enjoy. The master of the rolls held this to be a voluntary conveyance, and being only a term for years, it is always in the power of the bulband to forfeit or alien, and the mortgage is an elienation; for though if the mortgage money had been paid before the day, the mortgage would have been void, and all things would have been in flatu quo; yet being forfeited, the equity of redemption is become a creature of equity, and decreed it to be affets to pay creditor with whom he had contracted debts 7 years after the mortgage. 2 Williams's Rep. 364. Trin. 1726 Watts v. Thomas. ——— See tit. Grants (M) pl. 3. and the notes there.

12. If a feme who has a term or interest as executrix by flatute merchant takes baron, the baron may grant over the interest without the feme, and good in assise. Br. Grants, pl. 157. cites 24 E. 3. 63.

13. If one is bound to a baron and feme in a statute merchant, the baron alone may make defeasance, and it shall serve for both; per opinionem. Br. Baron and Feme, pl. 24. cites 48 E. 3. 18.

14. If obligation is made to a feme fole, and she takes baron, and the baron releases all actions and dies, the seme shall be barred; and if he does not release and dies, the seme shall have action, and not the executor of the baron. Br. Baron and Feme, pl. 44. cites 7 H. 6. 2.

15. In second deliverance, the desendant made conusance as D. 271. pl. bailist to P. and H. his wife, and set forth that the plaintiff being feized of the lands, granted a yearly rent of 101. with a clause of Dyer distress, habendum to the said H. for life; the afterwards married the thought the said P. and for rent arrear, the defendant made conusance at Lady-day 4 5 P. & M. The plaintiff in his replication pleaded an acquittance made the 7 Eliz. by P. (the husband) of 5 l. of the said rent due but Welch Mich. last past; adjudged a good bar to the conusance. Mo. 87. pl. 219. Hill 10 Eliz. Morton v. Hopkins.

26. S. C. Harper and arrearages gone by the acquittance, and Weston contra, because all the arrears unless those of the last term were due to the seme dum sola fuit, and were not due to the baron. --And. 14. pl. 30. S. C. adjudged that the acquittance was a good bar. ——Bendl. 186. pl. 228. S. C. with the pleadings, and adjudged that the acquittance was good.

16. An annuity was granted to a woman for life, who takes Cro. E. 721. husband, and he by express words released the annuity; but adjudged after divers arguments, that the release cannot extinguish not appear this annuity to the wife, it being for her life, but that if she survives she shall have it. Moor 522. pl. 689. Pasch. 40 Eliz. C. B. Thompson v. Butler.

pl. 47. S. C. but S.P. docs

17. Baron may release a legacy lest to the wife payable 18 So where 'tis months after, though the 18 months are not expired, for he hath made payan interest in it before the time of payment accrues. Per Montague reversion ex-Ch. J. 2 Roll. Rep. 134. Mich. 17 Jac. B. R. Anon.

able out of a pectant on an estate for life, the husband may affign it. G. Equ. R. 88. Mich. 1714. Atkins v. Dawbury.— ——If after release of the legacy by the baron, he and his wife sues in court Christian for the legacy, the executor shall not have probibition, because the temporal judges cannot meddle with the legacy, por by consequence can they determine whether the release will extinguish it, Yelv. 173. cites it as adjudged, 29 Eliz. ——So where a legacy of 1000 l. charged upon lands, was given to a feme infant poyable at 25 years of age, who marries, and after attains that age; the baron during the minority of the feme, made an affigument thereof for a valuable confideration, and held good, notwithstanding the contingency that then was with regard to her attaining 25. But were it not in strictness to operate as an affigument, yet it would be good as an agreement, especially bring for a valuable consideration. Trin. 1731. 2 Williams's Rep. 602. 603, D. of Chandos v. Talbot.

Release (U) B. R. Belfon, S. P. Hob. 216.

18. A. promises C. that if she would marry B. if he did not suf-Hill. 6 Jac. ficiently provide for her during coverture, then he would leave her 106 1. at bis death. The baron cannot release this, during coverture, cher v. Hud- by release of all actions and demands, because it is executory, and in contingency; but it may be relieved by a release of all promises. Arg. 2 Roll. Rep. 162. Pasch. 18 Jac. cites it as adjudged, and affirmed in error, in Mason's case.

> 19. It was agreed, that if a woman do convey a leafe in trust for her use, and afterwards marries, that in such case it lies not in the power of the husband to dispose of it; and if the wife die, the husband shall not have it, but the executor of the wife; and so it was said it was resolved in chancery. Mar. 45. pl. 69. Trin. 15

Car. in Sir John St. John's case.

20. Leases were devised to the desendant by his eldest brother, to be fold for several purposes; and amongst others in trust, that the defendant should purchase in his own name an annuity of 80 l. per ann. for the life of the plaintiff's wife, and pay the same to ber and her assigns. The bill was to inforce the payment of this annuity. The defendant infifted by answer, that he had constantly paid the annuity to the plaintiff's wife, (from whom the plaintiff lived apart) and that the bill was against her consent, and that it was the intent of the donor to be for her only benefit, the will being, that he should buy in his own name the annuity in trust for the plaintiff's wife (who is the defendant's mother) and her assigns; and so insisted that the plaintiff not inhabiting with ber, he ought not to be put to pay the annuity to him. It appeared by proofs, that the coufe of plaintiff's first absenting bimself from his wife, was for fear of debts, and that he had since solicited her by letters to cohabit, but she refused. The master of the rolls declared, that in this case the husband was the assignee of the wife, and that there being no negative words by the will to exclude the husband from the annuity, he could not exclude him; and so decreed the defendant to pay all the arrears of the annuity fince the bill exhibited, and the growing annuity for the future, to the plaintiff the husband. Chan. Cases 194. Hill. 22 & 23 Car. 2. Dakins v. Berisford.

Chan. Cafes 225. S. C. Mich. 25 Car. 2. by Ld. Keeper Finch, in totidem verbis. ---Where such a term in truft was conveyed for a jointure on the feme on marriage, and afterwards the huiband died, and

21. The wife having assigned her term in trust for herself before marriage, and then the busband, without the trustees joining, mortgages the term. The husband died. The mortgagee exhibits his bill to have the land conveyed to him, or that they should redeem; and the court dismissed the plaintiss bill; for since queen Elizabeth's time, it has been the constant practice in this court, to set aside and frustrate all incumbrances and acts of the husband upon the trust of the wife's term, and that he shall neither charge or grant it away; and it is the common way of providing jointures for a woman, to convey a term in trust for her upon marriage, that it may be out of the power and reach of the hufband. Neither shall he forfeit it by outlawry or felony, if for jointure; or in pursuance of articles of marriage, or being the wife's term it is affigned before in trust, or if on other good consideration dem verbis.

225. Mich.

25 Car. 2.

Cases 86.

Paich. 34

& S. P.

sideration it be assigned. 2 Freem. Rep. 138. pl. 174. Doyly v. then the webiw Persall, cites 1 Inst. 351. married another husband, who made a jointure on her, without any agreement that her first jointure should be thereby barred. Ld. C. Finch decreed, that a fale by the after husband of the trust-term made by the former hulband was not good, and should not bind; and a former precedent in point shewa. Chan. Cafes 307, 308. Pasch. 30 Car. 2. Turner v. Bromfield. But after award on an appeal to the house of lords, it was adjudged that the said term was well passed away, and that the husband might dispose thereof; and my Ld. chancellor's decree was thereupon reversed; but it was agreed that where a term is affigued in trust for a seme, by the privity and consent of her husband, the husband, without doubt, cannot intermeddle or dispose of it. Vern. 7. pl. 5. cites Mich. 32 Car. 2. Fir Edward Turner's case. S. C. cited as decreed in the house of lords, that the husband might dispose of the trust of the term; and says the Ld. Chancellor seemed to wonder at the resolution. Vern. 18. pl. 10. Mich. 1681. in case of Pitt v. Hunt. S. C. cited accordingly, 2 Freem. Rep. 78. pl. 86. in case of Hunt v. Pitt, S. C. [ 46 ]

22. But if it be an assignment after marriage by the husband, in Chan. Cases trust for the wife, that is voluntary, and fraudulent against a purchaser; and thus was the great chequer-chamber case. 2 Freem. S.C. in toti-

Rep. 138, pl. 174. Doyly v. Perfall.

23. If a feme has a trust of a term for years, and marries, the 2 Chan. husband may alien it; but when a term is settled for a maintenance or jointure for the wife, it is otherwise; per Ld. Keeper Car. 2. Finch. Chan. Cases, 266. Mich, 27 Car, 2. in case of Bullock v. Anon. S. C. Knight, agreed, where it is in nature of a jointure. ----Ibid. 114. Trin. 34 Car. 2. S. C. but goes upon another point.—2 Freem. Rep. 82. pl. 88. S. C. & S. P. admitted.——If a husband makes a lease for years in trust for the wife voluntary, and he sells it, this may bind the wife, because of the fraud; per Finch. C. Chan. Cases 308. Pasch. 30 Car. 2. in case of Lady Turner v. Bromsield. _____ S. P. by Ld. Keeper Finch. Chan. Cases 225. Mich. 25 Car. 2. because it is fraudulent against purchafers; and said that this was the great exchequer-chamber case,

24. Feme sole possessed of a term for years, mortgaged it to T. for 100 L and afterwards, a day or 2 before marriage, assigns her interest to trustees in trust for herself for life, and after for her son by a former busband, and then marries D. who was a witness to the trustdeed. D. pays off the mortgage, and takes an assignment, and then surrenders his lease to the reversioner, and takes a new lease for the same term, and dies. The court held, that though the estate in law was wholly in the mortgagee, and the seme conveyed nothing but an equity in trust, yet when the mortgagee affigns over to the husband, the husband has it under the same equity as the mortgagee had, and is just in his place, and no act of the husband can bar the trustees for the seme and her children of their equity; and decreed the new leafe to be assigned over to the feme or her trustees, paying to the husband's executors the mortgage-2 Freem. Rep. 29. pl. 32. Hill. 1677. Draper's case.

25. A term was conveyed on marriage in trust for the wife, by Vern. 7. pl. way of jointure. The baron afterwards dies, and the feme marries 5. Sir Eda 2d bufband, who settled a jointure of 200 l. a year on her; mer's case, (whereas the first jointure was of 300 l. a year.) The 2d husband Trin. 33 fold the wife's jointure made by the first husband. Ld. Chancellor Car. 2. S.C. agreed, that if the husband make a lease for years in trust for the cree was rewife voluntary, and he fells, this may bind the wife, because of versed in the the fraud; but where a trust is created for a wife, as here in this house of case, bona fide, the husband can in no-wise bind the wife, unless that it was agreed that where a term is affigued in trust for a feme, by the privity where she is examined, as in a fine, or in this court, else no. man shall be able to provide for wife or children; and he had no regard to notice, or not, to the purchaser, though in the cause, nor to the 2d jointure; and decreed for the plaintiff; and a former precedent in point was shewn. Chan. Cases 308. Pasch. and confent 30 Car. 2. Turner v. Bromfield.

ward Turlays this delords; but

where

ofthe baron, there without doubt the husband cannot dispose of it. --- S. C. cited 2 Vern. 271. in pl. 255. Trin 1692. Tudor v. Samyne, where the first husband assigned a term for the separate. use of the wife, yet the disposal thereof by the second husband was held good, though he made no providion for her-

26. Goods, which the feme has as executor, the baron may difpose of, as well as goods which she has in her own right. Jenk.

79. pl. 56.

27. A. possessed of a term, devises it to his wife for life, remainder, to his children unpreferred, and makes her executrix. A. dies; she affents to the legacies; afterwards the takes husband; he fells the term; the wife dies; the children unpreferred enter; their entry is congeable. Jenk. 264. pl. 66.

[ 47 ] 28. A husband may release costs adjudged to the wife in spiritual court, unless there be a separation and alimony allowed. I Salk. 115. Chamberlain v. Hewson.

> 29. If the wife hath a chose en action in her own right, and an action is brought by the husband and wife, and they declare ad damnum ipsorum, and they get judgment, by this the property is altered; but otherwise it is, if the chose en action be en auter droit; per Holt Ch. J. Cumb. 311. Hill, 6 W. 3. B. R. in case of Curry v. Stephens.

30. Where a right or duty may by possibility accrue to the wife He may release his during coverture, the bason may release it; otherwise not; per wife's sbare Holt Ch. J. 1 Salk. 326. Hill, 11 W. 3. B. R. in case of Gage. of an intestate's estate. or Grey v. Acton.

See 10 Mod. 63. Arg. Mich. 10 Ann. B. R. Daeth & Baux.

> 31. A. made a settlement, whereby he created a term for years in trust to raise 400l. a-piece for his two daughters, and one of them marries B. and he and his wife brought a bill, and had a decree to have the 400l. raifed and paid; but before it was raifed, B. assigns the benefit of this decree to one J. S. in trust, for payment of his debts, and made him executor, and died, leaving his wife and one child unprovided for. The creditors brought a bill to have the benefit of the said assignment; and though it was insisted upon, in behalf of the wife, that there was a difference between a term in trust to raise a sum of money for a woman, and a trust of the term itself for a woman, yet the master of the rolls held, that this was a term for years, and not a sum of money, and therefore not to be distinguished from SIR EDWARD TURNER'S CASE, and must decree it, (though against his conscience) that there may be an uniformity of judgment, Trin, 1703. Ab. Equ. Cases 58. Walter v. Saunders,

32. A.

32: A. devised the furplus of his personal estate to his daughter, Wms. Rep. the wife of J. S. for her separate use, and makes her executor. 1710. S.C. It being devised to the wife, and not to trustees; when it comes to her, whether it belongs to the husband, or to the wife for her separate use and benefit, the court reserved for further consideration; but the husband having given a note, that the wife should enjoy a mortgage, part of the said estate, it was held that the was well intitled both to the principal and interest. 2 Vern. 659. pl. 585. Trin. 1710. Harvey v. Harvey.

125. Trin.,

33. A man by his will gives a legacy of 300l. to a feme covert without creating any separate trust of it for her benefit, and this legacy was made payable out of a reversion of lands expectant on an estate for life; the husband sometime after makes an assignment of this legacy to trustees, in trust for the benefit of his children, and after by his will takes notice again of the same legacy, and devises it in like manner for the benefit of his children, and makes his wife executrix, and dies; the estate for life drops. The court decreed, that as the husband had made a good assignment of it in equity, (though as a chose en action it was not assignable at law) that she should be answerable Mich. 1714. Abr. Equ. Cases 45. pl. 9. Atkins to the children. v. Dawbeney.

G. Equ. Rep. 88. 89., Mich. 1 Geo. 1. in Canc. Atkins v. Dawbury, S. C. and has the very same words.

34. A mortgage in fee to the wife the husband alone cannot dispose of, and therefore if the husband without her joining, assigns such mortgage, and dies, the estate, which is still in the per Ld. wife, will carry along with it to her representatives the money due thereon, but of a term of years, or the trust of a term, he has the absolute power of, and may dispose without her joining, and Kinaston. that even in case of a lunatic; feme married while in committee's bands, and though the chancery had luid hands on her estate to secure her a settlement, yet the dying in the life of the husband, though no settlement made, and he having * assigned it in her life, it was held good; per Cowper C. Ch. Prec. 418. Mich. 1715. in case of Packer v. Windham,

Chan. Prec. 416. Arg. & 418. cited Cowper as the case of Burnet v. -G. Equ. Rep. 102. S. C. cited by Ld. C. Cowper, and took the fame diversity. * [40]

(F. 2) In what Cases, and by what Act, Things vested in Trustees for the Benefit of the Feme, or the Produce thereof, shall become the Property of the Baron.

1. TF 2 father makes a lease in trust for advancement of his daughter who marries, the husband may clearly dispose of this term, and no remedy at the common law for it; per Williams J. to which the whole court agreed. Bulft. 118. Pasch. 9 Jac. obiter.

2. If a leafe be made to the husband to the use of the wife, the husband may sell it for a good consideration; per Williams J. Bulft. 118. Pasch. 9 Jac.

S. C. cited Hob. 3. Marg.

3. A feme sole conveyed leases to trustees, and after married J. 5. she received the rents, and bought jewels with part, and part she left in money, and died. J. S. took letters of administration to her, and the ecclesiastical court insisted on his being accountable, and putting it into an inventory; but per cur. contra; because they are the absolute property of J. S. but things in action he shall have as administrator, and shall be accountable for them; and because part of the money being put out on bonds in the names of others to the use of the wife, the spiritual court would have the husband account for it, and a prohibition being moved for, the court differed; and it was held by those that were against granting the prohibition, that the monies received on the trust is in lawthe money of the trustees, and that the wife had no remedy for it but in a court of equity, and so he should have it as administrator. The reasons of those who were for granting a prohibition were, because the trust was executed when she back received the. money, and that by the receipt the husband had gained property therein as busband, and therefore should not be accountable for it. Mar. 44. pl. 69. Trin. 15 Car. Sir John St. John's cafe.

And it was agreed, that if the tiliftees consent that the wife shall receive the money, (as in the case above the contrary does not appear) there the husband might gain the property as husband; but because the court conceived that the ecclesiastical court had not jurisdiction, a prohibition was granted. Mar. 45. Trin.

15 Car. in Sir John St. John's case.

(G) What shall be a Disposition,

Br. Covenant, pl.
10. cites
S C. but 47 Ed. 3. 12. b.]

S. P. exactly does not appear. Br. Baron and Feme, pl. 23. cites S. C. but S. P. does not exactly appear. Fitzh. Joinder en Action, pl. 25. cites S. C. but S. P. does not exactly appear.

If the wife [2. The baron may forfeit the land of the feme. 7 H. 6. 2, be possessed b. and this shall bind the feme.]

for years, and the husband is outlawed or attainted, they are gifts in law. Co. Litt. 351. a.

Co. Litt. [3. So if it be extended for the debt of the husband, this will bind 351. a. the feme. 7 H. 6. 2. b.] in such case the sheriff may sell the term during her life.

[4. If a leafe be made to baron and feme for years, the baron cannot devife the term, for the feme is in by survivorship, before the devife takes effect. Contra 2 H. 4. 19. b.]

*Br.Charge, [5. If the baron hath a term in the right of the feme, and the pl. 41. cites baron grants a rent out thereof, and dies, the feme shall hold it discharged; charged; for she comes paramount the charge. *7 H. 6. 1. b. Fitsh.

Charge, pl.

1. cites

S. C.——(I) pl. 2. S. C.

Fitzh. Charge, pl. 2. cites S. C. & S. P. accordingly.

Fitzh. Charge, pl. 2. cites S. C. & S. P. accordingly, by Paston and Martin.——Co. Litt.

351. 2. S. P. ——(I) pl. 2. S. C.

[6. [So] If a baron be possessed of a term in the right of the 1 Br. Charge feme, and damages are recovered against him, execution cannot be S. C. but upon the term of the seme: for she comes paramount. ‡ 9 H. 6. S. P. does 52. b. Contra § 7 H. 6. 2.]

Charge, pl. 2. cites S. C. but S. P. does not appear.——See (I) pl. 4.

§ Br. Charge, pl. 41. cites S. C. but S. P. does not appear.——Fitzh. Charge, pl. 1. cites S. C. but S. P.

[7. But atherwise it is if it be extended thereupon, or upon a Br. Charge, pl. 1. cites recognizance in the life of the baron. 9 H. 6. 52. b.]

S. C. but S. P. does not appear.—Fitzh. Charge, pl. 2. cites S. C. but S. P. does not appear.

does appear,

[8. If for the debt of the baron a term, of which the baron is possessed in the right of the feme, be extended, and after the baron 41. cites dies, the feme shall have the refidue, after the extent incurred. S. C. but S. P. does not appear.

Fitzh. Charge, pl. 1. cites S. C. but S. P. does not appear.

[9. If the baron grants the herbage or vesture of this land, which he holds with his seme for years, and dies, the grantee shall have the herbage or vesture. 9 H. 6. 52.]

[10. If the baron grants part of the term, of which he is possible of the right of the feme, and dies, the feme shall have the wood, and reversion; for this is not disposed of. Perkins, s. 834. D. 9 El. it shall only 264. 40. admitted. || Co. Lit. 46. b.]

was granted. Cro. E. 33. in pl. 16. Trin. 26 Eliz. B. R. || S. C. cited Arg. 2 Lev. 100.—S. C. cited in a nota. 2 Vern. 63. at the end of pl. 55.

[11. But if the baron referves a rent upon the grant, she shall S. P. per pot have it, because the comes paramount the reservation. Co. Periam. Cro. E. 279. Lit. 46. b. But the executor of the baron shall have the rent, pl. 5. Pasch. contra Perkins, sec. 834.]

Lostus's case.——For the rent is not incident to the reversion, because she was no party to the lease. Co. Litt. 46. b.——S. C. cited Arg. 2 Lev. 100.——S. P. in a nota, 2 Vern. 63. at the end of pl. 55. cites Co. Litt. 46. b.

[12. If the baron grants the lands which he hath in lease in The wife the right of the seme, except part, the seme shall have this it as annexpart so excepted; for this is not disposed of. D. 9 El. 264. 4. aded to the mitted.]

The wife shall have this it as annexed to the mitted.]

The wife shall have this it as annexed to the mitted.

The wife shall have this it as annexed to the mitted.

The wife shall have this it as annexed to the mitted.

The wife shall have this it as annexed to the mitted.

The wife shall have this it as annexed to the mitted.

The wife shall have this it as annexed to the mitted.

The wife shall have this it as annexed to the mitted.

The wife shall have this it as annexed to the mitted.

The wife shall have this it as annexed to the mitted.

The wife shall have this it as annexed to the mitted.

The wife shall have this it as annexed to the mitted.

The wife shall have this it as annexed to the mitted.

The wife shall have this it as annexed to the mitted.

The wife shall have this it as annexed to the mitted.

The wife shall have this it as annexed to the mitted.

The wife shall have this it as annexed to the mitted.

The wife shall have this it as annexed to the mitted.

The wife shall have this it as annexed to the mitted.

[13. If the baron, possessed of a term for years in the right of Cro. E. his seme, makes a lease for part of the years to commence after his Mich. 34 death, death, and dies, this is: a good leafe against the semes but she & 35 EHS. Grute v. shall have the reversion, and not the executor of the baron. Pop-Locroft, ham's Reports, 4. adjudged.] S. C. adjudged; but reports it as a jointenancy in the baron and feme. - S. C. cited Mo. 395. pl. 514. in a nota there, as adjudged that the lease was good. _____S. C. cited by Gawdy J. as adjudged accordingly. 7-Rep. 155, a.

> 14. If a feme, possessed of a term, takes husband, and they grant the term upon condition, and re-enter for the condition broke, the feme shall have the term again.]

[15. So if a feme possessed of a term takes husband, and they-Hob. 3. ph grant the term upon condition, if their executors or administrators 5. Young v. Radford, pay 101. to re-enter, and after the baron pays the 101. this is not S. C. but any disposition, but they shall be possessed in the right of the net exactly $. P. feme, for though he paid the money to redeem, yet perhaps he Brown!. received the money when it was mortgaged. P. 12 Jac. B. be-129. S. C. tween Radford and Young, per curiam.] but S, Pl exactly does not appear. See (H) pl. 11, S. C.

16. If a baron possessed of a term in the right of his wife, Fol. 345. grants it to J. S. if he lives so long, and dies, the seme shall have this possibility of a reversion, if J. S. dies within the term, and not the executors of the baron, Pasch, 12 Jac. B, per two justices.]

[17. If a baron possessed of a term in the right of his semen. grants it over upon condition that the grantee shall pay 101. to his. executors, the baron dies, the condition is broke, the executors of the baron enter, the feme shall not have the term; for this was a disposition of the term, all the interest being granted over. Co.

Lit. 46. b.

[18. If baron and feme are ejected of a term in the right of Roll. Rep. 359. ph 11. the feme, and the baron recovers in an ejectment brought by him S. C. and by Coke Ch. in bis own name only, this is an alteration of the term, and veits J. the feme it in the baron. Co. Lit. 46. b.] shall have it after the death of the bason. ____ 3 Bulst. 164. S. P. by Coke Ch. J. and says that the husband, after such recovery, shall have it in statu quo.

> 19. If a seme executrix takes baron, and the baron releases to the creditor all actions generally, this extends to all his proper actions, and to the actions which the feme has of her own, or as execu-Br. Baron and Feme, pl. 80. cites 39 H. 6. 15.

> 20. A release by the husband of all demands, will release a debt due to the wife, because the husband only could demand it. Buta release of all actions will not release it. Arg. 10 Mod, 165.

cites 21 H. 7. 29. b.

21. If a baron has a term in right of his wife, and he is outlasued or attainted, they are gifts in law. Co. Litt. 351. a.

[51]22. If baron has a term in right of the wife as executor, and Dal. 52. pl. 25. S. C. he * purchases the reversion, the term is extinct as to the feme, if held accordthe survives; but in respect of all strangers she shall make acingly.

coupt,

count, as affets in her hands. Held by all the justices. Mo. 54. Because the hufband pl. 157. Paich. 5 Bliz. has done an act which deftroys the term, viz. the purchase. But intermarrying with him in reversion does not extinguish the term; for the husband has not thereby done an act to destroy the term; but the marsinge is the aff of law; per Manwood J. Godb. 2. pl. 2. Paich. 17 Eliz. C. B.

23. Leffee for years assigned the term to the wife of the lessor and s stranger; and afterwards the lessor bargained and sold the land for money by deed inrolled. The stranger died; the wife claimed to have the refidue of the term not expired. Whether by bargain and fale the term of the wife was extinct or not, was the question: it was said it was not; but contrary if the husband had made a feoffment in fee. The case was not resolved. Mo 171. pl. 304. Mich. 26 & 27 Eliz. Anon.

24. Husband and wife, jointenants during the coverture Poph. 4. pl. for fixty years. The husband let all the lands for 70 years, to begin immediately after his death, and died; the wife survived. It was the lease adjudged a good leafe; for there is a good term created in inte- shall bind rest, though not in possession; and the husband having an interest to dispose of in his life, he might dispose of all his term, and the grant It should bind the wife. Cro. E. 287. pl. 2. Mich. 34 & 35 Eliz. B. R. * Grute v. Locroft,

3. Anon. S. C. that the wife for so much as is of. Ibid. 97. S. P. cited

* S. C. cited 1 Rep. 155. a. as of a demise as adjudged accordingly. for 70 years by one that had a leafe for 90 years, and that the grant was good; but nothing said of its being made by the baron, but that the leafe was made to the baron and feme; and that the reason why it was good was because he demised all his land, habend' after the death of the effor for 70 years; so that there was sufficient certainty. But had he granted so much of his term as should be arrear at the time of his death, this would be uncertain, and not good; and this diversity put by Gaudy J. was agreed by Popham and the whole court. — Mo. 395. pl. 514. cites S. C. that the baron and feme were jointenants for 99 years, if they or either of them should so long live, and that the baron demised the land for 70 years, to commence after his death, and died, living the feme; and adjudged a good leafe against the feme who survived.

25. Leafe was made to baron and feme for years, who enter; the lessor afterwards infeoffs the baron, who died seised. The feme furvives, and claims the term, and betwixt the feme and the heir of the baron, the debate was whether the term was extinguished; and it was held per totam curiam, that by the acceptance of the feoffment, the baron hath furrendered the term, and it is extinguished. But if the conveyance had been by bargain and sale inrolled, or by fine, it had been otherwise; and it was adjudged for the plaintiff. Cro. E. 912. pl. 24. Mich. 43 & 45 Eliz. Downing v. Seymour.

26. The baron had a term in right of his wife, and only 2 Jo. 58. took a covenant for further assurance, and it was adjudged that that Levett is altered the property. Cited Vern. R. 396. pl. 366. Pasch. 1686. not S. P.as the case of Nordon v. Levett.

2 Lev. 1894 S. C. is not

S. P.—Freem, Rep. 442. pl. 398. S. C. is not S. P.

27. If baron + grants a rent-charge out of a term which he has † Co. Lit. in right of his wife, that does not alter the property; but if 351. he makes a demise of the term itself, though but for a fortnight, that will alter the property. Arg. Vern. 396. in pl. 366. Pasch. 1686.

28. Baron

28. Baron affigns to trustees goods which his wife has, as executrix, in trust for such uses as he by deed or will should appoint. This alters the property of the estate. 2 Vern. 287. pl. 275. Pasch. 1693. Ashfield v. Ashfield.

*29. A disposition by the husband by will of a mortgage of the wife's, is not good; for the interest he had is spent, and she is in by survivorship before the will can take place. Arg. Ch. Prec. 120. Trin. 1700. in case of Burnett v. Kinaston.

The wife rios no parsy to the articles, and soon after died without iffue, and decreed for firator de bonis non Ch. Prec. ý18. S. C. ⊶S. C. c ted Arg. G: Equ.

30. A portion was secured by a mortgage in see. The baron after marriage assigns his interest to trustees, and by articles the money was to be called in to purchase land to the use of husband and wife, and their issue; remainder in see to the husband; the husband died. Per cur. the baron had not absolute power. over the mortgage, but being as a chose en action, he had only a the admini- right to reduce it into a possession, and not having so done in his lifetime, his assignee stood but in his place, and could only have of the wife, the baron's power, which was to reduce it into possession in his lifetime; and not having so done, it survived to the wife notwithstanding the articles, and must go to her administrator. 2 Vern. 401. pl. 371. Mich. 1700. Burnet v. Kinaston.

Rep. 72. & ibid. 102. by the lord chancellor, Trin. 1 Geo. S. C. cited Arg. 2 Vern. 502. in pl. 451. - 2 Freem. Rep. 239. pl. 310. S. C. and the ford keeper being of opinion, that the property of the money was not altered by the covenant, the bill was dismissed. _____ S. C. cited Arg. Chan. Prec. 419. and ibid. 418. by Ld. C. Cowper. — G. Equ. Rep. 101. S. C. cited Arg. and ibid. 102. by the lord chancellor.

> 31. The wife had a term, the baron made an under leafe for ten years, and upon borrowing money of lessee, covenanted to grant him another lease after the end of the ten years, and to continue during the time he had any right, but died before he made fuch leafe; it was decreed to be a good disposition of his term in equity. 9 Mod. 42 Trin. 9 Geo. 1. Steed v. Cragh at the Rolls.

What Things the Baron shall have after the Death of the Feme.

† F. N. B. [1.] F a feme having a rent for life takes baron and dies, the ba121. (C)
5. P. beron shall have the arrearages incurred during the coverture, 5. P. be-† 10 H. 6. 11, 12. Co. 4. Ognel. 51.] cause it was a duty in him during the marriage, and the English edition cites S. C. ———— Co. Lit. 162, b. in the end of the explanation of the statute of 32 H. 8. cap. 37.——Co. Lit. 351. a. S. P.——An annuity was granted, to a feme sole for life, who afterwards married; arrears incur, and the wife dies, whereby the annuity determines; adjudged, that the husband shall have an action of debt at the common law, because an annuity is more than a thing in action, and may be granted over. Ow. 3. Pasch. 26 Eliz. anon.

[2. But by the common law, he shall not have the arrears in-Cp. Lit. 162. b. 351. a. curred before the coverture. Co. 4. Ognel 51,]

[3. But

[3. But this is aided by 32 Hen. 8. Co. 4. Ognel 51.] Co. Lit. 162. 5. 351. b. See the exposition of this statute, 32 H. S. cap. 37. s. 3. at tit. Rent (S. b) fol. 544.

[4. If a feme leafes for years, rendering rent, and after takes See (M. 2) husband and dies; the baron shall have the arrearages incurred pl. 1. S. C. during the coverture. 10 H. 6. 11.]

[5. If a feme feignioress takes baron, the rent incurs, and hath issue and dies, by which the baron is tenant by the curtefy of the feigniory, he fball have the faid errears incurred during the coverture. Kell. incerti temporis 118. h.]

[6. If baron and feme, in the right of the seme, be seised of Co. Litt. an advowson, and the church becomes void, and after the feme dies, such case he yet the baron shall present to this church; for this cannot be may have a granted over, yet it is not merely a thing in action. Co. Lit. 120.]

L 53 ] quare impedit in his OWD DAME. · as fome hold.—But if the church had fallen void before the marriage, it was merely in action before the marriage, and therefore the husband should not have it although he survive her. Co. Litt. 351. b. - B. and his wife brought a quare impedit against H. and made title to present to the church in the right of his wife, and after the iffue joined, and before the wenire facias the wife died; and the plaintiff shewed, that bimself bad took out a wenire facias in his own name; and Winch. was of opinion that the writ was not abated, because this was a chattel vested in the husband during the life of the wife. Winch. 73. Pasch. 22 Jac, C. B. Bluat & al' v. Hutchinson.

[7. But if a man be bound to a feme covert, and she dies, the baron shall not bave this obligation without adminifiration purchased; because it is a thing in action. Co. Lit. 120.

[8. If the baron be possessed of a lease for years, of land, in the right of the feme, and after the feme dies, the interest of the lease is presently, by law, vested in the husband, and he shall have it, and not the administrator of the seme. * D. 8 Eliz. 251. 90. per curiam adjudged, Com. WROTTESLY AND ADAMS, of Geo. 1. 192. b. Curia b. Co. Lit. 46. b.]

[9. So if the baron be possessed of a ward in the right of the chequer in feme, and the feme dies, the interest of the ward is cast upon the husband, and he shall have it without taking out admini- Barnwell & stration.]

"Hauchett's caic. G. Equ. Rep. 234. S. P. in in the time in the exireland, in case of al' v. Ruffell & al' ---- Vaugh. 185. Vaughan Ch. J. cites S. C. viz. a copyholder in fee furrenders to the lord, ad intentionem that the lord should grant it back to him for term of life, the remainder to his wife, till his fon comes to twenty-one, remainder to the fon in tail, remainder to the wife for life. The husband died; the lord at his court granted the land to the wife till the son's full age; the remainders ut supra. The wife marries, and dies intestate; the husband held in the land; the wife's administrator, and to whom the ford had granted the land, during the minority of the son, enters upon the husband. This entry was adjudged unlawful, because it was the wite's term; but otherwife it had been, if the wife had been but a guardian, or next friend of this land.

[10. The same law is of the ward of land.]

Chartels real. as leases for years, wardships, &c. are not given to the husband absolutely (as all chattels personal are) by the inter-marriage, but conditionally, if the hufband happens to furvive her, and he has power to alien them at his pleature; but in the mean time the hulband is possessed of the chattels reals in her right. Co. Litt. 299. b. 300. All chattels personal in possession in her orun right are given to the husband at folutely by the mairiage, whither the husband survives the wife or not. Co. Litt. 2; I. b.

Chattels real confishing merely in action, the husband shall not have by the inter-marriage, unless he recovers them in the life of the wife, albeit he survive the wife, as a writ of right of word, a valore maritagii, a forfeiture of marriage, and the like, whereunto the wife was intitled before the mosriage. Co. Litt. 351. a.

But chattels real being of a mixed nature, vis. partly in possession, and partly in action which happen during the coverture, the husband shall have by the inter-marriage if he survive his wife, albeit he seduces them not into possession in her life-time; but if the wife survives him, she shall have them. As if the husband be seised of rent-service, charge, or seck, in the right of his wife, and the rent becomes due, during the coverture the wife dies, the husband shall have the arrearages; but if the wife furvive the husband, she shall have them, and not the executors of the husband. Co. Litt. 351. a.

Hob. 3. pl. 5. Radford v. Young, S. C. adjudged.---Brown!. 129. ed accordingly. —— 4Lc. 185. pl. 285. Mich. 29 Eliz. C.

[11. If a ferne possessed of a lease for years takes husband, and they join in a grant of the term upon condition, that if they, their executors, or administrators, pay 10 l. by such a day, it shall be lawful for them to re-enter, and after the feme dies, and the baron S.C.adjudg- pays the 101. and enters, and dies, his executors shall have the term, and not the administrator of the seme; because the interest of the term survived to the husband. Pasch. 12 Jac. B. between Young and Radford, adjudged. Hob. Reports 4.]

B. Anon. cites 20 Elis. on a special verdict before Popham Ch. J. but the same was not resolved.-(G)15. S. C.

[ 54 ] •Fal. 345.

[12. If the baron be possessed of a ward in the right of the feme, as (*) guardian in socage, and the feme dies, the baron shall not have it; for it belongs to the prochein amy. D. 8 El. 251. 90. Com. 294. OSBURN AGAINST CARDEN AND JOTE.]

[13. If a term for years be granted in trust to the use of a seme Cro. E. 466. (bis) pl. 15. covert, the baron shall not have this trust after the death of the Hill. 38 Efeme. Pasch. 10 Jac. B. per Coke, to be adjudged in WATERliz. B. R.

Wytham v. HOUSE'S CASE.] Waterhouse,

S. C. the defendant took administration of the plaintiff's wife's goods, and the plaintiff sued the detendant in chancery to have this term; but it was there decreed, by advice of all the justices of England, that neither the term nor the use thereof appertained to the plaintisf.----- Toth. 154. S. C. held accordingly .---- Co. Litt. 351. a. S. P. and cites S. C. resolved by the justices; for it consisted in privity. -----Poph. 106. ARTHUR JOHNSON'S CASE, S. C. reports the term granted by her former husband to her two brothers in trust for her, and adjudged for her brothers the administrators against her second husband .---- Inst. 87. cites S. C. as referred by the chancery to the judges, and by them resolved accordingly .- S. P. agreed accordingly, Mar. 45. pl. 69. Trin. 15 Car. in St. John's case.—S. C. cited accordingly All. 15. Trin. 22 Car. B. R. but Roll said, that it had been fince resolved, that the husband should have it in that case.

> 14. If tenant in dower takes a fecond baron, and they two leafe the land which she had to her dower of the dowment of her first baron for years, rendering rent, and dies, the second baron shall have that which was arrear in the time of the wife, and not the heir; for he is a stranger to the lease, and by the death of the tenant in dower the lease is void. Br. Rents, pl. 10. cites 14 H. 6. 26.

15. If baron be possessed of a term for 20 years in right of his wife, and he makes a lease for 10 years, rendering rent to him, his executors, and assigns, and dies, though the wife survives, she shall not have the rent, because she comes in paramount the lease. 4 Le. 185. pl. 285. Mich. 29 Eliz. cites it as resolved by Popham Ch. J. on a special verdict in the county of Somerset, 20 Eliz. Anon.

16. A

16. A trust of lease for years for a wife does not, after the wife's If a feme death, go to the husband in equity, as it was resolved. 245. in pl. 30.

fole altigns a lease in trust, and after takes hulband, and dies, the administrator of the seme shall have this term. Lane 113. cited by Tanfield as decreed in chancery, with the opinion of the judges in Denny's case. - If a man marries a feme who is the cesty que trust of a term, if she dies the trust will not survive to the husband, but shall go to the executor or administrator of the wife; and this was said to be Witham's case, and that is the difference where the wife has an estate in law in a term, and where she has only a trust. 2 Freezo. Rep. 62. pl. 70. Mich. 1680. Hunt v. Baker.

17. Two femes jointenants of a leafe for years, one of them takes husband and dies, yet the term shall survive; for though all chattels real are given to the husband if he survive, yet the survivor between jointenants is the elder title, and after the marriage the feme continued sole possessed; for if the husband die the wife shall have it, and not the executors of the husband; but otherwise of personal goods. Co. Litt. 185. b.

18. If a feme sole be possessed of a chattel real, and be thereof dis- G. Equ. possessed, and then takes husband, and the wife dies, and the husband survives, this right is not only given to the husband by the Geo. I. S.P. inter-marriage, but the executors or administrators of the wife in the exshall have it; so it is if the wife have but a possibility. Co. Litt.

Rep. 234. in Tempore chequer in Ireland, in case of Barnwei & al y.

[55]

Ruffel & a1° and cites S. C.

19. If the wife be possessed of chattels real in auter droit, as executrix or administratrix, or as guardian in socage, &c. and she inter-marries, the law makes no gift of them to the husband, altho' he survived her, Co. Litt. 351. a.

20. If a woman grants a term to her own use, and takes husband, and dies, the husband surviving shall not have this trust, but the executors or administrators of the wife; for it consists in privity, and so it has been resolved by the justices. Co. Litt. 351. a.

21. If husband dies before he seises an estray which happened in a manor of the feme's, she shall have it; because there is no property before seisure. Co. Litt 351. b. (m)

351. 2.

22. Goods which a feme has as executrix remain in and to Or unless her if her husband die, and if she herself die her husband shall not some alterga have them, unless he be his wife's executor, and so executor to the first testator; for they were hers in auter droit, viz. as she reprefented the person of the testator. Went. Off. Ex. 86, 87.

23. A bond was given to a feme fole, who takes baron, and dies, J. S. took out letters of administration to the feme, and brought an action of debt upon this bond; the obligor pleaded, that by the marriage the debt became due to the baron. But the court said, that it did not; for it was a thing in action, and therefore the plea is not good. Sty. 205. Hill. 1649. B. R. Cowley v. Locton.

tion be of the property Went. Off. Ex. 206, 207. No debts due to the wife dum sila shall go to the hulband by virtue of the inter-

marriage, if she dies before they are recovered, but her administrator will be intitled to them, which may be the hufband, but then he has a right only as administrator, and the reason is, because such debts, before they are recovered, are only choses en action. Agreed, 3 Mod. 186. Hill. 3 Jac. 2. B. R. in case of Obrian v. Ram.

24. A

24. A fum of money was provided by settlement of lands for raising daughters portions. One of them marries, and dies before her portion paid. The husband takes out administration. This administration is pro forma only; for here he had a right to the money, as a portion or provision for his wife. Chan. Cases 169. Trin. 22 Car. 2. Hurst v. Goddard.

25. Legacy devised to a daughter to be paid out of lands mortgaged to the father, which mortgage was forfeited in testator's life. She married the plaintiff, and died. The husband takes out administration, and the legacy was decreed to him. Fin. R. 91. Hill.

25 Car. 2. Clerk v. Knight & Baker.

26. If a person dies intestate possessed of goods, and a seme covert and another are next of kin, and administration is granted to the other only, and the seme dies within the year, before any distribution; yet the baron by taking administration to his seme shall be intitled to her share, it being an interest vested in her upon the death of the intestate. Carth. 51. Trin. 1 W. & M. in B. R. Brown v. Farndell.

(I) What Charge of the Baron shall bind the Feme.

See (G) pl. [1. ] F a baron seised for life, or in see, in the right of the seme, such that a rent, and dies, the seme shall hold it discharged.

9 H. 6. 52. Curia.]

*Br. [2. So if the baron possessed for years in the right of the seme, Charge. pl. grants a rent, and dies, the seme shall hold it discharged. *9 H. s. P. 6. 52. For she comes paramount the charge. ‡7 H. 6. 1.]

Fitsh.

Charge, pl. cites S. C. accordingly.——(F) pl. 5. S. C.

1 Br. Charge, pl. 41. and in pl. 1. ibid. cites S. C. held accordingly; for by his dying without altering the property, it remains to the feme in the same state as before.——Fitzh. Charge, pl. 1. cites S. C.——(G) pl. 5. S. C.

If feme bas a lease for years, and takes baron, the baron may surrender or forfeit the lease, because it is only a chattel, and yet be cannot charge it; and yet to the king it may be charged. Br. Forseiture de Terres, pl. 69. cites 7 H. 6. 1.

† If a man be possessed of certain lands for term of years, in the right of his wife, and grants a rentcharge, and dies, the wife shall avoid the charge; but if the husband had survived, the charge is good during the term. Co. Litt. 184. b.

† [ 56 ] $∝ (G) pl. 6.

[3. If baron and feme are tenants for life, and the baron acknowledges a recognizance, the feme shall hold it discharged after the death of the baron. 8 R. 2. Aid del Roy, 114.]

4. If the baron possessed of a term in the right of his seme, is condemned in a judgment, or acknowledges a statute, and dies, this serm for shall not be extended upon the seme. 9 H. 6. 52. b.] right of his wife, it may be fold on a fi. fa. and yet it is not actually transferred to the husband by the inter-marriage; per Parker Ch. J. Trin. 1714. Wms.'s Rep. 258. in case of Miles v. Williams.—See (G) pl. 6.

Prerogative (E) pl. 5. S. C.

[5. If the baron be indebted to the king, and purchases lands for years to him and his wife, and dies, this land shall be put in execution for the said debt, because the baron had power to dispose of the said term. 50 Ass. 5. adjudged, Co. 8. Sir GERARD FLEET-woon 5. [171.] Quære of this; for the execution does not relate to a chattel.]

WOOD,

. 6. Baron cannot prejudice the wife for her franktenement or inberitance. If the is intitled to dower of the lands of her first baron, and her 2d baron accepts for dower less than a 3d part; after the death of the 2d baron she may wave it, and have her full third part. Jenk. 79. pl. 56. cites 32 E. 1. Fitzh. Dower 121.

7. Where the baron is indebted to the king, and he and his feme purchase land for 60 years, and he dies, the seme shall be charged.

Br. Jointenants, pl. 30. cites 50 Aff. 5.

8. And yet if A. be indebted to the king, and A. and B. purchase jointly in fee, and A. dies, and B. survives, he shall not be charged. Note the diversity; for the other is only a chattel, all which the baron may alien without his feme. Br. Jointenants, pl. 30. cites

50 Aff. 5.

9. Baron made a lease of the wife's lands, and the lessee being ignorant of the defeasible title, built upon the land, and was at great charge therein. The baron died, and the wife let aside the lease at law; but was compelled in equity to yield a recompence for the building and bettering the land; for it was worth so much the more to her. Chan. Rep. 5. in the Earl of Oxford's case, Arg. cites it as appearing by a judgment-roll of 34 H. 6. of the case of Peterson v. Hickman,

10. An avowry is made upon the husband and wife, where the Seeth Disswife is the tenant. In this case no disclaimer lies; for the wife claimer (C) cannot be examined in this case; and the husband's disclaimer shall not hurt the wife for her freehold or inheritance any more than his confession shall. Jenk. 143. pl. 97. cites 14 H. 4. 18.

11. Baron alone aliens the land of the wife by fine with proclamations, and dies. Five years expire after his death without action or entry of the wife. It is a bar for ever to the wife and her heirs. D. 72. b. pl. 3. Mich. 6 E. 6. Anon.

12. Baron alone makes a lease of the wife's land, and dies. The leafe, as to the possession, remains in full force till she avoids it by her entry; but as to the right, it determined by the death of the husband. Arg. 3 Bulst. 272. cites Pl. C. 65. b. [but it should be 137. b. 6 E. 6.] in Browning and Beeston's case; and cites 9 H.

6. 43. and 28 H. 8. Dyer, fol. 28. [b. 29. a.]

13. In debt on bond for performance of covenants in an indenture beween the defendant and A. his wife of the one part, and the plaintiff of the other part, The jury found the husband sealed the deed, but not the wife; the justices held that if the husband had sealed and delivered it in the name of the wife, it had been the deed of the wife during the life of the husband; and if they by indenture had bargained and fold land of the wife rendering rent, it had been a good deed of the wife, because she might have afterwards accepted the rent, and made the deed good. Cro. E. 769. pl. 12. Trin. 42 Eliz. B. R. Shipwith v. Steed.

14. Husband devised his land to his wife during the minority of his fon and dies. He has only a posthumous son. By the will the Vol. IV. wife wise has power to make leases, to raise money to pay debts, &c. She enters and takes the profits and marries a second husband; he lives some years and takes the profits, and dies. She leased some part according to the will, and continued taking the profits of the rest. The son comes to 21, and proves a revocation of the will, and prays his mother may account. Ordered that she account for all the profits that herself or her husband took; for she shall be said to take them as guardian till 14, and after as bailist, and was to answer what her husband took as in a devastavit. And the wise having no notice of the revocation, had paid legacies according to the will, which were charged on the lands. Those were ordered to be allowed, but as for the leases, though for sines and full rents, the court would not make them good, because she could not set or lease lands. Chan. Cases 126. Pasch. 21 Car. 2. Hele v. Stowell.

[57]

15. If feme executrix survives, she shall be charged for damages recovered upon a devastavit against her and her baron, for waste committed by the baron during the coverture, but she shall not be charged for costs recovered against the baron de bonis propriis; and judgment accordingly. 2 Lev. 161. Hill. 27 & 28 Car. 2. B. R.

Horsey v. Daniel.

of J. S. for her life, and afterwards to her children, and the interest of the money to go in the mean time to fuch person as would be intitled to receive the profits. J. S. the husband becomes bankrupt. Per cur. this not being a trust created by the husband, nor any thing carved out of his estate, but given by a relation of the wise's, and intended for her maintenance; it is not liable to the creditors of the husband, and decreed the interest to be paid to the trustee to be laid out in land and settled according to the will. 2 Vern. R. 96. Vandenanker v. Desborough.

17. A feme had 1000 l. and it was agreed by marriage-articles, that 700 l. of it should go to pay his debts. The husband after marriage, without the wife, assigned the 300 l. likewise to creditors, and decreed so much to be paid as was really due to them, and the residue, if any, to be put out for her benefit. Chan. Prec. 325. Hill.

1711. Povey v. Brown, Amhurst & al'.

Her haspard is the proper perfon to affign own name. Per Parker Ch. J. Wms.'s Rep. 255. Trin. 1714. in the notePer Parker

18. If a bill of exchange be made to the feme dues folo, the hasband may assign it, and the assignee shall bring the action in his the notecase of Miles v. Williams.

Per Parker

Ch. j. 10 Mod. 246. in S. C.

19. No agreement of the bushand to part with the wife's inheritance, shall hind the wife, or he carried into execution. MS. Tah. Feb. 9, 1721. Bryan v. Wolley.

20. If the wife had recovered a judgment at law, and elegit thereupon, the husband would have had a power to assign that interest of the nuise, for or nuithout consideration &c. in trust for himself or as he pleased; so by parity of reason, the wife having a decree of a court of equity for her demand, and to hold and enjoy till satisfaction, &c. the husband

basband bas the same right and power to dispose of this equitable interest of the wife, as he would in case of a demand recovered at law, &c. and though after marriage the husband is to use the wife's name in the proceedings in equity in this and the like cases, whereas he need not at law, that makes no difference in the thing, or in the right, but in the form and manner of proceeding, &c. Per Ld. Hardwick MS. Rep. Feb. 26, 1734. in the case of Paschall v. Ld. Carteret & al'.

(K) What Things the Feme may do without the Baron.

II. IF a feme sole makes a feoffment upon condition to re-infeoff Br. Tender, ber at what time she will, and after takes husband, she pl. 32. cites S. C. says may require the feoffee to re-infeoff her without her husband, and that she did if the fcoffee does not do it, the condition is broke. 35 Aff. 11. request, and adjudged.]

they refused,

baron and feme entered, and good. Brook says, and so see a good request by a feme covert without her baren, for the conditions are strict as it seems .- Br. Conditions, pl. 117. cites S. C. Br. Coverture, pl. 42. cites S. C .-- Br. Feoffments, pl. 31. cites S. C .- Br. Remitter, pl. 45. cites S. C .---- Brownl. 69. in case of Portington v. Rogers, Arg. cites S. C. contra, viz. that the cannot make request after coverture; but ibid. 140, 141. Arg. in S. C. fays that the request is good after marriage, and cites 25 Asl. 11. [but is misprinted for 35 Asl. 11.]

2. Nor she cannot restrain the livery of her baron of the land of the feme. Br. Coverture, pl. 76. cites H. 21 E. 3. 6.

3. If land is given to a feme upon condition to fell, and to distribute the money, &c. for the foul of the feoffor, and she takes baron, and the baron and feme sell and distribute the money, and the baron dies, the seme shall not have cui in vita nor subpoena; for the sale is good according to the condition. And per Brooke J. the feme may sell to any except to her baron; and this by deed, not by fine. Br. Cui in Vita, pl. 16. cites 34 E. 3.

4. The seme cannot waive her interest gained by the disseifin during the life of the baron. Br. Assise, pl. 330, cites 35 Ass. 5.

5. Feme covert shall not be executrix, without the affent of her baron. Br. ibid. cites Hill. 2 H. 7. 15.

o. Feme covert executrix may give acquittance on receipt of a debt by herself without the baron; all the justices said that so it feems. And. 117. in pl. 164. Hill. 22 Eliz.

7. A feme covert may do things in law, if the baron agrees to it. Note, that Kelw. 163. a. pl. 4. Mich. 3 H. 8. but without such affent she cannot make, create, or limit use of land. And. 164. pl. 209. Mich. seme co-29 & 30 Eliz. in case of Colgate v. Blythe, alias Kenn's case.

gift to 2 . vert, or a fale of the goods of the baron by a feme covert, is good, if the baron agrees, or does not disagree; per cur. B.. Contract, pl. 3. cites 27 H. S. 25.

8. Tenant for life, remainder to his daughter and heir apparent, who was a feme covert, in fee. The father made a feaffment in fee with warranty, and afterwards levied a fine with warranty to certain uses, and died. The daughter for herself, and in the name of her husband, and by his consent, entered within the year, and elaimed the inhesitance. The justices held, that the entry by the wife alone, "without her husband, he agreeing to it, was good; and that the warranty descending upon her during the coverture, did not bind her, because her entry was lawful. Cro. Eliz. 72. pl. 28. Mich. 29 & 30 Eliz. B. R. Ards v. Simpson.

7 Le. 266. pl.358.S.C. and the plea good.

9. Affent by the wife of T. to F. to enter into the house of T. the husband, and take goods which were there of A.'s, who had sold was held not them to F. is no justification in trespass brought by the husband against F. Per 3 justices, contra Gawdy J. Cro. E. 245. pl. 5.

Mich. 33 & 34 Eliz. B. R. Tailor v. Fisher.

Yelv. I. S. C. and Browni. feems only a translation

10. Feme covert cannot make a + letter of attorney to deliver a lease upon the land. Brownl. 134. Pasch. 44 Eliz. Wilson v. Rich.

of Yelv.---- Brown!. 248. Pasch. 9 Jac. B. R. Plomer v. Hockhead, S. P.----- But if the declaration is of a lease by the husband only, it is good. Noy 133. Plummer v. Hocket, S. C .----See Gardiner v. Norman.

† In debt baron and feme continues till exigent baron appears, but will not suffer her to appear. Per eur. the wife may make attorney to prevent being waived. D. 271. b. marg. pl. 27. cites Pasch. 42 Eliz. C. B.

Sec 2 H. 7.

- 11. She cannot take an executorship upon her without the con-15-b-pl.23. sent of her husband at the common law; though otherwise perhaps by the spiritual law. But if the will be proved, and execution committed to the wife, though against her husband's mind and consent, it seems that it will stand; and the husband and wife being after fued, they cannot say that she never was executor, and he doubted whether her administering without the hufband's privity and affent, though the will be not proved, do not conclude her husband as well as herself from saying after in any suit against them, that she neither was executor, nor did ever administer as executor; yet perhaps such administration by the wife against the husband's consent, will, as against him, be a void act; and if she, being made executrix during coverture, refuses, but yet the husband will administer, she is bound during his life, though after his death she may refuse. See Went. Off. Executor, 202. to 205.
  - 12. Husband and wife seised of lands in right of the wife, levied a fine to the use of themselves for their lives, and after to the use of the heirs of the wife; proviso, that it shall and may be lawful to and for the husband and wife, at any time during their lives, to make leases for 21 years or 3 lives, the wife being covert made a lease for 21 years. Adjudged a good lease against the husband, though made when she was a feme covert, and by her alone, by reason of the proviso. Godb. 327. pl. 419. Pasch. 21 Jac. B. R. Anon.

13. Lands were devised by the baron to his feme, to dispose at Jo. 137. pl. her will and pleasure, and to give it to which of his sons she should 3. Trin. 2. Car. B. R. please. She marries another husband. Adjudged that the seme Daniel v. notwithstanding the coverture, might execute the power; for the Ubley, S. C. adjudged ac- fon is in by the devisor. Noy 80. Daniel v. Upton.

cordingly.--Lat. 9. 39. & 134. Daniel v. Upley, S. C. adjudged accordingly; and ibid. 10. Arg. it is faid that this power is colluteral to the estate.

Derife

Devile of an annuity to a feme sole for life, with power to grant an annuity to any person she should name, and after the marries, yet this power continues in her, and is not transferred to the hufband, and by her nomination the does not any ways charge the lands by virtue of any interest arising from ber, but that is done by the will of the testator. Fin. Rep. 346. Pasch. 30 Car. 2. Gibbons w. Moulton.

14. If land was devised to the feme, on condition to convey it to J. S. there she has interest conditional, and to save the condition the may convey it during coverture; so feoffment to a seme covert, upon condition to enfeoff J. S. Admitted. Jo. 138. pl. 3.

Trin. 2 Car. B. R. in case of Daniel v. Ubley.

15. If feoffment be made to a feme covert upon trust, and consi- But if the dence to convey it to J. S. per Jones J. she cannot make feoffment; for the estate was absolutely in the seme, not subject to the condition, but in trust and considence; so that without the baron's joining with her in a fine, her feoffment is void; and if it was by fine, it is voidable by the baron; but Doderidge and Whitlock J. were of opinion, that in that case a conveyance by ment, beher was good. Quære. Jo. 138. Trin. 2 Car. B. R. in case of Daniel v. Ubley.

[ 60 ] is feoffee upon condition to convey it over, the shall be bound by . her feoffcause she was but an instrument. Aig. 2

Roll. Rep. 68. cites 11 H. 7. 3. ---- Arg. 2 Roll. Rep. 175. cites 34 E. 3. Cui in Vita.

A feofiment with letter of attorney to the wife to make livery, is good; but then the must make livery in the name of her husband. Arg. Godb. 389. cites Perk. s. 196. 199.

16. A receipt given by the wife alone for a legacy bequeathed Nor can the to her, is not a sufficient discharge against the husband. Vern. 261. pl. 255. Mich, 1684. Palmer v. Trevor.

dispose of it from the husband without his concurrence, and fuch claimant ought to fet forth by what act or deed he claims it, and her admimistrator ought to be made a party; and so it was ruled upon demurrer. Fin. Rep. 387. Trin. 30 Car. 2. Wall v. Eastmead & Hakes.

17. If feme covert purchases lands without consent of the Ld. Raym. baron, he may have trover for the money. Cumb. 450. Ruled at S. C. ac-Guildhall, Trin. 9 W. 3. in case of Garbrand v. Allen.

Rep. 224. cordingly.

18. Feme covert may plead alone in a criminal matter; as if she was attainted of felony, she may plead a pardon; per Holt. Farr, 82. Mich. 1 Ann. B. R.

What Things they both may do to charge the Feme after the Death of the Husband.

[I.] F a recovery be in an assise sur disseisin against them, execu- So in trestion shall be against the seme after the death of her hus- pass. See band, as well for the damages as for the principal. 39 H. tion (T) 6. 45.]

pl. 2. cites

[2. If the baron and feme have the same occupation, and 47 E. 3. the baron dies, the feme shall be charged by the statute of Gloucester, for the occupation, in an assisse or trespass. 39 H. Ø. 45.]

3. Baron

Mod. 66.

3. Baron and feme levied a fine fur concession of lands with warranty to W. The baron died. W. is ejected. The court s. P. agreed held, that covenant lies against the feme upon this warranty in accordingly the fine by her, though she was covert at the time of the fine by the counsel for the defendant, against the setne.

[61] (L. 2) Bound by her own Act. By Relation.

1. IF seme sole commands J. N. to make an obligation in bername, and before the execution of it she takes baron, and after it is executed, it shall bind her; for she had power at the time of the command. Quære. Br. Coverture, pl. 50. cites 14. E. 4. 2.

2. Though the deed of a feme covert could not be binding, yet being relative to a fine, it gives an efficacy and operation to the deed, and is as conclusive as if she were a feme sole; per Holt Ch. J. in delivering the opinion of the court. 12 Mod. 161.

Hill. 9 W. 3. Jones v. Morley.

(M) What Things a Woman may do alone to charge her Husband.

Fitzh. Account, pl. 28. cites
S. C.

not necessary.

[1. THE baron, in an account, shall not be charged by the receipt of his feme, unless it came to his use. 43 Ed. 3.3.]

2. Per cur. gift of goods of the baron made by feme covert is good, if the baron agrees to it, or if he does not difagree, yet it suffices, and therefore the gift was to the seme covert; quod nota. Br.

Done, pl. 4. cites 27 H. 8. 26.

3. Debt was brought by the husband upon a lease made by the seme-Palm: 206. 5. C. and dum sola. After marriage that feme received the rent of the lesses ib.d. 210. who had no notice of the coverture, (by any thing which appeared) It was Itfolved by 3 nor was there any countermand of the payment thereof to the justices, feme. It was resolved, that this payment was as no payment, Dodewidge being in the but the baron may well demand and recover it again. Cro. J. 617. (bis) pl. 7. Mich. 19 Jac. B. R. Tracy v. Dutton. parliament, that the payment to the seme was void in law; and by Ley Ch. J. that notice of the marriage was

A. The wife received money due on a bond entered into by one to her husband. The husband got judgment on the bond; but because she cause she usually received and paid money for him, it was ordered totidem verthat, he acknowledge satisfaction thereupon. Chan. Cases, 38. Mich.

Mich. 13 Car. 2. by the master of the rolls. Seabourne v. Blackitone.

5. The wife of A. receives 101. to the use of A. and this comes to the use of her husband in a convenient or necessary way; although the husband did not command it, or consent afterwards, he is liable to this debt, and the count shall be of a receipt by the hands. of the busband; fuch manner of count will serve in debt in this case. The reason is, the wife's contract is void, and it ought not to be alledged in the count, but the count ought to be as above; by the justices of both benches. Jenk. 4. pl. 5.

(M. 2) In what Cases she may take by Grant. [ 62 ]

- I. IF an estate be made to a man's wife, de novo, it is not necessary to aver his assent; for it vests till he dissent; but where the wife had an estate before, an affent is necessary, because it cannot be devested by her acceptance of a new estate, unless he assent to the latter estate; per Hobart Ch. J. Hob. 204. pl. 257. Trin. 14 Jac. at the end of the case of Swain v. Holman.
- 2. Debt upon a penal bill, by which the defendant promised K, a feme sole, that as soon as a grant should be made to him of such an office, he would execute a bond to her for payment of 501. per annum to her, during the joint lives of her and the said defendant. The office was granted to him, and she being afterwards married, her husband and she brought this action, setting forth this matter, &c. but that he had not sealed a bond to her dum sola, nor to the husband and her jointly after the marriage, Sec. Upon demurrer the defendant had judgment, for though it was averred, that he had not sealed the bond to the wife whilst fole, nor to the plaintiffs after the marriage, yet it was not faid that he had not sealed to her after the marriage, and this exception was held good per tot. cur. Lutw. 413. Hill. 3 & 4 Jac. 2. Tonstall v. Williamson,

What Things a Woman may do without ber Husband, [or may be avoided by him.]

[1.] F a feme covert levies a fine, this will bar her, if her Trin. husband does not avoid it, during the coverture. * Co. Mary P. 10. 43. 18 H. 6. 27. + 17 Aff. 17.] ington's

Mary Portcafe.-

+ Br. Coverture, pl. 77. cites S. C. and if the baron dies she shall not avoid it in scire facias. Be. Fines levied, pl. 75. cites S. C. - Fitsh. Estoppel, pl. 135. cites S. C. and Trin. 17 E. 3. 52. ____ 7 Rep. 8. a. b. S. P. accordingly per cur. cites S. C. ____ See tit. Fines (T) per totum.

[2. But

[2. But if he avoids it, she and her heirs shall have it. Co. Br. Fines levied, pl. 10. 43. * 17 Aff. 17.] 75. cites

S. C.—Br. Coverture, pl. 77. cites S. C.—Fitzh. Estoppel, pl. 135. cites S. C.—7 Rep. 8. 2. b. S. P. per cur Mich. 28 & 29 Eliz. in the court of wards, in the earl of Bedford's case, and the connice shall not have the land; for by the entry of the baron the entire estate of the connice is defeated, and the antient estate of the feme re-vested in her, and the baron seised of the entire estate as in right of his wife, and fays, that with this agrees 17 E. 3. 52. b. 17 Ast. 17. 7 H. 4. 23.2 R. 3. 20. 9 H. 6. 33.—Hob. 225. Hobart Ch. J. says, note a conflict of two laws of nature and equity, as it were, but the one is predominant; and yet the law of the land for necessity's sake of commerce and the like by a law of policy, makes bold with the law of nature in a special kind, and therefore allows a fine levied by the husband and the wife; because she is examined of her free will judicially, by an authentical person, trusted by the law, and by the king's writ, and so taken in a sort as a sole woman, as also when she comes in by receipt; but this being but a fiction of law, must not be extended beyond that, that the law has granted as a privilege. May more, if a woman covert levy a Ane alone, as if the were fole, this shall bind her for the reason before given, that she shall not be received to fay the was covert, though her huthand thall, and may enter and reftore the land to himfelf and his wife both.

[ 63 ] Fol. 347.

[3. Quære, if a feme covert suffers a common recovery, if this binds the feme after the death of the husband, if he does not avoid it during coverture.]

Br. Error, pl. 173.

[4. If a feme covert appears to an action, and after is outlawed, her husband and she may reverse it; because it was without her husband. 18 Ed. 4. 4.]

-----Br. Joinder en

cites S. C.

Action, pl. 88. cites S. C. that they ought to join to reverse it; because seme covert cannot sue without her baron.

> 5. If a man makes a feme covert his executrix, and devises the reversion to be sold by ber, she cannot make a deed, and yet her fale is good without any attornment, nor can she levy a fine; and the reason seems to be, inasmuch as when the sale is made it passes by the testament, and not by the sale. Br. Devise, pl. 12. cites

19 H. 6. 23.

6. A feme covert bought goods for 10 h the baron paid the 10 l, and took the goods; the vendor brought trespass; per Yaxeley, the fale is void, by reason that she who bought is a seme covert. But per Rede, the buying by her is good, because her baron agreed to it. Fineux contra; for a feme covert cannot do a thing which may turn to the prejudice of her baron, and contra of that which is for bis advantage; for if I give goods to a feme covert, it is 5. P. Br. good if the baron agrees; but if a + feme covert buys a thing 41. cites 20 in a market it is void; for it may be a charge to the baron; but the may buy a thing to my use, and I after agree to it. Br. Contract, pl. 19. cites 21 H. 7. 40.

Contract, pl. H. 6. 22.

3. P. Br.

H. 6. 22.

7. And if I command my feme to buy things necessary, and she Contract, pl. buys, this shall bind me by the general command, though I did 41. cites 20 not express to her what things are necessary. Br. Contract, pl. 19. cites 21 H. 7. 40.

5. P. per Fineux Ch. J.Br. Contract, pl. 41. cites Trin.

74 H. Z.

8. And if my feme buys a thing for my household, as bread, &c. and I have no knowledge of it, there, though it was expended in my house, I shall not be thereof charged. Quod nota bene. Ibid.

9. Baron

9. Baron and seme levied a fine of the wife's lands to the use of themselves for their lives, remainder to the beirs of the wife, with a proviso for the bushand and wife, at any time during their lives, to make leases for 21 years, or 3 lives, &c. The wife, during the coverture, made a lease for 21 years; and it was adjudged a good lease against the husband, (though made by her alone while she was covert) by reason of this proviso. Godb. 327. pl. 419. Pasch. 21 Jac. B. R. Anon.

10. The baron being gone beyond sea, the seme levies a fine 3 Keb. 477of her lands; the baron returns and enters into part. The ques- judged. tion was, whether this had avoided the whole fine? and held that it had; for what act soever he doth in disaffirmance of the fine, shall avoid it. Freem. Rep. 396, pl. 515. Trin, 1675. Mayo

y. Combes,

(N. 2) What Act of the Wife's shall be good with the Husband's joining.

1. A Feme covert is of a capacity to purchase of others, without the consent of her husband, but her husband may disagree thereto, and divest the whole estate; but if he neither agrees nor disagrees the purchase is good. But after his death, though her husband agreed thereunto, yet she may (without any cause to be alledged) waive the same, and so may her heirs also, if after the decease of her husband she herself agreed not thereunto. Co. Litt. 3. a. at the top.

2. Warrant of attorney by baron and feme to deliver a leafe upon But a letter the land, is merely void as to the wife. Yelv. 1. Pasch. 44 Eliz. of actorney by them B. R. Wilson v. Riche.

both to receive a legacy bequestbed to the wife, is good, because the letter of attorney of the husband alone is sufficient. Goldb. 159. pl. 91. Hill. 43 Eliz. Huntley v. Griffith.

3. If a limitation be, that if a ring be tendered by a woman, that the land shall remain to her, she takes a husband, she and the busband tender the ring; this is a sufficient tender, and shall be intended the act of the wife. Arg. 2 Brownl. 67. Pasch.

9 Jac. C. B. in the case of Portington.

4. A bond was conditioned to pay 50l. to the plaintiff; memorandum, it is agreed before sealing, &c. that the wife may dispose of the 501. in her life-time to whom she will, to be paid by the plaintiff accordingly, he being only trustee of the wife in the said obligation. In action against the husband after the wife's death, the desendant pleads that she with his consent made her will, and thereby bequeathed 301. of the said 501. to divers persons, and the rest to bim, and made him executor, and after died, and so disposed of the said 501. in her life. On demurrer to this plea, judgment was given for the plaintiff, for the 50% ought to be paid to the plaintiff, notwithstanding the disposal. 2. Jo. 216. Trin. 34 Car. 2. B. R. Blunt v. Collins.

5. Where

5. Where a legacy is given to a feme covert, on condition to release her interest in lands, she must release by fine. 9 Mod. 79. 10 Geo. Acherley v. Vernon.

(N. 3) Acting as a Sole in other Cases than as Feme Sole Merchant.

50. S. C. at the Rolls, Says that there appeared fome probable evidence that the purgrand Chan. Cases I. EME as administrator to ber hulband, brought an action. The defendant brings a bill, suggesting that the husband is not dead but conceals himself, and pending the suit in equity, the feme got judgment at law, but the court granted an injunction, and directed an issue at law to try whether the husband was dead or not. N. Ch. R. 93. 16 Car. 2. Scott v. Reyner.

was not dead; and so an injunction was granted, and a trial at law directed.

- 2. A feme covert who lived by herself and acted as a feme fole, gave a warrant of attorney to confess a judgment, &c. and afterwards moved to set aside the judgment, because she was covert; but the court would not relieve her, but put her to. her writ of error. 1 Salk. 400 pl. 5. Mich. 10 W. 3. B. R. Anon.
- 3. A woman living separate from her husband and passing for. a widow, was applied to by B. to lend him 1001. on a mortgage. She told him that she had only 501. of her own, but that she could get 501. more of a young woman, which she did, and acquainted B. thereof, and ordered the mortgage to be made to herself by a different name from that of her husband, and gave the young woman a bond for payment of the 501. and interest, but by another different name. B. made several payments of the interest to the [ 65 ] wife, but knew nothing of the marriage. The husband baving notice of the mortgage, gets that and all the writings into his cuftody. On discovery of the marriage, a bill was brought by the person that lent the 50% (and who in truth was servant to the wife at the time) either to charge the money on the mortgage or upon the person of the husband. The wife by her answer disclosed all this matter, and B. by his answer, and likewise on his examination as a witness, declared that the wife had told him that the young woman (the now plaintiff) was the person that advanced the 50%. The court agreed clearly, that the wife shall never be admitted by answer or otherwise, as evidence to charge the husband. But the master of the rolls said that this was perfectly a new case; for here she transacted the affair with B. and the plaintiff as a feme [sole,] and neither of them knew, or had notice of the marriage; and the busband himself (as was proved in the cause on some other occasions) had given into the concealment of the marriage, and therefore the court did allow of her evidence, as it was supported by what B. said, and thought upon the whole the evidence of the wife sufficient to prove 50% part of this money, 11 money, to be the plaintiff's, not considered as a wife, but as she transacted and appeared throughout, as a feme sole, and therefore decreed to the plaintiff the 50% with costs. Equ. Abr. 226, 227. pl. 15. Hill. 1719. Rutter v. Baldwin.

4. Where a seme has reserved the power of her own estate, and Gib. Equ. gave a note for payment of a debt of the baron's out of her own Rep. 83. separate estate, to prevent an execution of his goods; she is to totidem be confidered as a feme fole, and she shall be bound. Ch. Prec. verbis. 328. pl. 249. Hill. 1711. Bell v. Hyde.

S. C. in

What Things a Woman may be faid to do with her Husband.

[1.] If they are disselfers, the seme cannot take the profits with her For it is but busband, but the baron alone in his own right, and the which is the right of his feme. 39 H. 6. 44. Curia.]

baron's only. Br. Parnour,

&c. pl. 15. cites S. C. Br. Maintenance de Brief, pl. 31. cites S. C. Br. Parnour, pl. 24. cites 4 E. 4. 30. S. P. by Danby & al'. - But though feme covert cannot take the profits, yet the alledging the profits to be taken by the baron for him and his wife, was awarded good. Br. Parnour, &c. pl. 9. cites 22 H. 6. 35. - Ibid. pl. 15. S. P. - See tit. Dif-Kilin, (D) (E) (F) (G).

12. If baron and seme lease for years the land of the seme, this Br. Baron and Feme, is the lease of both. 7 H. 4. 15. pl. 31. cites S. C. but S. P. does not appear. - Fitzh. Briefe, pl. 227. cites S. C. but S. P. does not appear,

Actions by Baron for criminal Conversation with the Feme, and Pleadings.

1. TICENCE by husband to the wife to lie with another man, cannot be pleaded in bar to an action of trespass by the husband, nor that she was a notorious lewd woman; but these matters may be given in mitigation of damages. 12 Mod. 232. Mich. 10 W. 3. Coot v. Berty.

[ 66 ]

2. If adultery be committed with another man's wife without 2 Salk. 552. any force, but by her own consent, the husband may have assault and pl. 15. Gabattery, and lay it vi & armis; and yet they shall in that case gault, S. C. punish him below for that very offence; for an indictment will & S. P. by not lie for such an affault and battery; neither shall the husband and wife join in an action at common law, and therefore they proceed below either civilly, that is, to divorce them, or criminally, because they were not criminally prosecuted above; and the true action for the husband in such case is a special action, quia the defendant uxorem rapuit, and not to lay it per quod confortium amisit; per Holt Ch. J. and per cur. accordingly; for that the offence is not merely spiritual. 7 Mod. 81. Mich. 1 Ann. B. R. in case of Rigault v. Gallisard.

Holt Ch. J.

Baron and Peme.

(P) What Things done by Baron and Feme shall bind the Feme.

In affise of novel difseifin against [1.WHERE the seme is examined by writ, she shall be bound, else not. Co. 10. 43.]

several, one answered as tenant of the tenements, and vouched to warranty a man and his wife who were named in the writ, and were ready to have warranted. Herle said that the seme in this case cannot be received to warrant, unless she be examined, and we have no warrant to examine her; whereupon he bid the tenant to answer, and so he did. Pasch. 5 E. 3. b. pl. 11.—None can examine a seme covert without writ. 2 Inst. 673.

See tit. [2. Baron and feme levy a fine; this will bar the feme. 18 Ed. 4. 12.]

Sid. 11. pl. [3. If baron and feme fuffer a common recovery, this binds the 7. Mich. feme; for she is examined on this. Co. 10. 43. + 23 H. 8. s. C. B. it was 37. Com. Eyer and Snow. 515.]

ferjeants, that feme covert was not to be privately examined upon suffering a common recovery, though the must be on a fine. But Bridgman Ch. J. said that the law is, that she should be privately examined in both cases; and though your practice has been as you say, (and so was the popinion of Rell Ch. J.) yet it is good to be advised, that the want thereof may be corrected; but however the seme was permitted to suffer the common recovery without private examination.——Sid. 322. pl. 14. Mich. 28 & 19 Car. 2. B. R. at the end of the case, in a note of the reporter, is a quære how a seme covert, can be barred unless by sine, because she is not examined upon a common recovery.——And 5 Mod. 210. Pasch. 8 W. 3. in case of Stokes v. Oliver, it is said that it may be a question whether a seme covert can be barred by any act of her own besides a fine, because she is not examined upon a common recovery.

On all recoveries there was a writ to examine feme coverts, and the first mention of such examination is 43 E. 3. 18. but now it is wholly disused in common recoveries, though it still remains in fines. Pig of Recov. 66.

† This seems to intend Br. Recovery in Value, pl. 27. which cites 23 H. 8.

Sty. 320. Hill. 1651. S. P. by Roll Ch. J. in case of Lockoe v. Palfryman.

It shall not be involled; be involled; and feme acknowledge a deed to be involled; this does, because it is not bind the seme, because she is not examined by writ. Co. not the deed 10. 43.]

of the seme.

Br. Coverture, pl. 47. cites 7 E. 4. 5.—Br. Faits inrolled, pl. 11. cites S. C.—Pitzh. Estoppel, pl. 68. cites S. C.—Br. Faits inrolled, pl. 14. cites 29 H. 8. that deed of baron and seme shall not be inrolled, in C. B. but for the baron only, and not sor the seme, by reason of the coverture; nor shall she be bound with her baron in statute-merchant, sec.—But if baron and seme make a deed inrolled of land in London, and acknowledge before the recorder and an alterman, and the seme is I examined, this shall bind as a fine at common law by the custom, and not only as a deed. Ibid. pl. 15. cites S. C.—Br. N. C. pl. 109. cites S. C. and 7 E. 4. 5. and 32 H. 8. 171.—See 2 Inst. 673. S. P.

$[ 67 ] Br. Obliga-5. If the baron and feme are bound in an obligation of 1001. for tion, pl. 74. a release made to them of the land de jure uxoris, and the baron cites S. C. dies, this obligation shall bind the feme, because it was made -Br. Coverture, pl. for her release, which is a benefit to her; per Belknap. Quære; 76. cites for it was not adjudged. Br. Baron and Feme, pl. 77. cites 44 S. C. but E. 3. 33. adds no guzre.

6. If a man leases to baron and seme for years rendering S. P. Br. rent, and dies, the seme shall be bound by it; contrary of other pl. 6. collateral covenant. Br. Baron and Feme, pl. 78. cites 45 E. 3. II.

7. Quid juris clamat by baron and feme against tenant for life, upon fine levied of the reversion, who came and said, that saving to him the advantage of his deed of lease, which he shewed forth, which was without impeachment of waste, he is ready to attorn; and the advantage to him was suffered, and all entered in the roll, notwithstanding that the seme plaintiff was covert; but this was in a manner by agreement, and not by express rule. Br. Coverture, pl. 10. cites 45 E. 3. 11.

8. Leafe made by baron and feme shall be said the lease of both, till the seme disagrees, which she cannot do in the life of the baron, and waste lies by both. Br. Agreement, pl. 6. cites

3 H. 6. 53.

9. A man was infeoffed to the use of a seme sole, who takes an Br. Conhusband. They both for money sell the land to B. who pays it science, &c. to the wife, and she and her husband do pray the feoffee to make pl. 13. cites estate to B. Afterwards her husband dies. Now, by the chan- Br. Feoffcellor and all the justices, she shall have aid against the first mental Uses, feoffee by subpoena, to satisfy her for the land; and if the 2d pl. 41. cites feoffee were conusant, a subpoena shall be against him for the land; for all that the wife did during her coverture (as they faid) shall be taken to be done for fear of the husband. Cary's Rep. 18, 19. cites 7 E. 4. 14. Subpœna, Fitzh. 6.

10. Husband and wife, seised of lands to them and the beirs of S.C. cited the kusband. He covenanted, in consideration of 201. that he and per cur 2 bis wife would suffer a recovery thereof by writ of right, according b. Jenk. to the custom of London, which is as binding as a fine at 238. pl. common law, and that it should be to the use of the recoverers, 27. S. C. until they (the baron and feme) had made a good and sufficient lease for 40 years, &c. and after to the use of the busband and wife, and to the beirs of the feme. The lease was made accordingly, and afterwards the husband died. All the judges were of opinion, that the wife shall not avoid this lease, because her former estate was gone and extinguished by the recovery; and judgment accordingly; and the reporter says that all the justices of B. R. were of the same opinion. Dyer 290. 2. pl. 61. Trin. 12 Eliz. Lusher v. Banbong.

11. Fine by E. to the use of himself for life, remainder to his Mo. 634. wife that should be at the time of death, for life; remainder to the pl. 869. son of E. in tail. E. took to wife A. A fine levied by E. and A. his wife, who afterwards furvived him, and other uses declared, is no ber to her, because it was uncertain who would be the person; but had the person been certain, there perhaps, notwithstanding it was but a possibility, it might have been a bar; per Walmsley J. Cro. E. 826. pl. 31. Pasch. 41 Eliz. C. B. Wells v. Fenton.

S. C. lays that Warburton, Walmiley, & tota curia held, that the was barred by estoppel; but that Anderion and Kingsmill held, that the fine had extinguished the uses by prevention. ----- Pl. C. 562. h 563. Arg.

12. A. having three daughters, B. C. and D. intails his land upon them. Afterwards C. married, and being a feme covert, agreed with consent of * ber husband to take 10001. in consideration of extinguishment of ber right as coheir. The judges by their certificate held it to be no bar to her. Toth. 162. cites Trin. 7 Jac. Dockwray v. Pool.

13. A fingle woman did agree to have a moiety of land, and efter marriage subscribed her name with her husband to a latter agreement though seme covert. Decreed in 10 Jac. lib. B. 25.

or 250. Toth. 160. Randall v. Tynny.

14. M. a feme before her marriage with A. conveyed lands to trustees with A.'s privity, in trust, to pay the rents and profits to ber fole and separate use for her life; and after to such uses as she, whether fole or covert, should by her last will limit and appoint; and for want of such appointment, then to her own right heirs for ever. After the marriage A. mortgaged the land to the plaintiff for 500 years, to secure 1000l. A. and M. join in a fine, and both declared the uses to be to the plaintiff for securing his principal and interest, the remainder to the right heirs of A. M. insisted that she was compelled by duress to join in the fine, and that the mortgage was fictitious only, and in trust for A. in order to defraud her; and it was argued that this was a naked power without any interest, and so could not be barred by the fine; but lord chancellor e contra, and decreed the trustees to convey to the plaintiff, but without prejudice to any future bill that may be brought for discovery of the fraud or force. Cases in Equ. in lord Talbot's time. 41: Mich. 1734, Penne v. Peacock.

(P. 2) Incumbrances by them of the Estate, &c. of the Feme.

1. A Femie covert by dures joins in a lease with her husband, she shall be bound by it; per Manwood J. 3 Le. 72. pl. 110. Hill. 20 Eliz.

2. Baron and seme seised in the right of the seme, mortgaged by deed for 3001. and covenanted to levy a fine for further affurance, and if the baron and seme, or either of them, or their heirs, executors, &c. did pay, &c. then the said fine to enure to the baron and seme, and the survivor, and after to the right heirs of the baron. A fine was levied, and the monies not paid at the time, but borrowed more money, and by deed consirmed the mortgage for the surther sum. The baron died; his heir, an infant, decreed the seme to pay one-third, and the infant heir two-thirds. Chan. Rep. 218. 13 Car. 2. Rowell v. Walley.

3. A. promises to leave his wife 4001. if she will join in sale of her lands, and let him have the money to trade with. She joins, and six months after he gives bond to a stranger to pay his wife 300l. after his death; per Hale Ch. J. this bond is not fraudulent against creditors. 2 Lev. 148. Mich. 27 Car. 2. B. R. Clerk v. Nettleship.

his

pl. 40. Res-

4. Jointress paying off a mortgage was decreed to hold over till she or her executor be satisfied, and interest to be allowed her. Chan. Cases 271. Hill. 27 & 28 Car. 2. Cornish v. Mew.

- 5. A. and his wife seised of lands in the right of the wife by Van. 41. fine and deed, mortgages them for 340l. which was not paid at for v. Sathe day, but 2001. part was paid afterward, and then A. bor- cheverell, rowed other money of the same mortgagee. The payment of S. C. dethe 2001. was indersed on the mortgage deed. The wife, in cordingly. presence of A. made account of what was due on the first and second loan, for both, by agreement, were to be on security of [ 9] the mortgage. The wife died but no fine levied on the second loan, and therefore objected, that neither the wife's nor A.'s consent should bind the heir; but Finch C. contra; for the mortgagee has good title in law, and as much equity to the money as the heir has to the land. 2 Chan. Cases 98. Pasch. 34 Car. 2. Rauson v. Sacheverell.
- 6. Where the wife joined in a fine fur concessit of her jointure, A deed was being houses burnt down in the fire of London, in order to a made bemortgage or security to raise 1500l. to rebuild them, it is not an conssee and absolute departure with her interest; but there is a resulting trust the huband, for her when the security or mortgage is paid, to have her estate wherein the again, as if it had been a mortgage on condition, and the money venants to paid at the day. 2 Chan. Cases 98. Pasch. 34 Car. 2. Brond v. Brond, and ibid. 161. Hill. 35 & 36 Car. 2. Broad v. Broad.

tween the husband copay the mortgage money, vist 1500l. with interest, and the equity of resemption is limited to the husband and his heirs, but the wife is no party to the deed. The humand lays ont 30001. in building, and dies. Ld. Nottingham had decreed the redemption to the wife, and now North, keeper, of the same opinion; because she was no party to the deed, which was for 99 years if the hulband lived so long, and she being a jointress, there rests a reversion in her which naturally attracts the redemption; and had the cause come originally before him, he would have decreed it clear to the wife, the husband having covenanted to pay the money. Vern. 213. pl. 211. Hill. 35 & 36 Car. 2. S. C. by the name of Brend v. Brend. - This fine did not defroy her jointure, but only enured to a particular purpose to raise this term, and she shall have the rent, and it fail not be subject to the debts or charges made since her jointure, the levying thereof being upon an agreement, that she should have her jointure out of the reserved rent of the boules. Mich. 1 Jac. 2. B. R. Skin. 238. pl. 2. Anon. seems to be S. C. ____ Fin. Rep. 254. Brend v. Brend, is not the S. C.

- 7. The husband gave a voluntary bond after marriage to make a jointure of such value on his wife. The husband accordingly makes a jointure. The wife gives up the bond. The jointure is evicted. The jointure shall be made good out of the husband's personal estate, there being no creditors in the case, and the delivery up of the bond by a feme covert could no ways bind her interest. Vern. 427. pl. 402. Hill. 1686. Beard v. Nuthall.
- 8. A seme covert agrees to sell ber inheritance, so as she might. have 2001. of the money secured to her. The land is sold, and the money put out in a trustee's name accordingly; this money ihall shall not be liable to the busband's debts, nor shall any promise by the wife to that purpose, subsequent to the first original agreement, be obliging in that behalf. 2 Vern.64, 65. pl. 58. Trin. 1688. Rutland v. Molineux.

S. C. cited per Ld. C. Cowper. Wms's Rep. 265, 266. Mich. 1714. in cale of Tate v. Auftin.—MS. Tab. tit. Mortgage (D) cites 8 Jac. 1702. S.C.—S.C cited G. Equ. Rep. 68, 69. by Ld. Chancellor, Pasch. 9 Ann.

9. Feme joins with baron in a mortgage of her own inheritance to raise money to buy a place for the baron; baron covenants in the mortgage to pay the money (45001:) and on payment thereof by proviso the term is to cease. The mortgage is afterwards assigned, and the proviso is, that on payment by them, or either of them, the term to be affigued, as they or either of them shall dired. Baron, soon after the mortgage, promised his wife to apply the profits of his place to pay it off. Baron pays it off, and takes an assignment in trust for himself, and devised it to a second wife. The son and heir of the baron, and first wife, brings a bill to have the mortgage assigned to him. Denied relief in canc. but on payment of principal, interest, and costs. But in dom. procer. decreed the mortgage to be assigned to the heir. 2 Vern. R. 437. pl. 402. Pasch. 1702. Earl of Huntingdon v. Countess of Huntingdon.

10. Baron and feme mortgaged his wife's estate, and baron covenants to pay the money, but the equity of redemption was referved to them and their heirs. Baron died, and made J. S. executor; per cur. the baron having had the money is, in equity, the debtor, and the land is to be considered but as additional fecurity, and so decreed it according to the judgment in dom. proc. in the case of Ld. and Lady Huntington. 2 Vern. 604.

pl. 542. Hill. 1707. Pocock v. Lee.

In this case the husband by bis swill of his per-Sonal estate, and died

[70]

11. The wife joined with her husband in a fine to raise 400% to equip him as an officer of the army. The husband dies. Per gave several cur. this must be taken to be a debt due from the husband, and charities out to be paid out of his personal estate if he be able; but all other. debts shall be paid first. 2 Vern. 689. pl. 614. Mich. 1714. Tate v. Austin.

indebted by simple contract. The affets were not sufficient to pay all. Ld. C. Cowper held this mortgage to be a debt of the husband's, and that the wife, by consenting to charge the land with it, does not make it less his debt than it was before; but decreed, that all other debts should be preferred to this, and that this be preferred before legacies, though to a charity. Wms.'s Rep. Mich. 1714. S. C.

(Q) What Actions the Baron may have alone, without bis Feme, yet in the Right of his Feme.

[1. THE baron may have an action alone upon 5 R. 2. for entering into the land of the feme. 38 H. 6. 3. adjudged.] Br. Baron and Feme, pl. 57. cites S. C. for nothing is to be recovered but damages only. ----Br. Action for le Statute, pl. 17. cites 38 H. 6. 4. S. C. & S. P. accordingly; but Brooke says quere, whether he may upon the flatute of I H. 6. and fays, it seems that he may, because he shall recover nothing but damages in the one case nor in the other, and not any land, and therefore it is all one, as it seems. Thei. Dig. 30- lib. 2. cap. 5. f. 17. cites S. C. to which agrees the opinion of Paich. 4 E. 4. 14.

[2. He

[21 He shall have a quare impedit alone. 38 H. 6. 3. B. agreed. Br. Quare Contra * 28 H. 6. 8.] Impedit, pla 8. citts 5. C.

that in qua, imp. the plaintiff counted that A. was filled of the advewton as of the, and he took A. to wife, and the church voided, and he prefented in jure of A. and had iffue, and A. died, and the church voided again, and he presented; and per cur. because the second presentment is not alleged in jare axeris, therefore ill; whereupon he amended his count. Brook fays, quatre librums-Firsh. Quare Impedit, pl. 85. cites S. C. and judgment was prayed of the count, because he did not declare that he and his wife presented, but only that he in jure uxoris presented, whereas the prefentation ought to have been by both; for had she been alive, he ought to sue in both their names, and so was the opinion of the court, and thereupon be amended his count. But Fitzherbert says queere; for that it has been adjudged, that he shall have action alone, &c. -------Fitsh. Joinder en Action, pl. 13. cites S. C. fays, he ought to join the seme in the action, otherwise the writ is not good, and that lo was the opinion of the whole court.

The baron may have quare impedit without his seme; for it is in a manner personal. Be. Par-nour, &c. pl 24. cites 4 E. 4. 30.

In quare impedit the feme may join. Het. 144. Trin. 5 Car. C. B. per Hutton, and yet the avoidance goes on to the executors of the baron ---- Litt. 285. S. P. by Hutton. --- Roll. Rep. 359. pl. 11. Pasch. 14 Jac. B. R. per Coke Ch. J. They shall join in qua. imp. per tot. cur. Buld.

110. Paich. 9 ]2ê.

YoL. IV.

If a next avoidance be granted to baron and feme, the baron shall have action alone; per Hutton and Yelverton, (absentibus aliis) Lit. Rep. 13. Hill 2 Car. in C. B. obiter .- And see ibid. 375. Arg. -S.P. Br. Baron and Feme pl. 28. cites 50 E. 3. 13. because norbing is to be recovered but the presentment, and not the advowson; but per Holt, affile of darrein presentment shall be brought by both a for this is a mixed oftion, and the advervson shall be recovered; but in quare impedit, the presenta-is not party, and also it is aided by the statute of Westminster. Br. Quare Impedit, pl. 42. cites 50 E. 3. 13.

A writ of quare impedit was brought by the baron alone, where he had the advowlon in right of his feme, and adjudged a good writ. Thel. Dig. 29. lib. 2. cap. 5. s. 12. cites Trin. 50 E. 3. 13. and that so it was adjudged, Mich. 14 H. 4. 12. where it was said by Thirning, that they ought to join in wit of right of adozusca, and in affise of derrein presentment; and that the opinion of the court was, Trin. 28 H. 6. 9. that they ought to join in quare impedit also, and says, see 7 H. 7. 2. The husband alone may have quare impedit; per Dyer. Ow. 82. Pasch. 4 & 5 P. & M.

2 Bulft. 11. S. P. accordingly, per cur. Mich. 10 Jac.

[ 71 ] [3. So in trespass for taking charters of the inheritance of the † Br. Baron seme. + 38 H. 6. 4. ‡ 8 H. 5. 9. b. adjudged.] and Feme, pl. 57. cites 38 H. 6. 3.

1 Fitzh. Brief, pl. 890. cites S. C. the writ was awarded good, [b. 4. a. S. P. obiter.] though brought only by the barons ---- Thel. Dig. 29 lib. 2. f. 16. cites Hill. 8 H. 5. 9. and ibid. L. 17. cites 38 H. 6. 4. S. P. fo agreed by Fortescue. See (R) pl. 1. and the notes there.

[4. So in a writ of forger of false deeds of the inheritance of the Br. Baron and Feme, feme. 38 H. 6. 4. Dubitatur.] pl. 57. cites 38 H.

6. 3. but S. P. does not appear there, though in the Year-book, 38 H. 6. 4. a. in pl. 9e which begins in fol. 3. b. the S. P. is afferted and denied. - Thel. Dig. 30. lib. $. cap. 5. f. 18. cites S. C. that it was faid, that they shall join in writ of forger of false deeds.

[5. In all cases where the seme shall not have the thing when it is removed, neither alone to herself, nor jointly with her husband, but the baron only shall have it, there the baron alone, without his feme, shall have an action to recover it, as in the cases aforefaid.]

[6. The baron shall have trespass alone for a trespass upon the Trespass sie land of his feme. § 38 H. 6. 3. b. 7 Ed. 4. 6.]

well by the baron alonge of chafing in the chase which he has in right of his wife, without naming the wife; for nothing shall be recovered but damages, and the release of the baron is good bar. Br. Joinder in Action, pl. 7. cites 43 E. 3. 8. and concordat the same year, fol. 14. For the baron may release alone. Br. Joinder

the baron

im Action, pl. ... Their Dig. 29. lib. 2. cap. 5. f. 14. cites S. C. and fays that so it was adjudged the same year, sol. 16 and 26. de domo field & meremio inde capro, which he had in jure uxoris, that the action was well brought by the baron alone. —— Br. Baron and Feme, pl. 16. cites S. C. actordingly.

Action of trespass quare clausium fregit was brought by baron and seme, and Pollexsen Ch. J. held that the seme could not be joined, though it was her land. But Ventris J. e contra; for this action will survive, and they have election either to join or to bring it alone. Adjornatur. 2 Vent. 195.

Trin. 2 W & M. in C. B. Bright v. Addy.

Br. Beron and Feme, pl. 57. cites S. C. —— The feme shall not join, for damages shall be recovered in lieu of profits. Het. 114. by Yelverton, eites 4 E. 4. —— Litt. Rep 285. S. C. eited by Yelverton.—— In trespass they may sever: per cur. Bulst. 21. Pasch. 8 Jac. Anon.

Of trespass done in the land of the seme, the baron may have trespass alone; for if he releases, or recovers, and dies, the seme shall not have action. Per Finch. Br. Baron and Feme, pl. 22.

cites 47 E. g. 9. Br. Baron and Feme, pl. 50. cites 15 E. 4. 9. S. P.

Trespass may be brought by baron and some, that he broke the close of the some dum sola suit. Bro Baron and Feme, pl. 69. cites 21 H. 6. 30.——The baron may have trespass without his seme; for it is in a manner personal. Br. Parnor de Prosits, pl. 24. cites 4 E. 4. 30.——In trespass quare clausum fregie they ought to join, by the clear opinion of the whole court; so that it shall be intended here, that they are jointenants, and judgment accordingly. Bulst. 110. Pasch. 9 Jac. Maynard vo Tow.

And so he fail, where he and his wife had judged. Nota, this is a popular action.

[7. The baron alone may have a decies tantum for taking money in an affife brought by him and his wife. 40 Ed. 3.33. b. adbrought a judged. Nota, this is a popular action.

But otherwise.

Quod nota bene. Br. Joinder in Action, pl. 19. cites 7 H. 4. 2.—Br. Baron and Feme, pl. 30. cites S. C. & S. P. accordingly. — Thel. Dig. 29. lib. 2. cap. 5. 6. 11. cites Trin. 40 E. 3. 33. S. P. and says that such writ was abated, Pasch. 43 E. 3. 16. 35. which was brought by the baron and seme; and that writ brought by the baron alone was adjudged good. Mich. 7 H. 4. 2. Br. Baron and Feme, pl. 17. cites 43 E. 3. 16. S. P.

8. Where the baron himself demises the land for years, which he the baron and seme has in right of his seme, he may maintain action of waste without his seme; because his lesse cannot disable the estate of his lessor. Thel. Dig. 30. lib. 2. cap. 5. s. 31. cites 4 E. 3. It. Darby, the seme, Brief 747.

dlone may have writ of debt for the arrearages of the rent, &c. Thel. Dig. 30. lib. 2. cap. 5. 6. 25. cites Pasch. 7 E. 4. 6.

9. For a battery of the seme before the coverture, they shall both join in the action; but quære of a battery after the coverture. Br. Joinder in Action, pl. 54. cites 22 Ass. 87.]

rent, and suit of court in jure uxoris, may avon the taking of the distress for all those services, except homage, in his own name, without naming his sems, though he has no issue by her. Br. Distress, pl. 33. cites 27 Ass. 51.

Br Fetition,
11. Petition may be made by the baron alone, where he is in the pl. 17. cites
S. C. accordingly.

Sole, and they both may join if they will, but the fuit is good by Chattels, pl.

26. S. P.
and cites

11. Petition may be made by the baron alone, where he is in the
pl. 17. cites land by reason of a statute merchant made to his semie when she was cordingly.

Sole, and they both may join if they will, but the suit is good by chattels, pl.
ron may give or forfeit; quod nota.

Br. Joinder in Action, pl.
and cites

61. cites 37 Ass. 11.

S. C. and Says that therefore it is a chattel velted in the baron in jure proprio.

12. Upon a contract made by the baron and feme, they cannot join in action of debt, notwithstanding that it be for the land of the feme sole. Thel. Dig. 30. lib. 2. cap. 5. s. 43. cites Trin. 48 E. 3. 18.

13. In waste, if the baron and seme seised in jure uxoris lease for Br. Joinder years, the baron and feme ought to join in waste, for otherwise the writ shall abate. Br. Baron and Feme, pl. 31. cites 7 H. S. C. And 4. 15.

in Action, pl. 21. cites fo it scems, that during the life of the baron it shall be said the lease of both. .

14. The baron and feme may join in appeal of rape of the feme, for he cannot have it without the seme. Br. Baron and Feme, Dig. lib. 2. pl. 34. cites * 8 H. 4. 21. per cur. But see elsewhere the baron cap. 5. s. 28. brought the appeal alone. I H. 6. 1. II H. 4. 13. and 10 H. 4. Fitzh. Corone, 128.

They shall cites S. C. and fays it appears to by the opinion there. ---- Where a personal tort is done to the wife, the baron and seme ought to join in actions as for battery, &c. per Coke Ch. J. Roll. Rep. 360. in pl. 11. Pasch. 14 Jac. B. R.-S. P. accordingly, by Richardson Ch. J. because the seme shall have the action if she survive. Litt. Rep. 285. Trin. 5 Car. C. B.——He may have action alone for beating bis wife. 8 Mod. 26. Hill. 7 Geo. 1. Read v. Marshall.

15. Where the baron and feme had recovered damages in writ of cosinage, the baron alone without his feme was received to maintrin writ of debt for the damages. Thel. Dig. 30. lib. 2. cap. 5. L 22. cites Hill. 16 H. 6. Brief, 939.

16. The baron may have conspiracy and the like without his Case in nafeme, for it is in a manner personal. Br. Parnor de Prosits, tute of conpl. 24. cites 4 E. 4. 30.

brought by huiband and wife against J. S. for that he falfely and maliciously imposed upon them the crime of felony, and laboured to indict them; it was held that the action was not well brough because they cannot join to the tort done to the baron. But if it had been for conspiracy to indict the wife, they might join well enough, and three justices were of that opinion; but Crooke J. e contra. Jo. 440. pl. 7. Trin. 15 Car. B. R. -- Cro. C. 553. pl. 8. Dalby v. Dorthall, S. C. Berkley J. held that it was a several wrong, and therefore they could not join; but Crooke J. e contra, because it was grounded upon one intirerecord by which both were prejudiced, and they may join if they will, or the husband only may have the action for it, that he was damnified; wherefore cæteris absentibus, adjornatur. --- Mar. 47, pl. 75. Trin. 15 Car. Anon. S. P. and feems to be S. C. and Crooke J. was of opinion as above, but the whole court was against him.

17. Upon bailment made by them two before the coverture, they cannot join. Thel. Dig. 30. lib. 2. cap. 5. f. 26. cites Mich. 8 ·E. 4. 16.

18. Bill of attachment was brought by the warden of the Fleet, by name of J. N. warden of the Fleet, and it is good, netwithstanding he be warden in jure uxoris, &c. and his feme shall not be named with him in action personal; for when the court commands him to do his office, &c. they do not say warden of the Fleet in jure uxoris, but only warden of the Fleet. Br. Bille, pl. 16. cites 9 £ 4. 40.

[ 73 ]

19. Rescous was brought by the baron and seme, of rescous made Br. Joinder by the lord in right of his feme; and it was argued that the baron None ought to have the action, and awarded that the action is s. c. well brought in name of both; quod nota. And per Littleton, it S. P. by en Action, pl. 36. cites is Dyer, Pasch. 4 & 5P. is well brought also in the name of the baron only. Br. Barons & M. Ow. and Feme, pl. 50. cites 15 E. 4. 9.

Het. 160.

Arg. S. P.

the wife ought to join with the husband in the action; but if the obligation be took from the husband, he alone shall have the action for the obligation, because he may dispose of it. Litt. Rep. 375-Arg. cites 7 H. 7. [but I do not observe that point any where in that year.]

A Le. 88.

21. Baron brought an action for the battery of his wife, per pl. 187.

Pasch. 28

Pasch. 28

Cro. J. 502. pl. 11. says a precedent was shewn in 28 Eliz. B. R.

Cholmley v. Cholmley's case.

Conge, feems to be S. C. and is of an action brought by the husband of a battery done to the wife, and the plaintiff had judgment; but nothing is mentioned of the per quod negotia, &c. —— Cro. J. 502. pl. II. says that another precedent was cited to be in the exchaquer in Doyler's case, that such an action was adjudged good.

22. Where the feme is administratrix, the suit must be in both An action ph parou their names, and they shall be named administrators; for by the and feme intermarriage the husband hath authority to intermeddle with the against the goods as well as the wife; but in the declaration all the special defendant, for goods matter must be set forth; per Wray Ch. J. and so some said is the salsen out of Book of Entries, that both of them shall be named administrators. their pos-Godb. 40. pl. 44. Hill. 28 Eliz. B. R. Prideaux's case. session. The wife was administrative. Mr. Raymond moved in arrest of judgment, because having been in their possession, the wife should not be joined, and naming her executrix might have been lest out of the case; and cited a case 10 W. 3. where the wife was executrix, and the desendant promised the husband that if he would forbear, he would pay; and the wife was not joined in that case. Per Powell J. in the case of baron and seme, it is certain the law does give the goods of the wife to the husband, but not when she is administratrix, because she has them in autor droit, and the husband here cannot bring an action on the judgment. Judgment for the plaintist. 11 Mod. 177. pl. 2. Trin. 7 Ann. B. R. Thomson v. Pinchell.

be a replewin for those goods in may accrue to her as executrix in lieu of the goods. Went. Off. both their Ex. 207.

Went. Off. Executor, 207.

24. In battery the plaintiff declared, that on such a day the Brown! 205. Hugdefendant affaulted and beat his wife. This action was brought by gins v. the husband after the death of his wife, and it being a personal Butcher, wrong, is dead with the person; and if she had been living, the S. C. but feems only husband alone could not have the action, because damages must a transabe given for the tort offered to the body of his wife. tion of Yely. Quod fuit Yelv. 89. Trin. 4 Jac. B. R. Higgins v. -Noy 18. fuit concessum. Higgins's Butcher. · case, S. C.

& S. P. per cur. as to the action being gone; and by Tanfield, had she been living, she ought to have joined in the action. Where the wife dies of the battery, the baron cannot have action on * the case, because it is criminal, and of an higher nature. Freem. Rep. 224. pl. 231. Pasch. 1677. C. B. Smith v. Sykes. ----- And it was urged by Serj. Barrel, that if a man beats a feme covert, the husband and wife ought to join; and if the husband dies, it shall survive to the wife; but that the action shall not survive to the husband if the wife dies, and he cited 37 H. 6. 7. But curia advisage vult.

25. A feme sole had right of common for her life, and marries Litt. Rep. B. who being hindered in taking the common, brings action in his own name, without naming his wife. The court held the action C. B. Cofwell brought, it being only to recover damages. 2 Bulst. 14. Mich. trell v. 10 Jac. Baker's case.

284, 285. Trin. 5 Car. Moore, the huiband and wife joined in the action; and after verdict for the plaintiff it was moved in arrest, that they could not join in the action; and Richardson Ch. J. thought they could not join, because the wife could not have the damages if the survive; and Yelverton was of the same opinion. --- Het. 143. S.C. in totidem verbis.

26. The queen leased a house to C. who covenanted for himself Cro. J. 521. and his executors and assigns to repair, and leave the house repaired. Afterwards the queen granted the reversion to B. the plaintiff and B. R. the bis wife, and to the beirs of B. in fee; and for not repairing, B. alone brought covenant. Resolved, that the action being personal, and damages only recoverable, the busband may alone have the action, or join the wife with him. Cro. J. 399. pl. 6. Pasch. 14 Jac. B. R. Bret v. Cumberland.

pl. 5. Hill, 16 Jac. S, C. but S. P. does not appear. -Godb. 276. pl. 391. S. C. but S. P. does mot a pear. Poph. 195. S. C. but S P. does not appear. 3 Buift. 163. S. C. and the whole court were clear of opinion (except Haughton) that the action was well brought by the husband alone, and judgment accordingly. And by Coke Ch. J. and Doderidge, he might have joined her with him if he would. --- Roll. Rep. 359. pl. 11. S. C. fays it was held by Coke, Doderidge, and Haughton, that the husband alone may have the action without the wife; for what the baron alone may discharge or dispose of, he may alone recover without joining his wife in the action.

27. Trespass of assault, and wounding of the plaintiff, nec-non of 2 Roll. Rep. assaulting and beating the plaintiff's wife, per quod consortium uxoris suæ amisit for 3 days. Found against the defendant in both. It was moved, that the husband ought not to join the battery of his wife with the battery of himself; but resolved that the action was well brought; for it is not brought in respect of the harm done seme, and to the wife, but for the husband's particular loss, that he lost the company of his wife, which is only a damage to himself. Cro. J. plaintiff.

51. Guy v. Lufy, S. C. but reports it only as for a trespass done to the judgment for the

501. pl. 11. Mich. 16 Jac. B. R. Guy v. Livesey. 28. The husband brought an action, for that the defendant Cro. C. 89, made an affault on his wife, & illam verberavit, and her simul cum one gown, &c. abduxit, &c. & detinuit, &c. for five years, per quod consortium nec-non constitum & auxilium in rebus domesticis amist, quæ habere debuisset. The plaintiss had a verdict and 300l. damages; and upon error in the exchequer-chamber, it was objected that the action could not be maintained by the husband alone, for the wrong done to his wife; but all the justices and barons held, if it had been only brought for an injury done to her, the baron ought to join his wife with him; but here it was for a loss and injury done to the hulband, in depriving him of the company and  $\mathbf{G}$  3

90. pl. 12. Mich. 3 Car. in cam. fcac. Young v. Pridd, S. P. & 5. C. cited as adjudged, and affirmed in error, and foit was id this case by all the justices and this verdict and judg- which extends to all before, and therefore the judgment ment do not was affirmed. Cro. J. 538. Trin. 17 Jac. 1. B. R. Hide vertex to have an action after the death of her husband for the battery, or she may join with her husband in another action.——Action was brought by baron and seme for battery of the seme, per quod consortium amilie, and held good; and says that a like judgment was affirmed in the exchequer-chamber. Jo. 440. pl. 7-

E. 3. 11.

Trin. 15 Car. B. R. Anon.

* 29. Case was brought by baron and seme, for words spoke of the Baron alone thall have feme; and judgment was given in C. B. that the husband and action for wife should recover. This was assigned for error in B. R. because evords spoke the baron only is to have the damages, and the judgment ought to of the wife, where they be, that the husband alone should recover; but judgment was afare only acfirmed by the opinion of the whole court. Godb. 369. pl. 459. tionable in respect of Hill, 2 Car. B. R. Litfield v. Melherse. colleteral damages. Sid. 346. pl. 11. Mich. 19 Car. 2. B. R. Anon.—An action of flander was brought by baron and feme for everds spoken of the evife, per quod the bushand lost his trade; and it was held, that if the words would maintain an action without the special damage, then they should have judgment; but if the words were not actionable without the special damage, then it was ill; for the wife ought not to be joined. Cited by Holt Ch. J. as a case-which he remembered. 2 Ld. Raym. Rep. 1032. Hill. 2 Ann. in case of Russel v. Corne.—Gould J. said he remembered the same case. Ibid.

30. If an award be made, that 71. Shall be paid to feme covert, and 131. to the baron, the baron alone shall have action for all the money, because it is a thing which comes after the coverture; per Hutton & Yelverton J. absentibus aliis. Litt. Rep. 13. Hill. 2 Car. C. B.

31. Baron and feme brought debt, and recovered 2001. and 701. S. P. cited by Powell J. damages. The wife died. Upon praying execution for the hufto have band, the court inclined it should not survive, but that administrabeen adtion ought to be committed of it as a chose en action. But afterjudged, and seems to inwards they agreed that he might take execution; and that by the tend S. C. judgment it became his own debt, due to him in his own right, and he See 3 Lev. took out scire facias accordingly. Mod. 179. pl. 12. Pasch. 26 403. Mich. 6 W. & M. Car. 2. C. B. Miles's case. in C. B. in the case of Howell v. Maine.

S. P. per Hutten and Yelverton J.
The baron may have action alone, or may join

32. If a bond be given to baron and feme, the husband shall bring the action alone, and this shall be looked upon as a refusal as to her; per the chief justice, who said he remembered this as an authority in an old book. 2 Mod. 217. Pasch. 29 Car. 2. C. B.

with the feme. Litt. Rep. 13. Hill. 2 Car. C. B.——The baron may have action alone, per Coke Ch. J. to which Doderidge and Haughton agreed. Roll. Rep. 359. pl. 11.

33. Debt by the baron alone upon a bond to the feme during the due to the due to the wife, the arguments the whole court gave judgment for the plaintiff. 3 Lev. husband husband fue without joining the wife; per cur. Vern. 396. pl. 366. Pasch. 1636.——See (T) 48

34. Trover

34. Trover brought by the husband for money paid by the plain- Comp. 450. ziff's wife to the defendant, for land conveyed by the defendant to S. C. the plaintiff's wife by bargain and fale, without the husband's knowledge. And per Holt Ch. J. if articles of agreement are made by a feme covert, by order and appointment of her husband, and the money is paid by the wife in pursuance of such agreement; or if. the husband (though not privy at the time of the purchase) afterwards consents to it, the property of the money is altered, and the husband cannot maintain trover; but if he is not prive to such purchase, nor agrees to it, trover will lie for him against the vendor who receives his money of his wife. Ld. Raym. Rep. 224. Pasch. 9 W. 3. at Guildhall. Gabrand v. Allen.

35. Husband of seme executrix gives a new day to a debtor of The wife testator's. The debtor makes a new promise to the busband, the could not be husband may bring the action without joining the wife, but he this action, must aver the " life of the wife. I Salk. 117: pl. 8: Mich. 10 W. for the was 3. B. R. Yard v. Ellard.

joined in ... no party to

ment or contract between her hufband and defendant, and they would have been nonfuited it they had joined; for a promise to the husband is not a promise to husband and wife. Casth. 463. S. C. and as an authority in point was cited Yelv. 84. Lea v. Mimme --- 2 Mod 207. S. C. it is a special promise made to the husband, to whom the payment is only to be made, and the recovery on this promile must be only to him in his own right, which promise does not alter the debt; because it is not of 's higher nature, but is a fort of collateral security, and the money secondred on this promise is no part of the personal estate of the testator; for if the husband dies, his executor shall have execution thereof, but yet when it is recovered it is a devastavit in the husband, so far as he recovers.

[ 76 ]

36. If husband and wife jointly fue for debt due to wife before marriage; and husband dies, and wife continues the suit, the money, when recovered, shall not be affets to executors of husband; per Holt. 12 Mod. 346. Mich. 11 W. 3. Anon.

[In what Actions they] ought to join.

[1. BARON and feme must join in detinue for charters concern- Be Baron . ing the inheritance of the feme, (for the feme shall have them again when they are recovered) 38 H. 6. 4. agreed.]

and Feme, pl. $7. cics 38 H. 6. 35 S. C.——

See (Q) pl. 3. S. C.—Thel. Dig. 30. lib. 2. cap. 5. cites S. C.—Soof charters concerning their joint possessions. Br. Baron and Feme, pl. 74. cites 38 H. 6. 25. --- Upon trover the baron and feme shall join in detinue of charters belonging to both; but upon bailment of charters made by the baron alone, he alone shall have the action; note the diversity. Br. Baron and Feme, pl. 57. cites 38 H. 6. 25,

[2. In an avowry for rent in the right of the seme, they ought † 8.C. cited to join. + 15 Ed. 4. 10. + 4 H. 6. 14.] Rep. 375.-1 Br. Avowry, pl. 70. cites S. C. ____ See (S) pl. 2. S. C. ___ Fitzh. Avowry, pl. 8. cites S. C. -But where baron and feme seised in jure uxoris make lease for years, rendering rent, they may join in action of debt, or the baron may have debt alone if he will. Br. Joinder in Action, pl. 65. cites 7 E. 4.6. See tit. Avowry (N) pl. 1, 2, 3, 4. and the notes there.

[3. They ought to join in actions [for things] due to the seme For a debt due to the before coverture.] fcme.dum fols, the baron and feme must join in action. Mo. 422. pl. 584. Mich. 37 & 38 Eliz. in case of Fenner v. Piziket. The hulband alone brought debt on a bond made to the feme dum fola, and the court court held it ill; for if cause of action arise before coverture, though it be but trespass where damages only are recoverable, they must join. Keb. 440. pl. 32. Hull 14 & 15 Car. 2. B. R. Hardy v. Robinon.——Litt. Rep. 375. Arg. cites 7 H. 7. as to the obligation, and 22 R. 2. Brief, 933. as to trespass, accordingly.

4. Where the baron and feme lose by default the land toiled to the seme, they shall have the quod ei deforceat jointly, notwithstanding that the baron had nothing but in right of his seme. Thel. Dig. 30. lib. 2. cap. 5. s. 33. cites Hill. 5 E. 3, 175. and that so agrees Mich. 20 K. 3. 61. where she lost by default before the coverture. But says the contrary was adjudged 4 E. 3. 153. but contra logem.

5. Affife against several, one pleaded jointenancy with his seme by deed, &c. not named, to which the other said, that he who pleaded [77] jointenancy had nothing the day of the writ purchased, but another was tenant, which the other could not dony, and therefore the affise was awarded without making the seme party; quod nota.

Br. Jointenancy, pl. 32. cites 12 Aff. 37.

6. Where the baron and feme have the reversion to them, and to the heirs of the baron, they shall join in writ of waste. Thel. Dig.

30. lib. 2. cap. 5. s. 30. cites Hill. 17 E. 3. 17.

Bid. 6. 20.

8. Where the baron and feme leafe the land of the feme for years,

8. P. cites they ought to join in writ of waste. Thel, Dig. 30. lib, 2. cap. 5,

5. 3. 213.

6. 32. cites Hill. 7 H. 4. Brief 227,

14 H. 3.

Reief 382, 10 E. 3. 525. 18 E. 3. 54.

o. If fine is levied to feme covert, yet the and her baron ought to join in quid juris clamat; quod nota. Br. Baron and Feme,

pl. 67. cites 11 H. 4. 7.

Br. Coversure, pl. 61.

feme covert, without naming the baron, notwithstanding that the fine side pl. 76. was levied to her when she was sole; quod nota, Br. Coverture, cites S. C. pl. 16. cites 11 H. 4. 7.

Br.

Quid Juris clamat, pl. 23. cites S. C.

Br. Joinder 11. Affise of darrein presentment is not maintainable by the honen Action, pl. 94. cites 15. C. actrary of quare impedit. Br. Darrein Presentment, pl. 3. cites 14. 4. 12.

12. One who is warden of the Fleet in right of his feme shall have bill of trespass by the privilege of the place, without Thel. Dig. 30. lib. 2. cap. 5. f. 32. cites naming his feme.

Mich. 9 E. 4. 43.

13. Action egainst a seme covert who appeared to it, because she If a seme reveri be condid not know if her baron (being beyond sea) was alive or not, and demand was condemned upon plea. The baron came back; they shall have without ber writ of error, and shew the matter aforesaid, and it lies well; baron, both hall have by all the justices. Br. Error, pl. 173. cites 18 E. 4. 4. writ of error. Br. Baron and Feme, pl. 62. cites 18 E. 4. 3. This is misprinted, and should be

4. a. pl. 20. ---- It was agreed clearly, that if process be sued against seme covert as against seme fole, the cannot avoid it by writ of error, and cites 18 E. 4. 4. 24 E. 3. 24. Error, 10. 22 H. 6. 32.

17 Aft. 17. 5 E. 3. Per quie Servitiu 16. 20 or 21 E. 3. in Quid Juris clamat, fol. 10.

A feme covert brings a curit of error of a judgment against herself had during coverture, and the judgment was affirmed, because the might have pleaded it to the aftion; otherwise if the husband has joined in the writ of error. Cumb. 332. Trip. 7 W. 3. B. R. Strike v. Dikes.

14. And if she be outlawed, they shall join in writ of error, Br. Joinder otherwise it cannot be reversed, and if he will not join, this is a divorce of a shrew. Br. Error, pl. 173. cites 18 E. 4. 4.

S. C. 15. It was adjudged that baron and feme shall join in ejectione In ejectione Thel. Dig. 29. lib. 2. cap. 5. s. 13. cites Pasch. 21 E. firme the feme may 4. 35. which agrees with Pasch. 7 E. 4. 6. & Mich. 7 H. 7. 2. join. Het. in quare ejecit infra terminum. 44. Per Hitcham, Trin. 5 Car. C. B. ....Litt. Rep. 285. S. P. per Hitcham. ---- Roll. Rep. 359. Pasch. 14 Jaca Br. Coke Ch. J. the baron may have this action alone.

16. The baron and feme executrix to another, shall join in writ of [ 78 ] trespass of the goods of the testator taken during the coverture; per Thel. Dig. 30. lib. 2. cap. 5. f. 29. cites Pasch. 21 Littleton. E. 4. 5.

17. The baron shall not have action upon the flatute of 8 H. 6. Bendl. 29. of the title of the feme without naming her; for the words are place in expulit & disseisivit. Mo. 5. pl. 15. in a nota, cites it as resolved, S. P. ac-5 E. 6. Lane v. Andrews.

S. C. & cordingly,-----S. C.

in Action,

pl. 88, cites cited by Ventris J. 2 Vent. 195. Trin. 2 & 3 W. & M. in C. 3.

18. Writ of mesue shall be brought by the baron and seme, supposing that both were distrained, and yet seme has no property in chattels, but the action is real. Br. Coverture, pl. 65. cites F. N. B. in the additions there.

19. It was held by the court, that if a diffeisin be made upon the busband and wife, in the lands of the wife, that in an action brought for to recover the lands again, the husband and wife are to join, but in an action of trespass they may sever. Bulst. 21. Pasch. 8 Jac. Anon.

20. If a man promises to give 100l. to the wife of J. S. they ought, per curiam, to join in action for recovery of this. Bulft.

21. Pasch. 8 Jac. Anon.

21. If a leafe be made by busband and wife, of the land of the Isbaron and wife, rendering rent, in an action for rent behind, they are both of feme make them to join; per Fleming Ch. J. Yelverton J. said, that in the ferving ront, lait

the baron alone shall have the action for the rent arrear; per Hutton & Yelverton J. abfentibus last case they need to join, and so is Markam's opinion in/7 E. 4. fol. 7. b. that in fuch a case where the husband alone brings the action for rent behind, it was never questioned, but that this action by the husband alone was well brought, but where the same hath been brought in both their names, it has been questioned, whether this was good or not. Bulft. 21. Pasch & Jac. Anon.

aliis. Litt. Rep. 13. Hill. 2 Car. C. B .- Of a sent running in the wife's right after marriage, the need not join in fuit Chan. Cafes 41. Trin. 14 Car. 2. oblter, in cafe of Clerk v. Lord Angier. —— N. Chan. Rep. 78. Clerk v. Lord Anglescy, S. C. & S. P.

Roll. Rep. 360. pl. 11. S. P. ac. S. C.

22. Action of waste in tenuit brought in the right of the wife, must be brought by both, yet he recovers only damages; per combingly in Haughton J. but per Coke and Doderidge, this is because it favours of the realty, and the locum vastatum is there also to be recovered, and therefore they are to join. 3 Bulst. 165. Pasch. 14 Jac.

Roll. Rep. 359. pl. 11. S. P. by Coke Ch. J. in S. C.

23. That which the husband may discharge alone, and of which be may make disposition to his own use, he may have an action in his own name for the recovery thereof, without joining his wife with him; per Doderidge J. to which Coke Ch. J. agreed, and said it was a true and a good ground. 3 Bulit. 164. Paich. 14 Jac.

24. A bill preferred without the privity of her husband, al-So where lowed. Toth. 158. cites Mich. 14 Jac. Lady St. John v. Englethe baron rvas beyond field. Jea. Toth.

159. cites 31 and 32 Eliz. Farewell v. Curson-Ibid. 160. cites 11 Car. Portman v. Popham.

Litt. Rep. 374. Trin. 6 Car. C.B. the S. C. and adjorna-Gn.

25. Advowson descended to B. an infant, and her mother prefented to an avoidance. The clerk was instituted and inducted. B. afterwards came to full age and married D. the plaintiff, and the church became void again; and the bailiffs, &c. of D. without any title, presented W. and the church being so full, D. the husband alone brought quare impedit. The court agreed that the husband in this case might have presented, and then upon [ 79 ] disturbance he only should have action; but in this case the church was full before the presentation; sed adjornatur, 159. Hill. 5 Car. C. B. Wollaston Dixy v. the Bailiss, &c. of Derby.

26. A seme covert cannot sue unless there be a severance, Toth, 161. cites Tr. 15 Car. Roe v. Lady Newburgh.

13

27. In affumpfit by J. S. again B. on a promise to him by B. that if he would marry E. his daughter, he would give her as much as he gave to any other of his children except J. Though this pro mise was before the marriage, yet Hide J. doubted if J. S. and E. ought not to join in this action. Sid. 25. pl. 6. Hill. 12 Car. 2. C. B. Shipston v. Booler.

Chan. Cafes Ld. Angier, 3 July, 14

28. A legacy was devised to a feme then under coverture, the huf-41 Clark v. band exhibited his bill without his wife, and upon demurrer held not good; for of things merely in action belonging to a wife, as a bond, &c. she must be joined. N. Ch. R. 78. Mich. 13 Car. 2. Car. 2. Clerk v. Ld. Anglesey. tidem verbis.

but adds, that if the husband alone should sue the bond and be nonfuited or dismissed, that will not conelude the case; but if he dies before judgment or decree, the wife cannot revive the suit. ——2 Freem. Rep. 160. pl. 207. S. C. in totidem verbis.

29. If cause of action arises to the seme before coverture, though it be but trespass, in which damages only are recoverable, the baron and feme must join; per cur. obiter. Keb. 440. pl. 32. Hill. 14 and 15 Car. 2. B. R. in case of Hardy v. Robinson.

30. Where the action, if not discharged, shall survive to the wife, in such case the baron and seme must both join: 2 Mod. 269. Mich. 1677. Mich. 29 Car. 2, C. B. Frosdick v. Sterling.

Freem, Rep. 236. pl 247. S. C. & S. P. by North Ch. J.

31. By the rules of the spiritual court a seme covert may sue And per alone in every one of the following cases, viz. when she is Farker Ch. executrix or administratrix, or legatee or legatory, on defaming or fon of the defamed; per Dr. Pinfold. 10 Mod. 64. Mich. 10 Ann. B. R. difference in case of D'Aeth and Baux.

between the common law and the civil law is this, that in the spiritual court though the husband be not named, he may come in pro interesse suo, and make defence himself, should the wife desert the cause. 10 Mod. 264. Mich. I Geo. I. B. R. in case of Clerk and Lee.

32. Cases of coverture are not to be extended to the queen; for Co. Lin. the is of that dignity in law, that the may fue in her own name; for the has a separate property distinct from the king her. husband, and the subject may have remedy against her without applying to the king; for he being employed about the ardua regni, is not to be interrupted by any thing that does not immediately relate to himself. G. Hist. of C. B. 198, 199.

(S) * May. [Ought to join.]

Fol. 348.

[1. PARON and seme assign auditors to the receiver of the sense before coverture, and he is found in arrears, they ought to belong to join in debt thereupon; for the debt was before coverture, and is the title only put in certain by the auditors. 15 Ed. 4.9.]

The pleas here in Roll belong to of (R) and should be

[In what cases they ought to join.] --- Gould B. 160. pl. 91. Arg. cites 16 E. 4. S. S. P. and so it mould be, viz. Mich. 16 E. 4. 8. a. b. pl. 4. and the book of 15 E. 4. 9. is upon a rescous brought by baron and feme; and the mistake in Roll, as to citing 15 E. 4. may in some measure be owing to the Year-book in + pag. 8. of 16 E. 4. being misprinted 15 E. 4. Baron and Feme, pl. 60. cites 16 E. 4. 8. S. P. L. married a feme, to whom monies were owing dum fola. L. and the debtor came to account for the money, and being found in arrear, promised L. to pay him the money due at a certain day, and for non-payment L. brought an indebitatus assumplit on account. Per Glyn Ch. I. the nature of the debt is not changed by the account, no more than the accounting with an executor; but a special promise may alter the debt. Here is a promise made to L. the husband, and he has brought the action as if the defendant was indebted to him, yet he is not indebted to him generally, but sub modo, viz. in jure uxoris. And he said that there is another point in the case, and he conceived that here is cause of action; but whether it be applicable to make it a special debt, is the question. But this matter being moved on a writ of error, and the writ of error being naught, the writ was ordered to be qualled. Sty. 482, 473. Mich. 1655. B. R. Conye T. Laws. †[80]  Br. Avowry, [2. If a rent be due to a feme before coverture, as tenant in the pl. 70. cites dower, she and her husband ought to join in an avowry. 4 H. cordingly, 6. 14.].

the rent due after coverture; and the same law of a conviance by the bailiff.——Fitzh. Avowry, pl. 6. cites S. C.——See (R) pl. 2. S. C.——A. seised in see granted a rent-charge to M. his daughter. The rent being arrear, M. married P. and asterwards P. distrained, and avowed for the sent so arrear, supposing in the avowry that the same was arrear, and not paid to the said P. and his wife. It was moved that it was ill, because it appears it cannot be due to P. but only to M. durn sola suit; but held to be only matter of form and surplusage; and though he does not say adhuc a retre existit, it is well enough in substance; and judgment affirmed. Cro. J. 282. pl. 3. Trin. 9. Jac.

B.R. Bowles v. Poor.

3. Where a man is seised in jure uxoris in a seigniory of homage, fealty, escuage, rent, and suit of court, and has no issue by his seme, yet he may distrain for all the services, unless for homage. Br. Avowry, pl. 85. cites 27 Ass. 51.

4. Where trespass is brought against baron and seme, and the plaintiff recovers, the baron alone shall not have attaint; for it shall be brought according to the record. Br. Baron and Feme, pl. 22.

cites 47 E. 3. 9. per Tank. & Finch.

5. Ravishment of ward may be brought by baron and seme, per judicium; for it is a chattel real, which the seme may have by survivorship, and not the executors of the baron. Contra of chattel personal. Br. Ravishment, pl. 15. cites 14 H. 4. 24.

6. If an action accrues before marriage, as where a bond is made to her before marriage, she shall join with her husband in an action upon the bond; but if a right to an action doth accrue after marriage, there she shall not join. Arg. Ow. 82. Pasch. 4 & 5 P. & M. in C. B.

7. Debt was brought by the husband alone for debt, damages, and costs recovered by him and his wife now living, and because the wife was not joined in this action the desendant demurred; but adjudged for the plaintiff without argument, that the action well lay. Cro. E. 844. pl. 28. Trin. 43 Eliz. in cam. scacc. Butler v. Delt.

Cro. J. 205.
pl. 10. Hill.
5 Jac. S. C. and judgment was affirmed.—
S. C. cited
Sid. 25.
pl. 6. by the Ch. J. as adjudged that the action ought

8. Assumpsit by husband and wise, on a promise to the wise after the coverture, that in consideration the wise would cure him of such a wound, he would pay her 10 l. After judgment for the plaintists, error was brought, and assigned that the husband alone should have brought the action, it being a personal duty accrued during the coverture; sed non allocatur, it being grounded on a promise to the wise, and on a matter arising on her skill, and to be performed by her, and so she is the cause of the action, and shall survive to the seme, and judgment affirmed. Cro. J. 77. pl. 7. Trin. 3 Jac. B. R. Brashford v. Buckingham.

brought by both. 2 Sid. 128. Hill. 1658. Newdigate J. said he remembered a case where the same point was adjudged accordingly. But where the action is on a general indeb. ass. on a promise implied in law, as for periwig-maker's work done by the wise, the law here implies no promise to the wise; for she is a servant to the baron, who is at the charge of materials to carry on the work, and so the law implies the promise only to him. Carth. 251. Mich. 4 W. & M. in B. R. Buckley & Ux. v. Collier. 4 Mod. 156. S. C. the court held the declaration not good, the action being brought for a personal thing, which would not survive; and in personal actions the law is clear that they cannot join 3 Salk. 63. pl. 3. S. C. that she ought not to be joined in this action with her husband, unless an express promise had been made to her to pay the money.—I Salk. 114. pl. 2. S. C.

* [ 81 ]

". and the plaintiff relied principally upon Burchut's case; but per cur. Burchet's case differs; for there was an express purpose to the wife, and to that the busband assented by bringing an action thereupon, whereas here is nothing but a promise in law, and that must be to the husband, who must have the fruits of his wife's labour, for which he may have a quantum meruit; and the advantage of her work shall not furvive to the wife, but goes to the executors of the husband; for if she dies, her debts fall. upon him, and therefore so shall the profits of her trade to his executors; and judgment for the defendant.

9. Trespass by husband and wife for beating the wife, and taking bis goods. It was found for the plaintiff as to the beating, and for the defendant as to the residue. It was moved in arrest of judgment, that the action was not well brought quoad the goods, and that the severance by the verdict did not cure it; and judgment was stayed, no one appearing on the other side. Lev. 3 Mich. taking from 12 Car. 2. B. R. Talbot v. Bacon.

Trespase brought by. the husband. and wife, for the bath tery of the wife, and ber an aprin and pinner.

It was moved in arrest, that it is not alleged in whom the property was; for it cannot be in the wife, and it may be in a stranger, and then the husband hath no cause of action; and if they were the goods of the hulband, then the wife ought not to be joined in the action, but the hulband is to bring the action alone; and so it was held per cur. and the judgment stayed. 2 Lev. 20. Mich. 23 Car. 2. B. R. Dunwell & Ux. v. Marshai. _____ Keb. 813. pl. 18. S. C. and judgment stayed per curunless there had been several pleas, or several damages.

They cannot join in trespals for buttery of the wife, and taking the baron's goids; and notwithstanding the words of the Register, 105, are express as words can make a case, yet the opinion of the whole court was according to the constant tenor of the more modern authorities, that they cannot Show. 345. Hill. 3 W. & M. Meacock v. Farmer. —— Comb. 144. Mich. 3 W. & M. in B. R. in case of Baker v. Barber, the Register, 150. was cited to the same purpose; but the court held that it was not law.

Trespass was brought by the baron alone for breaking bis bouse, and beating and counding bis wife, and imprisoning of ber for 3 bours; and also for detaining the possession of the house, and for menacing his wife and servants, per quod negotia sua insecta remanserunt. Cited by Gould J. 2 Ld. Raym. Rep. 1032. as a case in B. R. Pasch. 7 W. 3. who said that he moved in arrest of judgment, that for some of these wrongs, as the beating and imprisoning the wife, the wife ought to be joined; but judgment was given for the plaintiff by Eyre and Rokeby, dubitante Holt; for they held that the per quod went through the whole count.

Action by baron for entering his bouse, taking away his goods, and heating his wife. It was urged that beating the wife was laid only to aggravate damages, and the court seemed to be of that opinion.

8 Mod. 342. Hill. 11 Geo. 1. Read v. Marshall.

- 10. In trover and conversion by husband and wife, the trover is supposed to be before the marriage, and the conversion after. Hyde Ch. J. and Keeling were of opinion, that the action ought to be brought by the husband alone, because it is the conversion which is the cause of action, and this is subsequent to the marriage; but Windham and Twisden J. held clearly that it was well brought; for the difference is between actions which affirm a property, as replevin, detinue, &c. for such ought to be brought in the name of the baron only, and actions which disaffirm property, as trespals, trover, &c. for those ought to be brought in both their names, because they are founded upon the tort done before the coverture. Sid. 172. pl. 2. Hill. 15 & 16 Car. 2. B. R. Powes & Ux. v. Marshall.
- 11. Assumptit by the husband, in which he declared that the defendant being indebted to his wife dum sola, she being an executrix, he promised to pay, &c. and farther declared upon an insimul computatiet with himself, and promised, &c. After verdict it was moved that the wife ought to be joined, because the debt was due to the feme dum sola. The judgment was stayed, because in all cases, so long as the first contract or specialty made to the quife dum fola continues, she must be joined; for if she dies, the husband cannot sue for it, but as administrator to her. Sid. 59. pl. 4. Mich. 18 Car. 2. B. R. Tirrell v. Bennett.

fola

Preem.Rep.
236.pl.247.
S. C. jdgment was dayed till moved by the other fide.

* 12. Case, &c. by the husband alone, in which he declared, that he and in the right of his wife was seised of a messuage and a bakehouse, and that the desendant had built an bouse of office so near the bakehouse, that the walls of his bouse was ruinous, and the air so unwholesome, that he lost his customers. It was moved in arrest of judgment, that the wise ought to join in this action; for where she may maintain an action, if she survive her husband, for a tort done in his life-time, and where she may also recover damages, in such cases she must join. Per curiam, where the action, if not discharged, will survive to her, she must join; but if she had joined in the principal case, it would have been hard to have maintained the action, because intire damages were given; but for losing the custom to his bakehouse he alone ought to bring the action. 2 Mod. 269. Mich. 29 Car. 2. C. B. Frosdike v. Sterling.

(T) In what Actions they may join.

Br. Baron [1.W] HERE the feme, after the death of the baron, is to have and Feme, the action to punish the tort done in the life of the husband,
pl. 50. cites
15 E. 4. 9.
there the baron and feme may join. 15 Ed. 4. 10.]
S. C.—See the case of Frosdike v. Sterling at (R)

Br. Baron [2. Baron and seme may join in a writ of rescous, where the and seme, baron claims the seigniory in the right of the seme. 15 Ed. 4. 9. b. adjudged.]

Br. Joinder en Action, pl. 36. cites S. C.——See [Q] pl. 8.

Br. Baron [3. If a stranger cuts trees upon the land of the seme, they may and Feme, join. 15 Ed. 4. 9. b.]

S. C. but S. P. does not fully appear as to the cutting of trees, but only says trespass on the land of the feme.—Br. Joinder en Action, pl. 36. cites S. C. accordingly.—Br. Baron and Fem., pl. 41. cites 14 H. 4. 12. and mentions cutting trees expressly.

A writ of trespass of trees cut and land dug brought by the baron alone where he had the land in sight of his seme was abated. Thel. Dig. 29. lib. 2. cap. 5. s. 75. cites Pasch. 21 R. 2. Brief, 933. but says the opinion of Hussey, Mich. 7 H. 7. 2. was, that in such case they may join in trespass of trees cut.——S. C. cited Litt. Rep. 375. that she ought to join, because the trees, and so of houses pulled down upon the land of the seme, are pareel of the inheritance; but for cutting or spoiling grass, which is but a temporary profit, the baron alone shall have the action.

[4. They may join in an action upon 5 R. 2. for the land of the feme, admitted. 8 Ed. 4. 2. b.]

Cro.C. 503.
pl. 4. S. C.
but S. P.
does not appear.
Ibid. 505.
pl. 7. S. C.
at S. P. held

[5. If A. by indenture conveys land to B. in fee, and covenants with him, his heirs, and assigns, to make any other assurance thereof upon request for the better settling thereof upon B. bis beirs, and assigns, and after B. conveys it to G. in fee, who conveys to D. and bis wife, and the beirs of D. and after D. requires A. to make another assurance, according to the covenant, and he refuses

it,

it, the baron along, without his feme, cannot have an action of accordingly covenant against A. as assignee of B. because he and his wife are assignees, and therefore ought to join in the action. P. 14 Car. B. R. between MIDDLEMORE AND GOODALE, per curiam, adjudged upon a demurrer. Intratur, H. 12 Car. Rot. 228.]

by all the court, abfente Bram. fton, and judgment for the defendant. — 70.406.

pl. 4. S. C. & S. P. refolved accordingly.

6. Where distress was taken upon the land, which the baron held [ 83 ] in right of his feme, a writ of replevin was maintained brought by the baron and the feme, notwithstanding that the chattels belong to the baron alone. Thel. Dig. 29. lib. 2. cap. 5. f. 2. cites Hill. 2 E. 2. Replevin 42.

7. But a writ of trespass was abated trespass done to the baron and feme, because the seme cannot recover damages for the trespass done to the baron. Thel. Dig. 29. lib. 2. cap. 5. s. 4. cites 3 E.

3. It. North. Brief, 737.

E

8. Præcipe quod reddat against baron and seme; he made default, Br. Joinder and [she] was received, and pleaded, and lost by verdict; the baton and feme joined in attaint, and well, notwithstanding his default, s. c. and that he was not party to the issue. Br. Coverture, pl. 36. cites 16 Aff. 5.

9. Writ of trespals was maintained by the baron and seme of the eldest son of the seme taken and carried away. Thel. Dig. 29. lib. 2. cap. 5. s. 7. cites Mich. 30 E. 3. Brief, 300.

10. Baron and seme shall not join in replevin, because the feme S. P. Br. cannot have property in goods during coverture; quere of goods which she has as executrix; for there it seems that they shall Br. Baron and Feme, pl. 85: cites 33 E. 3. and Fitzh. and Fitzh. Replegiare 43.

Replevin, pl. 56. cites 11 E. 2. Return de Avers,pi.3f.

....The baron and feme shall join in replevin of goods of the feme taken dam sole fuit. Br. Baron and Feme, pl. 85. cites Fitzh. Recaption 31.

11. If feme tenant by statute-merchaut is ousted, after which see takes baron, the baron alone may have the suit, and they may join if they will; for the thing is only a chattel real, which the baron alone may give or forfeit. Br. Baron and Feme, pl. 59. cites 39 Aif. 11.

12. Baron and feme may have debt upon an obligation made For being to them, and may join in action. Br. Dette, pl. 224. cites 43 E. 3. 10.

made during coverture, the cannot dilagree to it during the coverture. Br. Agreement, pl. 7. cites S. C. and 3 H. 6. 37. Fitzh. Brief 19. accordingly. ____ They may join. Br. Baron and Feme, pl. 55. cites 39 E. 3. 5.

A writ of debt was adjudged good, brought by baron and feme, upon an obligation made to them two during the coverture. Thel. Dig. 30, lib. 2, cap. 5. f. 21. cites Mich. 12 R. 2. Brief 639. And that fo agrees Hill. 43 E. 3. 10. and Hill. 39 E. 2. 6. and 3 H. 6. 23. 37. and Mich. 16 E. 4. 8. but ibid. f. 22. fays the contrary is held by Finch, 48 E. 3. 12.——Per cur, they may well join in the action, by which the defendant was awarded to answer; and per Babb, the baron alone might have brought the action if he would. Quere inde. Br. Baron and Feme, pl. 2. cites 3 H. 6. 37. --- Br. Baron and Ferne, pl. 50. cites 15 E. 4. 9. by Piggot.

12. Where nothing is to be recovered but damages, the baron alone As decits tentum Wil shall have the action. Br. Baron and Feme, pl. 17. by Brooke. brought by the baron and feme, and because the feme was named, the writ was abated; quod nota. Br. Baron and Feme, pl. 17. cites 43 E. 3. 16

So where a lease was made to bushand and wife of an antient mill, where the inhabitants of such houses nied to grind their corn, and for not grinding they brought an action against them, it seems by a note of the reporter, at the end of the case, that he thought the action would not sie, being brought by the husband and wife both, and being only to recover damages, and not for the term. Hob. 189. pl. 233. Tring 14 Jac. Harbin v. Green.

14. It was adjudged, that champerty brought by the baron alone The baron may have upon assiste which passed against him and his seme is good. Thel. Dig. maintenance 29. lib. 2. cap. 5. s. o. cites Mich. 47 E. 3.9. and 47 Ass. 5. and without his feme; for it that it was said, that it should be good the one way or the other. is in a man-Hill. 3 H. 4. 10. And it was held Mich. 20 H. 6. 1. that they ner personal. may join in writ of maintenance done in bill of fresh force be-Br. Parner de Profite, tween the baron and feme and another. pl. 24 cites feme furviving shall have the term if the baron dies without demissing it. ---- Thel. Dig. 30. lib. 2. cap. 5. f. 19. cites S. C. but fays it was held, Mich. 2 H. 4. 6. that one who holds a manor in right of his feme, should have writ of covenant for non-performance of divine service in the manor, &c., alone without naming his feme.

4 E. 4. 30, -----Br. Baron and Feme, pl. 50. cites 15 E. 4. 9. S. P.

[ 84 ] 18. Covenant was brought by baron and feme, and counted Br. Baron and Feme, that the defendant leased to them for years, and after ousted them, &c. pl. 23. cites and this awarded to be well brought, for if the baron die, the S. C. & feme shall have the term. Br. Covenant, pl. 10. cites 47 E. S. P ac. cordingly, and that the 3. 12.

Sec [Q] Howell v. Maine.

16. If obligation be made to Alice, feme of R. D. it is good, and the baron may release it, and both may have action, and if the baron dies the feme shall have the action if the baron has not releafed. Br. Baron and Feme, pl. 24. cites 48 E. 3. 12. per Belknap.

Br. Dette, S. C,

It was held that the. beron alone

17. Baron and feme fold the land of the feme for 201. and levied a Pl. 198. cites fine accordingly, and yet, per Wich, the action of debt shall be brought by the baron alone, for it is his grant alone, and if he dies his executor shall have action and not the feme; quære, for Finch was absent, and the reporter agreed with Wich. Br. Baron and Feme, pl. 25. cites 48 E. 3. 18.

18. Writ of ravishment of ward was maintained for the baron alone, who had ward in right of his feme, &c. Thel. Dig. 29. lib. 2. cap. 5. s. 7. cites Trin. 48 E. 3 20.

Without his 19. And a writ of ravishment of ward was maintained for the feme should baron and feme, where the ward was granted to them two. not have Writ of ra-Dig. 29. lib. 2. cap. 5. f. 7. cites Hill. 14 H. 4. 24.

vistament of word as guardian in socage, where he has the ward by reason of his seme. Thel. Dig. 29. lib. 2. cap. 3. 1. 8. cites Hill. 7 R. 2. Brief, 634.

The baron and feme shall join in writ of intrusion of word. Thel. Dig. 29. lib. 2. cap. 5. L. 8.

eites Mich. 22 R. 2. Brief, 937.

The baron alone brought ravifoment of ward, for a ward he had in right of his feme, and the writ was held good; but there it is faid, that otherwife it is in right of ward; but it is faid there (quarte); and at last it was agreed that the action should be allowed, but the lurest way is to have both join-Ow. 83. cites 43 E. 1. Statham.

20. Where the release of the baron is a good plea, such actions As tresmay be brought by the * baron only, and may be brought by pals of cutthe baron and feme also. Br. Baron and Feme, pl. 28. cites 50 trees, cha-E. 3. 13.

ting bis fing in his warten, breaking his house and the like. Br. Baron and Feme, pl. 64. cites 43 E. 3. 8. 16.

21. Writ of trespass was maintained by the baron alone, where the tenure was of bim and of his feme. Thel. Dig. 29. lib. 2. cap. 5. s. 6. cites Hill. 6 R. 2. Brief, 633. And that such writ was adjudged good brought by both. Mich. 15 E. 4. 9.

22. Baron and feme were diffeised and + robbed, and both join in + The goods assife, though the goods of the baron were carried away, and both recovered the land and damages, yet the baron recovered were carried for the goods carried away alone. Br. Joinder in Action, pl. 98. cites 11 H. 4. 16.

upon the premifes away by the disseisor, 7 H. 6. 16.

b. S. C. cited by Westbury J. and Cheine Ch. J. to the same intent. --- Fitch. Judgment, pl. 70. cites S. C. ____Br. Judgment, pl. 20. cites S. C. ____Br. Damages, pl. 51. cites S. C. ___ 2 .nst. 236. cites same cases, and says it is worthy of observation. ——Show. 346. cites S. P. and intends the S. C. but is much misprinted.

23. Waste by the baron and seme of a lease made by them during Br. Waste, the coverture. Eller demanded judgment of the writ, because feme covert cannot make a lease; and yet because she may re- and says that ceive the rent after the death of the baton, and make avowry and distrain, &c. therefore the best opinion was, that the writ cause the lies well; for it shall be said the ‡ lease of the baron and seme till baron alone the baron be dead; for the feme cannot agree nor disagree in the brought the Isfe of the baron. Br. Baron and Feme, pl. 4. cites 3 H. 6. did not *5*3· pl. 120. cites S. C. anno 7 H. 4. 15. be-'action, and name the feme, therefore the writ was abated, quod nota.

I [ 85 ] 24. Maintenance was brought by the baron and feme, upon fresh Br. Baron and Feme, force of land which was de jure uxoris, and therefore the feme pl. 15 cites may join by the best opinion, by which the defendant passed S. C. over, but not by any award. Br. Baron and Feme, pl. 6. cites Br. Joinder in Action, pl. 3. cites ....It was held, that where the baron and feme had brought action of debt, that they might join in maintenance where the judgment was to answer as to the writ. Thel. Dig. 29. lib. 2, cap. 5. 1. 10. cites Trus. 7.2.4. 15.

25. Baron and feme shall not have a writ of trespass of the goods of the feme taken before the marriage, and of the goods of the baron taken after; per Newton. Thel. Dig. 107. lib. 10. cap. 15. f. 24. cites Hill. 21 H. 6. 33.

20 H. 6. 1.

26. In trespass by baron and seme, of battery done to them both, after verdict found that both were beaten, the writ abated as to the battery of the baron, and for the battery of the feme they cites S.C. recovered their damages. Thel. Dig. 238. lib. 16. cap. 10. £ 53. cites Hill. 9 E. 4. 54.

Thel. Dig. 29. lib. 2. cap. 5. f. 5. and that fo it appears, 22 Ast. 60 & 87. that the buron and feme may join in trespass of the battery of the seme. - Thel. Dig. 107. lib. 10. Vol. IV.

cap. 15. s. 24. cites S. C. The damages were severally taxed, and adjudged good as to the battery of the feme, but not of the baron.

The husband and wife could not join in an action of trespass for beating them both; but if the verdict finds the defendant guilty as so beating the wife, but as to the husband, not guilty, this cures the mistake. 2 Vent. 29. Pasch. 28 Car. 2. C. B. Hocket v. Stegold. _____ 2 Mod. 66. Hocket v. Stid-dolph, S. C. held accordingly.

They may join in action of affault and battery of the wife; 11 Mod. 264. pl. 3. Hill. 8 Ann B. R. Todd & Ux. v. Redford. - S. P. Br. Trespass, pl. 170. cites 9 E. 4. 51. but not for battery of the baron. Br. Baron and Feme, pl. 54. cites 9 E. 4. 52. S. C. but the baron of this shall have action alone; and because not, therefore the writ was abased for this part; quod nota. ____Br. Brief, pl. 448. cites 9 E. 4. 51. S. C. - Br. Damages, pl. 85. cites S. C.

But per Powell J. they cannot join in such action for beating both, but it may be helped by verdit separating the damages. 11 Mod. 265. in case of Todd & Ux. v. Redford. _____S. P. Br. Trespass, pl. 190. cites 9 E. 4. 51 S. P. Br. Damages, pl. 85. cites 9 E. 4. 51.

27. Where the feme after the death of the baron may have action, As where an obligation is there they may join; quod nota. Br. Baron and Feme, pl. 50. made to baron and feme, cites 15 E. 4. 9. per Brooke. both may have action, and the baron alone may have action. Br. Baron and Feme, pl. 50, cites 15 E. 4.9. -So of trispass upon the land of the feme, maintenance, and the like. Ibid.

28. Debt by baron and feme of arrears of account, and accounted that the defendant was receiver to the feme, when she was fole, to render account, and that the baron and feme assigned auditors after the espousals, and was found in arrear; &c. and the joining of the baron and feme good by the opinion of the court; for the cause of action commenced by the feme, and the assignment of the auditors is pursuant and arising by the feme. Br. Baron and Feme, pl. 60. cites 16 E. 4. 8.

29. A writ of trespass of false imprisonment was maintained for the baron and feme, of the imprisonment of the feme, &c. Thel. Dig. 29. lib. 2. cap. 5. s. cites Mich. 6 E. 3. 276. and that fo agrees Hill. 43 E. 3. 3. and by the baron alone, 22 E. 4. 44

30. The baron and feme joined in detinue of goods bailed by the feme before the coverture. Thel. Dig. 30. lib. 2. cap. 5. s. 26.

cites Mich. 21 H. 7. 29.

31. B. the wife of A. gave to C. 10 l. in consideration that C. [ 86 ] should marry her daughter. C. promises the wife that if he did not marry the daughter, be would repay the 101. C. did not. marry the daughter. A. and B. brought action against C. and held good; for the agreement of A. makes the promise good to A. ab initio, and it being made to the wife, they may join in the action. Cro. E. 61. pl. 4. Mich. 29 & 30 Eliz. B. R. Pratt v. Taylor.

32. The books agree, that for personal things they cannot join; but for personal things in action, it is in the husband's election to join the wife or not; per Gawdy, and judgment accordingly. Cro. E. 133. pl. 10. Pasch. 31 Eliz. B. R. Arundel v. Short.

33. If the husband is seised or possessed of a rectory in right of S. C. cited Cro. E. his wife, or in jointure with him, they may join in an action for not 60% pl. 9. setting out tythes. Adjudged and affirmed in error. Moor 912. and all the pl. 1289. Hill. 34 Eliz. B. R. Wentworth v. Crispe. juttices were of the fame opinion.

34. Husband and wife, seised of a house and lands in right of A lease was the wife, made a lease thereof for 21 years, and the lessee covenanted for himself, his executors, &c. to build a brick-wall upon part of the lands. The lessee afterwards assigned his term to B. who asfigned it to C. and the husband and wife joined in an action against the assignee of the assignee of the lessee, for not building Admitted per cur. that the action was well brought pair. The by both. 5 Rep. 16. Pasch. 35 Eliz. B. R. Spencer's case, alias Spencer v. Clark.

made by bushand and wife, in which the leffee cowenanted with them to rehuiband zione brought covenant, qued

teneat ei conventionem, according to the form, &c. of a certain indenture made between him on the one part, and the defendant on the other part. After verdict it was moved in arrest of judgment, because of this variance; but the plaintiff had judgment; for the indenture being by both, it is therefore true that it was made by the husband, and he may refuse quoad her, and bring the action alone. 2 Mod. 217. Pasch. 29 Car. 2. C.B. Beaver v. Lane.

- 35. In trover and conversion of a deed of a rent-charge, granted to the wife dum fola fuit, and that the decd came to the hands of the defendant after the coverture. It was faid by the court, that the action was well brought by them two; for the action shall survive; for otherwise a grand inconvenience would ensue to the wife; for if the husband only should recover, and after die, his executors would have execution for the damages, and not the wife; and judgment was given accordingly. Noy 70. 39 Eliz. C. B. Russel and his wife's case.
- 36. Baron and feme cannot bring trover, and suppose the posfession in them both; for the law, in point of ownership, transfers all the interest to the baron; per tot. cur. Yelv. 166. Mich. 7 Jac. B. R. in case of Draper v. Fulks.
- 37. In false imprisonment, resolved if an action be brought 2 Bulft. 80. against a widow, who is found guilty, and before judgment she takes husband, the capias shall be awarded against her, and not against her husband; and for such imprisonment of the wife upon the Biownland. capias, the action will not lie for the husband. Resolved per Cro. J. 323. pl. 1. Trin. 11 Jac. B. R. Doyley v. tot. cur. White.
- 38. A. seised in fee, and made a lease for years to W. the defendant, and afterwards conveyed the reversion to N. the plaintiff and his wife in fce. W. attorned, the lease expired, and the husband alone brought debt for rent arrear. Haughton J. at first thought the action ought to be brought by both, notwithstanding the term to be well was ended; and faid it hath been agreed that if the term had continuance, he ought to have joined her with him; but afterwards he thought the action well brought, and that there is no to say (as difference where they are assignees of the reversion, and where they are lessors, as to bringing debt for the * rent; and his suing alone, in this case, is not in regard of his estate with his wife, but of the thing to be recovered by him, viz. the rent, which he only is to have; and all the other judges held the action well brought, and judgment for the plaintiff. 2 Bulst. 233, 234. Trin. 12 Jac. Nooth v. Wyard.

S. C. adjudged accordingly. 220. S. Ca adjudged.

[ 87 ] Roll. Rep. 52. pl. 23. Nooth v. Viatt, S. C. and the action held brought; and the court seemed the reporter fays he understood them) that the baron might have action alone, though the lease had been con-tinoing; whereas in this case the term was ended; and though it was objected that he named himself affignee, and that it appears that he and his wife were affignees, yet per cur, the plaintiff shall reco-H3 ver; for this is only surplusage, and so it was adjudged.——But 2 Bulst. 234. Doderidge said, that if he had brought the action as assignee, by an assignment made to him alone, whereas the reversion was assigned to him and his wife jointly, it had not been good; but the action being brought gerally by him alone, is good, and he ought not to shew himself to be assignee.

39. J. S. and his feme brought trover and conversion, and counted S. C. cited by Coke Ch. that they were the goods of the feme dum sola, and that she lost J. 2 Buitt. them, and the defendant found them; and afterwards they inter-204. RCmatried, and then the defendant converted them. cordingly.----S. P. and against the plaintists, because, notwithstanding the trover of after a verthe defendant, the property continued in the feme; and then by dict for the the intermarriage the property was in the baron, and then the plaintiff it was objected, baron ought to have brought the action alone, without his feme. that trover Cited by Coke Ch. J. Roll. Rep. 45. Trin. 12 Jac. B. R. as Shutbeing laid before the tleworth's case. marriage,

40. Case by husband and wife, for presenting them in the spiri-€10. J. 355. pl- 11tual court, upon oath, for making hay on Midsummer-day in time of Weald v. divine service, which was false. The defendant justified that they Peale, seems to be S. C. did make hay on that day, &c. The issue was found for the The preplaintiff. It was moved that the husband and wife cannot join in fentment this action; for the false oath against the husband could not be so was for making hay against the wife; but Coke Ch. J. said that here it is well enough; on a Sunday. but he doubted whether any action lies for this at common law. The court Curia advisare vult. Roll. Rep. 108. pl. 48. Mich. 12 Jacdoubted whether the B. R. Anon. action was maintainable, and therefore it was adjourned.

Z Roll. Rep. 41. Trespals of assault and battery of the plaintiff nec non of as-51. Guy v. Lusy, S. C. saulting and beating the plaintiff's wife, per quod consortium amist uxoris suæ for 3 days. After verdict for the plaintiff as to both adjudged points, it was moved in arrest of judgment, that the husband for the plaintiff. ought not to join the battery of his wife with that done to him-Hulband and self, but ought to join her in this action; because the battery wife cannot join in being done to her, she ought to have the damages if she survive aGault and the husband; but per tot. cur. the action is well brought by the battery, per hasband alone; for it is not only for the harm done to his wife, quod confort um amisit; but for his particular loss of her company for 3 days, which is only for the per a damage and loss to himself; and judgment for the plaintiff. quod, in fuch Cro. J. 501. pl. 11. Mich. 16 Jac. B. R. Guy v. Livesey. eafe, is the the gift of the action; per Powell J. 11 Mod. 265. Hill. S Ann. B. R. in case of Dodd v. Redfords.

Action by the baron alone, for battery of the seme per quod consortium amisst, was held goods and a like judgment was affirmed in the exchequer-chamber. Jo. 440. pl. 7. Trin. 15 Car. B. R. Anon.

42. Affumpfit by baron and feme. The defendant received of a Roll. Rep. the plaintiff's money by the bands of the plaintiff's wife. The defendant promised unto them to pay it at such a day, and alleged the Ibid. 250. breach for non-payment, ad damnum eorum. After verdict it S. C. adwas moved that the promife was woid, being for monies of the judged that husband and wife, and cannot be ad damnum eorum. It was did not lie answered, that it may for monies due to the wife dum fola, &c. for both; but it was held, that it shall not be so intended, unless it had plaintiff's been shewn; and judgment for the desendant. Cro. J. 644. counsel prayed that pl. 6. Mich. 20 Jac. B. R. Abbot v. Blofield.

be entered, in order to bring a new action, and declare better; for he faid that the truth was, that the promise was made to the wife during coverture; and so it seemed to Doderidge J. that the action might then be brought against both.

43. Baron and feme brought escape, whereas the baron alone arrested the prisoner with a latitat, which he took out in his own name only; and now in the declaration on the escape, he declares that he took out the latitat ea intentione to charge the prisoner on a bond made to the feme dum sola; and held good by 3 justices, absente the other. 2 Roll. Rep. 312. Pasch. 21 Jac. B. R. Anon.

44. Where the life is not concerned, as where feme commits a trespass, the baron and seme must be joined; but where it concerns life, as in case of felony done by the seme, the appeal shall be against the seme only. Jenk. 28. pl. 53.

45. The busband covenanted to stand seised, &c. to the use of him - Jo. 375. felf and bis wife for their lives, for her jointure, and after to his son pl. 3. Treand heir, excepting the timber trees, saving that his wife shall have the strowds and loppings, and died, and the widow married again. The son and beir of the first busband cut down five oaks, and the second busband and his wife brought case against him, setting forth, that they lost the benefit of the loppings. After verdict it was moved, among other things, that the action is brought by the husband and wife, whereas it ought to be brought by the husband alone, by Glyn Ch. because the wrong was done to his possession, and he alone J. 2 Sid. might have released the damages; but adjudged well brought by both; for he having the land in right of his wife, she may join Ventris J. with him in the fuit for the damages, and she shall have the da- 2 Vent. 195. mages and the action also if she survive her husband. Cro. Car. 437, 438. pl. 7. Hill. 11 Car. B. R. Treigmiell v. Reeves.

gonel v. Rives, S. C. and adjudged that the action was well brought by the baron only.— S. C. cited 128. -S. C. cited by 2 Mod.270. Arg. S. C. cited, and fays, that though the wrong was done to his possession, and he might have released, yet because there was also a wrong to the inheritance, they ought both to join. _____4 Mod. 156. S. P. cited, and seems to intend S. C. that they may both join, and seems to be admitted by the court.

46. A. promised B. the wife of C. that if B. would procure See tit. Ac-C. to levy a fine of such lands, that he would give the wife a riding suit. Roll Ch. J. said it was adjudged that the baroh and seme (Z) pl. 12. cannot join in an action for breach of this promise. Sty. 298. Mich. 1651. in the case of Cotterel v. Theobalds.

47. A. promised B. that if B. would marry M., A's sister, that he would make good a legacy given to M. by her father's will, and would also give to her 40 l. at her age of 18. This promise H 3 Waş tions (U) pl. 19. and Fawcet v. Child e contra.

was made to B. and for B.'s benefit, and the fole confideration arises from B.'s marrying M. and so the action ought to be brought by B. only. Sty. 297. Mich. 1651. B. R. Cottrel v. Theobalds.

48. A. in consideration of his daughter's diet, and being taught needle-work by the wife, and of a bond to be entered into by the bushand to J. S. promises to give them so much; they may join. 2 Sid.

138. Hill. 1658. B. R. Fountain v. Smith.

[ 89 ] 49. A man and his wife, who kept a victualling-house, joined Keb. 733. in an action against the defendant, for saying to her, thou art a pl. 10. S. C. but S. P. bared to thine own daughter, per quod J. S. who used to come to the does not ... bouse, forbore, &c. ud damnum ipsorum. After a verdict for the appear.--plaintiff, the judgment was stayed, because the words were now Ibid. 791.pl. 47. S. C. & actionable but in respect of the special loss, which is to the huf-S. P. held band only. Lev. 140. Mich. 16 Car. 2. B. R. Coleman & Ux. accordingly, v. Harecourt. and per Hyde, tho' it be found that they both kept the house, yet the wife does it only as servant, and the interest is only his; to which Twisden agreed, and judgment was stayed.

So faying of an inn-keeper's wife, that she was a whore, &c. and had a bastard by T. per quod he lost his custom, ad damnum inforum, was not good; for they should not join in the per quod, and yes, the words Leing actionable in themselves, they might join in the action; and judgment was stayed. 2 Keb. 387. pl. 63. Trin. 20 Car. 2. B. R. Harwood v. Hardwick.

For words not actionable in themselves, but only in respect of cullateral damages, being spoke of the wife, the baron must bring action alone, and if the wife be joined with him, the judgment will be arrested for it, though after verdict. Sid. 346. pl. 11. Mich. 19 Car. 2. B. R. Anon-

In action for words by baron and feme, after verdict it was moved in arrest of judgment, that the conclution was ad dan prim ip, orum, and 3 justices held the conclution of the count to be well, which Wythens J. denied; for he faid, it an inn-keeper's wife be called a cheat, and the house loses the trade, the husband has an injury by the words spoke of his wife, but the declaration must not conclude ad dampnum ipsorum. 3 Mod. 120. Hill. 2 & 3 Jac. 2. B. R. Baldwin v. Flower.

The action 50. In actions for torts that will survive to the wife after the in the prindeath of the baron, the wife thall be joined, and in no other case; cipal case per Twisden J. Sid 224. pl. 14. Mich. 16 Car. 2. B. R. Stanton was for batecry of the v. Høbart. feme, and traring ber coat, and was laid ad damnum ipsorum, and therefore judgment was staid. Sid. 224. Staunton v. Hobart.

> 51. In action of battery by the husband and wife for imprisonment of the wife till he had paid 10% exception was taken that the husband and wife could not join; sed non allocatur; and judgment for the plaintiff. 2 Keb. 230. pl. 4. Trin. 19 Car. 2. B. R. Brown v. Tripe.

3ty. 9. Helliar's cafe, S. C. jtidg. ment was arrested till the other fide thould thew cause to the contrary.

52. Case by husband and wife against an executor, upon a promise by his teltator after coverture, in consideration of the marriage had at his request, to pay 81. per annum to the wife during the coverture. After a verdict it was moved, that it should have been brought by the husband alone, because the whole benefit is to him, the promise being made since the marriage. Judgment was stayed, but on moving it again it was adjudged, that it is in the election of the husband to bring the action in his own name, or to join his wife. Allen 36, 37. Hill. 23 Car. B. R. Hilliard v. Hambridge.

53. Trover

- 53. Trover was brought by baron and feme of 100 load of wood of the feme, and the conversion was laid after the marriage. It was moved, that she ought not to have joined with her husband in the action. But the court held, that in regard the trover was laid to be before the marriage, which was the inception of the cause of action, she might be joined; and Hale said, the husband might bring the action alone, or jointly with his wife; and the plaintiff had judgment. Vent. 260. Trin. 26 Car. 2. B. R. Batmore v. Graves.
- 54. It was held by Saunders Ch. J. that baron and feme ought not to join in trespais for an affault on the seme, if the same were with her consent; for where they join the action survives. Now here, if the husband dies, the wife cannot proceed, or begin de novo with this action, because it was with her own consent, and in such case therefore the husband may, and ought to bring the action alone upon his special case; for though the wife confent, that will not excuse the defendant, for she hath not potestatem corporis sui; and Holt said, that the very last assises the Ld. Ch. Baron over-ruled him in that very exception, and so said [ 90 ] ferjeant Jefferies, that the Ld. Hale had done; but the Ld. Ch. J. Vaughan did allow it, and always held they could not join. 2 Show. 255. pl. 262. Hill. 34 & 35 Car. 2. B. R. Rogers & Ux. v. Goddard.
- 55. Judgment in C. B. in trespass by husband and wife for taking away their goods was reversed, because the wife ought not to join. 7 Mod. 105. Mich. 1 Annæ B. R. Wittingham v. Broderick.
- 56. Case by husband and wife for maliciously indicting the wife of a rist; the husband counted that his wife was of good reputation, and that this was with intent to lessen it, and that he was put to great charge. The court held it no scandal to be guilty of a trespass, and as to the other, they inclined, that the hulband alone ought to have brought the action, because he alone could be put to the charges; but they delivered no positive opinion. 7 Mod. 104. Mich. 1 Ann. B. R. Harwood v. Parrot.
- 57. The plaintiffs brought an action of affault and battery for a battery committed on them both; judgment by default, and a writ of inquiry was executed the 17th of May 1705, and intire damages. viz. 71. 10s. was given; and on the return of the writ of inquiry, judgment was arrested, because the wife cannot be joined in an action with the husband for a battery on the husband. 2 Ld. Raym. Rep. 1208. Mich. 4 Ann. Newton & Ux. v. Hatter.
- 58. Feme covert fued fingly upon the statute of distributions, and a prohibition was moved for, because it was a property so vested in the husband that he might release it; but the court denied it, because this was a chose en action which shall survive to the wife, and the joining of the husband would be only for conformity; and that though the spiritual court ought to conform their proceedings to the rules of the common law, yet that is in matters of substance, and not of form, as this most certainly was. 10 Mod-

63. Mich. 10 Ann. B. R. D'aeth and Baux.

59. Husband and wife join in action for money lent by him and his wife by his consent; per cur. the wife ought not to be joined unless there had been an express promise made to her, or unless the cause of action did arise on her skill or knowledge. 8 Mod. 199. Mich. 10 Geo. 1. King v. Basingham.

- (T. 2) Actions, &c. commenced by or against Feme Sole, who marries pending the Action, &c.
- 1. IF one of the demandants takes baron pending the writ, it shall abate for all. Thel. Dig. 185. lib. 12. cap. 12. s. 2. cites Mich. 9 E. 3. 470, and 29 E. 3. 22. Contrary it was adjudged Mich. 12 E. 3. Brief 258.

And so it shall be if it was after the severance; per cur. Thel. Dig. 185.

2. In scire facias by 2 parceners, the one was summoned and servered, and the tenant said that she who was severed took baron pending the writ, and before the severance, by which all the writ abateur. Thel. Dig. 185. lib. 12. cap. 12. st. 2. cites Pasch. 32 E. 3. Brief 292.

lib. 12. cap. 12. s. 2. cites Pasch. 32 E. 3. Brief 292. ——But it was adjudged, that if one of the demandants who is severed takes baron after the less continuance, the writ shall not abate. Thel. Dig. 185. lib. 12. cap. 12. s. 2. cites Trin. 39 E. 3. 21. but adds quære.

[91] 3. Writ shall not abate by the taking of baron after verdict in pais, and before the day in bank, and judgment, Thel. Dig. 185. lib. 12. cap. 12. s. cites Mich. 4 H. 4. 1.

4. But Gascoign said that it has been a great question, if a seme appellant who takes baron after judgment, and before execution, may pray execution. Thel. Dig. 185. lib. 12. cap. 12. s. 6. cites Hill. 11 H. 4. 48. but says that Hussey and Brian were clearly of opinion that she might demand execution in such case, notwithstanding the espousals. Mich. 21 E. 4. 87.

Br. Ley

5. Feme covert, who was sole the day of the writ purchased, Gager, pl. waged ber law of non-summons in formedon, without the baron. Br. 32.cites S.C. Coverture, pl. 18. cites 12 H. 4. 24.

of. If it be pleaded, that the feme plaintiff has taken baron pending, &c. she may say that this baron is now dead, or that divorce is made, and that she is now sole. Thel. Dig. 185. lib. 12. cap. 12. f. 7. cites 9 H. 5. 1.

Thel. Dig. 7. If a feme is contracted to a man, and brings action, and pend-185. lib. 12. ing it she is compelled by the spiritual court to marry him, yet her cap. 12. st. 4. writ shall abate. Br. Brief, pl. 158. cites 7 H. 6. 14, 15. per and Mich. Straunge.

4H. 4. 55. 8. Feme executrix made a letter of attorney to the plaintiff, to whom the testator was indebted, to recover and receive a debt due by A. to the testator, and then marries; this is not any countermand or revocation of the suit, and the writ is not abated, but only

1 Le. 168. pl. 235. Mich. 30 & 31 Eliz. C. B. only abateable. Lee v. Madox.

9. If a feme fole brings trespass, and recovers, and a writ of enquiry of damages is awarded, and before the return thereof the plaintiff takes busband, and after the writ, and judgment given thereupon, without any exceptions taken by the defendant, he shall not have advantage of this in a writ of error, because the writ was only abateable by plea. Roll. Abr. tit. Error, (M. b) pl. 2. Mich. 40, 41 Eliz. B. R. between Smyth and Odyham, adjudged.

10. Feme, pending the writ against her, takes husband. This doth not abate the writ; but the recovery against her upon the first writ is good. Agreed. But by Doderidge J. if after the original process sued and before the return she takes husband, this shall abate Quære. 2 Roll. Rep. 53. Mich. 16 Jac. B. R. in the writ.

Heydon and Miller's case.

11. After imparlance it was pleaded in bar, that the plaintiff took busband; on which issue was taken by the plaintiff, to which the defendant demurred; and by Twisden, that is the best way; for if it had been tried, it had been peremptory, but now only respondeas ouster, which was agreed, Hyde absente. Keb. 632. pl. 118. . Mich. 15 Car. 2. B. R. Phillips v. Taylor.

12. If feme sole, plaintiff, takes husband, it must be pleaded 5. P. for after the last continuance; for otherwise the defendant depends on his first plea, and waives the benefit of this new matter. G. Hist. takes is at-the huband which the tached with the action, and therefore must plead in time; for she cannot by her own act destroy another man's action, neither can the hutband, unless he comes in time; for the action was well commenced. G. Hist of C. B. 199.

C. B. 84.

13. If an action be brought in an inferior court against a feme 11 Mod. fole, and pending the fuit she intermarries, and afterwards removes the cause by habeas corpus, and the plaintiff declares against her as a feme fole, she may plead coverture at the time of the suing the habeas corpus, because the proceedings are here de novo, and the court takes no notice of what was precedent to the habeas corpus; but upon motion, on the return of the habeas corpus, the court will grant a procedendo; for though this be a writ of right, yet where it is to abate a rightful suit, the * court may refuse it, and the bail below, to this suit, which by this contrivance he is ousted the equity of, and possibly by the same means of the debt. G. Hist. of it was ad-C. B. 198.

142. pl. 14. Etheringten v. Reynolds, S. C. The court was inclined to give judgment for the defendant; but as an indulgence for of the cause, journed to Hill. term next. ____ 1 Salk. 8. pl. 20. Mich. 6 Ann. B. R. Hethrington v. Reynolds, S. C. ruled acsordingly.

*[92]

- Actions, &c. by Baron and Feme de Facto, or one of them, in respect of the other.
- 7. T was said and held, that in cui in vita, or other action to be brought of the feme's own possession, it is no plea to say, ne unque que accouple, &c. and he shall demand simul cum viro suo, who is her baron in fact, and in possession. Thel. Dig. 119. lib. 11. cap.

2. f. 11. cites Mich. 50 E. 3. 19.

2. Where the statute of 6 R. 2. cap. 6. is where a woman is ravished, the kusband, &c. of such woman shall have the suit, &c. this is strict; and shall be intended the baron in possession, though there be good cause of divorce; for he is her husband till divorce be had. Br. Parliament. pl. 89. cites 11 H. 4. 14.

3. Contra where the marriage is void, for there he is not her huf-band, and therefore there ne unques accouple in lawful matrimony is no plea by the best opinion. Ibid.

4. Contra in appeal by seme of the death of her husband, or in dote petita, for those are by the common law. Ibid.

(T. 4) Of Judgments confessed by or to Feme Sole, who marries before Entry of them.

fole, who married before judgment entered, whether it could now be entered, and how, was the question. It was agreed it could not be entered for the husband, for that is beyond the authority given. The course is to make affidavit of the debts not being satisfied, and now the wife could not make such affidavit; for the money might have been paid to the husband, nor could the husband's assistance; but it seems the point may be cleared by a several assistance; but it seems the point may be cleared by a several assistance; but it seems the point may be cleared by a several assistance of each in his time; and Holt said they had better enter it in the wise's name as seme sole, but nothing was done. 12 Mod. 383. Pasch. 12 W. 3. Reynolds v. Davis.

[93] (U) Actions against Baron and Feme. What may be against both.

[1. ] F a trover and conversion of goods be brought against baron See tit. and feme, in which it is supposed that they found the goods, Actions (L) pl. 7. S. C. and converted them to their own use; this is not good, for presently and the by the conversion of the seme, it is to the use of the baron, and notes there. not to the use of the seme. Tr. 8 Car. B. R. between * REAMES † Cro. J. 661. pl. 11. AND HUMPHRYS, adjudged in arrest of judgment. Berry v. Ne-Hill. 7 Car. Rot. 1202. and then was cited one + Neves's case, yis in cam. where such a judgment was reversed in camera scaccarii for this scacc. Hill. 2 1 liz S.C. error. and judgment in B. R. reversed, but says it was shewn that this judgment in B. R. passed sub silentio after verdict without exception.—Jo. 16. pl. 2. S. C. and judgment reversed.—Palm. 343. Berry v. Nevis,

S. C. and judgment reversed. See tit. Actions (L) pl. 7. S. C. and the notes there.

If feme covert takes my sheep and eats them, or other goods and converts them, trover lies against the baron and seme, and I may suppose the conversion in the seme only, viz. the tort, though they cannot bring trover, and suppose the conversion in both, quod suit concessum per tot. cur. Yelv. 166. Mich. 7 Jac. B. R. In case of Draper'v. Fulks. —— Mar. 60. pl. 94. Mich. 15 Car. in case of Hodges v. Simpson, it was said by Jones J. that there may be a conversion by the wife to her own use, as in the principal case there, where the trover was of barley, if she bakes it into bread and eats it berself; and Bramston Ch. J. said, that a wife has a capacity to take to her own use; for there must necessarily be a property in her before the husband can take by gift in law, and therefore as to this point the case was adjourned. — Jo. 443. pl. 4. S. C. adjudged for the plaintiff. — The laying the conversion ad usum inforum, though naughty, is made good by the verdict. Mar. 82. pl. 134. Pasch. 17 Car. Anon.

An action of trover is brought against baron and seme, for a conversion during the coverture by the wife. And it was faid by the court, that it was good; for by Jones J. although a feme covert cannot make a contract for goods, nor be charged for them, yet the may convert them, &c. Noy. 79. Newman v. Cheney. Lat. 126. Paich. 2 Car. S. C. Whitlock J. accorded. Crew Ch. J. spoke doubtfully, and Doderidge affented.

2. Writ of trespass lies against baron and seme. Thel. Dig. 45.

lib. 5. cap. 4. f. 9. cites Hill. 12 E. 3. Brief 670.

3. Writ of mesne against baron and seme, supposing that the plaintiff held of them in right of his feme, and so supposing the baron and feme to be mesnes, and not the seme, &c. and held good. Thel. Dig. 116. lib. 10. cap. 26. f. 17. cites Mich. 13 E. 3. Brief 642. & 13 R. 2.

4. A writ upon the statute of labourers was maintained against the baron and teme, upon retainer of a servant made by the baron and 116. lib. 10. feme. Thel. Dig. 45. lib. 5. cap. 4. f. 15. cites Pasch. 29 E.

3• 35•

5. A man shall not have action of debt against the baron and feme, upon contract made by them. Thel. Dig. 45. lib. 5. cap. 4. s. 12. cites Hill. 34 E. 3. Brief 923. & Pasch. 2 H. 4. 19.

6. Detinue of 101. of flax against baron and feme, and counted of bailment to both to rebail, &c. to the damage of five marks, and because it is the detinue of the baron only, therefore the writ was Br. Detinue de Biens, pl. 22. cites 38 E. 3. 1.

7. Writ of detinue does not lie upon a bailment made to the baron and feme. Thel. * Dig. 45. lib. 5. cap. 4. f. 10. cites Hill. 38

E. 3. 1.

But where the bailment was to the first baron, and the coming to the bands of the feme as executrix, the writ ought to be brought against her and her second baron jaintly. Thel. Dig. 45. lib. 5. cap. 4. s. 10. cites Trin. 39 E. 3. 22.

Thel. Dig.

cap.26.f.12. cites S. C.

8. It was held, that writ of conspiracy does not lie against baron Nor against and feme and a third person, supposing that they conspired, &c. Thel. * Dig. 116. lib. 10. cap. 26. s. 13. cites Hill. 38 E. 3. 3. Dig. 45. but fays that Morris durst not demur thereupon. Pasch. 40 E. lib. 5. cap. 3. 19.

9. If writings are bailed to a feme sole, and she takes baron, the *[94] action is well brought against both, and shall not be compelled to bring it against the baron alone. Br. Charters de Terre, pl. 38. cites 39 E. 3. 17.

10. It was adjudged that writ of covenant does not lie against baron and feme, upon covenant made by them, by deed indented. Thel.

Dig. 45. lib. 5. cap. 4. f. 18. cites Mich. 45 E. 3. 11.

11. A man shall not have action upon obligation made by them Thel. Dig. 45. lib. 5. cap. 4. s. 12. cites Hill. 8 R. 2. Brief 930. and Hill. 43 E. 3. 10.

12. Writ of detinue does not lie against baron and seme, upon coming to their possession by trover. Thel, Dig. 45. lib. 5. cap. 4. L 10. cites Mich. 13 R. 2. Brief 644.

baron and feme. Thel. 4. f. 16. cites

13. If

13. If a man recovers by affife against a seme sole, and after she takes baron, he shall not have redisseifin against the baron and seme. Thel. Dig. 45. lib. 5. cap. 4. s. cites Mich. 9 H. 4. 5.

14. Writ of trespass done by the seme before the marriage, and writ of account of receipt made by her before the marriage, lies against the baron and feme. Thel. Dig. 45. lib. 5. cap. 4. s. 24. cites

Mich. 4 E. 4. 26.

15. Debt lies of the rent upon a lease made to the baron and seme, and lies against both; so of waste; for she cannot waive the lease during the life of her baron. Br. Dette, pl. 217. cites 17 E.

4. 7. 16. Debt against husband and wife for 31. 18s. and counted S. C. judg- for 39s. upon a contract of the wife dum sola, and for 39s. more upon an infimul computasset with the husband. Upon nil debet it was found for the plaintiff, but judgment was stayed. Hob. 184. pl.

221. Revel v. Gray.

17. In case for words brought against husband and wife; the jury found the husband guilty, and the wife not. The court held the declaration ill; for this cannot be a joint speaking by husband and wife, and therefore they ought not to be joined in this action; and there ought to be several judgments and damages if you recover, viz. one against the husband, and another against the wife; but here it is helped by the verdict, and the judgment in effect is but against one of the defendants, and fo judgment was given for the plaintiff. Sty. 349. Mich. 1652. B. R. Burchard v. Orchard.

18. Case was brought against husband and wife, for retaining a servant who departed without licence. At the end of the case is a nota, that no notice was taken (the judgment being given upon other matter) that the action was brought against the baron and feme, and feme covert cannot make a retainer or contract; but fays, that perhaps the receiving and keeping him without any contract is a trespass, whereof a seme covert may be guilty, sufficient to maintain this action against her. 2 Lev. 63. Trin. 24 Car. 2.

B. R. Fawcet'v. Beaver.

19. In debt on bond against paron and feme executors; the plain-3 Keb. 602. pl.43. Hony tiff counted of a devastavit by them, but adjudged against the plaintiff; because a seme covert cannot waste during the coverture, y. Daniel S. C. and though the waiting of the baron shall charge her if she survives. agreed that 2 Lev. 145. Trin. 27 Car. 2. B. R. Horsey v. Daniel. fame executrix is not chargeable for waste by baron and seme. - Cro. C. 519. pl. 20. Mich. 14 Car. B. R. in case of Mounson v. Bourn, it was held, that if a man marries a seme executrix, and wastes the goods, it is z devastavit in the wife.

20. Trespass against husband and wife. Upon not guilty pleaded, verdict sor the plaintiff. It was moved in arrest, that the wife could not be charged for the trespass of the husband, no more than [95] they can be charged for the conversion of goods ad usum ipsorum; but the court over-ruled the exception. Ld. Raym. Rep. 443. Pasch. 11 W.3. White v. Eldridge, 21. Covenant ment was expelled; for the wife shall not be fued for the debt of her pulpand.

21. Covenant was brought against baron and seme on a lease to the feme dum sola, wherein the covenanted to plant 20 oaks every year during the term on the premises. It was objected, that the wife ought not to be joined in the action for breach fince the coverture; sed non allocatur; and judgment pro quer', and if the wife had affigued dum fola, the action would lie against both jointly. 6 Mod. 239. Mich. 3 Ann. B. R. Anon.

[Actions.] What ought [to be brought against both.]

DEBT for rent upon a lease for years made to baron and seme Br. Baron ought to be brought against both. * 17 Ed. 4. 7. 2 H. and Feme, 4. 19. b. Dubitatur, whether it may be brought against the pl. 61. cites S. C. per feme.] cur. and 5 of waste.—

S. P. Br. Baron and Feme, pl. 29. cites 3 H. 4. 1. per Thirn. for the may agree after the death of her bushand; but Hank, contra; for if the plaintiff recovers, and the baron dies, execution shall be of the goods of the feme; or it may be, that the term shall be expired in the life of the baron, or that the feme will refuse after the death of her husband.

In debt for arrearages of a lease for term of years, the plaintiff supposed, that he hased to the desendant 34 acres of land. The defendant said, as to 4 acres be did not lease, and as to the reft, that the plaintiff desfed them to the defendant, and to his feme, who is in full life not named, &cc. Judgment of the writ. But the opinion of the court was, that it was not a good way to plead so; for he ought to acknowledge the lease of 10 acres to bim and to bis feme, with an absque bot that be leased the 14 acres modo & forma,

&c. Thel. Dig. 172. lib. 11. cap. 42. f. 24. cites Hill. 17 E. 4. 7.

Avowry because W. B. beld certain land, out of which, &cc. of one J. B. as of his manor of F. by bomage, fealty, and escuage, viz. so much, &c. and conveyed the seigniory of the said J. B. to the defendant, and shewed bow, and conveyed the tenancy to the plaintiff by que estate, and for homage of the plaintiff he avowed, &cc. The plaintiff said, that at the time of the diffress, nor ever after, he had nothing in the land, unless jointly with F. bis feme of the feoffment of W. F. to them and to their beirs, which F. is alive, and fo the avorary ought to have been upon both. Judgment of the avowry; by which Catefby avowed upon the baron and feme. Br. Avowry, pl. 96. cites 7 F. 4. 27. - Thel. Dig. 45. lib. 5. cap. 4. f. 14. cites Trin. 26 E. 3. 64. where it is faid, that for arrears of rent referved on a lease for years made to baron and seme, writ of debt may be brought against the baron alone, and also against both.

[2. But 43 Ed. 3.11. b. is, that it lies against both; because it is + Br. Debt, pl. 55. cites for the benefit of the feme, and so + 3 H. 4. 1.] Br. Baron and Feme, pl. 29. cites S. C. but the reason is not given there.

[3. The same law where it is brought upon a lease for life made Br. Debt, pl. to them, the action shall be brought against both. 3 H. 4. 1.] 55. cites Br. Baron and Feme, pl. 29. cites S. 'C. but fays nothing as to the leafe for life.

4. In writ of dower brought against guardian in chivalry, the So a writ of defendant vouched to warranty, and the vouchee came and faid, that he had nothing in the ward unless by reason of his feme not named, good brought &c. and demanded judgment of the voucher, yet the voucher was against the adjudged good. Thel. Dig. 44. lib. 5. cap. 4. s. 4. cites 30 E. 1. Voucher 299.

dower was adjudged taron alone as guardian; who had nothing in the ward but only a joint effate with bis feme. Thel. Dig. 45. lib. 5. cap. 4. s. cites Mich. 2 E. 3. fel, 43 & 58.

Writ of downer may be against the baron alone who has the ward in jure uxoris. Br. Voucher, pla 241. cites 48 E. 3. 20. Br. Baron and Feme, pl. 26. cites S. C. [but misprinted 30. in the large edition] and S. P. for there voucher does not lie. ____S. P. Br. Baron and Feme, pl. 22. cites 47 E. 3. 9.

5. Writ of contra formam feoffamenti brought against the berow In formedon against A. alone, who had nothing in the seigniory unless with his seme, was who faid, that one was abated. Thel. Dig. 45. lib. 5. cap. 4. s. 7. cites Trin. 31 E. 1. seised and in- Jointenancy 35. fooffed B. to the use of D. s.me of A. and that he took the profits in right of his seme, not named, &c. and held no plea, per Brian. Thel. Dig. 45. lib. 5. cap. 4. s. 26. cites Hill. 3 H. 7. 2. and says, see the same year, foi. 13. and quarre.

> 6. Where one is guardian in socage in right of his feme, the writ of account for the time before the marriage shall be brought against the baron and feme, and after the marriage against the baron alone Thel. Dig. 45. lib. 5. cap. 4. f. 11. cites 8 E. 2. Itin' Kanc" Brief 847.

> 7. Writ of quare impedit may be maintained against the baron alone, notwithstanding that he claims the advowson in right of his feme. Thel. Dig. 45. lib. 5. cap. 4. s. 13. cites it as the opinion of Hill. 7 E. 3. 302.

8. Writ de secta ad molendinum is abateable for jointenancy with It feems this should his feme, not named ex parte * tenentis. Thel. Dig. 45. lib. 5. be (petencap. 4. f. 8. cites Hill. 13 E. 3. Jointenancy 13. tis.) ----

Fitzh. Jointenancy, pl. 13. S. C. is that the tenant pleaded jointenancy with his feme, &c. and the plaintiff maintained that he was sole tenant, and the others e contra. ——In the like action the baron and feme joined. Hob. 189. pl. 233. but at the end of the case is a nota, that there was no mention that the action was brought by the husband and wife both, being only to recover damages.

9. Where the baron has the ward of the body in right of his feme, In ravifbwrit of ward brought against the baron, without naming the seme, ment of ward, and shall abate. Thel. Dig. 45. lib. 5. cap. 4. s. 27. cites Trin. 14 ejectment of E. 3. Brief 279. spard by guardian in Jocage, it is no plea for the defendant to say, that he has nothing but only in right of his seme, not named. Thel. Dig. 45. lib. 5. cap. 4. s. 25. cites Hill. 26 E. 3. 65. Gard. 159.

The baron alone, without the seme, may have writ of ravishment of ward; but in + action again& them, writ of ward shall be against both, by reason of the woucher. Br. Baron and Feme, pl. 26. cites . 48 E. 3. 30. [20.] --- Br. Voucher, pl. 143. cites 48 E. 3. 20. & S. P. because the defendant in writ of ward may vouch his grantor.

Ejectment of ward may lie against the baron alone who has the ward in right of his seme, without naming his feme. Thel. Dig. 45. lib. 5. cap. 4. f. 20. cites Trin. 48 E. 3. 20.

Adjudged in writ of ward brought against beron alone, Mich. 2 E. 3. 42. and so agrees Mich. 18 E. 3. 37. that joint nan y with his feme is a good plea in abatement of writ of ward; and so agrees. Trin. 14 E. 3. Brief 279. and 48 E. 3. 20. But the contrary is adjudged in ravishment of ward, 26 E. 3. 65. by guardian in socage. Thel. Dig. 45. lib. 5. cap. 4. s. 6.6. + S. P. Br. Baron and Feme, pl. 22. cites 47 E. 3. 9.

10. A writ of debt for arrearages of rent-charge was maintained Ibid. cites Mich. 45 E. against the baron, he being tenant of the land charged in right 3. 11. and of his feme, without naming his feme, viz. for the arrearages in-Mich. 3 H. curred after the coverture; but otherwise it should be for the ar-4. 1. lt ought to be rearages before the marriage. Thel. Dig. 45. lib. 5. cap. 4. f. against both. 14. cites Trin. 26 E. 3. 64. Hill. 17 E. 4. 7.

11. In affife it was found that the baron and feme entered claiming as the right of the feme, and that the feme bad not any right, nor any any of ber ancestors, yet the writ was abated by the not naming of the feme. Thel. Dig. 45. lib. 5. cap. 4. L. 17. cites 35 Ass. 5.

* 12. If a man bails goods to a feme fole, and the takes baron, action Of goods of detinue lies against both; quod nota. Br. Baron and Feme, feme to depl. 56. cites 39 E. 3. 17. per cur.

bailed to the liver to ber baron, which the ders, the action shall be against the baron only. Br. Bailment, pl. 10. cites 2 H. 4. 21. ____Im case of detainer by the seme, the action shall be against the baron; per cur. obiter. Le. 312. pl. 433-Trin. 32 Eliz. C. B.

13. In recordare the defendant avoived upon the baron, in right of A. bis wife, because land was given in tail, rendering 201. rent, and conveyed the land to A. feme of the plaintiff, and for the rent avowed upon the baron only, and he prayed aid of the feme, and had it. They came and pleaded in abatement of the avowry, because it was not made upon the feme, and because he had aid of her before, therefore he was ousted of it, and the seme was ousted also, though she did not come till now; quod nota. Brooke says, quod miror! For it seems that the avowry is erroneous by matter apparent, which is cause of repleader, or to have writ of error at this day. But see that after issue had, the avowry for homage may be made upon the baron only; but here is no mention of any isfue. Br. Avowry, pl. 74. cites 39 E. 3. 15.

14. If a man is bound in a statute-merchant to baron and feme, Br. Audita or to a feme alone, who takes baron, and the baron releases all actions and executions, audita querela upon execution sued by the baron and feme, shall not be sued against the baron and seme, but against the baron only. Br. Joinder in Action, pl. 92. cites

48 E. 3. 1 2.

Querela, pl. 11. cites S. C. --Br. Baçon and Feme, pl. 24. cites S. C. — Br. Brief, pl. 80. cites S. C.

15. If a man marries a feme who is in debt, the writ of debt shall Keb. 281. be brought against both. Thel. Dig. 45. lib. 5. cap. 4. s. 19. pl. 84. Pasch. 14 cites Mich. 49 E. 3. 25. Car.2.B.R. Robinson

v. Hardy, S. P. ruled accordingly. --- Ibid. 440. pl. 32. Hill. 14 & 15 Car. 2. B. R. Hardy v.

Robinson, S. C. & S. P. held accordingly, and cites 37 Ast. 11.

A feme fole is indebted and marries; the and her husband shall both be sued for her debts, living the wife; but if she dies, the husband shall not be charged with her debts afterwards, unless judgment was had against him and his wife during the coverture; for then he shall be charged by such recovery after ber death. F. N. B. 120 (F).

Indebitatus for money due from the wife dum sola, was brought against the baron only, and therefore judgment was staid; and after, by prayer of the plaintiff, reversed for expedition. Keb. 440. pl. 32.

Hill. 14 & 15 Car. 2. B. R. Hardy v. Robinson.

16. Trespass for not repairing of certain banks, by reason of certain land which the defendant has in D. &c. by which the land of the plaintiff was surrounded; and because the defendant had nothing in the land, by which, &c. but in right of his wife not named, the writ was abated; for they ought to have been joined, &c. Baron and Femc, pl. 32. cites 7 H. 4. 31.

Thel. Dig. 45. lib. 5. cap. 4. 1. 21. cites S. C.___ Br. Joinder in Action, pl. 23. cites S. C._

Br. Action sur le Case, pl. 36, cites S. C.

Baron and Feme.

17. In detinue of charters by one, if it appears by the count that one of the charters concerns the inheritance of his feme, who is not named, the writ shall not abate, but only for this charter, by the opinion of the court. Quære; for this exception goes only to the writ; but if it had been to the action, it had been clear. Thel. Dig. 238. lib. 16. cap. 10. s. 50. cites Pasch. 38 H. 6. 29.

So if baron and feme make diffeifin and 18. If a feme sole disseises me, and makes a seoffment to her use and takes baron, I shall have assis against both, as parnour in jure uxoris. Br. Parnour, pl. 22. cites 4 E. 4. 17.

feoffment to their use, assise lies against both, and the parnancy is in both in jure uxoris. Br. Parnor de Prosits, pl.
22. cites 4 E. 4. 17.

[ 98 ]
So if a feme leffee for life takes baron, and

19. Where a lease for sears is made to baron and seme, reserving rent, the writ of waste shall be brought against both. Thel. Dig. 45. lib. 5. cap. 4. s. 23. cites Hill. 17 E. 4. 7.

confirms the effect of the baron to have for his life, by which the baron has a reversion for life, yet if coafte be committed after, the action lies against baron and seme, and this reversion is not any impediment. 17 E. 3. 68. b.

And so it shall be if the baros

and seme,

before the marriage,

be co-beirs

and par-

20. In every writ where inheritance or franktenement is demanded, and also where seisin of inheritance is to be recovered, if the baron be seised thereof in right of his seme, or jointly with his seme, by purchase made before marriage or afterwards, the writ ought always to be brought against both jointly. Thel. Dig. 44. lib. 5. cap. 4. s.

partition be not made before the marriage. Thei. Dig. 44. lib. 5. cap. 4. s. v. And it is so also if the land descend to them in parcenary after the marriage. Ibid.

But if they be tenants in common at the time of the marriage, or if tenancy in common descends to them after the marriage, Theloall makes a quære how the writ shall be brought; and says, it seems to him, that one writ ought to be against the baron alone for the moiety, and another against the baron and seme for the other moiety. Thel. Dig. 44. lib. 5. cap. 4. s. 2.

of the plaintiff by the feme for her own wearing, and for the money which the feme agreed to pay for the same the action was brought. Three justices held, that such contract during coverture would not bind the husband; but admitting it would, yet the seme ought not to be joined in the writ. 4 Le. 42. pl. 113. Mich. 19 Eliz. C. B. The earl of Derby's case.

22. A lease was made to try a title of a house, and the lesse enters into the house, and the wife of the said former lesse ousts him and farms the house; and after the husband came there, yet the ejectione firmæ was brought against the husband only, and well. Noy

48. Clements v. Cassye.

23. The husband being seised of a house in right of his wife for her life, they leased the same to the desendant, who burned the house. The husband brought an action alone against the desendant for waste done to the house; after a verdict, it was moved that he could not maintain this action alone, because the wrong was done to the estate which he had in right of his wise, and it might

might fo happen that no loss or injury might accrue to him, for no action might be brought against him by the lessor in the lifetime of his wife; and if so, then he is not chargeable, and it never can be brought against him alone, and therefore the wife ought to be joined in the action, but the court doubted; and adjornatur. Cro. Eliz. 461. (bis) pl. 12. Pasch. 38 E. B. R. Jeremy v. Lowgar.

24. Trover by feme, conversion by husband and wife; per cur. this action founds in trespass, and shall be brought against both, and not against the husband only. Le. 312. pl. 433. Trin. 32

Eliz. C. B. Marsh's case.

25. A feme sole being proprietor of a parsonage, married, and then Noy. 136. the husband alone brought an action upon the statute 2 Ed. 6. for treble damages against a parishioner for taking away his tithes after he had fet them out. Whether the husband may sue alone the court would advise; for though he may sue alone for personal things, yet where the statute saith the proprietor shall have the action for the not setting forth, &c. the husband is not intended to be the proprietor, but the wife, and therefore she ought to join. 2 Brownl. 9. Mich. 8 Jac. Ford v. Pomeroy.

Hill. 7 Jac. S. C. but states it, that the baron and feme were leffees of the parfonage, and fays it was refulyed that the husband and wife ought to have joined in the action, because it is not for a thing in possession; and if the hulband dies, the wife shall have the damages, and not the executor of the baron.

S. P. Where the baron was possessed in right of his wife, and she being joined with him in the action, It was objected that the tithes being personal chattels, which belonged to the baron only, she ought not to be joined; sed non allocatur; for the seme being termor, the baron is possessed of them in her right, and the action is given to the proprietor or farmer, &c. and so the action is well brought in both their names, and judgment for the plaintiff; and afterwards error was brought, and affigned in the point of law, and the judgment was affirmed. Cro. E. 608. pl. 9. & 613. pl. 1. Trin. 40 Eliz. B. R. Beadle v. Sherman. —— 13 Rep. 47, 48. S. C. held accordingly. —— Mo. 912. pl. 1288. S. C. and that it lies for the baron alone. ____ Jenk. 279. pl. 2. S. C. adjudged and affirmed in error. ___ S. C. cited 2 Inft. 250. — S. P. Arg. 2 Mod. 270.

It was adjudged per tot. cur. (absente Richardson) that where baron and seme brought debt upon the fature 2 E. 6. for not fetting out tithes, whereof the baron and feme were proprietors, that the action well lay; but when they bring other actions of tithes fet out from the 9 parts, being tithes arising from lands in a rectory which appertains to them; the feme in such cases ought not to join with her baron.

Jo. 325. pl. 5. Mich. 9 Car. B. R. Anon.

*[99]

- 26. A promise is made by baron and feme, on a consideration paid to them for discharge of an annuity payable to the seme during her life. The wife dies; an action is brought against the baron, and counted of these promises by the husband and wife, and sets forth a breach; it was moved that the action lies not, for that the promife of a feme covert is void; but by Ley Ch. J. and Dodcridge, the feme being dead the action lies, and the naming her promise is void, but otherwise if she had been alive; and Ley said, that if demurrer had been joined upon it, it had been ill, but not now after verdict. Palm. 312, 313. Mich. 12 Jac. B. R. Rissey v. Stafford.
- 27. Case for negligent keeping the fire, by which the house of the plaintiff was burnt, lies only against the patrem familiæ, and not against the wife by the custom of the realm. See Actions (B) pl. 7. Mich. 1 Car. Shelly v. Burr.

28. Case, &c. upon an insimul computasset, and also upon an indebitatus assumpsit for wares bought by the defendant; upon non assumpsit pleaded, the jury found that the wife dum sole was indebted Vol. IV.

indebted to the plaintiff for wares fold, &c. and that after her marriage with the defendant, he and his wife accompted with the plaintiff for the money due, and upon the accompt 91. 13s. was found due to the plaintiff, which the defendant promised to pay; in arguing this special verdict, it was insisted for the plaintiff, that the debt of the wife is the debt of the husband, and he is to be charged in the debet and detinet, and that by this accompt with the husband, he has made his proper debt, and the jury having found an express promise of the husband, he may be charged alone; but it was answered, that the accompt does not alter the nature of the debt, but only reduces it to a certainty, and that this verdict does not warrant the second promise, which was for wares bought by the defendant, whereas the jury find they were bought by the wife dum sola, and they conclude to both promises, so that if either of them be not made good by the verdict, it is against the plaintiff; and to all this Roll agreed, and judgment was given against the plaintiff. All. 72, 73. Trin. 24 Car. B. R. Drue v. Thorn.

The action is brought against him as terte-nant, and not in respect of the citate, 29. If baron be seised of land in right of his wife, charged with a rent-charge, the action for the rent arrear shall be brought against the baron only, by reason of his taking the profits, for the rent is the profits of the land. 11 Mod. 169. pl. 6. Pasch. 7 Ann. B. R. in case of Billingsworth v. Spearman.

and if he lets the land out again, the under lessee is chargeable in an action for his rent charge. Holt's Rep. 106. S. C. ______ Salk. 297. pl. 6. S. C. (though misprinted as 7 W. 3. instead of 7 Ann.) but S. P. does not appear.

[100] (Y) What Things a Woman may make good after the Death of her Husband, and how, and e contra:

Br. Obligation, pl. 35.

[I. IF an obligation be made to baron and feme, the feme may recites 4 H. 6.

[I. IF an obligation be made to baron and feme, the feme may recites 4 H. 6.

[I. IF an obligation be made to baron and feme, the feme may recites 4 H. 6.

[I. IF an obligation be made to baron and feme, the feme may recites 4 H. 6.

[I. IF an obligation be made to baron and feme, the feme may recites 4 H. 6.

[I. IF an obligation be made to baron and feme, the feme may recites 4 H. 6.

[I. IF an obligation be made to baron and feme, the feme may recites 4 H. 6.

[I. IF an obligation be made to baron and feme, the feme may recites 4 H. 6.

[I. IF an obligation be made to baron and feme, the feme may recites 4 H. 6.

[I. IF an obligation be made to baron and feme, the feme may recites 4 H. 6.

[I. IF an obligation be made to baron and feme, the feme may recites 4 H. 6.

[I. IF an obligation be made to baron and feme, the feme may recites 4 H. 6.

[I. IF an obligation be made to baron and feme, the feme may recites 4 H. 6.

[I. IF an obligation be made to baron and feme, the feme may recites 4 H. 6.

[I. IF an obligation be made to baron and feme, the feme may recites 4 H. 6.

[I. IF an obligation be made to baron and feme, the feme may recites 4 H. 6.

[I. IF an obligation be made to baron and feme, the feme may recites 4 H. 6.

[I. IF an obligation be made to baron and feme, the feme may recites 4 H. 6.

[I. IF an obligation be made to baron and feme, the feme may recites 4 H. 6.

[I. IF an obligation be made to baron and feme, the feme may recites 4 H. 6.

[I. IF an obligation be made to baron and feme, the feme may recites 4 H. 6.

[I. IF an obligation be made to baron and feme, the feme may recites 4 H. 6.

[I. IF an obligation be made to baron and feme, the feme may recites 4 H. 6.

[I. IF an obligation be made to baron and feme, the feme may recites 4 H. 6.

[I. IF an obligation be made to baron and feme, the feme may recites 4 H. 6.

[I. IF an obligation be made to baron and feme, the feme may recites 4 that the feme bringing an action of debt thereupon as executrize to her baron is a waiver, but Brooke fays quære.—Fitzh. Debt, pl. 24. cites S. C. accordingly by Cockain.—Br. Baron and Feme, pl. 70. cites S. C. and the feme may waive it.

Br. Resceit, [2. If baron and seme join in a lease for life of the lands of pl. 130. cites S.C. & S.P. the seme rendering rent, the seme may make it good by agreement -- Fitzh.Re- after the death of her husband. 10 H. 6. 24. b. and shall have the sceit, pl. 61. rent.] cites S. C. and 13 H. 6. S. P.

Fitzh. Res- [3. The same law, if they join in a lease for years. 10 H. 6. ceit, pl. 61. 24. b.]

S. P. accordingly. Br. Resceit, pl. 130, cites S. C. but S. P. does not appear.

4. Husband and wife were tenants in special tail, remainder to Palm. 365. T. S. remainder over. The husband made a feoffment to uses, and cordingly. -died, and after his death the widow levied a fine. Resolved by all the justices, absente Ley Ch. J. that here was a discontinuance made by the baron, and that the fine of the feme, before entry by her, has strengthened the discontinuance, so that now she cannot enter to be remitted; for the words of the statute of *H. 8. • 32 H. 8. are, that the fine, &c. of the baron, shall not be any discontinu- cap.82. s.6. ance, but that the feme may enter; yet it is a discontinuance till entry, as Doderidge J. said. 2 Roll. Rep. 311. Pasch. 21 Jac. B. R. Moor's case.

- (Z) For what Things created during the Coverture, • the Feme shall be charged after the Death of her Husband, by her Agreement or Disagreement.
- [1. TF baron and feme accept a fine rendering rent, if she agrees to the estate after the death of the baron, she shall be charged with the rent. 50 Ed. 3. 9. b.]

[2. If a lease for years be made to baron and feme rendering rent, Both thes: if after the death of the baron the feme agrees to the leafe, debt lies against her for all the arrearages incurred in the life of the baron. + Br. Baron 2 H. 4. 19. b. † 3 H. 4. 1.]

places cited are the S. C. and Feme, pl. 29: cites

S. C. but S. P. does not appear. ——Br. Debt, pl. 55. cites S. C. but S. P. does not fully appear.

[3. But after the death of the baron she may disagree to the lease. Br. Baron and Feme, 2H. 4. 19. b.] pi. 29. cites 3 H. 4. 1. [and which is part of the S. C.] that after the death of her husband she may agree to the Besie.

101

4. If baron aliens the land of his feme, and dies, and the feme ac- If baron cepts part in dower, this is a good bar in cui in vita. Br. Cui in Vita, pl. 15. cites 10 E. 3.

aliens the right of his feme, and the baron

dies, and the alience affigns the third part of the land aliened to the feme in dower, without deed, the is remitted, and not barred nor concluded. Contra if it be by deel or by record. Br. ibid. cites 17 AA. 3.

5. Of all refervations, &c. depending upon the land leafed to baron As recentry, and feme by indenture, there the feme shall be bound if she agrees to the lease. Contrary of collateral covenant or obligation in the same for non-payindenture, to bind them in a fum in gross. Br. Coverture, pl. 11. cites 45 E. 3. 11.

and I doubling the rent ment, or a fine nomine pænæ, which are referred upon the lease; but a grant to distrain in other land, or a covenant charging the person, and not the land leased, as to oblige themselves in 201. for non-payment of the rent, or to give fuch furety as the counsel of lessor should devise, shall not bind her; and for that reason the write was abated. Br. Covenant, pl. 6. [but neither of the editions cites any book.] ——— Br. Obiigation, pl. 14. cites 45 E. 3. 11. that of a bond for a furn in gross, in the same deed, she shall not be charged.

Lease to busband and wife; they covenant to do no waste, or repair, &c. The husband dies; the wife furvives, and holds in. If the wife-commits waste, or not repairs the house, no action lies against the wife; but to fuch a leafe she is tied to pay the rent, or perform a condition made by the part of the sellor, but not the covenants of the lesses. Brownl. 31. cites 28 H. 8.——She is punishable for waste done during the coverture. Arg. 2 Brownl. 71. Portington's case.——She is liable to repairs, and to a nomine panae, for non-payment of rent at the day, according to the covenants in the lease. Arg. 2 Roll. Rep. 63, 64. cites 45 E. 3. 11.

12

I 2 Roll. Rep. 63. Arg. cites 45 E. 3. 11. S. P. and that so she shall be bound, if she had covenanted to repair the bouses.

Br. Cui in Vits, pl. 20. cites S. C.

6. Cui in vita, supposing that the tenant had not entry unless by her baron, cui ipsa in vita contradicere non potuit. Port. said the baron and this his seme gave the land to T. N. in tail, rendering fealty and a rose; the baron died, and the seme distrained him for the same services, by which T. did to her fealty, and paid the rose, which she accepted; judgment si actio; and the opinion of the court was, that this is a good bar, by which she took issue that she did not accept the rose post mortem viri, Prist; and the others e contrabr. Br. Barre, pl. 27. cites 21 H. 6. 24.

7. If a man leases for life to baron and seme, and the baron does waste and dies, if she occupies the land she shall answer for the waste of her baron. Contra if she waives the possession, and does not See tit.

Waste, (R)

Occupy it. Br. Barre, pl. 27. cites 21 H. 6. 24. per Ascu. J.

Pl. 3, 4, 5. 9. and the notes there.

8. If the baron and feme make exchange, be dies, and she enters and occupies, this is a bar to her; contra if she waives it, and does not occupy. Br. Barre, pl. 27. cites 21 H. 6. 24. per E. 4. 8.—
If baron and

feme, seised in jure uxoris, make an exchange, and the baron dies, and the seme agrees to the exchange, she shall be bound thereby. Br, Eschange, pl. 9. cites 9 H. 6. 52.——Such exchange is good, if the seme will agree to it after the death of the baron; per Keble. Kelw. 10. a. Hill. 12 H. 7.

If baron and 9. If the baron alone, seised in jure uxoris, leases for life, and the feme lease baron dies, the feme shall not have action of waste; for she was not land for life, party to the leafe; per Paston. And hence it follows, that the it is her feme, by the acceptance of the rent, where she was not party to the leafe for the time; lease, shall not be bound, if it was upon a lease for years, but may for by the enter; but if it be a lease for life, she is put to a cui in vita; but receipt of the rent afthere such acceptance, where she was not party to the lease, is ter the death no bar. Note the diversity. Br. Barre, pl. 27. cites 21 H. of the bus-6. 24. band, ite lease is affirmed. Br. Resceipt, pl. 70. cites 24 E. 3. 18.——S. P. per Keble. Keiw. 10. 2. Hill. 12 H. 7. obiter.—But if the lease be made by the baron only, and he dies, and she accepts the rent, such acceptance shall not bind her; for she was not privy, &c. Br. Cui in Vita, pl. 1. cites 26 H. 8. 2.—Br. Acceptance, pl. 1. cites S. C.

If a hulband and wife make a leafe for years, and the accepts the rent after his death, the shall be liable to a covenant. Agreed by counsel on both fides, and by the court. Mod. 291. pl. 37. Trin. 29 Car. 2. B. R. in case of Wootton v. Hele.

*[102]

S. P. admitted, 2 And. 42. pl. 28. Hill 38 Eliz. in case of Marsh v. Curtis. 10. Where baron and feme join in a leafe of the land of the feme, rendering rent, and the baron dies, and after the feme accepts the rent, she shall be bound; contra where the baron alone makes a gift, or lease reserving rent, and he dies, the seme accepts the rent, there this shall not bind her; per Chocke. Note a diversity, quod nullus contradixit. Br. Acceptance, pl. 6. cites 15 E. 4. 18.

11. If the baron and feme sell the land of the seme, and make a But if the feoffment, and the vendee by the same indenture covenants to pay an annuity of Iol. to them during their lives, the baron dies, the feme a feofment accepts the 10%. this is no bar in cui in vita; for this is by covenant, rendering &c. and not as refervation or rent. Br. Cui in Vita, pl. 1. cites 26 H. 8. 2.

baron and feme make rent, and the feme accepts this rent, this shall bind her in cui in vita. Ibid. ——Br. Acceptance, pl. 1. cites S. C. Contra where the baron alone makes the feoffment with refervation, and the feme accepts the rent, this shall not bind her; for she was not privy, &c. Note a diversity. Ibid. ____Br. Acceptance, pl. 1. cites S. C.

12. Husband and wife by indenture made a lease for years rendering rent; the lessee entered, and the husband died before the day of payment, and she before such day married a second husband, who accepted the rent at the day, and afterwards died. It was held by three judges, that the wife having by marriage resigned to her husband her power which she had of avoiding the term, and his acceptance of the rent, had made the lease good; but Brook J. e contra; the reporter says, ideo quære. D. 159. a. pl. 36. Pasch. 4 & 5 P. & M. Anon.

S. C. cited Arg. 2 Roll. Rep. 132.--It was held per cur. that by the acceptance of the 2d baron, she is concluded during the term. D. 159. Marg.

pl. 36. cites Pasch. 22 Eliz. Rot. 1587.

13. If feme covert and another, at her request, are bound in a bond 4 Le. 5. pl. for the debt of the feme, and after her husband's death she promises to fave the other harmless against the bond, she is not bound. Godb. 138. pl. 164. Mich. 27 Eliz. B. R. resolved per tot. cur. in case of Barton v. Edmonds.

22. Mich. 29 Eliz. B. R. the S. C. but S. P. does not appear. ____ 3 Le. 164. pl. 215. Edmonds's case, S. C. but S. P. does not appear.

14. A decree was made on the consent of a feme covert in court, on her being there examined by Finch C. and giving her consent in court, though no party to the bill. 2 Chan. Cases, 101. Pasch. 34 Car. 2. Paget v. Paget.

15. Where a feme covert agrees to join in a fine with her husband, or to make a furrender, though the husband dies before it is done, chancery will compel her to perform the agreement. 2 Vern.

61. pl. 52. Pasch. 1688. Baker v. Child.

16. Baron and feme agreed to an inclosure. She was bound by it, even as to her jointure; per cur. 2 Vern. 225. in pl. 206.

Pasch. 1691. cites Lady Widdrington's case.

17. Provision was made for the wife, an infant, by the husband in lieu of her jointure by articles during coverture; after the death of the husband she enters on 461. per ann. part thereof only, and was thereby held bound to perform the whole articles. 2 Vern. 225. pl. 206. Pasch. 1691. cited per cur. as Sir Edward Moseley's case.

Chan. Cases, 253. 255. Hill. 26 & 27 Car. 2. Maynard v. Mosely, S. C. where the court held, that though the feme is not bound by her agreement during coverture, yet if, when a * widow, she acts a cording to fuch agreement, the is bound by it. ---- S. P. but when her acting, when a widow, may be indifferently applied either to her former interest or to her agreement, she shall not be bound by it. 2 Chan. Cases, 26. Pasch. 32 Car. 2. Thomas v. Lane. If she had a title prior to her agree. ment, the shall not be bound by her entry. Ibid. 27. • [ 103 ] 18. ln

MS. Rep. Pasch. 2
Geo. Canc. Sharfton v. Hipsley.

- a suit by the husband and wife, for a term of years in the right of his wife, but the husband died and left no assets, and the bill was to have a satisfaction out of this term so recovered and enjoyed at this time by the wife. Ld. Chan. said it is strong equity, that the plaintiff should have a satisfaction out of this term so recovered by his costs and pains, since the wife has the benefit of it, and consented to it; and decreed that the plaintiff have a satisfaction of his demands against the defendant out of the profits of this term; and that he be examined upon interrogatories what he hath received, and the desendant to pay the costs of this suit.
- 19. Baron, in right of his wife, was seised in fee of a share in the New River water, and they both joined in a mortgage by lease for 1000 years by deed without fine, reserving a pepper-corn rent. The baron died, and she when a widow received the profits, and paid the interest. The mortgagee brought his bill to foreclose the feme, and infifted, that her payment of the interest while a widow affirmed the lease. But the Master of the Rolls held, that this being the inheritance of the feme, there ought to have been a fine; that if there had been a rent referved, her acceptance of it would have affirmed the leafe; but that here is no acceptance, and the lease is of an incorporeal thing, out of which rent could not well be referred; wherefore the leafe expiring by the death of the bufband, the mortgage is also thereby determined, and nothing remaining to foreclose; and this being admitted on both sides, and appearing upon the opening, his honour dismissed the bill, but 2 Wms.'s Rep. 127. Pasch. 1723. Drybutter v. without coits. Bartholomew.

MS. Rep.
Dutchess of Hamilton v.
Incledon, in the ex.
chequer.

20. Plaintiff prayed injunction to stay defendant's proceedings at law upon this case. Duke Hamilton brought an ejectment in his own and his wife's name, for certain lands that descended to the dutchess during the coverture, and employed the now defendant as his attorney. The duke died pending the fuit, and the dutchefs continued Mr. Incledon, attorney, to profecute the fuit, and now he has brought his action for all the money expended in that fuit, as well in the duke's time as in the dutchess's, against the dutchess, and has recovered a verdict at law. It was argued, 1st, that it is matter of account. 2dly, That he has, by his answer, submitted to the judgment of the court, whether the dutchess ought not to pay it, and therefore he ought to stay till the court has determined it. He insists, that the suit did not abate, and therefore that it is still the same retainer, but the retainer is personally to the duke, and cannot affect the dutchess, but is a charge upon the administrator. He admits money received from the dutchess, but would apply that to discharge what was due in the duke's time, but it is a maxim, that what money is paid shall be applied according to the intent of the payer. It was argued e contra, that there was no admission of new retainer, but only says he proceeded upon her request. He denies that he was ordered to keep a feparate account. 2dly, They admit that there is no assets of the dukc's duke's to pay it. As to the objection, whether the dutches or the administrator be chargeable, is proper defence at law, and so was that matter, how the payments were to be applied. They moved for a new trial, and these matters were insisted upon, and it was denied by the whole court of common pleas. It is objected, that this is matter of account, and the same may be said of every attorney's bill, but the law has provided another remedy, viz. to have it taxed. As to submitting to the judgment of the court, that is only whether the dutchess is chargeable, which is more proper for a court of law than equity, and it has been determined in the common pleas. This verdict cannot be set aside upon this bill, and then there is no use of an injunction.

Lord Ch. B. said, that this is not brought to be relieved against the verdict, but against the action. In actions that sound in damages, if the party makes defence at law, he cannot afterwards have relief in equity. The only question is, whether at law he can recover this against the dutches? This is proper to be determined at law, and it has been there debated and determined. If the judge who tried the cause had been mistaken in his opinion, you would have had a new trial. The dutches has the benefit of what was done before the duke's death. We are not now determining the cause, but only whether we shall stop their proceedings, and I think we ought not to stop them. All attornies bills are matters of account, and the proper method is to have them taxed, and he does not submit to account.

B. Price went away before the court gave their opinions, but told his brethren, he was of opinion against an injunction.—Baron Mountague said, that if this was the case of a common tradesman, who delivered goods after the husband's death, he could not recover what was due before; or suppose the dutchess had never employed Mr. Incledon after the duke's death, then he could not have recovered against her, and desiring him to go on is a separate contract. This is a charge all in her own right, and he having recovered more than is confessed to be due in her time, he has recovered so much wrongfully, and therefore in conscience ought to stay execution.—B. Page thought there ought not to be an injunction; it is often a good rule, that when more is recovered than ought to be, this court will stay proceedings at law. If there has been dealings which cannot be discovered at the trial, it is proper for to be examined in a court of equity, but here is nothing in this case but what was proper for a defence at law. But here is no dispute whether paid or received, but only who is chargeable, and this has been determined by the Ch. J. of the common pleas, and agreed to by the whole court; for otherwise a new trial would have been granted, and shall we condemn their judgment upon a motion? As to the question, whether she is chargeable, suppose it had been a suit upon a bond made to the dutchess before marriage, would not that survive to her, and she have the benefit, then ought not she in conscience to pay the charges? She by her act has made it her debt; it was commenced for their joint Suppose the duke had bought a piece of silk for a gown I.4

Baron and Feme.

for the dutchess, and sent it to the makers, must not she pay for the making before she can have it, yet it was originally the duke's debt. He has submitted only to the stating of it in his answer. No injunction was granted.

(Z. 2) Feme bound by Laches or Forfeitures during the Coverture, or what Act of the Baron shall for-feit the Estate of the Feme.

And Brooke 1. I N ashie, if a man leases to baron and feme, and the baron aliens says, so see that she may have cui in the lesson may enter and recover by assis if he be outled, notwithstanding that the seme may have cui in vita after vita, notwithstanding that the seme may have cui in vita after withstanding Ass. II.

Ass. II.

tion and the entry; for the title of entry is given by the law for the alienation only, and the title of the feme is by the demise before + notice Br. Cui in Vita, pl. 9. cites 11 Ass. 11.——— + All the editions are so, viz. (notice) but it seems it should be (nota.)

It appears by judgment in affise, that where baron and seme are tenants for life, the remainder to A. in tail, and the baron aliens in tail, and A. has issue and dies, the issue may enter for the alienation to list distinberitance, notwithstanding that the seme covert be alive, for she shall bave cui in vita after the death of ber bushand. Br. Cui in Vita, pl. 10. cites 43 Ass. 17.

Br. Forfeiture de Terres, pl. 35.
cites S. C.
the land. Br. Baron and Feme, pl. 86. cites 29 Aff. 43.
and that the

shall have it by petition, if it be in the hands of the king, and by cui in vita where it remains in the hands of him in reversion.

This shall bind the feme in whose right the baron held the held the state around the feme has no remedy. Br. Baron and Feme, pl. 79. cites 9 H. 6, 52. per Martin, land. Br. Coverture, in pl. 76. cites S. C. by Martin.

5. If feme tenant for life takes baron, and they are impleaded, and pray aid of a stranger, and the baron dies, he in the reversion cannot enter; for this is the act of the baron. Br. Baron and Feme, pl. 86. cites 15 E. 4. 29.

6. If a lease for life is made to A. the remainder to a seme sole for years, and they inter-marry, and waste is committed, and the lessor brings an action of waste, he shall recover as well the estate for years as for life; per Dyer Ch. J. 2 Le. 7. in pl. 7. 16 Eliz. C. B.

101

7. Feoffment to the use of a seme for life, she being sole at the time, remainder to the right heirs of their two bodies begotten, remainder to the right heirs of the seosffor in sec. They intermarry. Baron having tenants at will in the same land, devised the reversion in sec to his wise, ita quod she shall pay his debts and legacies, and perform his last will, and by the same will devised that his tenants shall have his tenements for life, and dies; seme takes other baron, who ousts the tenants at will, this is no forseiture of the remainder. Mo. 92. pl. 229. Trin. 20 Eliz. Anon.

But if the will had been on condition, that his last will should be performed, it would have been otherwise. Mo. 92. pl. 229. Trin. 20 Eliz. Anon.

8. A. devised land to his wife during the minority of his son, upon condition that she shall not do waste during the minority of his said son, and dies; the wife takes a husband; the husband commits waste; per tot. cur. it is no breach of the condition. 2 Le. 35. pl. 46. Hill. 33 Eliz. C. B. Cobb v. Prior.

Lat. 20. cites
S. C.—
2 Le. 48. pl.
62. S. C. in
totidem verbis.

9. A. tenant for life, remainder in fee to M. a feme covert. A. levied a fine. The baron died. M. took a fecond baron. A. died. 5 years pass. The second baron dies. M. is barred, and not remedied by 32 H. 8. cap. 28. In this case a diversity was taken between a warranty and right to the land; as to the warranty, the feme cannot be conusant thereof to avoid it, and therefore she does not submit her assent to her baron, and in such case the laches of the baron shall not prejudice her; but otherwise it is of right to the land which is manifest, and therefore the neglect of the second baron shall prejudice her; but notwithstanding this diversity, it was adjudged that the seme shall be bound in this case. D. 72. b. Marg. pl. 3. cites 43 Eliz. Whetstone v. Wentworth.

D. 159. a.
Marg.pl.36.
cites S. C. and fays, that this diverfity was vouched by Noy Attorney-General in Lent Reading, 1632.

10. If a feme be infeoffed, either before or after marriage, referving a rent, and for default of payment a re-entry; in that case the laches of the baron shall disinherit the wife for ever. Co. Litt. 246. b.

right to enter into lands which another hath in fee, or in fee-tail, and such tenant dies seised, &c. in such case the entry of the husband is taken away upon the heir which is in by descent; but if the husband die, then the wife may well enter upon the issue which is in by descent; for that no laches of the husband shall turn the wife, or her heirs, to any prejudice nor loss in such case, but that the wife and her heirs may well enter where such descent is cast during the coverture. Litt. sect. 403.

These words are general, but are particularly to be understood, viz. when the worong was done to the wife during the coverture; for if a feme fole be seised of land in see, and is disseised, and then takes bushand; in this case the husband and wife, as in the right of the wife, have right to enter, and yet the dying seised of the disseiser in that case shall take away the entry of the ruise after the death of the bushand; and the reason is as well, for that the herself, when she was sole, might have entered and re-continued the possession, as also it shall be accounted her folly that she would take such a husband which would not enter before the descent. Co. Litt. 246. a.—But there if the ruoman were within age at the time of her taking of bushand, then the dying shall not, after the decease of her husband, take away her entry, because no folly can be accounted in her, for that she was within age when she took husband, and after coverture she cannot enter without her husband, all which is implied in the said &cc. Co. Litt. 246. b.

12. Feme

Per Doderidge J. in fome cases the heir is bound, and in some he is not. If feme copybolder takes baren, wbo makes a lease for guars, this binds the wife for ever; but if spe was mai ried when the copyhold came to her, it is otherwise. 2 Roll, Rep. 362. S. C. Savin, clius Sabin v. Smith.

12. Feme copybolder takes baron; baron makes a lease for years, and dies, and the wife dies. Whether the forfeiture continues against the heir of the seme? Chamberlaine J. puts a difference between condition collateral as this, and cutting trees; this does not bind the seme after the decease of the baron, but if baron sorfeits for † non-payment of rent, it is otherwise; and Doderidge J. put the case, that if the lessor recovers against the baron in || waste, and baron dies, the seme shall not avoid it; but if the baron makes feossment, and the seossee enters, and the baron dies, the seme shall avoid it; but if the baron commits forseiture for non-payment of rent, the seme shall not avoid it if the lord enters in the life of the baron, but if not it is otherwise. 2 Roll. Rep. 344. Trin. 21 Jac. B. R. in case of Savern, alias Saben v. Smith.

——2 Roll. Rep. 372. S. C. judgment for the heir of the feme nisi, &c.—Palm. 383. S. C. the forfeiture does not hind the feme, and judgment accordingly, nisi, &c.——4 Cro. C. 7. S. C. adjudged that it should not hind, and affirmed inverror as to that point, but other errors being assigned, the court would advise.——By death of baron the forseiture is purged. Godb. 344. in pl. 438. S. C.

adjornatur.

If the husband denies to pay the rent, or to do suit at court, these are present forseitures which shall bind the wise, for they are things that the lord must of necessity have, but a lease is no great prejudice to the lord, and it is good to advise of it. Cro. E. 149. pl. 18. Mich. 31 & 32 Eliz. B. R. Hedd v. Chaloner.—Le. 146. pl. 204. S. C. but S. P. does not appear. 4 Rop. 27. Clifton v. Molineux.—Said by two justices to have been adjudged a forseiture to bind the wise. Cro. E. in case of Hedd v. Chaloner.

[ 107 ] 13. Feme covert is heir to a copyholder, and there are three proclamations made, and she and her husband do not come in, the lord shall seize, and it is a forseiture during the coverture; per Hole Ch. J. Show. 88. I W. &, M. obiter.

(Z. 3) Forfeited what. By Crimes of either.

Br. Affile, pl. 14. cites
S. C.
Br. Rescissor, pl. 16. cites attainder; for upon purchase during the coverture, there are no s. C. but S. P. as to the wise's having the land by surviving the baron, does not appear.

Man infeoffed baron and feme in fee, the baron was found guilty of felony, and it was agreed that the feme, by surviving the baron and it was agreed that the feme, by surviving the baron and it was agreed that the feme, by surviving the baron and it was agreed that the feme, by surviving the baron and it was agreed that the feme, by surviving the baron and it was agreed that the feme, by surviving the baron and it was agreed that the feme, by surviving the baron, does not appear.

of the daughter of A. with the son of B. and 100 l. paid, to stand seised to the use of the said daughter for her life, and afterwards to the heirs of her body by her husband begotten. This conveyance was made 31 H. 8. afterwards the husband commits murder, is attainted and executed. The wife has an estate tail by this conveyance, and the use is well raised without involument, for it is not raised for the consideration of money only, as the statute of 27 H. 8. of involument speaks. This estate is not forseited, but preserved in the case of murder and selony, by the statute of Westm. 2. and for treason also in this case; for the statute of 26 H. 8. cap. 13. which gives a forfeiture of estates tail to the king for treason, is where he who commits it has an estate of inheritance, but in this case the husband has no estate of inheritance, the wife alone has; by all the judges of England. pl. 27.

3. If the wife be attainted of felony, the lord by escheat shall enter and put out the husband; otherwise it is, if the felony be committed after issue had. Co. Litt. 351. a.

4. A wife kills her husband, the husband's goods are forfeited.

Jenk. 65. pl. 22.

5. A busband and wife are jointenants for a term of years; the busband is felo de se, or suppose the wife be, the said term is forfeited. Jenk. 65. pl. 22.

6. The busband has a term for years, so has the wife; the forfeiture of the husband forfeits his own and his wife's term. The same law as to the forfeiture of the wife concerning her term.

Jenk. 65. pl. 22.

7. Tenant in tail general makes a feoffment to the use of himself Hob. 334. and his wife and the heirs of their two bodies, he has iffue by the faid wife. After the 27 H. 8. of uses in the 28 H. 8. the husband commits treason 29 H. 8. he is attainted and executed. The wife Ratcliffe. furvives him; she is tenant in tail; for the was neither the offender nor heir to him. The wife dies. The rights of the first Pasch. 1 tail and the second tail are forfeited for this treason, by the statute Car. in the of 26 H. 8. cap. 13. by all the judges of England. Jenk. 268. pl. 21.

to 348. 13 Jac. Sheffield v. Jo. 69. to 82. pl. 6. exchequerchamber.--Palm. 351. to 358. Hill.

20 Jac. Ld. Sheffield's case, S. C. argued in the exchequer. Godb. 300. to 326. pl. 417. S. C. in cam, scace.—Het. 150. S. C. argued.

8. If the husband and wife have an estate tail, and the husband is [ 108 ] attainted of treason, the land is forfeited. [But it seems here, that if the wife has an estate tail, and the husband is attainted of treason, the land is not forfeited.] Jenk. 203. pl. 27.

(A. a) What Things a Feme shall bave after the Death of her Baron. What Actions.

Feme shall have trespass after the death of her baron, for Br. Trespaís, pl. 340 trees cut upon ber land during the coverture. 18 Ed. 4. & 341. 15. 39 H. 6.45.] cites S. C. but S. P.

does not appear in either. — Palm. 313. Mich. 20 Jac. B. R. in case of Peters v. Rose, S. C. cited per cur. & 7. E. 4.

[2. The feme shall have ravishment of ward by survivorship, Br. Baron and Feme, where the ward was joint to baron and seme. 43 Ed. 3. 10.] pl. 14. cites S. C. - Fitzh. Briefe, pl. 561. cites S. C. & S. P. by Finch. - See Br. Chattels, pl. 3. cites 14 H. 4, 24.

[3. So

13. So the shall have an ejectment of ward by survivorship. Br. Baron and Feme, Ed. 3. 10.] pl. 14. cites S. C. for it is chattel real. - Fitzh. Briefe, pl. 561. cites S. C. & S. P. by Finch.

> [4. If a baron pulls down a house which he hathin the right of the feme, and gives away the timber, the feme shall not have an action for this after the death of her baron. 43 E. 3. 26. b.]

5. Where baron and feme lofe in quare impedit, and the baron S. P. And dies, the feme shall have the attaint and not the executors, notwiththat the teme was restanding that it was averred that the damages were paid of the stored to the damages lost goods of the first baron, quod nota. Br. Jointenants, pl. 7. cites and to the 46 E. 3. 23. advowion, and recovered other damages by the attaint, because if the first damages had not been levied of the goods of the baron, they should have been levied of the goods of the feme who was party to the judgment; and therefore the attaint survived as well for the damages as for the principal. Ibid. pl. 46. cites 46 .8 .11A

6. In waste, if the baron and seme, seised in jure uxoris, lease for years, the baron dies, and the feme brings waste, this action lies well; for this leafe is not void, and now the bringing the action affirms the writ good. Br. Baron and Feme, pl. 48. cites 22

H. 4.24.

7. If a feme covert bails a deed, and the baron dies, the feme Br. Bailment, pl. 1. shall have a writ of detinue; for though the bailment be void cites S. C. between the baron and his feme, it is good between the feme but is that and the bailee now. Br. Detinue de Biens, pl. 5. cites 3 H. though the bailment is 6. 50. woid between the baron and the bailee, yet it is good between the feme and the bailee if the baron dies and the feme survives, quod nota [And so is the Year-book.]

8. In trespass by feme of charters taken, the defendant pleaded a release of the baron, who is dead, and a good plea; for the action was once extinct. Quære in detinue of charters by her. Br. Tres-país, pl. 405. cites 39 H. 6. 15.

9. If a man brings a quare impedit for an advowson which he If the hushath in right of his wife, and hath judgment to recover, and band has an advowlon dies, the * wife shall present, and not the executors of the husin right of band; per Stamford, Owen 82. Pasch. 4 & 5 P. & M. in C. B. his wife, and the Anon. church becomes void, and the husband dies, the executors shall have the presentation; per Anderson Ch. J. Goldsb. 37. in pl. 10. Mich. 29 Eliz.

•[109]

10. Promise was made to a seme covert, in consideration se would cure such a wound, to pay her 10 l. If baron dies, such an action shall survive to the wife. Cro. J. 77. pl. 7. Trin. 3 Jac. B. R. Brashford v. Buckingham.

11. Judgment by baron and feme, in action brought by them Chan. Cases, both for debt due to the wife before coverture. 27: S. C. & S. P. dies. The wife shall have execution, and not the executor of certified and the husband. Chan, Rep. 235, 14 Car, certified by Hide J. confirmed and the court confirmed his opinion in case of Nanney v. by the Ld. Martin Freem. Rep. 172. pl. 223. S. C. & S. P. accordingly.

12. Case for words by husband and wife against the defendants busband and wife, and pending the action the defendant's husband died, and the widow married again. The court inclined that the writ shall abate, because the defendant by her marriage had changed her name; but took time to advise. Style 138. Mich. 24 Car. B. R. White v. Harwood.

13. In debt upon bond, conditioned to leave his wife 80 l. at 3 Salk. 65. bis death, in case she should survive, so that she might peaceably enjoy pl. 9. S. C. it to ber own use. The defendant pleaded, that the busband made his wife executrix, and left goods to the value of 100 l. and by his will devised that she should pay herself. Upon a demurrer the plaintiff had judgment, because the husband at his death might leave debts of an higher nature, as judgments, &c. so as she could not pay herself, and perhaps his estate might be so incumbered, that it would be better for her to renounce the executrixship, and permit administration to be granted to another, against whom to bring debt on the bond, as she has done. 3 Lev. 218. Trin. 1 Jac. 2. C. B. Thomasin v. Wood.

14. At law an interlocutory judgment quod computet, upon an account brought by husband and wife against her receiver, and the husband dies, the wife, and not the executors of the husband, shall pursue the account; per the master of the rolls. Gibb. 149. Mich. 4 Geo. 2. in Canc. in case of Nightingale v. Lockman.

(B. a) What Personal Things [ shall survive to the Feme.

It. IF an obligation be made to baron and feme, the feme shall Fitzh. Brief, have it by survivorship. * 43 Ed. 3. 10. † 4 H. 6. 6. M. pl. 561. cites S. C. 5 Jac. B. 6. adjudged upon demurrer, Tr. 10 Car. in cam. _Br. Baron scaccarii, between Spark and Fairemaner, adjudged in a writ and Feme, pl. 14. cites of error.]

† Br. Obligation, pl. 35. cites S. C.—Fitzh. Debt, pl. 24. cites S. C.

43 Fitzh.Brief, [2. So the feme shall have a recognizance by survivorship. pl. 561. cites Ed. 3. 10.] S. C. & S. P. by Finch.

1 110 [3. But if goods are given to baron and feme, the feme shall Fitch Brief, 43 Ed. 561. cites S. C. not have them by survivorship, but the executor. 3. 10.]

4. If one is bound to a baron and feme in a flatute merchant, and the baron dies, the statute shall survive to the seme, and the shall have execution, (if the baron had not made a release) and not the executor of the baron. Br. Baron and Feme, pl. 24-cites 48 E. 3. 12.

and

5. Chattels personal, which vest in the baron and seme, shall not survive to the seme. Br. Chattels, pl. 3. cites 14 H. 4. 24.

And she may brin an action after the death of the baron

6. Trespass is done to the inheritance of the wife; though the damages recovered in an action are not real, yet the wife shall have them if the husband dies before execution; per 2 justices. Owen 83. Pasch. 4 & 5 P. & M. in C. B. Anon.

for trespass done during the coverture, and damages shall go with the action. 2 Roll. Rep. 265. Mich. 20 Jac. B. R. Peters v. Rose Edmonds.——Palm. 313. Peters v. Rose, S. C. in error, and judgment affirmed.

7. A. by will gives all the residue of his goods to M. his wife, pl.21. S. C. whom he makes his sole executrin, to pay his debts, &c. M. after takes C. for her husband, who makes executors and dies. The And. 22. pl. wife shall have the goods; for she took them as executrix, and not as devisee. Mo. 98. pl. 242. Mich. 15 & 16 Eliz. Hunks pl. 252.

S. C. adjudged, and the pleadings.

But if he dies without any difagreement wife. Goldsb. 73. pl. 16. Mich. 29 & 30 Eliz. May voto his wife's right in it, the right to the bond is in them both, and in case of his death shall survive to the wife; per Ld. C.

King. 2 Wms.'s Rep. 497. Mich. 1728. in case of Copping v. - - - -

9. If the baron makes a letter of attorney to receive a bond debt of the wife's; if J. S. receives it, the husband alone shall have an account; per Popham Ch. J. to which Fenner J. agreed. Goldsb. 160. in pl. 91. Hill. 43 Eliz. in case of Huntley v. Griffith.

And the baron may either fue the bond in his own and feme, may well lie in jointure between a baron and his feme, but otherwise of other personal things; adjudged. Noy 149. Norton v. Glover.

name, or join his wife with him; said per eur. to be the better opinion. Sty. 9. Pasch. 23 Car. Heliar's case.

11. If an estray comes into the manor of the wife, and the baron dies before seisure, the wife shall have it; for seisure gives the property. Co. Litt. 351. b.

Cro. C. 345. In case of Ld. Hastings v. Douglass.

12. Personal goods of which the seme has property, are given to the husband by the marriage; but not such, of which she has a bare possession, as goods bailed to her, or found by her, or which she has as executrix; but the action of detinue must be brought against them both. Co. Litt. 351. b.

But otherwife it is a chose en

13. Legacy of 101. was left to a feme covert, payable 18 months after the death of the devisor. Testator dies. The husband band may release it before the time of payment. Per Montague action not Ch. J. 2 Roll. Rep. 134. Mich. 17 Jac. B. R. Anon. vested in the hulband, and shall survive Arg. Gibb. 206. cites Mo. 452. pl. 618. Goldsb. 159. pl. 91.

* 14. By the civil law, an acquittance by the husband for a le- Hob. 247. gacy to the wife is not sufficient without the wife's joining, but it Mich. Mich. 16 is otherwise by our law; and a prohibition was granted. Hutt. Jac. Watts 22. Mich. 16 Jac. Conisby's case. v. Conifby,

S. C. &

S. P. seems to be admitted. Het. 132. S. C. Hill. 4 Car. C. B. but seems only taken from Hob.

15. The benefit of a decree for baron and feme belongs to the feme, and not to the executors of the baron; certified by Hyde J. and confirmed by the court. Chan. Cases 27. Mich. 15 Car. 2. Nan- cordingly ney v. Martin.

Chan. Rep. 233. S. C. decreed ac-2 Freem. Rep. 172.

pl. 223. S. C. held accordingly.

16. The portion of an orphan in the chamber of London, if the 2 Vent. 343. husband die without altering the property, shall go to the seme; decreed by Ld. K. Bridgman, aflisted by Tursden and Wilde J. Chan. Cases 181. Trin. 22 Car. 2. Pheasant v. Pheasant.

5. C. decreed accordingly, for it is a chose en action, and not barely a depositum. _____ 3 Ch. Rep. 69. Pheasant v. Pheasant is not the S. P. A. on his son's marriage with B. in consideration of 1200 l. paid, and of 1200 l. more due to B. by the chamber of London, settles a jointure on ber of 240 l. per ann. The son dies. The father by bill claims the 1200 l. in the chamber of London, as a purchaser, by making the settlement; but the son having done nothing to alter the property, the bill was dismissed. Ch. Prec. 209. pl. 171. Mich. 1702., Rudyard v. Neirin. S. C. cited 2 Vern. 503. 2 Freem. Rep. 262. pl. 331. S. C. decreed accordingly. But the reporter says that most of the bar differed from the lord keeper in opinion.

17. A bond to the wife dum fola was by marriage articles to be paid to the baron after 12 months, and he to purchase land with it and settle it on himself and wife, and the heirs of their two bodies; remainder to the heirs of the baron. They had iffue a daughter. The husband dies, and the daughter dies. The bond unaltered being a chose en action survived to the wife, and was not liable at law to bond creditors, nor was the interest due Cited 2 Vern. 55. as the case of Lawrence v. Bethereon. verley.

2 Keb. 841. pl. 78. Mich. 23 Car. 2. Lawrence v. Beverleigh. S. C. adjudged.---S. C. cited Nelf. Ch. Rep. 165, 166,-----2 Vern. 58.

gited per mafter of the rolls, and fare the like judgment has fince been given in the case of Whitwick Jermin.

18. A and B. an only daughter and child, married to C. A. in 1656, made a nuncupative will, and bequeathed all his estate to B. and C. The court was of opinion that fince B. and C. had took out administration with the will annexed, as universal legatees; that the same was a sufficient assent to the bequest, and thereby the whole estate of A. vested in C. except debts unreceived and choses en action, and was subject to the will of A. That the debts of A. unpaid at the death of C. shall be in the first place paid out of the choses en action which did survive to B. as administratrix to A. That as to merchandize brought to England after the death of A. and

-Baron and Feme.

A. and C. in a ship of which A. had an eighth part, and which B. claimed as surviving administratrix, since the same remained in specie without alteration, they were in the same condition with the other goods of A. which did vest in C. by his bequest, and do not belong to B. but are to be disposed according to A's. will, to purchase lands for the benefit of D. Fin. Rep. 370. Trin. 30 Car. 2. Gundry v. Brown.

decreed to the wife, and not to the executors of the baron, he having made no particular disposition of it. Vern. 161. pl. 150.

Pasch. 1683. Twisden v. Wise.

[ 112 ]

20. In debt on a bond made to a feme covert during coverture, and by her husband's consent, the desendant pleads, that the husband made him his executor. It was held no good plea; and it was said that perhaps the reason why he made him his executor, was his giving that bond. 2 Show. 247. pl. 249. Mich. 34 Car. 2. B. R. Checkley v. Checkley.

If baron alone brings debt on a bond of the wife's and recovers

judgment,

this alters

the nature

11. If there be a bond debt due to the wife, the husband may fue alone without joining his wife, but if the wife be joined in the action, and judgment is recovered, the judgment will survive to the wife, but not being joined, the interest does vest by the judgment in the husband, and will go to his executors; per Ld. Ch. Jesseries. Vern. 396. pl. 366. Pasch. 1686. in case of Oglander v. Baston.

of the security and makes it the baron's, for by this the debt is turned into rem adjudicatum, and is no longer a chose en action; Arg. said it had been so adjudged lately in B. R. Yet Ld. Cowper seemed to think that such a judgment would not carry it to the husband's representatives against the wife surviving. Ch. Prec. 415. Trin. I Geo. In Canc. in case of Packer v. Windham.——G. Equ. Rep. 100.

S. P. in S. C. in totidem verbis.

- 22. Wife's portion, consisting of choses en action unaltered, and lands of inheritance shall survive to her, notwithstanding before the marriage the baron made a jointure adequate to her portion, and Ld. Jesseries dismissed the bill which was brought by the creditors of the baron to make them assets. 2 Vern. 68. pl. 63. Trin. 1688. Lister v. Lister & al'.
- 23. A. by will gives B. his daughter 400 l. and devised lands to ber till his son C. should pay her this 400 l.—B. marries D. D'.s father covenants to settle lands of 100 l. per ann. and C. the brother covenants to pay the 400 l. to D. and on payment the lands devised to the daughter were to be discharged of this 400 l.—D. dies.—Decreed that the 400 l. should go to B. The lords commissioners thought it still continued a charge on the land, and as a chose en action survived to the wise, though it was agreed that the husband during the coverture might have released or discharged it. 2 Vern. 190. pl. 173. Mich. 1690. Bowman v. Corie.
- 24. By a settlement made on the marriage, the baron and feme were made jointenants for their lives. The baron dies, leaving the land sown with corn. The question was, whether the emblements on the land settled should go to the wife, or to the executors of the husband, because in the case of strangers they would survive; but in the case of husband and wife, Lid. Roll was of opinion they should go to the executors of the husband. The court proposed to each to take a moiety, which was agreed to: 2. Vern. 322. pl. 311. Mich. 1694. Rowney's case.

25. A jointure was made in consideration of 100 l. portion, whereas Decreed by the wife had 1501. more in her brother's hands. The baron died. Decreed at the rolls, and confirmed on appeal, that the 150 h Should survive to the wife. 2 Vern. 502. Arg. cites it as peal to the the case of Cleeland v. Cleeland.

the master of the rolls : and on ap-Ed. Chancellor Somers, he was of opinion, that unless there was an agreement that the husband should have the other 1501. it will survive to the wife; but if the settlement had been in consideration of the subole portion, and had been equivalent to it, that would have amounted to an agreement that the husband should have it. Chan. Prec. 63. pl. 58. Mich. 1696. Cleland v. Cleland.

26. Husband alone might bring debt for portion promised to him . with his wife, and though land had been settled by husband upon wife in consideration of her fortune, of which this debt was part, yet he having not recovered it during coverture, the wife should recover it to her own use. And though it was pretended that there was a recovery in husband's time, and that they would prove by the Sheriff who had writ of execution, yet they having not the judgment [ 113 ] on which the execution was, it was ruled they could not give that in evidence; per Holt. 12 Mod. 346. Mich. 11 & 12 W. 3. Anon:

27. If the husband affigns a bond of the wife's for a valuable Ld. Keeper consideration, this will not bind the wife if she survives; for she claims paramount; per Ld. Keeper Wright. Ch. Prec. 121. Trih. an agreement 1700. in case of Burnet and Kinaston.

Wright said, thát perhaps to offign might be otherwise; but he thought it would not. Ibid. ____S. C. cited 2 Vern. 502.

28. A man marries a woman intitled to a mortgage in fee, and The wife ofter marriage assigns his interest in the mortgage to trustees, to call was not in the money, and lay it out in land, to be settled upon the husband and articles. wife, and their issue, remainder to the heirs of the husband. The Chan. Prec. husband dies without issue, and after the wife dies. This mort- 118. S. C. gage is as a chose en action, and the wife surviving, it shall go to there any her executor, and not to the executor of her husband. 2 Vern. consideration; 401. pl. 371. Mich. 1700. Burnett v. Kinnaston.

Wright.

Chan. Prec. 121. S. C .-- S. C. cited Arg. Ch. Prec. 416. and fays the reason was, that the husband could transfer only the same right that himself had. ____ Cowper C. said, that being a mortgage in Ja, the bushand could not d'spose of it without the wife, and the ekate in her gave her a right to the money. Ibid. 418.—But where there were articles before marriage, by which the husband was to disincumber his estate within 6 months, (within which time she died) and for every 1001. to settle 101. per ann. though the estate was but 70 l. per ann. and the fortune secured on land was 1250 l. yet Ld. Harcourt decreed the 12501. (the husband and wife being dead) to the administrator of the husband, he being a purthafor by the agreement, and having made some progress in discharging the estate. Ch. Prec. 312. Meredith v. Wynn. Abr. Equ. Cases, 70. S. C.

29. A mortgage for 1300l. taken in a trustee's name, was decreed 2 Freem. to the executors of the baron; per Wright K. who said, that in all cases where the baron makes an equivalent settlement, it shall be Pasch. 1705. Vol. IV. intended pi. 353.

intended he was to have the portion. The wife shall not have her Norbone's case, S. P. jointure and fortune both, and the rather in this case because a and icems trust, and the baron could not come at it, so as to alter the proto be S. C. perty, without the assistance of this court; and the widow was and the court held condemned in costs. 2 Vern. 501. pl. 451. Trin. 1705. Blois accordingly; and Martin, executors of Ld. Hereford v. Lady Hereford. and it was said that this case was the stronger, because it might be a question whether this was a chose en action; for being once money in the guardian's hands, the master of the rolls was of opinion, that it was not in the power of the grandmother, who was the guardian, to turn it into a chose en action, no more than a guardian or truftie can turn money into land, so as to make it go to the heir instead of the executor. ------See Ch. Prec. 414. Arg. S. P.

A settlement made by the baron, pursuant to an agreement before marriage, intitles him to the wife's fortune, though standing out upon bonds and other securities; for hereby he becomes a purchasor, espeeially if such settlement was made in consideration of that fortune. Arg. said that it had been several times settled in chancery. Gilb. Equ. Rep. 100. Trin. 1 Geo. in case of Parker y. Windham .-Chan. Prec. 414. Arg. S. P.

30. If husband lends money in his and his wife's name on mortgages and bonds, and dies, the wife is intitled to this by furvivorship, if there are assets sufficient without this money to pay debts; for she is in the nature of a joint-purchaser; per Harcourt

> 2 Vern. Rep. 683. pl. 608. Trin. 1712. Christ's Hospital v. Budgin & Ux'.

G. Equ. R. 103. S. C. & S. P. in totidem verbis.

31. An assignment by the baron of choses en action of the seme's is not sufficient to prevent its surviving to the feme, in case she survives the baron; for they are not assignable by law; per Ld. C. Cowper. Ch. Prec. 419. Mich. 1715. Packer v. Windham.

32. Bond debtor to the feme becomes bankrupt. The busband pays contribution money, and dies before the distribution. Feme survives; but dies before distribution. Per Cowper C. notwith-[ 114 ] standing the baron's paying the contribution-money, the property was not altered, but the debt remains a chose en action, and survived to the wife; but directed the feme's executors to repay the baron's executors the contribution-money. 2 Vern. Rep. 707. pl. 629. Mich. 1715. Anon.

33. The baron may release a chose en action belonging to the wife.

Arg. Ch. Prec. 414. Mich. 1715.

34. If trustees pay the wife's fortune to the baron, she can have no remedy. Arg. Ch. Prec. 414. Mich. 1715.

35. Feme before marriage seved 350 l. out of ber maintenancemoney, which was in her brother's hands. The brother gave a bond for it to the baron; but the steward proving that the baron said bis wife should have the 350 l. and that it should be placed out for her benefit; and having also, a little before his death, said be gave it to his wife, and 3 persons present wrote it down, and attested it as witnesses, though not by baron's direction, or with his knowledge; and though the baron after made two codicils, and in one of them devised several things to the wife, but took no notice of the 350l. or the bond for it, yet Cowper C. decreed it to the wife, not as a gift from the baron, but as declared and intended originally for her separate use. 2 Vcrn. Rep. 748. pl. 654.

Hill. 1716. The Earl of Shaftsbury v. Countess of Shaftspara.

36. A settlement was made by the husband in consideration of a secuvity which the wife had for 3000 l. and it was held that it should go to the husband's executors, the wife having survived him, actual agreethough it was objected that no assignment was made of it to him. L. P. Conv. 395. cites it as decreed by Ld. Cowper, 1716. Stanhope v. Thacker.

It was answered, that there was an ment previous to the marriage, that the husband should have the portion; per Reynolds Ch. B. Ibid. 396. --- Chan. Prec. 435. pl. 284. Trin. 1716. S. C. but S. P. does not appear.

- 37. Husband and wife, having issue one daughter, join in a conveyance of the wife's lands, and agree that 600 l. part of the purchasemoney, should be settled in manner following, viz. 30 l. a year, the interest thereof to be paid the husband during his life, and after his death to his wife for life, and after their deaths the interest to be paid to such daughter or daughters as shall be begotten between them, till they shall attain their respective ages of 21, or be married, and then the principal sum to such daughter or daughters; but in case there shall be no daughter, then to the survivor of the husband or wife. A. married the daughter, and in confideration of this 600 l. made a settlement on her. The daughter died in the life-time of her father and mother, and soon after the mother died without iffue. husband of the daughter is intitled to it, as her admini-Chan. Prec. 489. pl. 304. Pasch. 1718. Hewitt v. itrator. Ireland.
- .38. The baren, on marriage of a citizen of London's daughter, made a considerable settlement on her, and surrendered copyholds, and gave her by his will. Her father died, whereby she became intitled, by the custom of the city, to part of his personal estate, for payment whereof several specific securities of stocks were transferred to him and her jointly. He afterwards increased her jointure considerably, but never altered his will. Per Ld. Chancellor; the stocks undoubtedly belonged to the husband; but a husband may purchase to himself and his wife, and here he takes to himself and his wife, which is the same thing. There is a considerable accession of fortune to the husband; and as this came by her, it would be very hard by equity to take from her what the law gives her; and so ordered so much of the bill as sought to make the stocks in their joint names the estate of the husband, to be dismissed. Select Cases in Chan. in Ld. King's time, 48, 49. 11 Geo. 1. Lannoy v. Lannoy.

39. A. tenant for life, with power to make a jointure of 100 l. a [ 115 ] year for every 1000 l. on his marriage with M. with whom he received 8000 l. made a jointure of 800 l. a year, and covenanted to make a further additional jointure of 100 l. a year, for every 1000 % which he should receive, or be intitled to by virtue of M.'s father's or mother's will. A. died without issue, at which time M. was intitled to one half of a moiety of the surplus of her father's personal estate. Upon a bill by the creditors of A. to sub-jest M.'s share of the moiety to the payment of debts, and upon a bill by M. that in such case she may have a further jointure in proportion to such share to be made by the next in remainder, Ld. Chancellor King thought, that this could not be looked upon as bringing any further portion to A. and that it was not reasonable that A.'s creditors should have any benefit of the residue of M.'s fortune if ever that should be recovered, in regard she cannot bave any recompence in consideration thereof, pursuant to the articles for parting with it; and therefore decreed that he keep overplus of her estate to herself, without having any additional jointure, the remainder-man not being bound or affected by A.'s covenant any further than warranted by the original power. 2 Wms.'s Rep. (648.) pl. 205. Mich. 1731. Holt v. Holt.——And Gibson v. Holt.

40. A. upon his marriage with M. gave a bond to trustees, reciting, that by the marriage he should be greatly advanced in riches to the value of about 500 l. agreed to pay M. 10 l. a year to her separate use, and that she might dispose of 100 l. by will in his life-time, and if she survives him, he is to leave her 200 l. and all her wearing apparel, plate, &c. Part of her fortune consisted of a bond entered into with her by J.S. before her marriage with A. They intermarried. A. died, the bond from J. S. being unpaid; but A. before his death made a will, and B. his residuary legatee. Then M. dies. Ld. C. Talbot decreed this bond to the representative of A. and not of M. and faid, that most of the cases where choses en action have been decreed to the husband's representative, (he dying in the life-time of the wife,) have gone upon the reason of equality, there being a settlement made by the husband on his wife, whereby be became a purchasor of her fortune; and therefore on the one hand, as she was to have the provision made by the settlement, so on the other hand he should have her whole portion; that in the principal case the wife was tied up by the agreement, and so barred herself of the chance of survivorship, which she would otherwise have had by law, and that the husband's departure from the abfolute right which by law he had over the whole is of itself a sufficient consideration. Cases in Equ. in Ld. Talbot's time 168. Hill. 1735. Adams v. Cole.

In this case the lestator kave another legacy of halband, and made him one of the executors, fo that taking all the circumfiances together, it must be intended that the testator plainly intended this as a legacy to the separate use of his daughter, though he did not use the very words, and it was decreed accordingly. 10 Mod. 518. 531. S. C.

41. Legacy of 200 l. left to a feme covert by her father, to buy fomething to remember him withal, was ordered to be paid, after the husband's death, out of his personal estate, (though he had so l. to the laid it out in a piece of plate, and had bequeathed all his plate to her, but without interest. 9 Mod. 68. 70. 79. Mich. 10 Geo. Acherley v. Vernon.

> 42. On a bill by baron and feme to redeem a mortgage of the wife's estate, the defendant put in a plea, which was over-ruled, for which 5 l. costs is given to the plaintiff of course. The baron died. C. King for some time doubted; but afterwards taking it to been a joint judgment for a sum certain, determined that it did survive to the wife. 2 Wms.'s Rep. 496. pl. 158, Mich. 1728. Coppin

- *43. When the baron gets possession of the wise's portion, chancery will not take it from him, but a security for it survives to the wise; per attorney general, who said it was so laid down per Cowper C. in the case of Parker v. Windham. The master of the rolls said, that in the case of Parker v. Windham, the payment which was to a master in chancery was, as to a special committee, the wife being lunatic, and so vested it in the husband. Gibb. 148, 149. Mich. 4 Geo. 2. in case of Nightingale v. Lockman.
- 44. Bill for a legacy of 60 l. devised to her by will of Jos. Mills, 1715. when she should attain the age of 21; she attained that age 14 Feb. 1734. but before had married one Brotherow, who was dead, and the bill was against the desendant as executor of the testator, who denied assets; but it was objected, the executor or administrator of the husband ought to have been a party, for the right vested in the husband, who might release it; sed non allocatur; for the husband dying before the legacy was payable, it was in the nature of a chose en action, which would survive to the wise, and although the husband might possibly have released it, yet that shall not be presumed; and if it had been so, the desendant, to whom the release must be given, might make it appear. Comyns's Rep. 725. pl. 280. Pasch. 13 Geo. 2. Brotherow v. Hood in scace.

(C. a) [What] Things real [shall survive to the Wife.]

[1. ]F a lease for years be made to baron and seme, the seme shall Br. Baron and Feme, have it by survivorship. 43 Ed. 3. 10].

S. C.—Fitzh. Brief, pl. 561. cites S. C. & S. P. by Finch.

[2. The same law of a ward. 43 Ed. 3. 10.]

Br. Baron and Feme,

pl. 14. cites S. C. for this is a chattel real.——Fitzh. Brief, pl. 561. cites S. C.——Br. Chattels, pl. 3. cites 14 H. 4. 24. S. P. but that contrary it is of chattels personal vested in both.

3. If a villein and his feme purchase jointly, and the lord enters, and the villein dies, the seme or his heir collateral shall re-have the whole land; for there are no moieties between them. Br. Parliament, pl. 43. cites 40 Ass. 7.

4. Term of the wife was extended on a flatute of the busband who died, the wife shall have the residue of the term, and avoid the extent as to her term. Arg. 3 Le. 156. cites it as held by Goddard and Strange. 7 H. 6. 2.

5. Tenant in dower made a lease for years, reserving rent, and took baron. The rent was arrear. The baron dies. It was agreed per tot. cur. that his executors shall have the rent. Mo. 7. pl. 25. Mich. 3 E. 6. Anon.

Baron and Feme.

6. Baron possessed of a term in right of his wife, grants parcel of it to another, yet after the decease of the baron the seme shall have the residue of the term that was not granted, and it shall be only an alteration of what was granted; per Manwood J. Cro.

63. at the end of pl.

55. cites Co. Litt. 46. b. S. P.

Cro. E. 287.
7. Baron seised of a term in right of his wife, makes a lease v. Locrost, seems to be him, + the lease is good for the term, and after the lease is ended the wife shall have the residue. Poph. 4. Mich. 34 & 35 Eliz, that the B. R. Anon.

baron and seme were jointenants of a term, during coverture, for 60 years. The baron grants a lease, to commence after bis death, for 70 years, and dies. This shall exclude the wise; for here a good term was vested in interest, though not in possession, and is not like a man's granting his term to commence after his death.——Poph. 97. S. P. cited to be so adjudged, and also decreed good in chancery.—S. C. cited Mo. 395. pl. 514. in a nota there, as adjudged that the lease was good.——S. C. cited by Gawdy J. as adjudged accordingly. I Rep. 155. a.

+[117]

8. Baron and seme were jointenants of a term, and the baron took foossed the baron, who died seised, during coverture. Mo. 636, 637. pl. 876. Trin. 43 Eliz. C. B, the wise surviving; per

tot. cur. the acceptance of the feoffment by the baron was a surrender of the term, and it is extinguished; but if the conveyance had been by bargain and sale inrolled, or by fine, it had been otherwise. Cro. E. 912. pl. 24. Mich. 44 & 45 Eliz. B. R. Downing v. Seymour.

9. Baron seised of a term in right of his wife grants a renta b.—9 H.

charge and dies, she shall avoid the charge, though if he survived it should be good during the term. Co. Litt. 184. b.

10. The busband possessed of a term for 20 years in the right of Godb. 279. his wife made a lease of 10 years rendering rent to him, his executors. pl. 396. S. C. says and assigns, and died. Per Crooke J. his executors shall have the that Haughrent, and not the wife, for it is a special reservation, and she ton and comes in paramount; to which Haughton J. agreed, and faid Crook J. (Doderidge that the rent is incident to him who hath the reversion, and that . being abis the executor of the husband; and Hobart Ch. J. of C. B. besent) held ing demanded his opinion by Montague Ch. J. agreed that the contra Montague Ch. J. wife should not have it. Poph. 145. Trin. 16 Jac. B. R. Blax. that the rent ton v. Heath. was gone; but that it was agreed by them all, that the executors of the husband should not have it; but Montague held, that the wife should have it. And if the husband in this case had granted over the reversion, his grantee should not have the rent; but Montague Ch. J. said, that in that case the wife in chancery might be relieved for the rent.—S. P. by Periam J. but the wife shall have the residue of the term; but the other justices delivered no opinion. Cro. E. 279. pl. 5. Pasch. 34 Eliz. B. R. Lostus's case.—4 Le. 185. pl. 285. Mich. 29 Eliz. by Popham Ch. J.—For the rent is not incident to the reversion, because she was no party to the lease. Co. Litt. 46. b.——2 Lev. 100. Arg. cites Co. Litt. 46. b.——2 Vern. 63. in a note at the end of pl. 55. cites Co. Litt. 46. b.

S. P.——A man has a term in right of his wise, and leases part of it, reserving a rent; the wife surviving shall not bave the rest; Arg. and admitted by the other side. Vent. 259. in Marg. cites Co. Litt. 46. b.

11. A * real chattel survives to the wife in law, but not the trust N. Ch. R. 133. cites of fuch a real chattel. 3 Ch. R. 37. Pasch. 21 Car. 2. in the ex-Co. Litt. 69. chequer, in case of Attorney General v. Sands. --- * Br. Chattels, pl. 3. cites 14 H. 4. 24.

(D. a) [What Things] Real [shall survive to the Feme.

[1. ] F a feme seised of a rent service takes husband, and after Co. Litt. the husband dies, the seme shall have the arrearages incurred during the coverture. 15 Ed. 4. 10.]

351. a. at the bottom, S. P.

[2. If a feme leafes for life reserving rent, and after takes busband; after the death of the baron, the feme shall have the arrearages incurred during the coverture, and not the executors of the baron, because this issues out of the freehold. II R. 2. Ac-Count 49.]

[ 118 ]

[3. [So] if baron and feme are seised of a rent-service for their lives, rent incurs, and after the baron dies, the feme shall have the arrearages incurred during the coverture. 29 Ed. 3. 40. their lives. adjudged.]

Grant of a rent to baron and fime for The baron dies, the rent being arrear. The wife shall have the arrears, and so shall her administrator if she dies. Cro. E.

791. pl. 34. Mich. 42 & 43 Eliz. C. B. Temple v. Temple.

A widow as administratrix to her husband, brought an action of debt for arrears of rent incurred in the life-time of ber busband, which rent was granted jointly to the baron and feme; adjudged, that the arrearages belonged to her in jure suo proprio, and not as administratrix to her husband; therefore the declaring as administratrix was surplusage. Mo. 887. pl. 1248. Mich. 15 Jac. 1. Dembyn v. Brown. --- Hob. 208. pl. 262. Brown v. Dunnery, S. C. & S. P. per Hobart Ch. J. --- Brownl. 171. Brown v. Dunri, S. C. & S. P. adjudged.

[4. [So] if baron and feme leases for years rendering rent. If the feme after the death of the baron agrees to the leafe, she shall have the arrearges incurred during the coverture. 7 Ed. 4. 7. b.]

[5. [So] if a feme leases for years reserving a rent, and after takes baron and dies, the feme shall have the arrearages incurred during the coverture, and not the executor of the baron.]

[6. [But] if a feme leases for life reserving rent, and takes hus- F. N. B. band; and during the coverture, a receiver receives the rent of the 121. (C) in the new lesse, (it does not appear by whom he was made receiver, but it notes there seems to be intended that he received it for the baron and seme,) (e) cites and after the baron dies. The executors of the baron shall have the writ of account against the receiver, and not the seme, for this was for the life a chattel and duty in the baron by the receipt. II R. 2. Account of a feme 49. adjudged.]

S. C. that A. was leffed covert rendering rent, and B. receives the rent as receiver. The husband dies. The wife shall have account against B. and not against the executors of the husband; aliter as it seemed to Babington, &c. if the resceit had been of a personal duty.

[7. If the ward of the body and land of another be granted to baron and feme jointly, and the baron dies during the non-age, the feme shall have the ward. 2 Ed. 3. 42. per Mutt.]

[8. If a rent-charge be granted to A. a feme, and to B. for years, S. C. cited and they intermarry, and after arrearages incur, and after the baron 1156.

K 4

dies,

Baron and Feme.

dies, the seme shall have the residue of the rent, and also the arrearages in a writ of annuity, because they participate of the mature of the principal, and the executors of the baron shall not have the arrearages. Mich. 22 Jac. B. R. between Carew and Burgovne, per curiam, upon a demurrer, which intratur Trin. 18

Jac. Rot. 1187, vide 12 R. 2. Breve 639.]

S. P. cited by Popham Ch. J. Cro. E. 580. to have been adjudged in 15 Eliz. for it was uncertain in whom it should vest, and was not

9. Lands were demised to the husband and wife for their lives, remainder to the survivor of them for so many years. The husband granted over the term for years, and died. Adjudged that the wife should have the term, because there was nothing in the one or the other to grant over until there was a survivor; and if the wife had died after the grant, the husband surviving should have the term against his own grant. Cited by Popham Ch. J. Poph. 5. as a case which happened on a special verdict in the county of Somerset about 20 Eliz.

yet in esse, and therefore the baron could either [neither] release, grant or surrender it; but says, that if he had made a seoffment, that might perhaps have destroyed the possibility.

[119] (E, a) In what Cases the Act of the Feme during Coverture, shall charge the Baron.

S. C. cited by Hale Ch.

B. Sid. 114.

Pasch. 15

Car. 2. in the case of Manby v.

[I. IF a feme covert borrows of a man money, and with it cloaths by Hale Ch.

berself better than doth belong to her estate; though this comes to the use of the baron, because his seme of necessity ought to be cloathed, yet because it is beyond the degree, the baron is not chargeable with it. II H. 6. 30. b.]

Fitzh. Debt, pl. 168. cites $. Ç.

Scot.

[2. So if a monk of an abby will borrow and build the abby, and do more things than the abby can well bear, the abby shall not be charged with this, though it comes to the use of the house. 11 H. 6. 30. b.]

Fitzh: Debt, pl. 168. cites Trin. 4 E.2. S. P. [3. But otherways, if a monk borrows and employs it for the necessary use of the bouse, it will charge the house, dubitatur. 11 H. 6. 30. 12 H. 6. 5.]

Fitzh. Debt, [4. If a feme buys a thing of another, this will not charge the pl. 41. cites husband, unless it comes to the use of the busband, 20 H. 6. 21. S. P. by b. 22.]

Newton.—

If a feme buys any thing, and it is found by special verdict that it was spent in the houshold, &cc. yet the baron shall not be charged for it; but this is good evidence for the jury to find that the baron assumption, though it is not binding evidence. Resolved by 7 judges in the exchequer-chamber. Sid. 120. Pasch. 15 Car. 2. in case of Manby v. Scott.

Fitzh. Debt, [5. So if it comes to the use of the husband, if the contract was not to the use of the husband. 20 H. 6. 22.]

S. P. by Newton.—Feme covert cannot make any contract to charge her haron, without offent proceedent or subsequent, express or implied; per Foster Ch. J. and Windham J. They did not deny, but that, as circumstances might be, an express or implied assent of the baron may appear to the jury, so as the contract of the seme may be the contract of the baron; as if the goods come to his use, or that the appears well contented with the use of them. Lev. 5, 6. Mich. 12 Car. 2. B. R. in case of Manby $\forall \text{Scotts}$

- [6. But if the contract was to the use of the busband, and it came Fitch. Debt, pl. 41. cites to the use of the busband, it will charge him. 20 H. 6. 22.] S. C. & S. P. by Newton. But Fitsh. says, quære well of this diversity, &c. as if he commanded the wife to buy, &c.
- [7. If a woman buys things for her necessary apparel, without the consent of her husband, yet her husband shall be bound to pay it. M. 13 Jac. B. Sir Thomas Gardiner's case, per cunam.

[8. But otherwise it is, if it be not necessary; per curiam, in the said case of GARDINER. Vide D. 6. 7. El. 234. 17.]

[9. If a feme covert be a common taverner, and sells wine, and a man delivers several tuns of wine to her to sell without the assent of the baron, the baron is not chargeable for this in an account. 13 R. 2. Account 50. (It seems to be intended, that she was a common taverner, without the assent of her husband.)7

[10. If the baron takes a distress, and puts it in the pound, and the S. C. cited ewner comes to the pound, and there finds the wife, the baron 3 Le. 267. being absent, and tenders to the wife pledges, and prays a deliver- pl- 358ance, and the feme delivers it to him, this will be a good discharge for the owner in a parco fracto brought against him. 30 Ed. 3. 23.]

11. In assise the baron and feme are tenants in tail. The baron [ 120 ] goes out of the country, and the feme infeoffs J. S. Per tot. cur. The feoffthis is a diffeisin to the baron, and therefore a void feoffment. Br. Feoffment de Terre, pl. 23. cites 9 Ass. p. 20.]

ment of a feme covert is void. Br.

Feofiment de Tetre, pl. 48. cites 18 E. 4. 27-

12. If a woman seals a bond in her husband's presence, and be stands by and does not gainfay, it shall bind him; per the master of the rolls. 2 Freem. Rep. 215. pl. 288. cites a case in time of H, 8,

13. If a sale be in a market overt by a seme covert, (unless it be for such things as she usually trades for, or that it is by the consent of her husband,) if the buyer knows her to be a seme covert, the fale is not binding. 2 Inft. 713.

14. The wife, without her husband's affent, bought velvets and 5. C. cited files of W. for her apparel. W. had notice that she was a seme man Ch. J. covert. The busband paid the taylor for the making them, and also Sid. 124. of other garments made for the baron himself; and then the taylor requested the money for W, for the goods, but the baron refused to pay it. Upon this evidence the defendant offered to demur; but the jury was charged, and the plaintiff at their com-The jury affirmed that they would have ing back was nonfuited. given their verdict against the plaintiff; but Dyer said, that at the nisi prius he much doubted thereof. D. 234. b. pl. 17. Mich. 6 & 7 Eliz. at Guildhall. Wheeler v. Poines.

Paich. 15 Car. 2. in cam. fcacc. in the case of Manby v. Scott; and lays the doubt of Dyer is only upon the payment of the taylor, subather this amounted to a confent; so that without such consent the book is clear, that the defendant should not be charged. ——Hutt. 107. but mispaged, vis. 106. S. C. cited Arg. but by a wrong Hari

Le. 122. pl.
166. Trin.
30 Eliz.
Havithlome
v. Harvey,
S. C. ådjudged accordingly.

- 15. A feme covert was ferved with process as a witness, and tendered her charges, and she appeared not. After verdict it was moved in arrest, that she is not within the statute of 5 Eliz. cap. 9. and the tender of the charges ought to be made to her husband; for the charge lies upon him. But it was answered, that the action is not brought for the damages sustained by her non-appearance, but for the 10l. given by the statute; and that a seme covert is within the statute; for she may be the sole witness; and that she is the person punishable for not coming, and therefore the tender is to be made to her; and judgment for the plaintist. Cro. E. 130. pl. 3. Pasch. 31 Eliz. B. R. Havithbury v. Harvy.
- 16. In case of detainer by the wife, action shall be against the husband. Le. 312. pl. 433. Trin. 32 Eliz. C. B. Marsh's case.
- 17. Baron shall never be charged for the act or default of the wife, but when he is made party to the action, and judgment given against him and his wife; as for debt or scandal by the wife, or for trespass done by her, &c. there action of debt upon the case, trespass, &c. shall be brought against the baron and seme, and the baron shall plead, &c. and shall be party to the judgment; but if seme covert be indicted of trespass, riot, or other wrong, the wife shall answer, and be party to the judgment only, and therefore the sine put on the wife shall not be levied on the baron; per cur. 11 Rep. 61. b. Mich. 12 Jac. in Dr. Foster's case.

71 Mod. 253. in Mrs. Pool's case.

- 18. If a feme covert commits a riot, the husband shall not be chargeable for it. Arg. 3 Bulst. 87. Mich. 13 Jac.
- 19. If the wife speaks flanderous words, the husband shall answer for them. Arg. 3 Bulst. 87. Mich. 13 Jac.

[ 121 ]

- 20. A contract made with a feme covert is good. 27 H. 8. 26. in TATAM'S CASE; and it shall be said the contract of the husband. 30 E. 3. 9. A fale by feme covert is good, and he shall declare that he himself sold this; per Coke Ch. J. 3 Bulst. 90. Mich. 13 Jac.
- 21, If a feme covert commits a trespass, the baron shall be punished for it; per Twisden J. said that this is allowed by our law. Sid. 113. Pasch. 15 Car. 2. in cam. scace. Arg.
- 22. The defendant's lady bought several goods of the plaintiff, a mercer, and desendant paid him for them; afterwards she parts from her bushand, and takes up more goods before the plaintiff had notice of her leaving her husband. In an action against the husband, it was ruled by Ch. J. North, at Guildhall, that the husband was liable, the plaintiff having no notice of their parting, and the husband having formerly paid for what his wife had taken up, induced the plaintiff to trust her again; but if she had taken up goods of a stranger after she was parted from her husband, it seemed that he would not have been liable; ex relatione Serj. Rawlins. Freem. Rep. 248, 249. pl. 267. Hill, 1677. Hinton v. Sir John Hudson,

23. Several goods were devised to A. seme of B. for life, and after her decease to the Lord Paget; in this case, though A. was parted from B. and there had been great suits for alimony, and feme during separation had wasted these goods, yet lord keeper thought it reasonable that the husband should be charged for this conversion of the feme, the Lord Paget's title being paramount the feme, and not under her. Vern. 143. pl. 136. Hill. 1682. Ld. Paget v. Read.

24. A wife trades by ber husband's consent, and gives bills for money, and he receives the profit. The wife borrowed 1001. and died, and a bill was brought against the husband for the money. An iffue was directed to try, whether the money was borrowed for carrying on the trade; for if it was, the husband should be decreed 2 Freem. Rep. 215. pl. 281. Pasch. 1697. by the master of the rolls, Bowyer v. Peake.

25. Feme covert purchases lands without the consent of her hus- Ld.Raym. band, he may have trover for the money; but if the buys land, or any thing else, pursuant to an authority given by him, he cannot S. P. acavoid it afterwards, though he might countermand it before; but cordingly, if the buys necessaries for berself, house, and family, though without her husband's privity, yet he shall be bound; because by prefumption of law she understands as well how to purchase them as her husband does; at Guildhall. Cumb. 450. Trin. 9 W. 3. Garbrand v. Allen.

Rep. 224. S. C. & by Holt Ch. . but he held, that if the hulband (though not privy at the time,) afterwards consents to it, the property of the money is altered, and he cannot bring trover; but otherwise if he is neither privy nor consenting.

26. Wife's contract is not binding where the husband expressly gives warning before-hand. 1 Salk. 118. pl. 10. Pasch. 2 Ann. coram Holt Ch. J. at nisi prius at Guildhall, Ethrington v. Parrot.

27. If baron and feme cohabit, and feme deals separately, her salk. 113. contracts shall charge the husband; for cohabitation is sufficient pl. 2. S. C., at nifi prius evidence of notice; per Holt Ch. J. 6 Mod. 162. Pasch. 3 Ann. at Guitchall. B. R. Langford v. Tyler.

(E. a. 2) Baron. Chargeable; for what Debts of [122] Feme, contracted before Marriage.

1. TF a feme bound in debt takes baron, he shall be charged during the life of the feme, but not after her death, because cessante causa cessabit effectus. Br. Baron and Feme, pl. 27. cites 49 E. 3. 23.

2. Citation was sued in the spiritual court against a seme sole upon sander, and the libel proved for the plaintiff, upon which the court awarded 101. to the party for his costs, and for the defamation, and after the seme took baron, and made the baron her executor, and died, and after citation was against the baron as executor of bis seme, to pay the sum to the party, upon which prohibition was sued, and the other prayed consultation; and per the opinion of the court, because the slander is spiritual, and they cannot award a better recompence than money, and that the baron has proved the testament of the seme, and so agreed that she made him executor, that therefore consultation shall be granted; but several serjeants contra, and that the spiritual court cannot award a sum of money, and that the slander dies with the person, and all that which depends upon it likewise; but Brooke says, it seems to him that it is a debt, and by the death of the seme the debt shall not run upon the baron, but it seems, by the prebate of the testament, he has taken it upon him to pay it in law. Br. Consultation, pl. 5, cites 12 H. 7. 22.

The bushand
3. A. married a feme, executrix, subject to a devastavit; if A. made a will, have not sufficient to satisfy, himself shall be imprisoned for the executrix, debt. Cary's Rep. 34. Trin. 1 Jac.

debted, leaving affets, which the possessed berself of, and wosted, and then married a second husband; per Coke Ch. J. though no assets came to the hands of the baron, yet he is chargeable for the waste done by his wife before the coverture. Roll. Rep. 263, 269. pl. 44. Mich. 13 Jac. B. R. in case of Lumley v. Hutton.

A. makes his wife executrix; she takes a second husband. It was decreed, that she should be answerable for so much of the former husband's personal estate as she had possessed, and that though he sook it as a portion with the widow, and this is in favour of the heir, though there were no creditors concerned, but was only to have the personal estate applied in ease of the real. 2 Vern. 61. pl. 53. Pasch. 2688. Batchilor v. Bean.

- 4. In debt against baron and seme, as administratrix to her surfict husband, judgment being given against them, the sheriff returned nulla bona, &c. of the intestate, whereupon another si. sa. was brought against them, that if it be found that they devastaverunt bona & si constare poterit, tunc. si. sa. and the sheriff returned, that they had no goods of the intestate in their hands, but that the wife had goods to the value of 1001. which she had wasted during her widowhood, and that the husband had not wasted any of them, & si devastaverunt according to the writ, the jury pray the discretion of the court. It was argued, that this was a devastavit in both; and the court held, that the return of what was found by the jury was good enough, and judgment for the plaintiff. Cro. C. 603. pl. 7. Hill. 16 Car. B. R. Kings v. Hilton.
- During the 5. It was admitted on all sides, that if a feme sole is indebted, and coverture.

  Thid. 189.

  —Per Wms. liable to the payment of her debts. 3 Mod. 186. Hill. 3 Jac. 2.

  J.Bulk. 137. B. R. in case of Obrian v. Ram.

  cites it as adjudged in the case of Grubb v. Johnson.—Feme sole gives warrant of attorney, and then marries, you may file a bill, and enter judgment against both. Show. 91. Hill. 1 W. & M.

[ 123 ] 6. A. marries B. an administratrix; B. bad wasted great part

For what of the estate before the marriage. After the marriage a suit is brought

brought against them for a distribution, according to the act of hands before parliament, and a decree is had for that purpose, and then the wife dies; per Lds. commissioners, the husband is not to be cond huscharged further than what came to his or his wife's hands after marriage. 2 Vern. 118. pl. 117. Mich. 1689. Sanderson far as he v. Crouch.

marriage with the foband he is to fatisfy to has estate of hers.

Chan. Prec. 255, 256. pl. 208. Pasch. 1706. Powell v. Bell.——And ibid. 256. Mr. Vermon faid, that it had been several times held, that where a man marries a woman without Ripulating for any particular fortune, or making any fettlement, if after the death of his wife debts of here appear, the husband (not being a purchasor in such case) shall be answerable for the debts of the wife in equity, so far as he had any money or other personal estate of hers. ———In such case he shall be liable to make it good, even at law, during the coverture, but not after, whatever fortune he had with her; but in equity he may, if he has any specific affets of her testator's after her death; so if he has any thing merely in her right, so far he shall be liable for watte before marriage; but for the fortune at large of the wife, it was never yet carried so far as to charge the husband on account thereof after her death, especially where the husband was a purchasor of the wite a fortune for a valuable confideration, by making a settlement on her; per Mr. Vernon, Arg. Chan. Prec. 432, 433. Hill-3735-

- 7. Feme dum fola gives bond; if the husband dies, his executor is not chargeable with this debt. Arg. 10 Mod. 161. Trin. 12 Ann.
- 8. A freeman of London having iffue 2 daughters, devises 60001. s-piece to them, and makes his wife executrix. By an estimate it appeared that bis personal estate at his death was 18,000%. to 60001. of which the widow being intitled, A. her 2d husband, in confideration thereof, settled a jointure of 600l. per ann. Afterwards a loss of 12,000 l. befell the freeman's estate; and though the wife was dead, and it was urged that the 2d husband was a purchaser of her fortune, yet it was decreed that the daughters should have a proportionable recompence out of the 6000l. for where he takes notice in the articles that the 6000l. he has with his wife, who was executrix of her former hulband, was part of her first husband's personal estate, upon an account open and unliquidated, he comes in as a purchaser thereof, subject and liable to an account; that is, as so much as upon the account might be coming to her; and besides having taken collateral security that her share should amount to the 6000l. he shall be liable to e loss befalling the personal estate afterwards, as far as the wife's proportion amounts to (though she is dead), together with her 2 daughters-in-law, who were each intitled to a 3d part by the cuftom of London; per Cowper C. Chan. Prec. 431. Hill. 1715. Paget v. Holkins.
- 9. Where a man marries a widow executrix, &c. her evidence shall not be allowed to charge her 2d husband with more than she can prove to have actually come to her hands. Agreed per cur. Abr. Equ. Cases, 227. Hill. 1719.

(E. a. 3) Baron chargeable for what Debts of the Feme contracted before Marriage, after her Death.

1. TATHERE the feme dies, the baron shall be discharged of the Br. Baron debt of the feme dum sola suit; for cessante causa cessabit and Feme, pl. 27. cites effectus. Br. Dette, pl. 48. cites 49 E. 3. 25. S. C. and there Hammond faid, that if obligation be made to a feme sole, who takes baron and after the dies, the baron hall have the action, and by confequence shall be charged of the debt of his feme after her death; but Perfy said, you speak openly against the law; to which several agreed.

It was agreed, that debts of the wife before coverture shall not charge the husband, unless recovered in ber lifetime; so if a judgment be had against a seme sole, and the marries, and afterwards dies, the husband is not chargeable. 3 Mod. 186. Hill. 3 Jac. 2. B. R. in case of Obrian v. Ram. - Arg. 10 Mod. 163.

If the feme dum sola gives bond, and marries, and dies, the baron is not liable. Arg. 10 Mod. 161.

• [ 124 ] Ow. 133. Smith v. Jones, S. C. the defendent.— Yelv. 184. S. C. adjudged against the plaintiff, that the defendant is not chargeable with the legacy; for he is neither executor, nor privy to the will; and though he had possession of the goods, yet inasmuch as he came to them lawfully by the intermarriage with the executrix, he has by her death only a bare custody of the goods, for which he shall not be charged either in court christian or at common law, unless he had converted them to his own use after his wise's death; but the plaintiff might compel the defendant to deliver the goods to the ordinary, or to take out letters of administration, to the intent to sue him in court christian for the legacy.—— 44, 45. S. C. adjudged for the defendant. Fleming Ch. J. admitted that he might be fued in the spiritual court for those goods; but said that he had a good answer to plead there in bar, viz. that he is ready to reflore them to the administrator; and this will be a good plea, in regard they came to him by his wife.

2. A. bequeathed 7 l. to the plaintiff, and made his wife executrix, and died. She married the defendant, who had divers goods of the adjudged for testator's in his hands, and in consideration the plaintiff would forbear to sue him he promised to pay it. The defendant pleaded that his wife was dead before the promise supposed to be made; and adjudged for the defendant; for the feme being dead, he is not chargeable; and as to goods in his hands, he is hable to the executor or administrator for them. Cro. J. 257. pl. 16. Mich. 8 Jac. B. R. Smith v. Johns.

A. appointed his personal estate to be sold, and limited the money to M. his sister, for life, remainder over, and made M. executrix, who married J. S. and dies. A bill is brought against J. S. to account for the personal estate which came to the hands of M. It is not proved in the cause, that the same came to the defendant's hands, nor is he the representative of M. Per Ld. Ch. King, here is no foundation for this bill against desendant. The prayer of the bill is to have an account of the personal estate that came to M.'s hands, who was executrix, which can be granted against none but against her executor or administrator. How far there might be a foundation for such bill against defendant, if the testator's personal estate were preved to bave come to bis bands, he thought not necessary to determine in the principal case, which went off upon other points. Gibb. 68. Trin. 2 & 3 Geo. 2. in Canc. Green v. Rodd.

> 3. It has been held, that where a man married a woman trader, who died, and at her death was indebted to feveral persons for wares which she had bought of them, and which were by her in specie at the time of her death, and came to the hands of her busband, that though a bill be brought against him, he may either pay for those goods, or let the person have them again; yet he may insist that he is neither executor nor administrator to his wife, and therefore not liable to her debts, and that all her goods belong to him by law. Ruled upon demurrer. Abr. Equ. Cases, 60. Trin. 1700. Blackmore v. Ley. But quære.

tore

4. Judgment was obtained against a seme sole. She marries; then the plaintiff sues a scire facias against husband and wife, and has a judgment quod habeat executionem against them. Then the wife dies, and the plaintiff sues a scire facias against the husband, and has judgment quod habeat executionem against him; and refolved to be well, upon a writ of error out of Ireland. Cited by Holt Ch. J. as the case of Obrian v. Ram. 2 Ld. Raym. Rep.

1050. Mich. 3 Ann.

5. A. married a feme sole trader, and she dies indebted. It was infifted, that though the husband in such cases be not liable at law to the debts, yet he ought to be so in equity; but Ld. C. Parker said, that this was a question with him; for the husband runs a hazard in being liable to the debts, much beyond the wife's personal estate; and that, in recompence for such hazard, he is intitled to the whole of the personal estate, though exceeding the debts, and discharged therefrom, and indeed is intitled to the same upon the very marriage. Wms.'s Rep. 466. 469. pl. 132. Trin. 1718. in case of the Earl of Thomond v. the Earl of Suffolk.

6. M. was indebted to A. her mother in 2000l. by bond, and then A. by will devised this 2000 l. to J. S. Afterwards M. mar- Wms.'s ried, and survived her husband, and afterwards married W. R. who bad with her several jewels, and a rent-charge of 15001. a year. About 10 years after this last marriage M. died, and then A. died, without having ever put the bond in suit. Ld. C. Parker held, that if W. R. had been executor or administrator of his wife, or executor of his own wrong, he had been liable at law as far as he had affets; but he appears not to the court in any of these capacities; and that, for aught appears, A. purposely omitted recovering judgment against him; that the husband, during the coverture, is answerable for the wife's debts, though he has nothing with her; and on the other hand, if he has received a per- 1735, per fonal estate with his wife, and happens not to be sued during the coverture, he is not liable; and in the principal case the jointure en- Heard v. joyed by W. R. might have determined the next moment after Sumford.marriage; and as to the demand from W. R. of his faid wife's The case debt, his lordship dismissed the bill with costs. Wms.'s Rep. feme, gave 461. pl. 132. Trin. 1718. The Earl of Thomond v. Earl of a promiffery Suffolk.

[ 125 ] Kep. 470. at the bottem is a note, that agrecable to this resolution, and on theauthority thereof, it was determined in Lincoln's-Inn-hall. March 8, Ld. Talbot. in case of note for 50 le and then married A. the defendant, who had ready money with her, and likewife choses en action, some of which be received in her life-time, and the rest he took as administrator to her. Upon a bill for payment of this mote the defendant infifted, that fuch part of her fortune as was not reduced into possession by him during the coverture, and which he received after her death as administrator, was not near sufficient to pay her debts, and had already paid more than that amounted to. Ld. C. Talbot decreed an account of what the husband had received since his wife's death, as administrator to her; and that he should be liable to so much only; but as to any further demand against her, he dismissed the bill; and said, that the marriage is no gift in law of the goods which she has en auter droit; and that upon this reason only are founded all the cases, where a surviving husband has been charged with the wife's debts after her death. Cases in Equ. in Ld. Talbot's time, 173. Hill. 1735. Heard v. Stanford.

7. A woman entered into a bond, and after married, having brought her husband a very considerable fortune. The busband constantly paid the interest of the bond during the life of the wife. Now a bill is brought against the husband for the payment of the bond, and * 1 Chan. Cases, 295. was cited; and that having paid the interest, was a taking the debt upon himself. But the bill was dismissed, though without costs. Select Cases in Chan. in Ld. King's time, 19. Trin. 11 Geo. Jordon v. Foley.

• See Free. man v. Goodham.

(E. a. 4) Baron chargeable for what Debts, &c. of the Feme contracted during Marriage.

1. TIFE of A. receives 101. to the use of A. and this comes to the profit of A. in a convenient and necessary way, though it was without A.'s order or consent after, yet A. is liable to this debt, and count shall be of a receipt by the hands of the baron. Jenk. 4. pl. 5.

If the wife tells her husband that the will buy Such a thing which is necellary, and the husband tells her that be will not forbids the tradesman to give his wife and after-

2. A feme covert bought tobacco, and the husband was fued for it, though he had made proclamation that no man should trust ber, and no proof was that it came to the husband's use, or that the wife did use to buy and sell for the husband; and it was ruled, that it shall be intended she did so as his servant; and the judge took this difference, where particular notice is given not to trust the wife, there, if the party, to whom such notice is, do trust her, it is at allowit, and his peril; but not so upon this general notice by the proclamation abovefaid; and in this case it was proved she had formerly bought and fold, but not lately. Clayt. 125, 126. pl. 223. March 1647. credit for it, before Germin J. Watson's case.

wards the wife takes up that thing of the same + tradesman upon credit given her by him, the husband is not liable. It is fosficient for the husband to give general notice that people do not give credit to his wife. Ld. Raym. Rep. 444, 445. says it was so ruled at Exeter Lent-assiss by Holt Ch. J. 10 W.

3. in case of Longworthy v. Hockmore.

† [ 126 ]

3. If the baron is beyond sea in any voyage, and during his absence the wife buys necessaries, this is good evidence for a jury to find that the baron assumpsit. Sid. 127. Pasch. 15 Car. 2. in cam. scacc.

in case of Manby v. Scott.

4. But such evidence is only presumptive, and not conclusive evidence, and therefore the jury in such case finding it specially, the court cannot give judgment against the baron; for there being necessaries, and the employment, with the residue of the cial circumstances, is not but matter of evidence, upon which the jury should proceed to ascertain the fact, whether the baron promised or not. Sid. 127. in case of Manby v. Scott.

5. And the baron might contradict such presumptive evidence by other proofs; as that he gave her ready money to buy, &c. Sid.

127. in case of Manby v. Scott.

6. The father devised legacies to his children, and made the mother executrix. She married again and died. The infants brought a bill a bill against their father-in-law, to have an account of the personal estate of the father; but decreed, that not being called to account in the life-time of their mother, he was not responsible now. Fin. Rep. 95. Hill. 25 Car. 2. Gratwick v. Freeman.

[127]

7. If the wife pawns her cloaths for money, and afterwards borrows money to redeem them, the husband is not chargeable unless he were consenting, or that the first sum came to his use. 2 Show.

283. pl. 276. Hill. 34 & 35 Car. 2. B. R. Anon.

8. In case brought for wares fold and delivered by the plaintiff, to the wife of the defendant, non assumpsit was pleaded, and upon evidence it appeared that the goods were silver fringes and laces for a petticoat and fide-saddle, and that they were all delivered within the compass of four months, and that they amounted to 941. and that part of them were delivered to a carrier for the wife of the defendant, by the order of Mrs. Rider, upon a letter of the wife to Mr. Rider, and that the other part were delivered upon a letter of the wife to the plaintiff; and that the laces were worn and iffed by the wife in the view of the defendant, and that the wife at that time lived with the defendant in the same house. For the defendant infifted, that long time before the delivery of these goods, there was a difference between him and his wife, and that they for the space of two or three years had not lived together, and that the wife declared to the defendant that she would charge him with 5001. in one term, and would have him in a gaol in the next, and all this before the goods were delivered; and that for many years the wife had an allowance for cloaths, viz. 501. per ann. and no evidence was given that she had any occasion to have these clothes so as they could appear to be necessary. And the same day another action was tried for velvet and tissues of 31. per yard, to the value of 801. and Treby Ch. J. directed, that if the jury found the plaintiff innocent of the design of the wife to ruin the busband, and delivered the laces, &c. as goods fit for the wife, and upon the credit of the husband without notice of the difference between them, that the husband shall be obliged to pay the plaintiff, for it is part of his promise of marriage to feed and cloath her; and though she had an allowance, this was fecret, and of which the plaintiff had not notice; but if the plaintiff had notice of the differences between the husband and wife, and sold them only to enable the wife to ruin the husband, then the defendant would not be chargeable, and though the husband be chargeable heretofore, yet after fuch a folemn trial, and their differences made so public, he held that the husband shall not be chargeable; and likewise if the plaintiff was not privy to their differences, but delivered the goods innocently, yet if the goods were not fuitable to the quality of the wife, the defendant should not be chargeable; and if part be only suitable, he should be charged for that part only. Upon this direction, the jury being of gentlemen, found generally for the plaintiff for his whole damages. Skin. 348. pl. 18. Pasch. 5 W. & M. in B. R. Morton and Withens.

9. Debt against husband for the lodging of his wife, and proof only made that he formerly cohabited with her, and owned her as Vol. IV.

L

bis wife, and held sufficient to charge him, but that he might difcharge himself by giving elopement in evidence; for they that will trust a wife after she has eloped, do it at their peril. 12 Mod. 372.

Pasch. 12 W. 3. Car v. King.

10. While they cohabit the husband shall answer all contracts Though Be be ever so of the wife for necessaries; for his affent shall be presumed to all lewd; for necessary contracts upon the account of cohabiting, unless the he took her contrary appear; per Holt Ch. J. at Guildhall. 1 Salk. 118. for better for worse. Pasch. 2 Ann. Etherington v. Parrot. J Salk. 119.

pl. 13. Pasch. 3 Ann. Robinson v. Greenold. ——6 Mod. 171. S. C. and S. P. by Holt Ch. J. accordingly; and the case was, that the husband discovering his wife to be a very lewd woman west from her, and the after having lived feveral years with an adulterer, was received into the plaintiff's house, who entertained her as the husband's wife, and afterwards brought an indebitatus assumption against the husband for lodging and dieting his wife.

11. If a wife takes up clothes, as filk, &c. and pawns them The hufband shall before made into clothes, the husband shall not pay for them because answer for they never came to his use, otherwise if made up and worn, and necessaries, according to then pawned; per Holt Ch. J. at Guildhall. 1 Salk. 118. pl. 10. the degree Pasch. 2 Ann. Etherington v. Parrot. and quality of the husband; but if a man lends a married woman money to buy necessaries and she does so, he has no semedy against the husband, but equity will suffer the lender to stand in the place of the tradesmen of whom such necessaries were bought; per master of the rolls. Ch. Prec. 502. pl. 312. Mich. 1718. Aon.

12. If baron * turns away his wife, he gives her credit where-In fach case he must ever she goes, and must pay for necessaries for her; but if she + fend credit with her for runs away from her husband, he shall not be bound by any conreasonable tract she makes; per Holt Ch. J. 1 Salk. 118. pl. 10. Pasch. expences; 2 Ann. Etherington v. Parrot. per Hoit

Ch. J. 12 Mod. 245. in case of Todd v. Stokes. .............. P. held accordingly by Holt Ch. J. Holt's Rep. 104. pl. 13. Pasch. 5 Ann. in case of James v. Warren.

+ When such separation becomes notorious, the husband is not liable unless he takes her again. I Salk. 119. pl. 13. Pafch. 3 Ann. by Holt Ch. J. in case of Robinson v. Greenold.

So if baron goes away from ber; per Holt Ch. J. 1 Saik, 119. Robinson v. Greenhold .- And leaves ber not sufficient to maintain berself; per Holt Ch. J. Holt's Rep. 104. in case of James v. Warren. - But if he turns away his wife or leaves her, and before the takes up any thing the husband proposes to maintain her at home, (though yet he will not lie in bed with her) yet if after such offer or proposal made and refused, any money was disbursed for the wife, this will be at the peril of the person so disbursing, unless the jury are of opinion that such offer was deceitful and fraudulent. For a wife is to be maintained by her husband, where and how he thinks fit according to his ability. Holt's Rep. 104. pl. 13, Pasch. 5 Ann. James v. Warren.

> 13. If a woman be found guilty of a battery and fined, the hufband shall not be liable, per cur. 11 Mod. 253. pl. 3. Mich. 8 Ann. B. R. in Mrs. Pool's case, 14. A feme, who had the foul distemper given her by her bushand Ch. Prec. 302. pl. 312. twice, left him, and borrowed 30 l. of W. R. to pay doctors and Anon-Mich. 1718. seems apothecaries, and for necessaries. It was said by the master of the to be S. C. rolls, that admitting the wife cannot at law borrow money, though for necessaries, so as to bind the husband, yet this money [ 128 ] being applied to the use of the wife for her cure and necessaries, the plaintiff who lent this money, must in equity stand in the place of the persons who found and provided such necessaries for her.

> And therefore as such persons would be creditors of the husband, 10

- fo W. R. shall stand in their place and be a creditor also; and his honour directed the trustees (to whom the husband then deceased had devised lands for payment of all his debts) to pay W. R. his money and likewise his costs. Wms.'s Rep. 482. Mich. 1718. Harris v. Lee.
- 15. If a married woman comes into a shop to buy goods, and the twner not being willing to trust her because she is under coverture, a third person coming by undertakes for the payment, the court thought it clear that the owner cannot come upon the husband for the payment. Barnard. Rep. in B. R. Mich. 2 Geo. 2. in case of Garnum v. Bennet.

How far the contract of the feme shall bind the baron. See Lev. 4. Sid. 109. to 131. Mod. 124. to 144. and in abundance of places in 1 Keb. the case of Manby v. Scott.

(E. a. 5) Second Baron. Where chargeable.

Acknowledged a statute and died intestate, and upon an extent it was returned mortuus. A new extent was is sued, upon which was returned, that the widow administratrix bad sold the goods of the deceased; whereupon the extent issues of the goods of the second baron. Mo. 761. pl. 1056. Trin. 3 Jac.

in chancery, Heyward's case.

2. A. fettled lands on trustees after his death for the payment of bis debts, and the trustees not at all acting, his wife after his death enters and takes the profits. Then she marries again, and her husband continued to take the profits during his life as she did before.—

He dies, and she again received the profits, and after married the defendant, who also continued to take the profits till the heir of A. came of age. On a bill by a creditor of A. it was decreed by the master of the rolls, that the defendant, the last husband, shall be liable in respect of the profits received by the wife and her former husband and himself to the payment thereof, so far as the profits taken by either of them did extend. And upon appeal, the court conceived the decree just, and that the defendant must take his wife chargeable with this debt. Chan. Cases 80. Hill. 18 & 19 Car. 2. Gilpen v. Smith.

3. On arguing exceptions to the master's report, the question was, how far the second husband should be charged of his own estate, for a devastavit and breach of trust by the wife and her first busband. Per cur. where there is a bond there is a lien by deed, and so the second husband bound; but where there is barely a breach of trust or debt by simple contract, there, in equity, the plaintiff ought to follow the estate of the wife in the hands of the executor of the first husband. Vern. Rep. 309. pl. 303. Hill.

1684. Norton v. Sprigg.

(E. a. 6) Survivor charged or benefited.

I. RARON marries a feme wrongfully seised of lands, and after the marriage she occupies them without the baron's assent, yet action lies against both, as well for the occupation before the es-[ 129 ] pousals, as after during the seme's life; but after her death action lies not for this occupation against the baron; but if the person who has right enters into the land after marriage, and the baron re-enters in right of his feme, or if after the marriage, he occupies the lands, and then the feme dies, trespass lies against him; per Rede J. Kelw. 61. Pasch. 20 H. 7. pl. 1.

2. A. feme sole makes an agreement with other person to distribute the residue of the estate of M. among them, and after marries the defendant; per cur. what came in between seven and eight years after marriage by the death of the said M. was not within the compass of the said agreement, but was to go to the benefit of the husband. Chan. Rep. 26. 3 Car. 1. fol. 883. Ricksers v.

Herne.

Jo. 417. pl. 5. S. C. but S.P. does not appear.—— S. C. cited 672.---A feme covert cannot the coverture, though

3. If a man marries an executrix and wastes the goods, it is a devastavit in the wife; per cur. For it was her folly to take such husband that would make a devastavit; and by Jones J. if a recovery against baron and feme be in a devastavit, if the baron sur-Arg. Lutw. vives the wife he shall be charged, and if the feme survives she shall be charged; but if the recovery be not against baron and feme in the life of the feme and she dies, the baron shall not be traite during charged. Cro. C. 519. pl. 20. Mich. 14 Car. B. R. in case of Mounson v. Bourn.

the wasting of the baron shall charge her if she survives; adjudged. 2 Lev. 145. Trin. 27 Car. 2.

B. R. Horsey v. Daniel.

3. C. cited by Ld. C. Talbot; Cases in Equ. in Ld. Talbot's time, 275. Hill. 1735. in case of

4. The wife when fole bought goods for money, and after martied, and died. The goods came to the husband's hands after ber death, but the debt remained unpaid; the bill was by the creditor to discover the goods. Defendant demurred, but over-ruled by the lord chancellor, who with some earnestness said he would change the law in that point. Chan. Cases 295. Mich. 28 Car. 2. Freeman v. Goodham.

Heard v. Stanford, who observed that the goods never coming to the husband's hands till after the wife's death, made it a very hard case upon the creditor, and probably occasioned the saying of the Ld. Nottingham, but that even there he over-ruled a demurrer to a bill for the discovery of the goods, and it does not appear what became of the cause afterwards.

> 5. If busband and wife bave judgment in scire facias for a debt due to the wife, the benefit thereof survives to the husband; for the judgment is joint, and therefore shall survive; if the husband outlives the wife, he shall have the benefit of it; and if the wife outlives the husband, she shall have the same benefit of it; per Holt Ch.; J. but Rooksby J. dopbted. Comyns's Rep. 31, 32. Mich. 9 W. 3. B. R. Anon.

> > 6. Baron

6. Baron by reputation only, as where the marriage was by a mere layman, (a fabbatarian) is not intitled to administration to the wife. 1 Salk. 119. Heydon v. Gould. 9 Ann. coram delegatis at Serjeant's Inn in Fleet-street.

7. A feme dum fola gave a bond, and then married. The buf- Wmi's Rep. band became bankrupt. The bond-debt is discharged by the bank- 249. pl. 57: ruptcy of the husband, so that if he dies she shall not be further ibid. 257. chargeable; per Parker Ch. J. who declared the judgment of the S. P. court as to the first part, and his own opinion as to the latter part. 10 Mod. 243. &c. Trin. 13 Ann. B. R. Miles v. Williams.

8. Bill by the heirs and residuary legatees of Sir W. Milman against Lady Milman, executrix of Sir W. M. to have an account of the testator's estate. It being proved in the cause, that Sir W. M. being very old and infirm for 7 years before his death, did not receive money bimself, though he signed receipts, and executed leases, &c. but the money was usually paid to Lady Milman, his wife. Cowper C. decreed Lady M. to account for what money she received for 7 years before her husband's death, but the master should be eafy in taking the account, and allow for house-keeping, &c. without vouchers. MS. Rep. Mich. 2 Geo. Buckle v. Milman, is bound to do fuch act as feme-covert shall direct; she may A. give direction without assent of the baron, and if baron dif-assents, yet the declaration and direction of the wife shall guide the case, and shall be cause to forfeit or save the bond. And. 182. pl. 217. Pasch. 30 Eliz. Arg. in case of Forse v.

(E. a. 7) Where the Feme reserves the Power of her own Estate. Cases relating thereunto.

Hembling.

2. M. (a feme sole) made J. S. and W. R. (trustees of 100 l. of hers) to enter into covenant and bond to leave 1001. to pay to whom she should appoint, and for want of appointment, then to pay it to two grand-children; afterwards (being married) she made J. S. and W. R. to cancel the covenant and bond, to make void this her intention, yet decreed to be made good to the plaintiff, (the grand-children suppose). See Toth. 162. where this is imperfectly reported, cites 10 Jac. or Car. C. B. fo. 442. Atwood v. Stubbs. (quære).

3. Debt upon obligation conditioned, that if defendant marry fuch a widow, who was possessed of divers goods of her first husband's, and his children's, he should not meddle with them, but that she and her children might enjoy them without interruption from him. Upon performance of covenants pleaded, plaintiff assigned for breach, that the first husband was possessed of such sheep and goods, &c. and that the wife had them before marriage, and that after marriage the defendant, such a day, took the said goods into his hands, and yet detains them. After verdict it was moved, that no sufficient breach is alleged; for it is not shewed that the husband made any disturbance; for by the marriage the goods are in the husband, and it is not shewn that be disturbed the wise's enjoyment of them; and of that opinion were Hyde and Jones J. but Whitlock and Crooke e contra, and that the breach is well assigned; for by alleging the taking and detaining the goods, is supposed a taking and detaining them from the wise, and issue being found for the plaintist, the court intends it an unjust caption and detention, contrary to the agreement. And asterwards Hyde mutata opinione upon reading the books, was of the same opinion, whereupon, absente Jones, it was adjudged for the plaintist. Cro. C. 204. pl. 9. Mich. 6 Car. B. R. Crowle, v. Dawson.

4. The wife before marriage, by indenture between her and the intended husband and two trustees, assigned over all her real and personal estate to her own disposal. After marriage she borrows money, and furnishes a house, of which she had desired her baron to take a lease, but declared she would defray the whole charge, and would have the disposal of the goods as her own. The wife died, having disposed of 1000 l. to the baron, which was decreed to him, and that he be discharged of paying for the goods, rent, &c. of the house, or of the 400 l. borrowed, of which she had given him 200 l. presently upon the borrowing of it, and to return to the baron some jewels given by him to the wife before marriage, which were not to be accounted any part of her estate, whether the gift was before or after the indenture aforesaid, she having on her death-bed declared they belonged to the baron, and that the trustees be indemnissed observing such directions. Fin. R, 108. Hill. 25 Car. 2. Blysse v. Sayers, Cherry, and Partridge.

5. Fowles upon his marriage with countess of Dorset enters into articles, that countess of Dorset should have and enjoy her estate to her sole and separate use, and that she should dispose of the surplus of such estate by any writing under her hand, &c. Countess of Dorset lays up a considerable sum of money out of her separate estate, and buys land with it, and makes an appointment pursuant to the power, and disposes of the land so purchased to a stranger. After her death Fowles prefers his bill to have these lands, and Ld. Jesseries decreed, that he should have the lands as purchased with his wise's money; but this decree was afterwards reversed in dom. proc. because bought with the money raised out of the separate estate of the wise, which she had a power by the articles to dispose of. Cited MS. Rep. 1 Geo. in the case of Petts v. Lee, as a case in Ld. C. Jesseries's time, Fowles v. the Countess of Dorset.

Gilb. Equ.]
Rep. 83.
S. C. reported in totidem verbis.
Abr. of Casesin Equ.
65. pl. 8.

6. In such case the husband being much in debt, and to discharge his goods going to be taken in execution, she gave a note to pay the debt out of her own separate estate, and accordingly the action was discharged. On a bill against baron and seme, the baron could not be met with to be served with a subpoena, but the wise was inforced by attachment to answer without him, he being made made a party only for conformity. Ch. Prec. 328. pl. 249. Hill. S. C. cites 1711. Bell v. Hyde.

no book.

7. Covenant that the wife shall dispose of her personal estate, does not extend to what shall come to her after her marriage. MS. Tab. March 11. 1711. Pilkington v. Cuthbarston.

ad the having power to dispose of ber personal estate, which only comprehended the personal estate she had before marriage, gets into possession of a considerable personal estate in a private manner upon the death of her father, and conceals it from the bushand, and afterwards by will disposes of it to charities, yet decreed that what was so concealed from the hushand shall not be made good to him so as to disappoint the charities. MS. Tab. S. C.

8. It being agreed between the parties before the marriage, that the bulband should have only so much of the wife's estate, and that she should have liberty to dispose of all the estate besides, which she should be intitled to by her last will in writing, &c. it was resolved, that 5000 L which fell to her after marriage by the death of her brother, should not go to her husband or his executors, but that the wife should have the power of disposing thereof, though at the time of the articles she had not any right or interest therein, and although at that time she could not grant or release the same; for this being a covenant shall enure according to the intent of the parties, and extend to a right in futuro, where it is the apparent intent of the parties that the husband should have no more than the sum expressly mentioned, whatever happened; by Ld. C. Cowper.

MS. Rep. Hill. 1 Geo. Petts [alias Potts] v. Lee.

9. The feme by such power consented to by the husband beforchand, conveyed her real estate to trustees, and assigned all her bonds and mortgages to her separate use; but after the marriage she permitted her busband constantly to receive the interest without any complaint to either debtors or trustees, and about 10 years after the marriage the husband died. Ld. C. Macclesfield decreed the executors of the husband to make good any part of the principal money due on any of the securities, with interest, from his death; but as to the interest received by him during the coverture, as it was against common right for the wife to have a separate property from him, (they being in law but as one person) so all reasonable intendments and presumptions are to be admitted against the wife in this case, and she not having in so long a time made any complaint, her confent shall be intended and be considered as a gift, and that any other construction might have put him under great hardships. 2 Wms.'s Rep. 82, pl. 18. Mich. 1722. Powell v. Hankey & Cox.

10. The wife having reserved power over her own estate, and vested the same in trustees, consented to sell 10 l. a year, part of her land of inheritance for 200 l. which the husband having received, he therewith founded a charity for poor widows, and gave a bond for it to the wife's truftees, to be paid to them within 3 months after the decease, for the benefit of her executors. Ld. C. Macclesfield held that this should bind the wife, and was a waiving the interest of the 2001. for her life, and if she would avoid this bond she must prove some fraud in gaining her acceptance thereof; that this being her separate estate, she must prime facie be looked upon as a feme feme sole, and that it was as if a feme sole had accepted such bond which would have bound her; besides it might well be supposed that she contributed to this charity, it being to her own fex-2 Wms.'s Rep. 82. 85. pl. 18. Mich. 1722. Powell v. Hankey & Cox.

[ 132 ]

And where the had made ber will, and Specific and ctber legacies, and made A. and and likewise the buf-Sessed bimself of some

11. A bond given by a feme-covert (having a separate estate) upon her borrowing money, was insisted to be merely void; so gave several that after six years it amounts to no more than a loan of so much, and that a demand then of it is barred by the statute of limitations; and the master of the rolls agreed that the bond was void; but he faid, that in this case (she being dead, and a bill being B. executors, brought against her executors and her husband) all her separate estate was a trust estate for payment of debts, and a trust is not band bud pof- within the statute of limitations. 2 Wms.'s Rep. 144. Trin. 1723. Norton v. Turvil, of ber money. The master of the rolls said, it seemed as if the plaintiff ought to be at liberty to prosecute all, in order to be paid out of the separate estate lest by her; to which purpose such part thereof as is undifposed by the will ought to be first applied, and if not sufficient, then the creditors' should be paid out of the money-legacies; and if those are not sufficient, all the specific legacies ought to contribute in proportion. 2 Wms.'s Rep. 145. Norton v. Turvill.

MS. Rep. Mich. 1734. Halfey v. Badham.

12. A. by will gives 2 legacies to his daughter B. of 500 L each, one of them for her fole and separate use, she being married without a settlement. Decree for placing out the money for her benefit. The husband, upon petition to Ld. C. Macclesfield, obtained an order for one 500 l. and the other 500 l. by consent to be laid out for the separate use of the wife. The husband and wife, she being 19, join in an affignment of the last 500l, to secure a debt to H. the plaintiff, and the husband becomes bankrupt. H. brought a bill against the assignees of bankruptcy, and husband and wife; and Ld. King decreed the assignment good, and the residue to be paid to the assignees. The wife rehears, &c. alledging that she was poor, and not able to produce the order of Ld. Macclesfield. Objected, that the assignment was good, it being of her separate estate, though under 21; and that infants may execute a power by an attorney, &c. Ld. Chancellor, as to that objection that the order was voluntary, and did not bind creditors, said that is a hard cenfure on the proceedings of the court, and such settlements are usual practice, and this here is according to the will. Where the husband makes a voluntary provision for the wife, to take place after his death, it has been adjudged fraudulent; but here it is set apart immediately: As to the assignment itself, he admitted that if feme had been sole it had not been good, but void; but the case is stronger, because she was a seme-covert. in cases of meer powers or authorities infants may execute, because nothing moves from them, yet this is an interest, and can [ 133 ] no more be departed with in equity by an infant, than by an infant's assignment of a legal estate at law. Decree varied,

13. A woman having lands and a personal estate, before marriage conveys all her estate to her separate use, to which the busband was a party; and he covenanted that he would not interfere with it.

it. On this estate so conveyed, there was a mortgage for 300 l. which, before the conveyancers, he verbally promised to discharge. During the coverture the mortgage was affigned over, and he covenanted thus, that I or my wee shall pay it. The husband and she lived with great affection together, and he constantly received all the profits of this separate estate. He died, having never paid off the mortgage, leaving children, which he had by a former venter, fortunes: these the wife maintained after his decease. The wife brings her bill; 1st, That the effects of the husband should be applied to the redemption of the mortgage. 2dly, To have account of the profits of her separate estate, received by the baron. 3dly, To have an allowance for the maintenance of his children It was decreed, that the husband's effects after his decease. should not be charged to redeem the mortgage, nor be accountable for the profits of her separate estate received by him; and that the maintenance should be counterbalanced by the interest of their fortunes. And upon a rehearing the Ld. C. said, that there is no foundation to charge him with the payment of the mortgage; for by the statute of frauds it is no charge, unless reduced into writing: all is at an end when there is an agreement in writing; all the conversation was only as previous steps. is the ultimate settlement of the whole affair on mature consideration of every thing; as between him and the mortgagee he might be charged, but not by the wife. As to the receipt of the feparate maintenance, if they lived together amicably, it shall be looked on as done by her consent. As to the maintenance, she has taken it upon herself; and it does not appear to me but the interest is sufficient for that purpose. Decree affirmed. Select Cases in Chan. in Ld. King's Time, 20, 21. Trin. 11 Geo. Christmas v. Christmas.

(E. a. 8) Pin-Money. Cases relating thereto.

THERE the husband, during his cohabitation with the wife, makes her an allowance of so much a year for her expences, if the out of her own good housewifery faves any thing out of it, this will be the husband's estate, and he shall reap the benefit of his wife's frugality, because when he agrees to allow her a certain sum yearly, the end of the agreement is, that the may be provided with clothes and other necessaries, and whatsoever is saved out of this redounds to the husband; per Ld. K. Finch. Freem. Rep. 304. pl. 373. Trin. 1674. in Lady Tyrrell's case.

2. A term was created on the marriage of A. with B. for Abr. Equ. rating 2001. a year for pin-money, and in the settlement A. co-Cases, 66. venanted for payment of it. There was an arrear of one year at A.'s death, which was decreed, because of the covenant to be court allowcharged on a trust-estate settled for payment of debts, it being ed a year in arrear for one year only; secus had it been in arrear for ters where

pl. 1. 3. C. But the several the whole was proved several years. Chan. Prec. 26. pl. 28. Trin. 1691. Offley v. to be in arrear; and that between hulband and wife, who lived well together, 3 quarters of a year made but little difference. Abr. Equ. Cases, 140. pl. 7. Mich. 1728. Countess of Warmick v. Edwards.

*3. The plaintiff's relation (to whom he was heir) allowed the wife pin-money, which being in arrear, he gave ber a note to this purpose; "I am indebted to my wife 100 l. which became due to her such a day." After by his will he makes provision out of his lands for payment of all his debts, and all monies which be owed to any person in trust for his wife; and the question was, whether the 100 l. was to be paid within this trust; and my Ld. Keeper decreed not; for in point of law it was no debt, because a man cannot be indebted to his wife, and it was not money due to any in trust for her. Hill. 1701. between Cornwall and the Earl of Mountague. But quære; for the testator looked on this as a debt, and seems to intend to provide for it by his will. Abr. Equ. Cases, 66. pl. 2.

4. Where the wife has a separate allowance made before marriage, and buys jewels with the money arising thereout, they will not be affets liable to the husband's debts. Chan. Prec. 295. pl. 232.

Trin. 1710. Wilson v. Pack.

5. Where there is a provision for the wise's separate use for clothes, if the husband finds her clothes, this will bar the wise's claim; nor is it material whether the allowance be provided out of the estate which was originally the husband's, or out of what was her own estate; for in both cases her not having demanded it for several years together, shall be construed a consent from her that he should receive it; per Ld. C. Macclessield. 2 Wms.'s Rep. 82. 84. pl. 18. Mich. 1722. Powell v. Hankey & Cox.—And to the same purpose his lordship cites (Hill. 1712.) the case of Judge Dormer and the Bishop of Salisbury.

6. So where 50 l. a year was referved for clothes and private expences, secured by a term for years, and 10 years after the husband died, and soon after the wife died, the executors in equity demanded 500l. for 10 years arrear of this pin-money; but it appearing that the busband maintained her, and no proof that she ever demanded it, the claim was disallowed. 2 Wms.'s Rep. 341. pl. 98.

Hill. 1725. Thomas v. Bennet.

(E. a. 9) Feme relieved against the Acts of the Baron.

I. I N assis, if a man seised in jure uxoris leases the land to B. for life, and after grants the reversion to J. in see, and dies, and after B. dies, the entry of the seme is lawful; for there was no discontinuance but for the life of B. for the reversion in see is not discontinued because the baron died before the tenant for life, so that the reversion was not executed in his life. Br. Discont. de Possession, pl. 15. cites 28 Ass. 6.

2. 32 H. 8. cap. 28. s. 6. No fine, feoffment, or other act done by the busband only, of any lands, &c. being the inheritance or freehold of the wife, during the coverture between them, shall make any discontinuance thereof, or be prejudicial to the wife or her heirs, or to such as shall have right, title, or interest to the same by the death of such wife; but that the same wife or her heirs, and such other to whom such right shall lawfully appertain after her death, may enter into the seoffed anosame according to their rights and titles therein, any such fine, &c. to the contrary notwithstanding; sines levied by the husband and wife, the some whereunto she is party or privy, only excepted.

At commen law, if a man scised of lands, as in right of his wife, &c. and thereof inther, &c. and died. could not enter, but was put to her action, which was called a cui in vita, &c. Litt. f. 594. ---- But now in all cafes where the feme might have cui in vita at the common law, she shall enter by the purview of * this statute; and where the issue could not have fur cui in vita or formedon, in such case he shall not enter within the remedy of this statute; and therefore if the baron has issue, and aliens, and the seme dies, she Tiffue shall not † enter during the life of the baron, because at the common law he had no remedy to pecover the land during the life of the baron, and the words of the act are according to their right of title therein. Resolved 8 Rep. 72. b. 73. a. Pasch. 7 Jac. Greneley's case. - Mo. 58. pl. 164. Pasch. 6 Eliz. it was said by Dyer, upon the stat. of 32 H. 8. cap 28. the words of which are, that se all recoveries and discontinuances, and alienations, &c. shall be utterly void and of no effect; but that the faid femes, after the death of their barons, may enter;" that thefe last words of the statute have intendment to abridge the words precedent; for if after such alienation the baron and seme are diworced, and the baron dies, the is put to her writ of cui in vita ante divortium; and yet the words of the statute are, that " such alienation shall be void;" but this shall be intended to take away the writ of cui in vita. [I do not observe the words of (recoveries and alienations being void and of no effect) in the statute.] ----- 4 Le. 104. pl. 210. in the time of Q. Eliz. C. B. says, mote by Dyer upon the words of stat. 32 H. S. cap. 28. " that a feoffment of the lands of the wife shall not be a discontinuance; but that the wife may enter after the death of her husband," that this is an abridgment of the words precedent; for in some cases such a seoffment is a discontinuo ance; as if, after the feoffment they are divorced, the cannot enter, but is put to her writ of cui ante

If the bustond makes a seefsment in see of the lands of his wife, and after they are divorced causa pracontractus, yet the woman may enter within the purview of that statute, and is not driven to her writ of cui ante divortium, as she was at the common law; albeit the entry be by statute given to the wife, and now upon the matter she never was his lawful wife; but it sufficeth she was his wife de facto at the time of the alienation, and where her husband dieth she cannot be his wife at the time of the entry. Co. Litt. 326. a. ---- 8 Rep. 73. a. in Greneley's case, S. P. The feoffment was made during the coverture between them, and though the statute says (but that the same wife, &c.) this is to be intended of her who was his wife at the time of the alienation; for when the baron is dead, the is not then his wife, but is called his wife only to describe the person that shall enter; and the statute does not say that (the wife shall enter after the death of her baron), but says generally that (she shall enter according to their right and title), be it in the life of the baron after divorce a vinculo matrimonii. ----Mo. 58. pl. 164. Pasch. 6 Eliz. says that in such case she is put to her writ or after his death.of cui ante divortium.

† Co. Litt. 326. a. S. P.

3. Baron alone levies a fine of the land of the seme with pro- Without clamation. The baron dies, and 5 years pass. The seme is Arg. 2 Roll. Rep. 410. cites 5 E. 6. 72. barred.

action or entry the is barred for ever; per opinionem curiæ, notwithstanding the stat. of 32 H. 8. cap. 28. which does not limit any time of entry, &cc. but this does not restrain the general law made by the stat. 4 H. 7. of fines with proclamations; and the flat. 32/11. 8. speaks of fines only, without proclamations. D. 72. b. pl. 3. Mich. 6 E. 6. Anon. —— S. C. cited, and S. P. resolved, 8 Rep. 72. b. Pasch. 7 Jac. in Greneley's case.

4. Where the baron and feme are joint purchasors in tail, the Mo. 28. remainder to the feme in fee, and the baron aliens by fine without his feme, and dies. It was held clearly by the 2 chief justices, Stamford and Dyer J. to be within the statute which speaks of alienation pl. 90. Trin. 3 Elis. Anon. S.P. held accordingly by all the justices. alienation of the inheritance or freehold of the wife. D. 162. 2.

Baron and Feme.

Litt. 326. pl. 48, 49. Trin. 4 & 5 P. & M. Wingfield v. Littleton.

a. S. P.——8 Rep. 72. 2. Greneley's case, S. P.

5. A joint estate to the baron and seme has always been taken to be within these words (jus uxoris), and yet it was not only or barely jus uxoris. 8 Rep. 72. a. per cur. and says that according to this resolution it was adjudged in Beaumont's case, and that with this agrees D. 191. b. pl. 22. Mich. 2 & 3 Eliz. Hawtry's case.

Bendl. 225.

6. Baron and seme are jointly seised in tail, remainder to the baron in secondingly.

700 in secondingly.

701 in secondingly.

702 in secondingly.

703 in secondingly.

704 in secondingly.

705 in secondingly.

706 in secondingly.

707 in secondingly.

708 in secondingly.

708 in secondingly.

709 in secondingly.

700 in secondingly.

700 in secondingly.

700 in secondingly.

701 in secondingly.

702 in secondingly.

703 in secondingly.

704 in secondingly.

705 in secondingly.

706 in secondingly.

707 in secondingly.

708 in secondingly.

708 in secondingly.

709 in secondingly.

710 in secondin

prafter entry dies, the issue is barred.——Dal. in Kelw. 205. a. b. pl. 7. Bendloes seemed of opimion, that if the seme had entered the sine had been avoided; but the other justices e contra.

Mo. 596.
pl. 813.
S. C. adjudged by all the juftices to be no difcontinuance,

7. If a man seised of copybold land in right of his wife, surrenders it to the use of another in see who is admitted, and the baron dies, this is no discontinuance to the seme nor her heirs, but that she may enter, and shall not be put to her cui in vita, nor the heir to his sur cui in vita. 4 Rep. 23. pl. 4. Pasch. 35. Eliz. B. R. Bullock v. Dibley.

Every was made of such estate, nor can a warranty be annexed to it, for the benefit whereof a discontinuance is admitted. And the case of Foxley v. Cosen, Mich. 32 & 33 Eliz. Rot. 937. was eited to have been adjudged no discontinuance. And all the justices took it that it is not within the letter nor equity of the statute of 32 H. 8. which gives entry to the seme and her heirs against the discontinuance of the baron. — But Cro. J. 105. pl. 44. Mich. 3 Jac. B. R. in case of Collins v. Cancre, where the question was upon a special verdict, Walmsley J. held that it was a discontinuance, notwithstanding the case in 4 Rep. 23. 4. No judgment was given here, but they pleaded de novo.

8. By the words (such other to whom such right shall appertain of ter her death) the entry of him in the reversion or remainder is preserved. Co. Litt. 3.26. a.

it shall benefit those in remainder also, though the statute should be thought to be made only for the good of the wives directly; so clearly here the words give entry as well to others as to the wives and their heirs; per Hobart Ch. J. but said he was of opinion, that if a wife being seised in see after such alienation of the husband, should die without heir, that the ld. by * escheat should not be within the semedy of this statute. Hob. 261.

* Hob. 243. Hobart Ch. J. calls the entry of ld. by escheat an irregular entry, and says the common law will not extend to irregular entries that were given by special statute, differing from the reasons of the common law.

9. Where the husband and wife are jointly seised to them and 3 Rep. 72. b. in Grenetheir heirs, of an estate made during coverture, and the husband Jey's case, makes a feoffment in fee and dies, the wife may enter by this sta-S. P. refolved; but And so it is if the seoffment be made by the husband if the baron and wife, though the words of the statute are (by the busband fuffers a only ) for in substance this is the act of the husband only. Co. common re covery and Litt. 326. a. dies without issue, the some is barred, and cannot enter by force of this statute. ___ Co. Litt. 326. a. S. P.

10. If the husband causes præcipe quod reddat upon a faint title to be brought against him and his wife, and suffers a recovery without any voucber, and execution to be had against him and his wife, yet this is holpen by the statute; for this by construction is the act of the husband, and the words of the statute be made, suffered or done. Co. Litt. 326. a.

11. The husband is tenant in tail, the remainder to the wife in eail. The busband makes a feoffment in fee. By this the husband by the common law did not only discontinue his own estate tail, but his wife's remainder; but at this day after the death of the husband without issue, the wife may enter by the said act of 32

H. 8. Co. Litt. 326. a.

12. B. and his wife being seised in special tail, remainder to B. in fee, B. alone levied a fine to Ed. 6. in fee, which estate came to the earl of H. in fee. B. having issue, died, his wife entered; the earl of H. confirmed the estate in the wife, habendum to her and the heirs of the body of her and her husband. And it was ruled that the confirmation wrought nothing, because she had as great an estate before. And also the issues could not be made inheritable which were before barred by their father's fine, and the estate tail, as against them, lawfully given to another. And it was further resolved by way of admittance, that if the remainder in fee had not been to B. himself, but to a stranger, the entry of the wife had restored that remainder to the stranger, and had left nothing in the cognifee, but a mere possibility; so she * hath the tail not only to herself, but to the benefit of other estates growing out of one root with his. And yet during the life of B. the intail had been barred, and all had been in the cognisee, and the wife had had nothing but a possibility vice versa. Hob. 257. Hobart Ch. J. cites 9 Rep. 140. [138. b. &c. Pasch. 10 Jac. in the court of because it wards] Beaumont's case.

2 Jast. 681. S. C. fays the king is bound by this act though not named; and though the words of this act are (being the inberitance and freebold of the wife ]. and the lands in this cale were as well the freehold and inheritance of the hufband, as the wife; yet was a beneficial law

*[ 137] † S. P. by

Hale Ch. J.

Vent. 135.

24 Car. 2. B. R. in

cafe of Free

to suppress a wrong, and to give the party wronged a speedy remedy, and that it was in equal mischief, it was adjudged to be within this statute.

13. Twisden said he had a case from my lord Kelinge, where a feme covert infant levied a fine, and her friends got a writ of error in the husband's and her name. That the court would not suf- Hill. 23 & fer the husband to release, but Hale said he could not see how that could be avoided; but he had known that in such case the court would not permit the husband to † disavow the guardian which they man v. Bodedmitted for the wife. Vent. 209. Pasch. 24 Car. 2. B. R. in dington. Lady Prettyman's case.

14. A feme covert was a midwife, by which she got a great deal of money, and also bought and sold goods as a seme sole merchant, and put out several sums at interest in trustees names, the busband having agreed by articles, that as she got it she might dispose of it at pleasure, allowing him a maintenance, which she always did, and the had no maintenance from him for 18 years, but maintained bim, berself, and four children all the time, and portioned out two daughters, and paid her husband's debts, and so discharged him out of Afterwards he assigned all his real securities of land and money, money, and all his personal estate to his daughters husbands, and made them his attornies to fue for, &c. the same, and the trustees should stand intrusted for the husbands in equal moieties, but to allow the husband and wife 201. per ann. On a bill by the fons-in-law against the trustees and their father and mother, it was by consent of all parties decreed that the said estate should be divided into moieties, one to the plaintiffs, and one to the mother, or to whom she should appoint, and that the plaintiffs and the mother should pay her husband 20 l. a year for his life; and that so much of the assignment as gives the plaintiffs all the estate of the father and mother be discharged, and that the mother keep and, dispose of, what she has by virtue of this decree or otherwise, and what she shall after acquire by her industry, either by ' gift, or by her will without any controul of the plaintiffs or her husband, as a feme sole may do. Fin. Rep. 56. Hill. 25 Car. 2. Ward v. Summer, and Davis and al'.

to bar dower; in consideration whereof, the baron agrees that the wife shall have the redemption. The husband mortgages the estate twice more. The court thought this agreement fraudulent as against the subsequent mortgages, so far as to intitle the wife to the whole redemption; decreed per North K. that if the wife survive the husband, she should have her dower, and that without being obliged to bring her writ of dower. Vern. 294. pl. 287. Hill. 1684. Dolin v. Coltman.

16. Bill against baron and seme as executors for a legacy. The defendants answer, and witnesses are examined, and publication passed. Baron dies. Per cur. here is no abatement, and the wise shall be bound by the answer and depositions; but in case of the wise inheritance it might be otherwise. 2 Vern. 249. pl. 234.

*[138] Mich. 1691. Shelbury v. Briggs.

17. A. on marriage gives bond to leave his wife worth 500 l. or a But where a bond was third part of his personal estate at her election. A becomes bankgiven by the rupt. Decreed that the wife come in as a creditor on the 500 l. busband for bond, and what * should be paid in respect thereof, to be put payment of a fum of moout at interest and received by the creditors during the life of ney to bis the husband, and if the wife survived, then the money to be wife in case paid to her. 2 Vern. 662. pl. 587. Trin. 1710. Holland v. Calfbe survived bim, and the liford.

ter became a bankrupt; per Ld. Ch. there can be nothing stopped by way of dividend out of the banksupt's estate, to answer this contingent debt of demand when it happens. Mich. 1728. Abr. Equ. Cases 54, 55. Chawell v. Cassanet.

(E. a. 10) Leases made of the Wife's Estate. Good or not.

The common opinion amongst all the justices at this day, is, that 1. 32 H. 8. I EASES made by him that is seised in right of the cap. 28. wise of inheritance, or jointly with his wife by purchase during the coverture or before, shall be good and effectual. And the wife shall have such remedy for the rent after the death of her bushand band the leffor against the leffee, his executors and affiguees, as the huf- where the band lesser might have had. Proviso that all leases made of land, &c. whereof the inheritance is in the wife, shall be made by indenture in his a lease beand his wife's name, and she to seal the same, and the rent to be reserved to him and his wife and to the heirs of the wife. And the husband shall not discharge any of the rent but only during coverture, serving rent unless by fine levied by both.

baron and feme made fore the statate 32 H.S. by parol, reto them, and afterwards the seme, when she is sole, receives the rent of the termor, that this shall not bind her from avoiding the leafe unless it was by indenture, because her assent was requisite to the commencement of the lease, which ought to have been by deed. D. 91. b. in a note of the reporter, pl. 13. Mich. 8

Mar. in case of Turney v. Sturges.

There are 9 things necessarily to be observed. 1st, The lease must be made by deed indented, and not by deed poll, or by parol. 2dly, It must be made to begin from the day of the making thereof, or from the making thereof. 3dly, If there be an old lease in being, it must be surrendered or expired, or ended within a year of the making of a lease, and the surrender must be absolute, and not conditional. 4thly, There must not be a double lease in being at one time, as if a lease for years be made according to the statute, he in the reversion cannot expulse the lessee and make a lease for life or lives according to the Statute, nor e converso; for the words of the statute be, to make a lease for 3 lives or 21 years, so that one or the other may be made, and not both. 5thly, It must not exceed 3 lives, or 21 years from the making of it, but it may be for a lesser term, or fewer lives. 6thly, It must be of lands, tenements and bereduaments, manurable or corporeal, which are necessary to be letten, and whereout a rent by law map De rejerved, and not of things that lie in grant, as advowsons, fairs, markets, franchifes, and the like, whereout a rent cannot be referred. 7thly, It must be of lands or tenements, which have most commonly been letten to farm, or occupied by the farmers thereof by the space of 20 years next before the lease made, so as if it be letten for 11 years at one or several times within those 20 years it is sufficient. grant by copy of court rell in fee for life or years, is a sufficient letting to farm within this statute, for he is but a tenant at will according to the custom, and so it is of a lease at will by the common law; but those lettings to farm must be made by some seised of an estate of inheritance, and not by a guardian on chivalry, tenant by curtefy, tenant in dower or the like. 8thly, That upon every such leafe there be referred yearly, during the same lease, due and payable to the lessors their heirs and succesfore, &c. so much yearly farm or rent, or more, as bath been most accustomly yielded or paid for the land, &c. within 20 years next before such lease made. 9thly, Nor to any lease to be made without impeachment of waste; therefore it a lease be made for life, the remainder for life, &cc. this is not warranted by the statute, because it is dispunishable of waste. But if a lease be made to one during three lives. this is good; for the occupant, if any happen, shall be punished for waste. Co. Litt. 44. a. b.

Ejectment of a leafe of A, the husband. Upon not guilty pleaded, a leafe by indenture was mewn in evidence to the jury in the name of the baron and seme, and signed and sealed by the baron and feme, and letter of attorney by the baron and feme to deliver it upon the land, and he delivered it in both their names; but because the declaration in ejesment was of a lease of A. only, and not in the wife's name, exception was taken; and per 3 J. the declaration is good; for the delivery by the attorney is a void warrant as to the wife, and so it is the lease of the baron only. But if the lease had been delivered on the land by the baron alone, it had been a good leafe for both, and the declaration should have been accordingly; but now it is the lease of the baron only, and not voidable, but waid against the wife. Cro. J. 617. pl. 1. Mich. 19 Jac. B. R. Gardiner v. Norman. ___ It le the leafe of them both during the husband's life. Cro. C. 195. pl. 10. Mich. 5 Car. B. R. . . . . .

v. Hopkins.

The husband after marriage purchases to him and his wife and their heirs, and after without his wife, makes a lease for fixty years, at more rent than the same had been let for before, only it was * leafed before in two parts and now in one. Per 3 J. against Hobart Ch. J. the leafe is good, and not within the proviso, because it is not the sole inheritance of the wife, and the appointment thereby is, that the refervation shall be to them and the heirs of the wife, which is not intended of a joint estate; but then the reservation should be to both their heirs. Cro. C. 22. pl. 15. Mich. 1 Car. C. B. Smith v. Trinder.

2. The wife nor her heirs shall not have liberty by this act to avoid The hulemy lease to be made of her inheritance by her husband and her for 21 years or under, or three lives, whereupon the accustomable yearly rent in right of for 20 sears before is referved.

*[139] band and wife sciled the wife, levied a fine

so the use of everyleives for their lives, and alterwards to the use of the beirs of the wife, provise that it Ball be lawful for the bulband and wife, at any time during their lives, to make leafes for 21 years or 3 Afterwards the wife being covert, made a leafe for 21 years, and it was adjudged a good leafe against the husband, though made when she was a feme covert; and though it was made by her alone, by reason of the provise. Godb. 327. pl. 419. Pasch. 21 Jac. B. R. Anon,

3. If before the statute 38 H. 8. the husband and wife had Baron and feme seised in made a parol leafe rendering rent to them, and the busband died, tail, made a and the wife when sole accepted the rent; this shall not bind her lease reserve ing rent. The from avoiding the lease, unless it had been by indenture, bebaron dud. cause her assent was requisite to the commencement of the lease, The feme which must have been by deed. D. 91. b. pl. 13. Mich. 3 Mar. entered and fays, that this is the common opinion of all the justices at this died. The seffer entered -day. and did waste. The issue in tail brought action of waste, and counted of a lease made by the baron and seme. The defendant pleaded, that the baron and seme did not demise; issue was joined thereupon, and the matter before found, and adjudged against the plaintiff, because the seme had election to agree or disagree to the lease; and when she disagreed, it was the same thing as if it never had been the set of her who disagreed. And. 350, 351. cites it as the case of Thetford v. Thetford.

waste resolved accordingly.

And. 220. fays the plaintiff declared of a lease by the baron and feme by deed indented, but the jury found, that notwithstanding the demise, the baron continued possession and died; and the seme, after her baron's death, would not permit the leffee to enter. But that after the death he entered and did the waste, and the jury doubted; whereupon the court held that the baron and seme did not demise. ------ Sav. 109. pl. 185. though the plaintiff counted of a leafe by baron and feme, yet he did not alledge it to be by deed; and then the question was, if the verdict, finding that it was by deed indented, had supplied that impersection. But the opinion of the court was, that this shall never be taken to be the leafe of the feme, because her disagreement after her baron's death proves it; and for this point judgment was given against the plaintiff. ---- Le. 192. pl. 274. S. C. it seemed clear to Anderson, that the jury have found for the defendant, viz. non demiserunt; for it is now no leafe ab initio, because the plaintiff has not declared upon a deed. _____4 Le. 50. pl. 131. S. C. & S. P. held by Anderson I. accordingly. ---- But Le. 204. pl. 283. in S. C. Periam J. held, that though the plaintiff declares generally of a leafe made by the husband and wife, yet the jury having found that it is by indenture, it is pursuant enough. _____ 3 Rep. 27. b. 28. a. cites S. C. and that the jury found that It was by the deed indented; but adjudged that by the disagreement of the seme, in judgment of law, it was the lease of the baron only.

But in such case, though the declaration in an ejectment did not set forth that such lease was made by deed; yet upon a precedent of Pasch. 33. Eliz. Moseley v. Gilbert, where the plaintiff counted of such lease, and did not mention any deed, yet it was adjudged; and the like in another case of Digga v. Withers. The plaintiff in the principal case had judgment to recover. Cro. E. 481. pl. 15. Trin. 38 Eliz. B. R. Childes v. Wescot.——2 Rep. 60, 61. Hill. 41 Elis. C. B. Wiscott's case. S. C.

adjudged accordingly.

*[140] 4. Husband and wife seised of land in the right of the wife, Cro. E. 216. pl. 14. S.C. the husband alone makes a lease by word for years; afterwards the adjudged acbusband and wife levy a fine, and after the wife and husband both cordingly; die. It was * holden clearly by the whole court, that the conusee for being made by the should avoid the lease. Le. 247. pl. 332. Mich. 31 & 32 Eliz. baron only, B. R. Harvey v. Thomas. It was void against the conformity and necessity. ——— Roll. Rep. 402. Arg. S. C. cited accordingly, because all passed from the seme. Eridgm. 45. S. C. cited accordingly. _____ 3 Bulst. 273. Arg. cites S. C. __ But Goldsb. 13. pl. 13. Pasch. 28 Eliz. It was said by serj. Shuttleworth, Arg. that if the husband makes a lease of the wife's land for 100 years, the wife may avoid it after his death, but if after they both levy a fine, the lease shall be good for ever, and ibid. 14. the same was agreed by Fenner of the

5. Plaintiff declared of a lease by baron and seme, and shews it not to be by deed. It was urged, that without a deed it could not be said to be the lease of the seme, and cited Pl. C. 436. and D. 91. and 15 E. 4. 8. but all the justices held it well enough; for it may be intended by deed, and yet no declaration thereupon; and though it be without deed, it is well enough, at least during the life of the baron, and it is a lease from them both during that time. Cro. E. 438. pl. 53. Mich. 37 & 38 Eliz. B. R. Bateman v. Allen.

S. C. cited Cro. E. 482. pl. 1<. Trin. 38 Eliz. C. B. in case of Child v. Wiscott, and in 2 Rep.61. b. Hill. 41 Eliz. C. B. in Wiscott's case, S. C. and upon view of the judgment given in that case, and of another precedent, Pasch. 33 Eliz. between MOSELEY AND GUILBERT, and of another judgment in B. R. between DIGGS AND WITHERS, in all which precedents judgment was given for the plaintiff on demise made by baron and seme, without alleging it to be by deed, upon the view of which precedents, judgment was given for the plaintiff, in the case of Child v. Wiscott, alias Wiscott's case.

- 6. The baron was seised of lands for the life of the seme in right of the feme, the reversion in see to the baron. zears without writing by baron and feme of these lands is void against the seme. Cro. E. 356. pl. 20. Hill. 41 Eliz. B. R. Walfal v. Heath.
- 7. A voman sole takes a consideration for making a lease for 21 years, and then marries, and she and her husband made the promised lease. Before the 21 years end, the lessee surrenders, and takes a new lease for 21 years more. The husband dies; the wife ousts the lesse, who sues in chancery to have the first lease continued for the remainder of the first 21 years, and not remedied here, the surrender being voluntary. Cary's Rep. 29. cites that the hus-44 Eliz.

The plaintiff beld truo tenements of the kusband and wife, and furrendered both in confideration band and wife should make a lease of one of them for three lives. The husband died; the wife being but tenant for life, and so by the statute would have avoided the lease for three lives, but the court thought good it should be holpen in equity. Mich. 1.3 Car. Toth. 155. Ireland v. Pavy. _____ 36 & 37 Eliz. Domery v. .Wetton, S. P. ibid.

8. In ejectment. Leafe was made by baron of land claimed in Hob. 5. pl. right of his wife. The baron died before the action brought. was therefore infifted, that the leafe (the wife not joining) was void, and determined by his death, and that defendant cannot be faid to keep him out of possession, and that now the lesses has no cause to have an hab. fac. post. but the court held, that since the feme did not enter after the baron's death, the lease is not determined, but voidable only. Cro. J. 332. pl. 14. Mich. 11 Jac. B. R. Jordan v. Wikes.

10. Wilkes v. Jordan, S. C. that the baron died before the day of the judgment, but · held well.

9. Husband and wife (in the right of the wife) and a third person, were jointenants for the life of the wife and the third person. busband and wife, by indenture, let the moiety for 21 years. wife died. The surviving jointenant entered. All the court held, that it was a good leafe, and should bind the survivor, for it is a Vol. IV. M leaic lease made by her till after the coverture she, or one who claims in privity of her, avoids it, which cannot be by the other jointenant, for he is paramount the wise, and not under her, and judgment accordingly. Cro. J. 417. pl. 6. Hill. 14 Jac. B. R.

Smalman v. Agborow.

10. A. and M. are seised of lands in see in the right of M. the wife, and by indenture, dated 20th August, leused the same to B. and C. his wife, and D. their daughter, habend to them ut supra dictum est, et corum diutius viventi successive, from Mich. following, for their 3 lives, rendering yearly, during their 3 lives, 13s. 4d. at 2 usual feasts, and a heriot after the death of every of them. A. and M. bis wife after Mich. made livery in person to B. and D. bis daughter. After A. died, and M. his wife accepted the rent of B. Afterwards B. died seised, and C. his wife entered and died. D. entered, and M. entered upon her. Resolved, that this lease made by the husband and wife is good, and shall bind the wife, for the livery alone did not make the leafe, but the livery and the deed, and it took its operation by both, and the livery in this case is but the execution of the deed, and is a sufficient witness of their agreement, and all the reservations and covenauts, &c. in the deed are good, and the lessees and lessors are bound by them. Cro. J. 563. pl. 11. Hill. 17 Jac. B. R. Greenwood v. Tyber.

concealed her marriage, and so continuing under the notion of a widow, made leases of divers parcels of land, and afterwards the marriage was made public, and the husband in equity sought to avoid these leases, but was denied; and it was decreed to confirm the leases during the term. R.S. L. 204.

(F. a) In what Actions the Baron shall be charged during the Coverture; because of the Feme.

[1. IF a feme fole binds berself in an obligation, and takes hufband, the baron shall be charged for this during her life. 20 H. 6: 22, b.]

[2. So if a man enters into an obligation, and after enters into religion, the abby shall be charged for this during the life of the monk. 20 H. 6: 22. b.]

[3. The same law of a trespass. 20 H. 6. 22. b.]

4. If an action be brought against a widow, who is found Brownl, 226. guilty, and before judgment marries, the capias shall be awarded S. C. held accordingly. against her, and not against hor husband. And in this case of 2 Bulft. 80. subsequent marriage, the husband not being once named in any S. C. adjudged.part of the record, if the sheriff had returned that she now was Lane 48. married, he would have falsified all the proceedings. Cro. J. 323. Doille V. pl. 1. Trin. 11 Jac. B. R. Doily v. White. Tolliffe. Pakh. 7.

Jas. in the exchequer, S. C. adjornature

- Case was brought against baron and seme, for that the feme Sid. 375. affirming herself to be sole and unmarried, prevailed upon the plaintiff s. C. that to marry ber, whereby the plaintiff was much troubled in his judgment mind, and put to great charges. After verdict it was moved, that was stayed. the feme cannot, by any contract or agreement, charge the baron, -2 Keb. and if he is chargeable in this case, it must be by this contract of s. c. and her with the plaintiff * to marry him; and this marriage cannot be judgment without the affent and contract of the plaintiff himself, and there- ftayed. fore shall not charge the baron, and of that opinion were the court, and gave judgment accordingly. Lev. 247. Mich. 20 Car. 2. B. R. Cooper v. Witham.
- 6. If a woman gives a warrant of attorney, and then marries, you may file a bill and enter judgment against both by the practice of the court. Ruled upon motion. Show. 91. Hill. 1 W. & M. Anon.
- 7. If a feme sole recovers damages, and then marries, and the judgment is reversed, restitution lies against her and her husband; per Holt Ch. J. 2 Salk. 587. pl. 1. Trin. 3 W. & M. in B. R. in case of the King v. Leaver.
- (G. a) In what Actions the Baron shall be charged after the Death of the Feme; because of the Feme.

[1. ] F a feme, lesse for life, rendering rent, takes husband, and Br. Debt, dies, the baron shall be charged in an action of debt, for pl. 180. the rent incurred during the coverture, because he took the profits S.C. ac-(181) cites out of which the rent ought to issue. 10 H. 6. 11. curia.] cordingly. Fitzh. Debt, pl. 33. cites S. C. & S. P. by Babington. F. N. B. 121. (C) S. P. and cites S. C. So where a feme was tenant in dower, and the was to pay to the heir the third part of the rent which he paid over, and she takes baron, and dies, the rent being arrear, debt lies by the heir against the baron for this rent. Kelw. 125. pl. 33. casus incerti temporis.

A lease was made to a woman dum sola of a bouse, with the appurtenances, rendering rent; she married the defendant, and during the coverture, the rent being in arrear, she died, and the lessor brought an action of debt against the husband for this rent so in arrear. It seemed that the action well lies, according to 10 H. 6. 11. a. sed adjornatur; but afterwards it was adjudged for the plaintiff. Rayma 6. Hill. 12 Car. 2. B. R. Payne v. Minihall. Lev. 25. Paich. 13 Car. 2. B. R. Vane v. Minshall, S. C. adjudged that the baron here is chargeable in respect of the perception of the profits by himself, and so chargeable after his seme's death. --- Keb. 20. pl. 57. Fane v. Minshaw, S. C. held accordingly, per tot. cur. for during the coverture he is affignee in law, and receives the profits, and therefore it is but reasonable that he should be charged. ——— Ibid. 22. pl. 63. S. C. & S. P. agreed, clearly, and (Mailet I. absente) judgment for the plaintiff.

If a lease of lands be made to a feme sole for life, reserving rent, who marries, and the rent is arrear at the death of the wife, an action lies against the husband; per Powell J. Holt's Rep. 106. Pasch.

7 Ann. in case of Billinghurst v. Speerman.

[2. If a feme be indebted to another, and takes husband, and dies, the baron shall not be charged in debt for this after the death of the feme, because this was but in action. 10 H. 6. 10. 12. 20 H. 6. 22. b.]

[3. If a feme lesses for life takes baron, and dies, the baron shall not be charged for waste during the coverture; for he was never Waste, (R) lessee. Co. 5. Foliambe, contra 11 H. 6. 11.]

M 2

pl. 10. and the notes there.

[4. The baron shall have trespass after the death of the feme, for a trespass done upon the land in lease to the seme during the coverture.

10 H. 6. 11. 6. T

S. C. cited Latw. 672. Arg. and faid he had feen the record of this case, and that no judgment is entered.— S. C. cited

[5. If A. takes B. an executrix to wife, against whom an action of debt is after brought as executors, and judgment given against them to recover de bonis testatoris, and thereupon a sieri facias issues to levy the debt and damages, and the sheriff thereupon returns a devastavit, and after the feme dies; whether execution upon this judgment may be fued against the baron, there not being any judgment upon the return of the devastavit to recover de bonis propriis. Mich. 9 Car. B. R. between Trotman and James, dubitatur. 3 Mod. 189, Intratur Tr. 9 Rot. 715.]

190. Arg. and says the husband is not chargeable, because the judgment is not properly against him, " he being joined only for conformity; but if upon the return of the devastavit there had been an award of execution de bonis propriis, that would have been a new judgment, and the old one de bonis test storis had been discharged, and then the husband must be charged for the new wrong ---- Where devastavit is returned against baron and seme executors, and judgment given that the plaintiff recover, and then the feme dies, adjudged that the baron is liable to execution, notwithstanding the death of the wife. Sw-337. pl. 3. Trin. 19 Car. 2. B. R. Eyres v. Coward. _____ z Keb. 238. pl. 15. Ayer v. Coward, S. C. adjudged for the plaintiff. _____S. C. in a MS. Rep. of Ld. Ch. J. Kelyng, resorted thus, viz. judgment was obtained against the defendant and wife as executrix, and a devastavit returned. They bring a sorie of error. The wife dies, and execution is taken out against the husband. It was agreed by all, that by the death of the wife the writ of error is abated. Next is was agreed, that if no devastavit had been returned, the husband had not been chargeable after the death of the wife; but there being a devastavit returned, the husband is charged as for his own debt; and it was said it has been resolved, that after a devastavit returned against the husband and wife, action of debt will he against the husband. MS. Rep. Pasch. 15 Car. 2. B. R. Ayres v. Coward.

* [ 143 ]

6. If a man takes a feme seised of land by tort at the time of the espousals, and the seme after the marriage occupies the land without the agreement or affent of the baron, yet action lies against both, as well for the occupation before the espousals, as after, during the life of the wife; but after her death the action lies not for this occupation against the baron. But if he, who right has, enters after the marriage, and the baron in the right of his wife re-enters; or if the baron after the marriage, and before any re-entry of him, that right has, occupies the lands, and then the feme dies, in this case trespass lies against him, &c. Kelw. 61. a. b. pl. 1. Pasch. 20 H.'7. B. R. Anon.

Yelv. 184. Smith v. Jones, S. C. adjudged accordingly .

7. Executrix married B. and then A. a legatee, threatening to fue B. for his legacy, B. promised payment in consideration of forbearance. B. pleads that his wife was dead before his promise supposed to be made. Adjudged that the wife being dead, B. is per tot. cur. not chargeable; and though it were alleged that he had goods in his hands, yet it is not shewn how he had them, and he is thereby liable to the executor or administrator for them. Cro. J. 257. Pl-16. Mich. 8 Jac. B. R. Smith v. Johns.

8. One married a feme with a good personal estate; she died, and left a poor grand-child. It was resolved the husband ought to maintain the grand-child. 1 Sid. 114. cited by Hale Ch. B.

as 7 Car. Worcester city v. Gerard.

9. Judgment in debt was had against a seme sole, who afterwards Comb. 103. married, and then the plaintiff brought a scire facias against the S. C. and busband and wife to have execution; and after 2 nihils returned, judgment aftirmed .-judgment judgment was against them to have execution. A year and day expired before any execution was executed. The wife died. plaintiff brought a new sci. fa. against the husband alone, to have execution of the faid judgment. The court held, that the judg--but adjorment on the sci. fa. against the husband and wife, made the husband liable; and so a judgment given in C. B. in Ireland, and was afterassirmed in B. R. there, was affirmed here. Carth. 30. Pasch. 1 W. & M. in B. R. Obrian v. Ram.

3 Mod. 186, Hill. 3 Jac. 2. B.R. the S.C. argued, natur; but fays that it waids in 1 W. & M. affirmed .---

S. C. cited by Holt Ch. J. 1 Salk. 116. pl. 7. Mich. 9 W. 3. and 3 Salk. 63. pl. 2. _____S. C. cited by Holt Ch. J. 6 Mod. 257. Mich. 3 Ann. B. R. Skinn. 683. pl. 2. S. C. cited by Holt Ch. J.

10. A man marries an administratrix. The plaintiff obtains a decree against him and his wife for 1500l. She dies. Whether the plaintiff can proceed against the husband, without reviving against the administrator of the wife? It seems the husband is not bound to answer farther than the value of the estate which he had with his wife. 2 Vern. 195. pl. 177. Mich. 1690. in case of Jackson v. Rawlins.

11. Where there is a judgment against feme sole, and afterwards Carth. 30, a scire facias, and judgment thereupon, against the husband and 31. Pasch. 1 W. & M, wife, and * she dies, the husband is bound; per Holt Ch. J. in B.R. Cumb. 311. Hill. 6 W. 3. B. R. in case of Curry & Ux' v. Obrian v. Ram, S. P. Stevens. , adjudged accordingly in C. B. and affirmed in B. R. in error.——3 Mod. 186. S. C. and judgment affirmed. — Comb. 103. S. C. and judgment affirmed.

*[ 144 ]

(H. a) What Actions the Baron shall have after the Death of the Fems. Because of the Feme.

Fol. 352,

[1. ] F a feme having a rent for life takes husband, the baron shall See (H) pl. have an action of debt for the rent incurred during the co- 1. S. C. verture, after the death of the feme. 10 H. 6. 12. 11.]

[2. If the baron takes a seignores to wife, he shall have, after the death of the feme, ravishment of ward, and ejectment of ward, if oufted in the life of the feme, of a ward fallen in the life of the feme. 10 H. 6. 11.]

[3. So he shall have debt for relief fallen in the life of the feme.

10 H. 6. 11. b.]

4. Debt was brought by R. W. executor of the testament of Alice Br. Testabis wife, executrix of the testament of H, B, upon an obligation of 201. ment, pl. 9. due to the testator, and the defendant was awarded to answer, notwithstanding it was the will or testament of a feme covert. Dette, pl. 107. cites 4 H. 6. 31.

5. An action of battery for beating the wife was brought by the The action husband after her death. This, being a personal wrong, is dead Yelv. 89. Trin. 4 Jac. B. R. Higgins v. the wife; with the person. Butcher, is gone by the death of per cur. Noy 18. Higgins's case, S. C.—Brownl. 205. Huggins v. Butcher, S. C. seems only a translation of Yelv.

6. A personal thing (as action for work done by the wife, who dies) will not survive to the baron. 4 Mod. 156. Mich. 4 W. &

M. in B. R. Buckley v. Collier.

7. Error upon a judgment in C. B. in scire facias, where a 1 Salk, 116. pl. 7. S. C. S. P. ac- feme sole recovered in C. B. and took husband, and after they joined in a scire facias to have execution, and had judgment in the scire cordingly,by Holt Ch. J. facias, the wife died, and the husband sued execution, without --- Comb. taking out letters of administration; and ruled, that the judg-455. S. C. ment in scire facias attached a joint interest in baron and seme, adjornatur. ----Carth. and if the husband died, it would survive to the wife, & e contra-415. S. C. A scire facias is an action, and is in the nature of an original, and if adjudged.--And though they had recovered in an original, there could be no question in the judgthe case; and by the judgment in the scire facias in this case the ment in the sci. fa. does debt vests, and of such opinion was the court. Skin. 682. pl. 2. met alter ibe Mich. 9 W. 3. B. R. Woodyeer v. Gresham, nature, yet it changes the property of the dilt, and debt may be brought on an award of execution; per Holt Ch. J. Skin. 683. S. C. S. C. cited by Holt Ch. J. 2 Ld. Raym. Rep. 1050. Mich. 3 Ann. at the boitom.

[145] (I. a) Where the Default of the Baron is the Default of the Feme, so that the one shall not answer without the other.

> 1. OUID juris clamat against baron and seme, and the feme was received in default of the baron, and pleaded in bar for part, and confessed for the rest ready to attorn, and was not permitted in the absence of her baron, but distringas ad attornand' awarded. Br. Coverture, pl. 19. cites 21 E. 3. 1.

> 2. Trespass against baron and seme, be came, and she not, he shall answer; and contraif she comes and he not, and she shall not answer till he comes, or till he be outlawed. Br. Responder, pl. 32. cites

22 Aff. 46.

S. P. for the was not named by ber name of coverture, but by ber proper name only. Br. Exigent, pl. 34. cites S. C.

3. Trespass against baron and feme; at the exigent the baron came, and the feme not, and because the feme was mis-named in the exigent, therefore exigent de novo issued against her, and idem dies was given to the baron, and yet the baron was compelled to anfwer immediately. Br. Baron and Feme, pl. 87. cites 39 E. 3. 18.

Debt against 4. If the baron be outlawed, and gets charter of pardon, and baron and brings scire facias, it shall not be allowed if he does not bring teme, they in his feme with him. Br. Baron and Feme, pl. 10. cites 40 E. were outlaqued, and 3: 34: each of them fued a charter of pardon, and fued sci. fa. and found mainprise; the sheriff returned tarde, and the baron appeared, and the feme not, and the baron alone would have fued icire facias ficut alias upon the first mainprise, or scire facias de novo, and new mainprise, and was not suffered without the seme. Br.

Baron and Feme, pl. 19. cites 44 E. 3. 3.

Baron and seme were outlawed, and the seme appeared and spewed charter of pardon, and it was not allowed, because the baron did not appear, and she cannot plead without her baron, by which she was Kuffered to go at large. Br. Baron and Feme, pl. 39. cites 11 H. 4. 89. --- Br. Utlagary, pl. 13. cites 17 H. 4. 99. S. P. [but it feems misprinted, and that it should be 89, besides, there are not so EDADY pages as 99.]

5. The default of the feme in dower against baron and feme is Br. Default, the default of both, by which the demandant recovered seisin of s. c. cites the land; quod nota. Br. Baron and Feme, pl. 12. cites 41 E. 3. 24.

6. Detinue against baron and feme; the baron rendered himself at Br. Baron the exigent, and the feme not, and the baron prayed that the plaintiff and Feme, may count against bim, and was compelled, notwithstanding the default of the feme, because the process is determined against S. C. cited him, and he counted of a bailment to the feme when she was sole, and Le. 138. pl. therefore the baron was not compelled to answer without his feme, but went quit; quod nota; for the baron shall not have corporal pain for bis feme, for he shall not be imprisoned till the feme comes, but by fuch default the baron shall lose issues. Br. Exigent, pl. 52. cites 43 E. 3. 18.

pl.63. & 75. cites S. C.—

7. And so it was in pracipe quod reddat; grand cape shall issue In a pracipe for such default of the seme. Br. Exigent, pl. 52. cites 43 E. 3. 18.

against husband and wife, the default of one of them is the default of both; for one cannot answer without the other; it is no inconveniency to the wife, for upon default after default of the hulband she may be received to defend her right. Jenk. 27. in pl. 50. cites 26 H. 6. Default 4.

In writ of -land against baron and feme, he made default, and she said that she was sole, and not coevert, and was ready to aniquer, but the court would not receive her, but awarded grand cape, and at the return thereof, if the baron did not come, she should have her plea. Thel. Dig. 119. lib. 11, cap, 2. s. z. cites Pasch. 6 E. z. 249.

8. Trespass against baron and seme; at the exigent the sheriff [ 146] returned that be had taken them, and the baron came in ward, and the feme not, and the baron was compelled to answer without his feme, and pleaded not guilty; quod nota; contrary in debt. Baron and Feme, pl. 18. cites 44 E. 3. 1.

9. Debt against baron and feme, the baron rendered himself, and the feme was returned waived, by which the baron went quit by judgment, and was not compelled to answer. Br. Responder, pl. others, are 40. cites 11 H. 4. 56.

If femme covert and her baron, and defendants, as executors or administrators, and she comes without her baron, she shall not be compelled to answer without her baron, notwithstanding the statute. Br. Responder, pl. 10. cites S. C.-Fitzh. Responder, pl. 17. cites S. C.

10. In debt or trespass against baron and feme, nor in any per- Le. 138. pl. fonal action, if the baron appears and the feme not, or via versa the one shall not answer without the other, but if the seme be waiv- Entries 187, ed, the baron shall go sine die; by all the justices. Br. Baron where debt and Feme, pl. 8, cites 4 H. 6, 29. & 44 E. 3. 1, accordingly.

139. cites the Book of was brought against the husband and wife, and process continued until the exigent; the husband rendered himself, and the wife was waived, and judgment given, quia videbatur justiciariis hie that the husband absque pressata uxore sua respondere non potnit, & rationi dissonum sit ipsum in curia hic, cum in eadem loquela respondere non potuit, ultejus detineri, ideo eat inde fine die.

M 4

Br. Corone, Pl. 50. cites S.C. & S.P.

11. Feme covert shall answer to felony without her baron; per Littleton; and so they are not one person in law to all intents. Br. Baron and Feme, pl. 49. cites 15 E. 4. 1.

12. The wife's answer was admitted without the husband's, he pretending to plead to the jurisdiction of the court. Toth. 74.

cites 4 Jac. Trentham v. Kinnersley & Ux.

13. An attachment against the wife alone, and not the husband; for that she would not answer the bill. Toth. 77. cites Mich. 4

Jac. Keies v. Macher.

14. Upon a latitat against the husband and wife, a cepi corpus was returned for the wife; but non est inventus for the husband. Resolved, that nothing could be done in this case, unless there were bail put in by the husband; for a woman without her husband cannot be sued, nor put in bail, and therefore, because the plaintiff could not declare, the wife was discharged. Cro. J. 445. pl. 2. Mich. 15 Jac. B. R. Anon.

15. In an information for recufuncy of the feme, it was said that the feme cannot join issue without the baron; for in 42 E. 3. she cannot plead to outlawry without her baron; and in 11 H. 4. sho cannot plead pardon of the outlawry without her baron. quod fuit concessum per curiam. 2 Roll. Rep. 90. Pasch. 17

Jac. B. R. in Sir Geo. Curson's case,

- 16. A wife to answer without her husband, he being beyond sea,

Toth. 75. cites 11 Car. Portman v. Popham.

17. Wife's answer is no answer, being made without the huf-If the bill band's answer, and no process in such case can be had against the againft bawife. Arg, 2 Chan, Cases 173. Hill. 1 Jac. 2. in case of Ld. feme be for Ward v. Ld. Meath. 2 demand cut of ber frarate state, and the baron is beyond fea, and not amenable by the process of the court, if the be ferved with a subposta, Ld. Cowper held the process regular, rather than there should be a failure of justice, and she must appear and answer. 2 Vern. 613. pl. 551. Trin. 1708. Duhois v. Hole & Ux.

*[ 147 ] Gilb. Equ. Rep. 83. S.·C. reported in totidem verbic. — Abr. of Cafe: in Equity, 65. pl. S. S. C. cites no book.

ron and

18. Where the feme reserved the power of her own estate, the husband being much in debt, and to discharge his goods, going to be taken in execution, she gave a note to pay the debt out of her own separate cstate, * and accordingly the action was discharged. a bill against baron and feme, the baron could not be met with to be served with a subpoena; but the wife was inforced by attachment without him, he being made a party only for conformity. Chan. Prec. 128. pl. 249. Hill. 1711. Bell v. . Hydç.

19. Though a separate answer of a seme covert ought regularly to have an order to warrant it, yet if it be put in without an order, but done deliberately by good advice, and the fully apprised thereof, and done at her request, and with consent of her husband, and the plaintiff accepts of it, and replies to it, and the anfwer being to the feme covert's advantage, neither she in her life, nor the hasbanki after her death, or any on her behalf, can allign this which was done in her favour as an irregularity; and fo was resolved by Ld. C. King to be regularly put in. Rep.

Time, 24. S. C. but very thort, and only fayt, that a separate an-Iwer put in by the wife , c 🤰 🛕 in Chan in Ld. King's Rep. 371. Trin. 1726. the Duke of Chandois v. Talbot & alone, without order Ux. of the court for that purpole, is irregular. The wife by order of court answered separately. Cases in Equa 42. in Ld. Talbot's Time, Mich 1734. Fenne v. Peacock & Ux.

Scheel Cales

20. On a motion to suppress the answer of the defendant, for that she marrying after the bill filed, and before answer put in, had put in her answer without her hulband, But Ld. C. King said, that marrying pendente lite does not abate the fuit, and though there is no charge in the bill against the husband, or subpœna served on him, yet he must join in the answer of the wife for conformity; for no married woman can put in an answer without her husband, by the rules of the court, without special leave of the court, and an order for that purpose. MS. Rep. Hill. 4 Geo. 2. in Canc. Abergavenny v. Abergavenny.

2 Wm3.'s Rep. 311. pl. 38. Abergavenny v. Abergavenny, is not the S. P.

(K. a) Arrest, &c. of Feme.

1. TRESPASS against baron and feme. The baron was outlasved by the exigent, and the feme surrendered herself, and because the seme shall not answer without her baron, and he is outlawed, therefore she went quit. Br. Baron and Feme, pl. 10. cites 40 E. 3. 34.

2. If feme covert makes actual disseisin with force, she shall be imprisoned. Arg. 2 Brownl. 96. cites 9 H. 4. 7. b. 8 E. 3. 52.

-22 E. 2. Damages 20. 27 H. 6. Ward 118.

3. In affife against baron and feme, she shall be attached by the Br. Attachgoods of the baron; for she is ameanable by the baron. Br. Baron and Feme, pl. 45. cites 7 H. 6.9. by the best opinion.

4. The husband appears and the wife not. Attachment went so where against them both. Cary's Rep. 92. cites 19 Eliz. Monox v. Abel & Ux'.

ment in Alfife, pl. 4. cites S. C.

the baron only appeared and demurred. Cary's Rep. 52. 1 Eliz. Spicer v. Pakine.

5. The husband and wife were outlawed; the wife came in in Process in avard by process, and brought a charter of pardon. The court held debt against baron and that she shall be discharged of the imprisonment; but the charter seme concannot be allowed, because she cannot sue scire facias against the tinues till plaintiff, to make him declare upon the original without her hufband, and the pardon is with condition. Ita quod ipfa staret appears, but D. 271. b. pl. 27. Hill. 10 Eliz. Anon. recta in curia.

the exigent, the baron quill not suffor the wife

to appear; and it was ruled per cur. that in this case she may make attorney, to prevent being waived. D. 271. b. marg. pl. 27. cites 42 Eliz. C. B.

* When baron and seme are taken on a capias utlagatum, the seme shall be discharged; per Holt. Farr. 82. Mich. 1 Ann. B.R. obiter.

6. In debt against husband and wife, executrix of her former Le. 138. husband, the husband appeared upon the exigent, and would have put in a supersedeas for himself alone, without appearance or supersedeas for the wife, and so the court at first thought he might; but upon a precedent shewed of 18 Eliz. in one Sommers's case, who

-[ 148 ] pl. 189. S. C. and after the justices had advised thereof, the fapersedess was stayed, without recording the appearance of the hulwould have put in such supersedeas for himself alone, but was not suffered so to do, but was compelled to put in an appearance, attorney, and supersedeas for his wife also, the court were of the same opinion. Cro. E. 118. pl. 4. Mich. 30 & 31 Eliz. B. R. Bilford v. Fox.

band; and Lady Malory's case was cited, where the husband appeared; and put in supersedeas for himself only ; but it was not allowed, but process continued till outlawry.

A supersedeas was put in for the seme on an exigent against the baron and seme, and on much dehateit was agreed, that the feme (for the safeguard of herself from imprisonment) being returned uposa the exigent, or upon the capies, viz. upon the one quod reddidit te, upon the other cepi; and as to the husband (non est inventus) may appear [her appearance may be entered;] and so long as the process com tinues against the husband, she shall have idem dies; but when the baron is returned utlagatus, she shall be discharged without idem dies, and that stands well, and reconciles all the books; but whether she shall have a supersedeas de non molestando is doubtful; for by the 1 r.H. 4. 89. and D. 271. if the baron be outlawed, and the wife waived, and the king pardons the feme, that shall be allowed, and she shall go fine die; and see 4 E. 3. 34. and 14 H. 6. 14. 13 H. 4. 1. and it seemed by all to be agreed, that the baron after he purchaseth his pardon, or after he comes and reverses the outlawry, he shall not have allowance of his pardon, nor his appearance received, unless he brings in his teme, who by presumptions of law is amesnable by him; but the baron is not amesnable by the seme. Hut. 86. Hill. 2 Car. Anone Cro. J. 58. pl. 2. Smith v. Ash, S. C. and the exigent appointed to be filed against both. Litt. Rep. 18. S. C. accordingly.

> 7. The wife was executrix of her first baron, and upon a devastavit returned, a ca. fa. iffued against both de bonis propriis. The baron was in the Fleet, and the feme was brought into court by hab. corp. and prayed that she be committed also to the Fleet; but Anderson moved that she should not; for if she and her 2d baron had been joint executors, or if she had not proved the will, or administered during her widowhood, she should not be charged in devastavit, because then it was the act of the baron. But she was committed, because it appears that she was executrix, and that she administered nuben she was sole, and then the devastavit of the baron shall be faid the act of the feme. D. 210. a. pl. 23. marg. cites Mich. 38 & 39 Eliz. C. B. Vaughan v. Thompson.

8. In debt on bond made by the wife dum sola fuit, judgment Noy 13. must be that baron and seme capiantur. Mo. 704. pl. 982. Hill. Ampion v. Stockburn.

39 Eliz. Bardolph v. Perry & Ux. Per Pop-ham, the capias must be against the seme only; but cites 9 E. 4. 24. 2. contra. See tit. Amercement (D. a) pl. 9. and the notes there.

> 9. The defendant and his wife were committed to Newgate for not performing an order. Toth. 157. cites 10 Jac. Westdeane v. Frizell & Ux.

10. Widow pending a suit against her, takes husband. The plain-Brownl,226. tiff recovers against her. Per tot. cur. the capias shall beawarded .S. C. held · accordingly. her, and not the husband. Cro. J. 323. pl, 1. Trin. 11 Jac. -2 Bultt. So. S.C. 2d- B. R. Doyley v. White, judged -

Lane, 48. Doillie v. Jolliffe, Pasch. 7 Jac. in the exchequer, S.P. and seems to be S. C. adjorpatur.

11. Paron and feme in execution. The feme escapes. Debt lies 3 Bulft. 150. Wood & Ux' against the marshal; per 3 justices against 1. 2 Buist. 320. Hill. v. Sutcliff, 12 Jac. Sutclist v. Reynolds, S. P. per Cuke Ch. J.

12. Action was brought against baron and feme, and an attor- Appearance ney appears for the baron alone; per cur. it is the appearance of for the bufbaron and feme in law. Brownl. 46. Pasch. 12 Jac. Anon.

band will not be received without an appearance for the wife too. 6 Mod. 86. Mich. 2 Ann. B. R. in case of Wigg v. Rook.

13. The baron shall never be charged for the act or default of the wife, but when he is made a party to the action, and judgment given against him and the wife. As for the debt of the wife, or scandal published by the wife, or trespass by her, &c. so that in indictments of her, he shall not be charged for the fine set upon her. 11 Rep. 61. b. Mich, 12 Jac. in Dr. Foster's case.

14. Latitat against baron and seme. The feme was arrested, It was said but baron was not found. The feme is dismissed; for there can that the be no declaration till the baron be taken, and has put in bail. Cro.

J. 445. pl. 23, Mich. 15 Jac. B. R. Anon.

plaintiff thould fue them by process of outlawry, and so he might have remedy. Ibid.

15. Feme sole enters into bond, and then marries. Debt is Dal. 39. pl. brought against them on the bond, and they deny the deed. baron shall be taken for the fine as well as the wife; for she had nothing to pay the fine with. And so in trespass against the baron and feme, and they both are found guilty, both shall be taken for the fine, which the prothonotaries agreed to. Het. 53. Mich. .3 Car. C. B. Johnson v. Williams.

11. 4 Elis. Anon. S. P. feems only a translation of Dal.

16. Affault and battery was brought against the husband and wife, for a battery by the wife, and defendants were found guilty. The judgment shall be quod capiatur against the baron only. Cro.

C. 513. pl. 8. Mich. 14 Car. B. R. Anon.

17. Where an action, in which bail is required, is brought D. 377. 2. against an attorney and his wife, he must put in bail for himself pl. 30. Trin. and his wife, and therefore the declaration being against the wife in custodia, and the husband in propria persona, it was ordered case, S. P. that querens nil capiat per billam, Sty. 226. Trin. 1650. B. R. Elfy v. Mawdit.

23 Eliz. Powle's where the hulband was clerk of the crown in chancery. ----- S. C. cited Vent. 299.

18. If there be cause to have special bail, the wife must lie in prison till the husband appears, and puts in bail for her; for she cannot put in bail for herself, being covert baron; per Glyn Sty. 475. Mich. 1655. B, R. Attlee v. Lady Baltinglas.

19. In debt against husband and wife for her debt dum sola, he was outlawed, and she was waived, and taken and imprisoned; but the busband could not be found. It was moved, that she might be discharged upon an affidavit that she was but 17 years old when fbe married, and so could not be debtor; and as to the outlawry, that she was pardoned by the general pardon. She was discharged. Sid. 20. pl. 2. Hill. 12 Car. 2. C. B. Biron v. Bickley.

20. Debt upon bond sealed by both, and both were taken by capias. Per cur. an habeas corpus to bring them into court might be without motion, in order that the baron only may be committed, and the feme discharged. Lev. 1. Mich. 12 Car. 2. B. R. Slater v. Slater.

Baron and Feme:

21. The secondary, upon search, reported all the precedents to be, that unless the wife be arrested, or the husband give bond for her appearance, he shall not be forced to put in bail for both, if he will lie in prison; but else he shall, before he can be bailed in debt brought against both, upon a statute entered into by the seme dum sola, which the court agreed. Keb. 225. pl. 39. Hill. 13 Car. 2. B. R. Cranmer v. Andrews.

[150]

12. The husband in custodia, in a writ where he and his wife are named, must appear for himself and wife; but is not forced to put in special bail for her, if she be not arrested; but the sheriff may, upon the arresting him, take an obligation for good bail, which by Hern, secondary, is the constant practice of the court; but he must find special bail for himself. Keb. 241. pl. 82. Hill. 13 Car. 2. B. R. Nevil v. Cage & Ux'.

The feme entered into wife as for a debt owing by the wife dum fola; whereas it appeared upon examination, that it was contracted after the marriage, and this was on purpose to take the wife in execution; but it appearance ing that the baron was in execution also, the wife was discharged; and so she shought the foliation of the should, had the contract been before the marriage. Lev. 51. Mich. 13 Car. 2. B. R. The Lady Chaworth's case.

and she being in prison, and the plaintist, after knowing of the marriage, brought another writ against the baron and seme, and took the baron also, and declared against both in custodia. The court on motion discharged the seme; for the baron only is to be imprisoned, and before he shall be discharged, shall find bail for himself and her. Lev. 216. Trin. 19 Car. 2. B. R. Whitsield v. Holmes.

Fine covert stated a bond, and being arrested and carried to prison, the court, upon affidavit made that she was covert, and entering her appearance, discharged her without bail Freem. Rep. 210. pl. 216. Trin. 1676. Lady Thornborough's case.

Keb. 193. pl. 194. S.C. it was moved to discharge her, it being an arrest on mesne process only, and to lay the is in custodia, is no reason, because when he comes in he thall find bail for himfelf and his wife, and so the plaintiff may declare against them both in custodia, and per cur. she was discharged, nist. Twisten said, that there had been 3 opinions, viz. 1st, That she should lie in prison till the husband come in, and that is unreasonable. 2dly, That she ought to sile common bail, if another will be bound for her, which may prevent a fraud in arresting of her at the beginning of a long vacation; this the court conceived reasonable, but it is at the election of the wife, whether she will or not. 3dly, That she ought to be discharged without bail, which the court conceived reasonable, and so awarded here. Ibid.

24. In debt against baron and seme, if upon the latitat the seme appears, she shall be accepted; per cur. But where she is in execution, she shall not be discharged, nor could the Lady Baltinglas, who was in custodia only upon process; but per cur. she ought to be discharged, and that without bail, if it appear upon the writ that she is a seme covert; but if she be sued as a seme sole, she shall put in bail; and by Twisden, it is an unreasonable course, that because she cannot appear by reddidit se, but in custodia, therefore she should not be dismissed as in C. B. else this would be as good as a divorce, a continual non est inventus being returned against the husband, and no declaration can be against her, and so she shall always be in prison. Adjornatur. Keb. 189. pl. 171. Mich. 18 Car. 2. B. R. Bars v. Desman.

25. Feme covert in suit against baron and seme is arrested, and If seme cogives bond for her appearance, and now prayed to be delivered on common bail, the sheriff having returned cepi corpus of the baron and feme both, baving only taken ber, which the court denied after retorn of cepi corpus; contra, if non est inventus had been retorned as to the husband; but yet, if it appears only a practice, they will discharge her, to examine which they gave rule for the sheriff to return the body of the husband. Keb. 367. pl. 62. Mich. 1.4 Car. 2. B. R. Dethick v. Yaxley & Ux.

vert be arrifted, let caule of action be what it will, the shall be difcharged upon common bail; but if befband is arrefled, he spall not be discharged by giving bail for himself without giving it for his wife likewise. 6 Mod. 17. Mich. 2 Ann. B. R. Cothith v. Marks. S. P. by Twisden J. Mod. &. pl. 24. Mich. 21 Cat. 2. and said, that to it was done in Lady Balting ass's case, and that where it is said in Crooke, [Cro. J. 445. pl. 23. Anon.] that the wife in such case shall be discharged, it is to be understood that she shall be discharged upon common bail; and so Livesey said the course was. ——— If it he clear and netorious that * spe is covert, common bail ought to have been received, but if it be doubted, she ought to find special dail; per cur. 6 Mod. 105. Hill. 2 Ann. B. R. Anon. S. P. if the cause requires special bail. 7 Mod. 10. Pasch. 1 Ann. B. R. per Holt Ch. J. Anon.

26. Debt against husband and wife, for a debt supposed to be Vent. 51. due by her dum sola; special bail was put in. Judgment was had against them, and they surrendered themselves in discharge of the bail. It was moved to discharge the seme, because no debt was due from ker dum sola, but this action was contrived between the plaintiff and the husband, to make her a prisoner. It was agreed, that if the wife is taken upon mesne process before her husband, the shall be discharged, and when the husband is taken, he shall give an appearance for both; but it was said, that upon an execution the wife may be taken first; but dubitatur what should be done; & adjornatur. Sid. 395. pl. 2. Mich. 20 Car. 2. B. R. Gabry v. of her, but Gabry.

[ 151 ] Mich. 21 Car.2.B.R. Jackson v. Gabree, S.C. the gaoler let the hufband escape. It was moved to discharge the wife, because the huiband took no care 'let her lie there in a very necessitous condition. At first the court doubted what to do, but asterwards resolved, that unless the plaintiff would get the husband taken again, as he might do, they would discharge the wife, and said, that the escape of the husband was the escape of the wife. -2 Keb. 576. pl. 98. S. C. and per cur. if the husband will lie in prison the wife must do so too; but if he will put in bail for himself, he must do so for his wife also; but if he will not appear, or this were not in execution, she should be discharged; and it was referred to the secondary to examine the practice, and if they were in execution or not. ___ Sid. 395. in S. C. the reporter adds a nota, that there was a case in C. B. 12 Car. 2. as he remembers, between HUNT AND DRAKE AND Ux. which was the same as this, only that the baron was prisoner before, and that it was by contrivance to take his wife, who was the fifter of Sir John Poets; and that Bridgman, then Ch. J. there, and the other justices, discharged the seme, but first they examined the practice, and ordered that the judgment should be taken off the roll.

27. If they are arrested in an action which requires special bail, But it is and the husband puts in bail for himself, he must put in bail for his wife also; but if he lies in prison, the wife cannot be let out upon com- abscords, and Vent. 49. Mich. 21 Car. 2. B. R. Anon.

otherwise, if the busband cannot be arrested. Vent.

49. Mich. 21 Car. 2. B. R. Anon. In such case she shall not be discharged but upon common bail, and then new process shall go against the baron, with an idem dies given to the wife; per Hoit Ch. J. 1 Salk. 115. in pl. 3. Hill. 7 W. 3. B. R.

28. A judgment in a sci. fac. was had against a feme upon a former judgment upon two nihils returned, but before the sci. fac. brought she was married to A. and was brought against her as sole by v. Marshall, contrivance between the plaintiff and her baron to oppress her, and lay her up in prison, and she could not help herself by error or audita

3 Keb. 27. Pl. 47. Lady Prettyman S. C. the court inclined accordingly, but adjourned it for the audita querela, because her baron would release, and the plaintist knew of her being married. The court faid, that this judgment. fame reason. might be set aside for the misdemeanor of the plaintiff; but being informed that the marriage was under debate in the ecclesiaftical court, and near to sentence, they suspended making any rule till that was determined. Vent. 208. Pasch. 24 Car. 2. B. R. Lady Prettyman's case.

> 29. Plaintiff brought a bill against the husband and wife, who was the daughter of the plaintiff. The husband puts in a plea, and swears to it, but the wife refused to swear to it. Upon suggestion that the wife's refusal was in combination with her mother, it was ordered, that the plea stand as for the husband, and the plaintiff to proceed against the wife. Ch. Cases, 296. Hill. 28 & 29

Car. 2. Pain v....

30. Writ against husband and wife. The wife was taken, and offered bail for herself, but the bailiffs insisted on bail for her husband also, who was not taken, and committed her, and an attachment was granted against the bailiss; for though the husband is compellable to give bail for himself and his wife, yet so is not the wife, but for herself only; but per Holt, if we grant an attachment, they shall not take an action, they ought not to have two remedies. Cumb. 304. Mich. 6 W. & M. in B. R. Hellier

v. Condy.

5. P. by Kemp, secondary, and faid it had been the practice of B. R. for 40 years of [152]

31. If an action be brought against husband and wife, and the husband is arrested, he shall give a bail bond for the appearance of him and his wife, and must put in bail for both; but if one brings an action against the husband only, he cannot declare against husband and wife; per Holt Ch. J. 1 Salk. 115. pl. 3. Hill. 7 W. 3. B. R. in the case of Carpenter v. Faustin.

his knowledge. Goldsb. 127. pl. 19. Hill. 43 Eliz. Anon.

Gilb. Equ. Rep. 83. 5. C. in to-

32. Upon a suit in chancery against baron and seme, wherein the baron was made a party only for conformity; she was taken up tidem verbis. on an attachment for not putting in her answer, and could not be discharged without entering her appearance with the register, and paying costs of the motion. Ch. Prec. 328. pl. 249. Hill. 1711. Bell v. Hyde & Ux.

Where the Baron is banished, or an Alien, or beyond Sea.

Br. Nonzbility, pl. 9. sites 2 H.4. 7. S. C. and some of the justices said, that it was because she was the king's far-

1. TX7ILAND was banished 18 E. 1. by parliament, and his wife had her jointure, by advice of all the judges and others; per Coke Ch. J. and per Doderidge, in the abridgment there are divers cases in time of H. 1. and H. 3. accordingly, and 10 E. 3. the wife of Matravers brought writ of dower, Matravers being banished. Roll. Rep. 400. pl. 27. Trin. 14 Jac. in Wilmore's case.

Br. Baron and Feme, pl. 66. cites S. C. accordingly; but Brooke fays, quære, and fays MCI. ---- vide 1 H. 4. 1 .- Br. Brief, pl. 422. eites S. C. Jenk. 4. pl. 4. eites S. C. ___ 3 Bulft. 188. Coke Ch. J. says, her dower was allowed. - Mo. 851. S. C. cited in Eliz. Wilmot's case,

2. If the baron forejures the realm, the feme is a person able to Br. Coveralien her land without the baron. Br. Baron and Feme, pl. 81. ture, pr. /c. ture, pl. 76. cites 31 E. 1. and Fitzh. Cui in Vita 31.

3. The king brought quare impedit against the wife of an exile; per Doderidge J. Mo. 851. in pl. 1159. cites 10 E. 3. 399.

4. The plaintiff shewed by his bill, that he freighted a ship into Spain, which was there confiscate and all his goods; for the defendant's husband, being master of the ship, had an English book found in the ship, contrary to the laws there, which he was forewarned of, and knew the laws, and the defendant's hulband was condemned to the gallies for 14 years, and the plaintiff, as well for his own relief as for the relief of the defendant, devised to obtain licence from her majesty, for transporting 60 tuns of beer yearly, for 8 years, the profits whereof to be equally divided between them, and the bill exhibited to her majesty was in both their names, and the party of the charge, but the defendant cautiously got the same altered into her own name, and hath sold the same away without yielding the plaintiff any profit; the defendant doth demur, because she is a seme covert; it is ordered a subpoena be awarded against her to make a better answer. Cary's Rep. 143, 144. cites 22 Eliz. Castleton v. Alice Fitz-Williams.

5. The wife may sue in her own name in her husband's absence be- Mo. 666. in yourd sea, as in case of assault, &c. but she cannot be sued before pl- 910. it he * returns again; per Williams J. and the whole court. 140. Trin. 9 Jac. Anon.

was admitted per cur-Pasch. 44 Eliz, that the feme of an exile may fue alone, and cited a H. 4.

6. The wife shall be accounted as feme sole in case of banish- 3 Buist-188. ment and abjuration; per Coke. Roll. Rep. 400. pl. 27. Trin. 14 Jac. in Wilmore's case.

*[ 153] S. P. per Coke, S. P. for then be is civiliter mortuus, and the husband being disabled to sue for the wife, it would be unreasonable that she should be remedilefs; and so it would be equally on those who had any demands on her, that not being able to have any redress from the husband, they should not have any against her. G. Hist. of C. B. 198.— And may make a will. 2 Vern. 104. Counters of Portland v. Prodgers.

7. A feme covert brought trespass by the name of a widow. The defendant pleaded that she was a seme covert, viz. the wife of J. Wilmot, who was in full life at Lisborn in Portugal. The plea was disallowed by the court for impossibility of trial. Mo. 851. pl. 1159. Trin. 14 Jac. B. R. Wilmot's case.

8. Assumpti for wages and money lent; on non assumpti the de- Ld. Raym. fendant proved the was married, and her husband alive in France. The jury found for the plaintiff; upon which, as a verdict against evidence, she moved for a new trial, but it was denied; for it shall that the be intended she was divorced. Besides the husband is an alien enemy, and in that case, why is not his wife chargeable as a feme was against

Rep. 147. was moved verdict against her. fole, evidence and

Br. Aid, pl.

74. cites

[154]

cites S. C.

♣ S. P.

S.C.

law; for fole, as much as if he had abjured or been banished. I Salk. I 16.

that a seme covert cancovert canDeerly v. Duchess of Mazarine.

not be sole charged without divorce and alimony, although the husband be a foreigner. But Holt Ch. J. thought, that such husband being under an absolute disability to come and live here, the law perhaps will make such wife chargeable as a seme sole for her debts and contracts. And the reporter says, that afterwards the plaintist had his judgment, as Mr. Coleman told him.——Cumb. 402. S. C. adjornatur.

9. Bill against baron and seme for a demand out of the separate estate of the seme, and the baron is beyond sea, and not to be come at by the process of the court; yet if the seme is served with a subpæna, she must appear and answer the plaintist's bill; per Cowper C. 2 Vern. 613. pl. 551. Trin. 1708. Dubois v. Hole.

(M. a) Where they are said to be one Person in Law.

of land, &c. 2 appeared and the others made default, by which iffued grand cape of 5 parts, and they made default at another time, and the two appeared again, and the demandant counted against them, that the 2 avrong fully deforced him of two parts of the carve of land in 7 parts divided; per Rolf, there are 8 persons, therefore it should be in eight parts divided. Per Martin, the count is good, for the baron and seme are not but one person in law, and therefore well, quod curia concessit. Br. Count, pl. 44. cites 4 H. 6. 26.

2. The baron in replevin shall have aid of his own feme after avowry, and process by summons to bring her in. Br. Baron and Feme, pl. 46. cites 7 H. 6. 45.

3. Baron and seme are not one person to have the privilege, because the baron is servant of the chancellor, nor essign de servition regis, nor other essoign cast by the baron shall not serve the seme, but protection for the baron shall serve both; nor seme of an attorney shall not sue by bill as her baron shall do. Br. Baron and Feme, pl. 9. cites 35 H. 6. 3.

4. Feme covert in case of felony shall answer without her baron, Br. Baron & and so are not one person to all intents; per Littleton. Br. Co-Feme, pl. 49. rone, pl. 50. cites 15 E. 4. 1.

5. Baron and another referred a matter to arbitration. The arbitrators award the feme to join in a fine of the land, about which the reference was; this award as to the feme is void, for she is not comprised in the submission, but the baron is liable to be sued on his bond if he does not do it; per Frowike Serj. Kelw. 45. b. pl. 2. Trin. 17 H. 7. Anon.

6. Payment

Dea in adion of debt on the bond; and judgment for the plaintiff. Le. 320. pl. 401. Trin. 31 Eliz. B. R. Froud v. Bates.

The days fols. and that the lessee had no notice of her marriage, and the baron may make the lessee.

wife dum sola, and that the lessee had no notice of her marriage, and the baron may make the lessee pay it over again. Cro. J. 617. (bis) pl. 7. Mich. 19 sac. B. R. Tracy v. Dutton.—Palm. 207. S. C.

7. In account of the receipt of tol. by the hands of the plaintiff's wife; defendant waged his law, and at the day he had to wage his law, it was doubted whether it lay, because the receipt is supposed to be by another's hand. But because a receipt by the hands of the wife of the plaintiff or defendant is all one receipt by their own hands; he was received to wage his law. Cro. E. 919. pl. 12. Hill. 45 Eliz. B. R. Goodrick's case.

8. Protection for the husband shall serve also for the wife. Co. Jenk. 26.

pl. 50. S. P.

and if the protection is repealed and declared void, this turns to the default both of husband and wife. — Jenk. 93. pl. 81. S. P. — Jenk. 80. pl. 57. S. P.

9. A. devised the residue of his estate to B. C. and D. and the wife of D. equally to be divided. D. and his wife shall take but as one person. Verm. 233. pl. 228. Pasch. 13 Car. 2. Bricker v. Whalley.

10. A. B. bath 3 nieces, one of them takes husband. A. B. devises a legacy to the husband and wife, and the other nieces equally; the question in chancery was, whether there should be three parts or four. It was argued, that being tenants in common, there should be four parts, as likewise that so it should be adjudged by the civil law, and that in chancery they govern legacies by the rule of the civil law, unless where it directly contradicts the common law; but it was ruled by Ld. K. North, that there should be but three parts, and that husband and wife should take but as one person according to the rule of the common law, and the rather, for that the legacy here was given in respect of the wife, and not of the husband also. Skin. 182. in chancery, pl. 9. Pasch. 36 Car. 2. B. R. Anon.

11. Husband and wife were sued, and afterwards in the pleadings it was said, venerunt partes pradic? per attornates sues pradic?; this was held naught upon a writ of error, because they are but one person in law. 3 Salk. 62. pl. 1. Pasch. 12 W. 3. B. R. Maddox v. Winne.

(N. a) What Act by the one to the other is good.

1. THE custom of York is, that a seme covert may take land purchased by her baron, of the gift of her baron. Br. Customs, pl. 56. cites 12 H. and Fitzh. Prescription 61.

lands of tenure in burgage, where the custom was to devise.

3. Gift made by the king to the queen by charter is good. Br. Corporations, pl. 45. cites 49 Ass. 8.

Br. Attor- 4. A feme covert may be atterney for her husband. F. N. B. ney, pl. 91. 27. (C)
S. P. cites 27. (C)

Pasch. 13 E. 3. Fitz. tit. Attorney, 73.——A seme may be attorney to deliver seisin to her husband, and the husband to the wife. Co. Litt. 52. a.

Co. Litt.
187. b. at the bottom,
S. P. tho' they are but one person in tw; so as neither of them give any estate

5. In diverse cases a man may be a means to make a thing pass unto his wise, which shall not immediately pass from him; and therefore if a man infeoffs a married woman, and makes a letter of attorney unto the husband to make livery of seisin according to the deed, and he makes livery of seisin accordingly, it is a good feoffment; for the husband is but a means to convey the freehold to the wise; for by this act done no freehold doth pass from the person, &c. Perk. s. 196.

er interest to the other.

6. In debt, per Fisher, if a man be bound to infeoff a woman by a certain day, and before the day be marries ber, he may make lease for a month to a stranger, the remainder to his seme, and it is a good performance. Quære. Br. Feossment de Terre, pl. 38. cites 4 H. 7. 4.

7. Grant was made to the queen by the king of certain land for term of life; and so see that the queen is a person exempt, and may take of her own baron by grant of him. Br. Patents, pl.

55. cites 7 H. 7. 7.

S. P. betaule she is but an instrument for others, and the estate passes from 8. Note that it was adjudged, that a feme covert executrix may make a fale of the land to her own baron, and this is a good bargain; and because the seosses would not make a seossement accordingly, therefore they were committed to the Fleet. Br. Executor, pl. 175. cites 10 H. 7. 20.

the devisor. Co. Litt. 187. b.—There is a diversity between a naked power and a power that fotos from an interest. When a bare power is given to a seme by will to sell lands, though she marry she may sell, and may sell the lands to ber bushand, because it was not created by herself out of any interest of her own; but where a seme, on a settlement of her own estate, reserves a power which slows from an interest, that power ought to be executed by the seme sole, and if by the baron and seme, it is not good. Chan. Cases, 18. Hill. 14 & 15 Car. 2. The Marquis of Antrim v. Duke of Buckingham.

2 Freem. Rep. 168. pl. 214. S. C. in much the same words.—For she on the matter nominates the party, and he takes by the will; per Winch ] 2 Brownl. 194.

If the baon be to her, and the like. Arg. 2 Bulst. 291. in Dockwray's case, pay bit wife cites 27 H. 8. 15.

money, that le good. Co. Litt. 207. a.

venants, of which one was, among others, that the defendant

Bardn and Feme.

should pay annually 71. to J. his feme on such a feast; and issue Tound against him; and it was pleaded in arrest of judgment, that a man cannot pay to his own feme. And per Fitzherbert and Shelly J. clearly, this may be as well as a man may find his feme living and vesture; but he cannot give or infeoff his feme. Br. Conditions, pl. 8. cites 27 H. 8, 27, * 11. The husband leases land to A. for life, the remainder to his own wife in tail. This is not good, because a gift immediate to his own wife is not good; and if he in remainder is not capable at the time of the livery, he never shall be. Br. Lect. Stat. Limit. 78.

12. The bufband may furrender a copyhold to the use of his wife, because it is not done immediately to her, but to the lord of the manor to her use, and by his admittance of the seme, according to the surrender. 4 Rep. 29. b. pl. 18. Mich. 27 & 28 Eliz. the 4th resolution in case of Bunting v. Lepingwell.

13. A seme covert cannot take any thing of the gift of her huf- she cannot band. Co. Litt. 3. a. at the top.

take by an immediate.

conveyance from her baron; but it ought always to suppose the gift and demise to be from the feoffees. Ang. Cro. E. 722. pl. 52. Mich. 41 & 42 Eliz.

By act executed, a man cannot convey to his wife. Arg. Roll. Rep. 69. 2 Vern. 385. Moyle

To Gyles.

By no conveyance at the common law a man could, during the coverture, either in possession, revertion, or remainder, limit an effate to his wife; but a man may by his deed towenant with others to stand sensed to the use of his wife, or make a feeffment or other conveyance to the use of his wife; and now the estate is executed to such uses by the statute of 27 H. 8. for an use is but a trust and confidence, which by such a mean might be limited by the husband to the wife; but a man cannot covenant with his wife to fland seised to her use, because he cannot covenant with her, for the reason which Littleton bere yieldeth. Co. Litt. 112. a.

If a man be bound with a condition to infeoff his wife, the condition is void, and against law, because it is against a maxim in law, and yet the bond is good. Co. Litt. 206. b.

14. If a feme disseisores makes a seoffment in fee to the use of A. for life, and after of herself in tail, and the remainder to the use of B. in fee, and then takes busband the disseise, and he releases to her all bis right, this shall enure to B. and to his own wife also; for by Littleton's rule it must accrue to all in the remainder. Co. Litt. 297. b.

15. If cesty que use had devised that his wife should sell his land, S. P. Went. and made her executrix, and died, and she took another husband, The might fell the land to her busband; for the did it in auter droit, but says he and her husband should be in by the devisor. Co. Litt. 112. at marvels at at the bottom.

Off. Executors, 207. it, yet volenti non fit injuria. Arg. Godb. 15. cites 3 E. 3. Br. Devise, 43.

16. Though the last will does not take effect till after his de- † She may cease, yet if a seme covert be seised of lands in see, she cannot + dewife the same to ber busband, because at the making her will she lands to had no power (being sub potestate viri) to devise the same, and the her husband law intends it should be done by coercion of her husband. Litt. 113. b.

devise ber copybold with or Co. without his consent, if the eustom of the manor be so. Mo. 123. pl. 268. Pasch. 25 Eliz. Anon-The custom of a copyhold manor was, that a feme covert might give lands to her bushand. Adjudged an unreasonable custom, because it cannot have a reasonable commencement; for the wife being always feb potestate viri, it shall be intended that she did it by socretion of her husband. Godb. 143. pl. 178.

Baron and Keme.

pl. 178. 33 Eliz. C. B. Skipwith v. Sheffield. ——And though it was urged that the custom mights be good, because she might be examined by the stemant of the court, as the manner is upon a fine to be examined by the judge, yet the court said nothing to it. Ibid. 144.

17. A man cannot covenant with his wife. Co. Litt. 112. a.

18. Lesse is restrained from aliening, but only to his wife, and if no wife, then to a younger brother. If lesse makes estate to his wife for her life, and the residue of the term to his brother, this had been void as to the wife, because he cannot make alienation to his wife; and this ought to be construed to be done by such alienation as he may make to her, and that must be by will, and cannot be otherwise, and good presently to the younger brother; per Coke Ch. J. 2 Bulst. 212. Mich. 12 Jac. Fox v. Whitchcott.

[ 157 ] 4 Rep. 29. b. Bunting v. Lepingwell.

19. By way of use a man may convey to his wife, or by surrender by custom, as of copyhold. Arg. 2 Bulst. 273. Mich. 12 Jac.

Roll. Rep. 138. Arg. ____ Co Litt. 112. a. S. P.

A man cannot make a good promise fince they are separated. The court conceived such promise to be utterly void in law, and would not relieve the plaintiff. Channillaw, tho' Rep. 60. 8 Car. 1. Stoit v. Ayloff.

he may to a franger for her. 2 Lev. 148. Mich. 27 Car. 2. B. R. in case of Clerk v. Nettleship.

21. K. the plaintiff's late busband, purchased a walk in a chase, and took the patent to himself and his wife, and one B. for their lives, and the life of the longest liver of them. K. died, and made the defendant his executor; the plaintiff's bill was to have the benefit of this purchase, and to have the patent delivered to her. The defendant by answer set forth, that K. died greatly indebted, and bad not lest sufficient assets for payment thereof. Per cur. it shall be presumed to be intended as an advancement and provision for the wife; the wife cannot be a trustee for the husband; and therefore decreed that the plaintiff should enjoy the patent during her life; and after her decease, in case B. should survive her, to be a trust for the executor of the husband, and applied towards the payment of his debts. 2 Vern. 67, 68. pl. 62. Trin. 1688. Kingdome v. Bridges.

22. Wife cannot be examined as a witness against ber busband.

2 Vern. 79. pl. 74. Trin. 1688. Cole v. Grey & Ux'.

2 Vern. 385. 23. One jointenant made a deed of gift to his wife of his moiety pl. 352. S.C. to sever the jointure and make a provision for her, he being taken sick on a journey. It being void in law, as being made to her, and being voluntary and without consideration, equity would not make it good. Ch. Prec. 124. pl. 108. Mich. 1700. Moyse v. Gyles.

24. She may take by his will, though she cannot take by any conveyance at common law; for the will not taking effect, in point of transferrence of an interest; after the husband's death, she is in nature of a stranger, and so the land will pass to her; per Trevor Ch. J. 11 Mod. 156. Hill. 6 Ann. C. B. in case of Archer v. Bokenham.

12

25. Mortgagee made M. the wife of B. executrix, and residuary Wms, Rep. legatee for her sole and separate use; B. gave her a note under his band that she should have benefit of the mortgage. The note gives the wife good right both to the principal and to the interest due on the mortgage, and is grounded on natural justice. 2 Vern. 559.

pl. 585. Trin. 1710. Harvey v. Harvey.

26. Baron on his death-bed delivered to his wife a purse of 100 guineas, and bid her apply it to no other use but her own; and also drew a bill upon a goldsmith to pay 1001. to his wife to buy her mourning, and to maintain her till her jointure should become due, and about 17 days after died. The master of the rolls held the gift of the purse to be good as donatio causa mortis, ut res magis valeat, &c. because otherwise a man cannot give to his own wife; and said this was the nature of a legacy to his wife; and as to the bill drawn on the goldsmith, he held the same good, and that it should operate as an appointment; but that if she had received it in her husband's life, it might be liable to some dispute, but that he apprehended it amounted to a direction to his executors, that the 1001. Should be appropriated to his wife's use; and inclined to think that had she received it in his life-time she should have kept it, and being for mourning it might operate like a direction given touching bis funeral, which ought to be observed, though not in the will, and these gifts being but small in comparison of the personal estate, and so was only an instance of his care, he decreed accordingly. Wms.'s Rep. 441, Trin. 1718. Lawson v, Lawson.

(O. a) Disputes Inter se.

A Feme is not a felon by taking the goods of her baron, be- Hawk Pl.C. cause she has colour. Br. Corone, pl. 141. (142) cit 3 93. cap. 33. [6. 19. cites 5 H. 7. 18.

2. A woman before her marriage with the baron, had a decree for 6001. per ann. and it was agreed before marriage between them Rep. 89. by parol, that she should have the sole disposal thereof, and accord- 16 June, ingly before marriage, she by deed assigned the benefit of the de- s. c. recree to one C. who after the marriage, together with the wife, released it to the defendant, it was had against; but per Coventry Ld. K. and 2 J. this verbal agreement was to subvert both the ground of law, and the right vested in the baron by the inter-marriage, and therefore if such agreement is not settled by some legal assuronce to make it binding in law, it is not fit to maintain it in a court N. Ch. R. 15. 26 July, 7 Car. 1. Suffolk (earl) v. Greenvill,

3. In action on the case for fcandalous words brought against the defendant, the pleaded in bar by attorney, that ante diem of exhibiting the bill, viz. I die Julii, 12 Car. 2. the plaintiff married per the defendant; and upon demurrer to this plea, she had judg-N 3 ported much in the lame manner. -- 2 Freem.Rep. 146.pl. 191. 16 June, 7 Car, 1. S.C. reported with very little difference.

ment, though it was pleaded in bar. Raym. 395. Trin. 32 Car. 2. B. R. Walsal v. Mary Allen.

See tit. Ne exeas Regann, pl. 7. in the notes there. 4. A motion was made for ne exeat regnum, the wife having fued him in the ecclesiastical court for alimony, and it was suspected that he would go beyond sea to avoid the sentence; the writ was granted in aid to the ecclesiastical court, and also a supplicavit de bono gestu, the court being informed that he used his wife very ill. 2 Vent. 345. Trin. 32 Car. 2. in Canc. Sir Jerome Smithson's case.

5. Though a man cannot have a bill against his wife for discovery of his own estate, yet where before marriage she enters into articles concerning her own estate, she has made herself as a separate person from her husband; and she was ordered to answer in a week. Ch. Prec. 24. pl. 26. Pasch, 1691, Sir R. Brooks

v. Lady Brooks.

6. A feme was indicted by her husband for poisoning his cows with bruised glass put into their grains, and she was admitted in sorma pauperis, though the court said that the husband could not convict her.

her. 6 Mod. 88. Mich. 2 Ann. B. R. Anon.

But none 7. A feme covert may fue ber busband by prochein amy. Ch. can bring a Prec. 275. pl. 223. Hill. 1708. Kirk v. Clark.

name of a feme covert as her prochein amy without her content, and if such bill be brought, it will be dismissed on her assidavit. Chan. Prec. 176. pl. 262. Mich. 1713. Andrews v. Cradock. ——Gilb. Equ. Rep. 36. S. C. in the same words. The case was, a bill was brought by Andrews as prochein gmi to the wife of the defendant Cradock, against her husband and his father, who was executor of her grandfather, in trust for her, to bave an account of the personal estate of her grandsather, and to have a settlement made upon ber and the issue of the marriage, &c. Mr. Vernon for the desendant; this bill being brought by the father of the wife against her consent, and disarrowed by her personally in court, ought to be dismissed; it is true, a seme covert may sue in this court by prochein amy as a seme sole, but no person can bring a bill in this court in the name of a seme covert without ber consent, as it may be done in the case of an infant. There is no instance of a suit in this court by a wife against her husband to have a settlement made by her husband upon her and her children, but if a seme covert is intitled to a trust either of a real or personal estate, and the husband brings a bill in this court to have the benefit of the truft, in such a case the court, before they will give the husband any remedy, will take care of a provision for the wife and children; for since the husband stands in need of the aid of this court to get in his wife's fortune, it is reasonable that the court should compel the husband to make a provision for her; for he that will have equity, ought to do equity; but where the busband has a legal title and remedy to recover his wife's portion, this court will not take away his legal remedy, or hinder the husband from suing at law in right of his wife by an injunction till he makes a provision for his wife. Per Harcourt C. the wife disowns the suit, and it is not reasonable a third person should bring a bill in her name against the husband without her consent, and when she personally appears in court, and disavows the suit; this tends to the sowing division between husband and wife, and breeding disputes and quarrels in families. This is an appeal from a decree of the master of the rolls, who ordered the defendants to account, &c. therefore the decree must be reversed, except as to bringing the writings and deeds relating to the wife's real estate before the master, to remain there till further order of the court. MS. Rep. Trin. 13 Ann. in Canc. Andrews v. Cradock & al'.

[ 159 ]

8. A. bequeathed the refidue of her personal estate, being about the value of 2000l. in S. S. stock, to a seme covert, but by her maiden name, not knowing her to be married, and made her executrix. The husband agreed with a friend of the wise's to settle it in trustees, whereof she to name one, and the husband the other, and to go to the survivor. A transfer is made by them accordingly. Asterwards a variation was proposed by the wise's friends, and to limit the uses, after the death of the survivor, to the issue of the marriage, and for want of issue to the administrators of the wise. A declaration was drawn, but was objected to by the husband, who who delired that the trust might be for them and the survivor, and after to the issue, and then the survivor to take the whole; but before such declaration was executed, the husband died intestate without issue. Ld. C. Talbot taking notice of making the wife executrix, and reliduary legatee, by her maiden name, not knowing her to be married at the time, thought it would be hard to say this 2000l. did absolutely vest in the husband, notwithstanding the case 3 Lev. 403. which had been cited, especially as by being executrix she is chargeable with debts; but, however, as he had it fingly through his wife, and had made no fettlement upon her, it was reasonable it should be settled upon her; that the agreement was compleat on both sides, and the subsequent transfer must be taken in pursuance of that agreement, and was of opinion, that upon her furviving, the stock was become her fole and absolute property; and so decreed the defendants, the trustees, to be trustees for the wife in her own right. Cases in Equ. in Ld. Talbot's Time, 171, Hill, 1735. Fort v. Fort & Blomfield.

- (P. a) Acts or Agreements of the Feme before Marriage in Fraud of the Husband, or in Derogation of the Rights or Expectation of the Baron, avoided.
- L'HE plaintiff's wife before marriage conveyed away her estate to the defendant, being ber son, and after the defendant conveys her conveyed the same to his children, being infants, because (as the personal escourt conceived) it was passed without any consideration; it was decreed for the plaintiff against the defendant and the infants, in 32 & 33 Eliz. li. B. fo. 430. 454. & 484. Toth. 162, Povy v. Peart.

"[ 160 } If a widow tate to trustees, subject to such uses as sbe sbould by deed attested by 2 witnesses after marriage appoint, and for want of such appointment, to ber children by the * first marriage; if the afterwards marries, and the second husband has no notice of such deed, it will be void and fraudulent as against him; per Ld. C. King. Trin. 1729. 2 Wms.'s Rep. 533. 535. in case of Poulson v. Wellington.

If a woman privately before marriage gives a bond without any consideration to a third person for 1000 l. and marries one who knows nothing of this bond, furely equity would relieve against such bond. 2 Wms.'s Rep. 360. per Ld. C. King, who put this case. Trin. 1726. in case of Cotton v. King.

But where a widow conveyed lands in trust for herself during her widowhood, and after in trust for some of her children, and did this in a public manner, and before any treaty for a second marriage, and also covenanted to transfer 10001. S. S. stock, of which she was possessed, to the like uses, reserving over and above a handsome maintenance in lands jointured upon her, and in ready money, and afterwards married one that had no estate, and would have set aside the conveyance and covenant as fraudulent, yet Ld. C. King held the same good, and not avoidable by him, and that the covenant to transfer, though no actual affignment was made, should bind him, and dismissed the bill. 2 Wms.'s Rep. 606. Trin. 1732. King v. Cotton.

2. A widow having an estate devised to her for 400 years by her former husband, and being about to marry Sir P. N. she made a settlement thereof, in order to prevent such after-husband from having *[161] question was upon an af-knowledge of the intended huf-

band. A-disposal were cited the case of ED-

Mond's V.

BARRINGbas kot

Sir John

CASE, and S'ANDA's was admitted on the CASE.

It

gainst the

Vern. 18.

S. C. but Tays the

ing the same, and Sir P. N. having intimation that she intended to make such settlement, but not knowing of its being made, broke off the treaty of marriage, which was afterwards brought on again by some friends of the widow, and Sir P. accordingly married her upon hopes and in confidence of having the interest the had in the said estate, and without which he would not have married her, the court decreed the said deed to be absolutely set aside, and no use to be made thereof against Sir P. N. or any claiming under him. 2 Chan. Rep. 81. 24 Car. 2. Howard v. Hooker.

- 3. A recognizance entered into by the wife the day before marriage was set aside, and a perpetual injunction granted, though one witness deposed the husband's consent to the drawing it, but that witness had an assignment of it to himself. 2 Chan. Rep. 79. 24 Car, 2. Lance v. Norman.
- 4. It was held clearly per cur. and admitted by both parties, that if a seme, with the privity of the husband before marriage conveys a term for years in trust for herself, that is clearly out of the husband's power, and he can neither dispose of nor release the interest of the wife, and if the seme should join in the grant, it would not amend the case. But the court seemed to incline, that if a feme does fecretly, without the knowledge of her husband, before marriage, convey a term for years in trust for herself, that this shall be in the power of the husband, so as he may either grant or release the interest of the wife. 2 Freem, Rep. 29. pl. 2. Hill.

1677, in Draper's case,

5. M. a feme possessed of a long term, being about to marry A. who was indebted to J. S. 4001. by agreement of A. and J. S. makes at lease to J. S. for 10 years, to secure payment of the 4001. the lands being reckoned 801. a year, and then by indenture sealed in the prewithout the sence of A. (the intended husband) assigns the residue of the term in trust to be at her disposal, whether sole or covert, (but there were no other words whereby to exclude the husband ) and brought in money, &c. to the value of 6001. After marriage other creditors of A. got judgment against him, and on a si. fa. the sherisf sold the refidue of the term; and on a bill in chancery it was decreed for the vendees against the trustees of M. because the like point had been decreed so in SIR EDWARD TURNER'S CASE, the lord chancellor holding it not fit a decree should be one way in parliament and another way in chancery, but declared it against his own DACCOME's opinion, because widows in most cases cannot otherwise provide for themselves; and the husband in this case forsook his wife, and refused reconciliation, and allowed her nothing, &c. yet decreed ut supra. 2 Chan. Cases, 73. Mich. 33 Car. 2. Pitt v. Hunt.

other fide, that there had been such a resolution, but said * that the law is now changed by the resolution of the lords in SIR EDWARD TURNER'S CASE, which was exactly the same with this, and was by all the lords in parliament resolved, that the husband might dispose of the trust of the term. The Ld. Chancellor seemed to wonder at that resolution, and said it could not amount to an act of parliament to change the law; and although at first there possibly was no great reason for those resolutions, that the husband could not dispose of a trust for the seme made without his privity before marriage, yet the law being so settled, people made provisions for their children according to what the law was then taken to be, and now those provisions are defeated by this new resolution; so that now it is almost impossible for s man to to provide for his child, but it shall be subject to the disposal of an extravagant husband; and he recommended the saying of Ch. B. Walter, viz. It is no matter what the law is, so it be known what it is. But at last he said he must be concluded by the lord's judgment, and so he decreed it according to Ch. Baron Turner's case, saying, that there must not be one sort of equity above stairs in the house of lords, and another below stairs in chancery; and he thought, that from henceforth it would not ferve a turn to have the husband's consent or privity to an assignment of a term in trust for the seme before marriage, unless he was likewise made a party to the assignment.——2 Freem. Rep. 78. pl. 86. Hunt v. Pitt, S. C. and lord chancellor said, that this reversal in the house of lords was contrary to his opinion, and fince the lords had so done, they had altered the law in that particular, and therefore declared his opinion to be, that the husband had power over the term. But if the husband be made a party, or does make an agreement not to dispose of it, there it shall not be in his power to dispose of it. --- S. C. of Turner cited, and said that the judgment given by the Ld. Nottingham to the contrary, was said by himself to have been on a mistake; for that the wife having married a former husband, she before the marriage made such agreement, but no such provision was made when the married Sir Edward Turner, but he thinking such provision had been made, decreed the sale void, but it was reverfed by his own approbation, as it seems, in Dom. Proc. 3 Ch. R. 223. Passh. 1684. in case of Sanders v. Page.

6. A woman before marriage agreed with her husband, that she should have power to act as a feme sole notwithstanding that mar, riage. The busband died, and she married another husband who was not privy to the settlement on the former marriage. It was decreed, that the second husband should not be bound by that settlement on the former marriage. 2 Vern. 17, 18. in pl. 11. Hill. 1686. cites it as a case about 4 years since of Edmonds v. Dennington,

What Agreements, &c. are extinguished by the Marriage.

1. IN detinue by feme it is a good plea, that after the bailment she married the bailee; for by this the bailment is discharged; per Fineux Ch. J. and he ought to declare upon a trover. Br.

Barre, pl. 53. cites 21 H. 7. 29.

2. A. makes an obligation to B. to the use of C.—A. seals it. A. B. and C. being, at the time of sealing it, at one place, A. puts Proves, that the obligation into the hands of C. and says, this will serve; this is a good delivery; and though C. afterwards marries A. yet the obligation remains, and is neither extinguished or suspended. Adjudged and affirmed in error. Jenk. 221. pl. 75.

This case where an obligation is made to the ule of another, without saying in tion, that it is to his use, his release shall be of no force; for in the principal case the marriage does not extinguish it; but if the obligation had named cesty que use, it had been otherwise. Jenk. 222. pl. --- D. 192. b. pl. 26. Mich. 2 & 3 Eliz. Parker v. Gibson, administrator of tenant, 5. C.

3. In debt on a bond for performance of covenants in an indenture made by the baron before marriage, to pay legacies given by the feme in a will made by her before marriage; though it was objected, that the marriage continuing till her death, the will and devise But adjudged for the plaintiff; for though it was not a will to all intents, * yet it referred to that which did bear the name of a will, and though it was not a will in facto, it is not material. Cro. E. 27. pl.9. Pasch. 26 Eliz. C.B. Eston v. Wood.

~[ 162 ] Debt upon bond conditioned, that whereas the obligor had taken A. S. to wife, who was possessed of feveral goods, if he should per-pointed,

the ber to make a will, and to dispose in legacies not exceeding 50%. and pay and perform what she appointed, not exceeding 501. that then, &cc. The defendant pleaded, that the did not make a will 3 whereupon iffue was joined, and found that she made a will, and disposed of legacies not exceeding 501. but that she was covert at that time; adjudged for the plaintiff; for though she, being covert, could not make a will by law, or dispose of any goods without her husband's consent, yet this was a will within the intent of the condition, and it is but her appointment which he is bound to perform, and judgment nisi. Cro. C. 219. pl. 5. Trin. 7 Car. B. R. Marriot v. Kinsman.

Baron and feme.

Where an agreement is between baron and feme before marriage, that the wife may by will dispose of part of ber estate, or for a thing which is future to the marriage, such an agreement is not dissolved by the marriage; but where an agreement is to have execution during the coverture, there the marriage extinguishes such agreement; per Hale Ch. B. Chan. Cases, 118. Mich. 12 Car. 2. in case of Pridgeon v. Pridgeon.

Hob. 216.
pl. 280.S.C.
accordingly.

Noy.

26.S.C. save, judgment was ready to be given for the plaintiff, but sher.

A. A. promised M. a seme sole, that if she would marry him, be would leave her worth 1001. Hobart Ch. J. said, that the promise is extinguished by the marriage, but Winch and Hutton J.

26.S.C. save, e contra; for that the law will not work a release contrary to the intent of the parties, and that the marriage which was the cause does not destroy that which itself creates. Hutt. 17, 18. Hill.

15 Jac. Smith v. Stafford.

but they compounded in court.—Brownl. 18, 19. S. C. 3 judges held for the plaintiff, and one for the defendant. — Godb. 271. pl. 379. S. C. fays, that Hobart and Warburton were against Winch and Hutton. S. C. cited Cro. J. 571. pl. 11. by the reporter, and says, that three justices held that the action well lay, but that Hobart held e contra. Litt. Rep. 32. cites Si C. as resolved, that the intermarriage was only a suspension of the promise. Het. 12. cites S. C. but seems only a translation of Litt. Rep. ____ S. C. cited by Glyn Ch. J. 2 Sid. 50. ____ Freem. Rep. 512, 513. pl. 687. Hili. 1699. B. R. in case of Gage v. Acton, Holt Ch. J. admitted, that in such case the promise is not released, because it cannot possibly happen during the coverture, and this is like a condition precedent, so that if a man declares upon such a promise, he must aver that the husband is dead, and that she survived him, &c. but it is not so in case of a bond with a condition, for there the party declares upon the bond only, without taking notice of the condition. Cites 5 Co. 70. Hoe's case. But a contingency which may or may not happen during the time of the marriage, may be released by the husband; as where a term for years is devised to A. for life, and after his decease to the use of A. there A. the hulband may release, because the contingency may happen in the life-time of the husband.-S. C. cited by Holt Ch. J. Ld. Raym. Rep. 521, 522, 523. and fays, that Noy in his report of the case of Smith v. Stafford reports, that it was said by Warburton, that it would be otherwise in the case of a bond, and that the whole court agreed to it; and nevertheless, they resolved otherwise in case of a promise, which proves that it must necessarily be, that they grounded themselves upon the difference between a bond and a promise, or otherwise their resolution will be contradictory; and one must consider the whole case, and not disallow the distinction, and agree to the resolution, for that would be to agree to the conclusion, and deny the premises.

5. A feme sole possessed of a term, conveyed the same over in trust for her, and covenanted with J. S. whom she did intend to marry, that he should not meddle with it, and for that purpose took a bond of him. They intermarried; he may intermeddle with it, but he shall not have it, and by equity he cannot assign it, by reason of the covenant before marriage. Mar. 88. pl. 141. Pasch. 17 Car. Anon.

S. C. cited by Hoit Ch. J. Ld. Raym. Rep. 522.

6. A. intending to marry such a woman, covenanted, that if she would marry him, and should survive, he would give 3001. to her next of kin, and gave a bond to a third person for the performance of this covenant. In debt for this 3001, it was argued, that though this was a future covenant, which could not be broken in the lifetime of the parties, yet it might be released; and if so, then the marriage was a release in law, and so the debt extinct; but the court inclined the judgment ought to be for the plaintist, and ruled it to be moved at another time. 2 Sid. 58. Hill. 1657. B. R. Luprat v. Hoblin.

7. A. be-

Baron and Feme.

7. A. before marriage with M. agrees with M. by deed in § Ch. Rep. writing, that she, or such as she should appoint, should during the coverture receive and dispose of the rents of her jointure, by a former husband, as * she pleased. Per cur. the aforesaid agreement with the feme herself before marriage, was by the marriage extinguisbed. Chan. Cases, 21. Pasch. 15 Car. 2. Darcy v. Chute & Haughton.

6. S. C.— N.Ch. Rep. 17. S. C. and letter of attorney made by her before marriage is void. —3 Ch.

Rep. 91. ____ S. C. cited 2 Wms.'s Rep. 243. Arg. But the principal case there being, that before the marriage the feme gave bond to ber intended busband to convey ber lands to bim and bis beirs; but though the marriage took effect the died without iffue, without conveying the same; and it being objected that the bond was suspended, and so extinguished by the marriage, Ld. C. Macclessield held it unreasonable that the intermarriage, upon which alone the bond is to take effect, should itself be a de-Aruction of the bond; and that the foundation of that notion is, that in law the hulband and wife being one person; he cannot sue his wife on this agreement; whereas in equity it is constant experience that the husband may sue the wife, and the wife the husband, and he might sue her in this case upon this very agreement. 2 Wms.'s Rep. 244. Mich. 1724. Cannel v. Buckle.

8. The baron before marriage articled with the feme to make a fettlement of certain lands, before the marriage should be solemnized; but they intermarried before the settlement. Then the baton died; and on a bill by the widow for an execution of the articles, it was decreed against the heir at law of the baron; though objected, that marrying before the execution of the settlement was a waiver of the articles, and the benefit of them; and she being the only party with whom they were made, her marriage with the other party before performance was a release in law. 2 Vent. 343. Mich. 30 Car. 2. Haymer v. Haymer.

9. Husband covenants with his intended wife, that she should have power to dispose of 3001. of her estate, notwithstanding the intermarriage. Whether this covenant is discharged by the marriage? The court inclined to dismiss the bill brought by the husband for the money; but it was urged that the wife consented, and so put off for her to come and fignify her consent in court.

Vern. 408. pl. 383. Mich. 1686. Fursor v. Penton.

10. Lands limited to A. in trust for a feme covert, and that A. should receive the rent, and apply them as the seme, whether fole or covert, should appoint. Per cur. this is only a trust, and not an use executed by the statute. Vern. 415. pl. 393. Mich. 1686. Nevil v. Saunders.

11. Settlement by the feme before marriage, for her separate use, without the privity of the baron. Ld. Chancellor decreed, that the husband should have the possession of the estate, and that the trustees should make a conveyance of the lands to the fix clerks, that it might be subject to the order of the court. 2 Vern. 17. pl. 11. Hill, 1686. Carlton and Lady Dayrill his wife v. Earl of Dorsett.

12. A feme sole, being executrix and residuary legatee of J. S. Ch. Prec. lends 1001. to A. and B. for which she takes a note in her own name, 41. S. C. and a bond in a truftee's name, and afterwards marries B. one of the obligors. B. dies. On a bill against A. he insisted, that the marriage with B. was an extinguishment of the bond, as well as if it had been made in her own name; fed non allocatur. 290. pl. 280. Pasch. 1693. Cotton v. Cotton.

13. Debt

Baron and Feme.

Skin. 409, 410. pl. 5. Heeding v. Davis, S. C. and though the case of Smith v. Stafford, Hob. 216. was cited, yet Holt Ch. J. said, this ease had been shaken. Vern. 409. Arg. cites Hob. 216. the case of Smith v.

13. Debt on bond for performance of covenants, in certain ticles made between the defendant and his wife before marriage, (viz. that the man should bring 501. and the woman 251. into & stock, into the hands of a 3d person, to be so and so disposed of.) was argued, that the promise was suspended, and consequently extinguished by the marriage. But per Holt Ch. J. though the articles are suspended by the marriage, yet it was the intent of the parties that the things should be performed, though the articles are gone; and the bond is not void, being made to a 3d person. And Eyres J. cited 1 Inst. 206, and they said the money was to be brought in presently, so that though the marriage had been a release, yet they should plead performance to that time. Judicium pro quer'nisi. Comb. 242. Hill. 5 W. & M. B. R. Gibbons v. Davies.

Stafford, where, according to the book, a promise by the husband to the wife to * leave her 500 l. at his death was discharged by the intermarriage; but says, note that the case of Clarke v. Thompson, Cro. J. 571. is directly contrary, and therefore the case of Smith and Stafford is cited; and 3 judges were of opinion, that the promite was not discharged by the intermarriage, and only my Ld. Hobart was of the contrary opinion. [This remark on the case of Smith v. Stafford, is in a note at the end of the case of Clark v. Thomson, Cro. J. 571. pl. 11.] ______ 2 Sid. 59. Hill. 1657. it was said by Glyn Ch. 1. that the opinion of Hobart in Smith and Stafford's case, seems contrary to the judgment of the same case, and contrary to Hetl. Rep. 12. for in savour of common assurances and continual practice.

it would feem very dangerous to adjudge this debt extinguished.

[ 164 ]

14. Upon a treaty of marriage the man gave a bond to the woman, conditioned that if be did permit her to dispose of 1001. then the bond should be void. Afterwards the marriage took effect, so that the bond became void, yet this was held to be a good agreement; and the court decreed that the husband should give bond to trustees with the same condition. It was held, that a bill may be exhibited by her prochein amy; or if trustees exhibit a bill for or on her behalf, it is good either way. 2 Freem. Rep. 205. pl. 279. Mich. 1695. Drake v. Storr.

Carth. 511. Hill. 11 W. 3. Gage v. Acton, S.C. adjudged ac-2 judges, contra Holt; was brought in cam. scacc. but 15. Bond by a man to a woman before their intermarriage, that in case they intermarried, and the wife survived, and the husband left her 1000l, then to be void. Per Holt Ch. J. the bond is extinguished by the marriage. Per Gould and Turton J. it is cordingly by only suspended, because it would subvert the marriage-agreement, and the rather because it was not payable during the cowhereupon a verture, but it was a debt on contingency; so that if the wife writ of error dum sola had released all demands, the debt had not been extinguished. 1 Salk, 325. Hill. 11 W.3. B. R. Gage or Gray v. Acton.

the plaintiff in error, perceiving the court inclined to affirm the judgment, did not proceed.———12 Mod. 288. S.C. argued at bar and at bench, and says that the case went afterwards into chancery, where relief was given, the bond being considered as a marriage-agreement. --- Freem. Rep. 512. pl. 687. S. C. adjornatur. Ibid. 515. pl. 691. S. C. adjudged by 2 judges, contra Holt Ch. J. Ld. Raym. Rep. 515. S. C. with the arguments of the judges, and adjudged that the bond was not extinguished by the marriage, by the 2 judges contra Holt Ch. J. — 2 Vern. 480. pl. 436. Hill. 1704. Acton v. Pierce & Saxby & al' S. C. and decreed the bond good in equity, though extinguished at law, and that it should bind the real affets; and decreed that she redeem a mortgage as well of copyhold as freehold, included in the same security, and to hold over. Chan. Prec. 237. pl. 199. Acton v. Acton, S. C. decreed accordingly. Freem. Rep. 512. pl. 687. Hill. 1699. B. R. and ibid. 515. pl. 691. B. R. the S. C. and held by Gould and Turton J. that the bond is not difcharged, but Holt Ch. J. e contra-

Will made by Feme Covert. Good in what Cases.

1. A Feme covert devises goods by her testament, and the baron delivers the goods to the executors of the wife, as was proved by verdict; the court, upon this presumption, adjudged that the baron gave precedent affent to the making the will. Arg. Mo. 192. pl. 341. cites 5 E. 2.

2. Quære, if a feme covert may devise to her own baron; for A seme seised it may be by coercion of the baron. Br. Devise, pl. 18. cites 31 of land devisable, devised to ber baron, and died. This devise is void, per cur. for the law prefumes that this devise is by coercion of the baron. Abid. pl. 32. cites 6 E. 3. It. Notingh. S. P. ibid. pl. 34. cites 3 E. 3. It. Not.

Aff. 3.

3. A feme hath feoffees to her use, and takes baron, and makes Br. Testaher will that the feoffees shall infeoff her baron, and dies. The baron Thall not have a subpoena against the seoffees; for the will of the feme covert is void; by all except Tremayle. Br. Conscience, &c. pl. 28. cites 18 E. 4. 11.

ment,pl. 13. cites S. C.

[ 165] 4. Marriage is a countermand of a will made by a feme sole. And. 181. 4 Rep. 60. Mich. 30 & 31 Eliz. C. B. Forse v. Hembling. pl. 317. Anon. but

S. C. adjudged that the will is void. ----- Goldsb. 109. pl. 16. Anon. but seems to be S. C. and Anderson Ch. J. held the marriage to be a countermand; but the other 3 justices contrary, though all held the will void; but the other 3 thought that was by reason of the disability of the testatrix at the time of her death, when the will should take effect and be consummated.

A woman's marriage is alone a revocation of her will; per Ld. C. King. 2 Wms.'s Rep. (624.)

Trin. 1731. Cotter v. Layer.

But though her will is revoked, yet if her husband, before marriage with her, was bound or covemented to perform ber will, and after her death he does not perform it, by paying the legacies therein bequeathed, his bond or covenant stands good, and is suable against him. Went. Off. Executor, 24. cites it adjudged M. 25, 26 Eliz. Wood's case.

z. Feme by affent of baron may make testament, and executors to fue for choses en action, and to posses goods and chattels which the had as executrix; but not to give legacies. Agreed per tot. ber before cur. Mo. 339. pl. 459. Mich. 32 & 33 Eliz. C. B. Sir Moile marriage, Finch v. Finch.

So of goods tortion fly taken from and then the marries.

- 2 And. 92. Sir M. Finche's case, S. C. ----- Cro. C. 106. pl. 7. Hill. 3 Car. S. P. by three justices. ____Mod. 211, 212. pl. 44. Pasch. 28 Car. 2. C. B. Anon. S. P. per cur. and such a will by the husband's affent being properly a will in law, ought to be proved in the spiritual
- 6. Where the wife's making a will, and consequently an executor, may be prejudicial to her husband, and prevent him of some benefit or advantage, or tend to his loss or disadvantage, it shall not be available or effectual without his assent. Went. Off. Ex. 200.
- 7. Debt upon bond conditioned, that whereas the defendant was It was agreed about to marry A. S. &c. If he should survive her, then if within that where three months after her decease, he should pay to the obligee 3001. to power to dif-

Baton and Ifeme.

pose in the lifetime of the baron, if it be not particularly provided that the may dispose by will, yet a difposition by a writing in nature of a will, would be a good disposition or appointment.

and for such uses as the said A.S. by any writing under her hand area feal should appoint, then, &c. A. S. by will in writing sealed, &c. appointed such sums to be paid. The defendant pleaded, that the wife made no appointment, for that she ought to have made a deed in writing, and not a will, because a will is ambulatory and revocable, and is not to have any effect till after her death, befides that a feme covert cannot make a will. But the court (2bfente Jones) held the declaration good; for though a feme covert cannot make a will without the affent of her husband after it is made, yet that declaration in form of a will is good enough ; and judgment nisi for the plaintiff. Cro. C. 367. pl. 2. Mich. 10 Car. B. R. Tyller v. Peirce.

2 Vern. Rep. 330. pl. 315. Mich. 1695. in case of Sawyer v. Bletsoe.

8. Bond was given before marriage, that the wife might dispose of 5001. After marriage the wife consented to cancel the bond which was exchanged into a note, that she should dispose of it, fo as he might be first acquainted with it. The wife disposed of the 5001. without first acquainting the husband; decreed against the husband in favour of the disposition. Chan. Rep. 118. 13 Car. 1. Palmer v. Kennel.

Chan, Cafes, 20 Car. 2. S. C. cited and faid that this was now

9. A feme covert living separate from her baron, and saving 118. Mich. money out of her alimony, may by will dispose of things in or upon a trust, and that without the assent of her busband, there having accordingly, been an agreement to that purpose; per cur. Chan. Rep. 125. 15 Car. 1. Gorge v. Chancy.

declared to be a just order. Toth. 161. S. C. accordingly, as to disposing by will, but says nothing of the agreement.

- 10. Debt upon bond, that whereas the obligor being about to marry M. if he should permit her to make a will of her husband's goods to the value of 1001. to be paid within a year after her decease, then, &c. The defendant pleaded that he did permit her to make a will, &c. But the court held the plea not good, for he ought to have pleaded that he paid accordingly, for otherwise he answers to one part only of the condition; for to be paid and to pay is all one, otherwise it would be idle to permit her to make a will, and not to pay; and judgment for the plaintiff. Cro. Car. 397. pl. 18. Mich. 16 Car. B. R. Sherman v. Lilly.

11. An authority was given to the wife to devise 3001. she devised 501. to one and 501. to another, and so on; and the court held this a good disposal. Keb. 348. in pl. 31. Mich. 14 Car. 2. B. R.

Harris v. Bessie.

2 Mod. 170. Hill. 28 & 29 Car. 2. v. Turner, S. C. and these points were resolved by the court. Ist, If there pe all agree-

12. B. before his marriage with P. covenants with ber relations to permit her to make a will of such and such goods. She made a will C.B. Brook of those goods, and died. The will being brought to the prerogative court to be proved; the husband suggested for a prohibition that the testatrix was fæmina viro co-operta, and so disabled to make a will, and a prohibition was granted. Per North Ch. J. the spiritual court has the probate of wills, but a seme covert cannot make a will; if the gives any thing by her husband's consent, the the property thereof passes from him to the legatee, and it is his ment before gift. If the goods were given into another's hands in trust for the wife, yet her will is but a declaration of the trust, and not a will properly so called. Mod. 211. pl. 44. Pasch. 28 Car. 2. C. B. Anon.

marriage that the wife may make a will, if the do fo, it is a good will, unless the busband disagrees; and bis consent shall be implied till the contrary appear. And the law is the same, though he knew not when she made the will; which when made, it is in this case, as in others, ambulatory till the death of the wife, and his diffent thereto; but if after her death he doth consent, he can never after dissent, for then he might do it backwards and forwards in infinitum. adly, If the husband would not have such will to stand, be ought presently after the death of his wife to from bis diffent. 3dly, If the husband consent that his wife shall make a will, and accordingly she doth make fuch a will and dieth; and if after her death he comes to the executor named in the will, and seems to approve her choice, by saying that he is glad that she had appointed so worthy a person, and seems to be satisfied in the main with the will, and recommends a coffin-maker to the executor, and a goldmith for making the rings, and a herald painter for making the escutcheons; this is a good affent, and makes it a good will, though the husband, when he sees and reads the will, (being thereat displeased) opposes the probate in the spiritual court, by entering caveats and the like; and such disagreement after the former assent will not burt the will, because such assent is good in law, though he knew not the particular bequests in the will. 4thly, When there is an express agreement, on consent that a woman may make a will, a little proof will be' sufficient to make out the c ntinuance of that consent after ber death; and it will be needful on the other side to prove a disagreement made in a solemn manner, and those things which prove a distatisfaction on the husband's part, may not prove a disagreement, because the one is to be more formal than the other; for if the hulband should say that he hoped to set aside the will, or by suit or otherwise to bring the executors to terms, this is not a dissent .-- 3 Keb. 624. pl. 3. S. C. and it was infifted that the husband ought to have administration, because there was a surplus of things [or, befides things] in action, which the plaintiff the husband claimed by the will; and per cur. the will is void, and the husband bound only by the articles to permit it; and prohibition nife.

13. Devise of a power to a single woman to grant an annuity. She marries. This power remains in her, and is not vested in the husband, and her disposing it by a nuncupative will is good. Fin.

Rep. 346. Pasch. 30 Car. 2. Gibbons v. Moulton.

14. It was declared by the Ld. Chancellor, if the wife do make a will, and give legacies, &c. although the husband did promise her to perform it, and gave her leave to make it, nay although he did after the death of the wife affent to it, yet he is not bound by it, and the performance of it in him is only honorary, unless the busband did agree before marriage that she should do it, and then he will be bound by his agreement; but all promises after, nay if the wife makes him executor, and he proves the will, yet he is bound no farther than in honour, for the will of a wife is a void thing, and it is in strictness no will; and if a bond be given to perform the will of a married woman, and she makes a will, it hath [ 167 ] the import of a writing, and nothing else. 2 Freem. Rep. 70. pl. 82. Trin. 1681. Chiswell v. Blackwell.

15. A man settles land of 61. per ann. to the use of himself for 2 Vern. 328. life, and then to his wife for life, and agrees that she shall hold pl. 315: the land until 1001. Shall be paid to her executors, administrators or assignees; she by a writing purporting a will, disposes of this v. Bletsow, 1001. and dies in the life of her husband. It is a good appoint- flated thus, ment in equity; per Ld. K. North. Vern. 244. pl. 235. Trin. veys land to 36 Car. 2. Bletsow v. Sawyer.

Mich. 1695. S.C. Sawyer viz A. con-B. in truft out of the zents and profits, to pay 61. per ann. for the separate use of M. A.'s wife, and to be at ber disposal, then to the use of A. for life, and after his death to the helrs of M. till the heirs or assigns of A. hould pay to the executors, administrators or assigns of M. 100 l. with interest, from the death of A. then. to the wife for her life, for her jointure, remainder over. M. dies, having by a will disposed of this zool. The court thought the could not dispose of it.

16. Where

16. Where a feme covert saves money out of a separate mainte-S. P. and so if a woman nance, she may dispose of it as a seme sole; per Ld. K. North. has pin-money, and the Vern. 245. in case of Bletsoe v. Sawyer, and said that there had been several decrees accordingly. by management and good housewifery saves money out of it, she may dispose of such money so saved by her, or of any jewels, &c. bought with it, by a writing in nature of a will, if she dies before her husband; and shall have it herself, if she survives him; and such money, jewels, &c. shall not be liable to the husband's debts; cited by Hutchins. Chan. Prec. 44. pl. 44. Pasch. 1692. in case of Herbert v. Herbert, as decreed in Sir Paul Neal's case. Equ. Abr. 66. cites S. C. but no book; and says that the wife was allowed what she had saved out of her pin-money, against the device of the real estate.

Mich. 1694. between Mills & Wikes.

17. Where she has power given her by her husband to make a will, probate of such will per testes is sufficient proof, without any other proof; because as to that purpose the husband has made her a feme fole, and no prohibition will lie. Chan. Prec. 84. pl. 75.

Mich. 1697. Balch v. Wilson.

18. Where a feme covert has a power referred to dispose by last will or writing, and she makes her will and disposes, and the busband subscribes his approbation; in such case the person to whom The gives is not legatee, but nominee, and if he dies before the wife. it is not like a legacy which is thereby lapsed; but it is only the execution of a trust, and the executors or administrators shall take. Abr. Equ. Cases, 296. pl. 2. Mich. 1700. Burnett v. Holgrave.

19. Feme covert by consent of husband makes her will, and another seme covert executrix. Her father upon oath of her dying a widow obtained administration, and being cited below by the executrix to have the administration revoked, moves for a prohibition upon suggestion that she was covert at the time of death, and has rule nisi; and the matter being opened to the court, they discharged the rule. And per Holt, a married woman cannot make a will, even as executrin, without consent of her husband.

12 Mod. 306. Mich. 11 W. 3. Richardson v. Seise.

20. Feme by articles before marriage, reserves power to dispose of a term by will or otherwise. Two days before marriage she makes a will, and gives the trust of the term to B. She marries and dies. This will is not fuch a will of which the court below hath any jurisdiction, so as to be proved by executor, but it amounted to an appointment in equity who should have the trust according to the said articles; and the way here, had been to grant administration to whom she had appointed the trust, and not to proceed by way of probate. 7 Mod. 147. Hill. 1 Ann. B. R. Taylor v. Raines.

will; per 2 Wms.'s Rep. (624) Trin. 1723. Cotter v. Layer. Ld. Ch. King.

21. Where a woman is executrix and marries, there she may She may make a will make a will with consent of her baron, and cannot without; per of fach goods which Holt Ch. J. 1 Salk. 313. pl. 20. Hill. 1 Ann. B. R.

the has as executor. And if the makes a will of goods which the bas as executor, and of debts otherwife due to ber, the will is good as to the first, and void as to the last, and in such case her executor shall take the first, and the huthand as administrator the last, so that in such sense she dies testate and intestate, and having cannot make a will, yet -mi gaied powered to make a writing in nature of a will, the writing will operate as a

Though in Aricaness 2

feme covert

[ 168 ]

both an executor and administrator. Went. Off. Ex. 201. — A feme covert cannot device wha The has as executrix without her husband's assent; and therefore a prohibition was granted to the spizitual court to hinder their proving such will. 11 Mod. 221. pl. 14. Pasch. 8 Ann. B. R.

22. If a woman, having debts due to her, marries, she may make a will quoad these, and the ordinary may prove it. In other cases she cannot; for it is only a writing in form of a will; but in the principal case, which was a will made in pursuance of a power reserved before marriage with the consent and privity of the intended husband, though he refused to be a witness or party to the intended deed, it appearing that the ordinary had only granted administration quoad the goods in this will, it was allowed as rea-1 Salk. 313. pl. 20. Hill. 1 Ann. B. R. Shardelow v. ionable. Naylor.

23. If a will is made by feme covert of lands of inheritance to J: S. and the baron dies, and then the wife dies, though her intention is plain, and though after the decease of the baron, when she became sui juris, she might have devised the lands to J. S. or by a republication have made the former will good, yet it is not relievable in equity; per Ld. K. Wright. 2 Vern. 475. pl. 431. Hill.

1704. in case of Clavering v. Clavering.

24. Where a woman on marriage reserved a power to dispose of her personal estate, and rents and profits of her real, it was objected the had disposed of several mortgages, &c. that appearing not to be part of the estate over which she had reserved a power. Per Wright K. it appeared not that any other estate came afterwards to her, and therefore what she died possessed of is to be taken to be the separate estate, or the produce of it; and as she had power over the principal, the confequently had it over the produce of it. 2 Vern. Rep. 535. pl. 478. Hill. 1705. Gore v. Knight.

by confent of the man before marriage, the made over her estate real and personal to be at her own disposal. In this case all the product or increase of it, or that which comes in lieu of it, shall be also at her disposal. S. P. Pasch. 1719. Abr. Equ. Cases, 346. Gold v. Rutland, and though traffices are mentioned, yet a disposition by her own hands is good.

Chan. Prec.

255.pl.207. S. C. that

25. The baron, in consideration of a bond, given by him to trustees for the use of the wife, being delivered up to him, and of her joining with him in disposing of a leasehold estate of her's, tidem verbis, conveys a long term, supposing it to be a fee, to trustees for his own and his wife's life, and the survivor of them, remainder to the beirs of the wife. She dies without issue, and by writing in nature of a will devised to J. S. and his heirs. The husband claimed it as her administrator. J. S. took out administration to her, and got a release from her heir at law; and Ld. Cowper taking all this together, decreed that J. S. was well intitled to difcharge a mortgage then on the premises, and the devise good. Ch. Prec. 480. pl. 301. Hill. 1717. Marshall v. Frank.

26. Where a power is given to a woman, at that time unmarried, to dispose by will, and she afterwards marries, it was decreed that the marriage is a suspension of her power; but if she survives her husband, the power revives; but quære inde; for the lords fent to have the opinion of the judges upon it. MS. Tab. Feb.

9th, 1727. Rich v. Beaumond.

Gilb. Equ. Rep. 143. S.C. in to-

(S. a) Where they take by Moieties.

1. IN formedon, where a gift in tail is made to J. N. the remainder to the right heirs of the baron and feme, this remainder is in jointure, and survivorship shall hold place. And so where a gift is made to N. in tail, the remainder to the right heirs of P. and Q. who are dead at the time of the gift made, there the remainder is in jointure, and survivorship shall hold place; per Mowbray. Br. Jointenants, pl. 12. cites 38 E. 3. 26.

2. A personal duty being a chose en action, shall well lie in jointure between a man and his wife; but otherwise of other personal things. Noy, 149. in case of Norton v. Glover, cites 4

Н. б. б. а.

3. Where the baron and feme purchases land, and the baron aliens, and dies, the feme may have cui in vita and recover the whole; for there are no moieties between the baron and feme during the coverture, and therefore it is not good for any moiety; but if they purchase before coverture, and after intermarry, and the baron aliens all, and dies, the feme shall have cui in vita of the moiety, and recover it, and the alienation is good of the other moiety. Note the diversity; for it appears. Br. Cui in Vita, pl. 8. cites 19 H. 6. 45.

4. Baron and feme purchased in fee, and after they leased for gears by indenture, and after the baron released to the lessee and bis beirs. This is no discontinuance, and yet this gives franktenement to the leffee 'aring the life of the baron; by feveral, without doubt. Br. I.elease, pl. 81. cites 29 H. 8.

5. If the baron and feme purchase jointly, and are disselfeised, and the baron releases, and after they are divorced, the seme shall have the moiety, though before the divorce there were no moieties; for the divorce converts it into moieties. Br. Deraignment, pl. 18.

cites 32 H. 8.

A. gives lands to B. and sucb wife as he shall after marry, or as shall be his wise. B. takes the whole; but if A. seised in fee, for of his son,

6. W. made a feoffment in fee, &c. to the use of himself for life, remainder to his son and to his wife who should be, and the heirs of their 2 bodies. The son married M. then W. the father levied a fine to king H. 8. and bound himself and his heirs to warranty, The fon was attainted of treason and executed, leaving issue then living. Then the queen by letters patents granted the land to another, and afterwards the widow and her issue was restored. The question was, whether she had a right to the whole, or only to one moiety? D. 122. a. b. pl. 21, 22. Mich. 2 & 3 advancement P. & M. Sir Tho. Wyatt's case.

name, blood, and posterity, covenant to stand seised to the use of himself for life, and after to the use of his fen, and such wife as he shall marry, and the heirs male of his body. A. dies, and then the son take, a wife; the wife has a joint estate with her baron, to them and the heirs male of the body of the baron. Jenk. 328. pl. 52. Trin. 3 Jac. in the court of wards. Rep. 101. a. Arg. S. P. says it was so held in I.d. Pawiet's case, 17 Eliz. D. 340. ........ D. 339. b. 340. &c. pl. 48, 49, 50. the judges differed in opinion, and afterwards the parties accorded between themselves, and judgment was given by default. ____ 2 l.e. 17. pl. 25. Brent's case, S. C. argued by the judges.

the was, feeffment by the baron to the use of himself and wife for life; if he survived his wise, then to the use of himself and such woman as he should after marry for her jointure, remainder in see to a stranger. Per Harper J. the limitation of the use cannot be pursued precisely, according to the words, and therefore the words shall be confirmed, after the decease of the first wise unto the use of the husband until he marries, and afterwards to the use of him and his second wise, in which case they shall take jointly.

S. C. cited a And. 198. Arg.—Mo. 377. Arg. cites D. 340. S. C. says it was admitted by all the justices of C. B. that the estate was good enough.

In the case of an use the husband takes all in the mean time, and when he marries the wife takes it by force of the seofiment, and the limitation of the use jointly with him; for there is not any fraction, and several westing by purcels. See 13 Rep. 59. in Sammes's case.

A fine was levied to the use of himself and such wife as he shall after marry for their lives; and after to the use of J. his daughter, and the heirs of her body; and after he married A. M. and died; and Wray, Mead, Onslow, and Plowden were of opinion, that a good use for life was settled in A. M. piointenant with her husband, because though the use did not settle in her compleatly till the marriage, yet it shall relate, as to its commencement, to the first fine executed. And afterwards the parties, not satisfied with this opinion, sued in C. B. where the case was adjudged with this resolution, as appears in writ of entry there brought, by the next in remainder against the said A. M. Mich. 13 & 14 Eliz. Arg. Mo. 517. cites it as Mutton's case.————See tit. Uses (L) pl. 1. in the motes.

- 7. Copybold land was surrendered to the use of the wife for life, remainder to the use of the right heirs of the husband and wife. The husband entered in the right of the wife. The remainder is executed for a moiety presently in the wife, and the husband of that was seised in the right of the wife, and the wife dying first, her heir should have it; but if the husband had died first, his heir should have one moiety. 3 Le. 4. pl. 10. Mich. 4 & 5 P. & M. in C. B. Anon.
- 8. Gift to A. and M. and to the heirs of the body of the said A. begotten of the said M. remainder to a stranger in tail, remainder over in see. A. after marries with M. they take by moieties. Mo. 95. pl. 235. Pasch. 12 Eliz. Brabroke's case.
- 9. Land is given to baron and feme in special tail during the coverture. Afterwards the baron is attainted of treason, and dies. The wife continues in as tenant in tail; the issue is restored by parliament, and made inheritable to his father, saving to the king all advantages devolved to him by the attainder of his father. The wife dies. Walmsley serj. conceived that the issue was inheritable; for the attainder which disturbed the inheritance is removed, and the blood restored, and nothing can accrue to the king; for the father had not any estate forfeitable; but all the estate survived to the wise, not impeachable by the said attainder; and when the wife dies, then is the issue capable to inherit the estate tail. Windham and Rhodes J. prima facie, thought the contrary; yet they agreed that if the wife had suffered a common retovery, the same had bound the king. Le. 157. pl. 221. Mich. 31 Eliz. C. B. Anon.
- their heirs. After William Ocle was attainted of high treason for the murder of the king's father E. 2. and was executed. Joan his wife survived him. E. 3. granted the lands to Stephen de Bitterly and his heirs. John Hawkins, the heir of the said Joan, in a petition to the king, disclosed this whole matter; and upon a sci. sa. against the patentee, has judgment to recover the lands; but if an estate be made to a man and a woman, and their heirs O 2

Baron and Feme.

before marriage, and after they marry, the husband and wife have moieties between them. Co. Litt. 187. b.

11. If a feoffment had been made before 27 H. 8. of uses, to the D. 149. b. pl. 8. Trin. use of a man and a woman and their heirs, and they intermarry, 3 & 4 P. & and then the statute is made; if the husband aliens, it is good for M. Bedel - Holftock. a moiety, for the statute executes the possession according to such they had any quality, manner, form and condition, as they had in the use, so as though it vests during the coverture, yet the act of parliament exissue, such ecutes several moieties in them, seeing they have several moieties blund suffi have a formedon of the in the use. Co. Litt. 187. b.

wbole. ——Goldib. 448. pl. 72. Hill. 43 Eliz. S. P. held accordingly; per tot. cur. without argument. ——Mo. 92. pl. 228. Trin. 10 Eliz. Symonds's case, S. P. held accordingly by Welch, Brown & Dyer, but Weston and Bendlows e contra; but all agreed that several moieties might be of estate tail, as well as of see simple between baron and seme. ——S. P. adjudged by the advice of Wray & Anderson Ch. J. in the court of wards, that the husband and wife took by moieties. Mo.

715, 716. pl. 1000. Mich. 32 & 33 Eliz. The Queen v. Savage.

The confirmation in this case to the husband and wife for their lives makes them

12. If I lease land to a feme sole for term of years who takes them for the land to a feme sole for term of the baron and his wife, to have and to hold the land for term of their two lives, they have joint * estate in the freehold of the land, because the wife had not franktenement before. Co. Litt. s. 526.

jointenants for life; because a chattel of a seme covert may be drowned, and so note a diversity between a lease for life, and a lease for years made to a seme covert; for her estate of freehold cannot be altered by the confirmation made to the husband and her, as the term for years may, whereof her husband may make disposition at his pleasure. Co. Litt. 300. a.

Pl. C. 483.

a. Mich. 17 & 18 Eliz.

in case of Nicholls v.
Nicholls,
S. P. in totidem verbis.

Nicholls v.

D. 149.

Co. Litt. 187. b.

b. pl. 82. Trin. 3 & 4 P. & M. Bedyl v. Holftock.

14. If an estate be made to a villein and his wife being free, and to their heirs, albeit they have several capacities, viz. the villein to purchase for the benefit of the lord, and the wife for her own; yet if the lord of the villein enter, and the wife survives her husband, she shall enjoy the whole land, because there are no moieties between them. Co. Litt. 187. b.

And they do not hold jointly for two reasons. It, The wife has the whole for her life,

15. Lease for life to feme sole, who takes husband, lessor confirms the estate of baron and feme, to have and to hold for term of their life, but holds in right of his wife for term of her life; but this shall enure to the baron for term of his life if he survives the wife. Co. Litt. s. 525.

and jointenames must come in by one title; but in this case, if the confirmation had been made to the bushand and wise, to have and to hold the land to them two, and to their beirs, they had been jointenants to the see simple, and the husband seised in the right of his wife for her life; for the husband and wife cannot take by moieties during the coverture. Co. Litt. 299. a. b.

16. If a reversion be granted to a man and a woman, they are Pl. C. 483. to have moieties in law, but if they intermarry, and then attornment is had, they have no moieties (and yet by the purport of the case of Nigrant they are to have moieties), because it is by att in law. Co. cholls v. Litt. 310. a.

Mich. 17 & 18 Eliz. in Nichols, S. P. accordingly; for though they were sole when the grant was made, yet when the reversion settled in them they were baron and feme, between whom there are no moieties, and so the time in which the thing veits, ought to be respected.

17. If a gift be made to a man and a woman not married, though with an intention of their intermarriage, and afterwards they intermarry, yet they take by divided moieties. Noy, 122. Ward v. Mathew. —— And cites it adjudged in one Edmunds's case.

18. Articles before marriage to settle a term to himself for life, to his fon for life, to the use of the woman the son was about to marry, and after their decease to the use of the issue of their two bodies to be begotten according to the descent of lands so intailed. After marriage the lease was assigned to those uses. The reporter says, the articles being before marriage, the son and his wife took by divided moieties. Chan. Cases, 266. Mich. 27 Car. 2. in case of Bullock v. Knight.

19. Baron purchased a copyhold, and takes surrender to himself, his Chan. Prec. wife and his daughter and their heirs; per lord commissioners, ba- 1. pl. 1. s. C. deron and feme take one moietv by entierties, so as the baron cancreed acnot alien so as to bind the seme, and the other moiety is well vested cordingly. in the daughter; per commissioners. 2 Vern. Rep. 120. pl. 120.

Hill. 1690. Back v. Andrews.

(T. a) Take. In what Cases Feme may take by [172] Grant to herself.

1. O Bligation made to a feme covert is good. Br. Obligation, pl. Br. Testa36. cites 4 H. 6. 31. ment, pl. 9. cites S. C.

-S. P. Br. Nonability, pl. 2. cites 3 H. 6. 23. A man was bound to baron and feme, and be made the feme his executrix and died, and she brought debt upon the obligation as executrix of the baron, and well, per Cokaine J. for the may waive it by the coverture, and refuse the survivership; but Weston lerj. contra. Br. Waiver de Choses, pl. 13. cites 4 H. 6. 5.

2. Trespass upon the statute of 5 R. 2. ubi ingressus non datur per legem. The defendant pleaded gift in tail, the remainder to a feme covert, to which A. B. husband of the said feme agreed; and so concludes her baron and gave colour. Quære if the agreement be necessary; for it seems that it is in the seme till the baron disagrees. Br. Agreement, pl. 1. cites 3 H. 7. 9.

3. * Feoffment made to feme covert, or gift of goods to her, &c. is good if the baron agrees, or if he does not disagree. Br. Cover-ture, pl. 3. cites 27 H. 8. 24.

fur le Case, pl. 5. cites

(U. a) Inter se. Mis-usage.

1. A Ttempt to cut the husband's throat, is a cause for which the husband may be divorced; per curiam. Lane, 98. Hill.

8 Jac. in the exchequer, in case of Scot v. Helyer.

Godb. 235. pl. 307.S.C. accordingly.

2. The wife of Sir Thomas Seymor libelled for alimony, because the baron beat her so that she could not cohabit with him; the court denied a prohibition, but if she had cohabited, she could not have sued for alimony. Mo. 874. pl. 1219. Hill. 11 Jac. Sir Thomas Seymor's case.

Godb. 215. 3. A wife may have the peace against the baron for unreason-pl.307.S.C. able correction. Mo. 874. pl. 1219. Hill. 11 Jac. in Sir Thomas & S. P. and eites. N. Seymor's case.

B. 80. (F)
—Litt: Rep. 189. Arg. Mich. 4 Car. in Stanlie's case, in C. B. the S. P.—The court being informed of his ill usage of his wife, a supplicavit de bono gestu was granted. 2 Vent. 345. Trin. 32 Car. 2. in chancery, Sir Jerom Smithson's case.

- 4. Debt on bond by A. against the baron. The condition was, that he should not sell his wife's apparel, it is good, as if baron be bound to a stranger to pay 201. per ann. to his wife, it is good; per Coke. Roll. Rep. 33. pl. 43. Hill. 13 Jac. B. R. Smith v. Watson.
- 5. Taking away the wife's apparel, and other of her necessaries, is good ground for her to sue a divorce causa savitize. Sid. 118. Pasch. 15 Car. in case of Manby v. Scott.

3 Kieb-433. 6. Baron for ill usage was bound by the court to his good behapl. 37. Ld. viour. 2 Lev. 128. Hill. 26 & 27 Car. 2. B. R. The King v. Leigh's case, s. C. ac- the Ld. Lee.

And by Hale Ch. J. the salva moderata cassignations in the Register, is not meant of beating, but only of admonition, and confinement to the house in case of her extravagance, which the court agreed.

3 Salk. 139. pl. 4. S. C. Freem. Rep. 376. pl. 488. S. C. 11 Mod. 109. pl. 2. Pasch. 6 Ann. B. R. The Queen v. Ld. Geo. Howard. But the court cannot remove her from the baron. 2 Lev. 128. Hill. 26 & 27 Car. 2. B. R. The King v. Ld. Lee.

7. In a bill to establish an agreement for a separate maintenance for the desendant's wise, the plaintist prayed a discovery of several unkindnesses and hardships to the wise, to make her recede from the agreement. The desendant demurred, as a matter not properly examinable or relievable in this court. Vern. 204. pl. 200. Mich. 1683. Hinks v. Nelthorp.

Chan. Prec. 239.pl.200.
Ld. Rock-ingham and Lady Oxenden v. Sir James Oxenden, S. C. decrecd accordingly.—Gilb. Equ. Rep. 1.

8. By articles before marriage 6000 l. part of the wife's portion, is paid, and a fettlement made of 1000 l. per ann. and 6000 l. residue of the portion, to be vested in land, and settled to baron for life, to the seme for life, remainder as a provision for younger children. The husband, by cruel usage, having forced the seme to separate from him, the court decreed the 6000 l. to be put out at interest, and be paid to the seme for her separate maintenance till a cohabitation. 2 Vern. 493. pl. 144. Pasch. 1705.

Lady Oxenden, per prochein amy, v. Sir James Oxenden & al'. Pasch. 1706. S.C. fays Et e contra. the lady had a decree for 300 l. a year out of a trust estate, which the court laid hold of as being-under a trust, and in their possession; but that the Ld. Keeper doubted what to have done, had there been no such trust estate to have laid hold of, and said he would give no opinion, it not being the case in question. MS. Rep. S. C. in totidem verbis with Gilb. Equ. Rep.

9. Feme being parted from her husband, by reason of cruelty, becomes intitled to 3000 l. as her share of her mother's personal estate, who died intestate. Harcourt Ld. K. decreed the interest to the seme for her separate use for her life, and after to the husband, if he survived, for his life; and if any issue, then the principal to the issue; but if no issue, then to the survivor of the husband and wife. Memorandum; the baron had given a note to the feme, that if he should again use her ill, she should have her share of her mother's estate to her own use. 2 Vern. 671. pl. 598. Pasch. 1711. Nichols & Danvers v. Danvers.

10. Baron proves drunken, abusive, wasteful, and cruel to his feme. The court decreed the interest of a bond of 500l. given to trustees for the seme's portion, to be paid to the seme for her separate maintenance. 2 Vern. 752. pl. 657. Mich. 1717. Williams v. Callow.

11. As to the coercive power which the husband has over the wife, it is not a power to confine her; for by the law of England thought the the is intitled to all reasonable liberty, if her behaviour is not very husband 8 Mod. 22. Mich. 7 Geo. 1. Lyster's case.

Coke Ch. J. could not give correction to the wife; but Nichols and Warburton J. held the contrary. Godb. 215. in Sir Thomas Seymour's Cale.

She cannot either by herself or her prachein amy bring a bomine replegiando against bim; for he has by law a right to the custody of her, and may, if he think fit, confine but not imprison ber; for if he does, it will be good cause for her to apply to the spiritual court for a divorce propter sewit'. Chan. Prec. 492. Pasch. 1718. Atwood v. Atwood. - Gilb. Equ. Rep. 149. S. C. in totide

(W. a) Where they live separate.

A Woman living separate from her husband, snatched away money out of 1001. which was going to be paid to her mother. Her husband is not chargeable in equity with the money so taken; but the wife ought to answer the same, and to put in her answer in this court, or to be prosecuted for contempt. Chan. Rep. 68. 9 Car. 1. Plomer v. Plomer.

2. The wife prosecuted the busband for having a 2d wife; but [ 174] the same was not proved. But he being in court on his recognizance, after the acquittal, she prayed to charge him with actions for necessaries for herself and children, and the court allowed her to do so, she having proved her own marriage clearly before. 2 Keb. 585. pl. 129. Mich. 21 Car. 2. B. R. Hume's case.

3. Baron left his wife 20 years since in the country, and lived in London, and married another. The wife coming to London to prosecute him, he got her arrested. The gaoler sues the baron for her diet and lodging while she was in prison. Per Hale Ch. J.

the

the baron is not chargeable without some evidence of his assent, as if he had visited her in prison, or by some act had approved the provision of the gaoler; but here the contrary appears; for she came to prosecute him, and she was committed to gaol, and had clergy on her prosecution; and if he will not allow her necessaries, she should have complained in course of law for maintenance. 2 Lev. 16. Trin. 23 Car. 2. B. R. Calverly v. Plummer.

4. Goods devised to M. (the wife of B.) for life, and after her death to A. M. and B. were parted, and there had been great suits for alimony, and M. during the separation had wasted the goods. North Ld. K. thought it reasonable that B. should be charged for this conversion of M, A.'s title being paramount the seme, and not under her. Vern. Rep. 143. pl. 136. Hill. 1682.

Ld. Paget v. Read.

5. In case for meat, drink, washing and lodging, found for the wife of the defendant by the plaintiff. The proof was, that the wife came in a necessitous condition, and said to the plaintiff that she was the wife of the defendant, and that he had turned her out of his house, and allowed her 501. per ann. but he would not pay it. Holt Ch. J. held, that the husband is not chargeable; for it being apparent that they did not cohabit, he shall not have a credit to charge him without his consent; and though it was proved that he had paid another who had received and tabled her, before the plaintiff received her, yet the plaintiff was nonsuited. Skin. 323, 324. pl. 2. Mich. 4 W. & M. in B. R. Pierce v. Welden.

6. If a wife cohabits with her husband, and by it gains a credit, though she departs without the leave of her husband, and comes to London, and becomes in debt, the husband shall be charged till notice given of her elopement; for it shall be intended to be with the consent of the husband; but after notice, the husband shall not be charged, without his consent. Skin. 324. Mich. 4 & 5 W. & M. in B. R. in case of Pierce v.

Welden.

If the wife

elopes, and takes up necessaries

upon credit of a tradefman, the'

the tradef-

man has no notice the not liable. Ld. Raym. Rep. 444, 445. says it was so ruled by Holt Ch. J. at Exeter Lent assist, 10 W. 3. in case of Longworthy v. Hockmore.—S. C. cited by Holt Ch. J. 12 Mod. 245. Mich. 10 W. 3. in case of Tod v. Stokes, where he held accordingly, that the husband in such ease should not be liable; and it is sufficient for the bushand to give general notice that tradesmen, &c. should not trust his wife. But serj. Wright, now Ld. Keeper, at the same time acquainted his lordship, that Treby Ch. J. of the common pleas had ruled that point otherwise between the same parties; to which Holt said, that notwithstanding that, he would adhere to his opinion in all the points aforesaid; and the plaintist was nonsuited.

7. After notorious separation by consent, and a separate allow-Rep. 444.

S. C. and ruled by him, and a personal notice is not necessary; it is sufficient that it hough it was not it was not it Salk. 116. pl. 6. Mich. 8 W. 3. Todd v. Stoakes.

the general reputation in London, where the plaintiff lived, that the defendant and his wife were separated, yet since it was the general reputation in the place where the defendant lived, and that for syears patt, it was sufficient; but if she had come immediately from her bushand after the separation, before it could have been publicly and generally known, and had taken up necessaries upon credit, the husband would have been liable.——12 Mod. 244, 245. S. C. held accordingly.——S. P. per Cowper C. Chan. Prec. 499. in case of Augier v. Augier.

*[175]

3. If the husband turns away his wife, and afterwards she takes up necessaries upon credit of a tradesman, the husband shall be liable to the tradesman to pay for them. Ld. Raym. Rep. 444, 445. says it was so ruled by Holt Ch. J. at Exeter Lent assises, 10

W. 3. in case of Longworthy v. Hockmore.

9. After an agreement for parting, and the husband having given a note to the wife's father to pay back the portion, he faving the husband harmless, the wife went and lived with her father, and he brought a bill for the portion to be paid back, offering to perform the agreement on his part. The husband offered to take bis wife bome, and maintain her and child, and to pay the father for the time past; but decreed the husband to pay back the portion to the father, upon his giving security to indemnify the husband against the debts and maintenance of the wife and child. 2 Vern. 386. pl. 353. Mich. 1700. Seeling v. Crawley.

10. Money earned by the wife living separate shall go towards her maintenance to keep her. 1 Salk. 118. Pasch. 2 Ann. coram Holt

Ch. J. at nisi prius in Middlesex. Warr v. Huntley.

11. Though the wife be ever so vicious, if the husband cohabits with her, he is liable to pay for necessaries furnished her; so if he turns her away for her wickedness; but if she leaves him, they that trust her, after it is notorious that she has left him, do it at Guildhall ... their peril. But if he once receives ber again, or came after her, or lay with her but for a night, that would make him liable to her debts, as in case of dower; per Holt Ch. J. 6 Mod. 171. Pasch. sonable en-3 Ann. B. R. Robinson v. Gosnold.

1 Salk. 119. pl. 13. S.C. per Holt Ch. J. at He must send credit with her for reapences; per Holt Ch. J.

12 Mod. 245. Todd v. Stokes .- If the goes away without bis confent, the shall find credit where the goes without any charge to her husband of his giving any personal notice of leaving him; per Holt Ch. J. 12 Mod. 245. Mich. 10 W. 3. at Guildhall, Todd v. Stokes. And he said, that this had been carried too far in the case of Scot v. Manby.

12. After an agreement to live separate, he shall not compel her by force to live with him again, or confine her for that purpose; but it was ordered that he have leave to write to her, and to use any lawful means to a reconciliation, and if the was willing to fee him, the children and servants should not hinder him, unless by her order. But that whenever she permitted his coming to her, he should not offer any violence, or uncivil behaviour to her person. 8 Mod. 22. Mich. 7 Geo. 1. Lister's case.

(X. a) Alimony, or separate Maintenance.

1. THE plaintiff sets forth in her bill, that she joined with her husband in sale of part of her inheritance, and after some discord growing between them, they separate themselves, and 100l. of the money received upon sale of the lands was allotted to the plaintiff for ber maintenance, and put into the hands of Nicholas Mine, &c. and bonds then given for the payment thereof unto H. G. deceased, to the use of the plaintiff, which bonds are come to the defendant as administrator to the said H. G. who refuses to deliver deliver the same to the plaintiss, and hereupon she prays relief; the desendant does demur in law, because the plaintiss such without ber busband; and it is ordered the desendant shall answer directly. Cary's Rep. 124. cites 21 & 22 Eliz. Sanky, alias Walgrave v. Golding.

Baron and Feme.

Godb. 215. 2. She cannot fue for it during cohabitation. Mo. 874. pl. 1219.

accordingly. Hill. 11 Jac. Sir T. Seymor's case.

A same coyert being bushand is an unthrist: the husband pretends the money to be his; having an but the court ordered the money to be at her disposing. 21 Jac.
allowance of li. B. so. 719. Toth. 158. Fleshward v. Jackson.

order. Mich. 20 Car. 2.

The wife of an improvident bushand had, unknown to him, by her frugality, raised some monies for the good of their children, which she had disposed of for that purpose, they being otherwise unprovided for, and this disposition of the wite was established by a decree of Ld. Coventry; but afterwards upon a review and affishance of the judges, this decree was reversed, as being dangerous to give a seme power to dispose of her husband's estate. Chan. Cases, 117, 118. Arg. cites it as about 1639. Scot v. Brograve.

List. Rep. 4. The ecclefiaftical court is the proper court for alimony, and if 78. S. C. the person will not obey, they cannot but excommunicate him. Het, -S. P. and 69. Mich. 3 Car. C. B. Owen's case.

after a sentence there sor a separation propter servitiam and alimony allowed there, the husband moved for a prohibition on an offer of cohabitation, and to give caution to use her fitly, but it was denied, the court of the ordinary being the proper court for alimony. Cro. J. 364. pl. 1. Hill. 12 Jac. B. R. Hyat's case.

In a suit by the wise segment her tained her a year and an half since her departure, and also the benefit husband for of a bond given before marriage. Chan. Rep. 44. 6 Car. 1. alimony, the court de-greed the defendant to pay the plaintiff 300 L a year, so long as they lived apart. Chan. Rep. 164.

Anno 1650. Alaton v. Alaton.

6. A wife bath a flock for her own use, and dies, who is buried by a friend without direction of her husband, he that buries her must be at the charge, and not the husband. Mich. 14 Car. Toth. 161. Poole v. Harrington.

Contra per the other justices. Ibid. 125.

Upon a bill brought by

7. The spiritual court never allows any suit for alimony but after divorce, though sometimes they have decreed it upon divorce; per Twisden J. who said that the judges of the spiritual court had so informed him. Sid. 116. Pasch. 15 Car. 2. in case of Manby v. Scot.

8. A deed by which the baron agreed to allow the wife a separate maintenance was confirmed in chancery. Fin. R. 73. Hill.

the wife against her 25 Car. 2. Turner v. Boteler & al'.

g. The

Baron and Feme.

9. The baron covenanted with L. to pay his wife, or fuch as five appoint, 50 l. a year as a separate maintenance, provided she live at fuch a place as N. and W. appoint. Baron pleaded, that the did not live at such place as N. and W. appointed. Plaintiff replies, that the was always ready to live at such place, but that N. and W. appointed no place. * Defendant demurred, for that it was a condition precedent; but plaintiff insisted it was only subsequent, and so become impossible, N. being since dead, and no place being appointed. Per cur. the condition is subsequent, the covenant being, in pursuance of a former absolute agreement, to pay so much, and it is like an affent of the husband, which is intended, till the contrary appears. 3 Keb. 363. pl. 43. Mich. 26 Car. 2. B. R. Leech v. Beer.

10. No alimony except pro expensis litis can be decreed but by consent, unless first there is a decree for separation. Chan. Cases, 251. Hill. 26 & 27 Car. 2. Whorewood v. Whorewood.

11. Action at law against the executors of the baron for goods bought in the baron's life-time by the wife, while she lived separate, and had a separate maintenance, and after verdict for the plaintiff at law, the executors bring bill for relief, and fuggest as above, and that the plaintiff knew it to be so, and prayed an injunction; but denied, it being a proper defence at law. Vern. 71. pl. 66. Mich. 1682. Ferrars v. Ferrars.

12. Where, on a separation, lands are conveyed by the baron Vern. 53.pl. in trust for the seme, chancery will not bar the seme from suing 50. S. C. the baron in the trustee's name, and a surrender or release by the baron shall not be made use of against the seme. 2 Chan. Cases, lewd wo-102. Pasch. 34 Car. 2. Mildmay v. Mildmay.

man, and

but the wife being a very

having eloped from her husband, and the husband * offering in his answer to take her again, Finch C. would make no order in it; but that she might proceed at law against the husband, as in the place of the tenants, and recover the rents there if the could.

 An original bill to fet afide a decree for alimony, and which was confirmed in the house of lords, was adjudged proper, the hulband offering in it to be reconciled, and decreed accordingly; but not to varate the decree wholly, but to be a fecurity for good usage, and the husband to bring in all arrears of the alimony into court in the first place. Fin. Rep. 153. Mich. 26 Car. 2. Horwood v. Horwood. - Chan. Cases, 250. Whorewood v. Whorewood, S. C. accordingly. ----- Chan. Rep. 223. 24 Car. 2. S. C. but upon another point.

13. A woman living separate from her husband, and having a separate maintenance, contracts debts. The creditors, by a bill in this court, may follow the separate maintenance whilst it continues; but when that is determined, and the husband dead, they cannot by a bill charge the jointure with the debts; by Ld. Keeper North; and the rather because the executor of the husband, who may have paid the debt, is no party. Vern. 326. pl. 322. Pasch. 1685. Kenge v. Delaval.

14. Desendant covenanted with the plaintiff to permit S. the defendant's wife to live separate from him, until he and she should by writing under their hands, attested by 2 witnesses, give notice to each other that they would again cohabit; and that during the coverture, and until such notice, be would pay unto the plaintiff 3001. per ann. for her maintenance, by quarterly payments, &c. and for 751. being one quarterly payment, he brought action of covenant. The defendant pleaded in bar, that after the said indenture, and before this action brought, another indenture was made between him and S. bis wife of the one part, and the plaintiff of the other part, reciting the said first indenture; and also that he and his wife did intend to cobabit, and did then actually cohabit; and that so long as they should cohabit, the said yearly payment should cease; and that in the said last-recited indenture the plaintiff did covenant with the defendant, that he should be faved harmless from the said yearly payment, so long as ke and his wife should cohabit; and avers that ever fince the last indenture they did cohabit, and demands judgment of the action. The plaintiff replied, that they did not cohabit modo & forma, &c. judged per tot. cur. for the plaintiff; for unless the cohabitation had been according to the first indenture, it was no bar, the last indenture not having taken away the effect of the former, and a later covenant cannot be pleaded in bar of a former; but the defendant must bring his action on the last indenture, if he would help himself. 2 Vent. 217. Mich. 2 W. & M. in C. B. Gawden v. Draper.

fendant

[178]

1 5alk. 115. pl. 4. S. C. accordingly. -12 Mod. cordingly. -See tit. Prohibition (Q) pl. 10. & 11. and the notes there.

15. Where baron and feme live separate, and alimony is sentenced to the wife, if the wife sues in the spiritual court for defamation, the baron cannot release the costs; otherwise if baron and 89. S.C. ac- feme cohabit. So of a legacy; but if the suit be there for a legacy, which is originally due to the baron and feme, and is not a part of the alimony, he may release the suit, and also the costs, because he may discharge the principal; per Holt Ch. J. 5 Mod. 71. Mich. 7 W. 3. Chamberlain v. Hewson.

Note here the woman lived very decently and modestly all the while the was in the plain-

16. Though a husband be bound to pay his wife's debts for a reasonable provision, yet if she parts from him, especially by reason of her misbehaviour, (as in the principal case it must be prefumed she did, she living in adultery after the separation) and he allows her a maintenance, he shall never after be * charged with her debts, till a new cohabitation. 6 Mod. 147. Pasch. 3 Ann. at nis tiff's house, prius, coram Trevor Ch. J. Cragg v. Bowman.

and it was also proved, that her maintenance was duly paid her. Ibid. * S. P. per Ld. Cowper; however, to avoid the expence the husband might be put to in defending such suits, he sent it to a mafter to settle a security to indemnify the bushand against ber debts. Chan. Prec. 496. Augier v. Augier. ...... Gilb. Equ. Rep. 152. Angier v. Angier, S. C. in totidem verbis.

> 17. Wife having separate allowance, and being separated, may make a gift of what she saves as a seme sole. MS. Tab. December 6, 1705. Gage v. Lister,

> 18. Dutton having more than 3000l, per ann. married M. the plaintiff, who had 10,000l. portion, and settled 1000l. per ann. upon her for her jointure, and the greatest part of D.'s estate was fettled upon the first and every other son in tail male successively, as usual in marriage settlements. D. run greatly in debt, and J. kis eldest son being of full age, D. upon a calculation of his debts, and the value of his estate for life, with impeachment of waste, agreed with J. to convey all his estate to him, and J. covenants to pay all Disdebts, and to allow him 500l. per ann. rent-charge for his life; and further (upon which the question arises) that J. shall indemnify D. from all debts, charges, and expences for the maintenance of the said M. being then separated by consent. M. brings a bill against D. ber husband, and J. the son, to have an allowance for ber maintenance, &c. Cowper C. said, that by this covenant to indemnify the father from maintaining his wife, the fon has taken upon himself the charge of maintaining her, and, as to this purpose, stands in the place of the husband, who is bound to give his wife an allowance, if he voluntarily separates from her; and he took the son in this case to be in nature of a trustee for the wife, so far as a reasonable allowance for her maintenance; and though the son doth offer to maintain her at his own house, yet he did not think she is bound to accept that offer; for though he stands in the place of the husband as to her maintenance, and a husband is not bound to allow any thing to his wife for maintenance if he offers to take her home, yet in this case here lies no fuch obligation upon the wife to live with the son, and though the refuses, the ought to have a reasonable allowance; and ordered her to be allowed 2001. per ann. Note, in this case Ld. Chancellor allowed her to keep the plate, &c. which she bought, or was given to her by her friends, during the separation. Rep. Trin. 1 Geo. Canc. Dutton v. Dutton & al'.

19. An agreement between husband and wife to live separate, S. P. Chan. and that she should have a separate maintenance, shall bind Prec. 496. them both till they agree to cohabit again. 8 Mod. 22. 7 Geo. 1. Augier v.

Lister's case.

20. In the case of separate maintenance, if the busband maintains the wife, it bars her claim in respect thereof: per Ld. C. Macclessield. 2 Wms.'s Rep. 84. Mich. 1722. in case of Powell v. Hankey and Cox.

21. In case of a wife's separate maintenance, if it be not demanded by ber, she will be concluded, even where she has no other person to demand it of but her husband; per Ld. C. Maccles-2 Wms.'s Rep. 84. Mich. 1722. in case of Powell v.

Hankey & Cox.

22. Though the wife has a separate maintenance, with power to make a will, and by will makes an executor, and disposes of all she had, but the executor took nothing, the whole being otherwise disposed of, it was decreed that the husband's estate in the hands of another person, the husband being now dead, is subject by law to pay the wife's funeral expences. 9 Mod. 31. Trin. 9 Geo. in Canc. at the Rolls, Bertie v. Ld. Chesterfield.

(Y. a) Feme Executrix, what she may do without her Baron.

I. TN detinue it was admitted, that if a man gives a legacy, Sid. 188. pl. and makes his feme his executrix, and dies, and she takes ba- 14. Pasch. ron, and after she delivers the legacy, this is well, notwith- 16 Car. 2.

B. R. The standing

[ 179 ] Augier.

that though franching she be covert baron. Br. Executors, pl. 47. cites 7 H. 4-13.

anciently it had been a point whether a feme covert might assent to a legacy, yet since Russa's case [5 Rep. 27.] they thought it settled that she cannot assent, and they were of the same opinion; for in case she has power to assent or dis-assent to a legacy, then if a term should be devised for life to the seme, (who is also executrix) the remainder to J. S. and she takes J. S. to baron, yet it should be in her power to affirm or destroy this devise, the which would be very mischievous.

2. In trespass a seme executrix took baron, and after she bailed the goods of the testator to J. S. without her baron; and well, per Vavisor et Brian; for she may deliver legacies, and receive debts, and make a release or acquittance, and may give the goods without her baron; for she alone may do all matters in sact. Contra of matters of record; for she cannot sue nor be sued without her baron. Br. Executors, pl. 178. cites 16 H. 7. 5, 6.

Br. Affets enter Mains, pl. 8. cites S. C.

3. Feme executrix took baron; there in debt against them 2s executors, he may say that the seme was fully administered, and the other may say that the seme has assets, &c. without speaking of the baron; for it is said there, that the seme may administer without the baron. Quære. Br. Executors, pl. 150. cites 18 H. 6. 4.

S. P. but the cannot fue without her and the and her baron may fue for a debt, and yet the cannot baron; per make a deed without the baron. Br. Executors, pl. 68. cites Markham.
19 H. 6. 25.
cites 21 H. 6. 30.

5. C. cited 5. If feme executrix takes baron, and after she releases debt of the testator by deed in her own name, this is good, for she represents the testator; per Littleton, but Cook contra without her baron.

utterly denied. Hist.

Br. Coverture, pl. 52. cites 18 E. 4. 10.

26 Eliz. B. R. in Russel's case. For though she be executrix, yet she cannot do any thing to the prejudice * of her baron. But without question, the release of the baron in such case is good, and so the doubts in the books of 13 E. 1. tit. Executors 119. 5 E. 3. 45. Barbor's case. 18 H. 6. 4. 10. 18 E. 4. 10. 21 E. 4. 13 & 24. 2 H. 7. 15. 6 H. 7. 6. 5 H. 7. 13 & 14. are well explained.

If seme executrix deliver up a bond instead of an acquittance during the coverture, to one that was bound to her testator, the baron has no remedy; per Keble. Kelw. 122. pl. 74. Casus incerti temporis.——And she may receive money without her baron, and give acquittance for it; and if an acquittance made by her be a devastavit, yet it is good, and she and her husband are bound by it. And. 117. pl. 164. Hill. 26 Eliz. Anon.—Br. Executors, pl. 113. cites S. C. accordingly.

6. In account, if a feme be executrix and takes baron, and after five delivers money to J. S. and her baron dies, and five brings writ of account, and does not name berfelf executrix, and well, because it was a thing which was once in his possession. Br. Executors, pl. 101. cites 2 H. 7. 15. Per Keble.

7. And Rede agreed that a seme executrix may pay debts of the testator and the legacies, but not deliver money to render account. But Keble said that she may do the one and the other. Ibid.

8. Feme executrix cannot make acquittance as executrix without her baron; but contra by the spiritual law. Br. Executors, pl. 101. cites 2 H. 7. 15.

o. D. confessed a judgment to F. who made his wife, the plaintist, executrix, and died; the administered and married a second busband, and then, she alone, without her husband, acknowledged satisfaction, though though no real satisfaction was made. The court held that this was not good. Sid. 31. pl. 6. Hill. 12 & 13 Car. 2. B. R. Fenner v. Dives.

10. A wife administratrix under 17 shall join with her husband in an action; per Twisden J. Mod. 297. Trin. 29 Car. 2. B. R. in case of Foxwist v. Tremain.

(Z. a) Power of the Baron of Feme Executrix.

1. IT was said, that if a feme be made executrix who does not In case of a administer, and she takes baron, the baron may administer for feme cohim and his feme, and prove the testament, &c. and there release executrix, of the baron is good. Br. Executors, pl. 147. cites 33 H. 6. 31.

vert made the baron has a great power. Baren may administer and bind her though she refuses, and may * release the debts of the teflator, but the wife cannot do any thing to the prejudice of the baron without his consent; per Holt Ch. J. 1 Salk. 306. Mich. 11 W. 3. in case of Wanford v. Wanford, cites S. C. of 33 H. 6. 31. -Baron may dispose by his grant the goods, which the wife has as executrix. Jenk. 79. pl. 56. She cannot give the goods away without consent of the bushand, and if he consents to it, then it is he that gives it. 6 Mod. 93. Jenkins v. Plume. * Without consent of the wife. Carth. 462. Mich. to W. 3. B. R. seems admitted in case of Yard v. Ellard.

2. If a feme executrix takes baron, and be releases all actions, this S.P. For shall be a bar during the coverture without question; by the justices. But Choke doubted if it shall be a bar after the death of the pended, is baron; but per Pigot, once extinct is for ever. Br. Releases, pl. 29. cites 9 E. 4. 42.

action perfonal fulextinct for ever. And Brook fays

- it feems to be a good bar for ever. Br. Executors, pl. 151. cites S. C --- S. P. If the baron does not except it in his release. Ibid. pl. 152. cites 39 H. 6. 15, 16. ____S. P. Br. Extinguishment, pl. 20. cites 9 E. 4. 42.
- 3. If a feme executrix takes baron, and the baron puts himself in arbitrement for debt of the testator, and award is made, and the baron dies, the feme shall be barred; per tot. cur. Brook says, that from hence it feems to him, that the release of the baron without the feme is a good bar against the feme, quod conceditur, anno 39 H. 6. 15. and therefore * there he excepted those debts in his release, and otherwise they had been extinct. Br. Releases, pl. 79. cites 21 H. 7. 29.

~[181] S. P. But if the baron did no set in his life, the action remains to the executor. and if the baron gives the goods which the feme has as executrix, the gift is good; and by this arbitrement, all the actions which the has jointly against the descendant and a franger are gone; and the baron with his seme may administer these goods; quod nota. Br. Executors, pl. 96. cites 21 H. 7. 29. Br. Dette, pl. 125. cites S. C.

4. A feme executrix takes baron, and they bring debt as executors, and have judgment. The defendant pleaded outlawry of the busband in bar; but per cur. clearly the huiband forfeits nothing of the goods which the wife had as executrix; and judgment for the plaintiff. 3 Bulst. 210. Trin. 14 Jac. Hix v. Harrison.

5. The possession of the wife as executrix, is also the possession of her baron, and damages recovered in trover by them, shall be to the estate of testator, and so may concern them both.

Mich. 23 Car. B. R. Fremling v. Clutterbook.

(A. b) What A& of the Baron of Executrix alters the Property of Goods, &c. to himself.

Mo. 98. pl. 1. A. Made his will, by willies and goods I bequeath to Frances paid Made his will, by which he gave divers legacies, and 242. S. C. held accord-" ces my wife, whom I make executrix to pay my debts." Frances paid ingly. the debts and legacies, and had goods left, and marries B. who Bendl. 219. 222. S. C. made J. S. executor and died. J. S. took the goods, the widow adjudged for brought detinue against J.S. and judgment for her, for notthe plaintiff; and see the withstanding the devise of the residue, &c. she had it not as pleadings devisee, but as executrix, by reason of the words of the devise there. (to pay my debts), which have no other meaning, but that the shall D. 331. a. pl.21.Anon. enjoy them as executrix. And. 22. pl. 45. Mich. 15 & 16 Eliz. S. C. & S. Hunks v. Alborough. P. and the opinion of all the justices was for the plaintiff.

So where feme covert is refiduary legatee; the hulband and the executor differ about and submit to arbitration. The stoney awarded to the husband will go to his executors, and not fur-vive to the

2. A stranger lays claim to a term which the wife has as executrix to her baron, and her second husband by writing submits to an award the title and interest of his wife. The arbitrator awards one moiety to the claimant, and awards the other moiety to the baron and feme. The second baron dies. The wife is bound. theresiduum For if the baron had granted over the term, such grant would bind the feme, and consequently the submission in this case being for the title and interest of the term, is the same in effect as if the baron had granted the term over, but if the arbitrators award that the possessor shall hold the term; this it seems does not bind the right of the other, for such arbitrement does not extinguish the right, as it does in the other case where it makes the possession to pass. D. 183. a. pl. 57. and Marg. Ibid. cites Pasch. 23 Eliz. wife; for per B. R. Anon.

Jefferies Ch. the award is a fort of judgment. Vern. 396. pl. 366. Pafch. 1686. Oglander v. Bafton.

~[182] Cro.C. 227. pl. 4. Mich. 7 Car. B. R. again and argued, and all the court, Hide Ch. I. being dead, conceived that the sci. fa. did not lie for the Same reasons before given, and the recovery had,

was in right of the intel-

3. A feme administratrix to her former husband, brought debt with her then husband upon an obligation to the intestate, and had S. C. moved judgment for debt, damages and costs. The feme died. after a year and day brought sci. fa. to have execution; and all the court (except Hide Ch. J. who doubted thereof) conceived that the sci. sa. lay not * for the husband, because being a debt demanded by the wife as administratrix, it was in auter droit; and though they recover, yet the dying before execution, the duty remains to fuch person as takes a new administration as in right of the intestate; and though the baron is party to the judgment, yet he has no property in the debt, whereas he that ought to have a sci. fa. must have privity and property to have the debt, otherwise it is a Cro. C. 208. pl. 2. Hill. 6 Car. B. R. Beamond v. Long.

tate. And though it was farther objected that the judgment was for costs and damages which belong to the baron, though the same debt did not belong to him, and therefore the sci. fa. was maintainable for the damages; yet the court held the sci. sa. to-have execution of the judgment for the debt, and also for the damages is not maintainable, and whether he might maintain a sci. sa. for the damages and costs, they would not deliver any opinion; and gave judgment for the defendant. And the case being moved at Serjeant's-inn, to the chief baron. and other barons, and to Harvey J they all agreed in the same opinion.——Jo. 248. pl. 1. S. C. held accordingly.——S. C. adjudged accordingly. See tit. Execution (P) pl. 3.——S. C. cited. Arg. 3 Mod. 64.——S. P. heid accordingly; per tot. cur. Cro. C. 464. pl. 3. Trin. 12 Car. B. R. Anon.

4. Obligee made his wife executrix. She married a fecond husband, who become bankrupt, and the commissioners assigned this debt. But by Holt Ch. J. they have no power to assign any thing but what is the bankrupt's estate, and if the wife dies before assignment by him, there must be an administration de bonis non. His power to dispose of her estate does not make a title in him; and though he may dispose of a term which he has in jure uxoris, yet is he becomes a bankrupt, the commissioners cannot assign over this estate; and by Pówel J. they have nothing to do with the debts of the testator, but only with the debts of the bankrupt. Holt's Rep. 104, 105. Hill. 6 Ann. Lutting v. Browning.

(B. b) In what Cases the Husband must or may take Administration.

1. WHERE the wife has debts or duties due to her, she cannot, by making another person executor, preclude her husband from that benefit which to him should appertain as administrator of her goods. Went. Off. Ex. 200.

2. But where they belong to ber as executrix no benefit can redound to the husband by having such administration of his wife's goods; for those should go to the next of kin of the wife's testator, who must take administration de bonis non of such testator, if she has no executor, and therefore her making executor as touching these brings no prejudice to ber baron, and so is out of the reason of the case of Ognell v. Underhill & Appleby. Went. Off. Ex. 200.

3. Where the wife is executrix and legatee, if the claims as executrix, and dies, if the second baron would have advantage of it, he must take letters of administration de bonis non of the first busband, and not of the wise; but if she had claimed the land and the term in it as legatee, and had not been in possession, administration taken of the rights and debts of the wise had been good as to that intent, though his wife was not actually possessed of it, but only had a right unto it, and of such things in action the husband might be executor or administrator to his wife; and if the baron takes administration differently, and brings action, he will be nonsuit; and if the wife before election marries, the baron may make the election. Le. 216. pl. 298. Mich. 32 & 33 Eliz. C. B. in case of Cheyney v. Smith.

4. The wife intitled by the statute of distributions dies, before distribution, intestate, and so does the husband too soon after. Whether the interest vested in the wife did vest in the baron without taking administration to his wife, or not? It was argued Vol. IV.

183

that it did, and so that it should go to the administrator of the husband, and not to the administrator of the wife. But see the decree. 2 Vern. 302. pl. 293. Mich. 1693. Cary v. Taylor.

Bulst. 45.

5. Feme covert executrix dies intestate; administration may be Mich. 8

Jac. S. P. granted to the next of kin of the first testator de bonis non. Jo. admitted, in 176. pl. 9. Hill. 3 Car. B. R. in case of Jones v. Rowe. ease of Smith

v. Jones. — But where she is residuary legatee, it shall be granted to her husband. 2 Vetn. 249. pl. 235. Mich. 1691. Rouse v. Noble.

(C. b) Actions. Writ and Declaration.

1. W RIT of affife brought by baron and feme was abated, because they were not seised after the espousals. Thel. Dig.

116. lib. 10. cap. 26. s. cites Tempore E. 1. Br. 863.

Baron and feme seised feme, and the heirs of the baron. They brought waste against the heirs of the heirs of the heirs of the heirs of the baron defendant challenged the writ, because the seme had nothing but make a lease, the lessee commits another plea. Fitzh. Waste, pl. 4. cites Hill. 3 E. 2. waste, they bring an action of waste, and conclude ad extreredation meanum, and the judgment also was entered, that they should recover the damages, whereas the damages ought to go to him only that had the inheritance. The reporter says, that it seems to be ill. Freem. Rep. 343. pl. 424. Trin. 1673. Ason.

Error of a judgment in waste against the tenant for years brought by baron and seme of a moiety, being seised in reversion to them and his heirs ad exhæredationem of them. The court agreed they must join in the action, but the conclusion must be ad exhæredationem of him, but the original not being certified it is well enough. 3 Keb. 175. pl. 12. Trin. 25 Car. 2. B. R. Curtis v. Brown, seems to be S. C.

Writ of against baron and feme, supposing that the feme had not entry unless after, &c. was held ill. Thel. Dig. 117. lib. 10. cap. 26. s. 30. cites 9 E. 2. Br. 812.

posing the entry of both, was adjudged good, notwithstanding that the baron found his seme seised. Thel. Dig. 116. lib. 10. cap. 26. s. 5. cites Mich. 20 E. 3. Brief 374. 17 E. 3. 40. 39 E. 3. 35. and Mich. 9 E. 2. Brief 812.

4. It is doubted how the writ of assise should be where the baron and seme are dississed of the land of the seme, and after the baron is outlawed of selony, and afterwards received to the peace, utrum dissessivit eos vel eam. Thel. Dig. 115. lib. 10. cap. 26. s. 1. cites Hill. 1 E. 3. 5.

5. Where a feme has common of pasture, and after the marriage at the first time that they put in their beasts they are disturbed, &c. the writ shall be disseisivit eos. Thel. Dig. 115. lib. 10. cap. 26.

1847 cites it as held Hill. 1 E. 3. 5.

Affise of a

6. A feme was seised of a rent, and took baron; they distrained, rent upon and rescous is made, and they bring assis, the writ shall say, are prought by baron and seised; quod nota. Br. Faux Latin, pl. 61. cites 3 Ass. 5.

the feme was seised before the coverture, and rescous was made to them both after the coverture, and therefore the affise was quod disseisvit eos; but if the rescous he before the coverture, and she took baron, and they brought assis, it should be quod disseisvit easi; note the diversity, when the diffeisia is made

7. Where the land descends to a seme covert, the writ shall suppose that the baron and seme have entered; but otherwise it is if he found his seme seised. Thel. Dig. 175. lib. 11. cap. 54. s. 21. cites Pasch. 7 E. 3. 320. for the entry of the seme shall be supposed. 7 E. 3. 354. 21 E. 3. 31. and 28 E. 3. 39.

8. Two femes, infants, jointenants, the one disselfeised the other, and the took baron; the baron and seme entered; the other ousted them, and they brought assis, quod disselseis eam, and the writ good, and they recovered. Br. Faux Latin, pl. 63. cites 7 Aff. 17.

'9. In dower by baron and feme, it was pleaded, that he was not her baron the day of the writ purchased; and it was agreed, that the writ should abate, notwithstanding that they could not have a new writ of other form. Thel. Dig. 119. lib. 11. cap. 2. s. 8. cites Mich. 11 E. 3. Brief 476.

10. In confimili casu the writ supposed that the land, after the alienation in see, ought to revert to the baron and seme, and adjudged good. Thel. Dig. 116. lib. 10. cap. 36. s. cites Hill. 18 E. 3. 2. where the writ was jus et hæreditas of the seme; and that so agrees Trin. 38 E. 3. 19. in scire sacias. 7 H. 4. 19. 3 H. 6. 2. 18 H. 6. 20. and 19 H. 6. 46.

The form in the writ s, that the land shall remain to the baron and feme, as it shall revert but it shall not descend. Thel. Dig. 116. lib. 10. cap. 26. s. 22. cites 19 H. 6. 49. but says, that contra it is said of remainder. 38 E. 3. 19. and 6 E. 3. 268.

In scire facias by baron and seme out of a fine by which land was rendered to the ancestor of the seme, the writ was quare, &c. to the baron and seme descendere non debrat, by which it was abated; for nothing can descend to the baron. Thel. Dig. 116. lib. 10. cap. 26. s. 11. cites Trin. 27 E. 3. 82.

Writ of scire facias for baron and some out of a fine, by which the remainder of the land was tailed to the ancestor of the seme and his heirs, &c. was abated, because it was quare to the haron and seme, daughter and heir of, &c. remanere non deheat. Thel. Dig. 117. lib 10. cap. 26. s. 29. cites Pasch. 6 E. 3. 267.

Writ by baron and feme of remainder in jure uxoris shall say remanere debet to both; contrary of formedon in descender, reverter, or escheat. Br. Baron and Feme, pl. 35. cites 11 H. 4. 15. per Hill.

-Br. Scire Facias, pl. 72. cites S. C.

11. Where waste is done by a seme sole, and afterwards she takes baron, the writ supposing the waste to be done by both, is good enough. Thel. Dig. 116. lib. 10. cap. 26. s. 6. cites Mich. 19 E. 3. Brief 246. 20 E. 3. Brief 252. 22 Ass. 87. Mich. 49 E. 3. 26. and 14 H. 6. 14.

12. Entry against baron and seme, de quibus the baron disseised the grandsather of the demandant. The writ was abated by judgment after the view, because no degree is made against the seme. Thel. Dig. 176. lib. 11. cap. 54. s. 36. cites Trin. 20 E. 3. Brief 392. 22 E. 3. 17.

13. In appeal of maihem by the baron and feme against the baron and feme, the writ was unde la feme pl' appellat eam, and was abated, inasmuch as no tort is supposed to the baron plaintiss, nor by the baron defendant. Thel. Dig. 116. lib. 10. cap. 26. s. 9. cites Pasch. 20 E. 3. Brief 252.

14. In

Baron and Feme.

The writ 14. In trespass where a feme sole does a battery, and takes baron, supposing that the trespass was done them did the battery. Br. Faux Latin, pl. 70. cites 22 Ass. 87. by both, is good enough. Thel. Dig. 116. lib. 10. cap. 26. s. 6. cites S. C.——A feme covert commits a trespass vi et armis; trespass is brought against the baron and seme. The writ is, that both committed the trespass. Upon not guilty pleaded, the jury finds the woman guilty, and the bushand not guilty. The book is, that the wife shall be imprisoned, and the husband not; and that the plaintiff shall not be amerced pro-fusio clamore against the husband; for there was no other form in the Register. Jenk. 23. pl. 43.

15. But where battery is done to the feme sole who takes baron, they shall have action quod percussit uxorem dum sola suit; and so see a diversity between the plaintiff and defendant; for against the defendant it shall be general, and for the plaintiff it shall be special; and in the case above it was found that the seme was guilty, and the baron not. Br. Faux Latin, pl. 70. cites 22 Ass. 87.

Entry sur

16. Assis by baron and seme quod disservit eam, and no excepdisservit in tion, and therefore well as it seems. Br. Faux Latin, pl. 73.
assis by the cites 30 Ass. 4.
baron and

feme against A. quod disservit eos. Chaunt. Protestando quod non disservit, &cc. pre placito, that at the time of the disseries supposed the seme was covert with one H. and after H. died, and she married this baron; so the writ shall be disservit eam, et non eos, judgment of the writ; and per June and Cott. J. this is a good plea, though the writ does not suppose any time of the dissersion; and where the seme is dissersed, and takes baron, the writ shall be quod * dissersivit eam, by which Ellerker passed over. Br. Faux Latin, pl. 57. cites 14 H. 6. 13, 14.

Where disserting or trespass is done to a seme sole, in writ to be brought thereof by the baron and the seme after the marriage, he need not put dum sola suit but in the count. Thel. Dig. 117. lib. 10. cap. 26. s. 24. cites Hill. 21 H. 6. 33. and says see 7 H. 7. 2. and the Register, sol. 95. but the writ shall be disseifivit eam, or bona ipsius la feme cepit, &c. Cites Nat. Brev. 87.

If a feme be disseised and takes baron, they shall have writ quod disseiseit the seme dum sola suit. Br. Parnor de Profits, pl. 22. cites 4 E. 4. 17.——Br. Faux Latin, pl. 107. cites 8. C.

* Thel. Dig. 116. lib. 10. cap. 26. f. 21. cites S. C. and 14 H. 6. 13.

Writ of 17. Disseisor infeoffed a seme sole, who took baron. The writ baron and against them shall be, that the seme entered by the disseisor, and not shall be that both entered by the disseisor, and yet good by award. Br. Faux ship sheir Latin, pl. 103. cites 39 E. 3. 25, 26.

& one, was abated because the baron found his seme seised. Thel. Dig. 116. lib. 10. cap. 26. s. 4. cites

4 E. 3. It. Derb. Brief 744. 39 E. 3. 33. 7 H. 4. 17. 13 R. 2. Brief 647.

If a writ be to be brought against the baron, of lands which he has by his seme, the writ shall be that the wife entered by J. N. and not that the husband and wife entered by J. N. Br. Cui in Vita, pl. 26. cites 7 H. 7. 1, 2.—Br. Faux Latin, pl. 77. cites 7 H. 7. 2. S. C.

Writ of twaste by baron and seme, upon a lease made by the seme before marriage, the writ was ad exheredationem of the seme; and adpending of the seme; and adheritage of the seme, Pasch. 42 E. 3. 18.

supposing ad exharmationem ipsorum, was abated. Thel. Dig. 116. lib. 10. cap. 26. s. 20. cites Mich. 8 H. 6. 9.

Thel. Dig.

19. Trespass by baron and setne of assault to the seme, and impri115. lib. 10.

cap. 25. s. soment till the baron made sine ad damnum ipsorum, and the writ and
5. cites S.C. count awarded good, ad damnum ipsorum, &c. Br. Baron and and Mich.

Feme, pl. 21. cites 46 E. 3. 3.

Br. Count, pl. 29. cites S. C. & S. P. Br. Trespals, pl. 52. cites S. C. Br. Faux Latin, pl. 113. cites 46 E. 3. 2, 3. S. C.

عز

In trespals for beating the wife ad damnum ipsorum, it was moved in arrest of judgment, that it ought to have been to the damage of the baron, because a seme covert cannot have damages; but per tur. it is good, because it is such action as may survive to her alone; but otherwise it would not be. Sid. 387. pl. 23. Mich. 20 Car. 2. B. R. Horton v. Byles.——2 Keb. 434. pl. 73. Hort's tase, S. C. and per cur. and all the clerks, the declaration could not be otherwise, because the action and admages survive, and in all cases of survivor the action may be laid ad damnum inforum; and judgment for the plaintiff.——S. C. cited, and S. P. held per cur. accordingly, and the plaintiff moved to arrest his own judgment for expedition. 2 Ld. Raym. Rep. 1208, 1209. Mich. 3 Ann. Newton v. Hatter.

A writ of trespass was brought by husband and wife for battery of the wife ad damsum ipsorum, and cites the Register 205. But per cur. that is not law, and judgment was arrested for this exception in the principal case. Comb. 184 Mich. 3 W. & M. in B. R. Baker v. Barber.——Show. 345. Hill. 3 W. & M. in case of Meacock v. Farmer, S. P. the Register 105. was cited, but the court did not regard it.

20. Where a feme is lesse for years, and does waste, and afterwards the term is expired, and she takes baron, the writ of waste shall be quas the seme tenuit, and not quas the baron and seme tenuerunt. And so it shall be where she holds for term de auter vie, and cesty que vie dies, and after she takes baron, the writ shall be quas the seme tenuit; but if land be leased to a seme for her life, and she leases over her estate, and afterwards takes baron, the writ shall be quas tenent. Thel. Dig. 117. lib. 10. cap. 26. s. 28: cites Mich. 46 E. 3. 25.

21. Dum fuit infra ætatem against baron and seme, supposing their entry after the demise that the demandant made to the seme. The writ was abated; for it appears that the lease was made to the seme. Thel. Dig. 116. lib. 10. cap. 26. s. s. s. s. Brief 777. And adds quære; for it may be that the lease was made during the coverture, by which they entered after the demise, and there the entry of both shall be supposed, and cites 'Irin. 7 H. 4. 17.

22. In asset by baron and seme it was pleaded, that she was especifed to another, and the espousals continued a long time after, which other is yet alive; to which it was replied, that she at the time of those espousals was only 3 years old, and this other of 7 years; and that she afterwards being of the age of 20 years took to baron the plaintiss, and that she never assented to the first espousals, and so is she his seme. Thel. Dig. 119. lib, 11. cap. 2. s. 11. cites Paich. 49 E. 3. 17. 49 Ass. 7. but nothing was said further at this time. But afterwards Mich, 50 E. 3. 19, the assist was awarded to try whose wife she is.

23, So in affise by baron and seme, or debt or trespass, not his feme is a good plea to the writ. But in dower, and appeal of the death of her baron, it ought to be ne unques accouple in lawful matrimony with the deceased. Thel. Dig. 120. lib. 11. cap. 2. s. 12.

cites Mich. 7 H. 6. 13. 50 E. 3. 15.

24. In appeal by baron of the ravishment of his feme, upon the statute of R. 2. it was pleaded that she was never accoupled to him in lawful matrimony, and this plea was accepted, and writ to the bishop to certify. Quære if of necessity. Thes. Dig. 120. lib. 11. cap. 2. s. 13. cites Mich. 11 H. 4. 13.

25. A feme married infra annos nubiles shall not maintain writ, leaving out her baron; per Newton. Thel, Dig, 120, lib. 11.

cap. 2. f. 21, cites 7 H. 6. 12.

Baron and seme.

186‡

Thel. Dig. 26. Baron and feme lease for years, the baron may have debt without counting of the death of his feme. Br. Count, pl. 83. cites S. C. cites 9 H. 6. 11.

that the count was of a lease made by him and A. nuper his feme, and held good, without saying that she was dead.

27. In cui in vita by baron and feme, the writ was, quod reddat Jo. & A. uxori ejus quæ fuit uxor Ro. &c. quæ clamat tenere sibi & heredibus de corpore dici: Ro. exeuntibus ex dimissione Will qui insum A. & præd. Ro. quondam virum, &c. inde feoffavit, &c. and held good, notwithstanding that it may be intended that the baron by the word (sibi) claimed the estate to himself for life with his feme; but because it appeared that the feoffment was made to the feme, and to her first baron, the writ was adjudged good. Thel. Dig. 116, 117. lib. 10. cap. 26. s. 23. cites Mich. 18 H.

[ 187 ] 6. 24.

Br. Faux
Latin, pl.
37. cites
S. C.
Thel. Dig.
86. lib. 9.
cap. 7. f. 16.
cites S. C.
but fays, fee

14 H.6.14.

28. In trespass the writ was general by the baron and seme, quod clausum of the seme fregit et blada ejustem seme depastus suit, &c. and did not say, dum sola suit, where seme covert cannot have property without the baron, and the declaration was dum sola suit, and therefore the writ good; and the Register is accordingly that the writ shall be general, and the declaration special, as above. Quod nota. Br. Gen. Brief, pl. 7. cites 21 H. 6. 30.

and 7 H. 7. 2. held contra.——In trespass by baron and seme, quod clausum of the baron and seme & bona & catalla sua, apud D. cepit, &c. and counted that the trespass was done to the seme dum sela fuit. The desendant pleaded not guilty, and was found guilty, and pleaded in arrest of judgment, because the count did not warrant the writ; for there is a special writ in the Register, quod bona & catalla uxoris cepit, &c. and not bona & catalla sua, and count quod bona uxoris dum sola suit cepit, &c. and it was said there, that there is a writ in the Register for the baron and seme, quod disseisivit the seme dum sola suit; but where there is no other writ of sorm but the common writ, there the writ shall be general, and the count special. Contra where there is special sorm of writ for the matter; per tot. car. Br. General Brief, pl. 13. cites 7 H. 7. 2.

29. In trespass against the baron and seme, it was agreed by all the justices, and several serjeants, that the baron shall not answer without his seme, but shall have idem dies, and if she be warred, then the baron shall go quit; but the one shall not answer without the other, by all. Br. Responder, pl. 2. cites 34 H. 6. 29.

Quare, in detimue of them, if it shall be taken as a personal or real. Br. Releases, pl. 88. cites 39 H. 6. 15.

30. A feme brought trespass of her evidence and charters taken; the defendant said, that after the trespass she took baron, who released to him all actions, and a good bar. Br. Releases, pl. 88. cites 39 H. 6. 15.

31. In writ of entry upon the statute of Rich. by baron and sementhe entry was supposed in manerium ipsorum, and held good, without saying in manerium uxoris. Thel. Dig. 117. lib. 10. cap. 26. s. cites Pasch. 4 E. 4. 13.

A writ supposing the diffeision done by both is good enough. Thel. Dig. 115. lib. 10. cap. 26. s. 6. cites Mich. 19 E. 3. Brief 246. 20 E. 3. Brief 252. 22 Ass. 87. Mich. 49 E. 3. 26. and 14 H. 6, 14.

13

33. It

33. It was held, that a man shall have writ of account against baron and feme, quod reddat compotum de tempore quo the feme dum fola fuit was receiver or bailiff, &c. Thel. Dig. 117. lib. 10. cap. 26. s. 26. cites Mich. 4 E. 4. 26.

34. If a feme indebted takes baron, the action against both shall Br. General Brief, pl. 13. be debent. Br. Baron and Feme, pl. 71. cites * 9 E. 4. 24. cites 7 H. * The Year-book is, that the 7. 2. S. P. for the baron is now debtor by the marriage. writ shall be debent & injuste detinent, and that both must make their law; for the baron by marrying her had made himself chargeable and party to this duty. ---- 10 Mod. 163. Arg. cites S. C. and

35. In account by the baron of receipt by the defendant by the hands of the feme of the plaintiff, the defendant may wage his law; for the baron and feme are one person in the law, and therefore it is the immediate receipt of the plaintiff himself. Br. Ley Gager, pl. 54. cites 15 E. 4. 16.

20 H. 6. 22.

36. In rescous brought by the baron and seme, the writ was in una acra terre obligata districtioni the baron and feme, &c. and held good, notwithstanding that he had the rent in right of his feme; for during the coverture the distress shall be to both. Thel. Dig. 117. lib. 10. cap. 26. f. 27: cites Hill. 15 E. 4. 17.

37. Where debt is due to a feme who takes baron, who brings ac- Br. Faux Lation, the writ shall be debet to both, and shall count specially how it tin, pl. 77. was due to the feme dum sola fuit. Br. General Brief, pl. 77. cites So where 4 7 H. 7. 2.

[ 188 ] cites S.C. feme is indebted and takes baron, and delt is brought against them, the writ shall be debent; for the baron is debtor with her by the espousals. Ibid.

38. Dower by the baron and feme, the tenant said, that the first baron bad nothing after the espousals; prist; and the demandant did not deny it, by which the tenant prayed that they should be barred; & non allocatur; for this shall be prejudice to the feme after the death of the + baron, by which they acknowledged to the tenant by fine, and the feme was examined; quod nota; for she shall not be examined upon a confession of action, therefore non recipitur; note the diversity. Br. Baron and Feme, pl. 20. cites 44 E. 3. † 10,

† The word in all the editions of Brooke is (feme) but in the Yearbook it is (baron), and otherwise it is not intelligible. † All the editions of Brooke are as here, vis. 44 E. 3. 10. but it should be 44 E. 3. 12. [b. pl. 22.] and the tenant prayed that the confession be entered; sed non allocatur.

39, The baron shall have action for battery of . his feme, without saying per quod, &c. Per Frowike, Kingsmill, and Fisher J. Br. Trespass, pl. 442. cites 20 H. 7.5.

40. Baron and Feme, and J. S. brought trespass quare clausum Cro. E. 96. fregit herbam suam messuit & fænum suum asportavit ad damnum ippus the baron and feme, and J. S. and held the declaration R. Cookson good; for though it is not good for the hay, yet clausum fregit & herbam messuit makes it good, Le, 105. pl. 140. Mich. 30 Eliz. B. R. Wilkes v. Parsons.

pl 10. Pasch. 30 Eliz. B. v. Ca:lline, S. I. and cites S. C. and though it was ob-iected that the seme could not join for the hay, because it was a chattle severed from the inheritance. and rested in the baron; yet the clear opinion of the court was, that they may well join, for as they may join in tresmis of tlauso fracto, and cutting their grass, so they may for the hay coming of it;

Baron and Feme.

and adjudged accordingly.——But Wray said, if it had been for taking 20 loads of hay, without saying inde provenient', it is otherwise; because it may be intended hay lying on the land before, sor which they cannot join. Ibid.———S. C. cited. D. 305. b. Marg. pl. 59. as adjudged accordiogly.

5 Rep. 36, a, Walcot's & 3. P. agreed accordingly per tot. cur.

41. In debt against baron and seme upon a bond by the feme dum case. S. C. fola, the writ ought to be in the debet and detinet; for the baron has the goods of the feme in his own right; per Cook, and so is the Register 140. 3 Le. 206. pl. 263. Pasch. 30 Eliz. B. R. Walcott v. Powell.

> 42. If an obligation be made to a feme covert, and the baron difagrees to it, the obligor may plead non est factum; for by the refusal, the obligation loses its force and becomes no deed. 5 Rep.

119. b. Trin. 2 Jac. C. B. in Whelpdale's case.

43. In trover and conversion brought against husband and wife; it was objected that the conversion should be laid only in the baron, for the feme cannot have any property; but it was answered, that this action is not founded upon any property, but upon the possession only, and the point of it is the conversion, which is a tort which the feme may be charged with as well as in trespass or diffeisin; but they cannot bring trover, and suppose the possession in themselves, because the law transfers the whole interest in point of ownership to the husband, according to 21 E. 4. 4. Quod fuit concessium per tot. cur. Yelv. 165. Mich. 7 Jac. B. R. Draper v. Fulkes.

44. In trespass brought by husband and wife for breaking the cluse of the husband, ad damnum eorum; after verdict, it was moved that the declaration was not good nor aided by the statute; and adjudged accordingly. Cro. J. 473. pl. 4. Pasch. 16 Jac. B. R.

Marshall v. Doyle.

[ 189 ] 45. In trespass by baron and feme. The declaration was of an Sty. 236. Mich. 1650. affault and battery made to the feme, and also that the defendant Watts v. alia enormia eis intulit; it was moved that this was ill, for the word Lord. S.P. (eis) must relate to both, and therefore the seme could not join being moved in arrest of for an injury done to the baron. But adjudged and affirmed in judgment as error, that these words are only in aggravation of damages, and ill, because not material, nor do they alter the substance of the declaration. the wrong being per-Cro. J. 664. pl. 16. Hill. 20 Jac. B. R. Thomlins v. Hoe. fonal only to the feme, could not be said to be done to the baron; and to this Roll Ch. J. agreed.

In trespals brought by baron and feme of their dose broken and corn carried away, judgment was given for the plaintiffs. Error was brought and affigned that the feme ought

46. Trespass by husband and wife for breaking the close of the busband, and for battery of the wife, ad damnum insorum. fendant to the breaking of the close, pleaded not guilty; as to the battery justified. The first issue was found for the defendant. The 2d, for the plaintiff. It was moved in regard it was found against the plaintiff for the issue in which they ought not to join, that the verdict has discharged the declaration for that part which is ill, and it is good for the rest. And of that opinion was Lea Ch. J. and Doderidge; but Haughton & Chamberlain e contra. For that the declaration being ill in itself in its substance, the verdict shall never make it good; and therefore adjornatur. 655, pl. 5. Hill. 20 Jac. B. R. Buckley v. Hale.

not to join,

because she had no property in the corn; and judgment was revessed. Cro. E. 133. pl. 10. Pasch. 31 Eliz. B. R. Arusopt Arandel v. Short. - D. 305. b. Marg. pl. 59. cites S. C. and that judgment was reversed, besause seme covert cannot have corn in tommon with her baron; and if it had been, that the corn had been to them in common before the coverture, it ought to have been shewn; for a declaration ought to have a general, and not a special intendment. ---- So of battery and taking of a horse, ad damnum ipforum; after verdict it was objected that they should have brought several actions, because the wrong is several, and therefore judgment was stayed till the plaintist should move. Sty. 129, 130. Mich. 24 Car. Stradling v. Boreman. S. P. adjudged against the plaintiff. Het. 2. Pasch. 3 Car. C. B. Thomas v. Newark. ---- See Keb. 944. pl. 2. Hill. 17 & 18 Car. 2. B. R. Collingwood v. Bishop.

47. An avowry is made upon the husband and wife, where the wife is the tenant; in this case no disclaimer lies, for the wife cannot be examined in this case, and the husband disclaimer shall not hurt the wife for her freehold or inheritance, any more than his confession shall. Jenk. 143. pl. 97.

48. In action on the case brought by husband and wife as administratrix, the declaration was ad respondend' to the husband and wife, cui the administration of the goods, &c. was granted; in error brought this was assigned for error that it was uncertain to whom (cui) should relate. But it was held good, because (cui) is intended of the wife last before mentioned. Lat. 212. Pasch. 3 Car. Walter v. Hays.

49. Trefpass, &c. against the defendant, brought by the husband If husband and wife, for beating the wife and taking the goods of the husband only, ad damnum ipsorum; it was objected against the declaration, tion of tresthat the wife cannot join for a trespass done to her husband alone, fast for beatbut he ought to join in a trespass done to her alone; and judgment for the plaintiff. Het. 2. Pasch. 3 Car. C. B. Thomas v. Newark.

and wife bring an acing the wife, he may declare of a trespass done to him, ud damnum ighur the plaintiff; per Crook & Yelverton J. Het. 2. Pasch. 3 Car. C. B. Thomas v. Newark.

50, Case in nature of a conspiracy was brought by husband and Jo. 340. pl. wife, for causing them to be indicted of felony falsely and maliciously, and to be kept in prison till acquitted, ad damnum ipsorum, &c. After verdict and judgment for the plaintiffs, error was brought and affigned, because it was ad damnum ipsorum, whereas a wife cannot join with her husband for damages, because it is several to either of them; and * of that opinion was Berkley J. but Croke J. held the contrary, because the action is grounded upon one entire record in which they were both injured, and they may join if they will, or the husband may have an action alone for it, that he was damnified; adjornatur, cæteris absentibus. Cro. C. 553. pl. 8. feme, they Trin. 15 Car. B. R. Dalby v. Dorthall.

7. Anon. S. C. 3 juffices held that they could not join for the tort done to the baron; but if it had been for conspiring to indict the might join well enough:

but Crooke J. seemed e contra.

[ 190 ]

41. Husband and wife as executrix, brought trover and converfion of the goods of the testator; after a verdict, it was moved that the declaration was of a joint possession of goods by husband and wife, and damages are given to them jointly, whereas the goods properly belonged only to the wife as executrix; but Roll J. answered, that the possession of the wife as executrix was also the possession of her husband, and so the damages recovered shall be to the estate of the testator, testator, and so may concern them both. Sty. 48. Mich. 23 Car. B. R. Fremling v. Clutterbook.

52. Debt by baron and feme upon a bond made to the feme dum fola, and the declaration was ad damnum inforum. It was moved that it should have been ad damnum of the baron only; but adjudged good, for it was a damage to the woman, the money not being paid to her when she was sole, and being now married, it is a damage to the husband, Sty. 134. Mich. 24 Car. B. R. Anon.

Keb. 784. pl. 32. S.C. & S. P. agreed per eur. that feveral actions should have been brought; but Wind-

53. In trespass by husband and wife, for beating ber and tearing ber coat, ad damnum ipsorum; after a verdict, it was moved that as to the tearing the coat, which is the goods of the baron, the action should be in the name of the husband alone, and judgment was stayed; for by Twisden J. she cannot have action after her baron's death for the tearing her coat. Sid. 224. pl. 14. Mich. 16 Car. 2. B. R. Staunton v. Hobart.

ham e contra, conceived this only a consequence of the battery, and not like trover, which ought to be only ad damnum, or ad usum ipfius; and were this only for taking the coat, it ought to be ad damnum iphus; adjornatur.

> 54. In action of battery by the husband and wife, for imprisonment of the wife till he paid 101. Exception was taken because the conclusion was ad damnum ipsorum; sed non allocatur, and judgment for the plaintiff. 2 Keb. 230. pl. 4. Trin. 19 Car. 2. B. R. Brown v. Tripe.

> 55. Wherever the damages do survive, the declaration may be ad damnum ipsorum; per cur. 2 Keb. 434. pl. 71. Mich. 20

Car. 2. B. R. in case of Atwood v. Payne, Med. 9. pl. 27. S.C. adjudged for the plaintiff. - Sid. 425. pl. 10. S.C. and the court held the declaration well enough, it

56. Indebitatus affumpsit against the husband pro diversis mercimoniis, &c. fold and delivered to the wife to the use of her husband, it being for wearing apparel. It was moved in arrest of judgment, that the declaration being that the fale was to the wife, though it was to the use of her husband, was ill; but the court held, it being for her apparel, and that suitable to her degree, the declaration was good, and that the husband is chargeable. Vent. 42. Mich. 21 Car. 2. B. R. Dyer v. East.

being laid to be to the use of the baron, and so found by the verdict. _____ 2 Keb. 554. pl. 41. S. C. and the court faid it was agreed, in the case of MANBY V. Scott, that the husband was chargeable for necessary wearing apparel, though not against his prohibition, or upon an elopement, and so the court said now, and that this shall be intended to the use, unless the contrary appears upon the evidence, but in trover it must be specially alleged to his use, and not ad usum ipsorum; and judgment for the plaintiff.

[191] 3 Keb. 151. pi. 19. S. C. & S. P. adlays it was likewise demurred to, because the marriage was not averred; fed non al-. locatur.

57. In avowry as bailiff to baron and feme for rent arrear, he being seised in her right. The plaintiff demurred specially, bejornatur, but cause it is * not averred that the seme is living; but by Hale, the aretro existen' is quasi an averment of the life of the wife, and after verdict, or on a general demurrer it had been good, but doubted if it is ill en special demurrer; but Twisden and Wild held it good on a special demurrer, and judgment for the avowant. 2 Lev. 88, Pasch. 25 Car. 2. B. R. Harlow v. Bradnox.

58. In indebitatus by baron and feme, as the administrator of J. S. on account as administrator, and arrearages found to baron and cites D. 90.

3 Keb. 810. pl. 24. S.C.

but it is misprinted for 70. and lays that the plaintiff had

So for faying

that his wite is a bawd, and kieps a barudy house,

feme as administrators, & super se assumpserunt to baron and seme as administrators; the defendant demurred, because this would furvive to the hulband, and it is not said that the debt was due to the wife as administratrix; sed per cur. this is well enough, and judgment for the plaintiff. 3 Keb. 396. pl. 96. Mich. 26 Car. 2.

B. R. Harvey v. Halftead.

59. Debt upon a judgment by husband and wife, in which they declared, that C. recovered 901. and made the feme, plaintiff, execu-, trix, and died, and that she took to husband quendam  $ar{P}$ hilippum Bickerstaffe, &c. The defendant pleaded, that the plaintiffs never were married, and upon a demurrer the declaration was adjudged ill, because quendam Philippum shall not be intended the plaintiff Philip, according to Dyer, 70. b. [pl. 39. Trin. 6 E. 6.] 2 Lev. 207. Mich. 29 Car. 2. B, R. Philip Bickerstaffe & Ux.

leave to discontinue.

v. Peircy.

60. Husband and wife brought an action on the case for these words spoke of the wife, she is a whore, she is my whore, and concluded ad damnum ipsorum. After a verdict for the plaintiff, it was objected in arrest of judgment, that the words were not actionable without special damages laid, and that the conclusion ad damnum ipsorum was ill, but it was answered, that it was good, because if she survives, the damages will go to her, and that so are all the precedents. Three justices held the conclusion was as it ought to be, but Withens J. e contra. 3 Mod. 120. Hill. 2 & 3 Jac. 2. B. R. Baldwin v. Flower.

the conclufion was ad damnum ipforum; Brampston Ch. J. held the conclu-> fion good; for the da-

Chambers we

mage of the wife is the damage of the hulband. Mar. 212. pl. 249. Trin. 18 Car.

Ryley.

61. In debt upon bond brought by husband and wife, the de- Show. 50fendant pleaded ne unques accouple in loyal matrimony. The plaintiff demurred, and had judgment, because it alters the trial; for instead of trying per pais, it puts the trial on a certificate from the ordinary; and also it admits a marriage, but denies the legality of it, whereas a marriage de facto is sufficient, and whether legal or not is not material. 2 Salk. 437. pl. 1. Trin. 1 W. & M. in B. R. Allen & Ux. v. Grey.

S.C.adjudg. ed for the plaintiff.-Comb. 131. S.C. the plea was adjudged ill, and a respondeas ouster was awarded:

but per Holt Ch. J. a plea that they were not married, or not covert in marriage, would be good.

62. Trover by husband and wife, and declared, quod cum posfessional fuerunt the defendant converted them, ad damnum ipsorum, &c. This was held ill after verdict, because the possession of the wife is the possession of the husband, and so is the property, and fo the conversion cannot be to her damage. I Salk. 114. pl. 1. Mich. 4 W. & M. in B. R. Nelthrop & Ux. v. Anderson.

63. In affault and battery by baron and feme, the defendant pleaded ne unques accouple, &c. but held ill; for it cannot be tried at common law, the jurisdiction whereof ought not to be taken away in personal actions. / Comb. 473. Pasch. 30 W. 3. B. R. Jones's case.

So in cale by baron and teme for a cause arising to the feme before marriage, the defendant pleaded such plea, and plaintiffs replied, that they were married at such time and place, the plaintiffs had judgment on demurrer; for per cur. in personal actions (as this was) it was right to lay

::

2.Ld Raym.
Rep. 1031.
S. C. and judgment
accordingly,
nifi, &c. and Powell J. faid he would not intend any evidence to be given as to the special damage to
the husband,

64. Trespass and false imprisonment by baron and seme, for imprisonment of the seme, per quod negotia domestica of the husband remanserent infecta ad grave dampnum insorum. After verdict for the plaintiss, it was objected in arrest of judgment, that there being a special damage laid to the husband, the action should have been brought by him alone; but it was held good, because matter may be laid for aggravation of damages, for which no action would lie, as breaking his house, and beating his daughter, and yet trespass will not lie for beating his daughter; and the plaintist had judgment. I Salk. 119. pl. 12. Hill. 2 Ann. B. R. Russel v. Corne.

but only admitted proof as to the battery; and that in this case the gist of the action is not the per quod; but if the husband had brought the action, then it would have been the gist; and Holt Ch. J. said, that if it had been per quod consertium amiss, the wife could not have been joined.———6 Mod.

327. S. C. adjudged for the plaintiff, nisi, &c.

65. In an action of battery brought by the husband and wife for a battery upon them, ad damnum ipsorum, and for that reason, after a verdict for the plaintiffs, the judgment was arrested. 6 Mod. 149. Pasch. 3 Ann. B. R. Cole v. Turner.

Because she may plead non est factum, it being the bond of a fome covert. 6 Mod. 311.
S. C.

- 66. A feme covert was arrested by the name of Minors, and gave bail by that name, in an action of debt upon a bond, and afterwards the plaintiff declared against her by that name, and then she pleaded a misnosmer; adjudged, that whatever a bail-bond may do in other cases, yet in the case of a seme covert it shall not estop her to plead a misnosmer. I Salk. 7. pl. 17. Mich. 3 Ann. B. R. Linch v. Hook.
- 67. An indictment was for entering into a wood, and cutting down 20 asbes and 30 oaks, and they demurred, because it is said the goods and chattels of the husband and wife, which is repugnant, because trees growing belong to the inheritance; per Holt Ch. J. we may understand the husband and wife to be jointenants, and reject the bona & catalla. Judgment was for the Queen w Horris

Rep. 353. pl. 11. Trin. 6 Ann. the Queen v. Harris.

os. Action of assault and battery is brought by the husband and wife; the declaration sets forth, that the defendant such a day, &c. assaulted Eleanor the wise, and driving a coach over ber, bruised her, &c. & ratione inde the husband laid out diversas denar summas for the cure, &c. & al' enormia issued intulit ad grave damnum inforum. Powell J. said, that where husband and wise join in action of assault and battery for beating both, it is wrong; but may be helped by a verdict separating the damages, and here the gist of the action is only beating of the wise, and the ratione inde is only in aggravation of damages. As to the alia enormia, it is too general to suppose damages given for it. If the ratione inde had been left out, the surgeon's bill might have been given in evidence in aggravation of damages. Judgment pro quer' Holt absente. 11 Mod. 264, 265. pl. 3. Hill. 8 Ann. B. R. Todd & Ux. v. Redford.

(D. b) Pleadings and Judgment in Actions against Baron and Feme.

1. IN replevin against a feme, she was not received to plead that she was covert and seme to such a one the day of the writ purchased after prece partium. Thel. Dig. 119. lib. 11. cap. 2. s. 1.

cites Hill. 4 E. 3. 115.

2. In assife the baron pleaded jointenancy with his feme, and had process to bring in his feme; quod nota, and she came and joined, and maintained the exception. Br. Process, pl. 94. cites 16 Aff. 8.

3. Entry against baron and feme, supposing the entry of the seme Thel. Dig. only. The tenants said, that they both entered by joint-purchase, &c. 177. lib. 11. and held a good plea, without traversing the entry of the seme s. 46. cites only. Thel. Dig. 176. lib. 11. cap. 54. s. 34. cites Mich. 18 Hill. 33 E. E. 3.35.

3. Brief 914. that it is no plea to fay that the baron and feme entered, without traverfing that she did not enter Where the entry of both is supposed, it is no plea to say that he found the seme seised, without travers-ing that both entered. The Dig. 177. lib. 11. cap. 54. s. 47. cites Mich. 13 R. 2. Brief 647. 4. Where the baron is estopped to plead non-tenure, his seme shall Br. Journes, be estopped also. Br. Baron and Feme, pl. 52. cites 24 E. 3. 5. The baron shall plead the misnosmer of his seme. Thel. Dig.

&c. pl. 17. cites 24 E. 3. 24. S.C.

& S. P.

193. lib. 13. cap. 1. s. 7. cites 30 Ass. 16.

6. In detinue garnishment issued against one Eliz. and others, executors of such a one, &c. Eliz. came and said that she is covert with such a one, and was the day of the writ purchased, &c. and held a good plea in her mouth. Thel. Dig. 120. lib. 11. cap. 2. f. 18. cites Hill. 21 H. 6. 29.

7. Where a feme who is espoused in Ireland, or in France, is abiding in England, and is impleaded, she may plead that she was covert the day of the writ purchased with such a one, her baron; per Littleton. Thel. Dig. 120. lib. 11. cap. 2. f. 14. cites Pasch. 18 E. 4. 4.

8. The husband alone cannot demur for his wife, by the opinion of the court. Toth. 136. cites 36 Eliz. Sturling v. Green.

9. The seme cannot disavow the suit of her and her baron. Baron and Feme, pl. 7. cites 39 E. 3. 1.

Br. S. P. Br. Coverture, pl. 76. cites 34 AU. 1.

10. A seme may plead to the writ that she is the seme of J. not Br. Brief, named feme. Br. Baron and Feme, pl. 13. cites 42 E. 3. 23.

So where it is against J. and A. bis fense, the may say to the writ that she is not feme of J. but the beron shall not have the plea, but the seme herself. Br. Baron and Feme, pl. 13. cites 42 E.

Affumpht was brought against the defendant as an unmarried woman. She and her husband plead in the following manner, to wit. And S. H. and A. bis wife, late the faid A. Garlick, and introduce the plea with the marriage, and then fay that the faid A. non-assumpsit. The plaintiff signed judgment, as if there had been no plea in the cause, which was set aside upon hearing counsel on both sides. Barnes's notes in C. B. 169, 170. Easter, 7 Geo. 2. Amey v. Garlick.

11. Baron and seme shall not be suffered to confess action in dower; for there does not lie examination. Br. Coverture, pl.

76. cites 44 E. 3. 12.

12. In quid juris clamet against the baron and seme, they may deny the deed which binds the feme. Br. Baron and Feme, pl. 83. cites 44 E. 3. 34. and 45 E. 3. 11. accordingly. And says, see Fitzh. Quid Juris clamat 11 & 38. that quid juris clamat was maintained against feme covert. Ibid.

* 13. In quid juris clamat the baron and feme may confest a deed that the tenant holds without impeachment of waste. Contra of an infant in this action. But in per quæ servitia a feme covert was not suffered to confess acquittal; for there does not lie examination, and a feme covert shall not be bound by her conusance but where she is examined, therefore quære of the first case. Br. Coverture, pl. 67. cites 45 E. 3. 33 E. 3. and 43 E. 3. in Nat. Brev. in the addition of quid juris clamat & per quæ servitia.

14. In entry in nature of affife against baron and seme, the baron pleaded non-tenure for his feme and jointenancy for himself with a franger, and good per cur. and not double; for he ought to anfwer for both. Br. Baron and Feme, pl. 88. cites 10 H. 6.

22.

15. Feme covert shall not be received to disavow the baron's Br. Coverture, pl. 76. attorney; but he may make attorney for both. Br. Baron and cites S. C. Feme, pl. 7. cites 33 H. 6. 31.

16. If the feme comes and will plead other plea than the baron In battery against bapleads, or will confess, she shall not be received. Br. Baron and ron and Feme, pl. 7. cites 33 H. 6. 43. feme, the one plea and the feme another, and verdict for the plaintiff as to both issues, and damages intirely given; but judgment was arrested; because fime cannot plead by kerjelf, and because damages intire were given, and repleader awarded. Cro. J. 239. pl. 3. Paich. 8 Jac. B. R. Wation v. Thorp.

baron pleads

7

In action upon an assumpsit of the wife dum sola fuit, the plea was entered, viz. et prædict' J. N. & Bridgeta, ven. & defend. vim & injuriam, &c. & ipla Bridgeta dicit quod ipla non-offumpset, & hoc, &c. et prædict' querens similiter. It was moved, that a plea of feme covert without the bushard is no plea at all; and an issue being joined and tried thereupon was ill, and not aided by any statute of jeofails; and of that opinion was all the court, and a repleader awarded. Cro. J. 288. pl. 4. Mich. 9 Jac. B. R. Tampian v. Newson. Yelv. 210. S. C. accordingly.

A. brought an action of battery against the husband and wife, and 2 others. The wife and one of the others, without the husband, pleads not gulley; and the husband and the other pleaded fon assault demesue, and tried; and alleged in arrest of judgment, because the woman pleaded without the husband, and the judgment was staid, and a repleader alleged. Brownl. 235, 236. Trin. 14 Jac. Anon. And Lays, that this case was confirmed by a case which was between Yonges and Bartram.

In error of a judgment in battery against busband and wife, the busband and wife quoad the wounding pleaded not guilty. The wife quoad the battery justifies, and concluded with et bot parata of verificare. The court much doubted whether it was good; for the husband ought to have joined with the wife in that plea, and would advise of it. Cro. C. 594. pl. 9. Mich. 16 Car. B. R. Watkinson v. Turner.

> 17. But the baron cannot fourch by effign, if the feme by covin of the plaintiff will appear; and if both wage their law, and the feme fails at the day, the baron shall be condemned. Br. Baron and Feme, pl. 7. cites 33 H. 6. 43.

> -18. In trespass of a close broken, the defendant said that the place where, &c. is one acre of land, of which he and Alice his feme were seised in their demesne, as of see, before and at the time of the tresposs, and the defendant entered and did the trespass; and exception was taken,

taken, because he did not say that they were seised in jure uxoris or jointly; & non allocatur; for per Fineux Ch. J. it is sufficient for the defendant to intitle himself to any part of the land, in whatseever manner it be. Br. Pleadings, pl. 84. cites 12 H. 7. 24.

19. Feme covert shall not acknowledge acquittal in * per que fervitia, and yet may acknowledge leafe without impeachment of waste on, and exain quid juris clamat. Br. Coverture, pl. 84.

* Without mination does not lie in this action. Br. Per que Servicia, pl. 13. cites Hill. 5 E. 3. S. C.

20. A leafe was granted to B. and J. his wife for a term of years. B. died, and J. married W. and in declaring upon this Icase W. the plaintiff set forth that he and his wife were possessed; but did not fay that they were possessed as in jure uxoris, as he ought, because it is a chattel real, and the seme surviving her baron shall have it, and not the executors of the baron, and therefore is not divested out of the feme. Sed non allocatur; for true it is that the baron and feme are possessed, and the manner how they are poffessed is shewn, and so by considering the whole together, the manner of the possession appears, and consequently sufficient. Pl. 'C. 191. a. 1 Eliz. Wrotesley v. Adams.

21. In debt against husband and wife he was outlawed, and his wife waived: Afterwards she pleaded the queen's pardon. - The court held that the shall be discharged of her imprisonment; but the pardon ought not to be allowed, because she cannot sue out a scire facias against the plaintiff, to make him declare upon the original, without her husband; and there was a condition in the pardon, viz. ita quod ipsa staret recta in curia, which she could not do without her baron. D. 271. b. pl. 27. Hill. 10 Eliz.

Anon.

22. Debt against husband and wife, upon a bond by the quife dian 3 Le. 206. sola. After verdict it was moved, that the writ was in the detinet only, whereas it should have been in the debet & detinet; for the marriage was a gift in law of all the personal goods to the husband, says that to and to his own use, and therefore debet the money due on this bond, as well as detinet. Quod fuit concessum per tot cur. 5 Rep. 36. a. Trin. 30 Eliz. B. R. Walcott's case.

pl. 263. Walcot . Powell S.C. is the Register 140.

23. Debt against husband and wife, for certain barrels of beer fold to the feme dum fold fuit. They both waged their law, and this term both did swear according to the form of the oath. Note, the husband did swear for the debt of the wife. Cro. E. 161. pl. 51. Mich. 31 & 32 Eliz. B. R. Weeks v. Holms.

24. Debt against J. and M. husband and wife, as executrix of her former husband. The defendants plead by attorney thus, et prædict' J. & M. and that after imparlance that they were divorced before the writ brought. It was adjudged that the writ should abate; for it shall be presumed the divorce continues, if the contrary be not shewn; but if they had said, et prædict' J. & M. uxor ejus, it had been an estoppel. Cro. E. 352. pl. 6. Mich. 36 & 37 Eliz. C. B. Underhill v. Brook.

25. In a replevin the busband, being seised in right of the wife, surved for damage feafant in his own name, and that the others are his servants, &c. and this was ruled to be good, without shewing that they were fervants to the wife also. Noy 107. Hill. 1 Jac. C. B. Harvey v. Gulston.

Brownl.209. S. C. but Seems only a translation of Yelv.— S. C. cited and faid by the court 'o be a strange opinion. Vent. 93.

Trin. 22

26. Trespass and affault against husband and wife, supposing that they both beat the mare of the plaintiff. Upon not guilty pleaded, the jury found that the wife only beat the mare. Williams and Crooke J. said that the verdict is against the plaintiff, because it appears that his action is false; for the husband is not joined in fuch case but for conformity only, and that there is a special writ in the Register to that purpose; and judgment was given against the plaintiff. Yelv. 106. Mich: 5 Jac. B. R. Drury v. Dennis.

Car.2.B.R. where in battery against baron and feme the jury found the feme only guilty, and the court gave judgment for the plaintiff. Anon. ---- S. P. and judgment for the plaintiff; for per cur. they may find the one guilty and the other not, and there is no difference between this and other cases of different and several trespassors. Show. 350. Pasch. 4 W. & M. Dare v. White. _____12 Mod. 19. S. P. per cur. accordingly, Hare v. White, S. C. -- S. P. admitted by judgment, Cro. J. 203. pl. 3. Hill.

5 Jac. B. R. in case of Hales v. White.

27. A verdiet was against busband and wife in ejectment. After In action brought the nisi prius, and before the day in bank, the baron died. Adjudged against husthat the action continued against the wife, and judgment was band and entered against her alone. Cro. J. 356. pl. 12. Mich. 12 Jac. wife, for evords spoken B. R. Rigley v. Lec. by the wife, after a verdict for the plaintiff it was moved, that the writ was abated by the death of the husband after the last continuance. The court doubted; but afterwards held that the suit is not abated by the husband's death, she being the only tortfeasor; but otherwise if she had died; and judgment accordingly. Hard. 151, 152. Pasch. 1659. in the exchequer, Brumrig v. Hanger.

*[ 196 ] 3 Bulft. 62. Quelch v. Carpenter, S. C. and upon the case of STANLEY v. Osbis-TON, Mich. 32 & 33 Eliz. bein court,

28. Case, &c. against husband and wife, for scandalous words spoken by the wife. The defendants pleaded that ipsi non funt culpabiles, and the jury found quod ipfi funt culpabiles. It was moved in arrest, that the husband was joined only for conformity, and therefore they ought not to have faid that ipsi sunt culpabiles, but that ipsa est culpabilis; and the verdict should have been so accordingly. But per Coke Ch. J. the plea of the hufband is void, and if so, the verdict is good against the wife; and judgment for the ing produced plaintiff. Roll. Rep. 216. pl. 11. Trin. 13 Jac. B. R. Carpenter v. Welch.

where judgment was given accordingly in B. R. on the S. P. and afterwards affirmed in the exchequer chambers the judgment given in C. B. in the principal case for the plaintiff, was now affirmed in B. R. Cro. C. 417. pl. 5. Needler v. Symnell, S. P. and the iffue that non funt inde culpabiles, held well enough; for the baron and feme are charged as for the wrong of the feme. ---- Jo. 366. pl. 4. Mich. 21 Car. B. R. the S. C. but S. P. does not appear. - But Brownl. 6. Hill. 1 Jac. Smailes va Belt, after verdict judgment was arrested, because the issue was quod ipsi non sunt culpabiles, and it ought to have been that the woman was not guilty. ---- S. C. cited accordingly, Hob. 126. at the end of pl. 156. - S. P. held accordingly in trover and conversion brought against baron and seme, for a conversion by the seme to her own use, and they pleaded the same plea. Cro. J. 5, 6. pl. 6. Pasch. I Jac. in the exchequer chamber, Coxe v. Cropwell. --- Noy 41. Cox v. Carpen, S. P. held acceptingly, and feems to be S. C. -------Cro. E. 883. pl. 18. Pafch. 44 Eliz. B R. Cox v. Crapnell. S. C. and S. P. held accordingly.

29. In ravisbment of ward against baron and feme, the baron Hob. 93. to 101.pl.127. was acquitted, and the feme was found guilty, and judgment was S. C.given against the baron and seme. Upon argument by all the a Brownl. justices Justices it was unanimously agreed, that that judgment against ba- 59.61. ron and seme, where the baron was acquitted, ought not to be 9 Rep. 71. against a seme covert by the stat. Westm. 2. cap. 35. Cro. J. 413. b. S. C.

pl. 2. Hill. 14 Jac. B. R. Huffey v. Moor.

30. In debt against husband and wife, upon a bond of the wife, the defendants plead that tempore confectionis, &c. fetting forth the day, she was covert baron, &c. The plaintiff confessed that it was so; but said that she made and sealed it in the morning of the same day in which she was married, and before the marriage; and upon a demurrer the plaintiff had judgment. 2 Roll. Rep. 431. Trin. 21 Jac. B. R. Jackson's case.

31. Case against husband and wife, for flanderous words spoken by the wife. The defendants pleaded quod ipsi non sunt inde culpabiles, and the jury found quod ipsi sunt culpabiles. It was moved in arrest of judgment, that it should have been quod ipsi [ipse] non est inde culpabilis. Sed non allocatur; for the husband is to pay the damages, and it may be either way, and the finding of the jury good. 2 Roll. Rep. 433. Trin. 21 Jac. B. R. Henborow

v. Pooracre.

32. In battery against A. and his wife, for a battery done by the wife. And the pleadings was, that the baron and feme came against baron and defended the force and wrong, &c. and the baron for his said wife says that she is not guilty; iffue was joined thereupon, and found for the plaintiff, and in arrest of judgment, it was awarded that the issue was ill joined, for the wife there pleads nothing, so there was nothing done at that time with the suit. Het. 10. Pasch. 3 Car. C. B. Ayliffe's case.

Covenant and feme as administratrix of Sir Geo. Smith and the busband alone pleads, it is a discontinuance.

Freem. Rep. 351. pl. 439. Mich. 1673. Aylworth v. Fenn.

33. In trover against husband and wife for certain goods, the plaintiff declared that they converted the goods ad commodum suum proprium. After verdict, it was moved that the declaration was not good, because * the joint conversion of goods during the coverture, shall be said the conversion of the baron and to his use; and judgment for the defendant. Jo. 264. pl. 3. Trin. 8 Car. otherwise, B. R. Bullen's cafe.

[ 197 ] S. P. but by 3 justices (absente Croke) if a feme acquires goods by gift or they are immediately the goods of the baron; yet there was an instant of time wherein, in priority, they were the goods of the feme, and a posteriori the property shall be divested out of her, and be vested in the husband; but they said they would confer with other judges; and afterwards it was adjudged by all the 4 justices for the plaintiff. Jo. 443. pl. 4. Mich. 15 Car. B. R. Hodges v. Sampson.

But ibid. in a note there at the end of the case, it seems that rule was given to stay the judgment.— Mar. 60. pl. 94. S. C. adjornatur. - Ibid. 82. pl. 134. Pasch. 17 Car. S. P. and seems to be 5. C. says that the jury found the seme not guilty; and the court held this ill plea [count] made good by the verdict.

In trover brought by C. against P. and his wife. The declaration was, that the goods were found by the baron and feme, and were converted ad usum suum, whereas it ought to be in the plural number, to wit, ad usum corum, or ad usum of P. and his wife; for as it was, it supposed the conversion to be made only by the husband, which is contrary to the action itself which is brought against both; wpon this judgment was stayed till the other should move. Sty. 18. Pasch. 23 Car. B. R. Clark v. Pew. ---- 12 Mod. 247. Mich. 10 W. 3. in case of Hyde v. S. . . Holt Ch. J. said, that though in declaration in trover against husband and wife laying the conversion ad usum ipsorum, judgment was arrefled; yet if it came in question again, it should not be so by his consent.

34. In trespass and affault against a seme she imparts, and afterwards pleads that at the time of the bill she was covert, and concludes VOL. IV. in in bar; per cur. this is only a plea in abatement, and a respondeas ouster was granted, nisi. Keb. 822. pl. 110. Mich. 16 Car. 2. B. R. Becke v. Cavalier.

35. In debt on obligation feme covert may be aided on non eft factum; per Wild J. which Rainsford agreed. 3 Keb. 228. pl. 40.

Trin: 25 Car. 2. B. R. Cole v. Delawn.

36. In affumpsit against the baron the plaintiff declared upon several promises for so many month's lodging for his wife at his request, and also for goods fold to himself. The defendant pleaded in bar, that long before the plaintiff had found lodging for his wife, she went from bim without his confent, and lived in adultery, &c. and that the plaintiff had notice of her departure, and yet he provided her lodging, and fold to her the wares and goods supposed in the declaration to be fold to the defendant, without any affent or notice of the defendant, and traversed that he promised modo et forma, prout, &c. And upon demurrer, the court, as to the special matter pleaded, gave no opinion, but seemed of opinion that this special matter would have been good evidence upon non-assumpsit pleaded; and that as to the lodging for the wife, the plea amounted to the general issue; but though it was a fault, yet it was cured by the dumurrer. But because he did not answer to the assumpsit laid for the goods sold to bimself, they were of opinion to give judgment for the plaintiff. The reporter adds a nota, that as this pleading is, the absque hoc amounted to no more than a protestation. 2 Vent. 155. Pasch. 2 W. and M. in C. B. Beaumont v. Welden.

In replevin, &c. the avotvant pleaded that be was seised of the tenements in fee in jure uxoris, and so avowed damage feasant. fays, nota, that this avowry is not well pleaded, for it ought to and feme

37. Trespass against husband and wife for a trespass done by the wife alone; they both plead not guilty as to part, and as to the rest, they plead in bar that the husband was seised in fee in right of his wife, and being so seised, he demised it to the plaintiff for a year, and so from year to year rendering rent, and for so much in arrear the wife entered and diftrained, et suit inde possessionat' usque, &c. It was objected that the pleading that the hufband was seised in his demesne as of fee in right of his wife was ill, for they are both seised in her right, Thereporter and so are all the precedents; and further, that the declaration charges the wife only to be the trespassor, and yet they both as to all the trespass præter, &c. have pleaded that they are not guilty, when it ought to be, quod ipfa is not guilty; and upon these exceptions the court gave judgment for the plaintiff clearly. be that baron 2 Lutw. 1421. 1425. Trin. 7 W. 3. Catlin v. Milner.

were seised in jure uxoris suze, and that so are all the precedents; but said that nothing was mentioned as to this matter. 2 Lutw. 1596. Hill. 9 W. 3. in case of Allen v. Baily.

38. Trespass against husband and wife; husband died, and sir [ 198 ] Francis Winnington moved in arrest of judgment; sed non allocatur; for wife may commit trespass along with busband. 12 Mod-246. Mich. 10 W. 3. Hyde v. S....

> 39. In an action brought against the baron upon several promises made by the feme before coverture. The defendant pleads in bar that be and the woman, supposed in the declaration to be his wife, were never jained in lawful matrimony. The plaintiff demurs, and upon joinder in demurrer it was infifted that the plea admits a marriage de Racto, which is sufficient to charge the husband with the wife's promises, and the loyalty of the marriage is not material. For the defendant it was said, that (never lawfully married) in common understanding is the same as (never married), and there are many precedents, where upon such plea issue has been joined to the country. But the court held clearly, that the plea was ill; for that in personal actions, the matter must be laid in the fact of the marriage, and not in the loyalty; and that though after iffue joined and a proper trial per pais, the plea of the loyalty of the marriage cannot be objected to in arrest of judgment, yet the plaintiff is not bound to join issue upon it, but may demur if he will; and there was judgment for the plaintiff. MSS. Rep. Trin. 11 Geo. 2. B. R. Norwood v. Stevenson.

(E. b) Damages and Costs. Where given for or against Baron and Feme both, or against one only.

The jury passed for them, by which they had two judgments; the one, that the baron should recover damages alone for himself, and the other, that the baron and feme should recover damages for him and the seme. Br. Baron and Feme, pl. 82. cites 12 R. 2. and Fitzh. Judgment, 108.

2. In affife by baron and feme the jury found for the plaintiffs, and Br. Joinder that the goods of the baron were carried away. It was awarded that in Action, baron and feme recover seisin of the land, and damages of issues; S. C.—Br. and that baron alone recover for the goods carried away. Br. Judgment, Damages, pl. 51. cites 11 H. 4. 16.

pl. 98. cites pl. 20. cites

Br. Baron and Feme, pl. 82. cites S. C.

3. If husband and wife join in a writ of conspiracy, they shall recover damages together, as well as in trespass committed upon the land, or against the person of the wife, where they join in an action and are plaintiffs; so where they are defendants, judgment shall be given against them both. Quæ cohærent personæ, a persona separari nequeunt. Jenk. 28. pl. 53.

4. In case by baron and seme, for words spoke of the seme. The judgment was that the baron and feme recover. It was affigued for error, that the baron only is to have the damages, and therefore that judgment should be that the baron '(only) should recover; but judgment was affirmed per tot. cur. Godb. 366. pl. 459.

Hill. 2 Car. B. R. Litfield v. Melherse.

5. Error of judgment in waste against the tenant for years 2 Mod. 61. brought by baron and feme of moiety being seised in reversion to them P. does not and bis heirs, because the damages are given to husband and wife, appear. which per curiam is ill, and should have been amended in C. B. before the writ of error allowed; but now it is too late, and judgment reversed, nisi. 3 Keb. 175. Trin. 25 Car. 2. B. R. Curtis v. Brown.

S. C. but S.

[ 199 ]

(F. b) Equity. Suits and Proceedings by and against them.

1. THE court compelled husband and wife to levy a fine. Toth.
156. cites 2 & 3 Eliz. Barty v. Herenden.

2. The court doth decree a report, wherein it was thought fit that the defendant should compel his wife, and another man's wife, being the other defendant, to levy a fine and join in assurance. Toth. 158. Pasch. 8 Jac. li. B. Rast v. Whittle & al'.

3. The court compelled the wife to levy a fine, and persect assurances. Toth. 157. cites Mich. Jac. Sands v. Tomlinson.

- 4. A settlement by the wife on the baron was by consent on a bill brought by the baron against the seme decreed, and there was no sine or recovery, or other legal act done to bind her, but the baron quitted some advantages he had on the wise's estate by sormer settlements, and gave her power to dispose of her real and personal estate by will; the wise died, and a long time after a bill of review was brought, but the court, assisted by judges, declared the decree good. 2 Ch. R. 46. 22 Car. 2. Earl of Castlehaven v. Underhill.
- 5. The wife's portion of 400l. was left in the hands of her brother, who gave a bond to the baron to pay the interest to the baron and bis seme during their lives, and after the death of the survivor of them, then to pay the principal to such child as they should appoint; if no child, then the survivor to have the disposal thereof; the baron was grown poor, and prayed to have 200l. to buy him an office for subsistence, and the wife being examined apart, and confenting, the same was decreed. Fin. R. 365. Trin. 30 Car. 2. Brudenell and Orm v. Price.
- 6. P. the defendant gave bond to A. for 2001. A. died, and left E. his daughter legatee and executrix. E. married D. the plaintiff, and E. and D. brought a bill against P. for the 2001. P. owned the bond, but said she had paid 501. in discharge of the said testator's debts, and thereupon had her bond delivered up to be cancelled, and the remaining 1501. was lent on a mortgage, and ready to be paid, with interest, as the court should direct, so as it may be preserved for the benefit of E. and not to be spent by her husband. The court ordered the said security to continue till the money be laid out, or otherwise secured for the wise, or till surther order made. Fin. Rep. 377. Trip. 30 Car. 2. Davy v. Pollard.
- 7. A feme, infant, on the death of her brother, without iffue, became intitled to the trust of lands in see of 4001. per ann. and P. married her without her sather's consent. The sather brought a bill against P. and his wife, and trustees, setting forth as aforesaid, and that P. intended, when his wife should come of age, to make her levy a fine, and sell the lands, and therefore prayed that a provision and settlement be made for her. The defendants demurred, because it appeared of the plaintiff's own shewing, that he had no right to the lands, either in law or equity, or any ways impowered to inspect the management of them. Ld. Chancellor allowed the dernurrer; but said, that if P. had been plaintiff, to have the trustees transfer the estate, or to ask any other * favour of the court, he could then make him do what was reasonable. Vern. 39. pl. 37. Pasch. 34 Car. 2. Micoe v. Fowell.

8. G. a man of mean fortune had married a woman who was one of two coparceners to 6001. per ann. The friends of the wife suggested lunacy, &c. but she was in court, and being thought senfible enough, the friends moved that the estate might be so settled, that she might not be wrought upon by her husband to give it him from her children by him or by any after-husband, which the court thought fit to order, and it was left to Mr. Pollexfen to see such a settlement made, and the court remembered the case of SIR EDWARD GRAVES. The settlement was to be to the husband and wife, and the longer liver of them, then to the iffue between them, &c. with a power, in case of failure of issue, for the wife to dispose, Skin. 110. pl. 1. Trin. 35 Car. 2. B. R. Grissith's case.

9. A husband, as administrator to his wife, obtained a decree against the trustees to raise her portion, but he being a younger brother, having made no settlement on her, and having a son by ber, the money was decreed to be raised, and put out for his benefit for life, then to the fon for life, and if he leave issue, then for such issue; but if he dies without issue, and the father survives, he to have it. Abr. Equ. Cases, 392. Pasch. 1700. Wytham v.

Crawthorn.

10. A. devised to B. his daughter, the wife of C. for her separate use, the surplus of his personal estate, and makes the wife, his daughter, executrix. Among other parts of the personal estate there was a mortgage from D. which C. her husband gave a + note under his band that she should enjoy, and take the benefit of. the note the husband, as to the mortgage and interest, has tied himself down. But Cowper C. thought, that, as to the surplus, it being devised to the wife, and not to trustees, when it comes to the wife it belongs to the husband, and what he has possessed by consent of the wife, there is to be no account for that, but reserved the consideration as to the surplus, whether it belongs to money. The the husband, or to the wife for her own separate use. 2 Vern. court will 659. pl. 585. Trin. 1710. Harvey v. Harvey.

† A man ítole a wo→ man, whose portion was in trustce's hands, who would not part with it but on focurity to make a settlement of lands to be purchased with the not set aside an agreement made by the husband to purchase and settle, though a bill was brought by a creditor of the busband by indgment for that purpose; for the court would not have decreed it to the husband, (had he brought a bill for the portion), without making some such settlement. Ch. Prec. 22. pl. 24. Pasch. 1091. Moor v. Rycault.

11. A. devised lands to his son and heir charged with his debts, and 25001. legacy to his daughter at 21 or marriage, provided, if she marries in her mother's life-time, without her consent in writing first s. C intot. had, then 500 l. part thereof, to cease, and be applied towards payment The daughter, after 21, marries unknown to her of debts. There was sufficient, without this 500l. to pay all the W. & M. in mother. debts. Ld. Keeper decreed the whole must be raised by sale of cancincate

Gilb. Equ. Rep. 26. Hill 9 Ann. dem verbis. ——Skin. 288. Hill. 2 of the Earl

Earon and Feme.

of Salisbury
v. Bennet,
S. P. by Ld.
commissioner Hutchins.

fo much as is necessary, unless the defendant, the son, will other-wise secure the payment; but that the money, when raised, must be brought before the master, till the plaintist, the husband, make some settlement on his wise, and for that purpose to bring his deeds before the master, to see what provision he can make for her. Chan. Prec. 348. pl. 256. Mich. 1712. King v. Wythers.

[201] (G. b) Where on a Bill by a Baron for the Wife's Portion the Court will decree a Settlement.

1. THE defendant sued in the ecclesiastical court for a portion due to his wife; this court ordered an injunction to stay proceedings there, till he should make a competent jointure. Toth.

179. cites 14 Car. Tanfield v. Davenport.

2. The wife, an infant, was intitled to 5001. portion, besides lands of inheritance. On a bill by baron and seme for the portion, decreed the baron to make settlement on her suitable to her portion in money, though the lands of inheritance will descend to her issue. Fin. R. 361, 362. Trin. 30 Car. 2. How & Ux. v. Godfrey and White.

3. When a baron sues here for his wife's fortune, the court will Rep. 1. S.C. oblige him to make a settlement on her by way of jointure, or to set show 232. fecure a maintenance to her in case she outlives the baron; per pl 275. Hill. Wright K. 2 Vern. 494. pl. 444. Pasch. 1705. in the case of 34& 35 Car. Oxenden v. Oxenden.

Anon. S. P. and adds, but if he comes not into chancery as a complainant, they will never force him to settle, as if he sues at law, &c. but this is to be at the prayer of the wise's friends and relations to secure part to the seme, and part to the children; but where baron and seme demand the execution of a trust of a real estate in equity, which was devised for the benefit of the seme, it must be decreed according to the will; but where the husband comes for a personal demand in right of his wise, the court may impose terms on him; per Cowper C. 2 Vern. 626. pl. 538. Mich. 1708. Lupton & Ux. v. Tempest & al'.——Bill by baron and seme for his wise's fortune which was decreed, but the Faren decreed not to meddle with the wise's portion till he bad made a suitable settlement on her children. Fin. Rep. 145. Mich. 26 Car. 2. Shipton & Ux. v. Hampson & al'.

Chan. Prec. 367.pl.258. S. C. but S. P. does not appear. Gilb. Equ. Rep. 31. S. C. but S. P. does not appear, and is in totidem verbis with Chan. Prec.

4. Bill to have a fatisfaction for their portions charged upon their father's lands by marriage settlement, and for a legacy given them by their father's will, &c. The case was, there was a trust term in a marriage settlement to raise portions for daughters, payable at their respective ages of 21, or day of marriage, with a provise, if such daughter or daughters should happen to die before their age of 21 or day of marriage, then such daughter or daughter's portion not to be raised, but the trust term to attend the freehold and inherit-The father gives by his will 5001. a-piece to his two daughters, the plaintiffs, payable in the same manner as their portions were to be paid by the said marriage settlement. Note, in this case one of the daughters married during her infancy, and it was ordered that her portion be raised, and brought before a master, there to remain until her husband should make a settlement suitable to her fortune; per Harcourt C. MS. Rep. Pasch, 12 Ann. in Cane. Greenhill v. Waldoe.

5. A feme fole took a mortgage in fee for 8001. and married. The master of the rolls held, that if the husband had sued in equity for the money, or had prayed that the mortgagor might be foreclosed, equity (probably) would not compel the mortgagor to pay the money to the husband without his making some provision for his wife, or at least upon her application to the court against the mortgagor and the husband, the court might prevent the payment of the money to the husband, unless some provision were made for her. Wms.'s Rep. 458, 459. Trin. 1718. Bosvil v. Brander.

6. A feme being intitled to 4000l. portion after her mother's death, 10 Mod. and for which no interest is payable in the mean time, and she 433. S. C. but S. P. having married a considerable tradesman, decreed, by consent of does not apthe feme, that baron might sell a moiety of the portion, or dispose of pear. it as he thought fit. 2 Vern. 762. pl. 662. Trin. 1718. Butler

v. Duncomb.

7. A. devised 1000l. to B. a seme sole, infant, payable after the death of the testator's wife, and at B.'s age of 20 years, if B. should so long live. B. at above 18 years, without her father's consent, married J. S. who soon after became bankrupt. commissioners assigned the estate of J. S. and after he had his certificate and discharge, without any assignment having been made of his wife's possibility or contingent right to ber portion. Afterwards the wife, by her next friend, brought a bill, setting forth how she was seduced into this marriage, and the husband's bankruptcy and discharge prayed that the money might be secured to her and her children, which the husband in his answer confessed, and submitted to; but prayed the arrears of interest, which was decreed him, deducting the costs, and the legacy ordered to be laid out in a purchase, and the wife in the mean time to have the interest for her separate use, &c. per Ld. C. Parker. Wms.'s Rep. 382. 386. Mich. 1718. Jacobson v. Williams.

8. If husband sues in the spiritual court for a legacy left to the wife, chancery will grant an injunction to stay proceedings there, because that court cannot, but this court will, oblige him to make an adequate settlement on her. Cited per Mr. Mead, as granted the last seal per Ld. Macclessield. Ch. Prec. 548. pl. 339. Mich.

-1720.

9. Portions were given to daughters, provided they marry with consent of their mother. They married without consent. this proviso is only in terrorem, and makes no forfeiture, yet upon the husband's applying to the court for payment of their portions, the master of the rolls ordered proposals to be made before the master as to the settling the money. Cases in Equ. in Ld. Talbot's Time, 212. Mich. 10 Geo. 2. Hervey v. Ashton.

10. Ld. C. King said, he thought it extraordinary that chancery should interpose against the husband, in cases where the law gives him a title to the wife's personal estate, and doubted it had done more harm than good, unless where the husband appeared profli-2 Wms.'s Rep. 642. Mich. 1731. in case gate or extravagant.

of Milner v. Colmer.

11. And therefore where A. pending an account for a great personal estate, married an infant intitled to a large share thereof, viz. 14000l, applied to the court for his wife's portion, and being fent to a master to make proposals as to what he would settle, and he offering to settle 4000l. part of the 14000l. portion, and to covenant that in case his elder brother, who had then no issue, and who probably would have no iffue by his then wife, who lived separate from him, should die without issue male in A.'s life-time, to settle 5001. a-year of the family estate of 1000 l. a-year upon her for a jointure; and alleging that he being in trade, and a freeman of the city of London, the custom of the city was alone a provision for her, Ld. C. King, after examination of the wife in court as to her confent, which she gave, and likewise her reasons for it, he recommended it to A. to add to his proposals, but A. answering that he could not conveniently do it, his lordship directed that the defendant entering into such covenant, should be paid the residue of the portion beyond the 4000/, which was to be invested in land, and settled as above. 2 Wms.'s Rep. (639) Mich. 1731. Milner v. Colmer.

The reporter adds, N. B. This was the personalty. —The same was observed by the Ld. Chancellor, that it was only of a personalty,

12. The lady Shovel devised 4000 l. in trust for the separate trust of a feme covert. The husband and wife brought a bill against the case only of a trustees to have the money paid them; and though she herself was in court, and confented that the money should be paid to her husband, yet the master of the rolls would not decree it, but dismissed the bill. Cited in the case of Penne v. Peacock, Mich. 1734. Cases in Equ. in Ld. Talbot's Time, 43. as the case of Blackwood v. Norris:

and somewhat particular. MS. Rep. in S. C.

(H. b) Equity. In what Cases Equity will order the Husband to inforce or procure the Feme to See (F, b) do an Act,

> 1. ORDERED, that the baron become bound in a recognizance that his wife shall release her right. Toth. 158. cites 4 & ς E. 6. Vaux v. Gleas.

> 2. The defendant's wife would not bring in evidences according to an order, wherefore the husband was bound that she should do it. Toth. 170. cites 4 Eliz. King's Coll. in Cambridge v. Ragland.

> 3. The court ordered a man to procure his wife to acknowledge a fine of mortgaged lands. Toth. 171. cites 3 & 4 Car. Griffin

v. Taylor.

The defendant by his answer admits the cowenant, and is ready to levy a fine kimself, but Jays bis wife refuses to join with bim, and be can-

4. Husband and wife did, upon a valuable consideration, by lease and release, convey the wife's land in fee, and covenanted that the wife should levy a fine of the same to the use of the purchaser. The plaintiff brought his bill to wife refused to levy a fine. have his title perfected by a specific performance of the covenant; and a precedent was cited where a specifick performance had been decreed in the like case; but the chancellor would not decree a specifick performance in this case, because upon such decree the husband could not compel his wife to levy a fine, and if the would not comply, imprisonment would fall upon the hus- not persuade band for contempt, which was the ill consequence of the decree in the said cited case. MS. Rep. Mich. 4 Geo. in canc. Otread C. it is a v. Round.

ber to do it. Per Cowper tender point to compei the husband by a decree to procure his wife to levy a fine, though there has been some precedents in this court for it; and it is a great breach upon the wisdom [of the law], which secures the wife's lands from being aliened by the hulband without her free and voluntary consent, to lay a necessity upon the wife to part with her lands, or otherwise to be the cause of her husband's laying in prison all his days; and said he did not think it proper in this case to decree a specifick performance of the covenant, but the defendant must refund the purchase-money paid to him with costs. In another MS. Rep. Mich. 4 Geo. in canc. Outram v. Round. S. C.

(I. b) Offences and Crimes done by the Feme, or her and Baron. What and how punishable.

1. TEME was arraigned of felony, and was covert baron, and It was prowould have confessed by command of the baron, and the court pounded to would not take it for pity, but charged the inquest, who said that she did it by coertion of her baron in spight of her teeth, by which she went quit; and it was said that the command of the baron, without other coertion, shall not make selony. The reason seems to be, inasmuch as the law intends that the feme, who is under the power of her baron, durst not contradict her baron. Br. Corone, pl. 108. cites 27 Aff. 40.

all the judges, il a mas and bis wife go both together to commit a burglary, and both of them break a brufe in the night, and steal goods, what offence this was in the wife? and agreed by all, that it was no felony in the wife; for the wife being together with the husband in the act, the law supposeth the wife doth it by coertion of the husband, and so it is in all larcenies; but as to murder, if husband and wife both join in it, they are both equally guilty. See Fitzh. Corone 160. 27 Aff. pl. 40. Fitzh. Corone 199. Poulton de Pace And the case of the Earl of Somerset and his Lady, both equally sound guilty of the murder of fir Thomas Overbury, by poisoning him in the Tower of London. Kel. 31. 16 Car. 2. Anon.

* The feme may commit felony, if it be not by coertion of the husband; per cur. 12 Mod. Mich. 10 W. 3. in the case of Hyde v. S....

[ 204 ]

2. A feme covert commits felony. Appeal shall be brought against her without her husband, because it concerns life; but otherwise where it does not concern life, as if she commits trespass. Jenk. 28. pl. 53.

2. The husband shall not answer for damages given in a criminal matter, as in an information for suppressing a will; though for civil offences it is otherwise, as battery, slander, or assumptit by feme covert. Noy 103, 104. Trin. 12 Jac. Brereton v. Towniend.

4. Where debt was brought against the husband and wife for the recusancy of the wife, the husband would have appeared by supersedeas alone; but the court resolved, that either both must appear, or both be outlawed. Hob. 179. pl. 209. Loveden's çaic.

5. At the sessions at the Old Bailey the 7th of December 1664, one Jane Jones, together with one Thomas Wharton, were indicted for burglary, and the pleaded berself to be married to Wharton, on purpose to be excused, being with her husband at the burglary; and the refused to plead by the name of Jones, and thereupon we called for the jury, which found the indictment, and in their presence, and by their consent, we made the indictment as to her name to be Jane Wharton, alias Jones; but we did not call bes Jane Wharton, the wife of Thomas Wharton, but gave ber the addition of spinster, and then she pleaded to it; and the court told her, that if upon her trial she could prove she was married to Wharton before the burglary committed, she should have the advantage of it; but on trial she could not prove it, and so was found guilty, and judgment given upon her. Kel. 37.

2 Keb. 468. pl. 56. Hill 20 & 21 Car. 2. S. seemed of opinion, that the huiband should be joined; sed adjornatur. ---Ibid.

fined 15s. the value, &c.

6. A feme covert was indicted alone for buying and ingrossing fift, contrary to the statute, and found guilty; and it was moved to quash the indictment, because a married woman cannot make a contract C. the court without her husband, and that he ought to be joined in this indictment; for if any profit arises by buying and ingrossing, it accrues to the husband; it is true, for greater offences, as felony, &c. she may be indicted alone; but whether she might in this case, the court gave no judgment. Sid. 410. pl. 5. Pasch. 19 Car. 2. B. R. The King v. Fenner.

470. pl. 15. Pasch. 21 Car. 2. S. C. the court said, that the wife may as well ingross and sell, as convert or eject, which must be actually proved against her; but in this case she was indicted by the name of F. Spinster, alias dict' the wife of such an one; the court agreed, that the addition is never put in the alias dict, but all conceived, that after verdict she may be intended a single woman, the alias dict' being usual, and does not necessarily imply that she was a wife, but so called, and judgment pro rege, nisi. ____ lbid. 503. pl. 69. S. C. The court held, that the alias dict' is nothing, and the verdict has found her guilty, which they could not do, were she a seme covert; and jud ment pro rege, and after she was > 7. Where the husband and wife use the same trade, as selling of ale, &c. she does it as servant, and he alone shall be indicted. 2 Keb. 583. pl. 122. Mich. 21 Car. 2. B. R. Moreton v. Packman.

> 8. Husband and wife may be found guilty of nuisance, battery, &c. and the reason why in burglary, larceny, &c. she is excused, is, because she could not tell what property the husband might claim in the goods. Arg. 10 Mod. 63. Mich. 10 Ann. B. R. in case of the Queen v. Williams.

7 Salk. 384. pl. 35. S. C. resolved accordingly.— 10 Mod. 335. S. C. cited per cur. that the indictment was held good. ——— 10 Mod. 63. cites Hill. 2 Ann. Cook's CASE, S. P. and that the husband was fined. and the wife fet in the pillory.

9. Husband and wife were indicted for keeping a bawdy-house and procuring lewdness. The court held the indictment good, and faid, that keeping the house does not necessarily import property, but may signify that share of government which the wife has in a family as well as the husband. 10 Mod. 63. Mich. 10 Ann. B. R. The Queen v. Williams.

10. Husband and wife were indicted for keeping a common [ 205 ] gaming-house, and held good, and compared it to the case of the QUEEN v. WILLIAMS; for as there the wife may be concerned in acts of bawdry, so here she may be active in promoting gaming, and furnishing the guests with all conveniences for the purpose, 10 Mod. 335. Trin. 2 Geo. 1. B. R. The King v. Dixon.

(K. b) What the Wife shall have in Case of a Divorce.

I. IF a man gives in tail to baron and feme, and they have iffue, and after divorce is sued, now they have only franktenement, and the issue shall not inherit; for it was once possible that their had causa issue might inherit. Br. Taile and Dones, &c. pl. 9. cites 7 H. pracontrac-4. 16. per Thirn. J.

And where in fuch cafe divorce was tus of the fime, they shall hold jointly for their lives, and furvivor shall hold all, and therefore it seems it is only a jointenancy for life, and the inheritance is gone. Br. Deraignment, &c. pl. 15. cites 13 E. 3.

2. If a man is bound to a feme sole, and after marries her, and Br. Deraignafter they are divorced, the obligation is revived. Br. Coverture, cites S. C. pl. 82. cites 26 H. 8. 7. per Fitzherbert and Norwich J.

ment, pl. 1. and the may have action again, though it was once suspended. But Brooke says, quære inde. _____S. C. cited and agreed by Holt Ch. J. because the divorce being a vinculo matrimonis, by reason of some prior impediment, as przecontract, &c. makes them never husband and wife ab initio; but if the husband had made a feeffment in fee of the lands of his wife, and then the divorce had been, that would have been a discontinuance as well as if the husband had died, because there the interest of a third person had been concerned, but between the parties themselves it will have relation to destroy the husband's title to the goods, and it proves no more than the common rule, viz. that relation will make a nullity between the parties themselves, but not amongst strangers. Ld. Raym. Rep. 521. Hill. 11 W. 3.

3. The feme, after divorce, shall re-have the goods which she had But if he before marriage. Br. Coverture, pl. 82. cites 26 H. 8. 7. by Fitz- bad given or herbert and Norwich.

without collufion before

the divorce there is no remedy; but if by collusion she may awer the collusion, and have detinue of the whole, whereof the property may be known, and as for the rest which consists of money, &c. she shall fue • in the spiritual law. Br. Deraignment and Divorce, pl. 1. cites 26 H. 8. 7. — Br. Extinguishment, pl. 1. cites S. C. * S. P. and prohibition does not lie. Br. Deraignment, pl. 17. cites F. N. B. tit. Prohibition. But Brooke adds a quære, if the property had been altered by fale or otherwise before the suit commenced.

4. If land be given in frank-marriage, and donees are divorced, which of them first moves for the divorce shall lose the land; per Shelly. But by Fitzherbert, the land shall be divided between them, the land, cited D. 13. pl. 62. Trin. 28 H, 8.

+[206] Per Keble, the wife shall have because it was given in advancement of her. Kelw. 104. b. pl. 12. Casus incerti temporis. ——The divorce was at the fuit of the feme, and the baron continued always in possession, and died, and after the wife died, and the feme was adjudged always in possession, because there never was any debate [or contest] by her [about the same]. Br. Deraignment and Divorce, pl. 7. cites 12 Ass. 22. ——The Year-book of this case is, that the land was given in frank-marriage by the father of the wife, and that they had issue, and that it was adjudged for the issue against the cousins and heirs of the baron; and that no debate happening between the baron and feme about the tenements, she was adjudged to be always tenant of the franktenement; whereas had any debate been, then the baron had been diffeifor, and the freehold had descended to his heirs, of which they would not have been oustable by any.

And where in affile it was found that the father of the feme gave the tenements to the feme and her haron in frank-marriage, when they were infra annos nubiles, and at their full age the baron at bis fuit was divorced by the gree of the feme, and after he held himself in of the rupole, and ousted the seme, and + she brought aifife, and because she was the cause of the gift, which was determined by the act and suit of the baron, therefore the feme recovered the whole. Br. Deraignment and Divorce, pl. 8. cites 19 Aff. 2.

-Br. Assise, pl. 407. cites Pasch. 19 E. 3. and Fitzh. Assise, 83. S. P. So where land was given to the baron and feme in tail, remainder to the right heirs of the baron, and a divorce was had at the suit of the baron, who held out the feme, and she brought affise, and recovered the whole, because the divorce was at the suit of the baron. Br. Deraignment, &c. pl. 16. cites 8 E. 1. and Fitzh. Affise, pl. 415. and 83. Pasch, 19 E, 3. Br. Assise, pl. 437. cites 8 E. 3. and Fitzh. Asise, pl. 415. S. P.

5. If

Baron and Peme.

5. If the baron and feme purchase jointly and are disseled, and the baron releases, and after they are divorced, the seme shall have the moiety, though before the divorce there were no moieties; for the divorce converts it into moieties. Br. Deraignment, pl. 18. cites 32 H. 8.

If after such alienation and divorce the baron dies, she is put to her

6. If baron alien the wife's land, and then is a divorce præcontractus, or any other divorce which dissolves the marriage a vinculo matrimonii, the wife during the life of baron may enter by statute 32 H. 8. 28. D. 13. pl. 61. Marg. cites 8 Rep. 73.

cui in vita ante divortium, and yet the words of the statute are, that such alienation shall be void, but this shall be intended to toll the cui in vita. Mo. 58. pl. 164. Pasch. 8 Eliz. Broughton v. Gonway.

7. Obligor or obligee marry with the party, and after are divorced causa præcontractus, the debt is extinct. D. 140. pl. 39. Hill. 3 & 4 P. & M.

All the justices held before marriage, and are not spent. D. 13. pl. 63. by Fitzher-bookswhich bert, and says, that so was the opinion of the court about the 26 say that the H. 8. Kelw. 122. b. pl. 75.

have her goods again after divorce, are to be intended of an absolute divorce ab initio. Cro. E. 908. pl. 19. Mich. 44 & 45 Eliz. B. R. Stevens v. Totty.

If the bushand aliens or sells his wife's goods by cowin, and after they are divorced, the wife may aver the covin and shall re-have her goods; per cur. Br. Collusion, &c. pl. 2. cites 26 H. 8. 7.

9. Divorce causa adulterii of the husband; afterwards the wise by the civibians Poplians Poplians Poplians Poplians faid, that a confultation of the baron; the release binds the wise, for the vinculum that a confultation of the husband; afterwards the wise wise adulterii of the husband; afterwards the wise fultation of the husband; afterwards the wise full husband; af thall be granted, (so they in the spiritual court admit that plea), and Dr. Crompton said, that then it is clear, that the wife there shall recover. Noy 45. Stephens v. Tutty & Ux. S. C.——1 Salk. 115.

pl. 4.———Mo. 665. pl. 910. S. C. says, that consultation was awarded, but so as that the eccleshaftical judge should not disallow the release.

For here the legacy is originally due to the baron and seme, and it is a real interest, and for that reason the release of the baron will discharge it. See Prohibition (Q) pl. 11. cites 44 El. B. R. Stephens v. Tott.

10. Husband may release costs adjudged to the wife suing in the 5 Mcd. 71. S.C.accordspiritual court, notwithstanding a divorce a mensa et thoro; but if 12 Mod. 89. fuch divorce be, and the wife has alimony, and she sues there for Chamberdefamation, &c. the husband cannot then release the costs; for bin v. Huctthese costs come * in lieu of what she has spent out of her alimofon, S. C. accordingly, ny, which is a separate maintenance, and not in the power of 1 Salk. 115. Hill. 7 W. 3. B. R. Chamberlain v. and fays that the husband. the reason Hewson. of Motam's * Prohibition (Q) pl. 1. cites 14 Ja. B. Motam v. Motam.

17. A divorce was a mensa & thoro, and then the husband dies intestate. The wife by bill prayed assistance as to dower and administration, (it being granted to another,) and distribution. The master master of the rolls bid her go to law to try if she was intitled to her dower, there being no impediment, and as to that dismissed the bill; and as to the administration, the granting that is in the ecclesiastical court; but the distribution more properly belongs to this court; but fince in that court she is such a wife as is not infitled to administration, he dismissed the bill as to distribution too, and faid if they could repeal that sentence, she then would be intitled to distribution. Ch. Prec. 111. pl. 99. Pasch. 1700. Shute v. Shute.

(L. b) What Alteration a Divorce makes in the Estate.

1. I AND was given to baron and feme in frank-marriage, and Br. De. after a divorce was had between them at the suit of the raignment, feme, and yet it was said that the seme remained tenant always. S. C.

Br. Estate, pl. 55. cites 12 Ass. 22.

2. Things executed, where baron is seised in right of the wife, Thall not be avoided by divorce, as waste, receipt of rent, seisor of ward, presentment to a benefice, gift of goods, of the wife, &c. But otherwise it is in matter of inheritance, as if baron discontinues or charges land of his wife, releases or manumits villeins, &c. Br. Deraignment, &c. pl. 18. cites 32 H. 8.

3. Feme sole leases for years; lessee does waste, and after marries the feme. They are divorced. Whether the action of waste shall revive to the feme? Kelw. 122. b. pl. 75. Anon. Casus incerti temporis.

4. If feme holds of me, and ceases, and after I marry her, upon a divorce the action is revived. Arg. Kelw. 122. b. pl. 75. Casus incerti temporis.

5. After a divorce a mensa & thoro, an injunction was moved for to stop the husband from selling a term of the wife's. The court at first thought it should not be granted; for that the marriage continued, and the husband had the same power over it as before the divorce. But upon the importunity of the plaintiff's counsel it was granted; for though the marriage continues notwithstanding the divorce, yet the husband does nothing as husband, nor the wife as wife. 9 Mod. 43, 44. Trin. 9 Geo. Anon.

(M. b) Actions by or against the Baron and Feme after Divorce. In respect of the Feme.

1. TI seems that writ brought against baron and seme shall abate by divorce made between them pending the writ. Thel. Dig. 185. lib. 12. cap. 13. s. 1. cites Pasch. 6 E. 3. 249. and that so it is held Pasch. 25 E. 3. 39.

2. Trespass

Baron and Feme.

2. Trespass de muliere abducta, and ravished, cum bonis viri asportatis, against baron and seme and others, and well against the seme; for a seme may assent and aid to the ravishment of another seme, and may carry away the goods; and there it is agreed, that it is no plea that the * plaintiff and his seme are divorced; for he is not to recover the seme, but damages; and if she was seme at the time, &c. this is sufficient. Br. Trespass, pl. 43. cites 43 E. 3. 23.

S. P. Br. Rape, pl. 3. cites 43 E. 3. 23.

3. N. K. brought trespass against R. and his seme, and two others, in B. R. of ravishing his seme and carrying away his goods, and all came into B. R. by capias in ward of the sherist, and the plaintist counted of a rape of his seme, and carrying away his goods, and protection was shewed forth for R. which was allowed for him and his seme, and the other demanded judgment of the writ, because N. and the seme are divorced. Per Knivet J. if the seme was dead, yet action lies of the ravishment, and the same of divorce; for he shall not recover the seme, but damages; and it was said that the divorce was causa frigiditatis; and per Knivet, then he may recover his nature, and act as a man, and re-have his seme, therefore answer. Kirton said, the action is brought against R. and his seme, and seme cannot ravish a seme; judgment of the writ, & non allocatur; for she may assent, or he aiding, or carry away the goods, by which he pleaded not guilty. Br. Rape, pl. 2. cites † 44 Ass. 12.

† This is misprinted, and should be 44 Ass. pl. 13.

For more of Baron and Feme in general, see Abatement (N.a). Amercements (M) (C. a) (D. a). Appeal (A). Copyhold. Colls (A), pl. 1. Danages (E). Default (O). Emblements. Error (K). Evidence. Erecution (P) (Q. 3) (R) (T). Erecutor. Feme (A) (B). Fines (T) (B. b) (C. b), &c. Harriage. Pe unques Accouple. Rent (C. a). Restrict (I) (L) (M. 2), &c. Reservation (N). Estlawry (B. a). Whate (R) (Y) (Z), &c. and other proper titles.

Fol. 355.

Warretors.

- (A) Of Barretors in general, and their Punishment.
- [1. E DW. 3. cap. 15. [16] conservators of the peace, who are not barretors, shall be assigned in every county.]

[2. 34

12. 34 Ed. 3. cap. 1: justices of peace shall have power to re- A justice of firain the offenders, rioters, and all other barretors. peace may airest any. cap. 7.] common barretor, and put him in ward till he finds security for his good behaviour for the suture, &c. by this statute. Kelw.

41. in pl. 6. per Keble, and agreed by the court. Mich. 7 H. 7. Anon.

Justices of peace have authority to enquire and hear it, without any special commission of over and terminer, and their commissions are equal to that purpose. Cro. J. 32. pl. 4. Trin. 2 Jac. B. R. Barnes v. Constantine. ——Yelv. 46. S. C. & S. P. held accordingly. ——Sid. 334. pl. 20. Paich. 19 Car. 2. B. R. the S. P. admitted in case of the King v. Browne. --- 2 Keb. 212. pl. 49. and 226. pl. 81. S. C. & S. P. admitted.

Barretry is an offence of a mixed nature, of which justices of peace cannot hold plea by virtue of their. commission of the peace; but this ought to be by another power. 2 Roll. Rep. 151. Hill. 17 Jac. B. R. Anon.——Hawk. Pl. C. 244. cap. 81. S. cites S. C. says it seems, from the words of the statute, that justices of peace (as such) have cognizance of barretry without any other commis-

Son; but quære.

3. A. acquitted of being a common barretor, threatening the [ 209 ]. witnesses to carry them into the star-chamber, and appearing to the court to be a notable knave, was bound to his good behaviour. Lat. 5. Pasch. 1 Car. Toplin's case.

4. Common barretry is an offence against divers statutes, viz. maintenance, and the like; per cur. Cro. C. 340. pl. 4. Hill.

9 Car. B. R. Chapman's case.

(A. 2) Who shall be said a Barretor.

[1. IF a man prosecutes an infinite number of suits, which are his Hawk. Pl. own proper suits against others, yet he shall not be a barretor by this; for if they are false, the defendants shall have costs against him; and if such person shall be a barretor, then he that sues for cause may be comprehended; but he that stirs up suits among his neighbours is a barretor. Mich. 11 Jac. B. R. Some's case, groundless per cur.

C. 243, cap. Sr. f. 3. S. P. but lays that if fuch actions be merely and vexatious, without any manner of colour, and brought only with a defign to oppress the defendants, he does not see why a man may not as properly be called a barretor for bringing such actions himself, as for stirring up others to bring them.

2. A barretor is a common mover and exciter or maintainer of 8 Rep. 36. suits, quarrels, or parts either in courts or elsewhere in the country. b. Pasch. Eliz. the In courts, as in courts of record, or not of record, as in the coun- case of barty, hundred, or other inferior courts in the country, in 3 manners. retry, S. P. Ist, In the disturbance of the peace. 2dly, In taking or keeping of possessions of lands in controversy, not only by force, but also by subtility and a deceit, and most commonly in suppression of truth and right. 3dly, By false inventions, and sorving of calumniations, rumours and reports, rubereby discord and disquiet may grow between neighbours. Co. Litt. 386. a. b.

3. A feme covert was indicted as a common barretor, but the Hawk. Pl. indictraient was quashed. 2 Roll. Rep. 39 Trin. 16 Jac. B. R. Anon.

C. 243. cap. 81. f.6. cites S. C. and favs it scems where been holden, that a feme covert cannot be indicted as a common barretor, but this opinion feems justly questionable; for finct a feme covert is as capable of exciting quarrels, in the frequent sea petition whereof the notion of barretry seems to consist, as if the were sole, why should she not as peoperly be indicted for it?

> 4. Common barretor is as much, as Twisden J. said he had heard judges say, as common knave, which contains all knavery. Mod.

288. pl. 34. Trin. 29 Car. 2. B. R.

5. A man may lay out money in behalf of another in suits of law to recover a just right, and this may be done in respect of the poverty of the party; but if he lends money to promote and stir up suits, then he is a barretor. 3 Mod. 98. Hill. 1 Jac. 2. B. R. Anon.

6. If an action be first brought, and then another prosecutes it, he Hawk. Pl. C. 243. cap. is no barretor, though there is no cause of action. 3 Mod. 98. 81 f.4. cites S.C. and fays Hill. I Jac. 2. B. R. Anon.

(B) Pleadings and Proceedings.

1. A N indictment was contra formam statuti, to which it was excepted that there is no statute that makes this an of-Hawk. Pl. C 244. cap. 81. f. 10. fence, but it was an offence at common law, and the statute of 34 E. Lays, that it 2. 1. doth not * make this an offence, but appoints a punishment; icems to be certain that but it was held good, for there are many precedents. Cro. E. 148. an indictment of bat- pl. 14. Mich. 31 & 32 Eliz. B. R. Burton's case.

tery, concluding contra formam statuti, is good, though no statute be made directly against it, but only for the punishment of it, supposing it an offence at common law.

† No certain place méed be expreffed, for It must be intended in several pla-

210

itleems lo.

2. A. was indicted, that at fuch a day, and divers days before and after he was a common barretor and perturbator pacis, but shewed no place where nor cause for which he is a common barretor; but per cur. it is good, and the trial shall be de corpore comitatus, for it is in every place. Cro. E. 195. pl. 11. Mich. 32 & 33 Eliz. B. R. Parcell's case. ces. Cro. J.

527. pl. 4. Pasch. 17 Jac. B. R. Palfry's case. - As to no place being alledged. Doderidge J. said, that if he is a barretor in one place, he is so in all places; but the indictment being per quod, he did stir up jurgia contentions, and no place alledged where he did stir them up, it was said that in such case the place was very material, and for that reason it was quashed. Godb. 383. pl. 471. Pasch. 3 Car. B. R. Man's case. — Palm. 450. S. C. the indictment was quashed, because no place was alledged where he was a barretor, nor where he stirred up suits; yet at sirst Doderidge said it was good, because a barretor is one that stirs up suits between his neighbours, and if he is a barretor in one place, he is so throughout the whole county; but here if it be traversed, no venire sacias can be awarded, and therefore it was quashed, ——Lat. 194. S. C. in totidem verbis with Palm. ——An indictment of barretry charged the defendant for the multiplicity of his own fuits at fuch a place, and for raising of others to suits. Exception was taken to the indicament that no place was alledged; but Coke Ch. J. held it well enough, because the word (et) couples all together, and therefore it shall be intended to be at the same place. Roll. Rep. 295. pl. 12. Hill. 13 Jac. B. R. The King v. Wells. ____ 2 Keb. 409. pl. 33. Mich. 20 Car. 2. B. R. The King v. Clayton, S. P. held good without saying where. - Hawk. Pl. C. 244. cap. 81. s. says it has been holden, that an indictment of this kind may be good without alledging the offence at any certain place, because from the nature of the thing confisting in the repetition of several acts, it must be intended to have happened in several places, for which cause it is said that a trial ought to be by a jury from the body of the county.——But it had been resolved, that such an indicament is not good without concluding contra pacem, &c. for this is an essential part of it. Hawk. Pl. C. 244. cap. 81. s. 12.-B Hawk. Pl. C. 227. cap. 25. s. 61. S. P.

3. An

3. An indicament of barretry at the sessions of the peace, may be tried the fame day of the indictment found. Judged and affirmed in error. The barretor was fined 401. and imprisoned. Jenk.

317. pl. 9.

4. Indicament for barretry omitted the words contra pacem do- Indiament mini regis, vel contra formam statuti. Exception was taken for these causes, and it was held to be insufficient, it being an essential part of the indictment; and therefore was reversed. Cro. J. 527. pl. 4. Pasch. 17 Jac. B. R. Palfrey's case.

Cro. J. 404. pl. 2. Trin. 14 Jac B.R. Rice v. Regem.

was, that he Was a common barretor, contra formam di-Versorum fatutorum. Exception was taken that it was not good, because it is an offence at common law, and there is not any statute to punish it, sed non allocatur; for so is the common course of indictments. Besides common barretry is an offence against divers statutes, viz. maintenance, and the like. Cro. C. 340. pl. 4. Hill. 9 Car. B. R. Chapman's cale.——Barretry was an offence at common law, yet it is good to conclude contra formam diverforum statuturum; per cur. obiter. 12 Mod. 99. Trin. 8 W. 3. in case of the King v. Bracy.

5. An attorney, upon barretry being proved against him by divers effidavits read in court, had judgment to be put out of the roll of attornies, and be fined 501. and turned over the bar, and stand committed. Sty. 483. Trin. 1655. B. R. Alwin's case.

6. An indictment of barretry was brought into this court and filed. Sid. 108. pl. Upon a motion for a procedendo, Twisden J. said that it could not King " be; for a record filed here cannot be removed without an act of ton, s. c. parliament. But by the opinion of Foster and Windham, a pro- says the cedendo was granted. Quære de ceo. Lev. 23. Hill. 14 & 15 Car. 2. B. R. Upham's case.

King v.Up. clerk of the crown informed the court that it was filed, and therefore could not be remanded; but because it appeared to the court to be done by practice, and the offence to be great, they awarded a procedendo contrary to the opinion of Twisden, and likewife to the course of the court. ———Keb. 470. pl. 80. S. C. says it was filed the same day that The certierari was returned, which the court conceived an irregular furprise, notwithstanding the bar, and the clerks affirmed that after filing none could issue.

7. Error assigned to reverse a judgment in an indictment for Keb. 755. barretry, was because it is that he shall be fined 1001. and be of fave the exthe good behaviour, without saying how long, and so uncertain; but ulterius orthe record was that he should be fined. Et ulterius ordinatum est est, that he shall be of the good behaviour; and therefore the court held that the good behaviour, as it is here entered, is no part of the judgment; but they seemed to doubt if it had been part of the entered in apt words, whether such uncertainty would not have hurt the judgment. Sid. 214. pl. 14. Trin. 16 Car. 2. B. R The King v. Rayner.

[ 211 ] fays the et enough, it being no judgment. but the compleat without it s and judgment affirmed.

8. U. was indicted at the affises of common barretry, which being removed into B. R. by certiorari, he appeared and pleaded not guilty, & de hoc ponit se super patriam, & Thomas Fanshaw Miles, coronator & attorn' domini regis, &c. and found guilty de premissis in indictamento infra specificato interius ei imposit modo & forma prout pred T. F. interius versus eum quer'. It was moved in arrest, that the verdict was insufficient, because the defendant is not found guilty generally, but only that he is guilty modo & forma prout prad' T. F. versus eum queritur, whereas in fact the said Sir T. F. bad Vol. ľV.

not complained against the defendant; for this was not an information exhibited in this court by the said Sir T. F. but an indictment in the country; and the said Sir T. F. did only join issue for the king, which, if the indictment had remained in the country, the clerk of the affifes ought to have done, and this fault was not aided by any statute of jeofails, because this case was excepted out of all the statutes of jeofails, and thereupon cur. advisare voluit; but afterwards the court over-ruled the exception, and adjudged the verdict sufficient, because the words modo & forma, &c. was mere surplusage; for the defendant is found guiky de premissis in indict' infra specificato interius ei imposit', which is a compleat verdict of itself without saying more, and the subsequent words are merely a void furplufage; wherefore judgment was given against the defendant. But because it seemed to the court to be a malicious profecution, which had been for a long time, viz. 7 years, a small fine was set on the defendant. 2 Saund. 308. pl. 52. Trin. 17 Car. 2. The King v. Urlyn.

2 Kcb. 42. pl. 84. S. C. ——The words (communis barrectator) in ancient indictments were material to be inferted where they were of barretry. 8 Rep. 30 Eliz.

9. H. was indicted at the sessions, and judgment was there given against him that he was a promoter of suits, and a common oppressor of bis neighbours, and was fined 2001. The justices all agreed that the indicament was not good without the word (barretor); and their great reason was because all the precedents are so, and therefore the judgment was reversed; but they said, that the finding him to be a common oppressor of his neighbours, had been good evidence to find him guilty of barretry; and therefore they bound H. to his good behaviour, and willed that the country indict him again with the word (barrectator). Sid. 282. 37.b. Paich. pl. 13. Pafch. 18 Car. 2. B. R. The King v. Hardwicke.

The case of barretry. ——— Communis barrectator is a term which the law takes notice of, and underftands; per Twisden J. Mod. 288. pl. 34. Trin. 29 Car. 2. B. R. ........ Hawk. Pl. C. 244. sap. 81. 1. 9. lays it seems clear that no general indicament of this kind, charging the desendant with being a common oppressor and disturber of the peace, stirrer up of strife among neighbours, is good, without adding the words communis barrectator, which is a term of art appropriated by the law to this

No general charge is allowable in any case but barretry, which in its nature must consist of an heap and multitude of particulars; per Holt Ch. J. and 6 other judges. 2 Salk. 681. pl. 2. Paschi Ann. B. R. Dalt. Just. 72. [published in 1742] says it was ruled, that where the defendant was indicted, that he was quotidianus perturbator pacis, the indictment was held good. Hill. 8 W. 3. The King v. Gregory. ——A common deceiver is too general, and so is communis oppressor, perturbator, &c. and so of all others (except barretor and scold) without adding of particular instances; per cur. 6 Mod. 311. Mich. 3 Ann. B. R. in case of the Queen v. Hannon.

[212] 2 Keb. 292. pl. 75 S. C. fays the judgment was reversed.

10. N. was indictable barretry, and found guilty, and bad but judgment. Afterward brought writ of error, and affigned, among other things, that it was tried by the justices of over and terminer at the next assiss, which could not be but it ought to be before justices of gaol-delivery. The court were of opinion, that judgment should be reversed for those errors; but the parties agreed to try it again at the bar the next term. Sid. 348, 349. pl. 15. Mich. 19 Car. 2. B. R. The King v. Nurse.

• 2 Hawk. 11. Exception to indictment of barretry was, because it is only Pl. C. 227. laid, ad sessionem pacis tent' coram justiciariis pro le West-riding in cap.25 s.61. Yorksbire, tent per adjornamentum, and does not say it was actually 8. P. & cites adjourned, coljourned, nor before what justice; sed non allocatur; for the first justices goes to all, and it was said ad commune nocumentum diversorum, and does not fay * omnium, as in case of a highway. Sed non allocatur; for it is sufficient, as in case of indictment for a common scold; and judgment pro rege. 2 Keb. 409, 410. pl. 33. Mich. 20 Car. 2. B. R. The King v. Clayton.

12. In an information for barretry, it was said that the defendant flood upon his protection; but per cur. there is no protection in case of breach of the peace, nor against a rule of B. R. Freem.

Rep. 359. pl. 458. Mich. 1673. Anon.

Lever.

13. One convicted of barretry produced a pardon of all treasons, &c. and all penalties, forfeitures, and offences. The court said, that the words (all offences) will pardon all that is not capital.

Mod. 102. pl. 7. Mich. 25 Car. 2. B. R. Angel's case.

14. On indicament for barretry the evidence was, that one G. was arrested at the suit of C. for 40001. and brought before a judge to give bail, and that the defendant, a barrifter at law, then prefent, did solicit this suit, when, in truth, at the same time C. was indebted to G. in 2001. and that he did not owe the said C. one farthing. The Ch. J. was first of opinion that this might be maintenance, but that it was not barretry, unless it appeared that the defendant did know that C. had no cause of action after it was brought. If a man should be arrested for a trisling, or for no cause, this is no barretry, though it is a fign of a very ill christian, it being against the express word of God; but a man may arrest another, thinking he hath a just cause so to do, when as in truth he hath none; for he may be mistaken, especially where there hath been great dealings between the parties. But if the design was not to recover his own right, but only to ruin and oppress his neighbour, that is barretry. Now it appearing upon the evidence, that the defendant entertained C. in his house, and brought several actions in his name where nothing was due, that he was therefore guilty of that crime. 3 Mod. 97, 98. Hill. I Jac. 2. B. R. The King v. ....

15. Judgment on indictment of barretry was reversed on error; and held per cur. on motion, that no writ of restitution lies to a firanger to the record; and by Ch. J. Holt, if it did, it must be by scire facias. Show. 261. Trin. 3 W. & M. The King v.

2 Salk. 287. pl. 1. S. C. the party was fined 100 l. and levied by the sheriff, and by him paid into the hands of the collectors. Holt Ch. J. held, that a writ of restitution lay not to the collectors, because not parties to the record; and he also doubted whether a special sci. fa. and so make them parties, would be sufficient.

16. In an indicament of barretry the desendant must have a In indicanote of the particulars, that he may know how they intend to charge him; otherwise the court will not proceed to trial. 5 Mod. the indict-18. Hill. 6 W. & M. in B. R. The King v. Grove.

+ 213 ] ments of barretry, ment is general, because it confifts of multiplicity of facts; but the court in justice will compel the prosecutor to assign some particular instances, and if he proves them, he shall be admitted to prove as many more of them as he pleases to aggravate the fine; per Gould J. Ld. Raym. Rep. 490. Trin. 11 W. 3. obiter.

† H. was indicted for barretry, in which case the defendant ought to have a copy of the articles to be insified on against him at the trial, before hand, that he may have an opportunity of preparing a desence; and here a notice left with the defendant's servant was adjudged ill, and a trial, without due Botice, ought not to stand; and when there is a rule to give a copy of articles, and that is not done, it appears, from the nature of the thing, that it could not but be a common nuisance.

S C. because the profecutor ought not to be admitted at the trial to give any evidence, and then the defendant is of course acquitted. 12 Mod. 516, 517. Pasch. 13 W. 3. The King v. Ward. --- 2 Hawk. Pl. C. 227. cap. 25. f. 61. S. P. - And 1 Hawk. Pl. C. 244. cap. 81. f. 13. fays, it feems to be fettled practice, not to suffer the prosecutor to go on in the trial of an indicament of this kind, without giving the defendant a note of the particular matters which he intends to prove against him, for otherwife it will be impossible to prepare a desence against so general and uncertain a charge, which may be proved by such a multiplicity of different instances.

> 17. In indictments of barretry the names are never inserted; per Holt Ch. J. and Rookesby. Carth. 453. Trin. 10 W. 3. B.R.

in case of Iveson v. Moor. 3 Salk. 21.

18. In case of barretry the defendant, upon motion, may have pl. 11. S. C. a rule to have articles delivered him of the instances, and the prosecutor but S. P. shall not give evidence of any particular besides; and if he gives does not no articles, he shall give no evidence; per Harcourt, master of appear .-the office. 6 Mod. 262. Mich. 3 Ann. B. R. in case of God-3 Salk. 245. pl. 9. S. C. dard v. Smith. but S. P.

does not appear. --- 11 Mod. 56. pl. 32. Pafch. 4 Ann. B. R. the S. C. but S. P. does not appear.

For more of Barretors in general, see other proper titles.

Bastard.

[Who, in respect of the Time of his Birth.] Bastard.

Cro. J. 541. pl. 1. Alsop v. Bowtrell, 5.C. and the court delivered their opinion to the jury, that the child born 40 weeks and more after the death of ' the hulband might well be his child. -Palm. 9. Alfop v. Stacy, S. C. one. and lays [1. ] F a man dies, and his wife bath issue born 40 weeks and 8 days after bis death, as if he dies the 23d of March, and the issue is born the 9th of January following, this issue shall be legitimate, for by nature it may be legitimate, and the law has not appointed any certain time for the birth of legitimate infants. * Mich. 17 Jac. B. R. between evidence at the bar, which concerned the heir of one Andrews, tesolved per curiam; in which case Dr. Paddy and Dr. Momford, two physicians, being sworn, informed the court, that by nature fuch issue may be legitimate; for they said that the exact time of the birth of an infant is 280 days from the conception, scilicet, 9 months and 10 days after the conception, accounting it per menses solares, scilicet, 30 days to each month; but it is natural also, if the birth be at any time within 10 months, scilicet, within 40 weeks; for by such account, 10 months and 40 weeks are all But by accident an infant may be born after the 40 weeks that a record of 18 R. 2. was vouched,

where the feme took weeks and passed after the death of the first

baron, and issue, and it was adjudged the iffue of the 2d baron, and not of the first;

then the feme had

II days

another baron, and 40

baron died, and the

es before; and in the case at the bar it was proved that the wife longed for things in the life of her husband, and the husband died of the plague; so that he was sick but one day before his death; and that the father-in-law of the woman persecuted her, and used her with great inhumanity, and caused her to lie in the streets for several nights; and that the woman was in travail 6 weeks before she was delivered, but that it was interrupted by the said usage of her father-in-law, and that she was delivered within 24 hours after she was received into a bouse and well used, which was good proof of the legitimation; though it was proved of the other part, that the woman was a lewd woman of her body; and upon evidence the jury found him legitimate. Nota, At the trial one Chamberlain, a man-midwife, informed the court upon his oath, that he had known a woman delivered of one child, and within a fortnight after of another; and the doctors said, the birth is fooner or later, according to the nutriment that the mother hath for it.

1 H. 6. 3. Rolf said a woman might be enseint for seven gears.]

but Doderidge said, there is a difference between the principal case, and the case of 18 R. 2. for in this case, if the child is not the child of the first baron, it will be a bastard, whereas in that other case it is legitimate either way; and adjudged in the principal case, that the child is legitimate. —— Godb. 281.
pl. 400. Anon. S. C. —— S. C. cited Arg. Litt. Rep. 178. and cites several other cases to the like purposes of earlier and later births. —— Sty. 277. it was said by the court to have been adjudged in case of Thecker v. Duncome, that a woman may have a child in 38 weeks, and that by cold and hard usage she may go with child above 40 weeks.

[2. Bracton, lib. 5. fol. 417. b. Si partus nascatur post mortem partis (qui dicitur posthumus) per tantum tempus quod non sit verifimile quod possit esse defuncti silius, & hoc probato, talis dici poterit bastardus.]

[3. 18 E. 1. Rot. 13. in B. R. with Mr. Bradshaw, Johannes DE RADEWELL brought an assise versus RADULPHUM & HENRIcum, coram Johanne de Vallibus, Willielmo de Malam, & sociis fuis itinerantibus apud Bedfordiam. This assise was brought there the 15 E. 1. and after in 18 E. 1. the parties and recognitors of the assise came coram rege, and the assise found inter alia, that efter the death of Robert, the husband of Reatrice, the mother of the said Henry, the said Beatrice came into the court of the said Radulph, (of whom the land is held by the service of chivalry,) & prædica Beatrix præsens in curia quæsta an esset pregnans necne, juramento asserebat se non esse pregnantem, & ut hoc omnibus liqueret, vestes suas usque ad tunicam exuebat, & in plena curia sic se videri permisit, & dicunt quod per aspectum corporis non apparebat esse tunc pregnans; upon which evidence the faid *Radulph, the lord, took the said John for his heir, &c. Et quia invenitur per veredictum juratorum assisæ captæ coram præfatis justiciariis itinerantibus quod pred' Henricus natus fuit per undecim dies + post ultimum tempus legitimum mulieribus pariendi constitutum, ita quod præd' Henricus dici non debet filius præd' Roberti secundum legem & consuetudinem Angliæ usitata, imo dici debet secundi viri præd' Beatricis si forte se nupserit alicui infra undecim dies post mortem Primi mariti sui, ut si extra matrimonium bastardus; & quia per veredictum

S. C. cited Cro. J. 541. pl. 1. in the case of Alfop v. Bowtrell. * But Tays, note it is not there hewn what was ultimum tempus mulieribus pariendo confitutum.-Co. Litt. 123. cites S. C. and fays that legitimum † Fol. 357. tempus in that cafe appointed by law is at the farthest g months. ot forty weeks; but the may be delivered before that time.

veredictum juratorum invenitur quod præd' Robertus non habuit accessum ad prædictam Beatricem per unum mensem ante mortem suam, per quod magis præsumitur contra prædictum Henricum, & plane invenitur in recordo, quod prædictus Johannes stetit in seisina ut frater & hæres præd' Roberti per unum annum & amplius, & per voluntatem, & assensum præd' Radulphi capitalis domini, &c. consideratum est quod præd' Johannes recuperet seisinam suam de præd' tenementis per visum juratorum, & præd' Radulphus & Henricus in misericordia. Vide 8 Ed. 2. quod vide Rotulo Parliamenti 6 Ed. 3. Membrana 4. Nota, The jury found the busband languished of a fever long before his death.]

[215]

As to this matter, see tit. Ventre inspiciendo.

[4. Britton, fol. 166. the manner is shewn how a jury of wemen shall be impanelled by the sheriff, after the death of the husband, upon the complaint of the next heir, and the feme shall be viewed by them, and after shall be put in one of the king's castles to be kept from company; and if the hath not a child within 40 weeks after the death of her husband, or if she be not found enseint, let her be punished by fine and imprisonment; and the lords of the fee, as foon as may be without delay, may take the homage of the heirs; and if she hath a child within the 40 weeks, then let this infant be received to the inheritance, if another heir cannot aver this child to be another's than her husband's, or, &c. Vide this.]

[5. If a man hath a wife and dies, and after within a short Where a time the woman marries again, and within 9 months bath a child, man dies, his feme priso that the infant may be the child of the first or second husband; in Viment enthis case, if it cannot be known by circumstances, the infant seint with a ion, and anmay elect the first or second husband for his father. other man marries ber, and after the son is born, he shall be adjudged son of the first baron, and not of the kcond baron; per Thorp, quod Wilby concessit; but said, that he heard Bere J. say, that the infant may chuse which of them he would take for his father, which is not law as it seems. Br. Bastardy, pl. 18. cites 21 E. 3. 39. The reason is, that in hoc casu filiatio non potest probari, and says, that so the book [21 E. 3. 39.] is to be intended; and says, that for avoiding such question, and other inconveniencies, the law before the conquest was, to omnis vidua sine marito duodecim mensibus, & & maritaverit, perdat dotem.

(A. 2) Who shall be faid to be a Bastard, [though See tit. Baron and born in Marriage, and in respect thereof.] Feme (A)

[1. IF a man having one wife, takes another wife and hath iffue by her, living the first wife, this iffue is a bastard. • 18 H. Fitzh-Replication, pl. 8. cites 6. 31. + 18 Ed. 4. 30. b. Co. 7. Kenn. 44. for the second mar-S. C. +Br.Bas- riage is void. 38 Ass. 24. adjudged.] tardy, pl.43. This is the feet cites 18 E. 4. 28. S. C. & S. P. accordingly by Littleton. pl. 24. there being another pl. 24. which is not S. P. See tit. Baron and Feme (A) pl. 2. S. P. and the notes there.

[2. If a man marries bis cousin within the degrees, the issue be-Br. Bastardy, tween them is no bastard, till a divorce comes; for the marriage pl. 9. cites 11 H. 4. 78. S. P. is not void. 18 H. 6. 34. b.] See (H) intra, S. P.

[3. &

· [3. So it is if the brother marries bis fifter. 18 H. 6. 32. * 39 * Br. Bac tardy, pl.23. Ed. 3. 31. b.] cites S. C.

[4. So if a man marries bis cousin within the degrees of spiritual Br. Bastardy, affinity, the iffue is no bastard till a divorce. 39 Ed. 3. 31.] pl. 23. cites

See Baron and Feme (A) pl. 3. S. C. -----After the flat. 32 H. 8. cap. 38. the husband cannot be afraid to lose his wife, or the wife her husband, nor the heir of them to be bastagded, by reason that the hufband before marriage had been godfather, either at baptism or confirmation, to the cousin of his wife; or that the had been godmother before the marriage to the coufin of her hulband; for the divorces causa compaternitatis & commaternitatis (which in the act of I & 2 P. & M. is called cognation spiritualis) are by this act taken away. 2 Inst. 684.

[216] [5. If a man bath iffue by A. and after intermarries with her, yet + Br. Basthis issue is a bastard by our law. + 47 Ed. 3. 14. b. ‡ II H. 4. tardy, pl. 6. cites 47 E. 84. 18 Ed. 4. 30. 39 E. 3. 31. b. 38 Aff. 24.] 3. 14.

1 Br. Baf-

tardy, pl. 12. eites S. C .- Fitzh. Bastardy, pl. 6. cites S. C.

[6. And so he is a bastard by the common law of Scotland. Skene Regiam Majestatem, lib. 2. cap. 5. vers. 2, 3.]

[7. An ideot a nativitate may consent to a marriage, and his issue shall be legitimate. Trin. 3 Jac. B. R. between Stile and West adjudged, upon a special verdict, pur un petit question.]

[8. If the busband be gelt, so that it is apparent that he cannot by any possibility beget a child, if his wife hath issue several years after, this will be a bastard, though it was begot within marriage, because it is apparent that it cannot be legitimate. Hill. 14 Jac. in camera stellata, between Done and Edgerton plaintiffs, and two Hintons and Starky defendants, so held by the chancellor and Mountacute, but Hobart e contra.]

9. A male of 7 years old is married to a female of 14; she be- Because no fore the male is 13 has issue, this issue is a bastard. Jenk. 95. pl. 84. cites 1 H. 6. 3.

law will intend that an infant under that age can beget a child. H. 6. 3. b. pl. 8. Bastardy, pl. 26. cites S. C. Noy 142. cites 5. C.—So if the male is 13, and the semale 12. Jenk. 289. in pl. 26.

Who shall be said a Bastard, and who a Mulier.

BY the law of the land, a man can not be a bastard who is * Fitzh. born after espousals, unless it be by special matter. * 40 Ed. Bastardy, ·Bastardy, pl. g. cites S.C. 3. 16. b. + 21 Ed. 3. 39. ‡ 39 E. 3. 31. || 31 Aff. pl. 10. 2 E. † As cofinage 3. 29. b. per Herle and Tond.] by W. N.

against J.P. and demand of the seisin of Walter, who died without issue, by which the land resorted to Ralph as uncle end beir of the part of his father, and from Ralph descended to Lawrence as to son and beir, and from Louvence to the demandant as son and beir; per Mombray, this Ralph took to seme Margery, and bad ifue Roger eigne, and Lawrence, father of the demandant, puisne, and Roger had issue the tenant, and so is the tenant issue of the elder brother, and the demandant issue of the younger; judgment si actio; the demandant said, that Roger, suiber of the tenant, was not son of Ralph, but son of one J. D. and became he did not deny the espousals, and that Roger was within the espousals by Margery, therefore such general averment was refused; but per Wilby, he might have said that Roger was the son of John, and bern out of the espousals, &cc. by which the demandant was awarded to answer further by whom the issae was; the demandant said, that Ralph the grandfather had issue Lawrence, absque boc that he had Inch iffue Roger born and begotten by this same Ralph during the espousals between him and Margery;

prist; and the other said, that Ralph the grandsather took to some Margary, and during these especials Roger was born and begotten of the same Margery, and so was this same Roger the son of Ralph; prist; and the other e contra, and so see that special bastardy shall be tried per pais, and not by certificate of the ordinary. Br. Bastardy, pl. 18. cites 21 B. 3. 39.

1 Br. Bastardy, pl. 17. eites S. C. but not exactly S. P.

2 Br. Bastardy, pl. 37. cites 39 Ass. 10. S. P. and Roll here seems to be misprinted.——Fitsh. Bastardy, pl. 18. cites S. C.

*Br. Bas. [2. If a woman be grossly enseint by A. and after A. marries ber, tardy, pl. 5. and the issue is born during the marriage, this is a mulier, and not ritsh. Bas. a bastard. *44 Ed. 3. 12. b. 45 Ed. 3. 28.]

tardy, pl. 10. cites S. C.

[3. So if a woman be grossly enseint by one man, and after en-+ Br. Bastardy, pl.26. other marries ber, and after the issue is born, this is a mulier, becites S. C. cause it * is born during the marriage, and no issue can be taken Fitzh. Bastardy, pl. 1. by whom she was enseint, because that cannot be known. + 1 H. cites S. C. 6. 3. contra ‡ 44 Ed. 3. 12. b. 45 Ed. 3. 28. contra 18 H. 6. 31. I Br. Bafb. so although the issue be born within three days after the mertardy, pl. 5. cites S.C. riage. 18 Ed. 4. 3.] Fitzh. Baf-tardy, pl. 12. cites S. C.——In such case by the common law such issue is a mulier, and by the spiritual law a bastard. Br. Bastardy, pl. 43. cites 18 E. 4. 28.

§ Br. Baftardy, pl.21.

[4. If a feme covert hath iffue in adultery, yet if her bufband be ardy, pl.21.
cites S. C.

able to beget children, and is within the four feas, this is no bastard.
In affise the Hill. 14 Jac. in camera stellata, between Done and Edgerton tenant said, plaintiffs, and two Hintons and Starky defendants, agreed by the judges and chancellor. § 39 Ed. 3. 14.]

and took to seme K. of whom he begot the tenant, a son, and the plaintist a female, and died, and the plaintist claiming as heir entered, and the desendant outled her. The plaintist replied, that the tenant was bastard. The desendant rejoined that he was mulier. Whereupon the bishop was wrote to, who certified bastard, and the manner how, viz. that J. took to seme K. who eloped, and lived in adultery with F. S. who begot of her the tenant, and so bastard. Thereupon the tenant complained to the parliament, because the certificate was contra legem terræ, and so it seems, for that it is not certified whether the baron was instra quatuor maria or not. But afterwards judgment was given for the plaintist according to the certificate; and so see that the justices have no regard to the manner or cause of the certificate, but only to the effect thereof, which was, that the tenant was a bastard; quod nota.——Fitsh. Bastardy, pl. 8. S. C. says, that by his being adjudged a bastard by the law of body church, the justices took the affise in right of damages, and awarded that the plaintist recover seism and damages; quod nota.——By the common law, if the husband be within the four seas, viz. within the jurisdiction of the king of England, and the wise has issue, no proof is to be admitted to prove the child a bastard; for in that case siliatio non potest probari unless the husband had an apparent impossibility of procreation. Co. Litt. 244. a.

*Br. Baf.
[5. If a wife elopes, and lives in adultery with another, and durardy, pl. 26.
eites S.C.—
Fitzh. Baf.

*1 H. 6. 3. † 43 E. 3. 18. b. 20. 18 E. 4. 30. Hill. 14 Jac, in tardy, pl. 1.
eites S.C.—
†Br. Baf
tardy, pl. 4.

*3 Aff. 8. but the baron ought to be within the four feas, so that cites 43 E. 3.

19. [and it flould be]

*1 H. 6. 3. † 43 E. 3. 18. b. 20. 18 E. 4. 30. Hill. 14 Jac, in the case of Edgerton besoites S.C.—

*4 Br. Baf
tardy, pl. 4.

*5 Br. Baf
tardy, pl. 4.

*6 Br. Baf
tardy, pl. 4.

*6 Br. Baf
tardy, pl. 10.

*6 Br. Baf
tardy, pl. 1

19. b. 20.] S. P. by Kirton contra, but by Belk. according to Roll, if the husband be within the 4 seas, and can come to her, quod non suit negatum; ideo quære in case the baron was imprisoned at the time.

1 See pl. 4. and the notes.

1 Br. Bastardy, pl. 35. cites S. C. that he was certified a bastard, and therefore the special matter indorsed on the writ, viz. that she lived y years from her husband, in which time the child was begotten and was not regarded.

3 Fitzho Bastardy, pl. 16. cites S. C.

- [6. So if a feme covert goes into another county, and takes huf- Br. Bafband, and bath issue by him, the first busband being within the seas, tardy, pl. 8 cites S. C. tardy, pl. 3. the issue is a mulier. 7 H. 4. 9. b.] ---Fitzh.

Bastardy, pl. 4. cites S. C. ——One that is born of a man's wife while the busband at and from the time of the begetting to the birth is extra quatuor maria, is a bastard within 18 El. 3. which is a remedial law; per Helt. 2 Salk. 484. pl. 38. Mich. 20 W. 3. B. R. The King v. Albertson. S. P. but if he were here at all during the time of the wife's going with child, it is legitimate, and no bastard. 2 Salk. 122. pl. 5. Mich. 3 Ann. B. R. The Queen v. Murrey.

[7. But otherwise it is if the baron be over the seas. 7 H. 4. Br. Baftardy, pl. 8. 9. b.] cites S. C.

-Fitzh, Bastardy, pl. 4. cites S. C.

[8. If the seme hath issue, the baron being over the seas for 7 Br. Bastardy, pl.20. years before, the birth, the issue is a bastard by our law. 19 H. 6. cites S. C. 17. b.] & S. P. admitted.

[9. [So] if a feme covert hath iffue, the baron being over the [218] seas 6 years before the birth, this is a bastard by our law. б. 34.J

[10. So if the feme hath issue, the baron being over the seas 3 years before the birth, and three years after the birth, the iffue is a bastard. 18 H. 6. 32. b.]

[11. If a man hath been so long over the sea, before the birth of the issue which his wife hath in his absence, that the issue cannot be bis is a bastard. Hill. 14 Jac. camera stellata, between Done and Edgerton plaintiffs, and two Hintons and Starkt defendants, resolved by the judges and chancellor.]

[12. Contra 13 Ed. 2. Bastardy 25. where it was found the If baron be father was in Ireland when the son was begotten, yet the plaintiff was for a year, monsuit, which is, that he is no bastard.]

and feme in England

during this time has issue, it is a bastard; but it seems otherwise now for Scotland, both being under one king, and make but one continent of land; absence beyond sea takes away all intendment, that baron privately and secretly may be with his wife as he may if he be in England, though his wife had eloped and lived with the adulterer. Jenk. 10. pl. 18.

[13. If a woman hath iffue, her busband being within the age of 14, the iffue is a bastard. 1 H. 6. 3. b.] Fol. 359-

For an infant at such age cannot have issue. Br. Bastardy, pl. 26. cites S. C

[14. If a woman hath iffue, her busband being but of the age of 3 years, the issue is a bastard. 18 H. 6. 31. because it appears he cannot have iffue at this age. So if the hath iffue, the husband being but 6 years of age at the birth. 18 H. 6. 34.]

[15. So if she hath iffue, the husband being but 7 years of age Br. Bastardy, pl. 36. cites at the birth, this iffue is a bastard. 38 Ass. 24. per Tanke.] S. C.

[16. So if she hath issue, the baron being only of the age of Br. Bastardy. eight years at the birth; for it cannot be intended by law that it pl. 36. cites was begot by the baron. 38 Ass. 24. per Tanke. * 29 Ass. 54. * Br. Basadjudged.] tardy,pl. 32.

cites S. C. ___S. P. accordingly, and so if he be under the age of procreation. Co. Litt. 244. a.

[17. 80

Br. Bastardy, [17. So it is if the baron be but of the age of 9 years at the time pl. 32. cites of the birth of the issue. 29 Ass. 54. Quære.]

S. P. exactly does not appear.——But Br. ibid. pl. 36. cites 28 Aff. 24. that if infant at 7 or 8 years be married, and has a child within one or two years, this issue is a bastard. Quod non negatur.

Scire facias [18. P. 10 Ed. 1. B. Rot. 23. Foxcroft's case. upon a fine; being infirm, and in his bed was married to A. a woman, by the the tenant bishop of London, privately, in no church nor chapel, nor with faid that he beld for the celebration of any mass, the said A. being then big by the said life, the R. and within 12 weeks after the marriage the said A. was delireversion revered of a son, and adjudged a bastard; and so the land escheated to gardant to A. and the lord by the death of R. without heir.] prayed aid of him, and the other said that the mother of A. was grossly enseint of A. by H. and so enseint H. sather of A. in his malady espoused her, and died the 15th day after, and so A. a hastard, and the other said, that she was enseint by W. and not by H. and so at issue; quod mirum! that this issue was suffered. Br. Bastardy, pl. 5. cites 44 E. 3. 10.

Br. Verdict, pl. 21. cites 'S. C.

[219]

19. In affise at Warwick, 19 H. 7. it was found by verdict, that the father of the tenant had taken the order of deacon, and after married a feme and bad issue; the tenant who entered, and another collateral heir entered upon him, and they were adjourned for difficulty; and it was debated in the exchequer chamber, whether the tenant should be a bastard; and it was adjudged by advice that he should not be a bastard. Quod nota. And Frowyke Ch. J. said, that he was a counsel in this matter, and that it was adjudged ut supra, quod Vavisor concessit. Br. Bastardy, pl. 25. cites 21 H. 7. 39.

20. And Frowike said, that if a priest takes seme and bas issue, and dies, his issue shall inherit; for the espousals are not void, but voidable. Ibid.

21. If a man takes a nun to wife, these espousals are void; per Vavisor. Quod nota bene, for none denied it. Ibid.

(C) Who shall be said a Bastard, who not. What. [How considered in Law.]

Br. Bastardy, [I. A Bastard is nullius filius, neither of father nor mother. 41 pl. 26. cites 1 H. 6. 3. Ed. 3. 19.]

S. P. by Straunge; for a bastard is silius populi, and has no father certain. —— S. P. for qui ex damnato coitu nascuntur inter liberos non computentur. Co. Litt. 3. b. & 78. a.

(D) Bastard by our Law, and Mulier by the Civil Law.

* Br. Bas. [1. IF A. bath issue by B. and after they intermarry, yet the issue tardy, pl. 6. is a bastard by our law. * 47 E. 3. 14. b. † 11 H. 4. 84. but but's mulier by the civil law.

11 H. 4. 84. Brackon, lib. 5. fol. but S. P. does not clearly appear.

† Br. Bastardy, pl. 12. cites S. C. and S. P. admitted.

[2. If the parents are divorced, causa consanguinitatis, they not Br.Bastardy, baving notice thereof at the marriage, the children, had before, are 18 E. 4. 28. bastards by our law, and muliers by the civil law. 18 E. 4. [but it should be 18 E. 4. 29.

a. b. pl. 30. a. pl. 28.] S. P. and seems to intend S. C. of Roll here, which seems misprinted.——S. C. cited Roll. Rep. 212. Trin. 13 Jac. B. R.

[3. If a man hath issue by a woman, and after marries the same By the state of Merwoman, the issue by our law is a bastard, and by the spiritual law a ton, 20 H. mulier. 18 E. 4. 30.]

3. cap. 9. it is enacted, that a child born before marriage is a bastard, albeit the common order of the church be other-wise.

[4. Such is a bastard by our law, get he shall be called the See tit.

fon of them in our law; for a remainder limited to him by such name pl. 10. S. C. is good. 41 E. 3. 19. Co. 6.65.]

and the notes there, and ibid. pl. 8, 9. 11, 12, 13.

(E) Bastard by the Spiritual Law, and Mulier by [ 220] our Law.

[1. IF a man marries a woman grossly big by another, and within *Br. Betthree days after she is delivered, in our law the iffue is a tardy, pl. 4mulier, and by the spiritual law a bastard. *18 E. 4. 30. ‡ 1 H. cites 18 E.
6. 3.]

6. 3.]

ed, and should be 29. b. 30. pl. 28.

1 Br. Bastardy, pl. 26. cites S. C. but S. P. as to the three days does not appear there; but by Strange, if an infant be born within 5 or 6 months, or less, after the espousals, it is a bastard.—Fitzh. Bastardy, pl. 1. cites S. C. says, it cannot be a bastard, if it be born within the espousals.

[2. So || 43 E. 3. 20. gives a limitation, scilicet, that it shall be || Br. Bas-a mulier, if the baron be within the 4 seas, so that he may come to cites S. C. his wife. S Contra 11 H. 4. 14. b.]

& S. P. by
Belk. Quod

non fuit negatum; but Brooke says, ideo quære if the baron was imprisoned at the time.

§ Fitzh. Bastardy, pl. 5. cites S. C. & S. P. by Huls. that it is a bastard if born and begotten in adultery, though the husband is within the 4 seas.

[3. If a woman elope, and hath issue in adultery, the issue is a mu- ¶ See (B) her in our law, and by the spiritual law a bastard. 18 E. 4. 30. S. C. and the notes
there.——

7 Rep. (44) 43. a. Mich. 5 Jac. S. P. obiter.

[4. But 40 E. 3. 16. is, that if a feme continues in adultery, and hath issue, this is a bastard in our law.]

Fitsh. Buftardy, pl. 9.
sites S. C. But by the law of the land a man cannot be a bastard that if tardy, pl. 9.
born after marriage, unless by special matter. 40 E. 3. 16. b.]

(F) Bastard by both [Laws.]

tardy, pl.

43. S. P.

ber, this issue is a bastard by both laws; for the second perLittleton, marriage is void.

18 E. 4. 30. b. Co. 7. Kenn. 44. ‡ 18 H.

4. 28. but it

Should be here as in Roll, viz. 18 E. 4. 30. but in the Year-book it is pl. 28. which may be the occasion of the misprinting.

1 Fitzh. Replication, pl. 8. cites S. C.

[221] (G) What Divorce bastardizes the Issue.

Resolved by [1. A Divorce causa pracontractus bastardizes the issue, 47 E. 3. the two Ch. pl. 78. 18 H. 6. 34.]

Ch. Baron, Williams, and Altham, on a reference out of the court of wards, that a divorce being by sentence in the spiritual court between Kenne and his wife, causa przecontractus, or other cause, the parties being dead between whom it was, the court of wards cannot now examine it to prove another heir against that sentence. Cro. J. 186. pl. 6. Mich. 5 Jac. B. R. Robinson v. Stallage. 7 Rep. (42) 41. b. Kenne's case, S. C.——Jenk. 289. pl. 26. S. C.

S. P. Br. [2. So causa consanguinitatis. 47 E. 3. pl. 78. contra 29 E. 1. ment, pl. 10. Bastardy 21. curia.]

cites 8 E. 4. 28. —— See pl. 1. and the notes there. —— Where a marriage has been had, and the parties are afterwards divorced for confanguinity, or affinity, such sentence of divorce will be conclufive evidence to bastardize the children born in wedlock before the divorce; per Ld. Chan. 8 Mod. 182. Trin. 9 Geo. in case of Hillard v. Phaley.

See pl. r. [3. So causa affinitatis. 47 E. 3. pl. 78.] and the some there.

A divorce [4. So causa frigiditatis. 47 E. 3. pl. 78.]

ditatis, where the party has perpetuam impotentiam generationis, declares the marriage to be void.

--- And. 185. pl. 221. 28 & 29 Eliz. Morris v. Webber, S. C. the iffue was adjudged lawful.fays, the case was argued by the serjeants, but little to the purpose; for the point depended on the canon law, and therefore after divers arguments the court thought it convenient to be argued by doctors of the civil law, to be chosen by each party, and after it was argued by them, gave judgment according to the sentence in the spiritual court. ——Mo. 225. pl. 366. S. C. adjudged for the plaintiss, that the issues were not bastards, betause the diverce was not annulled by sentence declaratory of the church in the lives of the parties; and our law is not to enquire the cause of the divorce, but to take the sentence for good till repealed; and fays the same case came in question again in ejectment, Hill. 40 Eliz, between Webber and Bury, where the special matter was found, and upon several arguments adjudged again as before. —2 Le. 169. pl. 207. S. C. Trin. 29 Elis. C. B. adjudged for the plaintiff accordingly; for though in the examinations and depositions taken in the ecclesiastical court no matter appears apon which fuch peremptory divorce might be granted, yet it might be, as the court faid they were informed by the faid doctors, that upon the examination of physicians and matrons, sufficient matter did appear to the faid ecclefiastical judges, (which for modesty sake ought not to be entred of record) and that appears within the sentence, vis. habito sermone cum matronis et medicis, which speech not entered of record, (causa qua supra) might be the cause that induced the ecclesiastical judges to give Entence for the divorce, though the matter within the record be too general to prove, naturalem frigiditatem generandi, but rather maleficium; and fays, that upon error brought 41 Eliz. judgment was affirmed.—But see D. 178. pl. 140. Hill. 2 Eliz. Sabril's case, and Bury's case, cited there as about a year after, where the opinion of the doctors was, that they should be compelled to cohabit as man and wife, because sancta ecclesia decepta fuit in priori judicio; and theresore * great suit was made to stay a fine, whereby the seme gave all her inheritance to her second husband; but after flaying it one term, it was ingrossed by command of the justices, contra mandatum custodis magni figilli.——And ibid. Marg. cites Hill. 37 Elis. STAFFORD v. MANGEY, in case of bastardy. feme fued divorce for frigidity, and after the baron married another feme, by whom he had iffue, and adjudged that the second marriage is void, and there the civilians gave a rule, that qui aptus est ad vazm aptus est ad aliam, and quando potentia reduciter ad actum, debet redire ad primas nuptias. Ex libro Mr. Tho. Tempest. — But ibid. cites Harrison's reading, Lent 1632. that impotentia et frigiditas quoad hanc is cause sufficient of divorce after exploration and trial for 3 years, and other ceremonies injoined by the canons, and that the second marriage of both is good, notwithstanding the party

[5. But a divorce causa professionis does not bastardize the issue. 47 E. 3. pl. 78.]

[6. A divorce for cause of spiritual affinity bastardizes the issue. 39 E. 3. 31. b. as if the baron hath baptized the cousin of the feme.]

7. Affise by J. and A. his feme against H. M. who said that cites S. C. A. fued divorce in the archbishoprick of York, because she was within the age of consent at the time of the espousals, and never affented to them, by which divorce was had between them, and so not his feme; judgment of the writ; and so see that this is a good cause of divorce. Br. Deraignment, pl. 6. cites 39 E. 3. 32. these marriages are said to be prohibited by God's law, otherwise the stat. 32 H. 8. would extend to them. 2 Inst. 687.

(H) At what Time the Divorce being made, it shall bastardize the Issue. [And what the Ecclesiastical Court may inquire after the Death of the Man and Woman, or either of them.]

[1.] F baron and seme continue baron and seme for all their lives, the iffue cannot be a bastard by a divorce after their death, for the divorce in the spiritual court is pro peccatis, which cannot be after their death, and therefore such divorce there is only to disinherit the issue, which they cannot do. + 39 E. 3. 31. b. 32. for by such means every one might be disinherited. ‡ 31 Ass. pl. 10.] in the plain-

† Br. Baftardy, pl.23. cites S. C. where in affife the tenant plead. ed bastardy

[ 222 ]

See tit. Baron and Feme (A)

II. and the notes there.

2 Inst. 687.

et causa me-

tus five duri-

the, declare the marriage to be void;

that causa impubertatis

pl. 9, 10,

[2. As

[2. As the iffue cannot be a bastard after the death of the baron tiff, and the cafe was, and seme, by a divorce for cause of spiritual affinity, for the cause that the father married aforesaid. 39 E. 3. 31. b. 32. 31 Ass. pl. 10.]

a feme, where he had before it haprimed one A. cousin of his seme, and therefore after the death of the one of them. a divorce was fued, and judgment given. And per Thorpe, and the best opinion clearly, this divorce is only pro peccatis, and shall not bastardize the beir by it; for such divorce cannot destroy the espousals, because they were determined before. Br. Deraignment, pl. 5. cites S. C. Brooke makes a quarte if it be cause of divorce. ———And Brooke says, it seems that if espeusals are had, which are describble but not word, they may be avoided by a divorce; and if not, then the heir is inheritable. Br. Bastardy, pl. 23. cites 39 B. 3. 32.

I Br. Bastardy, pl. 37. cites 39 Ass. 10. S. P. by Thorpe. Fitzh. Bastardy, pl. 18. cites 39 Ass. 10. S. P. and it seems that Roll is misprinted, and that it should be 39 Ass. pl. 10.

[ 223 ] 7 Rep. (44) [3. If A. takes B. to wife, and hath iffue by her, and after they 43. b. in are divorced, because they were within the age of consent at the time of Kenn's case, their marriage, and after disagreed, and after A. takes C. to his wife, the reporter who dies, and after takes D. to bis wife, by whom he hath iffue, and notes a diversity bedies, upon the suit of the issue of B. the ecclefiastical commissioners, tween repeal of a sentence upon a commission directed to them, cannot examine the marriage given in the between A. and C. because they are dead; for by this examination life of the the inheritance would be drawn in question, which is not lawful parties, and after they are dead. Mich. 8 Jac. B. Kenn's case, resolved, and giving fentence of dia prohibition granted.] worce after [4. [So] If A. takes B. to his wife within the age of consent, the death of and after at the age of consent they disassent, and marry themselves the parties; for it appears elsewhere, and have issue, and die, it cannot after be examined in the by 22 E. 4. ecclesiastical court whether they did consent at the age of consent, before in Corbet's their disassent, because they cannot bastardize the issue after their case, (there before cited) Englefield's case, by all the justices resolved, and that a lena prohibition granted in chancery thereupon, cited Trin. 11 tence of divorce cannot Jac. B.] be repealed

In the spiritual court by suit there after the death of the parties; but if any of the parties be dead before any divorce sentenced in the ecclesiastical court, there they cannot sue in court christian to declare the marriage void, and baftardize the iffue, because the trial belongs to the King's court originally; and that with this accords the 39 Ass. 10. 39 Es 3. 31. and 24 H. 8. tit. Bastardy, 44. b. that divorce after the death of any of the parties, or sentence declaratory that the marriage was avoided after the death of any of the parties, shall not bind; for it is only in effect to bastardize the issue, of which they have not conusance originally. ——Jenk. 289. pl. 26. S. C. no man can be made a bastard by any Sentence after the death of the pretended husband and wife who had the issue; but a sentence given for a marriage may be repealed after the death of the parties, and so ex obliquo bastardize the issue.

[5. If administration be committed to the use of the wife of the testator, and after a libel is preferred in the ecclesiastical court, fur-+ Fol. 361. mifing that + she was not the wife of the testator, because they were married within the age of consent, and that at the age of consent they did disassent, a prohibition shall be granted, because after their death they shall not bastardize the issue. Trin. 11 Jac. B. LAN-NER'S CASE.]

And if the 6. If a man espouses his sister, and has issue, and dies, the issue is commissiony inheritable, because a divorce was not had in their lives when the m bis vifitaespousals continued; for it cannot be after the espousals detersion finds [ucb mined by death, viz. to bastardize the heir. Br. Bastardy, pl. cause of diworce, and 23. cites 39 E. 3. 32. after a di-worce is thereof made, after the death of one of the parties, this shall never bastardize the heir; per Thorpe strongly; and it seems to be law, and so it was taken in parliament 24 H. S. Br. Bastardy, pl. 23. cites 39 E. 3. 32. Br. Dernignment, pl. 5. cites S. C.

7. A

7. A divorce has relation to make woid the marriage ab initio, where it is for a cause arising before the marriage, and to issue born bastards. See Trial (B. a) pl. 5. cites 43 Ass. 43.

8. Where a man marries his next coufin, and they have iffue, and he dies, the issue shall not be a bastard; for the espousals are not void without divorce; per Norton. And it seems by him, that when the espousals are determined by the death of the one of them, a divorce cannot be sued; for they cannot defeat the espousals which were determined before. Br. Bastard, pl. 9. cites 11 H. 4. 78.

9. Per Coningsby it was adjudged, in the CASE OF CORBET, that if baron and feme bad iffue, and after were divorced, and after the baron took another feme and had iffue, and the first iffue sued in the spiritual court to reverse the divorce after the death of his father, to bastardize the second issue, and a prohibition was granted, quod non negatur; but it was faid that the title and the descent were comprised in the libel, and otherwise he had not had it, as it seems. Br. Deraignment, pl. 14. cites 12 H. 7. 22.

10. In prohibition it was agreed, arguendo, that if a man be divorced, and takes another feme, and dies, having iffue by the first feme, this issue may sue to defeat the divorce, and bastardize the [ 224 ] iffue of the second feme, though the baron who was divorced is dead. Br. Bastardy, pl. 47. cites 12 H. 7. 42.

11. Note, if a man marries his cousin within the degrees of mar- Br. Deraignriage, who have iffue, and are divorced in their lives, by this the ment, pl. espousals are avoided, and the issue is a bastard; and contra if the C-Br.Dea one dies before a divorce, there a divorce had after shall not make the iffue a bastard; for the espousals are determined by the death before, and not by the divorce, and a dead person cannot bring in his proofs; and so is the best opinion, Fitzh. Trial, 41. anno 39 E. 3. For a divorce after the death of the party is not but ex officio od inquirendum de peccatis; for a dead person cannot be cited nor summoned to it. Br. Bastardy, pl. 44, cites 24 H. 8.

12. In trespass the case was, B. contracted himself to A. and 4 Rep. 29. afterwards A. was married to T. and cohabited with him. B. & 28 Eliz. fued A. in the court of audience, and proved the contract, and fen-Bunting v. tence was pronounced that she should marry the said B. and cohabit Lepingwell, with him, which she did, and they had iffue C. and then B. the solved, that father died. It was argued by civilians of each side; but it the plaintiff was resolved by the justices, that C. the issue of B. was legitimate. Mo. 169. pl. 303. Pasch. 23 Eliz. B. R. Bunting's case.

Mich. 27 was legitimate, and no baftard. ---

If a man

contracts with a feme to marry her, and after he marries another, and the first feme sues in the spiritual court, and the first marriage is sentenced void, the man and the first seme are husband and wife: by Windham Serj. and he faid, that Noy Att. General, in Mr. Harrison's lecture in Lincoln's-Inn. held that by this sentence they are complete husband and wife, without other solemnity; but this was denied by Twisden J. who said that the marriage ought to be solemnized before they should be baron and seme. Sid. 13. pl. 2. Mich. 12 Car. 2. B. R. Paine's case. S. P. cited by Noy, D. 105. b. Marg. pl. 17.

By the act of 32 H. 8. cap. 38. the divorce causa præcontractus was taken away, where the marriage was confummated by carnal copulation, &c. but that is repealed, and the divorce allowed by the fat. of 2 E. 6. cap. 23. and 1 Eliz. cap. 1. 2 Inft. 684.

13. A man married his father's fister's daughter. This is no If a marcause of divorce; but it was adjudged, that though that marriage facto be [might

11. cites S.

raignment, pl. 12. cites

5 E. 4. 3.

S. P. and

24 H. 8.

[might be faid to] be within the Levitical degrees, yet it is a mervoidable by divorce, in riage de facto, and only avoidable by divorce, which after the respect of death of the hufband cannot be done, because thereby the issue conlangui will be bastardized; and if the wife had been inheritrix, &c. the nity, affinity, preconhusband should have been tenant by the curtesy; and vouched tract, or fuch 7 H. 4. Noy 29. Hill. 15 Jac. C. B. Rennington v. Cole. like, whereby the marriage might have been dissolved, and the parties freed a vinculo matrimonii, yet if the husband die before any divorce, then, for that it cannot be avoided, this wife de facto shall be endowed; for this is legiti-mum matrimonium quosd dotem. Co. Litt. 33. a. b.

A probibition was granted as to the annulling the marriage; but that they may proceed ing the incest,

14. The court christian having proceeded to annul an incestious marriage, (where the woman died before sentence,) prohibition was granted as to their declaring the marriage to be void; for when the incest is determined by the woman's death, they cannot bastardize the issue, though they may punish the incest. Comb. es to punis- 200. Pasch. 5 W. & M. in B. R. Hicks v. Harris.

but not to make void the marriage, or bastardize the issue; for that is against law. And the authority in Kenn's case was the rule in this case. Carth. 271. S. C .- 4 Mod. 182. Hinks v. Harris, S. C. and cited 7 Rep. 44. b. Kenn's case, and a prohibition was granted, nist.——— 12 Mod. 35. S. C.

and prohibition granted accordingly.

The rule that it shall not be bastardized after bis death, holds only in case of bastard eigne & musier puilne, and the spiritual court cannot give sentence to annul marriage after the parties are dead, because they proceed only pro salute anime, and then it is too late. I Salk. 120. pl. 1. Hill. 6 W. 3. B. R. Pride v. Earl of Bath.

And the meaning of the faying, that one shall not be bastardized after the death of either of his parents is, that the spiritual court shall not proceed to dissolve a marriage de facto after the death of * either parties, as in case of consanguinity, precontract, &c. per Holt Ch. J. 12 Med. 432. Mich. 12 W. 3. in case of Hemming v. Price.

[ 225 ]

15. Where there was a sentence in the spiritual court, that the parties were not married, a person claiming under the issue of that marriage, as pretended, shall not be allowed to prove a marriage on a trial at law; for such sentence, while unrepealed, is conclufive against all matters precedent, and the temporal court must give credit to it, it being a matter of mere spiritual conusance, and so the plaintiff was nonsuited. Carth. 225. Pasch. 4 & 5 W. & M. in B. R. Jones v. Bow.

, The reporter adds a quære; for in ease of Hill v. Underwood, Trin. 1739. Ld. Chancellor seemed not 16. A woman was supposed to marry A. first, and afterwards during his life to marry B. and in a cause of jactitation of marriage in the spiritual court in Ireland, the first marriage was affirmed; but on an appeal to the delegates in Ireland, the same was disallowed, and the 2d marriage adjudged good. By the 2d marriage there was issue, but none by the first. 2 Wms.'s Rep. 299. pl. 82. Trin. 1725. Franklin's case.

fatisfied with this resolution. --- Select Cases in Chan. in Ld. King's Time, 47. S. C. and the motion was objected to, because though commissions of review had frequently gone, in respect of sentences relating to wills in Ireland, that was because the law here and there, as to them, are both the same; but it is not so in respect of marriage. Per Ld. Chancellor, by the 32 H. S. cap. 38. where there is iffue, a marriage shall not be set aside for precontract: that still is the law of Ireland, though altered here by the 2 & 3 E. 6. cap. 23. and though 2 Ed. 6. is repealed by 1 P. & M. yet it is revived by 1 Eliz. cap. 1. But though the law be different, if a commission should go, they must judge by the Irish laws. A commission of review is not of right, but gratuitous and discretionary; that it is so, must have been for some reasons, to re-examine where were visible hardships. The only end aimed at here, by granting the commission, is to bastardize the issue, which I shall never advise the king to do. If there had been no issue, it had been very different; let them enjoy the good fortune of their legitimacy.

(H. 2) Pleadings. And in what Actions it shall be a good Plea to say that the Plaintiff is a Bastard. And How.

1. PASTARDY is a good plea in an action possessory, as in * Br. Mortwrit of ayel; mortdancestor, &c. though it be a plea which dancestor, pl. trenches to the right. Br. Bastardy, pl. 27. cites * 1 Ass. 13. & C. H. 10 E. 3. accordingly in writ of ayel.

2. Where a man alledges that his ancestor, whose heir he is, was Br. Bastard, son of R. born and begotten of M. during the espousals between R. pl. 18. cites and M. the other, in cosinage, shall not say that he was son of J. and not son of R. Br. General Issue, pl. 12. cites 21 E. 3. 39.

3. In assise the tenant said that is father was seised, and died to execute a seised, and he entered as heir; and the plaintiff claiming as heir, fine levied to where he was born out of any espousals, entered, and the tenant the remainousted him, and held that the defendant shall give a mother to the der to the plaintiff, and so he did; the plaintiff said that he was born within Plaintiff, and the espousals between A. and B. his seme, his father and mother, dead without and fo mulier, prist by affise, and the other e contra, and this was issue. The tried by the affise. Quod nota. Br. Bastardy, pl. 30. cites 25 Aff. 13.

bad iffue S. who had iffue K. who had iffue J. who is alive; judgment. Per Skrene, K. died without ifie, absque hoc, that be had ever such a son as J. But per Norton, then you shall give to him another father, and another mother; and he alledged espousals, and that J. was born at N. in the same county; but per cur. Skrene has said enough, and that the allegation of the espousals is to no purpose to make the plaintiff give to J. another father. Quod nota, by which they were at issue as Skrene tendered, &c. Br. Baftardy, pl. 10. cites 11 H. 4. 74.

4. Assise by J. M. son of N. M. against W. M. and K. M. K. [ 226 ] pleaded nul tort, and W. said quod assisa non. For he not confessing that J. the plaintiff is son of N. M. but N. M. father of the temant was seised of the land in fee, and took K. to seme, of whom he begot W. now tenant within the espousals; and after the death of N. his father, we entered as son and heir; and the plaintiff claiming as son and beir of the father, where he was born before the espousals abated, and we oufted bim, judgment if affife; and upon long debate the bar was awarded good; and to this the plaintiff said that the father married E. before K. and begot the plaintiff of E. within the espousals, and you have acknowledged us to be elder than you, by which he prayed the affife; to which the tenant said that the father married K. mother of the temant, between whom the tenant was begotten within the espousals, absque hoc, that E. was ever the feme of N. the father, prist by assis, and because the plaintiff himself had shewn that he had another mother than K. and named E. therefore he has now given advantage to the tenant to traverse it, quod nota, and therefore the plaintiff was compelled by the court to rejoin to this issue. Quod nota. Bastardy, pl. 31. cites 28 Ass. 46.

5. In assise it was sound that E. was seised, and took a feme at eight years, and that his seme had issue J. the tenant at 8 years by a Vol. IV. chup-

Scire facias that A. was tenant said that A. bad issue J. who chaplain, and after had iffue N. and died, and N. entered as heir and enfeoffed the plaintiff, who was seised till J. the bastard disseised him, by which the plaintiff recovered; and there it is taken, if the youngest son enters upon the eldest, and enfeoss A. who continues years and days, that the eldest cannot enter, which is not law; therefore, quære the cause of the judgment, whether for this cause, or for the bastardy; and it seems for the bastardy. Br. Bastardy, pl. 32. cites 29 Ass. 54.

6. In detinue of charters by J. son of T. of W. it is no plea that the plaintiff is a bastard; for he demands only chattels of which he was in possession; by which his challenge was entered, and he was compelled to answer. Br. Charters de Terre, pl. 24. cites

38 E. 3. 22.

7. In assise the tenant made himself beir to H. and that the plaintiff is a bastard. The plaintiff replied that H. took to seme A. at D. between whom in the espousals was the plaintiff born and begotten; judgment if he may bastardize him; and it was held a good plea to make the other answer, and so he did, and alledged a divorce; for it shall be intended by the espousals that he is a mulier, without special matter shewn to the contrary. Br. Bastardy, pl. 37. cites 39 Ass. 10.

8. Scire facias upon a fine. The tenant said that he held for life, the reversion regardant to A. and prayed aid of him, and the other said that the mother of A. was grossly enseint of A. by H. and so enseint H. father of A. in his malady espoused her, and died the 15th day after, and so A. is a bastard; and the other said that she was enseint by W. and not by H. and so at issue; quod mirum! that this issue was suffered; for in anno 41 E. 3. so. 7. Thorp would not suffer the issue to be taken, whether she was enseint by her baron the day of his death or not; quod nota. Br. Bastardy, pl. 5. cites 44 E. 3. 10.

9. Issue was tendered that J. N. was born out of any espousal; and the other said that he was born in espousals between J. his father and A. his mother, prist, &c. and the other e contra. Br. Bastardy,

pl. 6. cites 47 E. 3. 14.

to whom the plaintiff made herself heir, took baron and had iffue a daughter, the plaintiff; and after took other baron, leaving the first baron, and had iffue a son now tenant; per Richill, if the first baron was within the seas the son is a mulier, and so see that the second estirst baron; by which the party said that the first baron, after that be had iffue the daughter, went beyond sea, and there remained years and days, within which time the seme married another, and had iffue the fon, so the daughter heir, and not the son; and the other said that the son was mulier, prist; and the other demurred, because he did not answer the special matter; quære. Br. Bastardy, pl. 8. cites 7 H. 4. 9.

11. Ne unques accouple in lawful matrimony, is no plea but a dower or appeal, and not to bastardize any man; but he shall plead bastardy expressly, generally, or specially. Br. Bastardy, pl. 9. cites

11 H. 4. 78.

12. Note,

12. Note, per Hull, bastardy is no plea in trespass, but shall conclude to the franktenement; for if this shall be a plea, then writ shall be awarded to the bishop for the trial of it, which was never seen in trespass. Quod non negatur. Br. Bastardy, pl. 14. cites

14 H. 4. 37.

13. Scire facias to execute a fine of remainder tailed to K. his mother, and to the heirs of her body, and that J. F. married K. and that he is issue of her body, &c. Per Hales, you ought not to have execution; for before these espousals K. was grossly enfeint by J. with this plaintiss, and after J. espoused K. and after K. essimed herself from her baron with the said J. in adultery, within which time the plaintiss was born. Per Rolf, it does not lie in conusance of any by whom she was enseint, and though she remains in adultery, yet when the infant is born he shall be the son of the baron. Per Strange, a bastard is nullius silius, and this matter is only argumentative to prove him a bastard, for he ought to conclude, and so bastard; for a bastard is filius populi, and has no sather certain. Br. Bastardy, pl. 26. cites 1 H. 6. 3.

14. Note, by the best opinion, that where espousals are pleaded between a man and a woman, and that they had issue R. within the espousals, the other shall not say that he is bastard generally; per Marten & Paston J. clearly. Br. Bastardy, pl. 45. cites 10

Н. б. 23.

15. In trespass the defendant pleaded villeinage in the plaintiff, and he said that he was a bastard; per Markham, to this he shall not be received; for espousals were had between the father and mother at D. which continued all their lives, within which time the plaintiff was born; sed non allocatur, for all this may be true, for it may be that the father was 7 years beyond sea, within which time he was born, and therefore he said; and so mulier; & non allocatur, without saying further and not bastard; quod nota, and nothing was entered but mulier, and not bastard. Br. Bastardy, pl. 20. cites 19 H. 6. 17.

16. Where bastardy was pleaded in the plaintist in whom the defendant had pleaded villeinage, and the defendant said that the espousals were at D., &c. which continued all their lives, within which time the plaintist was born; & non allocatur; by which he concluded over, and so mulier, and not bastard, and prayed that all be entered; & non allocatur; for nothing was entered but mulier, and not bastard. Br. General Issue, pl. 13. cites 19 H. 6. 17.

17. Note, per Ashton and Moyle, where a man brings * detinue of charters, and makes to himself title, as heir in tail of the body of the father and mother, and that the tenements were given by the same charters, in this case it is a good plea for the defendant to say, that before the said T. and A. sather and mother of the plaintist, were espoused, this same T. at St. D. in another county, espoused one K. such a day and year, which espousals continued all their lives, and after the said T. espoused the said A. at B. who had issue the plaintist, and after the said A. died, and the said T. died, living the said K. and demanded judgment so action; and per Ashton and Moile, it is a good plea to plead this special bastardy in this personal action;

In this action it is no plea that the plaintiff is a bastard, but his challenge shall be entered, and he shall answer. Br.
Bastardy, pl.
15. cites 38
E. 3. 22.

for he intitled himself as heir in tail, and therefore a good plea, and shall not say generally bastard, * for then he shall not have the visne of both counties, but here he shall have it of both counties; but the plaintiff demurred, & adjornatur. Br. Bastardy, pl. 1.

cites 35 H. 6. 9.

18. Where in pracipe quod reddat against two, the one pleads that the demandant is a bastard, and the other pleads a release in bar, if the bastardy be found, and the release not, the plea of bastardy does not go to all, but the other shall lose his moiety, and he who pleaded bastardy shall save his moiety; for in plea real each may lose his part, or save his part, per Prisot; but per Moile, the bastardy sound shall serve both; quære inde. Br. Bastardy, pl.

24. cites 37 H. 6. 37.

19. In trespass the pleading was, that the defendant was a bastard, inasmuch as his father and mother were cousins within the degrees of marriage, and therefore were divorced, and there it is agreed by the justices, that the divorce causa consanguinitatis makes the issue, had before the divorce, a bastard, and the divorce was pleaded without shewing how they were cousins, and in what degree, and did not plead the record certain, but quod divorsabant' causa consanguin' prout patet de recordo, and yet well. Br. Deraignment, pl. 10. cites 8 E. 4. 28.

Sec tit. Trial (P)

(I) Trial.

[1. 18 E. 1. Libro Parliamentorum 2. upon the petition of William de Valenciis and his wife, to have the bull of the pope diretted to the archbishop of Canterbury allowed for the examination of a sentence of legitimation of Dionise the son Willielmi de Monte Canisio; upon oyer of the bull it is there said, quod bulla illa finaliter tendit ad jus successionis hæreditariæ terminandum, cum de successione hæreditaria nemo debeat cognoscere nisi curia regis, vel curia ecclesiastica ad mandatum curiæ domini regis, & etiam si bulla procederet, maniseste esset contra consuetudinem hactenus in regno usitatam, & quia dominus rex nuper providit quod appellationes non fiant vel causæ agentur in curia christianitatis de iis, quæ a curiis regis ibi sunt demandata, propter multa inconvenientia quæ exinde sequerentur, & etiam quia placita de successione ita ordinata se habent, quod primo per brevia domini regis incipere debent in curia regis, & de curia illa, si necesse suerit, mitti ad curiam christianitatis, & non e converso, & quia multa placita & innumerabilia, temporibus retroactis in curia regis placitata, & etiam judicia super eisdem, reddita irritarentur, & reversarentur si bulla ista procederit, &c. therefore difallowed.]

(K) How it shall be tried; and how not; and by wbom.

[1. GEneral bastardy ought to be tried by the bishop, and not per But special pais. 18 E. 4. 30.] shall be tried per pais, and not by certificate of the ordinary. Br. Bastardy, pl. 18. cites 21 E. 3. 39.-In baftardy it was in iffue if he was born before the espousals, or not, and it was tried per pais, and so * see that this is special bastardy, which shall always be tried per patriam, and general bastardy by certificate of the bishop. Br. Bastardy, pl. 17. cites 38 E. 3. 39 E. 3. 31. and 38 Ast. 24. See tit. Trial (P) pl. 1. 22, 23. 32. and the notes there.

[2. The ordinary cannot try bastardy, without a command by the Before the king's writ, upon a suit in a temporal court. Da. 1. Bastardy, 55. san, cap. 8. 39 E. 3. 31. b. per Thorpe.]

* [ 229 ] gave the king's writ

of bastardy, it was used, in this case, to write to the bishop to certify upon this plea, and the prelates answered, that they could not answer to this writ, &c. and therefore always since it has been used to inquire this iffue per patriam, and e contra where baffardy is alledged generally, and so special baffardy shall be tried per pais, and general bastardy by the bishop; per Scroope. Br. Bastardy, pl. 29. cites 11 Ass. 20.

13. When isfue is joined upon bastardy before it shall be awarded to the ordinary to be tried, proclamation shall be made thereof in the same court, and after the issue shall be certified into chancery, where proclamation shall be made once in every month, for three months, and after the chancellor shall certify it to the court where the plea is depending, and after it shall be proclaimed again in the same court, that all those, whom this plea concerns, should go to the ordinary to make their allegations. 10 H. 6. cap. 11.]

[4: If the bishop certifies bastardy, unless this comes in at the mise † So it is in of the parties, + [and by process] this is nothing to the purpose. book.

7 H. 6. 32. b.]

5. In assise it was agreed, that the assis may find bastardy by verdict against the plaintiff or defendant, and this in their verdict at large, as it seems; but if bastardy be pleaded, then it shall be sent to the bishop to certify it; quod nota, diversity. Br. Bastardy, pl. 28. cites 8 Aff. 5.

6. Mortdancestor, the tenant pleaded bastardy in the demandant, this shall be certified by the bishop of the diocese where the writ is brought, though the demandant said that mulier, and born in another diocese; for he may bring his proofs there. Br. Bastardy, pl. 33,

cites 25 Ass. 7.

7. Every bastardy, general or special, in affife alledged, shall be In affife tried by affise by the law; per Tank. Br. Bastardy, pl. 36. cites 28 Aff. 24.

where issue is not joined of bastardy, but the affife awarded at large, there they shall not write to the bishop to certify it, but it shall be tried by the actife. Br. Bastardy, pl. 38. cites 39 Ast. 4.

8. In affife, they were at iffue upon special bastardy, and it was tried by the affife; and per Tank, every bastardy pleaded in asfife shall be tried per pais, and because the court saw by inspection tion that the tenant was within age, so that the matter alledged by the plaintiff could not be a nient dedit of him, the assise was taken at large, and first inquired of the bar, and surther of the seism and disseism, and sound for the plaintiff, and he recovered. Br. Assise, pl. 351. cites 38 Ass. 24.

9. Where writ is to the bishop to certify whether bastard or mulier, the parol is without day till the bastardy be certified; for the bishop is judge, and shall not be compelled to any day certain. Br. Bastardy, pl. 16. cites 40 E. 3. 39. and 38 E. 3. li. Assise 30.

10. In affise, bastardy was tried by the bishop, in whose diocese the land is, and in time of the vacation of the bishoprick, writ shall issue to the guardian of the spiritualties, to certify it; quod nota. Br. Bastardy, pl. 39. cites 41 E. 3. 29.

in the conveyance, by which the demandant claimed, and because he was dead, and was no party to the writ, it was tried per pais, and not by certificate of the bishop. Br. Bastardy, pl. 3. cites 42 E. 3. 8.

by certificate of the bishop. Br. Bastardy, pl. 3. cites 42 E. 3. 8. [230] 12. In assis, the tenant was alledged to be born at S. in the same county, out of any espousals, where he entitled himself as heir; and the tenant said that he was born within the espousals at D. in a foreign county, and it was tried by the assis. Br. Bastardy, pl. 40. cites 46

E. 3. 3.

- 13. In cui in vita by the heir the tenant pleaded bastardy; and the demandant alledged special espousals in another county; judgment if he shall be received to alledge bastardy; and the other alledged that this amounted to mulier, prist quod non, and writ was awarded to the bishop where the land was, and not where the espousals were alledged. Br. Bastardy, pl. 7. cites 7 H. 4. 7.
- (L) In what Actions it may be tried. [And bow it must be certified.] pl. 3.

*Br. Bac. [1.] T may be tried by the bishop in an action of trespass, or tardy, pl., other personal action, as well as in actions real. *14 H. 4.

H. 4. 37. 36. † 19 H. 6. 17. b.]

1 Br. Bas[2. It may be tried in an assis as well as in a precipe quod redtardy, pl. 35. dat, or other writ in the right. 38 E. 3. 27. adjudged, ‡ 38 Ass.

—Br. Cer. 14. adjudged, 27 E. 3. 82. b.]
tissicate de

Evelque, pl. 27. cites S. C.——See tit. Trial (E. a) pl. 1. S. C. and the notes there.

[3, Baf-

[3. Bastardy ought to be certified under the seal of the ordinary; Br. Certififor it is not sufficient to be certified under the seal of the commissary, que, pl. 12 20 H. 6. 1.]

cate de Evescites 5.

4. Bastardy was certified in a replevin, and therefore it seems that the action is in the realty, and the certificate of mulier between the plaintiff in the affife and a stranger in the replevin was a good estoppel between the tenant in the assign, who was a ftranger, and the plaintiff in the assise. Br. Bastardy, pl. 19. cites 7 H. 6. 37.

5. Where a man is a mulier, there must be a special bastardy certified; for that the bishops own such a one to be legitimate; per Holt Ch. J. 5 Mod. 420. Mich. 10 W. 3.

(M) Who shall take Advantage of the Trial of Bastardy. And of what Trial, and e contra.

[1.] F a man be certified a mulier by the ordinary, this is not any eftoppel, because he may be a bastard by our law notwithstanding; for if he was born before marriage, and the marriage was * had afterwards, the ordinary will not certify him to be a bastard, but a mulier. + 18 E. 4. 29. b. 30. ‡ 11 H. 4. 84. 18 E. 3. 33. b. 34. adjudged. 30 E. 3. 8. b. 26 Aff. 64. § 7 H. 6. 37. But judgment shall be given in the action in which the certificate is made, according to the certificate, | 40 E. 3. 40. 30 E. 3. 8. b. adjudg-18 E. 3. 34. admitted, and 34. thereafter adjudgcd. cd. Contra ¶ 7 H. 6. 37. b.]

Fol. 362. *[231] † Br. Bas. tardy, pl. 43. S. P. cites 18 E. 4. 28. [but misprinted for 29. b. 30. I Fitzh. Bastardy, pl. 9. cites S. C.—__Br. Baftardy, pl. 12. cites s. c.

§ Br. Bastardy, pl. 10. cites S. C. ____Br. Certificate de Evesque, pl. 9. cites S. C. ___Br. Es. toppel, pl. 78. cites S. C. Fitzh. Estoppel, pl. 21. cites S. C.

Br. Bastardy, pl. 2. cites 40 E. 3. 39. S. C.

A Br. Estoppel, pl. 78. cites S. C. ........ Br. Certificate de Evesque, pl. 9. cites S. C. ....... Br. Bastardy, pl. 19. cites S. C .- Fitzh. Estoppel, pl. 21. cites S. C. - Br. Bastardy, pl. 12. cites S. C. accordingly per Tirwhit, and therefore a ftranger to this record may bafterdize him. -- Contra if be had been certified baffard by the bishop; this shall estop privies and strangers; for he who is a bastard by the ecciefiastical law is bastard by our law. Ibid. ____ But Brooke says, quære of this opinion of mulicity: for Brooke says, it seems that the ordinary shall not certify at the common law by the law of the church, but by the law of England. And Rolf relinquished the estoppel, and pleaded that he was born within the espousals at D. and so to issue. Ibid .- In affile, bastardy was certified in a replevin. The certificate of mulierty between the plaintiff in the affife and a stranger in the replevin, was a good estoppel between the tenent in the offife, who was a stranger, and the plaintiff in the affife; and Brooke says, see here that the opinion of Tirwhit is not law; for here it was adjudged a good estoppel. Br. Bastardy, pl. 19. cites 7 H. 6. 37.

Writ of entry sur diffeisin by the heir. The tenant said that he was a hastard, and the other said that mulier, and not bastard, by which it was sent to the bishop to certify, and day given to the parties till now, and the bishop certified that mulier, and the demandant prayed seisin of the land, and had it, notwithflanding that Fencot alledged that the usage had been in all actions, except dower, that the parol shall be put without day, where it is fest to the bishop to certify, &c. and the plea to be revived again by re-fummans; and yet non allocatur, but judgment ut supra. Br. Bastard, pl. 2. cites 40 E. 3. 39.

In mortdunceitor the tenant said that the demandant was born out of any espousals. The demandant hid that this is tantamount as bastard, whereas he has here certificate of the bishop that he is mulier, and yet the tenant had the plea. Queere. Br. Bastardy, pl. 29. cites 11 Ass. 20.

[2. If between ftrangers another be tried a bastard per pais, this Br. Trial, will not bind him who is so tried, because he is a stranger to the trial pl. 2. cites [and so arand cannot have an attaint. 40 E. 3. 37. b. Doctor & Student tions, but printed, and should be 40 E. 3. 37. b. pl. 11. by Finchden obiter.] — Fitzh. Trial, pl. 44. cites S. C. but S. P. does not appear there.

[3. But otherways it is of him that is privy to the attaint. Doc-tor & Student 68. b.]

Fitzh.

[4. If a man be certified a baftard by the ordinary, he shall be perTrial, pl.

44. cites S.

C. but S. P. cation, and because it is the highest trial thereof. Doctor & Studoes not apdent 68. and shall continue of record. * 40 E. 3. 38. † 11 H. 4, pear there.

84.]

Trial, pl. 9. cites 41 [but should be 40] E. 3. 37, b. S. C. & S. P. † Fitzh. Bastardy, pl. 6. cites S. C.—Br. Bastardy, pl. 12. cites S. C.—S. P. by Littleton. Br. Bastardy, pl. 43. cite, 18 E. 4. 28. [29. b. 30.]

Fitzh. Bas- [5. And so if the party, who is certified a bastard, is a stranger to tardy, pl. 6. the suit. II H. 4. 84.]

—Br. Bastardy, pl. 12. cites S. C.

Fitzh. Tri[6. [So] If a man be certified a bastard by the ordinary in a personal, pl. 6.
cites Mich.
al action, he shall be bound perpetually, as well as in actions real, so H. 6. 17.
19 H. 6. 18. b.]
S. C.—

Br. Bastardy, pl. 20. eites S. C. Br. Villeinage, pl. 20. cites S. C. Br. General Mue, pl. 13. cites S. C.

see pl. 1.
and the notes there.
§ There is no such folio in the Year-book.

‡[232]

‡ [7. If a man be certified a mulier by the ordinary, in an action between himself and J. S. this shall not bind strangers thereto; but they may say that he is a bastard. 23 Ass. 5. adjudged. 27 E. 3. § 82. b. adjudged.]

(N) At what Time the Trial shall bind.

[1. IF a man be certified a bastard, yet this shall not bind before judgment, given thereupon, in an action between him and the other. 18 E. 3. 34.]

In trespass, [2. If the defendant be certified a bastard by the ordinary, yet the they were at certificate shall lose its force, if the plaintiff be nonsuit after; for them bastardy, and the certificate is not of record. 18 E. 3. 34.]

it was tried by certificate of the hishop, quod nota, in action personal; and by the best opinion, after the certificant the plaintiff may be non-suited; and then per Moile J. this certificate is no conclusion at all of the bastardy, no more than after discontinuance. Br. Bastardy, pl. 41. cites 3 E. 4. 11.

[3. But after certificate of bastardy in the tenant, if the tenant dies, by which the writ abates, yet the certificate shall stand in force. 18 E. 3. 34.]

(O) Bastardy proved. When.

F. YUSTUM non est aliquem antenatum mortuum facere bastar. For by the dum, qui toto tempore suo pro legitimo habebatur. 8 Rep. 101. in Sir Richard Lechford's case, cites 13 E. 1. tit. Bastardy, 28.

law of England, by continuance of possession, and dying peaceably seised, he is adjudged heir to his father; and by his dying without issue, the mulier thall have the land. Ibid. cites S. C.

2. A man had iffue by his feme and was divorced, and after he took another feme and had other issue; the first issue sued in the spiritual court to repeal the divorce after the death of his father, and to bastardize the iffue of the second feme, and he had prohibition; for the title and the descent were comprised in the libel as was agreed there. Br. Prohibition, pl. 9. cites 12 H. 7. 24.

3. But a sentence given for a marriage may be repealed after the death of the parties, and so ex obliquo bastardize the issue. Jenk.

289. pl. 26.

4. The rule that a man shall not be bastardized after his death, holds only in case of bastard eigne and mulier puisne, viz. such a bastard as is born before the espousals of a father and mother, who marry afterwards, and said that the rule extended to no other; per cur. 1 Salk. 120. pl. 1. Hill. 6 W. 3. B. R. Pride v. Earl of Bath & Montague,

(P) Where they shall take by Grant or Devise. ·[ 233 ]

I. I ORD Powis gave certain lands to Thomas Gray his son, by D. 313. him begotten on the body of Jane Orwell, yet it was a good pur-D. 313. b. Trin. 14 chase and gift to Thomas Gray, because it was his known name; Eliz. Gray's cited by Dyer J. 3 Le. 49. pl. 69. case, S. C. & S. P. ad-mitted.~ P. obiter.

2. H. the 8th seised of certain lands, by letters patents granted A remainthem to T. Holt for life, remainder to John Holt his son who was in Dyer thought it a good purchase in law, as well truth a bastard. in the case of the king as of a common person, and if the king had granted the land to John Holt, without naming him son, the same had been a good purchase; but if he had named him John the son reputation of Thomas without giving him a surname, there the purchase should not be good if he were a bastard; because he hath not nomen cognitum, as where he hath a furname. 3 Le. 48. pl. 69. Mich. fuch name. 15 Eliz. C. B. Anon.

der limited to R. son of R. is good though he be a bastard, if in vulgar and conufance he is known by 6. Rep. 65. 2. 67. 2.

cites 39 E. 3. II. A bastard supposed to be the son of such a father, is not in law his son; but when he has the reputation and pretence of being his son, that pretence is enough to give the law such notice of him, as to enable him to purchase by that name; per Holt Ch. J. 7 Mod. 109. Mich. 1 Ann. B. R.

D. 223. pl. 29. Pasch. 15 Eliz. Lingen's case. —— S. C. cited Cro. E.

2. L. made a feoffment to his own use, and after devised that his feoffees should be seised to the use of his daughter A. who in truth was a bastard, and yet this is a good devise of the land by intention; for by no possibility they can be seised to her use; cited by Doderidge. Poph. 188. as the case of 15 Eliz. D. 323.

358. in pl. 17. ____ Jenk. 239. pl. 21. S. C. and if the will had directed an estate to be made by the seoffees to A. his daughter, it had been good because of the plain intent of testator.

4. A man cannot raise an use to a bastard by such name, though it Confideration of natucomes in the deed by way of remainder; agreed. And. 79. pl. 145. will not raise Trin. 19 Eliz. Gerard v. Worsely.

an use to a bastard; for though there is natural affect on between them, yet the raising the use is a constitution of the law, and therefore the use shall never arise. Jenk. 47. pl. 90. ——— D. 374. pl. 16. S. C.

> 5. If A. has issue a bastard and mulier both named John, and he gives to his son called John, the bastard shall take; but if to his son John, the mulier shall take; per Clark J. Mo. 230. pl. 367. Hill. 20 Eliz. in the exchequer.

> 6. If the issue of a bastard purchase land, and dies without issue. Though the land cannot descend to any heir of the part of the sather, yet to the heir of the part of the mother it may; so if the bastard was attainted; for the heirs of the part of the mother make not any conveyance by the bastard. Arg. Noy, 159. in case of the King v. Boraston & Adams.

[ 234 ] 7. A. makes feoffment to the use of himself for life; after to such In the fame issue or issues of the body of M. F. from elder to elder, as were recale reported by Croke, puted to be begotten by A. whether lawful or unlawful; and held by the limitaall but Popham, that it is a good remainder limited to a bastard; tion was to for a son in reputation suffices to make him a purchasor, cites 14 himself for life; then of Eliz. D. 313. and * though 22 Eliz. it was held that a man cannot fuch iffue, &c. who by by covenant raise a use to a bastard, yet by way of limitation of use on a feoffment he may. Noy, 35. Bladwell v. Edwards. common fupposition or intendment should be reputed to be begotten, &c. no iffue being born till afterwards; Gawdy thought the limitation good, though the issue was not in esse at the time. Popham agreed that such a remainder to a bastard in esse might be good, because he is a person known, and may be in time reputed the son of another, but thought it could not be good to a baftard before he is born, and he cannot gain the reputation or name at the instant of his birth, and if he cannot take then, he never shall after; for the law will not expect longer, and the limitation to one and the issues of his body, is always to be intended lawful iffue; and the law will never regard any other. Fenner J. inclined to that opinion, and said they had conferred with divers justices, and that the greater opinion of them was, that a remainder to bis first reputed for or kaffard is not good; for the law favours not fuch a generation, nor will fuffer fuch limitation. for the inconveniencies that might arise thereupon. Cro. E. 509. pl. 34. Mich. 38 & 39 Elis. B. R. Blodwell v. Edwards.—Mo. 430. pl. 602. S. C.

A woman might give lands in frank-marriage with her bastard. Noy, 35. cites Plowden.

8. If an obligation be made to J. S. filio & baredi G. S. where indeed he is a bastard; yet this obligation is good. Bacon's Elements, 91.

9. Devise to a son who is a reputed son is good; per Newdigate 2 Sid. 149. cites a case in 1655. Sir Jo. Mitchel v. Sayers.

10. Hegitimate son may take by the name of the reputed father after he has acquired a certain name by reputation; per Raymond J. Raym. 412. Mich. 32 Car. 2. B. R. obiter.

11. In

11. In case of a bastard the reputative name must be shewn to make the grant good. Arg. Parl. Cases, 222. in case of the King v. Bishop of Chester and Pierce.

12. A. devised 3000l. to all the natural children of B. his son by J. 8. Some were born before, and some after. Ld. C. Parker decreed, that the natural children born after the will shall not take share of the 3000l. for they cannot take till they have gained a name by reputation, and therefore if I grant to the issue of J. S. legitimate or illegitimate, yet a bastard shall not take. Wms.'s Rep. 529. Hill. 1718. Metham v. the Duke of Devon.

For more of Bastard in general, see Destent, Grants, Peir, Trial, and other proper titles.

(A) Berwick.

[1. BERWICK is not part of England, nor governed by the Debt was laws of England. 7 Rep. 23. b. Trin. 6. Jac. in Calvin's Cafe.]

brought on a bond made at Berwick, and it was Arg. Godb.

adjudged, that the plaintiff nil capiet per breve, because the court here had no jurisdiction. 387. cites 2 E. 3. Obligation 15.

2. Habeas corpus was awarded to the mayor of Berwick, and he was fined and imprisoned for his contempt in refusing to obey it. Cited Cro. J. 543. pl. 3. Mich. 17 Jac. B. R.

3. Covenant to repair houses in Berwick was tried in Northumberland. Lev. 252. Mich. 20 Car. 2. B. R. Crispe v. the Mayor, &c. of Berwick upon Tweed.

. 235 J Raym. 173. S. C. refolved for the plaintiff.—

- 88. S. C. adjornatur. Sid. 381. pl. 14. Jackson, &c. v. Mayor of Berwick, adjudged, on great debate, for the plaintiff. Vent. 58. S. C. the court ruled the venire to be well awarded.
- 4. Berwick is part of Scotland, and bound by our acts of parliament, because conquered in E. 4th's time; but the course is to name it expressly, because it is out of the realm, and not like to Wales. Vent. 59. Hill. 21 Car. 2. B. R. in case of Crispe v. the Mayor of Derwick.
- 5. Berwick upon Tweed is not within any county, has no sheriffs, the mayor there makes, executes, and returns all process, and generally, their suits there are commenced and ended in their own courts; but in a cause of land there, if commenced here, there is a suggesttion on the roll, that breve domini regis ibi non currit, as it is in Wales, Wales, and on this reason an attachment could not be granted against the mayor, because no sheriff to execute it; but a tipstaff 2 Show. 365. pl. 355. Trin. 36 Car. 2. B. R. the Maywas ient. or of Berwick's case.

For more of Berwick in general, see Ttal, and other proper titles.

Beyond Sea.

And the Effect of Persons being (A)What is. beyond Sea.

1. DEING beyond sea will excuse an heir not coming in to be 3 Rep. 99. admitted to a * copyhold; so from outlawry; so from a de-Sir Richard Lechfeent that tolls his entry; so from a non-claim on a fine by the comford's case, mon law; per 4 justices against one. Cro. J. 226. pl. 1. Mich. S. C. ad-7 Jac. B. R. Underhill v. Kelsey. judged. ---S. P. held Cro. J. 101. pl. 32. Mich. 3 Jac. B. R. Whitton v. Williams. But going beyond sea after the first proclamation made will not excuse the heir of a copyhold. Ibid. 100. b.

It was agreed by the counsel for the defendant, that if the going beyond sea had been after the descent, it would have bound the heir. Cro. J. 101. pl. 32. in S. C. of Whitton v. Williams. ——So if a man be disseised, and afterwards goes beyond sea, and a descent is cast afterwards, this shall toll his entry. 3 Rep. 100. b. cites Litt. f. 440. * Cited 3 Mod. 224.

- 2. A. having issue two sons, B. and C. infants, devised to B. 1001. and made D. executor. B. about 5 years since went beyond sea, leaving a note that he would not return in 7 years, but it is not known if he be living or not. C. as next of kin, suggesting B. to be dead, takes out administration, and brings a bill for the legacy. Decreed the 100l. and interest since B. went, to be paid to C.—C. giving security to repay it to B. if he should ever return, which security is to stand for 3 years, and no longer, but the plaintiff's own security to stand for ever. Fin. R. 419. Hill. 31 Car. 2. Norris v. Norris.
- 3. Executor in trust being gone a soldier to the Indies, and the plaintiff making affidavit of it, that he knew not if he was living or dead, nor where to find him to ferve him with process, ordered on motion, that though he was a necessary party defendant, the plaintiff might proceed against the other desendants without prejudice, for not bringing him to hearing, and plaintiff had a decree, feries, feries C. Vern. 487. pl. 473. Mich. 1687. in a note at the end of the case of Walley v. Whaley, Gaudy, and Warner.

[ 236 ]

4. Dublin, or any other place in Ireland, is beyond sea, within the meaning of that clause in the statute of limitations; per Holt

Ch. J. Show. 91. Hill. 1 W. & M. Anon.

5. Defendant being beyond sea did not avoid the statute of limi- The desendant's being tations. Show. 98. Trin. 2 W. & M. Hall v. Wyborn. beyond fea does not hinder or excuse the plaintiff for not suing within the 6 years. Show. 341, Mich. 3 W. & M. Cheveley v. Bond. --- But now 4 & 5 Ann. cap. 16. alters the law in this case of the defendant's being beyond sea. And see 5 Geo. 2. cap. 25. as to proceedings in chancery in such cases.

6. A. who was resident at Tunis, sued J. N. at law, and J. N. brought a bill against A. and had an order, that service on defendant's attorney should be good; but defendant's attorney shall not be allowed to answer for the defendant without oath, though it was infisted that no commission could be sent to Tunis, and that it was the same as if the defendant lived in an enemy's country; but per the court cur. the English have a consul at Tunis, and commissions have gone there by way of Leghorn, and so denied the motion. Wms.'s Rep. 523. Mich. 1718. Anon.

But if there had been a general letter of attorney to one to appear in and defend fuits, would have ordered fuch attorney to appear for the principal, and that service on him should be good service. Ibid.

(B) Of Things done beyond Sea. And Pleadings.

1. IF an obligation bears date at Cane in Normandy, the obligee In debt upon may bring action in England, and declare in Cane in the county the defendant of S. in a place called Normandy. Quod nota bene. Br. Obliga- said that it tion, pl. 87. cites 48 E. 3. 2.

quas made oufter le mere, and prayed that the plaintiff be examined, and it was denied per cur. For it was faid that because it bure date at large, without place certain, it suffices, though it was made at Rome, or other place, and may be alledged to be made here. Br. Examination, pl. 31. cites 21 E. 4. 74. Windham J. said that a bond dated at Paris in France may be laid at Paris in France in Islington; but where it is dated at Paris in France, within the kingdom of France, it is not triable at all; and that so it had been held by good opinion. 2 Keb. 315. pl. 26. Hill. 19 & 20 Car. 2. B. R. in case of Freeman v. King.

2. Debt upon an obligation. The plaintiff counted that it was S. P. and made at B. in Kent, where, in truth, B. is in Normandy ultra mare, and it was for him to serve in the war in France; where it was faid per Belk. that causes of war are determinable before the constable and marshal; but there it was admitted, that of deed or contract made in England for service to be done beyond sea, or upon the sea, as to go to Rome, or to serve as a mariner, &c. the action lies in Br. Jurisdiction, pl. 15. cites 48 E. 3. 3. England.

the defendant faid that no such place called B. in the county of Kent; an therefore Brooke fays it feems it had been good to have counted at a place called B. in such a will in the county of Kent. And where the indenture " was to serve in the war in France, the party may shew bow be served there, and the other may alledge payment without Brooke says, quære if the defendant says that the plaintiff did not serve him, prout, &c. where this shall be tried, by reason that the act shall be done ultra mare. Br. Dette, pl. 46. cites S. C. ____Br. Lieu, pl. 16. cites 48 E. 3. 2, 3. S. C.

3. A bond made in France is suable in England. Br. Obligation, So a bond pl. 7. cites 20 H. 6. 23. and fays this feems [to be] where it does bearing date not bear date at any place certain. be fued in England. Jenk. 10. pl. 18. cites 6 Rep. Dowdale's case. ------Where the plaintist declared on a bond, and fet forth that it was made at Bourdeaux in France, this court-of B. R. never had any jurisdiction, because the matter did arise in a foreign nation. Carth. 12. in case of Jennings v. Hankyn.—Jenk. 31. pl. 60. makes the difference between Amiens in France and Amiens in regne Francie; and that in the last case it cannot be sued in England.

*[237] at Amiens in France may

Upon a bond which hears date in Normandy a man shall not have action here; but in case of will dated there and proved here, it is good. Arg. Godb. 387, 388. cites Testament, 16. per Pole.

Generally speaking the deed, upon the over of it, must be consistent with the declaration; but in these cases propter necessitatem, if the inconsistency be as little as possible, it is not to be regarded, as where a contrast was of a voyage from Fort St. George to Great Britain, this imports Fort St. George to be different from Great Britain. The plaintiff declared that the defendant continued at Fort St. George in Indibus Orientalibus; and upon over of the deed it bore date at Fort St. George, yet it was adjudged for the plaintiff. 10 Mod. 255. Trin. 13 Ann. B. R. Parker v. Crooke.

But in the declaration a place in England muß be alledged pro forms. 10 Mod. 255. Parker v. Crook.——Co. Litt. 6. 440. 261. b. S. P.——Jo. 68. Arg. Godb. 388. cites 1 E. 3. 1. 18. 8 E. 3. 51. and 13 H. 4. 5, & 6. and 6 R. 2. 2. and 20 H. 6. 28, 29. 20 E. 4. 1. 21 E. 4. 22. ——Lutw. 950. Davis v. Yale.——Such place shall be intended in England, and judges ought to maintain the jurisdiction of the court, if the case be not evidently out of the jurisdiction. Lat. 5. in

Ward's

4. In debt upon an obligation, that the defendant should set over 18d. wages by the day of a spire of Calice, he pleaded that he had done it accordingly at Calice in the county of Kent; and Jenney imparled, and therefore it seems that upon obligation made beyond sea, the plaintiff may alledge the deed to be made at the same place in such a county in England. Br. Count, pl. 42. cites 15 E. 4. 14.

5. If a man be bound to pay money, or such like, beyond sea, the deed is single, and the condition void, because it cannot be tried in England; and where a man pleads a plea triable beyond sea, this is no plea, and the other may demur. Br. Conditions, pl.

170. cites 21 E. 4. 10. per Brian Ch. J.

6. A release made beyond sea is void. Br. Trials, pl. 58. cites 21 H. 7. 33. per Fineux Ch. J.

7. Action upon the case was brought in London by A. B. that whereas he was possessed of certain wine, and other stuff, and shewed certain in such ship ad valentiam, &c. and did not shew place certain where he was thereof possessed, and yet well; and alledged that the defendant such a day, year, and place in London promised for 10l. that if the said ship and goods did not come safe to London, and be landed there, that then he shall satisfy to the plaintiff 1001. and that after the ship was robbed in the trade upon the sea, by which he brought the action for not satisfying, and the truth was that the bargain was made beyond sen, and not in London; but in action upon the case upon assumpsit, &c. which is not local, the place is not material no more than in debt; for he alledged that the faid goods in the parish of St. Dunstan, in the East, London, before they were put to land or discharged, were carried away by persons unknown, &c. and the action lies well in London, though they were lost upon the high sea. Br. Action sur le Case, pl. 107. cites 34 H. 8.

8. Ouster le mere is a good plea upon the statute of 23 Eliz. Skin. 99. Hill. 35 Car. 2. B. R. in case of the King v. Hurst.

9. A fine was levied and acknowledged at Orleans in France, and was certified and allowed for good by the common law here in England. Godb. 262. pl. 359. Mich. 10 Jac. C. B. Coke Ch. J. cites it as allowed for good law in Sir Robert Dudley's case.

10. No replevin lies for goods taken beyond the seas, though brought hither by the defendant afterwards; per Pollexfen Ch. J. Show. 91. Hill. 1 W. & M. Nightingale v. Adams.

11. If the contract be laid in London, and a collateral matter, or the thing contracted for, be done beyond sea, you need not alledge it done here, in Warda de Cheap; per cur. Show. 348. Pasch. 4 W. & M. Mudge v. Bridges.

The plaintiff might have declared that the defendant apud Fort St. David's in the East-Indies, viz. apud London, in Paroch, &c. for that was only using London, &c. for a place of trial. — 10 Mod. 255, 256. Parker v. Crook.

For more of Beyond Sea in general, see Evizence, Trial, and other proper titles.

Bills of Erchange, Notes, ec.

(A) What are Bills of Exhange.

1. DEBT against a merchant upon a bill by him, payable at the Brownl. feast of the purification called Candlemas-Day; and after judgment for the plaintiff it was moved in arrest thereof, because payment at Candlemas is not known in our law; but judgment was affirmed; for that amongst merchants such payment is known to be on the 20th [2d of] Feb. and the judges ought to take notice thereof for the maintenance of traffick. Yelv. 135. Mich. 6 Jac. B. R. Pierson v. Pounteys.

102. S. C. but seems only a tranflation of

2. A gentleman travelling beyond sea, for his education, and who never was a merchant, draws a bill. He is by drawing fuch a bill become a trader, and within the custom of merchants, as to bills of exchange. Show. 125. Mich. 1 W. & M. in cam. scacc. Witherley v. Sarsfield.

2 Vent. 292. 295. Sarafield v. Witherly, in cam. scacc. S. C. and judgment accordingly, and so a judgment in B. R. was reversed .- Carth. 82. S. C. says it was agreed by all the judgment should be rewerfed accordingly; and that this was upon confideration had of the inconveniencies which might ensue, and the suspicion which might increase among foreign merchants upon bills of exchange, if persons who took upon themselves to draw such bills should not be liable to the payment thereof. Comb. 45. S. C.——Ibid. 152. S. C.

3. Goldsmiths bills are governed by the same laws as other bills of exchange, and every indorsement is a new bill; per Holt Ch. 1 Salk. 132. Hill. 5 W. & M. in B. R. Hill v. Lewis.

4. Case upon the custom of merchants, and declares that the de- Skin. 198. fendant per notam sive bill' secundum consuetudinem, promised to pay 60 guineas to the plaintiff, if the plaintiff should be married within 2 months, and avers that he was married, &c. The defendant de-The court inclined against the custom, this not being by way of negociation, but a note to pay money upon a mere contingen- the plead-pl. 32. S. C. and the court held it to be ill. — 4 Mod. 242. S. C. and cy, inge; judgment was given for the defendant; for to pay fuch a con-cy, which by this artifice they would make equal with a bond, and not let forth any consideration; and they said it is the duty of the judges to suppress * new inventions. Comb. 227. Mich. 5 W. & money upon M. B. R. Pearson v. Garret.

tingency, cannot be called trading, and therefore not within the custom of merchants.

5. The notes of goldsmiths (whether they be payable to order or to bearer) are always accounted among merchants as ready cash, and not as bills of exchange. Ld. Raym. Rep. 744. at Guildhall, Trin. 7 W. 3. Taffwell & Lee v. Lewis.

6. A goldsmith's note indersed is as a bill of exchange against the indorsor. Ld. Raym. Rep. 743, 744. 7 W. 3. before Holt Ch. J.

at Guildhall, Tassall & Lee v. Lewis.

7. Bills of exchange at first extended only to merchant strangers, trading with English merchants; and afterwards to inland bills between merchants trading the one with the other here in England, and afterwards to all traders and negociators, and of late time to all persons trafficking or not; per Treby Ch. J. 2 Lutw. 1585. Hill. 8 W. 3. in case of Bromwich v. Lloyd.

8. I promise to pay the bearer 201. on demand. Holt Ch. J. seemed to think that this was not a bill of exchange; adjornatur.

Mod. 380. Pasch. 12 W. & M. Carter v. Palmer.

9. A bill drawn payable to W. R. or order, was ruled to be within the custom of merchants, and such bill may be negociated and assigned by custom, and the contract of the parties; and an action may be grounded on it, though it is no specialty. 3 Salk.

67. pl. 2. Pasch. 12 W. 3. B. R. Jordan v. Barlow.

Plaintiff declared upon a custom among merchants in London trading there, that if a merchant agned a note promiting to order to '

10. The plaintiff brought an action on a note for money payable to the plaintiff or order, and declared on the custom of merchants, and laid a general indebitatus; and on the general issue entire damages were given. The court held that this is not with the cuftom of merchants, and being no specialty, no action can be grounded upon it. It was then moved that being void, no damages could be intended given for it; sed non allocatur; for it is not a matpay T. S. or ter insensible, but void in law. 1 Salk. 129. pl. 12. Pasch. 1 Ann. B. R. Clerk v. Martin.

much, &c. that he becomes bound by the custom to pay it; this judgment was by nil dicit, and error being brought in B. R. the counsel would have diffinguished this from the case of CLIRK v. MARTIN, which was laid generally between all merchants, whereas this is laid as a special custom in London, and that confessed by the judgment by nil dicit; but per Holt Ch. J. this custom to oblige one to pay by note without any confideration, is void and against law; and judgment was reversed. 2 Salk. 129. pl. 13. Pasch. 1 Ann. B. R. Potter v. Pearson. --- 2 Ld. Raym. Rep. 759. S. C. and judgment reversed accordingly. -----Ibid. 774. Trin. I Ann. BURTON V. SOWTER, S. P. and judgment was flayed after a verdict for the plaintiff.

A note was drawn thus: I promise to pay to J. S. or order, the sum of 1001. on account of evine had from bim; J. S. indorses the note to B. who brought an action against the drawer, and declared on the custom of merchants, as on a bill of exchange. It was moved in arrest of judgment upon the authority of CLERK & MARTIN's case; but it was answered, that in that case the drawer brought the action, whereas here it is by the indorfee; and that he that gave this note did, by the tenor thereof make it affignable, or negotiable by the words (or order) which amounts to a promise or undertaking to pay it to any whom he should appoint, and that the indorsement is an appointment to the plaintist. The whole court seemed clear for staying of judgment, and at last took the vacation to consider of it. Mich. 2 Ann. B. R. Buller v. Crips. ----- I Salk. 130. pl. 16. S. C. but S. P. does not fully ap----- 2 Ld. Raym. Rep. 757. S. C. adjudged per tot. cur. for the plaintiff.

II. Pay

11. Pay to me or my order so much, is a bill of exchange if accepted; and this is the only way to make a bill of exchange, without the intervention of a third person. I Salk. 130. pl. 16. Trin. 2 Ann. B. R. Butler v. Crips.

6 Mod. 29. Buller V. Crips, S. C. but S. P. dues not'exactiy appear.

12. 3 & Ann. cap. 9. s. 1. All notes in writing made and signed by any person, &c. or by the servant or agent of any corporation, banker, &c. or trader intrusted to sign such notes, whereby they or their scribed by agents, &c. promise * to pay to any person, &c. his, &c. order or bearer, any sum mentioned in such note shall be construed to be by virtue thereof due and payable to any such person, &c. to whom the same is made pay-, and signed able.

A note wrote by the plaintiff, and fubthe defendant, is a note made by the defendant within this act; for the figning or fabscribing is the lien, and the writing or making is only the mechanical part of it. 3 New. Ab 600. cites Trin. 6 Ann. B. R. Ash v. Baron.

It was a question whether on this statute the want of consideration of a promissory note can be given in evidence. Two judges were of opinion that it could not, but the two senior judges and Ld. King were of a contrary opinion, and that this act only turned the proof upon the defendant, to shew that no confideration was given for fuch note, which by the statute is made evidence, but not conclusive evidence of the consideration. G. Equ. R. 154. Mich. 8 Ges. 1. Brown v. Marsh.

13. A note was, I promise to pay 501. or render the body of J. S. to prison before such day; it was adjudged to be no negotiable note within the act of parliament, and that an action could not be maintained on that note within that law, because the money was not absolutely payable, but depended upon a contingency, whether he would surrender J. N. to prison or not; cited per cur. by the other 2 Ld. Raym. Rep. 1362. as Mich. 1 Geo. Smith v. Boheme.

[ 240 ] S. C. cited 2 Ld. Raym. Rep. 1306. cited 8 Mod. 362. arg. and admitted fide.

14. I promise to pay to W. 1001. in 3 months after date, value received of the premises in Rosemary-lane, late in the possession of T. R. Upon a demurrer the court held this clearly a promissory note within the stat. 3 & 4 Ann. cap. 9. and judgment for the plain-2 Ld. Raym. Rep. 1545. Mich. 2 Geo. Burchell v. Slo-

15. Bill drawn on a cashier of a certain company, and for him to 2 Ld. Raym. pay out of the cash of such a company, is not a bill of exchange, and suable as such; for a bill of exchange is not payable out of a Herle, S. C. particular fund; and so a judgment in C. B. was reversed. 8 Mod. 265. Trin. 10 Gco. 1. Jenny v. Heale.

Rep. 1361. lenney v. and judgment in C. B. was reversed in B. R. S. C. cited Arg. 2 Ld. Raym. Rep. 1482. -- So a bill drawn upon B. requiring him to pay C. 7L every menth out of the growing Julfistance of the drawer, and place it to his account, was resolved to be no bill of exchange; and so a judgment in C. B. was reversed. 10 Mod. 294. 316. Pasch. 1 Geo. 1. B. R. Josselyn v. Lacier. — S. C. cited per cur. 2 Ld. Raym. Rep. 1362. -S. C. cited Arg. 2 Ld. Raym. Rep. 1481, 1482. So where it was to pay to C. S. or order, 91. 102. as my quarter's balf-pay by advance from such a day to such a day following, was adjudged in C. B. a good bill of exchange; and judgment affirmed in B. R. 2 Ld. Raym. Rep. 1481. Paich. 13 Geo. Mackleod v. Snee & al'.-Barnard. Rep. in B. R. 12. S. C. --- So where it was to fuy out of the 5th payment when it should become due, and promised that it should be allowed, it was adjudged that an action was not maintainable upon this bill, as a bill of exchange. 2 Ld. Raym. Rep. 1563. Mich. 3 Geo. 2. Haydock v. Lynch.

16. I promise to pay to T. S. 501. if J. S. doth not pay it within Action was brought on this note, and verdict was for the plaintiff; but judgment was arrested, because the drawer was not the original debtor, but might be a debtor on contingency. 8 Mod. 363. Pasch. 11 Geo. 1. cites it as the case of Appleby v. Riddolph.

Vol. IV.

17. There

17. There are no precise words necessary to be used in a promissory note or bill of exchange. 2 Ld. Raym. Rep. 1397. Trin. 11 Geo. 1'. cites Rast. 338. and says that deliver such a sum of money, makes a good bill of exchange.

1 Ld.Raym. Rep. 1396. S. C. Powis J. relied much upon the verdict in this case; but Fortescue J. Reynolds J. and Raymond Ch. J. were of opinion, that if the within the act, the verdict could but the note would be within the act, or not upon the words of the note; and judgmentfor the plaintiff. * [ 241 ]

18. The indorfee brought an action against the drawer of a note, by which he promised to account with T. S. or his order for 501. value received by him, &c. per cur. the statute of 3 & Ann. cap. Q. was made for the ease of trade, and it is a remedial law, for which reason it shall be extended as far as possible; therefore the words in this note, by which the drawer promises to be accountable to T. S. for 501. shall be construed as a promise to pay the money, and the rather, because it is to be accountable to T. S. or his order, but it is impossible for him to account with the indorsee, therefore it must be to pay; besides this must be originally either a debt or note was not a trust, and nothing appears in the note to make it a trust, therefore it must be a debt. As to the objection that * the drawer may be a factor, and might apply this money for the use of the drawee; not help it; the words in this note will not make him a factor, (viz.) I promise to be accountable for so much money, &c. For the money must be received to account as well as the promise made to account; therefore the word accountable in this case, shall be taken to pay; and the difference is, when it is to be accountable for so much money, value received, and when it is value received on account, or, to account, or, as by account, as it is usual between merchant and factor, or lord and steward, and it would be dangerous to the credit of those notes, if this should not be good; therefore judgment was given for the plaintiff. 8 Mod. 363, 364. Pasch. 11 Geo. Norris v. Lea.

> 19. There is no occasion for the words (value received) to be in the bill of exchange itself; per cur. obiter. Barnard. Rep. in B. R. 88. Mich. 2 Geo. 2.

> 20. In case for money had and received to the plaintiff's use, the defendant pleaded non affumplit, and gave notice to let off the following bill of exchange, directed to J. S. "Sir, at fix weeks of ter date, pay to Benjamin Wheatley, Esq; or order, eight gui-" neas, for your humble servant, John Pierce. London, Aug. 23d, " 1736." At the trial it was objected, and agreed to by the court, first, that this was not a bill of exchange within the custom of merchants, nor could be taken advantage of as such, either by way of set-off, or by an action brought upon it; nor would it be any fort of evidence of money lent, there being no consideration either appearing on the note, or offered to be proved, and it is nothing more than a bare power or authority to receive so much for the plaintiff's Secondly, that if it had amounted to a bill of exchange, yet the laches of the defendant, in not demanding the money, and giving notice in case of non-payment for so long a time, would effectually discharge the plaintiff; and accordingly the plaintiff had a verdict, at the sittings in C. B. at Weltminster, before Ld. Ch. J. Willes, after Trin. Term, 1742. Pierce v. Wheatley.

- Demandable and payable. When. How. And of whom.
- I. CONVENIENT time is according to the usage of trade skinn. 410. and circumstances of particular cases; per Holt Ch. J. pl. 6. Hill. ς W. & M. 1 Salk. 132. pl. 19. Hill & al' v. Lewis. in B. R. the S. C. & S. P. by Holt Ch. J.
- 2. The time of receiving money upon a goldsmith's note is immediately, or else it will be at the peril of him who has the note. He who delivers over the note will not be charged if the goldsmith fail, as the drawer of a bill of exchange would be; but the receiver is supposed to give credit to the goldsmith, and the note is looked upon as ready money, payable immediately; and if he does not like it, he ought to refuse it, but having accepted it, it is at his own peril. Ld. Raym. Rep. 744. Trin. 7 W. 3. at Guildhall, Tassell v. Lewis.

But note, if the party to whom the note is delivered, demands the money of the goldsmith in reasonable time, and he will not pay it, it will charge him who gave the note. Ibid. cites Hill. 1 Ann. B. R. at Guildhall, Hopkins v. Geary.

3. There is no custom for the protest of inland bills of exchange, nor any certain time assigned by the custom for the payment of them, therefore the money ought to be demanded in reasonable time after it is payable, and then if it is not paid, the drawer will be charged. See the statute 9 W. 3. cap. 17. Ld. Raym. Rep. 743, 744.

Trin. 7 W. 3. Tassell v. Lewis. 4. A bill was made payable 10 days after fight; Powell and Nevil J. held, that the day ought to be included, so that the day whereon the bill was shewn, shall be reckoned one of the ten. But Treby Ch. J. e contra; but notwithstanding, because his brothers were of a contrary opinion, he awarded that the writ should stand, and that the defendant should answer over. Ld. Raym. Rep. 280. Mich. 9 W. 3. Bellasis v. Hester.

at Guildhall, that the day of fight is to be taken exclusive; for the law will not allow of fractions in a day. Barnard. Rep. in B. R. 303. Hill. 2 Geo. 2. Coleman v. Sayer.

S. P. and the

Ch. J. held

- 5. A demand of a servant of the drawer, who used to pay money for him, is a demand; per Holt. 12 Mod. 241. Mich. 10 W. 3. in case of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England v. Newman.
- 6. An executor gave a legatee a bill on a goldsmith, but the legatee did not demand the same of the goldsmith, and the goldsmith breaks. It was held by Ld. Keeper, that the loss shall be to the legatee; but if he had demanded it in convenient time, and the goldsnith had not paid it, but had broke, it would be no payment, but legatee might resort back to the executor for his legacy. it was said in this case, that 4 or 5 days should be a convenient time for this purpose. 2 Freem. Rep. 247. pl. 314. Hill. 1700. Phillips v. Phillips.

S. C. cited 2 Freem. Rep. 257. pl. 324. Tiin. 1702. in case of Crawley v. Crowcher, in which case it was held and admirted, that if a man re-crives a goldsmith's bill in payment for money, and he that receives the bill never demands it in 3 cr. 1 days time at the most, and afterwards the goldsmith breaks, that this neglect shall occasion the loss to sall upon the receiver; but if the goldsmith breaks in 3 days time, the loss shall fall upon him who gave the bill for payment; for although taking a goldsmith's bill is payment prima facie, yet it is subject to that contingency, that the bill may be had if it be demanded in 3 days time, and that the Ld. Keeper said was the practice in Guildhall, when he practised there; but in this case the plaintiff was offered bis choice at the goldsmith's shop, to have either his money or a bill, and he chose a bill, and the next day the goldsmith broke, and therefore the loss fell not upon the party who paid the money, but upon the plaintiff; for it was his own fault that he would not take his money.

7. Time of demand of foreign bills is 3 days, and no allowance is to be made for Sundays and holidays. 1 Salk. 128. pl. 9. Pasch. 11 W. 3. at nisi prius, per Holt Ch. J. Lambert v. Pack.

8. Three days of grace are allowable by the custom of London, as well where bills are payable at certain days after sight, as where it is payable upon sight; per the Ch. J. at Guildhall. Barnard. Rep.

in B. R. 303. Hill. 2 Geo. 2. Coleman v. Sayer.

o. A question was, whether 3 days of grace in certain are allowable upon inland bills as well as upon foreign ones, or whether only a reasonable time? The common serjeant, and the foreman of the jury, said, that the constant practice of the city was, to allow them in one case as well as the other; upon which the Ch. J. said, that then he would not alter it; though he observed, that he remembered two cases, one in Ld. Ch. J. Kelynge's time, the other in Ld. Holt's, where they were both of the opinion, that in inland bills only it is a reasonable time; and what that is the jury ought to determine. Barnard. Rep. in B. R. 303. Hill. 2 Geo. 2. Coleman v. Sayer.

[243] (C) Payable to whom. In respect of the Words.

Adjudged
10 Mod.
286. Hill.
1 Geo. 1.
2 Show. 8. Pasch. 30 Car. 2. B. R. Frederick v. Cotton.

B. R. . . . .

v. Ormston

Carth. 403.

2. Per cur. a bill of exchange, payable to a man and his order, S. C. adopted acounty or to his order only, was one and the same.

12 Mod. 125. Pasch. or to his order only, was one and the same.

9 W. 3. Fisher v. Pomsret.

S. P. by
Holt Ch. J. at the fittings in London, 2 Dec. 1696. Comb. 401. Anon.—— i2 Mod. 309. Mich.
11 W. 3. S. P. per Holt Ch. J. in case of Hart v. King.——S. P. agreed. Comyns's Rep. 76.
Trin. 12 W. 3. pl. 49.

(D) Where there is a Cesty que Use.

2 Show.
509. pl. 473.
S. C. adjorcannot maintain an action against A. for this money, and so B.
may may indorse and assign the bill to any one, and such indorsee may Show. 4. bring action against the drawer. Carth. 5. Trin. 3 Jac. 2. B. R. Evans v. Cramlington.

S. C. Pasch. 1 W. & M. adjudged accordingly, per tot. cur. Skinn. 264. S. C. curia advisare vult. 296. 307. Cramlington v. Evans, S. C. in cam. scace. and judgment in B. R. affirmed.

Of Bills payable to Bearer.

A. By a note under seal, promised to pay to the bearer thereof, upon the delivery of the note, 1001. and avers, that it was delivered to A. by the bearer thereof, and that the plaintiff was so. The court said, that the person seems sufficiently described at the time that it is made a deed, which is at its delivery; and by the delivery he expounds the person before meant; as when a merchant promises to pay to the bearer of the note, any one that brings the note shall be paid; but Jones J. said, that it was the custom of merchants that made that good. Adjornatur. 2 Show., 160, 161. Pasch. 33 Car. 2. B. R. Shelden v. Hentley.

2. Ruled, that where a bill is drawn payable to W. R. or bearer, an assignee must sue in the name of him to whom it was made payable, and not in his own name; for if the bearer was allowed to fue in his own name, then a stranger, who by accident may find the note, if lost, might recover; but if it is made payable to W. R. or order, there an affiguee may fue in his own name, because the order must be made by indorsement, or the like, to shew 3 Salk. 67. pl. 1. Pasch. 9 W. 3. C. B. the drawer's confent. Nicholfon v. Seldnith.

3. Bellamy gave a bill of exchange payable to N. or bearer; N. Comyns's went and negotiated with the bank at the usual rate of interest. After this, the bank received 1001. of Bellamy, and after that de- w.3. s. c. manded the * money due on the bill of a fervant of B. who did not and a new pay it; and after Bellamy failed, and the bank brought an af- trial grantsumplit against N. for the money, and on general issue a verdict the bank for the plaintiff, and a new trial granted, the verdict being against having diflaw; for whatfoever may be the practice among the bankers, the counted the law is, that if a bill or note be payable to one or bearer, and he negotiates the bill, and delivers it for ready money paid to him, without any indersement on the bill, this is a plain buying of the bill; as of tallies, bank-bills, &c. but if it be indorfed, there is a remedy against the indorsor. But Holt laid the rule thus: if a man gives such a bill for money not due before without indorsement, it is a fale of the bill. 12 Mod. 241. Mich. 10 W. 3. The Governor when the and Company of the Bank of England v. Newman.

Rep. 57. Pasch. 11 ed, because bill with allowance, it was a purchase in them of the bill; besides the bill was not received at the day bill was good, and

' L 244 J

B. solvent, which delay was laches in the bank. - Ld. Raym. Rep. 442. Trin. 11 W. 3. S. C. & S. P. held accordingly by Holt Ch. ]. and that a new trial was granted; but upon a new trial the 'mry found for the plaintiffs.

4. If a bill be payable to A. or bearer, it is like so much money paid to whomsoever the bill is given, that let what accounts or conditions foever be between the party who gives the note and A. to whom it is given, yet it shall never affect the bearer, but he shall have his whole money. 2 Freem. Rep. 258. pl. 324. Trin. 1702, in case of Crawley v. Crowther,

(F) Where the Words are Imperfect.

I. I F I owe to A, B. 201, to be paid in watches, the action must be brought for the money, and not for the watches. And,

117. pl, 145. Hill. 26 Eliz. Anon,

Brownl. 103. S. C. but is only a translation of Yelv.— Yelv. 147. S. C. ac-

2. Memorandum that I have received of E. T. to the use of my master J. S. the sum of 401. to be paid at Michaelmas following. The bill was sealed, and, being general, charges the servant, and no remedy upon it against the master. Adjudged. Yelv. 137. Mich, 6 Jac. B, R, Talbot v. Godbolt.

cordingly per tot.cur. and this upon conference with all the justices in Fleet-street.

3. But if the bill had recited the repayment to have been to be made by his master, then, per omnes, the bill would only be a receipt, and merely to another's use; per tot, cur. and this upon conserence with all the justices in Fleet-street. Yelv, 147. Mich 6 Jac. B. R. Talbot v. Godbolt,

4. I promise to account with T. S. or his order, for 501. value received, per me, &c. Action lies on this note for indorfee against the drawer, on the 3 & 4 Ann. 9. 8 Mod. 362. Pafch. 11 Geo. 1, Morice v. Lee.

[ $45 ]

(G) Drawer. Chargeable in what Cases.

I. I f the indersement be void, yet he that drew the bill shall be liable to him to whose use it was first made; per cur. 2 Keb. 3,03. Mich. 19 Car. 2. B. R. in case of Dashwood v.

2. If the drawer mentions it for value received, then he is chargeable at common law; but if no fuch mention, then you must come upon the custom of merchants only; per Holt Ch. J. Show. 5. Pasch. 1 W. & M. in case of Cramlington v. Evans.

3. Bill of exchange was indorsed, yet, if it be not paid, the drawer is liable, and that though he be a gentleman, and no merchant. Cumb. 152. Mich, 1 W. & M. at Serjeant's-inn. Sark-

5. C.—2 field v. Witherly.

4. Pay to A. or bis order, 401. and place it to my account, value received. The money was not demanded till the action (which was an indebit' assumptit) was brought against the drawer, drawer, and which was 2 years after the bill given. Holt Ch. J. upon confideration, held that fuch a note should be deemed payment, and that the plaintiff was satisfied with the merchant as his debtor, if he did not within convenient time resort back to the drawer; and keeping the bill so long was an evidence that he thought the merchant good at that time, and that he agreed to take him as his debtor. Show. 155. Pasch. 2 W. & M. Darrach y. Savage.

Carth. 82. S. C. --- 2 Vent. 292. Show. 125. Ş, C.

5. If the indorsee of a bill accepts but 2d. from the acceptor, he can never after resort to the drawer. Ld. Raym. Rep. 744. Trin.

7 W. 3. Taffel v. Lewis.

- 6. A. gave to B. a bill of exchange for value received. B. assigns it to C. for an bonest debt. C. brings an indebitatus assumpsit on this against A. and had judgment; on which A. brings his bill to be relieved in equity against this judgment, because there was really no value received at the giving this bill, and C. would have no prejudice, who might still resort to B. upon his original debt. It was anfwered, that A. might be relieved against B. or any claiming as fervant or factor of or to the use of B. But the chancellor held, that C. being an honest creditor, and coming by this bill fairly, for the satisfaction of a just debt, he would not relieve against him, because it would tend to destroy trade, which is carried on every where by bills of exchange, and he would not lessen an honest creditor's security. Comyns's Rep. 43. pl. 28. Mich. 9 W. 3. Anon.
- 7. If the party, to whose hands a bill of exchange comes, neglests to receive the money from the acceptor, there he shall not refort to the first drawer, because he hath relied on the acceptor, the first drawer being only chargeable by custom or contract in law. 12 Mod. 203. Trin. 10 W. & M. at Guildhall. Mundall.
- 8. A. drew a bill on B, payable to C. in 3 days. B. broke. C. kept the bill 4 years, and then brought assumpsit against A. Treby Ch. J. held, that when one draws a bill of exchange, he subjects himself to the payment, if the drawee resules either to accept or pay; but then if the bill is not paid in convenient time, the perfon to whom it is payable shall give the drawer notice thereof; for otherwise the law will imply that the bill was paid, because there is a trust between the parties, and it may be injurious to commerce if a bill may rise up to charge the drawer at any distance of time, when in the mean time all accompts may have been adjusted 1 Salk. 127. pl. 7. Mich. 10 W. 3. at Guildbetween them: Allen v. Dockwray,

9. In foreign bills of exchange the protest makes the drawer liable, [ 246 ] and notice should be given of the protest to the drawer in convenient 12 Mod, 309. Mich. 3 W. 3. Hart v. King.

10. It was agreed, that an acceptance or negotiation in England, ofter a bill becomes payable, shall bind the acceptor or indorsor, though not perhaps the original drawer. 12 Mod. 410. Trin. 12 W. 3. in case of Mitford v. Walcot.

11. A. draws a bill of exchange in payment, and the party does not call for the money from the drawee in convenient time, and he fails, he shall then come upon the drawer. 12 Mod. 509. Pasch.

13 W. 3. coram Holt Ch. J. at Guildhall. Anon.

12. The defendant being a captain of a ship, took several goods for the use of the ship from the plaintist, who sent his servant with a bill to him for the money. The defendant orders the servant to write him a receipt for the money, which he did, and thereupon he gives him a note upon a 3d person, payable in 2 months. The master sent several times to the 3d person to present him the note, but could not get sight of him within the time at which the money was payable. The party breaks, and now this action is brought for the money against the captain. All this appearing on evidence, and that the captain went to sea next day after he gave the note, Trevor Ch. J. directed for the plaintist. 6 Mod. 147. Pasch. 3 Ann. B. R. Popley v. Ashley.

13. And per ipsum, if a man gives a note upon a 3d person in payment, and the other takes it absolutely as payment, yet if the other knew the 3d person breaking, or to be in a failing condition, and the receiver of the note uses all reasonable diligence to get payment, but cannot, that is a fraud, and therefore no payment, and here was no laches in the plaintiff; for the party failed before the money was payable, and the captain was gone to sea, so he could not some back to him to give him notice. 6 Mod, 147. Pasch, 3 Ann.

B. R. Popley v. Ashley.

14. But if a man takes a note, and after it is payable makes no demand, and that he might be paid if he had been diligent enough, there if the party, on whom the note is, fails, it is at his peril that took the note. 6 Mod. 147, 148. Pasch. 3 Ann. B. R. Popley v. Ashley.

15. If a bill of exchange be not paid by the indorsor, the drawer must give notice of non-payment to the drawer before he brings an action against him. 8 Mod. 43. Pasch. 7 Geo. 1. Lawrence v.

Jacob.

(H) Indorsor. In what Cases liable. What Indorsee must do and prove.

1. A Drew a bill of exchange upon B. payable to C. Then B. accepts the bill. C. indorses it to D. Now by this indorsement by C. to D. B. is discharged of any payment as to C. and if D. indorses it over to E. then B. is discharged of any payment to D. But if D. pays the money to E. then D. by this payment becomes again intitled to receive the money of B. and at such time no other, whether E. or C. is intitled to bring any action against B. but D. only. So if C. pays the money to D. then B. is discharged as to D. but C. becomes newly intitled, and B. is again liable as to him, but discharged against D. and E. See Lutw. 885. b. $888. b. 1 Jac. 2, in cam. scacc. Death v. Serwonters.

2. Recovery by indorsee against the drawer, without satisfaction, was adjudged in B. R. to be a bar to an action brought by him against a mean indorsor; but this judgment was afterwards reversed B. R. by 3 in the exchequer-chamber. Cumb. 4. Mich. 1 Jac. 2. and ibid. 32. Mich. 2 Jac. 2. Claxton v. Swift.

3 Mod. 86. S. C. adjudged in justices to be a bar, but the Ch.

J. e contra. _____ 2 Show. 441. pl. 404. S. C. adjornatur. ____ Ibid. 494. pl. 462. S. C. adjudged by 3 judges for the defendant, but reversed afterwards in Cam. Scacc. ——— Skin. 255. pl. 3. Mich. 2 Jac. 2. B. R. the S. C. and the plea ruled good by 3 justices. ——But Lutw. 878. 882. b. S. C. says the judgment was now reversed, because there was not any satisfaction; for the court were of opinion, that this case differs from the case of 2 trespassors, and is rather to be resembled to 2. debtors by a joint and several obligation, because by the custom the first drawer of the bill, and every indorfor thereof, is liable to the payment of a fum certain to the last indorfor, though the action be to secover by way of damages.

3. Ruled that where a bill is drawn payable to W. R. or order, and he indorses it to B. who indorses it to C. and he indorses it to D. the last indorfee may bring an action against any of the indorfors, because every indorsement is a new bill, and implies a warranty by the indorfor that the money shall be paid. 3 Salk. 68. pl. 3. 5 W. 3. B. R. Williams v. Field.

Skin. 343. pl. 11. Anon. seems to be S. C. &, 8. P. accordingly.

4. M. a goldsmith drew 2 bills on J. S. payable to L. the defendant, who on the 19th of October indorsed them to H. the plaintiff. J. S. accepted the bills, and paid by the order, and on account of L. 8001. in money, and gave another bill for the residue. Afterwards, the same day, H. the plaintiff, being also a goldsmith, exectived money of M. upon other bills, and might have received the money on this bill, but did not, for H. did not demand it, and the sight following M. broke. The question was, whether L. the defendant, who was the indorsor, is liable? Holt Ch. J. held, that by the acceptance of this bill by the plaintiff, the indorfor was not the money discharged; for while the bill is in agitation, every indorsor is as much liable as the first drawer, and cannot be discharged by the acceptance of the bill, without actually paying of the money; but by custom the indorsor is only liable in default of the first drawer, but if there is any neglect in the indorsee to receive it in convenient time, and if within that time the drawer becomes infolvent, then the indorfor is discharged. I Salk. 132. pl. 19. Hill v. Lewis.

Skin. 410. pl. 6. Hill. 5 W. & M. in B. R. S. C. Holt Ch. J. said, the law had not defined what shall be a convenient time to demand on a goldfmith's bill : but he referred that to the judgment of the jury, who were merchants; but that upon foreign bills three days were allowed.

5. Though a bill be without the words (or to his order), yet the indorsement of such bill is good, or of the same effect between the indorfor and indorfee, to make the indorfor chargeable to bearer, be the indorsee; per Holt Ch. J. 1 Salk. 133, in case of Hill v. Lewis.

Though a bill, payable to J. S. or not indorfeable, yet if it be indorsed, the indorsor shall be charged; for every indorsement is as a new bill; per Holt Ch. J. Skinn. 411. pl. 6. Hill. 5 W. & M. in B. R. the S. C.

6. Blank indorsement does not actually transfer the property 12 Mod. 172. S. C. without some further act; per Holt Ch. J. 1 Salk. 126. pl. 4. at Guildhall. Pasch. 10 W.3. B. R. Clark v. Pigot. — I Salk. 130. pl. 15.

Pasch. 2 Ann. B. R. Lucas v. Haines, S. P.

Bills of Erchange, Notes, Ec.

This means the defendance defendance of part of the fum in a bill of exchange cannot bring action, without shewing the other part to be satisfied. I Salk. 65. ant would pl. 2. Mich. 10 W. 3. B. R. Hawkins v. Cardee,

[ 248 ]
12 Mod.
244. Lambert v.
Oakes,
Mich. 10
W. 3. S. P.

8. If a man indorses his name on the back of a bill blank, he puts it in the power of the indorsee to make what use of it he will; and he may use it as an acquittance to discharge the bill, or as an assignment to charge the indorsor. I Salk. 127. pl. 9. Pasch. 11 W. 3. at nisi prius, per Holt Ch. J. Lambert v. Pack.

be S. C. Ld. Raym. Rep. 443. Pach. 11 W. 3. S. C. & S. P. accordingly.

dorsement, though upon discount, will subject the indorsor to an action, because it is a conditional 9. In cases of bills purchased at a discount, this is the difference; if it be a bill payable to A. or bearer, it is an absolute purchase; but if to A. * or order, and it is indorsed blank, and filled up with an assignment, the indorsor must warrant it as much as if there had been no discount. I Salk. 127. Pasch. II W. 3. per Holt Ch. J. Lambert v. Pack.

pay. 12 Mod. 244. Lambert v. Oakes.——Ld. Raym. Rep. 443, 444. S. C. & S. P. accordingly by Holt Ch. J.

10. It was agreed, that an acceptance or negotiation in England after a bill becomes payable, shall bind the acceptor or indorsor, though not perhaps the original drawer; and for this was quoted Pigot and Jackson's case in B. R. Hill. 9 W. 3. 12 Mod. 410. Trin. 12 W. 3. in case of Mitsord v. Walcot.

pl. 14. S.C. be paid to J. S. or, the contents of this bill is to be paid to J. S. does not aparameters.—

to be paid to J. S. or, the contents of this bill is to be paid to J. S. does not aparameters.—

Ch. J. 7 Mod. 87, Mich. 1 Ann. B. R. in case of East v. Essaik. 400.

S. C. but

S. P. does not appear.

12. A. draws a bill upon B. who had effects enough in his hands to answer the hill, which some time after is protested, whereupon the hill is indorsed to A. the drawer, who brings an action as indorsee; per Parker Ch. I. at nisi prius, there being effects, the acceptance was not upon the honour of the drawer, and so the action is well brought; for when a merchant draws a hill on his correspondent, who accepts it, this is payment; for it makes him debtor to another person, who may bring his action; so this is a payment, as may be set off upon a sormer account, and pleaded in har of such action: but if there were no effects, the action would not lie, for it would have been an acceptance upon honour only, and the money would be recovered only to be recovered again. 10 Mod. 36, Trin. 10 Ann. B. R. Louviere v. Laubray.

vards marries, her husband is the proper person to indorse this note; per Parker Ch. J. 10 Mod. 246. Trin. 13 Ann. B. R.

14. 4

14. A. gave a promissory note, payable to B. or order. B. assigns it to C. and C. assigns it to D. without saying to him, or order. Resolved per tot. cur. that this is good; for if the original bill was assignable, (as it will be if payable to one, or his order,) then to whomsoever it is assigned, he has all the interest in the bill, and may assign it as he pleases: for the assignment to C. is an absolute assignment to him, which comprehends his assigns, and therefore nothing is done when the bill is assigned but indorsing the name of the indorsor, upon which the indorsee may write what he will, and at a trial when the bill is given in evidence, the party may fill up the blanks as he pleases. Comyns's Rep. 311. pl. 160. Mich. 5 Geo. r. C. B. Moor v. Manning.

The question was, whether fuch indorsement by C. to D. will amount to a new bill to charge the indorsor? Dubitatur 🍇 adjornatur. Comb. 176. Mich. 3 W. & M. in B. R. Duckmannee v. Keckwith.

- a Saturday, but was not offered to the drawer till Monday morning after, when the indorfee fent the note by his fervant to the drawer, without any order to ftay, but only to demand the money; and the fervant accordingly offered the note to the cashier of the drawer, who cancelled it, and desired the servant to call again in half an hour, for that the drawer was gone to the bank to receive money. The servant went away, and returned within the time, and afterwards called twice more, and then went to his master, and told him the goldsmith could not pay it; whereupon the master went himself, and finding the note cancelled, so that he had no remedy, he procured a new note of the same date with the original note, and for the same sum. This is no new credit given to the drawer, but that the indorsor is still liable. 9 Mod, 60. Mich. 10 Geo. 1. Mead v. Caswell.
- 16. 9 & 10 W. 3. cap. 17. puts inland bills of exchange upon the same footing with foreign bills, where the money is recoverable by the custom among merchants upon signing such bills, and the statute 3 & 4 Anna, cap. 9. puts promissory notes on the same footing with inland bills, and enacts, that the assignee or indorse may maintain an action against the drawer or indorsor, and recover damages, &c. and therefore it was insisted, that an action of debt will not lie, because damages are never recovered in debt; but per cur. if plaintist had declared on an indebitatus assumpsit, he might have recovered in damages. 8 Mod. 373. Trin. 11 Geo. 1. Welsh v. Creagh.

17. Action was brought against the indorsor of a promissory note, and the plaintist had judgment. 8 Mod. 307. Mich, 11 Geo. 1. Elliot v. Cowper.

(I) Acceptance, What is a good Acceptance,

1. IF a bill of exchange be tendered, and the party subscribes accepted, or, accepted by me A. B. or, being in the exchange, says, I accept the bill, and will pay it according to the contents, this amounts, amounts, without all controversy, to an acceptance. Molloy, lib. 2. cap. 10. s. 16.

- 2. A small matter amounts to an acceptance, so that there be a right understanding between both parties; as, leave your bill with me, and I will accept it; or, call for it to-morrow, and it shall be accepted, that does oblige as effectually by custom of merchants, and according to law, as if the party had actually subscribed or signed it (which is usually done). Molloy, lib. 2. cap. 10. s. 20.
- 3. But if a man shall say, leave your bill with me, I will look over my accounts and books between the drawer and me, and call to-morrow, and accordingly the bill shall be accepted, this shall not amount to a compleat acceptance; for this mention of his books and accounts, was really intended to see if there were effects in his hands to answer, without which, perhaps, he would not accept of the same; and so it was ruled by Ld. Ch. J. Hale at Guildhall. Molloy, lib. 2. cap. 10. s. 20.

* 2 Show. 4. Where a bill of exchange is payable * to A.'s order, that is 8. pl. 5. to himself if he makes no order, and if the party underwrites the Pasch. 30 bill, viz. presented such a day, or only the day of the month, it is Car. 2. B. R. Frefuch an acknowledgment of the bill as amounts to an acceptance; 'derick v. per Holt Ch. J. and this by the jurors was declared to be common , Cotton, S.P. practice. Cumb. 401. per Holt Ch. J. at the sittings in London, resolved. [ 250 ] 2 Dec. 1696. Anon.

Ld. Raym.

Rep. 175.

S. C. & concerns the joint trade; but otherwise if it concerns the acceptor only in a distinct interest and respect.

S. P. admitted, and judgment

judgment

judgment

5. Acceptance of bill upon two by one partner, binds both if it concerns the acceptor only in a distinct interest and respect.

J. Acceptance of bill upon two by one partner, binds both if it concerns the acceptor only in a distinct interest and respect.

J. Acceptance of bill upon two by one partner, binds both if it concerns the acceptance of bill upon two by one partner, binds both if it concerns the acceptance of bill upon two by one partner, binds both if it concerns the acceptance of bill upon two by one partner, binds both if it concerns the acceptance of bill upon two by one partner, binds both if it concerns the acceptance of bill upon two by one partner, binds both if it concerns the acceptance of bill upon two by one partner, binds both if it concerns the acceptance of bill upon two by one partner, binds both if it concerns the acceptance of bill upon two by one partner, binds both if it concerns the acceptance of bill upon two by one partner, binds both if it concerns the acceptance of bill upon two by one partner, binds both if it concerns the acceptance of bill upon two by one partner, binds both if it concerns the acceptance of bill upon two by one partner, binds both if it concerns the acceptance of bill upon two by one partner, binds both if it concerns the acceptance of bill upon two by one partner, binds both if it concerns the acceptance of bill upon two by one partner, binds both if it concerns the acceptance of bill upon two by one partner, bill up for the plaintiff. _____S. P. by Helt Ch. J. 12 Mod. 345. Mich. 11 W. 3. Anon-

6. Bill drawn by A. on B. and B. accepts it by indorsement, thus, (I do accept this bill, to be paid half in money, and half in bills). It was alleged, that B.'s writing on the bill was sufficient to charge him with the whole sum; but it was proved by divers merchants, that the custom among them was quite otherwise, and that there might be a qualification of an acceptance; for he that may refuse the bill totally, may refuse it in part; but he to whom the bill is due, may refuse such acceptance, and protest it so as to charge the first drawer, and though there be an acceptance, yet after that he has the same liberty of charging the first drawer as before he had. Cumb. 452. Trin. 9 W. 3. B. R. Petit v. Benson.

7. Acceptance after the time of payment elapsed, and a promise then to pay the money secundum tenorem billæ præd' is good, and amounts to a promise to pay the money generally. I Salk. 129. judged for the plaintiff.

7. Acceptance after the time of payment elapsed, and a promise then amounts to pay the money generally. I Salk. 129. judged for the plaintiff.

Ld. Raym. Rep. 574. S. C. adjudged.——It amounts to a promise to pay the money prefently. 12 Mod. 212. Mich. 10 W. 3. Jackson v. Pigot.——Carth. 459. S. C. and as for the words, secundum tenorem & effectium billæ, the effect of the bill is the payment of the money, and not the day of payment; or, at the most, it is only surplusage in the declaration; and judgment for the plaintiff.——Ld. Raym. Rep. 365. S. C. adjudged for the plaintiff.

g. If

Bills of Erchange, Notes, Ec.

8. If bill be drawn on one at Amsterdam, and he does not care to accept it, but gets one here to do it, the party need not acquiesce; but if he does, the party here is bound; per cur. 12 Mod. 411.

Trin. 12 W. 3. in case of Mitsord v. Walcot.

9. A bill of exchange was directed to A. or in his absence to B. and begun thus, viz. Gentlemen, pray pay. The bill was tendered to A. who promised to pay it as soon as he should sell such goods. In action for non-payment, it was objected that this was a conditional acceptance; but here the action being by an executor, and upon debt laid to be due to testator, Holt Ch. J. held it necessary to prove that the acceptance was in the testator's life-time. 12 Mod. 447. Pasch. 13 W. 3. Anon.

10. Bill of exchange may be accepted by parol, but not transferred 1 Salk. 130. otherwise than by writing on the back, and that transfers the pro- pl. 14. S.C. perty by the custom of merchants. 7 Mod. 87. Mich. 1 Ann. mentioned,

B. R. East v. Essington.

& S. P. and feems admitted. -

3 Salk. 400. S. C. but S. P. does not appear. - S. P. by Holt Ch. J. as to the acceptance. 12 Mod. 345. Mich. 11 W. 3. Anon.

- 11. A foreign bill was drawn on the defendant, and being returned for want of acceptance, the defendant said, that if the bill came back again he would pay it; this was ruled a good acceptance. 3 New Abr. 610. cites Mich. 6 Geo. 1. B. R. Car v. Coleman.
- 12. The drawee wrote a letter to him in whose favour the bill was drawn, that if he would let him write to Ireland first he would pay him; and this was held a good acceptance. 3 New Abr. 610. cites Mich. 12 Geo. 1. coram Raym. Ch. J. at nisi prius. Wilkinson v. Lutwich.

(K) Acceptor. Liable in what Cases.

[ 251 ]

A CCEPTOR of a bill drawn for a sum won at gaming more 5 Mod. 175. than the statute allows, may plead the statute against S. C. adjudged for gaming against the person himself, but not perhaps against any in- the defend. dorsee for value received. Carth. 356. Trin. 7 W. 3. B. R. ant. Hussey v. Jacob.

judged for 1 Salk. 344. pl. 2. S. C.

held accordingly. _____ 12 Mod. 96. S. C. adjudged accordingly.

2. It was agreed, that an acceptance or negotiation in England after bill becomes payable, shall bind the acceptor or indorsor, though not perhaps the original drawer. And for this was quoted Pigot and Jackson's case in B. R. Hill. 9 W. 3. though it were an acceptance to pay juxta tenorem bill' præd' as here; Arg. 12 Mod. 410. Trin. 12 W. 3. Mitsord v. Walcot.

- (L) Where the Acceptance is for the Honour of the Drawer or Indorsor.
- 1. IN case upon a bill of exchange, the plaintiff set forth a custom inter mercatores & alias personas, that if a bill is indorsed and accepted by a person upon whom it is drawn, if any other merchant will pay the money to the indorsee, for the honour of the indorsor, then the first drawer is chargeable to him; that state defendant drew a bill upon J. S. for 1001. payable to J. D. that J. S. accepted the said bill, and J. D. indorsed it to M. L. and that R. the plaintiff paid the money to the said M. L. for the honour of the said J. D. the indorsor, and that thereupon s. the drawer became liable to him, but had not paid the money, ad damnum, &c. The plaintiff had judgment by nil dicit, &c. but it was reversed upon a writ of error in the exchequer chamber, because the custom was laid too general; for it extended not only to merchants, but to all other persons whatsoever. Lutw. 891. a. 892. b. Mich. 2 Jac. 2. in Cam. Scacc. Fairly v. Roch.

Lutw. 896.

a. 899. a.

Lewin v.

Brunetti, in the exchequer chamber, S. C.

and after feveral arguments, judgment
was affirmed, Pollexfen Ch. J. hæfitante.

- 2. R. drew a bill of exchange on S. payable to B. S. refused to accept it, whereupon B. protested it. L. for the honour of R. gave a note to pay the money at the day, if not paid by R. Afterwards B. indorsed L.'s note to C. for value received; C. in like manner indorsed it to D. and be to E. and be to F. all for value received. At the day of the return S. fill refused to accept the bills, whereupon L.'s bill was protested. Then M. & N. hearing of the protest of L.'s bill, pay the money for the honour of B. But in action by M. & N. against L. the declaration does not fay that they paid it to F. nor to whom they paid it, but only generally that they paid it. This matter was alsigned for error, and that for what appears it might be paid not to F. the last indorsee, to whom alone it was due, but to another, and if so, the defendant remains still liable as to him. But per cur. after verdict, it shall be intended that the payment was to the right person, especially it being laid to be ex parte of the plaintiff, which could not be if it had been paid to a stranger; and so judgment in B. R. was affirmed in Cam. Scacc. Carth. 129. Pasch. 2 W. & M. Brunetti v. Lewen.
- 3. If A. draws a bill on B. who will not accept it, and C. offers to accept it for the honour of the drawer, the drawee need not acquiesce, but may protest; but if he does acquiesce, C. is bound; per cur. 12 Mod. 410. Trin. 12 W. 3. Mitsord v. Walcot.

(M) Time of Demand and Protesting.

Draws a bill upon B. to the use of C. Upon non-payment C. protests the bill. He cannot sue A. unless he gives him notice that the bill is protested, for A. may have the effects of B. in his hands, by which he may fatisfy himself. Vent. 45. Mich. 21 Car. 2. B. R. Anon.

2. After verdict it was moved for a new trial, that the protest was not on the day the money became due; but Twisden J. said it had been ruled, that if a bill of exchange be denied to be paid, the protest must be in a reasonable time, and that is within a fortnight; but that the debt is not lost by not doing it by the day; and 2 new trial was denied. Mod. 27. pl. 72. Mich. 21 Car. 2. B.R. Butler v. Play.

3. Time of protesting bills of exchange to make the drawer li- If a bill be able, is * at the end of 2 months. Cumb. 152. Mich. 1 W. & accepted, the M. in B. R. Sarsefield v. Witherly.

protest must be at the day of payment. If at fight, then at the 3d day of grace, and a bill negotiated after day of payment, is as a bill at fight; agreed by merchants. Show. 164. Trin. 2 W. & M. in case of Dehers v. Harriott.

This was faid by merchants to be the custom of France, and that in Holland it must be in so many polts. Show. 165.

4. A bill of exchange is made payable to A. A. indorses it to B. B. indorses it to C. the bill is protested for non-payment; B. may bring an action on this bill, not with standing his indorsement. Show. 163. Trin. 2 W. & M. Dehers v. Harriott.

5. Some merchants said, that if a bill be negotiated by indorsement after the bill is payable, there is no need of a protest at all. Others, that a protest must be in some convenient time. Show. 164. Trin.

2 W. & M. in case of Dehers v. Harriott.

6. All the merchants agreed, that if a bill is lost, and the drawer might be reforted to for a new bill, then no protest could be upon a copy; but where a bill is lost, and no new one can be had, and the party did not infift to have the original bill, but refused payment for another reason, there such protest made upon a copy for non-payment is good. Show. 164. Trin. 2 W. & M. in case of Dehers v. Harriott.

7. If there be no accident happening or intervening by the party's breaking, &c. the drawer is chargeable, though the prefenting and protest of the bill were after the day; for by the law of merchants it need not be tendered within the time; per Eyre J. and not denied, and judgment pro quer. Show. 318. Mich. 3 W. & M. Mogadara v. Holt.

12 Mod. 15. Meggaddow v. Holt, S.C. adjudged for the plaintiff. -But per Holt Ch. J. if be do not tender and protest at the day, and there be a break in the mean time, the party loses his money; secus if no particular damage. Show. 319. Mogadara v. Holt.

8. Indorsee of foreign bills need not demand payment till the Skin. 410, three days allowed are expired, and after the 3 days the indorsee 417. pl. 6. may protest it; and it seems the same time of 3 days ought to be & M. in allowed for inland bills; per Holt Ch. J. 1 Salk. 132. Hill & al' B. R. the S. C. & v. Lewis. S. P. by Holt Ch. J. but for a goldsmith's bill he said he did not know any definite time.

9. The custom of merchants is, that if B. upon whom a bill [ 253 ] of exchange is drawn, absconds before the day of payment, the man to whom it is payable may protest it, to have better security for the the payment, and to give notice to the drawer of the absconding of B. and after the time of payment is incurred, then it ought to be protested for non-payment the same day of payment, or after it; but no protest for non-payment can be before the day that it is payable. Proved by merchants at Guildhall, Trin. 6 W. & M. before Treby Ch. J. and the plaintiff was nonsuited, because he had declared upon a custom to protest for non-payment before the day of payment. Ex relatione M'ri Place. Ld. Raym. Rep. 743. Anon.

- 1d. In case of foreign bills of exchange the custom is, that 3 days are allowed for payment of them; and if they are not paid upon the last of the said days, the party eught immediately to protest the bill, and return it, and by this means the drawer will be charged; but if he does not protest it the last of the 3 days, which are called the days of grace, there, although he upon whom the bill is drawn fails, the drawer will not be chargeable; for it shall be reckoned his folly that he did not protest, &c. but if it happens that the last day of the said 3 days is a Sunday or great boliday, as Christmas-day, &c. upon which no money used to be paid, there the party ought to demand the money upon the 2d day; and if it is not paid, he ought to protest the bill the said 2d day, otherwise it will be at his own peril; for the drawer will not be chargeable. Merchants in evidence at a trial at Guildhall, Trin. 7 W. 3. before Holt Ch. J. swore the custom of merchants to be such, which was approved by Holt Ch. J. Ld. Raym. Rep. 743. Tassall & Lee v. Lewis.
- able at so many days sight, though the days incur without any notice given to the party on whom it is drawn, yet that bill, according to the custom of merchants, may be protested, and thereby recourse had to the first drawer for the money, which Holt Ch. J. thought unreasonable, because the drawer ought not to lie at the mercy of him that has the bill, &c. Cumb. 451. Trin. 9 W. 3. B. R. Anon.

12. If a bill be drawn for like value received, and this is protested, an indebitatus assumpsit lies against the drawer; per Shower. Cumb. 451. Trin. 9 W. 3. B. R. Anon.

13. 9 & 10 W. 3. cap. 17. S. 1. All inland bills of exchange of 51. or upwards, in which the value shall be expressed to be received, drawn payable at a certain number of days, &c. after the date thereof, may after acceptance (which shall be by underwriting under the party's hand), and the expiration of 3 days after the same shall be due, be protested by a notary public, or, in default of such notary public, by any other substantial person of the place before 2 witnesses, refusal or neglect being first made of the payment.

14. S. 2. Which protest shall be notified within 14 days after to the party from whom the bills were received, who (upon producing such protest) is to repay the said bills with interest and charges from the protesting; for which protest there shall not be paid above 6d. and in default of such protest, or due notice within the day limited, the perfon so failing shall be liable to all costs, damages, and interest.

35. A

15. A bill of exchange was protested, and left, and action brought against the drawer; and it was proved, that the defendant bad owned be had drawn the bill, and held good by Holt; and he said, that this being an outlandish bill, the drawer was made liable by the protest; but no protest necessary in case of an inland bill; and that to make a bill payable to one's order, was the same as if it were to him or order; and he said, that if defendant could make it appear that he was at any damage for want of notice of the protest, as if drawee had failed in the mean time, &c. it would be in- [ 254] cumbent upon the plaintiff to prove notice given of the protest in convenient time. 12 Mod. 309. Mich. 11 W. 3. Hart v. King.

16. If a bill be accepted at Amsterdam, and no house named where 1 Salk. 129. the payment is to be, the party need not acquiesce to it, but may pl. 11. S.C. protest the bill; but if he will acquiesce, it is well enough; does not 12 Mod. 410. Trin. 12 W. 3. in case of Mitsord v. appear. Walcot.

but S. P.

17. All the difference between foreign and inland bills is, that foreign bills must be protested before a public notary, before the drawer may be charged; but inland bills need no protest; per Holt Ch. J. 6 Mod. 29. Mich. 2 Ann. B. R. in case of Buller v. Crips.

6 Mod. 80. S. P. but now by the ftat. 9 & 19 W. 3. 17. a protest is directed in case of inland bills; but that is only for the benefit of the drawer, to give formal notice that the bill is met accepted, or accepted and not paid; and the damages in the said statute are only meant of damages by being longer kept out of his money by non-payment of drawee than the tenor of the bill purported, and not of damages for the original debt. Mich. 2 Ann. B. R., Brough v. Perkins. 3 Salk. 69.

pl. 6. S. C.

In inland as well as foreign bills of exchange, the person to whom it is payable must give convenient metice of non-payment to the drawer; for if by his delay the drawer receives prejudice, the plaintiff shall not recover. A presest on foreign bills was part of its constitution. On inland bills a protest is necessary by 9 & 10 W. 3. 17. but was not at common law; but the statute does not take away the plaintiff's action for quant of a protest, nor does it make such want a bar to the plaintiff's action; but this statute seems only, in case there be no protest, to deprive the plaintiff of damages or interest, and to give the drawer a remedy against him for damages if he makes no protest. 1 Salk. 131. pl. 17. Mich. 2 Ann. B. R. Borough v. Perkins. ——— 3 Salk. 69. pl. 6. S. C. held by Holt Ch. J. and Powell I. accordingly, and that fince that statute a protest was never set forth in the declaration. -6 Mod. 80. S. C. and Holt said that the act is very obscurely and doubtfully penned, and that they ought not, by confiruction upon such an act, to take away a man's right; to which the whole court agreed. ____ 2 Ld. Raym. Rep. 992. Brough v. Parkings, S. C. according to 3 Salk. 69. supra, and judgment in C, B. affirmed.

18. 3 & 4 Ann. cap. 9. s. 4. In case the party on whom an inland bill of exchange shall be drawn, shall refuse to accept the same by undetwriting the same, the party to whom payable shall cause such bill to be protested for non-acceptance, as in case of foreign bills, for which protest shall be paid 2s. and no more.

19. S. 6. No such protest shall be necessary for non-payment, unless the value be expressed in such a bill to be received, and unless the bill be drawn for 201. or upwards, and the protest shall be made for non-ecceptance by persons appointed.

20. S. 7. If any person accept such bill of exchange in satisfaction of any former debt, the same shall be esteemed a full payment, if he deth not his endeavour to get the same accepted and paid, and make his, protest for non-acceptance or non-payment.

(N) Actions. What Actions lie.

1. A N action of debt will not lie upon a bill of exchange accepted, 5. C. eited by Rainsagainst the acceptor; but a special action of the case must be ford J. as brought against him; because the acceptance does not create a Milton's duty no more than a promise by a stranger to pay, &c. if the case, lately adjudged in creditor will forbear his debt; and he that drew the bill continues Scacc. and debtor, notwithstanding the acceptance, which makes the acceptor says, that though Hale liable to pay it, and the custom does not extend so far as to create Ch. B. said a debt, but only makes the acceptor onerabilis to pay the money; it were well wherefore, and because no precedent could be produced, that an if the law were otheraction of debt had been brought upon an accepted bill of exchange, wise, yet we judgment was arrested. Hard. 485. 487. Hill. 20 & 21 Car. 2. all agreed that a bill of in the exchequer, Anon. [but seems to be Milton's case.] exchange accepted, &c. was indeed a good ground for a special action upon the case, but that it did not make a debt; first, because the acceptance is only conditional on both sides. If the money be not received, it returns back upon the drawer, and he remains liable still, and this only collateral. 2dly, Because onerabilis does not imply debt. 3dly, Because the case is primæ impressionis, and there is no precedent for it. Mod. 286. pl. 3. Trin. 29 Car. 2. B. R. in case of Brown v. London.

An indebita2. Assumpsit lies on a bill of exchange accepted; per Cur. obiter. Vent. 298. Mich. 28 Car. 2. B. R. in case of the City of lie upon a bill of exchange, as it has been ruled in divers cases, but against a drawer for value received there it would lie; but this is for the apparent consideration. Skin. 346. Hodges v. Steward.

And cites 6

Mod. 129.

131. 1 Lev. change, but the party ought to declare specially on the custom 298. 3 Lev. of merchants. 2 Show. 9. pl. 5. in a nota there, Trin. 30 Car. 2.

118.1 Lutw. B. R. Frederick v. Cotton.

1 Salk. 125. 4. A general indebitatus assumpsit will not lie upon a bill of expl. 2. S. C. change for want of consideration, but bill is but evidence of a protheld accord. mise, and so but nudum pactum, and therefore he ought to bring ingly. a special action upon the case, upon the bill and custom of merchants, Skinn. 346. S. Ç. says, or else a general indebitatus assumpsit for money received to bis use : that S. P. per Holt Ch. J. 12 Mod. 37. Pasch. 5 W. & M. Hodges V. was oftentimes said in Steward. this cafe.—

Comb. 204. S. C. says, that such action lies not against the acceptor, though accepted under hand.————————————————3 Salk. 68. S. C. but S. P. does not appear.

13

5. Trover

5. Trover for a bank bill lost will lie against a ftranger that found it, though the payment to him would have indemnified the bank; but it lies not against the affignee of the finder, by reason of the course of trade, which creates a property in the assignee or bearer.

1 Salk. 126. Anon. coram-Holt Ch. J. at Guildhall.

6. Indebitatus assumpsit lies not against the acceptor of a bill of [256] exchange, because his acceptance is but a collateral engagement; but it lies against the drawer himself, for he was really a debtor by the receipt of the money, and debt will lie against him. I Salk. 23. pl. 3. Hill. 8 W. 3. B. R. Hard's case.

7. If a bill be drawn payable to J. S. or bearer, the bearer can- 3 Salk. 67, not bring the action; but if it be to J. S. or order, the indorsee Pasch. 42 may, and so resolved between Hodges and Steward in B. R. W.3.B.R. Cumb. 466. Hill. 10 W. 3. B. R. Coggs's case.

68. pl. 2.

the S. P.

(O) Pleadings:

1. FINCH Serj. said that 6 Car. in B. R. it was ruled upon bill. Litt. Rep. of exchange, between party and party not merchants, that there cannot be a declaration upon the law of merchants; but there may be a declaration upon the affumplit, and give the acceptance of the bill in evidence. Het. 167. Pasch. 7 Car. C. B.

Eaglechild's case.

2. In assumptit the plaintiff declared that the custom of mer-the word chants is, if one, for wares delivered to him or his factor, makes a bill of exchange directed to a merchant, and he to whom it is directed accepts of it, and after refuses to pay, and this is protested before a publick notary, then he, who delivered the bill, is bound to pay it; and alledges that he delivered fuch wines in France to J. S. the factor of B. and he thereupon delivered a bill of exchange for the money to J. N. who accepted it, and had not paid it; and found upon non assumpsit for the plaintiff.. It was assigned for error, that this action is grounded upon the custom of merchants, and it is not shewed that the plaintiff was a merchant at the time of the bill of exchange delivered; but because he is named merchant in the declaration, and the bill is for merchandises fold, it shall be intended he was a merchant at that time, and so judgment affirmed. Cro. J. 301, 302 pl. 5. Pasch. 9 Car. B. R. Barnaby v. Rigault.

3. In an action by the person to whom the bill was made payable, it was objected, that the averment is only that he did indorse the bill, but does not fay that he delivered it, and so not within the custom; sed non allocatur; for the indorsement is the transfering the interest, and the action is not brought by the assignee, in which case it must be alledged, that it was also delivered; per Cur. But now neither indorsement nor delivery is needful; but per Windham, there is no failure of payment, unless the bill were delivered.' 2 Keb. 303. pl. 96. Mich. 19 Car. 2. B. R.

Dashwood v. Lee.

4. In case on custom of merchants, on accepting bill of exchange from Paris; the defendant demurred after issue offered on pay- $\mathbf{U}_{2}$ ment,

363. Finch Serj. cites S. C. but there is an omiffion of the word (not) before (merchants), and lo scems to be milprinted.

ment, and excepted, that no time appears when the bill was payable, being only on double usance, and no particular custom alleged that double usance signifies two months; sed non-allocatur; it being a known term among merchants that usance is a month, double two months, and being averred be bad not paid in two months, it is well enough, and judgment for the plaintiff, the defendant having waived advantage hereof by pleading payment; but by Twisden J. had it been on demurrer to the declaration, the plaintiff should aver a particular custom that usance signifies a month, &cc. 3 Keb. 645. pl. 60. Hill. 27 & 28 Car. 2. Smart v. Dean.

·[ 257]

- 5. Demurrer to a declaration on a bill of exchange, because it says only that the party to whom it was directed did not accept it, but says, not that it was shewn or tendered to him, and the demurrer allowed, for else it would be in the plaintiff's power to charge the drawer, when perhaps the drawee was ready to pay the money according to the tenor of the bill had it been tendered to him. 2 Show. 180. pl. 179. Hill. 33 & 34 Car. 2. B. R. Mercer v. Southwell.
- 6. Case on a bill of exchange against the drawer, the bill not being paid and payable to J. S. or bearer. Plaintist brings the action as bearer, and on evidence ruled per Ld. Pemberton, that he must intitle himself to it on a valuable consideration, though among bankers they never make indorsements in such case, for if it comes to the bearer by casualty or knavery, he shall not have the benefit of it. 2 Show. 235. pl. 234. Mich. 34 Car. 2. B. R. Hinton v.....

7. In an action on the case on a bill of exchange, alleging the custom, and that the bill was drawn such a day, &c. but exception was taken, that the date of the bill was not set forth, yet held per tot. Cur. that it was well enough, and they would intend it dated at the time of drawing it. 2 Show. 422. pl. 389. Hill. 36 & 37 Car. 2. B. R. De la Courtier v. Bellamy.

8. In debt upon a bill of exchange by an indorfee, the plaintiff had judgment. It was alligned for error, that the plaintiff had not averred in his declaration that the value was received by the drawers of the bill; sed non allocatur; for it lies not in his mouth to say so, and it is not material to him whether it was paid to them or not, and therefore judgment was affirmed. Lutw. 885. b. 889.

a. 1 Jac. 2. in Cam. Scacc. Death v. Serwonters.

9. Action sur le case on a bill of exchange brought against the acceptor by the plaintiss as administrator to the party to whom the bill was payable, on the custom of merchants; and breach was assigned præd' tamen the defendant ad vel post præd. diem, viz. the day of payment non solvit nec aliqualiter pro eisdem hucusque contentavit. Demurrer to the declaration, because he did say non solvit at or before the day, and a payment before the day is a payment at the day; but held good per Cur. because said hucusque non, &c. judgment pro quer. 2 Show. 437. pl. 400. Mich. I Jac. 2. B. R. Hilman v. Law.

Comb. 9.
S. C. it was objected that

10. Case on a bill of exchange founded on the custom of merchants, alleging that if a bill by a merchant or trader be indorsed payable payable to a merchant or bearer, then, &c. and doth not aver the the custom plaintiff to be a merchant or trader, held nought on demurrer. 2 Show. 459. pl. 426. Hill, 1 & 2 Jac. 2. B. R. Burman v. Puckle.

was laid mercatori vel alicui al' personzo (omitting

-the words commercio utenti); and Withens J. said that all the precedents are commercio utent' except one, which passed sub filentio. Judgment arrested, nis, &c.

11. In covenant to pay so much money to the plaintiff or his assigns Carth. 83. as should be drawn on the defendant by a bill of exchange, and the breach was assigned in non-payment. The defendant pleaded that the S. C. the plaintiff, secundum legem mercatoriam, did assign the money to be paid to A. who assigned it to B. to whom the defendant paid 1001. and tendered the rest. Upon demurrer it was objected that the plea of opinion was ill, because the defendant did not set forth the custom of mer-that they chants in particular, without which the allignments are void, of take notice which custom the court cannot take judicial notice, but it must of the law of be pleaded; and the court were of opinion that the plea was not 3 Mod. 226. Trin. 4 Jac, 2, B. R. Carter v. Dowrith.

Mich. 1 W. & M. [in Cam, Scace.] the court seemed take notice merchants, because it is part of the. law of the land, and especially of this custom concerning bills of exchange, because it is the most general amongst all their customs, and the judgment was reversed. ———Show. 127. S. Ç. in error in the Exchequer-Chamber, the court held the plea good, and judgment was reverfed.

- 12. Case, &c. upon a bill of exchange, wherein the plaintiff [ 258 ] fet forth the custom in London among merchants and others dwelling there, that if any merchant should draw a bill of exchange directed to another, requiring him to pay a fum of money, and if that perfon did accept the bill, then he became liable to pay the money secundum acceptationem præd' that one King drew a bill at Sandwich upon the defendant to pay 81. to the plaintiff, and that the defendant accepted the bill, but had not paid the money. Exception was taken that the acceptor is to pay secundum acceptationem suam, and no time is mentioned in the bill itself when the money was to be paid, nor has the plaintiff set forth that the desendant accepted it to pay it at fight, or at any certain time, and so it might be that the time of payment was not past before the action brought, and this was held a good exception; but by confent the plaintiff was to amend his count. Lutw. 231. 233. Mich. 4 Jac. 2. Ewers v. Benchkin.
- 13. C. drew a bill of exchange upon R. and company in Oporto for 1000 mille rees, upon the 6th of August, payable 30 days after fight, and upon the 14th of August the king of Portugal lessened the value of the mille rees 201. per cent. so that it was impossible to have notice. The bill was presented for acceptance, with the advance of 201. per cent. R. was ready to accept and pay at the current value, but not with the advance, and therefore there was a protest for non-acceptance, and an action was brought against the It was ruled by Holt Ch. J. that here, there not being notice, the bill ought to be paid according to the antient value; for the king of Portugal may not alter the property of a subject of England, and therefore this case differs from the case of mixed monies in Davis's Reports; for there the alteration was by the king of U 3

England,

Bills of Erchange, Motes, Ec.

England, who has such a prerogative, and this shall bind bis own subjects. Skin. 272. pl. 1. Trin. 1 W. & M. in B. R. Du Costa v. Cole.

2 Vent, 295. S. C. but S. P. does not appear. -Sbow. 125. S. C. so if it had been protestari causavit, vis. the pro- therly. test would have been good evidence of it.-—Carth. 82. S. C. but S. P. does not appear.

14. In assumptit upon a bill of exchange the plaintiff averred that the defendant drew the bill, and that the same was resused, and that he protestavit sive protestari causavit at such a time, &c. It was objected that this was uncertain; sed non allocatur; for & S. P. and if he had pleaded quod protestavit, he might have given in evidence that the publick notary did it. Comb. 152, 153. Mich. 1 W. & M. at Serjeant's-Inn in Fleet-street. Sarsefield v. Wi-

> 15. The law of merchants is, that if he who has such a bill does lapse his time, and does not protest, or make his request, if any accident happens by this neglect in prejudice to the drawer, he hath lost his remedy against him; but if such a shing had happened, it ought to have come of the other side; and not being so we must adjudge on the declaration. It is not necessary to shew the custom of merchants, but necessary to shew how the usance shell be intended, because it varies as places do. 12 Mod. 16. Hill.

3 W. & M. Megadow v. Holt.

16. The plaintiff declared on a special custom in London, for the bearer to have this action; to which the defendant demurred, without traversing the custom; so that he confessed it, whereas in truth there was no such custom; and the court was of opinion that, for this reason, judgment should be given for the plaintiff; for though the court is to take notice of the law of merchants, as part of the law of England, yet they cannot take notice of the custom of particular places; and the custom in the declaration being sufficient to maintain the action, and that being confessed, he has admitted 1 Salk. 125. pl. 2. Pasch. 3 W. & M. judgment against himself.

B. R. Hodges v. Steward. [ 259 ]

17. In case on a bill of exchange the plaintiff set forth the custom 12 Mod. 15, 16. Hill. 3 of merchants, but brought not his case within it; yet if by the law of W. 3. Megmerchants he has a right to his action, the setting forth the cusgadow v. Holt, S. C. tom shall be rejected as surplusage. Show. 318. Mich. 3 W. & M. adjudged for Mogadara v. Holt. the plaintiff, and held that it is not necessary to show the custom of merchants; but it is necessary to show the usance shall be intended, because it varies as places do.

It is sufficient to say that such a person, secundum usum et consuetudinem mercatorum, drew a bill; and the fetting forth the cultom is surplusage; for this custom of merchants, concerning bills of exchange, is part of the common law, of which the judges will take notice ex officio. Carth. 270. Palch. 5 W. a M. in B. R. Williams v. Williams.

> 18. Action fur le case by an indorsee against the first drawer of 2 bill of exchange. The defendant pleaded that the indorsor, at the time of the indorsement, was a bankrupt. Demurrer. Per Cur. this is a good plea in bar; for a bankrupt is disabled to assign a bill; but then he ought to have pleaded a commission taken out, wherefore jud' pro quer. 12 Mod. 50. Hill. 5 W. & M. Batterson v. Goodwin.

19. In

19 In action upon a bill of exchange there is no need to allege 2 Lutw. any custom; per Treby Ch. J. et non negatur by any of the other 2 Lutw. 1585. Hill. 8 W. 3. in case of Bromwich v. Loyd.

1504. Trin. 9 W. 3. in case of Bellatyse v. Hester, the reporter says nota, that in the declaration in the principal case no custom at large for bills of exchange is alleged, but only that the defendant negotiating, &c. secundum usum mercatorum secit billam, &c. and no exception was taken to it.

20. Bills of exchange are of so general use and benefit, that upon an indebitatus affumpsit a bill of exchange may be given in - evidence to maintain the action; per Treby Ch. J. and Powel J. faid that upon a general indebitatus affumplit, for monies received to the use of the plaintiff, a bill of exchange may be left to the jury to determine whether it was for value received or not. 2 Lutw. 1585. Hill. 8 W. 3. in case of Bromwich v. Loyd.

21. In case on a bill of exchange the plaintiff set forth the custom of merchants, &c. and that one J. P. drew a bill upon the defendant, payable to the plaintiff; that the bill was presented to the defendant, who accepted it upon condition to pay it by a bank-bill, to which the plaintiff agreed; and that the defendant in consideration thereof, promised to pay the money in a bank-bill, which should be of good and old date, and assigns the breach in giving him a bankbill payable to one Philips or bearer, dated 1 July 1696, in which the defendant had no manner of property or interest, so that the plaintiff could not, nor can as yet receive the money. After verdict it was moved in arrest, that the breach was not well assigned; for it ought to be affigned in the same manner as the promise was made, viz. that he did not pay the money in a bank-bill of good and old date; and also for want of averring that the bill made by P. &c. was made according to the custom of merchants, pursuant to the custom alleged in the declaration to this purpose. Sed non allocatur; for it shall be so intended. Lutw. 277. Hill. 8 W. 3. Mannin v. Cary.

22. A bill accepted for money won at play. The acceptor may 5 Mod. 175. well plead the statute in bar; for though the acceptance makes a new contract, yet it stands on the former consideration; and if this plea should not be good, the statute would be eluded. Indeed if the plaintiff had indorsed the bill over bona side to another, who was ignorant of the iniquity, the statute could not have been pleaded ingly.____ against such an indorsee; but sure it may against him who is party. Salk. 344. to the wrong. Jud' pro defendant. 12 Mod. 96, 97. Trin. 8 W. 3. Huffey v. Jacob.

23. An action on the case was brought on a bill of exchange; to which the defendant pleaded, that after the acceptance of the bill, be gave a bond in discharge thereof; and upon demurrer to this plea, it was objected that it amounted to the general issue, for the debt spon the bill being extinguished by the bond, the defendant ought to have pleaded non assumpht, and to have given the bond in evidence; and the court seemed of that opinion, but by consent the desendant did plead the general issue, 5 Mod. 314. Mich. 8 W. 3. Hackshaw v, Clerke,

S.C. adjudged accord-Carth. 356. S C. adjudged accordpl. 2. S. C. held accordingly.

[ 260 ]

24. In case on a bill of exchange drawn upon 2 partners in trade, and which was accepted by one only. Exception was taken to the declaration, because it was per consultationed Anglie, &c. and therefore ill, because the custom of England is the law of England, of which the judges ought to take notice without pleading; sed non allocatur; for though heretofore this has been allowed, yet of late time it has always been over-ruled; and in an action against a carrier, it is always laid per consultationed Anglia, &c. Ld. Raym. Rep. 175. Hill. 8 & 9 W. 3. Pinkney v. Hall.

of the law of England, yet it is but a particular custom among merchants; and therefore it ought to be shewn in London or some other particular place; sed non allocatur; for the custom is not restrained to any particular place. And Hardr. 485. it is laid as here. Ld. Raym. Rep 175. Hill. 8 & 9 W. 3. Pinkney v.

Hall.

26. Another exception was, that it is not faid, that the faid J. S. promised for the desendant and himself upon the account of trade, and it may be that this was for rent or some other thing for which the partner is not liable. Sed non allocatur; for the plaintist having declared so specially upon the custom, it shall be intended this was for merchandising, especially since the desendant has demurred generally. And if the case had been otherwise, the desendant might have pleaded it. Ld. Raym. Rep. 175, 176. Hill. 8 & 9. W. 3. Pinkney v. Hall.

27. Another exception was, that the declaration is, that Hut-chins indorsavit billam predictam solubilem to the plaintiff, which is nonsence; for it ought to be that he indorsed the bill, that the desendant should pay, &c. sed non allocatur; and judgment given for the plaintiff. Ld. Raym. Rep. 176. Hill. 8 & 9 W. 3. Pinkney v. Hall.

28. Assumptit upon a bill of exchange. The plaintiff declares that secundum consuetudinem et usum mercatorum, the acceptor is bound to pay, &c. without sheaving the custom at large, and the desendant demurred; and it was adjudged for the plaintiff; and per cur. it is a better way than to shew the whole at large. Ld. Raym. Rep. 175. Hill. 8 & 9 W. 3. Soper v. Dible.

29. In an action on a bill of exchange, unless the plaintiff declares upon a custom to support the assumption according to the common form, the action will not be maintainable; per Powell J. Ld. Raym. Rep.

281. Mich. 9 W. 3.

30. The plaintiff declared upon the custom of merchants in London, (viz.) in the parish of St. Mary le Bow, that if any person residing and trading there subscribe a note for money payable on demand, the subscriber becomes chargeable to pay the same; and that the desendant signed a note payable to the plaintiff for 201, 10s. on demand. The desendant pleaded that, at the time of making the note, he resided at Brentsord in Middlesex, absque hoc, that he resided and traded in London; and upon demurrer it was objected, that the plaintist had not set forth where the note was made; sed non allocatur; because it shall be intended at St. Mary le Bow, for he set sorth that the defendant apud London, in the parish aforesaid, residen' et commercia haben' fecit notam, and therefore all must be intended the fame place; and the plaintiff had judgment by the opinion * of the whole court. 2 Lutw. 1582. 1585. Hill. 9 & 10 W. 3. Bromwich v. Loyd.

31. Actions for part of the sum in a bill of exchange, lies not Carth. 466. without shewing the other part to be satisfied. I Salk. 65. pl. 2. Mich. 10 W. 3. B. R. Hawkins v. Cardee.

S. C. this was on an indorsement ordering part of the bill to be paid to plaintiff. _____12 Mod. 217. Hawkins v. Gardiner, S. C. ___Ld. Raym. Rep. 360. S. C. adjudged per tot. Cur. that the declaration is ill; for a man cannot apportion a personal contract so as to make the defendant liable to a actions, where by the contract he is liable only to one. ——— The whole court were of opinion that judgment ought to be entered for the defendant; but upon importunity, leave was given to the plaintiff to discontinue upon non-payment of costs.

* 261.

32. Assumpsit on a bill of exchange against the acceptor, wherein the plaintiff declares that one Dunkin of Bristol, the 25th of March 1696, drew a bill of exchange on the defendant, payable to the plaintiff within a month; that 16 of May 1697, the defendant accepted the bill, and promised to pay secundum tenorem et effectum billa. On non-assumpsit pleaded and verdict pro quer' it was moved in arrest of judgment that the assumption was impossible, because made a year after the time of the bill, to pay the money according to the bill. But judgment was given for the plaintiff, for it appearing on the declaration, that the acceptance of the bill was after the day of payment, the secundum tenorem et essectum, must be understood to pay the bill presently; but if it had appeared on the declaration, that the acceptance was before the day of payment by the bill, there, upon the evidence, an acceptance after would have maintained the action. 12 Mod. 212. Mich. 10 W. 3. Jackson v. Pigot,

Ld. Raym. Rep. 364. Mich. 10 W. 3. S. C. adjudged for the plaintiff. ----Carth. 459. S. C. and as for the words fecundum tenorem et effectum billæ; the effect of the bill is the payment of the money, and not the day of payment, and at the most  $\cdot$ it is only surplusage in the declaration; and judgment for the plaintiff.

33. There were 3 bills of exchange drawn for the same sum to 1 Salk. 128. pay (the other bills not being paid); plaintiff protested the 2d bill, and brought his action, and declared on non-payment of the said does not ap-2d bill, and had judgment by default; and upon writ of inquiry pear.—Ld. intire damages; and now it was moved in arrest of jugment, because it was not averred in the declaration, that the 1st and 3d were but S. P. not paid, and that it ought to be averred, because the bills were conditional, viz. to pay the 2d if the 1st and 3d were not paid. But it was answered that the allegation, that the money in billa prædicta mentionat' was not paid, did supply the want of that averment, because the sum was the same in all the bills; and judgment was for the plaintiff. Carth. 510, Hill. 11 W. 3, B. R. Starke v. Cheesman.

pl. 10. S. C. but S. P. Raym. Rep. 538. S. C. does not

34. In case upon a bill of exchange, the plaintiff had judgment by default; it was moved in arrest that to intitle the plaintiff to 2 protest, the declaration only said that the person upon whom the bill does not apwas drawn non fuit inventus in so long a time, without shewing that they had made inquiry after him; but it was answered, that it was according to the custom among merchants, and according to the but S. P. common common form in such cases; and the plaintiff had judgment. Carth. 509, 510. Hill. 11 W. 3. B. R. Starke v. Cheeseman.

I Salk. 128. pl. 10. S. C. but S. P. pear.—Ld. Raym. Rep. 538. S. C. does not appear.

Franca; it appeared upon the declaration that there were feveral indorsements, and the action was brought by the first indorsor, who struck off the several indorsements, and brought action for non-payment; the bill did specify value received of the plaintiff. Holt said, if the action had been upon the custom, in this case the way had been for the plaintiff to get the last indorsee to indorse it to him, for him to bring action as indorse; but this action he said well lay, for the bill was given as a security for money, and without doubt it was a debt. 12 Mod. 345. Mich. 11 W. 3. Anon.

[ 262 ]

36. Then it was argued that the declaration shews a protest for want of payment, when it was in truth for want of acceptance, as appeared by the protest, yet it was ruled well; because this was not upon the custom, but a plain debt, and one might bring debt or indebitatus assumpsit upon a bill of exchange, because it is in the nature of a security. 12 Mod. 345. Mich. 11 W. 3. Anon.

Carth. 509, 510. S. C. and objected that it was not laid that the defendant promiled to pay the money to them after the protest made, or that he had any notice of the protest; but adjudged for the plaintiff. ———— Ld. Raym. Rep. 538. S. C. adjudged for the plaintiff; because the drawing the bill was an actual promise.

37. In an action against the drawer; the plaintiff declared on the custom of merchants, and set forth that the drawee refused to pay, per quod onerabilis devenit, &c. but laid no express promise; after judgment by default, and a writ of inquiry, it was moved in arrest, that the declaration had set forth the custom, but not an express promise to pay. But it was answered that it is sufficient to count upon the custom, because the custom makes both the obligation and promise; and Holt Ch. J. held that the drawing the bill is an express promise; and judgment for the plaintiff. I Salk. 128. pl. 10. Mich. 11 W. 3. B. R. Starkey v. Cheeseman.

38. Though an acceptance was within the 3 days of grace, viz. the last day, within which time payment is good, and no protest for want of payment can be made, unless the said days are elapsed, yet it is a breach not to have paid the money within the usance, and the plaintiff has no need to say in his declaration upon a bill of exchange, that he did not pay the money within the days of grace; but if the sact was, that it was then paid, it ought to be shewn of the other side; per Sir Barth. Shower, Arg. and Holt Ch. J. and Northey agreed the same to be so. Ld. Raym. Rep. 574, 575. Trin, 12 W. 3. Mutford v. Walcot.

39. If a bill is accepted, it is not necessary to allege any promise of payment; for the acceptance is an actual assumption, and the declaration need not to allege more; and though where the bill was drawn payable at Amsterdam, some house where the money ought to be paid at Amsterdam should be named, or otherwise the party may protest the bill, yet if it is accepted, the acceptor becomes liable thereby. Comyns's Rep. 75. pl. 49. Trin. 12 W. 3. Gregory v. Walcup.

40. A bill of exchange was directed to A. or in his absence to B. and began thus: Gentlemen, pray pay. The bill was tendered to A. who promised to pay it as soon as he should sell such goods: and

7 Mod. 85,

87. S.C. the court faid, ever it might that how-have been on demurrer, it will be well after verdict; for if the 2d or 3d were

Bills of Exchange, Notes, Ec.

in an action against him for non-payment, the declaration was ofa bill directed to him, without taking any notice of B. and Holt held it well. 12 Mod. 447. Pasch. 13 W. 3. Anon.

41. A bill of exchange was thus: pray pay this my first bill of exchange, my 2d and 3d not being paid. In the declaration the indorsement was set forth thus, viz. that the drawer [drawee] indorsavit super billam illam content' billæ illius solvend' to the plaintiff, without fetting forth that the bill was subscribed. It was moved in arrest of judgment, that there was no averment, that the 2d and 3d bill were not paid, which is a condition precedent; but per Cur. that must be intended, for the plaintiff could not otherwise have had a verdict, and therefore this indorsement likewise aided by their finding quod affumpsit. 1 Salk. 130. pl. 14. Mich. 1 Ann. B. R. East v. Estington.

paid, there had been no promise at all; for the promise is conditional to pay this, if the 2d or 3d be not paid, and therefore if the 2d or 3d was paid, they could not find for the plaintiff. _____ 2 Ld. Raym. Rep. 810. S. C. adjudged for the plaintiff.

42. Since the statute of 9 & 10 W. 3. cap. 17. a protest was 1 Salk. 131. never set forth in the declaration; per Holt Ch. J. and Powell J. 3 Salk. 69. pl. 6. in case of Borough v. Perkins.

pl. 17. Mich. 2 Ann.BR. the S. C. & S. P. by Powell J.

43. An affumpfit was brought by one B. against C. on a foreign Plaintiff bill of exchange to pay, according to the custom of merchants, so much money at 2 usances, viz. at Amsterdam, but it did not appear what the time of those usances was. Holt Ch. J. said, he would take notice of the custom of merchants, but not of that at Amsterdam or Venice, &c. In such case, you must set forth the custom in your declaration. 11 Mod. 92. pl. 18. Trin. 5 Ann. B. R. Buckley v. Cambden.

[ 263 ] must shew what the ulances are ; for the court cannot take notice of foreign ulances which very, being longer in one place than in another. I Salk. 131. pl. 18. Hill. 7 Ann. B. R. Buckley v. Campbell.

44. A bill of exchange was drawn payable to A. but has no day mentioned when it should be paid. A. on sight of the bill, pro-· mised to pay it on the 18th of April. It was objected, that the action must be founded on the new agreement, and not on the custom of merchants; but per Powell J. the custom of merchants. is by the acceptance, and promise to pay at such a time is good, and he is bound by the custom of merchants by the acceptance to pay at the time appointed, and therefore the declaration on the custom of merchants is good; and if it should not bind on the custom of merchants, it would not bind at all; because no indebitatus affumplit lies on the acceptance; and judgment for the plaintiff, nisi, by 3 judges, absente Holt. 11 Mod. 190. pl. 5. Mich. 7 Ann. B. R. Walker v. Atwood.

45. In action against the 2d indersor of a promissory note, the Butit was plaintiff declared without any averment, that the money was demanded held e conof the drawer or the 1st indersor. This was moved in arrest of judg- 126. pl. 6. ment, but held good, because the indorsor charges himself in the Mich. 10 fame W. by

Holt Ch. J., same manner as if he had originally drawn the bill. I Salk. 133. at Guildhall pl. 20. Trin. 9 Ann. B. R. Harry v. Petit. indorse cannot sue the indorsor, unless he first endeavours to find out the drawer, to demand it of him, and such endeavour must be set forth in the declaration. Anon.

46. An action was brought against the indorsor of a promissory note, wherein the plaintist declared, that one Coates fecit notam in writing, by which he promised to pay to the desendant, or order, so much money, &c. that the desendant indorsed this note to the plaintist, and that licet he demanded the money de eodem Coates, he did not pay it. The desendant demurred specially, for that the plaintist did not set forth, that Coates, of whom the money was demanded, was the same Coates who drew the bill; to which it was answered, that the declaration sets forth, that the note was made by one Coates, and that the plaintist demanded the money de eodem Coates, which is a good and certain averment that he was the same person, and the court was of that opinion. 8 Mod. 307. Mich. 11 Geo. Elliott v. Cowper.

2 Ld.Raym.
Rep. 1376.
S. C. and Fortescue J. cited the late case of TAYLOR V.
DOBBINS, as exactly this case in

47. Then it was objected, that the statute, which gives credit to such notes, and a remedy to recover on them where there was none at law, enacts, that all notes signed by any person, &c. and it does not appear by this declaration, that Coates signed this note. To which it was answered, that the plaintiff set forth that Coates secit notam, which implies signing it. The plaintiff had judgment. 8 Mod. 307. Mich. 11 Geo. Elliott v. Cowper.

point, wherein, notwithstanding this very exception, the plaintiss had judgment, because it was said, fecit notam suam per quam promisit solvere, which implied, that it was signed by the desendant, which case Pratt Ch. J. remembered, and judgment was given for the plaintiff.

So where the declaration was, that the defendant made the note for himself and partner, and sub-scribed it with his own hand, whereby defendant promised for himself and partner to pay, the court held it very good; for this shews sufficiently that he signed it for himself and partner, and judgment for the plaintiff. 2 Ld. Raym. Rep. 1484. Trin. 13 Geo. 1. and 1 Geo. 2. Smith v. Jarves.

[ 264] Barnard.
Rep in B.R.
87. Evelkyn
v. Merry,
S. C. held
accordingly.

48. A bill of exchange need not be expressly averred to be within the custom of merchants, but if, as set out in the declaration, it appears to be within the custom, it is sufficient. 2 Ld. Raym. Rep. 1542. Mich. 2 Geo. 2. Ereskine v. Murray.

Barnard. Rep. in B. R. 87. Evelkyn v. Merry,S. C. the court said, that indeed the stat. 9 & 10 W. 3. cap. 17. required the acceptance to be in writing, where a person would take benefit of that act, but it does

49. Plaintiff declared, that M. made his bill of exchange in writing to E. the defendant directed, and by the faid bill requested the said E. on such a day, to pay to M. the plaintiff, or order, 2001. pro valore in manibus ipsius E. de denariis accommodatis de eodem M. that E. accepted the bill, and promised to pay, &c. Plaintiff had judgment by ail dicit, and in error brought, exception was, that it was not averred that the bill was signed. But as to this it was answered, that it is alledged that the plaintiff made his bill of exchange in writing, directed to the said E. and by the said bill requested, which necessarily implies the plaintiff's name wrote in the bill, else he could not request, and the saying he made the bill in writing, imports, that he, or somebody by his authority, wrote, which is all one, and imports assigning, if it be necessary in case of inland bills of exchange; and such a way of declaring was held sufficient in case of promissory notes, where the stat. 3 & 4 Ann. cap. 9. requires, that the party that makes the bill, or some person intrusted by him, should sign it. (See Elliot v. Cooper, supra.) And another exception was, for that it was de denariis accommodatis (de eodem M.), whereas it is nonsense, and should be (per eundem M.). But the court held, that pro valore in manibus ipsius E. had been sufficient, and that the other words might be rejected as surplusage, and they held, that the meaning was (lent by the said M.), though the Latin might not be so correct. And judgment in C. B. was affirmed in B. R. 2 Ld. Raym. Rep. 1542. Mich. 2 Geo. 2. Ereskine v. Murray.

W24

Bills of Erchange, Motes, Et.

not require in general, that the acceptance shall be by under-writing; but says, that the court seemed to think, that a signing is necessary to be laid in an action upon a promissory note, to bring the plaintiff within the stat. 3 & 4 Ann. cap. 9. which requires it; but they doubted whether a bill of exchange shall not be considered as a technical word, and consequently will include the circumstances of figning, and affirmed the judgment.

Jo. The plaintiff declared, that A. and B. fecit quandam notame fuam in scriptis vocatam a promissory note, & eandem notam adtunct biddem cum manu sua propria, &c. jointly or separately, promised to pay 11001. for value received. There was verdict and judgment for the plaintiff. It was assigned for error, that the note is laid to be made by 2 persons, A. and B. and the verb is fecit in the singular number, so that does not appear to be made by A. against whom the action was brought, but it might be made by B. and it does not appear to make A. liable by his signing; neither does the note import, that they promised severally; for it ought to have been, that they promised jointly and separately. And judgment for these reasons was reversed. 2 Ld. Raym. Rep. 1544. Mich. 2 Geo. 2. Neale v. Ovington.

(P) Evidence.

Gives to B. a bill of exchange on C. in payment of a former debt, this will not be allowed as evidence on non affumplit unless paid, though B. kept it in his hands long after it was payable; for a bill shall never go in payment of a precedent debt, unless it be part of the * contract that it should do so. I Salk. 124. pl. 1. coram Holt Ch. J. at Guildhalf, 3 W. & M. Clark v. Mundal.

2. In case upon a bill of exchange upon the evidence at the trial before Holt Ch. J. at Guildhall, Nov. 23. Mich. 12 W. 3. the case was thus: A. drew a bill of exchange upon B. payable to C. at Paris. B. accepted the bill. C. indorsed it, payable to D.—D. to E.—E. to F.—F. to G.—G. demanded the bill to be paid by B. and upon non-payment G. protested it within the time, &c. and then G. brought an action against D. and it was well brought, and the recovered. Afterwards D. brought an action against B. and though D. produced the bill and the protest, yet because he could not produce a receipt for the money paid by him to G. upon the protest, as the custom is among merchants, as several merchants upon their oaths affirmed, he was nonsuit. But Holt seemed to be of opinion, g Salk. 68.

pl. 4. S. C.
in much the fame words.
—12 Mod.
203. Trin.
10 W.& M. at Guildhall,
S.C. & S.P. ruled accordingly.

[ 265 ]

opinion, that if he had proved payment by him to G. it had been well enough. Ld. Raym. Rep. 742, 743. Mendez v. Carrercon.

3. Indorsee need not prove the drawer's hand, because though to W. 3. at Guildhall, pl. 9. Pasch. 11 W. 3. coram Holt at Guildhall. Lambert v. coram Holt Pack.

Ch. 1.

Lambert v. Oakes, S. P. and seems to intend S. C.—Ld. Raym. Rep. 443, 444. S. C. & S. P. accordingly.

He must prove that he demanded it of the drawer, or him on whom it was drawn, and that he refused to pay it, or that he fought him, and could not find him; for otherwise he cannot resort to the indorsor. I Salk. 127. pl. 9. Pasch. II W. 3. coram wour to demand it of Holt at Guildhall. Lambert v. Pack.

the drawer before he can sue upon the indorsement. 12 Mod. 244. Mich. 10 W. 3. Lambert v. Oakes, S. C.—Ld. Raym. Rep. 443. S. C. & S. P.

J. The demand must be proved subsequent to the indorsement; for the lambert v.

Oaker, S.P. and so the demand insufficient to charge the indorsor, I Salk. and seems to 127. pl. 9. Pasch. II W. 3. coram Holt Ch. J. at Guildhall. Lambert v. Pack.

Ld. Raym.

Rep. 443. S. C. & S. P.

6. If the action be brought against the indorsor, it is not necessary to prove the hand of the drawer; for though it be forged, the indorsor is liable; per Holt Ch. J. at Guildhall. Ld. Raym. Rep.

443, 444. Pasch. 11 W. 3. Lambert v. Oakes.

7. Plaintiff to shew a protest, produced an instrument attested by a notary public; and though it was insisted upon that he should prove this instrument, or at least give some account how he came by it, Holt ruled it not to be necessary; for that, he said, would destroy commerce and public transactions of this nature. 12 Mod. 345. Mich. 11 W. 3. at nisi prius, coram Holt. Anon.

8. If a man has a bill of exchange, he may authorize another to indorse his name upon it by parol; and when that is done, it is the same as if he had done it himself; per Holt Ch. J. 12 Mod. 564.

Mich. 13 W.3. at nisi prius. Anon.

o. Action on a bill of exchange, being by an executor; and upon a debt laid to be due to testator, he held it necessary to prove the acceptance was in the testator's time; per Holt Ch. J. 12 Mod. 447. at nisi prius, coram Holt, Pasch. 13 W.3. Anon.

10. If a man gives a note for money payable on demand, he needs not prove any consideration. 2 Freem. Rep. 257. pl. 324-fays it was so held, and that the practice is so. Trin. 1702.

Crawley v. Crowther.

[ 266 ] II. Plaintiff had a bill of exchange drawn on the defendant, which he indorsed, and delivered to J. S. who went to the desendant to get it accepted. J. S. left it with him, and it was afterwards less; thereupon the plaintiff brought trover. The court were all of opinion, that the bare indorsement, without any other words purporting an assignment, does not make an alteration of the property; for it may still be filled up either with a receipt or an asfignment, and consequently J. S. is a good witness. 1 Salk. 130. pl. 15. Pasch. 2 Ann. B. R. Lucas v. Haines.

norting

12. Whether the want of a consideration of a promissory note can be given in evidence on the statute of 3 & 4 Ann. cap. 9. see G.

Equ. Rep. 154. Mich. 8 Geo. 1. Brown v. Marsh.

13. As to notice given by the indorsee to the acceptor before he cammenced his action, that he must provide the money, it was offered in evidence, that he gave him notice by sending him a letter to do so. But the Ch. J. said, that he did not think the bare sending a letter to the post-house would be sufficient evidence of notice, without some further proofs of the acceptor's receiving it; and besides he said, that generally a personal demand is expected. Barnard. Rep. in B. R. 199, 200. Trin. 2 Geo. 2. Dale v. Lubeck.

14. To prove an indorsement over of a bill of exchange, it was offered that the defendant had himself confessed that he was come to town to basten on the trial of an action that was brought against him, upon an indorsement that he had made on a bill of exchange. And the counsel said that this very cause was brought down by proviso; so that it is strong evidence that it is for the same matter; and the Ch. J. at the sittings at Guildhall, allowed this to be good evidence of the indorsement. Barnard. Rep. in B. R. 199. Trin. 2 Geo. 2. Dale v. Lubeck.

Recovered. What. Damages, &c.

1. INTEREST on a bill of exchange commences from demand Drawes acmade, and therefore, if there was no demand made till action brought, the defendant may plead tender and refusal, and uncore prist, and so discharge himself of interest; but if it be the defendant's fault that the demand could not be made, as if he were and thereout of the kingdom, there want of demand ought not to prejudice the plaintiff; per Cur. 6 Mod. 138. Pasch. 3 Ann. B. R. Anon.

cepts the bill. and fome time after protests it, upon the bill is indorsed to the drawer, who brought action as 10 Mod. 36.

indorsee, and held well, and interest was ruled to be paid from the time of the protest. Trin. 10 Ann. B. R. Louviere & Laubray.

2. 3 4 Ann. cap. 9. s. No acceptance of such inland bill shall charge any person, unless underwritten or indorsed; and if not so underwritten or indorsed, no drawer to pay costs, damages, or interest, unless protest be made for non-acceptance, and within 14 days after protest the same be sent, or notice thereof given to the party from whom such bill was received, or left in writing at his usual place of abode; and if such a bill be accepted, and not paid within 3 days after due, no drawer shall pay costs, damages, or interest thereon, unless protest be made and sent, or notice given as aforesaid; nevertheless, the drawer

Since this statute it has been adjudged that an indorfee of an inland bill of exchange may maintain an action against the acceptor, on shall be liable to payment of costs, damages, and interest, if any pitch a parol acceptance, as test be made for non-acceptance or non-payment, and notice be sent; to the pringiven, or left.

cipal fum, though not as to interest and costs; for the act being made to give a further remedy * for interest, damages and costs against the drawer, cannot be supposed to take any advantage from the payee which he had before, and therefore the true construction of the act is, that to charge the drawer with interest and costs, the drawer must refuse to accept it in writing; nevertheless if he accepts the bill by parol, he is liable to the principal sum in the bill as he would have been before the act. 3 New. Abr. 611. cites Mich. 8 Geo. 21 B. R. Lumley v. Palmer.

(R) Remedy for Bills loft.

1. A Bill of exchange was accepted by the drawee, by under-writing his name; but the person to whom it became payable by indorfement, lost or missaid it; and the drawee refusing payment, the indorsee exhibited his bill in chancery, setting forth the refusal, and that he offered to give security to the defendant to indemnify him, and annexed an affidavit to the bill of the losing or miflaying it. This being confessed by the answer, it was objected that it did not appear by the plaintiff's affidavit that he had not affigned the bill to another; but decreed that defendant pay the money, the plaintiff giving security to indemnify the defendant, as the master shall think reasonable, against any person that may hereafter demand the same. Fin. Rep. 301. Pasch. 29 Car. 2. Tercese v. Geray.

2. 9 & 10 W. 3. cap. 17. s. Enacts that if any inland bills of exchange for 3 l. or upwards for value received, drawn payable at a certain number of days, &c. after the date thereof, be lost or miscarry within the time limited for payment of the same, the drawer of the faid bills shall give other bills of the same tenor, security being given (if demanded) to indemnify him, in case the said bills so lost, or miscarried, be found again.

3. A bank bill payable to A. or bearer was lost, and found by B. a stranger. B. for a valuable consideration transferred it to C. who got a new bill in his own name; Holt Ch. J. held, that A. may have trover against B. who found the bill, because he had no title, though the payment to B. would have indemnified the bank, but not against C. to whom it was assigned, by reason of the course of trade, which creates a property in the assignee or bearer. 1 Salk. 126. pl. 5. at Guildhall coram Holt Ch. J. Mich. 10 W. 3. Anon.

4. By 3 & 4 Ann. cap. 17. s. 2. Actions to be brought upon notes mentioned in the statute, shall be brought within the time appointed for bringing actions by the statute of 21 Jac. cap. 16.

5. If a promiffory note be indorsed and afterwards lost, and passed in way of trade to a 3d person for a valuable consideration, the indorsee may have trover for the note against the third person; per Baron Price, which the other barons did not deny. 9 Mod. 47. Trin. 9 Geo.

<sup>268</sup>]

(S) Equity.

Requested B. to let him have 50l. in London, and he would draw a bill on C. in the country, to repay it to B. as soon as B. should return home. B. gave 2 bills to A. one for 20l. and another for 30l. payable at 20 days sight, which the drawe accepted. On B.'s return, drawee in the country resused to pay A.'s bill. B. on this, writes to stop payment of his bills, but one was paid before, but the drawee resused to pay A. the other. Decreed A. to pay back the 20l. received, and a perpetual injunction against A. for the other 30l. Fin. R. 356. Pasch. 30 Car. 2. Hill and Penford v. Baker.

2. Bill for relief against a bill of exchange, on pretence of its <sup>2</sup> Freem. Being gained by threats or menaces, is not proper for equity, it being a matter at law, and duress a good plea there; but being but not fully gained by fraud, and for a sictitious consideration, it was relieved S. P. per Commissioners. 2 Vern. 123. pl. 123. Hill. 1690. Dyer v.

Tymewell.

For more of Bills of Exchange in general, see Payment (A) and other proper titles.

(A) Blanks.

- I. IF spaces are lest for the addition of the parish and such things in the record, this the judges cannot amend; for it is out of their knowledge. Arg. Savil. 87, 88. pl. 165. Pasch. 28 Eliz.
- 2. Blank left in a bond for the christian name of the obligor, who subscribed his christian name, is good. Cro. J. 261. pl. 22. Mich. 8 Jac. B. R. Dobson v. Keyes.

3. If a man be bound to pay to (blank) and feals it, and after-wards a name is put in, this is not a good bond; per Jones J.

2 Show. 161. pl. 146. Pasch. 33 Car. 2.

4. Blanks were filled up after the execution of a deed, and the deed not read again to the party nor re-sealed, and executed; yet held a good deed. 2 Ch. Rep. 410. 3 Jac. 2. Paget v. Paget.

5. If a judgment is entered on the roll with blanks, they may be filled up without notice within the year. Cumb. 71. Hill. 3 &

4 Jac. 2. Anon.

6. Debt upon a bond; and upon over the defendant demurred, and shewed for cause that the bond was void, being noverint universi, &c. me J. S. teneri & sirmiter obligari Richardo de Wood-firet, &c. soboend eidem Richardo Bishop. But the court held the bond good, and gave judgment for the plaintiff. 11 Mod. 275. pl. 23. Hill. 8 Ann. B. R. Bishop v. Morgan.

7. On the affigument of a promissory note payable to one or order, nothing is done but indorsing the name of the indorsor, upon which the indorsee may write what he please; and at a trial, when the bill is given in evidence, the party may fill up the blanks as he pleases. Comyns's Rep. 311. pl. 160. Mich. 5 Geo. 1. C. B.

Moor v. Manning.

Blood Corrupted.

(A) In what Cases.

Br. Forfeits ure de Terres, pl. 89. cites S. C. [ 269 ] commits felony in his father's life, and confesses the selony, and becomes an approver, and takes his clergy, and is put to the prison of the ordinary, and there dies, and after the father dies, the daughter shall have the land, and not the uncle, because the eldest son was not attainted, by reason that no judgment of death was given; for by such judgment the land shall escheat, by reason of the attainder of the eldest son, who cannot take it. Br. Discent, pl. 44. cites 8 E. 1. and Fitzh. Assis, 421.

Hawk.P.C. 2. Being a felo de se is no corruption of blood; for corruption 68. cap. 27. of blood cannot be without attainder in salt; agreed by all the justices. Pl. C. 261. b. Mich. 4 & 5 Eliz. Hales v. Pettit.

3. Attaindet of berest or premunire works no corruption of blood. Co. Litt. 391. a.

No attainder 4. By an attainder of piracy on stat. 28 H. 8. cap. 15. there is of piracy no corruption of blood. 3 Inst. 112.

ruption of blood at the common law. I Salk. 85. pl. 1. at the Old Bally 1696, in case of the King v. Morphes. —— Attainder for piracy corrupts not the blood, inasmuch as the statute only says, that the offender shall suffer such pains of death, &cc. as if he were attainted of a selony at common law; but says not that the blood shall be corrupted. Hawk. Pl. C. 99: cap. 37. s. 8. —— Where the proceedings are by the civil saw, a condemnation for a capital offence causes neither suffeiture of lands nor corruption of blood; for corruption of blood can be caused only by a judgment by course of the common law. 2 Hawk. Pl. C. cap. 4. f. 10. and cap. 23. f. 12. _____S. P. Hale's Hifts of Pl. C. 354, 355. cap. 27. but fays if there be an attainder of treason or felony done upon the sea, spontbis statute of 28 H. 8. by jury, according to the course of the common law, it seems that the judgment thereupon works a corruption of blood, because the commission itself is under the great seal, warmated by act of parliament, and the trial is according to the course of the common law, and therefore the proceedings and judgment thereupon is of the same effect as an attainder of foreign treason by committion upon the statute of 35 H. 8. cap. 2. or any other attainder by the course of the common law; and with this agrees Co. Litt. s. 745. pag. 391. Nay, I think farther, that if the indictment of piracy before such commissioners upon the statute of 28 H. 8. be formed as an indictment of robbery at common law, vis. vi & armis & felonice, &c. that he might be thereupon attainted, and the blood corrupted; for whatever any say to the contrary, it is out of question that piracy upon the statute is robbery, and the offenders have been indicted, convicted, and executed for it in 5. R. as for a robbery, as I have elsewhere made it evident. But indeed if the indictment before these commissioners run only according to the stile of the civil law, viz. piratice deprædavit, then the attainder thereupon, upon the statute of 28 H. 8. though it gives the forfeiture of lands and goods, corrupts not the blood; and so are those 2 books of the same author, Co. P. C. cap. 49. and Co. Litt. 1. 745. to be reconciled, which, without this diversity, would be contradictory; and cites Hill. 13 Car. B. R. Hilliar v. Moore.

5. 1 Jac. 1. No attainder for bigamy shall work any corruption of blood, loss of dower, or disherison of the heirs.

6. 21 Jac. 1. s. 26. It is felony without benefit of clergy to acknowledge, or procure to be acknowledged, any fine, recovery, deed inrolled, statute, recognizance, bail, or judgment in the name of any person not privy or consenting thereunto; howbeit this offence Ball not corrupt the blood.

7. Where a flatute saves the land to the heir, it so far prevents the corruption of blood. Hawk. Pl. C. 107. cap. 40. s. 5.

8. An attainder of treason works corruption in all cases whereever the treason be done, except only attainders before the constable, marfbal, or admiral; the reason whereof was, because there could be no record made of it, but here there is. (This was attainder of treason by commission on 28 H. 8. 15.) 1 Salk. 85. pl. 1. at the Old Baily 1696. The King v. Morphes.

(B) Who shall be barred.

[270]

1. WHERE a father is seised in see, and the son is attainted in the life of the sather, and the sather dies, and the son furvives, there no other shall have the land as heir; but the lord hall have the writ of escheat, supposing that the tenant died without heir; per Newton. Br. Discent, pl. 12. cites 22 H. 6. 38.

2. A man hath iffue 2 sons, and the eldest in the life of the father is attainted of felony, and dies, living the father, and after the father dies seised of land in fee. If the land shall escheat or not, was the question; and it was held by Brown, Coningsby, Molineux, and Hales, that the land shall enure to the youngest son as heir to his father, if the eldest had no issue alive; but if he had issue alive, (so that he is inheritable by the law, if it was not for the attainder,) the land shall escheat to the lord, and shall not go to Quod nota, pro diversitate legis. the youngest son. D. 48. 2. father, pl. 16. Mich. 32 H. 8. Anon.

At the parliament ist H.4. Numb. 132. petities of the com-MORS WAS, that the attainder of the eldeft fon in the life of his thoul not be a bar to the youngest, and answered currat communis lex. Ex lib. Mr. Hackwel, D. 48. pl. 16. Marg. . X 2

Prynn's Ahr. of Cotton's Records, 396. cites the same potition and answer. ------S. P. of collateral descents of lands in see-simple, where the cldest son dies without issue, living the father, the younger shall inherit the father, because he needs not mention the elder brother in conveying of his title; but if the elder survive his father but a day, and dies without issue, the younger cannot inherit, because the corruption of the blood in the elder fon surviving the father, impedes the descent. Hale's Hist. Pl. C. 356, 357. cap. 27. cites 31 E. 1. Bar, 315. But says, that otherwise it is in case the eldest son had been an alien born; for then, notwithstanding such alien son were living, the land will descend from the father to the youngest som born a denisen.

> 3. A man infeoffed several to the use of his wife for life, and after to the use of the heirs male of his body, and has a son, and after was attainted of treason anno 29 H. 8. and the wife died; and it was held that the fon shall have ouster le main, as a purchasor by the name of beir male, and not as beir. Quære. Br. Descent, pl. 1. cites 37 H. 8.

Hale's Hift. Pl. C. 357. cites S. C.

4. A. and B. are brothers. A. is attainted, and has iffue C. and dies, and C. purchases lands, and dies without issue. B. his uncle shall not inherit; for A. who was the medius ancestor was disabled; per Hale Ch. J. Vent. 416. cites 3 Inst. 241. Courtney's case.

Br. Descent, pl. 23. S. C. cites 29 Ast. 61.

5. Where the issue in tail is outlawed of felony in the life of the ancestor, and gets a pardon in the life of the ancestor, he may enter after the death of his ancestor as heir in tail; contra of fee-finsple. But if the ancestor dies before the pardon, then it seems, by Thorpe, that the heir in tail cannot enter. The reason seems to be inasmuch as the king shall have the land during the life of the outlaw. Br. Forfeiture de Terre, pl. 37.

D. 274. 2. b. pl. 40. Pasch. 10 Eliz. Grey's case. S. C. cited Jo. 460.

6. The younger brother bath issue, and is attaint of treason, and dies. The elder brother, having a title to a petition of right, dies without issue. Without a restitution the other brother's son hath lost that title; for though that title were in an ancestor that was attainted, yet his father that is the medium, whereby he must convey that title, was attainted, and so the descent is obstructed. Vent. 425. per Hale Ch. B. cites 10 Eliz. D. 274. Graves's case.

But if the wife died before entry, after the death of the baron, the issue is barred, and the king has right to the land, because the iffue as heir to them both:

7. Baron and feme, tenants in tail of lands of the inheritance of the ancestors of the feme, have iffue a son, who has iffue a son, grandson to the baron and seme. The baron dies. His son commits treason, and is executed, the seme surviving. Per Ld. Treasurer & omnes barones, the grandson has goodstitle after the death of the feme, and the land is not forfeited by the attainder of the fon, he being executed in the life of the grandmother, who only as long as she lived was tenant * in tail, and the land descended to the grandson as cousin and heir of the body of the feme the grandmother. cannot claim Cro. E. 28. pl. 12. Pasch. 26 Eliz. in Cam. Scaec. Mantell v. Mantell.

for by the father he is barred. Arg. Godb. 312. cites 8 Rep. 72.

*[271]

8. If the eldest son kills bis father, the youngest shall have an expeal against his brother; and yet if his brother be attainted at his suit, he shall never inherit his father's lands. Arg. Noy, 165. cites it as agreed by all the judges in 26 Eliz.

Where the person under wbom anssber ought

9. Where one is attainted of treason or felony, this is absolute and perpetual disability by corruption of blood for any of his pofterity to claim any hereditament in fee-simple, or as heir to him er to any other ancestor paramount him. 11 Rep. 1. b. 39 Eliz. to make bis conveyance, Ld. Delaware's case. is barred, in fuch case such other is barred. Arg. Lat. 73. cites 37 E. 3. Fitzh. Descent, 17. and Har. 15.

10. But the heir in tail, in case of felony or murder by the father, shall have the land, and the blood is not corrupted; but it is otherwise in case of treason by the statute 26 H. 8. Jenk. 82. treason, his .pl. 60.

When tenant in tail is attainted of blood is not corrupted.

Arg. Godb. 305. cites 3 Rep. 10. Lumley's case, and says, that the statute 33 H. 8. 20. is the first flatute which vests lands forfeited for treason in the king without office found, so as according to the Ld. Lumley's case, 3 Rep. 10. before this statute of 33 H. 8. 20. the land did descend to the issue in tail. Godb. 305. in case of Sheffield v. Ratcliff.

The statutes of 26 and 33 H. 8. subject estates tail to the forfeiture by attainder of treason, and so the law stands at this day, notwithstanding the statute of 1 E. 6. and the statute of 1 Mar. But yet these acts are not absolutely a repeal of the statute of donis conditionalibus, for notwithstanding the forfaiture of the lands entailed by the attainder, yet the blood is not corrupted as to the issue in tail; and therefore if the son of the donce in tail be attainted of treason in the life of the father, and die, having issue, and then the father dies, the estate shall descend to the grand-child, notwithstanding the father's sttainder; but otherwise it would have been in case of a see simple. Hale's Hist. Pl. C. 356. cites 3 Co. Rep. 10. b. Dowtle's case. _____jenk. 82. pl. 60. S. P. and cites S. C.

11. Where a remainder is limited to the right heirs of J. S. and Jenk. 203. J. S. afterwards is attainted, his heir shall not take; for his blood Pl. 27. S. P. is corrupted, and he is iffue only, and not heir. Jenk. 82. pl. 60.

12. If corruption of the blood of the father disables the course That it does of descent and inheritance between the brother and the father. Mo. 569. pl. 775. Pasch. 41 Eliz. in the Exchequer, Countess of War- it as adjudgwick's case. No judgment.

not. Cro. J. 539. cites ed 41 Elis.

in Holbie's eafe. ----Noy, 158. &c. S. C. by the name of the King v. Boraston and Adams, alias Altonwood's cale. ____ And see the argument of Hale Ch. B. in tale of Collingwood v. Pace. Vent. 413 to 430.

13. Land is given to A. and the heirs males of his body, remainder to the heirs females of his body. If the father commits treafon, both heir male and semale are barred; for they both claim by the tether. But if the beir male, after his father's death, is attainted of treason, the king shall have the lands as long as he has issue male of his body, and if he dies without issue, the heir female shall have the lands; for the claims by the father, and not by the brother, Arg. Godb. 311. cites Litt. 719.

14. If there be grandfather, father, and son, and the grandfather In all cases, and father have divers other sons, and the father is attainted of felony, and pardoned, yet the blood remains corrupted, not only above him, and about him, but also to all his children born at the time of the attaunder.

Co. Litt. 392, 2. the blood upward and downward, so that no person that must make his derivation of descent to or through the party attaint, can inherit; as if there be grandfather, father, and son, and the father is attrinted, and dies in the life of the grandfather, the fon cannot inherit the grandfather. Pl. C. 356.

15. Resolved by the two chief justices, and the chief baron, that whereas P. had covenanted by indenture for natural affection, to stand seised to bimself for life, the remainder for life to F. the eldest ton of his brother, the remainder to the first son of the said F. and so to the 8th son, &c. the remainder to the right heirs of P. and P. is

(but only in cales of entails) attainder of treaion or felony corrupta Hale's Hift.

*[272] Mo.815. pl. 1103. in the Star-Cham. ber, S. C. says, but nota, that for fundry attainted vehement presumptions of forgery of the said deed, the said deed, the said deed, the said deed was censured and damned, but no person censured.

attainted of treason, and executed before the birth of any son to F. that the sons born after are all utterly barred by that attainder, and the king shall have the see discharged of all the remainders limited to the sons not yet born. Noy, 102. Trin. 9 Jac. Sir Tho. Palmer's case.

The wife is 16. Husband and wife, tenants in tail, if one is attaint of treason, tenant in tail in this case, yet the land shall not descend to the issue; because he cannot make title as heir to them both. Arg. Godb. 312. cites 9 Rep. 140. is forfeited against the Pasch. 10. Jac. in the Court of Wards, in Beaumont's case.

issue, though it be but a possibility, for the whole estate is in the wife; but the reason is, because it was once coupled with the possession. Arg. Godb. 325. cites 9 Rep. Beaumont's case.

17. It is not the corruption of blood that brings the land to the H. feiled of lands for 3 king, for then restitution of blood would restore the land to the lives was atperson attainted, and his heirs, which it does not, though it be by sainted on the parliament, as appears by all the acts of restitution in blood only, flutute 🎖 😂 🕆 9 W. 3. of and the land is forfeited by attainder ipso facto, so that the lord treason for may enter by force of the forfeiture, which gives the title against counterfeithim for the whole estate, so that the heir is involved in him, and ing the coin, by wbicb the descent intercepted and prevented by the estate given away by flatute corthe forfeiture, not by the corruption of blood. Hob. 347. 13 Jac. in ruption of the Exchequer, by Hobart Ch. J. in case of Shessield v. Ratclisse. blood is saved. The question was, whether the lands were forseited to the king, who had given the same, as sorseited, to Baron Lovel, who brought a bill in the Exchequer to redeem, and bad a decree? On an appeal to the house of lords, the judges held, that in selong the sorseiture to the lord is only by way of speed, pro desellu tenastis, but in treason the lands came to the king as an immediate forseiture, which was a distinct penalty from corruption of blood, for the corruption may be saved, and the forseiture still remain, & vice versa, and therefore the lands forseited in the principal case. 2 Salk. 85. pl. 2. Hill. 8 Ann. in Dom. Proc. Sir

Sclathiel Lovel's case.

18. If the mother had been attainted, the uncle could not inherit the son's land, & sic e converso, because the uncle to the son, and the son to the uncle, in their conveyance, must needs mention the mother. Arg. Noy, 165. in case of Boraston v. Adams, [alias

Hobby's case.]

19. A. has issue, son and daughter, A. is attaint; the son purchases, 4 Le. 5. pl. and dies without iffue; the daughter shall inherit to her brother; 21. S. G. accordingly. for, 1st, she was born before the attainder, and there was lawful blood, and hereditable between them, which was not lost by the cited Cro. J. 539-in pl.7- corruption after; and upon the grounds which Littleton puts, if —S. C. son purchase, and has no heir of the part of the father, the heir of cited Hale's His. Pl. C. the part of the mother shall have it; so here, though there be no lawful blood between the son and the daughter by the father, yet 357.---Noy, 158. of the part of the mother is lawful blood, Palm. 19. Trin. 17 The King v. Jac. Hobby's case. Boraiton, Adams's, alias Altonwood's, case, S. C.—S. C. cited Vent. 425. per Hale Ch. B. in case of Collingwood's. Pace, and that it was ruled, that notwithstanding the attainder, the fister should inherit, because the second fister was immediate, and the law regards not the disability of the father.

And as to the case above, Hale Ch. B. said, if it be objected, that in that case the mother was not definited, which might preserve the legal blood between the brother and fifter, I answer, that that would not serve, admitting the disability of the parents were not at all considerable; for if it disable the blood of the sather which is derived to the son, it would infallibly destroy the descent to the sister, for the inherita her brother in the capacity of heir to the part of the mother, if by the attainder she had been disabled to take as heir by the father's blood. 49 E. 3. 12. If the beir on the part of the father be attained, the land shall eschear, and shall never descend to the heir of the mother, because, notwithstanding the attainder, the law looks upon it as in effe; but otherwise it is in case of an alien, for if the son purchase land, and hath no kindred on the part of his father, but an al en, it shall descend to the heir on the part of the mother; and although the blood both of the father and the mother were in the fifter, yet if the were difabled in the blood of her father by his attainder, the could never intitle herfelf by the blood of her mather. Vent. 426. in case of Collingwood v. Pace.

20. A. devises that the beir of B. shall sell his land; B. is attainted of felony in the life-time of A.—A. dies. The eldest son of B. cannot fell this land, for he is not heir. The blood is corrupted; he is the iffue of B. The word heir will not serve for a name of purchase, if he be not lawful heir, nor the word issue. The word fon, or daughter, will, or reputed son or daughter, in the case of a feofiment, as well as of a will, although they be bastards. 203. pl. 27.

21. Duplicatus sanguis is not necessary in descents or purchases; 28 where a man is feifed in right of his wife, an heiress, and has issue, and the husband is attainted, and the wife dies, and the husband dies, this son shall have the land. Jenk. 203. pl. 27.

An attaint. ed person marries en beiress, and has iffue by her, the iffue mail inherit; for the marriage was lawful, and he only claims from the mother. Jenk. 3. in pl. 2.-2 Hawk. Pl C. 457. cap. 49. s. 49. says, it seems to be the better opinion, that where a person hath The by a woman feifed of lands of inheritance, such issue may inherit the mother, though he had never any inheritable blood from the father. And Ibid. Marg. (i) cites several modern books, and then lays, that this appears from 13 H. 7. cited S. P. C. 196. and abridged Br. Tenant by the Curtely, pl. 15. and wherein it is held, that if the hulband of an inheritrix have iffue, and be attainted of felony. and pardoned, he shall not be tenant by curtely, by reason of the issue born before the pardon, but by reaon of issue born after he shall; from whence it necessarily follows, that such issue must be inheritable to the wife; also it is admitted, Co. Litt. 84. b. that the issue of an inheritrix by an alien, or a person attainted, may be in ward, which could not be unless he could inherit the mother; and cites Cro. J. 539. Litt. Rep. 28. 1 Lev. 59, 60. but says, that the contrary was anciently holden.

22. Father is attainted of felony in the life of the grandfather, and But if the dies, leaving a son. Then grandfather dies. The land shall escheat; for the son must make his descent by the father, which he cannot; but if the eldest son had been attaint in the life of the father, and died without issue in his father's life, the second brother might inherit; but if the eldest son had survived the father and died after without issue, the younger brother should not inherit; per Berkley J. Cro. C, 435, in pl. 4. Hill. 11 Car. B. R.

grandfather be "tenant in tail, and the father be attainted of treason, and dies, and then the grandfather dies, the land hall descend to the grandson, notwithstanding the 26 H. 8. 13. which gives a forfaiture of the lands of the person attainted. See 8 Rep. 166. Digby's case. — Jenk. 287.——Hob. 343. in case of Sheffield v. Ratcliff.

At the parliament 1 H. 4. the commons petitioned, that the attainder of the eldest son in the father's We should not be a bar to the youngest, and it was answered, current communic lex. D. 48. Marg. Pl. 16. cites Mr Hackwell. * The corruption of blood upon this statute is only where the traitor has estate tail in the land. Jenk. 82. pl. 60. says, it was so adjudged in Ld. Lumley's case.

23. The impediment of an ancestor that is not medius ancestor between the persons from whom, and to whom, will not impede the descent; per Hale Ch. J. Vent. 416. in case of Collingwood v. Pace.

24. In immediate descents there can be no impediment but what See Hale's arises in the parties themselves; as, the father seised of lands, the impediment that hinders the descent must be either in the father or the cap. 27. Jon: 28 if the father or the son be attaint, or an alien. In imme-Though the diate descents, a disability of being an alien, or attaint in him that

Hift. Pl. C. 350, 3,7. father is medism differe yet he is not the medium reckatie. Saik. 129. pl. 4. cites Litt. 8. a, enssanguinis, is called a medius ancestor, will disable a person to take by descent, though he himself has no such disability. As in lineal descents, differens be- if the father be attaint, or an * alien, and hath issue a denizen born, and dies in the life of the grandfather, and the grandfather dies seised, the son shall not take, but the land shall escheat. In colla-S. C. & Co. teral descents, A. and B. brothers, A. is an alien, or attainted, and has iffue C. a denizen born. B. purchases lands, and dies without issue, C. shall not inherit; for A. (which was the medius ancestor, or medium differens of this descent) was incapable; per Hale Ch. B. 1 Vent. 415, 416 in case of Collingwood v. Pace.

18

X.4

25. A. tenant for life, remainder to his wife for life, remainder to the 1st, 2d, &c. fons in tail, remainder to the right heirs of A .-A. commits treason, and then has a son, and then is attainted. Held that whether the son is born before or after the attainder, the contingent remainder to him was not discharged by the vesting in the crown during the life of A. because of the wife's estate, which is sufficient to support it. 2 Salk. 576. pl. 1. Pasch. 6 W. & M. in B. R. Corbet v. Tichbourn.

Blood Corrupted. Restored. And Restitution of what on Reversal of Attainders.

Br. Discent, 1. IF the eldest fon who is attainted of felony, gets a pardon in the life of the father, and the father dies, the land shall escheat; Pl. 55. for the pardon cannot avoid the corruption of the blood; and therefore it is used at this day to have restitution of the blood by act of parliament; for the king may restore the land, but not make the heir to inherit unless by parliament. Br. Discent, pl. 44. cites 8 E. 1.

2. He who is a clerk convict in the life of his father, and after gets a pardon, he may inherit after the death of his father.

Discent, pl. 42. cites 15 E. 2. and Fitzh. Corone, 382. 3. If the iffue in tail be outlassed of felony in the life of the ancestor, and gets a charter of pardon in the life of the ancester, he may enter; nevertheless if the charter had been after the death of the ancestor, then it seems that the king shall have the profits during his life. But per Ascue and Wych. if the pardon be in the life of the ancestor, or at any time after, the issue in tail shall have the land. But Thorp strictly charged the jury to find if the pardon was in the life of the ancestor or after; for if after, then the king shall have the land during his life, as it seems. Br. Discent, pl 23. cites 29 Aff. 61.

4. Land was affured to S. by act of parliament, viz. a manor, and after a tenant who held of it in chivalry died, and after S. was attainted of treason, and the act reversed by parliament in all points, saving the titles of those who did not claim by the first act, which is now reversed by this last act: and the king seised the manor and granted it to his mother. Quære, if the patentee shall have the said ward, and by all the justices in effect she shall have it, because the first act is reversed in all points, notwithstanding it be only a chattel vested, and that all the mesne occupiers shall be charged of the profits. Quod quære; for it seems to be no law. Br. Parliament, pl. 39. cites 3 H. 7. 15.

veited,

5. In trespass a man was attainted of treason by all of parliament, and after he was restored by another parliament, and the attainder annulled, and that it should be void as if no act had been, and should be as ample and available to him as if no act of attainder had been; and he who was restored did trespass upon the land mesne between the attainder and the restitution; and the patentee who had patent of the land after the * attainder, brought trespass, and the other pleaded the act of restitution. Per Keble, the action lies well; for where judgment is reversed by error, the party shall not punish meine trespais, or have the meine profits, unless by special judgment, and such words are not here in the act of restitution; but Fineux contra, and took a great diversity where the repellance affirms the first assurance, and where it disaffirms it, as lease for years, which is determined after, or feoffments upon condition, and the entry for the condition broken, &c. those affirm the possession, contra of reversals of judgments by error, or by parliament, or entry by elder title, and yet it seems that the mesne acts executed shall not be reformed. Per Fisher, if trespass is done against the beir, and after the elder brother is deraigned, yet trespass lies for the first heir; for it is an action vested; per Vavisor, those words in the act, that all shall be void and as if no attainder had been, shall be intended from this time forth, from the making of the act of restitution, and shall not have relation to mesne acts executed or vested before; and Davers and Hales accorded. Br. Parliament, pl. 41. cites 4 H. 7. 10.

6. And if a villein bad purchased, and the patentee entered before Br. Relatishe restitution, he who is restored after shall not have his perquisite which is vested; per Davers & Hales. Ibid.

7. So of wards vefted, and of prefentments of clerks who are in- Hawes, that dutted, and shall not extend to mesne acts vested; and 5 were with the action, and 6 against it, and so it was relinquished. But them. Brooke says it seems to him that the best opinion in reason is with the plaintiff, because it was an action vested in him before. Ibid.

8. Lord and tenant; the tenant is attainted of treason by parliament, and after the king by parliament restores him or his heir, as if no attainder had been; there the seigniory which was extinct is revived; quod nota. Br. Extinguishment, pl. 47. cites 31 H. 8.

9. If a man is attainted of treason, the king may restore the heir to the land by his patent of grant; but he cannot make the heir to be beir of the blood, nor to be restored to it without parliament. Note the difference; for it is in prejudice of others. Br. Restitution, pl. 37. cites 3 E. 6.

10. If a man be attainted of felony, being seized of land, and after get a pardon and purchases other land, the heir shall inherit the last land, for the wife shall be endowed. Br. Descent, pl. 54.

cites N. B.

11. Note, that the corruption of blood cannot be purged by 3 Inft. 240, grant; nor pardon of the king nor otherwise, unless by act of parliament; 241. cap.

on, pl. 44. cites S. C. but leaves it a quære if thereby melne actions which are vested, shall be avoided. [275]

Br. Relation, pl. 44cites S. C. & S. P. by the patentes shall retain for the king cannot make an heir who is not inheritable by the law of the realm; quod nota. And the king may make an alien ' denizen, but he cannot make him heir; for he may not prejudice another who is heir, nor the lord in his escheat; and so all restitutions to the name of heir are by parliament. Br. Discent, pl. 57. cites Dr. & Stud. lib. 1.

B.P. accordingly, but if he had iffue born before the attainder, and that issue is living anaster-born ton thall not if such prior

12. Note, by Bromley and Portman, if a man be attainted of treason or felony, and the king pardons bim, and after he purchases lands in fee, and takes a wife and bath issue, and dies, the issue shall inherit; for by the pardon he was well enough restored to his blood; for he is by it enabled to purchase, and need not to this at his death, purpose have restitution; and this reason serves for the issue bad before the attainder and pardon. Dal. 14. pl. 3. anno 1 Mar. cites inherit; but Stanford, fol. 196. Trin. 9 H. 5. 9.

born son dies in the life of the father, then the after-born son shall inherit; because he was not in being while his father's attainder stood in force, but was born after the purging of the crime and pusish-ment by the pardon. Hale's Hist. Pl. C. 358. cap. 27. cites Litt. s. 747.

13. But if there are grandfather, father, and son, and the father is attainted of treason or felony, and dies, in this case the son shall not demand the land as heir to the grandsather, notwithstanding that the father had his pardon; for the bridge is broken, and as the father himself is barred, so is the son; per Bromley and Portman. Anno 1 Mar. quod noța. Dak 14. pl. 3. cites

Stamford, fol. 196. Trin. 9 H. 5. 9,

5. C. cited by Jones J. Arg. Jo. 490. and fays that the Justices certified the queen, that it was great equity and conscience to relieve the fon.— S. C. as to the first point, cited by the name of Gray's al' Graves's

14. The elder brother had some cause for a petition of right for lands. B, the younger brother had issue, and was attainted of treason and executed. A. died without iffue. The question was whether the son of B. was barred of his petition of right by the said attainder; and it seems he is, so long as the attainder remains in force. But afterwards the son of B, is restored in blood by parliament as heir to his father, by these words, (viz.) that he and his heirs shall be enabled only in blood as son and heirs of his father, and shall have and enjoy all such lands which shall descend, remain, or revert from any colluteral ancestor of his said father, as if the attainder had not been had, saving to the king the lands in his hands, or of any other, by reason of the attainder. It seems that by these clauses, the intent of the king and parliament was to restore and enable him to have his petition of right as heir to his uncle. D. 274. pl. 40. Pasch, case, by Hale 10 Eliz. Anon.

Vent. 416. 425. S. C. cited by Berkley J. Cro. C. 543. pl. 8. as to the S. P. S. C. cited 3 lnst. 240. cap. 106.

Though fuch pardon does not sestore the blood, yet as to issue born after, it has the force of a restitution. Hale's Hift. Pl. C. 358. cap. 27,

15. If a man be attainted of treason or felony, though he be born in wedlock, he can be heir to no man, nor any man heir to him propter delictum; for that by his attainder his blood is corrupted, and this corruption of blood is so high, as it cannot absolutely be salved and restored but by act of parliament; for though the person attainted obtain his charter of pardon, yet that doth not make any to be heir, whose blood was corrupted at the time of the attainder, either downward or upward. Co. Litt. 8. a.

16. Of restitutions by parliament, some be in blood only, (that is, to make his refort as heir in blood to the party attainted, and other his ancestors, and not to any dignity, inheritance of lands, &c.) and this is a restitution secundum quid, or in part; and some be general restitutions, to bésod, bonours, dignities, inheritance, and all that was lost by the attainder; and that is restitutio in integrum, with an addition sometimes that it shall be lawful for the party restored, and his heirs, to enter, &c. Of the first you may read in Dier, to rally a refti-Eliz. to. 274. in Petition; and Rot. Par. 23 Eliz. of the Earl of Arundel, &c. Of the 2d you may read 15 Ed. 3. tit. Petition, 2. 3 H. 7. fo. 15. a. 10 H. 7. 22, 23. Pl. Com. fo. 175. Rot. Par. 13 H. 4. Nu. 20. &c. Of both of them you may read plentifully in our books and parliament-rolls, and divers of them with addition of entry. See 1 H. 8. Kelw. 154. Sir Will. Odehal's case; 4 H. 7. 7. Lord Ormond's case; Rot. Parl. 11 H. 4. Nu. 42. Rich. de Hasting's case; and Rot. Parl. 14 Ed. 4. Nu. 4. Sir John Fortescue's case, attainted of treason in 1 E. 4. &c. 3 Inst. 240. cap. 106.

Hac's Hift. Pl. C. 35% cap. 27.5.P. and that a restitution in blood may be special and qualified; but that genetution in plood is con-Arued liberally and extentively. As where king H. 3. Was intitled &c. to the lands of William de Albo Monasterio by his attainders and granted the same to Robert de Mares and his heirs, donec eas reddiderit rellis haredibus, per voluntatem suam, vel per pacem. And albeit, at the making of this grant, William de Albo Monasterio, (being dead) could have, in respect of the attainder and corruption of blood, no right beir; yet because it was to make restitution, it had a most benign interpretation. 3 Inst. 241. cap. 106.

* ·- · · x

In restitutions the party is favoured, and not the king, and his prerogative has no exemption; per Dyer Ch. J. Pl. C. 252. a. Trin. 4 Eliz. in case of Willion v. Ld. Berkley. _____ 3 Inst. 2410.

cap. 106. S. P.

17. If a person attainted is restored to his blood, this does not [277] restore bis land; for the attainder has 2 effects, viz. to corrupt the blood, and to give a forfeiture of all his estate both real and personal to the king. Jenk. 287. pl. 21.

18. Upon reversal of attainders there is no restitution of money paid to the king, because the barons cannot in such case controul the treasury, and what is once paid into the treasury cannot be got out again; per Treby Ch. J. 5 Mod. 49. Trin. 7 W. 3. in case of the King v. Hornby.—Per Holt Ch. J. ibid. 61. S. P.

19. Restitution of blood, in its true nature and extent, can only be by act of parliament. Hale's Hist. Pl. C. 358.

20 A. has issue B. a son, and is attaint of treason, and dies. B. And it is purchases land in sec-simple. B. by parliament is restored only in said that it blood, and enabled as well to be heir to A. as to all other collateral lineal ancestors, provided it shall not restore B. to any of the the act had lands of A. forseited by the attainder. B. dies without issue. was ruled that the land of B. shall descend to the sisters of A. as aunts and collateral heirs of B. 1st, Because the corruption of blood by ly, as heir the attainder is removed by the restitution. 2dly, Although the words of the act of restitution be to restore B. only as heir to A. &c. yet this doth not only remove the corruption of blood, and restore him and his lineal heirs in blood, but also his collateral heirs, and removes that impediment which would have hindered the descent to them. Hale's Hist. Pl. C. 258, 259. cites Co. P. C. cap. 106. Courtney's case.

~ had been sufficient if restored and enabled him in blood onto his father; and that thereby he and his heirs, as well coils. teral as lineal, ought to make their descent from A. (for there was the stop and corruption) and from all other the ancestors of the said B.

lineal or collateral; and, ex abundanti, the other clause is added for the more manifestation thereof.

3 Inst. 242. cap. 106.

For more of Blood Corrupted in general, see forseitures, and other proper titles.

(A) Blunders.

Pt is a good schease to sne, and the other words are void. Jenk. 198. pt. 12. cites 1. IF a man releases to me all actions which I have against him, where the intent may be to release all the actions which he had against me, yet it shall not be so taken against the express limitation; for words make plea. Otherwise of a solvendum. Arg. Roll. Rep. 367. cites 14 E. 4.2.

9 E. 4. 42. 14 E. 4. 2. D. 56. Kelw. 162. 174. Hob. 274.

2. Condition of a bond, that if A. pay B. 201. of lawful English money, which shall be in the year of our Lord 1599, (the bond was made in 1593,) in and upon the 13th day of October next ensuing the date hereof, that then, &c. Adjudged that the payment was to be made in 1599, and not before. Cro. E. 420. Mich. 37 &c 38 Eliz. B. R. Sharplus v. Hankinson.

Vern. 263. pl.257.S.C. but S.P.does not appear. [278]

3. Bill of sale of a ship by A. to B. was made to A. the vendor, to secure the payment of 4001. and so the vendor sold to himself; but relieved in equity. Fin. Rep. 206. Pasch. 27 Car. 2. Degelder v. Depeister & Monday.

4. Interpretatio fienda est ut res valeat. Jenk. 198. pl. 12.

For more of Blunders in general, see Mittake of Merds, Ponsense, Phligations (M) (N), and other proper titles.

(A) Books and Authors.

1. 8 Ann: cap 19. THE author of any book not yet printed, and f. 1. his assigns, shall have the sole liberty of printing it for 14 years, to commence from the day of publishing thereof; and if any person, within the said time, shall print, reprint, or import any such book without the consent of such proprietor in writing, signed in the presence of 2 credible witnesses, or shall knowingly publish it without fueb consent, the offender shall forfeit the books and sheets to the proprietor, who shall forthwith damask and make them waste paper, and shall forfeit 1 d. for every sheet found in his custody, either printed or printing, one moiety to the crown, the other to him who will sue in any court at Westminster.

2. S. 2. No bookfeller, printer, or other person, shall be liable to these forseitures by printing or reprinting any book without consent, unless the title to the copy of the book shall, before such publication, be entered in the register-book of the company of stationers, as usual, at the hall of the said company; and unless the consent of the proprietor be entered, paying 6d. for each entry, which register-book may at all seasonable times be inspected without see; and the clerk of the company of stationers, when required, shall give a certificate of such entry; for which certificate be sball have 6d.

- 3. Bill to be quieted in the enjoyment of the right of sole printing Dr. Prideaux's book, called Directions to Churchwardens, and for a perpetual injunction against the defendant to prevent his printing and publishing the same. The plaintiffs claim the fole right of printing, by grant of the copy from the author, per stat. 8 Ann. fol. 261. The defendant claims a title under the original printer of the book, to whom the author first delivered the copy to be printed. Per Ld. C. Macclesfield, the bare delivery of the copy by the author to be printed, doth not devest the right of the copy out of the author; but is only an authority to the printer to print that edition, and the author may afterwards grant the right of the copy to another person. And a perpetual injunction was granted against the defendant not to print and publish the said MS. Rep. Mich. 9 Geo. Canc. Knaplock & Tonson v. book. Curle.
- 4. A bill was brought by the plaintiff as assignee of the copy of the Dunciad against the desendants, for an injunction to stay them from printing and selling the Dunciad, and to be quieted in the enjoyment of the sole printing of that book for 14 years, according to stat. 8 Ann. cap. 19. And upon filing the bill, and upon an affidavit that the plaintiff had purchased, or legally acquired the copy of that book, an injunction was granted nist causa. It was shewed thewed for cause, that the plaintiff had not set forth a good title to the sole printing of this book, either in the bill or in the assidavit upon-which the injunction was granted; for he only says that he has purchased or legally acquired the copy, but does not say of the author, or who was the author; and by the statute, the author, or the assignee of the author, are only intitled to the sole right of printing the book, and no other person; and it is not sufficient to say he purchased or legally acquired the copy, without saying he purchased it of the author. King C. allowed the cause, and dissolved the injunction. Trin. 2 Geo. 2. Gilliver v. Snaggs. Asterwards in the same term, an injunction was granted in the case of Gay, author of the Sequel of the Beggar's Opera, against publishing and selling that book, upon a bill sounded upon stat. 8 Ann. cap. 19.

For more of Books and Authors in general, see Prerogative (D. e. 2) and other proper titles.

(A) Bottomry-Bonds.

1. A Ship going in the fishing-trade to Newfoundland, (which 3. C. cited voyage must be performed in 8 months,) the plaintiff gave by Dode . ridge J. Cro. the defendant 501. to repay 601. upon the return of the Ship to Dest-]. 508, 509. mouth; and if by leakage or tempest she should not return in 8 months, pl. 20. by the name of then to pay the principal money, viz. 501. only; and if the mover re-Dartmouth's turned, then he should pay nothing. All the court held that this is case, where one went to no usury within the statute; for if the thip had staid at New-Newfoundfoundland 2 or 3 years, he was to pay but 601. upon the return land, and another lent of the ship, and if she never returned, then nothing; so as the plaintiff ran a hazard of having less than the interest which the him 100 l. for a year, law allows, and possibly neither principal nor interest. Cro. J. to victual 208. pl. 3. Trin. 6 Jac. B. R. Sharpley v. Hurrell. his ship; and if he returned with the ship, he was to have so many 1000 of fish, and expressed at what rate, which exceeded the interest aslowed by the statute; and if he did not return, then he should lose his principal; and adjudged no usury.

Lev. 54, 55.

2. Debt upon bond of 3001. conditioned that if such a soip

Fig. 13 &c sailed to Surat in the East-Indies, and returned safe to London, or

B. R. Sayer if the owner and his goods returned safe, &c. then the defendant

v. Glean, should pay to the plaintiff the principal sum of 3001. and also 401. for every tool. But if the ship should perish by any unavoidable casualty of the sea, fire or enemies, to be proved by sufficient evidence, then the plaintist was to bave nothing. The question was, whether this was an usurious contract? Adjudged that it was not, and that it was a good bottomry contract. Bridgman Ch. J. distinguished between a bargain and a loan; for where the bargain is plain, and the principal is in hazard, it cannot be said within the statute of usury; but it is otherwise of a loan, where it is intended that the principal is in no hazard; and adjudged per tot. Cur. for the plaintist, that this contract is not usurious. Sid. 27. pl. 8. Hill. 12 Car. 2. C. B. Soome v. Gleen.

S. C. resolv-

ed a good bottomry-bond, and tolerable by the use of merchants, and allowable for the great perils of the sea; and judgment for the plaintist.

Г 280 Т

3. Debt upon bond, conditioned to pay so much if the ship W. return within 6 months from Ostend to London, (which was more than the lawful interest of the money,) and if she did not return, &c. then the bond to be void. The defendant pleaded, that there was a corrupt agreement between him and the plaintiff, and that at the time of making the said bond, it was corruptly agreed between them, that the plaintiff should have no more than lawful interest in case the ship should ever return, and averred that the bond was entered into by covin, to evade the statute of usury and the penalty thereof; upon this averment the plaintiff took issue, and the desendant demurred, for that 'the plaintiff did not traverse the corrupt agreement, and that the averment is but the result thereof. Hale Ch. B. held clearly, that this bond is not within the statute; for it is the common way of insurance, and if this were void by the statute of usury, trade would be destroyed; and that it is not like the case where the condition of the bond is to pay so much money if such person be then living; for there is a certainty of that at the time, but it is altogether uncertain whether the thip shall ever return or not. But he agreed that the averment was well taken, because it discloses the manner of the agreement. And though the corrupt agreement might have been traversed, yet the averment is traversable too; and the demurrer to the replication naught. Hard. 418. pl. 4. Pasch. 17 Car. 2. in the Exchequer, Joy v. Kent.

4. The plaintiff entered into a penal bond of bottomry to pay 40s. per month for 50l. The ship was to sail from Holland to the Spanish islands, and so to return for England; if she perished, the plaintiff lost his 50l. She went accordingly to the Spanish islands, took in Moors at Africk, and upon that occasion went to Barbadoes, and then perished at sea. The plaintiff being sued on the bond for the penalty, sought relief in chancery, pretending the deviation was on necessity; the bill was dismissed saving as to the penalty. 2 Chan. Cases, 130. Mich. 34 Car. 2. Anon.

5. The plaintiff was bound in consideration of 4001. as well to perform the voyage within 6 months, as at the 6 months end to pay the 4001. and 401. premium, in case the vessel arrived safe, and was not lost in the voyage. It sell out that the plaint so never went the voyage, whereby his bond became forfeited, and he now preserved his bill to be relieved; and upon a former hearing, in regard the thip lay all along in the port of London, and so the desendant run no hazard of losing his principal, the Lord Keeper thought sit to decree, that the desendant should lose the premium of 401. and be contented with his principal and ordinary interest; and now upon a re-hearing, he confirmed his former decree. Vern. 263-

pl. 257. Mich. 1684. Deguilder v. Depeister.

6. The plaintiff lent 500l. upon the bull of a ship, and defendant covenanted to pay, if the ship went from London to Bantam, and returned from thence directly to London within 12 months, 550l. if from London to Bantam, and from thence to China or Formofa, and returned to London within 24 months, 6501. and if the returned not within 24 months, then to pay 51. per month above 6501. sill 36 months; and if the return not within 36 months, then to pay 7101. unless it can be proved by Wildy (the defendant) that the ship returned not, but was lost within 36 months. The ship went from London to Bantam, and from thence to Surat, and other parts, and fo returned to Bantam; and in her voyage from Bantam to London was loft within 36 months, and the plaintiff hereupon brought debt upon the obligation; and this was the fact after long and intricate pleading, which appeared upon a demurrer. The court inclined, that by reason of the deviation, the party was well intitled to his money, &c. but advisare vult; and afterwards Mich. 36 Car. 2. B. R. adjudged accordingly. Skin. 152. pl. 1. Hill. 35 & 36 Car. 2. B. R. Western v. Wildy.

7. Case on a bill of lading, on condition that the defendant shell deliver so much gold, the perils of the sea excepted. The desendant pleads piracy, to which the plaintiff demurs; per Cur. piracy is one of the dangers of the sea; and judgment soo the defendant. Comb. 56, 57. Trin. 3 Jac. 2. B. R. Barton v. Wallisord.

8. A part-owner of a ship borrowed money of the plaintiff upon a bottomry-bond, payable on the return of the ship from the voyage she was then going on the service of the East-India company, and the East-India company broke up the ship in the Indies; and the owners brought their action against the company and recovered domages, but they did not amount to a full satisfaction; and the obligee brought his bill to have his proportionable satisfaction out of the money recovered; but his bill was dismissed, and he left to recover as well as he could at law; for a court of equity will never assistance as which carries an unreasonable interest. Abr. Equ. Cases, 372. Mich. 1701. Dandy v. Turner.

o. Bill to be relieved against a bottomry-bond, &c. with condition that if the ship Susannah, bound for the East-Indies, shall return to London within 36 months, or if the ship does not return within 36 months, not being taken or lost by inevitable accident within that time, then the money to be paid, &c. The ship was detained in port Surat in India by embargo by the Great Mogul, so that the ship could not sail from Surat till after the 36 months were elapsed, and in her return home was taken by the French; but being after the 36 months, the bond was forseited; but there being no fault in the master, and the voyage delayed by inevitable accident, (viz.) by embargo by the Great Mogul, the bill prayed to be relieved against the penalty of the bond. Per Haroourt Ch. I tannot relieve in this case against the express agreement of the parties; but if the defendant had infured this money upon the ship, the plaintiff shall have the benefit of the insurance, upon allowing the defendant the charges of the insurance, if the plaintiff pays the money within 3 months; bill to be dismissed without costs. MS. Rep. Pasch. 12 Ann. in Canc. Ingledew v. Foster.

connot

10. Hallhead had insured for Hutchinson and plaintiffs his asfignees on the ship Eyles, with the company, and the entry in the company's book of the contract was in short items called a label, which was, viz. at and from Fort St. George to London, lost or not lost. And the policy was soon after made out and taken in the following words; "that the adventure was to commence from the ship's " departing from Fort St. George to London." And the case was, that before the insurance made the ship was lost in the river of Bengal, whither the ship had been sent from Fort St. George to resit. Bill was brought by plaintiffs to have the infurance money paid, being 5001. as a loss, &c. and founded the equity that the policy was not made agreeable to the label, according to which the risque is to commence from the ship's coming first to Fort St. George, and the going to Bengal to refit being a thing of necessity for performing the voyage, was no deviation, and the loss, being during that time, was within the intent of contract for the infuring. Lord. Chancellor said, this is not proper to determine here. 1st, Question is as to the agreement. 2d, As to the breach; and doubted as to the agreement. The memorandum is not a printed form as to the material points, and the policy must be governed by that, if not varied. The words in the memorandum or label (at Fort. St. George) includes the stay of the ship there, and the policy follows the words, but adds this, viz. the beginning of the adventure to be from the ship's departing from Fort St. George for London, which excludes the rifque whilst the ship staid there; and this scems an inconsistence in the policy, first to describe the voyage, at and from, &c. and then to exclude the risque, at, &c. This seems a mistake in writing the policy, and is to be rectified as in the case of articles and a settlement; and decreed the words to be added in the policy, " for the adventure to commence at and from Fort [ 282 ] St. George." MS. Rep. Dec. 6, 1739. Motteux v. London Af-

For more of Bottomry-Bonds in general, see Polities of Insurance, and other proper titles.

Fal. 368.

Bridges.

(A) Bridges. [How repaired.]

Cro.C. 365, [1. OMMON bridges of right ought to be repaired by the in366. pl. 2.

The case of habitants of the county, if it be not known who else ought to The case of Langforth- do it. Trin. 10 Car. in an information against the inhabitants of bridge, S.C. Middlesex for Longford bridge; agreed per Curiam. * 10 Ed. * S.C. cit_ 3. 28.]

ed 13 Rep. 33. Pasch. 7 Jac. ____By the common law the whole county, that is, the inbebitants of the county or shire, wherein the bridge is, shall repair the same; for of common right the whole county must repair it, because it is for the common good and ease of the whole county. 2 infl-701.

> [2. If a man erects a mill for his fingle profit, and makes a new cut for the water to come thereto, and makes a new bridge over it, and the subjects used to go over it, as over a common bridge, this bridge ought to be repaired by him that hath the mill, and not by the county, because it was erected for his own benefit. B. R. adjudged for Bow-bridge and Channel-bridge, against the Prior of Stratford, and it is now repaired by London, who have the mill.]

S. P. for it 11 pro republica. Ibid. pl. 29. cites 3, C.

5. C.

3. It was presented that the abbot of T. ought to repair the bridge of T. who said, that at another time he traversed such presentment, where it was found that he ought to make but 2 arches in the middle; and per Knivet, it is no bridge without the residue, and it is not presented who made the rest, therefore the defendant shall make the whole if he can say no more, and he may make the bridge without the licence of those who have land adjoining. Br. Presentments in Courts, pl. 22. cites 43 Ass. 37.

4. If a prior and his predecessor, time out of mind, have made bridge of alms, they shall be bound to repair it for ever. Br. Nusance, pl. 5. cites 44 E. 3.31. Per Knivet Ch. J.

5. He who has land adjoining to a bridge, is not bound of com-Br. Nulance, pl. 28. cites mon right to repair it, though the bridge has been there time out of mind, unless he has done so by prescription, and those whose estate he has, &c. Mich. 8 H. 7. 5. b. pl. 2.

6. At the common law some persons, spiritual or temporal, incorporate or not incorporate, are bound to repair bridges ratione tenura sue, terrarum sive tenementorum, &c. some ratione prescriptionis taxtum, ratione tenure, by reason that they, and those whose estate they have in the lands or tenements, are bound in respect thereof to repair the same; but they which have lands on the one side of the bridge, or on the other, or both, are not bound of common right to repair the same. 2 Inst. 700.

7. But as to ratione prescriptionis tantum, there is a diversity between bodies politic or corporate, spiritual or temporal, and natural persons; for bodies politic or corporate, spiritual or temporal, may be bound by usage and prescription only, because they are local, and have a succession perpetual; but a natural person cannot be bound by act of his ancestor, without a lien, or binding, and assets. 2 Inst. 700.

8. If a bridge be within a franchise, those of the franchise are to repair it. If the bridge be part within a franchise, and part within the guildable, so much as in the franchise shall be repaired by those of the franchise, and so much as is within the guildable shall be repaired by those of the guildable, and so it is if it be in 2 counties, mutatis mutandis. 2 Inst. 701.

9. If a man makes a bridge for the common good of all the subjects, he is not bound to repair it; for no particular man is bound to reparation of bridges by the common law, but ratione tenuræ, or præscriptionis. 2 Inst. 701.

10. If a man who holds 100 acres of land, ought by his tenure Pl. C. 1250 thereof to repair such bridge, if he aliens in fee 20 acres to one, cited by and 20 acres to another, and one of them only be distrained to make Saunders J. the reparations upon a presentment sound, he shall have a special writ to the king's officers, that they do not distrain him, but according to the rate of his proportion of the land which he holds. F. N. B. 235. (B.)

11. The king sifed of a manor, repaired a bridge as lord thereof, and then granted the manor to H. who fold several parts of the land to several persons, and afterwards H. was indicted for not repairing the bridge, and thereupon he desired to have contribution of those who had purchased from him, and then he said he would repair it. But it was answered, that the court might force the repair upon him alone, or upon any other in whose hands any of the lands appeared to be which was chargeable to the repair thereof, and they are to seek their remedy at law for contribution from the rest, and this court is not to let the bridge lay in decay till the difpute between them about contribution is determined. Jo. 273. 8 Car.

in Itinere Windsor. The case of Loddon bridge.

12. Where a lord of a manor was chargeable with the repair of 2 bridge ratione tenura, the ancient freehold and copyhold tenants are not liable to contribute, because nothing is part of the manor but the demesnes and services, and not the lands of the tenants; and though the copyholders were infranchifed, yet they are not chargeable; for the infranchisement only alters the manner of their tenure; but all who have any part of the demesne lands by purchase are liable; and if cesty que trust of the demesnes in possession or teversion be named, that is sufficient in a court of equity, without making the tenants of the land, or them in reversion, parties. Hard. 131. pl. 4. Mich. 1658. in the Exchequer, Rich v. Barker.

13. Corporations are rateable with the county towards the repair's of public bridges; per Withens and Wright Ch. J. Herbert abfente, and Holloway doubting. Skin. 254. pl. 2. Mich. 2 Jac. 2. B. R. County of Worcester and Town of Evesholm.

14. The inhabitants of a county cannot of their own authority change a bridge or highway from one place to another; for it cannot be without act of parliament. 6 Mod. 307. Mich. 3 Ann. B. R.

, in case of the Queen v. the County of Wilts.

15. 14 Geo. 2. cap. 33. The justices of peace in any county, city, &c. at their general sessions, or general quarter sessions, or the major [ 284 ] part, may purchase or agree with any persons, or bodies politic, for any piece of land joining, or near any county bridge within their several limits, for inlarging, or more convenient re-building the same, which pieces of land shall not exceed one acre in the whole for any such bridge, and shall be paid for out of the money raised by virtue of an act made 12 Geo. 2. cap. 29. intitled, an act for the more easy assessing, collecting, and levying of county rates; the treasurers being authorized by orders under the hands and seals of justices at their general or quarter sessions, which lands shall be conveyed to such persons as the said justices shall appoint in trust, for inlarging or rebuilding such bridges.

(B) Actions, Indictments, and Informations. what Cases; and Pleadings.

Br. Nusance, 1. pl. 24. cites 8. C.

TT was presented that E. and A. ought, and used to repair the bridge of W. which is broke, to the nusance, &c. and it was said, that the presentment is not sufficient; for it is not said that they are tenants of any land by reason of which they ought to do it, and they are not charged by their persons, and after they said that they did not do it but once of alms, absque hoc that they ought and used to do it, &c. Br. Prescription, pl. 49. cites 27 Ass. 8.

2. In case, plaintiff declared, that the defendant ought to repair a bridge over fuch a water, by which bridge the plaintiff, and those whose estate he has in a manor, by reason of the manor, had used to pass with carriage necessary, &c. which bridge was not repaired, &c. and held a good title enough for the plaintiff, without saying that he had the way to any franktenement, or other place certain. Thel. Dig. 106. lib. 10. cap. 14. f. 14. cites Trin. LI H. 4. 82.

3. 22 H. 8. cap. 5. s. 1. The justices of peace in every shire, fran-This extends only to comchife, city or borough, or four of them, (quor' un') are impowered at mon bridges their general sessions, to enquire of, and determine all annoyances of in the king's bridges broken in the highways; and to make fuch process und pains highways, where all the upon every presentment before them, for reformation of the same, against king's liege people have, fuch as oright to be charged to the amending the faid bridges, as they fall or may have, fee fit. passage, and not to private bridges to mills, or the like; and therefore the indictment upon this statute faith, quod pons publicus & communis fitus in alta regia via tuper flumen, seu cursum aquæ, &c. 2 lnfl. 701.

a

In every thire is to be understood, reddendo fingula fingulis, that is to say, 1st, In every thire or county where there be 4 or more justice, of the peace, whereof one or more is of the quorum. 2dly, Franchife, where be 4 or more justices of the peace, and one or more of the quorum. where there be 4 or more justices of the peace, and one or more of the quorum. 4thly, Borough, where there be 4 or more justices of the peace, and one or more of the quorum, and where they keep general fessions of the peace for such franchises, cities, or boroughs, but for want thereof, the justices of peace of the county shall enquire; but if the franchise, city, or borough, be a county of itself, and have not 4 or more justices of the peace, whereof one or more is of the quorum, no other justices of peace, of any other thire or county, have any power by this act to enquire of, hear and determine the decay of bridges there, but such decay must be reformed by such remedies (before specified) as the common law did give; therefire it was necessary to be known what the common law was before the making of this statute. And such process they are to make upon every presentment before them, for reformation of the same, against such as own to be charged for the making or amending such bridges, as the justices of his majesty's bench use commonly to do, or it shall seem by their discretions to be noectiary and convenient for the speedy amendment of such bridges. 2 Inst. 701, 702.

4. S. 2 & 3. Where it cannot be known what hundred, town, parish, or person, ought to repair such bridges, if they be not in a city or town corporate, they * Shall be repaired by the + inhabitants of the Shire or riding where such bridges be; and if part of such bridge happen to be in one sbire, and the other part in another sbire, or in some city, or town corporate, that then the respective shires, cities, or towns corporate, shall repair such part of such bridges as lie within their several limits.

*[285] † See tit. Inhabitants (A) pi. 1. and the notes there, who shall be said to be inhabitants within this statute.-It hath been gravely ad-.

vised, that for the better warrant of these 4 justices of peace, inquiry should be made by the great inquest for the body of the county, at the general quarter sessions, who ought to repair it; and if that cannot appear upon any proof made, then a presentment to be made, that the bridge is in decay; and to conclude, et ulterius juratores prædicti præsentant, quod prorsus nescitur quæ personæ, quæ terræ, five tenementa, aut corpora politica oundem pontem, aut aliquam inde parcellam ex jure, aut antiqua consuctuding reparare debent, aut consucerunt; and, by this means, the 4 or more justices of peace, being judges of record, shall be informed of record, that it cannot be known or proved, &c.

As to persons who of right ought to repair bridges, the act of 22 H. 8. was only declaratory of the common law; per Powell J. which Holt Ch. J. agreed, and faid, that the charge of repairing bridges was incumbent on the county by common law, unless where particular persons were charged with it by tenor or prescription; what was new in it, was the appointing the method of doing it, that a hundred might be charged with the repair of a bridge by prescription. 2 Ld. Raym, Rep. 1251. Pasche 5 Ann. in case of the Queen v. the Justices of the Peace of the Liberty of St. Peter's in York.

5. S. 4. And where it cannot be known what persons, lands, &c. The first ought to repair such bridges, the justices of peace within the shires or ridings, &c. and the justices of peace within every city or town corporate, or 4 of the justices at the least, whereof one to be of the quorum, shall call before them the constables of every town, &c. being within the shire, &c. wherein such bridges, or any parcel thereof shall happen to be, or elfe two of the most honest inhabitants within every such town, &c. by the discretion of the said justices of peace, or 4 of themat the least, whereof one to be of the quorum; thing the justices are to do when they are affembled, is to call the constables, &c. if they be present (as commonly they are) at the general festions of peace, or else to make warrants to call them before them, at a certain day and place, and in those warrants to signify that it is for a taxation of inhabitants of the whole county, for a reparation of such a bridge. 2 Inst. 703. Marg.

6. And the said justices of peace, or 4 of them, whereof one to be So as neiof the quorum, with the affent of the said constables or inhabitants, Shall have power to tax every inhabitant within the limits of their commissions, for the repairing of such bridges.

ther the justices, without such asient, nor the constables or inhabitants without the justices, can make any taxation by this act.

2 Inst. 704. By By these words (every inhabitant) all privileges of exemptions or discharges whatsoever from contributions for the reparation of decayed bridges, (if any were,) are taken away, although the exemption were by act of parlia nent; and every one may be taxed by himself, and each one bear his burther; and the taxation cannot be set upon the hundred, parish, town, &c. for then one, or a few, might be distrained for the whole. 2 Inst. 704.—— S. P. resolved, 2 Ld. Raym. Rep. 1250. Pasch. 5 Ans. in case of the Queen v. the Justices of Peace of the Liberty of St. I'eter's in York.

7. And the same justices shall have power to appoint 2 collectors of Hereby 4 things are to every hundred, for collection of all such sums of money by them set and be observed, 1A, (As hath taxed, and to distrain for non-payment, &c. and soall also appoint 2 surveyors, which shall see such decayed bridges repaired from time to been (a d) that the time, and the justices shall have power to make process against the said taxation collectors and surveyors, their executors and administrators, by attachmust be seveial. 2dly, ments under their seals, returnable at the general sessions; and if they That thereappear, then to compel them to account; or if they refuse, to commit them medy for levying is by to award till the account be truly made. distress in his lands, goods, and chattels in any place within that hundred, and to sell such distress; and this the collectors of that hundred may do by force of this act. 3dly, That if upon demand the sum be not paid, albeit the inhabitant do not expressly refuse, it is a refusal in law. 4thly, Albeit 2 collectors be appointed, yet one of them by the command and consent of the other may distrain and sell; for this is the diffress and sale of them. 2 Inst. 704, 705.

And by 8. S. 8. The justices of peace shall have power to allow such reasons. Stat. Sonable charges to the surveyors and collectors as shall be thought conf. 6. the venient.

jessions shall have power to allow persons concerned in the execution of this act, 3 d. in the pound.

9. If a bridge be a private bridge, as to a mill which A. was bound to maintain, over which B. had a passage, &c. if the bridge was in decay, B. might have his writ de ponte reparando; but if the bridge was for the public, &c. the remedy was by presentment at the suit of the king, for avoiding multiplicity of suits. 2 Inst. 301.

10. This presentment might be at the common law before the justices of B. R. or before justices in eyre, or commissioners of oyer and terminer, or before the sheriff by commission, or writ in nature of a commission; but as to the sheriff, his power to take indictments by force of any such commission, or writ in the nature of a commission, is taken away by the statute 28 E. 3. cap. 9. but it may be presented in the turn or leet. 2 Inst. 701.

11. If I have a passage over a bridge, and another ought to repair the bridge, and he suffers the same to fall to decay, I shall have a writ against him. F. N. B. 127. (D).

12. If any bridge, wall, or sewer be broken, unto the annoyance of the country, upon a surmise made by any person thereof in chancery, that certain persons ought to repair the same, he shall have a writ unto the sheriff to distrain such persons to repair the same; but it appears by the Register, that the king shall send his commission to the sheriff to inquire who ought to make such bridge, and that he distrain them to make the same, and repair it; but by the statute of 28 E. 3. cap. 9. a commission shall not be made unto the sheriff to take an indictment, and the king may send unto the sheriff to distrain those persons who ought to make or repair repair such a way, or causeway, or pavement, and upon it an alias & pluries if it be not done, and an attachment upon the same; and if the bridge or way be in the confines of the county, he shall have several writs unto every sheriff to distrain them in their bailiwicks, that they with the men in other counties shall make and repair the bridges and ways, &c. F. N. B. 127. (E).

13. Indictment was debent & solent reparare pontem, &c. It was moved that the indictment was insufficient, because it is not alledged in the indictment that the bridge was over a water, and no [so not] needful that it be amended; 2dly, it did not appear in the indictment that at the time of the indictment the said bridge was ruinous and decayed; 3dly, the indictment is, that B. and N. debent & solent reparare pontem, and it is not shewed that their charge of repairing of the same is ratione tenura, cites 21 E. 4. 38. where it is faid that a prescription cannot be that a common person ought to repair a bridge, unless it be said to be by reason of his tenure; but it is otherwise in case of a corporation; and for these errors the indictment was quashed by judgment of the court. Godb. 346, 347. pl. 441. Trin. 21 Jac. B. R. Bridges v. Nichols.

14. Indictment for not repairing a bridge did not set forth in what county the bridge lies, and for that exception it was quashed. Sty. 108. Trin. 24 Car. B. R. The King v. Sir Henry Spiller.

15. Another indictment was for not repairing of May's bridge, and it doth not show that the bridge is in the bighway; but to this Roll Ch. J. said, that the indictment doth say it is a common bridge, and that is enough, and it is needless to say it is in the highway. Sty. 108. Trin. 24 Car. B. R. The King v. Sir Henry Spiller.

16. Another exception was taken, that it did not shew whether the bridge was a cart-bridge, or a horse-bridge, or a foot-bridge, or what other passage was over it; and for that exception that indictment was quashed. Sty. 108. Trin. 24 Car. B, R. The King

v. Sir Henry Spiller.

17. To a 3d indicament for not repairing the same bridge, this exception was taken, viz. It says that Sir H. S. was bound to repair the bridge ratione manerii, which cannot be good; but it should be ratione tenura manerii. Roll Ch. J. said it ought to shew that he is owner of the manor, and although it do express that he is bound to repair ratione manerii sui, that is but implication that he is to repair, and makes it not appear that he is possessed of the manor, and upon this exception was this indictment quashed. Sty. 108, 109. Trin. 24 Car. B. R. The King v. Sir Henry Spiller.

18. To a 4th indictment for not repairing the same bridge, shis exception was taken, that there is no addition of the county where Sir H. S. dwelt, as the statute directs, and for this it was also quashed. Sty. 108, 109. Trin. 24 Car. B. R. The King v. Spiller.

19. By 22 Car. 2. cap. 12. s. 4. All defects of repairs of bridges, See infra 5 Gr. shall be presented in the county, and no such presentment or indict- M. cap. 11.

[ 287 ]

ment shall be removed by certiorari or otherwise out of the country till such presentment or indictment be traversed, and judgment given thereupon.

20. Information against the inhabitants of the county of N. The reporter adds a nota, for not repairing a bridge, which, time out of mind, they have that the defendants did and ought to repair. Two of the inhabitants, in the name of themnot plead not felves and of the rest, plead that L. and other persons, owners of lands guilty, but called bridgelands, ought to repair ratione tenure, and traverse that the that another ought to re- inhabitants had and aught, &c. The attorney-general replied that pair, and tra- the inhabitants ought, and traversed that L., &c. ought. The veried that defendants rejoined that L., &c. ought; upon which they were themselves at issue; and ex assensu partium, it was tried at bar by a Middleought, as Hale Ch. J. sex jury by consent, and the defendants were found guilty, held they ought in this 2 Lev. 112. Trin. 26 Car. 2. B. R. The King v. the Inhabitants of Nottingham. cale of a bridge to do, so that if they ought not to do it, it might appear to the court who else ought. 2dly, Note a traverse upon a traverse, and the issue joined upon the last traverse who ought to repair it; and yet the defendants were found guilty upon this issue, joining it to the first traverse that they ought not to repair, and all this by direction of Hale Ch. J. the rest of the justices consenting. Ibid. ——3 Keb. 370. pl. 59.

S. C says that yerdict was for the King against L.

21. If a bridge be out of repair, the justices cannot set rates upon the persons that are to repair it; but they must consent to it themselves. 2 Mod. 8. Hill. 26 & 27 Car. 2. C. B. obiter, in case of Curtis v. Davenant.

22. A. and others were indicted for not repairing of a bridge, which it was alleged they were bound to repair, ratione tenure of fuch lands. A. pleaded, that he was not bound to repair, ratione tenura, and found that he was. In arrest of judgment it was said, that the verdict was not pursuant to the indictment; for therein it is alleged, that A. and others were bound to repair ratione tenura, and the verdict is, that A. ratione tenura, &c. reparare debet parietem prædict' modo & forma, prout per indictamentum prædict' supponitur; sed non allocatur; for each of them may be bound to repair for their respective lands, and they must get contribution by the writ de onerand' pro rata portione. 2dly, It was said, that it is ratione tenuræ, and not said suæ, and this was said to be naught, and Noy, 93. was cited; sed non allocatur; for the precedents are generally so. Vent. 331. Trin. 30 Car. 2. B. R. The King v. Sir Tho. Fanshaw.

23. Information against the inhabitants of Essex for not repairing a stone bridge, called D. bridge, in the several parishes of H. and D. The defendants plead, that they ought not to be charged, [ 309 ] &c. for that by an inquisition taken at Chelmsford, August the 3d, 26 Car. 2. before Sir M. H. and T. and others, justices of over and terminer, it was presented, that a certain bridge, commonly called D. bridge, lying, &c. in parochia de D., &c. was then in decay, and that Sir T. F. ought to repair it ratione tenure; who pleaded, that he ought not to repair the said bridge ratione tenuræ, but that the inhabitants of D. ought to repair it; upon which a trial was had, and the jury found that Sir T. ought to repair it, and judgment against him; and the defendants aver the bridge to be the same, and that the judgment was fill in force; and upon demurrer it was objected, that the bridge laid in the information was in two parishes, (viz.) in H. and D. but the bridge in the defendant's plea was only in D. so it could not be the same bridge; for Sir T. F. may be obliged to repair so much of the bridge as was in D. and the county the other part, which lies in H. and judgment was given for the king. Raym. 384. Trin. 32 Car. 2. B. R. The King v. Inhabitants of Essex.

24. In an indictment (for not repairing a bridge) against the county, one of the county may be a witness. Arg. and per Dolben J. it was so in the case of Peterborough Bridge. Vent. 351. Mich. 32 Car. 2. B. R.

25. 5 & 6 W. & M. cap. 11. s. 6. If any indictment be against any person for not repairing bridges, &c. and the title to repair the same may come in question, upon such suggestion, and affidavit made thereof, a certiorari may be granted to remove the same into B. R. provided that the parties prosecuting such certiorari shall find 2 manucaptors to be bound in a recognizance, with condition to try it at the next affifes, &c.

26. Indictment against defendant for not repairing of a cer- He was lord tain bridge, &c. which he was bound to repair, eo quod he was dominus manerii de la More. Holt Ch. J. said, that a man is not bound to repair a bridge because he has a manor, or is lord of a manor; but it must be said, that this is some charge upon the manor that can oblige the man to repair, and that only can be one of the two ways; 1st, That he held the manor by the service of repairing the bridge, &c. that is, ratione tenura, and this being a charge upon the possession, is like any other service for which the tenant in possession is chargeable. Every tenant in possession, be he but tenant for years, or at will, is bound to repair, and immediately, upon default of repair, he is in- cept the 2dly, The other way of charge is by prescription, dictable. and then it must be the tertenant, and all those, whose estate he has, did use, and were bound to repair, and here you neither held per Cur. shew tenure or prescription; but as to charge to repair a bridge, it will be well to fay, that omnes occupatores, &c. But where one goes to charge the estate of another with any thing for his own in proportibenefit, he must either say, that he and all those whose estate, &c. or on, yet the at least omnes terr' tenentes; and here judgment was staid; per Cur. 7 Mod. 54. Mich. 1 Ann. B. R. The Queen v. Bucknell.

of the manor of Le More in Hertfordthire, which manor was held by the fervice of repairing 2 public bridge, and though all the demesnes of the manor, excopyholds, were aliened. yet it was that all the aliences were chargoable queen might charge any of them with the whole, and let him have contribution against the others; and though the lord had nothing but the copyhold, yet forasmuch as the freehold thereof was in him, he was chargeable, and the court * would direct the information to be against all the parties liable, but let him that is charged have his remedy against the rest; per Cur. 7 Mod. 98. Mich. 1 Ann. B. R. The Queen v. Bucknal. ——2 Ld. Raym. 792. Trin. 1 Ann. S. C. says, this cause was tried at Hertsord summer assistes, I Ann. before Holt Ch. J. who then held, that a prescription that the lords of the manor ought to repair the bridge, without saying ratione tenuræ, or ratione terræ, was good, because (by him) the manor might have been granted to be held by the service of repairing this bridge before the statute of quia emptores terrarum; or the king may make such grant at this day, he not being bound by the said statute; and in pleading one may fay that he is obliged as lord of the manor; but indeed, it is by reason of the demesnes of the manor, and therefore if part of the demesses are granted to J. S. he will be obliged to contribute to the repairs, but the information or indicament may be against any of them, and though it appears upon the evidence that another is obliged also, yet the defendant must be convicted; and so he was, though he proved ppon the evidence that others were obliged to repair as well as himself. ——Ibid. 804. Mich. I Ann. Ş. C. and Holt Ch. J. mutata opinione said, that though the defendant was lord of the manor, yet that was no reason that he should repair the bridge, but that some particular charge ought to be shewn, as ratione tenuræ, or by prescription. And that in such case, where a man is obliged to repair a bridge, his tenant for years, being * in possession, will be obliged to do it, and if he fails he will be indictable for it, and all the other judges being of the same opinion, the judgment was arrested.

25. I Ann. self. I. cap. 18. s. 2. The justices of peace shall, at their quarter sessions, have power, upon presentment that any bridge is out of repair, which by them ought to be repaired, to assess upon every place within their commissions, as they usually have been assessed towards the repair of bridges, which money shall be collected by the constables, or such persons as the sessions shall appoint.

* 26. S. 3. Persons neglecting to assess, collect, or pay the money, shall forfeit 40s. and every treasurer that shall pay money, except by order of sessions, shall forfeit 5 l.

27. S. 4. No fine for not repairing such bridges and highways shall be returned into the exchequer, but shall be paid to the treasurer, and applied by the said justices towards the building or repairing of such bridges and highways.

28. S. 5. All matters concerning repairing such bridges and high-ways shall be determined in the county, and not removed by certiorari.

29. S. 7. Persons authorised by this act may plead the general issue, and give this act, and the 22 H. 8. cap. 5. in evidence, and if judgment be for them, they shall have double costs.

30. S. 8. This act shall not discharge particular persons, estates or places from reparation.

31. S. 9. All penalties upon this act shall be applied to repairing the said bridges and highways.

32. S. 11. Cardiffe bridge shall be reputed a common bridge, and be repaired by the county of Glamorgan.

33. S. 13. In all informations or indictments, the evidence of the inhabitants of the town or county in which decayed bridges or highways lie, shall be admitted.

- 34. W. who was only a tenant at will, was indicted for permiting the house in his possession, adjoining to a common bridge, and which he ought to repair ratione tenuræ, to be so much out of repair, that it was ready to fall on the queen's subjects passing over the said bridge, &c. It was adjudged on a special verdict, that he ought to repair the house so that the public be not prejudiced by the want thereof, though he is not compellable to repair as to his landlord; the only objection is, that he is not chargeable to repair ratione tenuræ; but though that is improper, yet it shall be intended of the possession, and not of a service, and judgment was given against the desendant. 2 Ld. Raym. Rep. 856. Pasch. 2 Ann. The Queen v. Watson.
- 35. In an information for suffering a common bridge to be ruinous, which the defendants by tenure were bound to repair, it was resolved, 1st, That if a manor be held by the service or tenure of repairing a common bridge or highway, and that manor afterwards comes to be divided into several hands, every one of these alienees, being tenants of any parcel, either of the demesnes or services, shall be liable to the whole charge, and are contributory among themselves; and though the lord of the manor had, upon the several alienations, sations, agreed to discharge those, that purchased of him, as he might, of such repairs, yet that shall not alter the remedy for the public, but only bind the lord and those that claim under him; as the whole manor, and every part of it in the possession of one tenant, was once chargeable with the reparation, so it shall. remain notwithstanding any act of the proprietor; it shall not be in his power to apportion the charge whereby the remedy for public benefit should be made more difficult, or by alienations to persons unable to render it, in respect of the parts which should come into such hands, quite frustrate. 2dly, That though a manor, subject to such charge, comes into the hands of the crown, yet the duty upon it continues, and any person claiming afterwards [ 290 ] under the crown the whole manor, or any part of it, shall be liable to an indictment or information for want of due repairs. I Salk. 358. pl. 5. Pasch. 3 Ann. B. R. The Queen v. Bucklugh (Dutchels of).

- 36. The county of W. was indicted for not repairing Laycockbridge. They pleaded that the village of Laycock ought to repair it. It was proved in evidence, that the justices at the sessions had made an order upon the village to repair it; but the court held that that was no evidence; for the justices might indict, but could not make an order, and the county is liable, unless they can find a particular person to charge. 1 Salk. 359. pl. 7. Mich. 3 Ann. B. R. The Queen v. the Inhabitants of the County of Wilts.
- 37. Indicament was for not repairing quendam communem pontem situm in quadam communi semita pedestri, &c. Per Holt Ch. J. the word communis does not, ex vi termini, import that it is common to all the queen's subjects, as it ought to do to maintain an indictment. The word publicus, mentioned in a precedent produced, is of wider extent than communis; and it will be hard to understand the word communis to be universal to charge a man's freehold; nor will the conclusion of ad nocumentum omnium ligeorum domini regis illic transeunt' help it, if so much be not expressly charged in the premises; and not being said to whom it is common, it is very fit to see precedents before we determine it. 6 Mod. 255, 256. Mich. 3 Ann. B. R. The Queen v. Saintiff.

1 Salk. 359. pl. 8. The Queen v. Sainthill, Trin. 4 Ann. S. C. fays the indictment was for not repairing occidentalem partem communis pontis pedalis continent" dimidium pontis in sommuni semita. It was objected that the 22 H. 8. by which justices of peace have their jurisdiction of nutances in bridges, extends only to bridges in the common highway; and likewife that it ought to thew the quantity, viz. to many foot in length, and to many in breadth. It was answered that there may be communis strata, which is not the king's highway, and yet the justices have power over nusances in that case, not by virtue of the 22 H. 8. but by the 1 E. 3. which gives power of all nusances. The court doubted as to the 1st exception, and over-ruled the 2d, it being said dimidium $ but held that pons pedalis did not fignify a foot-bridge, but a bridge a foot long; and so reversed the judgment, being pedalis for pedestris. _____ 2 Ld. Raym. Rep. 1174. S. C. adjudged, and the former judgment reversed according to 1 Salk.

38. The court was moved for a mandamus to the justices of peace for the county of Wilts, to make an affessment upon the inhabitants of an hundred in the county for the reimbursing 2 of the inhabitants of that hundred, who, upon an indictment against the inhabitants of that hundred for not repairing a bridge within the faid hundred, were distrained to appear and defend the said indictment, and upon that account were near 301. out of pocket.

The court refused to grant a mandamus, because the justices had not a power to make an assessment for that purpose, and said it was an hard case; but that no remedy was provided therein. MS. Cases, 67. Mich. 4 Geo. B. R. The Justices of Peace of Wiltshire.

39. Upon a motion made to discharge a rule for an information against the inhabitants of the county for not repairing a bridge, it was alleged that the parishioners of Mitcham in that county ought to repair it, which they had done time out of mind. It is true that parish had obtained a verdict against that county, but it was by surprise; for by certificates and other records of the sessions, it will appear that this parish ought to repair this bridge, and that they had been fined for not repairing, and that they had acquiesced under that charge many years. It was insisted for the parish, that admitting they had repaired this bridge, yet if they were not obliged so to do, either by prescription or tenure, they shall not always be liable. They cannot be obliged by prescription, because the inhabitants of this parish are not a body politic, and it is not pretended that they are obliged by tenure; to which it was answered, that an information against the county in general, was the only way to try the right; for though this parish might not be obliged to repair the bridge, yet some other parish might; and since the county is prima facie to repair it, it is probable that when the information is exhibited against them, the inhabitants of Mitcham to excuse themselves may shew who is obliged to repair; and the court being of that opinion, the rule was made absolute. 8 Mod. 119, 120. Hill, 9 Geo. The King v. the Inhabitants of the County of Surry.

For more of Bridges in general, see other proper titles,

[291]

Bzinging Money into Court.

(A) In what Cases, and at what Time. And Pleadings.

1. D EBT upon bond. The defendant pleaded a tender at the S. C. cited day, and tout temps prist. The plaintiff received the principal by Holt Ch sum in court, and judgment to acquit the defendant of the sum received; but the plaintiff, to have damages, alleged a demand; to which the defendant demurred, and had judgment; for if the plaintiff would have damages, he ought not to have received the money out of therefore court; for after a judgment, quod eat inde sine die, no issue shall where a be taken. Cro. J. 126. pl. 13. Trin. 4 Jac. B. R. Harrold v. Clotworthy.

by Holt Ch. I. Ld. Raym. Rep. 643. in cafe of Horn v. Liwin, and defendant pleads tout temps prift, and brings the money into court, and concludes with a prayer of judgment as to the damages, if the plaintiff takes the money out of court, he must agree to all that the defendant has said, otherwise he ought not to take the money out of court; for a man cannot proceed for damages after he has barred himself from the having judgment for the principal, where the damages are merely accessory, except in the case of ejectment, where the term expires pending the suit; but as to this point the other three judges seemed to doubt, and they gave no opinion, but rather inclined to be of opinion that the avowry [which was the case there] was not abated by this taking of the money out of court. ____ 2 Ld. Raym. Rep. 774 Trin. 1 Ann. in the case of Burton v. Souter, in assumptit, it was insisted, as in the case of Home v. Lewin (before), that after accepting the money the plaintiff could not proceed for damages, and there Holt Ch. ]. held strongly his former opinion.

2. In an avowry by the bailiff of A. for a rent-charge, the defendant had judgment, and now A. desired to try the right; but the court would not grant it without bringing the money recovered into court, and agree to bring no 2d deliverance to procrastinate the cause by Withernam, &c. Keb. 742. pl. 29. Trin. 16 Car. 2. B. R. Searl v. Taylor.

3. In an action upon the case for 3 hogsbeds of vinegar and a rundlet, Jones prayed that he might deliver money for the rundlet, as was agreed, or as the secondary should tax, and that the plaintiff might go on for the rest; and the court ordered the plaintiff to shew cause why the rundlet should not be struck out, or he go on for the rest at his peril; so where the cause of action is really small, in comparison to the declaration. 2 Keb. 420. pl. 49. Mich. 20 Car. 2. B. R. Brown v. Welmes.

Covenant on venants, sc-

es were alfigned; one was for non-payment of rent. Motion was

But was allowed on accepting 2

Bringing Woney into Court.

4. Money brought into court, in order to get an injunction against a judgment on a bond given by a mother to her son, (an infant, and whom she and her after husband had maintained for several years, and had paid a considerable part of the money,) was delivered back again, on giving security to pay what should appear due for principal and interest, and satisfaction decreed to be acknowledged thereupon on the record of the judgment. Fin. Rep. 1. Mich. 25 Car. 2. Cook v. New.

5. A. devised lands to B. subject to a proviso for payment of 2000l. to defendants within 3 years after A.'s death. B. brought the money into court. Decreed that the lands be discharged, and that the defendants be at liberty to take the money out of court. Fin-Rep. 61. Hill. 25 Car. 2. Ld. Willoughby v. Dixie.

6. Portion and interest devised on a contingency of dying before 21, and unmarried, decreed to be paid into court for the benefit of a hæres factus, according to the will, in case of the devisee's

2 Chan. Rep. 150. 30 Car. 2. Bourne v. Tynt.

7. In covenant the plaintiff declared upon feveral breaches, one whereof was for not paying 71. according to the covenant, it was a distinct comoved for the defendant that he might be admitted to bring 71. veral breachinto court, together with his costs hitherto, &c. and that the plaintiff might proceed for the rest if he thought sit; but the motion was denied, because the plaintiff had declared of other breaches, and the matter lay in damages. Vent. 356. Mich. 33 Car. 2. B. R. Anon.

made, that upon bringing in 10 l. into court, it might be struck out of the declaration; but the court denied it; for when it appears the plaintiff has just cause of action for one thing, they will not put him to try the sest at peril of costs. 12 Mod. 95. Trin. 8 W. 3. Pawlet v. Heatfield.

Northey moved to bring money into court upon a covenant, and was refused. 12 Mod. 241. Mich. 10 W. 3. Lawly v. Dibble. ____ In covenant for payment of money, Powell J. said, that the court had granted it; but that in covenant for repairs they have denied it. 11 Mod. 270. pl. 12. Hill-8 Ann. B. R. Anon. In covenant for non-payment of rent, the practice is to allow the bringing money into court. Barnes's Notes in C. B. 198. Mich. 2 Geo. 2. in a note.

Rule of bringing money into court was denied in covenant; otherwise if debt had been brought apon she charter-party. Cumb. 138. Mich. 1 W. & M. in B. R. Anon.

8. A scire facias had issued out against the tertenants on a judgment, and they had pleaded ne unques seisie, and issue found against them, and judgment for the plaintiff. It was moved that the elegit might be stopped on bringing the money into court; for if the elegit were taken out and the lands extended, we might have the lands discharged by scire facias, and bringing the money into court; and it was granted. The like motion was lately granted in C. B. Comb. 169. Mich. 1 W. & M. in B. R. Anon.

9. In ejectment for non-payment of rent, the court denied to stop the ejectment on bringing in the arrears. Cumb. 255. Pasch.

6 W. & M. in B. R. Harding v. Brook.

new leafe, and fealing 2 Salk. 597. in pl. 3. cites Mich. 8 W. 3. B. R. Downes v. Turner. a counterpart.

10. Levins moved, that on payment of 10s. into court, for S. P. But much might be struck out of the declaration; but it appearing to the way is to confes the be in a case upon an indebitatus assumpsit and quantum meruit, employing, the the court said he might do it as to the indebitatus assumpsit, but and that he * not as to the quantum meruit. Cumb. 264. Trin. 6 W. & M. B. R. Anon.

descrived but Jo much, and to plead a tender thereof; for then the plaintiff may reply that he deferved more, and so come to issue; but because in most declarations there are quantum meruits, even in an indebitat, ass. there it may be brought in upon an indibitat. count, and that will affect the other, and so it was done; per Holt Ch. J. 12 Mod. 614.

Hill. 13 W. 3. Anon.

The court granted it as to the indebitatus assumptit, but refused it as to the quantum meruit; and the court said that such motion had been sometimes obtained, where a quantum meruit and indebitatus were joined together, yet regularly they ought not to be granted on a quantum meruit; for wbo can + tell what a man deserves till be be tried? 12 Mod. 187. Pasch. 10 W. 3. Smith v. Johnson. —— Comb. 20. S. P. Paich. 2 Jac. B. R. Anon. * 2 Salk. 597. in pl. 3. cites Hill. 8 W. 3. accordingly. — But it was allowed afterwards Pasch. 4 Ann. B.R. Ibid.

†[293]

11. In ejectment brought on forfeiture of a lease for non-payment of rent, if the leffee will make oath that his leafe is not expired, and bring all arrears into court, the court will not compel him to plead on the common rule. Cumb. 299. Mich. 6 W. & M. in B. R. Anon.

12. By Holt Ch. J. where the plea is to the damages, you cannot bring money into court; otherwise where the plea is to the abill of exground of the action, as non-assumpsit. It may be allowed in trover change for a where you bring the goods in specie into court, but rarely where damnum of only part of them are brought in. Cumb. 357. Hill. 8 W. 3. 1501. A B. R. Burman v. Shepherd.

In trover for motion was made, that upon bringing 50 l. into court, it might be struck out of the declaration. Holt, this practice in assumpsit has been brought in within sew years, and has been only allowed, because payment goes to the issue; but in trover it goes only to the damages. It may be the plaintiff has good cause of action for part, and a probable cause for the residue; now it would be hard to strike out his certain cause, and put him to his probable cause at the peril of costs. 12 Mod. 90. Hill. 7 W. 3. Burman v. Shepherd.

13. In debt on bond, defendant must bring in the whole penalty, But ibid. or the court will not stay proceedings. 2 Salk. 597. in pl. 3. er says, it cites Hill. 9 W. 3. B. R.

The reportfeems it cannot be with - out bringing in the whole money; if the parties dispute the quantum, and there is a dispute how much is due, it cannot be referred. Trin. 11 W. 3. B.R.

- 14 Where an account-render is brought, if the defendant will plead plene computavit, and offer to bring the money into court, that will fignify nothing; for that in a trial upon an action of account, the jury have nothing to do, unless an account stated be proved; but an account must be before auditors; for they are the judges and not the jury. L. P. R. 31. cites Pasch. 9 W. 3. B. R.
- 15. A rent-charge was granted to J. S. out of lands which were demised to several undertenants. The grantee of the rent distrained upon them all for one half year's rent-arrear. The tenants bring feveral replevins. The avowment makes the same avowry against them all. The plaintiffs in bar of the avowry, plead a tender with profest in curia. And now it was moved, that the bringing in one fum should serve for all the 3 avowries, they being for the same rent-arrear; and the motion was granted. Ex relatione M'ri Jacob. Ld. Raym. Rep. 429. Hill. 10 W. 3. Anon.

16. In replevin, defendant avows for rent, and plaintiff admitted to bring it into court. 2 Salk. 597. in pl. 3. Hill. 10 W. 31 B. R. Anon.

Defendant moved to pay 31. into court, in and plead nil debet; it so, it is common practice.

17. In debt for rent, it was moved to bring so much money into court; and Holt Ch. J. thought it hard, and faid he remembered the beginning of these motions; the first was to bring in debt for rent, principal and interest on a bond; after that it came to an indebitatus assumpsit. It has been done in debt for rent, but not so per Cur. be freely; we do it in ejectment on a special reason, viz. because that action subsists entirely upon the rules of the court. 2 Salk. 597. cites it as by Holt Ch. J. Pasch. 10 W. 3. B. R.

Barnes's Notes in C. B. 195. Trin. 7 & 8 Geo. 2. Dixon v. Allen.

In debt for rent, rule to shew cause why defendant should not bring money into court upon the common rule, and plead nil debet, made absolute. Barnes's Notes in C. B. 198. Mich. 12 Geo. 2. White v. Daman. ———Ibid. cites Trin. 7 & 8 Geo. 2. Dixon v. Allen, S. P.

18. An action was brought by the plaintiff against the defendant, for 1001. won upon a wager, that the peace would not be [294] concluded by such a day. After the rules for pleading were out, it was moved, that upon the bringing in of 1001. into court, and upon payment of costs, the plaintiff might proceed at his peril; for the dispute was only whether the plaintiff should have interest or not? And per Holt Ch. J. interest is never given by the jury in fuch case in the damages. Ruled, that the defendant should shew cause, &c. Ld. Raym. Rep. 398, 399. Mich. 10. W. 3. Medena v. Kilder.

In replevin, the bringing the money into court is case of an avowry; for the money is not demanded, but the replevin is for the goods.

19. In a plea of tender of rent in replevin in bar, the money ought not to be brought into court. In debt on a bond, there may be a profert to fave damages, because there the money is the thing superstucus in demand; but it cannot be in an avowry to a replevin, because the avowry is to justify the taking the cattle; and whether the money is paid or not, is not the question. But if the distress was rightfully taken, the avowant must have a return; if wrongfully, he must answer the plaintiff's damages. 2 Salk. 584. Hill. 12 W. 3. B. R. Horn v. Lewin.

12 Mod. 352. Horn v. Luines. Ld. Raym. Rep. 639. S. C. and ibid. 643, 644. S. P. per tot. Cur. And they all held that the bar to the avowry was ill pleaded, 1st, Because it is pleaded with a paratus, where it ought to be pleaded with an obtulit, &c. 2dly, Because it is pleaded in bar, where it ought to be pleaded only in excuse of damages; but if the tender had been well pleaded, it have chased the avowant to shew a demand, to intitle him to the distress. But here the plea in bar not smounting to a tender, it is ill; and therefore the bringing in of the money, and the taking of it out, is superfluous. And judgment shall be upon the avowry for a returno habendo; and judgment was.

given for the avowant accordingly.

In trover. the defendant moved to bring a mote into court. Mr. Serj. Darnell declared he 20. It was moved that the defendant in trover after declaration, might bring the thing itself, and deliver it to the plaintiff. And Gould J. said, he had known it often done; otherwise where he would tender the value; for defendant shall not set a value upon the plaintiff's goods; and a motion was granted. 12 Mod. 397. Pasch. 12 W. 3. Farrel's case.

had moved for and obtained a rule to bring into court 2 fowls in one term, and the next term a spare-rib of parks er money in lieu there; Mr. Secondary Thomson remembered a motion to bring in a belt in trover, and kveial other instances were given. The court thought it as reasonable that goods, or their value, should be brought into court in action of trover, as money in an assumplit, and made a rule accordingly. Rep. of Pract. in C. B. 59. Mich. 4 Geo. 2. Tuney v. Ciarke,

- 21. It was moved to bring so much money into court, to have it struck out of the declaration. Now the course is upon bringing money into court to pay costs so far, if the plaintiff will take it out; but if it be such an action in which the defendant may plead tender in bar of costs, and that the plaintiff, to oust him of that benesit, would reply a special capies tested of a term antecedent to the principal, all this may be opened and fettled on motion; per Cur. 12 Mod. 633. Hill. 13 W. 3. Anon.
- 22. Note, the court will never give leave to bring principal and interest into court, and stay proceedings upon a bond, when the suit is upon a counter-bond, or when there is any pretence of a collateral agreement. 12 Mod. 598. Mich. 13 W. 3. Coke v. Heathcot.
- 23. Till bail put in, one is not in court to move to bring in principal, interest, and costs. 7 Mod. 140. Hill. 1 Ann. B. R. Anon.
- 24. In an action of debt brought upon articles, Holt Ch. J. said he never knew money brought into court and struck out of the declaration in debt, though it had been done on a bond with condition in debt for rent; and he said he had known it done in replevin, where the distress was for rent. 7 Mod. 141. Hill. I Ann. B. R. Anon.
- 25. Money has been brought into court and struck out of the declaration in a mutuatus est; per Holt Ch. J. who said, that the first motion ever made for bringing money into court upon a mutuatus was made by Levins in Keeling's time. 7 Mod. 141. Hill. 1 Ann. B. R. obiter.
- 26. After judgment in debt on bond, the court will not make a rule upon a plaintiff to take his principal, interest, and costs; and held, that in such case plaintiff ought to have his full costs out of the penalty. 7 Mod. 114. Mich. 1 Ann. B. R. Le Sage v. Pere.

27. In trover for a horse, it was moved to bring the saddle and brille into court, but denied. 2 Salk. 597. 2 Ann. B. R. cites the case of Wilcocks the attorney.

28. Money ought not to be brought into court to have it struck Per Holt out of the declaration where an executor is plaintiff, but you may the fittings plead a tender, & touts temps prist; per Cur. said to be settled in Guildhall, here on debate. 6 Mod. 29. Mich. 2 Ann. B. R. Anon.

in an action by an admi-

affrator. The defendant cannot bring money into court, because the administrator is not by law to pay costs; and Pasch. 5 Ann. B. R. in Gregg's case, an action was brought by an executor, for mahey due to his testate r for law business done by him, it was moved to bring so much money into court. but denied. 2 Salk. 596. pl. 3. Pafeh. 5 Ann. B. R. Gregg's cate.

Upon the common motion to bring principal, interest, and costs into court, and refer to prothonorary, the court refused to grant the rule, the plaintiff being an executor, but said, the plaintiff might be willing to accept the debt and costs, and therefore they would grant a rule to shew cause. Barnes's Notes in C. B. 195. Hill. 6 Geo. 2. Bryan v. Holloway.

It was moved to discharge a rule to pay money into court, which wis drawn up in common form, Without distinguishing that plaintiffe sued as administrators, and the motion was granted. Barnes's Notes in C. B. 195. Hill. 8 Geo. 2. Satterthwaite, and his Wife administratrix, v. Waltord.

Vol. IV.

29. In debt on a judgment, the court will not stay proceedings on motion upon payment of principal, interest, and costs, as they will upon debt upon bond. 6 Mod. 60. Mich. 2 Ann. B. R. Burridge v. Fortescue.

30. Motion before plea to bring money into court, and have it struck out of the declaration, was denied. 6 Mod. 153. Pasch.

3 Ann. B. R. Anon.

31. 4 & 5 Ann. cap. 16. s. 13. Pending an action on bond, the defendant may bring in principal, interest, and costs in law and equity, and then the court shall give judgment to discharge the desendant.

32. Covenant and breach for non-payment of rent, and for not repairing, &c. It was moved, to bring in so much for the rent, and as to the other breach, that the plaintiff might proceed as he thought sit; and per Trevor, all the judges have agreed, (for he put the case to Holt Ch. J.) that it is but reasonable to allow it; that it does not differ from debt for rent; for though it be covenant, yet it is a covenant for payment of a sum certain. The same diversity was taken between covenant for a sum certain, and a thing uncertain; per Holt Ch. J. Hill. o W. 3. B. R. saying it did not differ from an indebitatus assumpsit. And Trin. 12 W. 3. B. R. same rule. 2 Salk. 596. in pl. 3. Pasch. 5 Ann. B. R. Gregg's case.

33. In an action brought upon a policy of insurance, it was moved for leave to bring 151. into court, being as much as they thought their average of the damage came to (the goods not being lost, but only damaged), and so the plaintiff to proceed upon peril of costs; per Powell J. the motion cannot be granted, though we have granted it in a quantum meruit, and also in covenant for payment of money; but in covenant for repairs we have denied it, and so we must here. 11 Mod. 270. pl. 12. Hill. 8 Ann. B. R. Anon.

34. In an action against an executor, he paid money into court upon the common rule, and on the trial, the plaintiff being non-fuited, the executor moved that he might have the money out of court, and granted, because he being executor, was unacquainted with the aftairs of his testator, and might not know whether the testator owed the plaintiff any money or not; but where the defendant is neither executor nor administrator, although the plaintiff he nonsuited, or a verdict for the desendant, the plaintiff shall have the money out of court; because the desendant brings it in as knowing, and being conscious that he owes the plaintiff so much. Rep. of Pract. in C. B. 5. Mich. 11 Ann. Anon.

L 296 ]

35. A. by marriage articles was to pay 50l. at 5l. per ann. till all paid, and in failure of payment of any 5l. then he was to pay the whole; per Cur. the power given to the court by the statute, is to stay all proceedings on payment of all that is due, and in the principal case all the 50l. is due, and no part of it is a penalty, but only the descendant, by the condition of these articles, had time for the payment of the money by parcels, as therein directed, which he has lost the benefit of. 8 Mod. 56. Tring Geo. 1. Anon.

Bringing Woney into Court.

- 36. The court will not compel a creditor by judgment to accept a less sum than is due on the judgment, on account of any former indefinite payments, when there were other accounts depending between the parties, unless the desendant will consent to bring in all that is due to the plaintiff. 8 Mod. 236. Pasch. 10 Geo. 1. Anon.
- 37. In replevin defendant justified the taking the cattle damage feasant, and now moved to stay proceedings on bringing into court what was due, with costs; per Cur. if you bring in what is due on the replevin-bond, proceedings shall be stayed, but if it is to stay proceedings on payment of what is due for damages, it shall not be granted, because the court has no rule to guide them in such case; but it is otherwise for rent, for that is certain. 8 Mod. 379. Trin. 11 Geo. 1. Anon.
- 38. In action of covenant in articles of agreement, wherein defendant covenanted to find diet and lodging for plaintiff for a year, or to pay him 10l. the defendant, on affidavit that there was not above 10l. due, moved to bring it into court, and that the plaintiff might proceed at his peril. The court would not ascertain what was due for diet and lodging, but because the agreement was in the disjunctive, to find diet and lodging, or to pay 10l. a rule was made that defendant might bring the money into court. 8 Mod. 305. Mich. 11 Geo. 1. Savil v. Snell.
- 39. A motion to bring tool. into court, the defendant suggesting that the ejestment was brought for nonpayment of a fine, and for letting a lease, contrary to the custom of a manor, and therefore he proposed to bring in the 100l. to answer the fine, and that the lessor of the plaintist should proceed at his peril for the forseiture in respect to the lease supposed to be let contrary to the custom of the manor, but the court denied the motion; for though it can be no disadvantage to a lessor to stay proceedings on payment of his rent and costs, yet the granting this motion may probably give the desendant such an advantage over the lessors, who have brought this ejectment for a just cause, as may do them injustice. Rep. of Pract. in C. B. 42. Hill. 1 Geo. 2. Rocks v. Atease, ex dimiss dom. Briscoe vid. & al'.
- 40. On a rule to shew cause why 8s. should not be brought into court, and struck out of the declaration. It was moved, that this was a quantum meruit for using a chaise hired of another ill; and that the court had never gone so far as to allow of these motions in such cases; for, at this rate, they might come, in time, to allow of them in battery and trespass, &c. It is true indeed, it was answered, that in general quantum meruits for the hire of a chaise, &c. the court does grant them, and the court agreed to this difference; and the Ch. J. said, that this rule was first made in my Ld. Ch. J. Kelynge's time, and the reason of it he said was, for the difficulty of pleading a tender; accordingly they discharged the rule in this case. Barnard. Rep. in B. R. 25, 26. Mich. I Geo. 2. White v. Woodhouse.

- 41. The plaintiff had declared for 3s. 2d. half-penny for rent, and 97s. upon a mutuatus. It was moved, that there was no colour that any more was due than the 3s. 2d. half-penny, and the 97s. was only added to make a cause of it in this court; and that if this practice was * allowed, it would lead to a great deal of oppression; and therefore he moved, that upon bringing in the money due upon the first count with costs, proceedings might be stayed. The court said, that they had never gone so far as to allow money to be brought upon one count; but however, as this was such a piece of evasion, the court made a rule to shew cause. Barnard. Rep. in B. R. 180. Trin. 2 Geo. 2. Bellow v. Pew.
- 42. An action of affault and for taking away 1s. moved to bring the shilling into court, and plaintiff to proceed at his peril for the residue; and a rule made to shew cause. But quære, whether it was ever made absolute, or opposed? Rep. of Pract. in C. B. 46. Trin. 2 Geo. 2. Smith v. Dobby.
- 43. Debt was brought upon a bond of 2001. the defendant had several demands likewise upon the plaintiss, so that upon the bolance, there was but 251. owing; upon which it was moved, that he might bring the balance into court, and said he thought this within the meaning of the late statute. But per Cur. the statute had prescribed only 2 particular ways of proceeding; one by pleading the matter of account specially; the other by giving the special matter in evidence upon the general issue; and said they could not allow of any other way of proceeding, and accordingly refused the motion. Barnard. Rep. in B.R. 214. Mich. 3 Geo. 2. Anon.
- 44. In debt upon an emisset for goods bought, where the party had declared according to the custom of the city of London, and which was removed up here by habeas corpus; it was moved, that money might be brought into court and be struck out of the declaration, and this was likened to the case of an indebitatus assumpsit; accordingly the court made a rule to shew cause. Barnard. Repin B. R. 420. Hill. 4 Geo. 2. Lepege v. Pompylion.

45. In an action of trespass brought for the mean profits; after a recovery in ejectment, it was moved to bring the money into court, and that it might be struck out of the declaration. But the court said, this was an action founded upon a tort, and therefore resuled the motion. Barnard. Rep. in B.R. 368. Mich. 4 Geo. 2. Chairman v. Edwards.

46. In case for dilapidations, it was moved, that money might be brought into court and struck out of the declaration. But Page J. said, these motions are never granted where the damages are so very uncertain, and therefore never allowed in covenant for want of repairs; he said too, that formerly these motions he has known resused even in quantum meruits. Accordingly (the Ch. J. absent) the court thought proper not to make any rule. 2 Barnard. Rep. in B. R. 4. Trin. 5 Gco. 2. Squire v. Archer.

47. Per Cur. money may be paid into court upon the common rule, after rule to plead is out, at any time before plea pleaded.

Bringing Woney into Court.

Barnes's Notes in C. B. 194. Mich. 6 Geo. 2. pleaded. Anon.

48. Defendant brought money into court upon the common rule (plaintiff refusing to accept the same) and pleaded the general iffue. Plaintiff joined and delivered the issue book, with notice of trial. 'Plaintiff did not proceed farther, but moved to have the money out of court, with costs to the time of bringing the money into the court; which was ordered upon plaintiff's payment of costs to defendant subsequent to the time of bringing the money into court. Barnes's Notes-in C. B. 195, 196. Hill. 8 Geo. 2. Savage v. Franklyn.

49. Money was paid into court by defendant, upon the common rule; and plaintiff proceeded to trial, and recovered a smaller fum than that paid into court. Moved in the treasury, that defendant might have the money out of court towards his costs; and ordered, upon hearing the attornies on both sides. Barnes's Notes in C. B. 196. Hill. 8 Geo. 2. Anon.

50. In trover, it was moved for defendant to bring the goods specified in the declaration into court; but the goods being ponderous, Pract. in the motion was denied; per Cur. Let the plaintiff shew cause C. B. 130. why he should not consent to accept the goods and costs. Barnes's accordingly, Notes in C. B. 197. Trin. 10 G. 2. Cooke v. Holgate.

[ 298 ] they being many household goods; and says such motion was denied Hill. 6 Geo. 2. Watkinson v. Cockshott.

51. A rule to pay 11. 11s. 6d. into court was discharged, the money not having been paid in till after plea pleaded. Barnes's Notes in C. B. 198. Hill. 11 Geo. 2. Straphon v. Thompson.

52. Per Cur. money cannot be brought in after regular judg- Rep. of ment. Barnes's Notes in C. B. 198. Mich. 12 Geo. 2. Burgess v. Pollamounter.

C. B. 85. Hill. 6 Geo.

a. Spring v. Bilson, S. P. accordingly.

In what Cases it shall be delivered to the Plain-(B) tiff, or re-delivered to the Defendant.

1. IN debt, the defendant said as to parcel that he has been always ready to pay, and yet is, and brought the money into court, and to the rest pleaded in bar.; the plaintiff pleaded in estoppel to the saying that he has been always ready, &c. for he imparted the last term. Judgment if he shall be received to say, that always ready, &cc. And per Danby, the plaintiff shall not have the money here, till the other issue be tried, and this by reason that the damages shall not yet be tried; but per Prisot, he may have judgment of his debt of this parcel, and his damages, and ceffet executio; for those may be well affested by the court as to this parcel, but the plaintiff shall not have it till the other issue be tried, by reason that the costs are entire, which cannot be taxed till the other issue be tried; and when the plaintiff pleaded the estoppel above, the defendant prayed to re-have his money again. And per Prifot, he shall rehave it, quod non fuit concession; for he has confessed of this part. And, by him, if the plaintiff will relinquish the estoppel, he shall have livery of the money without damages and costs; and the plaintiff after relinquished the estoppel, by which the money was delivered to him. Br. Touts Temps, &c. pl. 22. cites 36 H. 6. 13.

2. Debt upon an obligation of 101. to pay 40s. such a day. The defendant pleaded payment of 20s. at the day, and that be offered 20s. residue there the same day, and that the plaintiff resused it, and that he has been always ready to pay, and yet is, and tendered the money in court; and the plaintiff tendered to aver that he did not tender the 20s. at the day; and per Cur. now the defendant shall have the money again, and so he had; and if the issue be found for the plaintiff, the obligation is forseited; and if it be found for the defendant, the plaintiff has lost his 20s. quod nota; for he has refused it by matter of record, and taken the other issue at his peder at the Br. Tout Temps, &c. pl. 32. cites 21 E. 4. 25. day and place, plaintiff takes iffue on the tender, &c. which is found against him; and now he prays to have the money out of court, but it was denied; for he has loft that advantage by taking iffue on the tender, and that he was too covetous, and by seeking to gain all, he has lost all. - Sty. 388. Mich. 1653. B. R. Benskin v. Herick. S. P.

Defendant brought 101. into court, and had it struck out of the declaration, afterwards the plaintisf suffered a nonsuit; and the question was, whether he should be allowed to take this money? Et per Cur. he shall; for so much the defendant has admitted to be due, and so much he has actually paid him: and if the cause had gone on to trial, there must have been a verdict for the plaintiff as to so * much, for this is admitted to be due, and paid down as the plaintiff's money, otherwise perhaps of money paid into court by way of tender. If a man pleads a tender and uncore prift, and pays the money into court, and the plaintiff takes issue on the tender, and it is found against him, the defendant shall have the money. 2 Salk. 597. pl. 4. Mich. 9 Ann. B. R. Elliot v. Callow, cites Sty. 388.

* [ 299 ]

S. C. cited

cale of Bridges v.

Raymond, where the cale was,

on bond to pay a less fum, de-pleaded ten-

fendant

viz. in debt

Noy, 110. in #### Bringing Money into Court.

- 3. Money being brought into court on the common rule, and the plaintiff nonfuited; the defendant moved to have the money out of the court, but the motion was denied; for he paid it into court, as knowing, and being conscious that he owed the plaintiff so much, and therefore the plaintiff shall have it. Rep. of Pract. in C. B. 36. Trin., 13 Geo. 1. Lane & al' v. Wilkinfon.
- 4. An order was made by the Ch. J. at his chambers, that proceedings upon the bail bond should be stayed upon paying 171. into court. Four services had been given of this rule, and yet the plaintiff would not take the money. It was moved, that the money may be repaid; for that there must be a reasonable time in which the plaintiff must be bound to take it, and accordingly the court made a rule, that the plaintiff should accept it within a week. Barnard. Rep. in B. R. 73. Trin. 2 Geo. 2. Parker v. Stephens.

5. 63 s. being brought into court upon the common rule, and verdict for the defendant, upon motion in the treasury, and hearing the attornies on both fides, it was ordered, that the defendant should bave the money out of court in part of his costs. Rep. of Pract. in C. B. 54. Trin. 2 & 3 Geo. 2. Rathbone v. Stedman.

6. Motion was made, upon an affidavit that the defendant was dead, that tol. formerly paid into court upon the common rule, might be paid out to his executors, but denied per Cur. Barnes's

Notes in C. B. 194. Mich. 6 Geo. 2. Knapton v. Drew.

7. The plaintiff being dead, the defendant moved to have 101. S. C. 204 out of court, but it was objected, that it belonged to the plaintiss executor. After hearing counsel on both sides, a rule was made, that the plaintiff's executor should bring a new action, and in the mean time all things should stay. Rep. of Pract. in C. B. 129. Pasch. 9 Geo. 2. Crockhay v. Martin.

the court were of opinion, that the money being paid into court for plaintiff's ple, ought not to be paid back to desendant. The court have not gone so for at to order payment to plain. tiff's executor, but it thems reasonable, if the executor be willing to accept the money paid into court, and after trial it is plain executor is insitted to the money paid into court, though a smaller sum be recovered; had plaintiff lived, and refused to accept the money paid into court, and been nonsuited upon the trial, yet defendant could not have the money back out of court, plaintiff being intitled thereto in all events, as determined in Lane and Wilkinson's case. Barnes's Notes in C. B. 196, 197. Eafter, 9 Geo. 2. Crockay v. Martin.

(C) Allowed. Upon what Plea.

Suggested by affidavit, that he was in execution for 501. upon a judgment at the suit of B. and that he had tendered the same to B. which B. resused to accept, but still detained him in prison, so prayed, that upon bringing so much into court, he might be discharged. B. opposed it, setting forth, that after the said judgment and execution, A. put him to considerable charges in chancery concerning the same, and that he had costs assessed him upon the said A. and therefore prayed that he might remain in prison till he paid both; but the court said, they would take no conusance of the costs in chancery, and therefore granted A. his motion. Comb. 387. Mich. 8 W. 3. B. R. Anon.

[300]

2. It was moved to bring money into court, and that they might plead non assumplit infra sex annos; but the court said, they never allow these motions, but upon pleading the general issue. Barnard.

Rep. in B. R. 308. Pasch. 2 Geo. 2. C. B. Anon.

3. On a motion for liberty to tender money into court upon some of the promises in the declaration, and to demur to one of the promises, a rule nisi was granted; but on hearing counsel on both sides, the court declared, that a tender of money was in order to make an end of the cause, and not to delay it, and therefore discharged the rule to shew cause, Rep. of Pract. in C. B. 48. Mich. 2 Geo. 2.

Tames v. Gosey.

4. On motion that 201. which had been paid into court, might be restored to the desendant, by reason that the plaintist died before verdict, and several applications had been made to the executors to take the money, but they had not done it. Page J. said, that in C. B. he believed such motion might be regular, because there the bringing it into court is not direct payment; for if the plaintist does not prove upon the trial, that so much is due to him as is brought in, the desendant is intitled to the remainder back again; but in this court it is direct payment, and though so much money as is brought into court should not be proved to be due, yet the plaintist is intitled to the whole; accordingly the motion was resuled, the Ch. J. absent. 2 Barnard. Rep. in B. R. 186, 187. Mich. 6 Geo. 2. Jenner v. Padington,

- (D) The Effect of accepting the Money brought into Court.
- 1. DEBT upon an obligation conditioned for the payment of a less sum. The defendant pleaded tender at the day & touts temps prist; the plaintiff received the principal sum in court, and 642. in case judgment to acquit the defendant of the sum received, and the of Hora v, plaintiff, to have damages, alledges a demand of the money from the defendant; and it was thereupon demurred and adjudged for the defendant; for if the plaintiff would have damages, he ought not to have received the money, but to suffer it to remain in court; for after judgment, quod eat inde fine die, no issue shall be taken. Cro. J. 126. pl. 13. Trin. 4 Jac. B. R. Hanold v. Clotworthy.

S. C. cited Arg. Ld. Raym. Rep.

2. A rule was obtained for payment of 51. into court, the money had been tendered, but was refused, and on that refusal brought into court, and costs taxed. The defendant insisted, that no costs ought to be paid, the plaintiff having refused the money. The counsel for the defendant insisted, that the resuling the money when tendered, had put the defendant to the charge of paying it into court and pleading, therefore the plaintiff ought to pay costs from the time of the refusal; but the court over-ruled this, for though the defendant tendered the money, she could not tender the costs before they were taxed. Rep. of Pract. in C.B. 120, 121. Trin. 8 & 9 Geo. 2, Cotton v. Perks.

For more of Bringing Money into Court, in general, see other proper titles.

(A) Burrough.

otula Walliæ membrana 3. pro burgensibus de Carnarvan, de libertatibus suis, &c. it begins with the king's grant, quod sit liber burgus & bomines libert hurgenses, &c. membrana 4. pro burgensibus de Aberconwey de libertatibus suis, &c. in such manner as the other, &c.]

[2. 5 Ed. 1. Rot. Cartarum membrana 14. part 2. grant of the king, quod villa nostra de nova Windsor sit liber burgus & habeat libertates, &c.]

[3. 6 Ed. 1. Rot. Cartarum membrana 4. part. libertates antea, that he hath made liber burgus.]

[4. 18 Ed. 1. Rot. Cartarum membrana 2. grant to the town of Basenweck, quod sit liber burgus, & quod inhabitantes liberi burgenses, cum omnibus libertatibus, & consuetudinībus ad burgum, &c.]

[5. 12 Ed. 1. Rot. Pat. M. 14. rex concessit quod villa de Lime in comitatu Dorsetiæ sit liber burgus & homines ejusdem villæ sint liberi burgenses, ita quod habeant gildam mercatoriam, cum omnibus ad gildam spectantibus.]

For more of Burrough, in general, see other proper titles.

By-Laws.

(A) By-Laws. Who may make them.

Fol. 363.

[1. 15 H. 6. IT is enacted, that no masters, avardens, or people of cap. 6. I guilds, fraternities, and other companies incorporate, shall make or use any ordinance which shall be to the diminution or disinheritance of the franchises of the king or others, nor against the common profit of the people, nor any other ordinance of charge, &c. but this is expired as 19 H. 7. cap. 7. where it is enacted, that no ordinance shall be made in diminution or disinheritance of the prerogative of the king nor other, nor against the common profit of the people, unless they are examined and approved by the chancellor, treasurer of England, chief justices of either bench, or 3 of them, or both justices of assignment of the king against such ordinance is, &c. nor shall distrain any to sue to the king against such ordinances.]

[2. 3 H. 7. cap. 9. [recites that] an ordinance [was] made in [302] London, upon pain that no freeman of the city shall go or come to any fair or market out of the city of London, with any manner of wares, &c. to sell or barter, to the intent that all buyers and merchants should refert to the said city to buy, &c. and this ordinance was [made] void by the [this] statute, because of the great damage which was likely to come by it.]

[3. 12 H. 7. cap. 16. [6. recites that] a by-law [was] made by the merchant-adventurers, that none shall sell or buy at the 4 marts within the dominions of the duke of Burgundy, before composition made by fine with the said merchant-adventurers, contrary to the liberty of every Englishman, and to the liberty of the said mart, and therefore enacted that this ordinance shall be void.]

[4. If an ordinance be made by a corporation which hath power to make it by custom or charter, if the ordinance be reasonable and lawful, it may be put in execution without any allowance by the chancellor, treasurer, or others, &c. according to the statute of 19 H. 7. cap. 7. co. 5. Chamb. Lond. 63. b. (but it seems that they forseit the penalty of the statute, and it does not make the ordinance void.)]

5. By-laws made have a foundation on patent, custom, or consent. Every by-Arg. Cart. 178. Hill. 18 & 19 Car. 2. C. B. in case of the Earl-law is grounded of Exeter v. Smith.

Lvery by-Law is grounded on charter or prescription; 12 Mod. 683.

per Holt Ch. J.

6. The

- 6. The making by-laws is incident to every corporation aggregate; for that power is included in the incorporation; per Holt Ch. J. Carth. 482. Pasch, 11 W. 3. B. R. London City v. Vanaker.
- 7. The privilege of making of by-laws is vested in the city of Of common London by common right, if not by custom; for it concerns the right every corporation. may make a better government of the city; and every city and town corporate may, by a power inherent to their constitution, make by-laws for by-law concerning any the government of that body politic, and this is the true touchfranchise stone of by-laws. And note, it was said by the Ld. Hobart in granted to his Rep. fol. 211. that he holds that the power to make by-laws, them, because it is given by special clause in all corporation-patents, is needless, that for the welpower being included by law in the incorporating act; for as reafare of the fon is given to the natural body to govern it, so the politic body body politic, and included must have laws, as a politic reason, to govern it; per Holt Ch. J. in the very in delivering the judgment of the court. 5 Mod. 439. Trin. act of in-11 W. 3. London City v. Vanacre. corporation. 12 Mgd.

270. The City of London v. Vanacre. — S. C. cited by Holt Ch. J. 12 Mod. 686. The City of London v. Wood.

A corporation has an implied power to make by-laws; but where the charter gives the company a power to make by-laws, they can only make them in such cases as they are enabled to do by the charter; for such power given by the charter, implies a negative that they shall not make by-laws in any other cases; per Ld. C. Macclessield. 2 Wms.'s Rep. 209. Hill. 1723. Child v. the Hudson's Bay Company.

r Salk. 397. pl. 3. S. C. but S. P. does not appear. 8. Every by-law is a law, and as obligatory to all persons bound by it, that is, within its jurisdiction, as any act of parliament, only with this difference, that a by-law is liable to have its validity brought in question, but an act of parliament is not; but when a by-law is once adjudged to be a good and reasonable law, it is to all intents as binding to those that it extends to, as an act of parliament can be; per Holt Ch. J. 12 Mod. 678. Hill. 13 W. 3. in case of the City of London v. Wood.

(A. 2) What shall be said a good By-Law.

[1. ED. 6. incorporated the town of St. Alban's by the name of mayor, &c. and granted to them power to make ordinances; 5 Rep. 64. a. Trin. 38 Eliz. C. B. and after, when the term was appointed to be there, by the affent of Clark's case, A. and other burgesses, they assessed a sum upon every inhabitant for al' Clark v. the charges in erection of courts there, and ordained that if any refuse Gape; and in action for to pay, &c. they shall be imprisoned. This is not a good ordinance false imprito imprison men if they do not pay, because it is against the stafonment the tute of magna charta, nullus liber homo, &c. but they might plaintiff had judgment. bave insticted a reasonable penalty, but not imprisonment, which -S.C. cited penalty they might have limited to be levied by distress. or to have 2 Inft. 54. -S.C. cited an action of debt for it. Co. 5. CLERK's CASE, adjudged, 64.] 2 Bulft. 32& —S. C. cited Jo. 162. pl. 2. ——8 Rep. 127. b. S. C. cited. ——S. C. cited 5 Mod. 157. -Mo. 580. Arg. cites Trin. 38 Eliz. C. B. and scems to intend S. C. though the point is somewhat different, viz. that a by-law was made at St. Alban's for every inhabitant to pay a sum of money certain, in contribution for making the vill clean and serviceable for the term to be kept there, and ruled good; but because they affested corporal punishment of imprisonment upon the offender, it was ill, and adjudged void in action of false imprisonment, because contrary to magna charta. ---- See (C) pl. 1. and the notes there. ____ Jo. 162. pl. 2. Trin. 3 Car. B. R. in case of the King v. the Corporation of Boston, S. P.

[2. King Charles made the souremakers of London a corporation, and gave to them power to make ordinances, and they made an ordinance that none should use the trade till he was free of the corporation, and that if any who was not free did use it, he should forseit 40s. for every week which he did use it, and to be committed for it; and after they committed J. S. for using the trade, and not paying 40s. contrary to the ordinance. This is not lawful to imprison him. Hill. 14 Car. B. R. HARDCASTLE'S CASE, per Curiam, resolved upon an habeas corpus, and he delivered accordingly.]

[3. A by-law by a corporation of weavers in a town, to refirain apprentices educated in the same trade within the same town for 7 years after the making of the by-law, is utterly void. Hobart's

Reports, 285.]

Hob. 210.
pl. 268.
Pasch. 14
Jac. Norris
v. Staps,
S. C.

Hutt. 5, 6. S. C. agreed that the ordinance was against law, and judgment against the plaintiffs.——Brownl. 48, 49. S. C. adjudged for the defendant.——Mo. 869. pl. 1205. S. C. says that the ordinance was, that none should exercise the trade within the town, unless that he had been an apprentice within the town 7 years before the ordinance made; and adjudged that the by-law was against reason.——Hob. 211. S. P. which Hobart Ch. J. said was absurd.——Se: Freem. Rep. 36, 37. pl. 44. C. B. The Mayor, &c. of St. Alban's v. Dobbins.

the King v

Hob. 211. S. C. and Hobart Ch. this was the avestion chiefly intended, and which be

[4. A new corporation, not having any prescription to appropriate to themselves and exclude others, cannot make a by-law to exclude all J. says, that persons from using an art or trade in their town, to which they were not apprentices in the same town, though they have served as apprentices to it in another place. Hobart's Reports, 285. between NORRIS AND STAPES.]

says is indeed great, and wherein the question is between the particular privileges of towns, and the general liberties of the people, which is fit to receive a determination, because it runs through the realm; but says this point was not spoken to at the bench, but reserved till some other action should require it. Mo. 869. pl. 1205. S. C. and adjudged that the action did not lie, because they were incorporated within time of memory, and after the statute of 5 Eliz. so that the power to make by-laws is not given to them. ——— Cro. J. 597. pl. 19. Mich. 18 Jac. B. R. in case of Broad v. Jollyse, it was said that a prescription to restrain one from using a trade in such a place is good. ---- Raym. 294. Arg. cites Mich. 1656. in C. B. Olburne's case, where, after many arguments, a * difference was agreed between by laws made by virtue of a custom, and where they are made by virtue of a charter; and that so is Cro. J. 597. Broad's case, that a custom is stronger than a charter. _____S. P. Arg. Cart. 69. and ibid. 118. Mich. 18 Car. a. C. B. in case of Colchester (Mayor), &c. v. Goodwin, common law forbids not a man to exercise a trade any where, yet a custom may restrain it; per Tirell J. cites 43 E. 3. 52. and if such a by-law had been by a new corporation, it is a dispute whether it had been good, and fuch a law is not against any statute, it being good by custom and prescription, and cites 8 Rep. 121. where this difference is taken. And ibid. 120. Bridgman Ch. J. held, that a custom, in such a case, will warrant that which a grant cannot do; and as to what was said that by laws for restraint of trade ought to be taken strictly, he denies that; for when they are to strengthen a corporation, and to regulate a trade, they ought not to be taken strictly; because a general liberty of trade, without a regulation, does more hurt than good. See Freem. Rep. 36, 37. pl. 44. Trin. 1672. Mayor, &c. of St. Alban's v. Dobbins.

[304]

A by-law was made in London, that tbere sbould te no more than 420 carts let to bire in London, and if more are used, then the owner should forfeit 40 s. It was objected

[5. King Edw. 3. by his letters patents gave authority to the mayor and commonalty of London to make by-laws among them, for the better government of the city, and this was confirmed by act of parliament; and after a by-law was there made, that no carmen within the city should go with his cart without a licence of the guerdians of such an hospital; and that if any one did to the contrary, that then he shall forfeit 15s. for every time. This is a void bylaw, because it is in restraint of the liberty of the trade of a carman, and so against reason; for this tends only to the private benefit of the guardians of the hospital, and is in nature of a mon Trin. 42 Eliz. B. R. between PAYNE AND HAUGHTON, this was not adjudged.]

a good bylaw, because it was a restraint to trade; but the court held the by-law good; for if the number of earts be not restrained, they might be a great nusance in stopping up the streets, and hindering passage. Sid. 284. pl. 18. Pasch. 18 Car. 2. B. R. Player v. Jenkins. 2 Keb. 27. pl. 57. S. C. and a procedendo was awarded, nifi. Vent. 21. Pasch. 21 Car. 2. B. R. Player v. Jones, S. P. resolved that the by-law in London, whereby the number of carts were restrained, is a good by-law. _____2 Keb. 490. pl. 39. S. C. and agreed the by-law to be good. ____Ibid. 501. pl. 64. S. C. and a procedendo was awarded. --- S. C. cited by Holt Ch. J. in delivering the opinion of the court-

5 Mod. 441. Trin. 11 W. 3.

At a common council held April 2d, 1677, it was enacted, that a former by-law concerning the ordering of carts and carmen, should be repealed; and that the president of Christ's hospital shall have the ordering thereof; and that there shall be no more than 420 carts to work in the city and liberties thereof for bire; and that 17 s. 6 d. and no more, shall be paid yearly for every cart; and 20 s. and me more, for a fine upon any admittance or alienation of a cast, which shall be applied towards the reinf of the poor orphans in Corest shoppital; and that if any wharfinger, or retailer in fuel, shall keep or work a cart not licensed by the president and governors of the said hospital, he shall forfit is a. 4 d. to be 18covered by action of debt, in the name of the chamberlain of the city, in the lord mayor's courts It was argued that this was a void by-law, because in all privileges, either by custom or by chartes, to make by-laws, there must be this clause either expressed or implied, that they be ad utilitatem regis & populi & racioni consona. Now it may properly be said to be ad utilitatem populi, when the advantages are mutual, that is, when the duty is equivalent to the profit; so is the case of Blackwell-hall, 5 Rep. 62. b. where the penny for hallage is equivalent to the labour of the searcher; but here, by this bylaw, there is 17 s. 6 d. per ann. rent, and 20 s. fine, to be paid by the carmen, not in respect to any thing for overfeeing and ordering their carts, but for the ule of the poor of Chrise's hospital; so that it is a mere imposition, without any regard to the thing in question. Adjudged by the whole court, nemine contradicente, that the by-law was not good, by reason of the fine and rent; but in all things else was very good, and a procedendo was granted. Raym. 288. 324. Mich. 31 Car. 2. in the Exchequer Chamber, Player v. Vere.

[6. So if the merchant-taylors of London, by force of a charter of the king, which gives to them authority to make by-laws, make a by-law that no merchant shall put his cloth to be dreffed but at a clothworker's of their company, this is a void by-law; for it is against reason, and the general liberty of the subject, to be restrained from putting his work to whom he pleases. Trin. 42 EL. B. R. adjudged.]

Mo. 576-pl. 746. Daxenant v. Hurdia, S. C. lays the or-Ginance was that every brother of that fociety thould put out one half of his clothes to be dreffed, &cc. to some brother of their company. Adjudged that this by law is in effect a monopoly, and that a prescription of such kind to induce the sole trade or traffic to a company or one person, and thereby to exclude others, is against law. ------ S. C. cited Mo. 672. that the by-law was held void. --- S. C. cited 11 Rep. 86. per Cur. accordingly, and that the power they had by charter to make ordinances, was with an ita quod they be confonant to law and reason. and that it was adjudged, that though this ordinance had the countenance of a charter, yet it was against the common law, because it was against the liberty of the subject; for every subject has freedom by the law to put his clothes to be dressed by what clothworker he please, and the restraining it to certain persons is in effect a monopoly, and therefore such by-law by colour of a charter, or any grant _____ 2 Inft. 47. S. P. _____ S. C. cited by Archer J. by charter to such effect, will be void. — Cart 116.

[7. If the corporation of taylors in Ipswich, by force of the king's patent, which gives them power to make by-laws for their better government, so that they be according to the law of England, make a by-law that none shall exercise the trade of a taylor in Isswich, qui non fuerit allocatus per legale warrantum vel authoritatem datam by the said corporation, or 3 of the masters and wardens, nor shall set up any shop for this art, nor shall exercise it, until such time as they have presented themselves to the master, &c. or 3 of them, or + proved that they have served in this trade as an apprentice for 7 years; and if any does contrary, that he shall forfeit 31. to the said corporation; this is a void by-law, because by this none shall exercise his trade without their allowance, and because it is not known what proof is sufficient ‡ within the by-law. P. 12 Jac. ‡ Fol. 365. B. R. The Corporation of Ipswich, adjudged.]

[305] 11 Rep. 53. S. C. adjudged.---Roll. Reg. 4. pl. 6. Taylors of Ipswich v. Sherring, S. C. ad-Judged. ----Godb. 252. pl. 351. The Clothworkers of Ipiwich's cafe.

S. C. adjudged. _____S. C. cited Arg. Comb. 221. and says the reason of that resolution in Ld. Coke s 12 Rep. was because it tended to the restraint of trade, &c.

† Doderidge J. asked how this proof should be made, and whether the wardens should be judges of this proof, what shall be sufficient, and what not? and Coke Ch. J. to the same purpose, and said that they cannot take as oath; for how an oath should be warrantable by a patent he did not know. Roll. Rep. s. S. C. ---- And Godb. 254. fays it was agreed that the proof cannot be upon oath; for such a corporation cannot administer an oath to the party, and then the proof must be by his indentues and witnesses, and perhaps the corporation will not allow of any of them; for which the party has no remedy against the corporation but by his action at the common law, and in the mean time he should be barred of his trade, which is all his living and maintenance, and to which he had been apprentice for 7 years; and because by this way they thousd be judges in their own cause, which is against law; and the king cannot grant to another to do a thing which is against the lam.

5 Rep. 62. b. Mich. 32 & 33 Eliz. B. k.---3 Lc. 264, 265.pl.355. S.C. but for the state or point of it refers to 5 Rep. and fays, a procedendo was granted.-S. C. cited Arg. Mo-580.

Roll: Rep.

312. pl. 22. S. C. the court to inform themselves of the truth of the damage arif-

ing from these hot-

[8. If an ordinance be made in London, by the common council (who hath power by custom, which is, among other customs, confirmed by act of parliament by general words), that if any freeman, citizen, or stranger, within the city, shall put any broad-cloth to sale within the city of London, before it be brought to Blackwell-hall to be viewed and searched, so that it may appear to be saleable, and that hallage be paid for it, scilicet, 1 d. for every cloth, that he shall forfeit for every cloth 6s. 8d. this is a good ordinance, as well to bind strangers as freemen, because it is made to prevent fraud and falsity in cloth, and for the better execution of the statutes without deceit, and the 1 d. for hallage is but a reasonable expence of charge for the benefit which the subject hath by it. Co. 5. Chamb. Lond. 62. resolved.]

[9. If a by-law be made in London, that none shall make a betpress, nor use it within the city, under the penalty of 101. for the making thereof, and 51. for the use thereof, this is a good by-law, because the using of these presses is dangerous for fire, and deceitful, inasmuch as this makes cloths and stuffs better to the eye than they are in truth. Hill. 13 Jac. B. R. Edwards's case, adjudged upon a habeas corpus.]

presses, appointed certain of the company of cloth-workers to come into court and inform them, which they did, and upon their affirming the danger and deceit of them, and likewise on reading the statute of 5 E. 6. [cap. 6.] the by-law was held good, and a procedendo granted.

• [ 306 ]

Cro.C.497. pl. 2. James v. Tutney, S. C. and held good, per tot. Cur. —Jo. 421. pl. 9. S. C. but S. P. does not appear.—Ibid. 434. pl. I. S. C. but S. P. does not appear. -Mar. 28. pl. 64. the ergumenti of the Ld. Ch. J.— S. C. cited Arg. Cart. 178.—† D. a. pl. 23. Ld. Cromwell's cafe, where a bylaw was made by the homage as to the turning in and palturing maits

[10. If there hath been a court (which is called curia legalis) held by the lord of a manor, time out of mind, in a great moor, part of the manor (in which many men have common), for the better ordering of the common there, at which all the commoners ought to appear by the custom, and there hath used to be a homage fworn by the steward, which homage hath used to present all oppressions and offences in the common, and to make by-laws and ordinances for the better ordering of the common, which ordinances the commoners ought to obey, under a reasonable penalty, upon them to be affessed, to be forfeited to the lord, &c. and the homage sworn, make a by-law, that no commoner shall put his sheep within a part of the moor, under the pain of 3s. 4d. to be forfeited to the lord, and this by-law is published and proclaimed in court, this is a good by-law, and shall bind all the commoners, because this by-law arose out of a custom which began by consent of parties; also, this does not take away all the common, for he may have common for other cattle, and that more abundant; also, he is 322. b. 323. not restrained as to sheep in all the moor, but only in one part, and this is in nature of an act of parliament as time and occasion requires, as perhaps by inundation, or other occasion, it may be inconvenient for sheep, and at another court, when the occasion is taken away, it may be altered; and this shall bind as well homagers as other commoners; and this is not like the case of +D. 15 El. 322. and ‡ 2 H. 4. 24. b. because there the commoners had their common at the will of the lord only, and in this case the commoner ought to take notice of this by-law, without any particular notice given to him, or otherwise he shall forfeit the penalty, because he ought to appear at the court, and the custom is alleged to be, that if the by-law be proclaimed, that it shall bind all commoners, and this is a personal thing, ergo, Trin. 14 Car. B. R. between Tinteny and James, per (§) Curlam, adjudged in a writ of error, upon a judgment in Banco, where it was adjudged upon demurrer accordingly; Intratur, Trin. 9 Car. Rot. 234. This concerned Sir John Stowell, and his manor of Somerton, in the county of Somerset.]

in the common, that if any of the tenants should put in his beafts § Fel. 366. before the farmer of the rectory of N, thould ring a beil in the belfry of the church there, such tenant should forfeit to s. and this by-law was held good. -See (B) pl. 1. 1 Br. Customs, pl. 12. cites S. C.

11. A by-law was made by the homage of the court of a manor, that no tenant should put any sheep to pasture in any common land of the manor, but only in his several demesne, on pain of forfeiting 4d. for every sheep. Manwood thought it not good, because the inheritance is thereby taken away; and though the plaintiff himself was one of the homage, yet that is not material; for though a man may give away his inheritance by grant or feoffment, yet he cannot do it by his affent. Curia advisare vult. Dal. 95. pl. 23. anno 15 Eliz. Franklin v. Cromwell.

12. A by-law was, that none should bring any sand, nor sell, nor s. C. cited use any within the city or suburbs of London, but only that which was taken out of the river Thames, under the penalty of 51. for the 1st, and 101. for the 2d offence, and held not good. Godb. 106. pl.

126. Mich. 28 & 29 Eliz. C. B. Anon.

13. Every by-law ought to be made for the common benefit of the inhabitants, and not for the private advantage of any particular man, as J.S. only, or the lord only; as if a by-law is made, that no person shall put his cattle into the common field before such a day, this is good; but if it be, that they shall not carry their hay over the lord's lands, or break the hedges of J. S. this is not good, of the laws, because it does not respect the common benefit of all. Goldsb. 49. pl. 13. Hill. 30 Eliz. Anon.

Arg. Raym.

By-law ought to be in furtherance of the public good, and the better execution ' and not to prejudice the Subjects, or for private gain. Arg. Mo. 580.

14. At a court of the manor a by-law was made by the majo- Le. 190. pl rity of the tenants then present, that no tenant, for the future, sould keep in the common fields, any steer above a year old, upon pain of 6 d. for every offence. Adjudged, that this by-law was against reason, because it was to bind the inheritance of the tenants, if they had any inheritance in this common, and that with- against comout their consent, which they cannot do without course of law. And. 234. pl. 250. Mich. 31 & 32 Eliz. Latton v. Erbury.

270. Erbury v. Latton, S. C. and the by-law beld ill, bea cause it is mon right where a man has common for all his cattle commonable to restrain him to one kind of cattle.

5 Rep. 64. a. Trin. 38 Elis. Clark's case, alias Clark v. Gape, seems to be S. C.

• >

15. In false imprisonment the desendant justified, that the borough of St. Alban's had authority by charter to make by-laws for the government of townsmen, and they made a by-law, that if any burgess gives opprobrious words to the mayor, he should be imprisoned by the mayor during his pleasure, and that he being mayor, but not S.P. sent an officer to the defendant, being a burgess, to come to the common-hall for the affairs of the town. He fent him this answer, Let the mayor come to me if he will, for I will not come to him. Adjudged the justification was not good, that the by-law was not lawful, but a by-law to disfranchise the offender is good, and that the words were not opprobrious words. Mo. 411. pl. 563. Hill. 33 Eliz. Bab v. Clerk.

16. A constitution in London is, that an apothecary that sells unwholesome drugs shall forfeit a certain pain. The defendant sold unwholesome drugs in London, for which the chamberlain of London brought debt in London for the pain, and held maintainable there, by their by-laws and customs. Mo. 403. pl. 538.

Hill. 33 Eliz. Wilford v. Masham.

S. C. cited 始id. 127. b.—2 Inst. 47. cites S. C. accordingly; for no forseiture can grow by letters patents.

17. King H. 6. granted to the corporation of dyers in London, power to search, &c. and if they find any cloth dyed with logwood, that the cloth should be forfeited. Adjudged, that by the patent no forfeiture can be imposed of the goods of the subject [though it might by cuftom], and therefore in fuch case, fortior & potention est vulgaris consuetudo quam regalis concessio. 8 Rep. 125. 2. per Cur. cites Trin. 41 Eliz. C.B. Waltham v. Austen.

_____S. C. cited D. 279. b. marg. pl. 10.

Custom that goods foreign bought and foreign sold within the liberty of the city of be forfeited, and seizable by the mayor, theriff, and citizens, and in the prescription they shew that they were mayor,

18. The custom of London was, that no person, not free of the city, shall keep any shop, inward or outward, for putting to sale any wares, &c. by way of retail, or use any trade, occupation, mystery, or handicraft for hire, gain, or sale, within the city; a constitution was made pursuant to this custom, that if any person should all York, should contrary to such custom, he should forfeit 5 l. Resolved, that there is a diversity between such custom in a city, &c. and a charter granted to the city, &c. to such effect; for it is good by way of custom, though not by way of grant, and therefore no corporations made within time of memory can have such privilege, unless it were by act of parliament. 8 Rep. 121. b. 124. b. 125. a. Hill. 7 Jac. the city of London's case, [alias Waggoner's cafe.]

bailiffs, and citizens in the city time out of mind, till the 1 R. 2. when they were constituted mayor, theristis, and citizens, and held good. D. 279. b. pl. 10. Mich. 10 & 11 Eliz. --- Bendl. 27. pl. 36. S. C. the pleadings. S. C. cited 8 Rep. 125. a. per Cur. S. C. cited Arg.

Mo. 581, 582.

19. A by-law was made, to pay a mark a truss for bay, which should be fold unaveighed, and adjudged good. Lev. 16. Arg. cites 1652. B. R. Sutton's case.

20. The

20. The common council of the city of London made an or- 1bid. 496. der, that no carts should work without licence from the company of pl. 46. woodmongers, and that if they did, they might take and detain Car. 2. B.R. them until they shall conform to the government of the wood- the S. C. it mongers. The court conceived, that the common council may was objected that this depute woodmongers to make fuch law for the good of the city. by-law was Keb. 463. pl. 62. Hill. 14 & 15 Car. 2. B. R. Gavel v. Taf- contrary to law, as restraining

private persons to work with their own carts with their own goods; sed non allocatur; for it must be intended of common working carts. Adjornatur.

- 21. A by-law for the better ordering of common was made at a court leet, and it being by a custom was held good by Wild and Archer J. contra Tirrell; and Bridgman Ch. J. before his removal to be Ld. Keeper, seemed of opinion, that it was good by custom, especially concurring with the consent of all the inhabitants. Cart. 177. 179. Hill. 18 & 19 Car. 2. C. B. The Earl of Exeter v. Smith.
- 22. Debt was brought upon a by-law by virtue of a charter of King Car. 2. enabling the plaintiffs to make by-laws, and this bylaw was confirmed by the Ld. Chancellor, Treasurer, and Ch. J. viz. that every mariner, within 24 hours after he should come to anchor in the river Thames, should put on shore all gunpowder (the weather permitting), upon pain of forfeiting 20 nobles, and that the defendant had notice of this by-law, &c. and they being at issue upon the point of notice, the plaintiff had a verdict. Exception w?s taken, that it was not made by a sufficient authority, for the king himself cannot by his proclamation make such an universal law, and by consequence the patentees cannot; and all laws made by corporations have their obligation by consent of parties, or quasi by consent, but this cannot be as to places out of their jurisdiction. The court agreed the by-law to be a beneficial law in itself, and that the penalty is not too great, because the breach thereof is negligentia crassa, but upon the reasons given in the exception, they would advise. 2 Jo. 144, 145. Pasch. 33 Car. 2. B. R. Trinity-house v. Crispin.
- 23. A by-law was made by a new corporation, that persons of the corporation elected to be stewards for the year ensuing, shall provide a dinner for the master, warden, and assistants on such a day, under the penalty of 101. or other less sum, to be levied by distress, or recovered by action of debt. Exception was taken that the by-law was ill, because not faid that this dinner was appointed to the end that the company should affemble and consult of things beneficial to the corporation: for by what appears it may be only luxury, and not for any benefit to himself or the company; and the by-law being unreasonable, the penalty is so too, and consequently not obligatory; quod curia concessit; and this by-law cannot be good in case of a new corporation, for the reason asoresaid; but had it been for the company to assemble and choose officers, or any A a-B b 2 other thing for the benefit of the corporation, it had been well enough; but in case of old corporations by prescription, a by-law to make a customary feast has been held good; and therefore judgment was arrested. Ld. Raym. Rep. 113, 114. Mich. 8 W. 3. Framework-Knitters' Company v. Green.

24. Every by-law by which the benefit of the corporation is advanced, is good for that very reason, that being the true touch-stone of all by-laws; per Holt Ch. J. Carth. 482. Pasch. 11 W. 3.

B. R. London City v. Vanaker.

6 Mod. 123, 124. S. C. adjudged accordingly.--1 Salk. 192. pk 5. S. C. [ 309 ] 25. By-law, that all strangers, coming into the port of London, should employ city porters to carry their goods, &c. was held naught; and per Cur. they may make a by-law that none but freemen shall be porters, * but to confine strangers to city porters is unreasonable; because if the city will appoint no porters, there is no remedy against the city; besides strangers cannot know who are city porters, neither can they compel them to serve them. I Salk. 143. pl. 7. Hill. 2 Ann. B. R. Cuddon v. Eastwick.

26. No by-law which is either unjust or unreasonable can ever be good; per Parker Ch. J. 10 Mod. 133. Hill. 11 Ann. B.R.

- 27. A by-law was made in London, that none but free-porters should intermeddle with the carrying or unlading of corn, salt, or sea-coal, or any other goods out of any barge, lighter, &c. between Staines-bridge and Kendal in the county of Kent, that are to be imported into the ports of London, under the penalty of 20 s. for each offence, except in time of danger, and to save the losing of the goods. It was argued by Mr. Peer Williams, that it was a void by-law; but nothing more is reported. 10 Mod. 338. Mich. 3 Geo. 1. B. R. Fazakerly (Chamberlain of London) v. Wiltshire.
- 28. The bailiffs, &c. of Chipping Cambden had power to make by-laws, and made a by-law that no perfon inhabiting out of the borough, or not free of the borough, should set forth goods to sale, except victuals on market-days, in any market within the borough, &c. Upon demurrer this was resolved a void by-law; for without a custom, such a by-law to restrain persons not free of the borough from exercising a trade cannot be maintained; and judgment accordingly. Comyns's Rep. 269. pl. 148. Mich. 4 Geo. 1. C.B. Parry v. Berry.
- 29. A by-law was, that any person who exercises the trade of a joiner in the city of London, shall take his freedom in the company of joiners, and if summoned for that purpose, shall refuse or neglect to take it in that company, he may be fined for exercising such trade and disfranchised. The court adjudged this a reasonable by-law, it being made to prevent frauds in trade, by subjecting a man to the inspection of those who understand the same trade. 8 Mod. 267. Trin. 10 Geo. 1. The King v. the Chamberlain of London.

(A.3)

[1. I T is not necessary that the breach of a by-law made by the homage according to a custom, should be presented by the bomage. D. 15 El. 322. 23. adjudged.]

[2. If a by-law be made by a custom, and that for want of observance, one shall forfeit, for which the lord shall distrain, and does not say whose cattle, scilicet, the cattle of the offender, yet it shall be intended; and therefore good. D. 15 El. 322. 23. adjudged, as it seems to me.]

- (B) Of what Things By-laws may be made, and of what not. [And who bound by them.]
- [1. T is a good by-law, (where there is a custom for the homage See (A. 2) of a manor to make by-laws, pro meliore ordine tenentium, &c.) pl. 10. in the notes. that none shall put his cattle in communi le shack antequam * firmarius S. C. cited; rector [rectorie] of the manor, pulsasset campanum in campanile ecclesie Are. Moibidem, upon the pain of 10 s. (for it seems the reason is, that he is $.C. cited not lord, but hath common there with the other tenants, or no Cart. 178. common, and so is indifferent) D. 15 El. 321. 23. adjudged . [ 310 ] upon demurrer against him, who was one of the homage who forfeited the by-law; but there, in the same case another demurrer commenced, and not resolved; but there it was objected, that this tended to the disinheritance of the commoner for ever, which was not reasonable.]

[2. By the custom, commoners may make a by-law, that they + Fitzh. do not put in their cattle before such a day, and if they do, that they Avowre, place of the states may be distrained; and though all the neighbours will not come, s. c. yet if proclamation be made to do it, they who make default, shall be bound as well as those that appear. Dubitatur, + 44 E. 3. 18, 19. whether it may be without the affent of all. But Brooke in abridging it, title Custom, 6. [says] that there is a diversity where it is in court, and where not, for it is used to bind in all base courts in England.]

[3. Tenants of a manor may make a by-law to bind themselves, but not strangers. 21 H. 7. 40. (it seems to be intended by custom.)]

Se of tenants of a leet. Bro Prescription, pl. 40. cites S. C.

Fitzh. Prescription, pl. 67. cites S. C. & Trin. 14 H. 7. Br. Customs, pl. 32. cites S. C. ____And custom, that every one subo makes an affray or bloodsbed [in a leet] shall luse 2080 is good; for it is curia regis. Br. Ibid. & Fitab. Ibid. - So of diftress in a leet, and sale of the diftreft. Br. Ibid. & Fitsh. Ibid. ----- And tenants of a will may make a by-lew touching their commons &c. and it shall bind them, but not strangers. Br. Ibid. and Fitzh. Ibid.

4. By-laws for payments and other works necessary for the making of Inhabitants of a vill bighways, causeys, and the like publick things, shall bind withwithout any custom, may out eustom; but they ought always to be made by the major part; Arg. Mo. 579. cites 44 E. 3. per Finchden. make ordinances and by-laws for reparation of the church, or of a highway, or the like, which is for the public good; generally and in such case, the major part shall bind the rest without any custom. But if it be for their own private profit, as for the well ordering of their common of passure, or the like, there they cannot make by-laws without a custom; and if there be a custom, yet the major part cannot bind the rest, unless it be evarranted by the custom; for as custom creates them, so they ought to be warranted by the custom. 5 Rep. 93. a. Mich. 32 & 33 Eliz. B. R. Arg.

> ς. Where a parish is compellable to make a bridge, a by-law may adjust the proportion, how much the part of every one, who of right ought to make it, amounts to; Arg. Dal. 103, 104.

pl. 42. cites 44 E. 3.

6. Corporations cannot make ordinances or constitutions without custom or charter of the king, unless for things which concern the publick good, as reparations of the church or common highways, or the like; Arg. 5 Rep. 63. 2. cites 44 E. 3. 19. 8 E. 2. tit. Assise, 413. 21 E. 4. 54. 11 H. 7. 13. 21 H. 7. 20 & 40. & 15 Eliz. D. 322.

7. 19 H. 7. cap. 7. No masters, wardens, and fellowships of crafts This statute does not coror mysleries, or any rulers of guilds or fraternities, shall take upon roborate any them to make acts or ordinances in disinberitance or diminution of the of the ordinances made prerogative of the king, or of other, or against the common profit of the by any corpeople, except the same acts and ordinances be approved by the lord poration, which are so chancellor, treasurer, or chief justices of either bench, or three of them, or before both the justices of assis in their circuits, on pain of 401. atlowed and' approved as Nor shall they make acts or ordinances to restrain persons to sue in the the flatute king's courts, or inflict any penalty or punishment on them for so doing, speaks, but leaves them on pain of 40 l. to be affirmed as good, or disaffirmed as illegal by the law; and the sole benefit which the incorporation acquires by fuch allowance is, that they shall not incur the penalty of 40 l. mentioned in the act, if they should put in use any ordinances which are against the king's prerogative, or the * common profit of the people, &c. Resolved, 11 Rep. 54. b. Mich. 12 Jac. Taylors of Ipswich's case. ___Roll. Rep. 4. pl. 6. S. C. but I do not observe S. P. there. Godb. 252. pl. 351. S. C. but S. P. does not appear.

*[311]

8. By-laws made in a court-baron to bind strangers who are not tenants of the manor, are void; and so it is if the bomage make the by-laws, and not all the tenants; and to make a by-law that they shall not put in their cattle into their severalties before such a day, is void. By-laws made to bind strangers, are not good, though they are made by the homage and by all the tenants, and though they are concerning such things whereof by-laws may be made. Sav. 74. pl. 151. fays it was adjudged Mich. 25 & 26 Eliz.

9. Suit J. said, that if the custom of a manor be that the bemage might make by-laws, it shall bind the tenants, as well freebolders as copyholders. But Tanfield, of counsel in the case, said, it is not a good nor reasonable custom; but such by-laws may be made by the greater number of the tenants, otherwise they shall not bind them. Godb. 50. pl. 62. Mich. 28 & 29 Eliz. B. R. Anon.

10. In covenant, &c. upon an indenture of apprenticeship, the Ow. 69. defendant pleaded a by-law in London by the common council there, where he was apprentice, that if a freeman took the son of adjudged acan alien to be apprentice, his bonds and covenants shall be void; and cordingly. adjudged no plea; for the common-council cannot make the bonds and covenants void; but they might have inflicted a fine and punishment on the master for taking such an apprentice.

Perks, S. C.

Dogrel v.

Mo. 411. pl. 562. Trin. 37 Eliz. Doggerell v. Pokes.

11. Where cities, boroughs, &c. are incorporated by the name of mayor and commonalty, mayor and burgesses, bailiss and burgesses, &c. and in the charters it is prescribed that the mayors, bailiffs, &c. shall be chosen by the commonalty or burgesses, &c. yet if the ancient elections were by a certain selected number of the principal of the commonalty, &c. (commonly called the common council) and not by all the commonalty, &c. nor by so many of them as will come to the election, this was refolved to be good in law, and warranted by the charter; for in every charter a power is given them to make laws and ordinances, and constitutions, for the better government and ordering of their cities, &c. by virtue whereof, and for avoiding popular confusion, they, by their common assent, ordained, &c. that the election should be by such a select number; and though this ordinance cannot be shewn now, yet it shall be presumed that such ordinance was made. 4 Rep. 77. b. Mich. 40. & 41 Eliz. at Serjeant's-inn in Fleet-street. The case of Corporations,

Jenk. 273. pl. 93. S.C. by all the justices of England.-S. P. admic. ted; but fays it is otherwise as to elections to be made of burgesses for the parliament; for fuch dection must be by all; for free elections for members of parliament are pro bono publico, and not to be compared to other cases of elections of mayors, bailists, &c. of corporations, &c. 4 Intt. 48, 49.

12. The corporation of butchers in London having a power to make by-laws, made a by-law that no butcher, or person being a stranger, should sell any veal within the city of London, unless they dressed the kidneys thereof in such manner as the kidneys of sheep were dressed; and if they did otherwise, then to forfeit 6 d. and if they refused to pay it, then to forfeit the veal. Then they shew the breach of this law, and so justify the taking the veal. Adjudged that this by-law was not good, because it was to restrain strangers, who are not bound to take notice of any private by-law made in a corporation, unless it is to suppress fraud, or any other general inconvenience used by foreigners, as corruption, or the like, in the sale of their meat, and then they ought to take notice thereof; and judgment accordingly. Bulst. 11. Hill. 7 Jac. Franklin v. Green.

| 312 ] but

13. By an act of the common council in London, for the or- But Lea Ch. dering the companies of bricklayers and plaisterers, it was or- J. said that dained that the bricklayers should not plaister with lime and hair, if it had appeared in the daubing with lime pertains to the bricklayers, the not good. Ibid. 3a6. ____2 Roll. Rep. 391. S.C. & S.P. by Lea return, that but with lime and fand only; and that plaistering with lime and bair should belong to the plaisterers; and that those who broke this and hair ap- order should forfeit 40 s. to be recovered by the chamberlain, &c. It was objected that this was not a good ordinance, because it restrained the bricklayers in part of their trade, which ordinance is was to plaister with lime and hair; but adjudged that this ordinance is not in destruction, but for ordering the traders, and no more in effect than a determination of a question between the companies. Palm. 395. Mich. 21 Car. B. R. Bricklayers v. Plaisterers Company.

A 2-B b 4

Ch. J. 2 Sid. 178. Hill. 1659. B. R. the S. C. argued; sed adjornatur. ----Keb. 32. pl. 84: Pasch. 13 Car. 2. B. R. Player v. Barnardiston, S. C. Procedendo awarded, nifi, &c .-Ibid. 35. pl. 95. S.C. adjornatur, Foster Ch. J. absente. —Ibid. 39. ph 106. S.C. and a procedendo was awarded fer tot. Cur.— S. C. cited 6 Mod. 123. in case of Cuddon (Chamber-Jain of Lond )n) v. Pro-

14. A by-law was made in London, that every foreigner who sells goods usually sold by weight, without bringing them to be weighed by a beam there called the king's beam, shall forfeit 13 8. 4 d. for every 500 weight, to be recovered by the chamberlain in the sherist's court, and not elsewhere, and that no effoin, protection, &c. shall be allowed. It was objected, 1st, That it was unreasonable to compel the subject to bring every thing sold by weight to this beam; for they are frequently fold by the lump, and then no need of weighing; but it was answered that this by-law is founded on the custom of London, which is of such force, that it is good even against a negative act of parliament. objected that this by-law was unreasonable, in respect of the penalty and inequality of it; for some goods may not be worth 13 s. 4 d. the 500 weight, and some of 500 weight may be worth 500 l. Sed non allocatur; for the penalty is only to inforce obedience; but had it been to pay a great sum for the weighing, it might be otherwise. 3dly, That it deprived the subject of privileges allowed by law, viz. of essoins, &c. sed non allocatur; for it is generally so in all by-laws. 4thly, That it restrains the actions to their own courts; sed non allocatur; for the facts and the persons are best known there. 5thly, That it does not appear that he had notice of this law, and a foreigner cannot take notice of it; but the court held that every one that will trade in London must take notice of the customs of the city, which are the laws of the city; and a procedendo awarded, nii, &c. Lev. 14. Hill. 12 & 13 Car. 2. B. R. London (Mayor, &c.) v. Bernardiston.

fiys that all the exceptions taken in the case of Bernardiston in Lev. 14, 15, were insisted on in the principal case, Hill. 2 Ann. B. R. and yet the court, after great confideration, awarded a procedendo according to the faid case in Lev.

The record r certified the cuft m of London, as voft, and 15. Though Li-laws cannot restrain trades, yet they may prevent such excrescence of them as would make a nusance, as the multitude of taverns and alehouses; per Cur. Sid. 284. pl. 18. Pasch. 18 Car. 2. B. R. in case of Player v. Jenkins.

to erecting taverns; and a person was imprisoned by the mayor and commonalty for erecking one in Birchin-lane, enatrary to their order. Mar. 15. pl. 34. Paich. 15 Car. Anone 16. A by-law, as to the place of particular trades, may be As to fetting good, as to restrain a butcher from having a shop in Cheapside, &c. Per Cur. Sid. 284. pl. 18. Pasch. 18 Car. 2. B. R. in case of or a tallow-Player v. Jenkins.

up a butcher's shop, chandler's thop in Cheapfide, it ought not to be for the great aumyance that would enfue. Mar. 15. pl. 34. Pascha 15 Car. Anon. --- So of a brewbouse in Fleet-street, because it is in the heart of the city, and would de an annoyance to it. Ibid ...... S. P. by Twisden J. Vent. 26. Pasch. 21 Car. 2. B. R.

- 17. A by-law made by the company of filk-throwsters, that [313] none of that company should have above such a number of spindels in one week. Resolved that this is not a monopoly, but rather restraining a monopoly, that no one should ingross the whole trade, but to provide rather for equality of trade, secundum quod est conveniens; and good, and judgment for the plaintiff. Lev. 229. Hill. 18 & 19 Car. 2. B. R. Freemantle v. Company of Throw. iters.
- 18. A libel was exhibited against the defendant in the vicechancellor's court at Oxford, upon a by-law made by the university, that whoever should be taken walking in the streets after 9 at night, baving no reasonable excuse to be allowed by the prostor, &c. should forfeit 40 s. one half to the university, and the other to the proctor, &c. who should take him, &c. and that the defendant was taken walking in the streets after that hour, and refused to give an excuse, &c. Upon a motion for a prohibition, it was insisted that the defendant, being a townsman, the university could make no by-law to bind those who are not of their own body, unless by act of parliament, or express prescription. It is true they have an act of parliament anno 13 Eliz. by which their jurisdiction, privileges, and statutes are confirmed; but whether this by-law, which was made subsequent to that statute, viz. 7 Jac. was warranted by it or not, the court would not determine upon a motion; therefore proposed that the libel should be amended, and grounded upon the by-law 7 Jac. expressly, and then they would grant a prohibition, and the defendant might plead to it, and so the point come in question. 2 Vent. 33. Pasch. 32 Car. 2. C. B. University of Oxford v. Dodwell.
- 19. On the 24th of April 1657 a by-law was made by the com- s. c. cited pany of vintners in London, that for the time to come 31 l. 131.4d. Arg. 5Mod. and no more, should be paid by every liveryman upon his ad- 8 W. 3. in mission into the said office. It was insisted that this by-law was un- CLARKE's reasonable, and against law, and a grievance to the subject; but the court resolved that were the sum more or less, it would not make the by-law void, because it is to bind only the members of that corporation; and when any man will agree to be of a company, he thereby submits to the laws thereof; and this court will not take notice of any extravagancy of charges they lay upon themselves, and it is convenient that the company should have such power, to keep up their reputation and the honour of the city

CASE, Who refuled to take upon him the office of a liveryman of the company of vintners, though he was a citizen and freeman of London. Raym. 446. Pasch. 33 Car. 2. B. R. Taverner's don, and case. therefore the mayor and aldermen committed him to Fell the keeper of Newgate, until he should take upon him the said office. Holt Ch. J. said, that we ought to go as far as we can by law to support the government of all societies and corporations, especially this of the city of London; and if the mayor and aldermen should not have power to punish offenders in a summary way, then sarewell the government of the city. But the exception which sticks with me most is, that it is not set out that Fell is an officer of the city, and indeed I think that he is not an officer of the city, quatenus a city, though I confess he is an officer to the sherists, as he keeps the county-gaol; but it ought to have appeared that he was epmmitted to an officer of the mayor and aldermen. Clark was afterwards discharged per tot. Curiam, though all the court declared their opinion that the custom was a good custom, and was for the advantage of the good government of the city, and therefore they would always support it.

20. A by-law made by the master, wardens, and brotherhood of taylors in the city of Litchfield, that every year, within one month after midsummer, they should chuse a moster and 2 wardens to continue for a year; and that upon every day of election there should be a convenient dinner for the master and brothers, and that every one should pay his proportion, and if any brother should be absent, he should pay into the common stock so much as the master paid for his own dinner, upon pain of forfeiting 3s. 4'd. That anno 18 Eliz. those bylaws were approved by Sir Ed. Saunders, then Ch. Baron, according to the stat. 19 H. 7. and so brings the case within this bylaw; and upon demurrer this was adjudged a good by-law upon the authority of Wallis's case, Cro. J. 555. [pl. 17. Mich. 17 Jac. B. R.] but that the breach of this by-law was not well assigned; for no notice was given, nor precise demand made of the same sum as the master paid; and without failing in this payment the defendant was not to incur the penalty, though absent from the feast; and judgment for the plaintiff. 2 Lutw. 1320. 1324. Pasch. 1. Jac. 2. Gee v. Wilden.

21. A by-law was made by the company of horners in London, that two men appointed by them should buy rough horns for the company, and bring them to the hall, there to be distributed, &c. and that no member of the company should buy rough horns, within 24 miles of London, but of those two men so appointed, under such a penalty, &c. After judgment by default it was moved, that this being a company incorporated within London, they have not jurisdiction elsewhere, but are restrained to the city, and by consequence cannot make a by-law which shall bind at the distance of 24 miles out of it; for, by the same reason, they may enlarge it all over England, and so make it as binding as an act of parliament; and for this reason it was adjudged no good by-law. 3 Mod. 158. Hill, 2 Jac. 2. B. R. 'The Company of Horners v. Barlow.

Debt upon a 22. A by-law by the mayor, &c. of Guildford was, that if any by-law, (viz.) That inhabitant of the said town should be chosen to the office of bailiff, and if any per on should refuse to take it upon him, he should forfeit and pay to the curple upon be poration 201. Exception was taken, because the by-law was that if any inhabitant should be chosen, whereas they cannot make below of the by-laws to bind all the inhabitants of the town, but only the freemen and members of the corporation. The court held this and ano-city of Oxther exception taken to be incurable; and so in debt brought ford, and on the by-law, judgment was given for the defendant. 2 Vent. to undertake 247, 248. Mich. 2 W. & M. in C. B. The Mayor & probi that office, Homines of Guildford v. Clarke.

[314]

Ó

mea

be sould forfeit sol. to

the mayor, &c. and then fets forth, that the 30th of Sept. &c. the defendant was duly elected into the faid office, he being a citizen and freeman of the faid city, and that he refused to accept it, whereby the action accrued for the faid 101. The declaration was adjudged ill per tot. Cur. Because a by-law to elect any person is void; for by this they may elect a stranger, and the alleging that he was duly elected will not cure it, because those words extend only to the manner of electing, but not to the perfons to be elected; and though it is said that they elected the defendant, being a citizen and freeman, this is only the execution of the by-law, and shall not make the by-law good, which is void in itself? and it ought to be, if any citizen or burgess shall be elected, and refuse, &c. and not if any person, &c. 3 Lev. 293. Hill. 2 W. & M. in C. B. Mayor, &c. of Oxford v. Wildgoose.

23. Debt for 10 l, upon a forfeiture for breach of a by-law, which was that every person using the occupation of musick and dancing in the city of London, who shall have a privilege to be made free by patrimon;, shall, at the next court of affistants of the company of musicians, after notice, accept and take the freedom of the said company; and that every person who hath served an apprenticeship to such mysteries, and not made free, and yet shall exercise his trade, shall forfeit 101, for every offence. This was adjudged a void by-law; for though the custom is, that whoever is free of the city must be free of some company, yet that custom does not oblige a man to be free of any particular company; for if it should, then though the defendant be intitled by birth to be free of fuch company, yet he must also be free of this, otherwise he cannot exercise this art, which is unreasonable. They may make him take his freedom, but cannot direct in what company. 5 Mod. 105. Trin. 7 W. 3. Robinson v. Groscourt,

S. C. cited Arg. 8 Mod. 269. and fays that this by-law exceeds the custom, and for that rea-. son it was held void s and Ibid. 270. the Court faid that in this case of Robinson v. Groscourt, there was no company of dancingmasters, of which the defendant might be made free.

24. The mayor, &c. of Bedford, made a by-law that no person [315] who was not a freeman of that corporation, should set up any art, mistery or manual occupation within the corporation, under the penalty of 51. per day, to be paid to the chamberlain to the use of the corporation, to be levied by distress, &c. Exception was taken among others, that the by-law was unreasonable and against law, ecause it excludes all those who had served apprenticeships in the corporation; and of that opinion was the whole court, and judgment for the defendant; but they held that a custom to the effect of the faid by-law would have been good. Lutw. 562.564. Hill. 9 W. 3. Bedford (Mayor) v. Fox.

25. Anno 7 Car. 1. a by-law was made, that no freeman of the city chosen to be sheriff of London shall be exempted, unless he will make oath that he is not worth 10,000 l. and bring 6 approved compurgators; and that upon proclamation made at Guildhall of the choice, and he being falled to come and take upon him the office at the next court, and enter 171to

5 Mod. 438. S. C. and the by-law adjudged good; and that defendant had for-reited the. fum of 400l. by not complying with it. And an objection having been made, that gailogqui the person chosen to be a madman or a fool. &c. Holt Ch. J. in delivering the opinion of the court, answered that these incapacities are excepted, and that they are tacity excepted out of all into a bond of 1000 l. for that purpose, upon default shall forfeit 400 l. and if not paid within 3 months, shall forfeit 400l. [ 100l. ] more, &c. It was infifted, that the chusing a sheriff is not within the custom of making by-laws, because the constitution of sheriff is by a charter of King James; sed non allocatur; for where a franchise is granted for the benefit of a body politick, they have an incident power to regulate that franchise for their publick benefit; and as every member has the benefit of the franchife, so he is compellable by penalties to undergo the charge to which the body politick is liable; and though the person chosen, may be indicted and fined for his refusal, yet that will not save the city franchise, and therefore it shall not hinder the forfeiture incurred by the by-law; and though it is the livery-men who are to be present at the election, and not the free-men, yet the freemen are represented by the livery-men, and he, that is represented, must take notice as much of the act of the representative body as if present; besides the election is a notorious thing, and there is a proclamation notifying it. I Salk. 142. pl. 1. Trin. 11 W. 3. B. R. London (City) v. Vanacre.

laws whatever, and therefore this by-law shall not extend to such persons; and that the by-law aced not run, " provided that the party to be chosen sheriff, be not a fool or a madman," for it is excepted without it.—Carth. 480. S. C. and the by-law adjudged good. ——— 12 Mod. 269. S. C. adjudged accordingly, and that a procedendo should go; but in the state of the by-law it is said, that er not having a reasonable excuse to be allowed by the lord mayor and court of aldermen, he shall forseit 400 l. whereof 100 l. to be paid to the next sherist that shall hold, and the rest to the use of the 44 mayor and commonalty, to be recovered in the court of record held before the mayor and aldermen." And it being objected that this reasonable excuse is to be made to the mayor and aldermen, Holt Ch. J. answered, that whatever excuse he makes, if they allow it, the city is bound by it; and if they refuse to allow a reasonable excuse, it is not final; for it may be pleaded or given in an evidence, in an action brought for the penalty by the city; for it was not the meaning of the common council to put an arbitrary power in the lord mayor and aldermen, but is like the power given by the stat. 23 H. S. cap. 5. to commissioners of sewers to do several things according to their discretion; but that must be understood of a legal discretion. ——Ld. Raym. Rep. 496. S. C. and the court all held that a procedends should be granted; and S. P. mentioned as to the not having a reasonable excuse, which was objected to be a making them judges in their own cause; it was answered by Holt Ch. J. as above. ———Carth. 483. the same point is started in the arguing for the defendant, though not mentioned in the flate of the by-law there; and there Holt Ch. J. answered, that in such case the desendant may give it in evidence, upon nil debet pleaded in an action of debt brought for the forfeiture, and there the validity of the excuse may be tried by a jury. _____ 5 Mod. 442. same objection made in arguing the case, though not mentioned there in the state of the by-law; and answered by Holt Ch. J. accordingly.

1 Salk. 193.. diversity; ior a company or fraternity have not a local power of government. [316]

26. A difference was taken between a private corporation or comand the same pany, and a great city or borough; for the former can only make bylaws to bind their own members, and touching matters that concern the regulation of the trade, or other affairs of the company; but great cities and towns, as London, Bristol, York, &c. can make by-laws for the better ordering and managing such town, and that law will bind strangers to the freedom of the town, while within such towns, and they are bound to take notice of such laws at their peril; and this diversity was agreed to by the court. 6 Mod. 123, 124. Hill. 2 Ann. B. R. Cuddon v. Estwick.

27. The Hudson's-Bay company are made a corporation by charter, and are thereby impowered to make by-laws for the better government government of the company, and for the management and direction of their trade to Hudson's Bay. They may, by the by-laws, make restrictions upon their stock, viz. that it shall be liable, in the first place, to pay the debts due to themselves from their own members, or to answer the calls of the company upon the stock; for the legal interest of all the stock is in the company, who are trustees for the several members; per Ld. C. Macclesfield. 2 Wms.'s Rep. 207. pl. 55. Hill. 1723. Child v. Hudson's Bay Company.

28. So a by-law to detain and seise a member's stock for a debt due from a member to the company, is good; but this being a by-law to the prejudice of other creditors, it shall be taken strictly, and not extend to fuch debt us the member does not owe in law, but only in equity, as where it was owing to a trustee of the company; per Ld. C. Macclesfield. 2 Wms.'s Rep. 208, 209. Hill. 1723. Child v.

Hudson's Bay Company.

29. But they cannot make by-laws by fuch a power, for carrying on projects foreign to the affairs of the company, as in relation to the projects and assurances; per Ld. C. Macclessield. 2 Wms.'s Rep. 209. Hill. 1723, Child v. Hudson's Bay Company.

(C) How it may be made for the Recovery of the Penalty.

[1. ]F a corporation that hath power by charter or prescription to See (A. 2) make by-laws, makes a by-law, and a penal fum for nonperformance thereof to be recovered by distress, &c. this is good. there. -Co. 5. Clark's case, 64.]

pl. 1. and the notes S. P. feems admitted; but if a by-law imposes a penalty upon a township, it is ill; for it ought to be upon every several person, and not to lay it upon all, and levy it upon any particular person. 3 Lev. 48, 49. Mich. 33 Car. 2. C. B. Weils v. Cotterell.——But a by-law to levy fines by diffress and sale of goods is illegal and void; and judgment accordingly. 3 Lev. 281, 282. Pasch. 2 W. & M. in C./B. Clerk, 7. Tucker. _____ 2 Vent. 182, 183. S. C. adjudged.

[2. So if it be limited to be recovered by action of debt. š. 64.]

[3. So the penalty may be recovered by action of debt, without fimitation. Co. 5. 64.]

[4. If an ordinance be made by the common-council in London, that a certain thing shall not be done upon pain of forfeiture of a certain Jum, to be recovered by the chamberlain of London by action of debt, this is good; because the chamberlain is their public officer. Co. 5. Chamberlain of London, 63. pet Curiam resolved.]

[5. If a corporation that hath power by charter or prescription to make by-laws, makes a by-law, and limits a penal sum to be forfeited for non-performance; this cannot be levied by distress,

b. 63. b. Mich. 32 🏖 33 El. B.R. the S. C.

A by-law without, a prescription to do it, or limitation by the by-law so the was made by Co. 5. Clark, 64. admit D. 15 El. 321. 23.]

of a court baton, that so many inhabitants within the manor should be chosen annually by the bounge we serve as field-recoves within the manor, and that if any so chosen should refuse, he should forfeit 101. The which should be levied by distress. In trespass for taking a distress, the defendant justified; but exception was taken, because he had not prescribed to levy the penalty by distress; but after several arguments, it was adjudged to be well enough; because the prescription being for the by-law, and the by-law itself ordaining a distress, it is the same thing as if the prescription had appointed the distress; and judgment for the desendant. Ld. Rayen. Rep. 91. Trin. 8 W. 3. C. B. Lambert v. Thornton.

*[317]

12 Mod. 669. Hill. 23 W. 3. the City of London v. Wood, S.C. at Guildhall, coram Holt, Ward, and Hatfell, and held accordingly; with the arguments of the judges at farge.

6. The mayor and commonalty of London may make a by-law, and limit the penalty to be forfeited to themselves, because there is no way to inforce obedience but by punishment, which must necessarily be either pecuniary or corporal, as imprisonment, which is not legal, unless there be a custom to warrant it; and the direct end the law seeks, is no more than obedience, and they might sue for the penalty in the court of the mayor and aldermen if the mayor could be severed and held before the aldermen, which he cannot, for it is his court, and the stile of it is coram majore, so that he is an integral part, and therefore he would be both plaintiff and judge; resolved by Holt Ch. J. Ward Ch. B. &c. 1 Salk. 397. pl. 3. at Guildhall, Mar. 2. 1701. Wood v. the Mayor and Commonalty of London.

(D) Pleadings.

Mo. 75. pl. 205. Scarling v. Criett, S.C. adjudged; and there another rea-Ion is given, viz. because that is not alleged that the by-law was made, ex affensu omnium tementium neque majoris partis, but ex assensu eligrum tezentium.

In 2d, deliverance, a custom of a manor was set forth for making of by-laws, and that a by-law was made that no tenant, &c. of the manor from thenceforth should keep his cattle within the several fields of the manor by by-herds, nor could put any of the exencalled draught oxen there before St. Peter's Day, upon forseiture of 20 s. But judgment was given against the conusance, because he pleaded, that it was presented coram sectatoribus, and does not show their names. 2dly, The penalty appointed by the by-law was 20s. and he shews that it was abridged to 6 s. 8 d. and so the penalty demanded, and for which the distress was taken, is not maintained by the by-law; and a pain certain ought not to be altered. 3dly, He shews that it was presented that the plaintist had kept his draught oxen, whereas he ought to have alleged the same in matter in sact, that he did keep, &c. 3 Le. 7. pl. 21. Mich. 7 Eliz. C. B. Scarning v. Cryer.

2. Where there is a custom in a manor for the homage to make by-laws when necessity requires, whether it ought to be set forth that there was necessity for it at the time when made? See 3 Le. 38., pl. 63. Mich. 15 Jac. the arguments in Ld. Cromwell's case.

3. By

3. By a custom for the master and company of shoomakers of the city of Exeter to make by-lagus, they made a law, that no person, not being of their fraternity, should make or offer to sell, &c. shoes within the city er county of . Exeter, or any other wares pertaining to the said art, under pain of forfeiting to the master, &c. for every such offence, fuch fum as should be affessed by the master and wardens, &c. not exceeding 40 s. and if he shall refuse to pay the same, upon proof made of the breach of this order, it should be lawful for the master, &c: to distrain; and so shews, that the plaintiff, being an inhabitant in the city of Exeter, and no brother of the society, did make shoes, &c. and that a fine of 33 s. 4 d. was imposed on him for the said offence, of which he paid part, but refused to pay the rest, and thereupon the defendant distrained, &c. Upon demurrer to this plea it was adjudged ill, because the defendant had exceeded the custom alleged in the extent of the bylaw; for the custom was, to make by-laws for the better government of the company of shoemakers of the city of Exeter; but the by-law is, that none shall make or sell any shoes within the city or county of Exeter, which is not warranted by the custom, and in this likewise they have exceeded their power in the thing prohibited, for it is not to restrain a man from using the art of a shoemaker in the city, but it is to restrain them generally from making shoes, and that extends to making shoes for himself, which is void. It is void likewise as to the restraining persons from doing many things which are to be done by other artificers, as lasts, which are to be made by the last-maker, and awls by the smith, &c. The penalty likewise imposed by this by-law is not warranted by the custom or by-law, because that ought to be expressed, that the court might be judge of the reasonableness of it, but here no certain penalty is set down, for that is left to the discretion of the master and wardens, &c. And, lastly, the defendants have distrained before their time, for they ought not to do it before refusal to pay, and proof thereof made, which ought to be by verdict, and not before the master and wardens. Adjudged that the plea was not good. Bridgm. 139. Trin. 16 Jac. Wood v. Searle.

4. A by-law was made, that every one elected to the livery of the company of leatherfellers, who had not been guardian of the yeomanry before, should pay to the use of the seciety 25 l. And in debt the plaintiffs shew the election of the defendant to be one of the livery, with apt averments and due notice given to him. The defendant pleaded the custom of the city of London, that no man, not being free of the city, can be elected to the livery of any society, and that he is not free. The plaintiffs deny the custom, et hoc paratis sunt verificare. The defendant demurred, and shewed, that the plaintiffs ought to conclude their plea to the country; but Curia contra; because the custom ought to be tried by the certificate of the recorder; and judgment for the plaintiff. 2 Jo. 149. Pasch.

33 Car.

[318]

- 33 Car. 2. B. R. Leatherseilers Company of London v. Beecon.
- 5. The alleging a by-law to be made by the steward of the menor with the consent of the homage is ill; for the by-laws ought to be made by the homage; per tot. Cur. 3 Lev. 48. Trin. 33 Car. 2. C. B. Wells v. Cotterell.
- 6. In replevin the defendant justified under a custom to make by-laws, and to distrain for the penalty. The plaintiff replied, de injuria sua propria absque tali causa, &c. Upon a demurrer this replication was held good by all the justices, practer Levins, without a particular traverse of the custom. 3 Lev. 48. Trin. 33 Car. 2. C. B. Wells v. Cotterell.

For more of By-Laws in general, see Common, Corporation, Courts, Trade, and other proper titles.

Canons.

(A) Good. And the Force of them.

1. F a canon be against the common law it is void. Arg. Roll Godb. 163. R. 454. cites if H. 4. 7 H. 8. and that the common pl. 228. law shall not be altered by the canon law, cites 5 Rep. Cawdry's Jac. C. B. tale. the S. P. by Coke Ch. J. in case of Candiet v. Plomer.

2. 25 H. 8. cap. 19. f. 1. Enacts, that the clergy shall not presume to claim, or put in ure, any constitutions or canons; nor shall enact, promulge, or execute any such canons or ordinances in their convocations, (which always shall be assembled by authority of the king's writ) unless the clergy may have the king's woyal affent and Vicence to make, promutge, and execute such canons and ordinances, upon pain of every one of the clergy doing contrary, and being thereof convict, to suffer imprisonment, and make fine at the king's will.

3. S. 2. No canons stall be made or put in execution within this realm by authority of the convocation, which shall be repugnant to the king's prerogative, or the customs, laws, or statutes of this realm.

4. The king, without parliament, may make orders and confti- 4 Inft. 323. tutions to bind the clergy, and may deprive them if they obey not; cap. 74. but they cannot make any constitutions without the king. Cro.

J. 37. per omnes J. &c. Trin. 2 Jac. in pl. 13.

5. Resolved, that the canons of the church made by the convocation and the king, without parliament, shall bind in all matters ecclefiastical as well as an act of parliament; for they say, that by the common law every bishop in his diocese, archbishop in his of the king province, and convocation house in the nation, may make canons to bind within their limits. When convocation makes canons of things appertaining to them, and the king confirms them, they canons for shall bind all the realm. Mo: 783. pl. 1083. Trin. 4 Jac. in canci with the assistance of the 2 chief justices and chief baron. v. Smith.

The convocation, with the licence and affent under the great feal, may make regulation of the church, and that as well concerning laicht at ecclesiastics; per Vaughan Ch. J. 2 Vent. 44. in case of Grove v. Dr. Elliot.—And Tays, that so is Lindwood; and if in making new canons they confine themselves to church matters, it is all that is required of them. Ibid.

6. Canons made by the pope and allowed here, yet unless they were allowed by parliament were not good. Arg. Roll R. 454. per Dr. Martin, Hill. 14 Jac. in the exchequer-chamber.

7. Where there is a special custom for the chusing church- Jo. 439. pl. wardens, the canons (viz. that the parson shall have the election 4. Trin. 15 of Car. B. R. Cç Vol. IV.

Evelin's of one) cannot alter it, especially in London, where the parson and church-wardens are a corporation to purchase lands and demisely.— mile their lands. Cro. J. 532. pl. 15. Pasch. 17 Jac. B. R. Warmer's case.

Anon. but is S. C.——Noy 139. Mich. 4 Jac. C. B. Anon. S. P. accordingly, and Coke Ch. J. faid, that the canon is to be intended where the person had nomination of a churchwarden before the making of the canon.——Cro. J. 670. pl. 9. Trin. 21 Jac. B. R. Jermyn's case, it was beld a good custom for the parishioners to chast a parish clerk, and that the canon cannot take it away.—Godb. 163. pl. 228. Pasch. 8 Jac. C. B. Candict v. Plomer, S. P. accordingly.

• [ 320 ]

8. The canons are the ecclefiaftical laws of the land, but shall not bind here unless received, as appears by stat. 25 H. 8. 21. and the stat. de bigamis, and the stat. of Merton, as to one born before marriage, though by the canon he was legitimate, yet by our law he is not; per cur. Jo. 160. Trin. 3 Car. B. R.

9. The canons made 1571 in queen Elizabeth's time, and 21 Jac. being confirmed by Q. Eliz. and K. Jac. are good by the flat. 25 H. 8. so long as they do not impugn the common law or prerogative of the king, and before the 25 H. 8. 19. the ecclesial-ticks might make canons without the king, but are by that statute restrained; but fince that statute they may make canons with the affent of the king, so long as they are not contrary to the laws of the land, or derogatory of the king's prerogative. 2 Lev. 222. Trin. 30 Car. 2. B. R. Cory v. Pepper.

Ld. Raym. 10. Ecclesiastical persons are subject to the canons. Those of Rep. 449. 1640 have been questioned, but no doubt was ever made as to those S. P. by Holt Ch. J. of 1603; per cur. 1 Salk. 134. Pasch. 11 W. 3. B. R. the Bi-in S. C. fhop of St. David's v. Lucy.

But undoubtedly the canons of 1603 do not bind the laiety; by the ch. justice. 2 Barnard. Rep. in B. R.
353. Mich. 7 Geo. 2.

11. All the clergy are bound by the canons confirmed only by 238. S. C. the king; but they must be confirmed by the parliament to bind the laity; per cur. Carth. 485. Pasch. 11 W. 3. B. R. The Bishop of St. David's v. Lucy.

Leity without the consent of the civil legislative power. 2 Salk. 412. Hill. 1 Ann. B. R. Manhess v. Burdet.—Ibid. 672. S. C. —Not without an act of parliament; per Ld. Keeper, Mich. 1700. Wins.'s Rep. 32. Cox's case.——Resolved that the canon law obliges not the subjects of this realm, unless it be incorporated into the common law by act of parliament, or received time out of mind, are and then it becomes part of the common law. Ld. Raym. Rep. 7. Trin. 6 W. & M. in case of Philips v. Bury.

2 Salk. 672,
673. S. P.
12. In the primitive church the laity were present at all is nods. When the empire became christian, no canon was made without the emperor's consent; the emperor's consent included that of the people, he having in himself the whole legislative power, which our kings have not; therefore if the king and clery make a canon, it binds the clergy in re ecclesiastica; but it does not bind laymen; they are not represented in convocation; their consent is neither asked nor given. 2 Salk. 412. pl. 2. Hill. 1 Ann. B. R. Matthews v. Burdett.

13. No

13. No canons, fince 1603, can proprio vigore bind laymen; per Holt Ch. J. 6 Mod: 190. Trin. 3 Ann. B. R. in case of Britton v. Standish.

agreed that more ancient might. Ibid.

14. Declaration in prohibition, which fets forth the statute 7 & 8 W. 3. cap. 35. and further, that lay-people are not punish- Mich. 1736. able by canons; that the plaintiffs, at the promotion of the defendant, were articled against in court christian, for that the v. Crost. plaintiffs were clandestinely married without publishing banns or licence, and between the hours of 1 and 8 in the morning, contrary to the canons. Then alleges that, if any, this is a temporal offence, and punishable by the said statute, and the usual averment

MS. Rep. Midd!éton and his wife

of proceeding in the spiritual court contrary to the prohibition of this court. The defendant by plea denies he has proceeded in the spiritual court, prout; and that the canons are in force to bind lay-people, &c. Demurrer to the plea, and joinder in demurrer. Now this term Ld. Hardwicke Ch. J. pronounces the resolution of the court. The questions that have been made in this case were, first, whether by the canons of 1603, laypersons are punishable? 2dly, If lay-persons cannot be punished by those canons, whether the ecclesiastical court has any jutildiction in this case by virtue of any ancient canons and constitutions? 3dly, Supposing they have a jurisdiction, whether it is not taken away by the operation of stat. 7 & 8 W. 3.? I shall subdivide these questions into 2; first, Whether the canons of 1603, relating to clandestine marriages, do affect the present case? 2dly, Supposing lay-persons are included in the words of those canons, whether they are binding against laymen? 'The 62d canon only relates to the punishment of the minister who marries persons without a faculty or licence. The 101, 102, 103 canons relate to the manner and conditions of granting licences, and that the marriage shall be in the parish church or chapel where one of the parties dwell, and that between the hours of 8 & 12 in the forenoon. The 104th contains an exception, as to parents consent, to those in a state of widowhood; and that every licence that has not the preceding requisites shall be void, and the parties marrying by virtue thereof shall be subject to the punishments appointed for clandestine marriages. None of these canons, except the last, affect the persons contracting, and that is with regard to those who marry under colour of an irregular licence, which is void; but that is not the present case; for here is no licence nor publication of banns; so these canons do not extend to lay-persons in the present case. But 2dly, Supposing they had a jurisdiction in the present case, whether the authority by which these canons were made can bind the laity? canons are confirmed by the king under the great feal. regard to this question, there is some variety of opinions in our law-books; but I always understood that the canons of 1603 did not bind the laity, for want of a parliamentary authority. It was admitted by Serj. Wright, that these canons did not bind the laity proprio vigore, but that they were declarative of ancient canons which had immemorially been received and incorporated into the law; and we are all of opinion, that the canons of 1603 do not proprio vigore bind the laity, though many provisions are contained in these canons, which will bind the laity as declarative of the common law. The ancient councils which composed these canons in the first ages of the church, were a mixed assembly, confisting partly of lay and partly of ecclesiastical persons; but it is uncertain how they were convened, whether by election or otherwise; and Spelman, though a learned work, does not settle it. But by the fundamental principles of our constitution, no new law can be made but by the united authority of parliament, Parl. Rot. H. 6. 12 Co. 74. That the parliament consists of the 3 estates of the realm, 4 Inst. And that the whole commons are represented in parliament. By reason of this it is said that every person's consent is to every act of parliament; but in the constituting and making of canons there is only the sanction and authority of one part of the legislature, viz. the king. The original obligation of acts of parliament did not arise from the actual consent of every person, but from an implied consent; for it is an actual representation of the whole people. The individuals could not with convenience affemble, therefore by necessity it was qualified, and made a representative body. It is a new notion that the people are represented in convocation, and is contrary to the writs of convocation, which is convocari facias totum clerum vestrius provinciæ, which imports that the clergy are assembled together, and only the clergy of either province are either present in person or by representation. 4 Inst. 322. There is indeed a difference between the old canons and the new provincial The canons in the first ages of the church bound all the subjects of the empire, as well lay as ecclesiastical; but the binding force over laymen arose because the supreme legislative power was vested in the emperor, who gave the force and authority to such laws. Justinian's Inst. 1 lib. s. 16. the whole power of making laws devolved upon the emperor. The reasoning in the +Sup.pl.12. case of + Matthews against Burdett, 2 Salk. 673. is of great weight, though no resolution was ever given, and the reason was, one of the parties died. It was infifted at the bar, that the confent of the people was included in the authority of the king to confirm canons; but that cannot be; for where there is an authority to make laws of a binding force, there is a like authority to impose taxes: these things are inseparable; but it was never allowed that the king, by virtue of his sole authority, could impose taxes, and the clergy could never charge any persons with any burthens or impositions but themselves. The clergy in convocation cannot create a new fee, and yet to suppose they can make a law binding upon the laity, is abfurd. The best rule to judge of the validity of their canons, is from the constant usage fince the reformation. At that time, upon the change of the national religion, great alterations were made as to the form of prayer, and the rites and ceremonies to be observed in the reformed religion. All these alterations were established by act of parliament. 12

Cc2

[ 322 ]

parliament. The clergy did not think their own constitutions, though in a matter of ecclesiastical nature, were binding upon the laity without the aid and affistance of the whole legislature of the realm. It was insisted at the bar, that the reason of their acts of parliament was to inforce these alterations by civil sance tions and temporal penalties: that indeed was one, but not the only reason; for even all the regulations at the time of the reformation, even the most minute, were established by act of parliament. It was afferted at the bar, that the power of the convocation of making law is co-extensive to their jurisdiction. This is carrying it much too far; for should this argument prevail, then, in all matters in which the ecclesiastical court has jurisdiction, new laws and measures of justice might be instituted: as the ecclesiastical court has jurisdiction of marriages, they might, by laws of their own making, alter the degrees of confanguinity, and make those marriages unlawful which are now lawful: by this means the common law relating to heirship might be changed. The same holds good with respect to tithes, and to every part of their jurisdiction; so that if this objection was to be allowed in its full latitude, it would produce very pernicious consequences, and induce innovations upon the law. If this power had been vested in them, they need not have resorted to parliament to have the bastard eigne legitimate according to the; canon law, when espousals were had afterwards, but by their own authority they might have done it; and that memorable saying of the lords, nolumus leges Angliæ mutari, would have been unnecessary, 2 Roll Abr. 586. pl. 35. The case in Roll Abr. 909. pl. 5. letter (I) seems a strong case for the validity of these canons; but yet, when considered, is of no authority. is the canon relating to what sum shall be deemed bona notabilia, which fixes it to 5 l. and the case says, it seems that this canon has changed the law, if that was otherwise before; insomuch that the grant of administration belongs to the ecclesiastical law, and our law but takes notice of their law in that, and for that they may alter it at their pleasure; NEEDHAM'S CASE. The same case is reported in 8 Rep. but not a word of this there mentioned. Perkins, pl. 489. But this case, as reported by Roll, is contrary to law, and no foundation for such an opinion. There is indeed a positive declaration of law with regard to this matter; but we find that it has been the parliamentary notion, that no power of making laws, binding upon the subject, is vested in any but themselves. In the statute 25 H. 8. cap. 19. it is recited, Par. 1. s. 2. That whereas divers constitutions and canons, which heretofore have been enacted, be thought not only to be much prejudicial to the king's prerogative, and repugnant to the laws and statutes of this realm, but also much onerous to his highness and his subjests; therefore the said constitutions are committed to the examination of 32 commissioners, to abolish or retain such as they shall think worthy. This statute, with regard to the power of appointing commissioners, was continued 35 H. 8. cap. 16. It is to be observed by this act, that both the king and clergy thought it necessary to have the concurrence of parliament in the abrogating or retaining those ancient canons. 2dly, That whatever alterations happened in the canon law by the act of those commissioners have their binding force by virtue of this all of parliament; and therefore whatever of the canon law remains, that is not contrary to the statutes and usages of this realm, are confirmed by act of parliament. As to judicial opinions, the case of 20 H, 6. 13. is a strong authority with our opinion. Brooke, tit. Ordinary i. which is a true state of it. Newton J. says the ordinary has power to make holydays and fasting-days, and to make constitutions provincial to bind the clergy, but not to bind the temporalty; nor can they allow or disallow the king's letters patents in their convocation. E. 3. 44. b. Catesby there argues, that the acts of convocation are as binding upon the clergy as acts of parliament to the laity. Every abbot, prior, and other ecclesiastical person, is either a privy or party in convocation. The CASE OF THE PRIOR OF LEEDS, before, is not mistaken by Brooke, The old edition is le temporal. Newton J. gives his opinion at large, and fays that the power of the convocation does not bind the temporal rights of the clergy themselves. It appears from Mo. 755. 2 Cro. 37: that the king may make ordinances without parliament to bind the clergy, and if they obey not, may by his commissioners deprive them. This is the ancient prerogative of the crown, as appears by those books; therefore the convocation, which is by the affent and confirmation of the king, may make canons to bind the clergy; and so is the case of THE BISHOP OF ST. DAVID'S V. LUCY, I Salk. 134. Carth, 485. where it is faid by Holt, that all the clergy are bound by the canons confirmed only by the king; but they must be confirmed by the parliament to bind the laity; and the notes of Raymond and Eyre Ch. J. agree with the report in Carth. In the case of Briton v. Stan-DISH, * Mo, Ca. 190. Holt, agreeable to his former opinion, See Prohibi-, held that no canon, unless anciently received, though in full convocation, can proprio vigore bind laymen; and of the like opinion was the court of C. B. in the case of Davis, Mich. Term. 5 Geo. 1. which was upon teaching school without licence in prohibition. In opposition to this opinion has been cited the case + At Preio- of + BIRD v. SMITH, Mo. 783. where it is said that the canons of the church made by the convocation and the king, without parliament, shall bind in all matters ecclesiastical as well as an act of parliament. The case in itself is of a very extraordinary nature, and such as no relief would be given to in chancery at this time; besides, it is said in the case, that every bishop in his diocese, archbishop in his province, may make canons to bind within their limits. Now there is no colour for this. But forther it is not expressly said that the canons will bind laymen; upon the whole, it is not of very great authority. The next opinion In the case is ‡ Vaugh. 327. where it is said, a lawful canon is the law of the kingdom as well as an act of parliament. This is only a loose saying, and not of any great weight. The next case is § Grove AND ELLIOT, 2 Vent. 41. where Vaughan fays, that the canons gative (I. f) 6.

Cc 3

• 6 Mod. tion (C) pl. 10.

of Hill v. Good. At tit. Prohibition (C) pl. 5.

of 1603 are of force, though never confirmed by act of parliament; that the convocation, with the licence and affent of the king, under the great seal, may make canons for the regulation of the church, and that as well concerning laicks as ecclesiastical persons; and so is Linwood. This was upon a motion without much consideration, and Tyrrell J. was of a contrary opinion, the other two judges were filent about it, and this was of a point not in judgment before them, and only the fingle opinion of Vaughan. The next question is, Supposing lay persons cannot be punished by the canons of 1603, then, whether the ecclesiastical court has any jurisdiction, with regard to the present question, by the ancient canons? And we are all of opinion, that with regard to the marrying without licence, or publishing the banns, they have such jurisdiction; that by the statute 25 H. 8. cap. 21. concerning impositions that used to be paid to the see of Rome, in the preamble, that the king is bound by no laws but such as the people have taken at their free liberty, by their own consent, to be used among them, and have bound themselves, by long use and custom, to the observance of the same; and in s. 8. that all children, procreated after solemnization of any marriage to be had by virtue of such licences, shall be reputed legitimate. That in the statute 35 H. 8. cap. 16, authority is given to the king, during life, to name 32 persons to examine all causes, and to establish all such laws ecclesiastical as shall be thought convenient; from hence it follows, that many canons that had been immemorially used, and not abolished by those commissioners, are part of the common law, and as such have their binding force. Ch. J. Hale in a manuscript says, and very truly, that it was the civil power that gave the ecclesiastical jurisdiction its life and vigour. And it appears from Linwood, that clandestine marriages were punished by canons which had been received, and that the punishment of a clergyman for marrying persons without licence, or publishing banns, was suspension per triennium. In the CASE OF * MATTINGLEY v. MARTIN, Sir Will. Jones, 259. it was expressly * At Prohidetermined in the 2d point of that case, that if any marry without bition (F) publishing banns or licence, which dispenses with it, they are citable for it in the ecclesiastical court, and no prohibition lies. This is an authority in point with our opinion upon this question. The 3d question, Whether this jurisdiction is taken away by stat. 7 & 8 W. 3. and is only now of temporal cognizance? As to this, we are all of opinion that this statute has not taken away any ecclefiastical jurisdiction that was subsisting before; but that, notwithstanding, the spiritual court may proceed to inslict cenfures for clandestine marriages. In the case of + Corey v. Pep- + At Problem PER, 2 Vent. 222. a consultation was granted, that was for teaching school without a licence; and suggested the statute of uniformity, 13 Car. 2. which gives a penalty of 5 l. in such case. † Carth. 464. is contrary to Corey and Pepper; and in Matthews 1 Chedwick and Burdet no resolution; but in the case of teaching school v. Hughes. without a licence, the 51. is inflicted as a punishment for the master (A) some offence; but in the present case the 10 l. is not inflicted as pl. 4. Cc4 a punishbition (U) Pl. 25.

[324]

[325]

a punishment for the offence of clandestine marriages, but collaterally for the better securing the revenue of the crown, and therefore it does not contradict the maxim nemo debet bis puniri pro uno delicto; for the prosecution upon the statute is as the statute de articulis cleri mentions it, diverso intuitu ventilatur; in which case the ecclesiastical jurisdiction is not taken away; and even in acts of parliament a double punishment is inflicted diverso intuitu, as in the statute of 18 Eliz. concerning the reputed fathers of bastards, the offender may be punished for the crime, and also may be proceeded against to indemnify the parish. The argument generally used when the temporal power has annexed a punishment to such an offence, that the spiritual jurisdiction is taken away, is, that their proceedings are pro salute animæ; but those are meer words; for the proceeding is really to punish the offender for the crime, and to have effect as fuch. Besides, it may be argued, that marrying without publishing banns is confirmed by act of parliament; for the statute of uniformity confirms the rubrick, and this is therein contained, Supposing this pecuniary penalty in the stat. 7 & 8 W. 3. would have taken away the ecclesiastical jurisdiction in this respect, yet it is considerable whether this act of parliament shall repeal a power given them by a former act of parliament; for in this act of 8 W. 3. there are no negative words, so both the acts may stand together. There is no notice taken of this statute of 8 W. 3. of the act of uniformity. Upon the whole, we are of opinion that the ecclesiastical court has a jurisdiction to proceed to impose ecclesiastical censures upon any persons marrying without publishing banns or licence; therefore the prohibition must stand as to the plaintiff's not being married between the hours of 8 & 12, that being fingly enjoined by the canons of 1603; and that a confultation is awarded as to the residue. It is neceffary to grant a prohibition as to that; for the ecclesiastical judge may make it a clandestine marriage singly upon that point, viz. not marrying between the hours of 8 & 12.

For more of Canons in general, see Prerogative (Y. e) Prohibition, and other proper titles.

Certainty in Pleadings.

(A) Requisite in what Cases.

1. PLEADINGS of every statute, grant, pardon, custom, &c. in which is exception, foreprize, condition, or thing amounting to it, these shall be pleaded expressly. Br. Pleading, pl. 124. cites 8 H. 4. 7.

2. Plea

- 2. Plea in abatement of the writ shall be certain to every common intent; per Juin & Gascoign. And it is said elsewhere that plea in bar suffices, if it be good, to one common intent; but declaration shall be good to every intent. Br. Presentation, pl. 32. cites 14 H. 6. 24.
- 3. In entry in nature of assiste, the tenant said that J. N. was seised and infeoffed him, and after disseised him, and infeoffed the plaintiff; upon which the tenant entered. The demandant said, that fine was levied between him and this same J. N. of the same land, by which J. N. acknowledged to him, &c. before which fine the tenant had nothing of the feoffment of J. N. and did not traverse the disseisin nor the seoffment; and held only argument to prove that the tenant disselfed the demandant; whereupon he faid that the fine was levied as above, by which he was seised till by the tenant differsed, absque hoc that the tenant any thing had of the feoffment of J. N. before the fine. Yelverton said J. N. infeossed him before the fine, prist, and so to issue. Br. Traverse per, &c. pl. 86. cites 21 H. 6. 12.

4. In assise of rent the plaintiff made title to the rent by agreement made to P. by which the party granted the rent out of the manor of B. to be paid at S. dated the day, year, and place abovementioned, where three places were named; and by the best opinion the pleading is not good, for the uncertainty. Quod nota. Br. Plead- [326] ings, pl. 156. cites 32 H. 6. 15.

5. In annuity of 10s. the plaintiff counted by prescription. The defendant said that he held the advowson of B: of him by the 10s. which is the same rent now in demand; judgment of the writ, and he was put to answer over; for it is only argument. Br. Traverse per, &c. pl. 23. cites 33 H. 6. 27.

6. In precipe quod reddat the tenant pleaded a release of the demandant by name, of all the land which he had of the gift of one R. He ought to aver of what land R. was seised, and released, &c.

Br. Pléadings, pl. 92. cites 2 E. 4. 29.

7. But where a man releases all his right in 3 acres in B. called G. which beretofore were H.'s, there he need not plead such averment; for he has given the land a name, and therefore there the release is good, though the land was never H.'s; and so a diversity between generalty and specialty. Ibid.

8. If in affife of an office a man pleads admittance to the office, he need not say that the office is void by resignation, &c. but 'tis sufficient to say that the office voided, and A.B. was admitted by the justices of bank. Br. Pleadings, pl. 122. cites 8 E. 4. 22.

9. If a man be bound upon condition to suffer J. N. to enjoy all Br. Pleadthe lands which one J. had, he need not shew how much the lands cites S. C. quere; for he cannot have notice thereof. But where I am bound upon condition to infeoff A. of all my lands which were J. Ns. there I must shew how much the lands were. Per Yelverton, if you be bound to deliver to W. N. all the money in your purse, you shall shew how much; for you had the best notice. Br. Conditions, pl. 73. cites 9 E. 4. 15.

Certainty in Pleadings.

10. In trespass he who pleads deposition of an abbot plaintiff, after the last continuance, shall shew before whom, &c. Quod nota bene; for it shall be written to him to try it; and in debt brought against executors, who plead refusal, he was compelled to shew before whom, who said before his own commissary, for it was the archbishop of Canterbury, and then well. ings, pl. 37. cites 9 E. 4. 24 & 33.

Br. Lieu, pl. 32. cites S. C. In Br. it is as here (specre);

but in the though in the year-

edit. 1586.

11. Debt upon an obligation, upon condition that if the defendant does release, set over and avoid the wages of a * speere of Callice of 18d. per diem, at the pleasure of the lieutenant of Callice, by such a day, that then, &c. and said that at D. in the county of Kent, at the pleasure of the lord Hastings, lieutenant, &c. be set over, &c. before the day, &c. Jenny said he shall shew where Callice was. And per Littleton J. if a man be bound to make feoffment of the it is (squire) manor of D. and pleads that he made the feoffment, he shall shew books of the where the manor is; for it cannot be made but upon the land. Br. Pleadings, pl. 31. cites 15 E. 4. 14.

several editions it is (speere); but it being added in the year-books (and for 2 valets) it seems it should be (squire.)

Br. Lieu, pl. 32. cites 5. C.

12. Contra if he be bound to release, there he need not shew where the manor or land is, but he shall shew at what place be released by reason of the visne. Br. Pleadings, pl. 31. cites 15 E. 4. 14.

Br. Lieu, pl. 32. cites S. C.

13. And if I am bound to make a lease of the manor, or grant the office of parkership, it is sufficient for me to say, that I leased or granted at such a place, but it is not material where the manor or office is; per Brian. Ibid.

14. Trespass of 10 acres of wheat; per Pigot, it should be 10 acres sown with wheat; per Catesby, it is called 10 acres of wheat vulgarly, and so well; to which it was not answered; quære. Br. Pleadings, pl. 107. cites 17 E. 4. 1.

15. In debt upon buying of a borse, that he did not buy is no plea; for it is only nihil debet argumentatively. Br. Traverse per, &c.

pl. 275. cites 22 E. 4. 29.

[ 327 ] S. P. Br. Count, pl. 63. (bis) cites 3 B. L 23.

16. Note, it is said, that a return and a declaration shall be certain to every intent, and therefore because he returned rescous made at B. by M. by command of N. and did not she with place of command, the return is ill, and the sheriff was amerced; but it is faid elsewhere, that a bar is good if it be good to a common intent; note the diversity. Br. Count, pl. 58. cites 3 H. 7. 11.

17. In tresposs of goods the desendant pleaded, that the place was bis freebold, and that he took the goods there damage feafant; the desendant was sorced to set down the land in certain, because he made title to the goods; so if he makes title to the land by feeffment; but otherwise if he pleads merely his freehold. Heath's Max. 64. cites 5 H. 7. 28.

18. Note, where a man pleads, that the intestate had goods moveable in several dioceses, he ought to shew in what place, and what goods they are, so that the court may adjudge whether they are goods moveable or not, and shall not stay till the mate ter be traveried, and then to shew it in the rejoinder; per Rede,

Fineur,

Fineux, and Brian, but Keble, serjeant, contra. Br. Pleadings,

pl. 165. cites 10 H. 7. 19.

19. In trespass, the defendant justified the detaining of the goods in pledge by accord of the plaintiff, who was indebted to him in 101. and good, without shewing the cause of the debt. Br. Pleadings, pl. 44. cites 21 H. 7. 13.

20. Error was assigned, because it was pleaded that the defendant, at the vill of Westminster, in the country of Middlesex, released, &c. and after shewed at another time another thing to be in the vill of Westminster, and did not say aforesaid, nor in what county, and the justices held, that it shall be intended in the same vill and county, because it was mentioned in the record before. Br. Pleadings, pl. 49, cites 21 H. 7. 30.

21. A. lets a house to B. with several utensils to B. for years, Kelw. 153. rendering rent; the rent is arrear; A brings debt for this rent; Mich. 1 H. and counts upon this leafe, and does not show in this count, the 8. Falter v. certainty of what the utenfils were; yet it is good. So adjudged Nokes, S.C. and affirmed in error. The rent in this case issues only out of Jenk. 196. pl. 3. the house.

22. General pleading, though in matters of fact, is disallowed; as a covenant to make an estate by the advice of J. S. he must shew what advice be gave. Hob. 295. by Hobart Ch. J. cites 26 H. 8. 1. and 16 E. 4. 9.

23. A plea in bar is either to force the plaintiff to make a replication, or to compel him to come to an issue, and therefore need not shew every thing certainly, for, peradventure, an issue may not be joined thereupon, but upon the replication. Arg. Pl. C. 28. a. b. Pasch. 4 E. 6.

24. There be 3 kind of certainties; 1st, To a common intent, and that is sufficient in har, which is to defend the party and excuse him. 2dly, A certain intent in general, as in counts, replications, and other pleadings of the plaintiff, that is, to convince the defendant, and so indictments, &c. 3dly, A certain intent in every particular, as in estoppels. Co. Litt. 303. a.

25. Debt upon bond conditioned, that the obligee, on the 18th day of August, 4 Jac. should go from Aldgate in London, to the parish church of Stow-market in Suffolk, within 24 hours. The plaintiff spewed, that he went from Aldgate to the said place, [within , the time,] but because he did not show in his declaration, in what ward Aldgate was, it was held not good. Godb. 160. pl. 223. Mich. 7 Jac. B. R. Crosse v. Cason.

26. A condition that the obligee should enjoy an office according to a grant of letters patents, he must not plead the letters patents in hac verba, but must she we the effect of them, and the enjoying accordingly. Hob. 295. per Hobart Ch. J. Arg. Mich. 15 Jac.

27. An assumptit to pay a sum pro diverses mercimoniis vendițis, is good without mentioning the particular wares in the declaration; but an indebitatus assumpsit is not good, without some general or special confideration mentioned in the declaration. Jenk. 196. pl. 3.

28. The law requires truth and convenient gertainty in counts and pleadings; this certainty ought to be shewn by him, who in intendment tendment of law bas the most certain knowledge of it. Jenk. 305.

[ 328 ]

pl. 79.

Sty. 43, 44. S. C. but judgment till they had seen the record.

29. Trespass, &c. for taking diversa genera apparatuum in cistà ruled to flay prad' existen'. After a verdict on a motion in arrest of judgment, it was agreed, that diversa genera apparatuum were too uncertain of themselves; but being referred to a chest wherein they lay, they were reduced to sufficient certainty; but because 2 chesis were mentioned before, and the apparel was alleged to be in cifta predicta (in the fingular number), so that it appears not in which they were, judgment was given against the plaintiff. All. 9. Pasch. 23 Car. B. R. Vincent v. Fersy.

30. Trespass for breaking his close and eating his grass cum averiis, &c. After verdict, error was brought and affigned, that the declaration was incertain; and Jerman J. said that averia fignifies cattle of several kinds, and is too general to declare upon. But by Roll Ch. J. to which Nicholas and Ask agreed, where the thing itself is in demand, for which the action is brought, as in trover, there it ought to be particularly named, but here the action is brought for damages; and so the judgment was affirmed. Sty. 170. Mich. 1649. Brook v. Brook.

31. Trespass quare clausum fregit, & arbores succidit ad valentiam, &c. Upon demurrer, the plaintiff prayed judgment as to the breaking his close, but as to the cutting the trees, the declaration was insufficient; because not expressed what kind of trees. 1 Vent. 53. Hill. 21 & 22 Car. 2. B. R. Thomlinson v. Hunter.

32. Trespass for entering his house and taking several things, & inter alia unam parcellam pensarum laniarum, anglice a quantity of woollen yarn; after verdict for the plaintiff, and intire damages, judgment was staid for the uncertainty of what quantity una parcella is. 2 Lev. 195. Trin. 29 Car. 2. B. R. Wade v. Hatcher.

33. Debt against an administratrix upon a bond given by the intestate for performance of covenants, reciting, that the plaintiff was possessed of a lease, &c. and that he assigned his interest to the intestate, reserving a yearly rent, and also 200 furze or wood fuggots every year, the defendant pleaded performance; the plaintiff replied, that he had not 200 faggots every year of the intestate, but that 800 faggots were due to him from the intestate, and from the defendant after the death of the intestate for four years; upon a demurrer, the administratrix had judgment, because the plaintiff did not set forth bow many faggots were due in the lifetime of the intestate, and how many after his death; for perhaps the desendant had several matters to plead, viz. one distinct matter as to those not received by the plaintiff in the intestate's life, and another as to those not received after his death. Lutw. 334. 338. Pasch. 4 Jac. 2. Tuckerman v. Tuckerman.

34. In affife and trespass which are general, the law allows the general plea of liberum tenementum, and that is the common bar; but it will not do where there is a special assignment; but the ese of it is to inforce the plaintiff to make his charge certain, and it is only a favourable plea; for the plaintiff may have a title,

title, of lease suppose, consistent with the plea; so if he has fuch a special title, that 'plea affords him an opportunity of shewing it, and liberum tenementum is traversable; and besides, if the plaintiff has any other plea, he may come with a bene et verum est, that it is the defendant's liberum tenementum, and shew his special cause of action; so where the defendant pleads liberum tenementum, he gives a plea traversable; per Powell [329] J. 12 Mod. 508. Pasch. 13 W. 3. in case of Pell v. Garlick.

- 35. Case for these words, you are a whore, and a perjured 2 Lutw. whore; per quod she lost ber marriage. The words being not but that is actionable, but in respect of special loss, therefore that ought to barely as to be shewed certainly, for it is issuable. For where the laying of the words. particular damage is the gift of the action, it ought to be laid specially and certainly, that the defendant may have an opportunity of traverling it; and there is no case where the laying of particular damage is necessary to the maintenance of the action, but it must be laid certainly, and the opinion in Hetley 8. is long since exploded; secus, where the particular damages are not the gift of the action, but only an aggravation. Et quer nihil capiat 12 Mod. 597. Mich. 13 W. 3. Wetherhell v. per billam. Clerkson.
- 36. In covenant, a breach affigned ought to be positive and certain; as where the defendant covenanted that he would difcharge all duties and charges due before Mich. And the plaintiff . assigned for breach, that he did not discharge all duties and charges for which the premises were chargeable; exception was taken that no answer can be given to such a particular charge. And cited Bendl. 62. pl. 110. where the breach was quod tenementum fuit ruindfum & in decafu in diverfis partibus pro defectu reparationis, and bad for the uncertainty; and that he should shew a breach directly within the words of the covenant, was cited Lev. 246. Sed adjornatur. Comyns's Rep. 146. Pasch. 5 Ann. C. B. Dummer v. Birch.
  - 37. Oportet ut res certa deducatur in judicium. See Maxims.
  - Intendment and Implication in Pleadings. What shall be intended, &c.
- I. IN annuity, the plaintiff as dean of S. counted upon prefoription against the parson of Q. and alleged seisin at S. and did not say if it be in the county of N. where the action was brought, nor in what county, neither is it alleged whether S. be a vill or not, and yet well; per cur. for it shall be intended in the same county where the action is brought. Br. Pleadings, pl. 61. cites 39 H. 6. 13.
- 2. As in pracipe quod reddat in B. it is not usual to say in B. in S. P. Br. the county aforesaid, or in trespass in B. for it shall be intended in the fame county. Ibid.

Pleadings, pl. 89. cites 5 E. 4: 138. because the county is expressed before in the writ directed to the sherist, but centra in a plea; for there no county is expressed before, and therefore it ought to be expressed after B. ____Br. Lieu, pl. 52. cites $. C. ____Br. Lieu, &c. pl. 44. cites 39 H. 6. 14.

3. And also it shall be intended to be a vill, if the defendant not tenant does not plead that it is a hamlet, or that there is not any such place, &c. Br. Pleadings, pl. 61. cites 39 H. 6. 13.

Br. Lieu, &c. pl. 44. cites S. C.

4. And where a man pleads that the obligation by which the plaintiff [defendant] was charged, was made by duress at B. he need not say that B. is a vill, nor in what county B. is; for it shall be intended a vill in the same county. And Littleton agreed these cases, and the court awarded that the defendant answer over; quod nota. Ibid.

Jeffors upon the case for stopping of a gutter. The defendant intitled himself by lease for years of a mill, and prescribed in his lessor, and his ancestors to stop for a time to repair the mill, and did not show where the lease was made, and by the reporter it shall be intended where the mill, is, as of attornment, surrender, or tender of money. Br. Lieu, pl. 45. cites 39 H. 6. 52.

Br. Pleadings, pl. 109. eites S. C. 6. In writ against a sheriff for embezzling of a writ, he need not allege that he was sheriff at the time of the embezzling. Br. Action Sur le Case, pl. 100. cites 21 E. 4. 22.

7. So in writ against a gaoler upon escape. Ibid.

8. The wearing of the livery against the statute shall be intended to be where it was given. Br. Lieu, pl. 89. cites 5 Hen. 7. 17.

Br. Wafte, pl. 144. eites S. C. 9. Waste by the prior of B. &c. to the disinheritance of the prior and house of B. and did not say of the aforesaid prior, nor of B. aforesaid, and yet well, per cur for it shall be intended the plaintiff. Br. Pleadings, pl. 163. cites 10 H. 7.5.

For more of Certainty in Pleadings in general, see tit. Amendment and Jenfails; and see the pleadings to the several titles throughout this work.

Fol. 394.

The writ of certiorari is an original writ, and iffues fometimes out of B. R. and lies where the king would be certified of any record [1. IF the record be pleaded in a more base court than that in which which is in it is, the court may grant a certiorari. 4 H. 6. 23.]

* Certiorari.

(A) Certiorari. Out of what Court it ought to issue; and to whom; Et e contra.

or in C. B. or in any other court of record, or before the sheriff and coroners, or of a record before commissioners, or before the escheator; then the king may send that writ to any of the said courts or offices, to certify such record before him in banco, or in the chancery, or before other justices, where the king pleases to have the same certified. F. N. B. 245. (A) Re. Failure de Record, pl. 3. cites S. C. Fitzh. Record, pl. 17. cites S. C.

[2. In

[2. In an information in banco upon the statute of recusants, if the Hob. 135. defendant pleads a conviction at the session of peace in Middlesex, and the plaintiff pleads nul tiel record, the common pleas will grant a held accordcertiorari to the justices of peace to certify them of the record, be- ingly; but cause they shall be certified by the tenor of the record. Hill. 14 Jac. banco, PIE AND TRILL, adjudged, though it was objected that it ought to issue out of chancery, and come by mittimus in banco. Hobart's Reports, 182. the same case; and there afterwards awarded to the justices of gaol delivery.]

pl. 181. S.C. & S.P. if it were to certify the record itself, as upon a writ of error, or a certiorari out of B.R.

to a justice of peace, which removes the very record itself to hold plea upon, there it were otherwise. But it appeared after, that the plea was of a conviction before the justices of gaol-delivery, and so the certiorari and all was void; but a certiorari was awarded de novo to the justices of gaol-delivery. See Trial (E) 1. S. C.

[3. So in conspiracy in banco, upon an inaiciment before justices of peace, if nul tiel record is pleaded, a certiorari shall issue out of * Br. Failer bank, and then process shall issue thereupon, till he hath done de Record, the one or the other, because this is the more base court. * 4 H. 6. 23. b. + 19 H. 6. 19.]

pl. 3. cites In this case defendants have a day given them to bring in the record, and fail; the plaintiff has judgment; this judgment was reversed; for the court of C. B. ought to have awarded a certiorari to the justices of peace, to certify whether they have such a record; for they are an inferior court to the court of C. B. But in this case, where the court is superior, or the jurisdictions equal, day is given to the defendant to have the record in court by a certain day. By the justices of both benches. Jenk. 114. pl. 22.

+ Fitzh. Record, pl. 4. cites S. C. and Mich. 18 H. 6. - Br. Record, pl. 24. cites S. C.

4. Writ issued to the executors of the coroners of N. out of the 2 Hawk. Pl. chancery, to fend all their rolls which were fuch a coroner's, and this seems to be by certiorari, and the rolls were certified in B. R. but Brook says, it seems that they shall come first into the chancery. Br. Certiorari, pl. 9. cites 43 Aff. 40.

C. 290. cap. 27. 1. 42. S. P. and cites S. G.

5. Knivet Ch. J. denied J. S. to have writ to remove indictment out of the court of C. into B. R. for this court never writes if they have nothing before them which may induce them to write, and therefore fent them into chancery to have a writ to bring in the record and the body before them. Br. Certiorari, pl. 8. cites 41 Aff. 22.

6. Trespass in C. B. they are at issue, which passed for the plain- A record tiff at the nisi prius, and the plea is without day by deposition of may be reking E. 4. before the day in bank, there the plaintiff may have a B. R. as certiorari out of the same bank, to bring the record of nisi prius into bank, and then shall have re-summons or re-attachment, as his case lies, to have judgment against the desendant; quod nota. Br. Certiorari, pl. 11. cites 10 E. 4. 13.

well by certiorari out of B. R. as by certiorasi out of chancery, and removal Into B. R. by mittimus; resolved. Ld. Raym. Rep. 216. Pasch. 9 W. 3. Guilliam v. Hardy ..... Ibid. Marg. says, the law is the same in C. B. and was so held by all the judges Hill. 8 & 9 W. 3. 12 C. B.

7. Where the sheriff returns mandavi ballivo talis libertatis, and Br. Retorn it is alleged that there is no such liberty there, certiorari may issue de Brief, el. from the chancery to the treasurer of the exchequer, to certify $. c. the roll of the liberties to the justices, &c. for there are all the liberties inrolled by the stat. W. 2. cap. 30. Br. Certiorari, pl. 13. cites 11 E. 4. 4.

8. Certiorari

8. Certiorari issued to a justice of peace who had taken recognizance, Br. Peace, pl. 11. eites to make him certify it to the king. Br. Certiorari, pl. 10. cites s. c.---2 H. 7. 1. And if he dies having a recognizance in his custody, a certiorari may be directed to his executor or administrator to certify it. 2 Hawk. Pl. C. 290. cap. 27. f. 42.

S. C. cited Arg. Saund. 98. that the point was doubted .--Danv. tit. Certiorari, pl. 4. cites S. C. cites it as adjudged, but vide librum.

9. Debt in C. B. upon a judgment in B. R. The desendant pleaded nul tiel record. The plaintiff in C. B. obtained a certiorari out of the chancery, to send the record thither, which by mittimut might be sent in C. B. It was doubted whether such certiorari was allowable, because the records of B. R. shall not be removed out of that court in any other court, the pleas there being coram rege. Divers precedents were shewed, where such records by mittimus were sent out of that court into C. B. and upon view of the precedents the court was of opinion, that the course of sending them by mittimus was well allowable; sed ad-Cro. C. 297. pl. 7. Hill. 8 Car. B. R. Luttefel v. Lea.

I.ev. 222. S. C. & S. P. inferred by the reporter. — Sid. 329, 330. pl. 11. a note there fays, the usual way of sending the record is by certiorari and mittimus out of chancery to the inserior court, and then it being under the great seal is pleadable there.

10. In debt brought in Bristol upon a bond, the defendant pleads. in bar a judgment in B. R. upon the same bond, and the plaintiff replies nul tiel record, and thereupon issue is joined, quod habetur tale * recordum. The court was of opinion in another term, that the record in B. R. might have been certified to Bristol by cer-S. C. and in tiorari and mittimus. Saund. 97. 99. Mich. 19 Car. Pitt v. Knight.

*[332] Ibid. says that the fame was done in SIR THOMAS KEAD'S case, late theriff of Hertfordhire, where the fine and the cause of impoling it were con-

8. A' fine was imposed on the sheriffs of London and Middlesex; by the justices of peace of the county, and estreated into the exchequer on a mandate from the chief baron, and this being certified into B. R. the court would not fuffer the return to be filed; because the fine being estreated, the order was executed, at least in part, and so as it was not proper for B. R. to intermeddle; for that would be to anticipate the judgment of the exchequer, where the whole matter may be properly determined. 2 Jo. 169. Mich. 33 Car. 2. B. R. The case of the sheriffs of London and Middlesex.

fidered and determined by the barons.

2 Hawk. Pi, C. 287. cap. 27. f. 29. Says that it is faid, that the court of B. R. will never grant a certiorari for a conviction of recu-Гапсу мроп а default at

9. Two justices tendered the oaths appointed by the statute 1 Will. 3. cap. 8. to Dr. Sands, which he refusing, it was certified to the judge of affise, and by him into the exchequer, according to the statute 7 & 8 W. 3. cap. 27. A certiorari was prayed to remove this conviction of recufancy into B. R.: but Holt Ch. J. said it could not be granted, because it would evade the statute; for when it is in B. R. it cannot be sent back again, and the party cannot be proceeded against here; and faid that the case of the duke of York, who was presented upon the fixtute 3 Jac. 1. cap. 4. at the quarter-sessions for not coming to church, church, was the only cause wherein it ever was done. 1 Salk. Sessions, because by the 145. pl. 5. Pesch. 10 W. 3. B. R. Dr. Sand's case. statute, such convictions are to be removed into the exchequer, and from thence process is to be awarded upon them. But the court of B. R. cannot proceed upon them, and therefore will not suffer them to come thither, lest the statute should be evaded.

(B) To what Court it may be granted.

[1. ] F indictments are taken in Pembrokesbire, or Brecknock- Cro. J. shire in Wales, before the justices of the great sessions there, 2 certiorari may be granted out of the king's bench, to the said justices to remove those indictments, because these are but the declarations of the king, which he may remove where he pleases. Mich. 15 Jac. B. R. a certiorari was granted for the indictments of one Collins, and one BARTLET, and one * SIR J. CARY, but granted to the justices there would not return them, upon which the court was of opinion to grant an attachment; but upon the prayer of the attorney-general, a new certiorari was granted. (Quære how the court of king's bench may proceed upon these indictments.)]

484. pl. 1. Trin. 16 Jac. B. R. Sir John Carew's cale, a certiorari was remove indictments of riots taken in Wales, there being divers precedente to that purpose, as the clerk of the crown informed the court. _____ 2 Hawk. Pl. C. 287. cap. 27. f. 25. fays, it feems to be settled, that such a certiorari lies to remove any indictment taken in Wales for a crime not capital, either at the grand-sellions, or at the sessions of the peace; but it is said that it has never been granted to remove an appeal from Wales; neither doth it seem to be clearly settled, that it lies to remove an indictment of selony from thence, for such indictments are never quashed, as indictments for inferior crimes are. Neither do I find it agreed in what manner B. R. shall proceed † on any indicament removed from Wales; but it is said, that an indistment of felony so removed may be tried in the next English county, by force of 26 H. 8. But it seems agreed, that this statute extends not to appeals.

[2. Trin. 16 B. R. it was argued by Jenkins, that a certio- In the court rari does not lie, by reason of the statute of 27 H. 8. & 34 H. 8. by which absolute power in the affirmative is given to the justices there; but notwithstanding this, per totam curiam, those statutes bind not the king, but he may sue where he pleases; and therefore it was ordered, that a return of the said writ should be made by a day, and the clerks said there were many precedents of the same nature, and upon some of them the trial had been in the county next adjoining. Mich. 13 Car. B. R. a certiorari was granted in the case of one Evans, and others, to remove indict- but were of ments of murder taken within one of the 4 new counties, which fo great were counties marchers.]

† [333] of Montgomery, 17 were indiaed of murder done in a quarrei between Herbert and Vaughan, and were imprisoned; power in the county, that a jury could not be got to appear. The court granted a certiorari, and the indictments were returned into B. R. and ordered the trial to be in Shropshire. Lat. 12. Hill. 1 Car. Herbert and Vaughan's

[3. Mich. 9 Car. B. R. A certiorari was granted to remove the Cro.C. 248. indiciments of one Chedle, and others, of petit treason, for the murder of SIR RICHARD BULKLY, which were taken in Anglesey, at the end of though this be in North-Wales, and a county of itself, at the Sonthley v. time of the making of the statute of Rutland. And the court note the laid, that although they were not yet resolved that it could be tried in statute of VOL. IV. the

7 Car. B.R. Price, says,

26 H. 8. * Fol. 395. cap. 6. allows that indictments may be in counties next adjoin- ing; but there is not therein of the next English county, yet they had power to remove the indictments, to see whether the indictments are good, and to quash them if they are not good, and if they are good, to remand them back again by mittimus, by force of a statute made tempore H. 8. and Justice Jones said, that in the 31 & 32 Eliz. upon the same reason a certiorari was granted in banco regis, to remove an indictment taken in Caernarvan, although they were not resolved that it could be tried in the next county. But after there were several arguments made at the bar, whether the certiorari lies or any mention not; and it was not resolved in the end, but the parties tried it is the proper county.]

appeals; and for this reason certioraries have been granted to remove indictments out of the grand sessions, but never writs of appeal. - Cro. C. 331. pl. 16. S. C. Dubitatur, and appointed to be argued, whether a certiorari was grantable. _____S. C. of Chedley, and also of Soutley v. Price, cited Vent. 93. Trin. 22 Car. 2. B. R. Anon. Where a certiorari was granted to remove an indictment of manflaughter out of Wales; and ordered that the profecutor should be bound by recognizance, to prefer an indictment in the next English county; but the court at first doubted whether they might grant it, in regard it could not be tried in an English county; but an indictment might have been found thereof in an English county, and that might be tried by 26 H. S. cap. 6. _____ Same cases cited Vent. 146. Trin. 23 Car. 2. B. R. in Morris's case, and says that in Chedley's case, a certiorari was granted, at was likewise in the principal case to remove the indicament found in Anglesey, which was asterwards tried in the next English county; and the court held, that so it might be in the principal case of Morris, who was indicted for murder in Denbigh, and a certiorari to remove it into B. R. in order to try it in the next English county.

It is the Constant practice to grant certioraries into the counties palatine of Durham

[4. If a certiorari be directed to the justices of peace in the county of Durham, to certify an indictment taken there before them, they ought to return it. Mich. 10 Car. B. R. CLARK's case, where they returned that it was a county palatine by prescription, and the court advised thereupon.] and Lancaster, which yet had original jurisdiction, and the same courts among themselves; per Helt Ch. J. Ld. Raym. Rep. 581. Trin. 12 W. 3. obiter.

[5. [So] II Car. B. R. in one Simpson's case, a certioran with a pain was granted to Durham, to remove an indictment of barretry there taken, before the justices of the peace; for they were made justices by statute.]

[6. A certiorari lies to the justices of peace within the cinque † Cro. C. 252. pl. 3. ports, to certify an indictment of sodomy taken before them; because Tyndale's this is made felony of late time, of which they cannot hold plea case. S. C. & ibid 264. there, without a charter of late time. Trin. 8 Car. B. R. Hoppl. 13. S. C STILL + TILDEN'S case resolved; and the indicament taken in the court Sandwich removed accordingly, and tried thereupon, and found awarded a not guilty. Mich. 8 Car. B. R. & Dugdale's case, such a cerpluries certiorari ditiorari was granted, and the indictment taken at Dover removed rected to the accordingly.] mayor and ibid. 291. pl. 1. S. C. the record was removed into B. R. and the defendant tried there and so quitted. 1 Cro. C. 253. at the end, pl. 3. cites Ringden's case. Mich. 8 Car. and seems to intend S. C. where a certiorari was prayed to the mayor and justices of Dover, being within the einque-ports is a like case; but it was objected that it should be directed to the lord warden of cinque ports, as other procels usually is; but upon debate, all the court agreed that it should be immediately directed to the justices, before whom the indicament was; for they hold plea of it as justices of peace, by virtue of their commissions, and not by their ancient charters of prescription, which was awarded accordingly. --- 2 Hawk. Pl. C. 286, 287. cap. 27. s. 24. cites the principal case of Roll, and says that by the jurats; and

seulon there given, it seems to be implied that Roll's opinion was, that indictments in such courts, of crimes whereof they have jurisdiction, are not removeable; but says that other books there cited by him feem to speak generally of all indictments; and to lay it down as a rule, that the privilege of the courts of the cinque-ports used time out of mind, that the king's writ does not run there, is to be intended only of civil causes between party and party.

7. The plaintiff set forth, that his father and he are jointly It was said seised for life of the lordship of Barrington in the county palatine of Dutham, and that the defendant sues his father for those lands before the chancellor of Durham; and for that it was informed that the plaintiff dwells in Ratcliff in the county of Middlesex, and that the plaintiff's father is an old diseased man, and not able to follow bis suit; therefore a certiorari is granted, directed to the chancellor of Durbam, to certify into this court the whole matter depending before him. Cary's Rep. 68, 69. cites 2 Eliz. fol. 200. Hilton v. Lawson.

by one of the classes of the crown, that a certiorari had many times been returned from Durham. Lat. 160. Trin. 2 Car. in Jobfon's cale.

8. The Register makes mention of a certiorari to remove a record taken at Calice. Cro. C. 484. pl. 1. Trin. 16 Jac. B. R.

9. Where judgment is given before the sheriff, and the tenant has no goods, &c. in that county, he may have a certiorari to remove the record into B. R. and there have execution; for that is not placitum. 2 Inst. 23. ad finem.

10. If there be an indictment for a forcible detainer upon the 8 H. 6. before justices of the peace in the county palatine of Chester, it may by certiorari be removed in B. R. for the justices of peace there, being made by letters patents, their proceedings, quatenus justices of peace, must be subject to B. R. per Bacon, and a certiorari awarded accordingly; and the indictment being returned, was quashed. All. 49. Hill. 23 Car. The King v. Simmons.

11. A certiorari was denied to remove an order of sessions for chufing one constable, because if it had been granted, it might have prevented justice being done by the justices of peace, but bid them appeal to the justices of assise; but a writ was granted to compel the constable to be sworn. Sty. 126, 127. Trin. 24 Car. B. R. Anon.

12. By the statute 15 Car. 2. cap. 17. it is enasted, That there Shall be certain commissioners, who shall have power to receive claims concerning the fens in the counties of Cambridge, Huntingdon, &c. and to settle their bounds, and make and return their decrees into the petty-bag in chancery. After consideration of the statute, it was resolved, that no certiorari shall be granted, and if any be, there shall be a procedendo; for it is a new judicature, and absolute in [335] the commissioners by this new law, with which this court has nothing to do if they proceed according to the statute; but if not then all is void, et coram non judice, and the parties are at liberty to examine it in an action at common law. Sid. 296. pl. 20. Trin. 18 Car. 2. B. R. Ball v. Parteridge.

13. The question was, whether a certiorari lay to Winchelsea, being one of the cinque-ports, for a record made there, whereby they had taxed the foreign, and which they infifted was made for the preservation of the corporation, and to raise ammunition to provide against invasion of foreigners; and that breve domini

2 Lev. 86. 1 be King v. the Corporation of Winchel'ea, S. C. and the retuin regis

Dda

fufficient; and this case ly civil between party and party, tion and the party.

adjudged in- tegis non currit to the cinque-ports. The counsel that argued against the certiorari, confessed that in matters which concerned is not mere- the king's revenue, or in matters criminal, or where the liberty of a subject is concerned, a certiorari would lie; but that this case was none of those, and that they had always liberty of taxing. but between the foreign for defence of the corporation in time of war, espethe corpora- cially when in danger of foreign invasion. Hale Ch. J. said they ought to shew some jurisdiction, to which the party, if injured, might appeal, otherwise the corporation will be party and judges, and tax the land of the foreign to what value they please; and . faid there were 3 forts of fuits, 1st, Between party and party, and there you must return that you have jurisdiction. 2dly, Matters of the crown; and 3dly, Matters of a middle nature, as where the king and his subjects are both concerned, as in this case; sed curia advisare vult. Freem. Rep. 99. pl. 111. Pasch. 1673. B. R. Winchelsea Port's case.

14. A rule of court was made that no certiorari should go to A certiorari the sessions of Ely without motion in court, or signing of it by 2 lies out of C. B. to the judge in his chamber. 3 Mod. 229. Trin. 4 Jac. 2. B. R. in a court of Ely, and to any nota.

franchise which hath conusance of pleas, and which is more than a bare franchise tenere plants; per cur. 3 Salk. 148. pl. 13. Hill. 1 Ann. B. R. Cross v. Smith. _____12 Mod. 643. Hill. 13 W. 3. S. C. & S. P. accordingly. ____ 3 Salk. 79. pl. 4. S. C. & S. P. ___ 7 Mod. 138. S. C. & S. P. admitted. -2 Ld. Raym. Rep. 836. S. C. & S. P. accordingly, and so a judgment given in the court of the bishop of Ely was reversed.

> 15. The court denied to grant a certiorari to the Old Bail faying they never do it, because the judges sit there; yet quare how B. R. can legally take conusance of proceedings there without a certiorari, the Old Baily being another court, and pol-. sessed of their own records till removed by certiorari, &c. Cumb. 319. Hill. 6 W. 3. B. R. Monger's case.

16. A motion was made for a certiorari to remove an indicament of barretry found at the sessions of gaol-delivery; and one NURSE'S CASE was cited, wherein such a motion was granted. But pet cur. it is never granted to remove an indictment found before justices of gaol-delivery without some special cause. of the Old Baily; and if such certiorari should be granted, and the cause suggested should afterwards appear false, a procedende 1 Salk. 144. pl. 2. Pasch. 9 W. 3. B. R. should be awarded. Anon.

17. Indictment in the grand sessions of Wales, and certionan granted to remove it, at the prayer of the defendant; and now a supersedeas was prayed to the writ, because a certiorari does not lie into Wales; or if it does, it is only when the king directs or desires it, and not at the desire of the desendant; but the court held that certiorari lies either at the desire of the king or of the party, according as the court shall think fit; and accordingly a rule was given for the return of the certiorari, and that the indiament should be tried in the next English county. 12 Mod. 197. Trin. 10 W. 3. The King v. James.

18. Indictment

18. Indictment being found against the defendants in London for printing and publishing a paper intituled the Black Ram, wherein certain persons were scandalously described, so as any body that knew them might know them to be the same persons; and among others the recorder of London was mauled; and certiorari was moved for by Montague, infinuating that it would be hard to be tried at the Old Baily, where some of the judges might take themselves to be scandalized by that paper; and the court said they seldom would grant certiorari to the Old Baily, yet they granted one here, though it could not be tried here this term; for certiorari into a foreign county ought to have 15 days between its teste and return; and though by confent it may be returned immediately, yet still there must be 15 days between the teste of the writ and return of the jury, which could not be within this term. Mod. 250. Mich. 10 W. 3. The King v. Dutton & al', printers.

19. Certiorari to remove a conviction may go to any new conflituted court, or jurisdiction of record, as to the censors of the college of physicians, because B, R. has a power to keep all limited jurisdictions within their proper bounds; per Holt Ch. J. Carth, 494. Pasch. 11 W. 3. B. R. in case of Dr. Groenvelt v. Dr.

Burnell.

20. Weere any court is erected by statute, a certiorari lies to it; 12 Mod. so that if they perform not their duty, B. R. will grant a mandamus. There was a mistake made by the commissioners of sewers, Holt Ch. J. grounded upon'this, that where the 23 H. 8. cap. 5. fays that the fays that the commissioners, in several cases there mentioned, shall certify their proceedings into chancery; afterwards by 13 Eliz. cap. 9. it is enacted that hereafter the commissioners should not be compelled to certify or return their proceedings, which they interpreted to extend to a certiorar and thereupon they refused to obey the certiorari; but they were all committed; and yet the statute does that Mr. not give authority to this court to grant a certiorari; but it is by the comme that this court will examine if other courts exceed upon the their jurisdiction; per Holt Ch. J. in delivering the opinion of statute of the court. Ld. Raym. Rep. 469. Pasch. 11 W. 3. in case of Groenvelt v. Burwell.

390.S.P. in S. C. and commissionels mele obliged to obtain the king's pardon for their offence; and Callice, in his reading fewers, holds that their orders are removable here by certionari. Raym. 186. S. C. accordingly. Vent. 66. Pafeh. 22 Car. 2. B, R. Smith's case. See tit. Sewers (E) pl. 2.

21. Certain orders of justices, made pursuant to a private act of parliament for repairing Cardiffe-bridge, were removed hither by certiorari; and one objection was made, that this court could v. the Inhanot send a certiorari to the justices of the peace in Wales, because it might be sent by the court of grand sessions, which was as B. R. and which by this means was skipped over and rendered useless. Sed non allocatur. It is the constant practice to send them into the counties palatine, and yet they have original jurisdiction, and the same courts within themselves. The counsel for the Welch jurisdiction said this differed, because the jurisdiction of counties palatine was derived from the crown; but this was not regarded. 1 Salk. 148. pl. 7. Trin. 12 Wa3. B. R. Cardiffe-bridge's case.

Ld. Raym. Rep. 580. The King bitants of . . . . . . in Glamorganshire, S.C. lays that the orders were for levying money, by virtue of the statute of 23 Eliz. cap. 11. for repairips Cardiff-bridge. It was objected that a certiorari would not lie; and cited the case of Ball v. Partridge, Dag * 12 Mod. 390. S. P. accordingly by Holt Ch. J. obiter.

†[337]

22. A certiorari lies to exempt jurisdictions; per Holt Ch. J. in delivering the opinion of the court. 1 Salk. 148. pl. 13. Hill. 3 Salk. 79. 1 Ann. B. R. Cross v. Smith.

& S. P.—2 Ld. Raym. Rep. 837. S. C. & S. P.——So that there is go court or jurifdition that can withfind a certiorari; as in the case of a customary proceeding by foreign deschment in London, if the defendant cannot find bail below, he may sue a certiorari, and upon putting in bail in the superior court, the cause will proceed there, and all the proceedings below upon the attachment are dissolved; per Holt Ch. J. in the several books above cited.

23. It seems to be admitted in the late reports, that a certiorari may be granted to remove any indicament from London Middlesex; but it is said that he who prays it ought to give 3 days notice to the other side. Also it is said, that by a certiorari to London the tenour of the indicament only shall be removed by the city charters; and it seems that anciently that city insisted on a privilege, that all indicaments and proceedings for any cause, except so lony, should be tried and determined there and not elsewhere, 2 Hawk. Pl. C. 287. cap. 27. s. 26.

(B. 2) What Records shall be removed by it.

S. C. cited Arg. 2 Ld. Raym. Rep. 1200 [1. IF a certiorari be awarded out of B. R. the last day of Trinnity term, to remove all indictments of forcible entry against certain persons, where they are not indicted at the time of the award of the certiorari, nor at the time of the delivery of the writ to the officer, but after they are indicted in the vacation before Michaelmas term, they ought to be removed by force of this writ. Mich. 37 & 38 Eliz. B. R. Cheney's case, per curiam.]

[2. If a certiorari issues to remove an indictment of forcible entry against several, naming them, subereas but 4 of them are indicted, yet it ought to be removed. Mich. 37, 38 Eliz. B. R. CHENEY, per curiam.]

Ŧ

3. If certiorari issues to justices of the peace to send the indictment of J. N. ared in the same indictment 20 others are indicted, yet this is a good certificate of the record, and the justices of the peace sball not mention any thing of the others in their certificate; per Markham Ch. J. Br. Record, pl. 57. cites 6 E. 4, 5.

4. A certiorari will remove any indictment if it be before the return thereof, though it be after the teste of the writ. Agreed per cur. 2 Keb. 142. pl. 13. Hill. 18 & 19 Car. 2. B. R. The King v. Buck.

5. A certiorari was brought to remove an indistment of force against L. and Thinde indictati sunt. An attachment was prayed for not removing an indictment against L. only, The court held this writ joint and several, but that a writ of error will not remove Mich. 4 a several indictment. 3 Keb, 102. pl. 2. Hill. 24 Car. 2. B, R. The King v. Levet.

S. C. cited Arg. 2 Ld. Raym. Rep. 1199, 1200. Ann. in case of the Queen v. Bains; but it was answered by the other side that this case in 3 Keb. was only, that a certiorari might be joint and several, which a writ of error could not be, which he agreed; but that then there must be several words, as it must be intended that there were in that case. Ibid. 1202.——And ibid. 1203. Powell J. said he thought they would have searched for the writ in that case of 3 * Keb. because, notwithstanding any thing said in the book, the writ in that case might be joint and several; and Holt Ch. J. said that where a report of a case is doubtful, it ought to be verified by the record.

*[338]

6. B. W. and F. were jointly indicted at the sossions, and B. Ld. Raym. was also severally indicted, and W. F. and J. S. were indicted in another indictment, and a certiorari was awarded, to remove all indictments in which the faid B. F. and W. were indicted, without says the refaying, vel aliquis eorum indictatus existit. Adjudged, that only the joint indictment was removed, and that the justices below may proceed on the others without contempt. 1 Salk. 146. pl. 9. Mich. 11 W. 3. B. R. the King v. Brown, Wood, and Fossebrook, Rep. 609. Mich. 12 W. 3. S. C. turn was of one indictment against B. and of another against W. and another against F.

in which they were indicted alone by themselves. On motion to quash the indictment against B. it was held, that it was not removed before B. R. for this is not the indictment intended, the certiorari meaning the indicament in which B. W. and F. were jointly indicated; but had it been vel per quod aliquis corum indictatus existit, it had been otherwise. ____ 3 Salle 3.8. pl. 2. S. C. & S. P. ____ S. C. cited as of a certiorari to remove all orders against A. B. and C. and the case was, that there was a joint order againment. B. and C. and another order against B. and C. and another against A. only; it was resolved, that the joint order was only removed, and not that as to B. and C. only, and the other against A. only., 2 Ld. Raym. Rep. 1200. Mich. 4 Ann. Arg. cites it as the case of the King v. Fossz-BROOK; but says, that the reason of the resolution was, because the court took it that the first was the only order intended to be removed. - Ibid. Mr. Broderick said that the case of Fossebrook was as it is cited, but that it was resolved by the three judges, absente I Ch. J. ---- Ibid. 1203. Powell 1. asked the counsel, how they answer the case of the King v. Fossebrook. ———2 Hale's Hist. Fi. C. 212. cites Mich, 22 Car. 1. B. R. Adjudged, that such a certiorari to remove all indictments against A. and B. removes all wherein A. or B. are indicted, either alone, or together with other persons, and cites also 1 R. 3. 4. b. a 16. 7. 16. a.

If A. B. C. and D. be actually indicted in one indictment for one offence, and a certiorari the to zemove all indictments against A. and B. this will be difficient to remove the indictment against A. and B. and also it removes the indictment as to C. and D. for the justices may deliver the indictment per manus proprias. Mich. 37 & 38 El. B. R. Woodward's case contra 6 E. 5. a. 2 Hale's Hist. Pl. C. 213, 214.

But if the indictment be but one, but the offences several, as if A. B. C. and D. be indicted by one bill for keeping several disorderly houses, a certiorari to remove this indicament against A. and B. respoves not the indictment as to C. and D. for though they are all comprized in one bill, yet they are several indictments, and several offences, and so the record is in B. R. virtually and truly as to A. and B. but as to C. and D. the record remains below. 2 Hale's Hist. Pl. C. 214.

But if the justices per manus suas propries deliver the bill into court against all of them, as they may, then if a record be made of that delivery, the indictment is entirely removed against A. B. C. and D. because not done upon the writ of certiorari, but per manus suas proprias; but otherwise it is where the offences are several, and the indictment against A. and B. is removed by writ, and by a return indorsed upon the writ, for then that fingle indicament that concerns A. and B. is removed, and not the others, where the offences are several, and severally charged. 2 Hale's Hist. Pl. C. 214.

But, as I said, if there be one indictment against A. B. C. and D. for one murder or burglay, another against the same persons for robbery, and a third against the same persons for a rape, a certificati to remove all indictments against A. and B. removes all these several indictments against A. B. C. and D. for though, in law each of them be severally a felon, yet inasmuch as they are jointly charged, they shall be all removed as to A. B. C. and D. by virtue of this one writ, contrary to the opinion of Markham 6 E. 4. 5. a. 2 Hale's Hist. Pl. C. 214.

S. P. held accordingly, Mar. 27. pl. 63. Trin. 15 Car. B.R. Anon. A. and B. were indicted of murder. B. brought cer-Ciorari to remove the indictment into B. R. it was faid, that the whole record was removed, and that there cannot be a transcript in this çale, because the writ is recordum &

7. Two being indicted, one of them removed it by certiorari, entering into recognizance to carry it down to trial; and it was resolved, that the indistment was removed quoad the, and that the defendant who removed it saves his recognizance by trying it as to himself; for that the acquittal of one is not an acquittal of the other, nor vice versa; neither can it be exacted of him to enter into a recognizance to try against both; and that, notwithstanding the other defendant had appeared below, and now by the reflies, and A. moval is put without day, wherefore if he do not come in above gratis, process of outlawry shall go against him; and for this cause it was, that before the statute the course was to grant no certioraries to remove indictments from London or Middlesex, without the defendant gave bail to try it; and the Ch. J. faid, it is always indorfed on the back of the certiorari, at whose request it is granted; for though it be the king's command, yet it is a prayer of the party, and the end of certioraries is to do justice, and prevent vexation and * oppression; and if 2 be indicted jointly, and join in plea, there shall go but one venire facias; secus if they sever. 12 Mod. 601. Mich. 13 W. 3. The King v. Worsenholm and Weeks.

processium cum cannibus ea tangentibus, but the chief justice doubted of it, and said, that the opinion of Markham, in one of our books, is against it, and that it would be mischievous should it be so, because in such case B. might be attainted by outlawry without his knowing of it. Mar. 112. pl. 190-Trin. 17 Car. Anon. ——2 Hawk. Pl. C. 292. cap. 27. s. 5. says, that if divers are indicted in the fame indictment, and some find sureties, and others not, the indictment ought to be removed as to those who find fureties, because they shall not be prejudiced by the default of the others; and that, as some fay, it shall be removed as to the others also, and cites Keb. 231. pl. 51. 6 E. 45. a. and Mar. 111.

[but misprinted for 112.]

L 339 J

8. A certiorari issued to the court of Ely, to certify all pleas 1 Salk. 148. tunc nuper levat'. The plea [plaint] was levied after the teste, and pl. 13. Cross v. before the return. Per cur. it was well removed; for a certioran, Smith, as well as secondare, shall remove all pleas pending at the time of S. C. 🍇 7 Mod. 138. Hill, 1 Ann. B. R. Smith w. Cros. 5. P. acthe return. cordingly.

-12 Mod. 643. S. C. but I do not observe S. P. 3 Salk. 79. pl. 4. S. C. but not S. P. 2 Ld. Raym. Rep. 836. 838. S. C. & S. P. held accordingly, per tet. cur. 2 Ld. Raym. Rep. 1305. Mich. 8 Ann. Anon. S. P. per Powell. J. accordingly. S. C. cited Arg. 2 Ld. Raym. Rep. 1202.

* 1 Salk. 151. pl. 21. S C. but this point of the Order re- '" moved being made subsequent to.the teste of the writ, does. not appear there. . . . .

9. A catiorari was to remove omnes ordines against A. and B. nuper factor; the order removed was against B. only, and this order appeared to be made after the teste of the writ. The question was, whether this order was well removed, and the court ordered counsel of both sides to speak to this point, and after argument the certiorari was quashed, because it was not sufficient to remove this several order, and a new writ was granted; but it was agreed to be a good writ to remove a joint order against A. and B. Raym. Rep. 1199. Mich. 4 Ann. B. R. the Queen v. Bains.

(B. 3.) Directed. To what Persons.

1. CErjeant Hawkins says, 2 Hawk, Pl. C. 290. cap. 27. s. 43. that all the precedents he is able to find of certioraries for the removal gither of indictments or recognizances from sessions, are directed either to the justices of peace for the county generally, or to some of them in particular by name, and not to the custos rotulorum; and, according to Lambard, they are never directed to him; yet it is taken for granted in the year-book of H. 7. [2 H. 7. 1. pl. 2.] that after a recognizance for the peace is brought into custos rotulorum, it shall be certified by him; but surely, if the certiorari be directed generally to the justices of the county, or any one of them, it may be as well returned by any of them, as by the custos rotulorum; and he questioned whether it can be well returned by him, unless he do it as justice of peace, naming himfelf such; but if there are sufficient precedents to warrant the directing the certiorari to him as custos rotulorum, there can be no doubt but that a return by him as fuch will be good.

2. An assis is taken before one of the justices of assis only, and 2 Hawk, the clerk of assise does not wait the coming of the other justice of Pl. C. 290. assise, yet the other justice by certiorari may certify the same record. P. and

Br. Record, &c. pl. 81. cites 11 H. 7. 5.

cites S. C.

3. A certiorari may be directed to the sheriff and coroner to remove an appeal by bill before the coroner, because the sheriff has a counter-roll; but if the certiorari be directed to the sheriff only in case of appeal, or indictment, or death, it is not sufficient to remove the record, because he is not judge of the cause, but has only a 2 Inst. 176. counter-roll.

4. If * one of the justices of assize dies before the return, a certio- * s. P. ac, rari may be awarded out of the court of common-pleas to the fur-cordingly, vivor, to certify the verdict; if both the justices die, the clerk of the Pl. C. 290. assign may bring it in without a certiorari, or a certiorari may be cap. 27. s. awarded to the executors or administrators of them, to certify the 42. record. 2 Inst. 424.

5. A certiorari to remove a record ought not to be made but S. P. notto an officer known to have the custody of the record, and upon a withstandfurmile that he hath such a record in his hands; per Roll Ch. J. and therefore we will not upon an affidavit grant a certiorari, but be directed upol. a surmise made upon the roll. Sty. 371. Pasch. 1653. B. R. Anon.

ing regularly it ought to to the judge of the inferior court, and in some cases to others, as shall be most agreeable to the usual course of approved precedents, which seems to be the best guide whereby to judge of this matter, and accordingly it seems, that for an indicament or confession of an approver before a coroner, it shall be directed to the coroner alone; and for an appeal both to the sheriff and coroner; and for an indictment in the cinque ports to the mayor and jurats; and for an indictment at an affile in a county palatinate to the chancellor of such county, who shall And for it to the justices of affise

See tit. Record (Q) (C) How it shall be certified. In what Cases the Tenor of the Record shall be certified, and in what Cases the Record itself.

Hob. 135.
pl. 181.
S. C. &
S. P. accordingly.
See (A) pl.
3. S. C.
Hob. 135.
pl. 181.
S. C. &
S. P. accordingly.
—See (A)
pl. 3. S. C.

[1. WHERE the court which awards the certiorari cannot hold plea upon the record itself, there only a tenor shall be certified, because otherwise if the record itself should be removed, there would be a failure of right afterwards. Hill. 14 Jac. Banco. Pie and Thrill.]

[2. As in an information in banco upon the statute of recusants, if an indiciment and conviction of the defendant to be a recusant is pleaded, and thereupen nul tiel record is pleaded, and a certioreri issues de banco to the justices of peace before whom the conviction was, the justices ought only to certify the tenor, because the common-pleas cannot hold plea upon the record itself is if should be removed. Hill. 14 Jac. Banco, Pie and Thrall, resolved.]

- 3. If one brings debt on a recovery in an inferior court, as in a court of piepowders, &cc. there it is not necessary for the party to have the record itself, nor the tenor of it; so if one brings debt in C. B. on damages recovered in B. R. or in the court of Norwich; but if nul tiel record be pleaded there, it is sufficient if the tenor of the record be removed into chancery by certiorari, and sent thence by mittimus. F. N. B. 242. (B) in the new notes there (a) cites 7 H. 6. 19. See 19 H. 6. 79 & 80. Accordant Dyer 187.
  - 4. Where one is to sue execution of a record in another court, as where it is to sue execution in C. B. on a recovery in ancient demesne, or before justices of assiste, or of over and terminer, there the record itself ought to be removed in chancery by certiorari, and the said record with the certiorari sent into C. B. by mittimus; and so if an attaint is before sued on such a recovery, 34 H. 6. 851. But when execution is to be fued in C. B. upon a record which remains in the treasury there, as on a fine, recover &c. (Note, all those tecords were removed into the receipt of the exchequer circa temp. 9 H. 4. 37 H. 6. 17.) But where it is in the chancery, as on a petition among parceners, Dyer 136. there they will not send in the record itself, but a certiorari to the chamberlain and treasurer, and a mittimus of the tenor of the record. See the case 39 H.6. 4. per Prisot. And if the tenor of the record be before the certiorari filed in chancery, they will not fend the certiorari into the receipt (treasury), nor send in the tenor which is there filed, but only tenorem tenoris; and it seems that is sufficient. 17. 28. F. N. B. 242. (B) in the new notes there (a).

5. Note, when a man recovers, and has not execution, and the records are removed into the receipt or treasury, there the party who would have execution may sue dertiorari out of the chancery to the chamberlain and treasurer, to certify the record in chancery, and when it comes there, they may fend it by mittimus into B. R. if it came thence, and into C. B. if it came thence, and there to sue execution; and per Moyle J. the chancery do not chuse to write for the record and process, but for the tenor of the record and process, but the justices of assise user write for the record and process, and the same is said elsewhere for a fine levied; note a dversity. Br. Certiorari, pl. 1. cites 37 H. 6. 16.

[341]

it

6. If a man-be convict before the sheriff upon a re-disseisin, and post-disseifen, then he shall not be delivered out of prison without the king's special command, and then he ought to sue a certiorari to remove the record into B. R. and there to agree with the King for his fine. F. N. B. 190, (F).

7. Certiorari awarded out of B. R. directed to the custos brevium of C. B. to remove a record of a fine levied in the time of P. & M. The transcript whereof was only removed before by writ of error, and the error was found, and adjudged; and the intent of this certiorari was, that the record of the fine might be taken off the file, and cancelled in B.R. and upon precedents shewed, the certiorali was granted. D. 274. b. pl. 44. Pasch. 10 Eliz. Bourne v. Ruffell.

8. But where a certiorari issued to the chief justice of C. B. to remove a recollis verdict was given by nisi prius, and an attaint. was brought against them in B. R. this certiorari was not allowed, no precedent being to be found of such writ; for the entry of the clerk of the treasury in C. B. does not say quod recordum præd' removetur in B. R. virtute brevis de certiorando, but only virtute brevis de errore corrigendo sub magno sigillo Angliæ; whereupon the party purchased a new certiorari out of chancery protenore recordi only; which was certified to the chancery accordingly, and sent thence into B. R. by mittimus. D. 274. b. 275. 2. pl. 44, 45. Pasch. 10 Eliz. Bourne v. Russell.

9. A. and B. were indicted for a murder. B. fled, and A. brings a certiorari to remove the indicament into B. R. It was infifted that the whole record should be removed, and that there could be no transcript of it, because the writ was to certify recordum & processum cum omnibus ea tangentibus; but the chief justice dotted, and faid that the opinion of Markham in one of our books is against it, and said it might be mischievous; for so the other might be attaint here by outlawry, who might know nothing of it. Mar. 112. pl. 190. Trin. 17 Car. Anon.

10. In all compties except London the record itself is removed by a But they of certiorari; admitted per cur. Sid, 230. pl. 28. Mich. 16 Car. 2. B.R.

London by their charter certify only teno-recordi; so that the record itself remains with them. Agreed. Sid. 155. pl. 5. Mich. 15 Car. 2. B. R.——Holt Ch. J. said that it is an error in the clerks in London, that upon a certiorari they return only the transcript, as if the record remained below; for in C. B. though they do not return the very individual record, yet the transcript is returned as if it were the record itself, and so it is in judgment of law. 2 Salk. 565. pl. 2. Hill. 8.W. 3. B. R. The King v. North.——The very record itself is to be removed in all places except London, where they are obliged only to send up the transcript; per Fortescue J. Quod non fuit negatum. Barnard. Rep. in B. R. Mich. 13 Geo. I. APOR.

11. On a certiorari to return an order, it was returned thus, viz. Cujus quidem tenor sequitur in bec verba; and because it was not Qui quidem ordo sequitur in hec verba, it was quashed. I Salk. 147. pl. 10. Pasch. 1 Ann. B. R. The Queen v. the Parish of St, Mary's in the Devizes.

(D) Certiorari. Lies in what Cases.

Br. Certification of Alsile, pl. 💁 cites 21 E. 3. 3.

Br Re-attachment, pl. 27. cites

S. C.

1. YF affife pass in pais, and be adjourned into bank, and judgment given there, the defendant cannot have certification of affife, nor attaint there; but shall remove the record before the justices of assis, and there he may have certification or attaint. Quod nota; and it seems that the removing shall be by certiorari. But quære inde of the manner thereof. Br. Cause de Remover, pl. 16. cites 21 E. 3. 30.

2. If a man be indicted in the county of L. the king's bench shall not write for the body and the record upon surmise, but upon matter of record; but shall be removed into the chancery by certiorari, and fent into B. R. by mittimus. Br. Corone, pl. 192. cites

41 Aff. 22.

3. A. brings a writ of conspiracy against B. and others. This conspiracy was to indict A. of a felony, of which he was arraigned and acquitted. The defendants plead that the indictment was before certain justices of peace, who compelled the defendants to be jurors upon finding the indictment, and that they with others were jurors upon finding the faid indicament, &c. The plaintiff replies nul tiel record. In this case the defendants have a day given them to bring in the record, and fail. The plaintiff has judgment. This judgment was reversed; for the court of C. B. ought to have awarded a certiorari to the justices of peace, to certify whether they have such a record; for they are an inferior court to the court of C. B. But in this case, where the court is superior, or the jurisdictions equal, day is given to the defendant to have the record in court by a certain day. By the justices of both benches. Jenk. 114. pl. 23. cites 4 H. 6. 23.

4. A certiorari is to remove a thing out of a court of record.

Br. Admeasurement, pl. 6. cites 7 E. 4. 22.

5. Writ is directed to the sheriss, and mesne between the teste and return the king died; and also it was a preremptory action which ought to be taken within the year, as appeal of death, or formedon against pernor, and the teste was within the year, but the return after the year; yet such writs in these cases were brought into bank by certiorari, and resummons or re-attachment awarded, which will fave the year. Quod nota bene. Br. Certiorari, pl. 12. cites 10 E. 4. 13.

6. A man distrained by 20 sheep. The owner brought replevin, and the defendant affirmed plaint against bim in a base court by covin to have the sheep attached, so that replevin should not be made; by which the sheriff returned this matter and the plaintiff prayed supersedeas.

12

persedeas for him and his goods, because this court has the antient seifin; and had it for body, but not for goods; but per Laicon, he shall have for both; and by several he may have certiorari of all if he would. Br. Certiorari, pl. 17. cites 16 E. 4. 8.

7. Where a man had cast protection after issue, certiorari issued but of chancery to inquire whether he attended the business of the king or his own proper business, and certified that his own proper business; by which the chancellor granted innotescionus, and the protection was repealed, and refummons awarded immediately. Br. Certiorari, pl. 14. cites 21 E. 4. 20.

8. Certiorari lies to remove rediffeifin, and post disseifin, and to re- [343] move record out of one county to have recovery in another county; and lies to remove record out of a franchise to the common law, to bave execution in a foreign county, because the debtor has nothing within the franchise; and it lies to remove assign. Br. Certiorari, pl. 18.

cites F. N. B.

9. And where record is so removed from one justice to another, there writ ought to be directed to the new justices to receive it. Ibid.

10. And it lies upon every record which is in the treasury to have it removed into the chancery, and fent into bank by mittimus to have execution upon it; for the justices of bank cannot award execution, if they have not the record before them. Ibid.

11. And where deed is denied, by which it remains in court, there the party, who should have it after, ought to have special writ to them, to have delivery thereof. And it lies to bring in record which is pleaded in bar in another court. And it likewise lies to have execution where the justices are removed, and new justices authorized. And it lies to remove statute staple to bave execution thereof. And it also lies to have tenorem recordi, and in some case tenorem tenoris. And to remove record out of a franchise into another court. And to certify outlawry. lies to remove record of acquittal of a felon. * And it lies to remove record before justices of over and terminer. And to bave execution in a foreign county. And it lies to remove re- certiorari to cord to have charter of pardon upon it. And it lies to remove re- remove a record to bave it exemplified. And it lies to remove record to And to remove record from the Marshalfea to before jufbave attaint. bave thereof attaint. And it lies to remove record of fresh force. tices of over And it lies to the custos brevium to certify writs, warrants of attorney, &c. which concern the record or matter. lies to the justices of sewers to make certificate of their presentments, &c. And it lies to certify whether J. N. against whom exigent is awarded, be peer of the realm to have supersedeas; quod nota. it lies to the escheator to certify records and inquisitions, or seizures for And it lies to certify of the case, the king before him, or made for him. the king in the chancery who last presented to such a benefice. And of the value of such fees and advowsons, &c. Br. Certiorari, pl. 18. cites F. N. B.

The court has refused to grant a cognizance of appearance and terminer, &c. be-And it cause the court below is most proper to judge And upon the whole circumftances which are equitably to be confidered whether it ought to be estreated or not. 2 Hawk. Pl. C. 288. cap. 27. s. 33.

Palm. 480. Trin. 3 Car. B. R. the S. C. in 19-

12. A. was indicted of murder in Essex, and outlawed, and the outlawry certified in B. R. but as certified it is erroneous, because the exactus is ad comitatum, without faying meum. The attortidem verbis. ney general shews that the king had seized the lands, and for offuring the king's estate, and to prevent the reversal of the outlawry prayed a certiorari to the coroners, whether the exactus was ad comitatum (without meum) and upon their return to amend it; and there was a precedent in the time of E. 4. where one State ley was indicted, and was in some places wrote Stavely; and a certiorari was awarded here by the court. Lat. 210. Plume's case.

13. Certiorari was denied to remove an information exhibited in the mayor's court of London against a wood-monger there, grounded upon an act of common council, unless such action had appeared to be against law; sed adjornatur to hear counsel of both sides. Sty. 211. Pasch. 1649. Anon.

14. On a motion for a certiorari to remove an indictment preferred against one in Newgate, Roll Ch J. said, he lies there for murder, and is outlawed thereupon, yet take a certiorari to remove the record, for his fact was the stabbing of a man, and stabbing in * [ 344 ] its nature is but felony, and is not murder, although the party cannot have his clergy for it, by reason of the statute made by king James against stabbing, else by the common law'he might have had it. Sty. 364. Hill. 1652. B.R. Anon.

15. The court was moved on behalf of the defendant, for a certiorari to remove certain indictments preferred against him in London, for selling of leather, to the end he may have an indifferent trial notwithstanding the statute, which directs that the indictment be preferred in the county where the offence was committed. Roll Ch. J. said, there the statute was made for the ease of the defendant, and therefore he may remove the indictment, otherwise he shall be in worse case than he was before the statute; therefore ordered a certiorari. Sty. 356. Mich. 1652. B. R. Anon.

16. 12 Car. 2. cap. 23. No certiorari shall stay the proceedings of the justices in a couse concerning the excise.

2 Hawk.Pl. C. 287. cap. 27. f. 28. says, it seems that the court will not ordinarily, at the

17. It was agreed by all the justices not to grant certiorari to remove any indictment of perjury, forgery, or any such great mistemeanor, because it is a mischief commonly seen, that when it is removed by certiorari they never proceed here, and so the matter goes unpunished. Sid. 54. pl. 19. Mich. 13 Car. 2. B. R. Anon.

prayer of the defendant, grant a certiorari for the removal of an indictment of perjury or forgery, or other heinous misdemeanor; for such crimes deserve all possible discountenance, and the certiorari might delay, if not wholly discourage their prosecution.

18. 22 Car. 2. cap. 12. f. 4. All defects of repairs of cause-But by 5 W. & M. cap. ways, pavements, highways, or bridges, shall be presented in the 11. s. 6 if / county, and no fuch presentment or indictment shall be removed by cereny indicttiorari, or otherwise, out of the county, till such indiciment or presentment be against any ment be traversed, and judgment thereupon given. person for not repairing bigbways, causeways, pavements, or bridges, and the title to repair the same may come in grefis, question, upon such suggestion, and affidavit made thereof, a certiorari may be granted to remove the same into B. R. provided that the parties prosecuting such certiorari shall sind two manucactors to be bound in a recognizance, with condition as aforesaid.

19. A conviction of forcible entry upon view of justices of peace may be examined upon a certiorari, but no writ of error lies upon

It; per cur. Vent. 171. Mich. 23 Car. 2. Anon.

20. A fine was taken in Chester, which is a county palatine, by dimus. Error was assigned, that no time is mentioned when the caption was taken, nor any commissioners named, and prayed that it might be amended. Wythens J. said, they would grant a certiorari to make a fine good, but not to reverse it; and a certiorari was granted ad informandam conscientiam. Comb. 26. Trin. 2 Jac. 2. B. R. Okey v. Hardistey.

21. 3 & 4. W. & M. cap. 12. s. 23. Enacts, that all mat- Hewk. Pl. ters concerning bighways, causeways, pavements, and bridges, mentioned in this act, shall be determined in the proper county, and not elsewhere, and no presentment, indictment, or order, made by virtue been reof this act, shall be removed by certiorari out of the county into any if the quarother court.

C. 218. cap. 76. f. 80. fays, it has solved, that ter-fessions. unger pretence of the jurisdiction given them by these statutes, take upon them to do a thing manifestly exceeding their authority, as to make an order on furveyors of the highways, to make up their accounts before a special sessions, their proceedings may be removed by certiorari into HPR. and there quashed a for the quarter-sessions have no manner of power given them to intermeddle originally with such accounts, but only by way of appeal; cites Mich. 12 Ann. the Queen v. Bramby.

22. 7 & 8 W. 3. cap. 6. No certiorari shall be granted to re- 2 Hawk. Pl. move a suit for small tithes from the justices of peace, unless the title of the tithes comes in question.

C. 289. cap. 27. f. 38. lays, that in the confirection hereof it has been adjudged, that if the party infift on any matter of * law before the justice of peace, which is any way doubtful, as on a custom in a parish to be discharged of a certain kind of tithe, &c. the order may be removed within the intent of the statute; and in the marg. there cites Hill. 6 Geo. the King v. Furnace.

[ 345 ]

23. Indiciment at Kirby in Westmoreland on the 5 Eliz. for using a trade, not having been apprentice thereto 7 years, and a certiorari was prayed, but the court doubted whether to grant it, because the statute is, that it must be tried in the proper county, so that if it be removed hither, it must be sent down again by procedendo, and not filed here so as to be quashed; but there having been feveral fuch certioraries granted, they granted one in this case, and after granted another in a like case in Trinity term following, in the case of one Woods of Norfolk. 12 Mod. 188. Pasch. 10 W. 3. the King v. Haggard.

24. A certiorari lies upon a conviction of forcible entry upon the view of a justice of peace; per Holt Ch. J. in delivering the opinion of the court. Ld. Raymond. Rep. 469. Hill. 11 W. 3.

25. The censors of the college of physicians having power by their charter, confirmed by act of parliament, to fine and impri-10n for ill practice in physic, condemned, fined, and committed Holt Ch. J. held, that a writ of doctor Groenvelt for the same. error would not lie, it being a proceeding without indiciment or formal judgment, and not according to the course of common law, but that

12 Mod. 390. S. C. & S. P. by Holt Ch. J. Carth. 491. 494. S. C. & S. P. 2c-. cordingly, by Holt Ch. J. in deiivering the opinion of the court.

That a certiorari lies; for no inferior jurisdiction can be exempt from the superintendency of the king in this court. I Salk. 144.

S. C. accordingly.

- 26. It is unusal to send a certiorari without special cause. 7 Mod. 118. Mich. 1 Ann. Anon.
- 27. N. borrowed 600 l. of a feme covert, and promised to send her fine cloth and gold dust as a pledge. He sent her some coarse cloth worth little or nothing, but no gold dust. There was an indistment against N. at the Old Baily for a cheat. A certiorari was granted, because it was not a criminal matter, but it was the prosecutor's own fault to repose such a considence in N. besides the desendant offered to try it that term, which would be a benefit to the prosecutor, who, by the course of the Old Baily, could not try it so soon. I Salk. 151. Pasch. 4 Ann. B. R. Nehuff's case.
- 28. A certiorari is not a writ of right; for if it was, it could never be denied to grant it; but it has often been denied by this court, who, upon consideration of the circumstances of cases, may deny it or grant it at discretion; so that it is not always a writ of right. 8 Mod. 331. Mich. 11 Geo. Arthur v. the Commissioners of Sewers in Yorkshire.
- 29. Where a man is chosen into an office or place, by virtue whereof he hath a temporal right, and is deprived thereof by an inferior jurisdiction, who proceed in a summary way; in such case he is intitled to a certiorari ex debito justitize, because he hath no other remedy, being bound by the judgment of the inferior judicature. 8 Mod. 331. Mich. 11 Geo. Arthur v. the Commissioners of Sewers in Yorkshire.
- Barnard.
  Rep. in B.
  R. 7. The King v.
  ChippingNorton, S.
  C. fays the indicament was for felony against a clergyman, for only tak-
- 30. It was moved for a certiorari to remove an indictment found against the defendant for a felony, in stealing some bay, from the quarter-sessions of the peace held for the town and corporation of Chipping-Norton, upon affidavits that the defendant could not have a fair trial there; and he cited a case between THE KING AND POWELL, where a * certiorari was granted to remove an indictment from the quarter-sessions of the peace for Salop for the like reason; and a rule was made for the prosecutor to shew cause, which was afterwards made absolute. 2 Ld. Raym. Rep. 1452. Mich. 13 Geo. The King v. Fawle.

ing a handful of hey out of a barn, which it was sworn was but of the value of a penny, and they swore it was nothing but a malicious prosecution. And the case of the King and Powell was cited, where a cerisrari went to remove an indictment out of the sessions of the county of Sarum. The court said they never did grant such certiorari but upon a particular occasion; but they made a rule to shew cause, and at the last day of the term they granted it.

31. The defendant was indicted at the Old Baily, and motion was made for a certiorari to remove the indictment here; for that be war à person of distinction. But the court said they would never do it upon that account; for that would occasion great confusion. They said, in some cases they did grant them, as where it appeared that the fact could not support an indictment, as it was done in the case of Sir Humphrey Mackworth, who was indicted at the Old Bailey for forgety; for that he, being governor of a company, set the seal of the company to a deed without authority; there, as it appeared to the court that that fact was not indictable, they did grant in Barnard. Rep. in B. R. 5: Mich. 13 Geo. The King v. Pusey.

(E) Necessary. In what Gases.

1. THEN a justice is discharged, or his authority chases he cannot certify a warrant in his hands without certifying it by writ, and so if he be made justice again, because his power was once ceased; and fo it seems of other records in his hands. Br. Record, 641 cites 8 H. 4: 5.

2. Justices of the peace shall not bring into B. R. any record but 2 Hawk. that which is executory, and no acquittal of felony which is exe-Pl. C. 290. tuted; but this shall come in by writ by certificate thereof. Br. Re- 44. says it cord, pl. 59. cites 8 E. 4: 18:

cap. 27. f. feems agreed that no record which is executed, as by acquittal, &c. can be brought into a higher court without a writ; and that it seems agreed that if a suffice of peace, or other judge of record, having taken a recognisance or inquilition, or recorded a riot, or done any other executory matter within his jurisdiction, and bave still continued in the same commission, &c. without any interruption, the court of B. R. soull receive such record from bis bands without any twrit of certiorari.

3. Several judges in their circuits took several verdicts, and dying in the vacation before the return of the posteas, these verdicts shall be received by the hands of the clerk of the affifes; and this is a better way than to award a certiorari for those verdicts to the executors of the judges; for the clerk of the assises was a sworn officer. Also the entry shall be in the common form, viz. Postea ad quem diem venerunt partes & justiciarii ad assisas capiendas coram quibus, &c. hic miserunt recordum suum; and against this entry of record no averment can be received that the judges pleases, were dead before the delivery of the postea; for this would be contrary to the record; by all the judges of England. 216. pl. 59.

D. 163. a. pl. 54. Trin. 4 & 5 P. & M. Anon. -The clerk of the affises may bring in the indictment profriis mani+ bus, if he without a certiorari ; Jenk. per Bram. ston Ch. J. Mar. 112,

[347]

113. pl. 190. Mich. 17 Car. Anon. ---- 2 Hawk. Pl. C. 290. cap. 27. f. 44 S. P. and fays it seems to be agreed; but says that the executors or administrators of a judge can in no case bring in a record without a writ to authorize them to do it. And it seems to be the stronger * opinion; that mether a justice who is out of commission at the time, nor one who has been out of commission but is afterwards restored, can certify any record without a writ of certionari.

4. It was said by Coke, that the chancellor, or any judge of any of the courts-of record at Westminster, may bring a record to one another without a writ of certiorari, because one judge is sufficiently known to another; but that other judges of inferior courts, nor justices of peace, cannot do so. Godb. 14. pl. 21. Pasch. 24 Eliz. B. R.

Vol. IV.

(F) At what Time.

1. NOTE per Catesby J. where certiorari with mittimus comes to remove a fine, and the writ bears date before that the fine comes into chancery, yet is good. Br. Certiorari, pl. 19. cites 1 R. 3. 4.

On a motion for a certiorari to remove an indictment

2. So of certiorari to remove indictments, which indictment bore date after the certiorari. Ibid. and cites Fitzh. Recordare, pl. 6.

into B. R. against several Frenchmen for a robbery; but at the time of the motion there was no indifferent before a judge of assist, Keeling Ch. J. said, you may have a certiorari; but it must not be delivered till the ind stment be found, and then the judge has the prosecutors there, and may bind them over, and so the trial may be here. Mod. 41. pl. 91. Hill. 21 & 22 Car. 2. B. R. Anon.——Vent. 63. Lampereve & al' S. C.

- 3. It was moved for a certiorari to remove an indictment of forcible entry, that was once before removed hither, and after sent down by a procedendo, because the justices below will not grant resitution. Roll Ch. J. answered, there is a plea put in, and in such case it is not usual to grant a certiorari, yet it may be, that it may be granted, therefore ordered that the other side shew cause why it should not be granted. Sty. 300. Mich. 1651, B. R. Anon.
- 4. A certiorari to remove an indictment of perjury at the sessions, was delivered to the justices after the same was returnable. The court inclined that nothing can be removed by certiorari after the return. Keb. 944. pl. 3. Hill. 17 and 18 Car. 2. B. R. The King v. Rhodes.
- 5. Where a matter inquirable and punishable by the regardors of a 2 Keb. 81. pl. 78. The forest only, is presented before the justices in eyre; the court of B.R. King v. resolved that they would not grant a certicrari upon such present-Maxie, S.C. ment, till after conviction there, and that because such offences ---- But it may be against the forest law should not go unpunished. granted afpl. 19. Trin. 18 Car. 2. Norfolk (Duke) v. Newcastle (Duke.) ter conviction, in order to give the party, the right of whose freehold is concerned therein, an opportunity so far to travels der to give the party, the right of whose freehold is concerned therein, an opportunity so sar to travel.

it. 2 Hawk. Pl. C. 288. cap. 27. s. 32.

2 Hawk. Pl. C. 294. cap. 27. s. 64. S. P.—At the time an indictment was trying, a certiorari came down

6. N. the defendant was indicted before justices of peace, and pleaded not guilty; and after the jury were gone to consider of their verdict, he delivered in a certiorari, and the justices returned their verdict, and held good; for it cannot be delivered after the jury is sworn. 1 Salk. 144. pl. 1. Hill. 8 W. 3. B. R. The King v. North.

from the court of chancery returnable in B. R. The court said that that certiorari was void. Barnard. Rep. in B. R. 105. Mich. 2 Geo. 2. The King v. Steers.——See tit. Habeas Corpus (E) pl. 2-7. Certiorari to remove indictments, must be delivered before the jury is sworn; per Holt Ch. J. Cumb. 391. Mich. 8 W. 3. B. R. Anon.

8. After

8. After a warrant awarded to distrain, and distress made, 6 Mod. 83. upon a conviction for deer-stealing, a certiorari was brought to remove the conviction; and after the record was removed the ley v. Stackconstable fold the goods, but would not part with the money, nor return his warrant. The court held that the constable might proceed in the execution after the certiorari, because it was begun before; for a certiorari is no more a supersedeas than a writ of error on a judgment in C. B. to stay the execution on a si. fa. already begun; that B. R. have no power over this warrant, because it was Morley the granted before the certiorari issued, therefore they refused to make a rule on the constable to return it, but said, that the justices the deer might fine him if he did not return it, or pay the money to the prose- scaler.] cutor. 1 Salk. 147. pl. 12. Mich. 1 Ann. B. R. The Queen v. Nash.

Mich. 2 Ann. Morer, S. P. [and as I remember was S. C. and that Nash was the constable, and profecutor, and Stacker

9. A rule was made that no certiorari shall be granted to re- But aftermove any orders of justices, from which the law has given an appeal wards it was to the sessions, before the matter is determined on the appeal; and if an order should be removed besore appeal, it should be sent must be taken down again; but if the time of appeal be expired, that case is not within that rule; per Holt Ch. J. Ann. 1 Salk. 147. pl. 12. 1201 to file Pasch. 1 Ann. B. R.

held that advantage of ibis rule, upon the mothe order; for that after it is filed, it is too late. Ibid. cites Mich. 4 Ann. B. R. the case of the inhabitants of Shellington.

10. It is a rule of court that no order of justices, whereof an 18alk. 147. appeal lies, be brought into B. R. by certiorari till after [the matter be determined on the] appeal, and if any be, that it be sent says that afback by procedendo; for the original order does not come up, but terwards in the tenor of it, as appears by the very words of the return. 7 Mod. 10. Pasch. 1. Ann. B. R. Anon.

pl. 11. fame rule, but Mich 4 Ann. B. R. in case of Skellington inhabitants, it was held that advantage must be taken of the rule upon motion to file the order; because after it is filed, it is too late.

11. The defendant being convicted on an indictment on the 6 Mod. 17. statute 14 Car. 2. for beating certain officers, &c. obtained a certiorari to remove the indictment into B. R. and upon a mo- seems to be tion by the attorney-general for a procedendo, it was infifted S.C. & S.P. that a certiorari was not proper after conviction, and before judgment; because the justices who tried the fact were the most pro-But per cur. this writ lies after conviction and before judgment, &c. because in some cases a writ of error will not lie, but in this it will; because the proceedings were grounded on an indictment, and therefore the party grieved might have a remedy by a writ of error, and for that it may not be so proper in this court to set the fine, a procedendo was granted. 1 Salk. 149. pl. 15. Mich. 2 Ann. B. R. The Queen v. Porter.

The Queen v. Bothell, held by Holt Ch. J. accordingly. —S. Р. by Holt Ch. - accordingly, and cited the cale of / Liste and Armstrong, on an indict. ment of murder, and a case from Gloucester on an indistment for words, to the end that B. R. might give the judgment for the greater example; and said that they usually grant a certiorari where it appears that it is such conviction on which no writ of error lies; but though we may grant a certiorari, yet we will consider whether it be proper or not; and therefore since the defendants have stood a trial before the justices, [viz. for beating a custom-house officer] it is reasonable that the justices give judgment also, and let the defendants bring their writ of error if they think fit; and to this Powell J. agreed. 2 14. Raym. Rep. 937. Trin. 2 Ann. The Queen v. Potter & al' S. C .- Holt Ch. J. held, that if a judge of affise upon a conviction there, doubted of the judgment, he might remove the record into B. R. by certiorari; and upon judgment given here, a writ of error of a record coram vobis relident would lie. 1 Salk. 149. pl. 15. Mich. 2 Ann. B. R. in case of the Queen v. Porter.

2 Hawk. Pl. C. 288. cap. 27. s. 31. says it seems agreed, that a certiorari shall never be granted to remove an indictment or appeal after a conviction, unless for some special cause; as where the judge below is doubtful what judgment is proper; for unless there be some such reason, the judge who tried the cause shall not be prevented from giving judgment in it; for it cannot be intended but that he is best acquainted with the circumstances of it, and consequently best able to judge what sine or other punishment is proper for it.

(G) One or more Writs.

1. THE cognifee of a flatute-merchant sued a certiorari directed to the mayor, &c. before whom it was acknowledged, and thereupon a capias issued against the cognisor; and upon non est inventus returned, the cognisee brought an alias capias, but died before it was returned. It was a question whether his executor should have a sci. sa. against the cognisor, or a new certiorari to the mayor, &c. The party was advised to begin all de novo, as the best method. D. 108. b. pl. 49. Pasch. 2 Eliz. Anon.

S. P. in error offigued for want of a writ of inquiry, and return was, that none was filed of that term;
but after.

2. A certiorari was awarded and returned, that there was not any warrant of attorney entered for the plaintiff in that term whereis the action was commenced, and judgment given. It was furmifed to the court by the defendant in error, as amicus curia, that there was warrant of attorney for another term, and prayed a new certiorari; and all the court held that he might well have it. Cro. J. 277. pl. 7. Pasch. 9 Jac. B. R. Smith v. Skipwith.

wards the defendant in error filed it as of that term, and takes out a certiorari himself, which was returned that it was filed; whereupon the plaintiff's counsel moved to quash the second certiorari. The court said that they ought to have entered a caveat to have prevented its being filed; but however made a rule to shew cause. Barnard. Rep. in B. R. 12. Pasch. 13 Geo. 1. Shipman v. Lethalier.——Isid. 14. S. C. says, the certiorari taken out by the defendant, was before in nullo est erratum pleaded; and the court said that as here are 2 inconsistent returns, they would certainly take that which made in affirmance of the judgment. And the court agreed that the parties may take out as many certioraries as they please before in nullo est erratum pleaded, but after that they cannot take any out but upon meeting; and that the court will grant those ad informandam conscientiam curise.

3. One person shall have but one certiorari, but several persons may have several writs to certify; per cur. Cro. J. 597. pl. 20.

Mich. 18 Jac. B. R. Johns v. Bowen.

4. Debt in B. R. upon a judgment in C. B. The defendant pleaded nul tiel record, and thereupon a certiorari was awarded, to certify the record returnable immediately. After 8 days expired, and no record certified, the court was moved for an alias certiorari with a penalty, which was granted. Palm. 562. Trin.

4 Car, B. R. Saltingstall v. Garraway.

5. Upon error brought of a judgment upon non sum informatus in C. B. The error assigned was, that it appeared by the record, that the declaration was before the plaintiff had any cause of action. It was said, if it be so, then there is a wrong original certified; wherefore a new certiorari was awarded to have the true original certified. Sty. 352. Mich. 1652. Jeanings v. Downes.

[350]

6. It was moved to quash a certiorari, because it was in the preter-persest tense. The court was unwilling to quash it, till they had advised whether an alias certiorari might be awarded, and the doubt was because in all counties but London the record itself is removed, and so no 2d certiorari; but some thought the record here not removed by the first certiorari, but only a history that there was such a record, and that therefore a 2d certiorari should issue; but after several debates it was adjourned as to this point. Sid. 229. pl. 28. Mich. 16 Car. 2. B. R. The King v. Brown & al'.

7. Nota, If a certiorari be not returned, so that an alias be awarded, the return must be as upon the first writ, and the other must be returned quod ante adventum isius brevis the matter was certified. Vent. 75. Pasch. 22 Car. 2. B. R. Anon.

- 8. A certiorari was granted to remove an order concerning money given and collected for repair of a bridge, but through the careleffness of the attorney the writ was not delivered in time, and so a procedendo went. The court was moved for a new certiorari, and said that in Thesaurus Brevium are several precedents of an alias certiorari to remove an indictment upon an insufficient return to the first, and this is no more, and that there are several in the office of this kind; but the court told them it was their own sault not to deliver the first, and resuled to help them. 2 Show. 330, 331-pl. 341. Mich. 35 Car. 2. B. R. The King v. Weaver.
- 9. A certiorari was granted, but the return thereof was quashed for some irregularity, and thereupon the court was moved for another certiorari; one of the judges opposed the granting it, because the removal of the orders by virtue of the certiorari would not determine the right of the plaintiff (who had been chosen clerk to the commissioners of sewers by some of the commissioners, but was turned out by others), which was the reason of quashing the return of the former certiorari; but by the other three judges the certiorari was granted. 8 Mod. 331, 332. Mich, 11 Geo. 1. Arthury, Commissioners of Sewers in Yorkshire,
- (H) Obtained or granted. How and by whom. In what Cases, and wherefore.
- 1. 1 5 2 P. & M. NO writ of certiorari shall be granted to cap. 13. remove any prisoner out of any gaol, of to remove any recognizance, except the same be signed by the proper bands of the chief justice, or in his absence, by one of the justices of the court out of which the same writ shall be awarded, on pain of 5 l. to be paid by any one that writeth such writ not being so signed.

2. 21 Jac. 1. cap. 8. s. 5 & 6. Whereas indictments of riot, forcible entry, or assault and battery, found at the quarter-sessions, are often removed by certiorari, all such writs of certiorari shall be delivered at some quarter-sessions in open court; and the parties in-

Certiorari
is not to be allowed, without putting in fareties in open all be without ing in dicted

Ee 3

not put in sureties, as Twisden said was adjudged in the time of Judge Bacon, and for not returning it the court granted an attachment; also the state extends not to indictments of fireible entry, but only to riots, as, as hath been conceived, and the justices cannot make any order against returning it. Keb. 225. pl 38.

Hill. 13 Car. 2. B. R. The King v. Mucklow.

[351] 3. Two men and their wives were indicted upon the statute of forcible entry. They brought a certiorari to remove the indistant, and one of them refusing to be bound to prosecute according to the statute 21 Jac. cap. 8. the said justices, notwithstanding the certiorari, proceeded to try the indictment; but it was resolved, that where one of the parties offers to find sureties, although the others will not, yet the indictment shall be removed, though the other refuses; and that where the statute says the party indicted shall be bound in the sum of 101. with sufficient sureties, as the justices shall think sit, yet if the sureties are worth 101. the justices cannot resuse them. And surther resolved, that after a certiorari brought, and a tender of sufficient sureties, according to the statute, all the proceedings of the justices of peace are coram non judice. Mar. 27. pl. 63. Trin. 15 Car. Anon.

Mar. 27 pl. 4. A feme covert is not within the statute of 21 Jac. to find 63. Anon. sureties. 2 Hale's Hist. Pl. C. 213. cites it as resolved Trin.

seems to be 15 Car. 1. B. R. Hancock's case.

*Mod. 41.

5. On a motion for a certiorari, on behalf of Ld. Morley, to pl. 91. Hill. remove an indictment against him at the sessions upon the state car, 2. B.R. tute against hearing mass. The court said they did not see how on a motion a certiorari could be granted at the prayer of the party, but that to remove an indictment it might be at the prayer of the counsel for the state. Sty. 295, Mich. 1651. Ld. Morley's case.

Twisten J. said he never knew such motion made by any but the king's attorney or solicitor.——It has been adjudged that a certiorari is by law grantable for an indifferent; for the court is bound of eight to sward it at the instance of the king, because every indictment is the suit of the king, and he has a prerogative of suing in what court he pleases. But it seems to be agreed, that it is left to the different of the court either to grant or dery it at the prayer of the defindant; and agreeably hereto it is said down as a general rule, that the court will never grant it for the removal of an indifferent before instinct of gard-descript without some special cause, as where there is just reason to apprehend that the court below may be unreaseably prejudiced against the defendant; or where there is so much difficulty in the case, that the judge below defires that it may be determined in B. R. or where the King bind if gives a special direction that the cause shall be removed; or where the prosecution appears to be for a matter not proseculy criminal. 2 Hasks. Pl. C. 287. cap. 27. s. 27.

2 Hale's
6. If any of the persons indicted put in security, the indictment Hist. Pl. C.
212,213.
6. If any of the persons indicted put in security, the indictment must be removed for all, because it is only to secure costs; by Twisden Twisden and curiam; and Sir Humphry Mildmay was fined for The record not returning such certiorari; and the hands of the justices need not be set to it no more than the sheriffs by return of the under- B. R. adsheriffs; and an habeas corpus, though not to be allowed if judged under 51. yet it must be returned that it is under 51. Keb. 231. pl. 51. Hill. 13 Car. 2. B. R. The King v. Mucklow.

ought to be removed into Mich. 1653. B. R. ----Ibid. 213. cites Trin.

15 Car. 1. Hancock's case, S. P. resolved,

7. Twisden J. declared that there is a rule made among the judges, when any one prays a certiorari at a judge's chamber, to remove an indiciment out of London or Middlesex, he ought to give notice of his desire to the other side three days before, or otherwise the certiorari is not to be granted. Raym. 74. Pasch. 15 Car. 2. B. R. Stamford (Earl of) v. Gordal.

8. 5. & 6 W. & M. cap. 11. s. 2. No certiorari to remove a cause from the sessions in term-time, but upon motion and rule of court of B. R. defendant to give security to plead to issue, &c. and try the cause the next assises. Recognizance to be returned with the certiorari into the court of B. R.

9. S. 4. In the vacation a writ of certiorari may be granted by any of the justices of B. R. whose name, with the name of the party procuring it, shall be indorsed on the writ; and such recognizance, as aforesaid, shall be entered into before the allowance thereof.

10. S. 5. The same law as to granting certiorari in the counties palatine.

11. 8 & 9 W. 3. cap. 33. s. 2. The party prosecuting any certiorari to remove an indiciment from the quarter-sessions, may find two manucaptors to enter into a recognizance before any of the justices of B.R. in the same sum, and under the same condition as is required by the act 5 & 6 W. & M. cap. 11. whereof mention shall be made on the back of the writ, under the hand of the justice who took the same, which shall be as effectual to stay proceedings as if taken before a justice of peace in the county; and it shall be added to the condition of the recognizance, that the party thall appear from day to day in B. R. and not depart till difcharged by the court.

12. A scire facias was brought on a recognizance taken before These staa judge upon granting a certiorari to remove an indictment from tutes being the sessions of the peace, which upon over was entered in hæc verba; and was for 40 l. whereas the sum prescribed by the statute is 20 l. And per Holt Ch. J. before 5 & 6 W. & M. cap. 11. any judge might take a recognizance, which is not taken away; but if it be not according to the statute, which is in 201, the certiorari will be no supersedeas; yet whether it be or no, it is still good as a recognizance at common law, 2 Salk. 564. Pasch. Ann. B. R. The Queen v. Ewer, in the affirmative, as to the taking of recognizances, do not take away the power which the justices of B. R. have by the common law of taking recognizances upon their granting certioraries; from whence it follows, that if any such justice granting a certiorari shall take a recognizance variant from that prescribed by the act, either as to the sum or condition, &c. such recognizance will have the same force as it would have had if these statutes had not been made; but it is said that the certiorari, if procured by the defendant, will not in fuch case be a supersedess to the proceedings below, as it would have been at the common law; for the Statutes feem to be express that the festions may proceed, notwithstanding any certiorari procused by a defendant.

fendant, whereon such recognizance is not given as is expressly prescribed. 2 Hawk. Pl. C. 292, cap. 27. f. 53.

6 Mod. 17.

13. A certiorari, to remove an indictment, had no bail in S. C. but S. P. coes dorsed on it, and therefore the court said that it should not not appear have been allowed; for it was against the late act of parliament.

— Ibid. 33. I Salk. 149. pl. 14. Trin. 2 Ann. B. R. The Queen v. Bothell. Mich. 2

Ann. that without giving bail to try it according to the statute, it is no supersedeas.

3 Salk. 80. pl. 6. The Queen v., Whittie, S.C. & S.P. — 2 Hawk. Pl. C. 289. cap. 27. f. 40. S. P.

14. It was held that in writs of certiorari granted to remove orders, the fiat for making out the writ must be signed by a judge, and the writ itself need not; but in case of writs of certiorari to remove indistinents, the fiat must be signed and the writ too, and that the latter is required by the late act of parliament. And Holt Ch. J. said that if the fiat had been signed on the same day the writ was taken out, that would have been well, because it was before the essoign-day; but a fiat signed this term cannot warrant a certiorari tested the last day of last term. I Salk. 150. pl. 19. Pasch. 4 Ann. B. R. The Queen v. White.

15. The court said, that they had lately agreed to a rule, that no certiorari should be granted by a judge at his chambers in term time. Barnard, Rep. in B, R. Mich. 2 Geo. 2. The King v.

Steers.

16. 5 Geo. 2. cap. 19. s. 2. No certiorari shall be allowed to remove any order, unless the party prosecuting shall enter into a recognizance with sureties, before one justice of peace where such order shall have been made, or before one of his Majesty's justices of B. R. in the sum of 50 l. with condition to prosecute without wisful delay, and to pay the party, in whose favour such order was made, within one month after the said order shall be confirmed, their costs to be taxed; and in case the party prosecuting such certiorari shall not said, it shall be lawful for the justices to proceed and make surther orders, as if no certiorari had been granted.

17. S. 3. The recognizances to be taken as aforefaid, shall be certified in B.R. and filed with the certionari and order removed thereby; and if the order shall be confirmed, the persons entitled to such costs, within one month after demand made, upon outh made of the making such demand and refusal of payment, shall have an attachment for contempt, and the recognizance shall not be discharged until the costs shall be paid, and the order complied with.

18. 13 Geo. 2. cap. 18. f. 5. No writ of certiorari shall be allowed to remove any conviction, judgment, order, or other proceedings before any justice or justices of peace of any county, city, borough, town corporate, or liberty, or the respective general or quarter sessions thereof, unless such certiorari be moved or applied for within fix calendar months next after such conviction, &c. and unless it be duly proved upon oath, that the party suing forth the same has given six days notice thereof in writing to the justice or justices before whom such conviction, &c. shall be made, to the end that such justice or justices, or the parties therein concerned, may show cause, if he can they shall think sit, against the granting such certiorari.

Removed by it. What is, or should be. And (I) how. And what is a good Removal.

1. PRacipe quod reddat is brought in London, &c. The tenant vouched foreigner to warranty; the plea shall be removed by certiorari, and after the warranty determined it shall be remanded, Br. Certiorari, pl. 16. cites 11 H. 4. 26, 27.

2. But where the action is brought in bank, and L. bas conssance of the plea, and fails the party of right in their franchise by foreign voucher, foreign plea, or otherwise, the re-summons lies to reduce it into bank; for there it never shall be remanded into the franchise; per Hill and Hank. For conusance is granted upon condition, quod celeris fiat justit, alioquin redeat. Ibid.

3. The records of affife may be removed into chancery upon change of the justices, and to be sent to the new justices by mittimus. Br. Certiorari, pl, 20. cites F, N. B. 242.

4. And deed denied in one court, may be so removed into another court. Ibid.

5. It is faid, that there is no certiorari in the register to remove Br. N. C. record out of a court into C. B. immediately; but, 28 it seems, it pl. 278. sball be certified in the chancery by surmise, and then to be sent into cites S. C. bank by mittimus, which matter was agreed in the chancery.

Br. Certiorari, pl. 20. cites 36 H. 8. & F. N. B. 242.

6. Scire facias; note, that where the plaintiff in affise in ancient demesne had recovered the land and damages, and because the defendant had nothing there to render the damages, he removed it into chancery by certiorari, and fent it by mittimus into C. B. and there had scire facias to have execution upon it; quod nota; and so see, that after judgment no other writ lies to remove record but only certiorari, though it be recovered in a base court. Br. Certiorari, pl. 4. cites 39 H. 6. 3, 4.

7. A judgment given in the court at Dimchurch, being a member of the cinque ports, was removed by certiorari into B.R. and a sci. fa. issued against the defendant, to shew cause why the plaintiff should not have execution, and there being an alias certiorari in this case, the defendant demurred, for that it was seut prius, when it ought to be ficut alias, but the exception was difallowed, and the plaintiff had judgment. Sty. 9. Pasch. 23 Car.

Rook v. Knight.

8. An indictment of bettery was found at the sessions bills vera, Though the and the party entered into a recognizance to go to trial there the next fessions; and this being shewn for cause why the certiorari should not be granted, Roll Ch. J. said, that the recognizance also may be removed by the certiorari, and thought there could be no burt if the indictment be removed, and the trial had at the affizes, and should it be removed into B. R. they would not quash the indicament, but the party shall plead and carry it down, and try it at the next affizes at his own charge. Sty. 328. Pasch. 1652. B. R. Anon.

[ 354 ]

certiorari removes the recognizance to appear before the justices of affile,&c. yet that does not excuse bis appear unce, but he ought to appear and procure his appearance to be recorded, and he must likewise deliver the writ; for purchasing such writ only is not sufficient; and judgment accordingly. Cro. J. 281. pl. 2. Trin. 9 Jac. B. R. Rosse v. Pye. ——Bulst. 155. S. C. adjudged accordingly. ——Yelv 207. S. C. adjudged accordingly. ——Yelv 207. S. C. adjudged accordingly. ——2 Hawk. Pl. C. 294. cap. 27. S. 65. says, that this opinion seems supported by the better authority, though it has been holden otherwise, as in 2 Roll. Abr. 492. (F) pl. 12. and Dak. cap. 75.

9. After a writ of error upon a judgment in C. B. and the Comb. 199. judgment affirmed, the plaintiff in the original action moved for a cer-Drew v. Barkiell, tiorari to remove into B. R. the recognizance taken in C. B. upon the S. C. the allowance of the writ of error, in order to bring a sci. fa. against the court were bail. It was objected, that B. R. could not grant such a certioof opinion, that a sci. rari, because the recognizance is a record, and therefore not to fa. might be removed by such a writ, for that removes only tenorem rewell be cordi; but on the other side a diversity was taken between bail brought in B. R. on a taken in inferior courts where it is upon the roll itself, and so recognipart of the record, and where in the courts of Westminster; for Zance rethere the recognizance is taken by itself, and is part of the record on moved hither out of the roll, and therefore may be removed by certiorari though the C. B. by record itself cannot, and it was granted accordingly. 4 Mod. certiorari, and that by 104. Pasch. 4 W. & M. in B. R. Barsdale v. Drew. reason of fome precedents shewn them at their chambers.——Show. 343. 345. S. C. says, the court, after deliberation, and search into precedents, had account of 7 or 8 in ail, the first 30 years since, but none on debate; however, they ruled it good, for this reason, as I suppose, because amplies jurisdictionem, and is no prejudice to the suitors, but rather an advantage, because no writ of error lies from heace upon such scire facias, but in parliament.

Mod. 61.

S. C. & S.

P. per cur. and that so it is if he will not use it till after the jury

10. A certiorari after conviction ought to be to remove the indicate and indicate and if it mentions the indicate indicate and if the party takes it out before conviction, but will not use it till after, he ought to lose the Queen v. Dixon.

10. A certiorari after conviction ought to be to remove the indicate and if it mentions the indicate and if the party takes it out before conviction, but will not use it till after, he ought to lose the Queen v. Dixon.

f.vom; and the writ was quashed, and a new one granted to remove the indictment, and conviction thereupon, and ordered them to make it special, and to give the prosecutor a day thereupon above. ______ 3 salk.
78. pl. 1. S. C. _____ 2 Ld. Raym. Rep. 971. S. C. & S. F. per Holt Ch. J. accordingly.

3 Salk. 78.

11. On a certiorari to remove an indicament after conviction by pl. 1. S. C. verdict, a day in court ought to be given to the party. 6 Mod. 61.

1 Salk. 150. Mich. 2 Ann. B. R. The Queen v. Dixon.

1 pl. 17. S. C.

1 but S. P. does not appear. ———— 2 Id. Raym. Rep. 971. S. C. & S. P. accordingly.

but S. P. does not appear. _____ 2 Ld. Raym. Rep. 971. S. C. & S. P. accordingly.

- 12. A certiorari was quashed, because it was directed justiciariis ad pacem assignatis, omitting the words ad conservandam. 11 Mod. 172. pl. 10. Pasch. 7 Ann. B. R. The Queen y. Jay.
- [355] (K) Returned or certified. By whom and how, And false Return punished how.
  - 1. In debt upon exigent, the sheriff returned quarto exactus; the plaintiff averred that the defendant is duly outlawed. Certiorari shall be directed to the coroners, to certify whether he is outlawed or not; and if they certify that he is outlawed, it shall be taken for perfect record that the defendant is outlawed, and the sheriff shall be amerced. Br. Certiorari, pl. 2. cites 36 Н. б. 24.

2. If affife is taken before the one justice of affife, the clerk of the assise not expecting the coming of the other justice of assise, yet the other justice by certiorari may certify the same record. Br. Record,

pl. 81. cites 11 H. 7. 5.

3. A certiorari was directed to two clerks of the parliament to cer- Upon dimitify the tenor of an act of parliament concerning the attainder of the duke of Norfolk, and one of the clerks made the return. The question was, if the return was good, since one alone had no warrant to certify. See D. 93. a. pl. 24. Mich. 1 Mar. The justices of Duke of Norfolk's cafe.

nution alleged, a certiorari issued to A. and B. the grand sessions of Anglesiy, which is returned by one of them by his proper name, and well. D. 93. a. Marg. pl. 24. cites 3 Jac. B. R.

4. Debt on a recovery in Bristow; it was traversed and certified 2 Hawk. under the feal of Bristow, it was moved that it should have been certified under the great feal, but the court held that it was well enough; for fuch is the course upon certiorari directed to inferior courts. Cro. E. 821. pl. 17. Pasch. 43 Eliz. B. R. Butcher v. Aldworth.

Pi. C. 294. Cap. 27. 1. 70. S. P. and fays that if luch court has no preper seal, it seems that the return may well be made under any other-

5. Certiorari to the recorder cannot be returned by the deputy But if it be recorder in his own name. Sty. 98, Pasch. 24 Car. B. R. Thin v. Thin.

directed to a recorder who is a custos brevium, or to a recorder and his deputy, then it is good. Ibid.

6. Certiorari to remove a record coram R. F. & sociis suis. It was mov-The record is certified by R. F. and one other, and 3 justices held this well enough; but Twisden e contra, Keb. 282. pl. 86. a certiorari, Pasch. 14 Car. 2. B. R. Reeve v. Brown.

ed to qually a return to directed to 2 justices of peace, because it was easy made by one. But the court over-ruled the exception, because they are judicial officers; upon which he took 2 others, viz. that the return was in English, and likewise upon parchment; and both those courts allowed, and made a rule upon them to make another return, for this they said was none. Barnard. Rep. in B. R. 113. Hill. 2 Geo. 2. The King. v. the Inhabitants of Darlington

- 7. Exception was taken upon a conviction of one for carrying of a gun, not being qualified according to the statute, because it was before such an one justice of the peace, without adding nec nen ad diversas felonias, transgressiones, &c. audiend' assign'. And the court agreed so it ought to be in returns upon certioraries to remove indicaments taken at sessions; but otherwise of convictions of this nature, for it is known to the court, that the stat. gives them authority in this case. Vent. 33. Trin. 21 Car. 2. B. R. Anon.
- 8. Nota, if a certiorari be not returned, so that an alias be awarded, the return must be as upon the first writ, and the other

mult

must be returned quod-ante adventum istius brevis, the matter was certified. Vent. 75. Pasch. 22 Car. B. R. Anon.

9. All certioraries, though directed to divers justices, may be returned by one, and so is the usual practice; per Astry. .Cumb.

25. Trin. 2 Jac. 2. B. R. Anon.

order, they can only return it in hec verba, and whatever they return more, the court can take no notice of. 2 Salk. 493. pl. 59.

The Inhabitants of Weston Rivers v. St. Peters in Marlborough.

Wootton Rivers, S. C.—2 Hawk. Pl. C. 295. cap. 27. f. 75. fays that wharfoever matters are put into the return of a certification of explanation or otherwise, besides those which are expressly quested to be certified, are put in without any warrant or authority, and consequently shall be no more segueded by the court above, than if they had been wholly omitted.

11. Certiorari returned by clerk of the peace was held ill, he not being the person to whom the certiorari was directed; but it should have been returned by 2 justices. 2 Salk. 479. pl. 27. Trin. 7 W. 3, B, R. Ashley's case.

(L) Variance and the Effect thereof, and falle Returns.

Br. Varianae, pl. 62. cites S. C. Br. Certiogari, pl. 6. cites S. C. 1. CErtiorari to remove the indicament of flealing 2 borfes, and the indicament of one borfe only was certified in chancery, and fent into B. R. and for the variance between the writ and the indicament, they would not arraign the prisoner, but he went fine die; for they had no warrant, &c. Br. Corone, pl. 69, cites 3 Ass. 3.

2. In assise the record was removed by certiorari and mittimus before the justices of B, R, and there was a variance between the writ of certiorari, and the record and mittimus; for the one was H. Grene justice, scilicet, the record, and the writ was H. de Grene, and so surplusage by the word [de], and therefore the justices would not proceed. Br. Variance, pl. 71. cites 28 Ass. 52.

3. A certiorari was to remove a record cujusdam inquisitionis eapt', &c. in curia nostra, &c. but the record being in the time of the former king, the court held the writ ill, and that the record is not well removed. D. 206. b. pl. 12. Mich. 3 & 4 Eliz. Anon.

4. A certiorari was to remove an indictment of forcible entry, but the return to it was a peaceable entry and a forcible detainer; for that there being no such indictment before them as the certioraris mentions, it was insisted that it was no contempt in the justices not to make any return. But per cur. it is the usual course of the court to make certioraries in this form, and therefore this is no excuse. Sty. 39. Hill. 23 Car. Chambers v. Floyd.

5. Upon a certiorari brought to remove an indictment for barretry in Middlesex, 2 or 3 lines of the indictment were lest out. It was agreed that if this indictment had been certified out of London

don, it might be amended on motion by the original, because by their charter they certify only tenorem recordi, so that the record itself still remains with them, and the court may amend by it; but it cannot be amended in any other county, because the law supposes the record itself to be removed, and so there is nothing remaining for them to amend it by. Sid. 155. pl. 5. Mich. 15 Car. 2. B. R. The King v. Alcock.

6. A certiorari was directed to a justice of Chester, or his deputy, [ 357 ] and it was returned and subscribed by such a one chief justice. It Sid. 64. pl. was objected that the return was ill, it not being by the same 35. S. C. person; and after divers motions the court held it good. Lev. court 50. Mich. 15 Car. 2. B. R. Barrow v. Hewitt.

thought it a good return, because the direction of the writ implies the superior, inasmuch as it mentions the deputy; and the flatute of * H. S. cap. . stiles him the high justice, and (high) and (chief) are all one, and the court will not intend that there is another justice belide him who made the return; and judgment nife, &c. Keb. 165. pl. 120. Mich. 13 Car. 2. B. R. the S. C. adjornatur. - Ibid. 187. pl. 168. S. C. adjudged for the plaintiff. ———Ibid. 210. pl. 13. Hill. 13 Car. 2. S. C. but S. P. does not appear.

So where a certiorari was directed to the justices of Ely, and was returned by such a one chief justice of Ely, the same was adjudged good; Lev. 50. in caso supra, cites it as lately adjudged in the case of Harrifon v. Munford. - Sid. 64. cites it as the case of Harrison v. Morthen, and held good there. -

Keb. 187. cites it as the case of Harrison v. Morpeth, in C. B. 1654.

* It seems that this, according to Keb. 187. should be 2 & 3 E. 6. cap. 28.

7. A certiorari was to remove an order against T. S. concern- 7 Mod. 976 ing foreign salt, which being removed, appeared to be an order Mich. 1 touching salt, without the word (foreign.) It was held that for Anon. S. P. this cause it was not removed, there being no such order. I Salk. and seems to 145. pl. 4. Mich. 8 W. 3. B. R. Anon.

Ann. B. R. be S. C. notwithfranding the difference of the year, and held accordingly; for a special certiorari cannot remove general orders, though a general certiorari will remove special ones.

8. When a presentment in a leet is removed by certiorari, the file of the court must be set out exactly; but there needs no such nicety in pleading; per Holt Ch. J. 11 Mod. 228. Trin. 9 Ann. B. R. in case of the Queen v. Jennings.

Return. What is a Bad Return, and what No Return.

1. Ertiorari to remove indictments was returned, that at the sessions held at C. before T. B. and other justices, to preserve the peace of the king in the same county, and did not say ad diversas felon, &c. according to their commission; and it seems there that the party shall not be arraigned of the felony specified in the indictment in B. R. because it is not well removed for the cause aforefaid; and by some, no record is before justices of the peace, &c. because it is removed. Quære thereof; quære before whom the record remains, because it is doubted. Br. Indictment, pl. 32. cites 12 H. 7. 25.

2. Cer-

2. Certiorari to the county palatine of Chester. They returned that they had jurisdiction of the cause, and that therefore they are not to certify it. It was objected that this return was too general; for they have not shewed any cause why they should have jurisdiction. Roll Ch. J. ordered-them to shew cause why they should not make a better return. Sty. 155. Hill. 1650. Allen's case.

Comb. 262. S. C. Exception was taken that it is only ` an historical recital. Eyre J. feemed to allow the exception; for every indictment ought to begin, juratores pro domino rege Super factamentum foum præfentant, and it is a necessary part thereof; but Holt Ch. J. said it may be either way, and that this is well enough, and tantamount. The reporter adds a quere.

3. Indictment upon the statute 5 Eliz. for exercising a trade in a borough, not being bound apprentice to it; and upon a certiorari to remove it into B. R. the mayor made this return, viz. Humillime certifico quod ad sessionem pacis, &c. per juratores presentatum existit quod billa sequens est vera, viz. Quod prædict Berry did exercise, &c. omitting the clause juratores pro domino rege præsentant quod, &c. The first exception was, that billa sequens est vera is naught; fed non allocatur, as to * that part of the return. 2d Exception was, that there is no bill at all; for it is not faid that it was presented by the jury. Sed per curiam, this is no return to the certiorari; for the writ commands to return an indicament, but this is none, therefore they could not quash it; neither would they suffer this return to be filed, because it was insufficient, wherefore the mayor was ordered to amend the return. Et per cur. a return quod humillime certifico, is not good. Carth. 223. Pasch. 4 W. & M. in B. R. The King v. Berry.

4. A certiorari issued to remove a conviction for deer-stealing, and the justices returned 2 affidavits, and a warrant to distrain; and this return was quashed as impersect. I Salk. 146. pl. 8. Trin.

12 W. 3. B. R. The King v. Levermore.

5. On a certiorari to remove an order, the return was evijus quidem tenor sequitur in bec verba, and not qui quidem ordo sequitur in bec verba, and it was quashed for that reason. I Salk. 147. pl. 10. Pasch. I Ann. B. R. The Queen v. St. Mary's Parish in the Devises.

6. Certiorari to remove a conviction for selling cyder without paying the duty on the late statute, and the justice made the return is English; and upon a motion to quash it, it was allowed to be good. 1 Salk. 149. pl. 16. Mich. 2 Ann. B. R. Anon.

(N) Procedendo. In what Cases.

PRisoners were removed with their indictments by certiorari into B. R. and all except one were put into the custody of the marshal, and this one was remanded, because appeal was taken against him at N. before the certiorari, to which he pleaded not guilty, and process of distress awarded against the jury, and therefore he was remanded to Newgate, because the appeal shall not be discontinued. Br. Corone, pl. 161. cites 16 E. 4.5.

2. A cer-

2. A certiorari was granted out of this court to remove certain indiciments of forcible entries, whereas in truth there was no indiciment of forcible entry found against the party. Upon this a supersedeas was prayed to supersede the certiorari. Per Roll J. this certiorari was gotten by way of prevention for what might be done; but ordered a procedendo to the justices to proceed, notwithstanding the certiorari. Sty. 127. Trin. 24 Car. B. R. Anon.

3. After certiorari returned and filed, no procedendo can go; 2 Hawk. 6 Mod. 43. Mich. 2 Ann. Pl. C. 294. Anon. cap. 27.

£ 68. says that it seems so by the common law. And ibid, in Marg. says it was agreed in B. R. Hill. 6 Geo. The King v. Whitlow.

(O) The Effect of a Certiorari. And Proceedings, [359] &c. after.

AFTER an indictment upon the flat. 8 H. 6. before the Cro. E.

justices of peace in Essex, they awarded restitution; but be- 215. pl. 5.

S. C. the fore it was made there was a certiorari delivered to the cuftos rotulorum, but be would not open or read it till after restitution was after the made; and yet the judges seemed clear that the restitution was well awarded and made. And a diversity was taken between an all judicial and ministerial; the act of the justices of peace is in- the hands of judicial, and their negligence in not sending a supersedeas shall not prejudice; but where a minister receives a countermand, as closed, it if the sheriff be superseded, this is a discharge of the authority being an exwhich he had before; and if justices of peace receive a certiorari, whatever they do afterwards is without warrant; but all which them, viz. the sheriff does after, upon the warrant before, is not erroneous; and yet their negligence is punishable by attachment, as a contempt. Mo. 677. pl. 921. cites Hill. 45 Eliz. B. R. Fitzwil- nolumus, liams's case.

restitution certiorari was beld woid, because the justices were thereby preis prohibition to ulterius terminari coram vobia and so every act done by their authority after its delivery is void. Yelv. 32. S. C. and re-restitution was granted upon great deliberation, and the custos rotulorum was much checked by the court for a misdemeanor. Hawk. Pl. C. 154. cap. 64. s. 61. says it is certain that a certiorari from B. R. is a supersedeas to fuch restitution; for every such certiorari has these words, coram nobis terminari volumus & non alibi. and consequently it wholly closes the hands of the justices of peace, and avoids any restitution which is executed after the teste; but does not bring the justices of peace, &c. into a contempt, unless they proceed after the delivering thereof.

2. If a certiorari be directed to justices of peace to remove an indistment found before them, they cannot proceed, although the record is not removed. The 21 Jac. 1. cap. 8. does not extend to indictments of felony, but only to leffer acts against the peace, as riots, trespass, forcible entry, and the like, they may proceed in these cases, notwithstanding such certiorari, if he that sues out such certiorari does not enter into a recognizance with sureties to prosecute it with effect, and to pay costs to him against whom the trespass was committed, if the defendant does not prevail. Jenk. 181. pl. 64.

A certiorari to the justices, though the day of return is past, is a supersedeas to the proceeding upon the indictment; for there are express words for the flay thereof, viz. eo quod rex non vult feloniam illam terminari alibi quam coram seipso, &c. D. 245. 2. pl. 63. Mich. 7 & 8 Eliz. 2 Hawk. Pl. C. 293. cap. 27. f. 64. S. P. and fays, seems to be that the proceeding after is erroneous, notwithstanding the party who profecuted it never stake any other suit to have the record certified, but only by causing the certification be delivered.

S. C.

2 Hale's
3. After a certiorari brought and tender of sufficient sureties, Hist. Pl C.
213. Hancock's case, peace are coram non judice; resolved. Mar. 27. pl. 63. Trin.
S. P. refolved, and

4. If an indicament is removed by certiorari, and no bail is put in, you may proceed below without any proceedendo; per Roll

Ch. J. Sty. 321. Hill. 1651. B. R. Anon.

Reb. 944.

g. A certiorari is no supersedeas if it be not delivered before the pl. 3. Hill. return is expired. 2 Hawk. Pl. C. 294. cap. 27. s. 64.

Cas. 2. B. R. the King v. Rhodes.

6. Whether a recognizance for the good behaviour be supersched by a certiorari. See 2 Hawk. Pl. C. cap. 27. s. 65.

2 Hawk.

7. All proceedings after a certiorari allowed are erroneous; per 293. cap. cur. 1 Salk. 148, 149. pl. 13. Hill. 1 Ann. B. R. Cross v. 27. s. 62. Smith.

8. P. says it is agreed by all the books.

[ 360 ]
S. P. 6

8. Certiorari to remove indictments is no supersedeas by 5 & 6

Mod. 33.

W. & M. cap. 11. unless recognizance be entered into in 20 l.

2 Salk. 564. pl. 3. Pasch. 1 Ann. B. R. the Queen v. Ewer.

B. R. Anon.

o. After a warrant issued out upon the act against deer-stealing pl. 12.

Mich. 1 to levy by distress, a certiorari was brought, and the record thereby Ann. B. R. removed up in B. R. but that could not hinder the execution. 6 the Queen Mod. 83. Mich. 2 Ann. B. R. in case of Morley v. Staker. v. Nash.

S. C. held per cur. accordingly.

I Salk 147. the Queen v. Nath, S. C.

10. If the warrant was made returnable before the justices of peace, though the record of conviction be after moved into B.R. by certiorari, yet they may call the constable to account upon the warrant; but if the warrant was not made returnable, the officer is not bound to return it. 6 Mod. 83. Mich. 2 Ann. B. R. in case of Morley v. Staker.

the Queen v. Nath, s. c. 11. If before certiorari execution be done in part, notwithstanding the Cueen the certiorari the officer may go on with it. 6 Mod. 83. Mich. 2 Ann. B. R. in case of Morley v. Staker.

12. On certiorari to remove all inquisitions of forcible entries 2 Hawk. Pl. C. 295. made upon J. S. the justices returned an inquisition of an entry made cap. 27. by B. upon J. S. and now affidavits were offered to give the court f. 74. fays, Satisfaction, that the only inquisition before the justices was an inquithat the per-Son to whom sition of a force by A. and that the precept was to summon a jury to a certiorari inquire of a force against J. S. by A. and there they inquired of m is directed may make other force. The court would hear no affidavits against the return what return (which is matter of record) in order to make restitution, but we to it be may in order to have an information filed against the justice for pleases, and the court 6 Mod. 90. Hill. 2 Ann. B. R. Cowper's case. will not ftop the filing of it on affidavits of its faility, except only where the public good requires it, (as in case of the commissioners of sewers) or for some other special reason; but regularly the only remedy against such a false return, is an action on the case at the suit of the party injured by it, and an information, &c. at the fuit of the king.

13. If the party that removes indictment, does not enter into recognizance to try it next assises, or term, or the sitting within the term, the certiorari is no supersedeas; and failure of trying is a forfeiture of recognizance, after which they will not hear a motion in arrest of judgment. 6 Mod. 43. Mich. 2 Ann. B. R.

14. The court made it a rule, that the defendant shall never 2 Salk. 653. tarry to trial an indictment removed in B. R. by the profecutor, without leave of the court. 6 Mod. 245. Mich. 3 Ann. B. R. rule.

in case of the Queen v. Sir Jacob Banks.

15. An order was made against A. and the certiorari was to remove all orders against A. and B. The court held, that this fall not remove the order against A. alone, but it ought to be to remove all orders against A. and B. or either of them. 1 Salk. 151. pl. 21. Mich. 4 Ann. B. R. The Queen v. Barnes.

16. If there be a forcible detainer, and an inquisition taken, and then a certiorari to remove the inquisition, and then there is a new forcible detainer, the justices may, notwithstanding the certiorari, record the force; but they cannot proceed to award restitution; so if after the inquisition, and before the certiorari, there had been a forcible detainer, the justices might have recorded the force, but all proceedings upon fuch inquisition are stopped. 1 Salk. 151. pl. 22. Pasch. 5 Ann. B. R. Kneller's cale.

17. A conviction was upon view of 3 justices of a forcible detainer; if a certiorari comes to them, yet they may proceed to fet a fine and compleat their judgment, and it will be no contempt; but the justices having committed the defendants to gaol to lie there till they should pay a fine to the king, and no fine being set, the [361] conviction was held naught and quashed, and defendants discharged. 2 Ld. Raym. Rep. 1514. Hill. 1 Geo. 2. The King v. Elwell & al'.

pl. 32. S. C. and lame

2 Ld. Raym. Rep. 11990 the Queen v. Baines, S. C. and the certiorari was quashed, because infufficient.

(P) Costs. In what Cases.

1. 5 & 6 W. & M. 7F the defendant procuring such certiorari be convicted, B. R. shall give reasonable costs cap. 11. to the prosecutor, if he be the party injured, or if he be a justice of peace, mayor, constable, or other civil officer, who prosecuted upon any fact committed that concerned him, or them, as officers to prosecute or present.

2. And costs shall be taxed according to the course of the said court, and the profecutor, for recovery of the said costs, shall within 10 days after demand and refusal of the payment of them upon oath, have an attachment granted against the defendant by the said court for his consempt; and the recognizance shall not be discharged till such costs are paid.

. Vol. IV.

2 Hawk. Pl. C. 292. cap. 27. f. 56. S. P

- 3. No more costs shall be taxed upon a tertiorari, than the prosecutor has been at since the certiorari, and upon it; and the master is not to consider the costs below. I Salk. 55. pl. 5. Pasch. Ann. B. R. The Queen v. Sumers.
- 4. In scire facias upon a recognizance removed by certiorari, and upon over entered in hee verba, the condition of the recognizance recited in the scire facias was, that the defendant shall give notice of trial, prosecutori et ejus clerico, whereas the recognizance itself was prosecutori aut ejus clerico; and per curiam, this is a variance and quite different; so the desendant had judgment. 3 Salk. 369. pl. 7. Pasch. 1 Ann. B. R. The Queen v. Ewer.
- 5. If an indictment be removed by certiorari from the sessions into B. R. and the defendant is convicted, the prosecutor is intitled to his costs by the statute. Arg. 10 Mod. 193. Mich. 12 Ann. B. R.
- (Q) Of the Proceedings of the Superior or Inferior Court after Certiorari issued.

Br. Presentment, pl.
ro. cites
S. C.

PResentments in courts may be removed into chancery, and be fent thence into B. R. and the process shall be made to amend the nusance, or to repair the bridge, &c. quod nota, and this it seems by certiorari and mittimus. Br. Certiorari, pl. 7. cites 38 Ass. 15.

Sed per cur.

2. Where orders of commissioners of sewers are removed into Trin. 4

Ann. B. R.

B. R. by certiorari, the court does not file them, but hear counsel upon the matter of them before filing; for if they are good, the them in any cause where no apparent are filed. I Salk. 145. pl. 6. Hill. 11 W. 3. B. R. Anon.

danger is likely to ensue by the delay. Cited I Salk. 145. in pl. 6.————There is a rule in the court of B. R. that no order of commissioners of sewers ought to be filed without notice given to the parties concerned. Also it is every day's practice of that court, before it will suffer the return of a certiorari for the removal of the orders of such commissioners to be filed, to hear affidavits concerning the sacts whereon they are grounded; and if the matter shall still appear doubtful, to direct the trial of seigned issues, and either to sile the return, or supersede the certiorari, and grant a procedendo as shall appear to be most reasonable for the trial of such issues, and to give costs against the prosecutor of the certiorari, if it appear to have been groundless. 2 Hawk. Pl. C. 288. cap. 27. s. 34.

- 3. If certiorari goes to remove a record, the judge below is not in contempt for proceeding on the record till service of the writ; but all proceedings upon it after the certiorari tested are void; per cut. 12 Mod. 384. Pasch. 12 W. 3. Anon.
  - 4. It was moved for an attachment against an officer for executing by distress an order of justices, for levying of money for repair of a bridge, after the order was removed by certiorari; per Holt Ch. J. there never is any formal allowance of a certiorari below; but to bring one in contempt, the distress must be after the certiorari presented below; and if a warrant were delivered before that time, the way had been upon producing the certiorari, to get a supersedent of it, and deliver it to the officer, or else he cannot be in contempt. 12 Mod. 499. Pasch. 13 W. 3. Anon.

5. Per Holt Ch. J. it should be a rule for the future, that on moving indicaments here by certiorari, we should not hear motion in arrest of judgment till defendant's appearance. 7 Mod. 29. Trin. t Ann. B. R. Anon.

- 6. When one removes an indictment by certiorari, he ought to appear above the term it comes in, or else he forfeits his recognizance that he enters into for trying it; but such appearance need not be in person, but by bis clerk, and without it he cannot have a copy of the indictment to quash it. 6 Mod. 220. Mich. 3 Ann. B. R. Anon.
- 7. The defendant was indicted at the sessions for a nusance, and pleaded not guilty; and after issue joined, he obtained a certiorari to remove the indictment into this court, and then demurred to it; and now the profecutor moved for a rule, that the clerk of the peace might return the defendant's plea in the court below, in order to hinder his pleading de novo; on the contrary was cited Carth. 6. THE KING V. BAKER, that in such case the party is always admitted to waive the issue below, and go to trial upon issue joined in this court. The court inclined that the defendant should abide by his former plea; but it being a matter of practice, it was referred to the clerk of the crown, who after reported, that upon certioraries to remove indictments, the practice is not to return the plea below, unless a verdict had been given. Mich. 11 Geo. 2. The King v. Carpenter.

(R) Bills in Chancery and Proceedings thereon.

1. PICH was plaintiff upon a certiorari bill to remove a cause 2 Freem. out of the mayor's court, his witnesses being out of that juris- Rep. 1740 diction, and the bill here was for an account touching other mat- s. c. ters. Witnesses being examined, the defendant moved for a procedendo, and insisted upon it; for that if the cause should be heard here, he could not be relieved, not having any bill here, he being here but defendant, though plaintiff in the mayor's court. The plaintiff's counsel insisted that no procedendo ought to be; for that this bill containing other matters could not be determined upon the bill in the mayor's court, and that the bill could not be divided; and that the plaintiff in the mayor's court might file his bill in the mayor's court, in this court, and direct it to the chancellor, and have the same remedy here as he could there. Ordered that the cause stand to be heard on the bill in this court; and after hearing, the cause was dismissed out of this Chan. Cases, 31. Mich. 15 Car. 2. Rich v. Jaquis.

2. Plaintiff brought a certiorari bill; the defendant pleaded a decree in the mayor's court, and an involement, which was said to be only pronuncial; and it was referred to a master to certify whether it was before the bill. 3 Chan. Rep. 66. 24 July, 1671. Cook. v. Delabere.

F£2

ther

3. A certiorari was not allowed to remove proceedings by English bill in the lord mayor's court into chancery, and so a demurrer held good, and a procedendo ordered, &c. 2 Chan. Rep. 108. 27 Car. 2. Sowton v. Cutler.

4. A bill was brought in the lord mayor's court, upon an agreement to take a lease of a house in Milk-street Market. The desendant there answered, that he was only a trustee for Allen, who promised to indemnify him; and in the name of the said Allen he brought a certiorari bill, but a procedendo was decreed. Fin. Rep. 224. Trin. 27 Car. 2. Doegood v. Allen.

5. A certiorari bill may be brought to remove a cause out of a court of equity in a county palatine into chancery; by Ld. Keeper.

Vern. 178. pl. 170. Trin. 1683. Portington v. Tarbock.

6. Two plaintiffs here sue for lands in the county palatine of Durham. One of them lives in Middlesex, and the other is an old insurem man, and not able to follow the suit; therefore a certiorari was granted to the chancellor of Durham, to certify the proceedings depending before him into this court. Curs. Canc. 454-cites Chan. Rep. 62. [But it is miscited.]

7. If on a certiorari bill the cause is brought on to hearing, the court, if they think sit, may make a decree, or send it back to the mayor's court to be determined there; and sometimes the court sends it back after publication passed, and a subpoena served to hear judgment, and before the hearing. 2 Vern. 491. pl. 443. Hill.

1704. Stephenson v. Houlditch & al'.

pus, Record, Sewer, Supersedens, and other proper titles.

Cessavit.

(A) By Statute. And of one where it shall be of another.

For the exposition of these statutes, see the several divisions under this head.

in meat or in cloth, amounting to the 4th part of the very value of the land; and be, which holdeth the land for charged, letteth it lie fresh, so that the party can find no distress there by the space of 2 or 3 years to compel the farmer to render, or to do as it containeth in the writing or lease. 2dly, It is established that, the 2 years being past, the lessor shall have an action to demand the land in demean by a writ, which he shall have out of the chancery. 3dly, And if he against whom the land is demanded, come before judgment and

and pay the arrearages and the damages, and find surety (such as the court shall think sufficient) to pay from henceforth, as it containeth in the writing of his lease, he shall keep the land. *4thly, And if he tarry until it be recovered by judgment, he shall be barred for ever.

2. Westm. 2. 13 E. 1. cap. 21. Whereas in a statute made at Gloucester, cap. 4. it is contained, that if any lease his lands to another to pay the value of the 4th part of the land, or more, the lessor or his heir, after the payment hath ceased by 2 years, shall have an action to demand the land so leased in demean. 2dly, In like manner is agreed, that if any with-hold from his lord his due and accustomed service by 2 years, the lord shall have an action to demand the land in demean by such a writ. 3dly, Præcipe A. quod juste, &c. reddat B. tale tenementum quod A. de eo tenuit per tale servitium, & quod ad prædictum B. reverti debet eo quod prædictus A. in faciendo prædictum servitium per biennium cessavit, ut dicitur., 2. And not only in this case, but also in the case whereof mention is made in the said statute of Gloucester, writs of entry shall be made for the beir of the demandant against the heir of the tenant, and against them to whom fuch land shall be aliened.

3. If there be lord, mesne, and tenant, and the tenant ceases for 2 years, the lord shall have a cessavit against the tenant paravail, supposing that the mesne in doing his services per biennium jam cessavit; for the cesser of the tenant is a cesser as to all the mesnes; per Fitzherbert and diverse serjeants, and several e contra; and it seems that it cannot be law; for then the act of the tenant shall prejudice the mesne of his mesnalty. Br. Cessavit, pl. 1. cites 27

H. 8, 28.

4. If an abbot loses by cessavit, this shall bind his successor. . Cessavit, pl. 34. cites Doct. & Stud. lib. 2. fol. 8.

5. The same law seems to be of a bishop, and parson of a church. Ibid.

6. But if baron and feme, seised in jure uxoris, lose by cessavit, it shall bind the feme, Ibid.

(B). Lies of what.

1. IF lands held lie in several counties, the lord may distrain; Kelw. 105. but assis nor cessavit does not lie; per Hill J. Br. Cessa- pl. 18. con-vu, pl. 21. cites 18 Aff, 1,

2. Cessayit lies of an advowson; for this lies in tenure, and Br. Quare so it is adjudged about 22 E. 3. per Vavisor & Davers. But it Impedit, pl. does not lie in tenure; per Townsend & Brian. Br. Cessavit, pl 22. cites 5 H. 7. 37.

3. 15. that ceffavit lies of advowion; but Brooke says, quære inde; for it seems that præcipe quod reddat does not lie of it, writ of right, darren presentment, or qua. impedit. ____ 2 Inst. 297. says it is holden that a cestavit does lie of an advowfon, and yet it is not in demesne; and overt, and sufficient to his distress, cannot be pleaded.

Br. Cessavit, pl. 6. cites 43 E. 3. 15. S. P.

3. Coffavit, that the tenant held of the plaintiff by homage, fealty, fuit of court and rent, and that in doing the services aforesaid per Ff3 biennium

There muk be a tenure between the feoffor and the feoffee in fee fimple; for a cessavit lies not upon a refervation a tenure. 2 Inst. 296. and fays it was fo adjudged in 11 E. 2. *[365] biennium jam cessavit, and so the writ and the count is in doing services, and yet ceffavit does not lie of homage nor of fealty, but of things annual, viz. of rent, and of fuit of court, well; per tot. cur. quod nota. And the defendant said that he held by fealty and the rent only, absque hoc that he held by homoge, fealty, suit of court, without such and the rent modo & forma; and as to this rent, the land was always open to his distress. And per Prisot, if the lord has no court the tenant may * allege it; and per Littleton, he cannot traverse the tenure by homage in this action; for cessavit does not lie of bomage. But per Prisot clearly, he may traverse the homage as above; for if he takes it only by protestation, and the plea is found against him, the protestation shall not serve. Br. Cessavit, pl. 2. cites 33 H. 6. 44, 45.

2 Inft. 296. S. P.

4. Cessavit does not lie of bemage and fealty; for those are not annual, and yet the count is that he holds by homage, fealty, 10 s. rent, and suit of court, and that in doing the services aforesaid per biennium jam cessavit; for there is no other form; but the cesser shall be intended of the rent and suit which are annual, and not of homage and fealty. Br. Cessavit, pl. 23. cites 6 H. 7.7.

3. Cessavit lies of suit of court. Br. Cessavit, pl. 35. cites F.

N. B. 209.

(C) For whom it lies.

1. TENANT in dower, or for life, of a seignory, shall have cessavit if the tenant ceases, &c. Br. Cessavit, pl. 29.

cites 32 E. 1. and 43 E. 3. 15.

2. If two coparceners are lords, and the tenant ceases, and the 2 Inft. 403. one coparcener dies, the other shall not have cessavit; for it was S. P. and cites Cessavit 42. S. C.— given to him and to another who is dead; and hence it appears, F N.B.209, that the heir shall not have cessavit of cesser in the time of his ances-(F)S.P. and tors. Br. Cessavit, pl. 29. cites 33 E. 3. cites S.C.

---- 8 Rep. 118. a. cites S. C. and Pl. C. 110. a. and fays the reason is, that the tenant before judgment may render the arrears and damages, &c. and retain his land, which he cannot do when the heir brings cessavit for the cesser in his ancestor's time; for the arrears, which incurred then, do not belong to the heir, and this being against common right and reason, the common law adjudges the act of parliament void as to this point.

3. But it seems, that where two jointenants are lords, and the Br. Cessavit, pl. 32. cites tenant ceases, and one dies, the other shall have cessavit; for S. C. there the whole is in the survivor by the first feeffor, and not by 2 Inft. 402 him who died. Br. Cessavit, pl. 29. cites 33 E. 3. cites S. C. & S.P.-F. N. B. 209. (F) S. P.

A cessavit lies not against tenant in tail, or tenant for life, unlefs the remainder be limit-

4. Cessavit was brought against tenant for life, the remainder our in tail, the reversion to the demandant, and therefore by the best opinion the action does not lie; for it is said there, that none shall have cessavit if he has not fee in the seigniory, and that he may recover the fee-simple of the tenancy; and notwithstanding that this gift was made to hold of the chief lord, yet cellavit does not lic

Me where the fee remains in the demandant. Br. Cessavit, pl. 9 ed over to another in fee so as he is tenant to the lord as tenant by the curtefy is. 2 Inst. 295. and S. C. cited in the marg.——But where the gift is made for term of life, the remainder over in fee, the cessavit lies; for there the lord shall be compelled to change avowry; contra subere the donor has the reversion. Br. Cessavit, pl. 9. cites 45 E. 3. 27.

5. Note, it is a good plea in cessavit, that the father of the demandant gave the land to him in tail; judgment si actio; for cessavit does not lie for the donor or his beir against the donee, nor bis issue. Br. Cessavit, pl. 3. cites 33 H. 6. 53.

6. But the lord may have cellavit in the degrees against the tenant [ 366 ] in tail, or his iffue, of a cesser before the gift, as it seems there.

Ibid.

7. He subo bas a seigniory for term of years, shall not have cessolve favit; but he who has a seigniory for term of life may have life, or in cessavit; the diversity is, inasmuch as it is præcipe quod reddat, tail; but he which the termor cannot have. Br. Cessavit, pl. 40. cites 9 H.7. 16. in reversion shall not have cessavit against the done in tail, or tenant for life; for he in reversion is not dominus within this statute. 2 Inst. 401.

8. So of tenant by the curtefy. Br. Cessavit, pl. 29. cites Fitzh. Cessavit 59. 42.

9. If baron and feme are intitled to cessavit in jure uxoris, and the baron dies, the seme shall have the cessavit. Br. Cessavit, pl. 33.

10. Donor in tail shall not have cessavit. Br. Cessavit, pl. 35. But where a man gives in tail, the remainder over in see, the chief lord of whom the donor held shall have cessavit if the tertenant ceases. Ihid. In cessavit brought by the donor against the donee in tail the writ was abated. Thel. Dig. 173. lib. 11. cap. 53. s. 10. cites Trin. 19 E. 3. Cessavit 30. and that so agrees Mich. 28 E. 3. 95. and Mich. 33 H. 5. 53. but says, the writ of cessavit lies well for the lord paramount against the tenant in tail, the remainder over, and says see the same books.

vaile ceases by two years, the lord shall have cessavit against the tenant, and suppose that the mesne ceased. 2 Inst. 402.

12. If the tenant ceases by one year, and the lord grants over his 3 Bult. seigniory, and then the tenant ceases another year, neither of them is $\frac{253}{5}. \text{cites}$ S. C. 92. dominus within this act. 2 Inst. 401. cites 2 Rep. 93. [a. Trin. & 93. a. where it is faid, that where two accidents are requisite, and the one happens in the time of one, and the other in the time of another, in such a case neither the one nor the other shall take benefit of this, because that both did not fall in the time of any of them, and both are requisite to the consummation of the thing.—Doderidge denied the case of cessavit in Bingham's Case. 2 Rep. Palm. 417. Pasch. 1 Car. B. R.

(D) Against whom it lies.

THE lessor shall not have cessavit against bis lesse for life. Thel. Dig. 173. lib. 11. cap. 53. s. 12. cites Mich. 11 E. 2. Cessavit 51.

2. And it does not lie against tenant in dower the reception to a stranger. Thel. Dig. 173. lib. 11. cap. 53. st. 12. cites Mich. 13 E. 2. Cessavit 51.

3. Nor against tenant for life, the reversion to a stranger. Thel.

Dig. 173. lib. 11. cap. 53. s. 12. cites Trin. 8 E. 3. 407.

4. If the tenant infeoffs one who ceases, or is disserted by one who ceases, in those cases cessavit lies well against the seoffee or dissers, without other privity, or without other seisin than the seisin which was had by the hands of the seoffer or disserte. Br. Cessavit, pl. 36. cites 19 E. 3. and Fitzh. Brief 249.

5. Cessavit will lie against tenant of the franktenement. Br.

Cessavit, pl. 28. cites 29 E. 3. and Fitzh. Cessavit 43.

6. Cessavit against three who made default, and at the grand cape tendered their law to be waged of non-summons, and at the day two made default, and the third came and said that he was tenant of the whole, and tendered the arrearages, & non allocatur; for they waged their law in common before, and there he cannot say that the others had nothing, and also he cannot tender the arrears for all; for as well as the other two may alien their parts, they may forseit their parts. Br. Cessavit, pl. 4. cites 40 E. 3.

7. And after he faid that J. was seised, and infeoffed the three, and to the heirs of him, by which he prayed to be received for two parts, and was received, and found surety of two parts only; for of the third he may lose; for he is party, therefore of this he shall not find surety. Quod nota. Ibid.

8. It was said that cessavit lies against tenant for term of life, the remainder over in see, &c. Nota bene. Br. Cessavit, pl. 20.

cites 14 H. 6. 25. at the end.

(E) Brought how. And Abatement of Writ and Count.

1. CESSAVIT against A. and B. by several pracipes, and after the writ was that pradict A. and B. tenent de eo per certe servitia & qua ad insum revertere debent eo quod prad A. & B. &c. cessaverunt, &c. and held good, notwithstanding that they joined in tenure and in the cesser. Thel. Dig. 107. lib. 10. c2p. 16. 1. 2. cites Mich. 20 E. 2. Brief 826. Cessavit 48.

2. In cessavit against two by several pracipes, that both hold of bim per certa servicia, & quod cessaverunt in common, and yet held good. Thel. Dig. 113. lib. 10. cap. 23. s. cites Mich. 20 E. 2. Brief 826. Mich. 3 E. 3. 100. and says see 30 E. 3. 32. in fcire facias accordingly.

Thel. Dig. 83. lib. 9. cap. 5. f. 15. cites S. C.

3. A man counted that the manor of D. was held of him, and that J. N. had entered into part, and that the tenant had ceased, where he has alleged the whole manor to be held, and that the tenant having part of the manor had ceased in that part, and yet the writ good; and so it seems that the services shall be apportioned tioned upon disseilin. Br. Cessavit, pk 27. cites 8 E. 3. and Vet. Nat. Brev. tit. Cessavit.

4. In cessavit a man shall not put title in the writ, as which he claims esse jus, &c. Thel. Dig. 106. lib. 10. cap. 14. s. 10. cites Hill. 10 E. 3. Brief 690. inasmuch as it is given by the statute.

5. In cessavit the writ was quod reddat terram quam Jo. de S. de eo tenuit per servitia, &c. and which to him reverti debet eo quod pred' tenens cessavit, &c. and yet adjudged good, without making any privity, between Jo. de S. and the tenant. Thel. Dig. 105. lib. 10. cap. 13. s. 2. cites Mich. 11 E. 3. Brief 477. and that so agrees Mich. 19 E. 3. Brief 249.

6. In cestavit the writ was in which he had not entry unless by B. who held it of the ancestor of the demandant, &c. and supposed the cesser in the now tenant of the land, without supposing the now tenant to be tenant to the demandant, and yet adjudged a good writ. Thel. Dig. 105. lib. 10. cap. 13. s. cites Hill. 14 E. 3. Br. 269. and that so it is adjudged Hill. 48 E. 3. 4. and that the ceffer is well supposed in the present tenant of the land; and cites Pasch. 39 E. 3. 17.

7. In cessavit of land, if the demandant distrains for fealty pending the writ, his writ shall abate. Thel. Dig. 188. lib. 12. cap.

23. s. 2. cites Trin. 20 E. 3. Cessavit 33.

8. If a man brings cessavit against N. who aliens to S. pending the writ, and the demandant takes the rent and homage of S. and after recovers against N. there S. shall avoid the recovery; for by the acceptance of the rent and homage the writ is abated, and [ 368 ] the action extinct; per Stone. Quære. Br. Cessavit, pl. 15. cites 21 E. 3. 18.

9. And if he receives rent or homage pending his writ, it shall abate. Thel. Dig. 188. lib. 12. cap. 23. s. 2. cites 21 E. 3. 23. 21 Aff. 6.

10. Cessavit against B. supposing that C. held the tenements of the Ibid. says, demandant, and that B. by two years had ceased; Grene said, you should have the writ in the per, and Wilby said, he shall have it so, where the ceffer was before the entry, and not otherwise. And H. and M. where a man disseises my tenant I shall have cessavit of the cesser after the disseis. And it seems by the case, that where the te- and M. 19 nant ceases and makes feoffment, the cessavit shall be in the per; contra where the feoffee ceases, there shall be no degrees; so against disseisor; but where the cessavit is of the cesser of the disseise says quære before the disseisn, the writ shall be in the post; per Stouf. And that if the very tenant leases for life or in tail, [and the lessee] ceases by two years, he shall have no writ but as above, without life, or in making mention of any degrees. And so the first writ awarded good, and therefore it seems that it was of cesser after the alienation. Br. Cessavit, pl. 17. cites 21 E. 3. 44.

see such matters M. 11 E. 3. and 14 E. 3. and P. 16 E. 3. E. 3. and Ibid. Brooke of the cessavit againf tenant for tail, where be is not bis tenant, but he in reverfion; but where the remainder is over in fee it lies well. ---- Where there are lord and tenant, and the tenant leases for life, the remainder in tail, saving the reversion to the tenant, in such case the lord shall not bave cessavit against the lessre for life; but otherwise it is if the remainder be in sec. Thel. Dig. 172. lib. 11. cap. 53. f. 5. cites Trin. 45 E. 3. 27.

11. Cessavit

ceased, and the writ good, without alleging any entry; quere of this; for the cessavit shall lie against the tenant of the franktenement; and therefore it seems that he shall allege no cesser but the cesser of him who is tenant of the franktenement, and holds of him. Br. Cessavit, pl. 28. cites 29 E. 3. and Fitzh. Cessavit 43.

12. In oessavit against an abbot de uno messo quod ro. dimist Richardo quondam abb' predecessori, &c. which to the demandant reverti debet so quod predictus abbas in faciendo, &c. cessavit, &c. the cesser shall be intended in the abbot against whom the writ is brought. Thel. Dig. 99. lib. 10. cap. 9. s. 8. cites Pasch. 32

E. 3. Brief 291.

demised it to him, and who keld it of him by certain services, and which to the aforesaid B. ought to revert per formam, &c. because the tenant had ceased, and alleged seisin in the count by the bands of J. N. the feoffor, and no seisin by the hands of the tenant, and yet the writ good. Br. Cessavit, pl. 19. cites 39 E.3.

Thel. Dig. 105. lib. 10. cap. 13. f.4. cites S. C. and fays, this is by the flat. of Westm. 2.

14. Cessavit, supposing that the ancestor of the demandant had given the land to the predecessor of the tenant to find mass every Monday, and that in doing services he ceased, and the tenant demanded judgment of the writ, because it is not expressed that the tenant had of the demandant, and upon argument non allocatur, but the writ awarded good. Br. Cessavit, pl. 8. cites 45 E. 3. 15.

Fap. 43. 15. Cessavit was brought against W. of a house, supposing that Thel. Dig. be bad not entry unless by H. who held the tenements of him by bo. 373. lib. 11. cap. 54. f.8. mage, fealty, and fuit of court, and 10s. and that the tenant had cites Mich. ceased, and the writ was awarded good, notwithstanding that he 34 E. 2. Brief 815. alleged seisin in the one and cesser in the other; quod nota; and and that so after the tenant demanded judgment of the writ, because the predeagrees Hill. ceffor of the plaintiff gave the house and a shop to hold by one entire 14 E. 3. Brief 269. service, and it was awarded no plea unless the tenant will sey notwiththat the shop is not parcel of the house, or allege a several tenancy of Randing that the shop in abatement of the writ; quod nota; for it may be the entry is Jupposed beparcel of the house. Br. Cessavit, pl. 10. cites 48 E. 3. 4. fore the cef-

fer. 48 E. 3.4.——And where a man by deed gives maner and adversion, or house and shop, by express words, where the advowson is appendant, or the shop is parcel of the house, yet it is no especially after to say that the one was appendant and the other parcel; by Finch. by which the writ was awarded good. Br. Cessavit, pl. 10. cites 48 E. 3. 4.

Wherefore he said, that where the demandant supposes the tenements to be held by homege, feelty, and suit of court, and 10s. his predecessor gave to hold by 10s. for all services, and as to this open to his distress, and the best opinion there was, that the demandant ought to maintain the tenure, and not to take iffue upon the being epon to distress; for where the one alleges tenure of 104. and the other that of 2 dist may be open to the one, and not to the other Ibid.

16. Agreed that a man may plead to the count as to parcel, and in bar for the rest, and there the count shall not abate but for the parcel; quod nota. Br. Cessavit, pl. 10. cites 48 E. 3.4.

17. In cessavit the writ shall abate for parcel for default in the count as to this parcel, and stand for the rest. Thel. Dig. 236. lib. 16. cap. 10. s. 25. cites 48 E. 3. 5.

18. The

held by one,

18. The lord shall not allege esplees in cessavit or escheat, for those are ratione dominii, and by seisin therein, and not by feisin in the land. Br. Ceffavit, pl. 31. cites 21 H. 6. 22.

19. Ceffavit does not lie of homage and fealty, for they are not annual, and yet the count is, that he bolds by homage, fealty, 10s. rent, and suit of court, and that in doing the services aforesaid per biennium jam cessavit; for there is no other form; but the cesser shall be intended of the rent and suit which are annual, and not of homage and fealty. Br. Cessavit, pl. 23. cites 6 H. 7. 7.

20. In cessavit, if the tenant says that he held of the plaintiff by supposing feveral tenures, and not by one entire payment, this goes to the writ, the tene. and not to the action; per cur. Br. Cessavit, pl. 42. cites 10 H. ments to be intire tenancy, if the tenant says, that he holds parcel by certain services, and other parcel by others, and shews the deeds of him whose estate the demandant has in the seigniory, the demandant may maintain his writ, not with standing these deeds. Thel. Dig. 227. lib. 16. cap. 7. s. 26. cites Mich. 14 E. 3. Cessavit 28.

7- 24-

21. The flat. W. 2. 13 E. 1. cap. 21. extends not to rent-service created upon a fee-farm, but cessavit upon a fee-farm must be conceived upon the statute of Gloucester, for which purpose there are several writs in the Register. 2 Inst. 401.

(F) Plea.

1. TN cessavit of a tost, the tenant pleaded to the writ, that this land which is called toft is the fite of a mill, and an * estange * Or a pool secke, &c. & non allocatur; but he was received after to say, that be had nothing unless in right of his feme not named, &c. Dig. 90. lib. 10. cap. 1. s. 24. cites Trin. 14 E. 3. Brief 277.

2. In cessavit the tenant said, that he bad nothing but for term of life, the remainder to another in tail, the remainder to the leffor, &c. judgment of the writ, yet the writ was held good enough and maintainable. Thel. Dig. 173. lib. 11. cap. 53. f. 11. cites 28 E. 3. 96.

3. In cessavit the tenant, where it is of bis + own cesser, shall + s.p. Br. not have the view, by which he said, that as to all but one toft Cessavit, plant held of him and to the toft at the different thing. Time it said 18. cites 4 not beld of bim, and to the toft open to his diffress, prift; Tirwit said, H. 6. 29. ou should say, open to his sufficient distress; but per cur. open to But contra his distress, is taken open to sufficient distress, and so to issue. if it be of

Br. Cessavit, pl. 12. cites 2 H. 4.5.

4. In cessavit the demandant counted that the tenant held of him bouse and 20 actes of land by bomage, fealty, and 20 s. rent, &c. The tenant said as to one acre, parcel of the land in demand, he beld it of the demandant by fealty and I d. for all services; and that he held 2 other acres, parcel of the premises, by fealty and a halfpenny for all services; and that he held 3 acres, parcel of the premises, by fealty and one balf-penny for all services; absque boc that he held, &c. by one intire service and to the rest be did not hold of bim, and admitted for a good plea. Br. Cessavit, pl. 18. cites 4 H. 6. 29.

370 J

In this writ the tenure between the demandant have cessavit without seisin within time of memory. Br. Cessavit, and the tenure or the cessarity and the tenure or the cessarity and the tenure of memory. Br. Cessavit, and the tenure or the cessarity and the tenure of memory. Br. Cessavit, and the tenure or the cessarity and the tenure of memory. Br. Cessavit, and the tenure of the cessarity and the tenure of memory. Br. Cessavit, and the tenure of the cessarity and the tenure of memory. Br. Cessavit, and the tenure of the cessarity and th versable, because this writ is grounded upon the tenure by force of this act; but in this writ the seisin is not traversable, because it is not grounded upon the seisin, neither is the quantity of the services traversable, but to be taken by protestation; for whether he holds by more or less, the cessavit lies. But in an advowry the seisin is traversable, for that it is grounded as well upon the seisin as the tenure. Also in the cessavit the land is to be recovered, and not the services; and it is in its nature a writ, and the jury shall measure in their consciences the quantity of the service. 2 Inst. 296.

6. In cessavit it is no plea that the land is sufficient to his distress, but shall say open and sufficient to his distress; for if it be inclosed, this is cause to have assise. Br. Cessavit, pl. 24. cites 10 E. 4. 1, 2.

Hors de son 7. And, as to part, the defendant said that it is out of the fee fee is not 2 good plea in of the plaintiff, & non allocatur. Ibid. cessavit, because the tenure is traversable. 2 Inst. 296.

8. And it was brought against baron and seme, and counted of 7 acres held by 8 d. and the baron and seme pleaded to issue, and the baron at the day made default, and petit cape awarded, and at the day the baron made default, and the seme was received, and said that as to one acre she held by fealty and 2 d. which was open and sufficient to his distress, and to another acre she pleaded in the same manner, and to the rest she said that she held of him as above, absque bot that she held the 7 acres of the plaintist modo & forma, prout, &c. and so see that she pleaded immediately upon her resceipt. Ibid.

Br. Brief, pl. 393. cites S. C.

- o. Cessavit of a house and 22 acres of land, and alleged certain fervices, &c. The tenant said that he was not tenant of the mainty the day of the writ purchased, nor at any time after had he any thing in this moiety, but J. B. was entire tenant; judgment of the writ; and per Littleton and Catesby, this is a good plea without answering to the rest, because the services are intire; for he alone cannot desend the tenancy for the intire services, nor tender the arrears without his companion. Br. Cessavit, pl. 26. eites 21 E. 4. 25.
- 10. In ceffavit the writ was, that in his bomage nor fealty, rent and suit of court, and in doing the services he ceased, &c. and yet it does not lie of homage nor fealty, and yet good, because there is no other form of writ. Br. General Brief, pl. 13. cites 7 H. 7. 2.

11. If the domandant in the cessavit be outlawed in a personal action, this outlawry may be pleaded in bar of the action, because the arrearages are due to the King. 2 Inst. 298.

(G) Judgment. And of the Tender of Arrears, and finding Surety for the Arrears.

I. I N a cessavit after the inquest joined, the tenant made default, and at the return of the petit cape the tenant appeared, and offered to pay the arrearages with damages, and to find such surety as the court would award, which was received, because he came before judgment, and sound surety, viz. 3 pledges, which bound their lands to the distress of the lord in the same form as the tenant's land is bound. 2 Inst. 297. cites Trin. 9 E. 2. 65.

2. Dean and chapter brought cessavit. The tenant said that he did not hold of them, and it was found against him by verdict at nisi prius, and at the day in bank the tenant came and tendered the arrears, and found surety, &c. that he should cease no more; and the court would not award, that if he at another time ceased, the land should be liable to the rest by reason of the mortmain; but he had other land in the same vill, by which Shard. awarded that he hold his land in peace, and that if the rent be any more arrear, that the dean and chapter shall distrain in all bis other lands in the same vill; and that when he shall again cease by 2 years, he shall be bound to pay to the dean and chapter 40 s. and that he have execution by fieri facias or elegit, and the pain was entered in the roll; and it was faid there, that the statute does not mention that a man shall tender the damages with the arrears; but by the reporter it has been used that he tender damages and arrears. But M. 17 E. 3. 57. they would not fuffer other land to be made liable to the distress of a prior in cessavit, by reason of the mortmain; and after the court awarded damages of one mark. And so see that the tender of arrears before judgment above suffices, though it be after verdict. Quod nota. Br. Cessavit, pl. 16. cites 21 E. 3. 23.

3. In ceffavit the tenant pleaded that he did not hold of him, and when the inquest came, and before verdict, the tenant confessed to hold of him, and tendered the arrears of 4 years; and the demandant said that he was arrear by 12 years, and the court took inquest to inquire how long time he was arrear, and the inquest said that by 9 years; and then the tenant tendered the arrears for 9 years; and well before judgment, though it was after verdict; and he offered surety that if he was arrear afterwards by two years, that the land should answer the rest; and the court awarded that if he he arrear afterwards by one year, that he shall have scire facias to recover the land and pleages, or surety to pay 101. For it may be that the land is not worth the rent if the house decays. Quod nota. Br. Cessavit, pl. 5. cites 41 E.

3. 29.

4. Surety in cessavit shall be found in proper person, and not by attorney. Br. Cessavit, pl. 11. cites 50 E. 3. 22.

5. In cessavit de potura pauperum, he who is received shall tender the arrears according to the value by the year; per Hank. which Thirn Thirn denied; for it is not payable to the demandant; and therefore quære, in this case, if the demandant shall recover seism of the land, or if the tenant upon this matter shall be excused, and shall find surety that he will not cease again, &c. Br. Cessavit, pl. 14. cites 12 H. 4. 24.

Where the set fays that he shall tender the arrears it is to be understood of

6. In cessavit of masses, suit of court, and the like, where a mass cannot tender the arrears, yet this shall be in the discretion of the justices to put it into a sum certain to the plaintist, in recompence of the suit or masses. Br. Cessavit, pl. 38, cites 34 H. 4, 3, 4. Per Skrene and Thirn.

such things as may be yielded, as rent, &c. but of suit, divine service, and such like, which cannot be yielded, damages shall be paid for the same. 2 Inst. 297.

[372]

7. In cessavit the tenant pleaded jointenancy with another of the gift of J. K. and they were at issue, and when the jury appeared the tenant said that he would confess the tenure, and tender the arrears; but they were in doubt if the finding of sureties should be by discretion of the justices, or that the demandant may relinquish the sureties or not; and the opinion of the court was, that the demandant cannot relinquish them, because the statute is that he shall find sureties, such as the court shall think sufficient by the statute of Gloucester, cap. 4. But the surety shall not be that the land shall incur the residue, when a religious person is demandant, for doubt of mortmain; but the collateral surety, or other penalty, shall be taken. Br. Cessavit, pl. 25. cites 19 E. 4. 5.

8. And also, if the land out of which the rent and services are issuing, confifts of buildings, or of other profit casual, there he shall find surety. Br. Cessavit, pl. 25. cites 19 E. 4. 5.

• See the Year-Book, pi. 2. S. C.

- 9. And if feme be received by default of her baron, and she will tender the arrears, and find surety, * [she shall not find such surety] that the land shall incur the residue, because [then] she may at another time lose her land if the rent be arrear after the death of her baron. Ibid.
- 10. And quære, if an infant shall find surety that the land shall incur the residue or other collateral surety for a penalty, Ibid.
- 11. If tenant of the whole pleads that he was not tenant the day of the writ purchased, nor any time after, and this matter is found against him, he shall lose the whole land; for it is peremptory. Br. Cessavit, pl. 26. cites 21 E. 4. 25. per Brian.

2 Inft. 297. 8. P. and cites S. C.

- 12. In cessavit the tenant shall tender the arrears in proper perfon, and not by attorney, though he be a lord of parliament. Br. Cessavit, pl. 39. cites 15 H. 7. 9, 10.
- 13. He ought to tender all the arrearages, for so are the indefinite words to be taken, as well before as after the 2 years, and damages to be allowed of by the court; but if the demandant do not allege how much is behind over and above the 2 years, &c. and that be found by the jury that finds the iffue, the tenant need not tender more than for the two years, because it appears not of record, or by necessary consequence, as such arrearages as incur the hanging the writ; and for any arrearages incurred before this tender the lord shall not avow, because the tenant ought to have paid all. 2 Inst. 297.

the

14. If A. and B. be seised to them and the heirs of A., and B. makes default, A may tender for the whole in respect of his remainder.

mainder. 2 Inst. 298.

15. The court may affels the damages by their discretion.
2 Inst. 297.

For more of Cessavit in general, see Abatement, Advotvey, Evidente, Rent, and other proper titles.

(A) Cession.

[373]

1. DEAN takes a prebend in the same church, quære if this makes a cession? D. 273. pl. 35. Pasch. 10 Eliz.

2. Bisboprick of Man makes cession of a parsonage in England. Palm. 3442

Lat. 235. Arg. cites it as so resolved, 15 Jac.

3. The trial of whether cession or not doth properly belong to the common law. Winch. 63. Pasch. 21 Jac. C. B. in Thornton's case.

4. No cession by a parson's being made titulary bishop, as of Soof his be-Jerusalem, Chalcedon, or Utopia; by Banks. Arg. Lat. 235. ing made a bishop in Italy; Arg. Palm. 349.

and ibid. 459. fays, that as to what was faid by Banks in his argument, nothing was faid to it.

5. The election of an incumbent to be a bishop does not make a cession, but the vacancy accrues by the consecration, and not till then; resolved. Carth. 314, 315. Trin. 6 W. & M. in B. R. The King and Queen v. Bishop of London and Dr. Lancaster.

For more of Cession in general, see Prerogative, Preunta: tion, and other proper titles.

(A) Chancellor of a Church.

- Hancellor is vicar-general to the bishop, and if the bishop will not chuse a chancellor the metropolitan ought; for the bishop cannot be judge in his own consistory, and therefore if the bishop provides an insufficient chancellor, it properly belongs to their law to examine it; per Richardson Ch. J. Litt. Rep. 22. Hill. 2 Car. C. B. Doctor Sutton's case.
- 2. A prohibition was granted to the spiritual court, because the bishop articled against his chancellor for insufficiency, and other misdemeanors, and prayed that he might be deprived, which they have no power to do; and they denied Sutton's case, I Cro. 64. to be law. 12 Mod. 47. Mich. 5 W. & M. Jones v. the Bishop of Landasse.
- 3. Chancellor of a church has a freehold in his office by grant, and not by institution and induction, as every bishop and parson has, and therefore for such office, the proper remedy is an affise. Cum. 305. Mich. 6 W. & M. B. R. Jones v. the Bishop of St. Asaph.

For more of Chancellor of a Church in general, see other proper titles.

Fol. 384.

Chancellor.

(A) Chancellor. [His Antiquity, &c.]

4 Inft. 78. [1. THERE were chancellors in England before the coming of the Normans into this realm, Jan. Anglorum 127. for it is cited that Reimbold was chancellor to king Edward the conantiquity in fessor; and there are divers other chancellors cited [to have been] this realm, it is of no less, as our learned Selden conceives, than king Ethelbert's time, who was the first christian king of the Saxons; for in a charter of his to the church of Canterbury, bearing date in the year of Christ 605, amongst other witnesses thereto, there is augemundus referendarius mentioned; where referendarius (saith he) may well stand for cancellarius; and that the office of both (as the words applied to the court are used in the Code, Novels, and story of the declining empire) signifying an officer who received petitions and supplications to the king, and made out his writs and mandates as a custos legis; and though (saith he) there were divers referendarii, as sometimes 13, then 8, then more again, and so divers charcellors in the empire; yet one especially here exercising an office of the nature of those many, might well be stiled by either of those names. Dug. Orig. Jurid, 32. cap. 16. s. 2.

[2. Mich

2. Mich. 14 Jac. B. R. Upon evidence at the bar, a charter of William the conqueror was shewn under the seal of the said king, which was fubscribed by several lords as witnesses, in which I saw that it was subscribed per Mauricium regis cancellarium, after the bishops, and before the abbots.]

3. The chancellor shall have the presentation to all benefices of S.P. But if the king under 20 marks. Br. Presentation, pl. 17. cites 38 E. 3.3,4 the chancellor's prefentation recites it to be under 20 L per ann. where it is above 20 l, per ann. the presentation is void, for such belongs not to the chancellor, and before induction; the king may revoke such presentation. Jenk. 292. pl. 33. cites Hob. 244. Li. Chancellor's case.

4. That the kings before the conquests had not any seals, (the custody of which in succeeding times was one of the principal duties belonging to this office of chancellor) Ingulphus (who lived in the Norman conqueror's days) seemeth somewhat positively to assirm. Nam chirographorum confectionem Anglicanam (saith he) quæ antea, usque ad Edwardi regis tempora, fidelium præsentium subscriptionibus cum crucibus aureis aliisque sacris signaculis sirma fuerunt; Normanni condemnantes, chirographa cartas vocabant, & chartarum firmitatem, cum cerea impressione, per unius cujusque speciale figillum, sub instillatione trium vel quatuor testium astantium, conficere constituebant, &c. Dugd. Orig. Jurid. 33.

cap. 16.

5. Of what power and authority the chancellor was in these elder times, or what his office, is not easily made out, the reading, allowing, and perhaps dictating royal grants, charters, writs, &c. keeping and affixing the king's feal to them, as the learned * Sir Henry Spelman thought, and may also be gathered from Mr. Dugdale's Discourse of the Chancery, was the greatest part of their trust and employment, and that he had no causes pleaded before him untill the time of Ed. 3. and those not many till the reign of Hen. 4. nor are there any decrees to be found in chancery before the 20th of Hen. 6. Be his power and office what it would then, it quas less than that of the justiciary, who was next to the king in place of judicature; by his office he presided in the exchequer, the chancellor sitting on his left hand, as Gervase of Tilbury tells us, and by his office was the first man in the kingdom after the king; and that under his own teste, he could cause the king's writ to be made out, to deliver what sum he would out of the exchequer. The chancellor was the first in order on the left hand of the justiciary; and he was a great person in court, so he was in the exchequer, for no great thing paffed but with his consent and advice, that is, nothing could be sealed without his allowance or privity, as it there appears. Brady's Preface to the Norman History, 152 (F) 153 (A).

6. Constituting a chancellor, does not constitute a court of equity, as in the case of chancellor of the garter, &c. There was a chancellor of the court of augmentations, and yet neither of them ever held a court of equity; per Hale Ch. J. 2 Lev. 24. Mich.

23 Car. 2. B. R.

VOL. IV.

G.g

7. The

[375]

* Spelm. Gloff. fol. 106, 107.

7. The chancellor (during the time of the grand justiciar) before the breaking the courts into distinct jurisdictions, bad the custody of the seal, and therefore issued all originals returnable before the justiciar. But when the jurisdictions were distinguished, the originals relating to civil pleas were returnable before the justices of C.B. But the originals in trespass might be returnable in either court, because the plea was criminal as well as civil, but B. R. themselves made out the process in criminal matters; for in this they shared with the power of the chancery, though the chancery continued to be the soot and basis of a civil jurisdiction; but the criminal jurisdiction was returned coram rege, and not coram justiciariis de banco. Gilb. Hist. View of Exch. 7, 8.

(B) Chancellor. Keeper. Writs Original. [Not to be delayed or fold.]

[1. MIRROR of Justices, fol. 3. b. it was ordained that the court of the king was open to all plaintiffs; per quod, they should have, without delay, writs remedial as well upon the king, upon the queen, as upon other of the people, of every injury, but in or vengeance of life and member, or plaint held without writ.]

*4 Inft. 78.

[2. Mirror of Justices, * fol. 3. it was ordained by ancient kings, that every one should have out of the king's chancery, a writ remedial upon his complaint without difficulty; & ibidem, fol. 27. s. 13. in the title of the personal offences at the suit of the king, there it is thus, (&c.) I say for our lord the king, that Sim. there is perjured, and has falsified his faith against the king; for that whereas the said Sim. was the king's chancellor, and was sworn that he would not sell, deny, nor delay right, nor a writ remedial to any plaintiff; the same Sim. such a day, &c. sold to such a one a writ of attaint, or other remedial, and would not grant it to bim for less than for half a mark; & ibidem, fol. 64. cap. 5. among the abuses of the law it is said that one is, that writs remedial are vendible, and that the king fends to the sheriffs to take surety for so much to our use for the writ; for by the purcase of those writs it may be one his enemy tortiously; & ibidem, fol. 70. cap. 5. among the defaults of the great charter upon the 25 cap. Nullus liber homo, &c. this point is faid, that the king grants to his people, that he will not fell right, nor deny nor delay it, and it is difused by the chancellor, who fells the writs remedial, and calls them writs of grace; ibid. fol. 50. Ordenance de judgment, by this seal only is a jurisdiction assignable to all plaintists without difficulty; and to do this the chancellor is chargeable by oath in obedience of the king's charge, that he shall not sell, deny, or delay any right, nor a writ remedial to any.]

[3. Bracton, lib. 5. De Exceptionibus, cap. 17. Sunt quedams brevia formata super certis casibus de cursu & de communi concilio to† Fol. 385. tius regni (†) concessa & approbata, que quidem nullatenus mutari poterint terint absq; consensu & voluntate eorum, & ibidem pertinet ad regem, ad quamlibet injuriam compescendam remedium competens adhibere. Brevia tamen communia inter omnes pro jure generaliter debent observari cum sint originalia, 😂 actionibus originem præstent.]

14. Rotulo Parliamenti 46. c. 3. numero 38. The commons pray, that as in the great charter it is contained, quod nulli negabimus, nulli vendemus, aut differemus justitiam vel rectum, to the intent- that of some fines which are taken in chancery in many writs contrary to the said statute, to the great impoverishment of the people, of which they pray a remedy, the faid statute. be declared.]

ANSWER.

[1. [5.] The king will use as he and his ancestors have done before these days, and will charge his chancellor, that the fines be reosonable, according to the estate of the person.]

(C) * Chancellor. Keeper.

[1. 10 E. 1. ROTULO Clauso Membrana 6. Hie 31 Martii venit Bathoniensis & Wellensis episcopus cancellarius regis de episcopatu suo ad curiam, quo die sigillum fuit ei liberatum, And there Membrana 7. memorandum 13. Feb. apud Garcot recessit Bathoniensis & Wellensis episcopus cancellarius regis a curia versus episcopatum suum, quo die sigillum fuit liberatum in garderoba regis; per manum Johannis de L. &c. 12 E. 1. Membrana 4. Cancellarius recessit de D. to S. & liberavit sigillum J. de R. & W. de S. custodiend. Simile, 18 E. 1. Membrana 14. 18 E. 1. Rotulo Finium Membrana 17.]

[2. 14 Ed. 1. Membrana 4. Cancellarius transfretravit ad partes Franciæ cum rege cumq; sigillo ipsius regis. 16 Ed. 1. M. 4. his return with the king, cum magno sigillo. 17 E. 1. Rot. Finium,

M. 4.]

[3. 20 E. I. Rotulo Clauso M. 21. Memorandum quod die Sabbati ante festum Simonis & Judæ, anno 20. apud Berewick obiit venerabilis pater Burnell cancellarius regis, & magnum sigillum regis quod fuit in custodia sua liberatum fuit in garderoba regis custo- [377] diend' eadem garderoba sub sigillo Willielmi de Hamelto qui inde brevia consignavit usque diem Mercurii proximo sequentem quo die iter arripuit versus Wells cum corpore præd' Roberti. 20 E. 1. Rotulo Finium M. 2. & Rotulo Scotiæ M. 7. the same memorandum 21 E. 1. Rotulo Finium M. 26. Magnum sigillum domini regis commissium Johanni de Langton custodiendum in prasentia, &c. qui dic crastino inde brevia consignavit.]

[4. 25 E. 1. Rotulo Clauso M. 7. The chancellor delivered the great seal to the king, and received another seal of the king's son, which should be used in the absence of the king.]

[5. 6 Ed. 1. Rot. Finium Memb. 24. Memorandum quod die Veneris proxima post sestum Sanctæ Scolasticæ Virginis apud Gg2 Dover

Of the keeping and re-delivery of the great feal, an receiving the iame, or another on certain occations.

Dover venerabilis pater R. Bathoniensis & Wellensis episcopus cancellarius regis transfretavit ad partes transmarinas & sigillum siat tunc liberatum in garderoba regis sub sigillo domini Johannis de Kerby 👡 cui cancellarius injunxit in recessu suo quod negotia cancellaria expedira, * Fol. 386. 6 Ed. 1. Rot. Cartarum (*) Membrana 2. parte 15, 16. 7 Ed. 1. Rotulo Patentium M. 15. Redelivery of the seal upon the return of the chancellor.]

[6. 25 Ed. 1. Rot. Finium M. 6. Dominus Johannes de Langton regis cancellarius in navi regis in qua rex tunc fuit paratus al transfretandum in Flandriam liberavit eidem regi magnum figilizm suum quod idem rex statim recepit & illud tradidit domino de Benestede ad custodiendum; and after in the absence of E. 1. his son, locum tenens regis liberavit prefato domino Johanni de Langton pred' regis cancellario sigillum regis, quo dum idem erat in Vasconia uti in Anglia consuevit, qui quidem Johannes sigillum a manibus domini Edvardi statim recepit & in crastino inde brevia consignavit, 27 E. 1. M. 15. upon the return of the king the said chancellor, under his seal, delivered to the king the feal which he used in his absence, and he delivered it to his treasurer to be kept in the treasury; and at the same time the king delivered the great feal, which he carried with him into

[7. 2 E. 2. Rot. Finium M. 8, 9. De liberatione magni sigille,

&c.]

He is made

Ld. Chancellor of [8. 2 E. 1. Rot. Patentium M. 8 Memorandum quod die England, or Veneris in festo Sanctí Matth. Apostoli magnum figillum regis k-Ld Keeper beratum fuit Roberto Burnell archidiacono Eborum apud Windfor, & of the great statim inde consignavit brevia cancellariæ tam de cursu quam de pre-Seal, per traditionem magni sigilli cepto.]

Flanders, to the said J. de Langton sub sigillo suo.]

fibi per dominum regem, and by taking his oath. Forma cancellarium constituendi regnante Henrico secundo fuit appendendo magnum Anglize figillum ad collum cancellarii electi. Some have gotten it by letters patents at will, and one for term of his life; but it was holden void, because an ancient office most be granted, as it has been accustomed. 4 Inst. 87.

[9. 5 E. 1. Rotulo Patentium M. 17. de sigillo Hibernico *** tato.

[10. 1 E. 3. Clauso 2. Pars M. 11. dorso, a new great seal made with some alteration, and the old seal broke, and a command to the sheriff of every county to publish it in pleno comitatu, and to show there the new feal.]

[11. Statutum de forma mittendi extractas ad scaccarium in magna charta, 2 parte, fol. 47. b. The king to our dear William de Airemyn, keeper of our rolls of the chancery, and to his compenions, keepers of our great seal, salutem.]

[12. Rotulo Parliamenti, 14 E. 4. numero 26. the chancelow is called the chief justice in the realm.]

[378] 13. 5 Eliz. cap. 18. makes the authority of lord chancellor and Before this act the Ld. lord keeper to be all one. Chancellor had not always the custody of the seal. D. 211. b. Marg. pl. 33.

For more of Chancellor in general, see Chancery (D) and other proper titles.

Chancery.

(A) Chancery, &c.

[1. 31 H. 6. A Great forfeiture for not appearing after proclama-cap. 2. A tion made; but this continued but 7 years.]

[2. 17 R. 2. cap. 6. Item, forasmuch as people be compelled to come before the king's council, or in the chancery, by writs grounded upon untrue suggestions; that the chancellor for the time being, maintenant after that sueb suggestions be duly found and proved untrue, shall is adjudged bave power to ordain and award damages after his discretion, to him which is so travailed unduely as afore is said.]

Nota per curiam, where a bill in chancery insufficient upon demurrer, the defendant shall not have damages; for the statute only says where the suggestion is found true or not true; whereas in this case, as here, the truth s not tried. Br. Costs, pl. 19. cites 7 E. 4. 14 ----- Fitzh. Damage, pl. 44. cites S. C. 4 Inst. 83. says that this act extends to the chancellor proceeding in a course of equity, and not to a demurrer in law upon a bill, but upon hearing the cause, and that by reason of these words in the act (duly found and proved).

[3. 2 H. 4. numero 69. the commons pray, that all writs or letters of the privy seal of our lord the king, directed to divers of the king's liege people to appear before our lord the king in his council, or in his chancery, or in his exchequer, upon a certain pain comprized therein, for the time to come shall be altogether ousted, and that every of the king's liege people shall be treated according to the rightful laws of the land anciently used.]

Pryone's Abr. of Cotton's Records, 410. cites the lame petition.— 4. Inft. 832 cap. 8. cites the fame,

ANSWER.

[1. [4.] Such writ shall not be made unless in cases where it This should seems necessary, and this by the discretion of the chancellor, or king's council, for the time being.]

follow under the same letter, and so the pleas proceed which have been divided by the error of the printers.

$(A) \quad [A. \ 2.]$

*[379]

[2. [1.] 4 H. 4. numero 78, The commons pray, reciting the statute of 25 E. 3. that none shall be taken by petition or suggestion made to the king or his council, &c. unless by indictment or * process by original writ, and also the statute of 42 E. 3. that no man shall be put to auswer without presentment before justices, &c. Notwithflanding which statutes, after this many of your lieges have been grieved by divers writs and letters, some by simple suggestions, without any thing found issuing out of chancery upon a certain pain comprized in them, to appear before you in your chancery or council, some by writs out of the exchequer, &c. others to appear before your council by privy seal, &c. to the great hin- Chan. Rep. Gg3 drance 34, 37,

Prynne's Abr. of Cotton's Reco.ds, 4224 cites same petition. —See the Juxildiction of the Court of Chancery vindicated, a treatife printed at the end of t drance of your lieges, and against your laws and statutes aforesaid. May it please you to ordain, that the statutes asoresaid henceforth be fully kept; and further to ordain, that the writs and letters aforesaid be altogether ousted, and that none of the king's people be forced to appear or answer by any such writ or letter, nor be put to lose their goods and chattels, and that be, which for the time to come, makes any suggestion against any of your subjects to yourself, your council, chancellor or treasurer, or before your barons of the exchequer, may find good and sufficient sureties to aver his suggestion; to the end that if he who is so accused, of his own accord comes to the place where the aforesaid suggestion is, and traverses the aforesaid suggestion, his traverse may be received without delay; and if it be found against him who made such suggestion, and for him who was so accused, he shall recover his damages against the accuser, to be taxed * Fol. 371. by the same inquest (*) by which he is so acquitted, having regard to the slender costs and labour for his defence; and further, shall make fine and ransom, and his body taken to abide in prison for one year, for the falfity aforesaid, and that this ordinance shall extend as well to the time past as to come, as to suggestions depending not yet discussed.

A N S W E R.

1. [2.] The king will charge his officers to abstain more from Prynne's . sending for his lieges than they have done before these days, but Abr. of Cotton's Reit is not the intention of the king that the same officers should so cords, 422. much abstain that they cannot send for his lieges in matters and the fame aniwer. causes necessary, as hath been done in the time of your [+ good • + See the progenitors] our lord the king himself. Jurisdiction | of the Court of Chancery vindicated, at the end of 1 Chan. Rep. 36. 39.

(B)

2. [1.] 4 H. 4. numero 110. In the petition upon which Prynne's the act of 4 H. 4. cap. 23. touching examinations and judgments is Abr. of Cotton's Remade, another part of the petition is such, [viz.] and in the cords, 424. same manner as it belongs let every matter be which can be defays, the print touchtermined by the common law, and that a due pain be ordained in ing pleas this present parliament against those who pursue the contrary, and real and this for God and the fafety of all the estates of the realm. perional, cap. 23.

agrees with the record. --- See the treatife called, the Jurisdiction of the Court of Chancery visites. ed, at the end of 1 Chan. Rep. touching this statute, fol. 42, 43. &c.

ANSWER.

1. [2.] It is answered before among the petitions of the com-This by mons, numero 78. intending that which is next here before, mistake of the printers was made letter (C) in Roll.

- (D) Chancellor. What things he may do; what... not.
- [1. ] F suits are there upon recognizances, statutes, attachments, 4 Inst. 80. trespass or debt, against the officers of the court, he ought to that in these adjudge according to the course of the common law. 11 E. 4. 9.] cales, if the

cap. 8. fays, parties descend to iffue, this court cannot try it by jury, but the lord chancellor or lord keeper delivers the record by his proper hands into B. R. to be tried there, because for that purpose both courts are accounted but one, and after trial had to be remanded into the chancery, and the judgment to be given ; but if there be a demurrer in law, it shall be argued and adjudged in this court.

[2. 3 H. 5. numero 46. The commons prayed, that whereas many people perceived themselves greatly grieved, because the writs called writs of fubpæna & certis de causis made and sued out of your chancery and exchequer of matters determinable by your common law, which were never granted or used before the time of the late king Rich. that John Waltham, late bishop of Sarum, of his subtilty found out and began such novelty against the form of the common law of your realm, as well to the great loss and hindrance of the profits which ought to arise to you, our sovereign lord, in your courts, as in fees and profits of your feals, fines, issues and amerciaments, and several other profits to be taken in your other courts, in case the same matters were sued and determined by the common law; infomuch, that no profit does arise to you from such writs, but only 6 d. for the seal. And also, because that your justices of the one bench, and of the other, when they ought to intend their place concerning pleas, and to take inquests for the delivery of your people, they are occupied about the examination of fuch writs, as well to the most great. vexation, loss, costs and of your lieges, which are delayed for a long time from the sealing of their writs sued in your chancery, because of the great occupations concerning the said examinations, which neither profit you nor your liege people, in which examinations there * is a great noise by divers people not learned in * Fol. 372, the laws, without any record or entry in your faid places, and which pleas cannot have an end unless by examination and oath of the parties, according to the form of the law civil, and law of the holy church, in subversion of your common law, &c. and therefore they pray that every one who sues such writ thereafter, may put all the cause and matter in the writ, and if any one perceives himself grieved by such writ for matter determinable by the common law, let him have an action of debt for 40 l. &c.]

4 Inft. 83. cap. 8. cites the same petition. Prynne's Abr. of Cotton's Records, 548. lame peti-

ANSWER.

[The king will advise,]

4 Inft. 83. cap. 8. fame answer. - ---Prynne's Abr. of Cotton's Records, 48

[1. R OT. Parliamenti 14 Ed. 3. numero 33. An ordinance was made touching the priory of West Shirborne, &c. and if any thing be done against this ordinance, that then the chancellor of England shall have power to hear the complaint by bill, and thereupon to proceed in the same manner as is usually accustomfame a newer. ed to do daily in a writ of subpoena in chancery.]

[381]

2. In a case moved by Mr. Chamberlaine, where the lord chancellor had referred the matter to be tried at the common law touching remainders upon a lease, whether good in law or no, and the judges had given judgment upon the case in another point, in the king's bench, so as the lord chancellor remained still uncertain of that point, called the judges into the exchequer chamber. Cary's Rep. 46. cites 1 Jac.

(F) Of what Things they may hold plea, and of what not.

Prynne's Abr. of Cotton's Records 45 E. 3. numero 24. is not the same petition or point, nor do I observe it any where there in the same year. Prynne's Abr. of Cotton's Records, 2 H. 4. numero 65. is not lame point.

[1. ROT. Parliamenti 45 Ed. 3. numero 24. The commons prog. that it may please the king and his good council to grant that no plea be henceforth pleaded in chancery, unless the king be properly a party in the said plea, or that the plea touch the office of the chancery, and that all manner of pleas which are there yet held, st pending in the same chancery, be fint to the common law, and that none who purfue there, or to the council by bill, be henceforth delayed of a convenient remedy, as they most grievously have been.]

[2. 2 H. 4. Rotulo Parliamenti, numero 65. The commons pray, that whereas, for the discussion of all pleas in matters traversed in chancery, the judges are drawn into chancery out of their places, in aid of the said discussion, to the great hindrance of the business of the common law of the realm, and to the great damage of the people, that it be ordained that upon such traverses the record be fent in banco regis, or banco, there to be discussed and determined, faving liveries to be made in chancery, &c.]

This by mistake of the printer was made letter (G)

* A N S W E R.

[1, [3,] The chancellor may do it by his office, and let it be as it hath been used before these days, by the discretion of the chancellor for the time being.]

2. Chancery has power to hold plea of sci. fa. for repeal of the king's letters patents of petitions, monstrans de droit, traverses of offices, partitions in chancery, of scire facias upon recognizances in this court, writs of audita querela, and scire facias in the nature of an audita querela, to avoid executions in this court, downwents in chancery, the writ de dote assignanda upon offices found, execution upon the statute staple or recognizance, in nature of a statute staple upon the act of 23 H. 8. but the execution upon a ftatute merchant is returnable, either into B. R. or into C. B. and all personal actions by or against any officer or minister of this court in respect of their service or attendance there. 4 Inst. 79, 80.

(G) [The Effect of Mispleading.]

[2. [1.] Ispleading in matter of form shall be prejudicial in no The reason case in chancery, although it be in a thing in which is, for that they hold plea according to the common law. 14 E. 4. 7.]

is, for that it cannot be said to be a court of conscience, if the act of the clerk in the pleading should cause the party to lose the advantage of his fuit, and of all his costs. Ibid. pl. 8. --- Staunds. Prerog. 77. a. cap. 23. cites S. C. and that It was where one had traversed an office which was sent into B. R. to be tried, and had forgot to # suc his sci. fa. and yet he was suffered to go again into chancery to pray a sci. fa. upon the first traverse; for it was faid, that chancery is a court of confcience, and therefore the thing that was amiss may be reformed at all times.

In the chancery by the chancellor a man shall not be prejudiced there by mispleading, or for want of firm, but secundum veritatem rei, and we ought to adjudge according to conscience, and not according to the allegation; for if a man supposes by bill that the defendant has done a tort to him, to which he says nothing, if we have conusance that he has done no tort to him, he shall recover nothing, and there 🚁 1900 powers and process, viz. potentia ordinata & absoluta. Ordinata is as a law positive, as a certain order; but the law of nature has no certain order, but by whatever means the truth can be known, &c. and therefore it is faid, sprocessus absolutus, &c. and in the law of nature it is required that the parties be present, &c. or that they be absent by contumacy, viz. where they are marned and . make detault, &c. and the truth to be examined. Br. Jurissiction, pl. 50. cites 9 E. 4. 15. Br. Conscience, pl. 4. cites S. C. Br. Dette, pl. 119. cites S. C.

* [382]

(H) Of what Things they may have Conusance in Chancery. The Ordinary Power. [As to Inrolments.

[1. 4 E. 1. Rotulo clauso membrana 3. in dorso Angelinus de Gyses conveys lands to Walter de Heluin, and in the end of the conveyance + it is mentioned qued præd' Angelinus venit in + Fol. 373. cancellariam regis, & dedit præd' Waltero seisinam prati præd' cum pertinentiis in forma præd', and there is a fale made by the abbot and convent de fontibus to certain merchants acknowledged by the abbot in chancery, and inrolled de 62 Saccis Lanæ & Collecta Monasterii sive Clacks Loke, &c. seems both these were inrolments in chancery.)]

[2. 20 E. 1. Rotulo Clausarum Membrana, 12 dorso, Conventio falla inter Richardum filium Alani comitem Arundell & Robertum episcopum Bathonensem & Wellensem quam 12 Januarii anno 12. recognoverunt in chancellaria & comes petiit ut irrotuletur & patet, &c.]

[3. 2 E. 1. Rotulo Claufarum Membrana, 8 dorso, Acquittances for the receipt of money among common persons inrolled in opsocery.]

(I) Of what Actions it may hold Plea.

Writ found- [1. IT cannot hold plea of pleas of land, 20 H. 6. 32. b.] ed upon a particular

all of parliament, shall make mention of the all, as where it is enacted, that the chancellor calling to him the justices of the one bench and the other, may determine causes of dissession between A. & B. and shall call B. by subparena; this writ shall be special and not general; per ownes, except Littleton; and hence it seems that the chancellor cannot determine plea of land or dissession without act of parliament. Br. Brief, pl. 487. cites 14 E. 4. 1.

[2. It may hold plea of trespass. 20 H. 6. 32. b.]
[3. So, it may hold plea of debt. 20 H. 6. 32. b.]

4 Inft. 85. c1p. 8. S. C. 4. Whether there was such a manor as A. in deed or reputation at such a time, or whether lands in B. were at that time parcel of the manor or no, ought to be tried at common law, and not in chancery; by the opinion of all the judges. 2 And. 163. pl. 89. Mich. 42 & 43 Eliz. The Earl of Worcester v. Sir Moyle Finch.

[ 383 ] 4 Inft. 85. cap. 8. S. C.

5. The complainant alleged a disseism to be committed of Bl. Acre at the time of a bargain and sale made to him thereof. It was the opinion of all the judges, on a reference to them by the queen, that this ought to receive trial at the common law, and not in chancery. 2 And. 163. pl. 89. Mich. 42 & 43 El. in case of Worcester (earl of) v. Sir Moyle Finch.

4 Inft. 85. cap. 8. S. C. 6. If A. conveys land to B. and at the time of the conveyance, A. had only a mere matter of equity to be relieved by, or only a right at the time. B. his vendee ought not to be relieved in the chancery; and if the person in possession of any of the lands had any title to them, he shall not be bound by decree in chancery from defending the same at and by the common law; by the opinion of all the judges on a reference by the queen. 2 And. 163, 164. pl. 89. Mich. 42 & 43 Eliz. in case of Worcester (earl of) v. Sir Moyle Finch.

7. When the fuit is for evidence, the certainty whereof the plaintiff surmiseth he knoweth not, and without them he supposeth that he cannot sue at the common law. It was resolved that if the defendant makes no title to the land, then the court hath just jurisdiction to proceed for the evidence; but if he makes title to the land by his answer, then the plaintiff ought not to proceed; for otherwise by such a surmise, inheritances, freeholds, and matters determinable by the common law, shall be decided in chancery in this court of equity. 4 Inst. 85, 86. Mich. 42 & 43 Eliz. Worcester (earl of) v. Sir Moyle Finch.

(K) What Power the Chancery hath.

Br. Error, [1. THE English court of chancery is no court of record. 37 H. 6. 14. b. per Prisot.]

S. P. Yelv. 227. Arg. cites 38 H. 6. S. P. but seems mis-printed, and that it should be 37 His

6. ____ Inft. 84. cap. 8. S. C. and S. P. ____ In cases where the court of chancery proceeds according to the course of the common law, as in the case of privilege, of scire facias upon recognizances, traveries of offices and the like, it is a record; but as to proceedings by English bill in course of equity, it is no court of record; for the eupon no writ of error lies as in the other cases. 3 Inst. 71. cap. 19. -Ibid. 123. cap. 24. S. P. that the court of equity in the proceeding in course of equity, is no court of record, and therefore it cannot hold plea of any thing whereof judgment is given, which is a judicial matter of record.

[2. The chancellor by a decree cannot bind the right of the land, S. P. But but can only bind the person; and if he will not obey it, the chancellor may commit bim to prison till he obeys it. 27 H. 8. 15. per law is to Knightly.]

judgment at common ' recover the thing, and shall bind the right; note the diversity. Br. Judgments, pl. 2. cites 27 H. 8. 15. ____Br. Judges, pl. 1. cites S. C. accordingly. Br. Jurisdiction, pl. 53. cites S. C. & S. P. -4 laft.. 84. cap. 8. S. P. and cites S. C.

3. Partition made in chancery is good, and may be fent into C. B. and execution may be made thereof there by scire facias and well. Br. Jurisdiction, pl. 114. cites 29 Ass. 23.

4. Affife was awarded of damages for the plaintiff upon certificate of the bishop that the tenant was a bastard, where the parliament bad wrote to the justices of assign to cease, and yet they proceeded as above, by which the chancellor reversed this judgment before the council, and adjudged it in the same plight as it was upon the certificate, &c. and this remitted to the justices of assiste again, who proceeded and gave judgment for the plaintiff, because the bishop [ 384 ] had [certified] the tenant a bastard, but they had no regard to the reversal before the council; for this is no place where judgment may be reversed, quod notate. And so see that they had no respect to the matter of the reversal. Br. Judges, pl. 13. cites 39 E. 3. 14.

5. If a feme be indowed in chancery, and after the land is recovered from her, she may have scire facias there, to be indowed de novo. Br. Jurisdiction, pl. 114. cites 43 Ass. 42.

6. In debt upon an obligation the chancellor fent supersedeas to them of C. B. because at another time he had decreed the matter in chancery; and the court faid, that it was nothing to the purpose, and they would not obey it; for they have as high an authority to proceed upon their common pleas as the chancellor has, but supersedeas of the privilege by his privilege of the chancery, they would allow; for otherwise it should be inconvenient by reason of the attendance in the chancery; nota. Br. Supersedeas, pl. 19. cites 37 H. 6. 13.

7. Attachment in chancery against clerks of the chancery, shall Is matter in be tried by common law, and not by conscience. Br. Jurisdiction, pl. 112. cites 8 E. 4, 6, and 37 H. 6. accordingly.

conscience arifes upon the attachment, the chancellor cannot adjudge according to conscience, but according to the common law; and as for the conscience, the defendant ought to make a bill to the chancellor, and then he may judge according to conscience. Br. Conscience, pl. 15. cites & E. 4. 5. by the justices.

8. Supersedeas of privilege of the chancery was cast in the exchequer for a clerk of the chancery, against Thomas Young, justice, which was not allowed for certain causes, Young asked, what if the chancellor will command me upon pain that I shall not sue him? Billing answered, you are not bound to obey it; for this command is contrary to law. Br. Judges, pl. 12. cites 9 E. 4. 53.

9. In trespass the verdict passed for the father, and an injunction came to him out of chancery that he should not proceed to judgment on pain of 100 l. and the court said that if the plaintiss would demand judgment, they would give him judgment. Br. Judgments, pl. 86. cites 22 E. 4. 37.

10. The chancery may write to the mayor of Calais, and writ of error shall issue from the chancery to Calais of judgment given there, and the chancery may hold plea upon scire facias, and other such writ which apppertain to them, as well extra terminum as infraterminum. Br. Jurisdiction, pl. 16. cites 21 H. 7. 33.

11. The king cannot grant a commission to determine a of equity; but it ought to be determined in the court of chancery, which hath jurisdiction in such case time out of mind, and had always such allowance by the law; but such commissions, or new courts of equity, shall never have such allowance, but have been resolved to be against law, as was agreed in Pott's case. 12 Rep.

113. Hill. 11 Jac. The Earl of Derby's case.

of it; for it is a certain rule, that decrees in court of equity shall not bar in action brought by common law, and therefore if chancery shall make decree on a covenant, on which action lies at common law, the party, notwithstanding the decree, may have his action; or if a bill be exhibited in chancery for legacy or marriage portion, which bill is dismissed, this tolls not the remedy which the party has at common law; per Glin. 2 Sid. 122. Mich. 1658. B. R. Came v. Moye.

13. Where the court of chancery have power to examine in a fummary way. MS. Tab. April 21st, 1727. Paxton v. Orlebar,

[385] (L) What Persons may be there relieved in Equity,

[1. THE chancellor himself may. 16 E. 4. 4. b. Uxenbridge chancellor was.]

[2. But he cannot make a decree in his own cause. Hill. II Jac. in chancery, between SIR JOHN EGERTON AND THE LORD DAR-Barl of BY, resolved.]

case, S. C. but in such case where he is party, the suit shall be heard in the chancery here coram domino rege.—4 Inst. 213. cap. 37. S. C. resolved accordingly; and also that his deputy cannot decree any cause wherein he himself is party; for he cannot be judex in propria causa; but in that case he may complain in the chancery of England.——See (M) pl. 4. S. C.

Such decree is merely void; Coke Ch. J. Roll. Rep. 246. pl. 16. said it was so held by him and Doderidge in Kelly's case, as to a decree by the chamberlain of Chester, who is chancelor there, and frems to be S. C.————. Ibid. 331. pl. 38. Coke Ch. J. cites S. C.———. Bulst. 117. S. C. cited by Coke Ch. J.

[3. The king may sue in chancery for equity. Tr. 14 Jac. in the chancery, between THE KING AND THE LORD WILLIAM HOWARD, it was so admitted, and resolved by the two chief justices in chancery.]

(M) In what Cases the Suit may be there. [In regard to other Courts.]

[1. 27 E. 1. R Otulo finium membrana 1. Petition in cancella-ria Angliæ de terra in Hibernia.]

[2. If an erroneous judgment be given in a copyhold court of a S. C. cited common lord, in an action in nature of a formedon, a bill may be exhibited in chancery, in nature of a false judgment, to reverse Hill. 8 Jac. Hill. 8 Ja. scaccario, cited to be one PATTESHUL'S CASE.]

by Tanfield . Lane, 98. in the exchequer, as a case in which he was of counsel in Ld. Bromley's time, where it was debated at large, and decreed accordingly.

[3. If a decree be made in an inferior court of equity, this upon a new bill exhibited in chancery may be decreed there, to give the more strength and aid to the first decree; as if a decree be made against one; for the queen in court of the queen, which the defendant will not obey, upon a new bill exhibited in chancery, this may be confirmed and decreed there, for the better aid of the first decree. M. 16 Ja. in chancery, SIR ROBERT FLOYD'S CASE. adjudged.]

[4. A man cannot sue in the chancery of Chester for a thing which in interest concerns the chancellor there, because he cannot be his own judge, and therefore he may in this case sue in the chancery of England; for otherwise there shall be a fallure of right. Ja. in chancery, between SIR JOHN EGERTON AND THE LORD DARBY AND KELLY, resolved by the chancellor, Coke and Dode-

Quod vide cited H. 13 Ja. B. R.]

5. If the defendants dwell out of the county-palatine, if any of the county-palatine have cause to complain against them for matter of equity, for lands or goods within the county-palatine, the plaintiff may complain in the chancery of England, because he hath no means to bring them to answer, and the court of equity can bind only the person; * for otherwise the subject shall have just cause of fuit, and should not have remedy; and when particular courts 12 Rep. fail of justice, the general courts will give remedy; ne curiæ regis deficerent in justitia exibenda. 4 Inst. 213.

Fol. 374. See (L) pl, 2. S. C. and the notes there.

Resolved by the lord chancellor, the Ch. J. of England, the master of the rolls. and 2 judges. 113. Hill. 11 Jac. The Earl of Derpa, ester

6. A bill was brought against an executor of a citizen of London, *[386] who lived out of the jurisdiction, to come and give security to the city for the orphan's portion, according to the custom of the city. The defendant by his answer submitted to do as the court should direct, but being no freeman would not be subject to the orders of the city. It was urged by the recorder, that this court used to assist the city in such like cases, and on petition used to grant subpænas to persons to appear before the mayor in his court; to which it was answered, that this custom concerns the country as well as the tity, and must be tried by verdict; and it is inconvenient for country-gentlemen to be put to give security to the orphan's court by recognizance. Ld. Keeper decreed the plaintiffs to try the custom. Chan. Cases 203. Pasch. 23 Car. 2. London Mayor, &c. & Bysield v. Slaughter.

7. Chancery cannot by any decree bind the Isle of Man; nor if they should decree, could they execute the decree there, it being out of the power of any sheriff. It was so held by the plaintist's counsel. Chan. Cases 221. Hill. 23 & 24 Car. 2. in case of the Duke of Athol v. the Earl of Derby.

8. In a bill by way of appeal from an inferior court, the plaintiff therein must complain of the injustice done him by the inferior court; but is not obliged to assign any particular errors, which is the difference between a bill of appeal and a bill of review; but in this they agree, viz. that both must be upon the same evidence, and you cannot examine de novo, though in the spiritual court they examine over and over again, and proceed upon new allegations; and Jessfries C. seemed to incline, that a bill of appeal would lie from an inferior court to the chancery, as at common law the B. R. corrects all inferior courts. Vern. 442. pl. 417. Hill. 1686. Addison v. Hindmarsh.

In what cases a man may be relieved against his own oath, see at. Own Oath(B).—So against his own act, (N) * What Things shall be relieved in Equity.

[1. ] Have heard my lord Coke cite two verses for this out of Sir Thomas More,

Three things are to be helpt in conscience, FRAUD, ACCIDENT, AND THINGS OF CONFIDENCE.]

Act (A).—4 Inft. 84. cap. 8. S. P. 1st, All covins, frauds, and deceits, for which there is no remedy by the ordinary course of law. The 2d is accident, as where the servant [of] an obligor, mortgagor, &c. is sent to pay the money on the day, and he is robb'd, &c. remedy is to be had in this court against the forseiture, and so in like cases. The 3d is breach of trust and considence, whereof there are plentiful authorities in our books.—The jurisdiction of the court of chancery is generally thus divided; and by accident is meant when a case is distinguished from others of the like nature by applied circumstances; for the court of chancery can not controll the maxims of the common law, because of general inconveniences, but only when the observation of the rule is attended with some unusual and particular circumstances, that create a personal and particular inconvenience; per Ld. Compute 10 Mod. 1. Trin. 8 Ann. in Canc. Anon.

Br. Con[2. If a man comes to be remediless at the common law by his science, &c.
pl. 23. cites own negligence, he shall not be relieved in equity; as if he pays a smanbound upon, he shall not be relieved in equity; for he † was not bound in a statutemerchant to pay it without an acquittance. 22 E. 4. 6. b.]

paid the money without an acquittance, and the chancellor said that the conusee could not deny the payment, and therefore he demanded of the justices if he might award a subposena; and Fairfax said he could not, because then matter of record would be defeated by 2 witnesses, and he was not bound to pay the statute nor an obligation unless the obligee would make a release or acquittance; and Hussey said that it is better here to make him pay the sum twice than to alter the trial of the law; for he is not bound to pay unless the other will give a release; or acquittance; and the chancellor agreed as to the statute, which is a record; but not as to the obligation, which is only matter in sact.

[3. If

- [3. If two men are bound to another, and the obligee releafes to one, supposing this will not discharge the other, yet ignorantia juris non excusut, and therefore he shall not be thereupon relieved against the other in a court of equity. 12 Ja. between HARMAN AND CAM, in B. R. a prohibition was granted accordingly to the council of the Marches; and Mich. 14 Ja. a consultation denied.]
- 4. Subpæna brought by R. against C. because R. had land extended to himen ancient demesne by statute-merchant, and after C. purchased the land, and had recovery by sufferance in the court of ancient demesne upon voucber, and recovered and entered, and oufted R. and he brought fubpæna, and it was held that he, viz. R. cannot falsify the recovery, and therefore he shall be restored by the court of chancery by conscience. Quod nota; for there is no remedy at the common law thereof. Br. Conscience, pl. 8. cites 7 H. 7. 11.

5. And by the chancellor, where feoffment is made upon confidence the feoffor has no remedy by the common law; but he shall have remedy in the chancery by conscience. Ibid.

6. So where a man pays debt without specialty, which is due by 7 H. 7. 12. ebligation, there is no remedy by the common law; but he shall is of paying have remedy in the chancery by conscience.

a debt due by bond, without having the writing delivered to him. ----- A bond entered into for payment of money, upon the payment whereof the testator promised to deliver up the bond to be cancelled, the money was paid but the bond not delivered up. The testator dies. Afterwards the obligor sued the executor in the court of requests for relief in equity, and to have the bond delivered up. The executor suggests that be knows nothing of the payment of the money, being no ways privy thereunto, and so prays a prohibition, this being more proper for a trial at law. The other prayed a procedendo, for that he had no remedy to be relieved at the common law, in regard that this promise made by the testator to deliver up the bond, is such a personal assumpsit as that the same moritur cum persona, and therefore a procedendo was granted, there being just cause for him in this case to proceed in the court of requests, and there to be relieved. Bulft. 158. Trin. 9 Jac. Strong's case.

7. So if one be bound to J. S. to the use of W. N. and after J. S. releases the debt, W. N. shall have remedy in chancery by conscience. Br. Conscience, pl. 8. cites 7 H. 7. 11.

8. So where a man is indebted without specialty, and dies, his executors shall not be charged by the common law, but in the chancery, by conscience. Ibid.

9. No court would relieve long leases for 1000 years, by which Such lease the king was defeated of the wards; per Richardson J. And he said that Ld. Elsemere used to say that there were 3 things which he never would relieve by equity, and that those were long leases as fraud and aforesaid; 2dly, concealments; and 3dly, naked promises. Rep. 3. Hill. 2 Car. C. B. Anon.

shall be made by collution; per Tanfield Ch. B. And Coke Ch.

I. said that the Ld. Chancellor would not relieve such a lessee in court of equity, because the beginning and ground of it is apparent fraud. Godb. 191, 192. pl. 273. Trin. 10 Jac. in the court of wards in Cotton's case.

10. C. was tenant for life of a wharf, which was carried all away by an extraordinary flood, and he brought his bill to be relieved against the payment of his rent. But all the relief he had was [ 388 ] only against the penalty of a bond which was given [and forfeited] for non-payment of the rent; and the defendant was ordered to bring bring debt for his rent only. Cited by Maynard, Arg. Chan. Cases 84. as about 17 Car. 2. The case of Carter v. Cummins.

most unreasonable under-value, by the commissioners of sewers, was prayed to be set aside, upon a suggestion likewise of combination between the lessee and one of the conservators; but denied, because it would be contrary to an act of parliament, and would destroy the whole economy for the preservation of the sens. 2 Chan. Cales 249. Hill. 30 & 31 Car. 2. Brown v. Hammond.

12. In matters within the jurisdiction of this court it will relieve, the nothing appears which strictly speaking may be called illegal. The reason is, because all those cases carry somewhat of fraud with them, the it be not such fraud as is properly deceit, but such proceedings as lay a particular burden or hardship upon any man; it being the business of this court to relieve against all offences against the law of nature and reason; per Ld. C. Talbot. Cases in Equ. in Ld. Talbot's Time, 40. Mich. 1734. in case of Bosanquet v. Dashwood.

(O) Of what Cases they may hold Plea.

Roll. Rep. [I. ] F a man enters into land where, &c. for a condition broken, he whose estate is defeated by this shall not have any relief in equity, unless the condition was broke by disceit or practice of him who enters for the condition broke. Hill. 12 Jac. B. R. residual prohibition granted. • Mich. 11 Jac. B. R. between Glascock and Rowly, per curiam.]

Roll. Rep. [2. But otherwise it had been if the condition had been broke by 120. pl. 3. disceit, or practice of him who enters for the condition broke. Hill. A. S. P. 12 Jac. B. R. resolved. Mich. 12 Jac. B. R. between Glascock secondingly. AND ROWLY, resolved, and a prohibition denied.]

-See 2 Bulft. 142, 143. S. C.

- (P) In what Cases a Man shall be relieved, where he hath deprived himself of his Remedy at Common Law, by his own Act.
- See (Q) [I. IF a man be lord of a copyhold manor, and a copyhold pl. 3. S. C. I tenant in fee of the manor furrenders it to the use of one for life, the remainder to B. in fee, and the tenant for life dies, and B. pays no fine for his admittance, but after dies, and it descends to his son; and after the son surrenders it to the use of J. S. in see, and no sine paid for it, and also the rent for the tenement was for several years arrear; and after the lord of the manor grants the manor in second J. D. and after in a court of equity sues J. S. for the rent arrest, and the fines which were due before the sale of the manor to J. D. and alleges in his bill, that the copybolder had free land intermixed with his copyhold land, so that he could not know where to distrain for it, yet a prohibition lies, (*) because he hath deprived him- * Fol. 375. self of his remedy by his own act, scilicet the sale of the manor, and therefore shall have no remedy in a court of equity, especially in this case he shall not have remedy against J. S. the purchasor, for the fines and arrears of tent due before his purchase. Mich. 10 Car. B. R. between SERJEANT HITCHAM plaintiff, and FINCH AND BLOCK defendants, resolved per curiam; and a prohibition granted accordingly to the court of requests, though this matter being there pleaded, was before over-ruled upon demurrer to the bill.

2. A woman administratrix sued in the court of requests, complaining that the took administration of her husband's goods thinking be was out of debt, except some small sums which he owed to labourers, &c. which she had paid; and afterwards debt upon speciatties were brought against her, upon which she obtained an injunction there, but a prohibition was granted per tot. cur. Cro.

J. 535. pl. 20. Pasch. 17 Jac. B. R. Jobbin's case.

3. A. a termer for years, orders a scrivener to make an assurance thereof to B. rendering rent according to an agreement between them; and the scrivener grants the intire term rendering rent. A. shall have no remedy in equity for the rent, for if the affurance is bad, and yet there shall be a remedy, to what purpose is the common law? 2 Roll. Rep. 434. Trin. 21 Jac. Hudson v. Middleton.

4. An annuity was granted by the father to the younger son, who delivers the deed to a friend who leses it. And the younger son Car. Brightfues the eldest at the council at York. Doderidge said, there was man's case, not any remedy or ground of equity in this case; for the deed might be upon condition, or other limitation; and the deed might be lost deliv ry was by practice or covin, to charge the heir absolutely. This case to one of his was referred to justice Hutton. H. 2 Car. Noy 82. Vincent v. thers to Beverlye.

Lat. 1486 S. P. but there the elder brokeep, who went into Ireland, and in the removal of divers writings this annuity was lost, and now he sued in the council of York for his annuity against his eldest brother who was to pay it, and grounded his suit upon this equity. Per Doderidge, he shall not be relieved here; for it was his own folly to deliver them to such persons as had no more care of them; and perhaps there was a condition, or the like in the deed, or a limitation whereby the annuity should be determined; and he by combination would lose the writing, to charge the eldest brother absolutely; but if the deed had been lost casually, as by fire or the like, there he shall have relief in equity; as it was in the case of Vincent v. Beverley. ------See tit, Faits (U. a) (W. a) and tit. Surety (B).

5. If the lessor enters upon his lessor and suspends his rent, he Noy 82. shall not have remedy in equity; per Doderidge obiter & non suit negatum. Lat. 149. Trin. 2 Car.

6. C. purchased church lands in the rebellion in see, and after- Ibid. The wards fold them to H. and covenanted that he was lawfully seifed, &c. but some proof was that it was declared upon the sealing, that the vendor should undertake for his own act only. It was decreed that the defendant, who had recovered by judgment at law, Hh Vol. IV.

S. P. in totidem. Acipie. like case an i decree, said to be 6 months before, between Farshould rer & Farrer.

should acknowledge satisfaction on the judgment and pay coas.

Chan. Cases, 15. Mich. 14 Car. 2. Coldcot v. Hill.

7. If after assignment of a bond, the assignee sues the bond and gets judgment, and the judgment assigned in error, and after execution taken out; but before the return thereof, the assigner gives a warrant of attorney to acknowledge satisfaction upon record, and thereupon a supersedeas is sued out to stop the execution; and upon motion to set aside the supersedeas, this was held relievable only in equity. To Mod. 102. Mich. 11 Ann. B. R. Parker v. Lilly.

[390] (Q) What Things may be relieved there, not against a Maxim in Law.

S. C. cited
Lat. 146.
See tit.
Fait: (U.a) W. a) and Surety (B) Underwood
v. Stancy.

I I F a man loses his obligation in which J. S. is bound to him, yet he shall not be relieved for the debt in a court of equity, because it is against a maxim in law to have an action upon this, without shewing it in court. Mich. 3 Car. B. R. between Miller and Reames per curiam, a prohibition granted to [the court of] requests, and they would not grant a procedendo, though there was an affidavit made that the obligation was lost.]

[2. If a man seised of lands in tail for a valuable consideration bargains and sells to another in fee, and covenants that he and his wife will levy a fine for the better assurance to the bargainee; and it is agreed that 30 l. parcel of the consideration, shall be paid to the baron upon the conusance of the fine by the baron and seme, and after the baron and feme acknowledge a fine before a judge in the circuit in the vacation; and after the said 301. is paid, and received by the seme, the baron being fick in his bed, and after the baron dies before the term, and thereupon the feme stops the passing of the fine, and after brings a writ of dower, the bargainee shall have no remedy in equity against the dower, because it is against a maxim in law, that a feme covert shall be bound without a fine. Mich. 5 Car. between Hody & Lunn, resolved by the master of the rolls, Justice Jones, and the masters in chancery, and the plaintiff dismissed accordingly as to dower; and they then said it was so resolved before in Master Dewe's case, one of the six clerks; but the court agreed, that if the feme had any personal estate, as executrix, or administratrix to her husband, she shall be liable for that; and thereupon a commission was granted to enquire of the assets.]

Sec (P) pl. 1. 8. C. [3. If A. be seised of a manor in which there are copyholders of inheritance rendering rent, and the rent being arrear, the lord bargains and sells the manor to J. S. by which he hath destroyed his remedy to distrain, and admit that he could not have an action of debt for these arrearages, as if they had been due out of a freehold, he should not, yet he shall not be relieved in equity for them, because it is against a maxim in law, in as much as by law he hath by his own act destroyed his remedy. P. 10 Car. B. R.

PERMECU

between Serjeant Hitcham plaintiff, and Finch & Block defendants, resolved, and a prohibition granted to the court of requests accordingly after a demurrer upon this matter there overruled.

4. In former times the chancellor used to send for the judges, to know when equity should be admitted against the common law, and when not; because it is not to be altered for every fancy, and it was a great doubt in what points equity should hold place; agreed by Doderidge and Chamberlain J. 2 Roll. Rep. 434. Trin. 21 Jac. B. R.

(R) What Things may be relieved there. Not a [ 391 ] Thing against a Maxim in Law.

[1. THE chancery shall not relieve a man against a maxim of the law upon a matter of equity, by which the maxim M. 16 Jac. * Fol. 376. spall be crossed, for this is to (*) make a new law. between Roswell & Every, by the chancellor, Doderidge and Hutton resolved.]

[2. An executor cannot be compelled to account in a court of equity Roll. Rep. for things received by the testator as bailiff or receiver, &c. because he is discharged by good reason, by a maxim of the common law, because his testator might have waged his law, and might have had better knowledge to discharge himself than the executor may. M. 13 Jac. B. R. between Powel & HARRIS, per curiam resolved; contra M. 14 Jac. B. R. where a prohibition was denied twice by the court, in such case to the council of York, between Wilbye & Powel.]

263. pl. 33. S.C. & S.P. accordingly 5 per cur. And a prohibition was granted to the Marches of Wales, (where the bill was brought) min, &c. Afterwards the court seemed to be of the same opinion, but the prohibition was stayed by allent, and the matter referred to arbitrators.

[3. [So] An executor or administrator cannot be charged in a G. borrowed court of equity for a contract made by the testator, of which no remedy lies at common law; for this is against a maxim of law. Contra M. 4 Jac. B. R. between Richardson & Sir Moyle cutor, and Finch, per curiam.]

money of A. to whom S. was exebeing post-, term for 5 years, secured it to A. by deed, with a proviso of redemption. G. sued S. in the court of requests upon this; and shewed further, that there was a verbal agreement between them, that if the money was not paid at the day, A. should take the corn growing on the land, and if the corn amounted to the value, G. should have his term again, and that he reaped the corn, which well satisfied the money, and yet he continued possession of the term, which after came to S. and is now expired, and so prayed that the defendant might account for the profits. The defendant moved for a prohibition. Per Richardson, though the trust is contrary to the indenture, yet such averment is good, notwithflanding the proviso; but because the executor shall account to no one but the king, and the years are now spent, and though he occupied himself, yet the profits are assets; and if he shall recover in a court of equity, there shall be a devastavit against the executor, and a probibition was granted per tot. cur. Litt. Rep. 221. Mich. 4 Car. C. B. Goffe v. Skipton. Het. 117. S. C. but is only a had translation of Litt. Rep.

Intestate took the profits of the lands of the plaintiff, being within age, by force of a trust reposed in bim by the fatter of the plaintiff by his last will, the yearly value of which lands was 80 l. and the intestate took the profits from the 23d year of queen Eliz. till the 33d year of her reign, and with parcel of the profits purchased lands in fee, which descended to his heir, and lest affets to bis administratrix, one Hh2 of the defendants, to setting the plaintiff, all debts paid. The question was, whether in this case the administratrix might not be charged in equity for the said mean profits? and Sir Thomas Egerton, master of the Rolls, said, that he had seen a case in chancery in anno 34 H. 6. resolved by all the judges of England remaining in the Tower, that where the feoffees to use took the profits of the land, and received the rents, and made their executors, and died, leaving affets to fatisfy all debts, over and shove the faid rents and profits, that the executors should be charged to satisfy cestuique use for the faid rents and profits; and accordingly it was decreed in Mears's case against the defendant; but whether the heir should be contributory or no, it was doubted. 4 Inst. 36, 87. Mich. 37 & 38 Elis. in canc. Mears v. St. John, administrator of Alnion.

[4. One jointenant cannot sue his companion in a court of equity Roll. Rep. 338. pl. 53. for the taking of all the profits, because it is against a maxim in law. S. C. and a H. 13 Jac. B. R. between FIN & SMITH resolved, and a prohiprohibition was granted bition granted.] to the court of requests where the suit was; for the law gives him no remedy. —— In such case there is no remely, unless it were done on an agreement or promise to account. Cary's Rep. 29. 8 June, 44 Elis. Anon.

- See tit. Prohibition (I. a) pl 4. Portington and Beaumont.

* Two tenants in common were of a hall and a parlour within the hall, and the one suffered the other to come into the hall, but kept the parlour within it locked; it was ordered in the court of requests, that their remedy is at common law, but for the inner room they confess an ouster, and prohibition was granted, and prayed to be dissolved, but Haughton J. said it could not; for this is an ouser at common law. 2 Roll. Rep. 434. Trin. 21 Jac. B. R. in case of Hudson v. Middleton.

* [ 392 ]

[5. If an infant fells lands for money, and purchases other lands with the money, yet this fale by the infant shall not be helped by the chancery, because the person of the infant is disabled by a maxim in law. M. 16 Ja. in Roswell and Every, by the chancellor, Dodderidge and Hutton.]

[6. The assignee of a covenant cannot sue in a court of equity to have benefit of the covenant, for this is against the law to assign a covenant. M. 11 Ja. B. R. between Woodford and Holland, per curiam, a prohibition granted to the court of requests for fuch a fuit there.]

[7. An executor in a court of equity ought not to be compelled to pay legacies before obligations forfeited, for this is against the com-Mich. 11 Ja. B. R. between WIGGLESWORTH AND mon law.

Everer, resolved.

[8. If a feoffment had been made to the use of a seme, who took + Br. Conscience, pl. busband, and they had sold the land to a stranger for money, and the 13. cites feme bad received the money, and upon the request of the baron and S. C. and feme, the feoffees had made an estate to a stranger accordingly. fays it was in a manner the death of the baron the feme might have brought a subpæna in agreed, that If the vendee chancery against the seossees, and recovered, for the chancery shall not help this void sale made by a feme covert, for she could confesses this matter, not confent to it, and all the act was the act of the husband only, be shall renand the receipt of the money by her was not to any purpose, inafder the land much as the could not have any advantage thereof, but the bato the feme, and other-† 7 E. 4. 14. b. by all the justices and chancellor; acwife the cordingly this case was agreed M. 16 Ja. in chancery by the seoffee in use thall be chancellor, Dodderidge and Hutton, in Roswell's case. 118E. recompence-4. [2. ed for the land. -Fierh. Subpana, pl. 5. cites S. C. accordingly. S. C. cited Roll. Rep. 219. pl. 23. Trin. 13 Jac. B. R. Arg. in Rushwell's case. I See pl. g. S. C.

[9. If a feme makes a feoffment to her own use, and after takes Br. Conbusband, and after makes ber will, that the feoffees shall make an estate in see to her husband, and dies, this devise shall not be made good by chancery, because all acts by a seme covert are void, and cordingly. the law of conscience follows this. 18 E. 4. 11. b. by all the justices.]

science, pl. 28. cites S. C. ac-Br. Teftament, pl. 13. cites S. C. and by all, præter Tremaile, the will is void; and yet per Vavisor, seme covert may make testament, by agreement of her baron, of an obligation made to her before the coverture, and of paraphernalia, visher apparel.

[ 10. If a man had devised lands to another for a valuable consi- Roll. Rep. deration at the common law, before the statute of wills, where there Pasch. 13 was no custom to warrant it, this could not be helped by chancery, Jac. B. R. because this is against a maxim of the common law. M. 16 Ja. Rushwell's in Roswell and Every's case, agreed by the lord chancellor, Dodderidge and Hutton.]

192. pl. 32. cafe, S. C. and ibid. 218. pl. 19. Trin. 13

Jac. B. R. S. C. and 219. pl. 23. S. C. but S. P. does not appear clearly, but seems to be intended, ibid. 230. in principio.

[11. If a man that is non compos mentis aliens land, this shall not be restored to himself by chancery upon a matter of equity, * against the maxim of the common law. Mich. 16 Jac. in Ros-WELL AND EVERY'S case, by the lord chancellor and Dodderidge. agreed.]

Fol. 377. Roll. Rep. .. 219. pl. 23. Ruthwell's case, S. C.

but S. P. does not appear, but cites 4 Rep. Beverley's case, that a man of non sanze memorize shall not be aided in chancery to avoid his own obligation, because it is against a maxim in law.

[ 393 ]

[12. A purchaser of a reversion shall compel the lessee in chancery I do not obto attorn, where he hath no means to compel him by the common law; for this is a particular mischief not against any maxim. Mich. 16 Jac. in Roswell's case, agreed per Dodderidge, according to se-Rushwell's veral precedents in chancery shewed to him.]

ferve this point any where in cafe, S. C. reported in Roll. Rep. —— See tit. Rent (M. c) per totum.

[13. If there be leffee for life, the remainder for life, the rever- Mo. 554. from or remainder in fee, and the lessee in possession wastes the land, Pasch. 41 though he is not punishable by the common law during the re-Eliz. Ld. K. mainder, yet be may be restrained in chancery; for this is a par- Egerton said, ticular mischief; and though he is not punishable during the continuance of the remainder, yet it is a tort, and he is punishable after. Mich. 16 Jac. in Roswell's case, agreed per Dodderidge, according to the precedents of the court of chancery which were before cited.]

that he had feen a precedent in time of R. 2. where in fuch case it was decreed in chancery, by the advice of the judges, on complaint of the remainder-man in fee, that the first tenant should not do waste, and that an injunction was granted. - See tit. Waste (R. a) (S. a) per totum.

[14. If by the usage of a certain country land is to lie in common every third year, and the owner of this land by deed leafes this land for 20 years then next ensuing, provided every third year, when the land is to lie in common, shall not be reckoned among the 20 years; Hh3 though though this proviso is void by the common law, yet it shall be helped by the chancery, and the lessee shall have the 20 years, leaving out every third year.; for this is not against any maxim of law, but it is according to the intent of the deed. Mich. 16 Jac. in chancery, between FLEET AND COOPER, decreed.]

[15. If there be an agreement upon marriage between A. and E. that a jointure shall be made by grant of a rent to B. (the father of A. the seme) bis executors and assigns for the life of the seme, and that for default of payment B. the father shall have an estate for certain years in the land, out of which this issues, if A. the feme so long lives, and after the rent is granted accordingly, and by several subsequent acts the grant is confirmed, and the wife of C. the, father of E. the baron, joins in a fine with C. her husband, for the better settlement thereof, and after both the barons grant a lease for years, in trust for the feme of C. to the intent that she should pay the faid 801. rent to A. the feme, and that she herself shall have 401. a year, and that if the rent be not paid, that the leafe shall be wid; after B. the father of A. dies, without making any assignee of the rent, by which the rent is extinct in law; yet this shall be made good against the wife of C. and the lessees in trust for the wife of C. because she gave her consent thereto by fine, and the trust is to be guided in a court of equity. Tr. 3 Car. between Sir RICHARD BULLER V. CHEVERTON AND POLWHEEL, decreed in chancery by Justice Jones.]

Roll. Rep. 8б. pl. 3б. S. C. accordingly.-chancery against an

[16. A court of equity cannot compel an executor to perform s decree made there against the testator before a statute acknowledges by him. Mich. 12 Jac. B. R. between WALTER AND HEYFORD, A decre in per curiam, and a prohibition granted accordingly to the council of York.]

executor shall not be satisfied before an obligation made by the testator, which becomes due after his death; per Roll J. Sty. 38. Trin. 23 Car. B. R. in case of Eeles v. Lambert.

[394]

[17. If two fubmit themselves to the arbitrament of J. S. of all controversies, ita quod, &c. de præmissis, &c. and J. S. makes an award of part only, so that the award is void in law, this shall not be made good in a court of equity; because the award was merely void by law. P. 7 Jac. B. between Robinson and Biss, adjudged, and a prohibition granted to the council of York.]

[18. If a man for 100 l. assumes to make a lease for 21 years, and dies, his heir is not compellable, in a court of equity, to make the lease; * Fol. 378. (*) for this is against the common law. Mich. 3 Jac. B. between CHAPMAN AND BOIER, per curiam.]

[19. If a seme, tenant in dower, sues in a court of equity for damages, where her husbund did not die seised, a prohibition lies; for it is against the common law. Mich. 5 Jac. B. between Sweet-MAN AND REVET, resolved, and a prohibition granted to the court of requests accordingly.]

[20. If A. grants a rent out of land to B. and after grants the land to the fon and heir in fee, and covenants that it is discharged of all incumbrances præter the said rent, and after B. loses his deed of the grant of the rent, and therefore fues in a court of equity for the tent, a prohibition lies; for it is a maxim in law that none shall recover fuch rent without shewing of a deed.

B. R. between BEVERLY AND UNITE; a prehibition granted to the council of York; and Mich. 2 Car. a confultation was prayed, and denied, but referred.]

[21. If a man sues in a court of equity to have seisin of a rent-seck, a prohibition lies for the cause aforesaid; for this would be to make a new law. Mich. 2 Car. per Doderidge. M. 5 Car. B. R. between Norris and Price, agreed per curiam, where the rent commenced by grant.]

[22. But if a rent be devised by will in writing, a court of equity Mo. 805. may compel the tenant of the land to give seisin, because by in- pl. 1092. tendment the tenant of the land was inops consilii at the time of Jac. in cahe. the devise. Mich. 5 Car. B. R. between Norris and Price, in the case per curiam, upon a prohibition to Wales.]

Mich. 5 of Shute v.

S. P. cited by Ld. C. Ellesmere as decreed, because without seifin the devises has no remedy, and yet the rent is in the device by the device. —— Ibid. 626. pl. 829. Trin. 42 Eliz. Webb v. Webb, the tertenant was decreed in chancery to pay a rent-seck devised by a will out of land, notwithstanding Rent'(M. c) per totum.

23. A prohibition was prayed to the court of requests upon this suggestion, that one executor sued another to account there; and an executor at the common law, before the statute of Westm. 2. cap. 11. could not have an account for cause of privity, and now by that statute they may have an account, but the same ought to be by writ, and therefore no account lies in the court of requests. Mar. 99. pl. 171. Trin. 16 Car. Anon.

24. If a man has land subject to the payment of a rent-charge, and grants part of the lands to B. and covenants that that part should be discharged of the rent, yet this is not such a real covenant that shall run with the land, and charge the other lands with the whole; but it is only a personal covenant, which must charge the heir only in respect of assets. Hard. 87. Mich. 1656. between Cook to sell 14 and Arundel, decreed in scaccario accordingly.

But where M. was proprietog of 36 shares in the New River water, and had agreed shares thereof to B. and there being a charge on the 36 shares of 500 l. a year rent to the crown in fee, and 100 l. a year to H. for life. M. covenanted to discharge the said 14 shares which he had agreed to seil to B. from those gents; and it was decreed that the plaintiff who claimed under B. should enjoy the said 14 shares difcharged of those rents, and that the other 22 shares should be subject to the plaintist's indemnity therein, notwithstanding it was insisted that H.'s covenant to discharge the 14 shares of those rents was merely personal, and did not, nor could charge the whole rents upon the 22 shares. Chan. Cases, 212. Trin. 23 Car. 2. Cornbury v. Middleton.

'[ 395 ]

25. In case of an executor who commits a devastavit and dies, his executor shall be charged in chancery, though he cannot be charged at common law. Admitted. Chan, Cases 303. Mich. 29 Car. 2. in Vanacre's lase.

Ibid. 304. in a nota, fays, that the executor in case of a dovastavit is in nature of a truffee of an effate; but that in the principal case the testator was a trespassor, to which the executor is no ways liable.

In what Cases a Man shall be relieved against a Statute.

[1. TX7HERE there is an apparent fraud, or a dubious case by law, of which the party could not have conusance, there it shall be aided by a court of equity against a statute. Mich. 16 Jac. faid by the lord chancellor in Long's case, and Roswell's

CASE.

[2. As if after the 13 Eliz. cap. 10, a dean and chapter bad kafed lands to the king for a valuable confideration, at which time the law was taken, that the king was not bound by the statute, so that such lease was good, and the king affigned it over, and now the law is taken that the law is contrary, scilicet, that the king is bound by the statute; yet this shall be made good by this court against the statute, because he could not know the law in a matter so doubtful. Mich. 16 Jac. B. R. in chancery, between Long and the Dean AND CHAPTER OF BRISTOL, adjudged, and decreed that the leffee shall enjoy it, paying 200 l. to the dean and chapter; and such a decree was made between MAUDLIN-COLLEGE AND WOOD.]

[3. If the father, by his will in writing, devifes lands to his younger son, and the elder son knowing thereof enters into the land, and diffeises the father, and so continues till the death of the father, by which the will is void, yet because it was made void by deceit and covin, it shall be made good by chancery. Mich. 16 Jac. by the lord chancellor in Roswell's AND EVERY'S CASE.]

[4. If a man in a court of equity sites for a rent, and the defendant pleads the statute of limitations of 32 H. 8. and alleges that the plaintiff, &c. had not any seisin of the rent within 60 years, according to the statute, and shews that this which is demanded is me rent-service, for he shews that king E. 6. was seised of the last, the court ought not to proceed against the statute to relieve the party; for it is against the said statute; and if the courts of the common law are bound by the statute, the courts of equity are also bound; and when a man hath but one right * of action, if the action is taken away the right is taken away, otherways where he hath a right of entry. Mich. 14 Car. B. R. between Moun-TAGUE AND GOLDSMITH, which concerned the hospital of St. B wes Ch. Catharine's, resolved per curiam, and a prohibition granted accordingly to the court of requests.] in the statute of 21 Jac. cap. 16. of limitations, and therefore no lapse of time shall take away remedy in equity for it; but for other actions which are within the statute, and the time elapsed by the statute. there is no remedy in equity; and that (they faid) was always the difference taken by my Ld. Keeper Coventry: but justice Crawley said that he had conferre with the lord keeper, and that he told him that remedy in equit was not taken away in other actions within this statute. Mar. 129. pl. 207.

Mich. 17 Car Anon.

[ 396 ] See Roll. Rep. 192. pl. 32. Rusweil's cale,

In what cales relief may be had fatute of limitations,

ico tit. Limitation

(T) per to-

• Fol. 379.

tum.—By ter and

i. a trust is not with-justice Fosin equity against the > [5. If a man, having lands held in capite, conveys 2 parts of his lands to uses within the statute of 32 & 34 H. 8. of wills, and after devises that his executor shall sell the other 3d part for the payment of bis debts, and dies; and the executor, by force of a decree in chan- S. C. but cery compelling him to it, sells the land for a valuable consideration, not clearly and with the money pays the debts to which the beir is liable being due by obligation, so that the purchaser hath much equity of his fide, yet this 3d part being void by the common law, and 32 & 34 H. 8. it shall not be made good against the statutes by chancery, because it is directly against the statutes; for this would cross the statutes, and then it would be in the power of the court of chancery to make a new law. Mich. 16 Jac, in chancery, between Roswell and Every, resolved by the lord chancellor, the master of the rolls, and justice Doderidge, and justice Hutton, upon argument, and a decree before made to the contrary reverled accordingly.]

S. P. does appear; but is as to the being committed for a contempt to the court.

[6. If tenant in tail makes a leafe for years not warrantable by the statute of 32 H. 8. this shall not be made good in chancery upon a good matter of equity. M. 16 Jac. in Roswell's CASE, per Hutton.]

[7. So if tenant in tail bargains and sells the lands, yet this cannot be made good in equity against the statute, by which he is disabled to bar his issue. Hobart's Reports, between Cavendish ed by Ld. AND WORSLY, resolved.]

pl. 256. S. C. resolv-Keeper, and Hobert Ch.

J. Assistant.—S. P. accordingly by Chamberlaine J. 2 Roll. Rep. 434. Trin. 21 Jac.——See tit. Tayle (E).

[8. A teftament naval or military made of lands without writing, for want of fuch things requisite thereto, yet this devise per parol shall not be helpt against the statute. Mich. 16 Jac. in Ros-WELL AND EVERY'S CASE, by the lord chancellor.]

9. If the lessee of a prebendary or bishop mortgages his lease, and after the day pays the money, and then surrenders and takes a new lease from the prebendary or bishop, he hath equity against the mortgagee; but if the prebendary, &c. dies, this equity will not make the second lease good against the successor against the statute which binds all men, and has no faving of fuch rights of equity, and the chancellor cannot add to the statute to make a saving which the statute has not made. I Chan. Cases 228. Pasch. 16 Car. 2. in case of Cooke v. Bampfield.

(T) Chancery, and Courts of Equity. In what Cases a Man shall be relieved there against a Deed averments not against the Agreement of the Parties.

Faits (Q.a) as to deeds in equity.

[1. If a man makes a conveyance of a house to the use of himself for life, without impeachment of waste, the remainder to enother, and after the lessee will pull down the house, yet he in the remainder shall not be relieved in the court of requests upon an v. Barnard, averment that their agreement was, that the leffee ought not to do any voluntary waste, for he shall have no averment against a deed. Mich.

But see tit. Waste (R.a) pl. 20. the case of Vane and the notes there, where the contrary was Mich. 8 Jac. B. ALICE PARAWICK's case resolved, and a prodegreed in . hibition granted.] chancery; and see several other cases there to the like point. And see also (S. a) ibid.

* [2. If A. leases lands to B. without impeachment of waste, and after B. builds a barn upon part of the land, to put in certain tithes which he obtained by lease of another, and after the lease of the tithes being expired, and having no use of the barn, he suffers it to be without use, per quod beggars inhabit there in their passage, which draws an inconvenience to the neighbours, and thereupon B. pulls down the barn before the end of his lease of the land, and thereupon A. sues him in the court of requests for damages, and B. there justifies by force of the clause without impeachment of waste, and the other matter, and notwithstanding a decree was there made, that B. should pay 10 l. damages to A. for it, a prohibition lies in this case, because this is against the express agree-+ Fol. 380. ment of the parties. Mich. 14 Car. (+) B. R. between the master of the hospital of St. Oswald and Salway, resolved per curiam, and a prohibition granted accordingly.]

S. C. cited by Ld. C. Nottingham. 2

55. pl. 61. Pasch. 3680, that an injunction was granted. See tit. Waste

(R. a) pl. 14. S. C. and the rea-

[3. But if a lessee for years, without impeachment of waste, about the end of his term, intends to cut down all the timber trees, an injunction lies out of a court of equity upon this matter, to stop Freem. Rep. the cutting down of the trees, notwithstanding the agreement of the parties, because this is against the good of the public to destroy the trees, and the fuit there is to hinder and prevent it, and not to have any damages after it was done. Mich. 14 Car. B. R. in the said case of Salway, said per Bramston, that this was the bishop of Winton's case, which was referred out of the chancery to the judges, and by their advice an injunction granted for the cause aforesaid.]

son. And 2 Freem. Rep. 54, 55. Ld. Chancellor said, that if there be tenant for life, without impeachment of waste, if he goes to pull down houses, &c. to do waste maliciously, this court will restrain, although he has express power by the act of the party to commit waste; for this court will moderate the exercise of that power, and will restrain extravagant humorous waste, because it is pro bono publico to restrain it; and he said, he never knew an injunction denied to stay the pulling down of houses by tenant without impeachment of waste, unless it were to serjeant Peck, in my lord Oxford's case, and he said he did believe he should never see this court deny it again.

Cary's Rep. 23. cites S. C. and because he had not quid pro quo, but only seller would not bring action upon benefit of the vendee, it was ordered here, by the affent of the judges,

4. In debt the case was, that where a man had bought certain debts of one B. due to him by several, for 40 l. and was to bind himself in an obligation for the 40 l. and sued in chancery for conscience, because it is a chose en action, and therefore he has nothing for his money, and cannot sue for it, but the vendor may sue things in ac and release, and therefore he brought subpoena to be discharged tion, and the of the obligation in conscience, and the desendant appeared, and the chancellor awarded that the obligation shall be brought in to be cancelled, and for not doing it the obligee was committed to them for the the Fleet, there to remain till he did, and there he remained, and fued the obligation, and the defendant pleaded this matter in bar, and by the best opinion it is no plea; for per Prisot and others, the chancery is not a court of record, but to repeal patents of the king upon a sci. fa. and upon pleas of debt, &c. there between parties 13

ed, that the parties privileged, and such pleas discussed there is a good bar at the thereto callcommon law, for upon those writs of errordies in parliament; but as to matters of subpana there it is no court of record, and therefore should bring of this does not lie writ of error, and when the party cannot in the oblihave writ of error if the court errs, there by such awards he shall gation to be not be barred; for the chancery can only examine the conscience, and if they make a decree, and the party refuses to obey it, they can do no more than award him to prison, there to semain till he does, and if he will remain in prison there is no remedy; for there he may proceed at common law, and the decree is no bar. Br. Jurisdiction, pl. 53. cites 37 H. 6. 1.

5. A. possessed of a term for years, assigned the same to trustees, and then purchases the see, and then settles the same on his wife for ber jointure, and dies; the wife, in consideration of money, releases to the executors all her right to the personal estate, and afterwards the fee is evicted, and it appearing by the proof, that the agreement which begot the release, was before the title to the inheritance was avoided, and concerning that which was then looked upon as personal estate, and not touching the lease; and that, notwith-Randing the release, the feme continued the possession. It was resolved, that the release should not bar or prejudice the plaintiff's title in right to the leafe; and it was decreed, that she should hold for fo many years as she lived, and that if the lease were renewed, executors. Chan. Cases 47. Pasch. 16 Car. 2. Bawtry v. Ibson. 6. A bond was entered into before the wars, conditioned to pay 40 l. a year, for 12 years, out of the profits of an office, which was [afterwards] taken away by the usurpers. The office was revived, and the obligor being fued upon the bond, he exhibited his bill to be relieved against the bond. The obligee insisted, that the office continued some part of the 12 years, and being now revived, the obligor ought to pay the 40 l. a year for 12 years, or be dismissed; for the obligee, having the law with him, ought not to be hurt in equity, without satisfaction according to the condition. Decreed, that the obligor pay the 401. for so many years as the office continued, and thereupon the bond to be delivered up. Chan. Cases, 72. Hill. 17 & 18 Car. 2. Lawrence v. Brasier.

the pay proportionably to her estate for life, that the jointuress should hold for so many years as she lived, and then to go to the

7. B. purchased a manor, and a little before the purchase a copybold escheated, which was not intended to pass, and therefore was left out of the particular, but the conveyance was sufficient in law to pass it. The vendor exhibited a bill to be relieved, and had a decree to hold of B. the purchasor, 2 Vent. 345. Trin.

32 Car. 2. in Canc. Beversham's case.

8. Where a man buys land in another man's name, and pays money, it will be in trust for him that pays the money, though no deed declaring the trust, for the statute of 29 Car. 2. called the Statute of Frauds, does not extend to trusts raised by operation of the 2 Vent. 361. Pasch. 35 Car. 2. Anon.

9. It is not a true rule, that where an action cannot be brought at law on an agreement for damages, there a fuit will not lie in equity for a specific performance; per Ld. C. Macclessield. 2. Wms.'s Rep. 244. Mich. 1724 in case of Cannel v. Buckle.

In what cases the intention shall be savoured in equity, so as a deed shall be construed by it, see tit. Intent (C) In what cases chancery will relieve against securities given, see tit. Securities, and the several divisions there.

- (U) What Persons, in respect of their Estate, shall be bound [by Agreement made with Persons in-·terested before in the same Thing.]
- [1. I F a man possessed of a lease for years as executor of J. D. agrees, for a good consideration, to convey it to J. S. and after, before it is done, dies intestate, and after J. N. takes letters of admi-[399] nistration of the first testator, he is not bound in equity to convey it according to the agreement of the executor, although the executor, during his time, had power to dispose of it at his pleasure; because the administrator comes paramount this agreement, and is to dispose of it for the soul, and for the payment of the debts of the first testator. Pasch. 13 Car. in chancery, between Sir Ga-MALIEL CAPEL, defendant at the suit of Sir Robert Wiseman, decreed by the lord-keeper, he having the opinion of Justice Jones, Barkly, and Crawly, in the same case, as he said, their opinions being accordingly.]

[2. So if there be two jointenants of a lease for years, and one agrees to affign his moiety, and dies before it is done, this agreement shall not, in equity, bind the survivor, because he comes paramount the agreement, Pasch. 13 Car. in chancery, in the said case of Wiseman, agreed by the lord-keeper, and he said, that it was also the opinion of 3 judges; and he said also, that so was their opinion, that if the baron be possessed of a term in the right vivor to per- of his wife, and agrees to assign it to another, and dies before is is done, this shall not in equity bind the seme.]

per cur. 2 Vern. 63. pl. 56. Pasch. 1688.

[3. If the father, being feised in fee of land, and being indebted · to several creditors, mortgages this land to J. S. for money paid upon condition of redemption, and after it is forfeited to the mortagee for non-payment at the day, and then the father dies, and after the fon and heir of the father, who is liable to the debts of the creditors, joins with the mortgagee in a conveyance to another purchasor, and this is made for money also given to the beir, yet the creditors of the father shall not have any remedy in equity against the son for the money by him received, for his joining in the affurance, because in law he had no power of the estate. Car. B. R. resolved in chancery by the lord-keeper, Justice Jones and Berkly, as it was faid by Justice Jones and Berkly.] 4. A

If a jointenant agrees to alien, and 'does it not, but dies, it would be a Strange decree to compel the furform the agreement;

4. A copyholder for life, where there was a widow's estate by cuftom, agrees to fell his estate, and enters into bond, that the purchasor should enjoy. The bill was brought by the purchasor against the widow, to bind ber by this agreement, but the court dismissed the bill, with costs; for if such contracts for copyholds should be decreed, all lords would be defrauded of their fines, &c. 2 Vern. 63. pl. 56. Pasch. 1688. Musgrave v. Dashwood.

(X) In what Cases one may fue in a Court of See tit. Plea Equity, where he hath Remedy at Common Law.

and Demurrer (H)— See tit. Demurrer-

[1. ] F a man, for a good consideration, promises to another to make to him a lease of certain land, and does not perform it, he shall not sue upon this promise in a court of equity, because he may have an action upon the case at common law, although in this he shall recover damages (*) only, and not the lease itself, whereas in a court of equity he should be compelled to make the estate according to the promise. Pasch. 14 Jac. B. R. between Bromage and Jennyng resolved, and prohibition granted accor- in chancery, dingly to the marches of Wales.

Roll. Rep. 368. pl. 21. S. C. and it being urged ~ * Fol. 381. that this was usually done Coke, Dodderidge, and Haughton replied, that without doubt a court of equity ought not to do so, for then to what purpose + is the action upon the case and covenant? and Coke said, that this will subvert the intent of the covemantor, when he intends to have it at his election, either to lose the damages, or to make the lease, whereas here they would compel him to make the leafe against his will; and so it is if a man be bound in a bond to infeoff another, he cannot be compelled to make a feoffment; and by Doderidge, if a decree be made that he should make a leafe, and he will not do it, there is no other remedy but to imprison his body, and the serjeant who moved it, confessed that he did it against his conscience by reason of the use, and a prohibition was granted accordingly.———So where a like suit was in the court of requests, and it was urged that it is the ordinary course in a court of equity; but Jones J. said, that though it be so in the court of chancery, yet it shall not be suffered in the court of requests. Let. 172. Mich. 2 Car. Molineux's case.

†[400]

[2. If B. fues D. in the court of marches of Wales by English bill, for that whereas A. leased to B. certain lands for years referving rent; the lessee entered into an obligation of 1001. for the payment of the rent during the lease; and after B. affigued the term to D. who promised B. to save him harmless from the said obligation of 100 l. against A. and to pay the future rent as it should become due, a prohibition lies, because in this case nothing is to be recovered but only damages; so that this is merely but an action upon the case, and the said court cannot hold plea by English bill in actions upon the case where the damages exceed 50 l. P. 11 Car. B. R. between BLUNT AND HEMING, per curiam, a probibition granted.]

[3. If a conveyance of land be made with a power of revocation, and a question is made in chancery upon a suit there, whether there was a revocation or not; this shall not be tried there, but ought to be dismissed to be tried at common law. Hob. Reports, 274. between Manwering & Dennis resolved.]

Hob. 202, 203. pl.255. S. C. and fays it was resolved by Ld. K. Bacon, and the matter of the rolls and Ld. Hobart himself, that this cause was not fit for chancery but for the commos law, unless all causes that were triable naturally by the common law, and by jury, should be made examinable examinable and determinable in chancery per testes, which were to confound jurisdictions and make common law and all the course thereof needless, and a handmaid to chancery; and so at length the tause was absolutely dismissed.

4. Subpœna in chancery by W. & B. to answer of certain goods and chattels to the value, &c. which J. B. forfeited to the king, by reason that he was attainted of treason, and which came to the bands of the desendant, and which the king gave to the plaintiff by his letters patents, &c. and the desendant demanded judgment of the subpœna; for the plaintiff may upon this matter have detinue at the common law, and then he shall not sue in chancery by subpœna; for subpœna does not lie but where he has no remedy at the common law, and then when the common law fails, he shall have subpœna in chancery; and per cur. the subpœna lies well, by which the desendant was commanded to make inventory of all the goods which he had of the said J. B. by the next day, or else he should be committed to the Fleet. Br. Conscience, pl. 6. cites 39 H. 6. 26.

5. A. made a deed of feoffment to his own use to B. but gave no livery of seisin. A. dies. C. his heir brings a subpoena against B. but by Morton, master of the rolls, C. was denied help here, because B. had nothing in the land; and if he abate, there is remedy at common law against him. Cary's Rep. 21. cites 18 Ed.

4. 13.

6. In trespass in B. R. the defendant was found guilty to the demage of 20 l. and the defendant obtained injunction in the chancery to the plaintiff, that he should not proceed to the judgment subpense 100 l. Hussey and Fairfax justices said, if you pray judgment, we will give judgment; and where the party is injoined, his attorney may pray judgment, and if the attorney be injoined, then the party may pray it, and 100 l. is not leviable by the law, and as to the imprisonment in the Fleet, if the chancellor puts you there, then we at your complaint will send for you by habeas corpus, and deliver you. Br. Conscience, pl. 16. cites 22 E. 4. 37.

[401]

- 7. The defendant refused to answer the receipt of rent and demurred, for that the plaintiff may have remedy by law for the same; therefore ordered a subpoena to be awarded to make direct answer. Cary's Rep. 101. cites 20 Eliz. Dixe and Cantrell v. Lintoft.
- 8. Upon the hearing of the cause, it appeared, that the suit was to be relieved of a promise made by the desendant to the plaintist, to surrender a lease upon payment of 100 marks by the plaintist unto him, and for that the matter is meet for the common law, therefore dismissed. Cary's Rep. 135. cites 22 Eliz. Grevill v. Bowker.
- 9. When any title of freehold, or other matter determinable by the common law, comes incidently in question in this court, the same cannot be decided in chancery, but ought to be referred to the trial of the common law, where the party grieved may be relieved by error, attaint, or by action of higher nature. 4 Inst. 85.

Bulk. 216. 10. In a suit in the marches of Wales, the question was, whether cites S. C. by a proviso in an indenture to lead the uses of a fine to make leases for accordingly.

21

21 years, or 3 lives, a leafe made was pursuant to that power; and —But the a prohibition was granted, because this is a matter determinable chancery at common law, and that court ought not to intermeddle with will deter-Cro. C. 347. pl. 15. Pasch. 12 Jac. B. R. Fox v. Prick-mine such wood.

point. See Chan. Cases,

17 Hill. 14 & 15 Car. 2. The Lord Marquis of Antrim 'v. the Duke of Buckingham. 2 Freem. Rep. 168. pl. 214. S. C. in totidem verbis.

- 11. A thing which may be tried by a jury at common law, is not triable in chancery; for in the first case, if they give not their verdict according to their evidence, an attaint lieth; but in the other there is no remedy. Mar. 93. pl. 159. Hill. 16 Car. Anon.
- 12. Bill for an account of money collected by authority of commissioners of fewers dismissed; for the commissioners are to take the account, and not the chancery; per Finch K. Chan. Cases, 332. Trin. 22 Car. 2. Anon.
- 13. Bill by the heir to be relieved against a judgment against bis ancestor. The judgment creditor pleads that he had brought a sci. fa. against the now plaintiff, who pleaded that he had no asfets by descent, and therefore needs no relief of this court, and that this bill tends to the falsifying his plea at law to the said sci. fa. which pleathe court allowed. Fin. Rep. 69. Hill. 25 Car. 2. Rives v. Richards.
- 14. It was objected that where a man has a title at law, he ought to pursue his legal remedy, and shall not have a decree in equity, but that is not always so, and the daily practice in this court in many cases is otherwise; as where a creditor by bond or the like, brings his bill for a discovery of assets, and having proved affets here, he shall have a decree for his debt, and not be put to prosecute at law for the same, and in many such like cases the court never fends the plaintiff to law where the title appears for him; Arg. Vern. R. 429. Hill. 1686. in case of the Earl of Kildare v. Sir Maurice Eustace.
- 15. Chancery never decreed a fuit when it might decree a remedy, as in the case of a devise of land, or where a bond is taken in trust and the trustee refuses to let his name be made use of, the court will decree the duty and not an action to be brought in the trustee's name; Arg. Vern. R. 438. Hill. 1686. in case of the Earl of Kildare v. Sir Maurice Eustace.
- 16. Bill against executor for a debt due by defendant's testator, and secured by a bill of sale of goods; executor denied he knew or believed there was any such debt, and though the debt was proved in chancery, yet plaintiff was feut to law to recover his debt; but the bill retained till after the trial had, and if plaintiff recovered at law, then he might refort back for account of affets. 2 Vern. 192. pl. 174. Mich. 1690. Gorray v. Ustwick.

17. Asson stood engaged to A. by simple contract to pay him 1014 for curing his son, &c. and A. brought a bill in chancery for this 101. Suggesting that the agreement was not in writing, and that the witnesses who sould prove it were either dead or beyond sea. The defendant defendant Aston pleaded that the agreement was made in the prefence of W. R. now living in Holland, and traversed the rest of the suggestion; and this being over-ruled in chancery. Aston now moved for a prohibition, because this is no more than an indebitatus assumpsit at common law; and if this proceeding should be allowed, it would be to the subversion of the whole frame of the common law; besides, the granting a prohibition would prevent the clashing of jurisdictions, and there are several precedents in the Register of prohibitions, ne sequatur sub suo periculo. The court appointed to hear counsel on both sides, but the cause was agreed. 3 Salk. 82, 83. pl. 2. Pasch. 8 W. 3. Aston v. Adams.

18. If J.S. a jointress brings her bill to have an account of the mal and personal estate of her late busband, and to have satisfaction thereout for a desect of value of her jointure-lands, which he had covenanted to be and to continue of such value; and the desendant insists that this is a covenant which sounds only in demages, and properly determinable at law; though it be admitted that a court of equity cannot regularly assessments, yet in this case a master in chancery may properly inquire into the value and desect of the lands, and report it to the court, which may decree such desect to be made good, or send it to be tried at law upon a quantum damnificat. Abr. Equ. Cases, 18. pl. 7. Mich. 1699. Hedges v. Everard.

19. Where a bill was brought for dower inter al' the bill was dismissed as to that, because she had her remedy at law. 3 Change

Rep. 162. Pasch. 7 Ann. Wallis v. Everard.

20. Where one recovered in a trover against a servant of the African company, equity would not relieve, because the plaintiff in equity might at law have defended himself. Chan. Prec. 221. pl. 180. Trin. 1703. Langdon v. the African company.

21. Breach of covenants is triable at law; for a court of equity cannot fettle damages. MS. Tab. March 17, 1719. Stafford v.

the Mayor of London.

22. The master of the rolls said, he agreed that the court ought to be very tender how they help any defendant after a trial at law, in a matter where such defendant had an opportunity to defend bimself; but yet it will in some cases, as if the plaintiff at law recovers a debt, and the defendant afterwards sinds a receipt under the plaintiff's own band for the very money in question. Here the plaintiff recovered by verdict against conscience, and though the receipt were in the defendant's own custody, yet not being then apprised of it, he seems intitled to the aid of equity, it being against conscience that the plaintiff should be twice paid. 2 Wms.'s Rep. 425, 426. Mich. 1727. in case of the Countess of Gainsborough v. Gifford.

23. So if the plaintiff's own book appeared to be croffed, and the money paid before the action brought. Ibid. 426.

(Y) At what Time a Man may be relieved there. [After Judgment, &c.]

[1. ] F a man brings an action of debt upon an obligation in B. and after the defendant exhibits a bill in a court of equity, shewing good matter of equity, and after the plaintiff recovers in bank, * and there by agreement of the parties, and mediation of the court according to the equity of the cause, the plaintiff takes a certain sum of the defendant in discharge of the debt, damages, and costs, if the defendant proceeds after in the court of equity to have relief there, a prohibition shall be granted, because the matter is now ended in an equitable course by the agreement of the defendant himself. A probibition was granted to the council of the marches, between GRUBB AND OLIVER, in this place; and Trin. 15 Jac. B. R. a procedendo was prayed, and per curiam denied for the cause aforesaid.

[2. A cause shall not be examined upon equity in the court of After a requests, chancery, or other court of equity, after judgment at the common law. Hill. 11 Jac. B. R. a prohibition granted. M. 12 Jac. B. R. GLANFIELD'S CASE, per curiam. M. 13 Jac. B. R. between Dr. Gouge and Wood. Pasch. 14 Jac. B. R. Skipwith's case, a prohibition granted to the requests. Pasch. 7 Jac. B. adjudged, and a prohibition granted to the council of to C. the marches. M. 7 Jac. B. Curteis's case, adjudged, and a prohibition granted to the council of York.]

judgment in B. R. for the plaintiff. in which the cale was, that G. the plaintiff sold defendant a jewel of gold with 2 diamond, affirming it to be a good diamond, whereas it was only a topaz, and so C. was deceived, it being sold to him for 3601. whereas it was worth but 201. C. gave a bond to one H. for 6001. in trust for G. and G. brought an action in H.'s name, and had judgment by confession of C. but C. afterwards finding the cheat, preferred his bill in chancery, and brought a writ of error to reverse this judgment, but the judgment was affirmed; but afterwards, upon an hearing in chancery, it was decreed that G. take his jewel again, and 100 l. and that G. should procure H. to release and acknowledge satisfaction; and for not performing this decree G. was imprisoned. But upon a habeas corpus brought in B. R. the court first let him to bail, and the next term discharged him; for that this decree and imprisonment, as Coke Ch. J. said, was against law, being after a judgment at the common law. Cro. J. 343. pl. 11. Pasch. 12 Jac. B. R. Courtney v. Glanvill.——Roll. Rep. 111. pl. 54. Glansield v. Courtney, S. C. and G. was discharged by consent of the whole court.——2 Bulst. 301. S. C. Coke Ch. J. faid, they would always protect the law of the land; and G. was bailed by the court of B. R. but was presently after his delivery taken again, and committed to the Fleet by the Ld. Chancellor, and afterwards was bailed again by B. R.———Mo. 838. pl. 1131. Glanvill's cale, S. C. and that B. R. bailed G. a 2d time. S. C. cited Mod. 60.

[3. If A. be the king's farmer of a warren, but the inheritance is in the king, and B. brings an action of trespass against A. in B. R. and has a verdict in point, and judgment accordingly that there is not any warren; it seems that this shall not bind the king, but that he may sue after in a court of equity; for this was but a personal action, and binds not the king at common saw, and therefore he is at large, as if no such thing had been done. Contra M. 12 Jac. B. R. between Wright and Fowler, per curiam.]

Vol. IV.

Roll. Rep. 53• pl. 23• Hill. 12 Jac. B. R. the S. C. but ~ Fol. 382. S. P. does not appear.

-Ibid. 252.

[4. If C. and F. bring a probibition in B. R. against W. and upon a demurrer there a consultation is granted, and after the king and the spid C. and F. sue in the dutchy-court, pretending matter of equity of discharge, and that the said W. claims the tithes by the patent of the king, which they pretend to be void, a prohibition shall be granted, because this is after * judgment here in B. R. and also no matter of equity appears. M. 13 Jac. B. R. between COATES AND SIR HENRY WARNER, resolved, and a prohibition pl. 20. S.C. granted.]

resolved that no court of equity can meddle after a judgment, and the prohibition was granted by the -3 Bulft. 120. Warner v. Suckerman and Coates, S. C. and a prohibition granted per tot. cur.

> 2. In quare impedit by an abbot the defendant confessed the action, by which judgment was given, et quod oesset executio till the avis be inquired. Br. Collusion, &c. pl. 1. cites 18 H. 8. 6.

6. The defendant, notwithstanding an injunction delivered unto him, got a judgment upon an action of debt in the common pleas, [404] and it was decreed upon the hearing of the cause, that the desendant shall, within 14 days next after the decree, resort to the record in the common pleas, whereupon the faid judgment is entered, and thereto confess of record a full satisfaction of the said judg-Cary's Rep. 64. cites 2 Eliz. fol. 126. Colverwell v. ment. Bongey.

7. Judgment and execution was had at law, the plaintiff preferred his bill to be relieved; but dismissed, and had no relief. Toth. 265. cites Farrington v. Wolwich, 12 El. fo. 118. Bolt v. Reignolds, the like 12 El. fo. 129.

Jac. fol. 909. Huet v. Hurston. ———— It was said by the court, that when judgment is given in this court against another, and execution upon it, and the sheriff levies the money, the Ld. Keeper cannot ever that the money shall stay in the sheriff's hands, or order that the plaintiff shall not call for it; for notwithstanding such order, he may call for it. Mar. 54. pl. 81. Mich. 15 Car. Anon-

> 8. Debt upon a fingle bill satisfied, and the bill not delivered was fued, and execution gotten, and yet retained in chancery, notwithstanding a motion to be dismissed, because after judgment and execution; for it was said the judgment and execution may stand, and this fuit for that he formerly paid. Cary's Rep. 106. cites 21 & 22 Eliz. Owen v. Jones.

> 9. A bill to be relieved upon bond after judgment and execution, and because no material matter alledged for maintenance thereof, therefore dismissed. Cary's Rep. 108. cites 21 & 22 Eliz. Adams v. Doddesworth.

> 10. Executrix brought an indebitatus assumpsit against the defendant, as executor, upon a promise of his testator, and had a vertil and judgment in B. R. which was reverfed for error in the exchequerchamber, and afterwards the widow exhibited a bill in chancery, fuggesting all this matter, and prayed to be relieved. The defendant demurred to the bill, but the demurrer was over-ruled, for the lord keeper made no difference, where the party comes into chancery either after the reverfal, or before any fuit commenced at law,; and said, that by advice of all the judges, he had allowed allowed bills for debts against executors without specialty, with an averment that they had affets, but said he would confer with Moor 556. pl. 755. Trin. 31 Eliz. Masters v. the judges. Burde & al'.

No relief after judgment. Toth. 266. cites Trin. 17

i (

- 11. One Knight acknowledged a flatute to the defendant and another, not to alien or waste his land, and afterwards leased it to the plaintiff, the statute being acknowledged in consideration of marriage, and now, by reason of the lease so made, the defendant, being the survivor, conusee extends the statute; yet ordered, in respect the lease is no waste, the conusee not to receive any benefit by the said statute. Toth. 275. cites 37 Eliz: li. A. fo. 655. Mathew v. West and others.
- 12. The queen granted a lease of lands to T. rendering rent, and for non-payment to be void; then the fold the reversion to Sir M. R. who, because the rent had been arrear several years before, though then paid, entered, and avoided the leafe, it being adjudged a limitation, and void without office; and afterwards T. exhibited his bill in chancery, setting forth, that at the time of non-payment of rent, which was 9 Eliz. he fent it by his fervant, who was robbed, which, when he knew, he paid it immediately the day after to the queen, who accepted thereof, and he continued the payment till 30 Eliz. when the reversion was sold to Sir M. F. and so prayed to be relieved. The defendant, Sir M., pleaded the proceedings against the plaintiff at common law, and the judgment obtained against him; and it was resolved by all the judges of England, that if the complainant had exhibited his bill before judgment was had against him at law, he might have been relieved, but now he came too late; therefore Sir M. F. who was committed for not performing the decree, being brought up by habeas corpus, was discharged; cited by Coke Ch. J. Cro. J. 344. as Mich. 39 & 40 Eliz. Sir Moile Finch v. Throgmorton.

13. The defendant had execution and judgment upon two recognizances and a statute, amounting to 3001. but in respect it was a sleeping statute, the court ordered the obligor to be discharged out of execution, and the plaintiff's possession of the lands to be delivered. Toth. 267. cites 5 Jac. l. A. fo. 319. Lucas.

14. Judgment against the defendant in debt, upon the statute of 2 Bulft. 194. 13 Eliz. against usury, and day given to move in arrest of judgment; S. C. and Coke said, in the mean time he exhibited his bill in chancery, and procured an injunction to stay judgment and execution, notwithstanding which, the court granted both; for the stat. 27 Ed. 3. cap. 1. and 4 H. 4. cap. 23. expressly enjoin, that after judgment given the parties ought to be quiet, and submit to it, and such judgment ought not to be avoided but by error or attaint. Cro. J. 335. pl. 4. Hill. 11 Jac. B. R. Heath v. Ridley.

that it is much to be wondered, that no one would bring an information upon those statutes in fuch cales against the party procuring such injunctions after judgment at common law; for be it in plea real or personal, after judgment given, the party ought to be quiet and to submit to it.

15. Trespass was brought in B. R. by a tenant of dutchy lands, and judgment against him. Afterwards be brought an English bill 1 i 2 111

See the treatise called, The jurisdiction of the Court of Chancery vindicated. published at the end of Chan. Rep. fol. 78. &c. where this case is commented upon.

[ 405 ]

in the dutchy court, whereupon B. R. granted a prohibition. And Coke Ch. J. said, that if any English court holds plea of a thing whereof judgment is given at common law, a prohibition lies upon the statutes of 27 E. 3, cap. 1. and 4 H. 4. cap. 23. Mo. 836.

pl. 1129. Mich. 12 Jac. Wright's case.

accompt, after a verdict, judgment, and execution at law was referred again to law, because a verdict passed upon the oath of one Vintner, who was thought not to have dealt fairly at the trial, and after the cause referred to this court for equity. Toth. 87. cites Hill. 15 Car. Mallery v. Vintner.

17. It was agreed, that a court of equity cannot meddle with a cause after it hath received a lawful trial and judgment at the common law, although the judgment be surreptitious. Mar. 83. pl.

138. Pasch. 17 Car. B. R. Thompson v. Hollingsworth.

18. Plea and demurrer to a bill, it being after verdict, judgment, and ment and execution at law was allowed, though the action at law writeferror. was for money won by gaming. Ch. R. 243. 15 Car. 2. Hunby v.
16 Car. 2. Johnson.

Sewell v. Freeston.——Chan. Cases 65. S. C. the suggestion being of matters in defendant's expenizance, which plaintiff could not prove at the trial.——Bill has been allowed for matter discound after the trial. Chan. Cases 65. cites Payton v. Humsreyes.

For a matter 19. Bill after verdict in an action on the case, suggesting a matter delivered of in defendant's knowledge, which plaintiff could not prove at the trial such a bill It was referred to precedents. 3 Ch. R. 17. Anon. had been brought. Ibid. cited as the case of Peyton v. Humphreys.

- 20. An action of trover for bonds cancelled by defendant at law, and now defendant at law brings a bill to be relieved after trial and judgment, because the penalties of some were recovered, and others were paid. Defendant here pleads the verdict and judgment, and the plea was allowed; and Bridgman K. confirmed the same, only ordered, that desendants must answer, whether they know what the jury gave their verdicts upon, whether the penalties or monies paid? and no further proceedings to be if they do not know and consent; but afterwards, Dec. 13, 1670, 22 Car. 2. it was ordered by Archer J. that the last order be discharged, and the plaintiss may reply. 3 Ch. R. 54. 22 Car. 2. Rawlins v. Rawlins.
- 21. After two verdicts in ejectment, whether the fines of copy-holders were certain or arbitrary, the court would not relieve the plaintiff other than for the preservation of witnesses. 2 Ch. R. 76. 24 Car. 2. Smith v. Sallett.

22. A verdict at law as to the value of a portion given in marriage was pleaded and allowed. 2 Chan. Cases, 250. Hill. 30 & 31 Car. 2. Shuter v. Gilliard.

23. A verdict and other unjust proceedings in an inferior court were set aside, and the plaintiff in that court ordered to pay all the costs there and here. Fin. R. 472. Mich. 32 Car. 2. Vaux v. Shelly and Thompson.

24. After

12

24. After a recovery at law the defendant brings a bill, and suggests that money was paid in part of the goods, but the receipts lost, and therefore prays a discovery. The defendant here demurred, and it was allowed, because after a verdict. Vern. 176. Tr. 1683. Barbone v. Brent.

25. A bill was brought to be relieved against an apparent fraud; but after long debate was dismissed,, and principally because the plaintiff did not apply to this court till after verdict and judgment. 2 Chan. Cases, 95. 98. Pasch. 34 Car. 2. Lee v. Boles.

- 26. Executor fent a letter to a creditor of the testator's, owning a mortgage to testator for 300 l. The creditor afterwards brought debt on bond against the executor, who directed his attorney to plead specially riens ultra to satisfy debts of a higher nature; but he by mistake pleaded generally plene adm'. The executor's letter, owning the mortgage for 300 l. was produced, on which verdict and judgment pro quer. The executor brings his bill, and proves that there were 2 prior mortgages on the same estate, which before were unknown to him, so that the mortgage to the testator was worth nothing, and was relieved, and injunction granted to stay proceedings at law, per the lords com-2 Vern. 146. Trin. 1690. Robinson v. Bell.
- . 27. Captain of a man of war took the defendant's ship at sea, being an interloper, out of the limits of the East-India company's charter. She was condemned in the admiralty, and ship and goods delivered over to the king's use. The defendant, who was the owner and freighter of the ship, brought trover and recovered 1300l. damages. The plaintiff brings a bill to be relieved against this judgment. The defendant pleaded the judgment, and the plea disallowed, and injunction till hearing, per lords commissioners. 2 Vern. 155, Trin. 1690. Tyrrell'v. Beake...

- 28. Relief after judgment in ejectment, because of fraud by con- 2 Vern. 239. ftruction in the settlement in jointure engrossed by tenant in tail in pl. 222. remainder. Chan. Prec. 35. Mich. 1691. Raw v. Potts.

29. A bond pro easiamento & favore, if reduced to a judgment, and affirmed is not avoidable at law, nor ever relievable here; per Ld. Wright. Proc.

Chan. Prec. 200. Trin. 1702. in the case of Ive v. Ash.

30. A verdict in trover was directed to be given for the defendant, the fale of the goods to the plaintiff being proved fraudulent; but for want of the defendant's proving a copy of the judgment, by which he, as bailiff, took them in execution, the jury, by an after direction for that reason, only found for the plaintisf. On a bill by defendant at law, fetting forth this matter, he was relieved, and the plaintiff at law decreed to pay costs, and a perpetual injunction granted against the judgment. Chan. Prec. 233. Trin. 1704. Kent v. Bridgman.

31. Bill to be relieved against a forfeiture for non-payment of rent, by a tenant at a rack-rent, after a recovery in ejectment. It was infilted for the defendant, that the rule for relief in equity against forfeitures of this kind did not extend to a tenant at a rack-rent, where the rent must be supposed Ii3 equal to the value of the land, and therefore not in the nature of a penalty to avoid the lease at law upon non-payment of rent, by virtue of a clause of re-entry; that the rule extends only to beneficial leafes where fines have been paid, or great fums laid out in improvements, &c. where the tenant is a fort of a purchasor of part of the interest in the term. In those and the like cases the clause of re-entry is in nature of a penalty, and therefore relievable in a court of equity, upon making satisfaction to the injured party, and payment of costs. Besides, the plaintiff here might have staid proceedings upon the ejectment, upon payment of the arrears of rent, and so might have been relieved at law, and therefore after trial and judgment ought not to have come here, when he might have had the same remedy at law. Per King C. I do not like giving relief here in these cases after a judgment at law; but the precedents are too strong for me; and decreed, upon payment of the rent and costs at law and in equity, the defendant to make a new lease for the remainder of the term to the plaintiff; but ordered a covenant to be inserted for the tenant to repair during the term, though no fuch covenant was in the former lease. MS. Rep. Mich. 12 Geo. in Canc. Taylor v. Knight.

Raw v. Pole, S. C.

(Z) Chancery and Courts of Equity. Decree reviewed. In what Cases it may be.

against the statute of wills, by which the common law is affirmed, that where the land is held in capite one third part shall be suffered to descend to his heir, and the sather devises all for payment of debts, which is void for a third part, and the chancery confirms it for this third part by a decree, and this matter appears within the decree, this decree may be re-examined and reversed, because it is against the statute, and so the chancery errs in law. Tr. 15 Ja. in cancellaria, between Roswell and EVERY, adjudged upon a demurrer, per Bacon the lord keeper; and after M. 16 Jac. the decree reversed accordingly by the advice of Justice Dodderidge and Justice Hutton, assistants to the court.]

• S. C. cited Arg. Lane 70. and see there the like point in the case of . Arden v. Darcy, Trin. 7 Jac. in the exchequer.

[2. So if the chancellor errs in a decree in a matter of law, and it appears within the decree, as if the chancellor makes a decree upon the law upon his own opinion, against the opinion of the judges, this decree may be reviewed for this error in law. Trin. 15 Jac. in cancellaria, in SIR GEORGE REYNEL'S CASE, adjudged upon a demurrer by Bacon, the lord keeper. Tr. Jac. in camera scaccaril. Per curiam, this bill of review is in nature of a writ of error. *27 H. 8. 15. there was a matter of law, and adjudged that it might be reversed there.]

[3. Bx

On a bill of review the cause of repear upon the case as stated in the decree, must be admitted as

and that

[3. But if the chancellor errs in his decree upon a matter in fast, this decree is final, and cannot be reviewed, because they cannot go to a new examination of witnesses now; for after publication this view must cannot be done. Tr. 15 Jac. in cancellaria, this was so held by arise and epthe lord keeper in the said case. Tr. 8 Jac. between ARDEM AND DARCY, per curiam.]

*[4. So if the chancellor errs in his conscience upon a matter of fact and the sact proved before him, there may be a review upon this matter, because there needs no new examination; but this may be reviewed upon there stated, the old depositions, and this is usual.]

though the fact whereon the court gave judgment were mistaken, yet there is no ground of a bill of review, but the fact in this case must be admitted true, and the decree is matter of record, and can be tried only by the record; but in mistaking the fact, the proper course had been to have gotten the cause re-heard before the decree had been signed and inrolled. 2 Freem. Rep. 182. pl. 251. 16 June, 16 Car. 2. Combes v. Proud.——Chan. Cases, 54, 55. S. C. and in much the same words ———Chan. Cases, 105, 106. Pasch. 20 Car. S. P. Haynes v. Harrison. - 2 Keb. 279. pl. 46. Mich. 19 Car. 2. Harrison v. Haynes, S. C. that by Ld. Keeper Bridgman, a decretal order not involled, cannot on allegation of matter of fact omitted be stayed, but the party must have a bill of review; but if matter of fact be omitted, this is cause to appeal to the house of lords.

5. No bill of review admitted on new matter. Cary's Rep. 82. Ibid. eltes cites 3 Jac. Lovegrace v. Webb.

15 Jac. Nudigate v. Davis.

6. If a decree be made by commissioners upon the statute of 43 Jo. 147. pl. Eliz. cap. 4. of charitable uses, and exceptions put in against it in 5. S. C. rechancery, and there heard, examined, and confirmed in part, and al- cordingly, tered in part, it was resolved that it cannot upon a bill of review on a referbe further examined; for it takes its authority by the act, which ence out of mentions but one examination, and is not to be resembled to the case where a decree is made by the chancellor by his ordinary authority. Cro. C. 40. pl. 2. Mich. 2 Car. between Windsor and the Inhabitants of Farnham.

7. After a decree made in point of right, any matter that Chan. Rep. might have been pleaded in abatement is not such an error as to 231: 14 Cas. ground a bill of review. N. Ch. R. 86. Lady Cranborne v. Dalmahoy,

8. Confession subsequent to a decree is no ground for a bill of re- 2 Freem. view, said to be a rule. Chan. Cases, 143. Hill. 15 & 16 Car. Rep. 178. 2. in case of Curtes v. Smalridge.

pl. 239. S. C. & S. P.

9. The want of any evidence or matter which might have been used 2 Freem. in the first cause, and of which the party had then knowledge, is not Rep. 1784 any ground for a bill of review; Arg. and seems admitted. Chan, S. C. & Çases, 43, 44, Hill. 15 & 16 Car. 2, in case of Curtess v. Smal. S. P. ridge.

10. Where a bill is to be relieved on a fact not in issue, nor Bill of reappearing in the former cause, a bill of review will not lie for it; view does not lie, be-Arg. Chan, Cases, 44. Hill, 15 & 16 Car. 2, in case of Read v. cause nothing can appear to the Hambey.

court on the body of this decree to alter it; Arg. 2 Freem. Rep. 179. pl. 242. S. C. Bills of review are allowed only on errors apparent in the record, or on new matter discovered since the deree. G. Equ. R. 184. Hill. 12 Geo. 1.

Ii4

11. Bill

2 Chan.
Rep. 66.
S. C. the plaintiff would now examine to a matter of tender and matter, whereas it was of defendant's knowledge at the time of the answer and hearing, though there was no proof then of it, but it came to light afterwards. Ld. Keeper Bridgman in effect dismissed the bill, but then gave time to search precedents. 3 Chan. Rep. 76, 77. Trin. 1672. Chambers v. Greenhill.

which he could not prove before the hearing, but now fince the decree figned and inrolled he can prove it. The court ordered precedents to be learched, and precedents being now produced by the plaintiff, his lordship declared that they fermed of no weight to the plaintiff's purpose, and dismissed the bill of review —— 3 Chan. Rep. 76. savs, the case of Colt v. Coit was cited, where the detendant set torth deed that made a title by answer, but were afterwards lost and a decree against them, but upon coming to light afterwards, the bill of review was admitted; but id. keeper said, this case was not like the other.——Vern. 417. arg. cites Morgan's case, where upon a bill of review, the plaintiff could not produce the deed, and so sailed at the hearing of making out his equity, and though the deed came afterwards to his hands, which plainly made out the title, yet it was adjudged to be a right without a remedy, and the derendant to be without relief.

[ 409 ]

12. This difference was taken by the chancellor, where a matter in fact was particularly in issue before the former hearing, though you have new proof of that matter, upon that you shall never have a bill of review. But where a new fact is alleged, that was not at the former hearing, there it may be a ground for a bill of review.

2 Freem. Rep. 31. pl. 35. 1677. Anon.

13. The court would not make error by construction, and where a decree is capable of being executed by the ordinary process and forms of the court, and where things come to be in such a state and condition; after a decree made, an original bill is requifite, and a second decree upon that, before the first decree can be executed. In the first case, whatever the iniquity of the first decree be, yet till it be reversed, the court is bound to assist it with the utmost process the course of the court will bear; for in all this the conscience of the present judge is not concerned, because it is not his act, but rather his sufferance, that the act of his predecessor should have its due effect by ordinary forms; but where the common process of the court will not serve, but a new bill and a new decree is become necessary to have the execution of a former decree, which in itself is unjust, the court will not make it its own act by building on ill foundations, and charge his own conscience with promoting an apparent injustice. Rep. 127. 29 Car. 2. Lawrence v. Berney.

14. On a bill of review, the party cannot assign for error that any of the matters decreed are contrary to the proofs in the cause, but must shew some error in law appearing in the body of the decree, or new matter discovered since the decree made, and that not without leave of the court. Vern. 166. pl. 158. Pasch. 1683.

Mellish v. Williams.

ought to be either, because it was unjust in matter of law arising within the body of the decree, or for that the court wanted or exceeded its jurisdiction; per North K. Vern. 292. in case of Fitton v. E. of Macclessield.

16. Bill of review for that on account settled by the master, whose report was decreed; the master had allowed interest upon interest, by jumbling principal and interest together, and then allowing interest for the first total; directed to be examined and rectified as to the point, but the rest of the decree to stand. 2 Chan. Cases, 153. Mich. 35 Car. 2. Ld. Ranelagh v. Thornhill.

17. Upon a bill of review no proofs are to be admitted, but fuch as were in the original cause. N. Ch. R. 196. 1691. Taylor v. Wood.

18. Forgetfulness or negligence of parties under no incapacity is no foundation for a bill of review. MS. Tab. Jan. 13, 1719.

Ludlow v. Macartney.

19. Ought not to be brought but for manifest errors appearing on the face of the decree, or for new matters arising since the decree, of which no advantage could have been taken without leave of the court to bring such bill upon new matters discovered. Tab. March 1, 1726. Ashton v. Smith.

20. After a decree for payment of a sum of money and a rentcharge out of a manor, and to charge the defendant with the rent and arrears, who was no party to the grant of the rent-charge, a bill of review will not lay, for that the charge exceeds the value of the rent of the lands; for the value is no new matter, and it was not excepted to in the former suit, and therefore now remediless; and it is like the case of an executor who cannot plead want of assets after the debt decreed. 3 Ch. R. 88. Trin. 1635. Countels of Suffolk v. Harding.

Bill of Review. By and against whom. [410]

I. DILL of review will not lie but against those who were parties N. Ch. R. in the original bill, as where C. mortgaged lands to A. in 52. S.C. in fee, and covenanted and gave bond to pay the money, but did not. A. died, leaving G.'s wife his heir at law. G. and his wife brought a 2 Freem. bill against C. for the money, or if not paid, then to foreclose him, and Rep. 148. it was decreed accordingly. C. upon discovering that A. had left an executor to ruhom A. had given the money, he brought a bill of life v. review against G. and his wife before the time ordered for payment by the decree, setting forth this matter, and prayed the di-accordingly, rection of the court to whom he should pay the money, and to per cur. have the bond delivered up. And this was all by an original bill, and not by a bill of review; the court held, that in this case a bill of review would not lie, because the executor was not party to the former bill. 3 Chan. Rep. 94. Hill. 1659. The Earl of Carlisle v. Goble & Ux', and other Executors of Andrews.

2. Plaintiff has a decree, and afterwards brings a bill of review to have more allowed him; defendant demurred, and infifted that a review lies only for him against whom the decree or dismillion is; after a long debate the demurrer is over-ruled. Chan. Cases, 53. Pasch. 16 Car. 2. Glover v. Portington.

totidem verbis. -Earl of Car-Globe, 5. Vern. R. 291. in case of Fitton v. Earl of Macclesfield, S. P. Arg.

Nelf. Chan. Rep. 96. S. C. & S. P. and feems to be taken from Chan. Cafes.

3. A bill of review lies only for him against whom the decree or 2 Freem. Rep. 183. pl. 252. 14 May, 16 Car. 2. dismission is. Glover v. Portington & al'.

4. A devisee cannot maintain a bill of review, being not in privity to the testator against whom the decree was. Chan. Cases, 123.

Hill. 20 & 21 Car. 2. Slingsby v. Hale.

5. A parish is sued, and 4 are named to defend. A decree is against them. Another parisbioner, who is no party or privy, may have a bill of review, because he is grieved by the decree; per Ld. Chancellor. Chan. Cases, 272. Hill. 27 & 28 Car. 2. Brown v. Vermuden.

6. Assignee cannot in any case have a bill of review. Arg. Vern. 417. pl. 396. Mich. 1686, in the case of Barbone v. Searle.

(Z. 3) Bill of Review. On what Terms.

2 Freem. Rep. 172. pl. 225.

A Decree was obtained for a great sum of money; a bill of review was brought and new matter assigned. The rule of S. C. in to- court was pleaded, that the defendant ought first to pay the tidem verbis. money before the bill should be brought into court. But upon giving good fecurity for the money, the court dispensed with the rule. Chan. Cases, 42. Hill. 14 Car. 2. SAVIL v. DARREY; and says, the like case between Baston and Biron, by order of the house of peers about 1662.

> 2. Per cur. In a bill of review all things are to be performed according to the former decree, that do not extinguish the right; otherwise the non-performance is a good plea in bar; as if writings are to be brought into court, or costs paid, but not to release the right, or make a conveyance, because that would destroy the right. Not bringing in writings according to the decree fought to be reversed, nor giving security for the costs in the bill of review, was pleaded in the cause between OKEOVER 2 Freem. Rep. 88. pl. 97. Mich. 1683. Fitton v. & Poole.

Ld. Macclesfield.

- 3. Plaintiff was allowed to bring a bill of review without paying the costs decreed in the original cause, amounting to 150 ?. and for which he (as was faid) had been in execution near 20 years, upon making oath he was not worth 40 l. besides the matter in question, and besides a suit depending between the same parties to foreclose a mortgage, the debt being pretended to be over-paid. Vern. R. 264. pl. 259, Mich. 1684, Fitton v. the E. of Macclessield.
- 4. Though an order is made by the lord keeper, for dispensing with costs on bringing a bill of review, yet the same ought to be set forth in the bill of review. Arg. Vern. 292. pl. 285. Hill. 1684. in case of Fitton v. Ld. Macclesfield.
- 5. The plaintiff was not allowed to bring a bill of review unless he performed the decree, or would swear he was unable to da do it, and would surrender himself to the Fleet to lie there till the matter on the bill of review was determined. Vern. 117. pl. 103.

13

Hill. 34 & 35 Car. 2. Williams v. Mellish.

6. The original bill was brought to settle the boundaries of the MS. Rep. plaintiff's manor, and upon the first hearing an issue was directed 7 December, out to be tried at law, and there was a verdict for the plaintiff; Henry Lyd. upon the equity reserved, there was a final decree for quieting the dalv. Bishop plaintiff's possession, and that defendants should pay costs, &c. Defendant moved for leave to file a bill of review upon an affidavit by his folicitor, that certain new evidence was discovered, since the verdict and decree, in favour of the defendant; that this new matter now discovered was a sufficient ground for a bill of review, as well as any error apparent in the decree itself, &c. The question was, if the bi-Thop shall have leave to file the bill of review before he has paid the costs decreed against him? It was insisted on by the counsel for Sir Henry Lyddall, that the party ought not to file a bill of review before he has performed the decree, and that this is constantly allowed for good cause of demurrer to a bill of review, and that payment of costs is part of the decree, which ought to be performed as well as any other part of it, and an old book of orders and rules of the court, printed in 1623, was produced, wherein there was a rule tempore Bacon C. and another in the year 1656, to the effect following, viz. That no bill of review shall be allowed till after the decree performed in all parts, unless such performance would extinguish the party's right or title at law, (as a conveyance of land, release, &c.) and also there must be leave of the court for filing such bill of review, &c. That a bill of review would be a suspension of the payment of the costs decreed, and that Sir Henry Lyddal would be kept out of his costs till the bill of review determined, and if the bishop (who is of a great age) should happen to die, Sir Henry would lose them quite, for he cannot revive the suit for costs only, &c. E contra it was faid for the bishop, that the rules produced on the other side were obsolete, and had been out of use for several years in many particulars, and therefore were not to be taken as standing rules of the eourt; that for many years last past, bills of review have been brought, without leave of the court, upon motion or petition, and it was never insisted on as irregular; that in lieu thereof a deposit of 50 l. is left with the register upon siling the bill of review, so that it is plain these old rules have not been observed of late years. That foon after the restoration, the rules and orders of the court were revised and corrected by Clarendon C. and that these last are taken now to be the standing rules and orders of the court, as they are printed, and called Ordines Cancellariæ, and in that book there is no fuch order as they have infifted on the other fide; that a bill of review is like a writ of error at law, which suspends the execution of the judgment. The costs decreed is not a duty, but a consequence only of a decree against the party; that if the decree be reversed, of consequence the costs are gone, and therefore ought to wait the event of the bill of review. Fer Cowper C, I think the old orders that have been read are reasonable and just, and ought to be observed to prevent usconscionable delays by bills of review, which would be brought in all causes of consequence and value, if they might be filed without leave of the court, and before the decree performed; and I think payment of costs ought to be performed rather than any other part of the decree, especially in this case, where the new matter discovered was in the power of the party, and it was his fault and neglect it was not discovered sooner; so let the event of the bill of review be what it will, the other side ought to have costs, as in the like case of a new trial granted upon the like grounds. Where a sum of money is decreed, the money must be paid before a bill of review is filed, though it must be refunded if the decree be reversed upon the bill of review; but, in the present case, if the decree should be reversed, yet the costs ought not to be refunded, which makes it a much stronger I think the party bimself should make an affidavit that this new matter was discovered since the decree, and that the affidavit of a solicitor is not sufficient; for the bishop himself, or some other agent of his, might be informed of this matter before, at least if the bishop, by reason of his age, high station and quality, may be excused from making an assidavit of the particular matters and facts, yet, at least, he should have an assidavit to corroborate that of his solicitor; but this affidavit of the solicitor alone is not a sufficient ground for a bill of review, and therefore the counsel for the bishop must take nothing by their motion; per Cowper C.

[412]

7. Upon every bill of review to reverse a decree, the plaintiff must deposit 50 l. with the register to answer costs of suit to the defendant. 2 Wms.'s Rep. 283. Trin. 1725. Anon.

8. If brought upon new matter, as upon a deed discovered by the plaintiff since the former decree, the plaintiff must have the leave of the court for filing such bill, though not necessary in the case above for reversing a decree for error appearing on the face thereof. Ibid. 28.1.

9. But in the principal case, the plaintiff having deposited the 50 l. and annexed an affidavit to the bill, that the deed on which the bill of review was sounded came first to the plaintiff's knowledge after pronouncing the decree, the bill was allowed upon plaintiff's paying the costs of desendant's motion to dismiss the bill, because it was filed without the leave of the court. Ibid. 284. Anon.

10. No bill of review lies without paying the duty decreed. MS. Tab. Jan. 21, 1717, Bishop of Durham v. Lyddell.—March 1, 1726, Ashton v. Smith.

(Z. 4) Bill of Review. At what Time.

BILL of review was difmissed, for that it was a long time' since the decree was made, and the plaintiss rested under it without any complaint. 2 Chan. Rep. 46. 22 Car. 2. E. of Castlehaven v. Underhill.

2. Appeal

- 2. Appeal to the house of lords from a decree in chancery, and on petition of the appellants to examine witnesses in the cause, it was rejected, and the petition dismissed, and now the appellants bring a bill of review; and it was decreed that the defendants should an-Iwer the bill of review, or demur on the errors therein, and the benefit of the order of dismission in parliament saved to the de-Yendants. Fin. Rep. 468. Mich. 32 Car. 2. Needler v. Kendall & Hallet
- 3. A bill having been taken pro confesso, a bill of review was 2 Chan. brought, and a demurrer having been put in to it, was allowed; and now a new bill of review being brought, the defendant de- the bill of reenterred, and for cause shewed, that a bill of review lies not after a bill of review, and the demurrer was allowed. Vern. 135. pl. 124. Hill 1682. Dunny v. Filmore.

Cales, 133. S. C. and view difmissed, because of the former bill, though there was manifest error not only in the form of the court, but also in the right, viz. 2 heirs, having title as heirs, one of them plaintiff had a decree for the whole, whereas he had title only to a moiety; and Ld. Keeper North, who dismissed the bill, said, that there was no remedy but in parliament; and there is a nota, that there was no answer to put in, but the bill taken pro confesso.—See tit. Pro Consesso (A) pl. 4. S. C. Vern. 417. pl. 396. Arg. cites S. C. that upon a bill of review the court had decreed the whole estate to the plaintiff; and that though it appeared, even upon the face of the decree, that the plaintiff had a title but to one moiety only, yet it was there resolved, that no bill of review would lie upon a bill of review, and the defendant was left without remedy.—The first bill of review was dismissed, but not on the merits, and a 2d was allowed; but it was ordered not to proceed without performing the decree made on the original bill. Fin. Rep. 162. Mich. 26 Car. 2. Ruton v. Aykough.

- 4. Though there is no limitation of time for bringing a bill of review, yet after a long acquiescence under a decree, chancery will not reverse it, but upon very apparent errors; per Ld. Keeper North. Vern. 287. pl. 285. Hill. 1684. Firton v. Earl of Macclesfield.
- 5. It was faid by some at the bar, that a fine and a non-claim is a bar to a bill of review, if the party was not in prison, &c. Vern. 290. Hill. 1684. in the case of Fitton v. Earl Macclesfield.

6. A man cannot bring a bill of review after a demurrer allowed to a former bill of review; per Jefferies C. Vern. 441. pl. 413-Hill. 1686. Pitt v. the Earl of Arglass.

7. It was agreed by court and bar, that the course of the court is, before any bill of review is granted, the former decree ought to be executed, if the cause of the bill of review be not such as extinguishes the whole right and foundation of the decree, as a release; and that is a good plea in bar of a bill of review, that the former decree is not executed; and it was faid, that though bills of review be in nature of a writ of error, yet it is not favoured in equity; for upon writ of error (and that only in some particular cases) one need the ly to give bail to pay principal and costs; but in bill of review decree ought to be actually complied with; and besides there ought to be security for costs. But a case of PALMER V. DENBY was cited, where, in the case of an executor, it was granted in out execution of the decree. 12 Mod. 343. Mich. 11 W. 3-Canc.

See (Z. 4) (Z. 5.) Pleas to Bills of Review. And what may be assigned for Error. pl. 5. 7.

1. THE defendant answered the bill of review, but so as that some matter in his answer would bring into examination some part of the decree, as it was signed and enrolled; on which answer, [414] as to that part, there was a demurrer, because this would tend to perjury and infiniteness to re-examine things examined and decreed; of which opinion the court was; but as well the defendant's counsel as the court said, there could be no demurrer upon as answer in equity. Serjeant Glyn, for the plaintiff, said, he had known it. The court made an order, that there should be no examination of that which had been examined; and that was the 2 Freem. Rep. 181. pl. 249. 23 June, 16 Car. 2. Williams v. Owen.

> 2. To a bill of review the defendant pleaded the former decra figned and inrolled, and that there was no error shewn in it, and the same matter was fully heard and examined, and settled, which now was endeavoured to be examined again, and the plea was allowed. Fin. R. 209. Pasch. 27 Car. 2. Evans v. Canning.

> 3. It was objected against the bill of review, that they had assigned errors collected from the proofs in the cause, that did not appear in the body of the decree. But the Ld. Keeper observed, that was occasioned by the ill way they had got of late in drawing up decrees in general, without particularly stating the matters of fact; and faid, the plaintiff in a bill of review should not be concluded by it, unless the matter of fact were particularly stated in the decree. I Veru.

215. pl. 212. Hill. 1683. Bonham v. Newcomb.

2 Chan. Cases, 161, 362. Broad v. Broad, S. C. accordingly; and it is there said, plaintiff in a bill of review lege matter of fact contrary to what is flated in be proved.

4. A debate arose touching the stating of the matters of sact in a decree, and it was complained that the registers now drew up decrees in fuch a manner as that no bill of review could be brought; for they only recite the bill and answer, and then add, that upon the reading the proofs, and hearing what was alledged on either fide, it was decreed so and so; and never mention what particular arg. that the facts were allowed by the court to be sufficiently proved, and what not, that so upon a bill of review it might appear to the court what facts the decree was grounded on. The Ld. Keeper declared he would not allow of that way of drawing up decrees in general; but that the facts that were proved should be particularly for mentioned in the decree; otherwise if a bill of review was brought, the decree to those facts should be taken as not proved; for else a decree could never be reversed by a bill of review, but all erroneous decrees must be reversed upon appeals. 1 Vern. 214. pl. 211. Hill. 1683. Brend v. Brend.

5. No objection is to be made on a bill of review that is met. assigned for error. MS. Tab. Jan. 8, 1717. Watkins v. Price.

6. Objection to a master's report cannot be assigned for error upon a bill of review. MS. Tab. 8 Jan. 1717 Watkins v. Price.

7. Matters

7. Matters already settled, or which might have been put in issue in the original cause, shall never be drawn into examination upon a bill of review. MS. Tab. Jan. 13, 1719. Ludlow v. Macartney.

8. Bill of review is usual upon discovery of new evidence. MS. Rep. Hill. Vac. 15 March 1734. S. S. Company v. Bumstead.

(Z. 6) Costs and Damages. In what Cases. On Bills of Review.

THE defendant had a decree for money. The plaintiff by bill of review reversed this decree, and the money decreed to the plaintiff. Per cur. on search of precedents, the defendant shall not pay damage * for this money. 2 Freem. Rep. 181. pl. 247. 23 May, 16 Car. 2. Jackson v. Eyre.

3 Chan.
Rep. 15,
16. S. C. directions were given to fearch for precedents whether damages had been given on a bill of review, and no precedents were now produced; and it was confidently affirmed that there was no precedent of any costs or damages given on a bill of review, and compared it to a judgment in a writ of error, where the judgment is, that the party shall recover quicquid anist per judicium prædictum, but no damages or costs; and in this case it was ruled that there should be none.——Nels. Chan. Rep. 83. Jackson v. Digry, S. P. accordingly, in much the same words, and seems to be S. C.

* [ 415 ]

2. A bill of review was brought, and demurred to; and afterwards the counsel for the plaintiff in the bill of review moved the court to discharge the bill, as not being regularly filed, upon payment of costs out of the 50 l. deposited in court upon the filing thereof, and the same was granted by Lord C. Cowper. MS. Rep. Mich. 4 Geo. The Bishop of Durham v. Sir Henry Lyddal.

(A.'a) Costs. [In what Cases in General. And How.]

1. THE plaintiff shall not recover any costs in chancery, though the recovers the thing for which he sues, as a deed, or such like which is not recovered in democracy.

fuch like, which is not recovered in damages.]

2. Where a feme is newly endowed in chancery, there she shall not recover damages; for those of the chancery do not give damages. Br. Damages, pl. 195. cites 42 Ass. 32. and 43 E. 3. 32.

3. Damages shall not be given to the defendant in chancery by statute, but only where the bill is found true or false, and not where the bill is found insufficient in matter; for this is out of the case of the statute. Br. Damages, pl. 163. sites 7 E. 4. 14. per cur.

4. Foralmuch as it is informed, the trial of the truth of the matser resteth altogether in the declaration of the defendant, it is therefore ordered, that the defendant shall be examined upon interrogatories to be administered by the plaintiff; upon whose examination, if the matter fall not out for the plaintiff, then the plaintiff to pay the defendant's costs, and the cause to be dismissed. Cary's Rep. 64. cites 2 Eliz. fol. 122. Fifield v. Vimore.

5. The plaintiff at the day appointed for hearing appeared na, therefore the defendant is dismissed with costs. Cary's Rep. 64 cites 2 Eliz. fol. 125. Fincham v. Backwood.

6. The defendant being served with a process, found the tause set down for hearing, and attended, and was dismissed with costs, because the plaintiff was not ready. Toth. 108, 109. cites 15 Eliz. Clayton v. Leigh.

7. The defendant is adjudged to pay to the plaintiffs 40s. costs, for suing out process of contempt against him, being discharged by her majesty's general pardon. Cary's Rep. 79. cites 18 &

19 Eliz. Jones and Paris v. Jones.

- 8. The plaintiff shewed the defendant a writ; but did deliver him neither a note of the day of his appearance, neither did the same appear unto him by the schedule, label, or any other paper, and the defendant appearing found no bill. It is ordered the desendant be allowed good costs, and an attachment against the plaintiff for such serving. Cary's Rep. 83. cites 19 Eliz. Brightman v. Powtrell.
- 9. Costs to witnesses served to testify, having no charges tendered unto them, nor any interrogatories put in for them to be examined upon. Cary's Rep. 87, 88. cites 19 Eliz. Pearce & Ux' v. Crawthorne & White.

10. Costs paid to a witness before he he examined. Cary's Rep. 88. cites 19 Eliz. Belgrave v. the Earl of Hertford v. Drury.

in court, the server to pay costs. Cary's Rep. 92. cites 19 Eliz.

- 12. The plaintiff was adjudged to pay the defendant 37 s. 6 d. costs, for that, he being served with a subpoena in Hillary term appeared, and by his answer disclaimed, and yet after the plaintist served him with a subpoena to tejoin; but afterwards the same costs were discharged by motion, for that the defendant bad, before the costs, put in his rejoinder; but, upon a disclaimer, no costs is to be allowed. Cary's Rep. 156. cites 21 Eliz. Read v. Hawsted, als. Lane.
- 13. The defendant was taken upon a commission of rebellion at the plaintist's suit, and required his costs to be allowed him. The court asking the opinion of the clerks, it was agreed with one consent, that he should have his costs allowed; therefore ordered accordingly. Cary's Rep. 156. cites 21 Eliz. Morgan v. Ap John Gowge.

14. The plaintiff is adjudged to pay to the defendant 50s costs for projecuting process of contempt against him, and no contempt proved. Cary's Rep. 117. cites 21 & 22 Eliz. Wrayford

v. Weight & Hingeston.

15. The plaintiff, as sole executor to R. M. exhibited a bill against the defendants for the same matter, for which the plaintiff and D. G. as executors to the same M. exhibited another bill, and ordered, that both bills should be referred; and if both for one cause, the defendants Sendants shall be dismissed from one of the bills with costs. Cary's Rep. 125. cites 21 & 22 Eliz. Maunder v. Wright and Allis.

16. A desendant examined touching a contempt, and discharged thereof, shall have costs of course, if a commission be not presently taken out to prove it, and if he prove it not, then increase of rofts. Toth. 134. cites 37 Eliz. Atkinson v. Ailoff.

17. If a man excepts against an answer, and hath it referred, if thereupon it falls out to be good, the defendant shall have costs for that trouble upon motion. Toth. 149. cites Hill. 39 Eliz.

Beswick v. Fox.

18. A bill was exhibited against an executor, to be relieved against a bond given by plaintiff to the testator. The court decreed for the plaintiff, and 1401. costs were taxed. The defendant moved to have the costs discharged, because an executor is not liable to costs. It was insisted, that an executor, in all cases at law, where he is defendant, pays costs if the judgment is against him, as de bonis testatoris si, &c. But it was ruled, that an executor, being defendant in equity, shall not pay costs, because it is without precedent. Hard. 165. Hill. 1659. in the Exchequer. Twisleton v. Thelwell.

19. Where a man applies to be relieved against the penalty of a bond, and is ordered in chancery to pay interest and costs, it will extend to costs at law as well as in chancery. 3 Ch. R. 5.

Hill. 14 Car. 2. Hall v. Higham.

20. No damages or costs were given on a bill of review, and it 2 Freem. was faid, there was no precedent of any, and compared it to a judgment in a writ of error, where the judgment is, that the s. c. acparty shall recover, quicquid amisit per judicium prædict', but no damages or costs. 3 Ch. R. 15. 23 May, 16 Car. 2. Jackson v. Eyre.

21. Subpana was served on defendant's servant, who gave no notice to defendant, who was prosecuted for contempt to a serjeant at arms; per cur. though the want of notice is sufficient to discharge the contempt, yet defendant shall pay plaintiff's costs, else plaintiff may be put to charge without any fault of his; for prima facie the fervice was good, and ground enough for plaintiff to go on with process of contempt, and so shall have his costs. Hard. 405. pl. 6. Pasch. 17 Car. 2. in Scace. Duncomb v. Hide.

23. Costs from their time of being taxed shall carry interest, and shall charge the assets by descent. 2 Chan. Rep. 247. 34

Car. 2. Lady Dacres v. Chute.

24. When a defendant has demurred, he may assign another cause of demurrer at the bar, paying costs, and if such demurrer is over-ruled, he ought, in strictness, to pay double costs; but when a defendant has pleaded, and there is no demurrer in court, he cannot demur at the bar, though he would pay costs. Vern. 78. pl. 72. Mich. 1682. Durdant v. Redman.

25. Demurrer allowed but without any costs, because it was a demurrer only, without any answer, and came in by commission; per North K. Vern. 282. pl. 279. Mich. 1684. Elme v. Shaw. Vol. IV.

Rep. 181. pl. 247. cordingly. -Nell. Chan. Rep. 83. Jackson v. Digry, S. C. accordingly.

[417]

North K. made a rule, that for the future a master should tax defendant his full costs. Vern116. Anon.

26. Ld. Chancellor Jefferies declared, that he would not allow of the rule of dismissing a bill on 20 s. costs, but ordered, that for the future the defendant should have the costs, he should swear he was out of purse; but in such assidavit he must specify the particulars, that the court may judge of the reasonableness, if there should be occasion. Vern. 334. pl. 328. Mich. 1685.

27. One may add a new defendant without paying costs; so as fuch addition does not make the other defendants to change their answer. 12 Mod. 561. Mich. 13 W. 3. in Canc. Anon.

28. 4 & 5 Anna, cap. 16. s. 23. Gives defendant full oft where the bill is dismissed for want of prosecution.

29. Costs are not already to follow the event of a cause; as where the defendants claimed 800 l. to be due to them, and upon reference to the master, he reported 180 l. due, and no more, the count would not give the desendants costs, though the balance was in their favour, because they would have over-charged 620 l. and it being in the case of a charity, the plaintists were ordered their costs, because they had been serviceable to the charity, by exing them of the 620 l. debt which was claimed against them; and the court ordered the same to be paid out of the improved rents of the charity. Wms.'s Rep. 576, 577. Trin. 1717. Att. Gen. at the Relation of the Overseers of Islington v. the Brewers Company.

30. The beir at law, or beir male to the bonour of a family, shall not pay costs if there be probable cause to contend for the samily estate.—As where he found a deed by which a remainder vested in him, and not being privy to a revocation made thereof pursuant to a power reserved; it was not only lawful, but reasonable for him to make an enquiry by bill; per Ld. Ch. Parker. Wms.'s Rep. 482. Mich. 1718. Shales v. Sir John Barrington.

31. If a legatee or creditor not party to the cause, comes in before the master, he shall have his costs; for it was in his power to have brought a bill for his legacy or debt, which would have put the estate to farther charge; per Ld. C. Macclessield. 2 Wms.'s Rep. 26. Trin. 1722. Maxwell v. Wettenhall.

32. If the plaintiff in an issue directed out of chancery, give notice of trial, and does not countermand it in time, chancery on motion will give costs without putting the defendant to move the court at law where the issue is to be tried. 2 Wms.'s Rep. 68. Trin. 1722. Anon.

33. A bill was dismissed with costs, and the person, who was intitled to costs, died before they were taxed; there is no relief to be had in this case. Sel. Cases in Canc. in Ld. King's Time, 21.

Trin. 11 Geo. 1. Anon.

[418]

.34. Decree was had by default, and a petition for re-hearing; the person in possession of the decree, did not attend at the re-hearing; bill dismissed with costs as to the petitioner. Sel. Cases in Ld. King's Time, 50. Mich. 11 Geo. 1. Wilson v. Dabbs.

35. On a bill by A. lord of the manor of D. against B. lord of the manor of S. to settle the boundaries of the manor of D. (the parties insisting upon different boundaries) it was ordered that they give a note to each other of their boundaries, and the matter to be tried in a feigned issue, which being afterwards found for the defendant on 3 several trials, (the 2d having been certified by the judge to be against evidence,) and thereby the boundaries appeared to be as given in by the defendant. It was admitted that as to the costs of the 3 trials, the plaintiff must pay them; but his counsel urged that as to the costs here, the bill was in nature of a bill of partition, in which case neither side pay costs. But the master of the rolls, though he allowed the objection to have some weight, held, that as the defendant had no bill here, and the plaintiff might have tried the matter at law, and more especially since no part of the iffue is found for the plaintiff, he should be within the common rule and pay costs throughout; and dismissed the bill with costs. 2 Wms.'s Rep. 376. Mich. 1726. Metcalf v. Beckwith.

Chancery.

36. Note, the course of the court is, that where a cause is brought on upon a bill and answer, and the plaintiff's bill is dismissed as against a defendant, there only 40 s. costs is to be paid by the plaintiff; but if the plaintiff has a decree against the defendant, though upon bill and answer only, there if the plaintiff has costs given him, it must be costs to be taxed. 2 Wms.'s Rep. 387. Mich. 1726. Anon.

37. A witness examined on a commission deposed, reflecting words But the tewoon . . . . for which he was ordered to pay costs; but upon a motion to discharge the order, Ld. C. King said, that he found the commissioners on both sides attended at the examination, and fince it was their fault to take down any deposition that was scandalous or impertinent, he discharged the order. 2 Wms.'s Rep. 406. Hill. 1726. Anon.

porter makes a quære, if the interrogatory bad led to it, whether the counsel figning them would not have been liable to costs? But that it seems in the principal case it did not, it being the iast general interrogatory. Ibid.

38. If an answer be reported scandalous or impertinent, the costs by the rule of the court are to lie upon the counsel; arg. and not 2 Wms.'s Rep. 406. Anon.

39. If there be a decree for costs, and the defendant dies before taxation, the costs are lost; arg. and admitted on the other side, that if not ascertained on the death of the party, they are in some cases lost; but where they are to be looked upon as a duty and not as costs only, as where the suitor having paid the register his fee for making an entry, which he neglected, by means whereof the proceedings were irregular and the defendant obliged to pay 58 l. costs; the register must re-imburse the suitor, and though he dies before the costs ascertained, yet his executor shall be liable. For this was not a bare misbehaviour, but the receipt - of the fee amounted by implication of law to a promise and agreement to procure an entry; and it was so held by Ld. C. King. 2 Wms.'s Rep. (657) Mich. 1731. James v. Philips.

(B. a) How the Suit shall be prosecuted, [or rather in what Cases Inserior Courts of Equity, exceeding their Authority, shall be prohibited.]

[1. UPON a suit in a court of equity, if the court will compete the defendant to stand to their award, a prohibition shall be granted, for this is against law; for if they have jurisdiction of the thing, they may compel him to perform it without an obligation. H. 13 Jac. B. R. BETWEEN ATKINSON & HOBBS, a prohibition granted to the council of York.]

S. P. Where a fuit was exhibited in the court of Fol. 383. requests; Arg. March 102. Trin.

[2. If there be a fuit before the council of the marches of Wales, and the cause is dismissed, but referred to certain persons to hear and determine it, and this is without the consent of the desendant; but thereupon the referrees make an order, and certify it to the court, and for non-performance thereof the court (*) imprison him; a prohibition lies, for the court cannot make strangers judges in the case without the assent of the parties. M. 8 Car. B. R. BETWEEN MAYOW & MAYOW resolved, and a prohibition granted.]

C. B. and says, that by referring the merits of the cause, the others they would create courts of equity without number.

(C. a) Examination of Witnesses in Perpetuam rei Memoriam.

If a man assumes to J. S. in consideration that he will marry his daughter, that he will pay him 500 l. after the death of J. D. in this case, because the witnesses are old, and J. D. is as young as J. S. so that the witnesses to prove the promise may die before J. D. and so J. S. shall be without remedy for his promise, he may exhibit his bill in chancery, and examine witnesses to prove it, in which he, that made the promise, may join in nature of an examination in perpetuam rei memoriam. M. 19 Jac. in chancery, BETWEEN SIR EDWARD TIRBEL & SIR THOMAS CO.]

2. Witnesses were examined by commission before answer, in regard they were old. Cary's Rep. 67, 68. cites 2 Eliz. fol. 171.

Sir Radmus Bagnold v. Green.

3. The plaintiff exhibited his bill to examine witnesses in perpetual memory touching a lease of lands, which he, and those by whom he claimeth have enjoyed 40 years; the desendant by answer claimeth the lands as copyhold of inheritance to S. who is owner of the inheritance, and within age; and therefore prayed that no witnesses might be examined till S. be of full age. And yet because the witnesses being old, and may die in the interim, therefore a subposena is awarded against the desendant, to shew cause why a commission commission should not be granted. Cary's Rep. 156, 157. cites 21 Eliz. Hearing v. Fisher.

4. A bill to examine witnesses in perpetual memory, touching common, not thought fit; but a bill upon the title, and to examine, and publication thereupon, and then to go to law. Toth. 80. cites 38 & 39 Eliz. Throckmorton v. Griffin.

5. A bill to examine witnesses in perpetual memory, concerning common, was retained. Toth. 85. cites 11 Car. Pott v. Scarborough.

II IL

E Z.

1 11

. 15

. .

15

: 5

6. Witnesses were examined to support an entail. Ch. Rep. 174.

anno 1659. Cooper v. Tragonwell.

7. Witnesses were examined to prove a true deed of uses of a fine, whereby the lands were limited to the conusor and his wife for life, and after to the plaintiff their eldest son in tail, and to disprove a 2d deed of uses forged, limiting the remainder to the heirs of the survivor of the conusor and his wife. At the time petiant on the of the fine levied J. S. had an estate for life in the lands, and is still living, but the conusor and his wife are dead. The conusor life. A. fold the lands, and made a title by the forged deed of uses. The purchasor demurred to the bill; but because the plaintiff could not try his title at law, the tenant for life being living, and that therefore this court is obliged in justice to preserve a title at law, which cannot at present be tried by reason of such impediment, the demurrer was over-ruled. Nelf. Ch. Rep. 125, 126. anno 20 Car. 2. Seaborn v. Chilston.

A. and B. had each of them purchased a reversion exdeath of the tenant for brought a bill to examine his witnesses to preferve their teffimony, and to be admit-. ted to try his title in the life-time of the tenant for life; but forasmuch as B. a purchasor was a defendant, the court would do nothing in it, but dismissed the plaintiff's bill; and he lost his land for want of examining his witnesses. Cited per Ld. Rawlinson, Trin. 1690. Vern. 159. as the case of Seyborn v. Cliston.

8. Bill was to perpetuate the testimony of witnesses to prove a will and codicil. The defendants plead a fuit in the prerogative court, concerning the validity of the said codicil, where that matter is proper to be determined. The court allowed the plea quonfque it is determined in the spiritual court, whether the said codicil is to be proved or no, but without costs. Fin. Rep. 67. Hill. 25. Car. 2.

Rogers v. Bromfield & al'.

9. The method is first to exhibit a bill in chancery, and therein to fet forth a title and that the witnesses to prove it are old, and not likely to live, by which the plaintiff is in danger to lose it, and then to pray a commission to examine them, and a subpoena to the parties concerned to shew cause, if they can, to the contrary; and these depositions are not to be used against any other than the same desendants, or those claiming under them. See Fin. Rep. 301. Trin. 30 Car. 2. Mason v. Goodburne, in Marg.

10. Bill to bring a deed into court, and to perpetuate the testimony of witnesses, and decreed. Fin. Rep. 391. Trin. 30 Car. 2.

Mason v. Goodburn & Fellowlove.

11. Bill by a commoner (against whom an action was brought at S. P. Vern. law by another commoner, and 10 l. damages recovered) to ex- 312. in pl. amine his witnesses to prove his right of common in perpetuam rei who is in memoriam. Per cur. such bill is not to be admitted here; a possession of commoner & commona pischary,

Kk3

rent-charge, &c. may bring a bill to examine commoner ought not to come here to prove his right of common till he has recovered at law in affirmance of his right. Vern. 308. Hill. 1684. Pawlett v. Ingress.

his witnesses in perpetuam, &c. though he has not established his title at law. But if one that is out of possession brings such hill, a demurrer will be good. But where the plaintiss suggested that the defendant threatened to disturb him, &c. when his witnesses should be dead, if the desendant not only threatened but actually did disturb by suspenses, &c. doily, in such case the desendant should plead that he did daily disturb the plaintiss, and therefore the plaintiss should seek remedy at law; or if the plaintiss had a should seek remedy at law; or if the plaintiss had shown in his bill that desendant had actually disturbed him, then the demurrer had been proper, but not for barely threatening. Chan. Prec. 531. Trin. 1720. The Duke of Dorset v. Serj. Girdler.

* Decreed per Ld. Keeper Wright. See Chan Prec. 53s. Winn. v. Hatty.

12. On a bill to perpetuate the testimony of witnesses touching a right to a way, the plaintiss must set out the way exactly in his bill per & trans as he ought to do in a declaration at law. But by North Ld. Keeper, such trivial things as ways, rights of common or water-courses, shall not be examined into, or at least not till after a recovery at law; for the examination costs more than the value of the thing; and in the present case the plaintiss either disturbed in his way, or he is not; if he be, he has his remedy at law; and if he be not, he has no reason to complain. But for the plaintiss it was said, that the bill charged that the plaintiss tenant was in combination with the defendant, and would not suffer the plaintiss to bring an action in his name. Vern. 312. pl. 308. Hill. 1684. Gell v. Hayward.

13. If a bill be exhibited for the examining of witnesses in perpetuam rei memoriam, if the plaintiff therein prays relief, the bill shall be dismissed. 2 Vent. 366. Pasch. 36 Car. 2. in Canc. Anon.

Nor any one 14. Device shall not examine witnesses in perpetuam rei else, if he be under no impediment till the will has been established by a verdict at law; per Ld. of trying his title at law. Vern. 354, pl. 350. Hill. 1 & 2 Jac. 2. Bechinall v. Arnold.

Vern. 441.

pl. 415. Hill. 1686. Parry v. Rogers.

- 15. If witnesses are examined to perpetuate testimony, and afterwards a witness dies, yet the depositions shall not be evidence, but only between the parties to the suit. Arg. Carth. 80. Mich. I W. & M.
- 16. A bill was brought to discover a title to land, and for an account of the profits, and to perpetuate testimony, &c. The desendant answered as to the title, and demurred as to the perpetuating evidence, in regard the plaintiss might bring his ejectment and examine his witnesses at the trial. And upon assidavit that the plaintiss witnesses were infirm, and unable to travel, the demurrer was over-ruled by the master of the rolls, and after by the lord chancellor on a re-hearing; but his lordship admitted, that without such an assidavit the demurrer would have been good, it being a common suggestion in a bill; but when sworn, if such demurrer should be allowed, it would introduce great inconvenience and hardships, hardships, and a failure of justice. Wms.'s Rep. 117. Hill. 1709. Philips v. Carew.

17. It is a positive rule that where there is any doubt on the proofs, a will will not be established against an heir without a trial at 9 Mod. 90. Hill. 10 Geo. 1. Dawson v. Chater.

Ibid. cites Ld. Mountague's cass in the boule of lords to decreed, though he himself had proved the will in Doctors' Commons as to the personal estate-

- Bills in Chancery. For what they may be brought, and in what Cases they lie, in General.
- A Bill was brought for an account of a personal estate, and decreed. 2 Ch. Cases, 43. 32 & 33 Car. 2. Colston v. Gardner.

See tit. Account (D. a)

2. Chancery has admiral jurisdiction by the statute 31 H. 6. N. 66. or 68. which was never printed, and letters of reprizal may be repealed in chancery after a peace, notwithstanding the letters patents are, that no treaty of peace shall prejudice them. Vern. 54. pl. 51. Pasch. 1682. The King v. Carew.

Admiral jurildiction.

= 3. Chancery cannot compel one to execute a trust for an alien; per Roll J. Sty. 21, Pasch. 23 Car. B. R. in case of the King v. Holland.

Alien.

422

4. Alimony was decreed in chancery on a fuit by the wife and her brother, against the husband, to be paid her for a year and an half. Chan. Rep. 44. 6 Car. 1. Lasbrook v. Tyler.

Alimony. See tit. Baron & Feme.

5. Bill to be relieved against a bail bond fraudulently assigned by Bail bonds. the sheriff. Vern. 87. pl. 76. Mich. 1682. Izrael v. Narbourn.

6. Chancery will not intermeddle with commissioners of fewers Bankrupts. accounts; otherwise in case of receivers by authority in case of commissioners of bankrupts. Chan. Cases, 232. Trin. 26 Car. 2. Anon.

7. One that bas been examined by commissioners of bankrupts, may be examined, or put to answer to the same matter in canc. 2 Chan. Cases, 73. Mich. 33 Car. 2. Perrat v. Ballard.

8. Bankrupt or no bankrupt is only triable at law, and so a bill was dismissed. 2 Chan. Cases, 153. Mich. 35 Car. 2. Harding v.

March.

9. Bill may be brought in chancery to foreclose mortgage of Beyond sea. lands out of the jurisdiction of the court, (as of the islands of Sarke, Guernsey, &c. which are governed by the laws of the dutchy of 2 Vern. Normandy) if the person be here, or otherwise there might be a Kk4 and seems to be S. C. and Ld. Keeper over-ruled the plea to the jurisdiction for the reason here g ven, and aiso, because the grant was of the whole island.

1705 Tol. failure of justice, and chancery agit in personam & non in rem. ler v. Carteret, S. P. 1 Salk. 404. 4 Ann. in Canc. Anon.

* S. P. by the opinion of the judges. Toth. 210.

10. The point being *parcel or no parcel decreed, and beinguncertain, the lands lying intermixed, ordered to be set out, notwithstanding the defendant, by general words, in a bargain and sale, have enjoyed the same long. Toth. 126, 127. cites 9 Jac. Dean of Windsor-v. Kinnersley.

cites the case of Egerton v. Egerton. —— S. P. Toth. 210. cites Pasch. 2 & 3 Car. Hobby v. Bonby. —— S. P. Toth. 210. cites Pasch. 12 Car. Mr. Page's report of Hetly v. the Earl of Susfolk.

11. A suit to set out boundaries. Toth. 84. cites Mich. 2 Car, Tipping v. Chamberlain.

English lands, a commission was ordered to be directed to certain persons, as well to take the defendant's answer, as also to set south the metes and bounds, and to return terrars and boundaries, which was done accordingly, and by consent of the parties the court decreed the boundaries, and that the same be ratified to all intents, as if the same had been judicially pronounced upon a sull hearing in court. Nels. Chan. Rep. 14. by Ld. Coventry, 7 Jac. 1. Spyer v. Spyer.

13. Decreed for precincts and parcels. Toth. 130. cites 8 Car.

Mayor of Norwich v. Dean of Norwich.

14. Bill was brought for a commission to set out the boundaries of a parcel of freehold land, of about 12 acres, suggested to be intermixed with copyhold lands, and undivided, and which described had recovered at law as belonging to him, and that the metes and bounds of the said freehold lands were destroyed. The plaintiss offered to set out 12 acres of copyhold lands in lieu thereof, so as suits at law might be avoided, and he indemnished from a sorfeiture to the lord of the manor. But it appearing by the desendant's answer, that the lands by him claimed and recovered are a distinct piece of ground, and inclosed, and known by the name of H. and not intermixed, a commission was denied. Fin. Rep. 17. Mich. 25 Car. 2. Davenport v. Bromley.

15. Four acres of lands which the plaintiff had title to, being intermixed with lands of defendant in a great field, and which, by ploughing and other means, were so destroyed, that they could not be distinguished from the other lands of the defendant's, a commission was decreed to set out the metes and bounds of the said 4 acres. Fin.

Rep. 96. Hill. 25 Car. 2. Boteler v. Spelman.

16. Lands were leased for three lives to the desendant's father, who had lands of his own contiguous. The fences were afterwards thrown down, and boundaries destroyed. The plaintiff (grandfon of the lessor) brought his bill for a discovery thereof, and also of what was in arrear for rent, &c. and the court ordered desendant to answer as to the boundaries. Fin. Rep. 239. Mich. 27 Car. 2. Glynn v. Scawen.

17. A

17. A commission was decreed to set out boundaries, whereby 60 acres of copyhold might be distinguished from the freeholds of Fin. Rep. 162. Mich. 32 Car. 2. Wintle v. other persons.

Carpenter.

18. Bill for rents purchased by the plaintiff of 2 s. and 3 s. per Where a ann. suggesting constant payment time out of mind, but that they could not recover at law, not knowing the nature of the rent, to be iffuing whether rent-charge, service, or seck, and the boundaries of the land being uncertain, so could not declare at law so precisely as was required in an avowry; but defendant defiring the matter ing intermight be tried at law, an issue was directed to try if any and what mixed with rents were issuing out of all or any of the lands in the bill mention-Vern. 359. pl. 354. Hill. 1685. Cox v. Foley.

rent-charge was granted out of lands. but the lands charged lyothers, and the boundaries fo confused that the plaintiffs could not distrain, and therefore prayed relief by bill; a commission was ordered to fet out the lands, and the same was returned and certified accordingly. Chan. Cases, 145, 146. cites it as a precedent produced to the court, as of 12 Car. 2. Bowman, alias Boreman, v. Yates. -Same precedent cited as produced, Nelf. Chan. Rep. 121, 122. S. P. mentioned Chan. Rep. 63. in 8 Car. 1. Harding v. Suffolk (Countess).

- 19. The plaintiff's and defendant's lands lying contiguous, the bill was to discover the boundaries of the defendant's estate, alleging the same fully appeared by the deeds and writings in his The defendant demurred. 2 Vern. 38. pl. 34. Hill. Hungerford v. Goreing. 1688.
- 20. A gentlewoman took the death of her husband so heavily, that she said she would never marry again. Her son gave her 10 l. to pay 100 l. when she should marry; which she took. terwards she married. Decreed to repay the 10 l. only. Ow. 34. Trin. 31 Eliz. Anon.

Catching bargains. 2 Ch. Cases 241. Taylor v. Rudd.

5. P. but the demurrer was over-ruled, and defendant ordered to answer.

- 21. A widow gave a bond of 100 l. to B. on condition of her marrying again, and B. gave 100 l. bond payable to the widow's executors if she did not. The widow marries. Decreed the bond to be delivered up. 2 Vern. 215. pl. 197. Hill. 1690. Baker v. White.
- 22. A bill in equity will not lie to redeem a mortgage of chambers in an inn of court; but application must be made to the bench, and if not redreffed there, then to the judges of the fociety; and the courts at Westminster have always declined meddling therein. And in the principal case the master of the rolls said, he would not meddle with it; but the benchers themselves having recommended it to the plaintiffs to come hither, and left them at liberty to make this application, therefore he thought such bill proper, and decreed a redemption. 2 Wms.'s Rep. 511. Hill. 1728. Rakestraw v. Brewer.

Chambers in inns of court. Upon this cause coming before the lord chancellor, he obliged them to thew that the benchers would not determine the matter, but had given leave to go to law; and faid that this regard ought to be had to all the focieties of law, that all their disputes may be terminated among themselves; and that Ld. Keeper Wright refused to hear a cause of this nature, and sent it back to the beachers. In this case the court determine determined the right, and ordered that the benchera should settle what was due for principal, instead, and costs, and to take accounts of the several receipts and allowances. Cases in Chancery in Ld. King's Time, 56, 11 Geo. S. C.

23. Bill was dismissed where it was brought to be relieved on Collateral stcurities. collateral security and supplementary. Chan. Cases, 301. Mich. A vendor of 28 Car. 2. Barns v. Canning and Pigot.

Lands takes a lease of them at a certain rent, with condition of re-entry, and gives collateral security for the payment of the rest, and a power to re-enter. The rent was arrear, and a re-entry was made, and possessed the same several years. The vendor could have no relief against the collateral security, without paying the arrears of the rent due before the re-entry as well as after, the lands fold being worth but 1601. a yes, whereas they were fold as worth 250 l. a year, and the lease taken was at that rent. Chan. Cases, 261. Trin. 27 Car. 2. Anon.

Conformity.

24. Bills of conformity have been long since exploded, and there. is no such equity now in this court; per North Ld. Keeper. Vern. 153. pl. 142. Pasch. 35 Car. 2. in Alderman Backwell's case.

25. Bill was brought by the heir at law for a born, by which the land was held; and North Ld. Keeper was of opinion the heir would be well intitled to the horn at law. Vern. 273. pl. 270. Mich. 1684. Pusey v. Pusey.

26. Bill was brought to have recompence on the eviction of a jointure, on the statute of 27 H. 8. 10. 2 Vern. 666. pl. 593. Mich. 1710. Countess of Derby v. Ld. Derby.

See tit-Jointrels.

Jointress.

Jurisdiction Special.

27. Where a matter is determined by a court erected by an all of parliament, and the matter was proper, for their jurisdiction, chancery will not intermeddle. Fin. Rep. 319. Mich. 29 Car. 2, Combs v. Kingston.

28. On demurrer and plea to a bill to have an account of the profits of the Mendippe mines in Somersetshire, they plead a special act of parliament, which had given jurifdiction of all matters arifing within the mines to the courts of all other jurisdictions. Per Ld. Chancellor, the plea is not good, because although you plead an exclusive jurisdiction, yet you do not over that there is any court of equity there. Vern. 58. pl. 55. Trin. 1682. Strode v. Little.

29. And this is not like the jurisdiction of the sewers, where this court cannot intermeddle, because there was a new jurisdiction created and reserved intire to itself; but here the jurisdiction of determining matters relating to these mines is transferred to the which are ancient courts, in which by courts of the common law this court did interpose in equitable matters. Veru. 59. pl.: 55. Trin. 1682. Strode v. Little.

Law mat-

30. A bill, which was only preparatory to the bringing en action on the case, was demurred to and allowed. Toth. 72. Trin. But to bring 38 Eliz. Williams v. Nevil.

an action of trover it is common. Arg. Vern. 307. in case of the East-India Company v. Evan; and cited the printer's case in this court.

31. If

31. If A. diffeises me of land, and builds a house on this land, I shall have a judgment for this, and he is not to po into chancery to be relieved for this; per Coke Ch. J. 3 Bulst. 116. Mich. 13 Jac. The King v. Dr. Goudge, 32. The court of chancery will not try or afcertain damages recovered at law in an action of covenant, but ordered the parties to law on the covenant. 2 Ch. R. 62. 23 Car. 2. Hooker v.

Arthur.

33. In some cases even for a tresposs, a bill is proper in this But ordinacourt, as where by the secret contrivance a man cannot easily rily it lies prove it, as for instance, if a man in his own grounds digs a way cover a terta under-ground to my mineral, &c. per North K. Vern. 130. 25 to discopl. 114. Hill. 1682. in case of East India Company v. Sandys.

not to difver a trefpafs in lands or goods; Arg. 2 Chan. Cases, 66. in the flationer's case, 34. Where a man ran away with a casket of jewels, he was ordered to answer, and the parties own oath allowed as evidence in odium spoliatoris; cited per North K. Vern. 308. pl. 300. Hill. 1684. in case of the East India Company v. Evans & al'.

- 35. Bill to be quieted in the possession of an ancient ferry used with a rope over the river Ware in com. Durham, against 20 defendants, who had cut the rope, to avoid the multiplicity of actions, &c. Per Parker C. you may have trespass for cutting the rope; a ferry is in nature of an highway, and a bill does not lie to be quieted in the possession of an highway. It is true, a bill in chancery does lie to be quieted in the possession of common, &c. but that is of a different nature; this is a navigable river, and the rope to the ferry is an obstruction to the navigation; if the plaintiff has any fuch right, there is a proper remedy for him at law, and therefore bill dismissed with costs. MS. Rep. Pasch. 13 Ann. Hilton v. Lord Scarborough & al'.
- 36. The court will not retain a bill to examine point of lunacy. Toth. 227. cites 10 Jac. Bonner v. Thwaite.

37. Bill to discover several ancient customs of a manor, and for a commission to examine witnesses to perpetuate their testimony; defendant demurred for want of parties, and that it was a matter examinable by a jury, and the customs not to be established in this court. Ordered to answer the customs and other matters charged in the bill, whereby to bring the same in issue, and leave was given to amend the bill and make all the tenants parties (fuch of them 28 will give them letters of attorney so to do) plaintiffs, and the rest of them defendants thereunto; but the benefit of the demurrer as. to the establishing the customs in this court, was reserved to the hearing. Fin. R. 114. Hill. 25 Car. 2. Hudson, Fisher, & al', v. Fletcher.

38. Bill by lord of a manor to establish an usage and custom ever fince H. 8th's time, for the lord upon the presentment of 7 copyholders, pyholders, and that agreed to be by the major part of the komage, to inclose waste ground to build upon, and upon rendering several court rolls and hearing all parties decreed to be established, and that the lord might grant leases and estates at pleasure, after such presentment and agreement. Fin. R. 263. Trin. 28 Car, 2. Lady Wentworth v. Clay, Jessries, Hall, & al'.

Chancery.

39. Bill to be relieved pro certo lete, curia advisare vult. 2 Vem.

278. pl. 26. Mich. 1692. Chafin v. Gawden.

Medsures of lands.

40. It was decreed what was a gard land, and how to set the fame out. Toth. 131. cites 12 Car.

41. Where the quantity of a yard land is not known, a commission shall issue to set out so much land as the commissioners shall think sit, upon common intendments. Toth. 186. cites Hill.

* [426] 14 Car. Bishop of Hereford v. Awberry.

So if one commoner fues another left for the rest of the tenants; and a new trial at law directed on those points. Vern. 22. pl. 15. Mich. 1681. How v. the Tenants of Bromsgrove.

where he ought not, and recovers a shilling or other small sum for damages; if another commoner sees likewise a bill, that the second plaintiss may accept the like damages for what is past, to prevent charges at law, is a bill of peace, and proper in this court. Vern. 308. pl. 302. Hill. 1684. Pawlett v.

Ingreis.

But where the same plaintiff has brought several ejetments against the same defendant for the same lands, and 5 or more verdicts have been given for the defendant; a bill of peace is not so proper in this case, one man being able to contend with another. G. Equ. R. 2. Earl of Bath v. Sheriwin.—— 10 Mod. 1. Anon. seems to be S. C.

Perjury. flanding the cause was dismissed. Toth. 222. cites 16 Eliz. fo. 401.

$.C. & S.P. 44. Defendant was ordered to answer a bill of perjury. Tother and it was 73. cites 19 Eliz. Phillips v. Benson.

the officers of the court, that by the order and custom of the court, he ought to be examined upon interrogatories. Cary's Rep. 97. 20 Eliz.

45. Whereas the plaintiff's bill against the defendant for wilful perjury, the defendant hath demurred, which this court alloweth not of. It is ordered that a subpœna be awarded to the defendant to answer. Cary's Rep. 90. cites 19 Eliz. Woodcock v. Woodcock.

46. 40 l. costs given for perjury. Toth. 222. cites Mound v. Culme, Mich. 14 Car.

L'aleting

47. The plaintiff exhibited, thereby shewing, that there is a question and controversy between two defendants, for the reversion of a master of Aldwell, which he holds for years by lease made thereof to him by one Anthony Marmyon, and that he doth not know to which of them the tent and reversion is due, and therefore de-fires, that upon payment of his rent into this court, according to the covenants and articles of his leafe, he may be discharged, and faved harmless from molestation, suit, and trouble, for the same tents, by the defendants, or either of them; wherefore it is ordered, that an injunction be awarded against the defendants not to molest the plaintiff for his said rent, during his said contention, so as the plaintiff pay his rent into this court. Cary's Rep. 65, 66. cites a Elis. fol. 141. Alnete v. Bettam and Marmyon.

LITCS,

48. Where a man made title to a rent-seck, of which there was no feifin, nor for which he had any action at the common law, and prayed help here, it was denied, upon conference had by the Ld. Keeper with the judges. Cary's Rep. 7. cites Mich. 1596.

Rent-Seck.

49. A bill may be brought for solicitor's fees if the business was done in this court, and so it may be, though done in another court, if it relates to another demand made by the plaintiff in licitors. this court; per North K. Vern. 203. pl. 198. Mich. 1683. Earl of Ranclagh v. Thornhill.

See tit. So-

50. Where a statute is extended, it cannot be tried in an eject- Statutes, ment whether it be satisfied or not, but the only remedy is by scire judgments, facias ad computandum, or bill in canc. but otherwise it is on an elegit; for there the debt and yearly value appear on record, and it may well be known when the debt is paid, and may come in evidence on a trial in an ejectment. Arg. Vern. 50. Paich. 1682. in case of the Earl of Huntington v. Greenvill.

51. Bill for relief against a bond and judgment, which was decreed on plaintiff's paying what remained due, and interest, and costs at law, and then the bond to be delivered up, and satsfaction acknowledged, the plaintiff giving a release of errors; and, on failing so to do, the bill to be dismissed. Fin. R. 417. Hill. 31 Car. 2. Morrice v. Hollibarton and Pledger.

[ 427 ]

52. Felling of trees is to be staid in equity, so far as that the pannage may not be taken away. Toth. 210. cites 36 Eliz. Corham's case.

See tit.

Trees.

53. Bill to oblige defendant to accept a trust, and proposing reafonable terms for the trustee, in case he would accept, which the trustee (the defendant) accepting, was decreed accordingly. Fin. R. 32. Mich. 25 Car. 2. Clifton & al'v. Sacheverell.

Trufts.

54. A bill to compel trustees to enter to preserve contingent remainders is of the first impression, for their title is merely at law; per King C. and says, it did not appear in the cause that the trustees refused to enter. 9 Mod. 132. Hill. 11 Geo. 1. Reeves v. Reeves.

55. A. differing with his mother about the repairs of the mansion-house; fettles his estate on his brother, but first takes a bond will establish the right of all parties concerned on the foot of one common interest; but in all those bills either all parties join, or a determinate number in the name of themselves, and the rest prefer a bill; whereas in this case one only * brings the bill on the general right, and not on the foot of any particular diffinct right; and the bill was dismissed with costs. School Cases in Chancery in Ld. King's Time, 74, 75. Trin. 2 Geo. 2. Baker v. Rogers.

Unnatural skings.

(G. a) Abatement of Suits in Chancery. In what Cases, and by what.

1. DLaintiff exhibited his bill as well in his own name as in his wife's name, concerning a promise made by the defendants to the plaintiff and his wife to make them a lease of the manor of A. during their lives. The defendants demur, for that the plaintiff ought to have a bill of revivor against them; for that his wife is dead since the bill exhibited. The demurrer was disallowed; for the promise was made during the coverture, and the plaintiff claims not the same in right of his wife, therefore the defendants are ordered to answer directly to the bill. Cary's Rep. 88. cites 19 Eliz. Thorne v. Brend, Wilkinson, &c.

2. The plaintiff (pending the fuit) conveys over bis interest, but in trust, and yet the court would hold no longer in his name.

Toth. 103, 104. cites 1584. Hill v. Portman. S. C. that the defendant was in possession at the time of the bill exhibited, and the plaintiff entered upon bim. The defeadant defired that either he might have an injunction for his possession, or else that the cause might be ofmissed, which the court thought reasonable; and it is ordered that the plaintist shall shew cause why k should not be granted.

> 3. Administrator in nature of a guardian to an infant, being executor, exhibits on his behalf a bill in chancery. The infant (depending the suit ) comes of full age. This abates not the bill, by the opinion of the lord chancellor Egerton. Cary's Rep. 31. cites 7 Feb. 1602. 45 Eliz.

> 4. A feme fole, defendant, baving a commission to examine witnesses, marries; and after the marriage the witnesses are examined on that commission, and held good, and the depositions ordered to stand. Toth. 163. cites 10 Car. Winter v. Dancie.

5. A feme sole exhibited a bill, but before the hearing the case she married, and afterwards the cause was decreed for ber. On 2 bill of review to reverse the decree, this was assigned for error, for court, affift- that the cause being abated by the marriage, there was no foundation for such decree. The defendant demurred, because it apthe demurrer peared not in the body of the decree, but quite dehors; nor was it proper for any but the defendant to take advantage of it, and disminsoline it was matter of abatement only, and did not concern the right; and after a decree made in point of right, any matter that might Cary's Rep. 140. cites 22 Eliz.

P. R. C. pl. 1, 3. S. P.

Chan. Rep. 231. 14 Car. 2. S.C. and the ed by the judges, held good, itiu plain...tl s bill of rebe pleaded in abatement was not such error as to ground a bill of view. review upon; and the court was of that opinion, and allowed Rep. 169. the dumurrer. Nels. Chan. Rep. 85. Cranborne (Viscountess) pl. 219. v. Delmahoy.

S. C. refolyed accordingly.

- 6. If a cause has slept 12 months in court, there shall be no proceedings had upon it without first serving a subpæna ad faciendum attornatum. Per Lord Keeper. Vern. 172. pl. 165. Trin. 35 Car. 2. Anon.
- 7. If the attorney-general of the dutchy-court exhibits an in- [430] formation in behalf of a part-owner of coal-mines, the relator's death abates the suit. Chan. Prec. 13. Trin. 1690. in case of Vermuden v. Heath.
- 8. A feme covert was executrix, and a bill was brought against her baron and her for a legacy. They put in their answer, and witnesses are examined, and publication passes, and then the baron dies. The court held, that the death of the baron is no abatement in this case, and that the wife is bound by the answer and depositions; but in case of the wife's inheritance it might be 2 Vern. 249. pl. 234. Mich. 1691. Shelberry v. otherwise. Briggs.
- 9. Where a bill wants proper parties, it is discretionary in the court, either to dismiss the bill, or to give leave for an amendment, on payment of the costs of the day; but in the principal case, two lesses brought a bill, suggesting the third to be dead, whom they in abatement of a fuit at law brought by defendants in this court as plaintiffs at law, afterwards swore to be living, the court thought, that if in any case a bill ought to be dismissed, it ought in this, and dismissed it accordingly, but without prejudice to another bill. Wms.'s Rep. 428, 429. Pasch. 1718. Stafford v. City of London.
- 10. Trustees were decreed to convey to certain uses, and it was re- Wms.'s ferred to the master to settle the conveyance, after which the certy 66. Finch que trust in fee dies; the master proceeded, and reported, that v. Ld. Winhe approved such a draught of a conveyance. An exception was chelsea, is taken, that the fuit abated by the death of cesty que trust, and that the master had no power to proceed till the suit was revived; but the court over-ruled the exception; for clearly, when there are several plaintiffs or defendants, the death of any of them made an abatement of the fuit only as to themselves, and the suit continued as to the rest who were living; and therefore, as to the defendants, the trustees, they might well execute a conveyance of the legal estate, and were not to wait for any thing that was Abr. Equ. Cases, 2. Mich. 1727. Finch to be done by others. v. Ld. Winchelsea.
- 11. It was faid, that it was every day's practice to order money out of court to the party intitled by the decree, notwithstanding the death of some of the parties. Abr. Equ. Cases, 2. Mich. 1727.

Finch v. Ld. Winchelsea. 12. The Ll Vol. IV.

12. The death of any of the parties, plaintiffs or defendants. abates the fuit. P.R.C. 1, 13. So does the marriage of a feme plaintiff, but not of a feme defendant. P. R. C. 1.

(H. a) Bill of Revivor. Who may have it.

1. THE plaintiff and her husband exhibited their bill against the defendant; the husband dies; the wife, now plaintiff exhibits a bill of revivor, and good. Cary's Rep. 100. 20 Eliz. Alice Parrot v. Randall and Cowarden.

Toth. 272. cites Hasel-2. An assignee cannot revive a suit.

wood v. Reynolds, in 23 & 24 Eliz.

3. An executor (his testator dying after publication) could not be permitted to exhibit a new bill to make further proofs, but was held to a bill of revivor. Toth. 272. cites Ferney v. Lawne, 30 Eliz.

[431] 4. Husband and wife joined in a bill for 200 l. arrearages by year to her due; she died before bearing; he, after her death, exhibited a bill of revivor, and ferved process to hear judgment; yet, upon an objection that the defendant should first have been called to answer, the hearing was put off. 1591. Toth. 271, 272. Cecil v. the Earl of Rutland.

> 5. Windham being a widow, had a judicial order for the fubstance of the matter, and a commission to make proofs, and after she married the defendant, supposed it needed a revivor, and ruled not. Toth. 272. cites 37 Eliz.

6. If one exhibits a bill or information, and is not the party aggrieved, as an informer on a penal statute, or a misdemeanor, if he dies, it was ruled, that his heir, executor, or administrator, shall not have a bill of revivor, but the attorney general may.

Noy 100. Mich. 43 & 44 Eliz. Anon.

7. R. H. made the plaintiff and his widow joint executors of his will, but upon this condition, that if his widow married, her executorship should cease, and then the plaintiff should be sole executor. A bill was exhibited by the executors, and an answer put to it, and several interlocutory orders made, and amongst the rest, an order by consent, to refer the whole matter in difference to the arbitration of another person. Then the widow died, and now the question was, whether there could be any further proceedings on this bill? or whether there must be a bill of revivor? And it being referred to Ch. J. Bridgman upon this point, he was of opinion, that there must be a bill of revivor. A bill of revivor was brought to revive all the former proceedings, and particularly that order made by confent, but disallowed as to this on demurrer. Chan. Rep. 108. 18 Car. 2. Hamden v. Brewer.

8. A plaintiff who is a purchasor cannot maintain a bill of revivor. 2 Freem. Rep. 132. pl. 160. Hill. 21 & 22 Car. 2.

Bacchus's case.

9. B.

II

Chan. Cases 77. S. C. but there it is, that the widow married, and held accordingly.

9. B. being a purchasor, exhibited a bill of revivor against the As devises defendant, and revived the fuit by order, and the defendant joined in examining witnesses, and the cause coming to be heard, the bill was dismissed; for that the plaintiff, as purchasor, cannot maintain a bill of revivor, for that there wanted other parties at the hearing. 3 Chan. Rep. 39. Hill. 21 & 22 Car. 2. Back- for, but in house v. Middleton.

cannot bring a bill of revivor, not being in representation to the devinature of a purchasor.

Chan. Cases, 174. S. C. See (O. a) pl. 1. Clare v. Wordell.

- 10. Where there are feveral plaintiffs, and the bill after hearing thates, some of them, without the rest, may revive the cause. 2 Chan. Cases, .80. Mich. 33 Car. 2. in a nota, in the case of Exton v. Turner.
- 11. Per cur. an assignee shall not have a scire facias to re- Vern. Rep. vive a decree that is not figured and inrolled; but after the detree is inrolled, an assignee may bring a scire facias to revive it, Dun v. Alin like manner as at law, if there be judgment for an annuity, and the annuitant afterwards fells the annuity, the vendee shall have a scire facias upon this judgment. But though the lord charged by keeper disallowed the scire facias, yet it was without costs, be- Ld. Keeper cause the defendant might have demurred, but did not. Vern. cause the 283. pl. 282. Mich. 1684. Dan v. Allen.

426.pl.401. Hill. 1686. len, S. C. lays the scifa. was dif-North, beplaintiff not

In privity, was not intitled to such writ. And in this case it was insisted that the plaintiff ought to have brought an original bill to have a parallel decree made, in which it may be used as a good argument or inducement to the court to make a like decree, if no sufficient reasons are shewn to the contrary; but the master of the rolls now decreed, that the former decree should be confirmed, and reviewed, and executed. The reporter adds a quære.

12. Administrator gets a decree and dies before involment, or Executor of any further proceedings; administrator de bonis non may revive this trator candecree * within the equity of 30 Car. 2. cap. 6. 2 Vern. 237. not revive a pl. 220. Mich. 1691. Owen v. Curson.

an adminifdecree ob-tained by the administrator, but it ought to be brought by the administrator de bonis non of the intestate. G. Equ. Rep. 234. Arg. in case of Barnwell v. Russel.

*[432]

13. Mortgagor brings a bill to redeem, an account is decreed, and a report made, and divers proceedings thereon, and orders made for plaintiff to pay costs and deliver possession to the defend-The mortgagee dies. Executor of defendant was allowed in canc. to revive the suit, and the proceedings consirmed in dom. proc. and the court thought the plaintiff executor of that executor, has the same right to revive upon the death of her hus-2 Vern. R. 296. band, as he had on the death of his father. pl. 218. Trin. 1693. Lady Stowell v. Cole.

14. The plaintiff's intestate had obtained a decree against the de- 2 Vern. iendant for payment of a sum of money, and also for conveying of lands 384. pl. and delivery of deeds; but before any thing was done upon it, 17co. S. C. died intestate; and the plaintiss having brought a scire facias to revive the decree, the defendant demurs, because the heir was not made a party, and a decree cannot be revived by parts; and if the heir will not join as plaintiff, he ought to have been made detendant.

Ll2

351. Mich. but S. P. does not fendant. On the other fide it was faid that the heir and administrator not are jointly concerned, and each may prosecute pro interesse sum, and cannot join; and if he had been made desendant, the decree would not have been revived against him, because the bill could only have prayed it might have been revived as to the personal estate; and the court over-ruled the demurrer, and said, it was like a judgment at law in waste, where there may be 2 revivors. It being then objected that the scire facias is to revive the whole decree, whereas it ought to be only as to the personality, the court allowed the demurrer as to the reality, but ordered the decree to be revived as to the personality. Mich. 1701. Abr. Equ. Cases, 3. Ferrars v. Cherry.

S. P. Wms.'s Rep. 263. per Lord Harcourt, Trip. 1714 15. Where there is a decree for an account, and defendant dies, his representative may revive as well as the plaintiff, * both being in nature of plaintiffs. Chan. Prec. 197. pl. 158. Pasch. 1702. Kent v. Kent.

Trin. 1714.

in Dones's case. ——Ibid. 743. Arg. Mich. 1721. in Hollinshead's case.

16. If a creditor is admitted by order to come in before the master and prove bis debt, and pay his contribution, he is intitled to revive, if the cause abates. Trin. 1702. Abr. Equ. Cases, 3. Pitt v. the Creditors of the Duke of Richmond.

March 13, 1722. Wingfield v. Whaley. 17. One who claims only as heir at law by provision or by formedon, cannot revive, but must bring his original bill. MS. Tab. May, 1721. Osbourne v. Usher.

18. Bill of partition brought by several persons, one dies, who devises his part to a co-plaintiff, and makes him executor; he brings 2 bill of revivor, to which it was demurred. It was faid, that bills of revivor, and bills in nature of bills of revivor, are very different; a bill of revivor can only be by the heir as to the realty, and by an executor, or administrator, as to the personalty. On bill of revivor, the estate continues the same as before abatement; but here, in case of a devisee who is a purchaser, the estate is altered, and a purchaser can never revive, and cites I Chan. Cases, 174. and an answer must be put in and publication pass, though possibly he may have benefit of orders, &c. The demurrer was allowed, but leave given to amend the bill, and revive as executor; and an original bill, in nature of a bill of revivor as devisee, was thought the most proper method. Sel. Chan. Cases in Ld. King's Time, 53, 54. Mich. 11 Geo. 1. 1725. Huet v. Ld. Say and Seal.

[433]

- 19. It was held, that if some of the plaintiffs refused to join in bringing a bill of revivor, that the others may bring such bill, and make those who refused defendants. Abr. Equ. Cases, 2. Mich. 1727. in case of Finch v. Ld. Winchelsea.
- 20. And it was agreed that a defendant might bring a bill of revivor as well as a plaintiff. Abr. Equ. Cases, 2. Mich. 1727. in case of Finch v. Ld. Winchelsea.
- 21. Upon the late flatute relating to infolvent debtors, it was refolved by the barons of the exchequer, that the affiguee of the insolvent folvent debtor is not enabled by this act to bring a bill of revivor as the debtor himself might have done, no more than an assignee under a statute of bankruptcy. M. 12 Geo. 2. Bowman v. Ridley & Harrison.

22. But it was agreed, that either might bring a bill in nature of a bill of revivor. And Parker B. said, that where it is res integra, he should very much doubt whether an assignee of a bankrupt, as in the present case of an insolvent debtor, might not bring such a bill, for he thought the words in the statute sufficient to enable him; but that the law was now fettled. M. 12 Geo. 2. in case of Bowman v. Ridley & Harrison.

Bill of Revivor. Against whom.

1. OTICE given to a stranger of a bill of revivor is necessary, it is improper to make him a party not being in privity, and so they must lose the witnesses examined on the first bill, Chan. Cases, 152. Mich. 21 Car. 2. Style v. Bosvile.

2. A decree and sequestration was had against A .- A. dies .- The Vern. 166. decree being for a personal duty, ought not to be revived against the defendant as heir, and dismissed the bill, though it was for Keeper inmoney payable on account of a charity. 2 Chan. Rep. 244. clined that it could not 34 Car. 2. University College in Oxford v. Foxcroft.

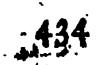

pl. 157. S. C. Ld. be revived against the heir, but took time to consider of it, and would be attended with precedents. ----- Where a sequestration issues as melne process, it determines by the death of the party; but where it issues after a decree, though for a personal duty only, it is otherwise. Vern. 58. pl. 54. Trin. 1682. Burdett v. Rockey.

3. A man marries an administratrix. Plaintiff gets a decree But the reagainst him and her for 1000l. out of the estate of the intestate. She dies. Whether plaintiff could proceed against the husband the husband without reviving and bringing an administrator of the administrator is not bound tratrix before the court? 2 Vern. 195. pl. 177. Mich. 1690, to answer it Jackson v. Rawlins.

porter fays, it seems that the value of the estate which he had with his wife.

4. A defective execution of agreement was decreed to be supplied, and in this case the legal estate was in A. and B. and the equity of the fee was in C. It was referred to the master to settle the conveyance; after which cesty que trust in see dies. The master being attended afterwards by the plaintiffs, reported that he approved a draught of a conveyance, which was only from A. and B. in whom the legal estate was, to the use of the plaintiffs according to the decree. Per cur. this is well, notwithstanding the death of cesty que trust; but if the plaintiffs should hereafter desire a conveyance of the equitable interest, they must revive against the heirs at law of the cefty que trust; and so in all cases where any thing was required to be done by the representatives of the party dying. Abr. Equ. Cases, 2. Mich. 1727. in case of Finch v. Ld. Winchelsea.

(K. a) Bill of Revivor. How.

1. IN a bill of revivor upon a bill of revivor, there was a demurrer to it; and the question was, whether it would lie or not? And. 7 Rep. Kenne's case, and Robinson's case. 2 Rep. 186. being cited in point that it lies not, and divers precedents being cited out of chancery that it does lie, the court, in regard of the difficulty and consequence of the case, adjourned it till precedents were fearched; but the chief baron feemed to be clearly of opinion that it lies, and that it is not like a bill of review, or an action per Journeys Accounts. Afterwards in Mich. term the court agreed that it well lies, upon reading two precedents in point in the court of chancery, especially in case of death, as here 2 several defendants died one after another; but if one be named acfendant in the original bill who is yet alive, he ought not to be named in the bill of revivor, because the suit never abated as to him; but if he be named in the bill of revivor only, there he may be named in every bill of revivor afterwards, because he was not named a defendant in the original bill; sed adjornatur. Hardr. 201. pl. 6. Mich. 13 Car. 2. in the exchequer. The Attorney-General v. Sir Edward Barkham.

2. A suit cannot be revived in part; but the whole proceeding, viz. bill, answer, &c. and all orders must stand revived. Arg. and agreed by the counsel of the other side. 2 Chan. Cases 80. Mich. 33 Car. 2. in case of Exton & al' v. Turner.

3. Notice given to a ftranger of a bill of revivor is necessary. It is improper to make him a party, not being in privity; for if they go by original bill, they must lose the witnesses examined on the first bill. Chan. Cases, 152. Mich. 21 Car. 2. Style v. Bosvile.

4. Adjue'ged that where the suit abates, the plaintiff may either bring an original bill, or a bill of revivor, at his election. Vern. 463. pl. 441. Trin. 3 Jac. 2. Spencer v. Wray.

(L. a) Bill of Revivor. In what Cases.

2 Freem.
Rep. 177.
pl.238.S.C.
in totidem verbis, only the word (produced is there, as it feems it should be,

(* pronounced.)

A Decretal order was * produced in 1657, for several matters; and after the cause had depended upon account 3 years, a decree was drawn, wherein the sirst decretal order was recited; but part of the matter thereby decreed was omitted in the decretal part of the decree itself; and soon after the decree was signed and involved the defendant died. A scire facias was sued to revive, and in the prosecution thereupon, the plaintiff discovered the omission, and so could not have the benefit of that part which was omitted in the decree that way, and the desendant being dead could not help that comission by a motion upon the surprize. The bill now was a ill of of revivor, to revive so much of the decree as was omitted as was alleged; howbeit in truth the bill was to the whole decree. It was pleaded that the decree being inrolled, a bill of revivor did not lie, but a scire facias. Ordered that the plea and demurrer be over-ruled. Chan. Cases, 37. Mich. 15 Car. 2. Williams v. Arthur.

* 2. Part of a decretal order, as it was figned and involled, was Fin. Rep. lest out of the entering book in the register's office, which directed 36. Mich. an allowance to the defendant; and in respect of the said omission s. c. in the order, the master made not such allowance; but upon exceptions to the report the allowance was made. 3 Chan.

Rep. 72. Hill. 1671. Tredcroft v. White.

3. After a decree signed and inrolled the plaintiff brought a bill of revivor, the fuit having abated; whereupon the defendant infifts that the plaintiff ought not to have brought a bill of revivor in this case, but to have taken out a subpæna in the nature of a scire facias to revive the decree, the same being signed and inrolled in the life-time of the plaintiff's testator, therefore the defendant demurs to the faid bill. The plaintiff insists that it is at the plaintiff's election to revive the said decree inrolled, and to have execution thereof by bill or subpœna in the nature of a scire facias; and as this case is, the whole proceedings could not be revived by subpæna, in regard several proceedings have been relating to costs since the decree, which proceedings can be only revived by bill, and therefore the most proper course was to revive all things by bill. This court held the faid bill to be well brought, and held the demurrer insufficient. 2 Chan. Rep. 67. 24 Car. 2. Croster v. Wister.

4. The plaintiff brought a bill against the defendant for an account, and after brought assumpsit at law for part of what was included in the bill, so was ordered to make election on which he would proceed. He elected going to law, and an injunction as to proceeding here. On the trial at law it appeared by the witnesses, that there were accounts between them. 'The counfel finding they had mistaken the action, never controverted the defendant's proof, but suffered a nonsuit; so the plaintist moves for leave to revive, which was opposed by the defendant, the plaintiff having made his election. But the Ld. Chancellor gave leave to revive, and declared the only end of the injunction was that he should not proceed on both together, not that chusing one in which he miscarries, should preclude his right. It is not a favour, but ex debito justitiæ he might bring a new bill; and is it not of justice to make the coming at right as expeditious and as little expensive as possible? For on a new bill, after much time and money spent, you would be but where you are on a bill of revivor. The case of one Collett was quoted as a point. Sel. Chan. Cases in Ld. King's Time, 4. Mich. 11 Geo. 1. Hindford (Earl) v. Decosta.

5. Bill was dismissed with costs, which were taxed. revivor was brought singly for costs, to which it was demurred. arguing the demurrer it was infifted, that though the constant rule be that where a bill is dismissed with costs the party cannot revive for that, that must be taken to be where they are not taxed and liquidated to a sum certain; for then it becomes a duty; and though the bill be dismissed, it is not so much out of the court but the party, in consequence of such dismissal, is liable to the process of the court by subpoena, attachment, &c. The Ld. Chancellor said, it is a rule that, unless in account, where both parties are actors, they cannot revive; but he knew no instance of revivor in such a case as this, and said that it is very odd; but the rules of the court must be observed, and the demurrer was allowed. Sel. Chan. Cases in Ld. King's Time, 54, 55. Hill. 1725. 11 Geo. 1. Thorn v. Pitt.

[436] (M. a) Bill of Revivor. In what Cases. Where the Bill abates.

1. NO desendant, in case of abatement before the decree signed, can revive. 2 Chan. Rep. 193. 32 Car. 2. Glenham v. Statville.

2. Where there are feveral plaintiffs, and the bill after hearing abates, some of them without the rest may revive the cause 2 Chan. Cases, 8. Mich. 33 Car. 2. in case of Exton v. Turner.

2Vern.297. pl. 287. Trin. 1673. S.C. & S.P.

3. Where a mutual account is decreed, and there happens an abatement, the defendant in such case may revive. 2 Vern. 219. pl. 200. Hill. 1690. the Ld. Stowell v. Cole.

4. In an injunction cause, where it abates by the death of either the plaintiff or desendant, the rule is, that the court shall be moved to revive within a stated time, or else the injunction be dissolved. Select Cases in Chan. in Ld. King's Time, 24. Trin. 11 Geo. 1. Anon.

(N. a) Bill of Revivor. Necessary. In what Cases.

1. IT is ordered, that a subpoena be awarded against the desendant, to be examined upon interrogatories, whether before his answer he had knowledge that the plaintiff was married, and would take no advantage of the same marriage in his answer, then the matter to proceed without bill of revivor. Cary's Rep. 73, 74. cites 6 Eliz. fol. 150. Fairfield v. Greenfield.

2. The plaintiff exhibited his bill, as well in his own as in his evife's name, concerning a promise made by the desendant to the plaintiff and his wife, to make them a lease of the manor of Appelcourt, during their lives; the desendants demur, for that the plaintiff ought to have a bill of revivor against them, for that his wife is dead since the bill exhibited. Demurrer was disallowed, for that the promise was made during the coverture, and the plaintiff claims not the same in right of his wife; therefore the defendants are ordered to answer directly to the bill. Cary's Rep. 88, 89. cites 19 Eliz. Thorne v. Brend, Wilkinson, & al'.

3. A widow had a judicial order, and a commission to make proofs, and after the married; no bill of revivor needed. Toth. 228.

cites Pasch. 37 Eliz.

4. Feme fole takes a commission to examine witnesses, and marries before the examination, and then they are examined. It was ordered, that the depositions should stand. Toth. 163. cites 10 Car. Winter v. Dancie.

5. Feme sole brings her bill, and marries, and gets a decree, Nels. Change without bringing bill of revivor; this will not impeach the decree, S. C. acfor it is only matter of abatement, and the defendant might have cordingly. taken advantage of it before the hearing, but it is too late after. Ch. R. 231. 14 Car. 2. Cramburne v. Dalmahoy.

6. In a bill of revivor a defendant was omitted, but his name was used throughout the cause in motions, and a commission, and held, that this supplied the omission. Ch. R. 252. 16 Car. 2. Peachy v. Vintner.

7. Where husband and wife, in right of the wife, exhibited a bill, and the husband died, the wife, if she please, may proceed without a bill of revivor. 3 Ch. R. 40. Hill. 21 & 22 Car. 2. Parry v. Juxon.

8. If jointenants, or tenants in common, exhibit a bill, and any Abr. Equ. of them die, pending the suit, there needs no revivor; per Ld. pl. 5. s. c. Keeper Bridgman. 3 Ch. R. 66. Trin. 1671. Wright v. Dor- adds a quere iett.

Calos, 1. as to tenants in common.

because a right descends to their representatives.

- 9. It is not necessary to revive against a defendant that has not answered; per cur. Vern. 308. pl. 301. Hill. 1684. Oxburgh v. Fincham.
- 10. A cause having been heard on a bill of interpleader, and a trial at law directed to settle the right between the defendants, there is an end of the suit as to the plaintiff, so that if he afterwards dies, the cause shall still proceed, and there needs no revivor, each defendant being in the nature of a plaintiff; per cur. Vern. 351. pl. 347. Mich. 1685. Anon.

(O.a) Done on Bill of Revivor. What must, or may be.

1. A Devise brings an original bill in the nature of a bill of re-vivor. The question was, whether the defendant should be at liberty to make a new defence? Ld. Keeper held, that where the bill, although original, is only to supply the want of pri- devise, the vity, and in all other matters but as a bill of revivor, I think the decree ought to be carried on in the same manner as it would the justice of

On a bill is nature of 2 bill of reviva or against a. devise cannot dispute have validity of the decree, for then a devifee would be in better cale than an heir; per Ld. Keeper have been upon a bill of revivor, if the plaintiff had claimed in privity. There is no reason why the devisee should not have the same advantage of the decree as an heir or executor, without entering again into the merits of the cause, and the decree ought to be neither longer or shorter than the first decree. 548, 549. pl. 499. Pasch. 1706. Clare v. Wordell.

2 Vern. 672. pl. 599. Pasch. 1711. Minshull v. Ld. Mohun. Harcourt.

In the end is a N. B. that the reason pems to be, because the representatite may have a plea.

2. Defendant pleaded to a bill, but before the plea came on to be. argued the defendant died. The plaintiff revived, and upon the coming on of the plea to be argued, Ld. C. Talbot was of opinion, that it could not be argued, but that the defendant's representative must plead de novo. Cases in Chan. in Ld. Talbot's Time, 3. Mich. 1735. Micklethwaite v. Calverly and Baker.

to defend him without denying the merits; for if an executor or administrator can truly plead plene administravit upon a sci. sa. at law (which must always issue in such case), the execution can only be de benis testimens quando accidentit; but the answer of the testator in a court of equity will bind the executor who has aucis. Ibid.

(P. a) Pleas and Demurrers to Bills of Revivor.

Equ. Abr. 4. pl. 8. cites S. C. and adds a guære.

1. THE plaintiff has exhibited his bill of revivor against 2, where the first bill was against 3, and the parsonage in queftion is named * by another name than in the former bill; therefore ordered, if cause be not shewed by a day, the defendant shall be discharged. Cary's Rep. 78. cites 18 & 19 Eliz. Heines v. Day, [438] Dean of Windsor, and Hatchines.

Costs. In what Cases on Bills of Revivor.

1. THE plaintiff exhibits his bill against L. and M. two of the defendants, and after commission M. marries J. B. the other defendant; and the plaintiff then exhibits a bill of revivor against the defendants, which needs not, as it seems to this court; therefore ordered, if there be no cause of revivor, that J. B. and his wife, who are called up by process to answer the same bill, are licensed to depart without answer to the bill of revivor, and the plaintiff to pay him such costs as this court shall award. Cary's Rep. 81. cites 19 Eliz. Jackson & Ux. v. Smith, Bourne & Ux.

N. Ch. R.

2. A bill of revivor against one as heir of his father was dis-147. S. C. missed with costs; he cannot have costs of the original suit; for they are dead with the person. 3 Chan. R. 65. 19 June 1671. Loyd v. Powis.

3. A decree was made, and before costs taxed, the plaintiff died, and a bill of revivor brought, and disallowed by lord chancellor cellor on plea, that it does not lie for costs, 2 Chan. Cases, 7, Temple v. Rouse.

4. No revivor for costs, there being no decree involled. 2 Chan.

Rep. 195. 32 Car. 2. Glenham v. Staville.

. 5. A suit cannot be revived for costs alone, where no duty is de- 2 Chancreed; but when a duty is decreed, and costs awarded by the but S. P. fame decree, which is figned and enrolled in the life of the does not apparty, it is otherwise. 2 Chan. Rep. 245, 246. 34 Car. 2. pear.-Lady Dacres v. Chute, pl. 149-

S. C. but S. P. does not appear.

6. Feme fole exhibits her bill and then marries. Baron and feme bring bill of revivor, and obtain a decree with costs; per North K. this is not like a bill of revivor against an heir or executor, where the suit is abated by death; in that case they shall answer only for their own time, but here all proceedings stand in statu quo, and it is unreasonable there should be such an abatement; and in case the defendant had been a seme sole and inter-. married, that thould not have abated the plaintiff's fuit, and in this case the abatement was by the parties own act. The court ordered costs of the whole suit, deducting only the charge of the bill of revivor, which was thought hard, because the abatement was by the parties own act, and because had the defendant been in the right and so intitled to costs, yet he could not have compelled the plaintiff to revive. Vern. R. 318. pl, 315. Pasch. 3685. Durbain v. Knight.

(R. a) Of Second and Supplemental Bills.

Former bill depending, was pleaded in bar of a second, but though both bills were of the same matter and effect, the latter had some new matter. Ordered, that since the plea was good, the plaintiff should pay the usual costs of a plea allowed, but defendant to answer the second bill, and the former bill dismissed with 20 s. costs. Chan. Cases, 241. Mich. 26 Car. 2. Crofts v. Wortley.

[439]

- 2. After dismission on hearing, a new bill was exhibited on the same equity, on suggestion of notice which was not in issue in the former cause; and per lord keeper, the defendant's answer shall not conclude the plaintiff, but though he denied notice, yet the plaintiff shall examine thereto, and that in case examination shall be made as to the notice, and no proof of it, if the notice had been denied in the former suit, yet the plaintiff's bill to have the defendant's oath would lie, but then the defendant's oath should not be conclusive. Chan. Cases, 252. Hill. 26 & 27 Car. 2. Williams v. Williams.
- 3. A supplemental bill to have a further discovery from the de- Chan. Cases, fendant by way of evidence, for the better clearing the matters de- 201. 202. pending on the account, which the defendant hath not answered Car. 23 in the former cause; the plaintist pleaded the former bill, to which the defendant answered, and the cause heard, and the account directed; the court ordered the defendant to answer to all matters in this bill not answered to in the former cause, but the plaintiff not to reply nor to proceed farther. 2 Chan. Rep. 142. 30 Car. 2. Boeve v. Skipwith.

Bovey v. Skipwith, S. C. but S. P. does not appear. -- 3 Chap. Kep. 67. S. C. but 5. P. does not appear.

4: In a bill of review, you may add a new supplemental bill.

Vern. R. 135. pl. 226. Hill. 1682. Price v. Keyte.

5. One bill was preferred to clear the title to lands, and after a 2 Chan-Cafes, 134. decree for the lands, another bill was exhibited for the profits, and Hill. 34 & a 2d decree for them. 2 Chan. Cases, 72. Mich. 33 Car. 2. 35 Car. 2. Coventry v. Thinn. Coventry v. Hall, S. C.

& S. P. And the decree made by Ld. Nottingham, for the mesne profits, was confirmed by Ld. Keeper North. 2 Chan. Rep. 259. S. C. & Ld. Keeper North confirmed the decree of Ld. K.

Jinch.

[ 440 ]

6. New bill after dismission, was brought on the same equity by a 3d person, because he could not have a bill of review. 2 Chas.

Cases, 119. Trin. 34 Car. 2. Doily v. Smith.

7. A dismission on election to proceed at law is not preremptory; but plaintiff may, after she has [sued] at law, bring a new bill. 2 Vern. R. 32. pl. 24. Hill. 1618. Countess of Plymouth v. Bladen.

8. Where a supplemental bill is brought after publication, it is irregular to examine witnesses to a matter that was in issue, and not proved in the original cause; and such proofs not to be read. MS. Tab. March 31, 1725. Bagnal v. Bagnal.

9. If there be no proof to the new matter in the supplemental bill, it must be dismissed. MS. Tab. Mar. 31, 1725.

v. Bagnal.

- (S. a) Answer. What is a full and perfect Anfwer. Where it must be fully and directly, or where to his Remembrance, &c. is sufficient.
- 1. A. Having 2 leases, was allowed to stand by answer upon them both, and not restrained to one at his peril. Toth. 70. cites Hill. 35 Eliz. Kirkham v. Saunderson.

2. The defendant derived his title by a leafe and affigument which was before his knowledge, and therefore pleaded that he beard say, that such a lease and assignment was made; the master of the rolls was of opinion, because it was another's act, the oath is, that he thinks it to be true. The defendant might have pleaded directly, that they were made, as he thinketh. Toth. 70. cites 37 Eliz. Burgony v. Machell.

3. The defendant answered, that he bad no evidences belonging to the plaintiff; that answer was disallowed, because the defendant therein will be his own judge, whether they belong to the plaintiff or not; and therefore he was ordered to answer what he had, and to bring them to be viewed to whom they belonged. Toth. 70. cites 37 Eliz. Rotherham v. Saunders.

therein

4. A man's own acts must be answered directly upon oath in the affirmative or negative, without traverse; as Mr. Justice Beamont held. Toth. 71. cites 38 Eliz. Williams v. Leighton.

5. Whether a licence to assign a lease were granted or not, being but 3 years past, the defendant was ordered by my lord to answer directly, and not to his remembrance. Toth. 71. cites 38 & 39 Eliz. Oswald v. Pennant.

6. The defendant was ordered to fet down his term certain.

Toth. 72. cites 1597. Harbert v. Morgan.

7. It was held that if 2 answer jointly and severally, if one of them answers first for himself, and the other says, that he has perused all that the former has answered, and for himself answers, that he believes it to be true, supposing this other defendant not to be charged with any thing of his knowledge, that such a relative answer is sufficient in a joint and several answer, but not where the defendants answer severally each apart. Hard. 165. Hill. 1659. in the exchequer. Walker v. Norton.

8. An answer to a matter charged as the defendant's own fact, must regularly be, without saying to his remembrance, or as he believes, if it be laid to be done within 7 years before, unless the court, upon exception taken, shall find special cause to dispense with so positive an answer. Clarendon's Ord. 18 Car. 2.

9. On exceptions to an answer, the defendant having sworn that he received no more than the sum of . . . . to his remembrance, it was allowed to be a good answer. Vern. 470. pl. 456.

Trin. 1687. Hall v. Bodily.

- 10. Defendants made affidavits that they had no books, evidences, &c. to their knowledge concerning the matters in question, but what were produced before the master, and annexed to a schedule. This affidavit [is] evasive, and they were put to swear that they had no books or evidences concerning the matters in question, but what they had already produced. MS. Tab. June 10, 1713. Mayor, &c. of Hartford v. the Poor of Hartford.
- is asked which is included in the general, yet he must answer it particularly, else it may be demurred to; for that may be a matter of judgment. Select Cases in Chan. in Ld. King's Time, 53. Mich. 11 Geo. 1. Paxton's case.

(T. a) Answer. Oath. By whom, and in what Cases the Answer must be upon Oath.

1. I ADY Wharton was appointed to answer upon oath; and not upon her honour; and so they ought to be sworn as witnesses, (as my lord held), or else no attaint lies if the jury do not go according to the evidences. Toth. 72. cites 1497. Willoughby v. Lady Wharton.

2. A bishop to answer upon oath. Toth. 74. cites 8 Car.

The Mayor of Sarum v. the Bishop of Sarum.

3. It was ruled by the lord keeper, that a plea of outlawry should be without oath, because of the averment of identity of persons; and it was ruled that a plea of the privilege of Oxford should be put in without oath. 2 Freem. Rep. 143. pl. 1821. Trin. and Mich. 1674. Masters v. Bruett.

And in a note there, page 782. it is said, that the like or-der was said wood v. Story & Bell.

4. Lord C. Macclessield allowed a Quaker, who was committed against him, to put in his auswer without oath or affirmation, the bill being groundless, and discharged him out of custody. Wms.'s Rep. 781. Hill. 1721.

to be made by Lord Harcourt in Dr. Heathcote's case.

(U. a) Answer. Where it shall conclude, or charge or discharge the Desendant.

2 Freem.
Rep. 146.
Rep. 146.
pl. 189.
(bis) Mich.
1677.
Anon. S. P.

1. The plaintiff having made no proof of the matter in quef. tion, the defendant's answer must be taken as true, and so the court dismissed the bill. Chan. Rep. 95. 11 Car. Feltham v.

Where there is no proof but what arises from the answer of the desendant, the answer must be taken intirely as it is, and no part of it must be impeached by any other evidence; per Parker C. 10 Mod. 405. Pasch. 4 Geo. 1. in canc. Nab v. Nabb.

2. Where there is but one witness against the defendant's answers the plaintiff can have no decree. Vern. 161. pl. 152. Pasch. 1683. Alam v. Jourdan.

3. Per cur. the case of Howard v. Brown, was the first in this court where, because a man had charged himself by answer, that this answer should be allowed as a good discharge, and it ought to be the last. 2 Vern. 194. Mich. 1690.

4. Plaintiff for 80 l. conveys an estate absolutely to the desendant, and brings a bill to redeem. Desendant insists the conveyance was absolute, but confesses, that after the 80 l. paid, with interest, it was to be in trust for the plaintiff's wife and children. Plaintiff replies to the answer, but no proof was made of the trust; yet decreed ereed the trust for the benefit of the wife and children. 2 Vern. 288. pl. 277. Pasch. 1693. Hampton v. Spencer, et e contra.

- 5. Where a bill had unadvisedly charged that plaintiffs had agreed to pay an equal proportion of the debts, they being sureties in the bond, yet defendants by answer denying they made any such agreement, that set plaintiffs at large, and lest them at liberty to demand the whole against defendants; and per Cowper C. decreed accordingly. 2 Vern. 608. pl. 546. Pasch. 1708. Parsons and Cole v. Doctor Briddock & al'.
- 6. A legacy being left to an executor without any express disposition of the surplus, but there was strong proof that testator intended bine the surplus; but on a bill brought by the next of kin against him for a distribution, he answers, and waives the benefit of the surplus by mistake of the law in that point, and admitted himself accountable for the furplus; but being a creditor upon an open account, he infifted, that he ought to have his legacy over and above his debt. But upon better information he prayed to amend his anfwer as to the waiving the furplus, which was denied by the master of the rolls, but he decreed the legacy over and above the debt; and on appeal Ld. Cowper said, that he would not, against the defendant's own concession, decree the surplus for But in Easter term 1718, the cause coming before Ld. C. Parker, his lordship said, that he could not but incline to help the defendant, who by mistake, or mis-advice only of his counsel, was in a way of losing his right; and therefore, if the plaintiffs would bind the defendant by his answer from taking the surplus, they ought to take it on the terms in the answer, (viz.) he waives the furplus, but infifts upon his debt and legacy, and decreed him both in this case, even though by the master's report it appeared, that the legacy was much greater than the debt. Wms.'s Rep. 297. pl. 74. Mich. 1718. Rawlins v. Powell.
- (W. a) Answer. Where there is a Plea or De- See tit. Plea murrer.
- T is a rule in equity, that the answer over-rules the plea where defendant answers the same things he insists upon in his plea that he ought not to answer to. MS. Tab. Appeals, 20 Jan. 1717. Earl of Clanrickard v. Burk.
- 2. Defendant had an order to plead, answer, and demur, but not demur alone; but defendant answered only by denying, and demurred to every other part of the bill; but held by Ld. C. that he ought to answer some material suct of the bill, and the demurrer was discharged, with costs. MS. Rep. Mich. 12 Geo. 2. in Canc. Attorney Gen. v. . . . . . .

[443]

(X. a) Answer. In what Cases the Answer of one shall affect another.

1. D Esendant by answer accuses himself and sellow defendant, and is believed against himself, but not against his sellow. Toth. 72. cites 4 Eliz. Michell v. Webb.

2. Two defendants, one having answered, the other resuled, but shall be bound by the other's answer, if the cause pass against them. Toth. 74. cites 7 Jac. Matthew v. Matthew.

3. One defendant's answer shall not prejudice the other defendant. Toth. 75. cites 3 Car. Eyre v. Wortley.

- 4. A bill was brought against 3, viz. A. B. and C. for a joint demand. A. by answer swears, that he believes, and hopes to prove, that the plaintiff was satisfied his demands. The plaintiff replied to B. and C. only, and brought the cause on by bill and answer as against A. It was infifted, that the plaintiff in this case could have no decree; for having brought on his cause as against the third defendant on bill and answer only, his answer must be taken to be true; and though he does not directly swear the money paid, yet he says, he believes and hopes to prove it paid, but the plaintiff not replying to him, he is excluded of the benefit of his proof, and this was a cunning practice of the plaintiff to proceed against those defendants only who were ignorant of the matter, and to exclude the defendant who, perhaps, could have proved the debt paid. The plaintiff was ordered to pay costs, and left at liberty to reply to the other defendant. Vern. 140. pl. 132. Hill. 1682. Barker v. Wyld and 2 others.
  - 5. Regularly the answer of one defendant shall not be made uses as evidence against another defendant; but one defendant saying by his answer, that he was much in years, and could not remember the matter charged in the bill, but that J. S. was his attorney and transacted this matter, and J. S. the attorney being made a defendant, and giving an account of this matter, here, upon a motion for an injunction, Ld. Cowper said, that these words in the defendant's answer amounted to a referring to the co-desendant's answer, and for that reason the attorney's answer ought to be read, and accordingly was read against the first defendant. Wms.'s Rep. 300. Mich. 1715. pl. 75. Anon.

6. One defendant shall not be prejudiced by the admission of another. MS. Tab. March 6, 1720. Cheevers v. Geoghegan.

(Y. a) Answer. How to be made and sworn where a Corporation is Defendant.

Bill against a corporation to discover writings, defendants answer under the common seal, and so being not sworn, will answer nothing in their own prejudice. Ordered, that the clerk of the company, and such principal members, as the plaintist shall think sit, answer on oath, and that a master settle the oath; per North K. Vern. 117. pl. 104. Hill. 34 & 35 Car. 2. Anon.

(Z. a) Answer taken. How. And at what Time.

1. Commissioners for taking an answer in the country, had omitted executio istius brevis, &c. The answer was referred to the fix clerks, but on motion, the commissioners having indorsed on the answer, capt' & jurat', &c. secundum essectum & tenorem commission' huic annex', and had annexed the commission to the answer, it was ordered the answer should be allowed. Vern. 41. pl. 41. Pasch. 1682. Pen v. Chetle.

2. One of the defendants is in contempt, and stands out to a sequestration, and the cause is heard against the other defendants, yet he may come in and answer, and the cause be heard again as to him. Vern. 228. pl. 225. Hill. 1683. Phillips v. the Duke of Bucks.

[ 444 ]

(A. b) Answer. Of putting in Answers where there is a Cross-Bill.

answered before the other cross-bill; and where A. files a bill against B. & C. who put in insufficient answers, and prefer their cross-bill against A. and then B. becomes bankrupt; and after B.'s assignees bring their bill in nature of an original bill for account, and A. pleads the statute of limitations, and his plea was allowed; and afterwards the assignees bring their bill in nature of a bill of revivor, grounding it upon the former bill brought by B. and C. but Ld. Chancellor ordered, that C. should answer A.'s bill before A. should be obliged to answer the assignees bill. Wms.'s Rep. 266, 267. Mich. 1714. Child & al', Assignees of Sir Stephen Evans, v. Frederick.

2. The original bill is first to be answered, but if the plaintiff in the original bill will, after the cross-bill filed, amend his bill in things material, this amended bill, as to the amendments, is a new bill; Vol. IV.

M m

and

and the plaintiff in the original bill shall be bound to answer the cross-bill, which was filed prior to the amendments made to the original bill, before the plaintiff in the original bill shall have an answer to his amendments; and as the amended bill must be answered all together, so the priority seems in such case to be lost as to the whole. 2 Wms.'s Rep. 345. Hill. 1727. Steward v. Roc.

(B. b) Answer. Of the Traverse.

The defendant denies the fact, he must traverse or deny it (28) the cause requires) directly, and not by way of negative pregnant, as if he be charged with the receipt of a sum of money, he must deny or traverse that be has not received that sum or any part thereof, or else set forth what part he has received; and if a fact be laid to be done with divers circumstances, the defendant must not deny or traverse it literally as it is laid in the bill, but must answer the point of substance positively and certainly. Clarend. Ord. 18 Car. 2.

2. An answer wanted the general traverse at the end, and it was objected, that without this traverse no issue was joined. But per Ld. Macclessield, it does not appear but that the whole bill and every clause in it is fully answered, and then the adding the general traverse is rather impertinent than otherwise; and if issue is taken upon this general traverse, it is only a denial of every other thing not answered before by the answer. Mich. 1722. 2 Wms.'s Rep. 87. Anon.

3. And his lordship said, that this general traverse seemed to him to have obtained formerly, and in ancient times, when defendant used only to set forth his case in the answer, without answering every clause in the hill; and for that reason it was the practice for the defendant to add, at the end of the answer, this general traverse. Mich. 1722. 2 Wms.'s Rep. 87. Anon.

(C. b) Of Referring Bills or Answers for Scandal, Impertinence, Insufficiency, &c.

1. WHERE an answer is excepted to be referred, and is reported insufficient, and the defendants did not except against the first report, but had put in another answer; they are to answer all the points excepted to, though the same exceed the bill. Chan. Cases, 60. Mich. 16 Car. 2. Crisp v. Nevill.

2. Plea to part, and demurrer to part; plea over-ruled; then defendant answered, and that being insufficient he put in another answer, and that being reported insufficient he put in a 4th answer; if the first be accounted one. Finch C. did not commit him to be examined on interrogatories. Chan. Cases, 279. Trin. 28 Car. 2. Clotworthy v. Mellish.

13

3. A

- 3. A bill was brought against 2 defendants, the answer of one is reported insufficient, and the report on exceptions confirmed; afterwards the other defendant puts in just such another answer, and insuffed on the same matter. On petition, the court to avoid delay will judge on the insufficiency of the second answer without sending it to a master; per Finch C. Vern. 74. pl. 69. Mich. 1682. West v. Ld. Delaware & Cutler.
- 4. Where the defendant answers to part, and pleads to all other matters not answered unto, the plaintiff cannot put in exceptions to the answer till he has first argued the plea, or obtained an order that the plea shall stand for an answer, with liberty to except to the matters not pleaded unto. Vern. 344. pl. 336. Mich. 1685. Darnell v. Reyny.

5. If the plaintiff refers the answer for scandal and impertinence, and the master finds it neither, the plaintiff, in exceptions to the master's report, must shew wherein, in what page, and how far, the answer is scandalous or impertinent; per Ld. Macclessield. 2 Wms.'s Rep. 181. Trin. 1723. Craven v. Wright.

6. And it seems stronger where exceptions are taken for infusficiency, and the master reports it sufficient, that the exceptions to the report should shew wherein the answer is insufficient. Ibid.

7. So if the bill or answer be referred for scandal, and the master reports it scandalous; if the master has once expunged this scandal, the party cannot then except to the report, because it cannot then be made appear by the record what the scandal was, and it was his own fault that he did not except sooner. Ibid. 182.

8. Ld. C. King made it a rule, that a bill shall not be referred for scandal after the defendant hath answered it; and by this means an old rule of court was altered. Mich. 1725. 2 Wms.'s Rep. 311.

Abergavenny (Lady) v. Abergavenny (Lady).

9. After an order to refer an answer for insufficiency, it cannot be referred for impertinence, yet it may be for scandal. 2 Wms.'s Rep. 312. In a note added by the editor at the bottom, it is said to have been so determined. Hill. Vac. 1729. in case of Ellison v. Burgess.

(D. b) In what Cases a Bill shall be taken Pro Con- [ 446 ]. fesso, after a sull Answer.

PLaintiff brought her bill against desendant for an account of profits, &c. and after defendant had fully answered, plaintiff amended her bill 3 times, to which defendant put in 3 several pleas and demurrers, which had been all over-ruled, and the desendant stood in contempt to a sequestration for not answering the amended bill.

Plaintiff now moved for liberty to set down the cause on the sequestration, in order that the bill might be taken pro confesso, &c. whereto it was objected that there being an answer to part (viz.) the original bill, the bill could not be taken pro confesso, because part was fully answered and denied, &c. and the case of

M m 2 HAWKINS

Chancery.

* See til.
Pro Confesso (A)
pl. 9. S. C.

* HAWKINS AND CROOK was cited. But on the part of the plaintiff, it was urged, that if defendant by answering part, and refuling to answer the most material point of all, should prevent the bills being taken pro confesio, that would put the plaintiff in a much worse condition than not answering at all, and would encourage defendants by this method to elude the justice of the court, &c. And as to HAWKINS AND CROOK, defendant there was willing and defirous to put in a full answer, and that was at length the liberty given him by the court. Ld. Chancellor faid, that this is an untrodden path, and as there are no precedents to direct, we must go upon the reason of the thing. At law after the party has appeared and is in court, if he makes default, &c. judgment is given for the whole demand; and if in trespass, &c. defendant pleads, &c. only to part, and fays nothing to the residue, plaintiff may take his judgment immediately for what is not answered, and courts of equity form their process upon the same plan when the party is in court, &c. and it is a jurisdiction which seems absolutely necessary and exercised by all courts, that when they have the parties once before them, they should have it in their power to determine upon the right, &c. and therefore seemed strongly to incline that the bill should be taken pro confesso quoad the particulars not answered. But the defendant offering to answer by the next term, except as to matter of xcount, no order was made upon the main question. MS. Rep. Mich. 4 Geo. 2. in Canc. Lady Abergavenny v. Lady Abergavenny.

2 Wms.'s Rep. 311. S. C. but not S. P.

2. Nota, A case was mentioned in the exchequer, of the corporation of Helston v. Robinson, where after an answer reported insufficient, and defendant refusing to put in any surther answer, the whole bill was taken pro confesso, by the opinion of the whole court delivered seriatim; and this was the opinion of the master of the rolls in the case of Hawkins and Crook before cited, for that an insufficient answer is no answer, &c. and it is the party's own obstinacy to stand out and refuse making a discovery, &c. and the opinion of taking a bill pro confesso quod some particulars, and joining issue, &c. as to the rest, seems new and introductory of great consusion in the proceedings; and Q. B. Ibid.

[447] (E.b) Amendment. In what Cases in Proceedings in Equity.

1. AFTER replication a better answer ordered. Toth. 71. cites 38 & 39 Eliz. Wilcox & Yates v. Fisher.

2. In a rejoinder and a commission, the desendant to amend her answer; but my lord said not to amend an answer after is joined. Toth. 75. cites Mich. 9 Car. Chettle v. Chettle.

Ibid. it was faid the like liberty was

3. The defendant's answer which she had sworn, containing something which she afterwards found to be untrue, it was mor-

cd

ed on her affiduvit of the said matter untruly set forth, being occa- given before soned by its being added in the margin of the draught after her perufal thereof, and her being thereby surprized, that she might have liberty to amend her said answer in the matters so mistaken; and Coventry's upon affidavit of notice of this motion, and certificate that no replication was filed, and the plaintiff making no defence, she had liberty given her to amend. Chan. Cases, 29. Mich. 15 Car. 2. Chute v. Lady Dacres.

replication filed, in a case in I.d. time, of Chettle v. Chettle. 2 Freem. Rep. 173. pl. 227.

S. C. cited in the principal case. ——Toth. 75. Mich. 9 Car. S. C. & S. P. but not to amend it after iffue joined.

But where the defendant having by her answer consented that an award made by her father might be confirmed, defired leave to amend her answer in that particular, the having made outb that the bad never read the award, and that such answer was prepared for her by her father, who had we onged her in the award, the court denied to give her leave to amend. 2 Vern. 434. pl. 396. Pasch. 1702. Harcourt v. Sherrard and Dame Anderson Ux'. -----Equ. Abr. 29, 30. pl. 5. has a note, that one reason seems to be, because the father was an arbitrator of her own chusing.

4. Some tenants of a manor brought a bill against the lord to discover ancient customs. The defendant demurred, because all the tenants of the manor-are not made parties; but the court gave the plaintiffs leave to amend their bill, and to make the other tenants either plaintiffs or defendants as they would confent or not. Fin. Rep. 114. Hill. 25 Car. 2. Hudson v. Fletcher.

5. A conveyance by virtue of a power was set forth by the plaintiff in his bill, but without date, day, month, or year; whereupon the defendant demurred; but the court over-ruled the demurrer, and gave the plaintiff leave to amend his bill. Fin. Rep. 260.

Trin. 28 Car. 2. Bushell v. Newby.

6. A decree was made against baron and seme, and all the process of contempt was right till the serjeant at arms; but the order for that was only against the baron, and so likewise was the sequestration. The busband died, and after his death a sequestration went against the wife's jointure; and it was moved to be amended, but the party could not prevail. Chan. Prec. 115. pl. 102. Arg. cites Trin. 1700. Northcott v. Northcott.

7 A recognizance was entered into by F. as surety, that a party in the cause should abide such order as should be made upon the hearing. Afterwards an order was made for confirming of the report, but in the title of the said order the words (et ux') were omitted. An action and Field & being brought upon this recognizance against F. the surety, he took advantage of this omission, and pleaded that no such order was made in the cause; whereupon the plaintiff, perceiving the mistake, obtained an order from the master of the rolls to amend the order by adding the words, and the same was afterwards confirmed by the ld. keeper. 2 Vern. 376, pl. 339. Trin, 1700. Spearing & Ux' v. Lynn.

Chan. Prec. 115-pl.107. Specing v. Lynn & Ux' al', S. C. and that the tide of the order was to be amended nisi, &c. and afterwarde it was infifted against the amendment, for that the defendant was only a furety; but on the other fide " it was faid, that this was only the mistake of the clerk, and ought to be amended to carry on the justice of the court; and cited the case of EARL v. EARL, this term, where an affidavit, made before a sequestration, was not fised before the sequestration made, but was ordered to be filed after to support the sequestration, and the order of amending was made absolute in the principal case.

> 「【448】 8, Bill

8. Bill was brought for an account of the personal estate of one T. E. The desendant having answered, and witnesses being examined, it happened that in the title of the interrogatories the plaintiff was called Tho. White instead of John. The court said they cannot read the depositions, nor can the title be amended, and this although most of the witnesses were, since their examination, gone to sea. Vern. 435. pl. 398. Pasch. 1702. White v. Taylor.

9. No proceedings upon an amended bill till the costs of the former proceedings are discharged. MS. Tab. December 6, 1705.

Gage v. Lister.

nental bills, there can be no proceedings against the desendant without a new service ad faciend' attorn. and a cause cannot be brought to a hearing without it; for the desendant ought to have an opportunity to desend against the new matter. MS. Tab. March 6th, 1720. Cheevers v. Geoghegan.

11. There does not appear to be any precedent in chancery of an amendment to a bill in a part, wherein it has been dismissed upon the merits; per Ld. C. King, assisted by the master of the rolls. 2 Wms.'s Rep. 402. Hill. 1726. Sir John Napier v. Lady Es-fingham.

S. P. admitted per cur. 2 Vern. 224, 225. Pasch. 1691. in case of Cecil

12. If a decree be made against an infant, relating to his inheritance, with a nist causa within 6 menths after age, he may amend his answer; and all decrees against infants give them six months after age to shew cause. 2 Wms.'s Rep. 403. Sir John Napiet v. Lady Essingham.

v. the Earl of Salishury. ——— The infant at his full age may (as the right way is) apply to the court, and set forth how he is grieved by the decree, and may have leave to amend or alter his answer, or any part of it, or put in a new one; but if he does not do so, it shall be presumed that he abides by it, and so it shall be read against him; and so it was done in the principal case. Gilb. Equ. Rep. 3, 4. Hill. 6 Ann. The Lord Guernsey v. Rodbridges.

13. The master of the rolls resused to hear any proof that the record of an answer in chancery was mistaken, in being made antrary to the original draught. But afterwards upon very sull associated by the solicitor and his clerk, that this was only a missake in the person that ingrossed the answer, and the soul draught being produced, upon solemn debate before the ld. chancellor, assisted by the master of the rolls, the court gave the desendant leave to amend the answer, and to swear it over again, though no precident could be shewn that amendment was ever made after the cause beard, and this matter had been before denied on a petition and on a motion. 2 Wms.'s Rep. 425. 427. Mich. 1727. Gainsborough (Countess) v. Gissord.

(F. b) Relief without a Bill, or not prayed.

1. A Decree was made without a bill. Toth. 125. cites Mich. 9 Jac. Bull v. Huddleton.

* 2. A legacy was presumed, after a great length of time, to be paid; and a perpetual injunction was decreed against a bond given about 30 years since relating thereto, and a former decree, was discharged, though inrolled, and though no relief was particularly prayed against that decree. 2 Vern. 23. pl. 14. Pasch.

1687. Fotherby v. Hartridge.

3. The defendant, in this case, being advised he had paid one Nailor, who was his folicitor in this cause, more money than could be due to him, obtained an order to have his bills referred and taxed, which was done; and upon the taxation he was reported to be ever-paid 60 l. thereupon he moved the court for a ne exeas regnum against Nailor, on affidavit that he was going beyond sea with my Lord Cornbury, the governor of Jamaica, and the writ was granted by the master of the rolls, in the absence of my ld. keeper, though there was no bill in court whereon to ground this writ. Ch. Prec. 171. Mich. 1701. Loyd v. Cardy.

For more of Chancery in general, see Charge, Charitable Ales, Common Conditions, Contribution, Copy= hold, Debiseg, and other proper titles throughout this work.

Charge.

(A) In what Cases a Charge made by one shall bind another.

See tit. Rent (D. 2) and tit. Remitter (K)

[1. ] F a man devises lands to J. S. and his heirs, upon condition that be shall grant a rent-charge in fee to J. D. the remainder of the land to W. N. in tail, and J. S. grants the rent accordingly, and dies without issue, this charge shall bind this remainder, because it was not granted merely out of the estate of the tenant in tail, but also partly by force of an authority of the devisor, for it was the will of the devisor who had power to charge it; and this was made in preservation of the estate of him in remainder, for heirs of his M m, 4

Cro. J. 427. pl. 2. Dutton v. Engram, S. C. adjudged, but there it is, (that if J. S. die without body, that if he had not granted it, the condition had been broke; and some faid J. D. faid, that here the donee had a see by sorce of the devise until the rent granted by sorce of the first words, and after a tail. Mich. and the heirs of his body.)

Charge.

Take Gouldwell's case. S. C. it was agreed per cur, that the grantee was in by the design, and not be

131. Gouldwell's case, S. C. it was agreed per cur. that the grantee was in by the devisor, and not by the tenant in tail.

Cro. J. 427,
428. pl. 2.
Dutton v.
Engram,
S. C. adjudged accordingly.-Poph. 131.
Gouldwell's
cafe, S. C. fays, as to the fecond point, that this rent being to be

[2. So it had been in this case, if the remainder in tail had been limited to him to whom the rent ought to have been granted; for though the devisor appoints that it should remain to the same person to whom he appoints the rent to be granted, yet it cannot appear that his intent was, that the rent should not continue longer than during the * continuance of the first estate tail, because the rent is a see, and shall go to his collateral heirs, when heirs of his body sail, and so more large than the estate of the land. Mich. 15 Jac. B. R. between Dutton and Ingham adjudged, per totam curiam, præter Croke, who seemed e contra, because of the intent of the devisor aforesaid, which intratur P. 15 Jac. Rot. 204] granted to him in remainder, the intent of the devisor is thereby explained, that he shall have the rest only till such time as the remainder comes into possession, for that now the rent shall be drowned in the land by the unity of possession.

* [450]

[3. So if a man devises lands to J. S. in tail, upon condition that he shall grant a rent in fee to W. S. the remainder of the land to a stranger, and the devisee grants the rent accordingly, and dies without issue, this will bind the remainder for the cause aforesaid. Mich. 15 Jac. B. R. between DUTTON AND INGHAM, per curiam.]

Cro. J. 427,
[4. So if the rent ought to be granted to the same person to when adjudged a good grant of the rent in fee issuing in fee issuing foid?]

[4. So if the rent ought to be granted to the same person to when the remainder is limited, yet the remainder [man] ought to hold it charged after the death of tenant in tail. M. 15 Jac. B. R. bestim fee issuing foid?

out of all the said.]

not out of the estate tail only, and being guided by the directions of the will, it shall take according to the limitation thereof, and charge all the inheritance. Poph. 131. Gouldwell's case, S. C. Haughton J. said, that the intent of the devisor seemed to him to be, that inasmuch as the land is limited in tail, and the rent in see, that by this the grantee should have power to grant or dispose of the rent in what manner he would; but if the land had been in see, he should have construed his intent to have been, that the grantee should have the rent only until the remainder fall; to which Doderidge agreed, and said, that this in the case of a will, and this construction stands with the intent of the devisor, and likewise with the statute, which says, quod voluntas donatoris est observanda.

† S.C. cited Arg. 4 Le. 90. in pl. 188.—— Jenk. 238. pl. 17. S.C.

[5. If a man seised in see suffers a recovery to the use of the recoverors, until they have made a lease for certain years, and after to the use of himself, if the recoverors lease for years accordingly, he that hath the use after shall never avoid it; for he comes under the lease. † Dyer, 12 Eliz. 290. 61. by all the justices. Co. 2. Beckwith 57. b. Mich. 15 Jac. B. R. between Dutton and Ingham it was so agreed, per totam curiam.]

Cro. E. 216. [6. If the baron be feifed of lands in fee in right of his feme, and pl. 14. Hill. thereof makes a leafe for years, and after he and his evife levy a fee R.R. Harvy come ceo, &c. to J. S. in fee, and after the baron dies, the convice v. Thomas, shall hold the land discharged of the leafe, for the leafe was void by the death of the baron, for the baron joined (*) but for conformity and necessity, for all the estate passed from the seme. H. 33 Eliz. B. R. adjudged, quod vide cited Co. 1 Bredon 76. Co. 2. Cromwell 77. b. Mich. 32, 33 Eliz. B. R.]

feems to be S.C. & S.P. adjudged accordingly.——Le. 247. pl. 332. S. C. & S. P. held clearly by the whole court.——4 Le. 14. pl. 54. S. C. Wray Ch. J. held accordingly, but Gawdy J. e contra.——S. C. cited Arg. 3 Bulft. 273.——See tit. Fine (S. 2) pl. 5. and the notes there.

[7. So if the baron, seised in see in the right of the seme, acknowledges a statute, or grants a rent out of the land, and after he and his wise join in a fine come ceo, &c. to J. S. in see, and after the baron dies, J. S. shall hold the land discharged of the rent, and statute, for the cause aforesaid. Co. 2. Cromwell 77. b. said to have been adjudged in B.]

S.-P. held accordingly, in the cale of Harvy v. Thomas. Cro. E. 216. pl. 14. Hill. 33 Eliz. B. R and

They cited it as resolved in the LORD MOUNTJOY'S CASE, 24 Eliz. that the recognizance of the baron shall not bind the conusee of a fine, and the conusee is in by the seme, and the baron joins only for conformity.——3 Le. 254. Mich. 32 Eliz. C. B. cites Ld. Mountjoy's case, thus, viz. Ld. M. took to wife an inheritrix, by whom he had issue, and so was intitled to be tenant by the curtesy. † He acknowledged a statute, and afterwards he and his wife levied a fine and died; now the conusee shall hold the land discharged of the statute; for after the death of the husband, the conusee is in by the wife only, and so is in paramount the charge.

+[451]

[8. But if the baron and feme are jointenants in fee, or in tail, upon a conveyance to them made during coverture, and the baron acknowledges a statute, and after he and his wife levy a fine come ceo, &c. to J. S. and suffer a recovery to him, and after the baron dies, yet J. S. shall hold it charged with the statute; for he comes in as well of the estate of the baron as of the seme, for the whole, for there are no moieties between them.]

[9. [But] if baron and feme are jointenants in fee, upon a conveyance to them made before marriage, and the baron acknowledges a statute, or grants a rent out of the lands, or leases the land to another, and after he and his wife levy a fine come ceo, &c. to J. S. and after the baron dies, it seems that J. S. shall hold one moiety discharged, and the other moiety charged with the said charges; for it seems the moiety of the feme is discharged by the death of the baron, for it seems the baron had no power to charge the moiety of the seeme but during her life.]

to. In assise the case was, that tenant in tail granted a rentcharge, and died; the issue entered, and infeoffed N. and re-took estate, and yet it was awarded that the charge was determined; because by the entry of the heir all was extinct. Br. Charge, pl. 20.

cites 14 Ass. 3.

of the making of the tenant of the franktenement, by this he is in by the tenant of the franktenement, and not in the post by the law, as he was before; and then, if the tenant of the franktenement had charged the land mesne between the execution made by the exigent, and the confirmation made, he shall hold charged where he was discharged before; quod nota. Br. Extinguishment, pl. 30. cites 31 Ass. 13.

12. If there are two jointenants, and the one grants a rentcharge, the grantee may distrain the beasts of the grantor upon the land, but not the beafts of the other. Br. Charge, pl. 39. cites 11 H. 6. 35.

1 Rep. 128. a. (b) cites S. P. agreed, in S. C.

13. A. tenant in tail. remainder to B. in fee. B. grants a rentcharge out of the lands to J. S. and afterwards A. makes a feoffment in fee to W. R. and dies without issue, yet the possession of the feosfee, (so long as the feoffment remains in force) shall not be charged with the rent, because he is in of the possession given him by the tenant in tail, which was not subject to the payment of the rent. r Rep. 62. a. (d) Pasch. 23 Eliz. C. B. in Capel's case, alias Hunt v. Gately.

14. If tenant for life be, the remainder over in fee, and tenant for life grants a rent-charge, and afterwards ceaseth, whereupon the lord recovers in a ceffavit, he shall hold the land charged. Arg. 3 Le. 255. pl. 339. Mich. 32 Eliz. C. B. in the Serjeant's case.

z Rep. br. b. Capel's case, S. C. adjudged ac-Mo. 154. pl. 298. S. C. adjudged accordingly, after conall the judges

15. A. tenant in tail. Remainder to B. in tail. land with a rent or lease, and then A. suffers a common recovery, and dies without issue. The recoveror shall not be charged with this cordingly .-- lease or rent; because the possession and the new estate of the recoveror, which he has gained from A. the tenant in tail, is subject to the charges and leases of the recoveror, and cannot be subject to the leases and charges of B. in remainder also simul & semel. 1 Rep. 127. b. 128. a. cites it as adjudged by all the judges scrence with of England. Mich. 34 & 35 Eliz. in case of Hunt v. Gately.

of England.——4 Le. 150. pl. 263. S. C. argued; sed adjornatur.——And. 282. pl. 290. S. C. adjudged.——Goldsb. 5. pl. 11. S. C. adjudged.——Jenk. 250. pl. 41. S. C. ——S. C. cited 2 Rep. 52. b. S. C. cited 2 Roll. Rep. 221.

452 2 And. 66. pl. 48. S.C. but S. P. does not appear.

16. A. tenant in tail for life. Remainder to B. in tail. Remainder to C. in tail. A. & B. join in a fine come ceo, &c. to J. S. who renders a rent of 401. a year to A. afterwards B. dies without issue, whereupon C. enters. A. distrains for the rent, and adjudged that he well may, for that the rent remains after the death of B. without iffue, so long as A, the tenant for life shall live, I Rep. 76. a. Mich. 39 & 40 Eliz. Gardiner v. Bredon.

17. Dr. Cary being seised in see, makes a settlement to the use of himself for life, remainder to Sir Geo. Cary for life, remainder to the trustees to preserve contingent remainders, remainder to the first and every other son of Sir Geo. Cary, in tail male, remainder to Wm, Cary for life, with like remainders to his first and every other son in tail male, remainder to Nich. Cary for life, remainder to bis first and every other son in tail male, remainder to Dr. Cary in fee.

Dr. Cary dies, and on his death, the remainder to Sir Geo. Cary comes into possession, and the remainder in fee descended on Sir Sir Geo. Cary being seised of an estate for life, Geo. Cary. with remainder to his first and other sons in tail male, with the like remainders to Wm. Cary, and Nich. Cary, and being also seised of the reversion in fee which descended to him as heir to Dr. Cary, confifes a judgment, and afterwards dies, and then the eflate estate limited to Wm. Cary takes effect, and the reversion in fee defeends to him; he had two fons; they die; and so the reversion in And now the question is, whether fee comes into possession, this reversion when it came into possession was liable to the judgment confessed by Sir Geo. Cary. And Ld. Chancellor faid, I am of opinion that it was liable to such judgment, because it was the estate of inheritance of Sir Geo. Cary, and as it was so subject to the intermediate estates for life, it was in him liable to be granted or charged, or incumbered by him as he thought fit; and as he might have granted or charged this reversion, so might he have granted a lease for 1000 years out of it if he had pleased, and which would have taken effect out of the reversion in fee; and if it had come to Wm. Cary, he could not have claimed such reversion, but subsequent to that lease; and as he might have done so, in like manner might he have charged it by judgment The point that was in the case of Kellow and or itatute. ROWDEN, in 3 Mod. does not feem applicable to this case, for that was on an action on a bond by the father against the 2d son as heir to the father; for in that action the 2d fon was charged as immediate heir to the father, and in this case it appeared that the father had settled land on himself for life, remainder to his first son in tail, remainder to himself in see. The father dies, the estate comes to the first son, who dies leaving a son, and then the fon dies, and on his death the land descended to the 2d fon as heir to the father. In this case it was not doubted but that this estate was the estate of the father, and liable to the debt; but the question was, if the plaintiff in that action had well charged the defendant as immediate heir to his sather, and whether he ought not to have charged him as heir to the nephew, and have shewn his pedigree for that purpose. Mr. Justice Giles Eyre held, that he was not well charged, but the other 3 justices held that he was. But Mr. Justice Giles Eyre in that case said, that it was not doubted but that the reversion in sec, which took place in the second son, was vested in the first son, and that the first son might have charged it with statute, judgment, or recognizance; which was not denied by the other justices.

So that it could not be doubted, but that if he had made a lease for years out of the reversion, and such reversion had aster come to the brother, but that it must have been subject to that The stating this proves the disserence, and that it would not be liable to the bond of Sir Geo. Cary, as affets by descent, because that cannot be where there is an intermediate [453] estate, but must be where the heir takes as immediate heir to the ancestor that entered into the bond. But on judgment you charge the tertenant of the estate that was in the person that was the conusor of the judgment, but not so by his bond, unless the lands came as affets by descent to the very heir of Sir Geo. Cary.

This will not be liable to the inconveniencies as were by me at first apprehended; for if either of the persons that took an estate tail had suffered a common recovery, there would have been an end of the reversion in sec. Where there is a tenant in tail with reversion to him in see, and this reversion descends to the desendants, they must take it liable to the judgment, or statute, or recognizance of any of their ancestors, in whom the estate at any time was; and therefore I am of opinion that this reversion is liable to the judgment. As to a fine that was mentioned, as it is not produced before me, I cannot give any determination upon it, but it seems to operate no otherwise than as a grant of the reversion, which being subsequent to the lien that was on it by this judgment, and the plaintiss filing their bill in 1726, which was but 2 years after such fine, the same is no bar to the plaintiss. MS. Rep. Dec. 1740. Gissard v. Barber.

(B) Charge. What is a Charge on Land; and on what Land.

I. IF a man charges his manor of R. and after a tenancy, that is held of the manor, escheats, now this is parcel of the manor, and yet shall not be charged, for it was not parcel at the time of the grant, but then the services thereof were parcel of the manor. Br. Charge, pl. 50. cites 22 Ass. 10.

2. A. devised lands for payment of debts and legacies, and gave legacies to 3 younger children, and makes his wife executrix without more words, but devised that his 3 children sould release to his executrix all such actions and demands of his personal estate. The personal estate shall be first applied in aid of the beir. Chan.

Cases, 296. Hill. 28 & 29 Car. 2. Pain's case.

2 Chan. Cases, 127. S. C. but very imperfectly reported.

3. A. having begun to build a house, made his will soon after the statute of frauds, and thereby devised lands for raising younger children's portions, and payment of his debts, and appointed 4001. to be laid out in finishing his house. The will was not attested as that ast required for passing lands, so that the younger children could take no benefit of the devise, notwithstanding which, the son and heir of A. insisted on having the 400 l. out of the personal estate; but ld. chancellor decreed, that the personal estate shall not be lessened in prejudice of younger children, to make good a direction in the sather's will for the benefit of the eldest son, when be at the same time takes advantage of a desective execution of the will, and deseats the sather's intentions in savour of his younger children. Vern. 95. pl. 83. Mich. 1682. Husbands v. Husbands.

4. A. covenanted or gave bond to settle land or annuity out of land of 100 l. a year, but had no land at the time of the settlement; an after purchase shall be liable, and that against a voluntary devisee.

2 Vern. 27. pl. 90. Pasch. 1689. Tooke v. Hastings.

5. Bill to be relieved and indemnified against an annuity of 100 l. per ann. charged upon the plaintiff's jointure, and payable to the defendant Oldfield for his life, &c. upon this case. Mr. Ramsden (the plaintiff's late husband) treating with the plaintiff's friends and relations about a marriage with the plaintiff, did propose propose to settle certain lands in jointure upon her; the proposals being laid before counsel in order to draw a settlement, it was objected upon looking into the title, that the lands proposed to be settled in jointure were subject to this rent-charge of 1001. per ann. to the defendant Oldfield for life, and the plaintiff's counsel did infift that Mr. Ramsden ought to give security to indemnify the plaintiff's jointure from this charge, and thereupon Mr. Ramsden did give a bond to indemnify, but that not being thought a fufficient security, he offered to get the defendant Appleyard (a man of a considerable estate) to be bound with him for a security; and upon his application to Mr. Appleyard, who was his friend and kinsman, Mr. Appleyard, by letter directed to Mr. Ramsden, writes thus (viz.) That he is willing to be bound with him, viz. Mr. Ramsden, to indemnify the lady's jointure from the said annuity, and doth by this his letter oblige himself so to do. This letter being produced to the plaintiff's counsel, he was satisfied with it, and thereupon the settlement was made, and the marriage took effect, and there was a bond drawn pursuant to this agreement, which was executed by Mr. Ramsden, but never executed by Mr. Appleyard. Mr. Ramsden died insolvent in 1717, and Mr. Oldsield's annuity being secured by demise and re-demise of part of the jointure lands, brought an ejectment against the plaintiff to recover his rent-charge, and thereupon the plaintiff brings her bill in this court against the executors of her husband, and against the executors of Mr. Appleyard, and also against his heir at law, to whom he devised all his real estate subject to the payment of his debts. principal point in this case was, if the heir at law and devisee subject to the payment of debts of Mr. Appleyard, should be liable to indemnify the plaintiff's jointure from this rent-charge, by force and virtue of this letter to Mr. Ramsden, without having executed the bond to indemnify, Mr. Ramsden the plaintiff's husband dying insolvent, and the executors of Mr. Appleyard having no The defendant's counsel insisted that the heir at law affets. of Mr. Ramsden, as well as his executors, ought to have been made a party to this fuit; for if he had affets by descent, he would be liable to fatisfy the whole, Mr. Appleyard being only a furety (supposing his heir to be bound by this letter), ought not to be charged. 2dly, That Mr. Appleyard had no confideration for indemnifying the plaintiff's jointure from incumbrances, and therefore nudum pactum, and not binding. That this promise of Mr. Appleyard was in its nature barely executory, and parties concerned in interest ought to have come into this court for a specific performance of this agreement in his lifetime, and during Mr. Ramsden's life-time, and then Mr. Appleyard might have made himself safe by taking a collateral security. 4thly, That this letter cannot bind his heir at law and devisce.

4thly, That this letter cannot bind his heir at law and device. Per Parker C. it is not so much as suggested in all the pleading in this cause, that Mr. Ramsden lest assets real or personal to save the defendant harmless from this rent-charge, and the exception of want of proper parties ought to have been made before the cause was at hearing, if the desendants would take advantage of it, and therefore over-ruled the exception. 2dly, That there was a sufficient consideration for this promise or undertaking of Mr. Appleyard, viz. the marriage, and fuch a confideration is good at law; for though no profit accrues to the promisor, yet the other party, without this promise, would be fubject and liable to a loss or damage, and that is a sufficient confideration to support an affuraplit at common law. That this promise of Mr. Appleyard is direct and positive in the present tense (viz.) and I do by this * my letter oblige myself so to do; and though this letter was directed and fent to Mr. Ramfden, yet it was writ with an intent to be shewn to the plaintiff's counsel, to satisfy him that the lady's jointure should be indemnified from the rent-charge, and it feems it did so, for immediately thereupon the jointure was accepted, and the match was made, which very likely would not have gone on without it. Though this letter of Mr. Appleyard's would not bind his beir at law, it not being in the nature of a debt by specialty, but by simple 'contract only, and the heir not named in it, get it will bind him as devisee of the real estate subject to the payments of debts; for thereby the lands are liable to the payment of all debts whatsoever.

And decreed an account to be taken of what is due to the defendant Oldfield for the arrears of his annuity, to be paid by a day to be appointed by the master, otherwise the injunction in this cause to be dissolved. That the plaintiff be reimbursed what the shall so pay by the defendant, the devisee of Mr. Appleyard, who is to give fuch fecurity as the master shall approve to indemnify the plaintiff from all future payments; per Parker C. MS. Rep. Mich. 7 Geo. Ramsden v. Oldsield & Appleyard & al'.

(C) Charge. Where on the Personal Estate.

s 96. S. C.

Chan. Cases, 1. Hough debts and legacies are charged on lands, yet the personal estate must come in aid, unless there is an express clause of exemption in the will. Fin. R. 342. Hill. 30 Car. 2.

Ford Ld. Grey v. Lady Grey & al'.

2. Uncle on marriage of his niece, agrees by deed-poll to permit his estate to descend to her, and that he should charge the same with 500 l. and no more. The uncle dies, and charges it with 2000l. and devised away all his personal estate to his executors. Decreed the agreement to be performed, and that the personal estate ought to come in aid of the said agreement. Fin. R. 405. Hill. 31 Car. 2. Otway v. Braithwaite & al'.

2. Where a real and personal estate are both subject to payment of debts, if the personal estate is sufficient, there ought to be no further account of the real estate. But if the real estate be expressy charged with the payment of debts, then so long as it remains subject, it will draw both estates to an account at any time, because the personal estate ought in the very nature of the thing, to go in aid of the real estate, and therefore the statute of limitations cannot interpose, or be any bar to an account thereof; decreed per cur. Fin. R. 458. Trin. 32 Car. 2. Davis & al' v. Dec & al'.

4. A. devises lands to B. for payments of his debts, and devises to C. other lands which were in mortgage, and all his personal estate. Decreed that B. must take the mortgaged lands cum onere, and that the personal estate, though devised to him, must be subject to the debts, notwithstanding lands were devised for payment of 2 Vern. 183. pl. 165. Mich. 1690. Lovel v. Lancaster.

5. When the personal estate is devised away, it shall not be applied in exoneration of the real estate, and though the heir and mortgagee should agree to charge the debt on the personal estate, yet the legatees should be reimbursed out of the real; arg. But whether in case of a mortgagor with covenant to pay the money, and a recognizance as farther fecurity, dying intestate and leaving younger children unprovided * for, the mortgagee shall be let sweep all the personal estate, by reason of his covenant and recognizance, and leave the younger children destitute, curia advisare vult. 2 Vern. 309. pl. 300. Hill. 1693. Mill v. Darrell.

But where the devisee is made executor, it is allets. 2 Vern. 302. pl.291. Mich. 1693. Cutler v. Coxeter.— 2Vern. 568. pl. 515. Hill. 1705. French v. Chichester.

-The same difference is taken between a gift of the personal estate to the devisee, or to a stranger who is not executor. G. Equ. R. 72. Mich. 9 Ann. Hall v. Brooker.

It was by Ld. C. Macclessield denied to be a rule, that in all cases the personal estate is applicable in ease of the real; for he said that it shall not be so applied, if thereby the payment of any legacy will be prevented, much less where it will deprive the widow of her paraphernalia. Mich. 1721. Wms.'s Rep. 730, 731. Tipping v. Tipping. _____ 2 Chan. Cases, 4. Anon.

*[456]

6. A. seised of land in see, covenants to pay 1000 l. to build a bouse thereon; after it was begun, and before it was finished, A. dies intestate. The administrator of A. may be compelled specifically to perform this agreement; and decreed accordingly. 2 Vern. 322. pl. 310. Mich. 1694. Holt v. Holt.

7. A will is made of lands and legacies charged, and the will duly executed; afterwards he makes a scrivener take directions to prepare a draught of instructions for another will, which the scrivener did, which testator read, approved, and set his hand to; per Cowper C. fuch legatees of the personalties in the first will, as are left out in the second, must lose their legacies, but for cordingly. those that had legacies by the first will chargeable on the real estate, if the same legacies were devised to them by the 2d will, they shall still continue charged on the real estate, and be raised out of it; and so whether their legacies were increased or diminished. But for other new absolute personal legacies devised by the 2d, they should be charged only on the personal estate, and should have the preference to be first paid out of the personal estate, before the other legacies in the first will upon the real estate-3 Chan. R. 159. Hill. 6 Ann. Hyde v. Hyde.

8. It was agreed by the court and all the bar, that the cases wherein the personal estate has ever been applied in ease and exoneration of the real estate, are only where there was no express exemption of the personal estate; for if a devise be of such lands to be fold for the payment of debts and legacies, and then fays, I will that my personal estate shall not stand charged or be liable thereunto;

Abr. Equ. Cales, 409, 410. pl. 3. S. C. printed as an original case, and held asthereunto; or if the devise for sale of lands for the payment of debts is general, and he after devises all the rest and residue of his personal estate, having already made provision for the payment of my debts and legacies out of my real estate, or out of such particular lands, &c. or such like clauses; in such cases the real estate so subjected shall not be exonerated by the personal; and cited the case of Lady Gainsborough, and of one Yarway, and several others. Gilb. Equ. Rep. 73, 74. Mich. 9 Ann. in case of Hall v. Brooker.

Chan. Prec. 423. S. C. reports it as 2 Vern. 701. that the personal estate devised is not liable.——

9. A mortgage in fee for 300 l. redeemable at Michaelmas 1710, or at any other Michaelmas on six months notice, and me covenant to pay the money. The mortgagor continued in possession, paid the interest, and by will devised his personal estate to his wife and daughter. Per Ld. Chancellor, the personal estate devised is not liable; here is no covenant either expressed or implied. 2 Vern. 701. Mich. 1715. Howell v. Price.

But Wms.'s Rep. 291. 294. S. C. reports that the cause coming on again, on the equity reserved after the trial of an issue that had been directed by the court, the Ld. Chancellor seemed strongly of opinion, that the personal estate should be applied in ease and exoneration of the real estate; sst, because the father's will said that his executors should by his personal estate pay and levy his dehts; and it (though the will were filent) on the testator's dying indebted, the personal estate ought to be applied to pay the debts in ease of the real, a fortiori it must be so, when the will was express that all the debts shall be paid thereout. 2dly, This 300 l. was a debt; for so is all money borrowed. Indeed it was a debt of a special nature, and for which there was a particular remedy, not by mutuatus at law, nor by * bill in equity, but by ejectment to recover the possession on default of payment. 3dly, If the mortgagee had been in possession it would not have made it less a debt, fince the creditor would thereby have had his remedy in his own hands. 4thly, It was such a debt as the mortgagor took great care that he, his heirs or affigns, might at any time have liberty to pay off. 5thly, The running on of interest, and its carrying interest, proved its being a debt; and the proviso saying, that if the mortgagor, his heirs or assigns, should pay the 300 L and the rent, or arrear of rent, &c. in this case by the word (rent) was to be understood the interest or profit of the money, and what the money yielded. Lastly, He said it plainly appeared from hence to be a debt, viz. that in case a mortgagee died, and the mortgagor come to redeem, he should pay the money to the executor, and not to the heir of the mortgagee, though it was a mortgage in fee, it being money secured by and due on land; wherefore, upon the whole, his lordship thought it a strong case in favour of the heir, and decreed accordingly. Gilb. Equ. Rep. 106. S. C. in totidem verbis with Chan. Prec.

* [ 457 ]

10. A. by his will directed that his debts, legacies, and funerals There is † no express should be paid out of the rents of his real estate, and his executor to claufe to exreceive the rents till B. came of the age of 25, and then to pay empt the perthe surplus to B. and gives some legacies, and then gives the ref-Sonal estate, and that has due of his personal estate to B. B. dies an infant. Per Cowper C. always been if in the case the residue of the personal estate unbequeathed had the diffinebeen devised to a stranger, or to a 3d person, he should have had tion in this court; per it free and exempt from payment of debts; but the devilee of Ld. Cowper. Chan. Prec. the furplus of the land and of the personal estate being one and 458. S. C. the same person, on consideration of the whole will, he thought - Chan. the furplus of the personal estate was not intended to be devised Prec. 456. s.C. reports to B. free and exempt from payment of debts. 2 Vern. 740. pl. that A. gave 647. Hill. 1716. Doleman v. Smith. the refidue of bis personal estate (before unbequeathed) to B. so that if the personal estate had been devised to a stranger. Ld. Cowper held it might have had another consideration from the meaning of the words (before mebequeathed); but here he thought it could not.——Gilb. Equ. Rep. 128. S. C. in tailers yerbis.

+ Gilb. Equ. Rep. 72. Mich. 9 Ann. in canc. Hall v. Brooker, S. P.

11. The real effate is expressly charged with the payment of debts, and the personal estate is given to the executor. Adjudged that the executor takes not the personal estate to his own use, but as executor; and then it shall be applied to discharge the real estate in favour of the heir at law. Pengelly faid, that if these words (to her own use ) or the like had been added, it might give some cause of doubt, but little stress was laid on the manner of creating her executrix. The decree was directed to be of the surplus of the personal estate after the legacies paid. Gibb. 41, 42. Hill.

2 Geo. 2. in the exchequer. Lucey v. Bromley.

12. A. seised in see makes a mortgage, and then devises the lands to B. and gives several money-legacies to C. D., &c. and wills that all his debts shall be paid out of his personal estate; and if that be not sufficient, then the legatees to abate in proportion. The question was, whether the mortgage should be paid out of the personal estate, so as to disappoint the legatees, there not being sussicient to pay both, &c. Per master of the rolls, it is a rule in this court that a hæres factus, as well as natus, shall have aid of the personal estate, but not to disappoint legatees; and therefore if the heir or devicee does exhaust the personal estate, as they may at law, this court will turn the legatees upon the land, &c. But this case turns upon the particular wording of the will; and though the testator, willing his debts should be paid out of his personal estate, and if that falls short, then the legatees should abate in proportion, seems prima facie to import no more than the law fays, and so are to be considered as surplusage, yet it holds upon confideration that these words do really import more; for if the personal estate was exhausted by the devisee to pay the mortgage, as it might be at law, then by the law of this court, which is as much the law of the land as the common law, the legatees should come upon the land without any abatement; [458] but here the testator says, they should abate in proportion, and consequently to give them a remedy upon the land is to contradict the will; wherefore the debt upon the mortgage is to be computed amongst the other debts of the testator, and the Jurplus only to be divided among st the legatees, &c. MS. Rep. Mich. 4 Geo. 2. id canc. Reeves v. Herne.

Charge. Where, on the Real Estate.

1. NO man can charge his heir but as a part of himself, and therefore beginning with himself. Hob. 130. pl. 172.

Trin. 12 Jac. Oates v. Frith.

2. As to the disposal of my estate, I devise the same as follows; and then devises White-acre to B. his eldest son in tail special, remainder to bis 3 other sous in tail male successively, and devises coppermines, &c. to B. to be sold to pay debts, and then gives to his daughter 30 l. per ann. till 12 years old, and afterwards 50 l. per ann. till marriage, and gives her 1500 l. to be paid by B. within 3 VOL, IV. months months after marriage, and makes B. executor, and dies. The perfonal estate sell short. Cowper C. ordered precedents to be searched, but thought the lands not charged. Chan. Prec. 449.

pl. 287. Mich. 1617. The Ld. Pawlet v. Parry.

3. A. seised of land in see devised several legacies, and then devised lands to B. and C. his wife for life, upon condition that B. his executors, administrators, and assess, should pay all his debts and legacies; and after the death of B. and C. he devised the inheritance to D. and the heirs of his body. B. C. and D. joined in sale of the lands to J. S. It was urged that by the limitation over to D. in tail the condition was destroyed, and so the purchasor's estate not liable in law or equity to the debts or legacies, though he had notice. But per cur. the lands are liable in equity, and so decreed against the purchasor with damages and costs, and he to take his remedy over against C. (B. being dead) for the profits received, and she was decreed to pay the same to the purchasor, for which purpose he was to have the benefit of this decree. Ness. Ch. Rep. 38. 12 Car. 1. Newell v. Ward & Brightmore.

S. C. cited per Cowper C. 2 Vern. 718. in case of Wainwright v. Bendlowes. —In fuch case the per-Sonal estate, though bequeathed to his executor, shall be first applied; for he takes it as executor, and the de-

4. If a man devises lands for payment of debts, and makes an executor, and leaves a personal estate, no part of the personal estate shall go to the payment of debts, because, by making an executor, the testator's intent appears that the executor shall have the goods, because the testator has made other provision for the payment of his debts; but if a man disposes land for payment of debts, and dies intestate, the personal estate is chargeable in the administrator's hands to the payment of debts; for so the more land will remain for the benefit of the heir, or more money for the land sold, and no intent appears that the administrator shall have any thing; per Fountain Serj. and admitted as reasonable by the master of the rolls. Lev. 203. Hill. 18 & 19 Car. 2. in canc. Feltham v. the Executors of Harlston.

wise is superfluous; but if the same had been devised so a firanger, who was not executor, such stranger should take it discharged of debts, or only to be in aid of the real-estate. Gilb. Equ. Rep. 72. 9 Ann. Hall v. Brooker. — But in such case if any particular legacy, as a horse, or 500 L in money, or any part only of the personal estate, be bequeathed as an executor, such particular legacy, not being cast upon him by the law only, shall not come in aid in case of a deficiency; but he shall be chargeable only in respect of the surplus cast upon him by the law. Agreed. Gilb. Equ. Rep. 73. in case of Hall v. Brooker.

[459]

This amounts to a charge on the lands; wife to fell for payment of debts. Vern. 45. pl. 45. Pasch. 1682. Newman v. Johnson.

the lands till after the debts and legacies are paid. Chan. Prec, 398, pl. 270. Pafch. 1715. Tem-kins v. Tomkins.

Cases, 117.
Trin. 34

Car. 2. S.P. reimbursed out of the real estate. 2 Chan. Cases, 109. Trin. 34

Culpepper v. Aston.

7. One devised all his lands to A. and the heirs of his body, The court remainder over; and in another part of the will devised to A. all his personal estate, and makes him executor, willing him to pay bis debts. This is a charge upon the lands as well as upon the perfonal estate to pay the debts. Vern. 411. pl. 386. Mich. 1686. Clowdsly v. Pelham, cited per Hutchins Commiss. N. Chan. Rep. in pl. 208. 178. in the case of Webb v. Sutton; and distinguishes between a desiring in a will to pay debts, and desiring to pay a money-legacy; that in the last case it is no charge on the land.

said that this cale was affirmed in Dom. Proc. 2Vern. 229. Pasch. 1691. Real estate was decreed to be charged with an annuity given by the will, though no express words to charge the land, the executor being devisee of the land. Per lords commissioners. 2 Vern. 143. pl. 140. Trin. 1690. Elliot v. Hancock. --- But this case was denied by the master of the rolls, 4 Nov. 1738. in case of Miles v. Leigh.

8. As for my wordly estate I give my daughter 10 l. to be paid by As for my my executor, and I give her 101. per ann. during her life, to be paid by quarterly payments; and all the rest of my real and perfonal estate I give to my son, &c. The court doubted if this was God bath a charge on the real estate. Nels. Chan. Rep. 155. Hill. 1689. at the rolls. Joyce's case.

temporal chate, wberewith blejsed me, I give and difpoje thereof as follows:

First, I will that all my debts be justly paid which I shall owe at my death to any person or persons whatsoever; also I devise all my estate in G. to J. S. This was all the real estate the testator had. Per Ld. Keeper Wright, this is a charge on the real estate for payment of debts. Ch. Prec. 264. pl. 215. Mich. 1706. Bowdler v. Smith.

9. A. devised lands to B. in tail, remainder over, and gives power to his executor to raise 500 l. out of his estate for his next heir, if the executor shall think it necessary, and desires him to see his debts paid, and gives to his executor all the rest and residue of his estate unbequeathed, to pay and distribute as he shall think fit. Per Commissioners, the executor has power to fell the lands, and the real estate by the will is subjected to the payment of debts. 2 Vern. 153. pl. 149. Trin. 1690. Wareham v. Brown.

10. Decreed by Somers, ld. chancellor, that where a real estate is upon an equitable title made subject by this court to the payment of debts, and it appears that there is a sufficient legal estate, (i. e.) goods and chattels to satisfy debts upon specialties, for which the creditors may have remedy at law against the executor; in such case the debts upon simple contract, for which there is no remedy at law, sball be first satisfied out of the equitable estate. 3 Salk. 83. pl. 4, Hill. 1697. Feverstone v. Scetle.

11. A man devises a legacy out of his land, and died, leaving sufficient assets for the payment of all his debts and legacies. Per Holt, that legacy ought to be paid out of the land; for it is a charge on the land, and not on goods. Though Cowper, king's counsel, said, that in chancery, if it be not expressed that legacy should be paid out of land, and not out of goods, if there be fufficient affets they will charge them in ease of inheritance; to which Holt answered, if chancery be meddling with wills, they ought to go according to law. 12 Mod. 342. Mich. 11 W. 3. Anon.

[460]

12. B. in 1661, made his will, and amongst other légacies, devised an annuity of 201. per ann. to C. to be paid quarterly, and gives other legacies, and then has this clause, all the rest of my real and personal estate, not before bequeathed, (my debts being paid,) I give to my brother D. and makes him sole executor, and lord keeper held the lands were charged by B.'s will. Abr. Equ. Cases 74. Pasch. 1702. Quintine v. Yard.

Chan. Prec. 430.pl.282. S. G. ∞cordingly, and that fince be does not devile his real or perional chate to any particular person for those purpoles, the 13. A. devised to B. his heir at law, his lands for life, remainder to her issue, remainder over, but in the beginning of the will he says, I will and devise, that my debts, legacies, and funerals, shall be paid in the first place. A. makes B. executrix. per C. decreed the real estate liable to the payment of debts, and said, that the directing the debts to be paid in the first place imports, that before any devise by his will should take effect, his debts, &c. should be paid, and seemed to lay some stress upon the word (devise). 2 Vern. 708. pl. 630. Hill. 1715. Trott v. Vernon.

persons that come within that description must be supposed to be in his view, and it must be taken to be a devise for the benefit of legatees and creditors, preferable to any disposition whatsoever, either of his real or personal estate, and consequently both are made liable thereunto. ---- Gilb. Equ. Rep. 111.

S. C. in totidem verbis with Chan. Prec.

Chan. Prec. 451.pl.288. S. C. Ld. Chancelior was clear of opinion, that the personal estate was not liable in this case, and decreed according y. -Gilb. Eq. Rep. 125. Mainwright v. Bendloe, S. C. but feems to be only copied from Chan. Prec. S. C. cited by Ld. C. ses in Equ. in Ld. Talbot's Time, 208. Trin. 1736. in cale of Stapicton v. Colvilla.

14. A. devised his fee-farm rent to be sold for the payment of his debts, and the furplus arising by fale, after debts paid, he devised to bis brother B. bis beir at law, and to his brother C. and to his brother-in-law D. and willed his boulbold goods should go along with his bouse, and devised the rest and residue of his personal estate, to bis sister E. and made her executrix. The question was, whether the personal estate should be applied to the payment of debts in ease of the see-sarm rent? Per lord chan, a difference is to be. taken where an estate is to be fold out and out for payment of debts, and where only the debts are charged on it, and the estate made hable to the debts, and cited FELTHAM'S CASE, I Lev. 203. and the present case is the stronger, because the surplus arising by fale, after debts paid, is not to go to the heir, but is devised away; and besides, here the debts being great, the devise of the personal estate would come to nothing, which at law is deemed the worst construction that can be made of a will, and therefore decreed the debts should be paid in the first place, out of the money aris-Talbot, Ca- ing by fale of the fee-farm rents, and the personal estate only to come in aid of the fund, if deficient, and the furplus of the perfonal estate to the fister, the executrix. The devise of the rest and residue of the personal estate to her is to be understood what he had not otherwise devised by his will, viz. the houshold goods to go with the house, and not the residue after the debts paid. 2 Vern. 718. pl. 637. Mich. 1716. Wainright v. Bendlowes.

MS. Rep. Mich. 3 Geo. in Canc. Awbrey v. Middicton.

•

15. Case upon a will; it begins, as to all my worldly estate, I give and dispose thereof in manner following, and then gives several pecuniary legacies, and several annuities for lives, to be paid by his executor, and then he devises all the rest and residue of his goods and chattels, and estate, to his nephew Middleton, (the defendant and heir at law to the testator) and makes him sole executor. The will was executed in the presence of three witnesses, with other circumstances required by the statute 29 Car. 2. of frauds to pass or charge lands. Note, there was an express devis cof some lands in the will to a relation of the testator. The question was, if the real estate of the testator be chargeable with the legacies and annuites in default of the personal estate? It was insisted, that the real estate was not chargeable with the annuities and legacies, 1st, because no express charge upon the land; and, 2dly, no implied charge; because expressly declared by the testator, that the annuities and pecuniary legacies should be paid by his executor, which strongly implies the intent of the testator to be, that the annuities and legacies should be paid out of the personal estate, being directed to be paid by one, viz. his executor, who, as such, has nothing to do with the real estate; and though in this case, it happened that the executor was heir of the testator, yet that will not alter the case, but it is the same as if they were two distinct persons, because he claims by two distinct titles, viz. the land as heir at law, and not by the will, and the personal estate by the devise of all the rest and residue of his goods, chattels, and estate, and as executor; they likewise insisted, that the real estate of the testator did not pass to the executor by the devise of all the rest and residue of his goods, chattels, and estate, because the word estate follows and accompanies goods and chattels, and therefore shall be restrained and confined to that sort of estate which went before, viz. personal estate, though they admitted the word (estate) itself, or accompanied with other words which found in reality, would pass land in a will. Per Cowper C. the real estate of the testator is chargeable with the pecuniary legacies and annuities by the will. It was certainly the intent of the testator, that the annuities and legacies should be paid, and I will endeavour to support the plain and express intent. It is certain, from the whole frame of the will, that the testator meant to dispose of all his estate, both real and personal; for in the beginning of the will he says, as to all his worldly estate, he gives and disposes thereof; and afterwards does expressly devise part of his real estate, so that it is apparent he meant to dispose of his real, as well as personal estate, by his will; then comes the last clause, all the rest and residue of his goods, chattels, and estate, he gives to his executor; now the words (rest and residue) in this place, may have some stress laid upon them, and feem to refer to the introductive clause in the will, (as to all his worldly estate, &c.) which certainly extend to lands in a will, and will bear a larger construction by reference to the first clause, by which he intimates, that he intended to dispose of all his estate both real and personal, by his will, and therefore he was of opinion, that by the devise of all the rest and residue of his goods. chattels, and estate, all his lands do pass to his executor, and that he takes by the will, and not by descent as heir at law, and that the lands so devised to him are chargeable with the pecuniary le-Nn3 gacies and annuities, if the personal estate falls short to satisfy the fame, and decreed accordingly. 16. Mr. Parry having 5 sons and 2 daughters makes his will, which begins thus, viz. As to my estate I dispose of it in manner following; and then he gives several specifick legacies to bis children, and devises his lands to his eldest son Charles (the defendant) and to the heirs male of his body, remainder to his 2d fon in tail male, and so on to his other 3 sons in tail male successively. He also devises several debts and chattel-interests to his eldest son Charles, and then he gives 1500 l. a-piece to his 2 daughters at 21 years of age, er day of marriage, to be paid by his said son Charles, and makes him fole executor. The question was, if the real estate expressly devised to his son Charles in tail, with remainders over in tail male to his other sons, is chargeable with this portion of 1500 l. devised to the plaintiff, being directed by the will to be paid by his fon Charles the first devisee in tail and executor. For the plaintiff was cited the case of Cloudesley v. Pelham, in Canc. 1686. The devise there was to trustees in tail, yet the court held that the lands were chargeable with payment of debts implicitly by Per Cowper C. this is a very doubtful case; the lands are fettled by this will upon the testator's sons successively in tail male, which makes it very different from the case of a devise in see. Cases of this nature have been carried very far already in this court, to charge land by implication, out of an inclination in the court to make every part of the will take effect; and if there be precedents sufficient to warrant a charge upon lands, fettled and intailed by the will, I shall be willing to do it now out of the same inclination. The lands are not directly and absolutely given to the defendant, who is directed by the will to pay the 1500 l. to the plaintiff, but only sub modo with limitations over to the other sons in tail male successively. Suppose the defendant, the first devisee in tail, and who is directed by the will to pay this 1500 l. to the plaintiff at her age of 21 years, or day of marriage, had died without iffue before the 1500 L had become payable, would this 1500 l. be a charge upon the estate tail of the 2d son who is next in remainder? I will take time to consider of this case, and in the mean whiledet the master take an account of the personal estate of the testator, and make an estimate of the quantum thereof at the time of making the will; for that may give some light to find out the meaning of the testator. It might then be sufficient to satisfy all debts and legacies, though fince it may be insufficient by subsequent losses or accidents. Curia advisare vult.

Len

MS. Rep. Mich. 3 Geo. in Canc. Ld. Henry Pawlet & Ux. v. Parry.

17. Legacies by will were charged on the land (viz.) charged with the payment of her legacies abovementioned. The testatrix after gave other legacies by a codicil. It was objected, that these words could not extend to the legacies in the codicil, but admitted, that if the real estate had been charged with the payment of the testatrix's legacies in general, it would have taken in the legacies in the codicil, they being as much her legacies as the legacies in the will. Decreed Decreed the legacies by codicil chargeable only on the personal estate. Wms.'s Rep. 421. 423. Pasch. 1718. in case of Masters v. Sir Harcourt Masters.

18. A. made his will, and begun it thus, viz. As to my worldly At the end estate I dispose the same 28 sollows; after my debts and legacies paid, of this case, ibid. 190. is &c. and then gave several legacies, and also portions to his added a note. daughters; and then added, after all my legacies paid, I give the that if in residue of my personal estate to my son; and then he devised his fee- there had simple lands to his (only) fon and his heirs, and if he dies without iffue been a want in the life of any of his daughters, then to his daughters; and ordered of offices for interest to be paid by the executors for the daughters' portions, and made payment of his fon and J. S. executors. The personal estate was near, but seems the not fully, sufficient to pay all the portions. Ld. C. Macclessield lands would faid, that as plain words are requisite to charge the estate of, as to charged difinherit, an heir. His lordship took notice of the interest being therewith by directed to be paid by the executors, and that the deficiency of the first the personal affets was not such as to leave the daughters desti- A. by his tute, and decreed the real estate not liable. 2 Wms.'s Rep. 187. will takes Trin. 1723. Davis v. Gardiner.

pase peen notice, that he had limited annuities to his elect son and his wife for their lives, and then charges all his real estate with payment thereof; and afterwards he limits the manor of H. to C. his 2d son, in strict settlement, remainder to D. in like manner, and then devises to C. all other his estates, real and personal, what soever, and wherefoever, to him, his heirs, executors, administrators, and assigns, for ever. And farther, my evill is, &c. that my said son B. shall pay all my debts, &c. and all legacies, &c. bequeathed by this my will. And then bequesthed to his younger children 2000 l. a-piece. A. died a seised of no real estate but the manor of H. only. The question was, whether the estate devised in strict settlement was subject to the pay off younger childrens' portion? And Mr. J. Parker, who heard the cause for my Ld. Chancellor, was of opinion, that this real effate was chargeable, these portions being for younger children. who are confidered as creditors in a court of equity; and in the case of creditors it has been held, that where a testator in the beginning of his will declares, that he is disposing of all his wordly estate, and then gives a direction that his debts shall be paid, the debts thereby become chargeable on the real estate as well as the personal; and as to an objection that A. had used proper words to charge his real estate with payment of the annuities, but had not in relation to these portions, and that therefore his intent was not the same, he said it was not conclusive; for a testator may use express words of charging in one past of bis will, and may create a charge by implication in another part of it; and as to the objection that A. had made a different fund for payment of the legacies out of the residue of his real estate which he nave so C. he said, that if the fact was so, that there was any such residue, the argument would be good; but that there was no such residue in fact; and decreed accordingly. Barn. Chan. Rep. 86. Pasch. 1740. Webb. v. Webb. 463

19. As touching all such worldly estate which God hath blessed me with, I dispose of the same as follows: Imprimis, I will that all my just debts be paid and satisfied. It was argued that it is a general preface to make a general disposition of his real and personal estate as is mentioned after in the will; that it is an independent clause, and means only an intention of a general disposition. He after devises his freehold and copyhold estate to his son and his heirs, when he comes to 21, paying his wife 100 l. a year for her dower in the mean time. After 100 l. per ann. to his wife for dower, the rest of the profits to be put out for benefit of all his children, but made no provision for debts. It was insisted that if a man devises lands after debts paid, that is a charge; but it was decreed that this is not a charge of debts upon the real estate. MS. Rep. Trin. 9 Geo. 1723. Barton v. Wilcocks,

20. The defendant was executor and devisee of the real estate of one Moore. The bill was to be paid 301. which the plaintiff had Nn4 lent lent to Moore, either out of the personal estate; if sufficient, or if not, then out of the real estate, for this reason, because upon lending of the money the title deeds of the real estate were put into the bands of the plaintiff, and it was indorsed upon them, that it was agreed that the deeds were so deposited, as a security for the payment of so much money, and the court declared the real estate in this case charged with the said debt. MS. Rep. Hill. 10 Geo. 1. 1723. Atkinson v. Swift.

21. Testator, seised in see of a farm, called Hill's-Tenement, in 27 July, w Leigh.

1739. Miles the county of Somerset, and of another called Bowry-Hays in tail, by will devised as follows, viz. As to all my worldly goods, I give. all that tenement, called Hill's-Tenement, to my wife Joan for ber life, and after her decease, then to my son Robert, and bis beirs, for ever. Item, I give to my second son Henry 150 l. to be paid when . Robert shall come into possession. Item, I give to my daughter Mary Leigh 1501. to be paid in 12 months, at, and upon, the time that my fon Robert shall come to, and enjoy the premises abovementioned; and in case my son Robert die before my wife Joan, my son Henry coming into possession, and surviving his said mother, shall pay to my daughter Mary Leigh the sum of 200%. Item, all the rest and residue of my goods and chattels I give to my wise Joan, whom I appoint sole executrix of this my last will and testament. Robert and Henry both died in the life-time of Joan. Upon Joan's death, Henry, the son of Henry, the younger brother, enters on the premises. Mary brings her bill against him, to have her legacy of 150 l. or 200 l. out of the land, according to the directions of the will; but, upon confideration, the counsel for the plaintiff thought proper to waive their demand of the last legacy, and to insist rather upon the first. Mr. Greene for the plaintiff insisted, that this legacy was not contingent, but absolute, given to her immediately, though the time of payment was future, (viz.) when Robert should come, into possession of the estate; that therefore the circumstance of Robert's and Henry's dying in the life-time of the mother, which the testator could not foresee, did not alter the case, or take away that which was already vested in her. 2dly, That this was a charge on the land, and if it was so in the hands of Robert, it must remain charged into whosesoever hands it should afterwards come; nor is it in the power of the desendant (though he be heir at law, as grandson of the testator) to take advantage of his title by descent, and thereby avoid this incumbrance, but he is bound to take in this respect as a pur-, chasor, i. e. terram cum onere in support of the intent of the testator. Indeed, the common rule is, that where a legacy is given generally, it is a charge on the personal estate, and there is no necessity of express words to subject that to the payment thereof; but here the personal estate is expressly discharged, because the testator has devised all that away to his wife, so that nothing remains here, whereout the legacy can be satisfied, but the land, and for this relied on 2 Vern. 228. ALCOCK v. Sparhawk, where land in the hands of an executor, device, and heir at law, though not expressly charged, was yet made liable?

in aid of the personal estate; and on 2 Vern. 143. Ellior v. HANCOCK, where the land was charged with the payment of an annuity, though the executor, device thereof, was not heir at law; (but note, the master of the rolls said, that was a most absurd case.) Mr. Brown for the defendant said, that this was but a contingent legacy, to be paid upon Robert's coming into possession of the estate, which contingency never happening, consequently it is a lapsed legacy, and so with respect to the 200 l. which depended on the like contingency of Henry's coming into possession; for it does not appear, but that testator might foresee that his wife might survive both his sons, and then his not providing for his daughter in such case, can be attributed to nothing else but his want of intention so to do. 2dly, Admitting any legacy due, yet the plaintiff is not intitled to come upon the real estate, but must seek it out of the personal; and that such was the testator's intention, appears by his devising all the rest and residue of his estate to his wife, which words, rest and residue, necessarily imply, that something was before disposed out of it, which must be the 1501. legacy, for there is nothing besides mentioned, and it does not appear that there were any debts owing to make any deduction; this is likewise the case of an heir at law, who is never to be prejudiced without express words; now here are no express words to charge him or the land, for it is not faid by whom, or out of what the legacy is to be paid, but only, I charge so much to be paid when such a one shall come into possession, which is, indeed, a very general bequest of a legacy, and so falls entirely within the rule, that in such case the personal estate is to become liable; so, upon the whole, this legacy was but a personal charge upon Robert, which, at least, could affect his estate only while in his hands, and was lapsed by the death of him who was to pay it. The master of the rolls said, I take this to be a charge on the real eflate in the hands of the heir. I say a charge; for if it were a condition, then the defendant, who is the heir at law, might safely commit a breach of it, there being nobody but himself to take advantage of it; that the real estate is charged I make no doubt, because it could never be the meaning of the testator, that the daughter should have 1501. in case the estate went to his son, and, at the same time, that she should have nothing in case it went to his grandson; this would be a most unnatural construction, and yet such must be the consequence, if the legacy be considered merely as a personal legacy, and so lapsed by the death of Robert; and in this case the heir must take under the will; for though Robert and Henry were heirs to the testator, yet the devise to them, being with a charge, broke the descent, and though they never took in possession, yet it was a remainder, transmissable to the next person, who must take through them, and not as heir to the testator; and if the estate limited to Robert does not cease by his dying before he could take, so neither does the charge cease; and for the same reason, I think, the consideration, that the defendant is an heir at law, ought to be laid quite out of the case, because because this is a provision for a child, and who otherwise will be lest quite destitute, which will be another unnatural construction. As to the words rest and residue of my goods and chattels, I lay no great stress upon that argument, nor can it be concluded from thence, that any thing was before thereout disposed of, because these are words merely of course, and always inserted by the penner of the will, whether there be any precedent bequest or not, and, indeed, are never improper, because no executor can be said to take more than the relidue, it being impossible for a man to die without leaving some small debts behind him; or, if it could be so, the funeral expenses must always be borne by the executor. Decreed for the plaintiff, that the lands should be fold, and the 1501. paid At the rolls, 4 Nov. 1738, Miles v. to her with interest. Leigh. From this order the defendant appealed to the Ld. Chancellor, and for the appellant it was infifted, that the will being filent as to what fund the legacy should arise out of, and the land not being expressly charged, the personal estate is the preper and natural fund. That the time of payment, viz. when Robert, &c. could not denote an intention to charge the land with it, but merely the time of payment, and may reasonably be accounted for, viz. that as the mother, who was tenant for life of Hill's-Tenement, and devisee of the personal estate, might maintain her children out of the profits, during her life, so after her death, (when the eldest son should come to the land,) a provision might be made for the younger children out of the money; and that lastly, that by the other construction, this legacy of 150 L (together with the other legacy of 150 l. to Henry, had he lived to take it, and which would equally be a charge) would exhauft the whole devise of Hill's-Tenement; and as to Bowry-Hays, testator had no power over it; and for a testator to mean, that a devisee should get nothing by the devise, is a strange prefumption, and it is a necessary circumstance in the supplying the want of a copyhold furrender, that the heir at law be not disinherited. In 2 Vern. 568. French v. Chicester, though the real estate was expressly charged with the payment of debts, yet the residuum being given to the wife, who was likewise made executrix, as here, the court held she must take it as executrix, and the personal estate, not being particularly exempted, was decreed to be applied in ease of the real. For the defendant in the appeal it was urged, that there is no need to say in express terms, that the legacy shall be paid out of the real estate, or by the heir, and that the smallness of the estate could be no argument to suppose the testator's intention was otherwise; for it would, at least, be as hard upon Henry, (who was to have the estate upon the death of Robert,) to pay 200 l. to the plaintiff, which by the express words of the will he was to have done, out of this small estate, as for Robert, (or the defendant, his heir,) to pay only 150 l. out of the very same estate. Ld. Chancellor; The first question is, whether this demand of the plaintiff is a charge upon the personal or real estate? The will itself is very ill penned, but upon the construction of it, (which must arise from from the whole taken together,) I am of spinion, that it was originally and folely to arise out of the real estate. It is introduced, indeed, with the phrase (all my worldly goods), as if testator intended to say nothing of his land, either by way of disposition * or charge; but it is plain he meant by this, all his estate of what kind soever, for he presently after disposes of his real estate, and therefore used that expression with the same latitude that the civilians use the word (bona). Now the clause ppon which the question arises, (item, I give to my daughter Mary Leigh 150 l. to be paid in 12 months, at and upon the time that my fon Robert shall come to and enjoy the premises abovementioned, amounts to, and must be construed, the same as if the testator had faid (he paying); for the court often construes a clause as conditional, though there be no express words of condition, particularly adverbs of time, as the word (when), have been often considered as making a condition or charge, though there be no direction out of what estate, nor by whom the bequest shall be paid; and this construction will appear the better warranted, upon considering the clause relating to Henry's paying 200 l.; for as upon his coming to the estate, one of the legacies before charged, viz. that devised to himself, would be sunk, and, confequently, the estate become larger than it would have been in the hands of Robert, who was to have paid two legacies out of it; so the testator, probably upon this consideration, thought sit to make the plaintiff's legacy 2001. instead of 1501. (for that must be considered not as a distinct, but an additional legacy, ) which manifests his intention, that whoever had the land, should pay the legacy, by his increasing the latter in proportion as the estate in the former was increased. As to the smallness of the estate, and that it will hardly pay the legacy, it will be no objection; for though the testator does not take upon him directly to charge the intailed land, yet L am of opinion his intent was to charge both, (for the words are, when Robert shall come to the premises abovementioned, which include, as well Bowry-Hays, as Hill's-Tenement;) that is, these bequests were not made in respect of what estate he himself had a power to charge, (which possibly might not be more than sufficient to satisfy them,) but in respect of what estate would come, whether by will or settlement to his eldest son. As to the devise of the residuum, there can be nothing drawn from thence, for there might have been debts, nor can any thing particular be inferred as to the propriety of the expression, it being as general and loose a phrase, as that of all my worldly goods, with which he begins his will, the first article of which is a devise of land. The 2d question is, whether this was a contingent legacy? and whether, if contingent, the contingency has happened? Now, I am of opinion, that the legacy was to take place not when Robert should personally take the estate, but when the devise to Robert (which was to him and his heirs) should take effect; and if it be a charge upon the real estate, it is immaterial whether Robert took or not; for by the devise the descent is broke, and the charge binds his heir, as well as him, though he himself never took in possession; in the same manner as in the case of MARKS v. Marks, where the condition was to have been performed by the ancestor, yet he dying before the time of performance, it was decreed to be done by the heir. Whereupon the decree prosounced by the master of the rolls was affirmed.

[ 465 ]

- *(E) Where on the Personal Estate, and where on the Real, and on which first.
- 1. A Legacy was devised to pay debts and legacies. The personal estate bequeathed to A. shall not be subject or liable to the said debts or legacies. Ch. Rep. 45. in 6 Car. 1. Peacock v. Głascock.
- 2. A. indebted by judgment, and seised of lands liable, died intestate, leaving B. his wife and C. a son, infant, his heir. B. takes administration, and enters as guardian on the lands, and received the profits, and made D. executor, and charged it, and dies. D. entered as guardian, and possessed the personal estate of A. and B.—C. died. D. administered to C.—E. the heir of C. paid 2001. on the judgment. Per Ld. Keeper, the profits taken by the guardians should be liable to make satisfaction to C. but the personal estate in B.'s band was hable first, in ease of E. to which the administrator de bonis non is liable; though not being made a party he held the bill ill, but gave leave to amend in that point. 2 Ch. Cases, 197. Trin. 26 Car. 2. Bressenden v. Decreets.

3. Devise of leases, and other considerable personal estate in trust, to pay his wife 100 l. per ann. during her life, in lieu and difcharge of her dower. Decreed to issue out of the personal estate only, if that be sufficient free from taxes; but if that be not sufficient, then to be made good out of the real. Fin. Rep. 134.

Mich. 26 Car. 2. Lesquire v. Lesquire.

Im. Rep. 4. Lands were settled for payment of legacies and debts, and 338. Hill. after for performance of his will, and made his will at the same 30 Car. 2. time, and in it he directed his trustees to pay certain legacies to his S. C. younger children, the furplus to his heir, and made his wife execu-5. C. cited Chan. Prec. trix, but did not give her thereby, in terms, the personal estate, 477. in and devised that the children legatees should release to his executrix case of all fuch actions and demands of his personal estate. Decreed per Howell V. Price. — Finch C. that the personal estate be accounted for, in aid of the S. C. cited heir, for what he should be charged withal, not only as to the Azg. Cules In Equ. in creditors, but as to the legacies. Chan. Cases, 296. Hill. 28 & 2d. C. Tal-29 Car. 2. Lord Grey v. Lady Grey & al'. bot's Time, of Stapleton v. Colvile.

5. An annuity was devised, and charged on that part of his estate that should remain unsold after his debts and legacies should be paid. Part was fold, and there was a surplus on that part. Decreed that the surplus of what was sold, as well as the rents of the

304. in case

the other part unfold, should be both applied to the payment of this annuity; and what falls short, to be supplied out of the other part of the estate unsold, with costs. Fin. Rep. 459. Trin. 32 Car. 2. Coleman v. Coleman.

6. If lands are devised for payment of debts and legacies, and the residue of the personal estate is given to the executors after debts and legacies paid, the personal estate shall notwithstanding, as far as it will go, be applied to the payment of the debts, &c. and the land be charged no further than is necessary to make up the residue. 2 Vent. 349. Pasch. 32 Car. 2. Anon.

7. Devisee of land shall be unburthened of a debt lying on Vera. 36. the land by the personal estate in the hands of the executor or ad- Pockley v. ministrator, and so shall a devisee of a mortgage. 2 Chan. Cases, Pockley, 84. Hill. 33 & 34 Car. 2. Popley v. Popley.

S. C. accordingly.--

S. P. where 5001. was due on a mortgage of the land devised. Fin. Rep. 401. Mich. 30 Car. 2. Starling v. the Drapers' Company.

8. A. by his will subjects both his real and personal estate to the [468] payment of his debts. Decreed that the heir should pay the debts, or in default thereof the real estate to be fold, and liberty given to the beir to profecute for the personal estate. MS. Tab. Appeals, 23 Feb. 1705. Slydolph v. Langhorn.

9. An estate being considerably mortgaged was devised to A. and several specifick legacies were left to others. The surplus is not fufficient to discharge the debt. All the specifick legacies shall contribute towards the discharging the mortgage, before the mortgaged premises shall be affected; for the covenant to pay the money makes it a personal debt, and the real estate shall never be put in average with the personal. MS. Tab, Appeals, 1706. Warner v. Hayes.

10. A. conveyed all his lands in trust for payment of his debts and S.C. Get legacies, and by his will devised all his personal estate to his wife, by La. C. Talbot, Cayet the personal estate shall come in aid of the real. MS. Tab. ses in Equ. cites Feb. 1707. French v. Chichester. in Lt. Talbot's Time,

209. Trin. 1736. in case of. Stapleton v. Colvile; but said, that unless he was acquainted with the particular circumstances of the case of French v. Chichester, wherein the book seems desicient, he could never form any judgment from it; fince if the reason given in the book [vlz. 2 Vern. 568.] For it be the only one, he could not say that it gave him intire satisfaction, nor could he lay any great Arels upon it, and the rather because there is a plain difference at law between the bare making executor, and the making him likewise legatee of the personal estate; for in the first instance, if the executor dies intestate before probate, the first representative of the testator is intitled to the administration; whereas in the latter, there being an express gift to him, he takes as legatee, and consequently spon his death his representative would be intitled to it, an interest being vested in him in his own right in the one case, but nothing at all in the other, until he hath converted it.

11. Bill to have a specifick performance of an agreement of a purchase of lands against the heir and executor of Crosts, to whom the lands were devised for payment of debts, &c. Cross bill by the heir against the executor to account for the personal estate of the testator, to come in aid of the real estate devised to be fold for payments of debts, &c. Crofts the testator devised particular lands to his executors, to be sold for payment of all his proper debts, and makes A. and B. his executors. For the heir at law were cited several cases, that where there are no negative world in the will, an express devise of all the personal estate to the executors doth not exempt the personal estate from payment of debts of the testator, though there be a devise of lands to be fold for payment of debts; as LADY GAINSBOROUGH'S CASE in dom. proc. Hungerford's case in dom. proc. Cook v. Moon in dom. proc. Christ's Hospital v. Garroway in Canc. Hale v. Hale in Canc. tempore Cowper C. Decreed that the executors account for the personal estate of the testator, for that is liable to payment of debts in aid of the real estate; and since the personal estate is not sufficient to pay off the debts and mortgage, the lands must be sold, and the money raised by sale to pay the residue of the debts; and the surplus of the money raised by the sale, after the debts paid, to go to the heir; per Hargourt C. MS. Rep. Mich. 12 Ann. in canc. Gale v. Crosts & al'.

were

12. Tho. Davies being seised of lands in see, in consideration of 300 l. by leafe and releafe conveyed the faid land to R. in fee, with a covenant for quiet possession, and also that the said land was free from all incumbrances; and in the faid release there was a proviso, that if the said D. his heirs or assigns, should upon Michaelmas-day, which should be in the year of our Lord 1702, or at any other Michaelmas-day, pay the said 300 l. with the rents and arrears which should grow due for the same, it should be lawful for the faid D. his heirs and assigns to enter; but the said release was without any covenant for payment of the 300 l. The faid D. continued in possession, and paid the interest to R. as it became due. Afterwards D. upon his marriage settled the said land on his wife and the issue of that marriage, and covenanted that it was free from all incumbrances, except the said mortgage to R. Afterwards D. made his will, and thereby gave several legacies to the value of about 26 l. and all the rest of his goods and chattels be gave to his wife and daughter, whom he made his executrixes, and appointed them to pay his debts. D. died, leaving his faid daughter, who was his only child. The daughter died within age, whereby the plaintiff became heir at law to D. and brought his bill against the defendant, formerly the wife of the said D. to have his perfonal estate (which amounted to 600 l. besides the legacy) applied in exoneration of the said land. The defendant's counsel insisted that it ought not to be applied in discharge of the land; 1st, Because the 300 l. was neither a debt in law nor equity; for where there is a debt, there is a method for the recovery of it; but in this case there was none, there being no covenant for the payment of it. 2dly, Because D. had charged his real estate alone with the payment of 300 l. and had disposed of his personal estate otherwise. 3dly, Because the personal estate was given to the daughter who was heir at law, whereby the demand of the aid of the personal estate was extinguished. But Cowper Ld. C. was clear-Iy of opinion that the land was conveyed by D. to R. as a mostgage, because D. had by the proviso reserved to himself, his heirs or assigns, a power of redeeming, and had upon his marriage settled the land as his own, and in the covenant of that deed of settlement called the land conveyed to R. a mortgage; and he was of opinion, that the rent and arrears expressed in the proviso signified the interest of the 300 l. and said, that the word (rent) taken in its largest sense, was not improperly used to denote interest. He was also of opinion that the 300 l. was a debt, wherewith the personal estate of D. was chargeable, though the mortgages was restrained as to the recovery of it, for want of a covenant for payment of it; but that the mortgagor being in possession might have been ejected by the mortgagee, and if the mortgagee had been in possession the 300's. would have been no less a debtupon his having a pledge in hand; and that D. appointing his executrixes to pay his debts, is a proof that he designed them to pay his debts in exoneration of the inheritance, for the redemption whereof he had reserved so large a power by the proviso; and as to the personal estate being discharged by its being given to the heir at lary, he was of opinion it was not, because it was given to ber jointly with the wife; for which reason he decreed that the personal estate should be applied to the exoneration of the real. Several precedents were cited, where only real estates were charged; and yet the personal estates given to others had been applied to the discharge of the real. MS. Rep. Mich. 4 Geo. Powel v. Price.

[469]

settlement

13. Wherever affets are brought in exoneration, there the debt originally charges the personalty. Arg. 9 Mod. 20. Mich.

9 Geo. 1. in Lady Coventry's case.

14. By the constant course of this court where debts by specialty, which are a lien at law on the real estate, are discharged out of the personal assets in ease of the lands, then the creditors by simple contract shall stand in the place of the creditors by specialty, to have their debts satisfied out of the lands; and decreed accordingly, and that the lands be fold for that purpose, and the heir, an infant, to join in a conveyance within fix months after he comes of age. 9 Mod. 151. Trin. 11 Geo. 1. Charles v. Andrews.

15. A. devised to his wife certain houses in bar of dower; and subjest to his legacies, devised to B. his eldest daughter and her heirs one moiety of his real estate, as also one moiety of his personal estate; and in the same words to C. his youngest daughter; and after bequeathed to J. N. his godson 500 l. part of 1000 l. owing to him by J. S. and the residue of the 1000 l. he gave among the brothers and sisters [470] of J. N., &c. Afterwards A. mortgaged the said estate for 3000 l. It was contended that this mortgage, being a debt, must be paid out of the personal estate prior to the specifick legacies, or at least before the pecuniary legacies; and it was admitted by counsel on both sides, that the land being made by the testator himself a fund for payment of the mortgage-money, though the same should be eased against an administrator or residuary legatee, yet it should be eased so as not to disappoint any of the debts, or even legacies given by the will, either specifick or pecuniary. 2 Wms.'s Rep. 328, 329. 335. Hill. 1725. Rider v. Wager.

16. A mortgage shall be paid out of the personal estate in preference to the customary or orphanage part, by the custom of London; Arg. said to have been determined, and the same was admitted by Ld. C. King, because the custom of London cannot take place till after the debts paid. 2 Wms.'s Rep. 335. Hill. 1725.

in case of 'Rider v. Wager.

17. By marriage articles, A. covenanted to settle all his lands in B. within 6 months after request, to the use of himself for life; remainder to trustees to preserve, &c. remainder to his wife for life, remainder to the 1st, &c. son in tail male, remainder to trustees for 500 years, to raise 5000 l. for daughters' portions payable at 18 or marriage. A. covenanted that the lands (which were but 366 l. a year) were 500 l. a year, and gave a bond of 8000 l. for performance of articles. The marriage took effect. The wife died, leaving only one child M. a daughter, no settlement being made. Afterwards A. married again, and settled the greatest part of the lands in B. without giving notice of the articles, and had iffue B. a son, and E. a daughter. A. died intestate, leaving M. B. and E. living, and a personal estate of 20000 l. The master of the rolls held that this 5000 l. was not a debt due from the intestate, or to be paid out of his personal estate; for notwithstanding the bond, there is no covenant for payment of the 5000 %. but the covenant was to settle lands, and to raise a term of 500 years for securing the 5000 l. And that the want of making request, shall not prejudice the cesty que trust, and the rather, because she was an infant. And though the covenant had been absolute to settle within 6 months, and likewise a covenant to pay the 5000 l. yet resort should be to the land first, and afterwards in case of deficiency to the personal estate; for the articles to settle particular lands, are in equity a settlement, and A. from that time became a trustee for the trusts in the articles, and is not like a mortgage, where the land is only a pledge for the money borrowed. But the land actually settled by A. on his 2d marriage without notice, (though it was a breach of trust in A.) shall not be liable to the articles. 2 Wms.'s Rep. 437. Hill. 1727. Edwards v. Freeman.

18. A. tenant for life, remainder to B. bis son in tail expedient on death of A.'s wife as to part, and as to other part, expectant on the death of A. charges by will the reversion in see of all the estate, with payment of his debts. The personal estate was very deficient. A. dies, living the wife. B. attained his age of 21 and levied a fine to the use of himself and his heirs, and after B. had received the rents of the surplus of estate, not in jointure, for 2 years, he died intestate and unmarried. The estate descended to W.R. and his mother administered to B. It was infifted that by the fine levied by B. the estate tail was extinguished and consolidated with the reversion or remainder in see in W. R. and that the plaintiffs, the creditors, title to demand their debts then attached upon the estate, and cited I Salk. 333. SIMMONDS V. CUDMORE, and therefore that the rents and profits received by B. should be applied towards satisfaction of the creditors, and by confequence consequence that the wife being plaintiff and administratrix to B. had affets in her own hands. But the court held clearly that the rents and profits received by B. of his own estate, whereof he was then owner, should not be applicable to satisfy creditors till a demand made, because till then he did no wrong in receiving the rents and profits of his own estate. Equ. Abr. 140, 141. Mich. 1728. Countess of Warwick v. Edwards.——And cites as lately decreed in case of Mountague v. Bord.

ment (A)

19. The testator devises as to all his worldly estate, that his debts be paid within a year after his decease; and then devises his real estate to trustees for a term in trust for his wife for life, remainder to his fons successively in tail male, and gives several legacies; per Ld. Chancellor, the real estate is chargeable with the debts, in case the personal estate be desicient. Cases in Equ. in Ld. Talbot's

Time, 110. Trin. 1735. Hatton v. Nichol.

(F) Apportioned. In what Cases.

B. Had issue C. a son by the 1st venter, and D. and E. 2 sons See tit. Ap-and 6 daughters by his 2d wise, and settles land on D. in portiontail male, remainder to E. remainder to C. his eldest son by his first wife, provided that if the land come to his eldest son, that he or his beirs should pay 1000 l. to testator's daughters within 4 months after the estate should come to them; and in default, the trustees to enter and raise the money. C. dies, leaving F. a son. D. and E. died without issue, but one of them suffered a recovery of the moiety of the lands, so that a moiety only comes to B. the mother having a moiety in jointure to her, and made no furrender thereof; per cur. the 1000l. is a legal subsisting charge, and the daughters claim not under, but paramount, the son that suffered the common recovery; and though the estate never came to C. the eldest son, and only a moiety came to F. his son, yet there must be no apportionment, but the daughters are intitled to the whole 1000l. 2 Vern. 359. pl. 324. Mich. 1698. Hooley v. Booth.

(G) Charge. When discharged.

I. ANDS devised to be fold for payment of legacies of 2001. and 3001. devisee sold for 5001. and he having enjoyed the lands fix years, and his vendee 22 years, in all 28 years without any demand, it was decreed against the legatees and their bill dismissed. Fin. R. 316. Mich. 29 Car. 2. Cusse v. Ash.

2. A. devised lands to, &c. and says, if C. or his heirs shall enjoy the lands, then he or they shall, in respect thereof, pay 200 l. to a charity, &c. and the 200 l. to be paid within 21 years after they come into possession. The lands came to the possession of C. who enjoyed

VOL. IV. O o them several years, and then sold them to D. who had quiet per session 40 years before the demand, but had notice of the charge; per Ld. Chan, had this been a rent-charge, it would have been always chargeable on the land, but this is of a sum in gross, to be paid together and at one time; but directed to amend the bill, if plaintiff would, and make the executors, &c. * parties, who perhaps may have paid the money. Fin. R. 336. Hill. 30 Car. 2. Attorney-general, for Ashford parish in Kent, v. Twisden.

3. The father on marriage charges lands with payment of daughters portions, has a daughter and devised the land to a nephew. The daughter marries J. S. They release the portion to the nephew, and the nephew covenants that it is in trust for the husband and wife, and to continue the money in his hands at interest, or place it out on security. The nephew sells the lands with notice of the original charge. Decreed that the lands are still liable to the portion. 2 Ch. R. 173. 31 Car. 2. Tucker v. Searle.

4. A. by will gives 3000 l. to his younger children, secured by mortgage from B. and declares, that if his eldest son does not pay this 3000 l. then his lands shall go to his younger children. B. brings a bill to redeem and to pay in his mortgage money; there is a decree, and B. pays it in pursuant, the master puts it out on a had security, the eldest son shall not be compelled to pay it over again to the younger children. Vern. 336. pl. 331. Mich. 1685. Oldsield v. Oldsield.

So where a device of lands is to trustees and their beirs, for payment

5. If a lease be made in trust to pay debts, and after the lessor dies, the heir paying the debts shall be relieved against the lease and set it aside; per Ld. Chan. 2 Chan. Cases, 172. Hill. I Jac. 2. in case of Bodmin v. Vandebenden.

of debts and legacies, there is a resulting trust for the heir, and he may properly come into court and offer to pay the debts and legacies, and pray a conveyance of the whole estate to him; for the devices are only trustees for testator to pay his debts and legacies. 9 Mod. 171. Roper v. Radcliss, in domproc.——So of a residuary legatee. Ibid.

6. When the lands of the heir are charged for payment of portions to infants at 21 or marriage, they shall not be discharged before that time, nor shall a real security for infants portions be turned into a personal security where the lands are originally charged; but where the lands are only supplementally charged, it is otherwise; per Jesseries C. Vern. 338. pl. 331. Mich. 1685. Oldsield v. Oldsield.

But where the deed expressly provided that the term was to cease on the money being raised; it was held that the land was discharged.

- 7. Land was conveyed to J. S. in trust to raise and pay 500 l. to B. the trustee enters and raised the 500 l. and afterwards becomes insolvent, but before he became so, B. took a judgment from bim to pay the 500 l. when raised. The words being to raise and pay, the master of the rolls doubted, and took time to consider, and would look into the trust-deed and deseasance of the judgment. 2 Vern. 85. pl. 82. Mich. 1688. Harrison v. Cage.

  1 Ibid. cites Goddard v. Bowman.
- 8. Grand-father tenant for life, remainder to his first son in tail, remainder over with power to charge the estate with annuity of 250 l. per ann. for 4 years. He charged the premises with 250 l. per ann. for 4 years to begin after the decease in trust to raise 1000 L. part to be paid to A. and the other part to the plaintiff B. and dies. The son pays A. his part. A. delivers up the deeds, and they are suppressed. The son takes the profits for 4 years and more, and leaves a daughter his heir at law, but no personal affets; per Lds. Commissioners, the lands shall be liable in the bands of the daughter, though the 4 years are expired, and though the person is dead that received those profits and should have paid the money in question. 2 Vern. R. 178. pl. 162. Mich. 1690. Smith v. Smith & Holt & al'.

9. Even at law, if the heir took the profits which should be applied for payments of debts, the lands shall still remain charged therewith; per Lds. Commissioners. 2 Vern. 181. in pl. 162.

Mich. 1690. cites Corbert's case, 4 Rep. 81. b. 82.

10. A. devised to M. his daughter 500 l. and then devised to B. his fon and his heirs an advowson, on condition that B. give bond to pay M. this legacy of 500 l. according to his will. B. died in the life of A. Per cur. this is a good equitable charge subsisting, notwithstanding the death of B. For if he had been living, and had refused to give bond for the payment of the 500 l. as directed by will, the advowson should be chargeable. N. Ch. R. 175. Mich. 1691. Webb v. Sutton.

11. A. devised the rents and profits of his lands till B. attain 21, or marry, towards payment of his debts; and if B. die before 21, or . without iffue, my debts being paid, then he devised the same to J. S. in tail, he paying 100 l. to C.—B. dies before 21, without issue. The profits to the time that B. would have been 21, would not be sufficient to pay the debts. It was decreed per 2 lords commissioners, Rawlinson and Hutchins, that the profits should be liable to payment of the debts beyond the age of 21, till the debts should be paid. But Ld. Rawlinson held that was only by reason of the last words; but Ld. Hutchins held that it would be the same without them. Chan. Prec. 34. pl. 36. Mich. 1691. Martin v. Woodgate.

12. By descent of the inheritance of lands, out of which a term 2 Freem. for 500 years was created for raising a portion of 5000 l. for A. on Rep. 207. whom the inheritance descended, who died under 21 unmarried, S. C. the land is not discharged; but the 5000 l. remains still a subsisting charge on the estate; per Somers C. and affirmed in dom. proc. 2 Vern. 348. pl. 320. Hill. 1697. Thomas v. Keymish.

13. A. devised an annuity of 100 l. per ann. to B. for life, to be issuing out of the rents and profits of Bl. Acre, with clause of distress; and devised Wh. Acre, and also Bl. Acre, charged with the said annuity to C. and his heirs. The lands charged were but 50 l. per ann. and B. had entered and taken the profits during his life, and devised the arrears to M. And it was decreed for M. For the intent was that B. should have 100 l. per ann. And a devise of the rents, or of the profits of lands, is a devise of the lands themselves, and the court will decree a sale where lands are charged to raile portions, and the profits will not do it; and the devise of Bl.

[473]

Bl. Acre, charged with the annuity, charges it in his hands by the faid words; for it could not be charged before. Chanc. Prec. 122. pl. 106. Mich. 1700. Foster v. Foster.

14. Interest-money of a mostgage secured by bond, is only a further security, and does not discharge the land; per master of the rolls.

Chan. Prec. 132. pl. 116. Mich. 1700. Barret v. Wells.

A. devised that his executors should receive the profit of his whole real

15. Where lands are devised to trustees to raise money for several purposes, and they raise it out of the profits, the land is thereby discharged, and the persons concerned must resort to the trustees; per Ld. Keeper Wright. Chan. Prec. 143. pl. 124. Hill. 1700. Juxon v. Brian.

estate for payment of debts and legacies, and after those paid, he devised his estate to B. The executors misapplied the profits. Ld. C. Parker held that this uncertain interest should determine at such time as they might have paid the debts, &c. if they had duly applied the rents, &c. and only the executors are liable. Wms.'s Rep. 505. 518. Mich. 1718. Carter v. Barnardiston.

Chan. Prec. 162.pl. 134. S. C. de-creed accordingly.

- 16. Lands devised to trustees and their heirs to sell, and pay legacies, and among the rest a legacy to the heir of 100 l. but no disposition is made of the surplus. Per cur. no more shall be sold than is necessary for payment of the legacies, and the heir shall have the surplus. 2 Vern. 425. pl. 386. Pasch. 1701. Randall v. Bookey.
- 17. 3000l. to be raised out of land by virtue of a power to A. and a lease raised to trustees for that purpose was assigned to new trustees for a collateral security of a lease for 99 years made by A. and that the said trust should remain during the term. A. bequeathed the 3000 l. to M. his daughter, subject to the said collateral trust.

  [474] And per Ld. Wright, if the 3000 l. had been made a collateral security generally, the court would discharge in reasonable time, as here in 7 years time, if the party did not shew probable cause of fear of eviction, and shew by whom; but this being expressly ordered to continue, they could not do it; and decreed 3000 l. to the trustee of the lessee to stand his security, to be laid out at interest on such security as the master should approve of, liable to the lady's claim, in case there should be no eviction.

  12 Mod. 614. cited per Holt Ch. J. Hill. 13 W. 3. as Lord Cornwallis's case.
  - 18. In a marriage-settlement the term raised for daughters portions at their ages of 17, provided that if the said A. should bave issue male upon the body of the said M. that should attain the age of 21, or should marry, or if the said A. shall have no daughters, or if the perfon inheritable shall pay off the portions intended to be raised, the term shall cease. It happened that A. had a son that attained the age of 21. Decreed, that the term cease, and the daughters lost their portions; though it was urged that the meaning must be, that if he had a son he should not pay till he arrived at 21 years, which was enough in savour of the heir. MS. Tab. Feb. 12, 1706. Colt v. Arnold.
  - 19. A. made a lease for 21 years to B. for payment of his debts and legacies; and by a will made at the same time, rectting that he had made such lease, devised the lands after the expiration of the said lease to C. who was his beir, and made B, executor. A. lived

12 years

12 years after, and paid the debts himself, and the personal estate was sufficient for the legacies. C. brought a bill for an account of the profits, and the lease to be delivered up, the trust being performed; but Ld. Keeper Wright thought he had no equity, and that the reversion only was devised after the expiration of the said lease. Chan. Prec. 218. pl. 178. Pasch. 1703. Bushnell v. Parsons.

20. A. pursuant to marriage-articles, settled lands on himself for Chan. Prec. life, remainder to his wife for life, remainder to the first, &c. son, &c. remainder to trustees for 120 years to raise 1500 l. for daughters on failure of issue male, remainder to bimself in fee. The trust of the term was declared to be to raise the 1500 l. out of the rents and profits; as well by leafing for I, 2, or 3 lives, or any number of lords, tho years determinable thereon, or for 21 years absolutely at the old rent. There was only one child, viz. a daughter named M. [and it seems that the wife was dead, though not mentioned.] After- very hard wards A. settled the reversion expectant on his own death without issue male, subject to the 120 years term, in trustees for 10 years, Rep. 21. 38 remainder to B. his nephew for life, remainder to bis first, &c. the end of son in tail male, remainder to C. grandson of A. and son of M, in tail male, remainder to bimself in fee. The 10 years term was, that if M. and her husband would release the 1500 l. then the trustees should raise 1900 l. viz. 1500 l. to be vested in land for the benefit of M. and her husband, and the other 4001, to be paid to the husband himself. A. died without issue, leaving C, his executor, M.'s 1500 l. not being paid. B. entered and enjoyed for 4 years, the portion not yet paid. The surviving trustee died, to whom M. administered, and then M. and her husband and B. assigned the 120 years term to J. S. who advanced the 1500 l. B. enjoyed the land 7 years, and died without issue male, leaving no assets. The question was, whether the money could be raised by mortgage, or any other way by the words of the trust, than by leasing or by the annual profits? Ld. C. Macclesfield said, that here was no time appointed for raifing this portion, and therefore is due when the profits can raise it, and it carries no interest; but when the sum of 1500 l. is, or might have been, raised by the profits, then it becomes due, and the land is discharged as having borne, its burthen; that the profits received by B. are as received by J. S. the mortgagee, because it is said in the last clause in the mortgage deed, that it should be lawful for B, to take the profits without account until default of payment; so that by this clause B. was tenant at will to the mortgagee, which makes it all one as if J. S. had let it to any other person, and so not pursuant to the trust, and so much as has been received of the profits must go towards the payment and finking of the portion only, here having been a power of leasing, and the intention having been to charge the land as far as may be, 2 Wms,'s Rep. 13 to 21. Pasch, 1722. Ivy v, Genetic.

583. S. C. —This decree was afterwards affirmed in the house of (the reporter fays it was) thought a 2 Wms.'s #### (H) Sunk by Perception of Profits.

1. Dward Loyd, on his marriage, settled several lands to the L use of himself for life, as to part to his wife for jointure, remainder to first and other sons of that marriage, and in default of issue male to the daughter and daughters of that marriage, and their heirs, until the remainder-man, to whom the estate was to go, according to the limitations of that settlement, should pay and satisfy unto the daughter 3000 l. remainder to the heirs of his body, &c. He bad issue a son by that marriage, and 4 daughters. The son died in the life-time of Edward Loyd, leaving a daughter. E. L. asterwards suffered a common recovery, and made a settlement upon that marriage, and thereby charged the premises with other lands with the raising 3000 l. more. The daughters entered. The plaintiss were creditors by judgment, and their bill was to be let into a satisfaction, subject to those charges of 3000 L and 3000 L and in exoneration thereof, to have an account of the rents and profits. Decreed at the rolls, that they should account for the profits, and that the rents should be applied first to pay the interest, and then to sink the principal, as in case of a common mortgage; and this decree was affirmed by the ld. chancellor, with this variation, that the principal should not be sunk till a third part was raised, above the interest, and so again not to fink the principal till another 1000 l. be raised. 2 Vern. 523. pl. 473. Mich. 1705. and ibid. 576. pl. 521. Hill. 1706. Blagrave v. Clunn.

(I) Good or not. In respect of the Possession, &c. or want of Possession, &c. in the Person charging it.

1. I T was agreed that he in reversion may charge it, and sell take effect after the death of tenant for life; contrary of a patron. Br. Charge, pl. 11. cites 38 E. 3. 4.

2. A man leased land for term of years, and after granted a restcharge extra terram illam of 20 s. per ann. The termor shall hold it discharged; but if the termor surrendered to him in reversion who charged, there he shall hold charged, though 20 years of the term be to come; for the surrender made the lessor in, as if no term bed been; by the best opinion. Br. Charge, pl. 10. cites 5 H. 5. 8.

3. If land is leased to one for life, the remainder in tail, remainder to the heirs of the tenant for life, and the tenant for life grants a rent-charge in see, and dies, and the tenant in tail dies without issue, the heir of the tenant for life shall hold the land charged. Br. Charge, pl. 36. cites 5 E. 4. 2.

13

[476]

4 A

4. A man leased for life, and granted the reversion or remainder over to J. N. who charged the land and died, and the tenant for life is beir to bim to the fee, he shall hold discharged; for he bath the possession by purchase, though he bath the fee by descent, and yet the franktenement is extinct in the fee. Quære. Br. Charge, pl. 16. cites 9 E. 4. 18.

5. A man cannot grant or charge that which be hath not. Perk.

f. 65.

6. And therefore if a man grants a rent-charge out of the manor of Dale, and in truth he hath not any thing in the manor of Dale, and after he purchases the manor of Dale, yet he shall hold it discharged. Perk. f. 65.

7. Also a man cannot charge a right, for it shall be a good plea for him to fay against such grant by master in fait, that he had not any thing in the land at the time of the grant; but in such case if the grants had been by fine executory, the law is contrary. Perk. 1. 65.

For more of Charge in general, see Contribution, Devile, Erecutors, Grants, Jointenant, Mortyage, Rent, and other proper titles.

Charitable Uses.

(A) By the Statute of 43 Eliz.

1. 43 Eliz. cap. 4. W Hereas lands, tenements, rents, annuities, † Aschool, f. 1. profits, bereditaments, goods and stocks of unless it be a money bave been given, * limited, appointed, and assigned for relief is not a chaof aged, impotent and poor people, for maintenance of sick mained fol- rity within diers and mariners, + schools of learning, free-schools, and scholars of the statute in universities, for repair of bridges, ports, bavens, causeways, of Q. Eliz. churches, sea-banks and highways, for education and preferment of and conseorphans, for stock or maintenance of houses of correction, for marriages of poor maids, for help of young tradesmen, handicrastismen, and persons decayed, and for relief or redemption of prisoners, and for aid of poor inhabitants, concerning payments of fifteenths, setting out of soldiers, and other taxes, which lands, hereditaments, goods and flocks ral's name. bave not been employed according to the charitable intent of the givers;

Mich. 1700. Attorney-General, at the relation of the Inhabitants of Clapham, v. Hewer. These words (limited, appointed, and assigned) are very material words, though omitted in the Abridgments of the Statutes; and as to constructions upon them, see letter (B).

of the statute

quently the inhabitants have not a right to fue in the attorney-gene-

pl. 355.

2 Vern. 387.

For remedy whereof it shall be lawful for the lord chancellor, and * Concerning these for the chancellor of the dutchy for lands within the county palatine commilof Lancaster, to award * commissions to the bishop of every several disions, these 6 ocese and his chancellor, and to other persons, authorizing them, or things are to be observed. any four of them, to enquire as well by the oaths of 12 men of the First, The + county, as by all other lawful ways, of all such gifts aforesaid, and number must be 4 or more of the abuses, breaches of trust, negligences, mis-employments, not imcommission- ploying, concealing, defrauding, mis-converting, or mis-government of adly, The ers to be the any lands, goods or stock given for any the charitable uses before rehearsed; and the commissioners upon calling the parties interested, shall bishop and chancellor of make enquiry by the oaths of 12 of the county (whereunto the parties that diocese interested may take their challenges), and upon such enquiry set down (if there be such orders, judgments and decrees as the said lands, goods and stocks a bishop), and other may be duly employed for such charitable uses for which they were persons of given; which orders, &e. not being repugnant to the orders, flatutes good and found behaor decrees of the donors, shall stand good, and shall be executed until viour. 3dly, In that com. the same be altered by the lord chancellor, or the chancellor of the county mission, any palatine of Lancaster respectively, upon complaint by any party 4 of them do grieved. Suffice to make orders and decrees, for therein none is of the quorum. 4thly, None shall be commissioners that bave any part of the lands, &c. or goods or chattles, money or stocks, in question. 5thly, The commission is to limit a certain time, within which the commissioners are to order, decree, and certify. 6thly, Their authority is to inquire as well by the oath of 12 lawful men or more, as by all other good ways and means. 2 Inft. 710.

And the commissioners have power also to enquire of these 9 things. 1st, Of abuses. 2dly, Breaches of trust. 3dly, Negligences. 4thly, Mis-employments. 5thly, Not employing. Ethly, Concealing. 7thly, Defrauding. 8thly, Misconverting. 9thly, Mis-government of any lands, tenements, foners fat at Rugby to inquire, and held not good. Toth, 92. 2 Jac. Rugby School's case.—Duke's Char. Uses, 80. pl. 24. S. C. upon breach of the trust, a commission was taken out in Warwickshire, to enquire of this gift; and by a jury there, the gift and breach of trust was found, and a decree made by the commissioners in that county, to settle the lands according to the donor's will; and upon an appeal the decree was reversed; for the inquisition and decree was not made, nor found by jurers, and commissioners of the county where the lands given to such uses do lie. The words of the statute are, to enquire by the oaths of 12 men or more of the county, of such gifts, limitations, and appointments, and of the breaches of trust of such lands or goods, &c. which is intended to be by jury and commissioners of that county where the lands do lie.—Ibid. 118. pl. 2. S. P.——See ibid. 126, pl. 36. S. P.

&c. goods, money, &c. given to any of the charitable uses aforesaid. 2 Inst. 711.

This act 2. S. 2. This act shall not extend to any lands, goods or stocks given does not extend to all to any college, hall, or house of learning within the universities, and to lands, &c. the colleges of Westminster, Eton or Winchester, or to any cathedral or nor to all collegiate church.

chattles, money or to any lands or tenements given to the use aforesaid, within any such to any of the charitable uses aforewerners, or overseers appointed by their founders.

taid; but certain are excepted in these 8 several cases, viz. 1st, Of the colleges, halls, or houses of learning, in either of the universities. 2dly, Of the college of Westminster. 3dly, Of the college of Eston-4thly, Of the college of Winchester. 5thly, Of any city or town corporate, where there is a special governor or governors of such lands, &c. 6thly, Of any college, hospital, or free-school, which have special visitors or governors, or overseers appointed to them by their founders. 2 Inst. 211.

I If land is given to a corporation, or other particular persons, to perform a charitable use, and the donor appoints them visuous also of the use according to his intent; if the said visitors do break the trust, either in detaining part of the revenue, mis-employing, or any other ways desirating, the charitable nje ;

eft; this may be restored by decree of the commissioners, notwithstanding the statute of 43 Elis. which disables commissioners to meddle with lands given to the charitable uses, where special visitors are appointed; for the intent of the flatute is to dif.ble commissioners to meddle with such a case, where The land is given to persons in trust to perform a charitable use, and the donor appoints special wisiters to see those trustees to perform the use according to his intent; if the trustees defraud the trust, the commissioners cannot meddle, but the visitors are to perform it; but where the visitors are trustees also, there the commissioners may by their decree resorm the abuse of the charitable use; resolved by Ld. Coventry. Duke's Char. Uses, 68, 69. pl. 6. Hill. 11 Car. Sutton Colesield's case. ____ Ibid. 124. pl. 26. S. C. in totidem verbis.

4. S. 4. This act shall not be prejudicial to the jurisdiction of the ordinary.

5. S. 5. No persons that shall have any of the said lands, goods, or flocks, or shall pretend title thereunto, shall be named a commissioner or a juror, or shall serve in the same.

6. S. 6. Persons which shall purchase upon valuable consideration of money or land, any estate or interest in any lands, or chattles that shall be given to any the charitable uses above mentioned without fraud, baving no notice of the same charitable use, shall not be impeached by decrees of the commissioners, and yet the commissioners may make decrees and orders for recompence to be made by any persons who being put in trust, for valuable er having notice of the charitable uses above mentioned, shall break the fame trust, or defraud the same uses against the heirs, executors, or edministrators, of them having equity.

This act does not extend to lands of purchasors having these 3 qualitics; 1st, confideration of money or land. adly, Without fraud or covin. 3dly, Having no notice of the same charitable use. But albeit the commissioners cannot make any decree against any such purchasors, yet may they make decrees for recompence to be made by any person or persons, who being put in trust, or having notice of the charitable uses abovesaid, have or shall break the faid trust, or defraud the same uses by any conveyance, gift, grant, lease, release, or conversion. against his or their heirs, executors, and administrators, having affets in law or equity, so far as the said assets will extend. 2 Inst. 711.

If lands be given to a charitable use, and to dispose of an overplus; if the purchasor had no notice, it cannot bind, but if rest iffue out of land, the purchasor must pay it, but will not charge him to pay arrearages before purchase, nor lay it upon one, nor excuse the other. Toth. 95, 96. cites Mich.

34 Car. Peacock v. Tewer. ——Duke of Char. Uses, 82. pl. 33. S. C.

Lands were charged by will with 2001, to be paid within 2 years to a charity. T. after the devisor's death, purchased the land with notice of the charge, and after 40 years quiet enjoyment and a settlement made by the purchasor on his son's marriage, a demand was made of this 2001. But hecause the executors or administrators of the devisor were not made parties, the Ld. Chancellor would not direct a trial at law upon the point of notice, nor make any decree; belides the demand was not in nature of a gent-charge, which will always be chargeable on the land, into whose hands soever the same shall come, but it was of a furn in gross to be paid together and at one time, and this land having been enjoyed by several persons since his will, it does not appear but that the money may be paid; and ordered that plaintiff be at liberty to amend his bill, and make proper parties, and to bring the cause to a hearing again as he should be advised. Fin. Rep. 336. Hill. 30 Car. 2. Attorney-General v. Twisden.

7. S. 7. This act shall not give power to any commissioners to make orders concerning any manors or hereditaments granted unto the queen, to king Henry the eighth, king Edward the fixth, or queen Mary. And get if any such manors, or hereditaments, or any profits out of the fame, have been given for any of the charitable uses before expressed, since the beginning of her majesty's reign, the commissioners may proceed to enquire and make orders and decrees according to this act, the last mentioned proviso notwithstanding.

This act does not extend to lands of purchasors of lands, tenements and hereditamens, affured, conveyed, or come to queen Elizabeth. H. 8 Ed. 6. or queen Mary, by act of parliament, surrender, exchange, relinquishment, escheat, attornment, conveyance, or otherwise. But if such manors, lands, &c. have fince the beginning of queen Elizabeth's reign been given, &c. to any of the charitable uses before expressed, then this act doth extend to the same. 2 Inft. 711.

Concerning the certification of the certification o to be observed. 1st, That they certify their order and decree respectively, either into the court of chancery of England, or into the chancery of the county palatine of Lancaster, as the case shall require.

2dly, That it ought to be in parchment, under the bands and seals of the commissioners. 3dly, It must be within the time limited in the commission. 4thly, That the lord chancellor or lord keeper, and the said chancellor of the dutchy, shall, and may within their several jurisdictions, take such order for the due execution of all or any of the said judgments, decrees and orders so certified, as to either of them shall seem sit and convenient. 2 Inst. 711.

9. S. 9. The lord chancellor, and the chancellor of the dutchy, may take order for the due execution of the said decrees and orders.

10. S. 10. If, after any such certificate made, any persons shall find In the remedy for the themselves grieved with any of the said orders or decrees, it shall be · party grievlawful for them to complain to the lord chancellor, or the chancellor of ed with such the dutchy, according to their several jurisdiction; and the said level decrees so certified, chancellor, or chancellor of the dutchy, may proceed to the examination, these 5 bearing, and determining thereof, and adnul, alter, or enlarge the faid things are to orders and decrees of the commissioners, according to the intent of the be confidered. 1st, donors; and shall tax costs against such persons as shall complain with-That he out cause. complain to the lord ebancellor, or lord keeper, or to the chancellor of the dutchy, according to their feveral jurifdictions, for redrefs thereof; and this complaint is to be by bill. 2dly, Upon such complaint, first they shall respectively, by such course as to their wisdoms shall seem meetest, the circumstance of the case considered, proceed to the examination, bearing, and determining thereof; 2. Upon hearing thereof, shall or may adnul the embols (which rarely is done), diminish (in part) or enlarge (that is to consist the former, and to enlarge the same by adding something thereunto) the judgment and decrees so certified.

3dly, As shall be thought to stand with equity and good conscience. 4thly, According to the true intent and meaning of the donors and sounders thereof. 5thly, And shall and may tax and sward good costs of suit by their discretion (respectively) against such persons as shall complain to them respectively woithout just and sufficient cause, of the orders, judgments, and decrees before mentioned. But this erder being given and similar by act of parliament, no costs (if the order, judgment, or decree be admitted, diminished, or enlarged) ought to be given to the party complaining. 2 Inst. 711, 712.

(B) Established, though the Conveyance was desective.

r. DEVISE ecclesiae Sanchi Andreae de Holbourn. The parson shall take, and yet the church is not persona capax, but the intent appears. Pl. C. 523. b. Hill, 20 Eliz. in case of Welkden v. Elkington.

2. A copyhold may be charged with a charitable use. Toth. 92.

Char. Uses, 41 Eliz. Kensham's case.

Duke's

cites S. C.

Canc. S. C.

Mo. 822,
3. Devise to a charity by a feme covert administratrix, was held
823. pl.
1111. 12
good. 2 Vern. 454. cites Mo. 822. Damus's case.
Jac. in

A devise to 4. A devise of lands held in capite was made to the principal, the company fellows, and scholars of Jesus College in Oxford, to find a scholar of the the blood of the testator from time to time. Upon a reference to Hobart Ch. J. and the Ch. Baron, they agreed that the devise was void in law, because the statute of wills did not allow devises to corporations in mortmain, yet they held it clearly within the relief of 43 Eliz. under the words (limited and appointed); and so it was decreed, that the college should enjoy it against the ward and his heirs; and they held also, that the proviso in the statute exempting colleges, is only intended to exempt them from being reformed by commission, but not to restrain gifts made to Hob. 183. Hill. 13 Jac. Flood's, alias Lloyd's, case.

fellers, London, for a charitable ule, was held a good devise. Toth. 92. Trin. 5 Car. Hellam's case. --- Duke's Char. Uses, 80. pl. 23. cites S. C. upon a decree by commissioners to settle the lands upon the company. An appeal was, and exception taken, For that the company of leathersellers was a corporation, and the statute of wills does except devises of land to a corporation. But the decree was confirmed, there being many precedents for it.

[480]

5. A will of copyhold lands of inheritance to A. and his heirs, without any surrender before or after the will, was decreed good by the stat. 43 El. 4. but per Ld. Chancellor, the lord of the copyhold shall have his duties always of fines, beriots, &c. of the heir or purchasor, in whose name the interest of the copyhold rests in law, and that allowance shall be made of it out of the It has been charitable use. Mo. 890. pl. 1253. Rivet's oase.

S. C. cited 2 Vern. 454. Mich. 1703. pl. 416.— See S. C, in Duke, 74, 75, 76. generally held that the statute 43 Eliz. Supplies all defects of assurances, where the donor is of capacity to dispose, and has such on estate as is any eways devisable by him; and upon this ground it hath been held, that if a copyholder doth dispose of copyhold lands to a charitable use without a surrender, or if tenants in tail do convey land to a charitable use without a fine, or if a reversion be granted without attornment or inrolment, and divers other the like cases, yet these desects are supplied by the statute of 43 Eliz. because the donor had a disposing power of the estate, and this is a good limitation and appointment within this statute. Duke's Char, Uses, 84. pl. 40. Christ-Hospital v. Hawes.

6, If an infant, lunatic, or other person who has not capacity to dispose of an estate, shall grant to a charitable use, this defect is not supplied by the statute. Duke's Char. Uses, 85. pl. 40. in case of Christ's Hospital v. Hawes, cites it as resolved, Hob. 136. 15 Jac. in Collinson's case.

Duke's Char. Uses, 78. in pl. 17. citas S. C.— Ibid. 110. cites 5. C.

& S. P. and adds feme covert. ——Hob. 136. pl. 184. S. C.

7. C. 15 H. 8. devised a house in Eltham, in Kent, to L. his Mo. 888. swife for life, and after her death to J. B. and others, feoffees (as he called them) in the said bouse, to keep it in reparations, and to bestow the rest of the profits upon the reparations of certain highways there. C. and his wife are dead, and the house descended to O. R. an infant. This case being in chancery, between the parishioners and R. was referred by the court to the Ld. Hobbard, and the Ld. Ch. B. Tanfield, who resolved it clearly, that though the devise was utterly void, yet it was within the words (limited and appointed to charitable uses;) otherwise if he were one who had appointed what was not his own to charitable uses. Hob. 136. pl. 184. Pasch. 15 Jac. Collison's case.

pl. 1251. Rolt's case, S. C. The question was because this will was made before the stat. 32 H. 8. and the land not in use, whether it were a limitation, appointment, or assignment within the stat. 43 Eliz. and that it was referred to Mountague Ch. J. and Hobert, who certifying that it was a limitation or appointment to a charitable use, to be relieved by the stat. 43 Eliz. cap. 4. the Ld. Chancellor confirmed the decree.

The charity of judges have carried several cases on the 43 Eliz. great lengths, and this occasioned the diffinition between operating by will and by appointment, which surely the makers of the statute never thought though: of; per Ld. C. Cowper. Chan. Prec. 272. Mich. 1708. The Attorney-General for Sidney College v. Baines.——G. Equ. Rep. 5. S. C.

8. If a man conveys 2 parts of his lands which he held in capite, for a valuable confideration, and then devises the remaining 3d part to a charity, this is void, and not helped by the statute; because, in the instant of his death, this 3d part descends to the heir, and he having disposed the other two parts, has no power by the common law, and is disabled by the statute of wills to devise the other part. Duke's Char. Uses, 78. pl. 18. in 17 Jac. Ld. Mountague's case.

Devise by 9. If tenant in tail gives land to charitable uses, the issue is tenant in tail barred; for the saving in the stat. 39 Eliz. cap. 5. excludes him.

uses was de- Arg. Godb. 309. Pasch. 21 Jac. creed to be a good appointment, though no fine was levied or recovery suffered. 2 Vern. 453. pl. 416. Mich. 1703. The Attorney-General and Pettifer v. Rye, Warwick, & al'. ——And the remainder-man shall be bound by a settlement to charitable uses as well as the issue in tail, and a decree made by the commissioners was confirmed with costs. Chan, Prec. 16. Tay v. Slaughter. ——The statute of 43 Eliz. herein restored the common law, and at common law was no fine or recovery. G. Equ. Rep. 45. Jenner v. Harper. ——Chan. Prec. 391. Trin. 1714. S. C. & S. P.

[ 481 ]

10. The testator being seised in see of a manor held in capite, Jo. 428. pl. 12. Afcough devised it to be fold by his executors, and that part of the money v. Phillips, arising by such sale should be paid to his wife, and part in several S. C. but S. P. does other legacies, and the residue to be bestowed in charitable uses. Upon not appear; a reference to the justices of B. R. from the court of wards, the but resolved, question was, whether this was a good conveyance within the that the devile of the stat. 43 Eliz. because there was no disposition of the land to charitable 3d part is uses, but only an appointment that the land should be sold, and the money void in law divided as aforesaid; and resolved that it was not. Cro. C. 525. against the heir, notpl. 4. Hill. 14 Car. Ascough's case. withstanding the statute of charitable uses. —— Cro. C. 525. S. P.

11. A feme covert makes a will of 30 s. per ann. to a charitable use, out of some of her own lands; and though an award was made that it shall be paid, and bonds given to perform the same, yet the heir is not bound to perform the same. Toth. 96. cites Trin. 15 Car. Bramble v. the Poor of Havering.

12. Money given to a parish generally, and not said to what use, decreed to the poor of the parish. Chan. Cases, 134, 135. Mich. 21 Car. 2. West, and the Churchwardens and Overseers of the Poor, &c. of Great Creaton, v. Knight.

13. Where a devise was of lands to Trinity College in Cambridge, for the maintenance of a fellow there, and that if any by cavil should hinder this devise, or that the same cannot go to the college by reason of the statute of mortmain, then he devised the same to R. N. and his heirs; and upon an information exhibited against R. N. by the attorney-general to have this land established in the college, it was decreed accordingly, notwithstanding the said statute of mortmain, and the said clause in the will. Lev. 284. Hill. 21 & 22 Car. 2, in canc. The King v. Newman.

14. M,

Rep. 68.

S. C. accordingly.

-2 Vern. 454. S..C.

cited as de-

14. M. devised 371. per ann. to charitable uses, out of the, 3 Chan. manor of W. which was held in capite. Exception was taken that the manor being held in capite, the testator could charge only 2 parts in 3 by his will, which would not amount to 37 l. a year. But the court held the whole chargeable by the will, by the stat. 43 Eliz. which was an enabling statute, and that the testator had creed good. only mistaken the manner of the conveyance; for had he done it by grant, it had been good for the whole, and being by will, the statute made it a good appointment for the whole in like manner. Nelf. Ch. Rep. 146. in 22 Car. 2. Higgins v. the Poor of Southampton.

15. Though a charity was precedent to the stat. 43 Eliz. cap. 4. yet the statute subsequent had a retrospect, and would make it a good appointment, though it was not so before (but void). Chan. Cases, 195. Hill. 22 & 23 Car. 2. Smith v. Stowell.

16. A devise, void by missioniner, of a corporation, was supplied Fin. Rep. in equity as a good appointment of a charitable use. Chan. Cases, v. St. John's

267. Mich. 27 Car. 2. Anon.

College, Cambridge,

S. C. accordingly. — Duke, 77, 78. S. P. in S. C. pl. 16. ——2 Vern. 454. cited as the case of Platt v. St. John's College. ———Duke's Char. Uses, 83. pl. 38. The mayor of London's case, S. P. held accordingly, where lands were devised to the mayor and chamberlain of London, instead of the mayor and commonalty; for it appears that he intended to give it to the corporation of London, and his intent shall be observed.

17. A. built an alms-house in L. and, during his life, gave 41. per ann. to 7 poor women of L. of 60 years of age, and after by his will gave 28 l. per ann. to be distributed equally between 7 poor women. Decreed, that this charity be established for ever, though the words do not fully direct it in succession, and the 7 poor women to be chosen out of L. only. Fin. R. 353. Pasch. 30 Car. 2. Attorney General for Lambeth Parish v. Whitchcott.

- 18. A. devised a charity to the poor of B. in the county of C. which was a mistake of the county of C. for D. The court was of opinion, that fince there was such a parish in the county of D., A. must mean that parish, because it appears he was born there, and that both he and his parents lived and died in that parish. Fin. R. 395. Mich. 30 Car. 2. Langenew Parish in Denbighshire, alias Owen, v. Bean & al'.
- 19. A rectory devised for the maintenance of a minister there, was devised to no certain person, and therefore void at common law, and nothing was mentioned concerning the nomination to it. Those to whom the estate came, appointed O. to be minister, and ferve the cure. P. supposing a lapse to the crown, was presented, instituted, and inducted, as if the church had been void. the church was formerly appropriate to an abbey, and no vicar endowed, but, probably, was ferved by one of the monks, and this coming to the crown, by grant came to the testator.) It was urged, that here was a pious use wholly subject to this court, and that P. coming in by the ordinary, though he was not parson or vicar, was allowed by the bishop; and decreed accordingly that P. should have the tithes. 2 Chan. Cases, 31. Trin. 32 Car. 2. Perne v. Oldfield.

20. An impropriator devised to one that served the cure, and to all that should serve the cure after him, all the tithes, and other profits, &c. Though the curate was incapable to take by this devise in such manner, for want of being incorporate, and having succession, yet Ld. Chancellor Finch decreed, that the heir of the devise should be seised in trust for the curate for the time being. 2 Vent. 349. Pasch. 32 Car. 2. Anon.

21. In case of copyhold land where there is a surrender to the use of the will, such a will will operate as an appointment; for the copyhold passes not by the will, but by the surrender. 2 Vern. 598. pl. 536. Mich. 1707. Att. Gen. v. Barnes & Ux. (the case of Sidney College in Cambridge.)

3 Chan.
Rep. 150.
S. C. alias
Dr. Johnfon's case, but Ld.

22. A will not executed in presence of three witnesses, being void as a will, cannot operate as an appointment within the 43 Eliz. 2 Vern. 597. Mich. 1707. Att. Gen. v. Barnes & Ux. (the case of Sidney College in Cambridge.)

Chancellor said, that it being a favourable case on the one side, and a charity on the other, he would consider further of it, and confer with the judges.

Devise of lands, not in writing, to charitable uses, or without 3 witnesses, is void; and the statute 43 El. 4. which savoured appointments to charities, is now repealed pro tanto, i. e. as to the want of 4 witnesses, by the statute of frauds, which requires 3 witnesses. I Salk. 163. pl. 3. Trin. 1714. in Canc. Genner v. Harper.——Gilb. Equ. Rep. 44. S. C. in totidem verbis, only mistakes a citation out of Swinb. for Comb. and concludes, that Ld. Chancellor seemed to be of the same opinion, but said, he would consider of it till the first day of causes after the term, and in the mean time recommended it to the plaintiffs to make good the charity.

A nuncupative will of 20 l. per ann. out of lands to a charity, though before the flatute of frauds, is not good as an appointment by the 43 Eliz. Ch. Prec. 389. Trin. 1714. Jenner v. Harper.——For at common law lands or a real eftate were not devisable, and the statute of 32 H. 8. as much requires that a will of land should be in writing, as by the statute of frauds it is required that such a will should have 3 witnesses, and this being a devise of rent, which cannot pass without deed, is not good by nuncupative will. Wms.'s Rep. 248. Trin. 1714. S. C.——Wms.'s Rep. 248. the reporter makes a quere, and cites Duke's Charitable Uses, 81. STODDARD'S CASE, where one, before the statute of frauds, devised a rent of 10 l. a year out of lands to charitable uses, and willed the scrivener to put it in writing, which he did, and decreed that this nuncupative will was good; for though a rest cannot be created without deed, yet rent may be appointed without deed by the words of 43 Eliz. and though the nuncupative will be void as a will, yet it is good as an appointment; and the reporter says, it seems that 43 Eliz. which makes these appointments to charities good, being subsequent to 32 H. 8. of wills, supersedes and repeals that statute, but that it is true, that the statute of frauds being subsequent to 43 Eliz. repeals that, and therefore since the statute of frauds an appointment of lands to a charity by will not attested by 3 witnesses is void.

[483] 23. A wife having power to dispose of her personal estate, (which only comprehended the personal estate she had before marriage) and getting into possession, in a secret manner, after marriage, of a great personal estate at her father's death, conceals it from her busband, and afterwards by will disposes of it to charities; yet decreed, that what was so concealed shall not be made good to the husband, so as to disappoint the charities. MS. Tab. March 11, 1711. Pilkington v. Cuthbertson.

Gilb. Equ. Rep. 137. S. C. in totidem verbis.

24. A. settled lands, with power of revocation by writing executed under hand and seal in the presence of 3 witnesses, not being menial servants, and in her illness, by a letter, directed a deed of revocation to be prepared, but died before it was done, having by will lest part to charitable uses, and decreed good as an appointment, though there was no revocation; per master of the rolls. Ch. Prec. 473. pl. 296. Pasch. 1717. Piggot v. Penrice. 25. The

25. The statutes supplies all desects of assurance where the do- Ibid. cites nor is of capacity to dispose, and hath such an estate as is any Duke's Char Uses, way disposable by him, whether by fine or common recovery. 84. pl. 40. 2 Vern. 755. pl. 660. Mich. 1717. in case of Att. Gen. v. In case of Burdet.

Christ's Hospital v.

Hawes, S. P. where it is faid, that upon this ground it has been held.

- 26. J. S. by will devised an annuity of 50 l. a year, and also 100 l. in money, to A. and his heirs, and if A. dies without beirs, then to a charity. A. died without issue in the life-time of J.S. the testator, and then J. S. died. It was argued, that the devise of the remainder ought to be supported, as given to a charity; but Ld. Chancellor said, that supposing it to be void if given to a common person, it shall be the same when given to a charity; that in this case the devise over is void, and the word (heirs) shall not be construed to fignify heirs of the body where the devisee over is not inheritable; and the death of the first devisee in the lifetime of the testator can make no alteration, if the will was void at the making. 2 Wms.'s Rep. 369. pl. 109. Trin. 1726. Att. Gen. v. Gill.
- (C) Grant or Devise to Charitable Uses. Good in respect of the Words of the Gift, and the Perfons to whom.

1. I F one devises land to J. S. for life, the remainder to the church of St. Andrew's in Holborn, the parson of the church shall have this remainder. Duke's Char. Uses. 113. cites 21 R. 2. Devise 17. [But it is not at Devise 17.]

2. A devise to the poor people maintained in the hospital in the pa- Duke's rish of St. Lawrence in Reading for ever. Exception was taken, Char. Uses, 81. pl. 304 that the poor were not capable by that name, for no corporation, cites S.C. yet, because the plaintiff was capable to take lands in mortmain, and did govern the hospital, it was decreed the defendant should assure the lands to the mayor and burgesses for the maintenance of the faid hospital. Toth. 94. cites 43 Eliz. Mayor and Burgesses of Reading v. Lane.

3. Upon the will of one Hunt, of the lease of the rectory of H. in the county of W. it was resolved by Egerton and Popham, that a devise of money to be distributed to 20 of the poorest of his kindred, shall be * a good devise, notwithstanding it does not appear that he had any poor kindred. Toth. 92. cites 44 Eliz. Goff v. S. P. Webb.

4. A. being seised of copyhold lands in B. in Essex, did devise, Duke's that the parson and churchwardens in Thames-street, London, and 4 honest men of that parish, should sell the land, and employ the money for the poor, and charitable uses in that parish; and it was objected that the devise was void, because the parson and churchwardens were not a corporation to take land out of London, nor to fell it for fuch uses; but it was decreed, that the devise was good, and that they had a good authority to fell the same. Toth. 92, 93. cites 3 Jac. Champion v. Smith.

Duke's Char. Uses 80. pl. 27. cites S. C. accordingly. — Ibid. 212. [484]

Char. Uses 81. pl. 28. cites S. C.

Duke's

5. When no use is mentioned or directed in a deed, it stall be decreed to the use of the poor. Toth. 95. cites 10 Jac. Fisher Char. Uses, 82. pl. 32. v. Hill.

cites S. C. Sir Thomas was then treasurer of the navy. Toth. 94, 95. S. C. and though no certain particular men could claim it, yet he was adjudged to it by this

6. The captain, mariners, and foldiers at sea made a voluntary constitution, that every mariner and sea-soldier should abate so much a month out of their pay, to be employed for the relief of the mariners and foldiers maimed or hurt in the service, of which abatement there was 300 L and which had been in the hands of Sir Tho. Middleton above 20 years. The mariners procured a commission upon the statute of 43 Eliz. whereupon the commissioners finding the constitution and the retainer, Sir Thomas was decreed to pay the money to the said use; and upon exceptions exhibited by Sir Thomas, the Ld. Chancellor confirmed the decree. Mo. 889. account for pl. 1252. 15 Jac. Middleton's case.

law. --- Duke's Char. Uses, 74. pl. 13. cites S. C.

Duke's. 7. A. devised by parol a yearly rent of 10 l. for ever out of bis Char. Uses, house called the Swan with 2 Necks in the Old Jewry, London, Sr. pl. 28. for the maintenance of 2 scholars in Oxford and Cambridge; and cites S. C. willed that Hugh the scrivener should put it in writing, which he did accordingly; and this was found by inquisition, and de-And it was objected that the device was not good, for that a rent could not be devised by a nuncupative will; but the decree was confirmed to be good; for a rent may be created and granted without deed in case of a pension, much more for a charitable use. Toth. 93. cites 20 Jac. Stoddard's case.

8. Lands given to church-wardens void in law. Decreed about S. C. fays it was decreed 2 Car. Toth. 96. Penniman v. Jennings. And cites Mich. good in 14 Car. Mansel v. Middleton. chancery by the words (limited and appointed) within the statute. Duke's Char. Uses, 82. pl. 34.

9. Money was given for the good of the church of Dale, and this Duke's Char. Uses, was ruled good upon these general words. Toth. 92. cites 4 Car. 80. pl. 26. Wingfield's case. cites S. C.

accordingly. --- Ibid. 113. cites S. C. and says, that so by reason it will be in all such uncertain gifts. 112. S. P.

10. A. devised by his will monies to a charitable use, to be be-Duke's · Char, Uses, flowed for poor people, and the refidue of his goods to be employed 81. pl. 31. to such uses as his feoffees shall think meet. The devise is good. cites S. C. Toth. 95. cites 9 Car. The Mayor of Bristol v. Whitton.

11. Whether money given to maintain a preaching minister be 2 Dake's Char. Uses, charitable use? The ld. keeper and the judges did decree (not-52. pl. 35. withstanding it is not warranted by the statute to be a charitable cites S. C. use) that the same shall be paid by the executor to such maintenance

nance. Toth. 96. cites Trin. 15 Car. Pember v. the Inhabitants of Kingston.

* 12. A. devises 201. per ann. to a preaching minister, and dies, Duke's leaving lands and affets, and the defendant will not pay it accord- 82. pl. 36. ingly. The court with the judges charges her, out of the affets, cites S. C. to buy lands to perpetuate it. Toth. 96. cites Trin. 15 Car. Pensterd v. Pavier.

Char. Uses,

13. Devise of a charity to the poor indefinitely. In such case By the civil equity gives the disposal thereof to the king. Fin. Rep. 245. Hill. wise would 28 Car. 2. The Attorney-General v. Peacock.

law this dobe to the poor of the hospital of that parish where the testator lived; and if no hospital there, then to the poor of that parish. Fin. Rep. 245. in S. C.

14. A gift to raise money to prosecute offenders will not be good as a charitable use; per curiam obiter. 2 Salk. 605. pl. 3. Pasch. 2 Ann. B. R. in case of the Queen v. Savin.

15. In Saffron-Walden in Effex was a free-school, and P. and others subscribed to a charity-school there of 12 boys and 12 girls, which subscription was only during the pleasure of the benefactors. P. being delighted with these charity-children, declared he would leave them something at his death. P, by will gave 500 l. to the charity-school. The ld. chancellor said, that though the free-school. be a charity-school, yet that for boys and girls went more commonly by that name; and as the testator was fond of the latter, and declared he would leave them a legacy, therefore that, and not the free-school, is intitled thereto; and because it was objected that on the failing of this charity-school the charity ought to revert to the founder, he gave liberty to the parties in such case to apply again to the court. Wms.'s Rep. 674. pl. 93. Mich.

1720. The Attorney-General v. Hudson.

16. One Timothy Wilson being seised of lands in see, and also. possessed of a considerable personal estate, by will dated 22d of March 1714, gave all his real and personal estate to two trustees, their beirs, &c. in trust, to pay the produce thereof to his niece Elizabeth Wilson for ber life, and after ber death he gave the said real and personal estate to the son and sons, which his niece should leave behind ber, severally and successively according to seniority, and the heirs of the body of such son and sons issuing, the elder to be preferred, &c. and for want of such issue, that is, in case all such sons died without issue before any of them attained 21, then he gave the same to the daughter and daughters which his niece should leave behind her at her death. and the beirs of their respective bodies issuing; and for want of such iffue, that is (as he expressed himself) in case all such daughters died without issue before any of them attained 21, then the said trustees and the survivor of them, and the heirs and executors, &c. of the furvivor, were to dispose of his real and personal estate to such of his relations of his mother's side who were most deserving, and in such manner as they thought fit, and for such charitable uses and purposes as they should also think most proper and convenient. One of the trustees declining to act in the trust, Elizabeth brought her bill in Michaelmas 1715, to compel him to act in the VOL. IV. truit, trust, or to transfer the same as the court should direct; and he refusing to act, the court decreed him to assign the trust as the master should direct, and accordingly he by lease and release assigned and conveyed the premises, with the approbation of the master, to another person in trust for the uses of the said will Elizabeth died without iffue in 1732, and on a bill brought by the testator's relations on the mother's side, to have their share of the said estate, and on a cross bill brought by the attorney-general to have the same applied to charitable uses as the court should direct, the master of the rolls held clearly that the limitation over of the personal estate was good, and that the power given by the will to the * trustees of distributing the testator's estate as they thought fit was at an end, and could not be assigned over, and that therefore the power of distributing the same devolved on the court; and she directed that one half of the said effete should go to the testator's relations on the mether's side, and the other half to charitable uses, the known rule that equity is equity being (as he faid) the best measure to go by. He said, that he had no rule of judging of the merits of the testator's relations, and could not enter into spirits, and therefore could not prefer one to the other; but that all should come in without distinction, excluding only those that were beyond the 3d degree. He held, that as to the personal estate, there should be no representation of those relations who died in the life-time of Eliz. For before her death no part thereof vested in any of the relations, and it was contingent whether they would be intitled thereto or not, and decreed so accordingly. His honour cited a case determined by Ld. Cowper, which was where one gave his personal estate to his relations, fearing God and walking bumbly before him, and decreed by him that it should go equally among his relations. MS. Rep. Nov. 30, 1735. Doyley & al' v. Att. Gen. & al', & e contra.

(D) Altered.

But it was observed to the court, that the practice had always been

1. WHEN a thing is disposed to maintain contempt and disposed by dience in any, this ought to be ordered and disposed by the court to a contrary use and end. Lane, 44. Pasch. 7 Jac. Arg. cites Venable's case.

to apply them in codem genere. Vern. 251. in case of the Attorney-General v. Banter.

2. The donor of a house to a vicarage for the vicar to live in, and a lease to be made by the trustees to the vicar for the time being, on condition of his having no other living, and of his being resident, being mistaken in his title, as thinking the vicarage was donative where it was presentative, made no presentation of a vicar, in default whereof the king presented by lapse. Decreed that the trustees lease this house to the king's presentee, but under the conditions abovementioned. Ness. Ch. Rep. 40. 15 Car. Joyce v. Osborne.

3. A submission was to arbitrators touching lands, and they were awarded to B. and possession delivered accordingly, and no claim claim was made during B.'s life. B. by his will devised these lands to a charity. J. S. purchased these lands, with notice of the award and devise; and it was decreed that the testator being intitled in equity to the land by the award, and the purchasor having notice, his purchase is not good, and the charity shall be Fin. Rep. 75. Hill. 25 Car. 2. Chard Parish, established. &c. v. Opie.

4. A devise was of a charity to the poor, without saying what poor; equity gives the disposal of this charity to the king, and in this case the king gave it to the governors of Bridewell, Christchurch, and St. Thomas's Hospital, for the 40 poor boys in Christ's Hospital, educated there to learn the art of navigation. Fin. R. 245. Hill. 28 Car. 2. Att. Gen. alias Christ's Hospital, v.

Peacock.

5. General charities are under the direction and disposal of the king, and not of the commissioners, and to be settled by information in chancery for the king; but where the charities are devised to the poor for ever, the king cannot dispose to the poor kindred of the testator, because they cannot live poor for ever; so that such disposal by the king is to be to the poor who may take it for ever, by which the king directed it to Christ's Hospital. 2 Lev. 167. Trin. 28 Car. 2. B. R. Att. Gen. v. Matthews.

6. C. devised a salary for maintenance of independent lectures in 3 2 Chan. market towns, and devised the estate thus charged to his nephew, Hill. 31 & who afterwards devised it for payment of his debts. Bill was 32 Car. 2. brought to have the lands fold for payment of the debts. wards, upon an information for the charity, the growing payments Combe, S.C. and arrears were decreed, and the independent lectures changed decreed acinto catechistical lectures, in the same 3 market towns, and this, though there were not sufficient to pay the debts. 2 Vern. 267. in pl. 252. cites it as decreed in 1679. Combes's case.

7. No agreement of parishioners, where several charities are given As if money for several purposes, can alter or divert them to other uses, but lands settled, they must be applied for the purposes for which they were given. for repairs of Vern. 42. pl. 43. Pasch. 1682. Man v. Ballet.

maintenance of a lecturer by agreement of the parishioners, the money so paid to the parson shall not be allowed on account. Vern. 42. pl. 43. Pasch. 1682. Man v. Ballet. ----- It must be accepted on the fame terms as given upon, or leave it to the right heir. Fim R. 222. St. John's Coll. Cambridge v. Platt.

8. A man having devised 50 l. per ann. for a lecturer in polemical or casuistical divinity, so as he was a batchelor or doctor in divinity, and 50 years of age, and would read 5 lectures every term, and at the end of every term would deliver fair copies of the same, to be kept in the university, and in default of such a lecturer, he gave that college in Oxon. Now, upon this 50 l. per ann. to information, the university of Cambridge, with the consent of the heir at law, would have had the rigour of the qualifications mitigated, viz. That a man of 40 years of age might be made capable of this salary, and that 3 lectures every term might serve turn, and that if he delivered such fair copies of his lectures once a year, it should be sufficient; but the ld. chancellor, though no P p 2 one > gitten, ot a church are bestowed in one made opposition to it, refused to intermeddle in it, and said, they should be held to the letter of the charity, and that the heir had no power to alter the disposition made by his ancestor. Vern. 55, 56. pl. 52. Pasch. 1682. the Att. Gen. v. Marg. & Reg. Professors in Cambridge, &c.

[487]

After- The Att. cordingly.

9. Devise of 1000l. for such charity as testator had by writing appointed, and no such note being to be found, the king appointed the charity, and the same was decreed accordingly. Verm. 224.

pl. 223. Hill. 1683. Att. Gen. v. Syderfin.

to. A. devised several particular charities, and the surplus for the good of poor people for ever. The surplus, being indefinitely devised, it was decreed, that the king may apply the charity. Vern. 225. cited Hill. 1683. in the case of Att. Gen. v. Sidersin, as the case of Frier v. Peacock.

So to 60 pient ejected of it. 2 Chan. Cases, 178. Mich. 2 Jac. 2. Att. Gen. v. ministers, decreed, per Rider.

North, for the maintenance of a chaplain for Chelsea College. Vern. 248. pl. 243. Tria. 1684. Att. Gen. v. Baxter.——But this decree was discharged, and the information dismissed, and the money then remaining in court ordered to be paid out to Mr. Baxter, to be by him distributed according to the will; per Lds. Commissioners. 2 Vern. 105. Trin. 1689. Att. Gen. v. Hughes.

[488] 12. John Snell, by his will, charged his real and personal estate with an annual sum, or exhibition, for the maintenance of Scotchmen in the university of Oxon. to be sent into Scotland, to propagate the doctrine and discipline of the church of England there. Now, by the late act of parliament, presbyters are settled in Scotland; and it was insisted, that although the charity cannot now take place according to the letter and express direction of the will, yet it ought to be performed cypres, and the substance of it may be pursued, that is, to propagate the doctrine and discipline of the church of England, though not in the form and method intended by the testator, and shall not be void, so as to fall into the estate, and go to the heir; no decree appears. 2 Vern. 266. pl. 252-Pasch. 1692. Att. Gen. v. Guise.

13. A charity given to maintain popils priests was applied by the king to the other uses, and not to turn to the benefit of the heir. 2 Vern. 266. pl. 252. Pasch. 1692. Arg. cites it as adjudged in the exchequer, and affirmed on appeal to the house of lords. Gates v. Jones.

whether an absolute devise of lands was not really in trust for superstitious uses, and if so, then to have an application thereof to an use truly charitable; and it was held, first, that the king, as head of the commonwealth, is obliged by the common law, and for that purpose intrusted and impowered to see that nothing be done to the disherison of the crown, or the propagation of a false religion, and to that end intitled to pray a discovery of a trust to a superstitious use, and this use, being superstitious, is merely void, and for that reason the king cannot have it; yet, however, it is not so far void as that it shall result to the heir, and therefore the king shall order it to be applied to a proper use. 1 Salk. 162, 163. pl. 1. 26 May, 1693. The King v. Portington.

fore

Favoured and Construed.

A. Devised lands to trustees in see for maintenance of a preacher, and schoolmaster, and so many poor people, so much to each, and which amounted to the annual profits of the land at the time. The land was then of the value of 35 l. a year, but afterwards came to be worth 100 l. a year. Resolved, that the revenue should be employed to increase the stipends of each, and if there be any furplus, it shall be employed for a greater number of poor, and the devisees shall take nothing to their own use; for it appears that the whole shall be employed in works of piety and charity, and as a decrease of the value would be a loss to the preacher, schoolmaster, and poor, so when it increases it shall be to their profit; by all the judges. 8 Rep. 130. b. Pasch. 7 Jac. Thetford School's case.

S. C. cited a Vern. 398. Mich. 1700. in the case of the Att. Gen. v. the Mayor of Coventry, which case. was, that the reversion in fee of divers lands let on leafes, on which in all 701. per ann. was itferved, was granted by king H. 8. to the corporation of Coventry; 400 l. of the purchase money was paid by the corporation. and 1000 L by Sir Thomas White, but in the grant the corporation was faid to be the purchasors, and it was by the deed declared that the whole 70 l. per ann. should be applied to several charities therein menrigued. The leafes expiring, the value of the lands were greatly increased, but the surplus had been all along received by the corporation of Coventry, the lands themselves not being given to the charities. but particular rents out of the lands. It was decreed, that the corporation should have the surplus of the profits. The ld. keeper, and 3 judges, assistants, were all of opinion, that this case was not within the reason of Thetford School's case, but that there was a plain and substantial difference between them: for in that case the lands were given to the charity, and though in directing the application of it a sum certain is given to maintain a schoolmaster, and sums uncertain to other charities, amounting to what was the value of the estate, it was reasonable, that as the estate increased, the charity should do so too, because no one else was to take any benefit thereof; but that in the present case not the lands themselves but 70 l. a year iffuing out of the lands is allotted to charities, and the town of Coventry is expressly mentioned to be the purchasors, and it appears that they raised 400 l. part of the consideration money, and that with some difficulty by sale of their goods, gold rings, box-money, &c. and when they were in that low and decayed condition, as mentioned in the articles, the plaintiffs would have it prefumed, that they were such good christians as to sell all they had to give it to the poor; and the information was unanimoully dismissed; but upon an appeal to the house of lords the dismission was reversed, and the defendants ordered to account for the improved value of the land, and the charities to be augmented in proportion. [489]

2. By devise of the rent of his land to a charitable use, the land Ibid. 112. itself passes, and it shall be taken largely for a devise of the rent spill state. then referved, or afterwards to be referved upon an improved value; fers to S. C. resolved by the judges on a reference by the ld. keeper, and his lordthip decreed accordingly. Duke's Char. Uses, 71. pl. 7. 9 Jac. Kennington Hasting's case.

S. P. and re----In the county of Warwick, a rent demised [devised] to charitable uses, carries the land. Toth. 269. cites 8 Car. Lenner v. Linnington.

3. A debt which is a + chose en oction was given for the erection Duke's of a school, and held a good appointment within the 43 Eliz. Toth. 91. 3 Car. Hungate ex Parte Inhabitants of Sherborne.

Char. Uses, 79. pl. 21. cites S. C. & S. P. de-exced, whether the debt be owing by statute, bond, judgment, or recognizance.— —Ibid. 112. † In the original it is (charitable uses in action). cites S. C. and S. P. accordingly.

)

4. If one deviles money to a charitable use for relief of the poor, and makes 2 executors, and dies, and they prove the will, and jointly intermeddle with the receipt of the money, and the one trusts the other with the money, and to pay it accordingly, and he wastes it, and dies infolvent, the survivor shall be charged with the whole, if the testator lest assets to pay it, because they jointly meddled in the execution of the will; but if he that died had only proved the will in the name of both, and the furvivor had never meddled, he should not be charged; because the other had a joint authority with him from the testator, and he could not hinder the other's intermeddling. Duke's Char. Uses, 66, 67. pl. 4. 16 Mar. 4 Car. the Poor of Walthamstow in Essex's case.

Lid. 64. 3. Trin. 9 Car. 1. East Grinstead's case, S. P. and ibid. 70. pl. 8. Hill. 14 Car.

5. If a rent be granted out of land to a charitable use, this it seems is a charge that shall go with the land in whose hands soever it comes, albeit it be not so by the strict rules of law, and a distress may be taken for it upon the terre-tenant for all arrears in whose time soever it was; and the party must have his remedy against them that had the land for the arrears in their time in chancery. Duke's Char. Uses, 125.

Woodford inhabitants in Essex, S. P.

> . 6. In case of charitable uses, the charity is not to be set aside for want of every circumstance appointed by the donor. N. Ch.

7. Devise of a portion of tythes, to the intent that the profits

R. 40. 12 Car. 1. Joice v. Osborne.

Duke's Char. Uses, should be employed to build a grammar-school, and for the mainte-Paich. 16 Car. 2. Wright v. Newport-Pond in Effex.

nance of the master; the tithes were then in lease for a term of years, at the yearly rent of 7 l. the devices received the rent, and built the the School of school, and in consideration of the surrender of the term, they granted a longer term to the first lessee, (viz.) for 50 years at the same rent; the lessee died about 24 years after the commencement of his leafe, and his executors enjoyed it about 14 years afterwards, during all which time the yearly value was worth 431. per ann. more than the reserved rent; but before the lease of 50 years expired, the surviving devisee made a lease of those tithes for 21 years, at the yearly rent of 10 l. to commence after the expiration, of the leafe for 50 years; adjudged that this concurrent lease was void, being made to defraud the charity of the increase of the tithes, which was then worth 60 l. per ann. more than the reserved rent, and that the trustees ought to let it at that value, and not exceeding 21 Nels. Abr. 434, 435. pl. 8. cites 16 Car. 2. Wright v. the school of Newport.

A charity was devised to the poor of the parish of L. in the county of M. rubereas there is no Juch parish in that county, tut in the

8. M. C. bequeathed 1001. to the church-wardens and overfeers of the poor of the parish of St. Giles's without Cripplegate, London, part whereof lies in London, and part in Middlesex, to be paid to them to encrease the parish stock, which was paid to them accordingly, and they placed the same out at interest, and received 3L interest, and paid it to the poor of that part of the said parish which her within London, but no part thereof to the poor of the other part of the parish which lies in Middlesex. It was decreed by the commissioncounty of D. ers, that the payment should have been to both parts of the parish, as well that in Middlesex, as in London; but, upon exceptions Percurtaken, that decree was reversed. Duke's Char. Uses, 52. 19 Car. 2. fuch a parish in Canc. Rooks v. D.

in the county of D. the testator must mean that parish, because it appeared that be was born there, and that both he and his parents lived and died in that parish. Fin. Rep. 395. Mich. 30 Car. 2. Owens v. Bean.

9. Where a will or money given to a charity have been con- Duke's cealed, the fame has been decreed to support a charity; as for in Char. Uses,

Ch stance, the will of James Meek was concepted, by which he gave 21 Car, 2. 200 l. per ann. in East-Smithfield, St. Katherine's and Aldgate, S. C. to learn poor scholars, to be chosen out of the free-school in Worcester, to be educated in Magdalen-hall in Oxford; it was proved he made fuch a will, and that a little before his death he declared that he would not alter it; and the heir at law refusing to convey these houses out of which the rent issued, according to the will of the testator; the commissioners decreed, that the chancellor, master and scholars of the university should stand seised, &c. and pay the rents as directed by the will, which decree was affirmed in chancery. Nelf. Abr. 436. pl. 10. cites Moor Ch. Uses, 79. Meek v. Magdalen-hall.

10. Tertenants lessees of a charity which was greatly improved, as from 20 to 150 l. per ann. were ordered to augment the rent 50 l. per ann. but the commissioners had before made a decree for avoiding the leafes, they being not good in strictness of law. Chan. Cases, 195. Hill. 22 & 23 Car. 2. Smith v. Stowell.

11. One Coleman devised an annuity of 201. a year to any of the name of Coleman, who should be fit to be a student and reside in Bennet-College in Cambridge, with a power to the master and fellows to distrain for this annuity. On a bill brought for this annuity by the plaintiff Coleman, a student of the said college, it was decreed accordingly. Fin. Rep. 30. Mich. 25 Car. 2. Coleman v. Coleman and the Master, &c. of Bennet College.

12. Lands were charged with payment of a charity of 1000 l. and the money was paid to the executor of the executor of the testatrix, after which the lands were fold; decreed that the payment was made to a wrong hand; for that by 7 Jac. 1. 3. it should bave been paid to the parson of the parish or vicar, &c. that the lands are still chargeable with it. Fin. R. 187. Mich. 26 Car. 2. Attorney-General for the King and Rector of Chiddleston cum Farley in Hampshire, and the Churchwardens and Overseers of the Poor of that Parish, v. Lord Newport & Worsley.

13. Lands were given to the poor of the city of Rochester; it was decreed that the poor of the liberties and precincts of the said city shall have a share of the charity. Fin. Rep. 193. Hill. 27 Car. 2.

Attorney-General v. the Mayor of Rochester.

14. A. lived in Lambeth, and built an alms house there, wherein [491] he placed 7 poor women of Lambeth of 60 years old and more, and charged Caroon House there with payment of 4 l. a year to each, and directed that the places of such as died, should be supplied by others, but did not mention whether of Lambeth, or any other parish. court decreed the poor women to be chosen out of Lambeth only, PP 4 and and not out of any other parish; because otherwise the charity would rather be a prejudice than a kindness to Lambeth; for if taken out of other parishes, Lambeth must maintain them, the 41. a year not being sufficient to maintain a poor woman of 60 years old. Fin. Rep. 353. Pasch. 30 Car. 2. Attorney-General v. Whitchcott, alias Bodwyn & al', v. Whitchcott.

15. Lands pur auter vie devised to charity were decreed, though the charity is not within the statute of 43 Eliz. 4. 2 Chan. Cases, 18. Hill. 31 & 32 Car. 2. Attorney-General v. Combe.

16. The poor people of an hospital were appointed to have 8 d. a day, and the guardian 8 l. per ann. A prebend residentiary for the time being was to be the guardian. The revenue was improved to 60 l. per ann. All above 8 l. per ann. was decreed to the poor. Some of the counsel made a difference between this case and where the only employment was to be a guardian. 2 Chan. Cases, 55. Trin. 33 Car. 2. Anon.

17. Charitable legacies by the civil law are to be preferred to other legacies; and if the spiritual court gives such preference in case of desiciency of assets, chancery will not grant an injunction.

Vern. 230. pl. 226. Hill. 1683. Fielding v. Bond.

18. A bouse burnt down in the fire of London was charged with 25 s. a year ancient rent to a charitable use, of which there was an arrear for 20 years. The court of judicature for rebuilding, settled the rent of the tenant at 5 l. a year. The question was who should pay the 25 s. rent and arrears, the tenant or the landlord. Ld. Keeper ordered the growing payments and arrears of the 25 s. to be deducted out of the rent, and the tenant to pay no more rent in the mean time. Vern. 309. pl. 304. Hill. 1684. Grice v. Banks.

19. Charity though given to an illegal or superstitious use, shall not be void for the benefit of the executor or heir, but ought to be performed cy-pres; Arg. 2 Vern. 266. pl. 252. Pasch. 1692.

Attorney-General v. Guise.

20. A. by will bequeathed to his heir at law (his nephew) 40s. Then adds, being determined to fettle for the future, after the death of me and my wife, the manor of S. with all the lands, woods, and appurtenances to charitable uses, I devise my manor of S. with the appurtenances, to F. G. and H. and their beirs and assigns on trust, &c. to pay and deliver yearly, for every several particular sums therein mentioned. The particulars in the will of the sums to be paid in charity amounted but to half the rent of the manor, as it was at the time of making the will; yet it was decreed that the surplus should be disposed in charity, and not go to the heir; and the decree was affirmed in dom. proc. Parliament Cases, 22. Arnold v. Johnson & al.

21. On the foundation of an hospital one rule is, that me lease be made for above 21 years. A lease for 21, with a covenant to make it 60 years by renewal, is as prejudicial as a lease for 60 years, and the covenant of no force in equity. 2 Vern. 410. pl. 376. Hill. 1700. Lydiatt & al' on behalf of Felstead Hospital in Essex v. Sir John Foach.

22. A corporation for a charity are but trustees for the charity, Note, that and may improve, but not do any thing in prejudice of the cha-the founder's rity, or in breach of the founder's rules; per Wright keeper. rule was fur-2 Vern. 412. pl. 376. Hill. 1700. Lydiatt & al' v. Sir J. Foach. ther, that on fuch leafe

for 21 years sould be reserved the old rent, and no more; and yet by deed of covenants they " reserved an additional rent almost double the old rent, as 32 i. per ann. for 18 l. per ann. and yet it was decreed to be paid, though this is contrary to the express rule.

2 Vern. 596. pl. 535. Mich. 1707. Watson v. Hinsworth Hospital, which had the same rule: and Ld. Elesmer and Ld. Clarendon kept them down to the rule; but per Cowper C. the rule is alterable as prices of things alter, and the rent may be increased, but the tenant is intitled to a beneficial lease, and referred it to the archbishop of York, to certify what fine and rent he thought reasonable.

23. Charity-lands were leased at a great under-value. The commissioners decreed the leafe to be set aside, and the lessee to pay the arrears of fent according to the full value, (the odds being from 241. per ann. to 133 l. per ann.) and to deliver up the possession. The court, on exceptions, confirmed the decree as to the making the leafe void, and delivering possession, and to set out the charitylands from the leffee's other lands which lay intermixed. 2 Vern. 414. pl. 378. Hill. 1700. Sir W. Reresby, Exceptant, Farrer and Dun, Schoolmaster and Usher of Pocklington-School, Refpondents.

24. Charities are not barred by length of time, or any statute of limitations; per Ld. Wright and 3 judges. 2 Vern. 399. pl. 369. Mich. 1700. In case of the Attorney-General v. the Mayor, &c.

of Coventry.

25. Lord Coventry having decreed a leafe of charity-lands to J. S. (who had been at great expence in recovering those lands) for 99 years, if 3 lives lived so long, at the rent of one third of the then improved value, and to be perpetually renewable without fine. It was now decreed that the leafe should be renewed toties quoties without fine, but the rent not to be computed according to the value of the land when the decree was made, but at the improved value at the time it shall be renewed; per Cowper C. 746. pl. 653. Hill. 1716. The Attorney-General, at the relation of Wotton-under-edge, v. Smith.

26. Appointment by tenant in tail shall bind the reversioner in fee, the statute of charitable uses supplying all defects of assurance which the donor was capable of making. 2 Vern. 755. pl. 660. Mich. 1717. The Attorney-General v. Burdett, Smith, & al'.

27. One by will gives 5 l. per ann. to all and every the hospitals; and it was proved the testatrix lived in a place where there were 2 hospitals. It shall be taken to be these hospitals, and not to extend to another hospital about a mile from thence, though founded by the same person. Wms.'s Rep. 425. pl. 118. Pasch. 1718. Masters v. Masters.

28. The reversion in see of diverse lands, on which 70 l. per ann. rent was referved, was given to the corporation of Coventry, and the whole 70 l. appointed to particular charities. Afterwards the lease expired, and the rents were greatly increased. The overplus shall be applied to the augmentation of the charities, and not for the benefit of the corporation. MS. Tab. March 8, 1720. The Mayor of Coventry v. the Attorney-General.

29. In-

29. Information to establish a charity of lands given by will, against the heir at law of the devisor. The desendant by his answer did not insist upon his title, nor did he expressly disclaim; but his counsel, at the hearing, had no instructions to insist on the desendants title, or to pray a trial at law, and thereupon the court decreed the lands to the charity. Upon a petition of re-hearing, the defendant by his counsel insisted upon his title as heir at law, and that the devise was woid; but the court would not now, at the re-hearing, allow the desendant to insist upon his title, since he had waived it before by his counsel at the hearing, but said, he was concluded by it; and though it was admitted to be a doubtful case, the court would not suffer counsel to argue it, but assimmed the decree; per Ld. Macclessield. MS. Rep. Mich. 9 Geo. in canc, The Attorney-General v. Ardern.

[493] (F) Trustees, &c. Favoured; or punished for Misbehaviour, &c. In what Cases.

L'Executors having goods of their testator to dispose to pious uses, cannot forseit them; for they have them not for their own use; but their power is subject to the controllment of the ordinary, and the ordinary may make distribution of them to pious uses. And it was said at bar, that the ordinary might make the executors to account before him, and to punish them according to the law of the church if they spoil the goods; but cannot compel them to employ them to pious uses. Owen, 33, 34. Hill. 40 Eliz. per Cordell, Master of the Rolls, in the case of Stinkley v. Chamberlain.

Duke's

2. If land is given to find a priest in D. and one is maintained in Char. Uses, S. this is a misemployment; per Altham, baron. Lane, 115.

s. c. & Pasch. 9 Jac.

S. P. and fays, that the converting it to other uses than according to the intent of the donor, is a misemployment; as if it was to find a preacher, and the trustees employ it to the poor, or some other kind of use.

3. Monies given for relief of the poor were laid out on building a conduit; and adjudged a misemployment. Duke of Charitable Uses, 94. 5 Car. 1. Wivesscomb in com. Somerset.

S.P. and the commissioners may decree the money with within the statute. Duke's Char. Uses, 116.

for the detaining it, to be employed in the charitable use according to their discretion, not exceedinglegal interest by the year, for the detaining it. Duke's Char. Uses, 67. pl. 3. Trin. 9 Car. 1. in Walthamstow in Eslex's case.

The commissioners may make void the land at an under-value is a misemployment, with out having regard to what the rent was before. Duke's Char. Uses, 116.

lease, and order the land to be settled on other trustees. Ibid. 123. s. 20.——Ibid. 67. pl. 5. Mich. 10 Car. S. P. as to the avoiding and surrendering the lease. Residual. Eltham's Inhabitants v. Warner.——Ibid. 124. S. P.

6. It

6. It shall be accounted and called a mis-employment of a gift or disposition to charitable uses, in all cases where there is found any breach of trust, falsity, non-employment, concealment, mis-government, or conversion in and about the lands, rents, goods, money, &c. given to the use, against the intent and meaning of the giver or founder. Duke's Char. Uses, 115.

7. If lessee of land given to such a use, does waste and de-Aruction upon the land, by cutting down and fale of trees of timber, especially if it be where he has the land at an undervalue, or the like, this is a mis-employment; in this case the commissioners may decree the lease to be void and surrendered, and that the leffee shall make a recompence. Duke's Char. Uses, 115.

8. If trustees lease the land at an under-value, the commissioners may order the trustees, or the tenant, as they shall see cause, to make it up. Duke's Char. Uses, 116.

9. Trustees of a charity refused to undertake the trust. The court ordered other trustees to perform the same, with proper powers; per Ld. K. Littleton. N. Ch. R. 42. 17 Car. 1.

Maggeridge v. Gray.

10. The inhabitants of Cofield were incorporated by H. 8. and the [494] manor and park granted to them in fee, by the name of the warden and affistants, and the grant was made to them; and it appeared by the grant, that the same was for the benefit of the inhabitants for ease of taxes, and relief of the poor. A suit was in the star-chamber touching mis-employment and enclosing the lands, whereby the inhabitants were prejudiced, and there decreed, that no farther inclosure should be made without consent of the major part of the inhabitants. In king Charles the first's time, some of the principal of the inhabitants, Mr. Pudsey, and others, took a new charter, leaving out the inhabitants, and now the warden and 23 more made leases and inclosures, without consent of the major part; and the plaintiff, an inhabitant, on behalf of himself and the rest of the inhabitants, brought his bill; and the ld. keeper decreed against the new leases and inclosures, and that no such should be without consent of the major part; and on re-hearing confirmed this decree; for though the administration was in the 24, get the benefit was for the inhabitants in general; but it was preffed much that the 24 were the corporation, and the interest in them, and they might alien the estate, and a fortiori lease and inclose, and it would breed a confusion if that the multitude Chan. Cases, 269, 270. Mich. 27 Car. 2. must intermeddle. Anon.

11. Feoffees of a charity having mis-employed the rents, &c. were decreed to account, and the trust to be transferred to such perfons as the judge of ashie shall nominate, and that the account of the rents and profits be for 6 years past, and that all the deeds and writings shall be delivered to such persons whom the judge of assife shall appoint to be feoffees, and the executors of such of them who are dead shall come into the account, and the arrears shall be paid to the new trustees, and conveyances executed to them

Moneygiven for the repair of a bridge and a church way, and certain houses, were employed to repair the cburch; the trustees were them accordingly. Fin. Rep. 269. Mich. 28 Car. 2. Love v. decreed to account for Eade. what they had, or might have received without their wilful default, without respect to other disbursements than the bridge, the way, and the houses; and the trustees, the defendants, to pay costs. Fin. R. 259. Trin. 28 Car. 2. Att. Gen. and Churchwardens of Somersham, in Huntingtonshire, v. Hobert and Johnson, alias Hammond v. Hobart.

- 12. Trustees for charitable uses are no otherwise or further chargeable than any other trustee is, who is only to be charged for so much as he receives, and shall not stand charged for the receipts of others; per Finch C. Vern. 44. pl. 42. Pasch. 1682, Mann v. Ballet.
- 13. By the appointment of a charity there were 6 trustees, and when they should be reduced to 3, they should chuse others. All the 6 were dead except one. Cowper C. held, that filling up the number by the only surviving trustee was good, for it was only directory, and the neglect did not extinguish the right, and he only did what he ought to do. 2 Vern. 748. pl. 655. Hill 1716. Att. Gen. at the relation of Tracy & al', v. Floyer, and relating to Waltham Holy Cross.

14. Bill to have an account of the profits and falary of lecturer of Church-hill in com. Oxon, upon this case; Sir John Walters, Ch. B. founded a lectureship at Church-hill, Oxon, with a falary of 50 l. per ann. charged upon his lands to the lecturer, so long as he should attend the charge of diligent preaching there once every Sunday, unless hindered by necessity, and when the faid lecturesbip should be void by death, removal, departure, or otherwise, then the trustees were to appoint a new lecturer, &c. The plaintiff, in 1701, was appointed lecturer by the trustees expressly for the term of his natural life, but being much in debt about a year and a half after the appointment, the plaintiff went away, and was chaplein to a regiment in Spain, and continued many years abroad in that employment. In 1710 the trustees appoint Griffin lecturer, and [ 495 ] in the deed of appointment they recite, that the lectureship was vacant by the departure of the plaintiff Phillips, and thereupon they appoint Grissin lecturer. First point was, if the trustees could remove the plaintiff Phillips from the lectureship for going abroad, and not personally preaching there every Sunday, and appoint a new lecturer in his room? Second point, admitting they had a power to remove him for absence, if Sir John Walters in this case ought to account to the plaintiff for the profits of lecturer to the time that the new lecturer was appointed? Counsel for the plaintiff argued, that the appointment of the new lecturer by the trustees was void, the plaintiff Phillips being expressly appointed lecturer for life he had a freehold, and that the trustees could not turn him out of his freehold, without some legal precess or sentence in the spiritual court, or at least they ought to have summoned him to appear before themselves, and to hear what excuse he could make for his absence, before they had removed him, and compared it to the case of a removal of an officer in a corporation for non-attendance or non-residence in the corporation, &c. and there ought to be a summons before a removal, &c. As to the 2d point, they faid, it was a clear case that Sir John Walters II

MS. Rep. Pasch, 6 Geo. Phillips v. Sir John Waiters.

Walters was accountable to the plaintiff for the profits of the lectureship till the new lecturer was appointed, deducting what Sir. J. Walters paid for supplying a sermon every Sunday in his absence, which appears by the answer not to amount to half the value of the falary, otherwise Sir John would save the money in his own pocket, there being no person that can any ways claim it but the plaintiff. Counsel for the defendant insisted, that the plaintiff was not intitled to any account at all against the defendant, for that it was proved in the cause, that the plaintiff did not read the common prayer the first time he preached, according to the act of uniformity 13 & 14 Car. 2. cap. 4. s. 19. and thereby the lectureship was void. As to the other point, they insisted, that the plaintiff had forfeited the lectureship by going abroad, and not preaching personally at the church by the express words of the founder, and the same was ipso facto wacant; and therefore the trustees might appoint a new lecturer, and such appointment was good. Parker C. was of opinion, that Sir John Walters employing another person to preach in the absence of the plaintiff, acted therein as the plaintiff's agent, and not as a trustee of the charity, and consequently ought to account to the plaintiff for the profits of the lectureship, deducting what was paid by him for supplying the plaintiff's place in his absence, but whether the appointment of the new lecturer was good or not, yet Sir John Walters having paid the whole salary to Griffin, will discharge him against the plaintiff as his agent in procuring a proper person to preach, and to do the duty for the plaintiff, but he doubted if the appointment of the new lecturer by the trustees was good, and took time to consider of that point. Afterwards, 27 May, he delivered his opinion, that the appointment of the new lecturer was good; and he said the lectureship was not void by the 13 & 14 Car. 2. cap. 4. for not reading the common prayer, for that act inflicts a penalty, but does not make the lectureship void, but the lectureship was void by the plaintiff's absence, and the necessity of absenting himself by reason of his debts was not the necessity intended by the founder to be an excuse for his absence; and though he was declared lecturer expressly for life, yet he is subject to the terms imposed by the founder; for the trustees cannot alter the terms and nature of the trust, and the first appointment is superseded by the 2d without any other act.

15. A college seised in see, was restrained by its constitution from making other leases than for 21 years and at the rack-rent. They made a lease accordingly to J.S. who having much improved the premises by building, an entry was made thereof in the audit-book, and a recommendation figured by the master, warden, and most of [ 496 ] the fellows, to grant him a new lease at the end of the term at the same rent, and when the lease was near expiring, an order was made at the audit for such new lease. But Ld. C. Parker disapproved of the recommendation, it being to wrong the college and break the statutes; and that the signing of a contract for leasing by the master and fellows, was not binding to the college, it not being under the college seal. But in case the tenant after this order had laid out money in improvements in confidence

Charitable Ales.

dence and reliance on fuch order, there would have been some equity in it. But even in that case he should only have his neparation from the private persons signing such order, and not from the college; and as to repairs done by the lessee since the order for the new leafe, they are no more than what by his old lease he was obliged to do; and therefore dismissed the tenant's bill for compelling a new lease, and with costs. Wms.'s Rep. 655. Mich. 1720. Taylor v. Dullidge Hospital in Surry.

16. In case of misbehaviour of trustees, or misapplication of charity, chancery will oblige them to assign. MS. Tab. March 8, 1720. Mayor of Coventry v. Attorney-General.

17. The governors of a free-school joined in a long lease of bouses at 5 l. a year, though worth 50 l. a year. The lords commissioners decreed the assignee of this lease to surrender it back, and ordered the leffee and the governors to pay 70 l. costs. And Ld. C. King affirmed the decree as to the furrendering, but reduced the costs to 50 l. and thought there was no reason that the charity should pay the costs, but that the lessee who was to have the benefit should; and that the governors, though not guilty of corruption, nor were to gain any thing, yet ought to pay some costs for their extreme negligence. 2 Wms.'s Rep. 284. Trin. 1725. East v. Ryall.

(G) Commissioners. Their Power. And Decrees made by them confirmed, or set aside.

1. THEN a donor appoints lands or goods to be fold, for to main-Duke's Char. Uses, tain a charitable use, and doth not appoint by whom the fale 79. pl. 22. shall be made; it shall be made by such as the commissioners shall cites S. C. and says that appoint. Toth. 92. cites 41 Eliz. Steward v. Jermin. the decree was affirmed by the ld. keeper upon an appeal to him.

Mo. 890. pl. 1253. 14 Jac. Rivet's cale,

Jo. 147. pl. 5. S. C. refolved upon reference to Walter Ch.

and Crooke

2. A commission of charitable uses was sued out by fraud to avoid a charitable use, and the commissioners made a decree for exemption from the charity, and that decree confirmed by the chancellor. Yet a new commission was sued out on the statute of charitable uses, and the lands charged with the charity, though the words of 43 Eliz. 4. are, the faid commissioners to make order, &c. Show. 206. cites Mo. pl. 1153.

3. A decree in chancery upon the 43 Eliz. 4. is conclusive, and not to be further examined, because it takes its authority by the act of parliament, and the act mentions but one examination, and it is Crew Ch. J. not like to where the chancellor makes a decree by his ordinary authority. Cro. C. 40. pl. 2. Mich. 2 Car. Windsor v. Inhabit-B. and Jones ants of Farnham.

I. that no bill of review lies, because the statute is introductory of a new law, and gives wan appeal on a decree made by commissioners to the ld. keeper, and when he has assirmed it, his assirmation is percomptory, and no review thereof can be made by himself or his successor. S. C. cited Cro. C. 351. Hill. 9 Car. B. R. per curiam. But in such case the party grieved may petition the king in parliament, and have his complaint examined, and so the decree may be affirmed, altered, or annulled. Duke's Char. Uses, 62. Eastham in Essex's cass.——When the ld. keeper has altered or confirmed a decree made upon the statute 43 Eliz. 4. the decree is to be perpetual, and then to remain in the petty bag. Toth. 92. cites 8 Car. Poor of East-Grinstead v. Howard.

4. If money be given to a charitable use by will, and the executors detain it in their hands many years without employing it according to the will, having assets, the commissioners may decree the money with damages for detaining of it, to be employed in the charitable use, according to their discretion, not exceeding 81. per cent. for a year for the damages. Duke's Char. Uses, 67. pl. 4. 16 Mar. 4 Car. Walthamstow in Essex's case.

5. My lord keeper declared, that when he had altered or confirmed the decree made upon the statute of 43 Eliz. the decree is to be perpetual, and then to remain in the petty bag; and it is in his power to make a decree good which is desective. Toth. 91. cites

8 Car. The Poor of East-Greensted v. Howard.

Duke's
Char. Uses,
79. pl. 20.
S. C. says, the decree is not perpetuated, and not to be altered but by act of parliament. printers.]

* [ The first (not) seems to be put in by mistake of the

6. If a rent-charge be granted to a charitable use out of lands in several counties, the commissioners are to charge this rent by their decree upon all the lands in every county, according to an equal distribution, having regard to the yearly value of all the lands charge-able with the rent, and cannot by their decree charge one or two manors with all the rent, and discharge the residue in other counties or places; for that their decree will then be contrary to the will of the sounders or donors. Resolved by the Ld. K. Coventry. Duke's Char. Uses, 65. pl. 3. Trin. 9 Car. East-Greensted's case.

7: If a rent be granted out of lands in several counties for maintenance of charitable uses in one county, the commissioners in that county where the charitable use is to be performed, may make a decree to charge the lands in other counties to pay an equal contribution of charge in payment of the said rent; and there needs not several inquisitions in each county, for that the rent is an intire grant by the deed or will. Resolved by Ld. Coventry. Duke's Char. Uses, 64. pl. 3. Trin. 9 Car. East-Greensted's case.

8. A charitable exhibition was devised disposable by 4 parsons of such parishes for the time being. They disagree in their election; 2 choose A. and 2 choose B. Thereupon a commission issue. The commissioners direct another meeting of the 4, and award, that if the 4 disagree, the bishop of W. should choose one, and in case of a vacancy, the guardian of the spiritualties; and decreed to l. of the arrears that should incur between the vacancy and the election, to go towards the charges of suing out the commission. The 4 disagreed, and the bishop of W. elected one. Exceptions were taken to the decree, but over-ruled, and the decree confirmed. Fin. Rep. 78. Hill. 25 Car. 2. Steers v. Burt & Holland.

9. Decree of commissioners against a purchasor of lands charged with a charity, but without notice of the charity, for payment of costs, and arrears of the annuity due before he had the actual possession of the said close, was, as to so much thereof, reversed. Fin. Rep. 81. Hill. 25 Car. 2. Wharfon v. Charles & al' in behalf

half of the poor of Warcup and Blebarn in com. Westmoreland.

10. A new commission to prove the yearly value of lands charged with a charity, though the former commission was executed and returned, was * granted on a pretence of surprize, and that the exceptant had other witnesses to examine; but if the respondent examine no witnesses, but only cross-examine those produced by the exceptant, then the exceptant to be at the charge of the commissioners on both sides, otherwise each to bear the charge of his own commissioners. Fin. Rep. 251. Trin. 28 Car. 2. Harding v. Edy.

11. Decree made by commissioners was reversed, and the exceptants quieted, on payment of fuch rent as had been paid for a long time before. Fin. Rep. 293. Pasch. 29 Car. 2. Leas and Goldsmith v. the Feoffees of Brerewood-School in Staffordshire.

Chan. Prec. S. C. that a decree was made by the commissioners of charitable uses, and exceptions were taken to it,

12. The commissioners cannot decree costs on the stat. 43 Eliz. 111. pl. 98. but if there be an appeal from their decree, the ld. chancellor may decree the costs not only of the appeal, but of the commission also, and though they decree costs that shall not upon an appeal be sufficient to reverse the decree; for the ld. chancellor may either surcease or lessen the costs, or exempt the party from them intirely. Abr. Equ. Cases, 126. Pasch. 1700. Rockley v. Keyly.

and they now came on before the master, and he and most of the bar were of opinion, that by the statute of Eliz. the master of the rolls may hear an appeal as the chancellor may, and may affirm the decree, and give costs, notwithstanding the statute mentions only the chancellor; but Mr. Edwards the register faid, it had always been an exception, and therefore the mafter of the rolls would do nothing in it.

- 13. Is at law was directed on a rehearing of exceptions taken to a decree made by commissioners of charitable uses, after that decree was twice confirmed. 2 Vern. 507. pl. 456. Trin. 1705. Corpus Christi College v. Naunton parish in Gloucestershire.
- 14. Where commissioners, for charitable uses, intend to oppress, the court will punish them. 9 Mod. 65. Mich. 10 Geo. Wright v. Hobert.

(H) Proceedings. And Exceptions to Decrees.

1. CHancery may relieve upon an original bill within the statute of charitable uses. Chan. Cases, 135. says a decree was pro-It was doubted that the court could not re- duced where, upon the advice of 4 judges, it was so resolved 30 June 1657, in case of St. John's College v. Platt. lieve upon a bill, but that the course prescribed by the statute, by a commission of charitable uses, must be observed in cases relievable by that statute; but no positive opinion was delivered, the desendant consenting to a decree-Chan. Cases, 158. Hill. 21 & 22 Car. 2. The Attorney-General v. Newman, alias Trinity-College v. Newman - But ibid. 267. Mich. 27 Car. 2. Relief wasgiven by an original bill. - Chan. Cafes, 267. Mich. 27 Car. 2. Prat v. St. John's College, it was objected that the process and method appointed by fluture ought to be held, vis. a commission and inquisition, and decree by commissioners, and so to come at last to a final decree by the ld. chancellor or ld. keeper, and not to sae by original bill, as was done in the principal case; but the ld. keeper decreed the charity, though before the flatute no such decree could have been made.

2. A decree made on behalf of a town about charitable uses. The town may lay the whole money upon any one they shall find liable to the payment thereof, which when done a commission shall issue to examine in whose possession any of the lands liable to the money decreed are, and the commissioners to apportion each party's payment with such proportionable part of the charges as the defendant hath been put unto. Chan. Rep. 91. 11 Car. 1. The Town of Market-rifing v. Brownlow.

3. The report of myself and all other the judges made to my [499] Ld. Keeper, upon a reference to us of exceptions taken in the From a copy chancery to a decree made by the commissioners of charitable uses of a MS. in Mich. term 1668, as follows. According to an order made in Ch. J. the high court of chancery on Tuesday the 11th of June last past, Keeling, in a cause here depending between Ralph Tattle, John Lee, Grace Mich. 1668. Harding, Tho. Rock, and Nath. Humphreys, exceptants, and John Bradshaw. Bradshaw, rector of the parish-church of St. Michael, Crookedlane, London, and others, respondents. We have called all parties, viz. their counsel, before us, and upon consideration of the decree mentioned in the said order, and hearing what was alleged on the other fide, we find that by inquisition taken before some of the commissioners for charitable uses, in the absence of the exceptants, it was found that several houses and lands therein mentioned were given by several persons, some in the time of E. 3. some in the time of Queen Eliz. and since, to several uses within the said parish, viz. some to the poor, some to the repair of the church, and some for preaching sermons; and that since the year 1646, the rents and profits had been received by 13 several persons, and not employed to the aforesaid uses; and the commissioners thereupon caused a charge to be drawn up of those rents and profits, amounting to 38471. 10s. and because the exceptants did not discharge themselves of that sum, they have decreed the exceptants and every of them, being 5 of the aforesaid 13 persons, to pay the said 38471. 10s. and to alter the feoffees; which decree we do conceive to be all together erroneous, and ought to be reversed; 1st, Because the exceptants were by order of some of the commissioners debarred from being heard before the jury, until after the inquisition was found. 2dly, For that it does not appear to us but that as much, or more, has been yearly paid to and for several charitable uses directed by the donors, as is required by their respective wills and gifts, though the same has not been mentioned to be paid out of the rents of the respective houses and lands by them given. 3dly, Because we find that all the parishrents and moneys, within the time mentioned in the said decree, have been by the exceptants, and the preceding and succeeding churchwardens, paid and accounted for, and those accounts audited and allowed according to the ancient usage of that parish; and we conceive that the way used by the exceptants, and other churchwardens of that parish, touching leasing out the premises, receiving the rents, and accounting for the same, is fit to be continued. And for an expedient to prevent the frustrations of commissions upon the statute for charitable · Vol. IV. Qq charitable uses by the wilfulness of any person, we conceive that it is requisite that the persons who are complained of for diverting the charity, be heard before the jury, and have liberty to answer for themselves before the inquisition be found, and thereby they will have less (if any cause at all) to put in exceptions to decrees made against them; all which we humbly certify, and refer to your lordship.

Rep. of Ld.

4. Sir Tho. Smith devised his lands in fee to such charitable uses as the Lord Lumley and Sir Henry Henn should appoint, &c. They appointed 51. to the poor of St. Mary in Chester, and the commissioners decreed that the churchwardens and overseers of that parish might distrain for this 51. The questions were, whether the commissioners could add a power of distress where there was none by the original gift; and whether the commissioners in Chestire can bind the lands in Essex with such an additional clause; and adjudged in both points that they might. Raym. 209. Hill. 22 & 23 Car. 2. B. R. Harrison v. Grosevenor.

But the reporter fays, quære? What need 5. A decree by commissioners for charitable uses, was confirmed by original bill. Chan. Cases, 193. Hill. 22 & 23 Car. 2. The Poor of St. Dunstan's v. Beauchamp.

bill? For when a decree is made by commissioners, the court is to return it into the petty-hap, and then to serve the desendant with a writ of execution, upon which service the desendant may sile acception, and pray to stay proceedings till they are heard, but if the desendants do not then except, but submit to the decree, it seems reasonable they should be concluded thereby, and not be admitted to exceptions after. Ibid. 193, 194.

* [ 500 ]

6. A decree being made by the commissioners of charitable uses, exception was taken thereto, viz. that in the several purchases made of the premises from the time of queen Elizabeth, to the time the several lands of the 2 exceptants have been quietly enjoyed, without any thing demanded for the use of the said school, save only 20 s. rent reserved out of the lands of one of them, payable yearly to John Gifford and his heirs; and 30 s. rent payable gearly out of the lands of the other to the said Gifford and bis beirs, subo granted the said lands to the ancestors of the exceptants anno 10 Jac. and which hath been paid, from time to time, for the use of the said school, and never at any time demanded or paid to the faid Gifford, or his beirs; which the exceptants do believe might proceed from such agreement made between the Giffords, and the feoffees of the said school. Thereupon the court declared there was no cause to charge the exceptant's lands with the decree made by the faid commissioners, or with any exactions or impolitions of rent, or sums of money whatsoever, and reversed the decree of the commissioners for charitable uses; and docreed that the lands of the exceptants shall be from henceforth discharged of the same, and of all sums whatsoever by the feoffees, other than the 20s. and the 30s. aforesaid. Fin. R. 293, 294. Pasch. 29 Car. 2. Leas v. Morton.

3. C. cited Arg. Mich. 13 Geo. 2.

7. A decree by commissioners for charitable uses was excepted to in chancery, which after confirmed the other decree, but in the interim A. the person decreed against, conveyed his lands to raise Comyns's portions for his daughters, with power of revocation; this shall not hinder execution for the money decreed, but the lands aliened fball be sequestred for the money, and a scire facias against A.'s heir, A. dying after the decree confirmed. 2 Chan. Cases, 94. Pasch. quer. 34 Car. 2. Harding v. Edge.

interior

8. There lies no appeal to the house of lords from a decree on the statute for charitable uses; and lords commissioners seemed to be of opinion, that a decree on exceptions to a decree of commissioners for charitable uses is final by the act of parliament, and that there tould be no re-hearing. 2 Vern. 118. pl. 116. Mich. 1689.

Saul v. Wilfor.

9. If the lord of a manor should erect a mill, and convey it to trustees, to the intent that the inhabitants might have the convenience of grinding there; the inhabitants shall not be admitted to sue here in the attorney-general's name; per Ld. Keeper. 2 Vern. 287.

in pl. 355. Mich. 1700.

10. The testator devised an annuity out of his lands for the Wms.'s maintenance of Watford-school. Upon a bill in equity exhibited Hill. by the attorney-general in behalf of the charity, it was insisted, 1719. Atthat all the tertenants of the lands charged, should be made parties, but decreed that they should not, because every part of the land is burgh & al'. chargeable, and the charity ought not to be put to this difficulty; S.P. but if the tertenants feek a contribution, they may make them parties to the information, or help themselves by such course as they think fit. 1 Salk. 163. pl. 2. in Canc. 1712. Attorney-General v. Shelly.

11. Bill to establish a will, and to perform several trusts, some of them relating to charities; the bill was brought by some of the trustees against other trustees, and several cesty que trusts.

An objection was made for want of parties, for that there being several charities given by the will to persons uncertain, not capable of fuing or being fued, and consequently cannot be brought before the court, therefore the attorney-general on their behalf ought to have been made a defendant to take care of these charities; and if a decree should be made in this cause, it would not be final, but the attorney-general might afterwards * bring an information on behalf of those charities, and set aside this decree, and there-Per Parker C. I think in fore he ought to be made a party. this case the attorney-general need not be made a defendant. is true, where a bill is brought on behalf of such a charity to establish it, it must be in the name of the attorney-general ex necessitate rei, because there are no certain persons intitled to it who can fue in their own names, but in this case there is no fuch necessity; for some of the trustees of the charity are made defendants, and there may be a decree to compel an execution of the trusts in the will relating to those charities, and if there should be any collusion between the parties in relation to the charity, it is true, the attorney-general notwithstanding a decree, may bring an information to establish the charity and set aside the decree, and I think he might do the same thing though he were

Rep. pl. 277. in the case of Cook v. Cook, in the exche-

Rep. 599. torney-General v. Wi-

[501] Ibid. The reporter lays, viz. Note, Parker C. feemed to take a difference qubers truffees of the charity are appointed by the donor, and where no trustees are appointed, but the lands deviled immediately to charitable ules. In the latter cale there can be no decree, uniess the Attorney-General be made a party but otherwife where trustees are appointed by the donor. This pro-

Qq 2

Charitable Ales.

cerded to hearing, and objections over-ruled per Parker
C.

made a defendant in case of collusion between the parties; but he seemed to admit, that where an estate is devised to trustees for charities to persons certain, who are capable to sue or be sued, such persons ought to be made desendants as well as other cests's que trust. A 2d objection for want of parties was, that one of the trustees was not brought to hearing. But it was answered, that the trustee who is not brought to hearing is named a desendant in the bill, but being beyond sea is not amesnable by the process of the court, and therefore the plaintiss may proceed without him, otherwise there would be a failure of justice; besides, that very trustee is one of the plaintiss in the cross cause, and so is before the court, quod suit concessium; per Parker C. MS. Rep. Trin. 5 Geo. in Canc. Momill v. Lawson.

12. Urged, that in case of a charity, where the most speedy and least expensive method ought to be pursued, issue ought not to be directed, but the court ought to decree upon the proofs. MS. tab. March 25, 1721. Bishop of Rochester v. Attorney-general.

For more of Charitable Uses in general, see Mortmain (A. 2) pl. 11. the stat. of 9 Geo. 2. cap. 36. and other proper titles.

Chauntery.

Fol. 387.

(A). By whom it may be made.

Chauntries were diffolved by flatutes of
H.8. & E,6.

[1. A Man may make a chauntery by licence of the king, without the ordinary, for the ordinary hath nothing to do with the making thereof. 9 H. 6. 16.]

[502]

(B) In what Place.

As to [I. IT may be founded in a cathedral church; and also in any sensuntries, see Godolp.

Repert' 329. s. 6. 331. s. 8. &c., cap. 29.

Chimin Common.

- (A) Chimin Common. What shall be said a Common Highway.
- [1. TF there be a common highway for all the king's subjects, Cro. C. and it hath been used time out of mind, when the way has 366. pl. 3. been foundrous, for the king's subjects to go by outlets upon the lands next adjoining, the way lying in the open field not inclosed; these outlets are part of the way; for the king's subjects ought to have a good passage, and the good passage is the way, and not only the beaten track; for if the lands adjoining be fowed with corn, the king's subjects (the way being foundrous) may go upon the corn. Trin. 10 Car. B. R. per curiam, upon a trial at bar upon an information against SIR EDWARD DUNCOMB.]

[2. If there be a water, which is a highway, which water by Fits. Barre, the increase or force thereof changes its course upon the ground of ano- pl. 302. ther, yet he hath a highway also over there where the water is, as he had before in the ancient course; so that the lord of the soil cannot disturb this course made de novo. 22 Ass. 93. said to be adjudged in the eire of Nottingham.]

3. A way leading to any market town, and common for all travellers, and communicating with any great road, is an highway; but if it lead only to a church, or to an house or village, or to fields, it is a private way; per Hale Ch. J. but it is a matter of fact, and depends much on common reputation. Vent. 189. Hill. 23 & 24 Car. 2. B. R. Austin's case.

4. Highway is the genus of all public ways, as well cart, borfe, 1 Salk. 359. and foot-way, and yet indictment lies for any one of these ways, if pl. 8. the they are common to all the queen's subjects, if they have occasion to pass Sainthill, there, viz. if it be a foot-way common to all, or horse and prime- S. C. but way; but these are not alta via regia; for that it is the great highway, common to cart, horse, and foot, that please to use it; per Holt Ch. J. 6 Mod. 255, Mich. 3 Ann. B. R. The Queen v. Saintiff.

5. If a vill be erected, and a way laid out to it, if there be no other way but that to the vill, not material quo animo it was laid out, it shall be deemed a publick way. No one living in a hundred shall be allowed an evidence for any matter in favour of that hundred, though so poor as upon that account to be excused from the payment of taxes, because, though poor at present, he may become rich; per Parker Ch. J. 10 Mod. 150, Hill. 11 Ann. B. R. The Queen and Inhabitants of Hornsey,

[503]

6. Communis strata and via regia are synonimous expressions, and signify the same thing, as the word (strata) is now used; per Parker Ch. J. 10 Mod. 382. Hill. 3 Geo. 1. B. R. The King v. Hammond.

7. A navigable river is esteemed an highway; per Parker Ch. J. in delivering the opinion of the court. 10 Mod. 382. Hill. 3 Geo. 1. B. R. in case of the King v. Hammond, cites Fitzh. 279. tit. Challenge.

(B) Who ought to repair it.

· Cro. C. 366. pl. 3. S. C. it MIS Proved that. though he had made a causeway reasonably good at his own charge for horsemen, yet Earts and coyches might not país, nor could meet for the Araitness thereof, nor could go befides the way; and as to his being chargeable

[1. TF there be a common highway, which time out of mind hath been used to be repaired by the country, and after J. S. that hath lands not inclosed, next adjoining to the highway of both sides of the way for his singular profit, incloses his lands of both sides the way by bedge and ditch, he by this thenceforth hath taken upon himfelf the reparation of the highway, and hath freed the country from the reparation thereof; so that he himself at all times after, where there shall be need, ought to repair it. Trin. 10 Car. B. R. in an information against SIR EDWARD DUNCOMBE, resolved per curiam upon evidence at the bar upon such an information; and it is not sufficient for him to make the way as good as it was at the time of the inclosure, but he ought to make it a perfect good way, without having any respect to the way as it was at the time of the inclosure; and then it was said that it was so resolved by all the judges 6 Jac. and 19 Jac. For when the way lay in the open fields not inclosed, the king's subjects, when the way was bad or foundrous, used to go for their better passage over the fields adjoining, out of the common track of the way, which 'liberty is taken away by the inclosure.]

to the repairs now, by reason of this inclosure, whereas the parish was chargeable before for the reparations, Noy said it was so resolved in the 6 & 19 Jac. upon conference with all the justices of England, which Richardson Ch. J. affirmed. Sid. 464. pl. 8. Trin. 22 Car. 2. B. R. cites S. C. in the case of the King v. Sir Nich. Staughton; and there the chief justice said, and it was not denied, that if a man incloses land of one fide which was anciently inclosed of the other fide, he that makes such new inclosure shall repair all the way; but if there had been no ancient inclosure of the other side, then he should repair but one half of the way; but if he makes a new inclosure on both fides of the way, there he shall repair the whole way. ------ And if one increaches upon the highway, he is chargeable to repair the faid way so long as the incroachment continues; but as soon as he leaves the incroachment open to the way again, so that the incroachment ceases, he shall be discharged from repairing the faid way for the future. But if one is bound to repair a highway ratione tenurae of any lands, though he leaves them open to the way, yet he is always bound to repair the way; per Kelyage Ch. J. 2 Saund. 160, 161. in S. C.——By Roll Ch. J. Sty. 364. Hill. 1652. all highways of common right are to be repaired by the inhabitants of that parish in which the way lies; but if my particular person will inclose any part of a way or waste adjoining, he thereby takes upon himself to repair that which he has so inclosed. — Mar. 26. pl. 62. Trin. 15 Car. B. R. S. P. accordingly per cur. in case of the King v. the Inhabitants of Shoreditch. 13 Rep. 33. Pasch. 7 Jac. Anon-Liys, that of common right all the country ought to repair it, because they have their ease and passage by it; but yet some may be particularly bound to repair it. --- The inhabitants of every parish of common right ought to repair the highways, and therefore if particular persons are made chargeable to repair the faid ways by a statute lately made, and they become insolvent, the justices of peace may put that charge upon the rest of the inhabitants; per Holt Ch. J. Ld. Raym. Rep. 725. Mich. 10 W. J. B. R. Anon. — 2 Ld. Raym. Rep. 1170. Trin. 4 Ann. Holt Ch. J. cited Duncomb's case supra. - Keb. 894. pl. 60. S. C. cited per cur. as resolved that it is not sufficient that such new way is better than ever the former was, but he must keep it in sufficient repair for the king's people to pass-[504]

[2. An

[2. An owner of land, who is no occupier thereof, cannot be charged to repair a common way, but only the occupier. II Car. B. R. in one Foster's CASE, per curiam, upon a motion for a prohibition to the marches of Wales, upon an information there preferred in such case against the owner.]

3. It was held in B. R. that he who has land next adjoining to the king's highway, is bound to cleanse the dykes without any prescription.

Br. Nusance, pl. 28. cites 8 H. 7. 5.

4. Contra of him who has land which is not adjoining, but other land is between him and the way, he is not so bound unless it be by prescription. Ibid.

5. And, per Keble, a man is not bound to lop his trees which incumber the way, therefore it seems that another may do it, and the foil and franktenement of the way is to those to whom it adjoins; but he who has land adjoining to a bridge, is not bound to do it, unless it be by prescription. Ibid.

6. A hamlet within a parish cannot be charged of common right to repair a highway, except it be by prescription, or some other special reason, but a vill may be; per Roll Ch. J. Sti. 163. Mich. 1649. B. R. The Inhabitants of Mile-end in the Parish of Stepney.

7. If a man has 8 plough-lands, he ought to find 8 carts for 6 days although his land be pasture. Raym. 186. Pasch. 22 Car. 2.

B. R. Frere's case.——He had 1700 acres of meadow.

8. Every * parish of common right ought to repair the high- * Unless ways, and no agreement with any person whatsoever can take off this charge which the law lays upon them. Nota. Vent. 90. Trin. matter to fix 22 Car. 2. B. R. Anon.

there be fome special it upon others; per

Hale Ch. J. Vent. 183. Hill. 23 & 24 Car. 2. B. R. in Austin's case.—(But the reporter adds a quiere, why not the county? as in the case of common bridges, and cites 2 lnst. 701.)

Unless a + particular person be obliged by prescription or custom; but private ways are to be repaired by the village or hamlet, or sometimes by a particular person. 1 Vent. 189. per Hale Ch. J. in Austin's case.

† Mar. 26. pl. 62. Trin. 15 Car. B. R. The King v. the Inhabitants of Shoreditch.

9. An information was brought against the defendant for not repairing of a highway, ratione tenuræ, between Stratford and Bow. It was tried at the bar by an Essex jury. The evidence for the king was that Mawd the empress gave certain lands to the abbess of Barking to repair this way, that the abbess, &c. sold those lands to the abbot of Stratford, who, by the confent of his convent, charged all bis lands for the repair of the way; and thus it stood till the diffor lution, &c. 'Then all the lands of the abbot of Stratford, being vested in the crown, were granted to Sir Peter Mewtis, who held them charged for repairing the way, and from him, by feveral mesne conveyances they came to the defendants. This was proved by several witnesses living in other parishes, none being admitted to give evidence who lived in either of the said parishes of Stratford or Bow. But it was said, for the defendants, that no lands shall be chargeable for the repairing this highway, ratione tenuræ, but such which were originally given for that purpose, and so the defendants could not be guilty, unless it was proved that they had some Q 9 4 of those lands in possession which were given by the empress to the abbess of Barking, and that no other lands formerly belonging to the abbot of Stratford were liable, but such which he bought of the said abbess. The court was of opinion, that upon this evidence all the lands of the abbot were liable to repair this way, and directed the jury accordingly, who sound for the plaintiffs. 4 Mod. 48. Mich. 3 W. & M. B. R. The King and Queen v. Buckeridge & al'.

Chimin Common.

no. Per Holt Ch. J. The inhabitants of every parish, of common right, ought to repair the highways; and therefore if perticular persons are made chargeable to repair the said ways by a statute lately made, and they become insolvent, the justices of peace may put that charge upon the rest of the inhabitants. Ld. Raym. Rep. 725. Mich. 10 W. 3. B. R. Anon.

11: Every parish of common right ought to repair their highway; but by prescription one parish may be bound to repair the way in another parish; per Holt Ch. J. 12 Mod. 409. Trin. 12 W. 3.

- bridge or highway ratione tenure, may, upon several alienations of several parcels, agree to discharge those that purchase of him of such repairs, yet that will not alter the remedy for the publick, but will only bind the lord and those that claim under him; and no act of the proprietor will apportion the charge, whereby the remedy for the publick benefit should be made more difficult. I Salk. 358. Pasch. 3 Ann. The Queen v. the Dutchess of Buccleugh & al'.
- 13. And though a manor subject to such charge comes into the bands of the crown, yet the duty continues upon it; and any person claiming afterwards under the crown, the whole manor, or any part of it, shall be liable to an indictment or information for want of due repairs. I Salk. 358. S. C.

(C) Privileged from Duty. Who.

2 Lev. 139. 1. CLergymen are liable to the repairs of the highways, and Trin. 27 judgment accordingly. Vent. 273. Trin. 26 Car. 2. adjudged.— B. R. Dr. Webb v. Batchillor.

2. An exemption by the king's letters patents made before the 2 & The king's moneyers of 3 Ph. & M. cap. 8. are not sufficient to exempt lands chargeable the mint to send men for the repairing highways, from the charge of reare not expairing them, which lands by the faid statute of Ph. & M. and empted from doing duty to other subsequent statutes are chargeable to send men for that purthe high-3 Mod. 96. Hill. pole; and judgment was given accordingly. ways; ad-1 Jac, 2. B. R. Bret v. Whitchcot. judged. Cumb. 10.

Hill. 1 &2 Jac. B. R. Brent v. Whitchcock, S. C.

(D) Offences in Highways punished.

1. NO lord can punish purpresture upon a highway, unless he be lord of both sides. Kelw. 141. a. pl. 11. says it was fo said in that plea, and affirmed by Shard. Cases in Itin. in time of E. 3.

2. If any particular person after the nusance made, has more [ 506 ] particular damage than any other; in such case, and because of Per Vaugh. this particular injury, he shall have particular action upon the Ch. J. Vaugh. 341. case. 7 Rep. 73. cites 27 H. 8. 27. a.

-S. P. per

Fitzh. J. Br. Actions sur le Case, pl. 6. cites S. C. _____As if be and bis borse fall into it, whereby he receives hurt and loss. Co. Litt. 56. a. says, that it was so resolved in B.R. and in the margin cites 27 H. 8. —And in the case of Fineux v. Hovenden, Cro. E. 664. Pasch. 41 Eliz. Coke attorney-gemeral shed the S. P. adjudged in the same year of 27 H. 8. Bendlows v. Kemp.

Br. Action sur le Case, pl. 93. cites 5 E. 4. 3. that he shall not have action against him who ought to repair it; for that is the people, but it shall be reformed by presentment. ----- So by Baldwin Ch. J. If a man stops the king's highway, so that a man cannot pass from bis bouse to bis close, he shall not have action on the case, but he shall be punished by the leet. Ibid. pl. 6. cites 27 H. 8. 26, 27.

3. Case lies not for bindering a man's passage in a common high- 3 Mod. 289. way, because he has no more damage than others of the king's trick, S. C. subjects; but it must be by indictment. Comb. 180. Trin. adjudged for 3 & 4 W. & M. in B. R. Pain v. Partridge.

the defend-

I Salk. 12. pl. 1. S. C. held accordingly. Show. 243. S. C. Mich. 2 W. & M. adjornature Ibid. 255. S. C. adjudged for the defendant.

4. Indictment against 2 defendants who were overseers of the highway, for not repairing, or causing to be repaired, the highways, and quashed; because an indictment for not repairing, must always be against the parish, the overseers not being bound to repair the ways, but only to give notice to the parish to come and repair 12 Mod. 198. Trin. 10 W. 3. The King v. Dixon & them. Hollis.

Proceedings, Pleadings, and Judgment.

1. I Ndictment was for not repairing a way which he ought to This exception was difdo in Blackacre in D. ratione tenura, without laying tenurae allowed, and And by the opinion of the court it was naught; for ano- it was faid, that the prether may have the land. Noy, 93. Anon. cites 5 H. 7. 3. cedents are generally so. Vent. 331. Trin. 30 Car. 2. B. R. The King v. Sir The. Fanshaw.

2. If a man is bound to repair a way ratione tenure talis terræ, in a presentment or in a plea, he need not allege title of prescription, because a prescription is implied in the estate of inheritance in the pair such Kelw. 52. pl. 4. Trin. 19 H. 7. Anon. land.

But where a man is bound to re-Way ratione residentia, there he must of necessity allege a prescription. And this diversity was admitted good; per tot. cur-Kelw. 52. ut sup.

Chimin Common.

3. G. was indicted for flopping the highway, and the indictment was not laid to be contra pacem. And Cook said, that for a misfeasance it ought to be contra pacem; but for a non-feasance of a thing, it was otherwise; and the indictment was for setting up a gate in Ofterly-park; and exception also was taken to the indictment for want of addition; for vidua was no addition of the Lady Gresbam; and also vi et armis was left out of the indicament; and for these causes she was discharged, and the indictment quashed. Godb. 59. pl. 71. Mich. 28 & 29 Eliz. B, R. Lady Gresham's case,

[507]

4. An indictment was of a nusance to a horse-way, whereas it ought to be to the queen's or king's highway, or to the highway, and therefore it was quashed. Cro. E. 63. pl. 8. Mich. 29 & 30 Eliz. B. R. Madox's case.

5. The defendant was presented in a leet, for that he had diverted the queen's highway within the leet, to the nusance of the queen's subjects. The court agreed that the presentment is void, because a highway cannot be diverted as a course of water may be, but may be obstructed or stopped; but a way is not diverted when it is stopt, and another way made in another place. And. 234. pl. 251. Pasch. 32 Eliz. Agmondesham v. Cornwallis.

6. K. was indicted for stopping quandum viam valde necessariam for all the king's subjects there passing; exception was taken because it wanted the word regiam, and said that the word (necesfariam) does not imply any [fuch] matter; for a foot-way is necessary. Besides, the party had no addition; and for these reafons he was discharged. 4 Le. 121. pl. 243. Trin. 32 Eliz. B. R. Keene's case.

7. Two were indicted for increaching upon the highway, and the indictment was et unum tenementum ibidem erectaverunt, where it should be erexerunt; for there is no such Latin word as erectaverunt; and it was not anglice, did erect, which had been good, and for this cause it was discharged. Cro. E. 231. Pasch. 33 Eliz. B. R. Chambers & Johns.—Alias, the Queen v. Chambers & Johns.

8, Indicament for not repairing a bridge, was debent & solent reparare pontem, &c. It was moved that the indictment was insufficient, because it is not alleged that the bridge was over a water, and not needful that it be amended. Secondly, it did not appear in the indictment that the said bridge was ruinous and decayed. Thirdly, the indictment is, that the defendants debent & solent reparare pontem, and it is not shewed that their charge of repairing of the same is ratione tenuræ, and cites 21 E. 4. 38. where it is faid that a prescription cannot be, that a common perfon ought to repair a bridge, unless it be said to be ratione tenuræ, but it is otherwise in case of a corporation; and the indictment was quashed. Godb. 346, 347. pl. 441. Trin. 21 Jac. B. R. Bridges and Nichols's case.

z Roll. Rep. 5. C. by mame of Notting-

g. Exceptions were taken to an indictment for not repairing an highway. First, because he did not show who were supervisors; · sed non allocatur. Secondly, because it did not shew the day nor han's sale, year of the offence, and held not material; because it appears that it was before the indicament, that he did not attend with a cart fuch alias Tho. a day appointed by the supervisors. Thirdly, the statute * 1 & 2 M. cop. 3. is highway leading to a market town; & non allocatur; it should be because every highway leads from town to town, and cites 6 E. 3. 33. Fourthly, it is alleged that T. B. babens tantum terra committed the offence, and the words of the statute are occupy, &c. so that a man is not chargeable if he does not occupy his land, though it be his frank-tenement. But it was agreed that if a man fuffers his land to lie fresh, it shall not excuse him. But the judges doubted of the 4th exception, and commanded the defendant to procure a certificate of bis conformity, before they would quash the indictment. Palm. 389. Mich. 21 Jac. B. R. Tho. Bole's case.

* It feems the 2 6 3 P. & M. cap. &.

10. H. was indicted for stopping the kings's highway in Kensing- So in an inton, but does not allege any buttalls of the king, viz. leading not repairing from such a village to such a village, &c. And by Jones J. it a highneeds not, because the nusance is in the king's highway, which way, the is intended to go through all the realm, but otherwise it should have been of another common way, to which Dodderidge and the omitting Whitlock agreed. Noy, 90. Mich. 2 Car. B. R. Halsell's case. the terminus dictment for court conceived, that material, but the emitting the word (communis) is ill; but the court left them to a writ of error, and judgment † pro rege. 2 Keb. 728. pl. 8. Hill. 22 & 23 Car. 2. B. R. The King v. Glaston Inhabitants.

The indictment did not set forth, from what place to what place the highway led in which the nusance was said to be committed. It was answered, that a highway has no terminus a que, nor termimus ad quem, and the indictment held good. 10 Mod. 383. Hill. 3 Geo. 1. B. R. The King v. Hammond. -- Ibid. Arg. says, that a highway is infinite, and cites 10 W. 3. The King v. Thompson. +[508]

II. L. was indicted for not repairing of an highway; the indictment above was quashed, because it is not shewed of what place the defendant was an inhabitant. Noy, 87. Mich. 2 Car. B. R.

Lucye's case.

12. H. was indicted for not paving the king's highways in the county of M. in St. John's-street, ante tenementa sua, but because the indictment did not set forth how he became chargeable to the same. nor that he dwelt there, nor that he had any tenement there, besides, if he had, yet it might be that his lessee dwelt in the house. and so the lessee ought to have amended the highway; and for these uncertainties the indictment was quashed. Godb. 400. pl. 481. Pasch. 3 Car. B. R. Serjeant Hoskins's case.

13. In an indictment for not repairing a way which he ought Noy, 93. ratione tenura of certain lands in Ashton, and does not say ratione tenura sua, and if another has the land, it is no reason to indict him; and of this opinion was the court. Lat. 206. Trin. 3 Car. be S.C. and cordingly, and feems to cites 5 H.7.

S. P. ac-

Anon.

ingly. Vent. 331. Trin. 30 Car. 2, B. R. The King v. Fanshaw, S. P. & S. C. cited, sed non allocatur; for the precedents generally are ratione tenurse, without faying (fuse.)

14. Upon a presentment against T.B. for erecting a brick wall, and thereby straitening the highway, Mr. Attorney said, that it could not be arrented, unless there was an inquiry per ministros forrestæ, si sit competens passagium; for if it be not, it is a nusance in which the subject is so far interested, that the king cannot dispense with it. Jo. 277. 8 Car. in Itinere Windsor. Browne's case.

3. accord-

15. Information for flopping a highway; it was said there was a common highway for horse, foot, and carriages, in such a lane, leading to divers market towns, and the defendant with bedges and ditches stopped it. The defendants confels the highway, but say it was so foul and drowned with water and dirt that passengers could not pass, and that for ease of the passengers, J. & seized of a close adjoining to it, laid out another way more commodious for the people, and before the laying out of it a writ of ad quod damnum issued, to inquire whether it were to the damage of, &c. if the king should grant such licence to the defendants; and on inquisition was taken, that it was not to the damage, &c. It was moved that this plea was ill, both for matter and form, because it did not appear by what authority J. S. did it; for it is but at his pleasure, and he may stop it when he will, and by that laying out the subjects have not such interest therein as they may justify their going there; nor is it such a way as inhabitants are bound to watch, or to make amends if a robbery be done there; nor is any one bound to repair it; and the pleading of the ad quod damnum, and the inquisition upon it, are to no purpose when he does not plead, that he obtained the king's licence; and judgment accordingly. Cro. C. 266. pl. 16. Trin. 8 Car. B. R. The King v. Ward.

16. In an information against the inhabitants of S. for not repairing the highway, and the issue was, whether they ought to repair it or no? Some, of the inhabitants would have been witnesses to prove that some particular persons, inhabitants, lying upon the highway, had used, time out of mind, to repair it, but were not permitted by the court, because they were defendants in the information, wherefore the jury found that the inhabitants ought to repair the way. Mar. 26, 27. pl. 62. Trin. 15 Car. B. R. The King v.

the Inhabitants of Shoreditch.

17. Indictment for not repairing a highway was quashed, for 509 ] that it set forth, that the defendant ought to repair it, by reason of bis tenements, when it should have been, that he, and all those whose estate he has in the tenements, used to repair; or, that by reason of the tenure of his tenements he ought to repair. Sty. 400, Hill, 1652. B. R. Anon.

18. The defendants were indicted for not repairing a highway, and a verdict found against them. The court was moved that a good fine may be fet upon them, because the way is not get amended, and a traveller that paffed that way has lost his horse fince the trial, the way being so bad that the horse broke his leg. The other fide moved to respite, the fine, because there was a contest between this parish and another, which of them ought of right to repair the way, and in regard this parish is very poor; besides, the way cannot be amended until the summer, and then it shall be done; but Roll Ch. J. ordered a distringus to levy a fine of 20 L of the parishioners for not repairing it. Sty. 366. Hill. 1652. B. R. Stoneham's Inhabitants cafe.

01

19. In an information for not repairing a way in B. from A. to D. in the parish of C. The defendant pleaded, that the said way in the parish of C. is in the parish of B. and that the inhabitants of B. ought to repair it; whereupon it was demurred, and the court conceived the plea repugnant, and ordered the defendants to repair by consent, and that if the others ought to repair part, they shall refund fo much as shall be after found due on the trial, otherwise the court would have given judgment. 1 Keb. 277. Pasch. 14 Car. 2. B. R. The King v. Yarenton Inhabitants (in Oxford- and then shire).

Sid. 140. pl. 14. Pasch. 15Car.2. B. R. the S.C. the information ought not to be quashed till it be found who ought to repair it; judgment shall be given, though upon an ill issue. It was infifted, that no judgment could be given, it not being found who ought to repair; but per our. the judgment shall be, that the defendants go quit, and that the other vills, between whom the iffue was, should repair. _____3 Salk. 392. pl. 1. S. C.

20. Upon an information for not repairing a highway, the iffue The iffue was, quod non reparare debent; but though it was an ill issue, yet the court would not quash it till tried, to the intent to know who ought to repair it. And afterwards it was found non debent reparare, but find not certainly who ought to repair it. In this case no judgment shall be given, otherwise if they had found who ought to repair; for then judgment should be given, though the issue be ill, as the court held clearly; and they were of opinion, that the defendants should go quit, and that the other vill, who directed this issue, and who of right ought to repair, should repair. 1 Sid. 140. Pasch. 15 Car. 2. B. R. The King v. Yarnton Inhabitants in Oxfordshire.

being by a Special agreement, the court conceived the verdict well enough, though it be not found who ought to repair, and judgment for the defendant. 1 Keb. 514. 5. C. ---

Sid. 140, ibid. reports, that Twisden J. said, that he was counsel in a like case for the vill of Camberwell.

21. The inhabitants of S. were indicted for digging in the highway, but did not fay in what town, parish, or village the place was, and therefore they moved to quash it; but the court denied, unless there was a certificate of amendment. 2 Keb. 221. pl. 68. Pasch. 19 Car. 2. B. R. The King v. Shelderton Inhabitants.

22. Information against one for stopping of the highway, the word was obstupabat; it was proved in evidence, that he plowed it up, and resolved it did well maintain the information. Vent. 4.

20 & 21 Car. 2. B. R. Griefley's case.

22. S. was convicted for not repairing a highway, viz. that he, and all those whose estate he has, ought to repair the said way ratione tenura; and it was adjudged ill, because it is by way of prescription, where it ought to be by way of custom. I Sid. 464. Trin. 22 Car. 2. B. R. The King v. Sir Nich. Staughton.

*[510] This case was upon a prefertment by a justice of peace on his own view, and that S.

ought to repair rations tenurae of certain lands, parcel of the faid piece of land (mentioned before) cailed Stoke-common, by the said So out of the said common highway, inclosed and increached, and * which, time out of mind, had been part of the said highway. The defendant pleaded, that the inhabitants ought to repair the said highway and traversed, absque hoc that he ought to repair the said way ratione tesurar, &c. and upon demurrer it was held, that the ratione tenurar was ill, and that it ought to have been ratione coarctationis of the faid way, and that defendant did well in traverfing the ratione tenura, and could not do otherwise; and adjudged for the defendant. 2 Saund. 160. The King v. Stough-

But see tit. Indictment (M) pl. 13. contra.

- 24. In an indictment for not repairing quandam altam viam, the word (communem) was omitted, and therefore held ill; but the omitting the terminus a quo was conceived not material. 2 Keb. 728. pl. 8. Hill. 22 & 23 Car. 2. B. R. The King v. the Inhabitants of Glaston.
- 25. In an indicament for erecting posts and rails, in a highway, it was held necessary to prove that the party indicted set them up; for a continuance of them, or not suffering them to be removed, would not serve. 1 Vent. 183. Hill. 23 & 24 Car. 2. B. R. Austin's case.

3 Keb. 28. pl. 50. The King v. Thrower, ' 5. C. and it being not Gaid pro inhabitantibus parochiæ, but pro ommibus subditis domini regis, the court would not quash it without pleading. --Indictment for stopping

26. An indicament was for flopping a common way to the church of Whithy. It was objected that an indictment would not lie for a nusance in a church-path; but suit might be in the ecclesiastical court; besides the damage is private, and concerns only the parishioners; and where there is a foot-way to a common, every commoner may bring his action if it be stopped; but in such case there can be no indictment. Hale Ch. J. said that if this were alleged to be a common foot-way to the church for the parishioners, the indictment would not be good; for then the nusance would extend no further than the parishioners, for which they have their particular fuits; but for aught appears this is a common foot-way, and the church is only the terminus ad quem, and it may lead further, the church being expressed only to ascertain it, and it is said ad commune nocumentum, wherefore the rule was that he should plead to it. I Vent. a way to the 208. Pasch. 24 Car. 2. Thrower's case.

church, did not lay it to be communis via, yet per cur. it is good enough; and per Jones J. it is good enough, though there wants vi & armis, because he who is supposed to stop the way is owner of the land-Poph. 206. Mich. 2 Car. B. R. Hebborn's case.

Cro. C. 584. Leyton's casc.---2 Show. 60. pl. 46. Pasch. 31 C#. 2. S. P.

- 27. The course of B. R. upon an indictment for stopping a way, is that the offender is admitted to a fine upon his submission before verdict, if there he a certificate that the way is repaired; but if the party be convicted by verdict, such certificate will not ferve, but the party ought to cause a constat to issue out to the B.R. Anon. Sheriff, who ought to return that the way is repaired, because the verdict, which is a record, ought to be answered with matter of Raym. 215. Pasch. 24 Car. 2. B. R. Houghton's record.
- 28. If a parish, &c. be indicted for not repairing a highway 12 Mod. 112. pl. 10. within their precinct, they cannot plead not guilty, and give in evi-Anon. S.P. and seems to dence that another ought to repair it; for they are chargeable de communi jure, and if they would discharge themselves by laying it be $. C.— 3 Keb. 301. elsewhere, they must plead it. 1 Vent. 256. Pasch. 26 Car. 2. pl. 36. The King v. St. B. R. Anon.

Andrew's Holbourn, S. C. & S. P. by Hale Ch. J. accordingly. ______ 3 Salk. 183. pl. 3. S. C. & S. P. accordingly; but that, where a private person is indicted for not repairing, he may give in evidence that apother is to repair, because he is not bound of common right as the parish is.

If you plead not guilty, 'it goes to the repair or not repair; but if you will discharge yourself, you must do it by prescription or ratione tenuræ, and say that such an one ratione tenuræ, or such a part of the parish, bath always used time out of mind, &c. 1 Mod. 112. Pasch. 26 Car. 2. B. R. Lexterlane's case.

29. An indictment in a leet was for flopping a common highway leading from a place called Up-end. Exception was taken, for that every highway must be from some publick place; but per cur. this may be well enough; but because it was not set forth where the flopping was, the indicament was quashed. 3 Keb. 644. pl. 88.

Pasch. 28 Car. 2. B. R. Ayrell's case.

30. Replevin of taking of 5 oxen. The defendant makes cognizance as bailiff to the lord of the leet, because the plaintiff was amerced there for not scouring a ditch in an highway; and the plaintiff demurred, because the statute of 18 Eliz. cap. 9. gives the forfeitures for highways to the furveyors of the highways; but adjudged by all the justices for the defendant, because the party may be punished in the leet, and also by this statute for divers causes. Raym. 250. Trin. 30 Car. 2. Stephens v. Hayns.

31. Indictment for not repairing a way to a church, and fays, the defendants ought to repair the same, but does not say how, whether by reason of tenure, or otherwise. It was held naught, because, prima. facie, and regularly, the parish or county ought to do it of common right. 2 Show. 201. pl. 206. Pasch. 34 Car. 2. B. R.

The King v. Warwick (Mayor, &c.).

32. A presentment was at a court-leet for not repairing a certain pair of stairs leading to the Thames. Several exceptions were taken to the form and manner of the presentment; but the court would not quash it, because it was for not repairing the highway. 2 Show. 455. pl. 420. Mich. 1 Jac. 2. B. R. The King v. the Inhabitants of Limehouse.

33. A justice of P. on his view presented a highway to be out of S. C. repair, and the presentment being removed by certiorari into B. R. the defendants pleaded not guilty. The jury found a special verdict that the way was out of repair, but that it was not a highway, but a private way. Holt Ch. J. held that the verdict was against the defendants, because upon their plea of not guilty they give in $. C. -12 evidence that it is no bighway, but that matter ought to be pleaded Mod. 13. specially; and he held that where a justice of peace presents a s. p. highway upon his view to be out of repair, there the parties are estopped to plead that it is in repair. But the other judges were against him in both points, and held that this might be given in evidence upon the general issue, and that the parties might traverse the non-repairing, though the presentment was upon view; for that cannot be a greater estopple than the finding of a grand jury who are upon oath. Carth. 212, 213. Hill. 3 W. & M. B. R. The King v. Hornsey Inhabitants.

34. If a presentment be made by a justice of peace, upon his own 4 Mod. 38. view, that a highway is out of repair, and the defendants plead specially to such a presentment, viz. that they ought not to repair, -12 Mod. they likewise must show who ought to repair, or else the plea is ill. Agreed per tot. cur. and said to have been so adjudged by Hale Ch. J. Carth. 213. Hill. 3 W. & M. B. R. in case of the King v. Hornsey Inhabitants.

35. The being of a highway is matter of supposal, and must be denied in pleading; and so held in the case of Leather-lane, per Holt

I Show. 270. Trin. 3 W. & M. ordered to 4 Mod. 38. S. C. 🏍

S. C. held accordingly. 13. S. C. accordingly. Holt Ch. J. And per Eyres J. you may give it in evidence; for it is the same as no park or no warren. In trespass it is not guilty. The presentment is but in nature of an indicament. Per cur. ordered to stay. Show. 291. Trin. 3 W. & M. The King v. Hornsey.

36. By 3 & 4 W. & M. cap. 12. the profecution is to be in the proper county, and not removed.

Comb. 396.
The King
v. the Inhabitants of Ireton in Cumberland, S. P. accordingly.

37. Indictment upon the statute of P. & M. for not working at the highways upon notice. Holt said, the better opinions had been, that you can give nothing in evidence upon not guilty, but that the ways are in repair. Cumb. 312. Hill. 6 W. 3. B. R. The King v. Terrell & al'.

-But if it be against a particular person, he may give in evidence that others ought to repair its

[512]

38. Error of a judgment upon an indictment at the quarter-fessions, for non-repairing a highway between A. and B. in the parish of R. and the judgment was, that such a sum extrabatur & levetur to repair the said way, nis it were repaired by such a time. It was objected that the judgment was preposterous, extrahatur & levetur, instead of the natural way of levetur & extrahatur; and for this exception the judgment was reversed, and compared to debt upon bond for 101. if judgment were ideo consideratum est, quod habeat executionem de præd. 101. & recuperet; per cur. it would be error. 12 Mod. 409. 12 W. 3. The King v. Ragley Parish.

2Ld.Raym. Rep. 858. S. C. and judgment was arrefted.

39. A man was indicted for not working towards the repair of the highways according to the statute, and shewed that 6 days between such and such a time were appointed by the justices, and that the desendant did not come within any of the six days. This indictment was held naught; for the particular days ought to be set forth. I Salk. 357. Pasch. 2 Ann. B. R. The Queen v. Kime.

40. The justices must not appoint 6 days generally between such and such a time, but must be particular, and if the appointment was naught in such case, the party is not bound to come at all.

I Salk. 357. Pasch. 2 Annæ, B. R. The Queen v. Kime.

41. Indictment was for not repairing a bouse standing upon the highway ruinous, and like to fall down, which the defendant occupied, and ought to repair ratione tenure sue. Upon not guilty, the jury found a special verdict, viz. that the defendant occupied, but was only tenant at will. The court held, that the ratione tenure was only an idle allegation; for it was not only charged, but found that the defendant was occupier, and in that respect he is answerable to the publick; for the house was a nusance as it stood, and the continuing it in that condition is continuing the nusance; and as the danger is the matter that concerns the publick, the publick is to look to the occupier, and not to the estate, which is not material in fuch case as to the publick. And Powell J. held, that there might be fuch a tenure, and that tenures being chargeable upon the land by the statute of avowries, it is not material, even in an avowry, what estate the occupier has in the premises. 357. Trin. 2 Ann. B. R. The Queen v. Watts.

42. The

42. The defendants were indicted for not repairing a common 6 Mod. 163. footway, and confessed, and submitted to a fine; et per cur. the matter is not at an end by the defendants being fined, but writs of defendants distringas shall be awarded in infinitum, till we are certified that the way is repaired. Salk. 358. pl. 6. Pasch. 3 Ann. B. R. The Queen v. Cluworth Inhabitants.

cites S C. - But the are not be and to put it in better condition than it bas been time out of mind, but as it has usually been at the best. I Salk. 158. in S. C.

43. An indicament was, that fuch a day alta via regia fuit & adhuc est valde lutosa & tam angusta, so that the queen's people cannot pass without danger of their lives, &c. Holt Ch. J. and Powell J. held the indictment naught for want of faying, that the way was out of repair; and Powell said, that the saying it was tam angusta that people could not pass, was repugnant to its being alta via regia; for had it been so narrow, people could never have passed there time out of mind. 2 Ld. Raym. Rep. 1169. Trin. 4 Ann. The Queen v. the Inhabitants of Stretford.

11 Mod. 56. The Queen v. the Inhabitants of Stratford, S. C. the court thought it infufficient, because notshown that the way was straightened.

For more of Chimin Common in general, see Indiament, Dulance, and other proper titles.

Chimin Private.

[ 513 ]

Chimin Private. [And how Persons may be Fol. 394. (A)intitled to a Way.]

Man by prescription may have a way from his meadow to the high-street. 20 Ass. 18.]

Br. Chimin, pl. 7. cites S. C. fays, that a man shall not have affile of nusance of a way stopped, unless it be to some franktenement, but if it be from a meadow to a high street, it is as well as from his house to the high street. ——Fitzh. Assis, pl. 218. cites S. C. & S. P. accordingly. Br. Affise, pl. 229. cites S. C.

[2. A man may have a way from his house to the church. 20 Br. Chimin, pl. 7. fays, Aff. 18.] Herle awarded affise of a way which was claimed to a church; and Brooke says, quod nota, & quære inde; for of a way in grose an affise does not lie. ——Fitzh. Assise, pl. 218. cites S. C. & S. P. — Br. Assie, pl. 229. cites S. C. but Brooke says, quære inde, for it is not claimed properly to his franktenement.

3. A man may prescribe to have a way to go out of a church, or Br. Preever a church-jard, notwithstanding that it is a sanctuary; per all scription, pl. Vol. IV. Rг the the justices and apprentices in chancery. Trin. 18 E. 4. 8. 2. S. C. and says, that it pl. 10. And it was faid there, that the church-yard of the it seems that Charter-house is a common way for the inhabitants of London to the words (out of a St. J. and that they prescribe in it. church) figmities (through the church, &c.) ___ Jenk. 142. pl. 94. S. C.

> 4. Chimin appendant cannot be made in gross by grant, for none can have the commodity thereof but he who has the land to which this way is appendant. Br. Chimin, pl. 14. cites 5 H. 7. 7.

> 5. A. had an acre of land which was in the middle, and incompassed with other of his lands, and infeoffs B. of that acre, and resolved by the 4 justices that B. shall have a convenient way over the lands of the feoffor, and he is not bound to use the same way that the feoffor uses. Noy, 123. Oldfield's case.

1 Salk. 173. pl. 2. 216. pl. 1, 579. pl. 1. S. C. but S. P. does not ap-3 Salk. 121. S. C. but S. P. does Bot appear.

6. A stranger may have a way over another man's soil 3 manner of ways, viz. for necessity, by grant, and by prescription. necessity, as if A. has an acre of ground surrounded by ground of B.—A. for necessity has a way over a convenient part of B.'s ground to his own foil, as a necessary incident to his ground. So if A. grants a piece of land which is furrounded by land of vendor, he grants a way as a necessary incident therewith. seised of Blackacre and Whiteacre, and uses a way from Blackacre over Whiteacre to a mill, river, &c. and he grants Blackacre to B. with all ways, easements, &c. the grantee shall have the same conveniency that A. had when he had Blackacre. So if A. has 2 acres, and has a way from them over B.'s land, and grants one of them with all ways, B. shall have the same way that A. had. But there in making title B. must allege such an estate in A. as is traversable, and not only say that A. was possessed of the land to which, &c. for a term of years; for there the possession would be [514] traversable materially. 3. If a way of necessity be claimed, it is a good plea to say that the party has another way; but otherwise where a way is claimed by grant or prescription. 6 Mod. 3. Mich. 2 Ann. B. R. Staple v. Heydon.

(A. 2) A Way. How it may be used.

[1. IF A. be seised in see of a backside in a town, and the bigh street is next adjoining thereto on the east, and there is a gate in the backside which incloses it from the street, the gate being in the east next to the street; and A. is also seised in fee of a messuage and piece of land next adjoining to the backfide on the north of the backfide, and by deed infeoffs B. of the messuage and piece of land which are on the north of the backside, and by the same deed further grants to bim and his heirs liberos ingressum, egressum, & regressum in, ad & extra eadem concessa pramissa, in, per & trans pradictas januam & backfide; by force of this grant B. may go from the street through the gate, and over the backfide to the messuage or piece of land of which he is infeoffed; but he cannot go through the said gate and backlide to other places, or from other places to the street, without coming to the said messuage or piece of land, for the liberty is granted to him of ingress and egress in, ad & extra eadem concessa premissa, so that this is made appurtenant to the premises Car. B. between Hodder and Holman, before granted. adjudged upon a demurrer, where in trespass pedibus ambulando in the backfide, the defendant justified by force of the faid grant, shewing all this matter in the grant, and that he went from the said piece of land over the backside and through the gate to the street, & sic retrorsum; and the plaintiff replied, that he did the trespass of his own wrong, absque hoc that he went from the Taid piece of land over the backfide through the gate to the street, & sic retrorsum; and adjudged a good traverse, for the cause aforesaid. Intratur Hill. 9 Car. Rotulo. Dorset.7

[2. In trespass for breaking his close, if the defendant justifies going over his close, because he was used, time out of mind, to have a way over it from D. to Blackacre, and the plaintiff replies that at the time of the trespass the defendant went with his carriages from D. to Blackacre, & debine to a mill, this will not maintain his action; for when the defendant was at Blackacre, he might go whither he would. Pasch. 16 Jac. B. R. between Sanders and

Mose, adjudged upon demurrer.].

[3. But it seems, that if a man hath a way for carriage from D. to Blackacre over my close, and after he purchases land adjoining to Blackacre, he cannot use the said way with carriages to the land adjoining, though he comes first to Blackacre, and thence to the land adjoining, for then it may be very prejudicial to my close; but it seems, if I will help myself, I must shew the special matter, and that he used it for the land adjoining; vide the said case of P. 16 Jac. Banco.]

S. P. and fame objection made, but it was answered, that by this means the defendant might purchase 100 of 1000 acres adjoining to Blackacre. to which he prescribes to have a way, by w. ich means the plaintiff would lose the benefit of his land, and that a prescription presupposed a grant, and ought to be construed according to the intent of its original creation, and to this the whole court agreed, and judgment for the plaintiff. Mod. 190. pl. 22. Mich. 26 Car. 2. C. B. Howell v. King. S. P. resolved accordingly, per tot. cur. and judg. ment was pronounced accordingly, though it is not entered on the roll. Lutw. 113. 114. Trin. 7 W. 3. Laughton v. Ward. -Ld. Raym. Rep. 75. Pasch. 8 W. 3. S. C. adjudged accordingly, per tot. cur. and Powell J. junior said, that the difference is, where he goes farther to a * mill, or a bridge, there it may be good, but when he goes to his own close it is not good; for, by the same reason, if he purchases 1000 closes he may go to them all.

* [ 5 <sup>1</sup> 5 ]

4. If a man lets a house, reserving a way through it to a back-house, Mod. 27. he cannot come through the house without request, and that too at S. C. that Ressonable times. Vent. 48. Mich. 21 Car. 2. B. R. in case of leffee is not Tomlin v. Fuller.

S. C. that bound to leave his doors open for the leffor's coming in at I or 2 o'clock in the night, but he must keep good hours.

(B) To whom the Soil and the Things thereupon do belong.

Br. Chi- [1.] N an highway the king bath nothing but the passage for himself min, pl. 10.

and his people. *8 E. 4. 9. + 2 E. 4. 9.]

by all the justices. ——Fitzh. Chimin, pl. 1. cites S. C. ——Br. Chimin, pl. 9. cites S. C. ——Br. Chimin, pl. 9. cites S. C.

† Br. Chi— [2. But the freebold and all the profits, as trees, &c. belong to the min, pl. 10. lord of the foil. ‡ 8 E. 4. 9. § 2 E. 4. 9. § 8 H. 7. 5. b.]

Fitzh. Chimin, pl. 1. cites S. C. § Br. Chimin, pl. 9. cites S. C. by all the justices except Moyle.—Fitzh. Trespass, pl. 95. cites S. C. § He who has the trees in the highway, there the frank-tenement is to him; per Keble, for if he has land adjoining, the frank-tenement of the way is to him. Br. Chimin, pl. 15. cites 8 H. 7. 5.

Fitzh. Chi. [3. The lord of the soil shall have an action for digging the min, pl. 1. ground. 8 E. 4. 9.]

Br. Leet,

Br. Leet,

Br. C. but

Brooke

[4. If trees grow in the highway, he to whom the seigniory of the leet of the same place doth belong, shall have the trees. 27 H.

Brooke

6. 8. per curiam.]

makes a quiere how this word (seigniory of the leet) is to be taken; for it seems that it is the seigniory of the see, viz. the seigniory of the soil; for leet is not seigniory; because if it be not so taken, it cannot be law; but leet in some country is taken for the soil.

See tit.
Trees (B) per totam.

[5. Generally the owner of the soil of both sides the way shall have the trees growing upon the way. 18 Eliz. B. R. per curiam, cited P. 11 Jac. B. R.]

[6. The lord of the rape, within which there are 10 bundreds, may prescribe to have all the trees growing within any highway within this rape, though the manor or soil adjoining be to another; for usage to take the trees is a good badge of ownership. P. II Jac. B. R. BETWEEN SIR THOMAS PELHAM plaintiff, and WIATT AND BLACK defendants, per curiam.]

7. The soil and frank-tenement of the way, is to those whom it adjoins. Br. Nusans, pl. 28. cites 8 H. 7. 5. per Keble.

[516] (C) Interruption. What is. And Remedy for the same.

1. IF one grants me a way, and afterwards interrupts me in it, I may refift him; Arg. Godb. 53. pl. 65. cites 32 E. 3.

2. If a man disturbs me in my way with weapons, trespals vi & armis lies. Br. Action sur le Case, pl. 29. cites 2 H. 4. 11. per the land where, &c.

Br. Trespass, pl. 72. cites S. C.

3. For flopping a way to his freehold, either case or assist lies. So where the Cro. E. 466. (bis) pl. 22. Pasch. 38 Eliz. B. R. Alston v. Pamphyn totaliter flopt, so that be could not get to his common. Cro. E. 845. pl. 32. Trin. 43 Eliz. in Cam. Scace. Cantrel v. Church. -Noy, 37. Cautwell v. Church, S. C. and judgment affirmed for the plaintiff.

4. He that has ingress into a bouse, ought to have it at the usual door; and if they leave such door open, but dig a ditch that he cannot enter without leaping, it is a breach; per Doderidge.

Lat. 47. Trin. 2 Car. Climfon v. Pool.

5. A. has a way over my land, and coming to pass over it I take him by the sleeve and say, come not there, for if you do I will pull you by the ears; it is a breach of condition. The same it is if I lock my gates. Lat. 47, 48. Trin. 2 Car. per Doderidge in the case of Climfon v. Pool.

6. If I have a way without a gate, and a gate is hung up, action Or I may on the case lies; for I have not my way as I had before; per cur. Litt. R. 267. Pasch. 5 Car. C. B. in case of Paston v. Utbert.

cut it down. 0. 221. p'. 1. Pasch. 6 Car. B.R.

James v. Haywood. Cro. C. 184, 185. pl. 3. S. C. and S. P. by Hyde, Jones, and Whitlock.

7. Cognizance of ways to carry tithes belongs to court christian, as appears by stat. 2 & 3 E. 6. 13. F. N. B. Consultation, 51. (A) and Linwood in his. Treatise of Tythes; and therefore a confultation was awarded. Jo. 230. pl. 1. Hill. 6 Car. B. R. Halfey v. Halfey.

8. A man has a meffuage, and a way to the meffuage through Mod. 27. another's freehold, and the way is stopped, and then the house is aliened. The alience can bring no action for this nusance before request. Vent. 48. Mich. 21 Car. B. R. Tomlin v. Fuller, pl. 71. S.C. the action was for stopping a paflage to that the plaintiff was hindered from cleaning his gutter. It was moved in arrest, that there was no request; but it was answered that the wrong began in the defendant's own time, whereas had the nusance been done by a stranger, notice must have been given before the action brought. Twisden held it was not good at the common law, and that defendant might have demurred; but the court held it aided by the verdict; and judgment for the plaintiff.

9. Upon evidence given in an action of trespass between W. & C. at the bar, it was said by Glyn Ch. J. that if one make a ditch, or raise up a bank to hinder my way to my common, I may justify the throwing it down, and the silling it up. Sty. 470. Mich. 1655. Williamson v. Coleman.

10. Every man of common right may justify the going of his servants or of his borses upon the banks of navigable rivers, for towing parges, &c., to whomsoever the right of the soil belongs; and if the water of the river impairs and decreases the banks, &c. then they shall have reasonable way for that purpose in the nearest part of the field next adjoining to the river; and he compared it to the case where there is a way through a great open field, which way becomes founderous, the travellers may justify the going over the outlets of the land, not inclosed, next adjoining. Ruled at nisi prius at Westminster, the first sitting after Michaelmas-term, 10 W. 3. Ld. Raym. Rep. 725. Young v....

[517]

- Made unpassable, &c. Remedy. And of fetting out new Ways.
- 1. IF one grants me a way, and after digs trenches in it to my hindrance, I may fill them up again. Arg. Godb. 53. pl. 65. cites 32 E. 3.
- 2. If a way, which a man has, becomes not passable, or becomes very bad by the owner of the land tearing it up with his carts, and so the same be filled with water, yet he which has the way cannot dig the ground to let out the water; for he has no interest in the soil. Godb. 52. pl. 65. Mich. 28 & 29 Eliz. B. R. Dike v. Dunston.

3. In trespass, &c. the defendant prescribed for a fost-way, and Yelv. 141. $. C. — that the plaintiff such a day plowed it up, and sowed it with corn, and Noy 128. laid thorns on the sides, and that before the trespass done be left a new cites S. C. foot-way near the old way, which had since been used by all foot-pasas adjudged accordingly; and S.P. was sengers, and that the defendant went in the said new way to such a place, &c. que est eadem transgressio; and adjudged a good justifithere adcation, Brownl. 212, Mich. 6 Jac. Horn v. Widelake, judged in the case of Horne v. Taylor accordingly, and likewise held that the defendant may well justify going in the place where the ancient way was, and is not bound to go in the way that is unplowed.

Where a way is stopped, and another way made in another place, the way which is stopped cannot be said to be diverted. And. 234. pl. 251. Pasch. 32 Eliz. in case of Ashburnham v. Cornwalin.-The affigning the new way will not justify the stopping the old way. Carth. 393. Trin. 3 W. & M. in B. R. per cur. obiter. ——— Cro. C. 266. pl. 16. Mich. 8 Car. B. R. the S. P. in case of the King v. Ward & Lyme.

4. If a highway be so bad as it is *not paffable, I may then justify 2 Lev. 234. Affer v. going over another man's close next adjoining, 2 Show. 28, Finch, S.C. pl. 19. Mich. 30 Car. 2. Absor v. French but D. P. * He may go in a way good and passable as near the path as he can. Noy, attorney-general, said it was so resalted d. Jo. 297. in Itin. Windsor in Henn's cale.

Extinguished by Unity:

Way extinguished by unity of possession, is revivable after on A descent to 2 daughters, where the land over which is allowed 5. Cites 21 E. 3. 2. ted to one, and the other land, in which the way was, is allowed S. P. to the other fifter; and this allotment without specialty to have the land anciently used, is good to revive it. Jenk. 20. pl. 37 cites 21 E. 3.

> 2. In trespass the defendant justified for a way appurtenent to bis bouse in D. by prescription, to go to 8 acres of wood in C. plaintiff said that J. N. after time of memory, that is to say, in the time of king R. was feised of the land where the defendant claimed the way, and of the wood to which he claimed it. Quære, if unity of possession in the land in which he claims, and in the wood to which he claims it, shall be an extinguishment, as unity of pos-

> > 13

[518]

[clion

Tellion of land in which, &c. and of the house to which, &c. shall be? Brooke says, it seems that it shall clearly. Br. Chimin, pl. 13. cites 3 H. 6. 31.

3. A. had a close and a wood adjoining to it, and time out of mind a way had been used over the close to the wood, to carry and re-carry. He granted the close to B. and the wood to C. The grantee of the wood shall not have the way; for A. by the grant of the close, had excluded himself of the way, because it was not Cro. E. 300. pl. 13. Pasch. 34 Eliz. B. R. laved to him. Dell v. Babthorp.

4. In an action of trespass the case was thus: A. had a crossway by prescription to go to Wh. Acre over Bl. Acre, and after he purchases Bl. Acre, and of that infeoffs J. S. and adjudged that the cross-way is extinct, because by the unity the prescription fails. Noy, 119. Mich. 3 Jac. C. B. Heigate v. Williams.

5. A way of ease shall be extinguished by unity of possession, but Palm. 446. not a way of necessity; per Doderidge: Lat. 154. Hill. 1 Car.

S. P. by Doderidge.

Pass. By what Words or Conveyance.

1. A Way is an easement only, and will not pass by the words omnia tenementa & bereditamenta sua. Br. Lect. Stat. Limit. 42.

2. When land is granted with a way thereto, it is quali appendant unto it, and a thing of necessity; and therefore by a lease of the land, though the way be not mentioned, it well passes without being expressed in the deed; for the land cannot be used without a way, and therefore it shall ensue it, and pass of necessity, and unity of possession does not extinguish it; per tot. cur. Cro. J. 190. pl. 13. Mich. 5 Jac. B. R. in case of Beaudley v. Brook.

3. A. seised of Bl. Acre and Wh. Acre in see, by indenture of bargain and sale inrolled, conveyed Bl. Acre to J. S. in fee, with a way over Wb. Acre. This is not good; for here is no grant of the way in the deed, but only a bargain and sale of Bl. Acre, and a way over Wh. Acre; for nothing but the use passed by the deed, and there cannot be a use of a thing not in esse, as a way, common, &c. which are newly created, and until they be created no use can arise by bargain and sale, and so nothing passed by the deed. Cro. J. 189. pl. 13. Mich. 5 Jac. B. R. Beaudly v. Brook.

(G) Actions.

1. A N assise does not lie of a way; for it is not profit apprender nor franktenement, but an easement. Thel. Dig. 68. lib. 8. cap. 6. s. cites 34 Ass. 13. Trin. 31 E. 1. Assise, 440.

2. Scire facias was maintained of a way out of a fine levied, in permittat. Thel. Dig. 68. lib. 8. cap. 6. s. cites Hill. 2 E. 3. * 46.

There are not to many fol. in that

3. A way was extinct, and yet a new one was referved upon partition of a mill, and land over which the way went, and the affife Quære, if this was inasmuch as the of nusance awarded to lie. way is appendant to the mill by the refervation, or because it is assise of nusance; for it seems, that assise of novel disseion does not lie of a way, but quod permittat; and of a way in gross asfise of nusance does not lie. Contra of a way appendant to franktenement. Br. Chimin, pl. 5. cites 21 E. 3. 2. but says, that this case is better abridged, tit. Nusance, in Fitzh. 2. with a good diversity where the affife lies, and where not.

4. Quod permittat of a way; Finch said for law, that a man shall not have quod permittat of a way, unless he claims it to some franktenement, or from some franktenement to the high street, or to the church, and ruled over; Belk. precise in this case. Quod

Br. Chimin, pl. 3. cites 45 E. 3. 8.

5. If a man flops the king's highway, fo that I cannot go to my house, or to my close, I shall not have action upon the case; for the stopping of a common highway royal shall be punished by the leet, and every man grieved shall not have action thereof; per Baldwin Ch. J. Contra Fitzherbert J. and that where one has greater damage than another he shall have action upon the case. Br. Action sur le Case, pl. 6. cites 27 H. 8. 26, 27.

6. So where a man makes a ditch over the bighway, and I and my horse fall therein in the night, I shall have action upon the case; per Fitzherbert J. Br. Action sur le Case, pl. 6. cites

27 H. 8. 26, 27.

7. The plaintiff declared, that he had the tithes of the parish S. C. cited of B. for a year, and was possessed of a barn, in which he intended to lay them, and that the king's highway in B. was the direct way for carrying the tithes to the barn, but that the defendant had ebstructed it with a ditch, and with a gate erected eross the way, so that he could not carry the tithes by the said way, but was forced to carry them round about, and in a more difficult way. After verdict it was objected, that this being alleged to be a stoppage in the highway, was a common nusance, and no damages shall be given in such a case, for then every one who had occasion to pass that way might bring the like action, which the law will Sed per curiam, the not fuffer by reason of the multiplicity. plaintiff had particular damage by the labour of his fervants and cattle, occasioned by obstructing the passage in the right way, which may be of greater value than the loss of a borse, and fuch like damage which is allowed to maintain an action. 2 Jo. 157. Trin. 33 Hart v. Basset. Car. 2. B. R.

admitting this case to be I w, yet there is some special damage laid. ——And ibid. 494. S. C. cited by Holt Ch. J. who held for the defendant, and faid he had no need to deny the case of Hart v. Basset, because the plaintiff declared that he was farmer of the tithes, and that the way was near to the plaintiff's land, and convenient for the carrying away the tithes to his barn, and that the defendant had stopped the way, by which the plaintiff was compelled to go round about, &c. And that if it was as Mr. Justice Gould cited it, that he was driven to a greater expence, that makes it better than it is in the report of 2 Jo. 15th. Besides, Holt said, that there was another ingredient, viz. that he was liable to an action if he permitted the tithes to lie on the ground beyond a convenient time, and that all this matter was them specially; but that if there was no more than the plaintiff's going round about, it is a hard take.

per Gould . as a strong case for his opinion for the plaintiff, in the case of Ivefon v. Moor. Ld. Raym. Rep. 491. Trin. 11 W. 3.-Ibid. 492. S. C. cited by Rokeby

J. who was of opinion for the defendant, and faid, that

[520]

(H) Pleadings.

1. TAY ought to be claimed certainly, to go or to carry, and recarry, &c. et quibus temporibus, and to what franktenement it is appendant. Br. Chimin, pl. 7. cites 20 Ass. 18.

2. He who justifies to go in a highway ought to shew that it is the highway of the king, and has been time out of mind, &c. and the plaintiff may fay, that men have gone this way sometimes by licence of the plaintiff, and sometimes for their money, &c. absque hoc that it has been the highway of the king time out of mind, &c. Br.

Chimin, pl. 7. cites 20 Aff. 18.

3. Quod permittat habere cheminum ultra terram was brought by the tenant against the tenant of the soil, who demanded the view. Belknap faid, the view you ought not to have; for you yourselves are tenants of the soil where I have the way. Per Finchden, you shall not have the way, unless you claim it to some franktenement, or land of the from your franktenement to the high street, or to the church, or otherwife-the writ is not good, clearly; quod nota. Br. View, pl. 21. cites 45 E. 3. 8.

The Yearbook is, that the Writ Was to have a way over the tenant, against him who was tenant of the

4. Trespass upon the case was brought by 3 against 2, who soil, &c. counted that the plaintiffs were seised of 14 acres of land in B. and of 3 acres of meadow there, and that the plaintiffs and those whose estate they have, &c. have had, and ought to have a way over 3 acres of the defendant's to the said meadow, there have the defendants disturbed them to the damage of 40s. and the defendants took the trespass severally, and traversed the prescription, and so to issue; and found for the plaintiff to the damage of a mark. Thirwit pleaded in arrest of judgment, that the trespass of the one is not the trespass of the other, where the defendants took the trespasses severally, and the damages are affessed intire where they ought to be severed. Per Thirn. this is not much to the purpose. Br. Action sur le Case, pl. 29. cites 2 H. 4. 11.

5. In trespass upon the case, the defendant prescribed in a way. S. C. cited over the bridge of D. to his manor of B. to carry victuals and other necessaries over the bridge, and did not say to what place he should carry, and yet well; by Hank. And so see that he prescribed in a footway and horse-way, that is to say, to pass and carry. Br. Chimin, tion was, pl. 16. cites 11 H. 4. 82.

2 Roll-Rep. 134. Mich. 17 Jac. B. R. where the prescripthat all those whose estate he has in such a house had a way per & trans the pound-garden, but did not say from the house to spen a place, nor to such a house; exception was taken; because it was not said, from the place to such a house; sed non allocatur; for Doderidge J. said, that it is not material whether he had the way from of to the house or not, and to prove this cites 28 H. 6. 9. and 11 H. 4. 32.

6. The defendant justified in trespass, that he and his ancestors, te- Br. Chimin, nants of such a house, and 30 acres of land in D. have had a way over the place where, &c. to the market, and to the church of D. time out of mind, by which he used the way, &c. and the other said, that de son tort demesne, absque hoc that he and his ancestors have had such Typy time out of mind in the manner as the defendant supposed, and so ken.

pl. 2. cites S.C. Brooke fays quære; for no exception is thereof taBr. De son Tort, &c. pl. 1. cites 28 H. 6. 9. Br. Pleadings, pl. 152. cites 8. C. to issue, and by the reporter it is a negative pregnant; for it mey be found that he had a way to the market, and not to the church, or e contra; quære. Br. Negativa, &c. pl. 4. cites 28 H. 6. 9.

7. In a quod permittat the plaintiff made his title to the way in his count by coertion of the court, whereupon he prescribed and claimed from such a place to such a place, as he ought, and shewed by reason of what land, and for what he used the way, as to carry and recarry, &c. which see in the book there at large, and shewed that he was seised of see and of right, and alleged esplees. Br. Chimin, pl. 12. cites 30 H. 6. 7, 8.

8. In action upon the case, the writ was quod cum ipse babeat quoddam chiminum ratione tenure, &c. and the defendant levarit murum, per quem the plaintiff chiminum babere non potest, &c. and held per Prisot, that the writ is not good, for the repugnancy. Thel. Dig. 104. lib. 10. cap. 11. s. 26. cites Trin. 33 H. 6. 26.

[521]

ought to show, that he has a way from such a place to such a place, and not to say generally that he has a way over such land with his heasts to carry and re-carry time out of mind; as to say from his house, or such a close, over the land of the plaintist to such a close or land, or to the church, market, or highway in such a place, or the like; quod nota, per. cur. And per tot. cur. he need not to show the quantity of the close of the plaintist in which he claims the way; otherwise it is elsewhere where he intitles himself to the soil, as his franktenement, lease for years, or the like; but he shall show the quantity of the way which he claims, viz, of so many feet, or the like; quod nota bene; by which the desendant took longer time thereof. Br. Chimin, pl. 6. cites 39 H. 6. 6.

10. In case the plaintiff prescribed babere viam tam pedestrem quem 4 Le. 167, 168.pl-273. equestrem pro omnibus & omnimodis carriagiis, Leonard prothonotain time of ry said, that by such prescription he could not have a cart-way; queen Eliz. for every prescription is stricti juris; and Dyer said, that it is well S. C. in totidem verbis. observed, and he conceived the law to be so, and therefore it is ----Ibid. 224.pl. 360. good to prescribe habere viam pro omnibus carriagiis generally without speaking of horse-way, or cart-way, or other way, &c. Mich. 10 Eliz. C. B. 3 Le. 13. pl. 31. 8 Eliz. C. B. Anon. Anon.S.C. in totidem verbis.

Noy, 9. Banning's

çafe, S. C.

- all those, &c. have had a way from his house in D. over Green-Acre in S. and over Black-Acre to such a place in P. and that the defendant had stopped his way in S. and upon not guilty sound for the plaintiff it was moved in arrest, because he did not allege in what will Black-Acre was, for he ought to allege all the lands through which he was to have his way, and vills where they lie; and by Gawdy, this is a fault for which the defendant might have demurred, but that not being done it was adjudged for the plaintiff. Cro. E. 427. pl. 27. Mich. 37 & 38 Eliz. B. R. Brag v. Banning.
- 12. Per curiam, the plaintiff in his declaration shall never by that the way is appendant or appurtenant, because it is only an enforcement ment and not an interest; and all the precedents in the Book of Entries are accordingly, and that though the jury found it to be appurtenant to the messuage. And Man, secondary, informed the judges that a judgment in B. R. was reversed in the exchequer, because the plaintiff had alleged a way appurtenant to the house, and so claimed it in other manner and nature than he ought to do by law; and adjudged in the principal case for the plaintiff. Yelv. 159. Mich. 7 Jac. B. R. Godley v. Frith.

13. In trespass the defendant prescribed for a passage over the land Brown 1.215. where, &c. but it was held not good, and adjudged for the plaintiff; for passagium is properly a passage over the water, and not seems only over land, and the defendant ought to have prescribed in the way, and not in the passage. Yelv. 163. Mich. 7 Jac. B. R. Alban v.

Brownfall.

216. S. C. & S. P. but a translation of Yelv.-S. C. cited Arg. 2 Lutw.1518.

14. In prescribing for a way, the defendant ought to shew a quo Joco ad quem locum the way is, and though a way may be in gross, yet it ought to be bounded and circumscribed to a certain place, especially when it appears to lie in usage time out of mind; for this ought to be in certo loco, and not in one place to-day, and another place to-morrow, but constantly and perpetually in the percur. that fame place; adjudged. Yelv. 163, 164. Mich. 7 Jac. B. R. Alban v. Brownfall.

Brownl. 215, 216. S.C. & S.P. but is only a translation of Yelv.-Admitted a way must be pleaded a quo termino ad quem, because a man must not go over my grounds but to the right place. * Hob. 190, pl. 234. Trin. 15 Jac. in Gogle's case. ——Hutt. 10. Cobb. v. Allen, S. C. and held that though the proper use of a way is to some end, and that ought to be shewn, yet if it be only that he had a way over the closes in the new affigument, and no place or end thereof is pleaded from what close, or to what other place; and issue is taken upon the prescription, and found the prescription is good. ——But in an indictment for an increachment on the king's highway, that objection, that it was not laid a que or ad quem the way leads, was disallowed. 2 Keb. 715. pl. 99. Mich. 22 Car. 2. B. R. The King v. Rawlins .-Ibid. 728. pl. 8. Hill. 22 & 23 Car. 2. B. R. The King v. the Inhabitants of Glaston, the court conceived the terminus a quo not material.

* [522]

15. In trespass the defendant prescribed for a way, but did BrownL not shew what manner of way it was, whether a foot-way, or 215, 216, horse-way, or cart-way, and so uncertain; and therefore the but is only a bar adjudged ill. Yelv. 163, 164. Mich. 7 Jac. B. R. Alban v. translation Browniall.

S.C. & S.P. of Yelv. In case for stopping a way, the plaintiff declared that he was seised of 18 mefjuages in St. Botolph's, Aldgate, and prescribed for a way from every one of those messuages over a certain vacont piece of ground, &c. to such place; and after a verdict for the plaintiff, it was objected that it was not shown what fort of a way be pad, whether a foot-way, horse-way, or cart-way; sed non allocatur; for it is said that he had a way ire & redire, &cc. and after a verditt it shall be intended a general way for all purpojes. Comyns's Rep. 114. pl. 76. Pasch, 13 W. 3. B. R. Warner v. Green. ___ 12 Mod. 580. S. C. but S. P. does not appear. Ld. Raym. Rep. 701. S. C. but S. P. does not appear.

16. In a declaration in case for stopping the plaintiff's way, it was not shewn to what village the way led. After verdict for the plaintiff, this was moved in arrest of judgment, and held a good exception, and judgment arrested; but if it had been unto a common sway there or in such a village, it had been good. Brownl. 6. Trin. & Jac. Allyns v. Sparks,

17. In

17. In tresposs, the plaintiff declared of a way from his house to a mill, and so back again. Exception was taken that every way is either appendant or in gross, and ought to be so laid, but that here the plaintiff had not alleged that this way was appertaining to his bouse, and the court were clear of that opinion; because in this action the plaintiff is only to recover damages, whereas in affife of nusance the thing itself is to be recovered. But in this principal case he ought not to allege that this way was appendant to the house, it being laid to be from the house to the mill, and from the mill back again to the house; and so the declaration is good, and judgment for the plaintiff. Bulst. 47. Mich. 8 Jac. Pollard v. Cafy.

18. In sci. fa. upon a recognizance for the good behaviour; for that the defendant with others, riotously and unlawfully entered into such a close, and cut up a quick-set hedge, &c. The defendant as to all but the entering the close and cutting the hedge, pleaded not guilty; and as to that he justified by a prescription for a highway in the said close, and because it was stopped with a quick-set hedge, he cut it up; the plaintiff replied de injuria sua propria & ex malitia præcogitata, the defendant with others cut the hedge, &c. upon which is was joined, and found for the plaintiff. It was objected, that there was not any issue joined, for de injuria sua propria, where one justifies for a way, or for any particular thing, is no issue, but the plaintiff ought particularly to traverse the prescription alleged, and conclude absque take caufa, because the whole case is in issue; and so it was adjudged. Cro. J. 598. pl. 22. Mich. 18 Jac. B. R. The King v. Hopper.

Palm. 38 ... S. C. and according to the aircrations.

19. If a man has a way from his house to the church, and the next close of land to his house is his own; it was said by Doderidge J. that he cannot in this case prescribe that he has a way from his house to the church; for he cannot prescribe to have a way in his own land. But Ley Ch. J. contra, because then all ways in the corn [common] fields shall be distant [destroyed] but the prescription though general, shall be applied to the other lands, to which Chamberlain J. agreed. But Doderidge said that infruiteness [infiniteness] 2 Roll. Rep. 397, 398. Mich. 21 Jac. B. R. in alters the case. case of Slowman v. West.

20. In action on the case for disturbing the plaintiff in his way. Exception was taken because it was not shewn from what vill to what vill the way led; and per Jones and Doderidge J. there is a difference when it is aliezed as an abuttal and when by way of justification in trespass; and judgment accordingly for the plaintiff, Palm. 420, 421. Pasch. 1 Car. B. R. Harrison v. Rook.

Lat. 160. Parker v. Newsham,

21. Case was brought for stopping a way which the plaintiff had Hill. 2 Cat. from such a place over Black-Acre where the nusance is, unto such a field (by name), and it was ruled to be good, without shewing what S. C. in to- interest he had in that field; for it shall be intended to be a common tidem verbis. field. But if it had been usque ad tale clausum, he ought to shew what interest he hath in the close. Noy, 86. Park v. Stewsam.

22. In trespass quare clausum fregit, the defendant justified for a away; the plaintiff replied, that he went out of the way; this is a good replication, per Harvey and Hutton J. to which Richardion and Crook agreed; for there it was confessed and avoided by the replication. Het. 28, 29. Trin. 3 Car. C. B. in case of Johnfon v. Morris.

23. In trespass, &c. the defendant justified that he had a way not only to go, ride, and drive his beafts, but likewife to carry with his carts; the plaintiff traversed, absque hoc that the defendant had a way, not only to go and ride, &c. in the very words of the plea, and fo to issue, and found for the plaintiff. It was objected that the issue was ill, because it was no direct affirmation, but by an inducement only; but the whole court held e contra. Mar. 55. pl. 83. Mich. 15 Car. Hicks v. Webb.

24. In case for stopping a way, the plaintiff set forth a title as lessee of the company of haberdashers in London, and claimed a way for them; whereas they having let the same cannot have the way, and so the prescription is not rightly applied; it should have been for them to have the way pro tenentibus & occupatoribus suis; but as the declaration is laid, the company ought to have brought the action. Sty. 300. Mich. 1651. B. R. Cantrell v. Stephens.

26. In trespass the defendant justified for a way from his house through the place where usque altam viam regiam in parochia D. vocat' London-road. Iffue was joined upon the way, and found for the plaintiff; and per cur. it being found that he had a way over the place where, it is not material to the justification whither it leads, it being after verdict, when the right of the case is tried; and it is added at last [aided at least] by the statute of Oxford 16 Car. and so Twisden said was the opinion of all the judges in Serjeant'sinn, he putting the case to them at dinner. Vent. 13, 14. Pasch. 21 Car. 2. B. R. Clarke v. Cheyney.

27. Trespass, quare clausum fregit & diversa onera equina of gravel had carried away, per quod viam suam amisit. After verdict it was moved that the diversa onera equina was uncertain, and had fet forth no title to the way; nor any certainty of it. It was said on the other side, that the uncertainty was aided by the verdict, and the other matter about the way was only laid in aggravation of damages. But the court held the exceptions material, and thought it would be very inconvenient to permit such a form of putting a title to a way into a declaration in trespass. 2 Vent. 73. Mich.

* W. & M. in C. B. Blake v. Clattie. 28. In case the plaintiff declared that he, for 4 years last past, So where the was seised in fee of lands adjoining to the defendant's meadow called B. and that during that time babere debuit a certain way through a be was pofgate of the defendant's in B. to a close, &c. of the plaintiff's; but Island, &c. of the defendant, to hinder the plaintiff of the way, locked up the After judgment for the plaintiff by default, and a writ and bad a of enquiry, &c. it was * moved that the plaintiff had not shewn any title by prescription or otherwise; but the whole court held it only fendani's matter of form, and well upon judgment by default and a general ground, as demurrer, without any special cause shewn; and some of them held it good in all cases, though it had been shewn for cause of suage, & de demurrer. 3 Lev. 266. Pasch. 2 W. & M. in C. B. Windford v. jure habet, Woolaston.

plaintiff de clared that an anciens missuage, Joot- Tupy over the debelonging to the said mesand that the defendant sopped it, sec. The defendant pleaded a frivolous plea; and upon demurrer it was objected that the

28. Case for disturbing the plaintiff in his way, setting forth that 10 Maii, &cc. & diu antea & adhuc, &cc. he was possessed of an ancient messuage called C. and that he ought to have a way from thence in, by, and through a close of the defendant's called G. to the highway, and that the defendant had made a hedge cross his said close, so that the plaintiff could not pass. Upon a demurrer to this declaration it was objected that the plaintiff had set forth he was possessed of the messuage, but did not say that he was possessed for years; and that it appears by the declaration that the lands in which the way is claimed are the lands of the desendant, and therefore the plaintiff ought to set forth his title to the way either by grant or prescription; though otherwise it had been if the action had been brought against a meer tort-seasor, according to St. John and Moody's case, 3 Keb. 528. 531. but notwithstanding the plaintiff had judgment. Lutw. 119, 120. Hill. 4 & 5 W. & M. Blockley v. Slater.

29. Defendant having made his prescription for a way to Bl. Acre, cannot justify going over the plaintiff's close called Wb. Acre.

Lutw. 114. Trin. 7 W. 3. Laughton v. Ward.

pl. 2. 216. thereof to another; but from one part of his own ground to another, he pl. 1. 579. may claim a way over my ground. 6 Mod. 3. Mich. 2 Annabut S.P. B. R. Staple v. Heydon.

does not appear. _____ 3 Salk. 121. S. C. but S. P. does not appear.

1 Salk. 173.

31. The way of pleading by a particular tenant, is to thew pl. 2. 216.

pl. 1. 579.

pl. 1. 5.C. being so seised, was intitled to a way, and shew how, and that be but S. P.

granted to lessor, &c. who also granted to him, &c. For when does not appear.

one shews a particular estate, he must shew the fee in somebody.

3 Salk. 121.

6 Mod. 4. Mich. 2 Ann. B. R. Staple v. Heydon.

3.C. but

S. P. does not appear.

For more of Chimin Private in general, see Attions (N.b) Pulante, Trespass, and other proper titles.

Church-wardens.

Church-wardens. [Their Capacity.]

Fol. 393.

1. THE church-wardens cannot prescribe to have lands to In London them and their successors; for they are not any corpora- the parson tion to have lands; but for goods for the church. Pasch. 37 Eliz. B. between Langley and Meredine.

and churchwardens are a corporation to purchase lande, and demise their lands. Cro. J. 532. pl. 15. Pasch. 17 Jac. B. R. obitur.— ---In London the church-wardens are a corporation, and may take land for the benefit of the church. So throughout England they are a corporation, and capable to take and purchase goods for the benefit of the church; per tot. cur. (absente Crooke) Mar. 67. pl. 104. Mich. 15 Car. Anon. ——They are a corporation by custom, and this is by the common law. Jo. 439. pl. 4. Trin. 15 Car. B. R. per cur. in Evelin's case. ____ Cro. C. 552. pl. 4. S. P. in S. C. ___ Noy, 139. Mich. 4 Jac. Anon. S. P.——A remainder of a term for 40 years was limited by devise to church-wardens. Hutton and Harvey J. held the remainder not good to them, because they are not corporate, so as they may take by that grant. Het. 74. Hill. 3 Car. Fawkner's case.

Church-warden is a corporation, and the property of the bells is in him, and he may bring trover at common law. 2 Salk. 547. pl. 2. Trin. 4 W - & M. in B. R. Starkey v. the Church-wardens of Wattington.

It is faid in the books that the church-wardens are a corporation, but very improperly; for all the parishioners are the body, and the churchwardens are only a name to sue by in personal actions; but the property is in the parishioners; and in all actions brought by church-wardens it must be laid ad damnum parochianorum; per Macclessield C. MS. Rep. Hill. 9 Geo. in canc. Whitmore v. Bridges.——The church-wardens are not a corporation without the parson; per cur. 5 Mod. 396. Pasch. 10 W. 3. in case of Cox v. Copping.

[2. If a feoffment be made to the use of the church-wardens of D. this is a void use; for they have not any capacity of such a purchase. 17 H. 7. 27. b.]

3. Gift of the goods of the parish made by the church-wardens is not good without the affent of the side-men and the vestry; and if by the vestry, the same is good. Arg. 3 Bulst. 264. Mich. take things 14 Jac. in case of Mottram v. Mottram.

For the law gives them power to for the advantage, but not to the disadvantage of the church. Yelv. 173. in case of Starkey v. Barton, cites 13 H. 7. 10.

4. Church-warden is a temporal * officer. He has the property * S. P. 26and custody of the parish goods; and as it is at the peril of the parishioners, so they may choose and trust whom they think sit, Vent. 267. and the archdeacon has no power to elect or controul their Hill. 26 & 1 Salk. 166. Hill. 8 W. 3. B. R. Morgan v. the 27 Car. 2. Archdeacon of Cardigan.

per cur. B. R. and lays, that his power is enlarged by fundry acts of parliament. —— They are temporal officers by law, and entrusted with the goods? of the parish. Comb. 417. Hill. 9 W. 3. The King v. Rice. --- 12 Mod. 116. S. C. & S. P. by Holt Ch. J.——He is a temporal officer, and to be ordered by the temporal laws. 3 Mod. 335. Hill. 2 W. & M. in B. R. in Leigh's case. - 2 Roll. Rep. 71, 72. Hill. 16 Jac. B. R. Mountague Ch. J. said, that a church-warden is not an ecclesiastical but a temporal officer, employed in ecclesiastical business. ——— A church-warden is not an officer, but a minister to the spiritual court; per tot. cur. Godb. 279. pl. 395. in case of Bishop v. Turner, S. C.

for the taking of land for the use and benefit of the church, and not capable of taking goods or any personalty on that behalf; so the church-wardens * are a corporation to take money or goods, or other personal estate for the use of the church, but are not enabled to take lands; per the master of the rolls. 2 Wms.'s Rep. 126. Hill. 1722. in case of the Attorney-General v. Ruper.

(A. 2) The Power of them, and of the Parish.

S.C. cited [1. A Gift by them of goods in their custody, without the confent by Coventry as resolved.

A Gift by them of goods in their custody, without the consent so resolved.

A of the sidemen or vestry, is void. 38 Eliz. METHOLD Roll. Rep. AND WINN'S CASE, cited per Coventry. My Rep. 14 Jac. B.]

426. in pl.

Roll. Rep. [2. If a man takes the organs out of the church, the church57. pl. 33. wardens may have an action of trespass for it; for the organs
Trin. 12
Jac. B. R.
Bucksale's the parson cannot sue in the ecclesiastical court against him who case, S. C. and the par-

fon having libelled for this matter in the spiritual court, a prohibition was granted.———If a parish bible be taken out of the church, the church-wardens may have an action at common law. Ibid.

[3. The church-wardens by the consent and agreement of the parishioners, may take a ruinous bell and deliver it to a bell-founder, and that he by their agreement shall have for the casting thereof 41. and shall retain it till the 41. be paid; and this agreement of the parishioners shall excuse the church-wardens in a writ of account brought against them by the successors of the church-wardens; for the parishioners are a corporation for the disposal of such personal things as belong to their church. Mich. 37, 38 Eliz. B. R. between METHOLD AND WINN, adjudged.]

[4. So the church-wardens by the assent and agreement of the parishioners, may take the stones belonging to the church, and with part thereof repair a ruinous window of the church, and retain the rest to themselves in satisfaction of their expences employed in the repairs of the said window. Mich. 37, 38 Eliz. B. R. between

METHOLD'AND WINN, adjudged.]

of their parish, for breaking of their field in their ward being, and good, and so see that they are incorporated at common law as to things personal, and they may have appeal and astion of account de bonis ecclesia, &c. Contra of things real. Br. Corporations, pl. 84. cites 11 H. 4. 12. and 12 H. 7. 27.

6. A feoffment was made to the use of the parishioners of D. and the church-wardens made a lease for years, and ill. Br. Trespass, pl. 289. cites 12 H. 7. 27.

7. Admitting that church-wardens may remove feats in the church at their pleasure, yet they cannot cut the timber of the pew. Noy, 108. Trin. 2 Jac. C. B. Gilson v. Wright & al'.

8. Church-

8. Church-wardens may take notice of increachments on the church-yard, but not of sowing of discord among the neighbours. Vent. 127. Pasch. 23 Car. 2. B. R. Anon.

9. A church-warden may execute his office before he is sworn, though it is convenient that he should be sworn; per Cur. said to have been resolved. Vent. 267. Hill. 26 & 27 Car. 2. B. R.

* 10. If the parish was summoned, and refused to meet, or make a rate for the repairs of the church, the church-wardens might make a rate alone, (if needful,) because, if the repairs were neglected, the church-wardens were to be cited, and not the parishioners. Vent. 367. Trin. 35 Car. 2. B. R. Thursfield v. Jones.

Skin. 27. pl. 3. S. C. but S. P. does not appear. S. P. by Holt Ch. J.

obiter. Comb. 344. Mich. 7 W. 3. B. R.

11. Ecclesiastical court may punish church-wardens if they will S. P. and if not open the church to the parson, or to any one acting under him, but not if they refuse to open it to any other. 3 Salk. 87. Mich. 12 W. 3. B. R. Church-wardens of St Bartholomew's case.

the ordinary had appointed me to come and preach in fuch a church, yet he could not justify doing it without confent of the parson; and if a person give a charity to a certain clerk for preaching in such a parish, he must do it by the consent of the parton; per Holt Ch. J. 12 Mod. 433. in case of Turton v. Reignolds.

- 12. If he that is a church-warden de facto makes a rate for repairing the church, this will bind the parishioners; per Holt. MS. Cafes.
- 13. If there be a church-warden de jure, and a church-warden de facto, in the same parish, this latter cannot justify the laying out of, or receiving money, but he is accountable to the church-warden de jure; he is no more than another man, per Powel and Powis, and he that is de jure may bring an indebitatus assumptit against the other, &c. MS. Cases, Pasch. 9 Ann. B. R. Andrews v. Eagle.

14. Goods given or bought for the use of the church are all bona ecclesia, for the taking whereof the church-wardens may bring trespass; per the master of the rolls. 2 Wms.'s Rep. 126. Hill. 1722. in cale of the Att. Gen. v. Ruper, cites F. N. B. 91. (K) and that he may bring trespass for the taking these goods, as well in the time of their predecessors as in their own time.

Election.

- 1. THE canon about electing a church-warden is to be intended where the parson had the nomination of a church-warden before the making of the canon. Noy, 139. Mich. 4 Jac. C. B. Anon.
- 2. Probibition was moved for, because where the custom of the village was, that the parishioners have used to elect two churchwardens, and at the end of the year to discharge one, and elect another in his room, & alternis vicibus, &c. by the new canon now the parson has the election of one, and the parish of the Vol. IV. other,

Church-wardens.

other, and that he that was elected by the parishioners was discharged by the ordinary at his visitation, and for that he prayed a prohibition, & allocatur as a thing usual, and of course, for otherwise (by Hubbard) the parson might have all the authority of his church and parish. Now as Butt's case of his church and parish. Noy, 31. Butt's case.

And church-wardens chosen by the parish by virtue of a custom candrat be refused by the archdeacon on pretence

3. Of common right the choosing church-wardens belongs to the parishioners. It is true, in some places the incumbent chooses one, but that is only by usage, and the canon concerning choosing church-wardens is not regarded by the common law; per Holt. Ch. J. who said this was the opinion of Hale Ch. J. Carth. 118. Pasch. 2 W. & M. in B. R. The Church-warden of St. Giles in Northampton's case.

of powerty or unfitness, and in such case the parish, having appointed him, must be answerable for him-12 Mod. 116. Hill. 8 W. 3. King v. Rees.

[528]

4. Archdeacon has nothing to do to refuse, but admit. Comb.

417. Hill. 9 W. 3. B. R. The King v. Rice.

Custom will prevail against the canon.
Vent. 267.
Hill. 26 & 27 Car. 2.

5. Where the church-wardens are to be elected by the parishioners by prescription, it shall not be in the power of the parson to hinder them. Per Cur. 8 Mod. 325. Mich. 11 Geo. in case of the King v. Singleton.

6. It is criminal to swear one into this affice that has no manner of right, for which crime an information will lie; Arg. 8 Mod. 380.

Trin. 11 Geo. in the case of the King v. Harwood.

7. In an action for a false return a special verdict sound the custom to be for the parishioners of annually to clear a church-warden; that S. the plaintiff was elected by the parishioners to serve for church-warden for the year 1734, and until another be chosen; that at a vestry the ensuing year, he was re-elected by the parishieners, but at the vestry then bolden, the vicar and one church-warden adjourned the vestry to the next day, and the vicar then chose Chapman. mandamus had been directed to to admit and fwear in the plaintiff. It was argued for the plaintiff, that the 89th canon of 1603, that all church-wardens and quest-men shall be chosen by the joint choice of the minister and parish, if it may be, if not, then the minister to choose one, and the parish the other, has never been received as law, and cited Cro. Jac. 532. Warner's case. Cro. Car. 551. Hard. 378. and Carth. 118. where Holt Ch. J. says, that where the incumbent chooses one, it is only by usage, and that a church-warden is a temporal officer. Per Lee J. in all councils and elections the general rule is, that the major part binds, and cited 18 E. 4. 2. and Hackwell's Modus tenendi Parliament'. The Ch. J. said that the question is whether the adjourning by vicar jointly with one church-warden, was a valid and good adjournment, and he thought not; and that if vicar and church-warden had such a power, it must be by custom or by rule of common law; but no custom is found, nor is there any rule of common law to vest this power in the vicar, nor is it in the power of church-wardens to adjourn; and then the right is in the affembly itself. Per Probyn J. the vicar is not a necessary party at the vestry, and judgment for the plaintiff per tot. Cur. MS. Rep. Trin. 1736. B. R. Stoughton v. Reynolds.

(C) Favoured or relieved, or not.

1. THOUGH church-wardens are chosen for 2 years, yet for cause parishioners may displace them. 13 Rep. 70. cites 26 H. 8. 5.

2. By the canons, no ecclesiastical judge ought to cite any church-warden to the court, but so as he may return home again to his house the same day. 12 Rep. 111. Hill. 10 Jac.

3. For such things as a church-warden does ratione officii, no action by the successor will lie against him in the spiritual court. Godb. 279. pl. 395. Hill. 16 Jac. B. R. Bishop v. Turner.

4. Bill against defendants lately church-wardens, because they refused to make a rate to re-imburse the plaintiffs according to a vote and order of the vestry; and cited Jesserie's case, 5 Rep. that the majority may bind as to parish duties; it was objected that they should have come when the defendants were church-wardens; that if they had been decreed to pay, they might have re-imbursed themselves by a rate; per Serj. Philips, a decree was against Doctor Crowther and his successor,* so here would have it against to reimburse church-wardens and successors. 2 Vern. 262. pl. 246. Pasch. them several ney laid out by order of vestry, for repairs of the church, and building two new galleries; and their accounts having, at their going out of their office, been taken by auditors, and passed and allowed by the vestry, but the succeeding church-wardens being out of their office, and new ones chose; after examination and publication no remedy lay but in the spiritual court, or against such particular parishioners as employed them, the money for the repairs being all paid, and the remainder due being for the galleries. Ch. Prec. 42. Battily v. Cook.

1692. Battily v. Coke & al'.

* [ 529 ]

The bill was against the

fucceeding

wardens, to oblige them to make a rate according to an order of westry, lums of mo-

church-

5. The plaintiff who was late church-warden, was decreed to be Ibid. cites paid the money laid out for the use of the parish with costs, and the decree went on and said, for which purpose the vestry of the said kich, s. P. parish are to take notice hereof, (viz. of the decree) and to set a rate accordingly, and what the church-wardens shall pay in obedience to the decree, the same is to be brought into their accounts, and to be allowed them when they pass their accounts with the parish; cited Chan. Prec. 43. in case of Battily v. Cook, as Trin. 2 W. & M. the case of Birch v. Barston & al', church-wardens of Lambeth.

6. On a dispute between impropriator and parishioners, concerning a right to a house for which he brought an ejectment; the court would not compel the church-wardens to produce the parish books and give him a fight thereof, and copies of what concerned his title, for his and their interest are distinct; for it was not a parochial right, but a title which is now in question, and so no reason to produce the parish books, which would be to shew the defend-5 Mod. 395, 396. Pasch. 10 W. 3. Cox v. ant's evidence. Copping.

7. The church-wardens, as church-wardens, received 20 l. for the use of the parish where none was due, and by mistake only, and upon S f 2 being sensible of the mistake, repaid the money. The succeeding church-wardens brought an action for the money against the former ones; per Powell J. though the old church-wardens could not plead ne unques receiver, yet they might plead this matter specially; and per Parker Ch. J. it is not necessary to shew re-payment, but only that the money did not belong to the parish; and had they paid it to the parish before the mistake was known, the parish would have been charged with this money, and this re-payment was an act done in discharge of the parish, and so a proper plea before auditors. See 10 Mod. 22. Pasch. 10 Ann. B. R. Bishop v. Eagle.

8. In an action by present church-wardens against the former ones, the court was clear that the church-wardens should be allowed their expences and surplusage, in case their expences out-balanced, &c. for church-wardens are more than bare receivers, and are in all respects bailists. 10 Mod. 23. Pasch. 10 Ann. B. R. Bishop v.

Eagle.

- 9. Bill against 90 parishioners by executrix of one of the church-wardens of Woodford, to be re-imbursed money laid out by the testator as church-warden, for re-building the steeple of the church. It was objected that this matter was proper for the ecclesiastical court, and not for this court. But per Harcourt C. the plaintist is proper for relief in this court, and there are many precedents of the like nature. One in the time of Cowper C. against the parishioners of St. Clement's for the organ in the church, and many more before; and so that objection was over-ruled, and the cause to proceed; and decreed that the parishioners should re-imburse the plaintist the money laid out by her testator, with costs of this suit, and that the money should be raised by a parish rate. MS. Rep. Pasch. 13 Ann. in Canc. Nicholson v. Masters & al. Parishioners of Woodford in Com. Essex.
- 10. Church-wardens, as being a corporation for the goods of the parish, commence a fuit by and with the consent, and by order of the parish, concerning a charity for the poor, in which they miscarried, and then brought a bill against the subsequent church-wardens, to be repaid the costs by them expended, and had a decree for it. But it was proved that from time to time the parish was made acquainted with what they did; and though there was no vestry by prescription, yet a vestry book, kept for the parish acts, was allowed as evidence of their consent, they are the trustees of the parish for all matters, and therefore the cesty que trust ill. Parishioners ought to contribute, and not lay the burthen upon these poor people the church-wardens. The annual successive church-wardens need not be made parties, as they are renewed. Per the master MS. Cases, Trin. Vac. 1718. Radnor Parish in of the rolls. Wales.

[530]

(D) Actions by or against them; and what Remedy they have when their Time is expired.

1. THE opinion of the court was, that the wardens of the Br. Trespats goods of the church should have action of trespass of such pl. 200. goods in their ward being taken, notwithstanding that they are accordingly, not incorporated. Thel. Dig. 21. lib. 1. cap. 23. f. 1. cites and that it is Hill. 11 H. 4. 12. and fays, that so it was held 8 H. 5. 4. & Trin. 37 H. 6. 30.

cites S. C. faid elsewhere that if they die, tbeir execu-zers shall have the action of goods carried away in the life of the testator. But Brooke says, quære inde ; for the successor cannot have the action, by reason that they are not incorporated.

2. And such writ was brought where the goods were taken in the time of other wardens. Thel. Dig. 21. lib. 1. cap. 23. f. 2. cites Pasch. 19 H. 6. 66. and says, that Fitzh. in the writ of trespass in his Nat. Brev. fol. 91. assirms that such writ lies well.

3. Though the parishioners shall not have account, yet they Thel. Dig. may appoint new wardens, and they shall have account against the 21. lib. 1. old wardens, and so see that as to things personal they are a corporation by the common law; per Needham. Br. Corporation, pl. 55. cites 8 E. 4. 6.

çap.23.1.3.

4. Trespass by wardens of a church de libro in custodia sue ex- Thel. Dig. istente capt' & asport' ad damnum parochianorum, and not ad damnum of the wardens; and good per Littleton & Needham; and here the new wardens shall have action of account against the first wardens. Br. Damages, pl. 124. cites 8 E. 4. 6.

115. lib. 10. cap.25. 1.3. cites S. C. -S. P. held accordingly per Littleton & Needham J. Br. Corporations, pl. 55. cites S. C.

5. Where an obligation is made to them and to their successors, and they die, their executors shall have action, and not their fuccessors. Thel. Dig. 21. lib. 1. cap. 23. s. 6. cites 20 E. 4. 2.

6. It was said that they shall have action of trespass, and appeal Br. Tresof the goods of the parishioners, because they are charged with them, &c. Thel, Dig. 21. lib, 1. cap. 23. f. 4. cites Trin. 12 H. 7. 27. that they país, pl. 289. cites S. C. may have an appeal of robbery of such goods,

7. It was held that they should have ejectione firma, if they are ejected of land leased to them for years. Thel. Dig. 21. lib. 1. cap. 23. f. 5. cites Trin. 15 H. 7. 8.

8. And they have had action upon the case. Thel. Dig. 21.

lib. 1. cap. 23. s. 4. cites Trin. 26 H. 8. 54

9. If goods of the church are taken away, and afterwards the [ 531 ] church-wardens in whose time they were taken away are out of their office, and they bring an action for the goods, they may suppose it to be ad damnum ipscrum; or, ad damnum parochianorum, at their election; but if the fuccesfors bring the action, they must of necessity suppose it ad damnum parochianorum. Agreed per Cur. S 1 3 and and judgment accordingly, though the justices at first conceived that the predecessor church-warden could not have action, his time being past. Cro. E. 145. pl. 5. Mich. 31 & 32 Eliz. C. B. and ibid. 179. pl. 11. Pasch. 32 Eliz. B. R. Hadman v. Ring- $\mathbf{wood}$ .

10. A church-warden, by the common law, may maintain an action on the case for defacing of a monument in the church. 279. pl. 395. Hill. 16 Jac. B. R. Bishop v. Turner.

11. Writ issued to the bishop, commanding him to admit a churchwarden elected by the parish. Palm. 50. Mich. 17 Jac. B. R.

The Parish of St. Balaunce in Kent.

12. A prohibition was prayed to the archdeacon of Exeter, because he proceeded to excommunicate the plaintiff, for that he, being church-warden, refused to present a notorious delinquent, being admonished; and a prohibition was granted; for they are not to direct the church-warden to present at their pleasure; but if one church-warden does refuse to present, he may be presented by his fuccessor. Freem. Rep. 298, 299. pl. 356. Hill. 1680. Selby's case, cites 13 Rep. 5.

13. Action lies for citing church-warden to account, that has accounted before, though nothing more is done, and though nothing enfued but an excommunication, and no capias nor any express 2 Show. 145. pl. 121. Mich. 32 Car. 2. B.R. damage laid.

Gray v. Dight, alias Day.

14. If money be disbursed by church-wardens for repairing the church, or any thing else merely ecclesiastical or spiritual, the spiritual courts shall allow their accounts; but if there be any thing else that is an agreement between the parishioners, the succeeding church-wardens may have an action of account at law, and the spiritual court has not jurisdiction. 12 Mod. 9. Mich. 3 W. & M. in B. R. Styrrop v. Stoakes.

15. The goods of the parish are in his custody, and he may pass, pl. 200. have trespass for them; per Holt Ch. J. 12 Mod. 116. Hill. 8 W. 3. The King v. Rees.

16. The succeeding church-wardens may have an action against their predecessors for the goods of the parish. Comb. 417. Hill. 9 W. 3. B. R. in case of the King v. Morgan Rice.

17. Church-wardens may bring actions for debts due to the parish in their own names; for they are a corporation. Farr. 116. Mich. 1 Ann. B. R. in case of Thimblethorp v.

Hardesty.

Br. Tres-

cites 37 H.

6. 30. S. P.

i8. If there be a custom for the church-wardens to collett money for the parish clerk, an action on the case will lie against him for not doing it. 6 Mod. 253. Mich. 3 Ann. B. R. in case of Parker v. Clerk.

19. The parishioners may call the church-wardens into the spiritual court for the money that they have received. MS. Cases, Mich. 7 Ann. B. R. Holloway v. Knight; but quære if one or two of the parish may do this when all the rest are agreed.

20. If church-wardens receive money by mistake, (it not being due to them,) and before knowledge of the mistake pay it over to the parif parish for whose use they received it, whether they may, after they are out of their office, be charged in an indebitatus assumplit for the money, was made a question, and Powell J. thought they might, but Parker Ch. J. thought they could not. See 10 Mod. 23. Pasch. 10 Ann. B. R. in case of Eagle and Bishop.

21. Two justices made an order, to compel the present church- Shaw's Pawardens of Ely to pay to the precedent ones, or their executors, 40 l. quashed * per Cur. for they have no such authority, 2 Shaw's cites S. C. Pract. Just. 29. cites Hill. 1712. The Church-wardens of Ely's ——Ibid. case.

220. cites S. C.

•

For more of Church-wardens in general, see Probibition, and other proper titles, # Circuity of Action.

(A) Circuity of Action; and what is a Bar to it,

I. TF I grant to my tenant to bold without impeachment of waste, 19 H. 6, or a lord grants to his tenant that he shall not be punished in cessavit, &c. or the king grants to one to be discharged of dismes, the same may be pleaded by rebutter, and the party not put to bring his action of covenant, or to sue by petition. Heath's Max. 44, 45. cites 19 H. 6. 62, by Paston.

2. And so it seems of waste in 21 H. S. 47. [though] the Br. Barre, grant [be] by lease, whereof doubt is made afterwards in 21 H. 7. 23 & 30. where the principal case was, that the obligee by Conings. granted, that if he did implead the obligor (before such a day) the by and Elobligation should be void, and a good bar; and upon that reason shall the garnisbee, or tenant by receit, rebutt by a release or Tremayle e warranty, Heath's Max. 45.

liot; but Moore and contra, that it was only a sparing for the time, and no release; and Fineux Ch. J. at first to the same intent, that it sounds only in covenant; and that if the party breaks the covenant, he shall only have an action of covenant; as where a man grants to his tenant, that he will not diffrain him before Michaelmas, there, if he distrains, the tenant shall only have an action of covenant. But Brooke says, quære inde; for it seems It shall be pleaded in bar to avoid circuity of action. And per Fineux, if one leafes land for life or years, and after grants by another deed, that the leffee shall not be impeached of waste, and the leffer brings waste, there the lessee shall have only action of covenant. But Brooke says that the practice is e contra; for he may plead it in bar to avoid circuity of action. But afterwards Fineux changed his opinion, and took a difference between a defeasance of an obligation and a condition of an obligation, and held that this grant made the obligation void; and so Fineux, Coningsby, and Elliot, were against Tremaile and Moore, -----Br. Grants, pl. 58. cites S. C. & S. P. accordingly. ---- Br. Defea-514 fance, pl. 12. cites S. C. and Brooke fays, that the best opinion was, that it is a good defeafance is bar of the action; for action personal once suspended is gone for ever; but that it is said, that it cannot enure as a release or acquittance, but as a defeasance. —— S. S. cited Pl. C. 156. b.

3. And upon the reason aforesaid it is, that where one thing is granted in law so [for] another, especially of things executory, and not executed, if he be interpleaded of that which to him appertains, he shall plead the same in bar of that whereof he made the grant, as appears by Perkins in the title of Exchanges, where rent is granted for distress. Heath's Max. 45.

4. But yet by 15 Ed. 4. [2.] 9 E. 4. [19.] and 24. E. 3. [54.] abridged by Brooke, tit. Conditions, pl. 61. it seems in that case to be to the contrary, because executed, and therefore not like where an annuity is granted pro consilio; the like where one holds to inclose taking the ancient pale, or where one grants to me an annuity to have a gorse, or a gutter in my land, because an easement. Heath's Max. 45.

5. In affife which remains for default of jurors, and after the plaintiff releases, this shall be pleaded to avoid circuity of action, by certificate of assis after. And so where a man is bound in a statute, and after releases, the defendant shall have venire facias, and this in avoidance of circuity of action by audita querela-

Br. Garnish, pl. 9. cites 20 H. 6. 28.

6. A. covenanted with B. to collect B.'s rent in D. and for not collecting them B. brought covenant. A. pleaded that B. bimfelf interrupted his collecting the same; judgment si actio, &c. It was insisted, that the plea was not good; for if it was, then action of trespass lay against B. in which A. might recover his damages. But the court held the plea good in avoidance of circuity of action; for if A. should bring trespass and recover damages, then B. should have writ of covenant against A. and recover, which circuity of action the law will not suffer, &c. Kelw. 34. b. 35. a. pl. 2. Hill. 13 H. 7. Anon.

Br. Covenant, pl. 22. cites S. C.

7. If you covenant to serve me, and I to give you 5 l. for your service, or you covenant to marry my daughter, and I, in like manner, to give you 20 l. as a marriage portion, if you serve me not, or marry not my daughter, I may plead the same in bar; otherwise if the covenant on either part had been express, and not depending upon the other's act. Heath's Max. 45, 46. cites 15 H. 7. 10.

8. Circuity of actions is where there is an equality to be recovered in both actions. Mo. 23. pl. 80. Pasch. 3 Eliz. Anon.

9. If A. enters into an obligation to B. and B. covenants not to Cro. E. 252. pl. 7. Deux put the bond in suit before Mich. and B. brings debt before Mich. v. Jefferies, A. cannot plead this in bar, but must bring action of covenant; S. C. acbut if the covenant had not been to fue at all, it is reasonable cordingly, as to the prinin fuch case, to avoid circuity of action, to allow its being cipal point, that it is not pleaded in bar of the action, but not in the other case. to be pleaded 307. pl. 316. Trin. 36 Eliz. Dowse v. Jeffries. in bar, but the party is put to his writ of covenant if he be sued before the time; but if the covenant had been not to sue at all, there, peradventure, it might enure as a release, and to be pleaded in har, but not here; for it never was the intent of the parties to make it a release, and it was adjudged for the plaintiff.

10. Debt

10. Debt on a bond of 200 %. The defendant pleaded, that after the bond made, the plaintiff covenanted by indenture shewn . in court, that if the defendant should at such a day pay 100 l. the bond should be void, and alleged, that he paid the money at the day; and upon demurrer all the court held, that he may well plead it in bar, without being put to his writ of covenant by circuity of action. Cro. E. 623. pl. 16. Mich. 40 & 41 Eliz. B. R. Hodges v. Smith.

11. In debt for rent on lease for years; the defendant pleaded in bar, that the leffor did covenant that the leffee might deduct · fo much for charges, and upon demurrer this was adjudged a in another good plea, it being a thing executory, and the covenant in the same deed, and the party shall not be put to circuity of action, has not and to bring action of covenant. Lev. 152. Mich. 16 Car. 2. taken away B. R. Johnson v. Carre.

But not where the covenant is deed; for the last deed the effect of the former;

and a later covenant cannot be pleaded in bar of a former; but the defendant must bring his action upon the last indenture if he would help himself, and judgment accordingly per tot. cur. 2 Vent. 217. 218. Mich. 2 W. & M. in C. B. Gawden v. Draper.

12. If A. and B. are jointly and severally bound to H. and. H. covenants with A. that he will not fue A. this is not a defeasance, for still there is a remedy on bond against B. Otherwise if A. only had been bound, for then such covenant excludes him from any remedy for ever, to avoid circuity of action; per [534] 2 Salk. 575. pl. 3. Pasch. 13 W. 3. B.R. in case of Lacy v. Kinaston.

13. Infinitum in jure reprobatur. See Maxims.

For more of Circuity of Actions in general, see Bar, and other proper titles.

Circumbention.

BILL to be relieved against a bill of sale. The case was; 1 A. being in prison, B. his landlord came to him, and pretending friendship, and to procure his enlargement, persuaded A. to make over his stock, &c. to him, and he would pay A.'s debts, and return the overplus. A. made a bill of fale, and B. possessed himself of the goods, and more than was contained in the bill of fale, but paid no debts, nor got him out of prison as he had promised. The court being satisfied the bill of sale was made on a trust, decreed an account, Fin, Rep. 175. Mich. 26 Car. 2. Jones v. Prior,

2, Assumplit,

2. Assumptit, that in confideration of half a crown by the plaintiff in hand paid to the defendant, he promised to pay 2 grains of rye upon Monday the 20th of March in such 2 year, 4 grains the next Monday after, and so on by progressional arithmetic every Monday for a year, and non assumptit pleaded. Per Cur. upon motion, let them go to trial; and though this would amount to a vast quantity, yet the jury will consider of the folly of the defendant, and give but reasonable damages against him. 6 Mod. 305. Mich. 3 Ann. B. R. Thornborough v. Whitnere.

In this case it was decreed that the defendant do account for the rents and profits of the freehold leafes to the plaintiff, and the defendant to have all just allowances for debts and legacies paid by him, and the plaintiff to account for 150 guineas to the defendant, with intereft, &c. As to the purchasor bona fide of part of the freehold lands, he shall reconvey to the plaintiff, upon payment of the purchase-

3. Francis Broderick being seised of a considerable estate in see, made his will, and devised it to Thomas Broderick the defendant. Francis himself executed the will, but it was not attested in his presence by 3 witnesses. Francis died, and the defendant Thomas finding that the will was void, for 100 guineas paid by him to the plaintiff George Broderick, who was Francis's heir at law. procured from the plaintiff a release, which recited that Frescis, by his last will duly executed, had devised his estate to the defendant Thomas; and the defendant Thomas thinking himself not fafe with the release only, for 50 guineas more prevailed with the plaintiff to convey the lands by leafe and release to one Day, who was trustee for the defendant Thomas, to whom Day afterwards conveyed. Afterwards the defendant Thomas, upon a valuable confideration, conveyed part to one Parker, who had not any other notice of the invalidity of the will, fave that he heard it mentioned in common discourse. The plaintiff brought his bill against the said T. Broderick, Day and Parker, to have the release, lease, and release delivered up as fraudulently obtained; and it not appearing that the plaintiff, at the time of his making the release, &c. knew that the will was bad, the Ld. C. Harcourt decreed that they should be delivered up; and it not appearing that Parker was privy to the fraud, though he had heard of the invalidity of the will as above, it was decreed * that he, upon réceiving his purchase-money with interest, should convey to the plaintiff, and should account for the rents and profits which he had received, and be allowed what he had laid out in repairs or otherwise. MS. Rep., Mich, 12 Ann, Canc, Broderick v. Broderick & al'.

money with interest at 5 l. per cent. because he had notice of the invalidity of the devise by common report, though not actual notice from the plaintist or detendant; and though he was not a fraudulent purchasor, yet he was a rash one, and ought to have inquired into the validity of the will, or got the heig at law to join in the conveyance to him; per Harcourt C. Ex relatione alterius.

*[535]

4. Dr. Dent being parson of the parish of C, in Essex, and Sir... Buck having lands in that parish, told Dr. Dent that there was a modus of 40 s. per ann. paid time out of mind for his lands in the parish; and to satisfy and convince the doctor of it, he shewed a copy of a record in B. R. tempore Eliz. where a probibition was granted against the parson in a suit for tithes in courte christian upon a suggestion of this modus; whereupon Dr. Dent did agree with Sir... Buck to take 40 s. per ann. for the tithes of Sir... Buck's lands in that parish; but it appearing in the cause that Sir — Buck did suppress part of the record, wherein afterwards a confultation was granted, and thereby deceived Dr. Dent, and drew him into this agreement, for that reason the lords did make void the agreement, being obtained by fuppressing the truth. MS. Rep. Mich. 12 Ann. in Canc. cited in case of Broderick v. Broderick, as the case of Dr. Dent v. Buck in Dom. Proc.

13:

For more of Circumvention in general, see Covin, Fraud, Rejease (Y. a.) and other proper titles.

Citation out of the Diocels.

(A) By Statute of Hen. 8.

9. s. 2. O person shall be cited before any judge spiritual Lewis and out of the diocess, or particular jurisdiction who dwelt where the person cited shall be inhabiting, except for any spiritual offence, or cause done or neglected, by the bishop or other person having spiritual jurisdiction, or by any other person within the jurisdiction whereunto he shall be cited;

S. 3. And except it be upon matter of appeal, or for other lawful cause wherein any party shall find himself grieved by the ordinary, &c. of the diocess, &c. after the matter there first commenced; or in case the bishop, &c. will not convene the party to be sued before him; or in case the bishop, &c. be party to the suit, or in case any bishop, &c. makes request to the archbishop or superior ordinary to take the matter before bim, and that only where the law civil or canon doth affirm execution of such request to be lawful, upon pain of forfeiture, to the person cited, of double damages and costs, to be recovered against such ordinary, Sc. by action of debt, and upon forfeiture of every person so cited 10 l. one half to the king, and the other half to any one that will sue for the same. S. 4. Provided that it shall be lawful for every archbishop to cite risdiction of any persons inhabiting within his province for causes of heresy, if the ordinary immediate confent; or do not his duty.

S. 5. This act shall not extend to the prerogative of the archbishop of empt from the Canterbury, of calling persons out of the diocess for probate of testaments.

S. 6. No archbishop, &c. shall demand any money for the seal London, of a citation than only 3d. upon the penalties before limited.

8. 7. This act shall not be prejudicial to the archbishop of York, concerning probate of testaments within his province.

" [ 536 ] who dwelt in Effex, in the diocess of London, were sued tor *Substrac*tion of titbes growing in B. in the said county of Ef-Jex, by Porter in the court of arches of the archbifbopric of Canterbury in London, wbere tbe arcbbifbop bas a peculiar ju-13 parisbes called a deanry, exauthority of the bishop of whereof the parish of St. Mary de Arcubus is the chief. Resolved, that the body of the act is, that no manner of person shall be henceforth cited before any ordinary,

&c.

&c. out of the diocels or peculiar jurisdiction where the person shall be dwelling; and if he shall not be cited out of the peculiar before any ordinary, a fortiori, the court of arches, which fits in a peculiar, shall not cite others out of another diocess; and these words (out of the diocess) are to be meant out of the diocess or jurisdiction of the ordinary where he dwells, but the exempt peculiar of the archbishop is out of the jurisdiction of the bishop of London, as St. Martin's, and other places in London, are not part of London, although they are within the circumference of it. It is to be observed, that the preamble reciting the great mischief, recites expressly, that the subjects were called by compulsory process to appear in the arches, audience, and other high courts of the archbishopric of this realm; so as the intention of the said act was to reduce the archb shop to his proper diocess, or peculiar jurisdiction, unless it were in 5 cases: 1st, For any spiritual effence or cause committed or omitted, contrary to the right and duty, by the bishop, &c. which word (omitted) proves that there ought to be a default in the ordinary. adly, Except it be in case of appeal, and other lawful cause, wherein the party shall find himself grieved by the ordinary, after the matter or cause there first begun; ergo, the same ought to be first begun before the ordinary. 3dly, In case that the b spop of the diocess, or other immediate judge or ordinary, dave not or will not convene the party to be fued before him, where the ordinary is called the immediate judge, as in truth he is, and the archbishop, unless it be in his own diccels (these special cases excepted) immediate judge, viz. by appeal, &c. 4thly, Or in case that the bishop of the diocess, or the judge of the place within whose jurisdiction, or before whom the suit by this act should be begun and prosecuted, be party directly or indirectly to the matter or cause of the same suit, which clause in express words is a full exposition of the body of the act, viz. that every suit (other than those which are expressed) ought to be begun and profecuted before the bishop of the diocess, or other judge of the same place. 5thiy, In case that any bishop, or any inferior judge, having under him jurisdiction, &c. make request or instance to the archbishop, bishop, or other interior ordinary or judge, and that to be done in cases enly where the law civil or common doth affirm, &c. by which it fully appears that the act intends that every ordinary and ecclefiastical judge should have the conusance of causes within their jurisdiction, without any concurrent authority or fuit by way of prevention; and by this the subject has great benefit, as well by faving of travel and charges to have justice in his place of habitation, as to be judged where he and the matter is best known; as also that he shall have as many appeals as his adversary in the highest court at the first. Also there are a provisors which explain it also, viz. that it shall be lawful for every archbishop to cite any person inhabiting in any bishop's diocess within his province for matter of berefy (which were a vain proviso if the act did not extend to the archbishop; but by that special proviso for herefy, it appears that for all causes not excepted it is prohibited by the act). Then the words of the proviso go further, if the bishop or other ordina y immediately hereunto consent, or if the same bishop or other immediate ordinary or judge, do not his duty in punishment of the same; which words (immediately) and (immediate) expound the intent of the makers of the act. 2dly, There is a faving for the archbishop, the calling any person out of the diocess where he shall be dwelling in the probate of any testaments; which provide should be also in vain, if the archbishop, notwithstanding that act, should have concurrent authority with every ordinary through his whole province; wherefore it was concluded that the archbishop out of his diocess, unless in the cases excepted, is prohibited by the act of 23 H. 8. to cite any man out of any other dioceis. Refolved 13 Rep. 4. 6. pl. 2. Mich. 6 Jac. C. B. Porter v. Rochester. S. C. cited Arg. 5 Mod. 451.

Holt Ch. J.

2. If one in Norfolk comes within another diocess, and commits took the difference laid down by Dr.

Lane, that a fuffragan court may

2. If one in Norfolk comes within another diocess, and commits adultery in the other diocess during the time of his residence, he may be cited in the diocess where he committed the offence, though he dwell out of the diocess; per Coke, Warburton, & Winch, J. Brownl. 45. Anon.

have a jurisdiction when a man of another diocess is taken flagranti delisto; but Holt said that where the party goes into another diocess, and is commorant there, and he comes back casually into the first diocess, then the citation cannot be good; for suppose a man comes casually into the diocess of London, and commits a crime there, and then goes back to the diocess where he dwells, and then casually comes to London again, I do not think he can be here cited; but if he had been cited before he lest London, then that would be flagranti delicto. Holt's Rep. 605. pl. 18. Trip. 5 Ann. in case of Wilmett ve Loyd.

[ 537 ]

S. C. cited Arg. 5 Mod. 452.

3. If a man inhabits in the diocess of A. and has cause to sue for tithes in the diocess of A. in which he inhabits, and also for tithes in the diocess of B. he ought to sue in the diocess in which the desendant did inhabit, and not in the diocess where the tithes are payable, nor where the plaintiff inhabits. Agreed. 2 Brownl. 28. Trin, 9 Jac. C. B, in case of Jones v. Boyer,

4. The

4. The exception in this statute extends only to probate of wills; S. C. cited faid by Warburton, J. to have been agreed by all the justices. Godb. 214. pl. 306. Mich. 11 Jac. C. B. in Hughes's case.

Arg. Gibb. 110. Mich. 3 Geo. 2. B. R. in the case of Edgworth v. Smallridge, where the case was, that a prohibition was prayed to a suit for a legacy in the arches against the executor, for that he was cited out of his diocess, contrary to 23 H. 8. cap. 9. and it appeared that the testator having bona notabilia in several dioceses, his will was proved in the prerogative court of Canterbury. Dr. Andrews for the defendant infifted, that the exception of the probate of wills draws after it, necessarily, an exception of suits arising upon such wills proved; that the 23 H. 8. is an affirmance of the canon law. Now by the canon law a will cannot be proved in the arches, nor can legacies be fued for in the prerogative court, which is a point mistaken by the reporters, who say the legacy must be sued for where the will is proved. Both the prerogative and the arches are within the archbishop's jurisdiction; and if the legatee is not suffered to sue in the arches, he can sue no where; and Fazakerley, of the same side, cited 1 Vent. 233. and as a case in point; and the court denied the prohibition.

5. It was held per cur. that this act did not extend to the high commission court; for that was erected in I Eliz. and therefore it was not the intent of the 23 H. 8. to provide for a court which was not then in esse. Roll. Rep. 174. pl. 10. Pasch. 13 Jac. B. R. Ballinger v. Salter.

11. Note, a prohibition was awarded upon the 23 H. 8. because the party was fued out of the diocess; and now a consultation was prayed, because the inferior court had remitted that cause to the Arches, and their jurisdiction also, yet a consultation was denied; for it ought to be pleaded upon the prohibition. Noy, 89. Trin. 2 Car. B. R. Anon.

12. Upon view of the statute, it appears clearly that it extends as well to fuits out of the peculiar jurifdiction, as to fuits out of the diocefs. Cro. C. 162. pl. 3. Mich. 5 Car. B. R. Kadwalladar v. Brian.

13. Prohibition was granted to the bishop of Sarum, for citing one out of his diocess, to appear at his court at Sarum, whereas the party was living in London. But it being a fuit for tithes of lands in the diocess of Sarum, the court, upon notice thereof, granted a consultation, because the land lying in the diocess of Sarum, the suit cannot be elsewhere, let the defendant live where he will, and so this case is not within the statute; and a consultation was granted. Lev. 96. Pasch. 15 Car. 2. C. B. Westcote v. Harding.

14. The court held that if a man is cited within the diocess, though he be not an inhabitant there, but comes thither to trade only, or otherwife, fuch citation is not within the statute; and if it were otherwise, there might be offences committed against the ecclesiastical law, which would not be punished at all; for men would offend in one county and then remove to another, and so escape with impunity. Hardr. 421. pl. 8. Trin. 17 Car. 2. in the exchequer, Dr. Blackmore's case.

15. He that would have advantage of the statute for citing out See pl. 17. of the diocess must come before sentence. Vent. 61. Hill. 21 & 22 Car. 2. B. R. Anon.

16. A prohibition was prayed to the ecclesiastical court, for that S. P. by they cited one out of a diocess to answer a suit for a legacy, but it Holt's Rep. was denied, because it was in the court where the probate of the will 603. pl. 17.

つう

Citation out of the Diocels.

Trin. 5 Ann. in case of Wilmet Y. Loid.

was; for though it was before commissioners appointed for probate of wills in the late times, yet now all their proceedings in fuch cases are transmitted into the prerogative court, and therefore suits for legacies contained in such wills ought to be in the archbishop's court; for there the * executor must give account and be discharged, &c. Vent. 233. pl. 1. Hill. 24 & 25 Car. 2. B. R. Anon.

By pleading he had edmitted the jari [diction of the court, and the statute 23 H. 8. takes not away the jurisdiction of all matters arising out of the diocess, but only gives him, that lives out of it, a new privilege of pleading to the jurifdiction, which if he neglects he shall not have prohibition after a sentence. Carth. 33. cites the case of Vanacre v. Spleen.

17. Prohibition does not lie after plea pleaded for citing out of the diocess. Cumb. 105. Pasch. 1 W. & M. in B. R. cites the case of Vanacre v. Spleen.

3 Keb. 562. pl. 78. Mich: 27 Car. 2. B. R. Vanaere v. Spleen, is that a prohibition lies as well after sentence as before, and whether an appeal be depending or not; but nothing appears as to citation. —S. C. cited by Dolben J. as adjudged in Ld. Hales's time, in which he was of counsel; and that it being moved afterwards, Ld. Ch. [. North allowed the said case to be good law. Holt Ch. J. said, it was reasonable that it should be good law, but he doubted of it. Comb. 105. 109. in S. C.

> 18. A libel was for words, and a prohibition was moved for, because the words mentioned in the libel were not spoken within the diocess, &c. But per Cur. the jurisdiction is not local as to the cause of action, but as to the residency of the person; and if the person lives within the diocess, it is not material where the words were spoke. Comb. 105, 106. Pasch. 1 W. & M. in B. R. Anon.

19. W. lived in the diocess of Litchfield and Coventry, but occupied 3. C. cited Arg. 5 Mod. lands in the parish of D. in the diocess of Peterborough, and was there 452.-taxed in respect of his land as an inhabitant towards a rate for new 3 Mod. 211. Woodward's casting of the bells; and because he refused to pay, was cited into case, S. C. the court of the bishop of Peterborough, and libelled against Paich. 4 Jac. 2. B.R. but for this matter. Per Cur. this is not a citing out of the diocels within the statute 23 H. 8. cap. 9. for he is an inhabitant where held e conbe occupies the land, as well as where he personally resides. Comb. 132. 164. pl. 1. Trin. 1 W. & M. in B. R. Woodward v. Make-Trin. 1 W. & M. peace. Woodward

v. Mackpeth, S. C. and a consultation was awarded; and Holt Ch. J. compared it to the flatute of Winton, where he shall be an inhabitant within the hundred, that occupies land within the hundred.

Carth. 476. 20. A. lived in N. within the province of York, and subtracted S. C. and tythes there, and then removed to M. within the province of Canterthe court held the fuit bury; after he happened to go to York and was there fued in the archbishop's court for the substraction, and had a prohibition on the local, and a prohibition 23 H. 8. 9. But after debate a consultation was awarded; because was denied. the substraction of the tythes is local, and must be sued before the ----5 Mod. 450. S. C. ordinary of the place where the wrong was done, otherwise in fays the libel cases transitory, ubi forum sequitur reum. And as it was argued against him by the counsel, this is not citing out of the diocess within the in the spiritual court at statute, because the diocess where he lives has not a jurisdiction; York, was and if he might not be cited in this case, the thing would be remediless 7 years after 2 Salk. 549. Mich. 11 W. 3 B. R. Machin and dispunishable. his removal from the v. Malton. diocels of term. 12 Mod. 252. S. C. says that A. lived all his life at Lincoln, and at the end of 7 years after the substraction, he being at York as an evidence was served with a citation. A prohibition was granted because the case was doubtful, that it might be settled. But afterwards in Hill. Term upon deliberation, a consultation was awarded per tot. Cur.——Ibid. the seporter adds a nota, viz. See the words of 22 H. S. cap. 7. That the party shall be fued before the ordinary of the place where the subfiraction was. [I do not observe this point taken notice of in the Abridgments, either of Wing. or Cay; but the words of the said statute are according to the said note, viz. that the party euronged or grieved, shall and may convene the person or persons so offending before the ordinary, his commissary, or other competent minister or lawful judge of the place where such wrong skall he done, according to the ecclesiastical have, and in every Jueb case or matter of suit, the same ordinary, Sc. having the parties or their lawful procurators before them, shall and may, by virtue of this act, proceed to the examination, bearing, and determination of every such cause or matter, ordinarily or summarily, according to the course and process of the said ecclesiastical laws; and thereupon may give sentence accordingly.] ---- 3 Salk 90, 91. pl. 2. S. C. and says this case was ruled to stand upon a single reason; for whatever the law might be in other instances, yet in the case of tithes, the statute 32 H. 8. expressly enacts, that the party * substracting them shall appear before the ordinary of the diocess where they were substracted; and therefore a consultation was granted in this case. Lutw. 1057. S. C. but S. P. dues not appear.

York; the case was argued for a prohibition, but the court put off giving their opinions to the next

[339]

21. F. libelled against G. in the spiritual court for cobabitation, claiming a marriage with her, and prohibition moved for, upon fuggestion that the citation was to answer out of the diocess, it being to ecclefiastical court of peculiar of Westminster, whereas she lived in Chefter; but it appearing by affidavit, that she dwelled for a confiderable time in London diocess, and even to the very day of the citation, which was served upon her just as she was going away; the court would not grant a prohibition. 12 Mod. 610. Hill.

13 W. 3. Fenwick v. Lady Grosvenor.

22. Libel against the defendant in the spiritual court at Worces- Ibid. pl. 18. ter, for getting his brother's wife with child, and he prays a prohibi- the S. C. tion, because he went to live at York a year before be was cited, though it was after the woman was faid to be with child, and Powell J. that he has a dwelling in Yorkshire, but coming to Worcester to choose parliament men he was served with a libel. Holt Ch. J. said lived in if you appeal for want of jurisdiction, you may still have a prohibition for that, because you contest the same; but if you appeal upon the merits or propter gravamen, though you infift on the jurisdiction of the court by protestation, yet this shall be taken for an admis- and then besion of the jurisdiction; adjornatur. Holt's Rep. 603. pl. 17. Trin. 5 Ann. Wilmett v. Loid.

was argued by civilians. said, suppose W. had only Worcester when this crime was committed, fore the crime was found out be went to live in York; this perhaps shall not oust the court of W. out of the jurisdiction which was well begun there. Holt Ch. J. contra, because a citation is in nature of a process, which in its nature cannot be of force in another diocess. But that point was no more insisted upon, being out of the case. Holt Ch. J. Powis and Gould said this case was too nice to be determined on a motion, therefore let a prohibition go, and let W. declare forthwith. I am not giving any opinion, said Holt Ch. J. but I think if the citation be wrong, though that W. did plead informally to the jurisdiction, and also appealed, yet all the proceedings below must fall to the ground.

For more of Citation in general, see Probibition, and other proper titles.

Clerk of the Warket.

(A) Clerk of the Market. His Power.

Hether a clerk of the market can break pots not being measure? Attorney general said that he could not, but must order them according to the sorm of the statute. Savil. 57.

pl. 122. Pasch. 25 Eliz. Anon.

[540]

2. At the motion of Coke attorney of the queen, all the justices of England assembled at Serjeant's-inn, upon extortions committed by the clerks of the markets, because they had taken 1d. fee for the view of vessels, though they found not any defect in them, and sealed them not, and if they did seal them they took 2d. And all the justices agreed that this was grand extortion, and that no prescription can serve for taking a fee for the view only, unless they found default or sealed them. Mo. 523. pl. 690. Mich. 39 & 40 Eliz. Anon.

3. Clerk of the market has to do with nothing but victuals.

Het. 145. Trin. 5 Car. C. B. Cambridge University's case.

4. In trespass desendant justified as clerk of the market within, &c. for a distress of 3s. 4d. for not using measures marked according to the standard of the exchequer. On demurrer it was urged for the desendant, that this was an authority given by the 14 E. 3. cap. 12. s. 2. and held per Holt Ch. J. that the clerk of the market could not have power to estreat fines and amerciaments otherwise than as a franchise, and it is more reasonable the clerk should bring the standard with him, than that the people should sollow him, or attend at a place out of the market. I Salk. 327. Trin. 8 Ann. B. R. Burdett's case.

For more of Clerk of the Market in general, see Market (A. 2) and other proper titles.

(A) Clerk of a Parish,

1. THE clerk of a parish prescribed, that he and his predeces- Cro. B. 71.

fors had used to base to her own of the hard of th fors had used to have 5s. per ann. of the parson for the pl. 26. S.C. tithes of a certain place within the parish, but a consultation was awarded, because a clerk dative and removeable cannot prescribe. Mo. 908. pl. 1274. 29 & 30 Eliz. Savell v. Wood.

and it was moved, that it was a good prescription, because the parsonage was a parsonage impropriate, and by intendment it comagenced by the act of the parson, vis. that he made a composition that the tithe of that land should be paid to the clerk in discharge of himself, and that he had used time out of mind, &c. to pay to the elerk 5 a. in discharge of all tithes, &c. and the court said, if this special matter be shewn in the surmise, perhaps it might be good by reason of the continuance, and that by this the parson is discharged from finding the clerk, with which perhaps he shall be charged, and so is as a payment of tithes to the parson himself; but such matter is not shewn, and by common intendment tithes are not to be paid to the parish clerk, and he is no party in whom a prescription can be alleged, and thereupon they awarded a consultation. .......... Le. 94. pl. 122. S. C. accordingly.

2. It was held, that a parish clerk is a mere layman, and ought to be deprived by them that put him in, and no others; and if the ecclesiastical court meddle with deprivation of the parish clerk, they incur a præmunire, and a canon, which wills, that the parfon shall have election of the parish clerk, is merely void to take away the custom that any had to elect him. 2 Brownl. 38. Pasch. 8 Jac. C. B. Gaudy v. Newman.

Godb. 163. pl. 228. Paich. 8. Jac. C. B. Candict v. Plomer, S. P.— Le. 94, 95. pl. 122. S. P. by Clench.-13 Rep. 70. pl. 34. Anon. S. C. and though where a clerk is chosen by custom by the parishioners, he is not deprivable by the official, yet upon occasion the parishioners might displace him, cites 3 E. 3. Annuity, 70. ——And ibid. says, though the execution of the office concerns divine service, yet the office is merely temporal.

3. Resolved, that if the parish clerk misdemean himself in his of [ 541 ] fice, or in the church, he may be sentenced for it in the ecclesiastical court to excommunication, but not to deprivation. 38. Pasch. 8 Jac. C. B. Gaudy v. Newman.

4. Parish clerk may sue in court christian for his fees, which are called largitiones charitative. Arg. cites the Register, fol. 52. for he is quodam modo an officer spiritual, cites 21 E. 4. 47. 2 Roll.

Rep. 71. Hill. 18 Jac. B. R. in Bishop's case.

5. In case the plaintiff declared, quod cum extitisset clerk of such a parish; the defendant disturbed him in the exercise of his office, and bindered him to fit in the clerk's feat, per quod he lost the profits of bis office. It was objected, that this was rather a service or employment than an office; that if it be an office, it is ecclefiastical, for of common right the parson appoints the clerk, and the court will not intend a custom; and unless a clerk comes in by the election of the parishioners, according to custom, he has not a temporal right, and the court will not grant a mandamus for a. clerk, without an affidavit that he is appointed by the parish. Vol. IV.

It does not appear that any fees appertain unto his office, and no action lies at common law for disturbance in the enjoyment of a seat in the church without a temporal right, and so it is here; adjornatur. 2 Salk. 468. pl. 7. Trin. 4 Ann. B. R. Lee v. Drake.

After the 6. Parish clerk nominated by the parson is, by common law, as put in a elerk, he is 10 Ann. B. R. Parish of Gatton v. Milwick.

then the clerk of the parish, and not the parison's clerk only, and therefore he cannot turn him eat at planfare; per Holt Ch. J. 11 Mod. 261. pl. 17. Mich. 8 Ann. B. R. The Queen v. Dr. Wall.

For more of Clerk of the Parish in general, see Propinition, and other proper titles.

Clerk of the Peace.

- (A) His Office. And appointed, and discharged by whom, and for what.
- 1. 5.3. EVERY custos rotulorum shall appoint the clerk person instructed in the laws as shall be able to exercise the same, to bold the same during the time that the custos rotulorum shall exercise the office of custos rotulorum, so that the said clerk demean himself in the office suffly; and it shall be lawful to such grantee of the said clerkship to occupy the office by himself, or by his deputy instructed in the laws, so that the deputy be admitted by the custos rotulorum.

2. The clerk of the peace is amerciable by the court of king's bench for gross faults in indictments drawn up by him, and removed thither, and it hath often been so done (21 Car. 1. B. R.), for such faults shall be intended to be faults committed out of negligence, and not out of ignorance. L. P. R. 71.

3. I W. & M. stat. 1. cop. 21. state of the custor retainers, or other person to whom it shall belong to appoint the clerk of the peace, shall, where the office of clerk of the peace shall be void, nominate a sufficient person residing in the country or place, to exercise the same, by himself, or his sufficient deputy, for so long time as such clerk of the peace shall well demean himself in his office.

4. S. 6. If any clerk of the peace shall misdemean himself in the office, and a complaint in writing of such misdemeaner shall be exhibited and to the quarter sessions, it shall be lawful for the justices, upon exemination mation and proof, to suspend or discharge him from the office, and the euftos rotulorum, or other person to whom it shall belong, shall appoint another sufficient person residing in the county, &c. to be clerk of the peace, and in case of neglect to make such appointment before the mest quarter sessions, it shall be lawful for the justices to appoint

5. The clerk of the peace must make out all process, and when Show. 282. they are compleated must deliver them to the custos, but as long as they are in process they are to be with the clerk, but for refusing to deliver the rolls to the custos, he was indicted and removed, and a mandamus to restore him was denied per 3 justices against the Ch. J. 4 Mod. 31. Pasch. 3 W. & M. in B. R. The King and Queen v. Evans.

Mich. 3 W. & M. the S. C. it was objected, that there were no articles or complaint in writing against him according to the statute of I W. & M. and Holt Ch. . declared, that the justices cannot discharge a clerk of the peace for a fault appearing in court without articles in writing; and afterwards, for want of a writing, a peremptory mandamus was granted.—12 Mod. 13. S. C. it was argued, that the flatute I W. & M. vests a freehold in the clerk, quamdiu se bene gesserit, and per Holt Ch. J. the clerk of the peace is a distinct officer, and not a mere servant, and a peremptory mandamus was granted. —— He draws up the issues upon traverses; per Gregory J. Show. 523. Trin. 5 W. & M. Jadgments, and is to record pleas, and join issues, and enter judgments; per Holt Ch. J. Show. 350. in S. C.——S. C. cited Ld. Raym. Rep. 161.

6. In indebitatus assumpsit, and non-assumpsit pleaded, the jury found the stat. 27 H. 8. and 1 W. & M. and the several clauses in them about clerk of the peace; that the Earl of Clare was custos rotulorum of Middlesex, and that he named the plaintiff to be clerk of the peace, to exercise the office by him or his sufficient deputy, office by quamdiu se bene gesserit; that the plaintiff was capable of the office, and virtue of this duly admitted; that the Earl of Clare was afterwards removed, and Earl of Bedford made cuftos rotulorum, who conftituted, by writing under hand and feal, the defendant, during the time he was cuftos rotulorum, quamdiu the defendant se bene gesserit; and on solemn argument judgment pro quer' per tot. Cur. for that he had estate for life, and was not removeable by the new custos. 12 Mod. 42. Trin. 5 W. & M. Harcourt v. Fox.

4 Mod. 167 to 175. S.C. and perCut. the clerk of the peace being in this act, for for long time as he shall de mean him: self well, those words shall be construcd most favourably to answer the intent of the law-makers, whose design was to have the office well supplied by a man able and well killed in the laws, which will be effected when the officer hath an estate for life; and for these reasons judgment was given in Trinity term following for the plaintiff, and afterwards affirmed in parliament. Comb. 209. S. C. adjudged for the plaintiff.' And Holt Ch. J. added, that it was the general temper of the then parliament, to make offices more lafting (and faid that our places are so) and counsel. ____Ibid. 516 to 537. S. C. the opinions of the judges delivered for the plaintiff. __ Show. Parl. Cases, 158. S. C. in the house of lords, and judgment affirmed.

*[543]

7. By the statute I W. & M. the custos rotulorum is to appoint a clerk of the peace for so long time only as he shall demean himself well. Owen brought a mandamus to the justices to restore him to that office. The return was, that the Earl of Winchelsea, who was custos rotulorum, * did appoint O. to be clerk of the peace durante beneplacito, &c. that the faid earl being dead, the Lord Sydney was made custos, who appointed S. to be clerk of the peace of Kent, pursuant to the said act. The question was, whether a grant of this office during pleasure, which is only an estate at will, shall tinuance,

Cumb. 317. S. C. and adjudged a good return; for the statute gives the custos a particular power to appoint the person, conand manual of holding the office, set excludes the power to name in any other menner, and appointment dusing pleafure being less than his authority, and not war-be so governed by the statute as to make it an estate for life when once the person is admitted to the office, so that let the custos and the word make what appointment he will, though not pursuant to the sta-(only) in the tute, it is the statute, and not the custos, which gives an interest and estate to the nominee? Adjudged, that no peremptory mandamus should go; for, by the act, the custos is to nominate a clerk to execute the office so long as he shall demean himself well, therefore the &c. and if he appoint him in any other manner, he is no clerk of the peace, so that appointment during pleasure is not pursuant to the act; for he has not executed the authority given him by the act, and so the defendant has no title. 4 Mod. 293. Trin. 6 W. & M. in B. R. The King v. Owen.

ranted by it, is void. ------S. C. cited as resolved accordingly in B. R. Pasch. 7 W. 3. after several arguments. Ld. Raym. Rep. 100.

After the act of 1 W. UM. 21. the cuftos rotulorum · of the county of Kent, in open felfions then held for that county, at which time

8. It always belonged to the custos rotulorum to nominate the clerk of the peace, but the clerk of the peace was removeable whenever the custos was removed or changed, and, moreover, was removeable at the will of the custos till 37 H. 8. 1. which makes him to continue in quosque the custos shall continue in, but now, by the late act, he is to continue for life, and though the words are, give and grant to him, yet it is only an appointment, and consequently may be without deed. 2 Salk. 467. Trin. 10 W. 3. B. R. Sanders v. Owen.

J. S. was present in court, said, I do nominate the said J. S. to be clerk of the peace according to the said all of parliament; and this in C. B. was held good, though only by parol, and in error in B. R. a parol appointment was held good, but the judgment was reversed for the infusficiency and insensibility of the words, but that judgment was reversed in the house of lords. Carth. 426. S. C .-- 12 Med. mg. S. C. and the reverful reversed accordingly. Ld. Raym. Rep. 158 to 167. S. C. and the reversal reversed accordingly.

9. He is no more than a ministerial officer, and a record made by him is not to be pleaded as a record, and will not conclude the judgment of B. R. Arg. 8 Mod. 43. Pasch. 7 Geo. 1. in case of Colvin v. Fletcher.

Client and Attorney.

Disputes between them as to Deeds, &c. in the Hands of the Attorney.

Ttorney being to draw a deed has writings brought to But where him, and amongst them is one that concerns himself and his title; * though the deed concerned the attorney's own title, yet the other manner, court forced him to deliver it up, and left him to take his proper 2 Show. 165. pl. 156. Mich. 33 Car. 2. B.R. remedy at law. Tyack's case.

"[544] they come to bim in any or on any other account, the party must refort to his

1 Salk. 87. pl. 5. Mich. 10 W. 3. B. R. Goring v. Bishop.

2. Attorney having money due to him from his client, shall not S. P. unless be compelled to deliver up the papers before he is paid his fees, Comb. 43. Hill. 2 & 3 Jac. 2. B. R. Anon.

the party agrees to pay bis reasonable demands,

12 Mod. $54. Trin. 13 W. 3. Anon.

3. An attorney having writings delivered to him to draw a 8 Mod. 339. mortgage, &c. may detain them till the money is paid for his drawing them; but he cannot detain any writings, which are delivered to bim on a special trust, for the money due to him in that very business; and if he does, an attachment will go, and he will be ordered to pay costs and damages to the party, 8 Mod. 306. Mich. the writings 11 Geo. 1. Lawson v. Dickenson.

lays the court has zone so far as to compel a counsel to deliver up intrusted with him.

4. Client delivered a deed to his attorney, in order to bring an action of covenant. The attorney left the deed, as he pretended. On a motion for an attachment against the attorney for not delivering the deed, it was proposed by Mr. Strange, the attorney's counsel, that the plaintiff should bring a bill of discovery to make him set out whether there was not such deed, and what the deed was; but he agreed that it ought to be at the attorney's costs, and moved that the court would not grant an attachment. Page J. faid he thought the attorney himself ought to procure a discovery by bill in chancery, but that the plaintiff should allow him to make use of his name for that purpose; accordingly the court granted an attachment, but to lie in the officer's hands till further directions given. 2 Barnard. Rep. in B. R. Pasch. 6 Geo. 2. Court v. Gilbert,

(B) Other Matters in general, as to Client and Attorney.

Mo. 366. pl. 500. S. C. adjudged.

1. HE may expend money as attorney, but not as solicitor; per Popham, Clench, and Gawdy. Cro. E. 459. pl. 4. Hill.

38 Eliz. B. R. Rolls v. Germin.

2. If the client in any fuit furnishes his attorney with a pleas, which the attorney finds to be false, so that he cannot plead it for fake of his conscience, the attorney may plead in this case quod non fuit veraciter informatus, and in so doing he does his duty. Jenk. 52. pl. 100.

If an attorney confess judgment, the party is

3. If an attorney confess the action without consent and will of bis. client, this shall bind the client; but otherwise it is in collateral matters; per 2 justices. 2 Roll. Rep. 63. Hill. 16 Jac.

bound by it. B. R. Arg. Chan. Cales, 86, 87. Pasch. 19 Car. 2.

> 4. An attorney may take fees, but he may not lay out or expend money for his client; and if he does, Hobart doubted what remedy he might have. Winch. 53. Mich. 20 Jac. C. B. Gage v. Johnson, cites Sam. Leech's case.

[545]

5. A client brought action sur le case against bis attorney for delivering to the sheriff a si. fa. against him in a suit in which he was attorney for him, and procuring it to be executed. It was insisted after verdict, that the suit was determined by judgment being given, and confequently the trust reposed in the defendant, Adjudged the trust still continued; for the defendant might have shewed cause why there should not be execution; and his procuring the writ to be executed, shews that he combined against dis client; and judgment for the plaintiff, nifi. Sty. 426. Mich. 1654. B. R. Lawrence v. Harrison.

6. It was said and admitted that an attorney's affent to an award shall bind his client. Ch. Cases, 87. Pasch. 19 Car. 2. in case of Colwell v. Child.

7. Money recovered, paid to the attorney on record, is good payment; for it is a payment to the client himself. 2 Show. 139.

Mich. 32 Car. 2. ... v. Morton.

8. Bill by administrator for relief, after a special plene adm. pleaded, and verdict and judgment, pretending that his attorney without direction pleaded that the defendant (now the plaintiff) had no notice of the original till the 12th of March, and had then fully administered. Iffue was that the defendant had notice before the 12th, viz. on the 6th of March; whereas he had in truth fully administered before the 6th of March, and in truth before the original purchased; so that by the false plea by the attorney the right was never tried. The master of the rolls dismissed the bill, and Ld. Somers affirmed the dismission. 2 Vern. 325. pl. 314. Mich. 1695. Stephenson v. Wilson.

g. In

9. In assumpsit the defendant pleaded non-assumpsit infra sex annos. The plaintiff replied; and the defendant not joining issue in due time, the plaintiff's attorney signed judgment, but afterwards consented to accept the issue; but upon a motion to compel him to accept the iffue, it was opposed, because the plea was a hard plea, and the client having notice of this advantage, ordered his attorney to infift upon it; and the court faid they would not have held him to it, had he not consented; but now they would, and the client is bound by the attorney's confent, and they could take no notice of him. 1 Salk. 86. Mich. 8 W. 3. B. R. Latouch v. Pasherant.

10. An attorney may undertake for his client, but not release his cause of action; per Holt Ch. J. 12 Mod. 384. Pasch. 12 W. 3.

in case of Stanhope v. Pemberton.

11. Action against an attorney for money received to plaintiff's sufe; the attorney shewed to the court that he had been employed as an attorney for the plaintiff, and had applied some of his money towards paying for his labour, and some to a solicitor in the cause; and moved to have his bill taxed, and an allowance of what should then appear due to him. Per Cur. if the plaintiff had applied by motions to have us compel an attorney by virtue of our power over him as our officer, to pay the money, there, for as much as that is discretionary in us, we would not help the plaintiff, unless he did the fair thing on his fide; but here, when he demands no favour of us, we cannot deny him the law, and let the defendant take his legal remedy against the plaintiff. 12 Mod. 657. Hill. 13 W. 3. Craddock v. Glin.

12. As an attorney has a privilege not to be examined as to the secrets of his client's cause, so the attorney's privilege is the client's privilege; and an attorney, though he would, yet shall not be allowed to discover his client's secrets; per Cur. 10 Mod. 41. Mich. 10 Ann. B. R. in the case of Ld. Say and Seal;—and cites it as so adjudged in Holbeche's case.

13. But as to the time of executing a deed, which was of a date long before the execution, that is not a thing of fuch a nature as to be called the secret of his client, 10 Mod. 41. Mich, 10 Ann, [546] B. R. The Ld. Say and Seal's case,

For more of Client and Attorney in general, see Attorney, and other proper titles.

Collateral.

- What shall be said Collateral. And the Effect thereof.
- S to collateral acts there shall be no relation at all. Refolved. 3 Rep. 36. Mich. 33 & 34 Eliz. B. R. in case of Butler v. Baker.
- 2. Privilege to be without impeachment of waste is a thing col-2 Rep. 82. Hill. 43 Eliz. Per Coke in Cromwell's lateral. cafe.

But Coke thinks audita querela lies, because the ground of the coliateral action is disproved and deftroyed by rever-

3. There is a difference between a thing collateral executory and executed; as by reversal of an erroneous judgment collateral acts executory are barred, so on reversal of a judgment escape out of execution on that judgment is gone; but if judgment is had on the escape, against the sheriff or gaoler, and execution is executed, this latter judgment remains in force, notwithstanding the reversal of the first judgment. Resolved. 8 Rep. 142. 2. b. Pasch. 8 Jac. in Dr. Drury's case.

sal of the first judgment, and the first plaintist is restored to his first action, on which he may have his just and due remedy. Ibid. 143. b. 144.

4. A condition is collateral without dependence on the effate. A covenant is more col-Arg. Keb. 31. Pasch. 13 Car. 2. B. R. in case of Plunket v. lateral than a Holmes. condition; for a condition is annexed to the estate, but covenants are foreign. Arg. Show. 286. Mich. 3 W. & M.

Collateral Promise. The Effect thereof.

Br. Dette, pl. 36. cites S. C.

1. IN debt the plaintiff counted that A. borrowed of him 100 l. and did not pay it, by which the defendant came to the plaintiff and prayed him to take him debtor for A. and to give him till Michaelmas to pay it, and so became principal debtor at London, and shewed thereof tally; and because he had not specialty, he took nothing by his writ; quod nota; for per Mowbray, by this [547] affumption the other is not thoroughly discharged, and by consequence this defendant is not debtor, but the other remains debtor as before; and also see that it is only mudum pactum. And so see that a becoming debtor, which is used in London by custom, is not good at common law. Br. Dette, pl. 36. cites 44 E. 3. 21.

2. 29

2. 29 Car. 2. cap. 3. f. 4. No action shall be brought, whereby This flature To charge any executor or administrator upon any special promise to anfever damages out of his own estate; or whereby to charge the defendant upon any special promise to answer for the debt or default of another, unless the agreement upon which such action shall be brought, or some memorandum or note thereof, shall be in writing, and signed by the party to be charged therewith, or some other person by him au- Vent. 330, zborized.

did not extend to any promife made before the 24th of June. Rofolved. 331. Trin.

30 Car. 2. B. R. Gilmore v. Shuter. _____ 2 Jo. 188. S. C. adjudged accordingly. _____ 2 Lev. 227. S. C. resolved accordingly. _____ 2 Mod. 310. S. C. adjudged accordingly. ____ Freem. Rep. 466.

pt. 637. S. C. held accordingly.

Assumptit upon a promissory note, whereby the defendant promised to pay so much upon account of bis mother; and it being objected that there was no confideration to it, Holt said, that to promise to pay to J. S. is good, but to promise to pay to J. S. upon account of J. N. is not good, for that is not within the words or meaning of the act; the confideration implied in the act is, that when the party promises upon his own account, it must be presumed he is indebted, or else he would not promise to pay It; aliter where the promise is to pay upon account of a third person. In this case Holt directed a werdict for the plaintiff, but under controul, and ordered the postea to be staid. II Mod. 226. Pasch. 3 Ann. at Guildhall. Garnet v. Clerke.

Clearly the words (default of ano:b:r) in the statute, is the default of another in performing bis constall, and if the whole credit be not entirely given to the undertaker, so as no remedy lies against the party upon the contract, but that the undertaker comes in aid of the credit given by the contract to the party, the undertaking will be within the statute; per Cur. 6 Mod. 249. Mich. 3 Ann. B. R. Bourkamire v. Darnell. And they also agreed a case put by Darnell, that where the plaintiff has an action against the party for whom the undertaking is, there no action will lie against the undertaker, without the promise be in writing; secus where no action does lie against the party, for then the whole exedit is entirely upon account of the undertaker, and the other looked upon as his fervant, and the sale and contract is, in judgment of law, to the undertaker, though the delivery be to the other party as his Cryant. Ibid.

3. An indebitatus assumpsit, or a special assumpsit, though it. be on a special promise to pay another man's debt, and though it be collateral, and within the statute of frauds and perjuries, yet the not alleging a note in writing in the declaration is not error to reverse a judgment; for the court will intend that a note was given in evidence; yet many, fince that act, do declare that affumpfit super se, prout per notam, &c. but it is not necessary; and judgment affirmed. 2 Show. 88. pl. 81. Hill. 31 & 32 Car. 2. B. R. Calcot v. Hatton.

4. If I build a bouse for J. S. at the request of J. N. and J. N. promises to pay me, debt will lie; it is true it will not raise a promise, but an express promise will well ground an action. 2 Show. 421. Hill. 36 & 37 Car. 2. B. R. in case of Ambrose v. Rowe.

5. In assumptit for the debt of a stranger, it was assigned for error that it did not appear to be by writing, and consequently by the statute of frauds and perjuries it does not bind the defendant; but per Cur. this is never done in pleading, but ought to be proved on the trial. Comb. 163. Mich. 1 W. & M. in B. R. Lee v. Bashpoole.

6. A. brought an action against B. C. and D.—B. promised that Comb. 362. in consideration A. would not prosecute the action, he would pay bim to I. and the question was, whether this was a void promise by the statute, not being in writing? But per Cur. this cannot be said to be a promise for another person, but for his own debt, and therefore not within this statute. 5 Mod. 205. Pasch. B W. 3. Stephens v. Squire.

cordingly.

7. Assumpsit

3 Salk. 14; 15. S. C. adjudged, accordingly. -12 Mod. 133. S. C. adjudged, and judgment affirmed accordingly.

7. Assumptit in confideration that the plaintiff would accept C. to be his debtor for 20 l. due from A. to B. The plaintiff in vice and affirmed & loco A. that C. would pay. B. averred that he did accept C. to be his debtor, &c. Adjudged good after a verdict, without express averment that * A. was discharged; and judgment affirmed by 4 judges against 3, and they construed it to be a mutual promise. 1 Salk. 29. pl. 30. Pasch. 9 W. 3. in Cam. Scace. Roe · v. Haugh.

8. If A. employs B. to work for C. without warrant from C. A. is liable to pay for it; per Holt. 12 Mod. 256. Mich.

10 W. 3. Anon.

- 9. Assumpsit against B. upon a promise supposed to be made by him to pay for goods delivered by plaintiff to A. Holt took this difference: If B. desires A. to deliver goods to C. and promises to see him paid; there assumptit lies against B. though in that case he said, at Guild-hall, he always required the tradesman to produce his books, to see whom credit was given to. But if after goods delivered to C. by A., B. says to A. you shall be paid for the goods, it will be hard to faddle him with the debt. 12 Mod. 250. Mich. 10 W. 3. Austen v. Baker.
- 10. Two persons go to an inn-keeper, one bires an borse, and the other promises that if the inn-keeper will deliver him to his friend, he will see it forth-coming. This, as a promise to make good the default of another, is not good without a note in writing; yet the defendant is chargeable upon the special bailment. Quod nota, and so good without a note. L.P.R. 118. cites 3 Ann. B.R.

6 Mod. 248. Bourkamire w. Darnell, S.C. & S.P. ---- 3 Salk. 75, 16. S.C. and same diwerfity, and that in the 11. Where the undertaker comes in aid only to procure a credit to the party, in that case there is a remedy against both, and both are answerable according to their distinct engagements, and this is a collateral promise, and void by the statute of frauds; feets where the whole credit is given to the defendant. 1 Salk. 27. pl. 15. Mich. 3 Ann. B. R. in case of Birkmyr v. Darnell.

saft case the third person is only as a servant.

6 Mod. 248. Bourkamire v. Darnell,

12. If 2 come to a shop and 1 buys, and the other to gain him credit promises the seller, that if he does not pay you I will: S.C. & S.P. this is a collateral undertaking and void without writing by the accordingly. Statute of frauds; but if he says, let him have the goods I will be your paymaster, or I will see you paid; this is an undertaking as for himself, and he shall be intended to be the very buyer, and the other to act but as his fervant; per Cur. 1 Salk. 28. pl. 15. Mich. 3 Ann. B. R. in case of Birkmyr v. Darnell.

13. There is a difference between a conditional and an absolute undertaking; as if A. promises to pay B. such a sum if C. does not, there A. is but a fecurity for C. But if A. promife that C. will pay fuch a fum, A. is the principal debtor; for this act was done on A.'s credit, and not on C.'s; per Lee J. and judgment Gibb. 303. pl. 7. Trin. 5 Geo. 2. B. R. Gordon accordingly.

v. Martin.

(C) Collateral Security.

A Having purchased lands of the Duke of Norfolk, had for S. C. cited his security future use limited on condition of eviction of the purchased lands to arise to him out of other lands of the duke 389. within the honour of Clun in Shropshire; after which the duke was attainted, and lands of the honour came to the crown, and then the purchased lands were evicted, and adjudged that A. could have no remedy by entry, ouster le maine, monstrance de droit, &c. because before the future use accrued, the possession of the land came to the crown, and therefore A. fued to the Queen, who de gratia granted the land to him by patent; Arg.

Mo. 375. cites it as Yelverton's case.

2. Trustees for sale of lands for payment of debts, with power. [ 549 ] on fale to give collateral fecurity on other lands to a purchasor for 2 Chan. discharge of incumbrances, and confirmation by the heir, when of age, Cases, 205. fell to J.S. and give him collateral fecurity. The heir comes of exactly S.P. age, and refuses to confirm, he pretending other title, but could Decreed that trustees sell other lands to not make it out. discharge incumbrances on the lands purchased by J. S. and the heir to join; and in default by the trustees, J. S. to tender a purchasor to the master, and the heir to join in the conveyance, and also immediately to confirm the lands to J. S. with warranty and covenants according to the condition of the collateral fecurity; and that J. S. may proceed to get judgment in ejectment on his collateral fecurity, with a ceffet executio till further order. Fin. R. 166. Mich. 26 Car. 2. Foley v. Lingen.

3. Covenant to secure a purchasor by other lands within 2 years. The next term after the 2 years expired the purchasor exhibits his bill to have collateral fecurity according to the covenant. Ld. Keeper dismissed the bill, and took a disserence between covenants for further assurance of the lands sold, and collateral security of other lands to incumber the estate; and the 2 years being elapsed, dismissed the bill. Chan. Cases, 252. Hill. 26 & enlarge the time for giving collateral fecurity.

27 Car. 2. Erswick v. Bond.

4. A. fells land to B. A. takes a lease of the same lands of B. at a rent beyond the value, with a condition of re-entry, and gives collateral security for the pagment of the rent. A. was arrear 5 years rent. B. re-entered. A. could have no relief against the collateral security without payment of the arrears as well after as before the re-entry; the land was worth but 160 l. but the rent was 250 l. per ann. Chan. Cases, 261. Trin. 27 Car. 2. Anon.

5. Assignment of a decree is a collateral supplementary security; and so Finch C. dismissed the bill brought by the plaintiff to have a release of the decree made by the assignor set aside. Chan. Cases, 300. Mich. 29 Car. 2. Barns v. Canning and Pigot.

For more of Collateral in general, see Conditions (S. c) (E. d) (F. d), Peir, Moucher (U. b. 2) to (W. b), and other proper titles and admitted. Ibid.

Fin. R. 192. Bond v. Eversfield, S. C. but no decree. But the defendant might fearch for precedents. whether the court can

Collation.

(A) What is. In what Cases it may be. And the Effect thereof.

1. T was said, that where the bishop ought to make collation, and is disturbed, his writ shall be to present, and his count to make collation. Thel. Dig. 84. lib. 9. cap. 5, s. 20, cites Mich.

16 E. 3. Brief, 660.

[550] 2. Collation by lapse is in the right of the patron and for his Hob. 316. turn. 24 E. 3. 26. And he shall lay it as his possession for an in case of assist affise of dareign presentment. Hob. 154. in case of Colt v. Glorarchbishop ver, and cites 5 H. 7. 43, F. N. B. 31, (F).

of York & al'.—3 Le. 18. pl. 44. Hill. 14 Eliz. C. B. Anon. S. P. —4 Le. 209. pl. 339. Mich. 18 Eliz. B. R. Anon. S. P. and seems to be same S. C. — Collation shall not put a common person out of possession. Cro. E. 241. pl. 14. Trin. 33 Eliz. B. R. in case of the Archbishep of York v. Buck.

3. Note, that there is no privity between the incumbent of the bishop who is collated by lapse, and the bishop, as there is between the master and servant, and therefore if the bishop pleads specially in quare impedit bow be presented by lapse, the incumbent shall not say generally that he is in by collation of the bishop by lapse, but shall plead it as certainly as the bishop shall plead. Br. Incumbent, &c. pl. 12. cites 16 H. 7. 6.

4. If a patron presents after 6 months before a collation, the ordinary must admit his clerk as well as within the 6 months, so that the ordinary must plead that he made collation such a day after the 6 months, absque hoc that the plaintiff presented before this day, and this was held a good traverse; per tot. Cur. Kelw. 50.

b. Trin. 18 H. 7.

Collation is a giving the church to the bishop, as of lapse by the bishop, or of donative of a free church to the parson, and presentation described in a giving is a giving or offer
15. Collation is where the clerk is inducted without presentation to the bishop, as of lapse by the bishop, or of donative of a free church to the bishop, as of lapse by the bishop, or of donative of a free church to the bishop, as of lapse by the bishop, or of donative of a free church to the bishop, as of lapse by the bishop, or of donative of a free church to the bishop, as of lapse by the bishop, or of donative of a free church to the bishop, as of lapse by the bishop, or of donative of a free church to the bishop, as of lapse by the bishop, or of donative of a free church to the bishop, as of lapse by the bishop, or of donative of a free church to the bishop, as of lapse by the bishop, or of donative of a free church to the bishop, as of lapse by the bishop, or of donative of a free church to the bishop, as of lapse by the bishop, or of donative of a free church to the bishop, as of lapse by the bishop, or of donative of a free church to the bishop, as of lapse by the bishop, or of donative of a free church to the bishop the church to the bishop to the bish

ing the parson to the church, and that makes a pleaserty, but not a collation; per Cur. Le. 226. pr. 07. Pasch. 33 Eliz. C. B. in case of the Queen v. the Archbishop of York.

6. Bishop collates after lapse is devolved on the archbishop, but before collation by the archbishop. This shall bind the archbishop; for, for, at common law, when a clerk was once admitted, he was not removeable, and collation remains at common law. The stat. W. 2. does not aid but in case of presentation. Jenk. 281.

pl. 7.

7. Collation of the bishop makes no disappendancy, and where it is made within 6 months it makes not so much as a plenarty, but the church remains void, as Green's case saith, that is, that it makes no binding plenarty against the true patron, but that he may not only bring his quare impedit when he will, but also present upon him seven years after; and if the bishop receives his clerk, the other is out ipso facto, yet to all other he is a full incumbent (and not in nature of a curate only), and shall sue for tithes, and is capable of confirmation from the king; and per Hobart Ch. J. if the patron brought quare impedit on it, he must be named, or else could not be removed, and that such a plenarty barred the lapse of the archbishop and king. Hob. 302. pl. 380. Hill. 17 Jac. in case of Gawdy v. Archbishop of Canterbury.

8. If the king presents by lapse, it is not any collation, but a prefentation, and so pleaded always, for he presents as supreme patron; per Cur. Cro. J. 641. pl. 20. Mich. 20 Jac. B. R. cites 32 H. 6. 2. and 7 E. 4. 20.

9. If a bishop collates the same day that he dies, the successor may collate notwithstanding. Arg. Hard. 24. Mich. 1655.

10. This had been moved the two preceding seals, and was now moved again. The case was, that the defendant Sir Walter C. & al' were trustees of an advowson by settlement, upon trust, to present such person as the heir of J. S. should, by writing under band and feal, nominate, and in default of such nomination, to present in their own right as they should think. The church becomes void, and the beir of J. S. is an infant of about 9 months old; the trustees contend that the infant is not capable of nomi- [551] nating by writing, &c. and that therefore they have right to present proprio jure, &c. Bill was brought by the infant to compel the trustees to present according to his nomination, &c. Injunction was granted as to defendants, to restrain them from presenting without leave of the court, and an order that the archbishop of York (the ordinary), should not admit, &c. And the question now was, whether this order would prevent the archbishop from collating when the 6 months for presenting expired, or that there should be a particular order to restrain the archbishop from collating, &c.? And after a good deal of debate it was agreed by ld. chancellor, & omnes, that the order to prevent 2dmiffion was sufficient to prevent collation, because collation was admission, institution, and every thing but induction; and at law, upon a quare impedit and ne admittas, the ordinary cannot collate or take advantage, and this order is in its nature an English ne admittas, and as to the question, whether the bishop in this case could take advantage of lapse or not, Ld. Chancellor held clearly that he could not; for as at law lapse was prevented by a ne admittas, so when the title is in equity, the bishop is equally restrained and prevented of lapse, by an order not to admit, pending the dispute dispute in this court, and this was observed to have happened several times before, in the case of mortgagor and mortgagee, where the mortgagee having the legal title pretended to present, whereas in equity the presentation (or the right of nomination) belongs to the mortgagor. As to the main point, Ld. Chancellor seemed strongly to incline, that the nomination by the infant was good; for by law infants, of never so tender age, are to present, and theirs, and all other presentations, are usually in writing, and cannot be otherwise when the infant cannot speak, &c. But a difference was endeavoured to be put, that here was a particular method prescribed by the trust, viz. by writing under hand and seal, &c. which must suppose the person, who created the trust, did intend the heir to nominate, and should exercise a discretion, and be capable of knowing as well as executing a writing, &c. MS. Rep. Mich. 4 Geo. 2. in Canc. Arthington v. Sir Walter Cowerly & al'.

For more of Collation in general, see Presentation, and other proper titles.

Colleges.

How considered, &c.

[552] verbis, and cites 13H.8. point.

S. C. cited

2 Lev. 15. Arg.——

Mod. 83.

Evise to a college by the president thereof is void; for when the devise should take effect, the college is without a head, and so not capable of such devise, for it was then an impersect body; held per Cur. on good advice taken thereof. 4 Le. 223. 13. the like pl. 358. Temps * Queen Eliz. B.R. in the case of the President of Corpus Christi College in Oxford.

2. It was agreed, if the master of the college be ousted wrongfully an assist will lie, as it was said in the end of + Canon's case Dy. but not if he be ousted by his proper ordinary or visitor. Lev. 23. Pasch. 13 Car. 2. B. R. in Doctor Widdrington's case. S. P. Arg.

in Appleford's case. —He cannot maintain affise in any case whatsoever, for he has no sole, seisin, nor estate to support a real action, he is only a visible person of the body aggregate, but has not the least title to the rents and profits of the college, till after a dividend made; per Holt Ch. J. 4 Mod. 125. Tria. 4 W. & M. in B. R. in case of Phillips v. Bury. S. P. by Holt Ch. J. Skinn. 488. in S. C. † D. 209. 2. pl. 20. Mich. 3 & 4 Eliz. at the end of Coveney's case. S. C. cited and queltioned. Show. Parl. Cases, 47. in case of Phillips v. Bury.

3. Colleges are not spiritual foundations, but are private societies, S. P. by 2 Lev. 15. Trin. 23 Car. 2. B. R. The King Mod. 84. as inns of court. v. New College.

Hale Ch. J. Mich. 23 Car. 2.

B. R. in Appleford's case. — A college is a lay corporation; if they be diffeifed, an assiste must be Brought. Godb. 394. pl. 478. by Noy, Arg. Pasch. 3 Car. B. R.

4. Fellows of fellowships newly created cannot pretend to have any sbares of the annual profits, or the casual revenues which did belong to the fellows of the old foundation, though they may be capable of all offices and employments in the college, if not hindered by the local statutes. Fin. R. 222. Trin. 27 Car. 2. in case of St. John's College, Cambridge v. Platt.

For more of Colleges in general, see Ettate, Brants, Et. Mandamus (B), Elittor, and other proper itles.

Colour in Pleadings.

(A) What it is. And the Reason thereof.

OLOUR in pleading is a feigned matter, which the defend. As in eng-ant or tenant uses in his bar, when an action of trespass ing the for land or goods, or an assise, or entry sur disseisin for rent, or an plaintiff's action upon the statute of 5 R. 2. for forcible entry is brought against him, in which be gives the plaintiff or demandant some colourable pretence, which seems at first sight to intimate that he hath good cause of defence, the intent whereof is to bring the action from the jury's giving their verdict upon it, to be determined by the judges; and therefore it always confifts of matter in law, and that which may be doubtful to the lay-people. Brown's Anal. 7.

pass for caking the cattle, the defendant ∫aitb, tbat before the plaintiff bad any thing in them, be was possessed of them as of bis own proper goods, and delivered them to T. S. to re-deliver to him again upon request, but T. S. giving them to the plaintiff, who, suppoing the property was in T.S. at the time of the gift, took them, and the defendant took them from the plaintiff, and thereupon the plaintiff brought his action; this * is a good colour and a good plea. Heath's Max. 27. cites Doct. & Stud. lib. 2. cap. 13. And Brooke, fo. 104. title, Colour in Affise, Trespals, &c.

*[553]

2. Note, that colour ought to be matter in law, or doubtful to Heath's Max. 37. Br. Colour, pl. 64. the lay-gents. cites S. C.

& S. P. as that it must be doubtful to them, whether the same be good in law or not.

3. Colour signifies à probable plea, but really false, and hath this end, viz. to draw the title of the cause from the jury to the judges.

Heath's Max. 26, 27.

4. Colour ought to be such a thing which is good colour of title, and yet is no title; as a deed of a lease for life, because it hath not the ceremony, viz. livery. So of reversion granted without atternment. But a deed of gift of goods or chattels is good without other act or ceremony. So of colour by a lease for years, or by letters patents, it is not good, because they make a good title in the plaintiff; and of that opinion was all the court. Cro. J. 122.

pl. 6. Trin. 4 Jac. B. R. Radford v. Harbin.

5. The reason why colour shall be given in writ of entry sur disseisin, writ of entry in nature of assis, assis, trespass, &c. is that the law (which prefers and favours certainty as the mother of quiet and repose) to the intent that where the court shall adjudge upon it, if the plaintiff demurs, or that a certain issue may be taken upon a certain point, requires that the defendant, when be pleads such special plea, that the plaintiff notwithstanding may have right, the defendant shall give colour to the plaintiff, to the intent that his ples shall not amount to the general issue, and so leave all the matter at large to the jurors, which will be full of multiplicity and perplexity of matter; and though the colour be only fiction, yet lex fingit ubi subsistit æquitas; cites Dr. & Stud. cap. 53. sol. 160. b. But when the special matter of the plea, notwithstanding the plaintiff had right before, utterly bars him of his right, in such case the defendant need not give any colour, because he bars the plaintiff of his right if he had any, and then it will be in vain to give the plaintiff colour, where it appears upon the matter of the plea that he had no right; for by this, if in real action, as assiste, writ of entry in nature of affife, &c. if collateral warranty be pleaded, and the defendant relies upon it, or if estoppel be pleaded, or fine levied with proclamations, &c. there no colour need be given, because the plaintiff is barred, though he had right; and with this accords 35 H. o. tit. Trespass, 160. So, and for the same reason, if the defendant conveys to him title by act of parliament, as is held 3 K. 4. 2. 2. b. Resolved per Cur. 10 Rep. 90. a. b. Hill. 8 Jac. in Cam. Scacc. in Dr. Leyfield's cafe.

6. Wherefoever the defendant shows a cause of action in the plaintiff, either express or implied, and confesses and avoids it, it is a good plea; for by confession and avoidance he confesses the plaintiff has cause of action against him, were it not for some special matter in law, by which is not meant a question in law, but a thing which is law avoids the cause of action, as a sale in market overt; and without leaving a cause of action, it will amount to the general issue, and this is the reason of colour. 12 Mod. 121. Pasch. 9 W. 3. Hallet v. Birt.

(B) In what Actions Colour may or must be given.

I. IN error it appears that the case was, lord, mesne, and tenant Br. Error, by 9 s. rent, and the mesne brought assis against the lord of the pl. 30. cites 9s. rent, and be pleaded that the mesne held the land of him by 9s. Heath's rent as mesne, by which he took 9s. rent of him, and of so much rent Max. 29. rendered as tenant, and if he demands other rent, nul fort; and this cites S. C. bar was awarded good upon writ of error brought thereupon, without any colour; quod nota. Br. Colour, pl. 7. cites 50 E. 3. 18.

2. In trespass the defendant said that J. N. his master was owner Fitzh. Coof the goods, by which he at his command took them at S. and the plaintiff would have retaken them, and he would not fuffer him, judgment si actio, and no plea; for he neither confessed a in prinproperty nor colour in the plaintiff. Br. Trespass, pl. 70. cites 2 H. 4. 5. S. C. cited per Cur. and admitted.——Br. Colour, pl. 6. cites S. C.

lour, pl. 41. cites S.C.— 10 Rep. 89. cipio, cites S. C.— Ibid. 91. a.

3. Note that colour in assise or action of trespass is sufferable, Br. General if it be matter in law, and difficult to the lay-gents; and otherwise it is not sufferable, but the party shall be drove to the general issue, nul tort, or not guilty. Br. Colour, pl. 15. cites Fitzh. Co-19 H. 6. 21.

lifue, pl 14. cites S. C. & S. P. lour, pl. 8. cites S. C.

& S. P.—10 Rep. 91. b. in a nota of the reporter.

4. In trespass the defendant said that J. was seised in see of Br. Tresthe bouse and 20 acres, &c. of which, &c. and died seised, and B. and C. his daughters and heirs entered, and B. of her moiety S.C. infeoffed the plaintiff, and C. died, and K. her daughter and heir Fitzh. Coextered into the other moiety, and was feifed pro indivifo, and infeoffed the defendant, by which he entered and did the trespass, prout ei bene licuit, and a good plea without other colour. Br. Colour, pl. 18. cites 19 H. 6. 46.

pais, pi. 132. cites lour, pl. 6. cites S. C. accordingly. -Heath's Max. 32. cites S. C.

that to give colour by coparceners or jointenants is good.

5. Trespass de clauso fracto, and eating his grass in D. The Heath's defendant justified in S. absque hoc that he is guilty in D. and no plea per Cur. without giving colour. Br. Colour, pl. 82. cites 6. 27. and 20 H. 6. 27.

Max. 29. cites 28 H. that in this case he may

[but it seems misprinted for must] give colour; [and likewise (28) seems misprinted for (20)].

6. In affife if the tenant pleads dying seised and descent to him, he Heath's Thall give colour; for the possession is bound, but not the right; but where both are bound, he need not to give colour. Br. Colour, pl. 72. If the de-(bis) cites 22 H. 6. 18.

Max. 29. cites S.C. fendant Jays that bis fasher was feifed, and died feifed, and the land defeended to him, there he shall give colour; for he shall not bind the plaintiff. Br. Colour, pl. 53. cites 12 E. 4. 15.

*555

Colour in Pleadings.

7. In trespass of breaking his close, he shall say that the place where; &c. at the time of the trespass was the franktenement of the defendant, without giving any colour. Br. Colour, pl. 26. cites 22 H. 6. 504 Where the desendant pleads bis franktenement, he strall not give colour. Br. Colour, pl. 53. cites 12 E. 4. 15.

Heath's Max. 29. cites S. C. and 22 H. 6. 50. S. P.

In trespals, *8. So where he says that it was the franktenement of J. S. and feofiment he by his command entered, &c. Br. Colour, pl. 26. cites 22 plaintiff to H. 6. 50.

infecffed M. and the defendant as servant of M. entered, &c. is no plea without colour. Br. Trespass, pl. 166. eites 15 E. 4. 31. Heath's Max. 28. cites S. C.

Trespass for breaking his close. The defendant pleads that J. S. was seised of the land, and let it to J.D. and he as his servant entered, and gave no colour to the plaintiff; and for that cause the plaintiff demurred; and it was argued that when the desendant makes a special sitle to himself, or to any other, he ought of necessity to give colour to the plaintiff; but when he pleads a general plea, or that it is his freehold, it is otherwise; and cited 2 Ed. 4. 8. But it was argued contra, because the desendant makes no title to himself, but justifies as a servant; and cited 18 E. 4. 3. Wray said he ought to give colour, though he justifies as a servant; but moved the parties to relinquish their demurrer, and plead to issue, which they did. Cro. E. 76. pl. 35. Mich. 29 & 30 Eliz. B. R. Dinham v. Beckett.

It is no plea 9. So where he fays that J. S. leased to him for years, or at will; in trespals to per Newton. Brooke says quære inde. Ibid.

plaintiff leased to W. for life, the remainder to the desendant, [and that] W. died, and he entered in his remainder; per Brian. Br. Trespass, pl. 166. eites 15 E. 4. 31.——Br. Colour, pl. 27. cites S. C. & S. P. by Brian.

But it is a good plea that the plaintiff leased to the desendant for 20 years, which yet continues, &c. without colour; for there he consesses the franktenement to be in the plaintiff; per Brian, quod nota. Br. Trespass, pl. 166. cites 15 E. 4. 31.——Br. Colour, pl. 27. cites S. C. for it consesses the franktenement to be in the plaintiff at the time of the trespass; per Cur.

Where the defendant doth convey from the plaintiff himself, in some case he shall give colour, and in some not; as 6 H. 7. 14. where the defendant conveys from the plaintiff for life or years, there he shall not give colour; and so is 22 H. 6. 50. Otherwise as it seems by 8 Eliz. Dyer 146. where the desendant pleads a lease for years from a stranger. Heath's Max. 28.

In trespass of 10. But where he justifies at another day, and will traverse the day breaking his in time, there he shall give colour. Brooke makes a queere of that of August, diversity. Br. Colour, pl. 26. cites 22 H. 6. 50. the defendant pleaded recovery of the same land against a stranger the 20th of October, absque her that he is guilty before the day of the recovery; and per Cur. this is no plea without giving colour to the plaintiff, inalmuch as the recovery is against a stranger. Br. Colour, pl. 53. sites 12 E. 4. 15.

11. Trespass upon the 5th of R. 2. The defendant said that the father of the plaintiff was seised, and infeosfed him, and the plaintiff supposing that his father died seised where he did not die seised, entered, &c. and no colour per Cur. For it is not matter in law, not doubtful; for he destroys it himself by his own shewing: quod nota. Br. Colour, pl. 3. cites 33 H. 6. 54. And concordat 37 H. 6. 54. that in this action of trespass a man shall give colour as in other actions of trespass.

20 Rep. 89.
2. cites S.C.
2nd that the 30 l. was 2money offered to the 2mage of

12. Trespais of 30 l. at D. in the county of York taken and carried away (and so see that as it seems property may be of money). The defendant intitled himself as parson, and gave colour that be delivered the money to J. N. to keep to his use, who delivered it to the plaintiff, and he retook it, and it was admitted that offering changes property.

property, and yet it was admitted that he ought to give colour; NosterDame in a chapel quod nota. Br. Colour, pl. 5. cites 34 H. 6. 10. of our Lady in the parish of the defendant, where people used to offer gold and filver, and that he took it, as lawfully he might. ____ Ibid. 91 a. cites S. C. and says that in that case no colour need be given; but that Moyle, towards the end of the case, said that if any one takes my goods or money, and offers them to an image, in this case I am barred against him, as of goods sold and tolled in fair or market, in which case no colour shall be given.

12. When matter in law is, then there is no need of colour; per Laicon, Prisot and Moyle. Br. Trespass, pl. 222. cites 36 H. 6. 7.

14. In trespass, the defendant justified for goods waived by a felon, and he seised them, and did not give colour, therefore ill; quod 91. a. says mota. And yet it was said there, that * 5 E. 3. a man justified for + wreck de mere, and did not give colour, and good, and so here Hill. 5 E. 3. by the reporter; § for by this plea, the property is not denied to be in the plaintiff before the stealing; for it is sufficient colour to the plaintiff, or plea in bar to the plaintiff; but here the defendant against the opinion of the court gave colour that the plaintiff supposed the property in him before the thief took them, &c. this is colour. Br. no colour. Br. Colour, pl. 37. cites 39 H. 6, 2.

* 10 Rep. the case intended is a. † He that justified in trespals for wreck, was compelied to give Colour, pl. 31. cites 9

E. 4. 22.—Trespass of goods taken, viz. 2 buts of wine; the defendant pleaded that he is lord of the manor of D. and prescribed to have wreck within the said manor, and said that the same buts were in a Thip in the high sca, which ship was drowned, and that by the reslowing of the sea, the buts were cast upon his manor, and he took them as wreck, &c. and the defendant was compelled to give colour, and so he did. Br. Prescription, pl. 32. cites 9 E. 4. 22. — Br. Colour, pl. 37. at the end cites S. C. accordingly. —— 10 Rep. 90. b. cites S. C. accordingly, but says it is held in 21 E. 4. 18. b. & 21 E. 4. 65. a. that in luch case no colour shall be given, and that the reason of all the other books eigree herewith. So when the matter of the plea bars the right of the plaintiff, no colour shall be given. - 10 Rep. 91. a. cites S. C. and fays that as to the case of waif, when the defendant alleged that the property was in the plaintiff, &c. it was refolved that no colour should be given.

In trover of 6 oxen in London, and there converted, &c. the defendant pleaded that he feifed them in the manor of D. in Essex, as goods waived there, and so justified absque hoc, that he was guilty in London. Per Cur. This is no plea; for it amounts only to the general issue, containing no matter Local to make the place material. Cro. E. 1742 pl. 5. Hill, 32 Eliz. B. R. Bullock v. Smith.

§ [ 556 **]

15. In trespass the place is an acre, of which J. S. was seised in, fee before the trespass, and leased to W. N. for 10 years, and he as fervant of W. N. and by his command entered and did the trespass, and no plea without giving colour to the plaintiff. Contra, where he says that the place is the franktenement of W. N. and he as serwant, &c. entered and did the trespass. Br. Colour, pl. 48. cites 2 E. 4. 5.

16. In ravishment of ward, it was agreed that where the de- Heath's Lendant intitles himself to the ward by a stranger, there he shall give colour. Br. Colour, pl. 50. cites 2 E. 4. 27.

Max. 27. cites 8. C.

17. In trespass upon 5 R. 2. it was admitted that colour shall be given in this action as in trespass, and the defendant may plead not guilty, and so to issue. Br. Actions sur le Statute, pl. 29.

cites 3 E. 4. 1.

18. In trespass upon the said statute it was admitted that colour shall be given in this action, but the defendant pleaded that king H. 6. by act of parliament gave it to the predecessor of the defendant, by which he was seised, and after he resigned, and after this the defendant was elected master of the college, upon whom the plaintiff entered, upon whom the defendant re-entered, &c. and per Danby Ch. J.

Uu 2

Colour shall be given in writ of forcible entry. Heath's Max.27,28. cites Br. Forcible En-

and

and Arden J. the defendant need not give colour; for an act of tay, pl. 5. and Colour, parliament binds every man, and after the parties accorded by pl. 23. 21 arbitrement. Br. Colour, pl. 51. cites 3 E. 4. 2. H. 6. 39.

and fays, that so is 35 [33] H. 6. 54. and other books, that colour may be given in an action upon the flatute of R. 2. and in no other writs or actions as I can find, nor in these neither, as the pleading may be, as if the defendant pleads the general iffue, and does not justify; or pleads some plea that merely determines the right; as a feoffment with warranty, fine, recovery, and the like, as appears in Brook, 14 Affise.

> 19. In trespass upon the 5 R. 2. it is a good plea, that R. wes feised till by the plaintiff diffeised, and the desendant entered as his servant, &c. and this without colour; because it seems that entry after disseifin binds the mesne alts. Br. Colour, pl. 74. cites 11 E. 4.5.

> faid that W. P. the plaintiff was seised, and inscoffed T. who inseoffed

20. Trespass by W. P. & R. against, J. N. The defendant

M. and that the defendant as servant to M. entered and did the trefpass, and no plea, per Cur. because he did not give colour. Fark. faid the writ is brought by two, and the defendant pleads the feoffment of the one, &c. and after Pigot passed over and gave colour by the defendant. Per Brian, then you need not speak of the scoffment of the plaintiff; for you shall not give colour but by bim by whom [ 557 ] you commence your title; and after Pigot said that the plaintiff was feised as above, &c. and inseoffed, as above, &c. and the plaintiff claiming in by colour of a leafe made to them for term of life, where nothing passed, &c. entered, upon whom the defendant at the time of the trespass, as servant of the seoffee, entered; and this was held a good plea, notwithstanding that he gave colour by the defendant himself. Quod nota, quia mirum. Br. Colour, pl. 27. cites 15 E. 4. 31.

21. In trespass the defendant justified the entry and the cutting of the corn, because C. M. was seifed of the place, &c. in see, and _A. brings forwed the land, and the defendant as servant, &c. entered and cut, &c. and by all the justices where he justifies as servant, &c. he shall not give colour to the plaintiff. Br. Colour, pl. 54. cites for taking and carrying 18 E. 4. 3.

Heath's Max. 29.

Brc pals against B.

oites S. C.

away bis sitbes. The defendant pleads, that the king was seised in see of the rectory to which the said tithes belong, and gave them by patent to C. for life, who made a leafe for years of them to E. and that the defendant, as E.'s servant and by his command, took this corn and carried it away, without giving colour, or shewing the king's patent made to C. The plea was adjudged bad; the plaintist had judgment affirmed in error. For in the case of parties or privies in interest, who come to a particular estate devived out of another, which requires a deed to create it, as in the case of the king's patent, or a least of a corporation, or in the case of a grant of a rent, or of any other thing which lies in grant, the first patent or deed ought to be shewn. Otherwise of those who come to such things by all of law; a tenant by elegit, or statute, or tenant in dower, tenant by the courtesy, &c. Jenk. 305. pl. 80. & Jac. Dr. Leyfield's case.

S. C. cited 10 Rep. 89. a. b. Arg. Ibid. 89. b. ad finem cites S. C. and that there needs no colour, because notwithstanding the see and frank-tenement is to one, yet the plaintist may have a lease for years, &c. and that with this accords 22 H. 6. 50. a.——But when a special title is made, as in 2 R. 3. 8. 2. where John Atwood brought trespals of his close broken against one John Dingle and W. Dingle; the defendant pleaded that one Tho. Atwood was seised, and infeotfed J. B. and R. S. who inf offed Sir John Norbury, Knt. and the faid John Dingle in his own right, and the faid W. Dingle as servant to him, and gave colour to the plaintist by the said Tho. Atwood, cited 20 Rep. 90-

2. in principio.

Heath's 22. In trespass in lands, the defendant said that the king gove M2x. 32. to him the lands in tail, by virtue of which he seised, &c. and after cites S. C. be leased to the plaintiff at will, and after entered, &c. of which entry the action is brought, and good colour, per. Cur. by the leafe at will; quod nota. Br. Colour, pl. 55. cites 18 E. 4. 10.

23. So if defendant pleads that W. was seised in fee, and was attainted of treason, by which the king was seised and leased to the plaintiff at will, and after by his letters patents gave the same land to the defendant; this is good colour. Br. Colour, pl. 55. cites 18 E. 4. 15.

24. In entry sur disseisin of rent colour may be given; admitted. Heath's Br. Colour, pl. 56. cites 19 E, 4. 3. Max. 27. S. P. cites

S. C. and fays, fo is E.4. 47.

25. He who pleads to the writ shall not give colour, and a man Heath's... Max. 29. may plead to the writ a plea which goes to the action, and not give cites S. C. colour, and well. Br. Colour, pl. 56. cites 21 E. 4. 4. --- 10 Rep. 91. a. in principio cites S. C.

26. In trespass, per Brian, he who justifies for tithes as parson, Heath's Max. 28. shall not give colour. Br. Colour, pl. 57. cites 21 E. 4. 18. cites S. C. but is mis-printed (distress for dismes). --- In trespass of certain loads of oats, taken and carried away at Bodmon, against the prior of Bodmon; the defendant said, that though oats grew in a certain place in B. in the parish of Bodmon, of which he was parson imparsonee; and being compelled by rule of court to shew how he came to the same parsonage, said that he had the impropriation by prescription, and that the corn was severed from the operts, and that he took them as his own goods, and gave colour that he delivered them to one T. who bailed them to the plaintiff to keep, and the defendant took them. 10 Rep. 88. a. Arg. cites 11 E. 4. 65. a., [but it seems mis-printed, and that it should be 21 E. 4. 65. S. C. as in Brooke, pl. 59.] --- S. C. cited ibid. 90. b. as 21 E. 4. 65. 2. -- Br. Colour, pl. 59. cites 21 E. 4. 65. that he need not give colour; but Brooke Jays quære.-No colour can be given; for of common right they belong to the parton. Jenk. 306. pl. 80.

[ 558 ] 27. So of him who justifies for wreck de mere bought in market Heath's overt, waif or stray. But Brook says, quære inde. Br. Colour, cites 21 Ed. pl. 57. cites 21 E. 4. 18. 4. 18. & 15.

that colour may be given where one justifies for evreck, or waifs and estrays, or any other matter of record; but fays, see there other books, viz. 2 & 12 Ed. 4. 38 H. 6. 7. and 37 H. 6. 7. varying whether one shall give colour where the defendant doth justify for wreck, waifs, and the like, &c. and so 34 H. 6. 10. in the same, and for offerings. _____ 10 Rep. 90. b. 91. a. S. C. cited per Cur. ____ Br. Colour, pl. 5. cites 34 H. 6. 10. S. P. ___ Br. Colour, pl. 59. cites 21 E. 4. 65. S. P. But Brooke fays quære.——Where a man justifies for wreck he shall give colour, and so he did, qubd nota bene. Br. Trespass, pl. 182. - Br. Prescription, pl. 32. cites 9 E. 4. 22. S. C.

28. In trespass, per Brian, if a man justifies by any matter of record, he need not to give colour; but Brooke says, quære.

Br. Colour, pl. 59. cites 21 E. 4. 65.

29. R. brought writ of forcible entry upon the statute 8 H. 6. Br. Forcible against J. B. who pleaded, that J. H. and H. A. were seised, &c. Entry, pl. and infeoffed F. and S. in fee, and the defendant as servant, &c. and S. C. gave colour as he ought, and traversed the force; for when the defendant makes special title to him in whose right he justifies as servant, there it shall not be intended that the plaintiff has any interest in the land, and so there is a diversity. 10 Rep. 90. a. cites 1 H. 7. 19. a. b.

30. He who pleads devise by testament shall give colour in tref- the detendpals or assife; for it is only as a feoffment. Br. Colour, pl. 75. ant intitled çites 5 H. 7. 10.

In trespass himself by a devise, and gave colour to the plaintiff. Br. Colour, pl. 41. cites S. C. --- Heath's Max. 29. cites S. C.

'Ųu 3

31. In

31. In trespass it is a good plea, that the plaintiff leased to the 10 Rep. 91. defendant for term of life, for the lessor has interest by the reversion a. in principio, cites to enter, and see if there be waste or not, and therefore a good S. C. and 13 H. 7. 6. plea without other colour. Br. Colour, pl. 77. cites 6 H. 7. 14. that when per Brian. the defendant intitles himself by the plaintiff himself, no colour shall be given.

32. Contra upon feoffment, for this amounts to not-guilty. Br.

Colour, pl. 77. cites 6 H. 7. 14.

33. In trespass feoffment of the land to W. N. whose estate the de-Br. Tresfendant has is no plea in trespass without giving colour, but impaís, pl. 166. cites 35E. 4. 31. mediate feoffment of the plaintiff to the defendant is a good plea S. P. by Pi- without giving colour; contrary in assis. Br. Trespass, pl. 424. cites 10 H. 7. 22. Br. Colour.

pl. 84. (85) cites 20 H. 7. 14. the same diversity.

34. In trespass, when the defendant shews cause, and prays aid Heath's Max. 29. of the king, or demands judgment rege inconsulto, he shall not give cites S. C. and 21 H.7. colour to the plaintiff; per Cur. quod nota. Br. Colour, pl. 28.

23. S.P. cites 15 H. 7. 10.

·· [-559]

35. In trespass, per. tot. Cur. where the defendant intitles bim-Trespass in land, the de- felf by lease of a bishop by copy according to the rustom of the manor, and that now the temporalties are in the hands of the king, and demands .. fendant al-. leged poffefjudgment si rege inconsulto, &c. he need not to give colour, 28 fon in the where he pleads in bar; note the diversity. Br. Colour, pl. 33. king; judgment fi rege cites 21 H. 7. 43. inconfulto there shall not be colour. Br. Colour, pl. 72. (bis) cites 15 H. 7. 10.

36, Where the desendant binds the right of the plaintiff by feeffment with warranty, fine, recovery, diffeifin, or re-entry, &c. there needs not any colour. Colour shall not be given but upon plea in bar. Br. Colour, pl. 64.

37. In an affife where entry and re-entry are pleaded with a difseisin, there is no occasion to give colour. Jenk. 21. pl. 40.

38. Colour shall be in an affife, though the reversion be in the king. Jenk. 171. pl. 33...

39. If in bar defendant fails of giving colour, where it is necesfary to give colour, that omission is remediable by plaintiff's replication, for he ought to take advantage of his want of colour before he replies; per Holt. 12 Mod. 316. Mich. 11 W. 3. Anon.

40. Where general issue is specially pleaded colour should be given, else it is good cause for demurrer; per Cur. 12 Mod. 354.

• Pasch. 12 W, 3. in case of Horn v. Luines.

41. If you give colour you may plead matter in law specially; as in debt for rent you may plead nil debet, and give a release in evidence; per Holt Ch. J. 12 Mod. 377. Pasch. 12 W. 3.

42. Trespass for entering into the plaintiff's house, and keeping the possession thereof for so long. Defendant pleads that J. S. was seised in fee thereof, and he, being so seised, gave licence to the desendant to enter into and possess the said house, till he give him notice tice to leave it; that thereupon he entered, and kept the house for the time mentioned in the declaration, and had not any notice to leave it all the time; and a special demurrer, because the plea amounted to the general iffue; and per Cur. he might have given this matter in evidence against all people, except J. S. but against him he must have pleaded it; so he should here either have pleaded the general issue, or given colour to the plaintiff. Ergo jud' pro quer'. '12 Mod. 513, 514. Pasch. 13 W. 3. .... v. Saunders.

43. If one would plead a plea amounting to the general issue, he ought to give the defendant colour, either express or implied; per Holt Ch. J. 12 Mod. 537. Trin. 13 W. 3. Anon.

(C) What shall be said to be good Colour.

1. IN affife it is no colour to fay that the land is held of the plaintiff, and that after that the tenant entered by descent the plaintiff as lord abated after the death of the ancestor of the tenant; * but if he had said, that the plaintiff as lord entered, supposing that the ancestor had died without heir, this had been colour. Quære inde; for this is not doubtful to the lay-gents, and he ought to confess it, &c. Br. Colour, pl. 38. (bis) cites 2 Aff. 7.

2. In assise the tenant pleaded dying seised of his father, and that be entered as heir, and the plaintiff abated as son and heir of one J. who was a baftard; and it was held no colour, because there is no privity of blood between them, by which he added to it that J. the plaintiff, as son and heir of J. who was son of R. his father, who was born before the espousals, claiming to be heir of R. his father, where he was a bastard, abated, &c. and admitted then for colour. Br. Colour, pl. 38. (bis) cites 2 Aff. 9.

3. In assise the tenant pleaded lease for life by J. N. to the father Heath's of the plaintiff, the remainder to the tenant, and the plaintiff supposing cites S. C. that his father had died seised in fee, entered, &c. and good colour. __in affice

Br. Colour, pl. 9. cites 9 H. 4. 3.

the tenant gave colour

Heath's Max. 32.

cites S. C.

that it is a good colour to fay that.

the plaintiff

enter as lord by escheat, claimed to

to the plaintiff, viz. that his father made feoffment, and his heir, viz. the plaintiff, Supposing that be bad died seised, entered, &c. This seems to be no colour; for it is not matter in law, nor doubtful. Br. Colour, pl. 10. cites 11 H. 4. 3.

4. If a man pleads that J. S. was seised in see, and died, and one W. entered as heir, who was seised and died, and S. his heir entered, &c. and gives colour by J. S. this is well; for here is no dying feised. Quod nota; for he did not say that he died seised. Br. Pleadings, pl. 149. cites 11 H. 6. 19.

5. It is good colour that J. N. granted to him the reversion, and 10 Rep. 91. the tenant for term of life died, and he claiming by the reversion granted it where the tenant for life did not attorn; for the lay-gents think, porter in a that it passes by the grant. Br. Colour, pl. 15. cites 19 H. 6. 21.

6. So where the tenant says that he leased for life, and the tenant furrendered; for the lay-gents are ignorant if furrender may be cites S. C. by parol. Br. Colour, pl. 15. cites 19 H. 6. 21.

b. S. C. cited by the renota. — — Fitzh. Colour, pl. 8. and all the points following, as cited by Brooke as of the fame year.

7. So where the tenant lays that the father of the plaintiff leafed to J. for life, and after released to him, and the plaintiff supposing that his father died seised of the reversion, ousted him after the death of cesty que vie. Br. Colour, pl. 15. cites 19 H. 6. 21.

8. So if he says that the father of the plaintiff infeoffed bim, and after he suffered him to occupy at will, and he supposing that he had died seised, &c. Ibid.

It is good 9. And so to say that the plaintiff claimed as eldest son, where be colour that the plaintiff was a bastard, &c. is good colour. Br. Colour, pl. 15. cites claiming as 19 H. 6. 21.

be was a bastard eigne; but it is no colour if he does not say this word (eigne); for bastard only is no plea nor colour; for bastard eigne may be vouched as heir for the possession. Br. Colour, pl. 36. cites 38 H. 6. 7.

It is good colour, that a man claims as beir where be was a bestard; per Paston. Br. Colour, pl. 14-cites 19 H. 6. 20.—Heath's Max. 32. cites S. C. and says that so it is in the same year, sol. 21.

Or to fay that the plaintiff pretending title to a reversion without attornment, is a good colour-

In affise the tenant made bar as beir, and the plaintiff claiming as beir where he was born out of expensals, entered; and there it was held that he ought to give the plaintiff a mother, and so he did. Br. Colour, pl. 39. cites 25 Ass. 13.

In trespass, it was permitted for colour, that the plaintiff claimed in as for and beir, &c. where he was a bastard. Br. Colour, pl. 66. cites 11 H. 4. 84.

It is no co10. So to say that the plaintiff claimed as youngest son; for this lour, that the is no difficulty. Br. Colour, pl. 15. cites 19 H. 6. 21. claiming as beir where he was youngest son, entered, &c. Br. Colour, pl. 36. cites 38 H. 6. 7.

11. So if he says that he leased to the father of the plaintiff for life, for years, or pur adter vie, and he supposes that his father had died said to the says this is no solour. This died seised in fee, &c. this is no colour. Ibid.

12. In trespass the desendant said that A. was seised in see, and gave to the baron and seme in tail, who died seised, and the land descended to the desendant, and the plaintist claiming by colour of deed of seossement by the said A. before the gift, &c. entered, &cc. and good colour, though it be given before the dying seised, which binds the entry. And he who pleads in assist that his father was seised in see, and died seised, and he entered as heir, and gave colour by his father before the descent, yet the colour is good. And so see where the possession is bound, and not the right, yet the desendant shall give colour; contra where he binds both. Quod nota a good diversity here. Br. Colour, pl. 17. cites 19 H. 6.

And per Pri13. In trespass ubi ingressus non datur per legem, if the desot, in genefendant pleads feoffment of the moiety, and gives colour to the plaintiff trespass, it is of the moiety, by which the defendant entered into the whole, this is good colour of no colour for entry into the whole; for it may be of one moiety entry into the twhole by cosevered from the other moiety. Br. Colour, pl. 36. cites 38 H.

lour of one 6. 7.

my, & per tout, he may enter into the whole; but in this action of trespess upon the flatute of 5 R. 2. the writ expresses into bow much be entered, and therefore har for a moiety to enter into the whole is no plea; for the writ expresses certainty. Quære in the general writ of trespass. Be. Colour, pl. 36. cites 38 H. 6. 7.——Fitzh. Colour, pl. 19. cites S. C.

Colour in Pleadings.

14. In trespass of goods waived, if the defendant fays that the plaintiff seised them to the use of the king, this is no colour if he does not shew that he was bailiff of the king, escheator, or other officer accountant to the king; per Prisot clearly, but contra Littleton and Danby. Br. Colour, pl. 37. cites 39 H. 6. 2. and see that 9 E. 4. 22. colour was given by him who justified for wreck de mere, &c.

15. Trespass done the 3d of June 36 H. 6. The desendant pleaded feoffment the 3d of May 37 H. 6. and gave colour by the same feoffor, anno 37 H. 6. absque boc that he is guilty before this day, and a good plea. Br. Colour, pl. 45. cites 5 E. 4. 79.

16. Feoffment of the plaintiff to the tenant is no plea in affise; quære of feoffment to J. N. que'estate the tenant has; per Pigot; quod non negatur. Br. Colour, pl. 27. cites 15 E. 4. 31.

17. In trespass the defendant justified by letters patents of king E. 4. and gave colour to the plaintiff by letters patents of the same king made to him during the life of J. N. who is now dead. Nota.

Br. Colour, pl. 81. cites 7 H. 7. 14.

18. In trespass for chasing in his park, the defendant faid, that the plaintiff infeoffed two of the park, and he by their command entered and chased, and a good plea without colour, because he conveyed the interest of the plaintiff mesne, and not by a stranger. Br.

Colour, pl. 85. (86).

19. Every colour ought to have 4 qualities; 1st, It ought to be doubtful to the lay-gents; as where the defendant fays, that the plaintiff claiming by colour of a deed of feoffment, &c. this is good; for it is doubtful to the lay-gents, whether land shall pass by deed only, without livery, or not? 2dly, That colour, as colour, ought to have continuance, though it wants effect; as if the defendant gives colour by colour of a deed of demise to the plaintiff for the life of J. T. who before the trespass was dead, this is not any colour, because it does not continue, but the defendant may well deny the effect thereof. 3dly, The colour ought to be fuch, that if it was of any effect it will maintain the nature of the action; as in assis to give colour of frank-tenement, and not as guardian in chivalry, nor to his ancestor where the action is of his own possession. 4thly, Colour ought to be given by the first conveyance, or otherwise all the conveyance before is 10 Rep. 91. b. Hill. 8 Jac. in a nota by the reporter, and cites feveral books for the feveral divisions [which may appear under this title.]

(D) What Colour shall be good in a Writ of Trespass of Goods taken, and what not.

1. IN trespass of goods carried away, the defendant said, that J. N. was possessed ut de proprio, and made the defendant his executor, and died, and the plaintiff claiming J. N. as his villein where he was frank, took the goods, and the defendant retook them, and

Colour in Pleadings.

and the defendant e contra, and so to issue, therefore it is admitted good colour. Br. Colour, pl. 80. cites 47 E. 3. 23.

Heath's

2. Where a man confesse possession in the plaintiff of the proper Max. 30,31. goods of the defendant by a tort mesne, this is good colour in trescite. S. C. & S. P. for pass; as of the case of the chaplain and seme who have the goods of the defendant in their possession, and the defendant enters the bouse and retakes them. Br. Colour, pl. 8. cites 2 H. 4. 13.

meral issue, but there it is more doubted in another case, where the desendant in trespass of trees, did plead, that * he was seised until by the plaintiff disseled, who did cut the trees, and squared them; and then he the desendant did retake them. Heath's May 20 then he, the defendant, did retake them. Heath's Max. 30.

Heath's 3. Trespass by a seme of goods carried away. The defendant Max. 31. justified as executor of the baron of the same seme, and the seme claimed to be executrix where she was not executrix; prist, &c. and pass of goods this was admitted good colour; quod nota. Br. Colour, pl. 1. carried away, the cites 2 H. 6. 15. and 19 H. 6. 12.

defendant justified as executor, and the plaintiff claiming as executor where he was not executor, took the goods, & non allocatur; by which he faid, that the testator bailed to him to keep, &c. And the plaintiff said, shew what day he made you executor, & non allocatur; and therefore it seems that the had-ment is good colour. Br. Colour, pl. 40. cites 1 H. 7. 10.

4. Trespass of goods taken. The defendant said, that before the plaintiff any thing had, the property was in S. who bailed the goods to W. to keep, who made the defendant his executor, and the defendant seised them as executor, and the plaintiff took them out of his possession, and the defendant retook them, and a good colour; per Cur. by possession as above without title; quære in assis as it is said there. Br. Colour, pl. 12. cites 7 H. 6. 35.

Heath's Max. 31. mites S. C. 5. It is good colour in trespass brought by a parson, where the defendant justifies as patron, to give evidence, and colour by lease et will by the last parson who resigned, per Strange and Martin, and some e contra; by which Chaunt. gave colour that the bishop, in time of vacation, granted to the plaintiff to hold the parsonage by a certain time, &c. and this was admitted for good colour. Br. Colour, pl. 13. cites 8 H. 6. 9.

6. In trespass of goods taken, it is no colour that the plaintiff claimed by gift of the testator where he did not give, by which he said that he claimed as executor, &c. Br. Colour, pl. 69. cites 19

H. 6. 12.

Heath's 7. Trespass of grain carried away, the defendant said that be is Max. 31.

parson, and the grain grew in such a place, and shewed where, &c.

ites S. C.

which was his tithes, and he took it as parson, and the plaintiff

88. b. Arg. claiming to be parson there where he was not instituted nor industed, cltes S. C.

took them, and he retook them, and the best opinion was, that it is 91. a. S. C. no colour; for he does not confess possession in the plaintiff, but as cited per usurper. Br. Colour, pl. 14. cites 19 H. 6. 20.

Cur. says, that fince he took upon him to give colour, if any was necessary, such colour as he gave was not good. Trespals of carrying away corn and barley; Markham said, A. B. was parson of C. and the parishinary sowed the 1st day of May, and after the parson made the defendant his executor, and the plaintiff was instituted and industed parson there, and after the parishinary severed the tithes, and the plaintiff, as parson, took them as his proper goods, and the defendant, as executor, took them; judgment, sec. and admitted good colour. Br. Colour, pl. 20. cites 21 H. 6. 30.——Br. Emblements, pl. 9. cites S. C.——S. C. cited Arg. 10 Rep. 88. b. but ibid. 91. a. it was said per Cur. that colour was given in that case, but that there was no rule of court for the giving it.

8. In

8. In trespass of charters and minuments taken at D. it is no plea Querce. that the property was to J. N, who bailed to the defendant, and the fays that the plaintiff took them, and the defendant retook them; for no colour is property was given to the plaintiff. Br. Colour, pl. 22. cites 21 H. 6. 36. to J. N. wbo bailed them to W. P. who gave to the plaintiff, who took them, and J. N. retook them, and gave them to the defendant; judgment, &c. Br. Colour, pl. 22. cites 21 H. 6. 36.

It is good colour that J. was possessed and bailed to T. who gave to the plaintiff, and the defendant re-500k. Br. Colour, pl. 71. cites 21 H. 6. 37.

Trespass of taking slippers and shoes, the defendant said, that he was peffessed of three dickers of leaeber, and bailed them to J. S. who gave them to the plaintiff, who made thereof slippers, shoes, and boots, and the defendant came and took them, prout ei bene licuit; judgment fi actio, and good colour per Cur. by gift of the bailiff, because he had lawful possession. Br. Colour, pl. 42. cites 5 H. 7. 15.

9. It is no colour in trespass of goods that J. was possessed and [ 563 ] bailed to the defendant, and the plaintiff took them, and the defendant retook them. Br. Colour, pl. 71. cites 21 H. 6.37.

10. Colour was given in trespass of corn, where the defendant justified as tithes severed from the 9 parts, &c. gave colour that the plaintiff supposing the place where, &c. to be in the parish of D. where M. P. is parson, where it is in the parish of A. where the defendant is parson, which M. P. had sold to the plaintiff all the tithes in the parish of D. came, and would have taken the corn, and the defendant would not fuffer him, and good colour, and the plaintiff recovered upon verdict. Br. Colour, pl. 25. cites 21 H. 6. 43.

11. Trespass of goods taken, the defendant said that J. N. was thereof possessed and made the defendant his executor and died, and he seised them and bailed them to the plaintiff for him to re-bail them, quando, &c. and he requested him to re-bail, and he would not, by which he took them, &c. and the opinion of the court was, that it is no colour; for the property was never out of him, &c.

Colour, pl. 2. cites 28 H. 6. 4.

12. Trespass of taking and carrying away his timber; the defend- And so long ant said that the place is 20 acres, where 20 wyches grew, which was the frank-tenement of the defendant, and the plaintiff entered and cut the wyches and made timber and carried them away out of the land, frank-timeand the defendant came and retook; judgment; and per Littleton it is good colour, because the wyches were frank-tenement in the defendant, and in the plaintiff they were chattles, viz. timber. But Prisot contra; for though the nature is altered, yet it is one and the same thing which may be well known, and the property is in the colour; owner of the foil when they are cut, till they are carried away, there- quod note, Br. Colour, pl. 6. cites 35 H. 6, 2. fore no colour.

as the defendant confeffes that the ment is in bim and not in the plaintiff by diffeifin nor otherwife, is no and therefore does not amount but to the general issue, viz. that it was the timber of the defendant, and the plaintiff took it, and the defendant retook it, and is not guilty in effect; by which the defendant said that J. N. cut the trees, and gave them to the plaintiff, and the defendant retook them, and the plaintiff imparled. Br. Colour, pl. 6. cites 37 H. 6. 6. And it is no plea, that the property was in his master, without give ing colour. Ibid. cites 2 H. 4. 5. ——Heath's Max. 30. cites S. C.

13. Trespass of sheafs taken. Littleton said actio non; for the place is 10 acres, of which the defendant was seised in fee, and before the trespass the plaintiff came and plowed the land, and sowed it with bis own grain, and the defendunt entered and cut the corn and put it into speafs, and at the time of the trespass, the plaintiff came and would have

In trespass of corn, it was admitted good colour. that the plaintiff ena tered and forwed the land of the defendant after the death of the Renant for life, and the defendant entered, and dut, and carried away. Br. Colour, pl. 68. cites 38 E.3. $8.—Trefpass of corn taken wrongfully. Per Fineux

Ch. J. it is carried them away, and the defendant would not suffer bim, but took and carried them away; judgment, &c. and per Danby and Davess, this is good colour, contra per Prisot; for when the plaintiff sowed and had nothing in the frank-tenement, and the defendant entered before severance and cut them, the property is clearly to the defendant, by which he faid that the defendant was seised, till by the plaintiff dif-seised, who sowed the land and cut the corn, and the defendant re-entered, and the plaintiff would have carried away the corn, and the defendant would not suffer him, but carried it away; and the opinion of the court was, that it is a good plea; for per Danby, by the regress of the disseisee, he punishes all mesne trespasses, and so in effect the possession always continued in him, but Billinge Serjeant contra, and that the disseisee after severance shall not have the emblements. Br. Colour, pl. 32. cites 37 H. 6. 6.

a good bar and colour in itself, that the place where is two acres of land, of which the defendant was seised in see, and the plaintiff sowed the land with his proper grain, and the desendant cut and took it. Br. Colour, pl. 44. cites 12 H. 7. 25.

So, that the defendant was seised till by the plaintiff disselfed, who sewed the land, and the defendant reentered, and took the corn; quod note. Br. Colour, pl. 44. cites 12 H. 7. 25.

pleaded that a long time before the trespass A. was seised of the land in see, and being so seised gave it to the defendant's father in tail, who died seised, and the said land descended to the defendant, and gave colour to the plaintist by A. the plaintist replies that he was seised in see till the defendant entered upon him and ousted him; and he traverses the gift in tail, and this is well by all the judges of England. For no possession shall be intended in the defendant but by this estate tail, which he himself has pleaded. An estate tail cannot be gained by disseisn, melior est conditio possidentis, ubi neuter jus habet. The sirst possession will serve to maintain trespass where the defendant has not a title. In this case, the colour given by the defendant to the plaintist, gives the plaintist the first possession. Jenk. 118. pl. 36. cites 3 E. 4. 18.

15. In trespass it was admitted for good colour, that J. N. before that the plaintiff had any thing, was possessed of the goods at de proprio, and gave them to the defendant, and made the plaintiff his executor and died, by which the plaintiff was possessed, and the defendant took them, &c. and so see that the executor finding the goods among other goods, is good colour. Br. Colour, pl. 65. cites

1 E. 5. 3.

But robere a man bails bis goeds to J. N. and be bails them to W. S. this is good colour to W. S. because it is not immediate bailment by the desensant to the plaintiff. Br. Colour, pl. 43. cites 5 H. 7. 18.

16. In trespass of boards taken, the defendant said that be was possessed of them, and delivered them to the plaintiff to keep, and redeliver them, quando, &c. and he carried them to D. and the defendant retook them, and no plea, for there is no reasonable colour; for he never confessed property in the defendant, and the immediate bailment to the plaintiff by the defendant is no colour; for he does not confess interest in the plaintiff Br. Colour, pl. 43. cites 5 H. 7. 18.

- 17. But if the defendant pleads bailment upon condition, or gift upon condition, and for the condition broken he retook it, this is good colour; for the party has interest for the time, and by the condition broken the property is re-vested in the defendant, and he may bail it or give it immediately without any seisin. Br. Colour, pl. 43. cites 5 H. 7. 18.

And in trefpaís it is a good pica that he bailed the goods in pledge, and p.d the money and retook them; for the plaintiff has interest quousque, &c. Br. Colour, pl. 43. cites 5 H. 7. 18.

18. So of bailment of sheep by the defendant to the plaintiff to compesster bis land, and after he retook them, this is good colour to the plaintiff; for he has property pro tempore, and all those cases were agreed. Br. Colour, pl. 43. cites 5 H. 7. 18.

19. In trespass of goods, the defendant said that J. was possessed Heath's and bailed to the plaintiff, and after J. gave to the defendant who took Max. 31. them; and good colour; for the bailee has property against all but but cites 28 the bailor, and there is no privity between the bailor and the H. 6. 4. Br. Colour, pl. 76. cites 6 H. 7. 7..

cites S. C. that to give the plaintiff colour only by a bailment is ill, notwithstanding that to give him colour by the gift of the defendant, as bailor, is good by 7 H. 6. 31. ---- The case was, in trespass of beasts taken, the defendant said that before the plaintiff any thing had, he was possessed as of his proper goods, and hailed to A.B. to rehail to bim quando, &c. and A. B. gave to the plaintiff, and be supposing the property to be in A. B. at the time of the gift, took them, and the defendant retook them, and a good plea and good colour. Br. Colour, pl. 11. cites 7 H. 6. 31.

20. In trespass of corn, &c. cut and carried away, the defendant pleaded that 10 Eliz. he was seised of the rectory of O. and demised the same to A. for life, who demised to B. for years, and the defendant as servant to B. took the said corn, &c. as tithes severed from the 9 parts, and averred the life of B. The plaintiff demurred, for that the plea amounted to the general issue; and judgment was given in B. R. for the plaintiff. The defendant brought error in Cam. Scace. and affigned for error, that the plea amounted to the general issue only, because the desendant did not give the plaintiss any colour, and therefore judgment ought not to be given against the defendant, but only a respondess ouster. But resolved that in this case colour ought not to be given to the plaintiff; for he need not deny the property of the plaintiff; because the matter of the plea bars the plaintiff of his right. 10 Rep. 88. a. Hill. 8 Jac. Dr. Lep. field's case.

[565]

- Where Colour given by an Estate which is void or determined, shall be good, or not.
- 1. IN assise the case was that the feme was seised in fee, and took Heath's baron, and had iffue T. The baron and feme died. T. entered. and died seised without heir of his body. The tenant entered. plaintiff claiming as cousin and heir of the part of the father abated, and the tenant re-entered; and good colour as heir of the part of book feems cites S. C. The and cites also 21 Fl.6. 43.

to be missit- the father, though the land came of the part of the mother. Bt. ted that it Colour, pl. 29. cites 24 E. 3. 50. was doubted whether it was a good colour to say that the plaintiff claimeth by the son and beir of him by whom the dosendent pretends title. — Heath's Max. 321 says it appears by 2 Ass. 7. that to give the plaintiff colour by abatement, is no colour.

- 2. Entry in the nature of assis, the tenant said that F. bis father was seised in see, and leased to N. for life. N. died, and F. entered in bis reversion and died seised, and the tenant entered as beir, and the demandant claimed by deed of feoffment made by N. &c. and it was held no colour; for by the death of the tenant for life, and the entry of the lessor, the estate of N. is determined, and the title is by the dying seised of the father, and the tenant cannot enter upon a descent by him whose estate was determined before, and so to give colour by a disseisor, and confess entry upon him, or by feoffee upon condition, and confess entry upon him by the condition; for his estate is defeated. Br. Colour, pl. 49. cites 2 E. 4. 17.
- 3. Per Littleton, if I say that J. S. was seised and infeoffed me, and after J. S. infeoffed the plaintiff, upon whom I entered, this is no colour; for by the plea I have destroyed the colour, quod nemo dedixit; for J. S. at the time of the feosfment of the plaintiff was a disseisor, which is purged by the entry. Br. Colour, pl. 55. cites 18 E. 4. 15.

Meath's Max. 30. eites S. C.

4. Entry sur disseisin of rent of disseisin done to the predecessor of the plaintiff. The tenant said that W. N. was seised of the rent in fee, and granted it to the predecessor of the demandant for term of his life, and after W. died, and then the predecessor died, and the tenant entered as son and heir of W. N. and it was held good colour by all the justices and serjeants except Brian. And Brooke says it seems to him, that estate determined cannot be colour; for it is not doubtful to the lay-gents nor matter in law, and therefore it is contrary to the ground of the colour. Br. Colour, pl. 56. cites 19 E. 4. 3.

Heath's Max. 30. cites S. C. and fays that it feems by the book, that though the estate determined,

- 5. Trespass in separali pischaria against an abbot. The defendant prescribed in the pischary there, and that the abbot, predecessor of the defendant who prescribed, leased to the plaintiff for life and died, and that this defendant was elected abbot, and fished, and a good colour; per Cur. Brooke * fays that it seems the lease was for the life of the appears to be lessor, for an abbot cannot discontinue, and therefore if it was for the life of the lessee it is no bar; but that this does not appear lour is good. by the book which is reported briefly. Br. Colour, pl. 78. cites *[ 566 ] 7 H. 7. 13.
  - By claiming in by Deed, &c. Where nothing passes by it, and where good.

Heath's Max. 32. situs S. C.

A SSISE by baron and feme against the prioress of C. who faid that she herself leased for term of life to the baron and feme, and the feme dying the baron took this plaintiff to feme, and the tenant confirmed their estates for term of life. The baron died, the Lenant entered as in his reversion, and the second seme plaintiff claiming by colour of the confirmation, which is void as to her, held her in; and good colour, per Finch. though it be a void confirmation. Br. Colour, pl. 79. cites 40 E. 3. 23.

2. So, to say that a feme entered, claiming to have the land in dower, and yet a feme cannot enter into her dower without assignment; and yet good colour, per Finch, quod Caund. concessit, by reason that she has colour to claim dower. Br. Colour, pl. 79. cites 40

E. 3. 23.

3. So, per Finch. to say that the father of the tenant leased to the Heath's plaintiff for years, and the tenant being within age confirmed his estate, cites S. C. and he after the term ended claimed in by this confirmation; but if the & S.P. father had been tenant in tail, and the iffue confirmed within age, Brooke says it seems to him that this shall be good colour, &c. whereupon the plaintiff above made title. Br. Colour, pl. 79.

cites 40 E. 3. 23.

4. Forcible entry into the manor of D. The defendant said Rr. Colour, that before the plaintiff any thing had, A. was seised in fee, and gave S. C. to B. and C. his feme, and to the defendant, and to the heirs of the baron, and the baron and feme died, and the plaintiff claiming by deed of the baron and feme, where nothing passed by the deed, entered with force, &c. and the colour was challenged, because the baron and feme were dead before the claim; & non allocatur, by which he challenged, because it is no colour but only to the moiety, & non allocatur, because one jointenant may infeoff another of all the land. Br. Colour, pl. 19. cites 19 H. 6. 49.

5. In forcible entry with force, and detainder with force, the de- Br. Coloue, fendant pleaded that long before the plaintiff any thing had, he himself was seised in fee, and disseised by the plaintiff, upon whom he entered peaceably, and traversed his entry with force, or detainer with force; and Paston J. held this a good plea and colour; but Markham Serj. e contra, that it is no colour; whereupon the defendant said that T. H. was seised in see, and died seised, and the land descended to the defendant, and the plaintiff claimed by deed of feoffment made by T. H. where nothing passed, &c. whereupon the defendant as son and heir of T. H. entered peaceably, absque hoc that he entered with force. The plaintiff replied that W. was seised, and infeoffed him, whereby he was seised till the defendant ousted him with force, absque hoc that the said T. H. died seised, and so to issue. Br. Forcible Entry, pl. 5. cites 21 H. 6. 39.

6. Entry in the quibus of disseisin to the father of the demandant. * [ 567 ] The tenant said that B. recovered the manor of D. against C. of Heath's which the land in demand is parcel, que estate of the said B. the tenant has, and * the demandant claimed by deed made by the faid C. where nothing passed, &c. and so gave colour by him whose estate is defeated, and yet good colour; per Cur. Br. Colour, pl. 30.

cites 9 E. 4. 18.

Heath's cites S. C.

Max. 32.

pl. 70. cites

٠١,

pl. 23. cites S. C. Co. lour shall be given in forcible entry where the defendant does not bind the plaintiff.

Max. 30. S. P. cites 2 H. 4. and 9 E. 4. 15. but it feems misprinted, and that it should be (18) as in Brooke.

7. So where tenant in affise fays that he was seised till by B. dif- In trespass, feised, and the plaintiff claiming by colour of a deed made by the said B. says that he &c.

Br. Eftray, pl. 6. cites

13 E. 4. 5.

b. S. C. cited per Cur.

24 12 E. 4. 5. b. [and so it is in the year-books, that by his Mewing that they were

S, C.---

&c. entered, upon whom he re-entered; and good colour per Cur. was seised till by the Br. Colour, pl. 30. cites 9 E. 4. 18. plaintiff disfeised, upon when he re-entered, this is no colour; for it is not matter in law, nor difficult to the lay-gents-Br. Colour, pl. 15. cites 19 H. 6..21. ____Br. Colour, pl. 67. cites 9 H. 6. 32. S. P.

- 8. Trespass by H. B. warden of the chantery of D. and the chaplains thereof. The defendant said that the said H. B. was seifed in fee, and leased to him for years, and no plea; for the warden without the chaplains cannot lease, and it shall be by deed, by which he faid by a strange name that H. B. was seised, and leased and gave colour to the plaintiff for term of life by deed of H. B. and no colour per Cur. For a corporation cannot die, therefore he shall not say for term of their lives, by which he gave colour for term of life of the lessor. Br. Colour, pl. 60. cites 21 E. 4. 75.
- (G) Where Colour, without alleging or confessing Possession or Property in the Plaintiff, shall be good or not.
- 1. T Respass upon the 5 R. 2. The desendant said that the father of the plaintiff was seised of the land in fee, and beld of C. in chivalry, and died, the plaintiff within age, by which C. seifed the ward of the land and body, and granted it to J. S. who granted it to the defendant, &c. and the defendant entered, &c. and this good colour without possession in fact in the plaintiff; for there is possession in law, and if the guardian be ousted, the heir shall have assise; and so upon lease of the father for years, &c. Et Cur. concessit that it was good colour. Br. Colour, pl. 47. cites 2 E. 4. 5.
- 2. In trespass the defendant said that F. was possessed of the goods, and bailed them to the defendant, and after F. gave them to the flaintiff, and the defendant took them; and no colour, inalmuch as the plaintiff was not possessed by reason of the gift, and without possession he cannot have action. Br. Colour, pl. 73. cites 2 E. 4. 23.

3. In trespass the defendant justified for waif. The plaintiff challenged for default of colour; and it was said that if he intitles himself to estray, that he need not confess property in the plaintiff; 10 Rep. 50. for if the property was in him, yet by the stealing and waiving, the goods are forfeited. Br. Colour, pl. 52. cites 12 E. 4. 6.

4. And it was held by all the justices that if the defendant had faid that A. had been possessed of the goods as of his proper goods, and that B. had stole them, &c. that he ought to give colour to the pl. 14.] and plaintiff; but where he says that they were stole extra possessioners ignoti, there needs no property. Br. Colour, pl. 52. cites 12 E. 4. 6. [5. b.]

stolen extra possessionem cujusdam ignoti, and so it is not denied that the property was the plaintiff to therefore he is not bound to shew expressly in whom the property was.

5. 80

5. So of fale in market overt, if he says that N. sold to him, he S. P. per Brian & need not give colour. Br. Colour, pl. 52. cites 12 E. 4. 6. Fairfax, Br. Colour, pl. 52. cites 12 E. 4. 12. ____10 Red 90. b. cites 12 E. 4. 5. b. S. P.

6. Contra if he says that N. was possessed as of his proper goods, 10 Rep. 90. and fold them to him; for there he proves no property was in the plaintiff, and then he has no colour of action, but in the other case it is not denied but that the property was in the plaintiff, and there colour need not be given. Br. Colour, pl. 52. cites 12 E. 4. 6. [5. b.]

b. cites 12 E. 4. 5. b. S. P. that if he fays he sold them to him in market overt, he ought to give colour. But the reporter says it seems to him that this case is not well reported; for the reason there given makes against the opinion of the justices; for their reason is, that the plea shall not be good without colour, when the property is alleged in a person certain, because this proves that there was no proparty in the plaintiff, and so has no colour of action, and consequently this is a good reason that no colour shall be given, because it is an absolute bar of the property, and of all the right of the plaintiff; and so is the book of 32 H. 6. 1. a. b. in the same case, when the property is alleged in a person certain; and with this accords 21 E. 4. 18. b. and 21 E. 4. 65. a.

7. So per Cat. & Pigot, where a man justifies for damage feasant, he shall not give colour; but there he does not claim property in the goods. Br. Colour, pl. 52. cites 12 E. 4. 12.

8. Trespass of a close broken, and apples taken, &c. The defendant justified the entry by lease for a year, and the apples grew there, and the opinion was, that this was no colour for the apples; for it shall be intended that the plaintiff had property by other matter, by which the defendant gave colour by possession in the plaintiff. Br. Colour, pl. 58. cites 21 E. 4. 52.

9. It is good colour in trespass of sheafs between parson and vicar, Br. Properthat the plaintiff claimed them as parson, and the vicar took them; for ty, pl. 35. by the claim the property is in him, and the possession also, though _Heath's he does not claim them, quod Brian and Chocke concessit. Br. Max. 32.

Colour, pl. 62. cites 22 E. 4. 23.

cites S. C. cites S. C. -10 Rep.

89. 2. versus finem Arg. cites S. C.

10. A naked colour in an ejectione firme is not sufficient, as it But it seems is in assile or trespass, &c. which does not comprehend any title 1.5. E. 4.9. or conveyance in the writ or count, as this action does in both. D. 366 a. pl. 35. Mich. 21 & 22 Eliz. in Ld. Cromwell's case, and fays, that according to this is L. 5. E. 4. 5. in formedon 366. much argued.

it should be and so it is in the marg. of Dyer,

- (H) Where Colour given, and after destroyed by Pleading, or given by a Stranger, or one whose Estate appears in Pleading after to be defeated and avoided, shall be good or not.
- 1. THE alienation which he in remainder defeated by his entry was admitted for good colour, viz. the alienation of the tenant for life to the plaintiff. Br. Colour, pl. 67. cites 2 H. 4.
- 2. Trespass, the baron was seised, and infeoffed D. in see, and conveyed the descent from D. to J. and from J. to G. seme of the defendant, Vol. IV.

fendant, as sister and beir, and the defendant in right of his feme entered, and the plaintiff claimed by colour of a deed of feoffment made by N. son of the said * R. the feoffor, where nothing passed, &c. entered, upon whom the defendant re-entered, and did the trespass. Port. said this is no colour, but Newt. and Past. justices e contra; for he has acknowledged the franktenement was once in the plaintiff. Port. faid, in assise it is no plea, quod fuit concessum. Afterwards Port. said it is not good; for it is given by N. son of R. the seosfor, and he has not shewn that N. ever had possession, and therefore it is not to the purpose, though N. was heir to R. And also the defendant said that it is not good, inasmuch as he says that he reentered, and cut the trees, in which case, at the time of the trefpass supposed, the franktenement was in the defendant, and so no colour to the plaintiff, and as to this intent the plea was held good by all the justices, and so to the other intent; for the franktenement was confessed in the plaintiff at one time, by which the plaintiff had judgment to recover. Br. Colour, pl. 24. cites 21 H. 6. 40.

3. It is no plea that the baron of a feme was seised, &c. and died, and W. M. abated, and endowed the seme, and the plaintiff claimed by colour, &c. made by W. N. This is no colour for the seme, after the endowment is in by the baron, and the estate of the abator determined. Br. Colour, pl. 36. cites 38 H. 6. 7.

4. Entry in the quibus; the tenant said, that J. S. was seised in fee, to whom J. D. released all his right by his deed, &c. and J. S. infeoffed H. que estate the tenant has, and gave colour to the plaintist by J. S. and J. D. who released, and was not seised; per Prisot, the colour by J. D. is not good, by which Laycon gave colour by J. S. only; quod nota; and by the reporter the first colour was good; for by Littleton, if it be void by J. D. yet it is good by J. S. Br. Colour, pl. 35. cites 38 H. 6. 5.

5. Trespass ubi ingressus non datur per legem; the desendant said, that before the entry J. S. was seised in see, and inseoffed bim, and that P. claiming the land by colour of a deed made to him by J. S. before the entry, and before the seossement made to desendant, entered and inseoffed the plaintiss, and the best opinion was, that it is no good colour, because it is given by P. a stranger, and not by J. S. by whom the desendant claimed, and after the desendant amended it, and by the reporter the court stayed in this the more, for that it would be an ill example of changing the ancient course of pleading than for any desault in the colour. Br. Colour, pl. 26. eites 38 H. 6. 7.

Heath's Max. 29, 30. cites B. G.

- (I) Where, and in what Actions Colour shall be good, without an immediate Entry upon the Plaintiff. In what not.
- 1. I N trespass, the defendant said, that J. S. was seised, and disseised by B. who infeoffed the plaintiff, upon whom J. S. reentered, que estate the defendant has, this is no plea, per Brian, and the justices of B. R. because the entry of the defendant is not immediately upon the plaintiff, and then this is no colour to the plaintiff; contra if the entry had been immediately by the defendant sipon the plaintiff, to whom the said J. S. had released all his right, and yet there the defendant was trespassor to the plaintiff till the release came; but Brooke says, it seems that the plaintiff shall not punish this without regress, and he cannot make regress after the release. Br. Colour, pl. 83. cites 5 H. 7. 11.
- (K) By whom, or to whom it must or may be [570] given.
- II IN trespass the defendant pleaded his frank-tenement; the Heath's plaintiff said, that before the defendant any thing had, F. was feised, and infeoffed him, and the defendant claiming by colour of a deed, &c. made by F. where nothing passed, entered, upon whom he re-entered, and brought the action, and per tot. Cur. he shall not give colour to the defendant, but colour shall be given only to the plaintiff, but he shall say that F. infeoffed him, by which he was seised till the defendant entered, &c. and disseised him, upon whom he re-entered and brought the action. Br. Colour, pl. 16: pass pleads cites 19 H. 6. 32.

Max. 30. cites 9 H. C. 32. [but feems mifprinted for 19 H. 6: 32.] that where the defendant in affife or trefthat he was leised till by

A. disseised, who did infeoff the plaintiff, and he did enter, and a good colours

2. In trespass of trees cut; the defendant faid, that W. N. was Colour feised in fee, and gave to J: in tail, and died, and the land descended ought alto S. who died, and the defendant as son and heir entered, and gave given by him colour by S. Quod nota; and not by W. nor J. and yet admit- who is first Quære, inasmuch as it is by one mesne in the conveyance. Br. Colour, pl. 21. cites 21 H. 6. 32.

in the conveyance, or otherwise all before is waived. 30 Rep. 89. b. Arg. says, that with this accords 7 10 H. 7. 14. b. 15 E. 4. 32. a. 18 E. 4. 10. a. and 22 E. 4: 25. a. _____lbid. 91. b. per Cur. S. P. accordingly, and cites 10 H. 7. 14. b. 15 E. 4. 32. a. 18 E. 4. 10. a. 22 E. 4. 25. a. Long. 5 E. 4. 134. a. and 21 H. 6. 32. b. * Br. Colour, pl. 84. (84) cites S. C.

3. In trespass, the defendant pleaded fine levied between T. and C. and the plaintiff claiming for term of life by leafe made by T. where nothing passed, and Wangs. would have demurred, because in the pleading of the fine the defendant did not shew seisin in the one nor the other, who were parties to the fine, but said quod finis se levasset Xxx inter, inter, &c. by which T. acknowledged all the right, &c. for the fine is good if the one or the other be seised, by which the defendant said that T. was seised, &c. and levied the sine between him and the said C. and gave colour as above, and then well, &c. Br. Colour, pl. 4. cites 34 H. 6. 1.

Colour in Pleadings.

4. Where a man claims by divers feeffments to his father, who died seised, it is better to give colour by the father than by the surfle feeffor; for this is the title to the heir. Br. Colour, pl. 49. cites

2 E. 4. 17.

Heath's 5. Note, that it was admitted, that in trespass, if the defendant, and seites S. C. feoffed the defendant, he may give colour by A. to the plaintiff, or by seoncordat 3 B. or by C. who was in the mesne conveyance, quod nemo need. A. N. gavit. Br. Colour, pl. 46. cites L. 5 E. 4. 134.

[17] that where a man alleged gift in tail and several descents, and gave colour by him who left died seifed, and well. Br. Colous, pl. 46.

6. Entry in the quibus, the tenant faid that his grandfather was Colour must seifed, and by protestation died seised, and the land descended to bis always be given by the sirft, and not father, who entered, and was feifed, and by protestation died seifed, and the land descended to the defendant as son and heir, and gave coby, any lour by the father, and because he did not give colour by the grandmeine in the conveyance. father, therefore the descent to the father is void, and shall be Heath's oufted, and so he was; contra if he had given colour by the Max. 29. cites S. C. grandfather. Br. Colour, pl. 63. cites 22 E. 4. 24. ---- IO

Rep. 89. b. Arg. cites S. C.

7. So where he says that J. being seised, infeossed B. who insensed ed the desendant, and gives colour by B. the seossment of J. shall be ousted; contra if he had given colour by J. quod nota, per Brian, Catesby & Vavisor, by which the first descent was ousted. Br. Colour, pl. 63. cites 22 E. 4. 24.

Heath's Max. 31. cites S. C. 8. Note, that colour ought to be matter in law, and doubtful to the lay-gents, and shall be given to the plaintiff, and not to one who is mesne in the conveyance, and shall not be given to a stranger who inseessed the plaintiff, and shall not be given by possessed determined, viz. where it appears in pleading that the possession is determined. Br. Colour, pl. 64.

9. He who claims no property in the thing, but takes it as a dif-tress, &c. shall not give colour. Br. Colour, pl. 64.

For more of Colour in Pleadings in general, see AMIE, Ctavetle, Ctelpais, and other proper titles.

Commissions and Commissioners.

- (A) Good. And what may or must be done by Commission, and what by Writ.
- ment, or suit of the party, or other process, this is not good; tissed imprison it is against the law; per Cur. Br. Corone, pl. 194. cites 42 soment of the party by this commission, the commissioners of over and terminer took from him this commission, because it was against than, and said they would show it to the king's consist; such note. Br. Commissions, pl. 15. cites mission, the commissioners of over and terminer took from him this commission, because it was against haw, and said they would show it to the king's counsel; quod nota. Br. Commissions, pl. 15. cites 42 Ass. 5.——A commission was made under the great seal, to take J. N. (a notorious felon) and to seise his lands and goods. This was resolved to be against the law of the land, unless he had been indicated or appealed by the party, or by other due process of law. 2 Inst. 54. cites 42 Ass. 5. Rot. Part. 17 R. 2. Nu. 37.

2. And if writ issues to enquire of champerty, conspiracy, conse-S. P. and deracy, ambodextries, or to inquire what felony J. S. did to W. N. per Knivet all indictments taken by force of such writs are void, and the par-issues against ties shall be dismissed, and shall not be put to answer; sor it law; for this is no warrant to them without commission, and damned that which was done, &c. by advice of all the justices; quod mota. And Brooke says, so see that a thing cannot be done by suris subich eaght to be by commission. Br. Commissions, pl. 16. cites 42 Ass. 12.——S. C. cited 4 Inst. 164.

3. A commission is a delegation by warrant of an act of parlia- No new comment, or of the common law, whereby jurisdiction, power, or auble framed, thority is conferred to others; for all commissions of new inventions act tion are against law, until they have allowance by act of parliation, how ment, how necessary so and commissions of new inquiries, &c. and of new invention, have been content.

ever they seem to be; and commissions of new inquiries, &c. and of new invention, have been condemned by authority of parliament, and by the common law. 2 Inst. 478, 479.

4. Commissions under the great seal were directed to several commissioners within several counties, to inquire of divers articles annexed to the commissions, and which were to enquire of depopulations of houses, converting arable land into pasture, &c. but that they should have no power to hear and determine the said offences, but only to enquire of them. Resolved by the 2 chief justices and 7 justices, that the said commissions were against law, because the offences inquirable were not certain within the commission itself, but in a schedule ammexed to it; and also because it was to inquire only, which is against law; for thereby a man may be unjustly accused by perjury without remedy, it not being within the statute of 5 Eliz. and the party may be defamed, famed, and shall not have any traverse to it. 12 Rep. 30, 31,

Trin. 5 Jac. The Case of Commissions.

4. 6 Ann. cap. 7. s. 27. No greater number of commissioners shall be made, for the execution of any office, than have been employed in the execution of such office before the first day of this parliament.

(B) Who may be Commissioners. And their Power.

1. TF any are made commissioners, and afterwards others are made commissioners, the first commission is determined. Godb. 105. pl. 123. Mich. 28 & 29 Eliz. C. B. Anon.

2. One who has been folicitor in a cause, is not fit to be a commissioner in the same cause. Godb. 193. pl. 276. Trin. 10 Jac.

C. B. Fortescue v. Coake.

- 3. A commission was directed out of chancery on ded. potest. to A. & al'. The other commissioners would examine A. their fellowcommissioner as a witness; and by the opinion of Anscomb, they cannot compel him to be examined, which Doderidge granted; Brook of the Middle-Temple e contra. Quare, that if he would assent to be examined, if yet this examination be not taken corass non judice. 2 Roll. Rep. 90. Pasch. 17 Jac. B. R. Sir Nich. Parker's case.
- 4. Time and place is only for the fixed [first] meeting of the commissioners; but after they may adjourn to another time or another place; per Ld. Chancellor. Chan. Cases, 282. Trin. 28 Car. 2. Brown v. Vermuden.

5. A commissioner may be a witness, but then he ought to be And if examined before any other witness be examined. Vern. 369. pl. 362. Hill. 1685. Bright v. Woodward. before him sence, he cannot be afterwards examined, having heard the former examinations; and therefore the 17th of Dec. 1681, a commissioner who had so done, came as afterwards and was examined in court, and his deposition was suppressed. 2 Chan. Cases, 79. Mich. 33 Car. 2. North v. Champernoon.

(C) Misbehaviour of Commissioners. What is, And punished how.

Commissioner certifying falfely that a witness was examined on oath and sworn, who never was examined, is a great fault, and fineable. Cro. E. 623. pl. 17. Mich. 40 & 41 Eliz.

dovid

B. R. Fish v. Thoroughgood. [ 573 ] 2. Commission to examine witnesses went out to Sir Alex-Commiffioners to be ander Brett and others, who made certificate against Sir Alexexamined ander of partial proceedings. Phillips Serj. moved at the rolls for upon occaa commission to others, to examine in whom the misdemeanor fion of pertickity and was, if in Sir Alexander, or in the certifiers, & fuit negatum; predice. Toth. :02. for such collateral certificates are not required of the commissioners; eites 7 Car. but let them certify the matters committed to their charge, and Morgan v. if there be mildemeanor, let the party wronged thereby make off-Bowdler.

others are examined in his pre-

-davit thereof, and then take out his attachment. Cary's Rep. 43.

cites 13 Nov. 1 Jac.

3. If a commissioner in a cause in Canc. takes bribes for the ex- But no reecuting thereof, he may be indicted and fined by the common action, per a law; per Popham Ch. J. Cro. 65. pl. 4. Pasch. 2 Jac. C. B. justices. Moor v. Foster.

mody lies b♥ Jbid. ----Yely. 62,

S. C. Show. 343.

4. The plaintiff's commissioner would not let a witness declare the whole truth, but held him strictly to the interrogatories to stiffe the truth, this was held a misdemeanor, and that commissioners to examine ought to be indifferent, and by all means to express the truth, and they are not strictly bound to the letter of the interrogatories, but to every thing also which arises necessarily upon it for manifesting all the truth concerning the matter in question; and where one of the commissioners went out of the place to the plaintiff into another room during the examination, and had private conference with him, it was held that a commissioner ought not before publication, to discover to any of the parties what any witness has deposed, nor to confer with the party after he has begun to examine on the interrogatories to take new instructions to examine further than he knew before, and if he does he is punishable by fine and imprisonment. 9 Rep. 70. b. 71. a. Trin. 9 Jac. in the Star-Chamber, Peacock's case.

5. One of the commissioners letting the defendant escape being taken upon a commission of rebellion, was to stand committed to prison till he brings in the defendant. Toth. 100. cites Hill.

18 Jac. Sacheverel v. Sacheverel.

6. Commissioners upon a commission of rebellion, letting the party go where he listed, were ordered to be committed till they pay the debt. Toth. 101, 102. cites Trin. 18 Jac. Nelson v. Yelverton.

- 7. The defendant's commissioners for examining witnesses met at the time and place appointed, but refused to join and act in the execution of the commission; and upon assidavit made of this, the court ordered that the defendant should name other commisflowers, and it was prayed that the plaintiff might name other commissioners too, because one of his commissioners was not there, so that it seemed to have been a practice, and the court doubted whether an attachment lay against the defendant's commissioners or not; et adjornatur. Hard. 170. pl. 6. Trin. 12 Car. 2. in Scacc. .... v. Fortescue & al.
- 8. If a commissioner to take a fine executes it corruptly, he may be fined by the court; for in relation to the fine (which is the proper business of this court of C.B.) he is subject to the censures of it as attornies, &c. 2 Vent. 30. Pasch. 29 Car. 2. C.B. Parrot's cale.
- 9. If a commissioner refuses to fit, the suitor has no remedy by Andaquanaction against him, and though perhaps his refusal will be a con- tum meruit tempt to the court if without excuse, yet doubtless they will ne- ing as a wer punish the person for it unless his reasonable charges allowed; commission,

Arg. er upon s

3 And. 203,

204- pl. 20-

5. C.

commission Arg. Show. 343. Mich. 3 W. & M. Stockhold v. Colling-to examine ton.

though it was objected that he acted by command of the court, and therefore could not take a promise of reward for the service, any more than a sheriff or bailist; sed non allocatur; because he is appointed at the nomination of the party, who ought to pay him if he employs him. I Salk. 330. pl. I. S. C.—Carth. 208. S. C. adjudged accordingly.——Show. 348, 343. S. C. & S. P. adjudged.——Comb. 186. Stockton v. Collison, S. C. but S. P. does not appear.——13 Mod. 9. Stockwell and Collison, S. C. but not clearly S. P.

(D) Commissions granted. In what Cases, and how to be executed.

1. A Commission out of this court to prove whether a child war legitimate. Toth. 100. cites Pasch. 11 & 12 Eliz. Cresey

v. Hull.—Ibid. cites 22 Jac. contra, Hobby v. Smith.

2. A commission to examine witnesses on both parts upon 14 days warning, to be given to the defendants. L. one of the defendants made oath that neither he nor U. bad any warning, but if any warning was given, it was given to S. the other defendant, who is little interested in the cause, but made a party as the defendant's counsel supposeth, to take away his testimony from the other defendant. Therefore ordered a commission to be awarded, whereof the said L. shall have the carriage directed to the former commissioners, and 14 days warning shall be given to the plaintist, and he to examine if he will. Carey's Rep. 129, 130. cites 22 Eliz. Hollingworth v. Lucy, Varney and Smith.

3. Commissions by several warrants cannot be executed and satisfied simul & semel by one and the same inquisition, but ought to be divided and several, as the warrant is several. Poph. 94.

Pasch. 37 Eliz. Pigot's case.

4. A commission was awarded to prove customs, but parties interested shall not be examined as witnesses. Toth. 101. cites 10 Jac. Hopton v. Higgins.

5. The court ordered that a commission should go forth to set out lands that lie promiscuously to be liable for payment of debts.

Toth. 101. cites 14 Jac. Mullineux v. Mullineux.

6. A commission to set out copyhold land from free land which lie obscured; if the commissioners cannot sever it, then to set out so much in lieu thereof. Toth. 101. cites Mich. or Hill. 5 Car. 2. Pickering v. Kimpton.

7. Where a man is to perfect his answer on interrogatories, or to be examined for a contempt, though the rule of court is that he shall be examined in 4 days or stand committed; yet if the party be in the country, he shall have a commission to take his examination. M. 35 Car. 2. 1683. Vern. 187. Anon.

8. A commission returnable fine dilatione must be executed before the second return of the next term, if executed afterwards it is void, and the deposition ought to be suppressed. 2 Vern.

197. pl. 179. Mich. 1690. Anon.

(E) New Commissions granted. In what Cases, and how.

1. THE plaintiff and defendant both joined in commission to examine witnesses, and the plaintiff having the carriage of the commission did not execute the same, but did examine witnesses bere in court, therefore ordered the defendant should have a new commission to * the former commissioners, wherein the plaintisf might also examine if he list, and at the return thereof publication; and in the mean time publication is stayed. Cary's Rep. 160. cites 21 Eliz. Mackworth v. Swayefield & al'.

2. Whereas a commission issued out to examine witnesses on both parties, which is returned executed, upon oath made by one G. B. that he served precepts from the commissioners upon A. B. C. and D. to be examined on the defendant's behalf before the faid commissioners, who appeared not, it is therefore ordered that a new commission be awarded to the former commissioners at the defendant's charge, as well to examine the faid 4 witnesses as any other. Cary's Rep. 158, 159. cites 21 Eliz. Shepherd v.

Shepherd & al'.

3. A witness having committed a mistake in his examination before Chan. Cases, commissioners, applied himself to them to rectify it, who told 25. Randal him that the commission was returned to London, and he coming S. C. acthere made oath of it, and that he was surprized by a hafty examin- cordingly. ation; but the commission not being opened it was returned back to the commissioners, with a special commission to open it, and permit the witness to rectify bis mistake; and afterwards the special commission being executed and returned, a motion was made to suppress the depositions, because unduly taken, and that no such special commission ought to have been; whereupon it was referred to the master of the rolls to examine into it, who called to his assistance the fix clerks, and they were all of opinion that no such commission had ever been or ought to be now granted; so the depositions and the special commission were suppressed. Nelf. Chan. Rep. 92, 93. 15 Car. 2. Randall v. Richards.

4. The defendant having exhibited writings at a commission for examination of witnesses, suggested that they were altered and interlined fince the commission executed, and prayed a commission to examine that point. It was objected that when the party has a commissioner present, he can never examine new interrogatories by commission. To which it was answered, that this is true as to the merits; but the matter complained of has happened fince, and not examined into by the commissioners, it not being then in being, and though it was replied by asking, how the defendant could know this but by discovery of his commissioner, who ought not to discover the examination, yet the Ld. Chancellor ordered a commission. Chan. Cases, 273, 274. Hill. 27 & 28 Car. 2.

Richardson v. Lowther.

*5*75 ‡

Commissions and Commissioners.

Vern. 21.
pl. 13. S. C.
but S. P.
does not appear.

5. After publication and hearing, a commission was granted to examine new matters started at the hearing, upon condition of consent to go to trial the next term (an issue being directed to be tried at law), and return the commission before the term; but the trial not to stay, though the commission should not be returned (which was to be from Barcelona) by the time; and the Ld. Chancellor directed that the commission should be delivered to Mr. Herne to send by the post to Barcelona, and when executed to receive the same back. 2 Chan. Cases, 76. Mich. 33 Car. 2. Newland v. Horseman.

Curf. Canc. 243. S. P. in totidem verbis.

6. If either party have a commission de novo after he has been examined on a former, he must examine on the same interrogatories as were exhibited by him on the former commission, and no other, without an order or consent of parties. P. R. C. 221.

For more of Commissions and Commissioners in general, see Examination, fine, and other proper titles.

[576] (A) Commission of Revellion.

THE defendant made his personal appearance upon a commission of rebellion, for saving his bond made to the commissioners in that behalf. Cary's Rep. 82. cites 19 Eliz. Brown v. Derby.

2. Commonly it is used to take the bonds in the name of the id. chancellor, ld. keeper of the great seal of England, the master of the rolls, or any two of the masters of the chancery, all which are good and allowable by the practice of the court of chancery.

Cary's Rep. 83.

3. A commission of rebellion for not payment of costs was awarded against the defendant to one John ap David, who did there-upon apprehend the defendant, and for his more safe keeping delivered him to Thomas Moston, Esq. sherisf of the county of Flint, who took charge of the prisoner accordingly, and now resules either to deliver the prisoner to the commissioner, or to bring him himself into the court at the day. Day is therefore given to the said sherisf to bring into this court the body of the said defendant by Thursday next, upon pain of 101. Cary's Rep. 150. cites 22 Eliz. Evans, Dean of St. Asaph, v. ap Rees & ap Bennet.

4. Bail may be taken on a commission of rebellion for the breach of a decree; but in case they resuse bail, then they ought to bring the party up to the court without delay; and for the not doing it, but keeping him in prison for 6 weeks in the house of H.

Mpo

Commission of Revellion.

who arrested him, H. was ordered to the Fleet for his abuse, and to pay the defendant his costs and charges sustained by the imprisonment. Chan. Rep. 261. 15 Car. 2. Inglett v. Vaughan.

5. A commission of rebellion, by the course of the court issues only to the sheriff of Middlesex. 2 Wms.'s Rep. (657) pl. 206. in a note there by the editor.

For more of Commission of Rebellion in general, see Com. mission and Commissioners (C), pl. 5, 6. and other proper titles.

(A) Commitment.

(A) Form of Commitments. How. In Cases not Criminal.

HE difference where a man is committed as a criminal, Mich. 8 W. and where only for contumacy in refusing to do a thing 3. A. was required, &c. for in the first case the commitment must be by commisuntil discharged according * to law, but in the latter until he comply, sioners of and perform the thing required; for in that case he shall not lie bankrupts, till sessions, but shall be discharged upon the performing his duty. fusing to an-Carth. 153 Trin. 2 W. & M. in B. R. The Mayor and Church- fwer; and wardens of Northampton's cafe.

*[577] for his rethey concluded their marrant, viz. until be conforms bimself to our authority, and be thence delivered by due course of law. But upon return of an habens corpus he was discharged, because the conclusion was not pursuant to the statute of bankrupts; and the mayor of Northampton's case was cited for an authority. Carth. 153. in Marg. Bracy's case. ——— 5 Mod. 308. S. C. by the name of Bracy v. Harris.—The court thought the word (conform) instead of the word (submit) to be well enough, though the word in the act is (submit), because it is of the same sense; but because the commissioners had other authorities be-· fides those of examining, and it did not appear but it might require a submission to them in other refpects, and because all powers given in r straint of liberty must be strictly pursued, and that in this case they had but a special authority, and must not exceed it, they held the return naught. 348. Mich. 8 W. B. R. Bracy's case.

So where the warrant returned of a commitment by commissioners of bankrupt, for refusing to be examined by them, was, viz. or otberwise discharged by due course of law, it was held naught; for the statute is, be shall be committed until be submit bimself to be examined by the commissioners. 1 Salk. 351.

Hill. 1 Ann. B. R. Hollingshead's case.

2. Defendant was committed, upon a conviction for deerflealing, for a year, and till such time as he should be set in the pillory, whereas the act fays for a year only, and therefore he was discharged. Cumb, 305. Mich. 6 W. & M. in B. R. Clark's cale,

3, An

Commitment.

But it should be, there to remain until be shall ac-

3. An overseer, who by the stat. 43 Eliz. rap. 2. may be committed till he account, was committed till he should be delivered by due course of law; and adjudged void, because it did not count, as 43 pursue the lavo. Cited per Wright Serj. Cumb. 305. Mich. El. 2. doth 6 W. & M. in B. R. in Clark's case.

appoint. Carth. 152. The Mayor and Church-wardens of Northampton's case.

> 4. Record of commitment should be in the present tense: per Holt Ch. J. 12 Mod. 516. Pasch. 13 W. 3. The King v. Brown.

For more of Commitment in general, see Habeas Corpus (F, 2) and other proper titles.

Fol. 396. There are only 4 manner of commens, vis. common appendant, appurtement, in gross, and by reason of wicinage; And as to common ratione

residentia,

ot commo-

Common, as Lord.

[1. HE lord of the manor, seised of the wastes in which the tenants have common, may feed the common per mie & per tout of common right, without disturbance. 18 E. 3. 43. 18 Aff. 4.]

mantim, it is not any of them; resolved by all the justices of C.B. 6 Rep. 90. a. Hill. 14 Jac. C.B. in Gate---- S. P. accordinglyl Cro. E. 363, pl. 25. Mich. 36 & 37 Eliz. C. B. in case of Fowler v. Dale.——See tit. Inhabitants (.B).

Admitted, ang. that the owner of the soil may feed with his tenant who has a right of common.

s Mod. 275. Mich. 29 Car. 2. C. B.

[ 578 ] [2. If the owner of the foil grants to another common sans number For by this the soil is there, yet the grantee cannot use the common with so many catmot granted; per Brooks' the that the granter shall not have sufficient common for his cattle. J. Quod son 12 H. 8. 2.]

negatur. Br. mon granted, but yet, notwithstanding such grant, the ford may common with such grantee; and alle, the grantee ought to use the common with a restonable number; and to this the lord chancellet agreed. Roll. Rep. 365. pl. 18. Pasch. 14 Jac. If a man claims by prescription any manner of common in another man's land, and that the owner of the land shall be excluded to have pasture, estovers, or the like, this is a prefeription, or euftom, against the law, to exclude the owner of the soil; for it is against the nature of this ward countries, and it was implied in the first grant, that the owner of the foil pł, 5. S. C.

[3. The lord by prescription may agist the cattle of a stranger in It seems adthe common. 30 E. 3. 27.] the licence of the lord to a franger to put his beafts into the common is good, if sufficient common be lest for the commoners. 2 Mod. 6. Hill. 26 & 27 Car. 2. C. B. in case of Smith v. Feverel.

[4. But without prescription the lord cannot agist the cattle of a stranger in the common. 30 E. 3. 27.]

. =

ĦJ.

1:

M t

II:

E,

5. One may prescribe to have sole pasturage in such a place, from Cro. J. 208. fuch a time to fuch a time, exclusive, of the owner of the foil. Cited Cro. J. 257. to have been fo resolved in Kenrick's case.

pl. 1. Trin. 6 J.c. B.R. S.C. & S.P. admitted.

Yelv. 129. Kenrick v. Pargiter, S. C. & S. P. admitted. ---- Noy, 130. S. C. & S. P. adjudged. S. C. cited Bulft. 94.

6. If one is seised of a manor, in the waste whereof the tenants have common, and the king grants warren to the lord in such divifrom of the manor; adjudged, that the lord cannot use his warren, and put conies in the waste in prejudice of the commoners. Jo. 12. Mich. 18 Jac. C. B. Grisell v. Leigh.

7. Copyholders may plead a custom to have solam & separalem pasturam omni anno, omni tempore anni, and that exclusive of the lord, and in such case levancy and couchancy is not necessary. 2 Lev. 2. Pasch. 23 Car. 2. B.R. Hopkins v. Robinson.

8. Though the copyholders have folam & separalem pasturam, &c. For there yet the lord may distrain, for other damage, the beasts of a stronger, who has no right to put in his beafts, though the lord has no, mines, areinterest in the herbage; per Hale Ch. J. 2 Saund. 328. Pasch. 23 Car. 2. in case of Hoskins v. Robins.

may be trees, Vent. 183/ 163, in 8.C.

Common of the Lord. Who shall have it.

[1. TF the lord alien in fee the soil where the common is to be taken, saving his power of feeding as lord, he shall have common there as lord,. 18 E. 3. 43. 18 Aff. 56. admitted.]

[2. If the lord, without any saving, aliens the soil where the common is to be taken, his common as lord is gone by the feoffment, the Yearbut the alience of the soil may feed it as the lard might have done book of 18, before, for that this common is given because it is in his soil, where the lord has it, and not because he is lord, and this rea- though the See * 18 E. 3. 30. b. 43. for it seems that they lord could fon holds here. + 18 Aff. 56. b.] may approve it.

L. 3. 30. b. common in.

his own land, yet he had pasture there in lieu of this profit, and when he has dismissed himself, his feoffee shall have common in lieu of the pasture which he had. Adjornatur. [This may help to † Br. Common, pl. 22. cites explain Roll, pl. 2. which seems somewhat obscure.] 28 AST. PL 4- S. C. ‡[579]

(C) Common Appendant. What. [And bow.]

*Fitzh.

Iffue, pl.

143. cites
S. C. ____ 3. 26. b. 5 Aff. 2.]

T is not common appendant unless it has been appendant unless it ha mion, pl. 1. cites S. C. accordingly, and a man cannot make such common at this day, and it is appendent only to arable land, and not to the house, or any other land, and it shall be only for the beasts which feed the same land to which, &c. per Hales, to which Fitzherbert agreed.———Common appendent is to have common to his arable land, and for his beasts that plough his land, and competer his land, viz. for his horses and ozen to plough, and for his cows and sheep to competer. Br. Common, pl. 13. cites 37 H. 6. 34.——— Br. Common, pl. 16. eites S. C. & S. P. and therefore it cannot be claimed to land newly approved out of the waste.———Br. Assise, pl. 37. (36) cites S. C. & S. P.

IBr. Com- [2. For such common can not be created at this day. ‡ 26 H. 8. mon, pl. 1.

cites S. C. 4. § 5 Ass. 9. per Herle.]

& S. P. and see pl. 1. supra, and the notes there. § Fitzh. Assis, pl. 134. cites S. C.

This should [3. Common appendant is of common right. 26 H. 4.] be 26 H. 8.

4.—Br. Common, pl. 1. S. C. & S. P. that it is of common right before time of memory.—

S. P. per Cur. 4 Rep. 37. a. in Tirringham's case, and that it commences by operation of isw, if favour of tilinge.

In such case the seoffees the seoffees and manute. The seoffees and manute terrarum, had made a feoffment of parcel of the manor to hold of him, the seoffee, as incident to the grant, should have the wastes of the lord. Mich. 9 Jac. B. per Coke and Foster.

common in the said wastes of the lord for two causes; 1st, As incident to the seofment, for the seofsee could not plough and manure his ground without beasts, and they could not be sustained without pasture, and consequently the tenant should have common in the wastes of the lord for his beasts which do plough and manure his tenancy, as appendant to his tenancy, and this was the beginning of common appendant. The 2d reason was for maintenance and advancement of agriculture and tillage, which was much savoured in law. 2 Inst. 86.——See (G) pl. 6.

[5. Common appendant may be through all the year, saving at a certain time, at what time the lord feeds it. 27 E. 3. 86. b.]

6. If a man grants 80 acres of land with common in Q. as much moner and Common, pl. 37. cites to be appendant if it was not appendant before; per Herle J. & non negatur; for it seems clearly that it cannot be appendant but by time of prescription; quod nota, but contra elsewhere of appurition, pl. 45. eiter 3 Aff. g. S. P. and to are all the editions, but they feem mis-printed, there being no such point there; and it flould be, as here, 5 Ass. 9.

7. Every common by reason of vicinage is common appendant; per Littleton J. which none contradicted nor assirmed Br. Common, pl. 30. cites 7 E. 4. 26.

8. In trespass, the defendant justified because he and all those whose estate he has in such lands, have had common appendant to the said land, in the place where, &c. with all manner of beasts, levant and couchant upon the same land, by which, &c. per Fair fax, this is common appurtenant; for if it was common appendant he shall not have common with all manner of beasts. Br. Common,
12

pl. 12. cites 9 E. 4. 3.

9. The word (pertinens) is Latin as well for appurtenant as ap- Co. Litt. pendant, and therefore the subjecta materia, and the circumstance P. of the case must direct the court to judge the common to be either appendant or appurtenant; sic dictum fuit; 4 Rep. 38. a. Mich. 26 & 27 Eliz. B. R. in Tirringham's case.

10. A. seised of 2 yard-lands with the appurtenances, had com- 13 Rep. 65. mon of pasture for a certain number of cattle; this was common ap- 66. Hill. 7 Jac. C. B. pendant. Brownl. 180. Morse v. Wells.

S. C. refolved that there is no difference when the prescription is for cattle levant and couchant, and for a certain number of cattle levant and couchant, but otherwise of common appurtenant.

11. Common appendant unto land is as much as to fay common for cattle levant and couchant upon the land in which, &c. Resolved. 13 Rep. 66. Hill. 7 Jac. C. B. Morse v. Webb.

(D) The several Sorts [of Common Appendant].

[1. A Common appendant may be upon condition. 37 H. 6. 34. As where a man had man had common in 100 acres when it is not fown, this is conditionally. Br. Common, pl. 13. cites S. C. per Moyle.-Fitzh. Trespass, pl. 85. cites S. C.

[2. Common appendant may be unlimited, so quamdiu he pays so Br. Commuch, so tamdiu as he shall be living upon such a house to which the mon, pl. 13. cites S. C. common is appendant. 37 H. 6. 34.] ---Ficzh. Trespass, pl. 85. cites S. C.

[3. So, common appendant may be to common, after the corn is Br. Comsevered, till it is re-sowed. 17 E. 3. 26. F. N. 180. E. 37.H. mon, pl. 13 mon, pl. 13. 6. 34.7 & S. P. implied. ---,

A man prescribed to have common appendant in the place where, &c. for all cattle commonable, &c. (viz.) if the land was sowed by the consent of the commoner, then he was to have no common till the corp was cut; and then to bavie common again till the land was forved by the line confint of the commoner ; it was objected that this prescription was against common right, for it was to prevent a man from sowing his own land without the leave of another; but the whole court held the prescription good, for the owner of the land cannot plough and fow it where another has the benefit of common; but in this case both parties have a benefit, for each of them have a qualified interest in the land. 1 Le. 73. pl. 100. Mich. 29 & 30 Eliz. C. B. Hawkes . Mollineux.

[4. So it may be to common in the meadow after the hay carried till Candlemas. 17 E. 3. 26. 34.]

[5. So it may be to common in the pasture from the feast of St.

Augustin till All-Saints. 17 E. 3. 26. b. 34.]

[6. So it may be to common between the faid feasts before mentioned; and if the tertenant puts in his cattle before the feast of St. Augustin, then he may common there also from the Invention of the Holy Cross till All-Saints. 17 E. 3. 26. 34.]

[7. So it may be to common 2 years after the corn cut and carried [ 581 ] away, till it is re-sowed, and every 3d year; per totum annum.

Ass. 42. admitted.]

[8. A man may have common appendant for 30 outle in one place, and to the same land common appendant also in another place, for part of the said cattle, and so may take it where he pleases. 17 E. 3.34 b]

(E) To what it shall be appendant.

• Br. Com- [1. IT ought to be appendent to arable land. * 37 H. 6. 34. mon, pl. 13. † 26 H. 8. 4.] cites S. C.

-+ Bs. Common, pl. 1. cites S. C. --- F. N. B. 180. (B) in the marg, of the new edition, [419.] cites S. P. by Prifot, 20 H. 6. 4. and by Hulls accordingly, 5 Aff. 2.

[2. Not to other land than arable. 26 H. 8.4. Not to a house-Br. Common, pl. 1. 26 H. 8. 4.] cītes S. C.

and both the same points.———It is only appendant to ancient arable land hide and gaine; per Cur-

4 Rep. 37. a. Mich. 26 & 27 Elizi B. R. in Tirringham's case.

It is against the nature of common appendant to be appendant to meadow or passare, and therefore in the principal case, the prescription being laid to have common appendant time out of mind, to a house, meadow, and pasture, as well as to arable land, by which it appeared to the court that there had been a house, meadow, and pasture, time out of mind, it was resolved for that reason, that this was common appurtenant and not appendant; but if a man has had common for beafts which ferve for his plough, appendant to his land, and perhaps of late time a house is built upon part thereof, and some part is employed to pasture, and some for meadow, and this for maintenance of tillage, which was the original cause of the common, in this case the common remains appendant, and it shall be intended in respect of the continual usage of the common for beasts, levant and conchant upon such land that at first all was arable; but in pleading he ought to prescribe to have it to the land. 4 Rep. 7. a. b. in S. C. per Cur.

[3. It cannot be appendant to land which is approved within time Br. Common, pl. 16. of memory out of the waste of the lord. 5 Ass. 2.]

Br. Affife, pl. 117. (116.) cites S. C.—F. N. B. 180. (B) in the marg. of the new edition, 439. cites S. C. and 10 E. 2. accordingly, and there the land to which it may be appendent is called aid [hide] and gain. -------4 Rep. 37. b. S. C. cited per Cur.

> [4. Common of turbary count be appendent to land. 5 Aff. 9. Ad. [admitted.]

> 5. The lord may have in the land of his tenant common appendant to bis own demesnes; per Green. F. N. B. 180. (D) in the new notes there (d) cites 18 E. 3. Admeasurement, 7.

6. A man may prescribe to have common appendant to his manor; for all the demeines shall be intended arable, or at least, in conftruction of law (reddendo fingula fingulis), shall be appendent to fuch demelnes as are ancient arable land, and not to land newly gained and improved out of the wastes and moors, parcel of the manor; per Cur. 4 Rep. 37, b. Mich. 26 & 27 Eliz. B. R. in Tirringham's case.

7. Common may be appendant to a carve of land, and yet a carve of land may contain meadow, pasture, and wood, as is held 6 E. 3. 42. but it shall be applied to that which agrees with the nature and quality of a common appendant, and no incongruity appears; per Cur. 4 Rep. 37. b. Mich. 26 & 27 Eliz. B. R. in Tirringham's case.

8. A man prescribed for common for all commonable beafts as to bis bouse appertaining, and in arrest after verdict the court said. that upon demurrer it might perhaps have been ill; but after verdict, dict, though it be neither appendant nor appurtenant, &c. in strictness of law, yet it is good enough, and they ought to intend it appurtenant, and judgment for the plaintiff. 2 Sid. 87. Trin. 1658.

Stoneby v. Mussenden.

9. A prescription for common for all cattle, levant and couchant, as appendant to bis cottage, was held a good prescription, by Holt Ch. J. and the court; and by Powell J. a cottage contains a curtilage, and so there may be a levancy and couchancy upon a cottage, and it has been so settled, and there is no difference between a messuage and a cottage as to this matter; the statute de extentis manerii says, that a cottage contains a curtilage, and that they will suppose that a cottage has at least a court to it. 2 Ld. Raym. Rep. 1015. Hill. 2 Ann. Emerton v. Selby.

r Salk. 169.
pl. 2. S. C.
held accordingly; and Hott Ch. J. faid he remembered the trial of an iffue whether levant and couchant before
Hale Ch. J.
6 Mod. 114.

who held the foddering of the cattle in the yard evidence of levancy and conchancy. (Anon. S. C. and the court held, that a cottage implies a court and backfide.

(F) [Appendant.] For what Cattle.

It ought to be for fuch cattle as plough his land, (to which it is appendant, as it seems,) and compesser it, scilicet, horses and oxen to plough the land, and cows and sheep to compesser it.

37 H. 6. 34. 10 E. 4. 10. b.]

Br. Common, pl. 13.
cites S. C.
——Ibid.
pl. 1. cites
26 H. 8. 4.

that it shall be only for such beasts as compester the same land, &c. ——— Co. Litt. 122. a. S. P. ——— S. P. per Cur. and same cases cited 4 Rep. 37. a. in Tyrringham's case.

[2. But he shall not use it with goats, geese, or such like, for Br. Comthese are not necessary to do ut supra. 37 H. 6. 34.] for these are not necessary to plough his land, or to seed it.——Fin. Law, 8vo. 56. S. P.

[3. And therefore a prescription to have common appendant for all † Br. Commanner of cattle is not good, because it comprehends goats, geese, cites S. C. and such like; but this is common appurtenant. † 37 H. 6. 34. that where a b. per Curiam. Contra ‡ 4 H. 6. 6. b.] all manner of beasts, he may put in hogs, goats, and the like.

$\frac{1}{2}$ See (M) pl. 2. which seems to be the case intended here, and that it should be 14 H. 6. 6. as it is there.

4. In assise, the plaint was of common with all manner of beasts; Fisher said, that goats and geese are not beasts of common; judgment of plaint; & non allocatur; the reason seems to be, because it shall be intended beasts which are commonable. Br. Common, pl. 42. cites 25 Ass. 8.

5. A man cannot have common for beasts in which he has not a general or special property. 2 Show. 329. pl. 337. Mich.

35 Car. 2. Manneton v. Trevillian.

(G) Common. [Common Appendant.] For bown many Cattle.

Br. Common, pl. 13.
eites S.C. &
S. P. as to the quantity.

[I. THE common is admeasurable, according to the quality and quantity of the freebold to which he claims to have this common appendant. 37 H. 6. 34.]

[2. Scilicet, for all those which are levant and couchant upon the land. 10 E. 4. 10. b. * 15 E. 4. 32. b. 11 H. 6. 12.]

Br. Common, pl. 8. cites S. C.

See (I) pl.4. [3. He that claims common by force of a prescription, as an in-S. C. For habitant of a town, shall have no other cattle to common there but difference what are levant and couchant within the same town. 15 E. 4. 32. between this b. Curia.]

and common

eppendant; for he who has common appendant to an acre of land, shall not use the common with other beasts but those which are levant and couchant upon the said acre; per Pigot, with which agreed the opinion of the court. Br. Common, pl. 8. cites 15 E. 4. 32.

[4. Common appendant may, by usage, be limited to any certain number of cattle. 17 E. 3. 27. 34. b.]

Brownl. 17.

Hill. 14 Jac.
Coles v.
Flaxman, feems to be
S. C. but
S. P. does

S. Many cattle as the land, to which the common is appurtently tenant, may maintain in the winter, so many shall be said levant and couchant; it was reported by Serj. Attee to have been so said by Coke Ch. J. at Norfolk assiss, and to this Warburton and Hutton agreed. Noy, 30. in case of Cole v. Foxman.

pot appear. Sheep levant and conchant, is intended as many as the land will maintain. Vent: 34. Hill. 21 & 22 Car. 2. Prescription for all beafts levant and conchant upon a house, shall be intended those beafts which are noutished and sed upon the land, and may there lie in summer and winter. Agreed. But some thought that beafts cannot be levant and conchant upon a house without a curtelage. 2 Brownl. 101. Mich. 9 Jac. C. B. in case of Patrick v. Lowre.

M. S. Rep.
Mich. 14
Geo. 2.
C. B. Bennet v. Reeve

6. In replevin the plaintiff declares for taking 64 sheep in a place called Somer-lees in the parish of D. in Somersetshire. The defendants avow the taking, for that the place where, &c. contains 100 acres of land; that at and before the taking Rich. Bowes was feised in see, &c. and that the cattle were damage-seasant, and that they distrained them as his bailiffs. The plaintiff in bar to this avowry pleads, that long before and at the time when, &c. one Philip Biggs was seised in see of a certain acre of land called Old Haster, situate in D. and that he, and all those whose estate he hath, have used to have a right of common for all manner of sheep, &c. as appendant to the faid acre; and that the faid Biggs being so seised on the ... day of ..., 5 W. 3. made a demise to J. S. for 99 years, if 3 lives so long lived; and that afterwards in 1704, J. S. made an under-lease to the plaintiff's father Robert Bennet for the residue of the term, who entered and was posfessed, and afterwards died, leaving the plaintiff his executor, who thereupon, as such, entered, and then avers that the lives are Rill

Common.

Mill in being; and the faid plaintiff being so possessed upon the 28th of Sept. 1737, (being the day of the supposed taking,) did put his cattle in the faid place to depasture, and enjoy the common as appendant to the faid acre; and that while they were so depasturing the defendants seised them, and this he is ready to verify. The defendants reply, protesting as to the common, * and say that before and at the time of the taking, the said sheep nor any of them were not levant or couchant on the land. To this the plaintiff demurs; and the defendants join in demurrer. Per Cur. the single question upon this demurrer is, whether levancy and couchancy is incident to common appendant as well as to common appurtenant? If it be incident, then the plaintiff having by his plea in bar fet forth that? they were levant and couchant, the defendants' replication has put a material matter in issue, and the demurrer must be over-ruled. Whether the plaintiff was bound to have pleaded levancy and couchancy is another question, and might be very doubtful; but that is not now necessary to be determined, supposing the defendants' replication material, as we think it is. So likewise as to some other objections which have been made to the defendants' plea, I shall pais them over as of no great weight. And as to the point in question, I think it could never have been made a doubt at the bar, and the nature and original of common appendant been rightly understood. It was said that common appendant took its rife from hence, that tenants of manors being by their tenure obliged to plough and till the lord's land, therefore they had the liberty of putting their cattle to be maintained in the lord's waste, as they were to be employed in his service. But I think that this opinion Is a mistake, and not warranted either by law or reason, and that were it to prevail, it would be attended with the utmost absurdity and inconvenience. I admit that common appendant is incident only to arable land; so is Co. Litt. 122. b. and so are all the books as to this point, though in other matters of common appendant they differ widely. Therefore as it is incident, it cannot be severed from the land, and then the consequence of that will be, that if land be divided into never so many parts or parcels, the tenant of each distinct parcel has a right to such common as appendant to the land, in the same extent and degree as the tenant of the whole land had before the tenancy was divided; and fo every tenant of the manor must keep the same number of horses or oxen to plow and cultivate the lord's land, and on that account to feed them on the waste, whether he be tenant of 100 acres , or only of a single acre, which shews the absurdity of such an opinion, and has fell out to be the very case at present. There is another answer to be given against that opinion; and that is, that a man may have common appendant for cows and sheep as well as horses and oxen, as appears by 1 Roll. Abr. 397. and several other books, and was admitted by the plaintiff's counsel very rightly; because else, this being a replevin for sheep, they would have made an end of their own case. But if there may be common appendant for sheep, then such common can never be enjoyed upon account of keeping them to plow the lord's land, Y y 2. because

Common.

because they are not capable of been used in that manner But I take this to be the true reason, that every tenant had a right to this common for his own benefit, and that as he had no place for keeping his cattle after they had done ploughing his land, he might turn such cattle as were employed by him that way, upon the waste of the lord, till the hay or corn was cut and the ground cleared; and this appears to be the case in Co Litt. 122. before cited, and seems to be a clear and intelligible account of the matter. For if this account be true, that it was a right of common for such cattle as were employed in ploughing the tenant's land, then it can extend to fuch only as are levant and couchant on it. And there will be no abfurdity as in the former case; for then if the land be divided into parcels, the common will be divided into parcels likewise; and a tenant of one acre of land will never be able to claim common for 64 sheep, as in the present case, because the original tenant (perhaps) of 1000 acres had a right to it. The consequence of this will likewise be, that a tenant shall not be at liberty to borrow a stranger's cattle and put them on the common, at least unless borrowed for a considerable time, so as to be employed, and be levant and couchant on the tenant's own land at other times. Having thus explained the nature and origin of common appendant, it becomes a very plain case for the defendants; but I will just add a case or two in confirmation of our opinion, though I think the case does not need it; and that is 4 Co. 38. b. and 1 Roll. Abr. 398. with feveral year-books there cited, all to prove that common appendant is only for cattle levant and couchant on the land, for the reasons I have before mentioned. Therefore we are all of opinion that there must be judgment for the defendants.

(H) By the Cattle of whom it may be used.

has common appendant cannot use the common but with his own proper cattle. * 11 H. 6. 22. b. † 22 Ass. 84.]

[2. If the commoner bath not any cattle to manure the land, he was proper beasts, or beasts that cattle. ‡ 45 E. 3. 26. 11 H. 6. 22. b. 11. b. ¶ 14 H. 6. 6. b. the land to which the common is appendant; but he who has common for 20 beafts by grant, or for beafts time number, may use it with the beafts of another; but contra where he has a grant of common pro 20 averies suis, or common sans number pro averies suis; per l'aston, quod non negatur. Br. Common, pl. 48. (47) cites 11 H. 6. 22——Fitsh. Common, pl. 3. cites S. C.

† Br. Common, pl. 41. (40) cites S. C. Fitzh. Affife, pl. 228. cites S. C.

I Br. Common, pl. 5. cites S. C. Br. Seifin, pl. 5. cites S. C. Br. Common, pl. 14. cites S. C. Fitzh. Trespals, pl. 33. cites S. C.

[3. He cannot agist the cattle of a stranger. * 11 H. 6. 22. b. Br. Common, pl. 48. 11. b. ‡ 22 Aff. 84.] (47) cites S. C. Fitzh. Common, pl. 3. cites S. C † Br. Common, 41. (40) cites S. C. Fitzh. Assise, pl. 228. cites S. C .- F. N. B. 180. (B) S. P. accordingly. -

Vent. 18. Pasch. 21 Car. 2. B. R. Rumsey v. Rawson, S. P. held accordingly; but after verdict in replevin found for the plaintiff, that the beafts were levant and couchant, the court shall intend they were beafts which were procured to compester the land, and the right of the case is tried, and so aided by the statute of Oxford. ____Raym. 171. S. C. ___ Keb. 504. pl. 72. S. C. agreed that a man cannot put in the beafts of a stranger, but only to compesser his land.

[4. If he takes the cattle of a stranger to fold, and folds them 2ccordingly, being levant and couchant upon the land, he may use the common with these cattle; for he has a special property in them for the time. Mich. 10 Car. B. R. between Jason and Hell-YARD, per Curiam, upon evidence at the bar.]

(1) Common fans Number. [How it may be, and [586] bow used.]

[1. I F a man as an inhabitant of a town claims common for all Br. Common of cattle in a place, and claims the common by cites 15 E-4. cites 15 E.4. reason that he is an inhabitant there, he shall have no other 32. S. P. by beafts to common there but those that are levant.] Pigot. See pl. 4.

[2. A man may prescribe to have common for all manner of Br. Common, pl. 8. cites 15 E.4.

32. but that is as to an inhabitant's claiming common-

[3. If a man claims common by prescription for all manner of Mar. 83. pl. commonable cattle in the land of another, as belonging to a tenement, this is a void prescription, because he does not say that it is for cattle levant and couchant upon the land to which he claims it to be appurtenant; for a man cannot have common sans number appurtenant to land; and when he claims the common for all cattle commonable, and does not say for cattle levant and couchant upon the tenement, this shall be intended common sans number according to the words; for there is not any thing to limit it, when he does not say for cattle levant and couchant. Pasch. 16 Car. B. R. between Cobham and White, adjudged in a writ of error upon a judgment in Windsor-court, and the judg- make it a ment there given reversed for this cause, the Lord Brampston only being in court. Intratur M. 14 Car. Rot. 403, 404.]

cattle, by reason of his person. 15 E. 4. 33.]

137. Pasch. 17 Car. B.R. cites it as adjudged in Say's cafe of the county of Lincoin, that fuch pre-Scription was not good, but laying levant and cou.hant would good prescription. Lev. 196. Mich. 18

Car. 2. B. R. Cheadle v. Miller, S. P. and adjudged ill without special demurrer; but agreed that it was cured by verdict, and cited it as adjudged 14 Car. 1. in the case of Ld. Say v. Young, shough is was doubted in case of * Stone v. Musselton. - Sid. 313. Cheedley v. Mellor, S. C. adjudged, and cites the case of Say v. Young.

* 2 Sid. 87. Trin. 1658. B. R. Stonesby v. Mussenden, S. C. ... S. C. cited Mod. 7. as the case of Masselden v. Stoneby, where Masselden prescribed for common sans number, which saying levant and couchant, and that being after a verdict, was held good; but if it had been given upon a demurrer, it would have been otherwise; cited by Twilden, and Liveley said that he was agent for him in the case. S. P. cited as cured by verdict, 3 Mod. 162. Mod. 75. pl. 31. Twisden J. cited Stoneby v. Muckleby, S. C. & S. P.

14. If a man claims common for all manner of cattle in a place Br. Common, pl. 8. as an * inhabitant within a town, and claims the common there, cites S. C. by reason that he is an inhabitant there, he shall have no other —For he beafts to common there but those which are levant and couchant who has common apin the same town; for there is no diversity between this and compendant to mon appendant. 15 E. 4. 32. b.] one acre of land, shall not use this common but with beafts which are levant and couchant upon the same acre. And so where inhabitants in a place have common, the house in which the inhabitant inhabits is the cause of his common, and therefore the beafts levent and couchant there shall be put into the common, and no others; per Pigot, and so was the opinion of the court. Br. Prescription, pl. 28. cites S. C .- S. C. cited Arg. Cro. E. 363. in pl. 25. ___ Inhabitants of a town may well prescribe. 3 Le. 202. pl. 254. Arg. cites 18 E. 4. 3. — 4 Le. 235. pl. 369. Arg. S. P. and cites S. C. — Ld. Raym. Rep. 406. Arg. cites S. C. ---- See Cro. E. 362, 363. pl. 25. Mich. 36 & 37 Eliz. C. B. Fowler v. Dale. * See tit. Inhabitants (B). ———See tit. Preicription.

[5. If a man grants common fans number, the grantee cannot Fol. 399. put in so many cattle, but so that the grantor may have sufficient common in the fame land. 12 H. 8. 2. per Newport.] For by this the foil is not granted. Br. Common, pl. 49. (48) cites S. C. per Brooke J. quod non negatur.

[587] 6. Common sans number cannot be appendant to any thing but lands, and it is called common sans number, because it is only for . beafts levant and couchant, and it is uncertain how many those are, there being in some years more than in others; but it is a common certain in is nature; for id certum est, quod certum reddi potest; per Cur. Hard. 117, 118. pl. 3. Trin. 1658. in Scacc. Chichley's case.

7. In case of common sans nombre, if there be a fur-charge, it must be remedied by a writ of admeasurement; agreed per Cur. 2 Ld. Raym. Rep. 1187. Trin. 4 Ann. in case of Follet v.

Troake.

(K) Common by Reason of Vicinage. And Pleadings.

[1. I F there be a common by reason of vicinage between two manors time out of mind, &c. yet one may inclose against Wray Ch. J. 4 Rep. 38. b. Mich. 27 the other. Co. Lit. 122.] & 28 Eliz.

B. R. in Tirringham's case. And ibid. 38. b. the reporter cites S. P. as lately adjudged in B. R. in the case of Smith v. How accordingly, though it was objected, that having been used by prescription time out of mind, is would be hard to break what had been of such long continuance; and it might be that the waite of the one was larger or of greater value than the waite of the other, and it might be that those who at first had the least, gave a recompence to have common in the greater, and therefore it would be unreasonable now to inclose; but it was answered and resolved, that the prescription imports the reciprocal cause in itself, viz. for cause of vicinage, and no other cause can be imagined; and it is rather an excuse of thespals, when the beafts of the tenants of one manor stray into the waste of the other, than any certain inheritance. - They may inclose the one against the other; per Powell J. 11 Mod. 73. pl. 3. Pasch. 5 Ann. in case of Bromsield v. Kirber.

> [2. If there be common pur cause de vicinage between two manors, and the lord of one manor incloses, yet it shall not bind a copyholder of the same manor, but that he may have common pur cause cause de vicinage as he had besore. Mich. 13 Jac. Banco per Hubert.]

[3. [But] If there be common pur cause de vicinage between two manors, and the lord of one manor incloses any part of his common, the common pur cause de vicinage is gone. M. 13 Jac. . Banco per Hubert.]

[4. Where there is common pur cause de vicinage between S. P. by two, yet one cannot put his cattle into the land of the other, but they ought to escape thither of themselves by reason of the vicinity; b. in Tirfor this is but an excuse of the trespass. Co. Lit. 122.]

Wray Ch. J. 4 Rep. 38. ringhām's cale; and foid, the reporter cites S. P. then lately adjudged accordingly in B. R. in case of Smith v. How & Redman. - S. P. by Powell J. 11 Mod. 72, 73. pl. 3. Paich. 5 Ann. B. R. in case of Brom-Aeld v. Kirber.

- [5. Every common pur cause de vicinage is a common appen- Br. Commoner, &c. 7 E. 4. 26. per Lit. Br. Commoner, 29.] pl. 30. (29) cites S. C. and says quod nemo dedixit neque affirmavit. ---- Wray Ch. J. said that common for cause of vicinage is not common appendant, but in as much as it ought to be by prescription as common apdendant ought, it is in this respect resembled to common appendant. 4 Rep. 38. a, in Tirringham's cale.
- [6. A man need not prescribe in a common pur cause de vicinage, Prescription but it is sufficient to say that he and all those whose estate, &c. have used to intercommon causa vicinagii, because this is common ap-* Old Books of Entries, Trespass in Common, 11. (but quære this) and see 13 H. 7. 13. b. a prescription for common pur cause de vicinage.]

was, that all occupiers of B. babutrunt & babere consue-Werunt COIDmon in fuch a down in

C. ratione vicinagii, without alleging time out of mind. The court held the pleading ill, because the prescription is the ground for the common by vicinage, but it is otherwise where one claims common appendant, for in such case the alleging a prescription would make the plea double. Lat. 161. Trin, 2 Car. Jenkyn's case. — Poph. 201. Jenkin v. Vivian, S. C. & S. P. agreed, — See D. 47. b. pl. 13. Trin. 32 H. 8. Anon.

[ 588 ]

7. Assise of common in A. appendant to his frank-tenement in B. The defendant said that A. & B. do not intercommon, judgment if for common appendant, &c. and a good plea, by which the plaintiff prescribed in common there, and the other e contra, and so see that issue may well be taken upon prescription in assise. Br. Common, pl. 43. cites 30 Ass. 42.

8. Note, that it is no prescription in trespass of trampling his Br. Comgrass in D. that H. is lord of the vill of S. which is adjoining to D. and that H. and all the lords of the vill of S. have had common 6. 10. 43. by reason of vicinage in the vill of D. for their frank-tenements for term of life, of years, and at will, and that the defendant held 12 acres in S. of the said H. for term of life, by which he put his beasts in D. to use the common as lawfully he might, judgment si actio and no prescription; for by this word lord shall be intended him, of whom the vill is held, and not he who is seised of the vill; for if there be 20 mesnes every one of them is lord of the vill, and yet none shall have common but he who is seised in possession of the vill, by which he faid that H. is seised of the vill of S. and that he and all those whose estate he has in S. &c. have had COMMOS common for cause of vicinage time out of mind for him and his franktenants of the faid manor for term of life, of years, or at will in the vill of C. and pleaded all as above, &c. Br. Prescription, pl, 27. cites 22 H. 6. 51.

So are the English editions, they but the French edi-

9. None shall claim common by vicinage but the lord who has the possession of the town. 23 H. 6. But yet it seems that one copying after neighbour may claim common by vicinage in the land of another one another, neighbour, * although he be lord of the town, &c. F. N. B. 180. (D).

tion is, viz. though neither of them be lord of the will, &c.

5. P. by Manwood J. D. 316. b. pl. 4. Mich. 14 & 25 Elis.

10. Of common by reason of vicinage, the one cannot put bis beasts into the land of the other; for there those of the other vill may distrain them damage-seasant, or shall have action of trespass, but they shall put them in their own fields, and if they fray into the fields of the other vill, they ought to suffer them. Br. Common, pl. 55. cites 13 H. 7. 13.

11. And the inhabitants of the one vill should not put in more beafts, but having regard to the frank-tenements of the inhabitants of the other vill. Ibid.

12. A great field lies between 2 adjoining vills, and one that has land in the one will has common there with the tenants of the other vill. The question was, if he be to make title to this common, whether he shall make it as to common appendant, or by reason of vicinage? Per Cur. this is common by reason of vicinage.

D. 47. b. pl. 13. Trin. 32 H. 8. Anon.

13. If there are 3 vills, D. S. and V. and S. lies in the middle between D. and V. the vills of D. and V. cannot intercommon by reason of vicinage, because they are not vicini adjacentes; per Shelly. But Bauldwin e contra, and took a difference where one will has common in another will in one feafon of the year, and the other has common in the other vill in another season of the year, or every 2d year; this is not common by reason of vicinage, inasmuch as they do not intercommon at one and the same time, but at several times. D. 47. b. 48. a. pl. 14. Trin. 32 H. 8. Anon.

14. If the commons of the vill of A. and B. are adjacent, and that the one ought to have common with the other for cause of vicinage, and the vill of A. has 50 acres, and the vill of B. has 100 acres of common, the inhabitants of A. cannot put more beafts into their common than their 50 acres will depasture, without having any respect to the common of B. nec e converso; the original cause of this common being not for profit, but for preventing of fuits for mutual escapes; and therefore if the vill of A. puts in 50 beasts, and the vill of B. 100, here is no prejudice to either, if the beafts of the one escape into the common of the other. 7 Rep. 5. b. Hill. 27 Eliz. in Scace. Sir Miles Corbet's cafe.

15. Common for cause of vicinage must be next adjoining, but it may be in several manors; per Holt Ch. J. 11 Mod. 72. pl. 3.

Pasch. 5 Ann. B. R. Bromsield v. Kirber.

16. If a man goes into the common of vicinage to drive bis cattle off into his own common, (for he ought not to keep them in the common of vicinage,) he may justify this trespass; but if they go into a third common, such excuse, perhaps, will not hold; per Holt Ch. J. 11 Mod. 72. pl. 3. Pasch. 5 Ann. B. R. Bromfield v. Kirber.

17. In pleading this kind of common it ought to be pleaded mutual; per Holt Ch. J. 11 Mod. 73. pl. 3. Pasch. 5 Ann. B. R. in case of Bromsield v. Kirber.

Common Appurtenant. What is.

[1. ] F a man bath time out of mind had common of estovers in a certain place, to be burnt in such a house, and to mend the old houses and old hedges, this is not common appendant but appurtenant. 11 H. 6. 11. b.]

[2. If a man and his ancestors, and all those whose estate he hath in a house, have had common for two beasts in a certain place, this is not appendant, but appurtenant. 11 H. 6. 12.]

[3. If a man bargains and sells Black-acre to B. and after, before Roll. Repi the decd is inrolled, by another deed grants a common to the said B. for all his cattle which should manure and feed in the said Black-acre, argued, sed which he hath bargained and fold to the said B. or the which he hath adjoinatur. mentioned to be bargained and fold, and after the deed is inrolled, this is a good common appurtenant to the faid Black-acre, although Ludlow v. the grantee had nothing in the said land, at the time of the grant, and Stacy, S. C. though it be admitted that it shall not relate to settle the estate in him ab initio, inasmuch as this has reference to the bargain the comand sule, and to the estate which he had by force thereof. Mich. 15 Jac. B. R. between GAWEN AND STACY, agreed per Curiam.]

424, 425. pi. 16. S. C. Godb. 270. PI- 377adjudged a good grant of mon; and that the inrolment shall have relation as to that, though for collateral things it shall not have relation.

[4. So if a man grants a common to another for all his cattle, which should be levant and couchant, upon the land which he should purchase (*) within a month after, and after he purchases certain * Fol. 40c. land, this is a good common appurtenant to this land, though he had nothing in this land at the time of the grant, inasmuch as the grant had reference to this which he should purchase; for it is not necessary that he should have the land at the time of the Mich. 15 Jac. B. R. between Gawen and Stacy, agreed per Curiam.] [5. So if a man bargains and fells Black-acre to B. and after, before the deed is inrolled, by another deed, grants a common to the said B. for all the cattle which should manure and feed in the faid Black-acre, and after the deed is involled, this shall be a good common appurtenant to the said Black-acre, though the grant bas no reference to the faid bargain and fale, inafmuch as the grantee had a possibility and inception of an estate, and an use in the said acre at the time of the grant, and it seems that this shall relate for the possession sufficiently to support this grant, for he need not have so full an interest in this land to annex the common to it. Mich. 15 Jac. B. R. between GAWEN AND STACY, adjudged per totam Curiam, upon a special verdict, and the court said it should be so without any help of relation.]

[6. If

[6. If a man grants to B. common for all his cattle which manure Blackacre, where he has nothing in Blackacre, and after he purchases it, this shall be a good common appurtenant to this acre, though he had nothing in it at the time, nor the grant hath reference to any purchase after, for this shall be a good grant upon a contingent, scilicet, if he purchases the land; so that this is as much as if he had faid, that he should have the common quandocunque he shall Mich. 15 Jac. B. R. between GAWEN AND have the land. STACY, per Curiam, and the principal case was adjudged upon this reason. (But quere, inasmuch as the grant had no reference to a future purchase.)]

Cro.C.482. adjudged accordingly, afterwards only part of the land was conveyed by the grantee of the crown to the denot the intire, yet it is common appurtenant as common for the beafts levant and couchant upon the said tene-

[7. In 2 H. 4. A. was seised in fee of a waste called Wittenballpl. 5. S. C. Heath in C. and the prior of Stone was seised in fee of certain mefsuages, lands, meadow, and pasture in S. and they being so seised, and though A. by deed dated 2 H. 4. grants to the said prior and convent common of pasture, pro se & omnibus tenentibus suis in S. prædict' (scilicet, Stallington in comitatu Staffordiæ) cum omnimedis animalibus suis omni tempore anni in Wittenhall-Heath prad' habend' to them and their fuccessors, and tenants in fee, this is a common appurtenant to the said land which the prior had in S. aforesaid, for this cannot be a sendant, and common sans number, and therefore ought to be interpreted a common appurtenant to the said land by a reasonable construction, inasmuch as it is granted for him and his fucceffors and tenants there, which refers to the land. Mich. 13 Car. B. R. between Sache-VEREL AND PORTER, per totam Curiam, adjudged without difficulty upon a special verdict. Intratur, Trin. 11 Car. Rot. 324. though it was objected by myself, that it is not found that by usage it had been so interpreted after the grant.]

ments, and may well pass with them by the words cum pertinenties; and though it be common created within time of memory, yet it is common appurtenant; and may be apportioned. ——— Jo. 396.

pl. 5. S. C. adjudged.

[8. If a man grants to another quandam affartam cum communia. Fitzh. Af-Me, pl. 134. turbaria quantum pertinet ad duas bovatas terra cum pertinentiis cites S. C. in D. this is a common in gross, being a grant de novo, not by prescription, and not appurtenant to the said assart. 5 Ass. 9. adjudged.]

9. Common for all manner of beafts is common appurtenant.

Br. Common, pl. 13. cites 37 H. 6. 34.

10. Common appurtenant may be made at this day, and may be [591] fevered from the land to which it is appurtenant. Br. Common, pl. 1. cites 26 H. 8. 4.

> 11. If a man grants common appurtenant to such a close, it is good, and shall pass by grant of the close; for common appurtenant may be created at this day. 2 Sid. 87. Trin. 1658. B. R. in case of Pretty v. Butler.

Common Appurtenant. How it may be. Fol. 301. [And for what Cattle.]

[1. ]F a man prescribes to have common of eflovers to his freehold, A prescrip. scilicet, a house, he cannot prescribe to sell the wood, for this cannot be appurtenant. 11 H. 6. 11. b.]

tion to take estovers for the building of new houses, as well as to repair old houses, was held good by all the court, præter Williams, who said, that then the defendant might cut down all the wood and destroy it; but, notwithstanding, it was adjudged for the defendant. Cro. J. 25. pl. 1. Pasch. 2 Jae. B. R. Arundel (Countris of ) v. Steere.

[2. A man may prescribe to have common appurtenant to a manor for all manner of cattle. 14 H. 6. 6. b. It seems to be intended of common appurtenant; but there this is called append- Fitzh. Trefant, which cannot be.]

Br. Common, pl. 14. cites S. C. país, pl. 33. cites S.C._

A man prescribed to have common appendant for all manner of beasts, and it was held that it could not be common appendant, because that is only for those cattle which manure his lands. F. N. B. 180. (B) in marg. of the new edition [419] cites 9 E. 4. 3. 37 H. 6. 34. and 14 H. 6. 6. but it is common appurtenant, Old N. B. 26.

[3. So a man may prescribe to have common appurtenant to his Br. Comfreehold for all manner of cattle. 25 Ass. 8. But this is there called appendant, but it feems to be intended appurtenant.]

mon, pl. 43. (41) cites S. C. but S. P. does

[4. A man may prescribe that he, and all those whose estate Cro. C. 432. he hath in the manor of D. have used to have a fold-course, scilicet, common of pasture for sheep, not exceeding 300, in a field, (scilicet, Canefield, as the case was in Norfolk,) as appurtenant to the said manor, though he does not prescribe to have them levant and couchant upon the said manor, there being a certain number limited. Mich. 11 Car. B. R. between Day and Spooner, in a writ of error, agreed per Curiam. Intratur Mich. 6 Car. Rot. 183. and Hill. 11 Car. adjudged accordingly.]

not appear. pl. 2. Spooner v. Day, S. C. but S. P. does not appear. - Jo. 375. pl. i. S. C. but S. P. does not appear. ___It was ruled by Holt Ch. J.

at Dorchester Lent-assises, 10 W. 3. at a trial at nisi prius, that if a man prescribes for common for a certain number of cattle as appurtenant, &cc. it is not necessary not material to shew that they were levant and courbant, because it is no prejudice to the owner of the soil, for that the number is ascertained. Ld. Raym. Rep. 726. Richards v. Squibb.

[5. A man may prescribe to have common appurtenant for Br. Comhis cattle not commonable, as hogs, goats, and such like. Co. cites 37 H.6. Litt. 122.] 34. S. P. Scapi. 10.

[6. [So] a man may prescribe to have common appurtenant to Br. Comhis freehold for all manner of cattle, at every season in the year. mon, pl. 42. (41) Cites Ass. 8. adjudged.] S.C. & S.P. as to all manner of cattle; but says nothing as to every season of the year,

[7. A man may prescribe to have common appurtenant for hogs See pl. 5. Levant and couchant upon such land. Mich. 5 Jac. B. per Curiam.]

Thid. in S. A man may claim common ratione mesuagii; but it seems it share of the share edition (419) eites it as admit-beafts levant and couchant than otherwise.

As if at this 9. Common appurtenant to a manor may be for cattle withday a man grants to one grants to one sormon of by prescription, or by grant made since time of memory, and that estovers, or as well for cattle certain as without number. F. N. B. 180, fee-simple to barn in bis maner, by that grant it is appurtenant to the manor, and if he make a scoffment of the manor, the common shall pass to the feoffee. F. N. B. 181. (N).

And fo if he grant to a man and his heirs common as appurtenant to his manor of F. to common in facts a moor, &c. now by that grant the grantee shall have the common appurtenant to his manor, and if he make a feoffment in fee or for life of the manor, the seoffee or lessee shall have the common. F. N. B. 181. (N).

See pl. 5.

10. A man cannot claim common appurtenant for bogs or goats, because they are not commonable beasts. D. 70. b. pl. 39. Trin. 16 E. 6. Withers v. Isham.

Ow. 4.

Wakefield's is claimed by prescription. 2 Le. 44. pl. 58. Trin. 30 Eliz. agreed accordingly.

Godb. 96. pl. 110. S. C. adjudged. ——And. 151. pl. 200. S. C. adjudged. ——Goldh. 38. pl. 13. S. C. adjudged. ——Sav. 81. Wakefield v. Cottard, S. C. ——But if the house of a freeholder, which hath used to have common for beafts levant and couchant, falls down, and he crests a new house in another place of the land, he shall have common to the new-crested house as he had before; and took a difference betwixt the case of estovers, where a new chimney is crested, and this case. Arg. 2 Le. 44. in pl. 58. Trin. 30 Eliz. C. B. ——Godb. 97. in pl. 210.

Ibid says

12. Burgagers in a borough may have common appurtenant to it was so held after so.
their burgages by prescription. Held upon demurrer. Sid. 462.
veral amend. pl. 4. Trin. 22 Car. 2. B. R. Miller v. Walker.
ments in case of the corporation of Derby, between Miller v. Spateman.——See tit. Prescription (Y) pl. 3. S. C.

[ 593 ] 13. It was ruled by Holt Ch. J. at Winchester Lent-assistes, 10 W. 3. that a man cannot prescribe for common appurtenant to a farm, because it is uncertain of what a farm consists, perhaps of 10 acres, or of 100 acres; but the prescription ought to be laid to a messuage.

a messuage, and so many acres of land. But if there is an ancient farm, and the same lands always occupied with it, a man may have common of pasture to depasture his cattle tilling that farm. Ld. Raym. Rep. 726. Hockley v. Lamb.

Common Appurtenant. The User. shall be used. With what Cattle.

II. HE that hath common appurtenant cannot agift the cattle of S. P. nor can he agift a ftranger. 30 E. 3. 27.] with hisown cattle if they are levant and conchant upon some other land than that to which he hath common appurtenant. Skinn. 137, 138. pl. 8. Mich. 35 Car. 2. B. R. Molliton v. Trevillian.

[2. He that hath common appurtenant may borrow fleep of ano- Br. Comther to compester his land, and with these he may use the common. 14 H. 6. 6. b. It feems it is intended common appurtenant, and menthough it is called appendant.]

mon, pl. 144 cites S. C. tions appendant.---

Fitzh. Trespass, pl. 33. cites S. C. _____S. P. of cattle borrowed to compester his land; for he has a special property in them, and so are said his cattle, Arg. and of this opinion was the court. Skin. 138. pl. 8. Mich. 35 Car. 2. B.R.

[3. A man may use common appurtenant to his manor with Br. Comeattle which are for his houshold. 14 H. 6. 6. b. The book is of common appendant; but it seems to be intended by the book ap- s. P. adpurtenant.]

mon, pl. 14cites S. C. & mitted.

[4. But he cannot use the common with cattle which are to fell. Br. Com-14 H. 6. 6. b. as it feems the book is intended.]

mon, pl. 14. cites S. C.

(N. 2) Common Appurtenant Pleadings.

1. TRespass of grass trampled in D. Chaunt. said actio non, for T. was seised of the manor of D. in see, and that he and all those whose estate he has in the manor, have had common in the place where, &c. with all manner of beasts appurtenant, and that the place extended to such place, &c. and after T. leased the manor with the appurtenances to the defendant for 10 years, &c. and after he borrowed sheep to compester his land, and put them in to use his common as he lawfully might; the plaintiff said that he had common there for all beasts except sheep and bogs, and no plea by award of court, by which he faid that he had common there for all beasts except sheep and hogs absque boc, that he had common with all manner of beafts time out of mind, modo & forme prout, &c. and note, that the reason why he pleaded that he borrowed beasts to compester the land, is because that termor cannot put any beasts in the common but those which he had to manure his land, or for his houshold, and not for sale. Br. Common, pl. 14. cites [ 594 ] 14 H. 6. 6.

2. Assise of common, and the plaint is of common appurtenant to bis franktenement in D. and shewed for title that be was seised of a messuage messuage and of a carve of land in D. to which the common is appurtenant, and that he and his ancestors, and those whose estate, &c. had used common of pasture with 10 beasts, and well by these words ( was seised ) as well as if he had said (is seised); per Hussey. Br. Common, pl. 54. cites 16 H. 7. 12.

Brown!. 150. Morfe v. Wells, S. C. but S. P. does not appear. --- 2 Brown!.

3. When the prescription is for common appurtenant to land, without alleging that it is for cattle levant and couchant; there a certain number of the cattle ought to be expressed, which are intended by the law to be levant and couchant; resolved. 13 Rep. 65, 66. Hill. 7 Jac. C. B. Morse v. Webb.

See more of this at the divisions of Pleadings at the end of this e97. S. C. title of Common.

Common in Gross. How it may begin.

[1. Common appendant cannot be made common in gross; for If a man has a way to his this is for cattle levant and couchant upon the land to manor or which, &c. and therefore it cannot be severed without extinbouse by prescription, guishment. 9 E. 4. 39. 26 H. 8. 3.] this cannot be made in gross, because it is appendent to the manor or house; but common appurtenant, or a king's highway, or an advowson appendant, may be made in gross; but common of estovers to burn in such a house cannot be made in gross, nor common appendant which is by reason of the tenement, &c. Br. Common, pl. 28. cites 5 H. 7. 7. by Fairfax J. pro lege. — Patturage claimed for sheep ievant and southant upon the defendant's land is common appendant, and cannot be severed from the soil by grant. Cro. C. 542, 543. pl. 7. Pasch. 15 Car. B. R. Arg. cites 4 H. 6. 13. & 8 E. 4.

[2. So common appurtenant for cattle levant and couchant upon the land, cannot be made in gross for the aforesaid cause. Nevil, Fol. 402. 384. 19 H. 6. 33. b. Pasch. I Jac. B. between Drury and Rant Cro. J. 15. pl. 19. Dru- adjudged. Contra, 26 H. 8. 4.]

ry v. Kent, S. C. adjudged that he could not grant it over, because he had it quisi sub modo, viz. for beats levant, &c. but common appurtenant for beafts certain may be granted over-

Cro. C. 432. pl. 2. Spooner v. Day, S. C. adjudged in C. B. and affirmed in error in B. R. — Jo. 375. pl. 1. S. C. the court held that this being common appurtenant, may be severed from the manor, efpecially when it is granted with parcel of the [3. If A. and all those whose estate he hath in the manor of D. bove bad time out of mind a foldcourse, viz. common of pasture for any number of sheep not exceeding 300, in a certain field as appurtenant to the said manor, he may grant over his foldcourse to another, and so make it in gross, because the common is for a certain number, and by the prescription the sheep are not to be levant and couchant upon the manor; but it is a common for so many sheep appurtenant to the manor, which may be severed from the manor as well as an advortion, without any prejudice to the owner of the land where the common is to be taken. Mich. 11 Car. B. R. between DAY AND SPOONER, in a writ of error upon a judgment in B. R. per Curiam, præter Berkly, who seemed to doubt of this. Intratur Mich. 6 Car. Rot. 183. But there the case was, whether it might be granted over with parcel of the manor, and so should be appurtenant to this parcel, and so it is adjudged in Banco, that it should pass as appurtenant to this parcel, and so held per Curiam in B. R. præter Berkly, who doubted of this, but afterwards Hill. 11 Cat.

tr Car. it was so adjudged by the consent of Berkly and all the manor; and court; and judgment affirmed accordingly.]

for a certain number of theep, viz. 300, the party may grant 250 to one, and reserve 50 to himself well enough, and affirmed the judgment in C. B.

4. If a man has a way to his manor or house by prescription, this cannot be made in gross, because it is appendant to the manor or house, but common appurtenant, king's highway, or advowson appendant may be made in gross, but common of estovers to be burnt in such house cannot be made in gross nor common appendant, which is by reason of the tenement. Br. Common, pl. 28. cites 5 H. 7. 7.

5. Common appurtenant and in gross may be by prescription, or may commence at this day by grant; per Wray Ch. J. 4 Rep. 38. a. b. Mich. 26 & 27 Eliz. B. R. in Tirringham's case.

(P) For what Cattle.

[1. A Man may prescribe to have it for all manner of cattle. 15 E. 4. 33.]

[2. The grantee of common for a certain number of cattle can- F. N. B. not common with the cattle of a stranger. 18 E. 4. 14. b.]

3. A man may prescribe to have common for all manner of beasts very well, by reason of his person, &c. per Pigot. Br. Prescription, pl. 28. cites 15 E. 4. 32.

4. A general licence ad ponenda averia shall be intended only of commonable cattle, and not of hogs; sed contra, if the licence had been only for a particular time; per North Ch. J. and it was admitted. 2 Mod. 7. Hill. 26 & 27 Car. 2. in C. B. in case of Smith & Feverel.

(Q) By the Cattle of whom.

[1. IF a commoner hath no cattle, he cannot agift the cattle of *Br. Seifing others to use the common. *45 E. 3. 25. b. Curia. †22 pl. 5. cites S. C.

Ass. B4.]

(K) cites S. C.—He that has common by specialty cannot agist the beafts of others. Br. Common relationships of sites S. C.—Br. Common relationships of sites S. C.—He that has common by specialty cannot agist the beafts of others. Br. Common relationships of sites S. C.—Br. Common rel

mon, pl. 5. cites S. C.

† Br. Common, pl. 41. (40) cites S. C.—Fitzh. Affise, pl. 228. cites S. C.

[2. So he cannot command his tenants at will to use it with $\frac{1}{2} \text{Br. Com-their cattle in his name. $\frac{1}{45}$ \text{E. 3. 25. b. } $\frac{1}{22}$ Ass. $\frac{1}{2}$ A pl. 5. cites S. C. § Br. Common, pl. 41. (40) cites S. C. but the borrowing them in order to manure his land is not sufficient, unless he manures in fact with them.———Fitzh. Affise, pl. 228. cites S. C.

[3. But if he borrows other cattle to manure his land, he may use | Br. Comthe common with them, for they are in a manner his cattle by the cites S. C. borrowing,

Common.

Seisin, pl. 5. to have common. | 45 E. 3. 25. b. ¶ 22 Ass. 84.]

Br. Common, pl. 41. (40.) cites S. C. but the borrowing them in order to manure his land is not sufficient, un!ess he manures in fact with them.——Fitzh. Assis, pl. 228. cites S. C.

Br. Common, pl. 48.

(47.) cites
S. C. — Titch Com

* [4. So he that hath common in gross for a certain number of cattle may put in the cattle of a stranger, and use the common with them.

11 H. 6. 22. b.]

Fitzh. Common, pl. 3. cites S. C.——F. N. B. 180. (B) S. P.

Br. Com[5. So he that hath common in gross fans number, may put in mon, pl. 48.
(47) cites
[5. So he that hath common in gross fans number, may put in the cattle of another man, and use the common with them. II

S. C. — H. 6. 22. b.]

Fitzlik Common, pl. 3. cites S. C.——F. N. B. 180. (B) S. P.

(R) Common in Gross. What shall be said Common in Gross.

Fol. 403.

Fol. 403.

Fol. 403.

This (*) is common appendant to this place, and not in gross.

Br. Components of this ancestors claimed the common to be in gross among the commoners, but if they had used it with such beasts so levant and couchant, and with other beasts coming, acc. then it shall be taken as in gross.

Fitzh. Common, pl. 19. cites S. C. and by their claiming it as in gross always among the commoners, their claim is known, which otherwise it would not have been, &c.

2. If one grants to J. S. 8 acres of land, simul cum so much common as belongs to his oxgange of land in a certain place, this is not common appurtenant, but in gross; per Herle. F. N. B. 180, 181. (N) in the new notes there (c) cites 7 E. 3. 48.

3. But see there it is adjudged, if one grants an affart simul cum tota communia quant' pertinet ad unam bovatam terra, this is common in gross, and he shall take as much as another takes for a bovates or oxganges in gross, and when he pleases, because such common cannot be appendent to land. F. N. B. 181. (N) in the new notes there (c).

4. If a man grants common to the mayor and burgesses for all their cattle in such a place, it is good, and in gross, and not appurtenant; per Cur. 2 Lev. 246. Hill. 30 & 31 Car. 2. B. R. in case of Stables v. Mellon.

(S) Common in Gross. What shall be a good Grant.

Br. Grants, [I.] F I grant common to another for years, and do not depl. 5. cites o H. 6. S.P. clare in what place he shall have it, this is void. 9 H. 6. 36.] by Paston, quod non negatur.

[2. If a man grants to another common, ubicunque averia fua Br. Grants, ierint, this is a good grant, by averment in what place his cattle fed a the time of the grant, before or after. 9 H. 6. 36.]

pl. 5. cites 9 H. 6. -Br. Common, pl. 3.

cites 9 H. 6. 36. but S. P. does not appear.—Fitzh. Common, pl. 2. cites S. C.—S. P. Arg. Roll. Rep. 427. in pl. 16.

*[3. But without such averment this is not good grant. 9 H.6. 36.] [4. If I grant common to another in my land every year, and it lies fresh, this is good, though it be at my will, whether he shall have any profit, for I may sow it. 17 E. 3. [34. b.]

Br. Grants, pl. 5. cites S.C. & S.P. per Cur.

[5. If A. grants common to B. in certain land, for all his cattle which shall be levant and couchant upon Black-acre, where B. hath nothing in Black-acre, so that it cannot be appurtenant, yet this fball not be a common in gross, because the intention and limitation of the grant is to cattle levant and couchant. Trin. 15 Jac. B. R. between GAWEN AND STACY, agreed at the bar.]

Roll. Rep. 424. pl. 16. Trin. 14 Jac. S. C. A man bargained and fold lands by deed indented; and afterwards, but before involment of the deed, he granted to the bargainee and his heirs common for all commonable beafts manuring and feeding on the faid land beforementioned, and afterwards the derd was inrolled. The point was, whether this inrolment shall relate so as to make the grant of the common good? It was argued, fed adjornatur. ——— Godb. 270. pl. 377. Mich. 15 Jac. Ludlow v. Stacey, S. C. adjudged a good grant of the common, and the involment shall have relation, though for collateral things it shall not have relation.

[6. [So] if A. grants to B. common in certain lands for all his cattle which shall manure and feed in Black-acre, whereas B. has nothing in Black-acre, by which this cannot take effect as a common appurtenant; yet this shall not take effect as a common in gross, inasmuch as it is expressly limited to such cattle which manure and feed in the faid land.]

[7. But] Trin. 15 Jac. B. R. between GAWEN AND STACY, See pl. 5. the Court seemed e contra; but Mich. 15 Jac. they seemed to and the notes waive this opinion, and Croke held expressly e contra.]

[8. A man may grant to another common in one place for all manner of cattle, and in another place for 10 beafts; and so the grantee may put the 10 beafts in either of the two places. 17 E. 3. 34. b.]

9. If a man has common appurtenant to a messuage and lands for a certain number of beasts, he may alien the same; otherwise if he have common for all his beafts levant and couchant on such lands, he cannot alien this from the land; per Hale Ch. J. 2 Lev. 67. Mich. 24 Car. 2. B. R. in case of Daniel v. Hanslip.

Common in Gross upon a Grant. In what Place it shall be taken.

[1. ] F a man grants to me common for my cattle, ubicunque Br. Comaveria sua ierint, if the cattle of the grantor did never feed mon, pl. 3. cites S. C. in any place before the grant, or at the time of the grant, or after, but is only a reference to the grantee shall have no benefit by the grant. 9 H. 6. 36.] Br. Grants, pl. 5. which cites 9 H. 6. that if after the grant the grantor has no beafts, the grantee in such case shall not have common. Pcrk. 109. S.-P. only the (ubicunque) in the original in sol. 23. a. is wrong translated in the English edition (whensoever.)

VOL. IV. 2. [But]

• Orig, is (bat cco.)

Common.

Br. Grants,
pl. 5. cites
9 H. 6. S. P. accordingly.

Common,
pl. 3. cites
pl. 5. cites
averia sua ierint, and after he occupies and manures 100 acres of land with his cattle, and after he becomes so poor that he bath no cattle, yet the grantee shall have the common in the 100 acres. 9 H. 6. 36.

Curia.

S. C. but it is only a reference to Br. Grants, pl. 5.

[3. [Sa] if a man grants a common to me for my cattle ubicunque averia sua ierint, if the grantor at the time of the grant, or after, feeds his cattle in any place, the grantee may have common there also. 9 H. 6. 36.]

Br. Com[4. [And] upon such grant of common ubicunque averia of mon, pl. 3. the grantor ierint; if the grantor puts his cattle in his garden, or but for the in his corn, the grantee may put his cattle there also, 9 H. 6. fors to Br.

Grants, pl. 5. which cites 9 H. 6. S. P. by Babbington accordingly.

[5. [But] if the grant be of common ubicunque averia sua ierint, and the grantor dies; quere, whether the grantee shall have common after his death, 9 H, 6, 36.]

Br. Grants, [6. If one man grants common to another for all his cattle pl. 5. cites throughout his manor, yet he cannot common in the garden of the by Babbing- grantor parcel of the manor, but only in such places where a man ton.

Ton. of common right ought to common, 9 H, 6, 36,] grant is not any restraint to the wastes or commons, but the grantee may claim common, in any part of the manor, without pleading that it was waste or common. Agreed by Croke and Berkley, certain justiciariis absentibus, and judgment accordingly. Cro. C. 599. pl. 20. Mich. 16 Car. B. R. Stringer's case.

7. Note, per Fitzherbert, there is a diversity between common for certain beasts, and pasture for his beasts; for if I grant to you pasture for certain beasts in my manor, I shall appoint you watere you shall have it; but if I grant to you common for certain beasts in my manor, you shall * bave it per my & per tout, and it was agreed that [præcipe] quod reddat lies of pasture for two oxen, but e contra clearly per Fitzh. of common for two beasts, because by him [præcipe] quod reddat never lies of common, Br. Common, pl. 2. cites 27 H. 8. 12.

8. If a man grants certain lands to one com communia in omnibus terris suis, &c. and does not express any place certain, he shall have common in all his lands which he had at the time of the grant, F. N. B. 180, (G),

Common in Gross by Grant In what Time it is to be taken.

[1. IF a man grants common to me quandocunque averia fua Fitzh. ierint, the grantee shall not have common, but when the Common, but when the cattle of the grantor are in the common. 9 H. 6. 36. Curia.]

Common, pl. 2. cites S. C.—— Perk. f. 10g.

- S. P. and cites S. C. ____So that if afterwards the grantor has no heafts, the grantee shall not have gommon; per Martin, quod fuit concessium. Br. Grants, pl. 5. vites 9 H. 6. ---- S. C. cited by Hobart Ch. J. that if the grantor employs the land to tillage, or lets it lie fresh, the grantee has no remedy, and says that so is the book of 17 E. 3. 26. Hob. 40. in pl. 47. ____S. C. cited Cro. C. 599. in pl. 20. and Berkley J. faid, that the clause of quandocunque averia sua ierint is void, because it restrains all the effect of the grant; for if the grantor will not put his cattle in, the grantee shall never have his common; but Crooke J. held the restraint good, because this is not a total restraint, & modus & conventio vincunt legem; and it is not intendible that the grantor would totally forbear to put donationis, and the grantee shall not have common but in this manner.
- 2. Where a man grants common for 10 beasts a year in D. and he does not take common by two years, he shall not put in 30 beasts the 3d year, and so of estovers, fuel, hay, &c. Br. Common, cites S. C. pl. 4. cites 27 H. 6, 10,

[ 599 ] Br. Parnour de Profits, &c. pl. 2. -Fitzb. Common, pl. 6. cites S. C.— Br. Grants, pl. 8. cites 8. C.

Common. Seisin.

[1. A Tortious user of common cannot put him in seisin. Ed. 3. 25. b. 26. 22 Ass. 84.]

[2. As, the commoner cannot gain seisin by cattle which he Br. Comagists, for such user is not lawful. # 45 E. 3. 25. b. + 22 Ast. 84. mon, pl. 25. cites S. C. Curia.] ⊸Br. Seifin, pl. 5.

+ Br. Common, pl. 41. (40.) cites S. C .- Fitzh. Affise, pl. 228. cites S. C. cites S. C.

[3. So, he cannot gain seisin by the user of his tenants at will, $\frac{1}{2}$ Br. Combeing his servants, with their cattle by his command in his name; cites S. C. mon, pl. 5. for their user with their cattle is tortious. ‡ 45 E. 3. 25. b. -----Br. Seifin, pl. 5. § 22 Asf. 84. same case.]

§ Br. Common, pl. 41. (40.) cites S. C.——Fitzh. Assis, pl. 228. cites S. C.——The user of common by tenants at will shall be a seisin to him in reversion to have an assiste, if he or his tenant at will be after disturbed to use the common. F. N. B. 180. (1).

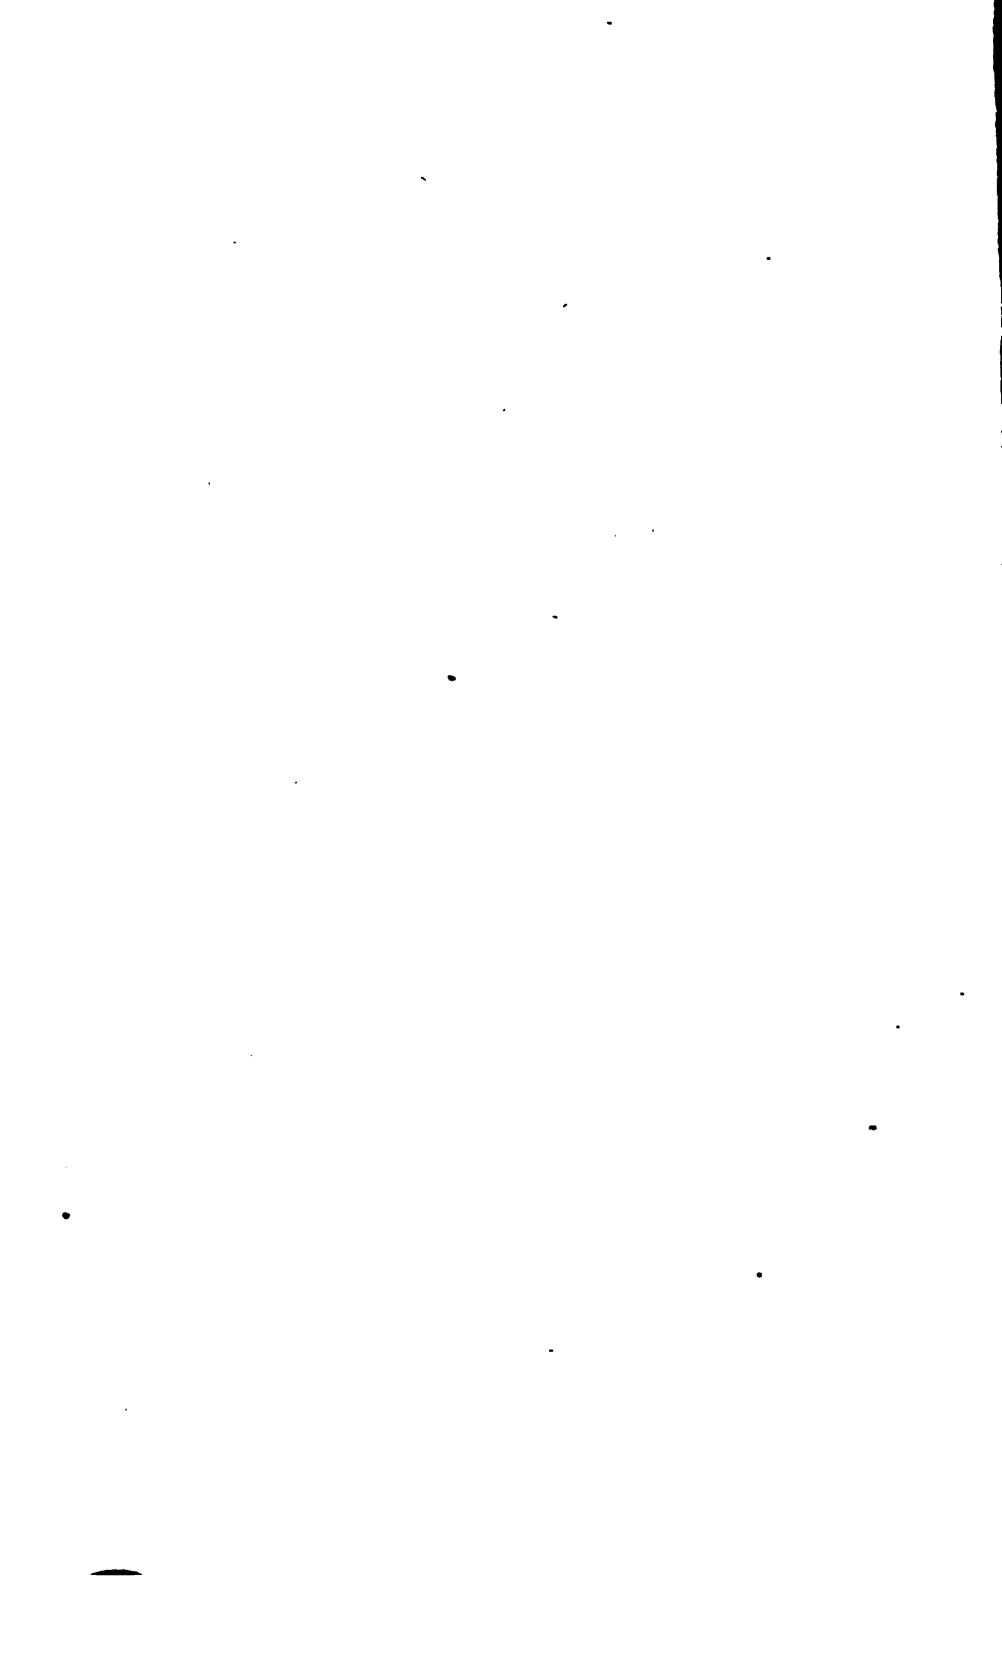

[4. But if the commoner hath no cattle, and so takes the cattle | Br. Seifin, of another, and the tertenant delivers seisin to the commoner, and is present when the cattle are put in, and he assents to the user and by Thorpe, putting in, or commands him so to do; this is a good seisin. 1 45 E. 3. 26. 22 Ass. 84. per Thorpe.]

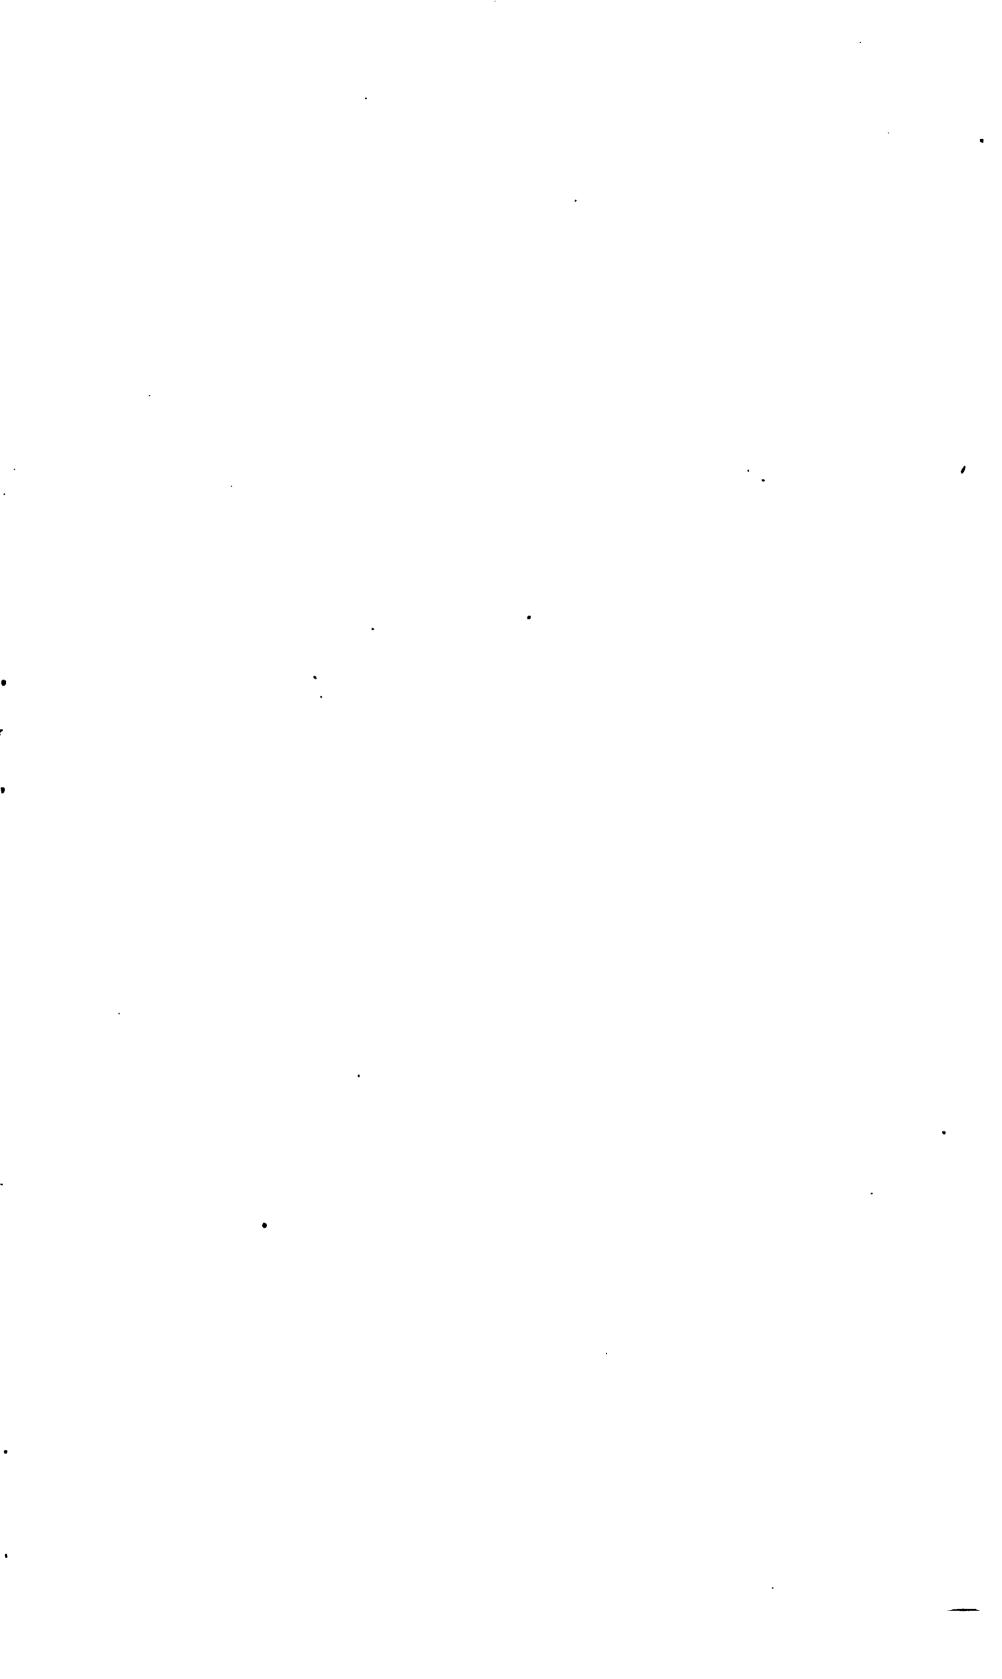

pl. 36. cites S.C. & S.P.

[5. So if the commoner hath no cattle, he may take seisin by the cattle of another, and chase them back presently; for the continuance is tortious, and this is a good feisin. ¶ 45 E. 3. 26. per Thorpe; but Bro. Commoner, ¶ 51. [says] quære of this, and

Fr. Common, pl. 5. cites S. C. & S. P. by Thorpe, and Brooke

.

•

•

.

•

•

